DEFINITION

Nonresident students are those students who reside with their legal parents/guardians outside the boundaries of the District. Residency generally cannot be established through living with a relative or friend within the District.

CRITERIA FOR ENROLLMENT/ADMISSION

Contingent upon the recommendation of the Principal and approval of the Superintendent/designee, nonresident students who wish to enroll in the District's schools may be granted permission to do so under the following provisions:

1. The school district in which the student resides agrees to release the ADA to the district of attendance;
2. The student must be in good standing in the school district from which he/she is transferring;
3. The admission of the student will not exclude any resident student from attending school in the District;
4. Enrollment of nonresident students will not cause the district of attendance to exceed state class size maximums, and;
5. Nonresident students shall be charged the same incidental fees as are required of all students, such as locker fees.
