Whether or not a teacher was entitled to payment for accumulated sick leave was a question of fact within the province of the board of education to decide and in making the determination as to the facts the board could consider what effect its decision would have on similar circumstances which might arise in the future where the teacher presented a certificate of a physician stating that she was totally disabled from her teaching position but the board had in its possession a statement from another high school that part of the time during the teacher's absence from her teaching position she was completing her library practice at that high school. OAG 74-119.

A regulation by a board of education that not more than thirty days of accumulated sick leave may be used in one year is void. OAG 74-378.

A public school teacher does not have an absolute right to receive paid sick leave, even if already accumulated, for a normal pregnancy but does have a statutory right to such leave for illness due to surgery performed after, but not connected with, the birth of the child. OAG 74-741.

A teacher, who is absent to care for a spouse who is ill, is entitled to all accumulated sick leave up to 60 days as of June 21, 1974 and all accumulated, unused sick leave without limit after that date. OAG 75-209.

Accumulated sick leave must, if requested, be given for childbirth but only for the days the physician certifies the teacher is actually disabled from performing her teaching duties, but this ruling need not be made retroactive. OAG 75-259.

Although accumulated sick leave may not be granted for child care following childbirth, a leave of absence for that purpose is appropriate. OAG 75-259.

A certificate by a physician signed by rubber stamp is sufficient certification of a teacher's illness. OAG 75-359.

In allowing paid sick leave for childbirth, a teacher should be granted leave only for the days she, or a member of her immediate family, were ill, based upon the presentation of her personal affidavit or the certificate of a physician. OAG 75-367.

A public school teacher may claim sick leave in addition to receiving worker's compensation benefits. OAG 75-604 (affirming OAG 40-041).

When a teacher transfers from the local board of education to the vocational school system, none of the teacher's accrued benefits are carried over to the new position. OAG 76-151.

A local board of education could establish a policy permitting a school principal to accept statements signed by teachers relating to request for sick leave even though the statements have not been notarized. OAG 77-307.

Where a school teacher was ill and missed most of one month and part of the next, during which time the schools were closed 17 days due to severe weather and permission was granted by the department of education to cut short the school year by five days, as calamity days, the teacher was entitled to be paid for the calamity days; however, since she would have been unable to teach on these days, she must take these days as sick leave days under this section. OAG 78-311.

If a teacher is absent on an extended school day and is not covered by sick leave, personal leave or emergency death leave, he or she loses one and one-fifth day's salary. OAG 78-367.

In the event a teacher is absent for illness during the time the school system is operating on the extended school day, this constitutes a deduction of one and one-fifth days from his or her current or accumulated sick leave. OAG 78-367.

A local board of education continues to have at its reasonable discretion the authority to adopt a uniform policy relative to sick leave which would permit granting to teachers, who had resigned with accumulated sick leave and who were subsequently reemployed, part or all of the previously accumulated sick leave, and the length of time between resignation and reemployment issue is simply for the board to determine. OAG 79-148.

KRS 161.740(1)(c) and subsection (3) (now (4)) of this section are quite similar and should be construed consistently one with the other. OAG 79-148.

The language in this section that "any accumulated sick leave days, not to exceed thirty (30) days, credited to a teacher shall remain so credited in the event he transfers his place of employment from one school district to another within the state" contemplates a continuity of employment from one school district to another. OAG 79-148.

Although this section will not permit a school board requirement of a physician's certificate of an employee's disability to work in that an affidavit of the teacher will suffice, there is nothing in KRS 161.770 to preclude a board of education from requiring a physician's certificate; a school board could adopt such a policy pursuant to KRS 160.340(2)(e) which requires the board to adopt personnel policies that apply to certified employees. OAG 80-151.

Sick leave with pay under this section is available to the pregnant teacher who is thereby disabled from performing her teaching duties, but a pregnant condition in and of itself would not entitle a teacher to sick leave; if, however, the teacher by affidavit or physician's certificate states she is ill or otherwise disabled from teaching due to her "pregnancy, childbirth or other related medical conditions," then a local board of education must permit the teacher to take days of accumulated sick leave. OAG 80-151.

The teacher who requests and goes on a leave of absence under KRS 161.770 is not entitled to sick leave days authorized under this section; any sick leave accrued that is desired to be taken should be used before the teacher commences the leave of absence without pay status, authorized by KRS 161.770. OAG 80-151.

The language of this section stating that compensation may be credited for unused sick leave "after July 1, 1981," does not prohibit crediting of such credit to those certificated employees, otherwise eligible, who retire prior to July 1, 1981, provided that the additional amount to be added to their last year of final salary, due to accumulated unused sick days, is determined not later than July 15, 1981. OAG 81-1.

A plan which provides an annual bonus to teachers who use no sick leave is not legally permissible in Kentucky. There is no statute authorizing a bonus for unused sick leave and, if the legislature passed such a statute, it would be unconstitutional as violative of Ky. Const., § 3. OAG 82-316.

The provisions of this section preempt the field of teachers' sick leave and set the limits for local boards on that subject. OAG 82-316.

A county school board may not by policy choose to compensate an employee or teacher, at the time of retirement, for less than all of the unused sick leave days rightly accumulated; although this section gives the board discretion in setting the rate of compensation as long as it doesn't exceed 30 percent of the teacher's last annual salary, the language of the section clearly requires that the retiring teacher be compensated for "each" unused sick leave day. OAG 83-191.

A teacher may take his or her sick leave days on any day of the school year upon compliance with the statutorily required presentation of a personal affidavit or certificate of a physician or as provided for by an appropriately adopted regulation or policy of a local board of education, and a teacher who uses accumulated sick leave to cover a period of absence is not required to use a sick leave day when the schools are already closed for a paid holiday, since the teacher is authorized by KRS 158.070 to be paid for such holidays without the payment being charged to accumulated sick leave. OAG 83-457.

The 1986 amendment to subsection (5) (now (9)) of this section is constitutionally valid so that a teacher may use up to 30 days of sick leave following the adoption of a child or children. OAG 86-66.

A teacher is entitled to utilize earned sick leave due to disability from pregnancy, childbirth or recovery therefrom. OAG 86-66.

Employee who transferred from one school district to another is entitled to the sick leave days earned during her prior employment in the other school district. OAG 91-135.

Compensation for sick leave as set forth in subsections (8) and (9) (now (10) and (11)) of this section is constitutionally permissible. OAG 91-219.

Compensation for unused sick leave at time of retirement does not constitute a bonus, in contravention of Section 3 of the Kentucky Constitution, but instead constitutes part of retirement benefits. OAG 91-219.

There is no authority that would have enabled the superintendent to transfer more than 30 days of sick leave from county to county, but once in the new county, the superintendent could accumulate sick leave days without limitation. OAG 91-219.

This section allows the board to grant a superintendent only those unused sick leave days which he was entitled to keep upon transfer from county to county. OAG 91-219.

Under subsection (9) (now (11)) of this section, a teacher who has transferred from one school district to another after July 15, 1981, is entitled to credit for unused sick leave days "to which entitled on the date of transfer," for the purpose of compensation at the time of retirement as per subsection (8) (now (10)) of this section. OAG 91-219.

Under subsection (1)(a) of this section, "teacher" consistently has been defined to include "any person for whom certification is required as a basis of employment in the common schools of the state"; this definition includes principals and superintendents, who are certified as teachers and as administrators. OAG 91-219.

Under subsections (8) and (9) (now (10) and (11)) of this section, after employee has completed 27 years of service, notwithstanding sick leave, the school board may approve compensation for unused sick leave days, and apply that compensation toward the teacher or employee's final salary. OAG 91-219.

A son-in-law and daughter-in-law are not included in the definition of immediate relative (son-in-law and daughter-in-law are now included per 2000 amendment) in subdivision (1)(c) of this section. OAG 93-39.

At the death of an employed active public school teacher, a school board may not pay the decedent's estate or named beneficiary the value of the employee's accumulated unused sick leave even if the employee were eligible for retirement; rather, a local school district may only compensate a district employee at the time of retirement for accumulated unused sick leave. OAG 94-39.

161.157. Credits allowed transferred employee of Department of Education or Education Professional Standards Board.

An employee of the Department of Education or the Education Professional Standards Board who transfers to become an employee of the local school district shall be allowed credit for accrued sick leave up to the maximum allowed for transfers for teachers between school districts as provided by KRS 161.155(4) and shall be allowed credit for each full year of employment with the Department of Education or the Education Professional Standards Board for the determination of pay under the school districts' single salary schedule.

161.158. Group insurance — Board's termination of participation in state health plan — Employees offered coverage in state health plan under federal law eligible for state-funded contribution — Deductions from salaries.

(1)(a) Each district board of education may form its employees into a group or groups or recognize existing groups for the purpose of obtaining the advantages of group life, disability, medical, and dental insurance, or any group insurance plans to aid its employees including the state employee health insurance group as described in KRS 18A.225 to 18A.2287, as long as the employees continue to be employed by the board of education. Medical and dental group insurance plans obtained under authority of this section may include insurance benefits for the families of the insured group or groups of employees. Any district board of education may pay all or part of the premium on the policies, and may deduct from the salaries of the employees that part of the premium which is to be paid by them and may contract with the insurer to provide the above benefits. As permitted in KRS 160.280(4), board members shall be eligible to participate in any group medical or dental insurance provided by the district for employees.

(b) If a district board of education participates in the state employee health insurance program, as described in KRS 18A.225 to 18A.2287, for its active employees and terminates participation and there is a state appropriation approved by the General Assembly for the employer's contribution for active employees' health insurance coverage, neither the board of education nor the employees shall receive the state-funded contribution after termination from the state employee health insurance program.

(c) If a district board of education participates in the state employee health insurance program as described in KRS 18A.225 to 18A.2287 for its active employees, all district employees who are required to be offered health insurance coverage for purposes of, and in accordance with, the federal Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act of 2010, Pub. L. No. 111-148, shall be eligible for the state-funded contribution appropriated by the General Assembly for the employer's contribution for active employees' health insurance coverage.

(2)(a) Each district board of education shall adopt policies or regulations which will provide for:

1.a. Deductions from salaries of its employees or groups of employees whenever a request is presented to the board by said employees or groups thereof.

b. The deductions shall be made from salaries earned in at least eight (8) different pay periods.

c. The deductions may be made for, but are not limited to, membership dues, tax-sheltered annuities, and group insurance premiums.

d. The district board is prohibited from deducting membership dues of an employee organization, membership organization, or labor organization without the express written consent of the employee. Express written consent of the employee may be revoked in writing by the employee at any time. This provision shall apply to contracts entered into, opted in, extended or renewed on or after January 9, 2017.

e. With the exception of membership dues, the board shall not be required to make more than one (1) remittance of amounts deducted during a pay period for a separate type of deduction; and

2. Deductions from payments for the per diem and actual expenses provided under KRS 160.280(1) to members of the district board of education whenever a request is presented by a board member to the board. The deductions may be made for but not be limited to membership dues, health insurance purchases, scholarship funds, and contributions to a political action committee.

(b) The deductions under paragraph (a)1. and 2. of this subsection shall be remitted to the appropriate organization or association as specified by the employees within thirty (30) days following the deduction, provided the district has received appropriate invoices or necessary documentation.

(c) Health insurance, life insurance, and tax-sheltered annuities shall be interpreted as separate types of deductions. When amounts have been correctly deducted and remitted by the board, the board shall bear no further responsibility or liability for subsequent transaction.

(3) Payments and deductions made by the board of education under the authority of this section are presumed to be for services rendered and for the benefit of the common schools, and the payments and deductions shall not affect the eligibility of any school system to participate in the public school funding program as established in KRS Chapter 157.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Analysis

1. Payroll Deductions.
2. Membership Dues.

1. Payroll Deductions.

This chapter permits employee organizations to participate in payroll deductions. Kentucky Educators Public Affairs Council v. Kentucky Registry of Election Finance, 677 F.2d 1125, 1982 U.S. App. LEXIS 19286 (6th Cir. Ky. 1982).

Reverse check-off procedure utilized by the Kentucky Educators Public Affairs Council, an unincorporated political action committee established by the Kentucky Education Association (KEA), whereby contributions were deducted from KEA members' paychecks unless the member affirmatively checked off that he declined to contribute and whereby the member could subsequently decide not to participate and obtain a refund, was neither coercion nor an assessment under KRS 121.320, and sufficiently protected the rights of dissenting members. Hence, an order of the Kentucky Registry of Election Finance finding KEPAC's procedure violative of KRS 121.320 infringed on KEPAC's first amendment rights to collect money for political purposes. Kentucky Educators Public Affairs Council v. Kentucky Registry of Election Finance, 677 F.2d 1125, 1982 U.S. App. LEXIS 19286 (6th Cir. Ky. 1982).

Section 337.060 did not prohibit a school board from deducting union dues from employees' wages where such deduction was authorized by subsection (2) of this section. Clevinger v. Board of Educ., 789 S.W.2d 5, 1990 Ky. LEXIS 40 (Ky. 1990).

2. Membership Dues.

The common, ordinary meaning of "membership" is the total number of members of an organization. Unions are made up of members. There is nothing in this section that hints that union members were not to be included along with other membership organizations. Thus, "membership dues" perforce includes union dues. Clevinger v. Board of Educ., 789 S.W.2d 5, 1990 Ky. LEXIS 40 (Ky. 1990).

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

The members of families of employees and/or the dependents of employees may, within the discretion of the board, participate in the various types of group coverage provided the extra cost of the family coverage or dependent coverage is paid by the employee. OAG 70-336.

Where a district board of education desires to pay all or any part of the premiums on group policies for district employees, the advertising and competitive bid procedure of KRS 424.260 should be followed where the amount to be paid by the board is in excess of $1,000. OAG 70-687.

This section does not disqualify political organizations from receiving the authorized deductions. OAG 72-663.

This section requires that each school board make payroll deductions for the Kentucky Educator's Public Affairs Council when properly authorized according to its adopted policies and regulations. OAG 72-663.

A school board cannot be required, after making one deduction for health insurance, to make any other deductions for cancer insurance or for insurance for any other specific disease. OAG 72-707.

The board of education may make such rules as are reasonable and it would be reasonable to require that there be a minimum number of employees desiring a particular deduction before it shall be made by the board. OAG 72-802.

Board of education may contract for an insurance plan for its employees as long as it pays all or part of the premium on the policies. OAG 73-390.

In a proposed contract between an insurance company and Fayette County Board of Education to provide tax sheltered annuities in lieu of full salary for any employee, a section holding the school district liable for any act of negligence was improper under this section and the doctrine of sovereign immunity. OAG 74-414.

Where a school board provides a fixed sum of money to be used in purchasing fringe benefits for each of its teachers, it may afford the teachers the option to receive the fringe benefits or an equivalent fixed sum in cash. OAG 75-646.

Although a board of education would be required to make deductions from teachers' salaries for membership in a credit union, the board would not be required to withhold monthly payments on loans taken out by members from the credit union. OAG 77-333.

A local school board may elect to purchase liability insurance for its employees and pay all or a portion of the premium from board of education funds. OAG 78-21.

This section, permissive in nature, would permit a school board to pay any or all of the costs of a group optical insurance plan coverage for its employees, but not for the employees' families unless such a plan was included in a group medical plan. OAG 78-592.

A reduction for the Kentucky Deferred Compensation System Program is not a "deduction" for a tax-sheltered annuity, but is a different type of program than tax-sheltered annuities; accordingly, where an employee participates in a tax-sheltered annuity and the Kentucky Public Employee's Deferred Compensation System, the reduction for both is not the "same type" of deduction, and does not violate subsection (2) of this section. OAG 80-515.

KRS 18.510 to 18.600 (now see KRS 18A.230 to 18A.350) and this section are not in conflict and school employees can participate in both school annuity programs and the Kentucky Deferred Compensation System Program. OAG 80-515.

There is nothing in the school laws to preclude a school district from establishing a cafeteria insurance plan for its teachers, pursuant to the conditions and criteria set out in 26 USCS § 125. However, the money available to the teacher to be applied, if desired, to a cafeteria plan is still a part of that teacher's salary even though nontaxable; the teacher can elect to take a part of the money provided for by the school district in this regard as cash and, of course, this amount would be taxable. Moreover, the school districts must include the amount of money established for such a plan in all computations required for single salary schedule determinations, including the procedure required for determining the amount of money to be received by a school district for teachers' salaries from the Minimum Foundation Fund. OAG 83-151.

A reverse dues check-off procedure is permissible under KRS 161.158(2), provided that employees are presented with a knowing and voluntary opportunity to opt out in writing. Thus, a board of education may use an opt-out policy for deducting membership dues. OAG 13-009, 2013 Ky. AG LEXIS 125.

161.159. Adoption of rules and regulations to implement life insurance program.

The Kentucky Board of Education, upon the recommendation of the chief state school officer, shall adopt rules and regulations to implement the state life insurance program provided for employees of the common schools subject to the following standards:

(1) The life insurance program shall cover both certified and noncertified common school personnel.

(2) The life insurance program shall be made available to all regular full-time personnel as defined by the Kentucky Board of Education regulations.

161.164. Political activity prohibited — Discrimination prohibited — Instructional materials requirements — Student not required to advocate for perspective with which he or she does not agree — Employee not required to engage in training that stereotypes group.

(1) No employee of the local school district shall take part in the management or activities of any political campaign for school board.

(2) No candidate for school board shall solicit or accept any political assessment, subscription, contribution, or service of any employee of the school district.

(3) No person shall use or promise to use, directly or indirectly, any official authority or influence, whether possessed or anticipated, to secure or attempt to secure for any person an appointment or advantage in appointment to a position as teacher or employee of any district board of education, or an increase in pay or other advantage in employment in any such position, for the purpose of influencing the vote or political action of any person.

