READ TO ACHIEVE STEERING COMMITTEE TO MEET

(Frankfort, KY) – The Read to Achieve Steering Committee (RTA) will meet Wednesday, October 15 from 9 a.m. – noon ET in the first floor conference room of the Capital Plaza Tower in Frankfort.

Mandated by KRS 158.794, the Read to Achieve Steering Committee identifies needs, trends and issues in schools throughout the state regarding reading and literacy programs; makes recommendations regarding the content of administrative regulations to be disseminated by the Kentucky Board of Education under KRS 158.792; recommends approval of grant applications based upon the provisions of KRS 158.792 and administrative regulations circulated by the Kentucky Board of Education as required under KRS 158.792; and advises the Kentucky Board of Education and the Kentucky Department of Education regarding the costs and effectiveness of various reading intervention programs.

The RTA committee is comprised of 13 members: four primary program teachers with a background in reading and literacy, four university or college professors with a background in reading and literacy, one elementary school principal, one certified library media specialist and three individuals from the state at-large with an interest in reading and literacy.

A full agenda follows.
