Back by popular demand!

SESC

Southeast/South-Central Educational Cooperative

Assertive Discipline Workshop

Assertive Discipline—the gold standard in classroom management!

For the fourth consecutive year, SESC presents a full-day workshop on Lee Canter's Assertive Discipline, the gold standard in classroom management! Workshop topics include:

- Prevent classroom behavior problems
- Teach students how to behave throughout the school day
- Positively recognize positive student behavior
- Prevent escalation of problem behaviors
- Reach defiant, challenging, and unresponsive students
- Increase student success, self-esteem, and engagement
- Create a positive classroom environment

Registration	September 12, 2017	Cost
CIITS Users—sesc012_18 Non-CIITS users contact Johnda Bales listed below.	8:15 a.m.—3:00 p.m. 222 Corbin Center Drive Corbin, KY	General Coop Members—$100 per person All others—$150 per person

Registration deadline is Friday, August 25. $10 late fee will be assessed after deadline. Each participant will receive a box lunch and a copy of Assertive Discipline by Canter.

Facilitator Information: Dr. Carolyn Reedom served as an administrator for the Clark County School District in Las Vegas, Nevada where she led schools to high levels of academic growth and achievement. Noted as an expert in classroom management, Dr. Reedom has received numerous awards and currently serves as an adjunct professor at the University of Nevada-Las Vegas.

Questions?

Registration/Payment—johnda.bales@sesccoop.org or 859-575-1617

Program—david.johnson@sesccoop.org or 606-273-0883