

Selecting a Principal

A Guide for School-Based Decision Making Councils

These training materials were developed by the Kentucky Department of Education as a guide during the process of selecting a principal. Principal selection training cannot substitute for the annually required professional learning for all SBDM members as cited in KRS 160.345(6).

Foreword

This training represents best practices for the principal selection process. These suggested steps and ideas are written with the expectations that all involved parties are following the spirit and the letter of the statute and are committed to doing what is in the best interest of the students.

Principal selection is a decision authorized to school councils. The statute implies that even though the superintendent (or designee) is the chair of the school council during the process of principal selection, all voices are to participate equally. No one voice is greater than the next. The superintendent's (or designee's) voice is not greater than the teachers'; the teachers' voices are not greater than the parents, and vice-versa. Principal selection training must comprise of recruitment and interviewing techniques [KRS 160.345(2)(h)2], which are the two legal requirements of this particular training process.

However, depending on the needs of the school council, other topics may be covered as part of the training curriculum. With that, the statute does not require the training to be a specific time frame. That again is up to the needs of the school council. Some school councils may have great experience with principal selection and may need only a refresher on recruitment and interviewing techniques; other school councils that have no experience with principal selection may need a more step-by-step assistance approach.

As you begin this adventure of principal selection, we wish you good luck! Please contact us if you have questions.