(4) No teacher or employee of any district board of education shall be appointed or promoted to, or demoted or dismissed from, any position or in any way favored or discriminated against with respect to employment because of his political or religious opinions or affiliations or ethnic origin or race or color or sex or age or disabling condition.

(5) Any instruction or instructional materials on current, controversial topics related to public policy or social affairs provided to public school or public charter school students, regardless of whether the individual that provides the instruction is employed by the local school district or public charter school, shall be:

(a) Within the range of knowledge, understanding, age, and maturity of the students receiving the instruction; and

(b) Relevant, objective, nondiscriminatory, and respectful to the differing perspectives of students.

(6) An employee of a public school district or public charter school shall not violate a student's First Amendment rights by requiring or incentivizing a student to advocate in a civic space on behalf of a perspective with which the student or the parent or guardian of a minor student does not agree.

(7) An employee of a local school district or public charter school shall not be required to engage in training, orientation, or therapy that coerces the employee to stereotype any group.

(8) The local superintendent shall inform all school employees of the provisions of this section.

1. Constitutionality.

4. Purpose.
5. Solicitation of Money or Services.
6. Discrimination Suit.
7. Evidence of Discrimination.
8. Office of Superintendent.
9. Removal of Administrator.
10. Protected Conduct.

1. Constitutionality.

2. — Management.

The word “management” as used in subsection (1) of this section is constitutional because it does give school employees a fair notice of the standard of conduct to which they will be held accountable. While there may be some confusion over what constitutes a political activity, a person exercising ordinary common sense can discern the difference between a political activity, such as placing a sign in the yard, and managing or directing a school board candidate’s campaign. State Bd. for Elementary & Secondary Educ. v. Howard, 834 S.W.2d 657, 1992 Ky. LEXIS 85 (Ky. 1992).

3. — Activities.

A person of ordinary intelligence cannot identify the conduct prohibited under the word “activities” as used in subsection (1) of this section. Moreover, the word “activities” is not facially intelligible or clear; therefore, this section is unconstitutionally vague because it does not give school employees a fair notice of the standard of conduct to which they are to be held accountable. The criteria established are so vague that the enforcing authority is vested with too much discretion. Consequently, many school employees would suffer a chilling effect on political expression of all kinds. State Bd. for Elementary & Secondary Educ. v. Howard, 834 S.W.2d 657, 1992 Ky. LEXIS 85 (Ky. 1992).

4. Purpose.

Kentucky Constitution § 183 places a duty on the General Assembly to establish an efficient common school system free from political influence and this section and KRS 161.990 were enacted by the General Assembly in an effort to comply with this directive. State Bd. for Elementary & Secondary Educ. v. Howard, 834 S.W.2d 657, 1992 Ky. LEXIS 85 (Ky. 1992).

5. Solicitation of Money or Services.

Subsection (2) of this section clearly puts a school board candidate on notice that he or she is not to solicit school district employees for either money or services; it gives fair and plain notice to those to whom it applies and is not subject to arbitrary enforcement. State Bd. for Elementary & Secondary Educ. v. Howard, 834 S.W.2d 657, 1992 Ky. LEXIS 85 (Ky. 1992).

Subsection (2) of this section is not overly broad. The state has a legitimate compelling interest in regulating the conduct of school board candidates in connection with their ability to receive money and services from school district employees. There is a real and present danger in any system where those who have the overall responsibility for the administration of the schools can attain their position in large part because of solicitations from those who work for the system. Political neutrality for school employees is a sound element in any efficient system of education. State Bd. for Elementary & Secondary Educ. v. Howard, 834 S.W.2d 657, 1992 Ky. LEXIS 85 (Ky. 1992).

6. Discrimination Suit.

An applicant who was denied consideration for two teaching positions could not bring a discrimination suit under this section, which applies only to teachers and employees — not applicants — of any state board of education. Creech v. McQuinn, 957 S.W.2d 261, 1997 Ky. App. LEXIS 15 (Ky. Ct. App. 1997).

Summary judgment in favor of defendants was reversed because the teacher’s claims of violations of her First and Fourteenth Amendment rights of freedom of expression, speech, and association and her rights under KRS 161.164 and 161.162 (now repealed) were not precluded by the alleged political nature of her position as the grants department director because the teacher lacked political discretion in her position as director and nothing in the teacher’s duties rendered her advice particularly sensitive or confidential, nor did the teacher control the lines of communication between the superintendent and the general public. Justice v. Pike County Bd. of Educ., 348 F.3d 554, 2003 FED App. 0392P, 2003 U.S. App. LEXIS 22631 (6th Cir. Ky. 2003).

In a civil rights suit brought under 42 USCS § 1983 and Kentucky law, specifically §§ 1, 2 and 8 of the Kentucky Constitution and KRS 161.164 and 161.750(2), a teacher asserted that she was not rehired because of her union activities. Because hiring school district employees is an act essential to the function of the school district, Kentucky’s governmental immunity protected the school district and the school superintendent, in his official capacity, from liability for the teacher’s state-law claims. Smith v. Floyd County Bd. of Educ., 401 F. Supp. 2d 789, 2005 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 29220 (E.D. Ky. 2005).

In a civil rights suit brought under 42 USCS § 1983 and Kentucky law, specifically §§ 1, 2 and 8 of the Kentucky Constitution and KRS 161.164 and 161.750(2), a teacher asserted that she was not rehired because of her union activities. For claims against the school superintendent in his individual capacity for hiring decisions in which he actually participated and or in which his role was unclear, the superintendent was not entitled to summary judgment; it had long been established that discharging or failing to hire or retain an employee because she engaged in protected speech was wrongful, so the superintendent was not entitled to qualified immunity from liability for those claims. Smith v. Floyd County Bd. of Educ., 401 F. Supp. 2d 789, 2005 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 29220 (E.D. Ky. 2005).

In a civil rights suit brought under 42 USCS § 1983 and Kentucky law and asserting that a teacher was not rehired because of her union activities, where the teacher failed to establish that a school board participated in, or should have participated in, the challenged hiring decisions, and KRS 161.164 and 161.750 indicated that the school board played no role in such hiring decisions, the teacher failed to establish causation and the school board was entitled to summary judgment on the teacher’s First Amendment retaliation claim. Smith v. Floyd County Bd. of Educ., 401 F. Supp. 2d 789, 2005 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 29220 (E.D. Ky. 2005).

In a civil rights suit brought under 42 USCS § 1983 and Kentucky law and asserting that a teacher was not rehired because of her union activities. Where the school superintendent admitted that he had made hiring decisions for district-wide positions the teacher was denied, and KRS 161.164 and 161.750 provided further support of the superintendent’s role in the hiring process, the teacher established, for summary judgment purposes, the causation element of her First Amendment retaliation claim, and because it had long been clear that discharging a public employee for engaging in protected speech and association violated the First Amendment, the superintendent was not entitled to qualified immunity against liability for that claim. Smith v. Floyd County Bd. of Educ., 401 F. Supp. 2d 789, 2005 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 29220 (E.D. Ky. 2005).

7. Evidence of Discrimination.

As a matter of proof, there need be no more than an inference of arbitrariness in the dismissal or transfer of a teacher on account of political activities to bring the action within the prohibition of this section and where the evidence showed that an assistant principal and the school superintendent supported opposing candidates in a board of education election and that, shortly thereafter, the superintendent dismissed the principal because of an alleged decrease in student population and funding, which did not in fact exist, arbitrariness was clearly established. Harlan County Board of Education v. Stagnolia, 555 S.W.2d 828, 1977 Ky. App. LEXIS 805 (Ky. Ct. App. 1977) (decided under prior law).

8. Office of Superintendent.

Former law similar to subsection (4) of this section did not prevent a board of education from failing to reappoint a superintendent once his contract has expired; and with the office of superintendent being an appointed position, it was not inconceivable that political views and allegiances could be a consideration in the selection. Floyd v. Board of Education, 598 S.W.2d 460, 1979 Ky. App. LEXIS 528 (Ky. Ct. App. 1979) (decided under prior law).

9. Removal of Administrator.

An administrator has been given no right of tenure to an administrative position and may be removed from such position by the local board of education upon recommendation of the superintendent for any reason not offending some right protected by the state or federal constitutions or this section. Hooks v. Smith, 781 S.W.2d 522, 1989 Ky. App. LEXIS 151 (Ky. Ct. App. 1989) (decided under prior law).

10. Protected Conduct.

Although a school administrator's use of her religious beliefs in exercising her administrative duties and in exercising authority over teachers was offensive to some of the teachers, it did not invariably pose some substantial threat to public safety, peace or order, rendering her behavior in this regard to be protected conduct. Hooks v. Smith, 781 S.W.2d 522, 1989 Ky. App. LEXIS 151 (Ky. Ct. App. 1989) (decided under prior law).

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

A teacher employed by a school board of a district where the teacher does not reside is not prohibited from simultaneously serving as a member of a school board of a different district where the teacher does reside. OAG 90-127.

Employee of a school board for a county in which employee does not live, may campaign for or seek election to the school board in the district of employee's residence since employee is not employed by that district's school board. OAG 90-127.

Subsection (3) of this section refers to "any district" whereas subsection (1) refers to "the local school district" and subsection (2) refers to "the school district"; because of the difference in wording (namely, the use of "the" in subsection (1) as opposed to "any," prior to "district"), the General Assembly intended the restrictions on campaigning under subsections (1) and (2) only to apply to persons employed by the school district where the candidate is seeking to be elected. OAG 90-127.

A member of the county board of education may sell insurance to school employees on an individual basis. OAG 90-138.

A school board candidate may not solicit or accept any money, goods, property, or services, from a school district employee. However, in the case of "services," the First Amendment right to voice one's political opinion must be balanced against the state's interest in ridding schools of undue political influence. Conduct which would be permitted includes: registration and voting, signing of nominating petitions, the expressing of personal opinions regarding a school board candidate, and the display of political pictures, signs, buttons, or bumper stickers. Additionally, school board candidates may provide on request, campaign literature for the personal use of a school district employee. In contrast, the following activities would be prohibited: campaign literature distribution by a school employee, solicitation of political support by a school district employee in canvassing a district or soliciting political support for a school board candidate, either in person, by telephone, or in writing, and providing assistance or working for the school board candidate's campaign. OAG 92-145.

School board candidates may not solicit or accept contributions and services from school district employees. This prohibition applies equally to agents of the candidate; therefore, the school board candidate's campaign manager and staff are prohibited from soliciting or accepting the services of school employees on behalf of the campaign. OAG 92-145.

A school board candidate need not either accept or decline an endorsement of a local education association or similar employee union. Endorsing a school board candidate is not the same as contributing or providing a service to the campaign; rather, voluntary endorsement of a candidate is the same as an expression of personal opinion and therefore not prohibited by this section. OAG 92-145.

A school board candidate may not solicit or accept the following services from a school district employee: (1) distributing campaign material, literature, or signs; (2) working for the campaign by canvassing voters, stuffing campaign envelopes, working at a campaign phone bank, or driving the candidate; (3) performing any fundraising services or contributing money, goods or property; or (4) being involved with the management of a school board campaign. OAG 92-145.

This section clearly prohibits a school board candidate from accepting cash contributions from a political action committee (PAC) whose members are local school employees. OAG 92-145.

This section prohibits a school board candidate from accepting contributions or services from school employees. The fact that the school employees have formed a political action committee does not change the fact that the employees are actually providing the service or contribution, even if activities such as manning telephone banks, door-to-door solicitation, or distribution of campaign material are described by the PAC as "in-kind" contributions. Allowing the PAC to do indirectly what the school board candidates are prohibited from doing directly is a violation of this section. OAG 92-145.

The local education association or school employee union may not attempt to evade the statutory prohibition against contributing to school board elections by claiming their actions are independent of the campaign. OAG 92-145.

Constitutional factors that should be utilized when determining whether a political expression or promise by a school board candidate has violated subsection (3) of this section are the precise nature of the promise; the conditions upon which it is given; the circumstances under which it is made; the size of the audience; and the nature and size of the group to be benefited. OAG 92-156.

A statement by a school board candidate that he prefers a certain individual to serve as superintendent is protected by the first amendment of the United States Constitution and the Kentucky Constitution. OAG 92-156.

161.165. Recruitment of minority teachers.

(1) The Kentucky Department of Education in cooperation with the Education Professional Standards Board, the Kentucky Board of Education, local school districts, universities, and colleges, and the Council on Postsecondary Education shall review and revise as needed the strategic plan for increasing the number of minority teachers and administrators in the Commonwealth. The plan shall include, but not be limited to, recommendations on ways to:

- (a) Identify methods for increasing the percentage of minority educators in proportion to the number of minority students;
- (b) Establish programs to identify, recruit, and prepare as teachers minority persons who have already earned college degrees in other job fields;
- (c) Create awareness among secondary school guidance counselors of the need for minority teachers.

(2) The Kentucky Department of Education and the Education Professional Standards Board shall promote programs that increase the percentage of minorities who enter and successfully complete a four (4) year teacher preparation program and provide support to minority students in meeting qualifying requirements for students entering a teacher preparation program at institutions of higher education.

(3) The Kentucky Department of Education with input from the Education Professional Standards Board shall periodically submit a report to the Interim Joint Committee on Education that evaluates the results of these efforts and includes accompanying recommendations to establish a continuing program for increasing the number of minorities in teacher education.

Notwithstanding any other statute to the contrary, a certified employee of a local board of education who is a member of a state National Guard or a Reserve component ordered to active military duty by the President of the United States shall be granted a leave of absence for this purpose and shall be considered to be rendering service to the state.

(1) A local board of education that has granted military leave to a certified employee and has a commitment from the employee to return to work upon the conclusion of military leave may provide the employer's contribution toward the purchase of the state's medical insurance program during the period of military leave as long as the employee or spouse pays the additional cost of dependent coverage.

(2) Upon the employee's return to work, the Commonwealth of Kentucky shall pay the member contribution and any accrued interest that is required to be paid under KRS 161.507(4)(b) in order for the member to receive retirement service credit for the period of active military duty. Under no circumstances shall a member be entitled to service credit under this paragraph that is in violation of the provisions of KRS 161.500. The provisions of this subsection shall be retroactive to January 1, 2003, for employees who have been deployed to active combat service.

(3) For each year of military service or each year of combined military and school service within a school year, the certified employee shall receive a year of service credit for purposes of the district's single salary schedule defined in KRS 157.320.

(4) No provisions of this section shall be construed to provide disability benefits under KRS 161.611 or 161.663, survivorship benefits under KRS 161.520, life insurance benefits under KRS 161.555 or any other benefit available from the Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System as a result of active military service, or conditions or injuries resulting from active military service, except for the accrual of service credit which shall be acknowledged by the retirement system subject to the relevant conditions set forth in KRS 161.507.

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

A board of education has adequate authority to adopt regulations which would require teachers to submit to periodic physical examinations if it appears that they are physically unable to discharge their duties as a teacher. OAG 65-560.

A school board may impose reasonable regulations governing the appearance of the teachers it employs. OAG 79-158.

A teacher is obligated, not only to enforce the rules and regulations for the school system, but also to comply with those rules and regulations. OAG 79-158.

The authority to promulgate such rules and regulations rests solely with the board of education; the school administrators, such as principals, do not have the authority to set rules and regulations. OAG 79-158.

One time payments to teachers to induce retirement are constitutional under Const., § 3 as such payments are in consideration of public service. The key fact that makes these payments constitutional is the voluntary retirement of the teacher; such an act is a "present" service for which an emolument is paid, not a past service for which a gratuity is given. OAG 96-23.

Analysis

1. Construction.
2. Use of Discipline.
3. Mandatory Reporting of Sexual Abuse.
4. Qualified Immunity.

1. Construction.

This section and KRS 158.150 plainly authorize public schools to make and enforce reasonable regulations for the government of such schools during school hours. Casey County Board of Education v. Luster, 282 S.W.2d 333, 1955 Ky. LEXIS 238 (Ky. 1955).

A public school teacher can be held liable for injuries caused by the negligent supervision of her students. The premise for this duty is that a child is compelled to attend school so that the protective custody of teachers is mandatorily substituted for that of the parent. A special, fiduciary quasi-parental relationship is created and imposes an affirmative duty on the district, its faculty, and its administrators to take all reasonable steps to prevent foreseeable harm to its students. Additionally, KRS 161.180(1) explicitly requires each public school teacher and administrator to hold pupils to strict account for their conduct on school premises. A teacher retains some discretion with respect to the means or method by which to exercise the duty to supervise students properly and to protect them from foreseeable harm. Nelson v. Turner, 256 S.W.3d 37, 2008 Ky. App. LEXIS 177 (Ky. Ct. App. 2008).

2. Use of Discipline.

Where a teacher believes that she is in danger of bodily harm, the jury must be instructed as to the defendant teacher's power under this section to exercise such disciplinary force as is necessary to restrain the complaining witness before the defendant teacher can be found guilty of assault and battery. Owens v. Commonwealth, 473 S.W.2d 827, 1971 Ky. LEXIS 168 (Ky. 1971).

3. Mandatory Reporting of Sexual Abuse.

To find that KRS 620.030 does not apply, there must be a finding that the act committed upon the child is not an act of sexual abuse. For purposes of KRS Chapter 600, the definition of a neglected or abused child is set forth at KRS 600.020. If sexual abuse has occurred, then the mandatory reporting requirement in KRS 620.030 would have required the teacher to report this incident and such mandatory reporting would result in this being considered a ministerial rather than a discretionary act which would preclude the teacher from claiming qualified official immunity. Nelson v. Turner, 256 S.W.3d 37, 2008 Ky. App. LEXIS 177 (Ky. Ct. App. 2008).

