

Kentucky School Consultation Policy (Personnel & Principal)

KRS 160.345(2)(i)11

Purpose:

Kentucky School, through its consultation policy, ensures that students have equitable access to highly effective, experienced educators, including, but not limited to the following: teachers, media specialists, instructional coaches, principals, paraeducators, etc. who are culturally competent and able to reach each student. Likewise, Kentucky School ensures students have access to qualified non-instructional staff who are dedicated to the school and the responsibilities their position requires.

Definitions:

For the purpose of this policy, Kentucky School defines vacancy as any of the following: a position that did not previously exist, but which can now be funded, a position previously held by an employee who has retired or resigned; or a position held by an employee who has indicated in writing that they will retire or resign at the conclusion of the current school year.

For the purpose of this policy, Kentucky School defines qualified teacher as a teacher who has completed an Educator Preparation Program approved by the Educational Professional Standards Board (EPSB); holds full Kentucky certification or statement of eligibility; and demonstrates competency in each subject taught. Kentucky School defines qualified principal as the instructional leader of the school who has at least three years of teaching experience and who holds the proper certification and credentials.

A paraeducator is defined as an instructional assistant who has completed at least two (2) years of study at an institution of higher education; obtained an associate's (or higher) degree; or has met a rigorous standard of quality and can demonstrate, through a formal state or local academic assessment – knowledge of, and the ability to assist in instructing, reading, writing and mathematics; or knowledge of, and the ability to assist in, instructing, reading readiness, writing readiness, and mathematics readiness, as appropriate.

Non-instructional staff is defined as staff who offer other non-instructional related services; however, their services greatly improve the experiences of all students and their families at the school in general. Non-instructional staff includes but is not limited to the following: custodial staff, food services and nutrition staff, clerical workers, and athletic and extracurricular personnel.

Certified and Classified Personnel Procedures:

The school council must be consulted by the principal prior to filling any certified or classified vacancies that occur at the school. Once any vacancy has been posted publicly, the principal must include on the agenda of the next regular or special called meeting, the following agenda topic: "Consultation with the school council for the (position title) vacancy".

The principal and school council must meet the following timeline for filling vacancies:

- Once a vacancy is determined, the principal, along with at least one parent member and at least one teacher member chosen by the school council, must serve as an ad hoc interview committee. The ad hoc interview committee must meet in an open meeting within one week of selection to develop a set of criteria for a strong candidate and a list of interview questions to be asked of each applicant.

- Once the vacancy has completed the 15-day posting requirement, the ad hoc committee must reconvene and review applications and supporting materials for each applicant and make a final selection of candidates who exhibit the characteristics of a strong candidate. Any applicant that does not meet the criteria will not be considered for an interview. An interview schedule must be developed by the ad hoc committee so that all committee members are present for each interview. The principal or district determined staff must contact the candidates and schedule the interviews.
- During the interviews, each candidate will be asked the developed questions in the same order. Follow-up questions may be asked in response to applicant answers/statements during the interview.
- Upon the conclusion of the interview and within three (3) business days, the principal or district determined staff must follow-up with reference checks on candidates of interest.
- The ad hoc committee must reconvene within one week of the final interview to review the candidates, discuss reference checks, and prioritize candidates.
- At the school council's next meeting, whether regular or special called, the council will convene to closed session permitted by KRS 61.810(1)(f) and will consider the ad hoc committee's candidate recommendations and provide its thoughts on the candidates to the principal whom will select a candidate to fill the vacancy.
- At the next regular or special called meeting, the principal must consult with the council and report his/her candidate selection.
- The principal will inform the superintendent of his/her selection and the superintendent will complete the hiring process.

Principal Selection Procedures:

The school council must be consulted by the superintendent prior to filling a principal vacancy that occurs at the school. Once the vacancy has been posted publicly, the superintendent must include on the agenda of the next regular or special called meeting, the following agenda topic: "Consultation with the school council for the principal vacancy".

The superintendent and school council must meet the following timeline for filling the principal vacancy:

- Prior to consultation with the school council, each member must sign a nondisclosure agreement forbidding the disclosure of information shared and discussions held during consultation.
- Once a principal vacancy is determined, the superintendent, along with at least one parent member and at least one teacher member chosen by the school council, must serve as an ad hoc interview committee. The ad hoc interview committee must meet in an open meeting within one week of selection to develop a set of criteria for a strong principal candidate and a list of interview questions to be asked of each applicant. At the discretion of the superintendent, additional members may be asked to participate on the committee.

- Once the vacancy has completed the 15-day posting requirement, the ad hoc committee must reconvene and review applications and supporting materials for each applicant and make a final selection of candidates who exhibit the characteristics of a strong candidate. Any applicant that does not meet the criteria will not be considered for an interview. An interview schedule must be developed by the ad hoc committee so that all committee members are present for each interview. The superintendent or designee must contact the candidates and schedule the interviews.
- During the interviews, each candidate will be asked the developed questions in the same order. Follow-up questions may be asked in response to applicant answers/statements during the interview.
- Upon the conclusion of the interview and within three (3) business days, the superintendent or designee must follow-up with reference checks on candidates of interest.
- The ad hoc committee must reconvene within one week of the final interview to review the candidates, discuss reference checks, and prioritize candidates.
- At the school council's next meeting, whether regular or special called, the council will convene to closed session permitted by KRS 61.810(1)(f) and will consider the ad hoc committee's candidate recommendations and provide its thoughts on the candidates to the superintendent whom will select a principal candidate to fill the vacancy.
- At the next regular or special called meeting, the superintendent must report his/her candidate selection to the council.

Emergency Provisions:

If a quorum of the members of the school council is not available for the purpose of conducting consultation in the filling of a vacancy, the principal (or superintendent when filling a principal vacancy) must conduct consultation with the council members who can attend. The timeline may also be amended with school council approval in order to fill a vacancy during times where continuation of instructional and non-instructional services may be affected and a waiver of the 15-day posting may be requested from the Kentucky Department of Education (KDE). Council members may be consulted virtually through video teleconference by following the procedures outlined in KRS 61.826.

Evaluation:

The school council must annually review the policy and timeline and make revisions as necessary to ensure highly qualified personnel are recruited and retained at the school. Any revisions to the policy must be made and approved prior to March 31.