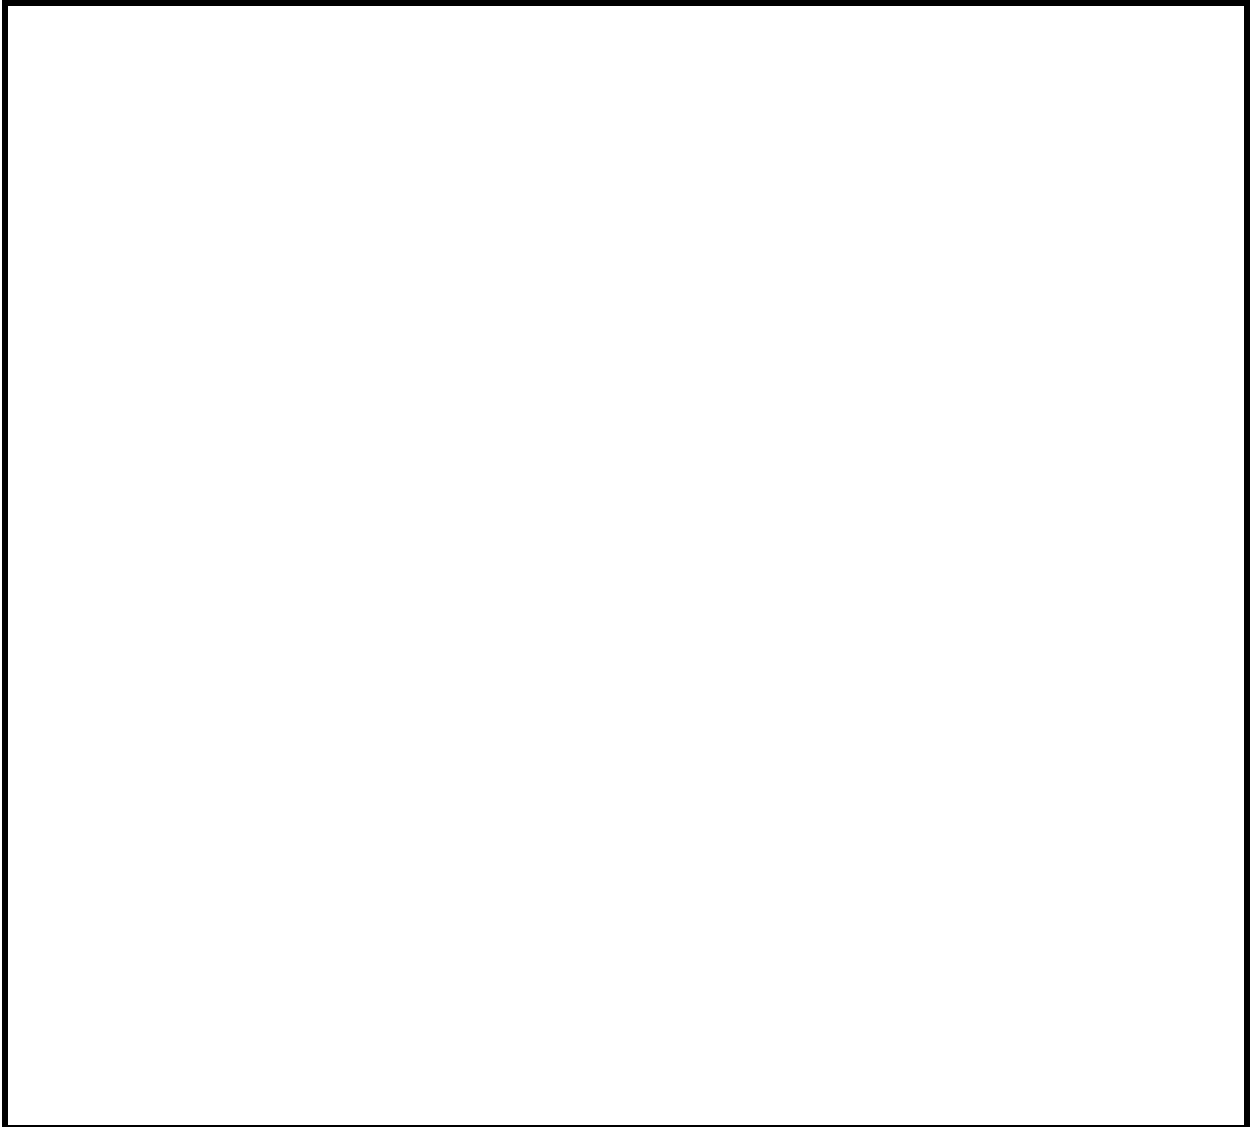

Sincerely,
KDE SBDM Team

Principal Selection Activity

Everyone has natural abilities and strengths. Think about the unique personal experiences you bring with you today and consider your best qualities, skills, and life experiences. Perhaps you have survived an adversity, are a skilled negotiator, a trained caregiver, or an experienced camper; maybe you have raised a garden, started a business, or created a work of art; or, maybe you have a high level of wellness and physical energy. Write as many of your unique qualities and experiences as you can think. Don't be modest; claim all of them!

Section 1: Legal Requirements for Principal Selection

Principal selection can be one of the most difficult tasks for any school council. The SBDM statute (KRS 160.345) sets specific requirements for the school council during the principal selection process:

(h) Personnel decisions at the school level shall be as follows:

1. From a list of qualified applicants submitted by the local superintendent, the principal at the participating school shall select personnel to fill vacancies, after consultation with the school council, consistent with paragraph (i)11. of this subsection. The superintendent shall provide additional applicants to the principal upon request when qualified applicants are available. The superintendent may forward to the school council the names of qualified applicants who have pending certification from the Education Professional Standards Board based on recent completion of preparation requirements, out-of-state preparation, or alternative routes to certification pursuant to KRS 161.028 and 161.048. Requests for transfer shall conform to any employer-employee bargained contract which is in effect;
2. a.
 - i. If the vacancy to be filled is the position of principal, the outgoing principal shall not serve on the council during the principal selection process. The superintendent or the superintendent's designee shall serve as the chair of the council for the purpose of the hiring process and shall have voting rights during the selection process.
 - ii. Except as provided in subdivision b. of this subparagraph, the council shall have access to the applications of all persons certified for the position. The principal shall be elected on a majority vote of the membership of the council. No principal who has been previously removed from a position in the district for cause may be considered for appointment as principal. The school council shall receive training in recruitment and interviewing techniques prior to carrying out the process of selecting a principal. The council shall select the trainer to deliver the training;

