

Educating Children in Poverty ...
A Challenging Journey

2ND ANNUAL SESC POVERTY INSTITUTE

The SESC Educational Cooperative is pleased to offer the second annual Poverty Institute – “Educating Children in Poverty . . . A Challenging Journey”. You are invited to join us in a poverty simulation led by Dr. Kathleen Cooter of Bellarmine University and experience firsthand what it is like to live and try to survive in poverty. Participants will gain a personal understanding of poverty as well as explore and discuss strategies that districts and schools can utilize to positively impact students and families of poverty through the simulation, keynote address by Kentucky State University interim president Dr. Aaron Thompson, and various breakout sessions presented by high poverty districts and schools attaining high student achievement.
