June 27 - 28, 2012

Over 75 Expert State and National Speakers!

Featuring: Mr. Mojo (Travis Brown), Marcia Tate, Dianna Browning-Wright, & Marlene Wong

Keynote: Mr. Mojo (Travis Brown)

Travis has just completed a National "Anti-Bullying Tour" which motivated students across the US to "Be a Difference-Maker" and use a positive 'MOJO' to stop the social epidemic of bullying. Learn ways to help students develop critical attitudes, leadership skills, and realistic ways to respond to daily situations they will face when taking a stand against bullying.

Marcia Tate, Ph.D.

Marcia Tate is a master teacher and a nationally sought educational consultant on brain-compatible learning strategies, based on brain research. Author of 5 best-sellers on strategies that engage the brain, Marcia models a variety of "hands-on" learning activities and reminds us that "Worksheets Don't Grow Dendrites!" Come and learn what does!

Dianna Browning-Wright, M.S., L.E.P.

Diana Browning-Wright is a nationally respected educational -behavioral consultant, psychologist and trainer, with years of leadership experience with students with challenging behaviors in Los Angeles Public Schools. Diana will offer detailed sessions on behavioral RTI and provide evidence-based strategies at each tier. In addition, she will share "Positive Interventions for Serious Behavior", "EBPs for Bullies", and "Strategies for Students with Internalizing Behavior Disorders".

Marleen Wong, MSW, Ph.D.

Dr. Wong is the Director of the Trauma Services Adaptation Center for Schools and the Director of Crisis Counseling and Intervention Services at the Los Angeles Unified School District. She shares empirically supported interventions to assist students experiencing trauma, whether resulting from military deployment, tornadoes, abuse & neglect, drugs, etc., and helps teachers and schools who have secondary trauma resulting from attempts to help their students.
