TELL KENTUCKY KICKOFF EVENT

(FRANKFORT, Ky.) – Commissioner of Education Stephen Pruitt will kick off the 2017 Teaching, Empowering, Leading and Learning (TELL) Kentucky Survey on Wednesday, March 1, at 9 a.m. ET at Clear Creek Elementary School, 270 Chapel Hill Road, Shelbyville.

Joining him will be Shelby County Schools Superintendent James Neihof, Clear Creek Elementary Principal Kim Willhoite, and members of the TELL Kentucky steering committee.

The TELL Kentucky Survey, which runs through March 31, gives more than 50,000 school-based certified educators in the state the opportunity to provide anonymous feedback on the working conditions in Kentucky schools, which directly impact the learning conditions of students.

TELL Kentucky is conducted under the leadership of the Kentucky Department of Education and supported by a steering committee of education organizations and partners:

- Kentucky Board of Education
- Kentucky Department of Education
- Kentucky Teacher of the Year program
- Kentucky Education Professional Standards Board
- Kentucky Education Association
- Kentucky School Boards Association
- Kentucky Association of School Councils
- Jefferson County Teachers Association
- Kentucky Association of Professional Educators
- Kentucky Association of School Administrators
- Kentucky Association of School Superintendents
- Kentucky Parent Teacher Association
- Kentucky Council on Postsecondary Education
- Prichard Committee for Academic Excellence