- b. An alternative principal selection process may be used by the school council as follows:
 - i. Prior to a meeting called to select a principal, all school council members shall receive informational materials regarding Kentucky open records and open meetings laws and sign a nondisclosure agreement forbidding the sharing of information shared and discussions held in the closed session;
 - ii. The superintendent shall convene the school council and move into closed session as provided in KRS 61.810(1)(f) to confidentially recommend a candidate;
 - iii. The council shall have the option to interview the recommended candidate while in closed session; and
 - iv. After any discussion, at the conclusion of the closed session, the council shall decide, in a public meeting by majority vote of the membership of the council, whether to accept or reject the recommended principal candidate;
- c. If the recommended candidate is selected, and the recommended candidate accepts the offer, the name of the candidate shall be made public during the next meeting in open session;
- d.
 - i. If the recommended candidate is not accepted by the school council under subdivision b. of this subparagraph, then the process set forth in subdivision a. of this subparagraph shall apply.
 - ii. The confidentially recommended candidate's name and the discussions of the closed session shall remain confidential under KRS 61.810(1)(f), and any documents used or generated during the closed meeting shall not be subject to an open records request as provided in KRS 61.878(1)(i) and (j).
 - iii. A recommended candidate who believes a violation of this subdivision has occurred may file a written complaint with the Kentucky Board of Education.
 - iv. A school council member who is found to have disclosed confidential information regarding the proceeding of the closed session shall be subject to removal from the school council by the Kentucky Board of Education under subsection (9)(e) of this section;
- 3. Personnel decisions made at the school level under the authority of subparagraphs 1 and 2. of this paragraph shall be binding on the superintendent who completes the hiring process;
- 4. Applicants subsequently employed shall provide evidence that they are certified prior to assuming the duties of a position in accordance with KRS 161.020; and
- 5. Notwithstanding other provisions of this paragraph, if the applicant is the spouse of the superintendent and the applicant meets the service requirements of KRS 160.380(2)(e), the applicant shall only be employed upon the recommendation of the principal and the approval of a majority vote of the school council;

Effective: April 10, 2017

Directions: Using the information from the statute, answer the following questions:

QUESTION:	RESPONSE:
1. May the outgoing principal serve on the school council during the principal selection process?
2. Who serves as the chairperson of the school council during the principal selection process?
3. Does the superintendent (or designee) have voting rights during the principal selection process?
4. How many of the principal selection candidate applications does the school council have access?
5. Can a principal who has been removed with cause in the district apply and be selected for a principal?
6. Who may initiate the alternative principal selection process?
7. Do councils have to interview the recommended candidate if they choose the alternative option?
8. When is the name of the selected candidate made public if the alternative option is used?
9. If a candidate is not accepted by the council during the alternative process, can council members reveal the identity of the recommended candidate?
10. If a council does not accept the recommended candidate, what process must then be followed?

Meeting Requirements

Kentucky's Open Meetings Acts protect the rights of the general public to know the actions and decisions of its public agencies. School councils and their committees are public agencies and therefore are required to comply with all aspects of the Open Meetings laws. The Open Meetings Act applies when all meetings where a quorum of the membership is present, where public business is being discussed, and/or when actions are taken or decisions are made.

As principal selection is a required decision that a school council makes, all meetings scheduled as part of the principal selection process must follow the Open Meetings statutes. This includes meetings for training and planning, to review applications and other supporting documentation, and to interview candidates. The chart on the next two pages is a summary of the Open Meetings statutes.

Open Meetings statute applies whenever:

1. A majority of the school council or committee is present.
2. Business is discussed even if no action is taken.

Regular Meetings:

1. The school council and each of its committees set their own regular meeting schedules.
2. Regular meetings must be held at a specific scheduled time and place convenient to the public. The school council must provide a schedule of these meetings to the public.
3. The schedule must list the date, time, and place for each regular meeting.
4. The schedule must be available to all shareholders and to any media agency that request it. The district SBDM coordinator should have a copy of all regular meeting schedules at the district office.