4. Qualified Immunity.

School officials were entitled to qualified immunity from an action filed by a student based on sexual abuse by a teacher because the school officials' duty to supervise was a discretionary act, as the school officials had only a general supervisory duty over the student and were not actually involved in active supervision at the times relevant to the student's complaint. Ritchie v. Turner, 559 S.W.3d 822, 2018 Ky. LEXIS 434 (Ky. 2018).

Cited:

Williams v. Ky. Dep't of Educ., 113 S.W.3d 145, 2003 Ky. LEXIS 175 (Ky. 2003); Patton v. Bickford, 2013 Ky. App. Unpub. LEXIS 1002 (Ky. Ct. App. July 19, 2013).

NOTES TO UNPUBLISHED DECISIONS

1. Construction.

School officials sued for negligent supervision and negligence per se regarding a student who bullied a parent's child were entitled to qualified official immunity because (1) the officials' decision regarding appropriate discipline for the offending student was discretionary, (2) neither Ky. Rev. Stat. Ann. § 161.180(1) nor the school district's disciplinary code imposed a ministerial duty on the officials, and (3) the officials met the requirements of both the statute and the disciplinary code by exercising discretion to discipline the offender. Slatery v J.F., 2015 Ky. App. Unpub. LEXIS 871 (Ky. Ct. App. May 29, 2015).

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

Under this section, a teacher is authorized to detain a student who had failed to prepare his lessons for a reasonable period of time after school hours. OAG 61-293.

A teacher may be assigned "extra duties" without "extra compensation" so long as said "extra duties" are not unreasonable, arbitrary, or discriminatory. OAG 63-106.

A board of education may prohibit any student who operates his automobile on the way to or from school in a reckless or wanton manner from driving said motor vehicle to or from school. OAG 63-486.

A school teacher may search a pupil's pockets or purse and confiscate such articles as cigarette lighters, pocket knives, or key chains with cigarette lighters attached if the teacher acts with reasonable judgment and for good cause, without malice and for the welfare of the child, as well as the school, but the parents should be advised of the action. OAG 64-329.

A teacher has the right to administer corporal punishment to students enrolled in the school but not enrolled in the teacher's classroom so long as it does not exceed that which appears to be appropriate under the circumstances. OAG 69-534.

A teacher does have the legal authority to discipline students enrolled in the school but not enrolled in the teacher's classroom. OAG 69-534.

Teachers' aides, both paid and volunteer, may serve in supervisory capacities with the same authority and responsibility as teachers when assigned these duties by the school principal and will be held to the same accountability for negligence as a teacher but the school board itself cannot be held liable for the negligence of either teachers or teachers' aides. OAG 73-770.

It was improper for supervisor to order a teacher to bathe a first grade pupil as such a duty may not reasonably be defined as a teaching duty. OAG 74-241.

This section is not authorization for school officials to regulate students' use of cars as a means of transportation to and from school nor could the school board be held liable in tort for injury to students on or off school grounds, due to the school boards' sovereign immunity in torts. OAG 74-783.

This section does not conflict with a school board's policy, requiring that corporal punishment take place in the principal's office with both the principal and teacher being present, to such a degree that the policy can be considered invalid. OAG 75-693.

Under this section, teachers could impose some reasonable form of punishment to regulate student conduct off school grounds when a child is coming to or going from the school. OAG 76-348.

If a child brings to school medication that has been prescribed by a physician, the teacher would not be required to assume the responsibility to see that the medication is taken. OAG 77-530.

A principal may require teachers to supervise the loading of school buses even though the last bus does not leave until after 3:30 p.m. OAG 77-718.

A school system has the right to suspend a child from the school bus for misconduct. OAG 78-392.

Corporal punishment is a legitimate form of discipline to be used in Kentucky's public common schools but with some restraints legally implied, for example, the force used must be reasonable and not excessive; and, although teachers have, by Kentucky Penal Code provision (KRS 503.110), guidelines for justification of use of physical force upon a pupil, if the punishment is excessive, the school teacher or administrator inflicting the spanking may be held liable in damages to the child and possibly subject to criminal penalties. OAG 78-704.

In view of the responsibilities of teachers and school administrators and in view of the fact that teachers and administrators are state officers or employees they are within the purview of fourth amendment and Ky. Const., § 10 restraint upon activities of the government. OAG 79-168.

member who is at least twenty-one (21) years of age to accompany students on all school-sponsored or school-endorsed trips. Local boards of education may adopt a policy that specifies the job classifications of staff members who may accompany students on trips under this section.

(2) Boards of education may permit a nonfaculty coach or nonfaculty assistant, as defined by administrative regulation promulgated by the Kentucky Board of Education under KRS 156.070(2), to accompany students on all school-sponsored or school-endorsed athletic trips. A nonfaculty coach or nonfaculty assistant shall be at least twenty-one (21) years of age, shall not be a violent offender or convicted of a sex crime as defined by KRS 17.165 which is classified as a felony, and shall submit to a criminal record check under KRS 160.380.

(3) Prior to assuming his or her duties, a nonfaculty coach or nonfaculty assistant shall successfully complete training provided by the local school district. The training shall include, but not be limited to, information on the physical and emotional development of students of the age with whom the nonfaculty coach and nonfaculty assistant will be working, the district's and school's discipline policies, procedures for dealing with discipline problems, and safety and first aid training. Follow-up training shall be provided annually.

This section (Enact. Acts 1968, ch. 61) was repealed and reenacted by Acts 1990, ch. 476, Part V, § 482, effective July 13, 1990.

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

Where students are engaged in an extracurricular activity, such as a senior prom, which is held off school grounds, the board of education members would not be subject to liability for permitting the students to drive themselves to the school-sponsored activity, in the event of a student's injury or death while driving to or from the location. OAG 76-40.

161.190. Abuse of teacher, classified employee, or school administrator prohibited.

Whenever a teacher, classified employee, or school administrator is functioning in his capacity as an employee of a board of education of a public school system, it shall be unlawful for any person to direct speech or conduct toward the teacher, classified employee, or school administrator when such person knows or should know that the speech or conduct will disrupt or interfere with normal school activities or will nullify or undermine the good order and discipline of the school.

This section (4503-8; amend. Acts 1986, ch. 255, § 1, effective July 15, 1986) was repealed and reenacted by Acts 1990, ch. 476, Part V, § 483, effective July 13, 1990.

NOTES TO DECISIONS1. Constitutionality.

Statute is not unconstitutionally vague and is neither overbroad nor unconstitutional as-applied; the statute authorizes conviction for directing speech toward a school administrator that will reasonably disrupt normal school activities, and standing in the schoolhouse foyer and angrily offering to fight the principal while class is in session is conduct that will disrupt day-to-day school activities, such that defendant should have understood that he could be convicted under the statute. Masters v. Commonwealth, 551 S.W.3d 458, 2017 Ky. App. LEXIS 661 (Ky. Ct. App. 2017), cert. denied, 139 S. Ct. 1221, 203 L. Ed. 2d 258, 2019 U.S. LEXIS 901 (U.S. 2019).

This section is an unconstitutional violation of the First Amendment of the U.S. Constitution and Const., §§ 1(4) and 8. Commonwealth v. Ashcraft, 691 S.W.2d 229, 1985 Ky. App. LEXIS 554 (Ky. Ct. App. 1985) (Decision prior to 1986 amendment and 1990 repeal and reenactment).

Statute is constitutional and does not seek to suppress expression, but rather attempts to preserve a suitable learning environment by curbing unreasonable and potentially dangerous disruptions to routine school operations; students, parents, and members of the public may still reasonably express frustration with school employees, but angrily telling someone you are going to physically harm them is precisely the type of speech that would incite a reasonable person to violence, and such a threat against a principal during the school day foreseeably triggers a safety protocol. Masters v. Commonwealth, 551 S.W.3d 458, 2017 Ky. App. LEXIS 661 (Ky. Ct. App. 2017), cert. denied, 139 S. Ct. 1221, 203 L. Ed. 2d 258, 2019 U.S. LEXIS 901 (U.S. 2019).

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

The public harassment of schoolteachers by pupils could be dealt with under this section or under KRS 161.180 when the misconduct is committed between the times the pupils leave their homes until they return home. OAG 72-826.

Although this section does not apply to the relationship of a superintendent and a teacher, it is generally recognized that the best professional practice would be for a teacher's faults to be discussed with him privately or at least not before his pupils. OAG 73-825.

161.200. Records to be kept by teachers — Exceptions.

(1) Each teacher in the public schools shall keep an approved record which shall be left with the superintendent or as he directs at the close of the term. The record shall show the program of recitations, classification, attendance, and grading of all pupils who attended school at any time during the school year, and such other facts as are required.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1) of this section, approved pupil attendance records, for state accounting purposes and for the purpose of state computation of pupil attendance, may be kept in a central location in the local elementary or secondary school. After attendance is reported and recorded by the classroom teacher, either a certified or noncertified person shall complete and check records in accordance with the methods and regulations approved by the superintendent of the local school district and the chief state school officer. A designated certified person within the local elementary or secondary school shall be responsible for auditing and certifying state attendance documents to verify their accuracy.

TEACHERS' RETIREMENT

161.220. Definitions for KRS 161.220 to 161.716 and 161.990.

As used in KRS 161.220 to 161.716 and 161.990:

(1) "Retirement system" means the arrangement provided for in KRS 161.220 to 161.716 and 161.990 for payment of allowances to members;

(2) "Retirement allowance" means the amount annually payable during the course of his or her natural life to a member who has been retired by reason of service;

(3) "Disability allowance" means the amount annually payable to a member retired by reason of disability;

(4) "Member" means the commissioner of education, deputy commissioners, associate commissioners, and all division directors in the State Department of Education, employees participating in the system pursuant to KRS 196.167(3)(b)1., and any full-time teacher or professional occupying a position requiring certification or graduation from a four (4) year college or university, as a condition of employment, and who is employed by public boards, institutions, or agencies as follows:

(a) Local boards of education and public charter schools if the public charter school satisfies the criteria set by the Internal Revenue Service to participate in a governmental retirement plan;

(b) Eastern Kentucky University, Kentucky State University, Morehead State University, Murray State University, Western Kentucky University, and any community colleges established under the control of these universities;

(c) State-operated secondary area vocational education or area technology centers, Kentucky School for the Blind, and Kentucky School for the Deaf;

(d) Other public education agencies as created by the General Assembly and those members of the administrative staff of the Teachers' Retirement System of the State of Kentucky whom the board of trustees may designate by administrative regulation;

(e) Regional cooperative organizations formed by local boards of education or other public educational institutions listed in this subsection, for the purpose of providing educational services to the participating organizations;

(f) All full-time members of the staffs of the Kentucky Association of School Administrators, Kentucky Education Association, Kentucky Vocational Association, Kentucky High School Athletic Association, Kentucky Academic Association, and the Kentucky School Boards Association who were members of the Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System or were qualified for a position covered by the system at the time of employment by the association in the event that the board of directors of the respective association petitions to be included. The board of trustees of the Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System may designate by resolution whether part-time employees of the petitioning association are to be included. The state shall make no contributions on account of these employees, either full-time or part-time. The association shall make the employer's contributions, including any contribution that is specified under KRS 161.550. The provisions of this paragraph shall be applicable to persons in the employ of the associations on or subsequent to July 1, 1972;

(g) Employees of the Council on Postsecondary Education who were employees of the Department for Adult Education and Literacy and who were members of the Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System at the time the department was transferred to the council pursuant to Executive Order 2003-600;

(h) The Office of Career and Technical Education;

(i) The Office of Vocational Rehabilitation;

(j) The Kentucky Educational Collaborative for State Agency Children;

(k) The Governor's Scholars Program;

(l) Any person who is retired for service from the retirement system and is reemployed by an employer identified in this subsection in a position that the board of trustees deems to be a member, except that any person who becomes a member on or after January 1, 2022, and subsequently draws a monthly lifetime retirement allowance, shall upon reemployment after retirement not earn a second retirement account;

(m) Employees of the former Cabinet for Workforce Development who are transferred to the Kentucky Community and Technical College System and who occupy positions covered by the Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System shall remain in the Teachers' Retirement System. New employees occupying these positions, as well as newly created positions qualifying for Teachers' Retirement System coverage that would have previously been included in the former Cabinet for Workforce Development, shall be members of the Teachers' Retirement System;

(n) Effective January 1, 1998, employees of state community colleges who are transferred to the Kentucky Community and Technical College System shall continue to participate in federal old age, survivors, disability, and hospital insurance, and a retirement plan other than the Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System offered by Kentucky Community and Technical College System. New employees occupying positions in the Kentucky Community and Technical College System as referenced in KRS 164.5807(5) that would not have previously been included in the former Cabinet for Workforce Development, shall participate in federal old age, survivors, disability, and hospital insurance and have a choice at the time of employment of participating in a retirement plan provided by the Kentucky Community and Technical College System, including participation in the Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System, on the same basis as faculty of the state universities as provided in KRS 161.540 and 161.620;

(o) Employees of the Office of General Counsel, the Office of Budget and Administrative Services, and the Office of Quality and Human Resources within the Office of the Secretary of the former Cabinet for Workforce Development and the commissioners of the former Department for Adult Education and Literacy and the former Department for Technical Education who were contributing to the Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System as of July 15, 2000;

(p) Employees of the Kentucky Department of Education only who are graduates of a four (4) year college or university, notwithstanding a substitution clause within a job classification, and who are serving in a professional job classification as defined by the department;

(q) The Governor's School for Entrepreneurs Program;

(r) Employees of the Office of Adult Education within the Department of Workforce Development in the Education and Labor Cabinet who were employees of the Council on Postsecondary Education, Kentucky Adult Education Program and who were members of the Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System at the time the Program was transferred to the cabinet pursuant to Executive Orders 2019-0026 and 2019-0027; and

(s) Employees of the Education Professional Standards Board who were members of the Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System at the time the employees were transferred to the Kentucky Department of Education pursuant to Executive Order 2020-590;

(5) "Present teacher" means any teacher who was a teacher on or before July 1, 1940, and became a member of the retirement system created by 1938 (1st Extra. Sess.) Ky. Acts ch. 1, on the date of the inauguration of the system or within one (1) year after that date, and any teacher who was a member of a local teacher retirement system in the public elementary or secondary schools of the state on or before July 1, 1940, and continued to be a member of the system until he or she, with the membership of the local retirement system, became a member of the state Teachers' Retirement System or who becomes a member under the provisions of KRS 161.470(4);

(6) "New teacher" means any member not a present teacher;

(7) "Prior service" means the number of years during which the member was a teacher in Kentucky prior to July 1, 1941, except that not more than thirty (30) years' prior service shall be allowed or credited to any teacher;

(8) "Subsequent service" means the number of years during which the teacher is a member of the Teachers' Retirement System after July 1, 1941;

(9) "Final average salary" means the average of the five (5) highest annual salaries which the member has received for service in a covered position and on which the member has made contributions, or on which the public board, institution, or agency has picked-up member contributions pursuant to KRS 161.540(2), or the average of the five (5) years of highest salaries as defined in KRS 61.680(2)(a), which shall include picked-up member contributions. Additionally, the board of trustees may approve a final average salary based upon the average of the three (3) highest salaries for individuals who become members prior to January 1, 2022, who are at least fifty-five (55) years of age and have a minimum of twenty-seven (27) years of Kentucky service credit. However, if any of the five (5) or three (3) highest annual salaries used to calculate the final average salary was paid within the three (3) years immediately prior to the date of the member's retirement for individuals who become members prior to January 1, 2022, or within the five (5) years immediately prior to the date of the member's retirement for individuals who become members on or after January 1, 2022, the amount of salary to be included for each of those three (3) years or five (5) years, as applicable, for the purpose of calculating the final average salary shall be limited to the lesser of:

(a) The member's actual salary; or

(b) The member's annual salary that was used for retirement purposes during each of the prior three (3) years or five (5) years, as applicable, plus a percentage increase equal to the percentage increase received by all other members employed by the public board, institution, or agency, or for members of school districts, the highest percentage increase received by members on any one (1) rank and step of the salary schedule of the school district. The increase shall be computed on the salary that was used for retirement purposes. The board of trustees may promulgate an administrative regulation in accordance with KRS Chapter 13A to establish a methodology for measuring the limitation so that the combined increases in salary for each of the last three (3) full years of salary prior to retirement shall not exceed the total permissible percentage increase received by other members of the employer for the same three (3) year period.

