TESTING BOARD OF REVIEW TO MEET APRIL 17

(FRANKFORT, Ky.) – The Testing Board of Review will meet Monday, April 17 from 1:30 to 3 p.m. ET, at the Kentucky Department of Education, 300 Sower Boulevard, State Board Room (# 514), in Frankfort.

The Testing Board of Review and the Commissioner of Education work together to ensure the integrity of all state-required assessments is maintained. Pursuant to 703 KAR 5:080, the Testing Board of Review is charged with providing a recommendation to the Commissioner of Education regarding testing allegations made to the Kentucky Department of Education (KDE).

The Commissioner of Education appoints the board members to represent various divisions within KDE. In order to maintain the independence of the board, members do not include persons whose job duties consist of either investigation of cheating allegations or who work in the assessment and accountability area of KDE. Each board member receives Administration Code Training.