Special Meetings:

1. The chairman or a majority of the school council members can call a special meeting outside the regular meeting schedule.
2. Written notice must be provided to all members of the school council or the committee either by fax, regular mail or hand delivery 24 hours in advance of the meeting.
3. The notice must include the date, time, place and agenda of the meeting.
4. A special meeting agenda cannot be amended.
5. A copy of the special meeting notice should be sent to the district SBDM coordinator and any media agencies that request it.

Open and Closed Sessions:

1. All regular and special meetings are open to the public.
2. A record of the all decisions made during a meeting must be recorded in minutes.
3. School council and committee minutes set forth an exact record of votes and actions taken. Minutes must be approved and made available to the public by the end of the next meeting. All minutes must be made available to the public.

4. Unless a quorum of members is present, business cannot be discussed nor decisions made.
5. Closed session can only be called for three reasons:
 - a. To discuss actual or potential litigation.
 - b. To discuss potential candidates for employment.
 - c. To discuss items where state or federal law specifically requires privacy (i.e., emergency plan procedures).

Time to Make This Decision

The majority of the principal selection meetings will be special called meetings. Who will be in charge of setting the agenda and notifying council members? Who will be keeping the minutes?

Recruitment Requirements

KRS 160.380(2)(d) requires the superintendent to conduct a search to locate minorities to be considered for each certified position, including the principal. The school's instructional leaders and its school council must foster an environment that values and affirms diversity among both staff and students. Support for diversity must be evident in both the processes and the outcomes of the school council's work. Effective support for diversity should include the following:

- A representational component (i.e., the actual representation of diverse faculty, staff, and school council members at different levels of the school environment).
- An interactional component (i.e., members of different groups working well together).
- An organizational culture component (i.e., a well-established organizational value supporting diverse peoples).

As a school council involved in the principal selection process, make it a priority to comply with KRS 160.380(2)(d) that states:

When a vacancy occurs in a local district, the superintendent shall conduct a search to locate minority teachers to be considered for the position. The superintendent shall, pursuant to administrative regulations of the Kentucky Board of Education, report annually the district's recruitment process and the activities used to increase the percentage of minority teachers in the district.

While the language directs the superintendent to conduct the search for minority candidates, as the school council of a school, you too have a responsibility to ensure that all students are exposed to a growing demographic diversity. The school council should keep a record of the numbers of minorities interviewed and hired for vacancies, particularly administrative positions such as the principal.

Let's Talk...

What is the district's plan for recruitment of a diverse candidate pool?

Interviewing Techniques

In-person interviews provide valuable information on each candidate- information beyond the basic answer to the asked questions. An in-person interview may highlight the following:

- The ability to connect with strangers (how easy is the candidate able to make connections with themselves to the school and the school council members)
- Presence/self-confidence (how the candidates present themselves by making eye contact and using appropriate gestures)
- Credibility (how the candidate provides additional evidence to support items in a resume or an application)
- Interpersonal communication skills (the candidate uses complete sentences with correct grammar; the candidate answers the question completely)
- Ability to think under pressure (how the candidate forms answers to the questions in a logical, concise format; the candidate does not puff themselves up or appear to be self-important)
- How the candidate thinks through and about issues (how the candidate addresses issues relating to teaching and learning)

Interviewing Do's and Don'ts

Talk It Out...

Are there any questions/topics from the Dos & Don'ts section that could prove themselves useful during the interviewing process?

Section 2: Steps for Principal Selection

The following suggested steps may assist school councils during the principal selection process; however, these steps are suggestions and are not required by statute. The SBDM statute only requires that school councils receive training in recruitment and interviewing techniques prior to carrying out the process of selecting a principal [KRS 160.345(2)(h)2]. Also, although the SBDM statute does not require it, having a principal selection policy or procedure is a best practice.

1. Declare and post principal vacancy.

The superintendent declares a principal vacancy at a school as a result of a principal retirement, resignation, termination or other reason. Once the declaration is made, the superintendent can post the vacancy according to KRS 160.380(2)(b). This posting requires a 15-day posting notice prior to filling a position. The position must be posted at the local central office for public viewing and also listed in the statewide registry maintained by the Kentucky Department of Education (KDE). According to KRS 160.380(2)(c), the superintendent may ask for a waiver from KDE to fill the vacancy in less than 15-days to prevent the disruption of necessary instructional services.