For individuals who became members of the retirement system prior to July 1, 2021, this limitation shall not apply if the member receives an increase in salary in a percentage exceeding that received by the other members, and this increase was accompanied by a corresponding change in position or in length of employment. The board of trustees may promulgate an administrative regulation in accordance with KRS Chapter 13A to provide definitions for a corresponding change in position or in length of employment. This limitation shall also not apply to the payment to a member for accrued annual leave if the individual becomes a member before July 1, 2008, or accrued sick leave which is authorized by statute and which shall, for individuals subject to KRS 161.155(10) who became nonuniversity members of the system prior to January 1, 2022, be included as part of a retiring member's annual compensation for the member's last year of active service;

(10) "Annual compensation" means the total salary received by a member as compensation for all services performed in employment covered by the retirement system during a fiscal year. Annual compensation shall not include payment for any benefit or salary adjustments made by the public board, institution, or agency to the member or on behalf of the member which is not available as a benefit or salary adjustment to other members employed by that public board, institution, or agency. Annual compensation shall not include the salary supplement received by a member under KRS 157.197(2)(c), 158.6455, or 158.782 on or after July 1, 1996. Under no circumstances shall annual compensation include compensation that is earned by a member while on assignment to an organization or agency that is not a public board, institution, or agency listed in subsection (4) of this section. In the event that federal law requires that a member continue membership in the retirement system even though the member is on assignment to an organization or agency that is not a public board, institution, or agency listed in subsection (4) of this section, the member's annual compensation for retirement purposes shall be deemed to be the annual compensation, as limited by subsection (9) of this section, last earned by the member while still employed solely by and providing services directly to a public board, institution, or agency listed in subsection (4) of this section. The board of trustees shall determine if any benefit or salary adjustment qualifies as annual compensation. For an individual who becomes a member on or after July 1, 2008, annual compensation shall not include lump-sum payments upon termination of employment for accumulated annual or compensatory leave;

(11) "Age of member" means the age attained on the first day of the month immediately following the birthdate of the member. This definition is limited to retirement eligibility and does not apply to tenure of members;

(12) "Employ," and derivatives thereof, means relationships under which an individual provides services to an employer as an employee, as an independent contractor, as an employee of a third party, or under any other arrangement as long as the services provided to the employer are provided in a position that would otherwise be covered by the Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System and as long as the services are being provided to a public board, institution, or agency listed in subsection (4) of this section;

(13) "Regular interest" means:

(a) For an individual who becomes a member prior to July 1, 2008, interest at three percent (3%) per annum;

(b) For an individual who becomes a member on or after July 1, 2008, but prior to January 1, 2022, interest at two and one-half percent (2.5%) per annum for purposes of crediting interest to the teacher savings account or any other contributions made by the employee that are refundable to the employee upon termination of employment; and

(c) For an individual who becomes a member on or after January 1, 2022, the rolling five (5) year yield on a thirty (30) year United States Treasury bond as of the end of May prior to the most recently completed fiscal year, except that:

1. Once the member has at least sixty (60) months of service in the system it shall mean interest at two and one-half percent (2.5%) per annum for purposes of crediting interest to employee contributions in the foundational benefit component or any other contributions made by the employee to the foundational benefit component that are refundable to the employee upon termination of employment; and

2. The board shall have the authority to adjust the regular interest rate for individuals who become members on or after January 1, 2022, in accordance with KRS 161.633 and 161.634;

(14) "Accumulated contributions" means the contributions of a member to the teachers' savings fund, including picked-up member contributions as described in KRS 161.540(2), plus accrued regular interest;

(15) "Annuitant" means a person who receives a retirement allowance or a disability allowance;

(16) "Local retirement system" means any teacher retirement or annuity system created in any public school district in Kentucky in accordance with the laws of Kentucky;

(17) "Fiscal year" means the twelve (12) month period from July 1 to June 30. The retirement plan year is concurrent with this fiscal year. A contract for a member employed by a local board of education may not exceed two hundred sixty-one (261) days in the fiscal year;

(18) "Public schools" means the schools and other institutions mentioned in subsection (4) of this section;

(19) "Dependent" as used in KRS 161.520 and 161.525 means a person who was receiving, at the time of death of the member, at least one-half (1/2) of the support from the member for maintenance, including board, lodging, medical care, and related costs;

(20) "Active contributing member" means a member currently making contributions to the Teachers' Retirement System, who made contributions in the next preceding fiscal year, for whom picked-up member contributions are currently being made, or for whom these contributions were made in the next preceding fiscal year;

(21) "Full-time" means employment in a position that requires services on a continuing basis equal to at least seven-tenths (7/10) of normal full-time service on a fiscal year basis;

(22) "Full actuarial cost," when used to determine the payment that a member must pay for service credit means the actuarial value of all costs associated with the enhancement of a member's benefits or eligibility for benefit enhancements, including health insurance supplement payments made by the retirement system. The actuary for the retirement system shall determine the full actuarial value costs and actuarial cost factor tables as provided in KRS 161.400;

(23) "Last annual compensation" means the annual compensation, as defined by subsection (10) of this section and as limited by subsection (9) of this section, earned by the member during the most recent period of contributing service, either consecutive or nonconsecutive, that is sufficient to provide the member with one (1) full year of service credit in the Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System, and which compensation is used in calculating the member's initial retirement allowance, excluding bonuses, retirement incentives, payments for accumulated sick leave, annual, personal, and compensatory leave, and any other lump-sum payment. For an individual who becomes a member on or after July 1, 2008, payments for annual or compensatory leave shall not be included in determining the member's last annual compensation;

(24) "Participant" means a member, as defined by subsection (4) of this section, or an annuitant, as defined by subsection (15) of this section;

(25) "Qualified domestic relations order" means any judgment, decree, or order, including approval of a property settlement agreement, that:

(a) Is issued by a court or administrative agency; and

(b) Relates to the provision of child support, alimony payments, or marital property rights to an alternate payee;

(26) "Alternate payee" means a spouse, former spouse, child, or other dependent of a participant, who is designated to be paid retirement benefits in a qualified domestic relations order;

(27) "University member" means an individual who becomes a member through employment with an employer specified in subsection (4)(b) and (n) of this section;

(28) "Nonuniversity member" means an individual who becomes a member through employment with an employer specified under subsection (4) of this section, except for those members employed by an employer specified in subsection (4)(b) and (n) of this section;

(29) "Accumulated employer contribution" means the employer contribution deposited to a member's account through the supplemental benefit component and regular interest credited on such amounts as provided by KRS 161.635 for nonuniversity members and KRS 161.636 for university members;

(30) "Accumulated account balance" means:

(a) For members who began participating in the system prior to January 1, 2022, the member's accumulated contributions; or

(b) For members who began participating in the system on or after January 1, 2022, the combined sum of the member's accumulated contributions and the member's accumulated employer contributions;

(31) "Foundational benefit component" means the benefits provided by KRS 161.220 to 161.716 to individuals who become members on or after January 1, 2022, except for the supplemental benefit component and retiree health benefits set forth in KRS 161.675; and

(32) "Supplemental benefit component" means:

(a) The benefit established pursuant to KRS 161.635 for individuals who become nonuniversity members on or after January 1, 2022; or

(b) The benefit established pursuant to KRS 161.636 for individuals who become university members on or after January 1, 2022.

Legislative Research Commission Notes.

(7/14/2022). This statute was amended by 2022 Ky. Acts chs. 213 and 236, which do not appear to be in conflict and have been codified together.

(6/29/2021). This statute was amended by 2021 Ky. Acts chs. 26 and 192, which do not appear to be in conflict and have been codified together.

(6/29/2021). 2021 Ky. Acts ch. 192, sec. 26 provides that the amendments to KRS 161.220(9) in 2021 Ky. Acts ch. 192, sec. 2, and any administrative regulations promulgated as a result of those amendments, "shall not result in any additional increases in benefits to members and annuitants or any additional increases in liabilities to the system."

(12/13/2018). On December 13, 2018, the Kentucky Supreme Court ruled that the passage of 2018 SB 151 (2018 Ky. Acts ch. 107), did not comply with the three-readings rule of Kentucky Constitution Section 46 and that the legislation is, therefore, constitutionally invalid and declared void. That ruling applies to changes made to this statute in that Act.

(7/13/90). This section was amended by three Acts. Where those Acts are not in conflict, they have been compiled together. Where a conflict exists, the Act which was last enacted by the General Assembly prevails.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

1. Annual Compensation.

Circuit court did not err in affirming the teachers' retirement system's determination that an employee's annual incentive pay was to be excluded from his annual compensation in determining his retirement benefits as that interpretation was more reasonable and consistent with agency interpretation, and incentive pay was not available to all other employees. Smith v. Teachers' Ret. Sys., 515 S.W.3d 672, 2017 Ky. App. LEXIS 11 (Ky. Ct. App. 2017).

Cooksey v. Board of Education, 316 S.W.2d 70, 1957 Ky. LEXIS 3 (Ky. 1957).

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

Under KRS 61.410 participation in the social security program is mandatory for all public employees of the Commonwealth except those employees occupying a position to which the provisions of KRS 161.220 to 161.710 are applicable and consequently, the executive secretary, assistant executive secretary, senior accountant and administrative officer of the teacher's retirement system are neither subject to, nor eligible for, participation in the social security program. OAG 69-355.

If additional teaching activity falls within the category of being in fact a part of the regularly approved program of the public school district or the vocational school for which certification or a professional level of training is required as a condition of employment, then teachers' retirement applies and the teacher would not be eligible for social security participation. The additional hours requiring services beyond the normal teaching day are regarded as an extension of the regular full-time employment. OAG 69-430.

When the professional staff members of the division of disability determinations were a part of the department of education they were allowed to participate in the Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System and were exempt from participation in the federal social security program; however, when this division was transferred to the Department for Human Resources, the members lost their status as professional staff members and, although they had the option of retaining membership in the Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System or joining the Kentucky Employees Retirement System, it was mandatory they participate in the federal social security program. OAG 73-767.

Any employee of the Kentucky Authority for Educational Television currently a member of the Kentucky Employees Retirement System who, because of subsection (4)(d) of this section, may be qualified to participate in the teachers' retirement system has the option of joining the teachers' retirement system as provided by KRS 161.607 or retaining membership in Kentucky Employees Retirement System as provided by KRS 61.680. OAG 74-305.

ROTC teachers may be employed without being certified but an uncertified ROTC teacher may not be a member of the Kentucky Teacher's Retirement System. OAG 74-387.

Participation by the faculty of Western Kentucky University in the State Teacher's Retirement System is mandatory and where, as in this case, a majority of the faculty elects under KRS 61.435 to participate in the federal social security program, participation in that program also is mandatory and there is no legal way thereafter that the faculty can withdraw or discontinue its participation. OAG 75-268.

The salary an individual earns as a state legislator does not fall within the statutory definition under KTRS law as "annual compensation" which is subject to employee contributions in the KTRS. OAG 78-226.

Interpretation of what constitutes a "professional level of training" is a responsibility resting with the Board of Trustees of the Teachers Retirement System of the state of Kentucky, which has defined the term to mean graduation from a recognized college or university or its equivalent. OAG 85-133.

161.230. Retirement system — Purpose — Name.

The Teachers' Retirement System is established as of July 1, 1940, for the purpose of providing retirement allowances for teachers, their beneficiaries, and survivors under the provisions of KRS 161.155 and 161.220 to 161.714. The Teachers' Retirement System of the State of Kentucky shall be an independent agency and instrumentality of the Commonwealth and this status shall only be amended or changed by the General Assembly. It shall have the powers and the privileges of a corporation and shall be known as the "Teachers' Retirement System of the State of Kentucky." Its business shall be transacted, its funds invested, and its cash and securities held in that name, or in the name of its nominee provided that its nominee is authorized by board of trustees' resolution solely for the purpose of facilitating the transfer of securities. The board of trustees may designate a nominee as provided in KRS 286.3-225; or it may name as nominee a partnership composed of selected trustees and employees of the system, and formed for the sole purpose of holding legal or registered title of such securities, and for the transfer of securities in accordance with directions of the board of trustees.

161.250. Board of trustees to control retirement — Membership — Appeals — Trustee education program — Public disclosure of best practices model — Administrative regulations for authorized benefit improvements.

(1)(a) The general administration and management of the retirement system, and the responsibility for its proper operation and for making effective provisions of KRS 161.155 and 161.220 to 161.714 are vested in a board of trustees to be known as the "Board of Trustees of the Teachers' Retirement System of the State of Kentucky."

(b) The board of trustees shall consist of the following:

1. The chief state school officer;
2. The State Treasurer;

3. Two (2) trustees, appointed by the Governor of the Commonwealth, subject to Senate confirmation in accordance with KRS 11.160 for each appointment or reappointment. These two (2) trustees shall have investment experience. For purposes of this subparagraph, a trustee with "investment experience" means an individual who does not have a conflict of interest, as provided by KRS 161.460, and who has at least ten (10) years of experience in one (1) of the following areas of expertise:

- a. A portfolio manager acting in a fiduciary capacity;
- b. A professional securities analyst or investment consultant;
- c. A current or retired employee or principal of a trust institution, investment or finance organization, or endowment fund acting in an investment-related capacity;
- d. A chartered financial analyst in good standing as determined by the CFA Institute; or
- e. A university professor, teaching investment-related studies; and

4. Seven (7) other trustees elected as provided in KRS 161.260. Four (4) of the elective trustees shall be members of the retirement system, to be known as teacher trustees, two (2) shall be persons who are not members of the teaching profession, to be known as the lay trustees, and one (1) shall be an annuitant of the retirement system to be known as the retired teacher trustee. One (1) teacher trustee shall be elected annually for a four-year term. The retired teacher trustee shall be elected every four (4) years. The chief state school officer and the State Treasurer are considered ex officio members of the board of trustees and may designate in writing a person to represent them at board meetings.

(c)1. Elective trustees shall not serve more than three (3) consecutive four (4) year terms. An elective trustee who has served three (3) consecutive terms may be elected again after an absence of four (4) years from the board of trustees.

2. The term limits established by subparagraph 1. of this paragraph shall apply to elective trustees serving on or after July 1, 2012, and all terms of office served prior to July 1, 2012, shall be used to determine if the elective trustee has exceeded the term limits provided by subparagraph 1. of this paragraph.

(d)1. Each appointed trustee shall serve a term of four (4) years. An appointed trustee shall not serve more than three (3) consecutive four (4) year terms. An appointed trustee who has served three (3) consecutive terms may be appointed again after an absence of four (4) years from the board of trustees.

2. Any vacancy that occurs in an appointed position shall be filled in the same manner that provides for the selection of the trustee; however, any vacancy shall be filled only for the duration of the unexpired term.

(2) A member, retired member, or designated beneficiary may appeal the retirement system's decisions that materially affect the amount of service retirement allowance, amount of service credit, eligibility for service retirement, or eligibility for survivorship benefits to which that member, retired member, or designated beneficiary claims to be entitled. All appeals must be in writing and filed with the retirement system within thirty (30) days of the claimant's first notice of the retirement system's decision. For purposes of this section, notice shall be complete and effective upon the date of mailing of the retirement system's decision to the claimant at the claimant's last known address. Failure by the claimant to file a written appeal with the retirement system within the thirty (30) day period shall result in the decision of the retirement system becoming permanent with the effect of a final and unappealable order. Appeals may include a request for an administrative hearing which shall be conducted in accordance with the provisions of KRS Chapter 13B. The board of trustees may establish an appeals committee whose members shall be appointed by the chairperson and who shall have the authority to act upon the report and recommendation of the hearing officer by issuing a final order on behalf of the full board of trustees. A member, retired member, or designated beneficiary who has filed a timely, written appeal of a decision of the retirement system may, following the administrative hearing and issuance of the final order by the board of trustees, appeal the final order of the board of trustees to the Franklin Circuit Court in accordance with the provisions of KRS Chapter 13B.

(3) The board of trustees shall establish a formal trustee education program for all trustees of the board. The program shall include but not be limited to the following:

(a) A required orientation program for all new trustees to the board. The orientation program shall include training on:

1. Benefits and benefits administration;
2. Investment concepts, policies, and current composition and administration of retirement system investments;
3. Laws, bylaws, and administrative regulations pertaining to the retirement system and to fiduciaries; and
4. Actuarial and financial concepts pertaining to the retirement system.

If a trustee fails to complete the orientation program within one (1) year from the beginning of his or her first term on the board, the retirement system shall withhold payment of the per diem and travel expenses due to the board member under KRS 161.290 until the trustee has completed the orientation program;

(b) Annual required training for trustees on the administration, benefits, financing, and investing of the retirement system. If a trustee fails to complete the annual required training during the calendar or fiscal year, the retirement system shall withhold payment of the per diem and travel expenses due to the board member under KRS 161.290 until the board member has met the annual training requirements; and

(c) The retirement system shall incorporate by reference in an administrative regulation, pursuant to KRS 13A.2251, the trustee education program.

(4) In order to improve public transparency regarding the administration of the system, the board of trustees shall adopt a best practices model by posting the following information to the retirement system's Web site and shall make available to the public:

(a) Meeting notices and agendas for all meetings of the board. Notices and agendas shall be posted to the retirement system's Web site at least seventy-two (72) hours in advance of the board or committee meetings, except in the case of special or emergency meetings as provided by KRS 61.823;

(b) The Comprehensive Annual Financial Report with the information as follows:

1. A general overview and update on the retirement system by the executive secretary;
2. A listing of the board of trustees;
3. A listing of key staff;
4. An organizational chart;
5. Financial information, including a statement of plan net assets, a statement of changes in plan net assets, an actuarial value of assets, a schedule of investments, a statement of funded status and funding progress, and other supporting data;
6. Investment information, including a general overview, a list of the retirement system's professional consultants, a total net return on retirement system investments over a historical period, an investment summary, contracted investment management expenses, transaction commissions, and a schedule of investments;

7. The annual actuarial valuation report on the pension benefit and the medical insurance benefit; and

8. A general statistical section, including information on contributions, benefit payouts, and retirement system demographic data;

(c) All external audits;

(d) All board minutes or other materials that require adoption or ratification by the board of trustees. The items listed in this paragraph shall be posted within seventy-two (72) hours of adoption or ratification of the board;

(e) All bylaws, policies, or procedures adopted or ratified by the board of trustees;

(f) The retirement system's summary plan description;

(g) The retirement system's law book;

(h) A listing of the members of the board of trustees and membership on each committee established by the board, including any investment committees;

(i) All investment holdings in aggregate, fees, and commissions for each fund administered by the board, which shall be updated on a quarterly basis for fiscal years beginning on or after July 1, 2017. The system shall request from all managers, partnerships, and any other available sources all information regarding fees and commissions and shall, based on the requested information received:

1. Disclose the dollar value of fees or commissions paid to each individual manager or partnership;

2. Disclose the dollar value of any profit sharing, carried interest, or any other partnership incentive arrangements, partnership agreements, or any other partnership expenses received by or paid to each manager or partnership; and

3. As applicable, report each fee or commission by manager or partnership consistent with standards established by the Institutional Limited Partners Association (ILPA).

