STATE ADVISORY COUNCIL FOR EXCEPTIONAL CHILDREN TO MEET

(Frankfort, KY) – The State Advisory Council for Exceptional Children will meet Monday, June 11, at noon

CT at the Barren River State Resort Park in Lucas, Kentucky.

Parents of children with disabilities, education leaders, professionals and other interested citizens are invited to express their comments regarding any issues in the education of children and youth with educational disabilities during the scheduled public forum at 6 p.m. CT.

The duties of the council are to:

- Advise the Department of Education, Board of Education, Education Professional Standards Board, and School Curriculum, Assessment and Accountability Council of unmet needs and desired program changes within the Commonwealth related to the education of children with disabilities, including the suggestion of corrective action plans and personnel development needs;
- Review and comment on rules or regulations proposed by the Commonwealth relating to the education of children with disabilities and the procedures for distribution of funds under Part B of Public Law 101- 476;
- Review and comment on written findings of fact and decisions from due process hearings, including other reports issued by federal and state authorities relating to exceptional children;
- Advise the Kentucky Department of Education, the Justice Cabinet and other public agencies on eligible students with disabilities in state and local prisons; and
- Provide opportunities for public input through regularly scheduled public hearings or during general meetings.

The State Advisory Council for Exceptional Children is comprised of 15-21 voting members appointed by the Governor, the majority of whom are individuals with disabilities or parents of children with disabilities ages birth through 26. A list of the current membership may be accessed on the State Advisory Council for Exceptional Children page on the Kentucky Department of Education website.

An agenda for the June meeting follows.
