EXCEPTIONAL CHILDREN ADVISORY PANEL TO MEET

(FRANKFORT, Ky.) – The State Advisory Panel for Exceptional Children invites parents of children with disabilities, education leaders and professionals, and other interested citizens to a public hearing scheduled from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m. ET on Thursday, September 12, at the Blue Licks Battlefield State Resort Park in Carlisle, Kentucky.

The public hearing is a part of the panel's September meeting, which will be held Thursday and Friday, September 12 and 13, at the Blue Licks Battlefield State Resort Park in Carlisle.

The primary purpose of the panel is to advise the Kentucky Department of Education's Division of Learning Services on issues concerning the education of children and youth with disabilities. Parents of children with disabilities, education leaders and professionals and other interested citizens are invited to express their comments regarding any issues in the education of children and youth with educational disabilities during the public hearing. There also will be an opportunity for participants to meet panel members.

The Governor appoints panel members, and meetings are held four times a year, this year in January, April, September and November.

A full meeting agenda follows.