In addition to the requirements of this paragraph, the system shall also disclose the name and address of all individual underlying managers or partners in any fund of funds in which system assets are invested;

(j) An update of net of fees investment returns, asset allocations, and the performance of the funds against benchmarks adopted by the board for each fund, for each asset class administered by the board, and for each manager. The update shall be posted on a quarterly basis for fiscal years beginning on or after July 1, 2017;

(k) All contracts or offering documents for services, goods, or property purchased or utilized by the system; and

(l) A searchable database of the system's expenditures and a listing of each individual employed by the system along with the employee's salary or wages. In lieu of posting the information required by this paragraph to the system's Web site, the system may provide the information through a Web site established by the executive branch to inform the public about executive branch agency expenditures and public employee salaries and wages.

(5) Notwithstanding the requirements of subsection (4) of this section, the retirement system shall not be required to furnish information that is protected under KRS 161.585, exempt under KRS 61.878, or that, if disclosed, would compromise the retirement system's ability to competitively invest in real estate or other asset classes, except that no provision of this section or KRS 61.878 shall exclude disclosure and review of all contracts, including investment contracts, by the board, the Auditor of Public Accounts, and the Government Contract Review Committee established pursuant to KRS 45A.705 or the disclosure of investment fees and commissions as provided by this section. If any public record contains material which is not excepted under this section, the system shall separate the expected material by removal, segregation, or redaction, and make the nonexcepted material available for examination.

(6) For any benefit improvements the General Assembly has authorized the board of trustees to establish under KRS 161.220 to 161.716 and that require formal adoption by the board, the board shall establish the benefits by promulgation of administrative regulations in accordance with KRS Chapter 13A.

Legislative Research Commission Notes.

(3/10/2017). 2017 Ky. Acts ch. 12, sec. 15 provided that, for the purposes of providing staggered appointments of the two trustees established by subsection (1)(b) of this statute, the Governor shall appoint one trustee for an initial term of four years and one trustee for an initial term of two years, provided that the initial term of two years shall not count towards the term limitations in subsection (1)(d) of this statute for the one trustee so appointed.

(6/27/2008). The Reviser of Statutes has altered the numbering of subsection (3)(a) of this statute from the way it appeared in 2008 (1st Extra. Sess.) Ky. Acts ch. 1, sec. 30, under the authority of KRS 7.136(1)(c).

(6/27/2008). 2008 (1st Extra Sess.) Ky. Acts ch. 1, sec. 44, provides "The provisions of...subsection (1)(c) of Section 30 of this Act (this statute) that reduce the term limits of elected or appointed members of the board of trustees of the...Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System shall apply to terms of office beginning after July 1, 2008."

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

A certified teacher who has taught long enough to acquire a vested interest in the teachers' retirement system but who left teaching for another occupation several years before would be "a member of the teaching profession" and would not be eligible to serve as a lay member of the board of trustees of the teachers' retirement system, since this section envisioned a person with an objective approach who would not be influenced by having a teaching background. 161.260. Election of members of board of trustees.

An election shall be held on or before June 1 of each year to elect trustees. The trustees to be elected each year shall depend upon the respective terms of the trustees elected under Acts 1938 (1st Ex. Sess.), Ch. 1, paragraph 7 and Acts 1940, Ch. 192, paragraph 7a, and KRS 161.250. Each trustee shall assume office on July 1 following his election and shall serve for a term of four (4) years. The elections shall be conducted by ballot under the supervision of the chief state school officer. Each person who is a contributing member as a result of full-time employment in a position covered by the retirement system or who is an annuitant of the retirement system shall have the right to vote. Each person who is a contributing member as a result of part-time or substitute employment in a position covered by the retirement system shall be permitted to vote as provided in KRS 161.612. Nominations for trustees shall be made by a nominating committee consisting of one (1) committee member selected by the retirement system membership of each of the districts of the Kentucky Education Association, and one (1) committee member to be selected by retired teachers, on a statewide basis, from among the annuitants of the retirement system. No person may be a member of the nominating committee who is not a member of the system, except for the committee member to be selected from among the annuitants of the system. The president of the Kentucky Education Association shall preside over the meeting of the nominating committee and the secretary of the Teachers' Retirement System shall act as secretary to the committee. Two (2) persons shall be nominated by the nominating committee for each position to be filled. All expenses of the election shall be paid by the board of trustees out of its general expense fund.

161.310. Administrative regulations — Rules, regulations, and policies of participating employers to conform to chapter — Retirement incentives.

(1) The board of trustees shall from time to time promulgate administrative regulations for the administration of the funds of the retirement system and for the transaction of business.

(2) All rules, regulations, or policies adopted by school districts, universities, or other employers participating in the Teachers' Retirement System that pertain to the retirement system shall conform to this chapter.

(3) All rules, regulations, or policies adopted, or decisions made, by school districts, universities, or other employers participating in the Teachers' Retirement System that pertain to retirement incentives for members as defined in KRS 161.220(4) shall contain provisions for the school district, university, or other employer to make full payment to the retirement system at the time a member retires for all actuarial obligations that occur to the retirement system as a result of retirement incentive payments with no resulting financial obligation for the state. Any retirement incentive provided by the employer to a member on the condition that the member terminate employment with the employer shall be deemed a retirement incentive for purposes of this subsection if the member retires within six (6) months following the member's termination in employment. Retirement incentives include remuneration of any kind and any tangible or intangible benefit provided to or on behalf of the member before, after, or at the member's date of retirement.

Retirement incentives do not include lump-sum payments for accumulated sick, annual, or compensatory leave that are generally available to members upon termination of employment. Notwithstanding any provision of KRS 161.220 to 161.716 to the contrary, retirement incentives shall not be included in a member's final average salary or annual compensation as defined under KRS 161.220(9) and (10), respectively. This subsection shall not apply to retirement incentive plans adopted by local boards of education prior to December 31, 1997, and to those employees of local school districts who retired on or before July 1, 1998.

161.340. Officers of board — Personnel of system — Contracting for services and commodities — Liability insurance — Leave balances.

(1)(a) The board of trustees shall elect from its membership a chairperson and a vice chairperson on an annual basis as prescribed by the administrative regulations of the board of trustees. The chairperson shall not serve more than four (4) consecutive years as chairperson or vice chairperson of the board. The vice chairperson shall not serve more than four (4) consecutive years as chairperson or vice chairperson of the board. A trustee who has served four (4) consecutive years as chairperson or vice chairperson of the board may be elected chairperson or vice chairperson of the board after an absence of two (2) years from the position.

(b) The board of trustees shall employ an executive secretary by means of a contract not to exceed a period of four (4) years and fix the compensation and other terms of employment for this position without limitation of the provisions of KRS Chapters 18A, 45A, 56, and KRS 64.640. The executive secretary shall be the chief administrative officer of the board. The executive secretary, at the time of employment, shall be a graduate of a four (4) year college or university, and shall possess qualifications as the board of trustees may require. The executive secretary shall not have held by appointment or election an elective public office within the five (5) year period next preceding the date of employment.

(2) The board shall employ clerical, administrative, and other personnel as are required to transact the business of the retirement system. The compensation of all persons employed by the board shall be paid at the rates and in amounts as the board approves. Anything in the Kentucky Revised Statutes to the contrary notwithstanding, the power over and the control of determining and maintaining an adequate complement of employees in the system shall be under the exclusive jurisdiction of the board of trustees.

(3)(a) Except as provided by KRS 161.430(7), the board shall contract for actuarial, auditing, legal, medical, investment counseling, and other professional or technical services, insurance, and commodities, as are required to carry out the obligations of the board in accordance with the provisions of this chapter, subject to KRS Chapters 45, 45A, 56, and 57 but without the limitations provided by KRS Chapters 12 and 13B.

(b) The board shall provide for legal counsel and other legal services as may be required in defense of trustees, officers, and employees of the system who may be subjected to civil action arising from the performance of their legally assigned duties if counsel and services are not provided by the Attorney General. The hourly rate of reimbursement for any contract for legal services under this paragraph shall not exceed the maximum hourly rate provided in the Legal Services Duties and Maximum Rate Schedule promulgated by the Government Contract Review Committee established pursuant to KRS 45A.705, unless a higher rate is specifically approved by the secretary of the Finance and Administration Cabinet or his or her designee.

(4) The board of trustees may expend funds from the expense fund as necessary to insure the trustees, employees, and officials of the Teachers' Retirement System against any liability arising out of an act or omission committed in the scope and course of performing legal duties. Insurance may be obtained or provided by contracting with an insurance carrier, by self-insurance, by indemnification, or by any combination thereof.

(5) Notwithstanding any statute to the contrary, employees shall not be considered legislative agents as defined in KRS 6.611.

(6) Notwithstanding any statute to the contrary, the executive branch of government shall accept from the Teachers' Retirement System all accrued annual and sick leave balances and service credits of employees leaving the Teachers' Retirement System and accepting appointments within the executive branch. These leave balances shall be attested to by the Teachers' Retirement System and shall not exceed those limits established by statute or administrative regulation for employees of the executive branch.

(3/10/2017). 2017 Ky. Acts ch. 12, sec. 12 provided that amendments made to subsection (3) of this statute in 2017 Kt. Acts ch. 12, sec. 7 governing placement agents and contracts or offerings entered into by the state-administered retirement systems shall apply to contracts and offerings established or contracts or offerings renewed on or after July 1, 2017.

(3/10/2017). 2017 Ky. Acts ch. 12, sec. 13 provided that amendments made to subsection (3) of this statute in 2017 Ky. Acts ch. 12, sec. 7 governing the application of the Model Procurement Code, KRS Chapter 45A, and related statutes to the state-administered retirement systems, shall apply to contracts and offerings established or contracts or offerings renewed on or after July 1, 2017.

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

The board of the teachers' retirement system could provide for payment for annual leave for its executive secretary, but such action would be subject to the approval of the commissioner of personnel. OAG 70-470.

Just as KRS 64.640 provides an upper limit for all employees with regard to their potential salary, including any five percent increases, this section must be read into KRS 18A.350 to 18A.360 (now repealed) to provide an absolute upper salary limit for the executive secretary of the Teachers' Retirement System to be the maximum set for commissioners by KRS 64.640(2). OAG 82-355.

(1) The State Treasurer, the Auditor of Public Accounts, and the Attorney General shall be treasurer, auditor, and legal adviser, respectively, of the board of trustees, and shall be liable upon their official bonds for the faithful performance of such duties. They shall serve without compensation except as provided by subsection (2)(b) of this section. When the board of trustees deems it for the best interests of the retirement system, it may employ attorneys and pay reasonable fees for the services rendered.

(2)(a) The board shall annually procure an audit of the Teachers' Retirement System. The audit shall be conducted in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards. Except as provided by paragraph (b) of this subsection, the board may select an independent certified public accountant to perform the audit and pay reasonable fees for the services rendered. If the audit is performed by an independent certified public accountant, the Auditor of Public Accounts shall not be required to perform an audit pursuant to KRS 43.050(2)(a), but may perform an audit at his discretion.

(b) At least once every five (5) years, the Auditor of Public Accounts shall perform the audit described by this subsection, and the system shall reimburse the Auditor of Public Accounts for all costs of the audit. The Auditor of Public Accounts shall determine which fiscal year during the five (5) year period the audit prescribed by this paragraph will be completed.

(3) The board shall make copies of the audit required by this section available for examination by any active contributing member or annuitant in the office of the executive secretary of the Teachers' Retirement System and in such other places as may be necessary to make the audit available to all active contributing members and annuitants. A copy of the annual audit shall be sent to the Legislative Research Commission no later than ten (10) days after receipt by the board.

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

The teacher's retirement system is not required by law to honor an inter-account bill from the state auditor for the expense incurred as a consequence of an audit of the system. OAG 74-164.

If the state auditor cannot perform the services requested by the board of the teachers' retirement system, the board may contract with outside auditors to perform these services, but a contract with the state auditor to provide auditing services for the retirement system at a cost equal to or less than that which could be secured from other outside auditors is illegal since, if the state auditor can perform the services, they are to be provided without compensation. NOTES TO DECISIONS1. Application.

The Kentucky Education Reform Act (KERA) Board of Education's failure to take official, and presumably final, action in informing school personnel of demotion prior to May 15 as provided by KRS 161.760(3) and thus invalidating the demotion had been changed by the enactment of KRS 160.390 which effectively supersedes the May 15 requirement and under the plain language of KRS 161.760 and 160.390 makes the superintendent's action of demotion effective upon mere written notice to the affected employee of the action. Estreicher v. Board of Educ., 950 S.W.2d 839, 1997 Ky. LEXIS 88 (Ky. 1997).

161.400. Duties of actuary — Actuarial investigations, valuations, and analyses.

(1)(a) The board of trustees shall designate as actuary a competent person who shall be a fellow of the Conference of Consulting Actuaries or a member of the American Academy of Actuaries. He or she shall be the technical adviser of the board on matters regarding the operation of the funds of the system and shall perform such other duties as are required in connection therewith.

(b)1. At least once in each two (2) year period, the board shall cause an actuarial investigation to be made of all of the economic experience under the retirement system, including but not limited to the inflation rate, investment return, and payroll growth assumptions, relative to the economic assumptions and funding methods previously adopted by the board.

2. At least once in each five (5) year period, the actuary shall make an actuarial investigation into all of the demographic actuarial assumptions used, including but not limited to mortality tables, withdrawal rates, and retirement rate assumptions, relative to the demographic actuarial assumptions previously adopted by the board.

3. Each actuarial investigation shall include at a minimum a summary of the changes in actuarial assumptions and funding methods recommended in the investigation and the projected impact of the recommended changes on funding levels, unfunded liabilities, and actuarially recommended contribution rates for employers over a thirty (30) year period.

(c) At least annually the actuary shall make an actuarial valuation of the retirement system. The valuation shall include:

1. A description of the actuarial assumptions used, and the assumptions shall be reasonably related to the experience of the system and represent the actuary's best estimate of anticipated experience;

2. A description of any funding methods utilized or required by state law in the development of the actuarial valuation results;

3. A description of any changes in actuarial assumptions and methods from the previous year's actuarial valuation;

4. The actuarially recommended contribution rate for employers for the upcoming budget periods;

5. A thirty (30) year projection of the funding levels, unfunded liabilities, and actuarially recommended contribution rates for employers based upon the actuarial assumptions, funding methods, and experience of the system as of the valuation date; and

6. A sensitivity analysis that evaluates the impact of changes in system assumptions, including but not limited to the investment return assumption, payroll growth assumption, and medical inflation rates, on employer contribution rates, funding levels, and unfunded liabilities.

(d) On the basis of the results of the valuations, the board of trustees shall make necessary changes in the retirement system within the provisions of law and shall establish the contributions payable by employers and the state specified in KRS 161.550, including changes prescribed by KRS 161.633, 161.634, 161.635, and 161.636, as applicable.

(e) For any change in actuarial assumptions, funding methods, retiree health insurance premiums and subsidies, or any other decisions made by the board that impact system liabilities and actuarially recommended contribution rates for employers and that are not made in conjunction with the actuarial investigations required by paragraph (b) of this subsection, an actuarial analysis shall be completed showing the projected impact of the changes on funding levels, unfunded liabilities, and actuarially recommended contribution rates for employers over a thirty (30) year period.

(2) Actuarial factors and actuarial cost factor tables in use by the retirement system for all purposes shall be determined by the actuary of the retirement system and approved by the board of trustees by resolution and implemented without the necessity of an administrative regulation.

(3) A copy of each actuarial investigation, actuarial analysis, and valuation required by subsection (1) of this section shall be forwarded electronically to the Legislative Research Commission no later than ten (10) days after receipt by the board, and the Legislative Research Commission shall distribute the information received to the committee staff and co-chairs of any committee that has jurisdiction over the Teachers'

Retirement System. The actuarial valuation required by subsection (1)(c) of this section shall be submitted no later than November 15 following the close of the fiscal year.

Legislative Research Commission Notes.

(12/13/2018). On December 13, 2018, the Kentucky Supreme Court ruled that the passage of 2018 SB 151 (2018 Ky. Acts ch. 107), did not comply with the three-readings rule of Kentucky Constitution Section 46 and that the legislation is, therefore, constitutionally invalid and declared void. That ruling applies to changes made to this statute in that Act.

(7/13/90). The Act amending this section prevails over the repeal and reenactment in House Bill 940, Acts Ch. 476, pursuant to Section 653(1) of Acts Ch. 476.

Compiler's Notes.

This section (4506b-19; amend. Acts 1960, ch. 44, § 6) was repealed by Acts 1964, ch. 43, § 23.

161.420. Funds and accounts of retirement system.

All of the assets of the retirement system are for the exclusive purpose of providing benefits to members and annuitants and defraying reasonable expenses of administering the system. The board of trustees shall be the trustee of all funds of the system and shall have full power and responsibility for administering the funds. All the assets of the retirement system shall be credited according to the purpose for which they are held to one (1) of the following funds:

(1) The expense fund shall consist of the funds set aside from year to year by the board of trustees to defray the expenses of the administration of the retirement system. Each fiscal year an amount not greater than four percent (4%) of the dividends and interest income earned from investments during the immediate past fiscal year shall be set aside into the expense fund or expended for the administration of the retirement system;

(2)(a) The teachers' savings fund shall consist of:

1. The contributions paid by members of the retirement system into this fund and regular interest assigned by the board of trustees from the guarantee fund; and that is assigned by the board of trustees from the guarantee fund.

2. For individuals who become members of the Teachers' Retirement System on or after January 1, 2022, who are participating in the supplemental benefit component, the employer contributions paid into the supplemental benefit component and regular interest on those contributions as provided by KRS 161.635 and 161.636

For individuals who become members on or after January 1, 2022, the system shall account for funds in the teachers' savings fund attributable to the nonuniversity members foundational benefit component, nonuniversity members supplemental benefit component, university members foundational benefit component, and university members supplemental benefit component.

(b) A member may not borrow any amount of his or her accumulated account balance in the teachers' savings fund, or any regular interest earned thereon.