2. Superintendent (or designee) meets with the school council.

The superintendent (or designee) must meet with the school council in an open meeting to discuss the principal vacancy. At that meeting, the superintendent should discuss the following:

- The desire to work collaboratively and cooperatively with the school council to select a principal who meets the unique needs of the school based on specific criteria.
- Human resource procedures as it relates to application and information gathering processes.
- Choosing a principal selection trainer to review recruitment and interviewing techniques.
- Establish a tentative timeline for the principal selection process. It is best to start with the end in mind; note when you want the principal to begin and work backwards.

3. Participate in principal selection training.

Principal selection training is required by KRS 160.345(2)(h). The school council, as a whole, selects a trainer.

4. Establish principal candidate criteria and information gathering process.

In an open meeting, review the attributes and needs of the school. Remember to gather information from all stakeholders. The superintendent (or designee) should assist in this process to provide information from a district perspective, standards of performance, and job description.

Once criterion has been developed, the school council should determine how they will gather information on each principal candidate. Items to consider may include:

- how the school council will review applications, resumes, portfolios, and other relevant materials,
- how the school council will search for additional information using electronic sources (e.g., Facebook, blogs),
- how the school council will develop questions for the face-to-face interview, and
- who will conduct reference checks and how will this information be shared.

5. Review the list of applicants and determine whom to interview.

The superintendent (or designee) should screen all applicants. However, the superintendent should present all of the applications to the school council as well as those they deem the most qualified. From the applications, the school council should review all of the information and determine whom they wish to interview. Those that are interviewed should be the candidates that most meet the identified criterion. It is best practice that one person make all of the contacts with the candidates. Most often this is the superintendent or school council vice chair.

6. Conduct interviews, evaluate candidates, and make a selection.

The council should conduct and interview all selected candidates. Ask each candidate all of the agreed upon questions in the same order. Ask any follow-up questions, if needed. At the end of the interview, provide the candidate time to ask questions and share any other relevant information. Inform the candidate of the timeframe for selection and by whom or how they will be contacted.

Once all candidates have been interviewed, evaluate each candidate using the agreed upon process and criteria. Selection must be made by vote and in open session of a school council meeting.

Reflection Time...

With what you understand now, what will be the most challenging part of the principal selection process?

Section 3: Establishing the Timeline

Setting the timeframe in which to complete the principal selection process will keep the school council focused. The dates that are included into your timeline will depend on the time of year that the principal selection process begins. Below is a list of sample events and activities to consider as you begin developing this timeline. Begin with the end in mind: When should this process be concluded?

- Spring Break/Holiday(s)
- Last Day of classes
- Stakeholder surveys
- Reference checks
- State assessment window
- First day of the new school year
- Complete interviews
- Develop criteria for an ideal candidate
- Review candidate information

Section 4: Developing Sound Principal Candidate Criteria

Solid criteria used to evaluate each principal candidate will assist the school council as they trim down the applications and in selecting the candidates to interview. The following criteria could be used as a guide during the principal selection process at your school:

Education Professional Standards Board

The Education Professional Standards Board (EPSB) was established as part of the 1990 Kentucky Education Reform Act to oversee the education profession. The EPSB is charged with establishing standards of performance both for preparation programs and practitioners; accrediting educator preparation providers and approving educator preparation programs at colleges, universities, local school districts, and private contractors; selecting assessments for teachers and administrators; overseeing internship programs for new teachers and new principals; administering Kentucky's National Board for Professional Teaching Standards certification; and issuing, renewing, suspending, and revoking Kentucky certificates for professional school personnel.

A summary of the Dispositions, Dimensions, and Functions for School Leaders (based on the Kentucky Cohesive Leadership System Continuum for Principal Preparation and Development by the Educational Professional Standards Board, May 2008) can be found below. The complete continuum is can be located on the EPSB website (www.epsb.ky.gov).

