a. They settled all disagreements before ratifying the Constitution.

b. They did not agree to ratify the Constitution because of the compromise.

c. They agreed to ratify the Constitution because changes could be made.

Before beginning task administration, please ensure that all conditions specified in the administration protocol (starting on page 10 of the Administration Guide Overview and Attainment Task Administration) have been met. Inform the student that the task is about to start by saying, “We are about to start the task, and I am going to ask you some questions.”

All questions from this task are available for presentation to the student in the supplemental material Social Studies 5 C Attainment Task Questions for Student Use.

“Carly is studying U.S. culture. She notices culture changes over time. She explores the relationship between American Indians and the early settlers.”

5. “Allowing amendments to the Constitution is considered a compromise of the founding fathers. How did this compromise impact the ratification of the Constitution?”

Response Option	Response Rationale
a. They settled all disagreements before ratifying the Constitution.	The student identifies that the Constitution was ratified but does not identify the compromise that led to its ratification.
b. They did not agree to ratify the Constitution because of the compromise.	The student incorrectly indicates that they were unable to compromise and therefore did not ratify the Constitution.
c. They agreed to ratify the Constitution because changes could be made. (Correct)	The student demonstrates an understanding of compromise by identifying how allowing amendments led to the ratification of the Constitution.
