KSIS Contact:

The information below was included in the Commissioner's Monday Message to superintendents.

Note: Only 80 districts have identified their Dual Credit Contact through the web application. Your district WAAPOC should update this role as soon as possible to allow dual credit communications to be sent directly to the contacts.

COMMISSIONER'S MONDAY MESSAGE
Monday – October 24, 2016

from Stephen L. Pruitt
Commissioner of Education

❖ Dual Credit Regional Training Sessions

Dual Credit Regional Training Sessions are coming to a location near you. Join us to learn more about implementation of dual credit programming in your school or district alongside partners from your region. Leave this session ready to make decisions about course offerings for the coming year and forge new partnerships with your postsecondary partners.

This training will allow participants to take an in-depth look at many topics related to dual credit, including:

- Evaluating dual credit options for the district;
- Establishing goals and setting priorities in programming;
- Ensuring teacher credentialing and supporting increased capacity; and
- Evaluating your district's dual credit programming (accessibility, quality of instructional programming, transferability of credit, finance).

Appropriate audiences for the training are Guidance Counselors, High School Principals, Instructional Supervisors, Superintendents, and other district decision makers involved with dual credit. Below are the dates and locations for this training. All sessions will be conducted on local times.

- November 2, 2016 – Western Kentucky University, Knicely Center, Bowling Green, KY 9:00-3:00
- November 10, 2016 – KDE's 300 Building, 300 Sower Blvd. Frankfort, KY 9:00-3:00
