

ENGAGING COMMUNITY STAKEHOLDERS IN THE CONTINUOUS PLANNING PROCESS

A PLAN FOR ENGAGING COMMUNITY STAKEHOLDERS IN YOUR PLANNING PROCESS

- Community stakeholders can be a vital contribution to a district or school's success. However, accomplishing this task presents certain logistical and other challenges.
- The following project is a suggestion on how to organize your district or school's planning process by including stakeholders in the creation of the improvement plan.

OVERVIEW OF THE PROJECT

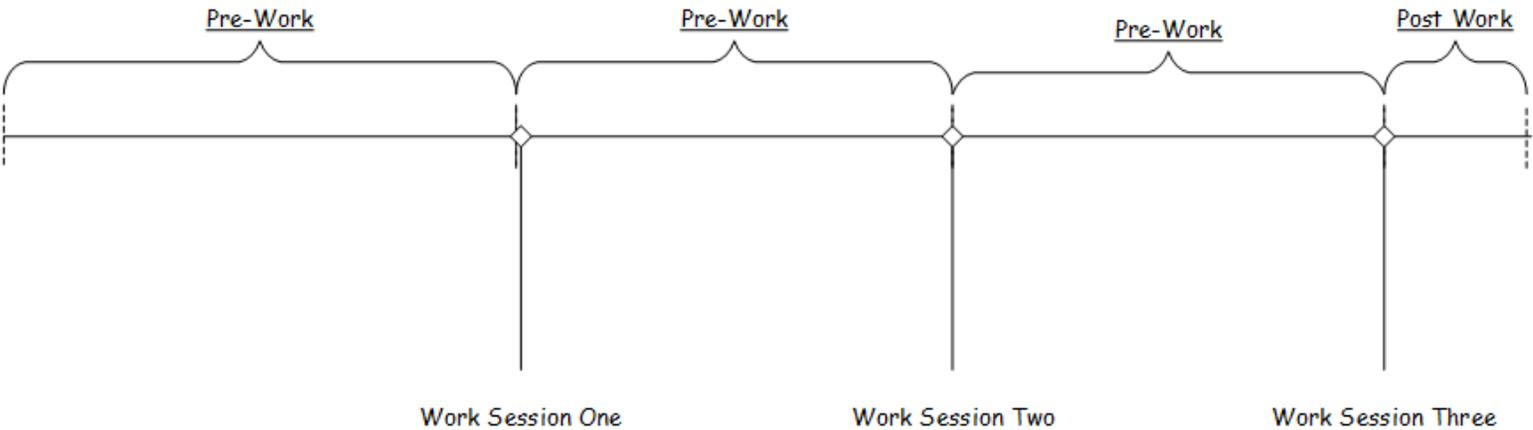

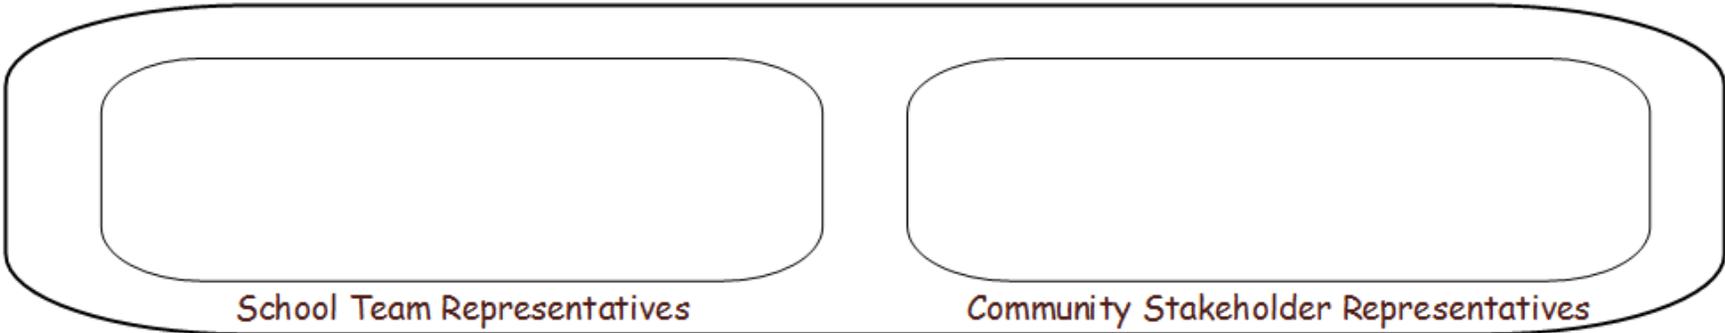

Phase 1: Data Analysis

Phase 2: Identify needs-based GOALS
(goals-objectives-strategies-activities)

