

SBDM Online Training Options

Kentucky Educational Television (KET) offers several online training options that allow both new and experienced members to learn at their own rate. These include a fee-based, facilitated course as well as opportunities for experienced SBDM members to enroll in free, self-paced courses on PBS LearningMedia and PBS TeacherLine.

Check out the descriptions below for details! All courses are approved for SBDM EILA credit.

KET's Facilitated Course for SBDM Members

KET offers a convenient, online, fee-based course:

- Intro to SBDM

This course is facilitated by Dr. Tom Hiter, a certified SBDM trainer. It fulfills the training requirement for new SBDM members and provides six hours of SBDM EILA credit. There is an enrollment fee of $95 per person.

Registration for the course is open during the year on the following schedule:

Summer:	July 1 – September 20
Fall:	October 1 – December 21
Winter:	January 1 – March 21
Spring:	April 1 – June 21

Participants work at their own pace to complete the course then the facilitator will review the work and issue a certificate once all course criteria are met, at which time the learner will log back in to download the certificate. SBDM coordinators can purchase and enroll members at any time during a term, but participants who don't complete the course by the final day will need to re-enroll at another $95 at the start of the next term.

To purchase the course and enroll your SBDM members, visit <https://edstore.ket.org/>. Instructions for registration are on the site. Make purchase orders out to KET, 600 Cooper Drive, Lexington KY 40502 and enter the PO number at the time of order. If ordered by the SBDM member, then email a copy of the PO to pd@ket.org. If you have trouble with registration or payment, please contact Cynthia Barton, KET PD/Special Projects Coordinator, at 859.258.7271 or 800.432.0951 or cbarton@ket.org.

Additional Training for Experienced SBDM Members

Free Self-Paced Courses

Experienced SBDM council member training is available free of charge at PBS LearningMedia and PBS TeacherLine. These trainings are self-paced, online courses, with no facilitators. Participants receive a certificate upon successful completion.

To take these courses, members must login or create an account on PBS LearningMedia and PBS TeacherLine. At the end of each module, they take a quiz; the certificate is generated once all criteria are met.

To locate a course, visit:

<https://ket.pbslearningmedia.org/collection/school-based-decision-making/>

Courses available in the School-Based Decision-Making Experienced Member Training topic on PBS TeacherLine include the following:

- Principal Training: The Role of FRYSC in Kentucky Schools (1 hour of EILA credit)
- Formative Assessment in Practice: Administration and Leadership (1 hour of EILA credit)
- Formative Assessment in Practice: Elementary Classrooms (1 hour of EILA credit)
- Formative Assessment in Practice: Secondary Classrooms (1 hour of EILA credit)

After enrolling and starting a courses, users should return to <http://www.pbs.org/teacherline/>, log in, then click “MY COURSES” to access their enrolled courses for completion.

If you have trouble registering or returning to these courses, please contact Cynthia Barton, KET Professional Development/Special Projects Coordinator at 859.258.7271 or 800.432.0951 or cbarton@ket.org.

Education Matters

Schools also may use Education Matters, KET’s continuing series on education policy, for experienced member SBDM credit. The episodes are streamed online at www.KET.org/educationmatters. Coordinators must decide how to implement and issue credit for this option as KET does not issue credit. Prior approval by the district SBDM coordinator is required.
