

Cloze Procedure
Example

Atoms of different elements join together by means of _____ bonds to form compounds. A chemical bond can be formed in two ways. One of the ways involves the transfer of electrons between atoms. This transfer results in the formation of _____; an ionic bond results. Compounds formed this way are called _____ compounds.