

Articulation Agreement

This articulation agreement (Agreement) is made by and between Sullivan University National Center for Hospitality Studies (NCHS) and the Kentucky Department of Education, College and Career Readiness Branch, on this 21st day of August, 2012.

Whereas, both parties desire by means of this Agreement to create educational opportunities for students who enroll in the University's NCHS program.

Whereas, the University agrees to accept for credit classes from the Family and Consumer Sciences Education Program covered by the Agreement for students completing classes in a locally-operated comprehensive high school or through a Career and Technical Center (CTC) or Area Technology Center (ATC) who wish to pursue an Associate of Science degree in Culinary Arts.

Whereas, this Agreement shall be deemed automatically renewable in successive two years term unless a change or update in the curriculum is warranted

Now, therefore, in consideration of the potential advantages occurring to the student(s) of each of the parties, the following conditions shall apply:

1. DIRECT CREDIT:

- The NCHS requires that the education provided by the Family and Consumer Sciences Education Program meets or exceeds the requirements for the National restaurant Association Educational Foundation Pro start Program and/or The American Culinary Federation in order to be consistent with the education, philosophy and requirements for Hospitality Studies
- The student should have earned a High School diploma with a minimum GPA of 2.0
- Have successfully completed a Culinary Arts career pathway and earned a certificate of completion from a Family and Consumer Sciences Program with a minimum GPA of 2.5 in order to be admitted into the National Center for Hospitality Studies
- Must have attended at least 90% of the Culinary Arts Program
- Must provide/produce a ServSafe certificate with a score of 80% or better. This certificate must be attained no more than two years prior to the date of admission to the NCHS program
- Official documentation of points one (1) through four (4) must be provided to the NCHS admissions no later than 30 days prior to the first day of class
- NCHS requires students to audit the class in which credits will be awarded

2. ARTICULATION:

- CAM134 Sanitation course, a total of four (4) Credit hours will be awarded
- Certain courses taught within the Culinary Arts career pathway may be of such level to be recognized as meeting the knowledge and skills of particular University NCHS courses
- Financial credit is applied to the student account upon successful completion in the second month of the graduating quarter of attendance at the University

This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties hereto with respect to the subject matter herein and supersedes any other agreements, restrictions, representations, if any.

IN WITNESS WHEREOFF, the parties hereto have caused this Agreement to be executed by their duly authorized representatives on the signature and date specified below.

Sullivan University

8/21/12

Dr. Eric Harter

Date

Executive Vice President and CEO

8/21/12

NCHS Program Director

Date

8/28/12

State Supervisor-Family & Consumer Sciences

Date