TELL KENTUCKY EVENT

(FRANKFORT, Ky.) – Education Commissioner Terry Holliday and Madeline Abramson, wife of Lt. Governor Jerry Abramson, will provide an update on the 2013 Teaching, Empowering, Leading and Learning (TELL) Kentucky Survey on Wednesday, March 13, at 1:30 p.m. ET in the library at Collins Lane Elementary School in Frankfort. They will also draw for the first $1,000 participation prizes sponsored by the Kentucky Education Association, the Kentucky Association of School Administrators, the Kentucky Association of School Superintendents and the Kentucky School Boards Association.

Joining them will be Franklin County Schools superintendent Chrissy Jones, Collins Lane Elementary Principal Sharla Six, staff and students, Kentucky Education Association President Sharron Oxendine and representatives of the TELL Kentucky statewide coalition of partners.

The TELL Kentucky Survey, which runs March 4-29, gives the more than 50,000 school-based certified educators in the state the opportunity to provide feedback on the working conditions in Kentucky schools.

TELL Kentucky is conducted under the leadership of the Kentucky Department of Education and supported by a coalition of education organizations and partners:

- Governor Steve Beshear, Commonwealth of Kentucky
- Kentucky Board of Education
- Kentucky Department of Education
- Kentucky Education Professional Standards Board
- Kentucky Education Association
- Kentucky Association of School Councils
- Kentucky Association of School Administrators
- Jefferson County Teachers Association
- Kentucky PTA
- Kentucky Chamber of Commerce
- Kentucky School Boards Association
- Kentucky Association of School Superintendents
- Kentucky Council on Postsecondary Education
- Prichard Committee for Academic Excellence