DISPOSITIONS

The administrator believes in, values, and is committed to the following:

1. The educability of and life-long learning for everyone;
2. Student learning as the fundamental purpose of schooling;
3. Making management decisions to enhance learning and teaching;
4. Schools operating as an integral part of the larger community;
5. Bringing ethical principles to the decision making process for the common good of the community;
6. The importance of continual engagement with families, community stakeholders, and other decision makers;

Section 5:

Gathering Information and Determining Whom to Interview

Once the school council has determined the criteria for a qualified and effective principal candidate and developed questions around that criteria, it is time to determine other information that will be gathered to provide additional information on the candidates. Types of information are noted on the table below:

METHOD	NOTES
In-Person Interviews	What we can learn from in-person interviews <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Ability to connect with strangers • Presence/self-confidence • Credibility • Interpersonal communication skills • Ability to think under pressure • How candidate thinks about issues Characteristics of good interview questions: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The questions are worded as clearly and simply as they can be, given the subject about which you want to know. • All the criteria should be covered by the interview questions. • Questions do not “telegraph” the answer(s) you want. • The questions should include both forward-looking scenarios and those based on past experiences. • The questions are open-ended and require more than a “yes/no” answer. • A good “first” question is: “Tell us why you are interested in this position?” A good “last” question is: “What questions do you have for us?” • Questions are agreed upon in advance and are asked of all applicants in the same order and by the same person (when possible). • If you intend to ask “specialized” questions of any applicants, they should be agreed upon in advance and asked by the chairperson. “Specialized” questions generally involve something specific to that applicant (e.g., why they left a particular position after a short period of time, unusual experiences listed in resume). • If you intend to ask follow-up questions, hold them until the planned questions have been asked and limit them to questions to clarify previous answers. • Interview questions must be approved in open session.

Written Interviews	A written interview gives the school council the opportunity to see how well the applicant communicates in writing, including another opportunity to learn about their philosophy. This interview may be completed before the in-person interview.
Portfolios	Many, if not most, applicants will have or will bring a portfolio with them to the interview. The school council will need to make a decision ahead of time about how the school council wants to handle portfolios.
Performance Events	Performance events may offer another view of the candidate's personality or philosophy. Ask each candidate to complete a performance event constructed to address a specific issue. A reasonable time frame is thirty (30) to sixty (60) minutes. Inform the applicant ahead of time that following the interview they may have a performance event to complete. Be sure to arrange access to a computer and any other tools needed, and be sure to specify to whom the applicant should give the results.

Once the school council determines what to include as part of the interview of each principal candidate, the exact questions for the face-to-face interview need to be completed. Who will prepare the interview packets for the school council? Interview packets include the application and other supporting documents, the interview questions, note taking materials, and other items as needed.

When the school council is ready to discuss which applicant to interview, you may want to start prioritizing the applicants on how well they meet the criteria. Don't make this into a mathematical formula; however, a Plus/Minus format (See Appendix C) is a way for each school council member to explain the strengths and limitations they perceive.

Determining which candidates the school council will interview is the goal of the discussion. Using consensus decision-making to come to an agreement on which applicants to interview will build strong support for the final decision.

Section 6: Notes for the Chairperson

Preparing for the Interviews

In preparing for the interviews, ensure that each principal candidate knows where to come (e.g., the school's front office, the board of education office). Reserve a private space where each member of the school council can be seated in reasonable comfort. Make sure someone is on hand at the door to greet each candidate. School council members should arrive at least 15 minutes before the interview to review who will handle introductions, who will ask the questions, how to handle follow-up questions, and what (if any) questions should be specifically be directed to an candidate.

As a reminder, interviews may be conducted in closed session of a school council meeting. If the interview is to be conducted in closed session (best practice), school councils should announce the interview period as a special meeting of the school council, convene as usually, and then go into closed session to hold the actual interview.

Conduct and interview all selected candidates and ask each candidate all of the agreed upon questions in the same order. Ask any follow-up questions, if needed. At the end of the interview, provide the candidate time to ask questions and provide any other relevant information. Inform the candidate of the timeframe for selection and by whom or how they will be contacted.

