STATEMENT OF COMPLIANCE WITH FEDERAL LAW

The Kentucky Department of Education complies with all federal laws and regulations prohibiting discrimination and with all requirements of the U.S. Department of Education and U.S. Department of Agriculture.

Compliance With Title IX

What Title IX is: Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 prohibits discrimination based on sex in education programs and activities that receive federal financial assistance.

Title IX states: "No person in the U.S. shall, on the basis of sex be excluded from participation in, or denied the benefits of, or be subject to discrimination under any educational program or activity receiving federal aid."

The Kentucky Department of Education (KDE) is in compliance with Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, as amended, 20 U.S.C. 1681 et seq. (Title IX), and its implementing regulation, at 34 C.F.R. Part 106, which prohibits discrimination based on sex. The KDE, as a recipient of federal financial assistance from the United States Department of Education (USDOE), is subject to the provisions of Title IX. KDE does not discriminate based on gender in employment or in any educational program or activity that it operates.