(c) The accumulated contributions or accumulated account balance of a member which are returned to him or her upon his or her withdrawal or paid to his or her estate or designated beneficiary in the event of his or her death shall be paid from the teachers' savings fund.

(d) Any accumulated account balance in the teachers' savings fund forfeited by a failure of a teacher or his or her estate to claim these contributions shall be transferred from this fund to the guarantee fund.

(e) Except as provided by paragraph (f) of this subsection, the accumulated account balance of a member in the teachers' savings fund shall be transferred from this fund to the allowance reserve fund in the event of retirement by reason of service or disability.

(f) For an individual who becomes a member of the Teachers' Retirement System on or after January 1, 2022, who is participating in the supplemental benefit component who elects to annuitize his or her accumulated account balance in the supplemental benefit component as prescribed by KRS 161.635(5)(a) or (b) or 161.636(5)(a) or (b), the member's accumulated account balance in the supplemental benefit component shall be transferred from this fund to the allowance reserve fund;

(3) The state accumulation fund shall consist of funds paid by employers and appropriated by the state for the purpose of providing annuities and survivor benefits, including any sums appropriated for meeting unfunded liabilities, together with regular interest assigned by the board of trustees from the guarantee fund. At the time of retirement or death of a member there shall be transferred from the state accumulation fund to the allowance reserve fund an amount which together with the sum transferred from the teachers' savings fund will be sufficient to provide the member a retirement allowance and provide for benefits under KRS 161.520 and 161.525. There shall also be transferred from the state accumulation fund to the teachers' savings fund, the amount needed to fund the mandatory employer contributions required by KRS 161.635 and 161.636;

(4) The allowance reserve fund shall be the fund from which shall be paid all retirement allowances and benefits provided under KRS 161.520 and 161.525. In addition, whenever a change in the status of a member results in an obligation on this fund, there shall be transferred to this fund from the teachers' savings fund and the state accumulation fund, the amounts as may be held in those funds for the account or benefit of the member;

(5)(a) The medical insurance fund, which is an account established according to 26 U.S.C. sec. 401(h), shall consist of amounts accumulated for the purpose of providing benefits as provided in KRS 161.675, including:

1. The member contributions required by KRS 161.540(1)(a)2., (b)2., (c)3., and (d)3.;

2. The employer contribution required by KRS 161.550(1)(a)2., (b)2., (c)2., (d)3., and (e)3. and (3);

3. State appropriations as set forth in KRS 161.550(2), unless the contributions are made to a trust fund under 26 U.S.C. sec. 115 established by the board for this purpose; and

4. Interest income from the investments of the fund from contributions received by the fund under subparagraphs 1. to 3. of this paragraph, and from income earned on those investments.

(b) All claims for benefits under KRS 161.675 shall be paid from this fund or from any trust fund under 26 U.S.C. sec. 115 as established by the board for this purpose. Any amounts deposited to the fund that are not required to meet current costs shall be maintained as a reserve in the fund for these benefits. The board shall take the necessary and appropriate steps, including promulgating administrative regulations and procedures to maintain the status of the medical insurance fund as an account subject to 26 U.S.C. sec. 401(h);

(6) The guarantee fund shall be maintained to facilitate the crediting of uniform interest on the amounts of the other funds, except the expense fund, to finance operating expenses directly related to investment management services, and to provide a contingent fund out of which special requirements of any of the other funds may be covered. All income, interest, and dividends derived from the authorized deposits and investments shall be paid into the guarantee fund. Any funds received from gifts and bequests, which the board is hereby authorized to accept and expend without limitation in a manner either expressed by the donor or deemed to be in the best interest of the membership, shall be credited to the guarantee fund. Any funds transferred from the teachers' savings fund by reason of lack of claimant or because of a surplus in any fund and any other moneys whose disposition is not otherwise provided for, shall also be credited to the guarantee fund. The interest allowed by the board of trustees to each of the other funds shall be paid to these funds from the guarantee fund. Any deficit occurring in any fund that would not be automatically covered shall be met by the payments from the guarantee fund to that fund;

(7) The school employee annuity fund shall consist of those funds voluntarily contributed under the provisions of Section 403(b) of the Internal Revenue Code by a member of the Teachers' Retirement System with accounts that existed on or after July 1,

1996. The contributions shall not be picked up as provided in KRS 161.540(2). Separate member accounts shall be maintained for each member. The board of trustees may promulgate administrative regulations pursuant to KRS Chapter 13A to manage this program;

(8) The supplemental retirement benefit fund shall consist of those funds contributed by the employer for the purpose of constituting a qualified government excess benefit plan as described in Section 415 of the Internal Revenue Code for accounts that existed on or after July 1, 1996. The board of trustees shall promulgate administrative regulations pursuant to KRS Chapter 13A to administer this program;

(9) The life insurance benefit fund shall consist of amounts accumulated for the purpose of providing benefits provided under KRS 161.655. The board of trustees may allocate to this fund a percentage of the employer and state contributions as provided under KRS 161.550. The allocation to this fund will be in an amount that the actuary determines necessary to fund the obligation of providing the benefits provided under KRS 161.655; and

(10) The stabilization reserve account shall consist of amounts in two (2) separate accounts:

(a) One (1) that includes employer contributions as provided by KRS 161.550(1)(d)1. and 2. that exceeds the combined actuarially required employer contribution for the foundational benefit component and the mandatory employer contribution to the supplemental benefit component as provided by KRS 161.633 and 161.635 for those individuals who become nonuniversity members on or after January 1, 2022; and

(b) One (1) that includes employer contributions as provided by KRS 161.550(1)(e)1. and 2. that exceeds the combined actuarially required employer contribution for the foundational benefit component and the mandatory employer contribution to the supplemental benefit component as provided by KRS 161.634 and 161.636 for those individuals who become university members on or after January 1, 2022.

Notwithstanding any other statute to the contrary, funds in these accounts shall only be used to pay off the unfunded liability of the pension and life insurance funds.

161.430. Investment of funds — Standards of conduct — Investment procurement policy.

(1)(a) The board of trustees shall be the trustee of the funds of the retirement system and shall have full power and responsibility for the purchase, sale, exchange, transfer, or other disposition of the investments and moneys of the retirement system. The board shall, by administrative regulation, establish investment policies and procedures to carry out their responsibilities.

(b)1. The board shall contract with experienced competent investment managers to invest and manage assets of the system. The board may also employ qualified investment staff to advise it on investment matters and to invest and manage assets of the system not to exceed fifty percent (50%) of the system's assets. The board may contract with one (1) or more general investment consultants, as well as specialized investment consultants, to advise it on investment matters.

2. All internal investment staff and investment consultants shall adhere to the Code of Ethics and Standards of Professional Conduct, and all board trustees shall adhere to the Code of Conduct for Members of a Pension Scheme Governing Body, promulgated by the CFA Institute. Investment managers shall comply with the federal Investment Advisers Act of 1940, as amended, and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder and shall comply with all other applicable federal securities statutes and related rules and regulations that apply to investment managers.

3. No investment manager shall manage more than forty percent (40%) of the funds of the retirement system.

(c) The board may appoint an investment committee to act for the board in all matters of investment, subject to the approval of the board of trustees. The board of trustees, in keeping with their responsibilities as trustees and wherever consistent with their fiduciary responsibilities, shall give priority to the investment of funds in obligations calculated to improve the industrial development and enhance the economic welfare of the Commonwealth. Toward this end, the board shall develop procedures for informing the business community of the potential for in-state investments by the retirement fund, accepting and evaluating applications for the in-state investment of funds, and working with members of the business community in executing in-state investments which are consistent with the board's fiduciary responsibilities. The board shall include in the criteria it uses to evaluate in-state investments their potential for creating new employment opportunities and adding to the total job pool in Kentucky. The board may cooperate with the board of trustees of Kentucky Retirement Systems in developing its program and procedures, and shall report to the Legislative Research Commission annually on its progress in placing in-state investments. The first report shall be submitted by October 1, 1991, and subsequent reports shall be submitted by October 1 of each year thereafter. The report shall include the number of applications for in-state investment received, the nature of the investments proposed, the amount requested, the amount invested, and the percentage of applications which resulted in investments.

(2) The board members and investment consultants shall discharge their duties with respect to the assets of the system solely in the interests of the active contributing members and annuitants and:

(a) For the exclusive purpose of providing benefits to members and annuitants and defraying reasonable expenses of administering the system;

(b) With the care, skill, prudence, and diligence under the circumstances then prevailing that a prudent person acting in a like capacity and familiar with these matters would use in the conduct of an enterprise of a like character and with like aims;

(c) By diversifying the investments of the plan so as to minimize the risk of large losses, unless under the circumstances it is clearly prudent not to do so; and

(d) In accordance with the laws, administrative regulations, and other instruments governing the system.

(3)(a) In choosing and contracting for professional investment management and consulting services, the board shall do so prudently and in the interest of the members and annuitants. Any contract that the board makes with an investment manager shall set forth policies and guidelines of the board with reference to standard rating services and specific criteria for determining the quality of investments. Expenses directly related to investment management and consulting services shall be financed from the guarantee fund in amounts approved by the board.

(b) An investment manager or consultant appointed under this section shall acknowledge in writing his fiduciary responsibilities to the fund. To be eligible for appointment, an investment manager, consultant, or an affiliate, shall be:

1. Registered under the Federal Investment Advisers Act of 1940; or

2. A bank as defined by that Act; or

3. An insurance company qualified to perform investment services under the laws of more than one (1) state.

(4) No investment or disbursement of funds shall be made unless authorized by the board of trustees, except that the board, in order to ensure timely market transactions, shall establish investment guidelines and may permit its staff and investment managers who are employed or under contract with the board pursuant to this section to execute purchases and sales of investment instruments within those guidelines without prior board approval.

(5) In discharging his or her administrative duties under this section, a trustee shall strive to administer the retirement system in an efficient and cost-effective manner for the taxpayers of the Commonwealth of Kentucky.

(6) Notwithstanding any other provision of KRS 161.220 to 161.716, no funds of the Teachers' Retirement System, including fees and commissions paid to an investment manager, private fund, or company issuing securities, who manages systems assets, shall be used to pay fees and commissions to placement agents. For purposes of this subsection, "placement agent" means a third-party individual, who is not an employee, or firm, wholly or partially owned by the entity being hired, who solicits investments on behalf of an investment manager, private fund, or company issuing securities.

(7) All contracts for the investment or management of assets of the system shall not be subject to KRS Chapters 45, 45A, 56, and 57. Instead, the board shall conduct the following process to develop and adopt an investment procurement policy with which all prospective contracts for the investment or management of assets of the system shall comply:

(a) On or before July 1, 2017, the board shall consult with the secretary of the Finance and Administration Cabinet or his or her designee to develop an investment procurement policy, which shall be written to meet best practices in investment management procurement;

(b) Thirty (30) days prior to adoption, the board shall tender the preliminary investment procurement policy to the secretary of the Finance and Administration Cabinet or his or her designee for review and comment;

(c) Upon receipt of comments from the secretary of the Finance and Administration Cabinet or his or her designee, the board shall choose to adopt or not adopt any recommended changes;

(d) Upon adoption, the board shall tender the final investment procurement policy to the secretary of the Finance and Administration Cabinet or his or her designee;

(e) No later than thirty (30) days after receipt of the investment procurement policy, the secretary or his or her designee shall certify whether the board's investment procurement policy meets or does not meet best practices for investment management procurement; and

(f) Any amendments to the investment procurement policy shall adhere to the requirements set forth by paragraphs (b) to (e) of this subsection.

161.460. Conflict of interest — Trustees, employees, members of General Assembly, public servants.

(1) No trustee or employee of the board of trustees shall:

(a) Have any interest, direct or indirect, in the gain or profits of any investment or any other legal, business, or financial transaction made by the board, except that any such trustee or employee may be a member, employee, or beneficiary of the plans administered by the board or authority;

(b) Directly or indirectly for himself or as an agent for another, use any of the assets of the retirement system in any manner except to make current and necessary payments authorized by the board;

(c) Become an endorser, surety, or obligor for moneys loaned to or borrowed from the board;

(d) Have a contract or agreement with the retirement system, individually or through a business owned by the trustee or the employee;

(e) Use his or her official position with the retirement system to obtain a financial gain or benefit or advantage for himself or herself or a family member;

(f) Use confidential information acquired during his or her tenure with the retirement system to further his or her own economic interests or that of another person; or

(g) Hold outside employment with, or accept compensation from, any person or business with which he or she has involvement as part of his or her official position with the retirement system. The provisions of this subsection shall not prohibit a trustee from serving as an employee of an agency participating in the Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System.

(2) No trustee or employee of the board of trustees, who has served as a trustee or employee of the board on or after July 1, 2017, shall have any interest, direct or indirect, in the gains or profits of any investment or any other legal, business, or financial transaction made by the board of trustees for a period of five (5) years following termination of his or her position, except that any such trustee or employee may be a member, employee, or beneficiary of the Teachers' Retirement System.

(3)(a) No person who is serving as a member of the General Assembly or is a public servant as defined by KRS 11A.010(9) shall have any interest, direct or indirect, in the gains or profits of any investment or any other legal, business, or financial transaction made by the board of trustees, except that any such member or public servant may be a member, employee, or beneficiary of the Teachers' Retirement System.

(b) No person who was serving as a member of the General Assembly on or after July 1, 2017, or was serving as a public servant as defined by KRS 11A.010(9) on or after July 1, 2017, shall have any interest, direct or indirect, in the gains or profits of any investment or any other legal, business, or financial transaction made by the board of trustees for a period of five (5) years following termination of his or her position, except that any such member or public servant may be a member, employee, or beneficiary of the Teachers' Retirement System.

161.470. Membership — Forfeiture of service credit — Termination of membership — Forfeiture of benefits — Reinstatement — Payment of accumulated account balance.

(1) The membership of the retirement system shall consist of all new members, all present teachers, and all persons participating under the retirement system as of June 30, 1986, except as provided in Acts 1938 (1st Ex. Sess.), Ch. 1, paragraph 29. The board of trustees of the Teachers' Retirement System shall be responsible for final determination of membership eligibility and may direct employers to take whatever action that may be necessary to correct any error relating to membership.

(2) Service credit shall be forfeited upon withdrawal. If a member again enters service it shall be as a new member, except that any teacher who withdraws by claiming his or her deposits may repay the system the amount withdrawn plus interest and reestablish his or her service credit as provided in subsection (3) of this section.

(3) Effective July 1, 1988, and thereafter, an active contributing member of the retirement system with contributing service equal to one (1) year may regain service credit by depositing in the teachers' savings fund the amount withdrawn with interest at the rate to be set by the board of trustees, and computed from the first of the month of withdrawal and including the month of redeposit.

(4) Effective July 1, 1974, any active contributing member with at least two (2) years of contributing service credit who declined membership as provided in Acts 1938 (1st Ex. Sess.), Ch. 1, paragraph 29, may secure service credit for prior service, and for any subsequent service prior to date of membership, by depositing in the teachers' savings fund contributions for each year of subsequent service prior to date of membership, with interest at the rate of eight percent (8%) compounded annually to the date of deposit.

(5) Membership in the retirement system shall be terminated:

- (a) By retirement for service;
- (b) By death;
- (c) By withdrawal of the member's accumulated account balance;
- (d) When a member, having less than five (5) years of Kentucky service is absent from service for more than three (3) consecutive years; or
- (e) For persons whose membership begins on or after August 1, 2000, when a member is convicted, in any state or federal court of competent jurisdiction, of a felony related to his or her employment as provided in subparagraphs 1. and 2. of this paragraph.

1. Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, a person whose membership begins on or after August 1, 2000, who is convicted, in any state or federal court of competent jurisdiction, of a felony related to his or her employment shall forfeit rights and benefits earned under the retirement system, except for the return of his or her accumulated contributions and interest credited on those contributions.

2. The payment of retirement benefits ordered forfeited shall be stayed pending any appeal of the conviction. If the conviction is reversed on final judgment, no retirement benefits shall be forfeited.

Except for paragraph (e) of this subsection, upon termination of member accounts under this subsection, funds in the account shall be transferred to the guarantee fund. Inactive members may apply for refunds of these funds at any time. The terminated service shall be reinstated, if not withdrawn by the member, in the event that the member returns to active contributing service.

(6) In case of withdrawal from service prior to eligibility for retirement, the board of trustees shall on request of the member return all of his or her accumulated account balance, including any payments made by the member to the state accumulation fund, but the member shall have no claim on any contributions made by the state or employer with a view to his or her retirement, except as provided by KRS 161.635 and 161.636, or to contributions made to the medical insurance fund. A member who is withdrawing from service prior to retirement eligibility shall be entitled to a refund following sixty (60) days after his or her last day of employment. If the member is eligible for an immediate service retirement allowance as provided in KRS 161.600, no withdrawal and refund shall be permitted, unless the allowance would prohibit the member from qualifying for Social Security benefits or the member elects to withdraw part or all of his or her service for the purpose of obtaining service credit in another retirement plan. Requests for refund of contributions by the member must be filed on forms prescribed by the Teachers' Retirement System and the employer shall be financially responsible for all information that is certified on the prescribed form. A member may not withdraw any part of his or her accumulated account balance in the retirement system except as provided by this subsection.

(7) Except as provided in KRS 161.520 and 161.525, in case of death prior to retirement, the board of trustees shall pay to the estate of the deceased member, unless a beneficiary was otherwise applicably designated by the deceased member, then to the beneficiary, all of his or her accumulated account balance, including any payments made by the member to the state accumulation fund, but the estate or beneficiary shall have no claim on any contributions made by the state or employer with a view to the retirement of the member, except as provided by KRS 161.635 and 161.636, or to contributions made to the medical insurance fund.

