NEW APP PROVIDES INSTANT ACCESS TO EDUCATION INFORMATION

(Frankfort, KY.) – Android phone and tablet users now have a new app available that compiles content from the Kentucky Department of Education (KDE) to enhance communications on education-related matters across the state.

The free KDE News app is available through the Google Play Store at <https://play.google.com/store/apps/details?id=gov.ky.education.m.kdemobile>. The app is designed to provide users with immediate access to many items housed on the KDE website, including:

- Kentucky Teacher Magazine
- Messages to Superintendents and Teachers
- Headlines
- Education Commissioner Terry Holliday's Blog
- Videos
- Kentucky Education Technology System (KETS) Tech Tips
- Photo Gallery

This app is the latest in a line of technology products from KDE to help the agency share information and provide transparency. iPhone, iPad and iPod as well as Windows Phone versions were previously released and are also available. If you are a Windows Phone user, the app can be downloaded here. If you are an Apple user and haven't download this great app yet, it can be downloaded and installed from the App Store on iTunes.

The Kentucky Department of Education is a service agency of the Commonwealth of Kentucky. KDE provides resources and guidance to Kentucky's public schools and districts as they implement the state's P-12 education requirements. The department also serves as the state liaison for federal education requirements and funding opportunities.

KDE's mission is to prepare all Kentucky students for next-generation learning, work and citizenship by engaging schools, districts, families and communities through excellent leadership, service and support.