Phase 3: Create action plan and monitoring plan

Phase 4: Implementation & Monitoring

Engaging Community Stakeholders in the Continuous Planning Process

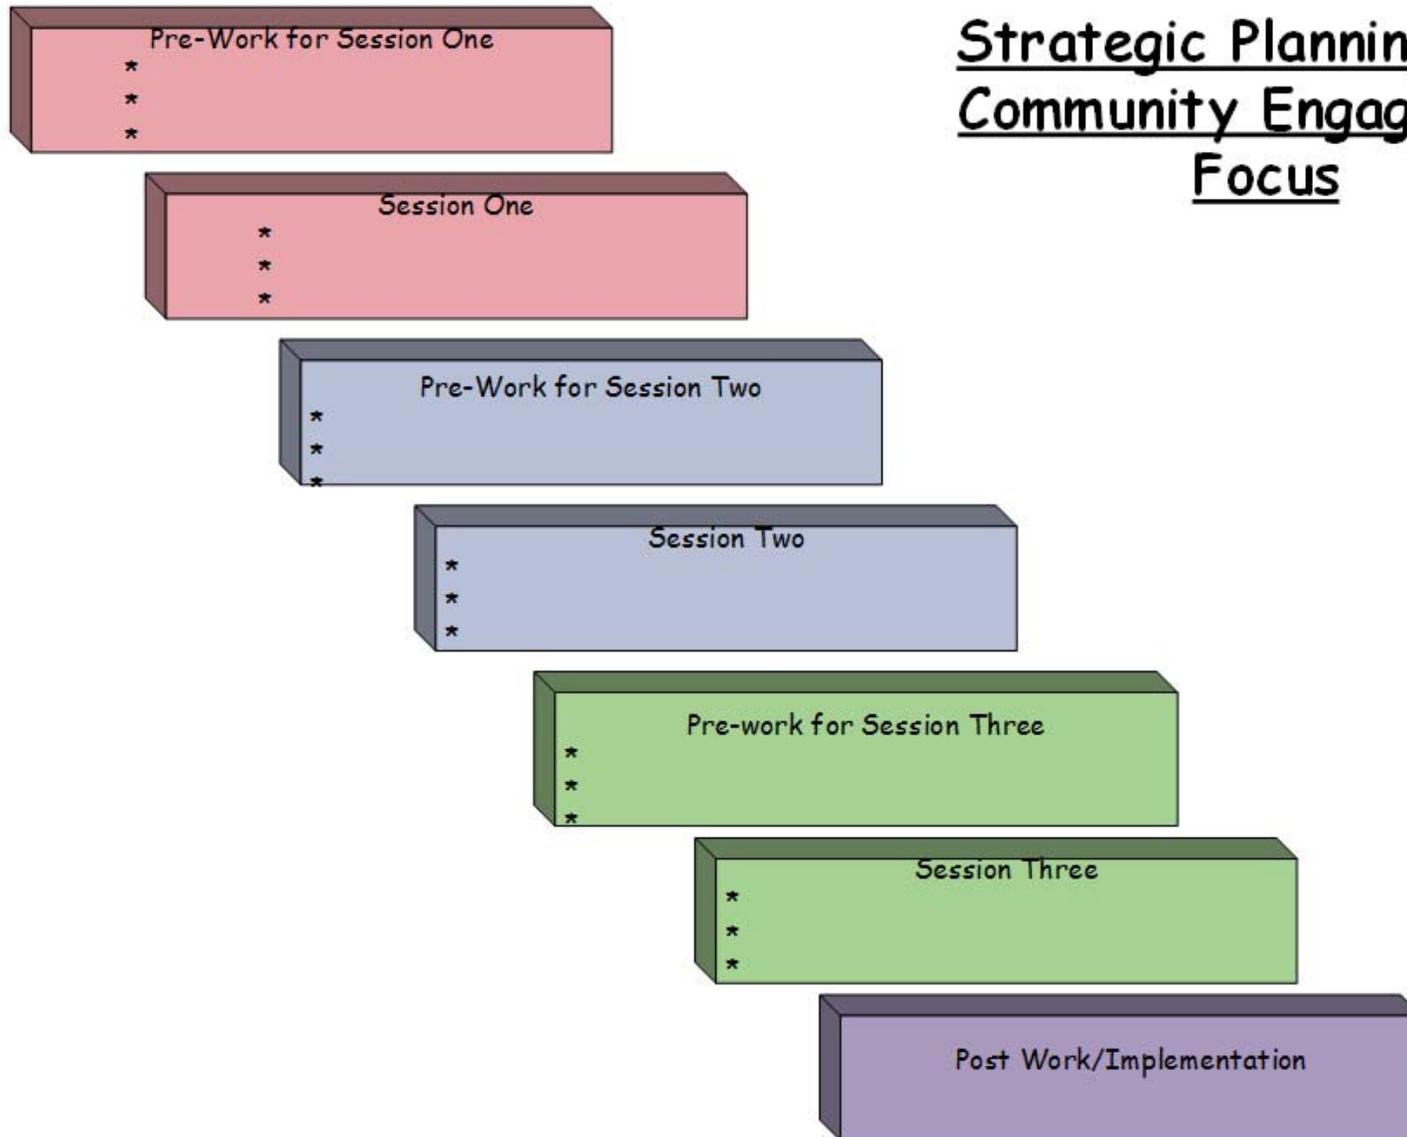

DETAILS FOR THIS PROJECT

A detailed outline for this project is available on our website:

Strategic Planning with Community Engagement Focus

Strategic Planning with Community Engagement Focus

STAKEHOLDER GROUPS TO CONSIDER FOR STRATEGIC PLANNING PARTNERS

- This is not an all encompassing list add or subtract to meet needs of your district, school, and community.
- Try to have 2 to 1 ratio of school members to community members.

STAKEHOLDER GROUPS TO CONSIDER FOR STRATEGIC PLANNING PARTNERS

- City Government
- Ministerial Association
- Higher Education
- Community Technical College
- Day Care
- Private Schools
- County Government
- Business Leaders
- Chamber of Commerce
- School District Parents
- Education Cooperative
- Community Groups (Kiwanis, Lyons Club)
- Adult Education
- Real Estate
- Banking
- Mental health community
- Health Care community
- Court system (Juvenile Justice, maybe)
- Social Services (Dept. of Community Based Services) – (strong leaders)
- Small Business reps
- Large community business reps
- Non-profit reps
- Media
- Law enforcement
- Workforce/Labor/Employment community

This group should include about 15 people

SCHOOL REPRESENTATIVES TO CONSIDER

Administrators (Central Office & Building Level) 10

Teachers (include KEA representative in this group) 4

Board of Education 3-5

Students 2

Support Staff 2

Parents 3

Social Workers 1

Counselor 1

Family Resource 1

School Nurse 1

Head Start 1

Finance person 1

Curriculum person 1

Legal advisor 1

This group includes
table facilitators