(8) Any active contributing member of the Kentucky Employees Retirement System, the County Employees Retirement System, the State Police Retirement System, or the Judicial Retirement System may use service, under that retirement system for the purpose of meeting the service requirement of subsections (3) and (4) of this section.

Legislative Research Commission Notes.

(1/1/2022). This statute was amended by 2021 Ky. Acts chs. 157 and 192, which do not appear to be in conflict and have been codified together.

(12/13/2018). On December 13, 2018, the Kentucky Supreme Court ruled that the passage of 2018 SB 151 (2018 Ky. Acts ch. 107), did not comply with the three-readings rule of Kentucky Constitution Section 46 and that the legislation is, therefore, constitutionally invalid and declared void. That ruling applies to changes made to this statute in that Act.

(7/13/90). The Act amending this section prevails over the repeal and reenactment in House Bill 940, Acts Ch. 476, pursuant to Section 653(1) of Acts Ch. 476.

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

Where a person elected not to become a member of the State Teachers' Retirement System at its beginning but contributions were taken out of his salary, when he returned to Kentucky after previously withdrawing the contributions, he would return as a former member under subsection (2) of this section. OAG 64-120.

If additional teaching activity falls within the category of being in fact a part of the regularly approved program of the public school district or the vocational school for which certification or a professional level of training is required as a condition of employment, then teachers' retirement applies and the teacher would not be eligible for social security participation. The additional hours requiring services beyond the normal teaching day are regarded as an extension of the regular full-time employment. OAG 69-430.

ROTC teachers may be employed without being certified but an uncertified ROTC teacher may not be a member of the Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System. OAG 74-387.

The two-year service requirement is necessary to reinstate an account with the teachers' retirement system and may be met by any current service accumulated by any active participating member of any of the retirement systems enumerated under this section. OAG 74-565.

While subsection (5) of this section evidences the intent of the legislature that "service retirement" be of such significance so as to terminate membership in the system, "disability retirement" is not cast in such terms of finality. OAG 79-522.

161.480. Statement of member — Designation of beneficiaries.

(1)(a) Each person, upon becoming a member of the retirement system, shall file a detailed statement as required by the board of trustees and shall designate a primary beneficiary or two (2) or more cobeneficiaries to receive any benefits accruing from the death of the member.

(b) A contingent beneficiary may be designated in addition to the primary beneficiary or cobeneficiaries. The member may name more than one (1) contingent beneficiary.

(c) Any beneficiary designation made by the member, including the estate should the estate become the beneficiary by default, shall remain in effect until changed by the member on forms prescribed by the Teachers' Retirement System, except in the event of subsequent marriage or divorce. Subsequent marriage by the member shall void the primary beneficiary and any cobeneficiary designation, even that of a trust, and the spouse of the member at death shall be considered as the primary beneficiary, unless the member subsequent to marriage designates another beneficiary. An individual who is married prior to becoming a member of the retirement system and remains married at the time of becoming a member shall have his or her spouse considered the primary beneficiary, unless the member designates another beneficiary. A final divorce decree shall terminate an ex-spouse's status as either primary beneficiary, cobeneficiary, or contingent beneficiary, unless subsequent to divorce the member redesignates the former spouse as primary beneficiary, cobeneficiary, or contingent beneficiary.

(d) To the extent permitted by the Internal Revenue Code, a trust may be designated as beneficiary for receipt of a member's accumulated account balance in the retirement system as provided under KRS 161.470(7). A final divorce decree shall not terminate the designation of a trust as beneficiary regardless of who is designated as beneficiary of the trust.

(e) In the event that a member fails to designate a beneficiary, or all designated beneficiaries predecease the member, the member's estate shall be deemed to be the beneficiary, unless the member is married at the time of his or her death, in which case the spouse shall be deemed the beneficiary.

(f) Members may designate as beneficiaries only presently identifiable and existing individuals, or trusts where otherwise permitted, without contingency instructions, on forms prescribed by the retirement system.

(2) The provisions of this section shall be retroactive as they relate to election of beneficiaries by members still in active status on the effective date of this section. The provisions of this section shall not apply to any account from which a member is drawing a retirement allowance or to the life insurance benefit available under KRS 161.655.

161.490. Investigation of statement.

To the extent to which it is used in determining the liability of any fund of the retirement system, the board of trustees shall ascertain the correctness of the statement filed under KRS 161.480 by the best evidence it is able to obtain. If official records are not available as to length of service, age, salary, or other information required for the administration of the retirement system, the board may use its discretion as to the evidence to be accepted.

161.500. Service credit.

(1) At the close of each fiscal year, the retirement system shall add service credit to the account of each member who made contributions to his or her account during the year. Members shall be entitled to a full year of service credit if their total paid days were not less than one hundred eighty (180) days of a one hundred eighty-five (185) day contract for a regular school or fiscal year. In the event a member is paid for less than one hundred eighty (180) days, the member may purchase credit according to administrative regulations established by the board of trustees. In no case shall more than one (1) year of service be credited for all service performed in one (1) fiscal year. Members who complete their employment contract prior to the close of a fiscal year and elect to retire prior to the close of a fiscal year shall have their service credit reduced by eight percent (8%) for each calendar month that the retirement becomes effective prior to July 1.

(2) Members who are employed and paid for less than the number of days required in their normal employment year shall be entitled to pro rata service credit for the fractional service. Such credit shall be based upon the number of days employed and the number of days in the member's annual employment agreement or normal employment year.

(3) Service credit may not exceed the ratio between the school or fiscal year and the number of months or fraction of a month the member is employed during that year.

(4) No service credit shall be granted in the Teachers' Retirement System for service that has been or will be used in qualifying for annuity benefit payments from another retirement system financed wholly or in part by public funds.

161.507. Prior service credit for veterans — Credit for military service and uniformed service by active contributing member.

(1) An active contributing member of the Teachers' Retirement System may receive service credit for active service rendered in the uniformed services of the Armed Forces of the United States, including the commissioned corps of the Public Health Service, subject to the provisions of the Uniformed Services Employment and Reemployment Rights Act of 1994 and the administrative regulations promulgated by the board of trustees. Military service includes service in the uniformed services that occurs before the employment of a member in a position covered by the retirement system or where a member leaves covered employment without giving advance written or verbal notice of performing duty in the uniformed services.

Service in the uniformed services also includes uniformed service that occurs after employment in a position covered by the retirement system where the member has given advance written or verbal notice of performing duty in the uniformed services and the member returns directly from uniformed services to covered employment. Military service may be credited only if discharge was honorable or was not terminated upon the occurrence of any of the events listed in 38 U.S.C. sec. 4304. Service shall be considered as Kentucky teaching service, except that service may not be used for meeting the service requirements set forth in KRS 161.600(1)(a) or (2) or 161.661(1) unless the service occurred after the member gave written or verbal notice of performing duty in the uniformed services and the member returned directly from uniformed services to covered employment. A maximum of six (6) years of military service may be credited, but in no case a greater number of years than the actual years of contributing service in Kentucky.

(2) No credit shall be granted for military service which has been or will be used in qualifying for annuity benefit payments from another retirement system financed wholly or in part by public funds.

(3) A member having twenty (20) years or more of active duty in the military service, and who is qualified for regular federal retirement benefits based on this military service, may not receive credit for any military service in the Teachers' Retirement System. This subsection shall apply to service presented for credit on July 1, 1975, and after this date.

(4)(a) A member receiving retirement credit for active duty in the armed services of the United States prior to employment in a position covered by the retirement system or where the member leaves covered employment without giving advance written or verbal notice of performing duty in the uniformed services shall pay to the retirement system the full actuarial cost of the service credit purchased as provided under KRS 161.220(22). These contributions shall not be picked up, as described in KRS 161.540(2). In purchasing retirement credit for active duty in the armed services, the latest years of service shall be considered first in allowing credit toward retirement. The board of trustees shall adopt a table of actuarial factors to be used in calculating the amount of contribution required for crediting this service.

(b) If military service occurred after the member gave written or verbal notice of performing duty in the uniformed services and the member returns directly from uniformed services to covered employment, the member shall contribute the regular member contribution required by KRS 161.540. The member may make the payment of delayed contributions in a lump sum payment or in installments not to exceed five (5) years beginning with the member's date of reemployment. Interest at the rate of eight percent (8%) per annum shall be charged for delayed contributions beginning with the member's date of reemployment until paid. Members participating in the supplemental benefit component who make the regular member contribution required by this paragraph, shall also receive the mandatory employer contributions in the supplemental benefit component for the period of service purchased.

(5) An active contributing member of the Teachers' Retirement System may receive service credit for service in the military reserves of the United States or the National Guard. The member may purchase one (1) month of service for each six (6) months of service in the reserves or the National Guard. Notwithstanding any other statute, regulation, or policy to the contrary, the system shall provide a member, upon request, the estimated actuarial cost of the National Guard or military reserves service purchase based upon the information available at the time of the request. The member shall be entitled to enter into a contract with the system at the time of the request to purchase the National Guard or military reserve service by paying to the system the estimated actuarial cost, either by installments or in lump sum. The member shall pay the full actuarial cost of this service in the military reserves or the National Guard as provided in KRS 161.220(22). Service in the military reserves or the National Guard shall be treated as service earned prior to participation in the system and shall not be used for meeting the service requirements set forth in KRS 161.600(1)(a) or (2) or 161.661(1). The payment shall not be picked up by the employer, as described in KRS 161.540(2).

Legislative Research Commission Notes.

(12/13/2018). On December 13, 2018, the Kentucky Supreme Court ruled that the passage of 2018 SB 151 (2018 Ky. That ruling applies to changes made to this statute in that Act.

(7/14/2000). This section was amended by 2000 Ky. Acts chs. 385 and 498. Where these Acts are not in conflict, they have been codified together. Where a conflict exists, Acts ch. 498, which was last enacted by the General Assembly, prevails under KRS 446.250.

(7/13/90). The Act amending this section prevails over the repeal and reenactment in House Bill 940, Acts Ch. 476, pursuant to Section 653(1) of Acts Ch. 476.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

1. Teacher.

Where the plaintiff was employed as a teacher in this Commonwealth when he was inducted into military service, he was entitled to service credit for his military service, even though he was not reemployed by the same school system.

Watkins v. Oldham, 731 S.W.2d 829, 1987 Ky. App. LEXIS 503 (Ky. Ct. App. 1987).

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

This section could not allow prior service credit where a person was released from active service, subject to call to active service, to follow his own personal pursuits. OAG 72-404.

An active member may receive credit for military service under the Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System although he is drawing benefits from another state based in part upon the same military service. OAG 74-374.

161.515. Out-of-state service credit — Contribution — Kentucky Peace Corps and federal Peace Corps service credit — Retirement factor.

(1) For the purposes of this section, "out-of-state service" shall mean service in any state in a comparable position on a full-time basis, which would be covered if in Kentucky.

(2)(a) An active contributing member who has been a contributing member of the retirement system for at least one (1) full scholastic year subsequent to the latest out-of-state service, may present for credit service rendered out of state, not to exceed ten (10) years actually taught as a certified or licensed teacher. All members who elect to purchase this service shall pay to the retirement system the full actuarial cost as provided under KRS 161.220(22). For each year of which the retirement system shall accept payment, one (1) year of service credit shall be given. For members who purchased this service under the cost formula as it existed under this subsection on June 30, 2005, this credit may not be used to meet the service requirements of KRS 161.525, 161.600, or 161.661, except as provided in subsection (2)(c) of this section. No credit shall be granted for service which has been or will be used in qualifying for annuity benefit payments from another retirement system financed wholly or in part by public funds.

(b) A member of the retirement system having teaching service in the elementary or secondary schools operated by the United States overseas or in this country, or in a public college or university in Kentucky, not included in the Teachers' Retirement System of the State of Kentucky, may present this service for credit in the retirement system on the same basis as provided above for out-of-state service credit; however, no service may be presented which shall be used as a basis for retirement benefits in any program supported wholly or in part by a public institution or governmental agency. This service when added to service credited under subsection (2)(a) of this section shall not exceed a total of ten (10) years' service credit.

(c) A member having service referred to in subsection (2)(a) or (2)(b) of this section who purchased this service under the cost formula as it existed under those subsections on June 30, 2005, may elect to use this service for meeting the requirements of KRS 161.600(1)(c) by making an additional contribution to the state accumulation fund equal to a member contribution rate of eight percent (8%) for each year so used. These payments shall not be picked up as described in KRS 161.540(2). The salary base to be used in determining this additional contribution shall be the final average salary which is used in calculating the member's regular retirement annuity.

(3) Members entering the Teachers' Retirement System for the first time, July 1, 1976, and after this date, shall not receive credit for service defined in subsections (2)(a) or (2)(b) of this section in excess of one (1) year of credit for each two (2) years of Kentucky service in a covered position or ten (10) years, whichever is the lesser number.

(4) A member, having completed service as a volunteer in the Kentucky Peace Corps created by KRS 154.1-720, may purchase service credit for the time served in the corps on the same basis as provided in this section for the purchase of out-of-state service credit. A member, having completed service as a federal Peace Corps volunteer, may purchase up to two (2) years of service credit for time served in the Peace Corps on the same basis as provided in this section for the purchase of out-of-state service credit.

(5) Service purchased under this section by members shall be credited based upon the retirement factor established by KRS 161.620, as applicable.

This section (Enact. Acts 1946, ch. 102) was repealed by Acts 1962, ch. 64, § 9.

161.520. Payment of survivor's benefit on death.

Upon the death of an active contributing member or upon the death of a member retired for disability, except as provided in KRS 161.661(6), the survivors of the deceased member in the following named order, may elect to receive a survivor's benefit payable as follows:

(1) Where there is a surviving widow or widower who is named as the primary beneficiary of the member's retirement account, the benefit shall be:

(a) One hundred eighty dollars ($180) per month with no restriction on other income;

(b) Two hundred forty dollars ($240) per month when the surviving widow or widower's total income from all sources does not exceed six thousand six hundred dollars ($6,600) per year or five hundred fifty dollars ($550) per month; or

(c) If the deceased member has a minimum of ten (10) years of service credit with the Teachers' Retirement System, the surviving widow or widower may apply for an annuity actuarially equivalent to the annuity that would have been paid to the deceased member when eligibility conditions were met. Eligibility for payments would begin at the time the age of the deceased member would have met the requirements of KRS 161.600(1) or (2), as applicable. In exercising this right, the surviving widow or widower shall be entitled to receive an annuity for life. This subsection applies to surviving spouses of members who die on or after July 1, 1978. A surviving widow or widower of a member who dies after July 1, 1978, shall be eligible for benefit payments provided under paragraphs (a) and (b) of this subsection until they begin receiving payments under this provision;

(2)(a) Where there are surviving unmarried children under age eighteen (18) or under age nineteen (19) if a full-time student in high school, the benefit shall be two hundred dollars ($200) per month in the case of one (1) child, three hundred forty dollars ($340) per month in the case of two (2) children, four hundred dollars ($400) per month in the case of three (3) children, and four hundred forty dollars ($440) per month in the case of four (4) or more children. Benefits under this subsection shall apply in addition to benefits which may be payable under subsections (1) and (3) of this section.

(b) Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, the surviving spouse may elect to receive a lump-sum refund of the member's accumulated account balance in lieu of the survivorship benefits payable under this subsection and subsection (1) of this section only if the surviving spouse is designated as the primary beneficiary and:

1. Is a biological or adoptive parent of all children eligible for a benefit under this subsection and has not had his or her parental rights terminated; or

2. Has been appointed as legal guardian of all of the children eligible under paragraph (a) of this subsection.

(c) To elect a lump-sum refund of the member's accumulated account balance under paragraph (b) of this subsection, the surviving spouse who is designated as the primary beneficiary must sign a waiver on forms prescribed by the retirement system of his or her rights and the member's children's rights to the survivorship benefits payable under this subsection and subsection (1) of this section. The surviving spouse shall not waive the survivorship benefits available under this subsection or subsections (1) and (6) of this section if any of the member's children have attained age eighteen (18) or older unless all of those children consent in writing on forms prescribed by the retirement system to waive their survivorship benefits available under this subsection;

(3)(a) Where the survivor is a child age eighteen (18) or older whose mental or physical condition is sufficient to cause his or her dependency on the deceased member at the time of the member's death, the benefit shall be two hundred dollars ($200) per month, payable for the life of the child or until the time as the mental or physical condition creating the dependency no longer exists or the child marries. The mental or physical condition of the adult child shall be revealed by a competent examination by a licensed physician and shall be approved by a majority of a medical review committee as defined in KRS 161.661(14). Benefits under this subsection shall apply in addition to benefits which may be payable under subsections (1) and (2) of this section.

(b) Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, the surviving spouse shall not elect to receive a lump-sum refund of the member's accumulated account balance in lieu of the survivorship benefits payable under this subsection and subsection (1) of this section unless:

1. The surviving spouse is designated as the primary beneficiary;

2. The surviving spouse has been appointed by the court as guardian, conservator, or other fiduciary with sufficient general or specific authority to waive the survivorship benefits available under this subsection for any child or children age eighteen (18) or older who have been adjudicated incompetent to make decisions on their own behalf by a court of law; and

3. Any child or children age eighteen (18) or older who are mentally competent to make decisions on their own behalf as attested to by two (2) physicians' statements consent in writing on forms prescribed by the retirement system to waive their survivorship benefits available under this subsection.