Immediately after each candidate interview, the school council should discuss the candidate and whether he/she measures up to the criteria established by the council. This is another time to add to the Plus/Minus.

Once all candidates have been interviewed, evaluate the candidates using the agreed upon process. Discuss each candidate's strengths and limitations.

The school council statute requires that candidates be selected by vote. The school council must return to open session (if it went into closed session) to cast its vote for the new principal. This vote must be recorded in the school council minutes.

Once a selection has been made, the superintendent should call the candidate and offer the position. If the chosen candidate does not accept the position the school council will need to either review the remaining candidates and select another or begin the principal selection process again.

It is best practice to contact all interviewed candidates once a selection has been made and accepted. Notify all applicants not chosen for an interview by letter that a selection has been made and thank them for their interest in the district.

Section 7: Principal Selection FAQs

1. What is the role of the school council in selecting a principal?

The SBDM statute sets specific requirements for the school council:

- The outgoing principal cannot serve on the school council during the principal selection process. The superintendent, or designee, serves as the chairperson of the school council during the principal selection process and has full voting rights. The school council must receive specific principal selection training prior to beginning the principal selection process.
- The school council must have access to all qualified applicants for the principal position.
- If the principal has been removed from any position in the district, that person cannot be considered a candidate. If the principal vacancy is in a school deemed low-performing and a scholastic audit has found the school council and the principal ineffective, as determined by KRS 158.6455, the superintendent appoints the principal after consultation with the school council.

2. What if a school council member (either a teacher or parent representative) applies for the principal vacancy?

If a teacher or parent representative from a school council applies for a position of the principal within their school, it is best practice that they resign from the school council; however, it is not required. If the school council representative resigns, the appropriate constituency (i.e. teachers or parents) will have the opportunity to hold elections. If the school council member decides to remain on the school council, he/she must recuse him/herself from the entire principal selection process.

3. Our school council members begin their term on July 1. Who selects the principal if the process crosses both the outgoing school council and the new school council?

If the posting ends prior to June 30, the outgoing school council will need to complete the selection process before their term ending June 30. If the posting or the process continues past July 1, the new school council will complete the selection process and select the new principal.

4. Can the superintendent, who is serving as the chair of the school council during the principal selection process, conduct the required principal selection training?

No, as a member of the school council for the purpose of principal selection, the superintendent must participate in the required training. Therefore, the school council, including the superintendent, must select another trainer. This trainer can be someone else in the district or a contracted service from an organization or individual.

FAQs on Requesting an Interim Principal

1. When would a school want an interim principal?

Interim principals can be helpful when there is a vacancy at an awkward point during a school year such as in the following three common situations:

- When a principal leaves suddenly during the school year.
- When the principal leaves suddenly at the end of the school year and key summer tasks need to be completed before a new principal is named (e.g., consultation on vacancies, budget and purchasing).
- When the principal announces a resignation or retirement late in the fall or after Christmas holiday to where a strong candidate may not be available and the school council prefers to wait until the spring to seek a permanent principal.

2. Who selects the interim principal?

The district's central office can select anyone with the appropriate certification to serve as interim principal.

3. Can the interim principal be a candidate for the principal vacancy?

Yes, they can; however, it may provide an unfair advantage to other candidates.

4. Can the interim principal take part in the selection of the new principal?

No, the superintendent or his/her designee holds the role of chair of the school council during the principal selection process.

Performance events or writing samples can provide insight into the thoughts and experiences of a principal candidate. Below are some examples of performance events/writing samples that could be used to evaluate candidates; however, if the school is going through a particular issue, this also can be formed into a question to illicit responses from the candidates:

1. This is a copy of our current school improvement plan (CSIP). Identify three (3) challenges that our school will face in implementing this plan. For each challenge, share some ways you could help us succeed.
2. Two African-American parents make an appointment to discuss concerns about the school. They feel that teachers do not expect as much of minority students, and that this is a prime reason that African-American students are not doing as well as white students in the school. The parents tell you that they hope that you, as the new principal, will turn the situation around. List steps you will take to address this issue.
