STATE ADVISORY COUNCIL FOR EXCEPTIONAL CHILDREN TO MEET

(Frankfort, KY) – The State Advisory Council for Exceptional Children (SACEC) will meet Thursday, Sept. 6, and Friday, Sept. 7, at General Butler State Resort Park in Carrollton, Kentucky.

Parents of children with disabilities, education leaders, professionals and other interested citizens are invited to express their comments regarding any issues in the education of children and youth with educational disabilities during the scheduled public forum at 6 p.m. on Sept. 6.

The State Advisory Council for Exceptional Children consists of up to 21 voting members appointed by the governor, the majority of whom are people with disabilities or parents of children with disabilities ages birth through 26.

The duties of the council are to:

- Advise the General Assembly, Department of Education, Board of Education, Education Professional Standards Board, and School Curriculum and Accountability Council of unmet needs and desired program changes related to the education of children with disabilities, including proposed corrective action plans and personnel development needs;
- Review and comment on rules or regulations proposed by the Commonwealth relating to the education of children with disabilities and the procedures for distribution of funds under Part B of Public Law 101-476;
- Review and comment on written findings of fact and decisions from due process hearings, including reports issued by federal and state authorities relating to exceptional children;
- Advise the General Assembly, Department of Education, Justice and Safety Cabinet and other public agencies on eligible students with disabilities in state and local prisons; and
- Provide opportunities for public input through public hearings or during general meetings.

An agenda for the September meeting follows.
