SCHOOL CURRICULUM, ASSESSMENT AND ACCOUNTABILITY COUNCIL TO MEET JULY 10

(FRANKFORT, Ky.) – The School Curriculum, Assessment and Accountability Council (SCAAC), will meet on Monday, July 10 from 9 a.m.-4 p.m.ET in the State Board Room (#514), 300 Sower Blvd. in Frankfort.

KRS 158.6452 established SCAAC. On June 2, 2017, Gov. Matt Bevin abolished the previous council by Executive Order and subsequently re-created it to study, assess and audit Kentucky's system of setting academic standards; establish curriculum; assess learning; identify academic competencies and deficiencies of individual students; hold schools accountable for student achievement; and assist schools improve their performance.

SCAAC reports and recommends to the Education and Workforce Development Cabinet, the Kentucky Board of Education, Legislative Research Commission and the Education Professional Standards Board, critical data related to academic expectations; curriculum; core content for assessment; the development and deployment of statewide assessment and accountability programs; recognition of high-performing schools; imposition of school or district sanctions, and assistance for schools to improve their performance under KRS 158.6453, 158.6455, 158.782, and 158.805. □

SCAAC is comprised of 15 voting members, with the secretary of education and workforce, or his designee, and the commissioner of education serving in ex-officio voting capacities along with 13 members appointed by the governor. For more information on the council and who serves on it, see <http://education.ky.gov/CommOfEd/adv/Pages/School-Curriculum,-Assessment-and-Accountability-Council.aspx>.
