CONSTITUTION AND BYLAWS OF THE KENTUCKY ASSOCIATION FFA
Revised 06/10/15

The Kentucky State FFA Association is a resource and support organization that does not select, control or supervise local chapter or individual member activities except as expressly provided for in the state FFA constitution, bylaws or policies.

CONSTITUTION

Article I - NAME AND PURPOSE

Section A. The name of this organization shall be the Kentucky Association FFA. The letters FFA" the words “Future Farmers of America” may be officially used to designate the organization, its units, or members thereof.

Section B. The organization, hereinafter referred to as the association, shall cooperate with national and state government agencies and officials in career and technical education to accomplish the following objectives consistent with Section 3 of the organization’s federal charter, Public Law 105-225 (formerly Public Law 81-740):

1. To be an integral part of the organized instructional programs in agricultural education which prepare students for a wide range of careers in agriculture, agribusiness and other agriculture-related occupations.

2. To strengthen the confidence of students in themselves and in their work by developing desirable work habits and the effective usage of their time; by learning to assume responsibility; and by developing competencies in communications, human relations and other social abilities leading to the intelligent choice of a career and successful employment or entrepreneurship in the agricultural industry.

3. To provide agriculture-related programs and activities which will develop pride, responsibility, leadership, character, scholarship, citizenship, patriotism and thrift; and which will improve the economic, environmental, recreational and human resources of the community.

4. To encourage and recognize achievement in supervised agricultural experience programs, scholarship, leadership and other individual and group activities by providing awards to deserving members and chapters.]
ARTICLE II - ORGANIZATION

SECTION A. The Association FFA is composed of local chapters in good standing, located in schools having instruction in agricultural education under the provisions of the Career and Technical Education Acts, and is divided into twelve (12) regions to facilitate carrying out of the Kentucky Association FFA program of activities.

SECTION B. Active chapters of the FFA shall be chartered only in such schools where recognized systematic instruction in agricultural education is offered under the provisions of federal vocational education legislation. Such chapters shall operate as an integral part of the Instructional program of agricultural education under the responsibility of the local school system.

SECTION C. Members of the chapters shall meet, organize, and adopt a constitution of their own, elect officers, set up a program of activities, and then apply to the State Executive Secretary for membership.

ARTICLE III - PROCEDURE FOR DETERMINING STANDING OF CHAPTERS AND MEMBERS

SECTION A. A local chapter shall be considered in good standing with the Kentucky Association when the following general conditions are met.

1. All current state and national dues have been paid by November 1. Chapters not paying their dues by November 1 may gain good standing upon payment of dues.

2. All reports have been submitted as required by the Kentucky Association FFA. No provisions of chapter constitution are in conflict with the Kentucky Association and National FFA Constitutions, Bylaws, or Public Law 105-22 (formerly Public Law 740). Activities are in harmony with the ideals and purpose of the National Organization.

3. The Kentucky FFA Advisory Committee, on recommendation of the State Executive Committee and the delegates to the annual Kentucky FFA Convention, shall have the power to suspend local chapters upon receipt of evidence of infringement on the State or the National constitution. A report of all suspensions shall be presented to the next succeeding state convention.

4. In case any local chapter is not in good standing with the Kentucky Association at the time of the opening of the state convention, the delegates in the state convention shall have the power, upon recommendation of the State Advisory Committee, to withdraw the charter and refuse such chapter official representation at the state convention. When such action is taken, the chapter in question and members thereof shall be denied the regular privileges of the State Association. Upon meeting the requirements for good standing, a chapter may be reinstated by the Kentucky FFA Executive and Advisory Committee.
5. In case a local department of agricultural education in which a chartered chapter of FFA is located is discontinued, the chapter so involved may be permitted to operate officially for a period not to exceed thirty-six (36) months from date of discontinuance of the department, providing proper supervision and guidance can be given to the chapter work by a person having the approval of the school administrator and State Advisor. At the end of the thirty-six (36) month period, if a local department of agricultural education is not again in operation in the school, the charter must be surrendered to the State FFA Advisor.
