The Road to Rank Change in Kentucky

Even though individual school districts establish teacher pay scales, under Kentucky Revised Statute 161.1211, districts are required to differentiate pay for teachers based on both years of experience and "rank." The majority of new teachers in Kentucky enter the profession as Rank III after completing a bachelor's degree and earning a teaching certificate.