(c) If eligible to elect a lump-sum refund of the member's accumulated account balance, the surviving spouse shall sign a waiver on forms prescribed by the retirement system of his or her rights and the member's children's rights to the survivorship benefits payable under this subsection and subsections (1) and (2) of this section;

(4) Where the sole eligible survivors are dependent parents aged sixty-five (65) or over, the benefit shall be two hundred dollars ($200) per month for one (1) parent or two hundred ninety dollars ($290) per month for two (2) parents. Dependency of a parent shall be established as of the date of the death of the member;

(5) Where the sole eligible survivor is a dependent brother or sister, the benefit shall be one hundred sixty five dollars ($165) per month. In order to qualify, the brother or sister must have been a resident of the deceased member's household for at least one (1) full year prior to the member's death or must have been receiving care in a hospital, nursing home, or other institution at the member's expense for same period;

(6) The benefit to a child as defined in subsection (2) of this section shall terminate upon the attainment of age eighteen (18) or upon reaching age nineteen (19), if a full-time student in high school, or upon marriage, except that benefits shall continue until the attainment of age twenty-three (23) for an unmarried child who is a full-time student in a recognized educational program beyond the high school level. The benefit to a dependent parent or dependent brother or sister or dependent child age eighteen (18) or older shall terminate upon marriage, or upon termination of the condition creating the dependency;

(7) The board of trustees shall be the sole judge of eligibility or dependency of any beneficiary, and may require formal application or information relating to eligibility or dependency, including proof of annual income satisfactory to the board. The board of trustees may subpoena records and individuals whenever it deems this action necessary;

(8) No payment of benefits shall be made unless the board of trustees authorizes the payment. The board shall promulgate administrative regulations for the administration of the provisions in this section and in every case the decision of the board of trustees shall be final as to eligibility, dependency, or disability, and the amount of benefits payable;

(9) In the event that there are no eligible survivors as defined in subsections (1) to (5) of this section, or in the event that the surviving spouse elects not to receive survivorship benefits on his or her own behalf or on behalf of any of the member's children as permitted under subsections (2) and (3) of this section, the board of trustees shall pay to the estate or the designated beneficiaries of the deceased member a refund of his or her accumulated account balance as provided in KRS 161.470(7). If the benefits paid or payable under subsections (1) to (5) of this section and KRS 161.661 shall amount to a sum less than the member's accumulated account balance at the time of death, the board of trustees shall pay to the estate or designated beneficiaries of the deceased member the balance of the accumulated account balance;

(10) Any person who is receiving benefits and becomes disqualified from receiving those benefits under this section shall immediately notify the Teachers' Retirement System of this disqualification in writing and shall return all benefits paid after the date of disqualification. Failure to comply with these provisions shall create an indebtedness of that person to the Teachers' Retirement System. Interest at the rate of eight percent (8%) per annum shall be charged if the debt is not repaid within sixty (60) days after the date of disqualification. Failure to repay this debt creates a lien in favor of the Teachers' Retirement System upon all property of the person who improperly receives benefits and does not repay those benefits; and

(11) Benefits under subsections (2) and (3) of this section shall apply to a child who is a legally adopted survivor at the time of the death of the member. This provision shall be retroactive to include a child who was born after January 1, 1990, and is a legally adopted survivor of a member whose death occurred prior to July 15, 2008.

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

An assignment of accumulated contributions is not revoked by marriage. OAG 63-483.

The statute permits a refund of accumulated contributions to the estate of the teacher, if he dies intestate or does not assign such contributions, or to his assigned beneficiary if he names one. OAG 63-483.

A decree of divorce providing for the restoration of property under KRS 403.060 (repealed) operates to extinguish the interest of a deceased teacher's former spouse which arose by virtue of being designated as the named beneficiary of her teachers retirement system benefits prior to the divorce. OAG 67-380.

Survivors who in 1962 elected to remain under the 1958 statute would also be eligible to take advantage of the 1970 increased benefits if they so elected. OAG 70-487.

A widow who would otherwise be entitled to a widow's allowance under this section would not be precluded from such benefit by the fact that a divorce was pending between her and her husband at the time of his death or by the entry of a divorce decree after his death. OAG 70-508.

In the case of a deceased teacher, under this section, either survivors' benefits or a refund of contributions, but not both, is to be paid and the designated beneficiary gets a first chance. OAG 70-625.

A widow would not be entitled to a survivor's benefit under this section if she is convicted of a felony for her husband's death. OAG 70-692.

Where a widow is under indictment resulting from her husband's death, no payments should be made as a widow's benefit under this section until such time as she is acquitted on the charge. OAG 70-692.

Where, following a teacher's death, his children were actually living with their mother but a judgment had been entered granting custody to their grandfather as legal guardian, payments for the children under the survivor's benefits should be made to the grandfather. OAG 70-692.

One or more surviving minor children of deceased parents, both of whom were members of the teachers' retirement system, were entitled to survivor benefits under the statute from the retirement account of each of the parents. OAG 75-184.

Where a teacher applied for service retirement February 17, 1975, to be effective the coming fiscal year and chose a straight life annuity with a refundable balance to her beneficiary, such retirement became effective on July 1, 1975, and the fact that she died July 29, 1975, prior to receiving her first check has no bearing on her retirement and her husband is entitled only to a refund of the balance in her account rather than the amounts provided under this section or KRS 161.525. 161.522. Survivors of certain members retired for disability may elect annuity.

Upon the death of a member retired for disability who had a minimum of twenty-seven (27) years of service at the time of death, except as provided in KRS 161.661(6), the spouse, if named as the primary beneficiary of the member’s account, shall be entitled to elect, in lieu of a refund of the member’s account, an annuity actuarially equivalent to the annuity that would have been paid to the deceased member had retirement for service been effective on the day immediately preceding the member’s death. This option shall be available only during the entitlement period described under KRS 161.661(3) and (4) prior to the recalculation of the member’s disability allowance under KRS 161.661(5). In selecting this right, the spouse shall be limited to selecting an option providing a straight life annuity with refundable balance or a term certain option. There shall be a monthly minimum allowance of three hundred dollars ($300) as the basic straight life annuity. This section applies to surviving spouses of members who were receiving benefit payments under KRS 161.520 as of June 30, 1988, and to surviving spouses of members who die on or after July 1, 1984, except that the member shall have been retired for disability with a minimum of thirty (30) years of service if either of these two (2) conditions were met prior to July 1, 1990.

161.525. Death of member eligible to retire — Options of beneficiary — Monthly minimum allowance to surviving spouse.

(1) Upon death of a member in active contributing status at the time of death, who was eligible to retire by reason of service, the spouse, if named as the primary beneficiary of the member’s retirement account, or in the absence of an eligible spouse a legal dependent of the member, if named as the primary beneficiary, shall be entitled to elect, in lieu of a refund of the member’s accumulated account balance or benefits provided in KRS 161.520, an annuity actuarially equivalent at the attained age of the beneficiary to the annuity that would have been paid to the deceased member had retirement been effective on the day immediately preceding the member’s death. Under the provisions of KRS 61.680, benefits shall be processed as if the member retired for service. In exercising this right the spouse or legal dependent shall be limited to selecting an option providing either a straight life annuity with refundable balance or a term certain option. A spouse may receive the annuity provided by this section at the same time as children are qualifying for survivors’ benefits under the provisions of KRS 161.520; however, a legal dependent, other than a spouse, may not receive these payments if children have qualified for benefits under that section.

(2) A spouse qualifying for an annuity under subsection (1) of this section may defer the payments in order to reduce the actuarial discounts to be applied due to age.

(3) Upon death of a member in active contributing status at the time of his or her death, who had a minimum of twenty-seven (27) years of service, the spouse, if named as the primary beneficiary of the member’s account shall be entitled to a monthly minimum allowance of three hundred dollars ($300) as the basic straight life annuity. This provision applies to surviving spouses of members who were receiving benefit payments under KRS 161.520 as of June 30, 1986, and to surviving spouses of members who die on or after July 1, 1986.

This section confers upon a deceased teacher’s surviving spouse, providing the spouse is the designated beneficiary, the annuity the teacher could have taken the day before his death, and is limited by the provisions of KRS 161.620(4). OAG 67-443.

The survivor of a deceased member who, pursuant to this section, accepts a ten year certain annuity, cannot, without the consent of his beneficiary, change the beneficiary. OAG 70-365.

Where a teacher filed for retirement benefits by electing an annuity while designating her sister as beneficiary and then died two days before her retirement, the designation of ben-

(1)(a) Each individual who becomes a contributing nonuniversity member prior to January 1, 2022, shall contribute to the retirement system twelve and eight hundred fifty-five thousandths percent (12.855%) of annual compensation, of which:

1. Nine and one hundred five thousandths percent (9.105%) of annual compensation shall be used to fund pension benefits; and

2. Three and three-quarters percent (3.75%) of annual compensation shall be used to fund retiree health benefits.

(b) Each individual who becomes a contributing university member prior to January 1, 2022, shall contribute to the retirement system ten and four-tenths percent (10.4%) of annual compensation, of which:

1. Seven and six hundred twenty-five thousandths percent (7.625%) of annual compensation shall be used to fund pension benefits; and

2. Two and seven hundred seventy-five thousandths percent (2.775%) of annual compensation shall be used to fund retiree health benefits.

(c) Each individual who becomes a contributing nonuniversity member on or after January 1, 2022, shall contribute to the retirement system fourteen and three-quarters percent (14.75%) of annual compensation, of which:

1. Nine percent (9%) of annual compensation shall be used to fund pension benefits in the foundational benefit component as described by KRS 161.633. The contribution provided by this subparagraph shall not be used to fund the supplemental benefit account as provided by KRS 161.635;

2. Two percent (2%) of annual compensation shall fund the required employee contribution in the supplemental benefit component in KRS 161.635, except that the board may direct these contributions on a prospective basis into the pension and life insurance funds to contain costs of the foundational benefit component within the provisions of KRS 161.633; and

3. Three and three-quarters percent (3.75%) of annual compensation shall be used to fund retiree health benefits.

(d) Each individual who becomes a contributing university member on or after January 1, 2022, shall contribute to the retirement system nine and seven hundred seventy-five thousandths percent (9.775%) of annual compensation, of which:

1. Five percent (5%) of annual compensation shall be used to fund pension benefits in the foundational benefit component as described by KRS 161.634. The contribution provided by this subparagraph shall not be used to fund the supplemental benefit account as provided by KRS 161.636;

2. Two percent (2%) of annual compensation shall fund the required employee contribution in the supplemental benefit component in KRS 161.636, except that the board may direct these contributions on a prospective basis into the pension and life insurance funds to contain costs of the foundational benefit component within the provisions of KRS 161.634; and

3. Two and seven hundred and seventy-five thousandths percent (2.775%) of annual compensation shall be used to fund retiree health benefits.

(e) When the medical insurance fund established under KRS 161.420(5) achieves a sufficient pre-funded status as determined by the retirement system's actuary, the board of trustees shall recommend to the General Assembly that the contributions required under paragraph (a)2., (b)2., (c)3., or (d)3. of this subsection shall, in an actuarially accountable manner, be either decreased, suspended, or eliminated.

(f) Payments authorized by statute that are made to retiring members, who became members of the system before July 1, 2008, for not more than sixty (60) days of unused accrued annual leave shall be considered as part of the member's annual compensation, and shall be used only for the member's final year of active service. The contribution of members shall not exceed these applicable percentages on annual compensation. When a member retires, if it is determined that he or she has made contributions on a salary in excess of the amount to be included for the purpose of calculating his or her final average salary, any excess contribution shall be refunded to him or her in a lump sum at the time of the payment of his or her first retirement allowance. In the event a member is awarded a court-ordered back salary payment the employer shall deduct and remit the member contribution on the salary payment, plus interest to be paid by the employer, to the retirement system unless otherwise specified by the court order.

(2) Each public board, institution, or agency listed in KRS 161.220(4) shall, solely for the purpose of compliance with Section 414(h) of the United States Internal Revenue Code, pick up the member contributions required by this section for all compensation earned after August 1, 1982, and the contributions so picked up shall be treated as employer contributions in determining tax treatment under the United States Internal Revenue Code and KRS 141.010. The picked-up member contribution shall satisfy all obligations to the retirement system satisfied prior to August 1, 1982, by the member contribution, and the picked-up member contribution shall be in lieu of a member contribution. Each employer shall pay these picked-up member contributions from the same source of funds which is used to pay earnings to the member. The member shall have no option to receive the contributed amounts directly instead of having them paid by the employer to the system. Member contributions picked-up after August 1, 1982, shall be treated for all purposes of KRS 161.220 to 161.714 in the same manner and to the same extent as member contributions made prior to August 1, 1982.

(12/13/2018). On December 13, 2018, the Kentucky Supreme Court ruled that the passage of 2018 SB 151 (2018 Ky. That ruling applies to changes made to this statute in that Act.

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

Since a state's legislator's salary does not fall within the definition of "annual compensation" in KRS 161.220, a legislator who retains membership in the KTRS cannot legally make contributions to the KTRS or acquire credit in the KTRS, but must, in effect, relinquish his participation in the KTRS and participate in the KERS in order to acquire any service credit in a public retirement system — in this case the KERS. OAG 78-226.

University faculty members of Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System who are also covered by the social security system are not being discriminated against by having smaller contributions and benefits factors than other such members, as of 1980, since the differences are designed to offset social security increases. OAG 78-729.

Subsection (2) of this section and KRS 161.560, which are clear and unequivocal on their face, require an interpretation which would foreclose any direct payment by a local board of education to the Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System of a portion of the employee's contributions to the retirement system; however, these sections would not exclude any arrangement whereby a local board of education would reimburse its employees for a portion of the employee's contributions into the retirement system after the payroll deductions have already been made and credited to the KTRS. 161.545. Contributions and service credit for substitute service, part-time service, or leave of absence — Contributions not to be picked up — Purchases of service credit for leaves of absence for health, child-rearing, and educational improvement reasons.

(1)(a) Members may make contributions and receive service credit for substitute, part-time, or any service other than regular full-time teaching as provided in the administrative regulations of the board of trustees if contributions were not otherwise made as a result of the service.

(b) Members placed on leave of absence during a period of full-time employment as defined in KRS 161.220(21) may make contributions and receive service credit for this leave only if contributions are made by the end of the fiscal year next succeeding the year in which the leave was effective as provided in administrative regulations promulgated by the board of trustees. Contributions permitted after August 1, 1982, shall not be picked-up pursuant to KRS 161.540(2).

(2) Active contributing members of the Teachers' Retirement System, or former members who are currently participating in a state-administered retirement system, who were granted leaves of absence during a period of full-time employment as defined in KRS 161.220(21) since July 1, 1964, for reasons of health as defined under the Federal Family Medical Leave Act of 1993, 29 U.S.C. secs. 2601 et seq., child rearing, or to improve their educational qualifications, and did not purchase the leave of absence as provided in subsection (1) of this section may obtain credit for the leave of absence as provided under the administrative regulations of the board of trustees and under the following conditions:

(a) The leave of absence shall be verified by a copy of the board of education minutes which granted the leave of absence or by other documentation that was generated contemporaneously with the leave that is determined by the retirement system to reasonably establish that a leave of absence was granted;

(b) The member shall contribute the required percentage based on the salary received for the year immediately preceding the leave of absence plus interest at the rate of eight percent (8%) compounded annually from the beginning of the school year following the year of the leave of absence, and by depositing the appropriate contributions in the state accumulation fund and medical insurance fund; and

(c) The member shall receive credit for no more than two (2) years under the provisions of this subsection.

(3) Sabbatical leaves of absence granted by any one (1) of the five (5) universities identified in KRS 161.220(4)(b) for which the university employee is provided full pay at the rate he or she was provided as a full-time employee immediately preceding the sabbatical leave shall be deemed as full-time employment provided for the university and employee and employer contributions shall be made in accordance with KRS 161.540 and 161.550.

(4) Contributions permitted under this section after August 1, 1982, shall not be picked-up pursuant to KRS 161.540(2).

(5) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this section to the contrary, purchase of service credit under subsection (2) of this section for individuals who become members on or after July 1, 2008, shall be purchasable only at the full actuarial cost.

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

The fact a teacher was on unpaid leave of absence under KRS 161.770 may be shown by board minutes even though a specific item cannot be pointed to in the minutes; in this regard, if it can be shown through a composite of board minutes, probably extending over several years, and possibly with the aid of payroll records which would have been approved by board action at a meeting, that the employment status of a teacher could have been nothing other than being on a leave of absence under the authority of KRS 161.770, this would serve as compliance with this section. OAG 78-778. Compare OAG 78-346.

A Kentucky Teacher's Retirement System member who did not officially request a maternity leave, and who did not supply a verified copy of the board minutes granting such leave of absence, may make contributions, if the member can produce board minutes showing that she was not terminated, then rehired. 161.5461. Purchase of service credit with rolled-over or transferred retirement funds.

(1) Any active contributing member may purchase service credit as authorized under KRS Chapter 161 by rolling over funds from a previous plan to the extent that rollovers are permitted by the rules set forth in the Internal Revenue Code. The rollovers may be made directly from a previous qualified plan or through a conduit individual retirement account as permitted by the rules set forth in the Internal Revenue Code.

(2) Any active contributing member may purchase service credit as authorized under KRS Chapter 161 by transferring funds directly from a retirement plan maintained by the Commonwealth of Kentucky to the extent that transfers are permitted by the rules set forth in the Internal Revenue Code.

(3) The amount of any transfer or rollover purchase as permitted under subsections (1) and (2) of this section, excluding that portion credited to the medical insurance fund under KRS 161.420(5), shall be credited to the individual member's account and shall be considered accumulated contributions of the member.

161.5465. Member with twenty years' service credit may purchase five years' service credit — Exceptions.

On or after August 1, 1998, a member of the Teachers' Retirement System in active contributing status who has a minimum of twenty (20) years of service credit may purchase up to a maximum of five (5) years of service credit that is not otherwise purchasable under any of the provisions of KRS 161.220 to 161.716 and that meets the definition of nonqualified service as provided in Section 1526 of the Federal Taxpayer Relief Act of 1997. The member shall pay the full actuarial cost of the service credit as provided in KRS 161.220(22). The payment shall not be picked up by the employer as described in KRS 161.540(2), and the member's payment shall be credited to the member's contribution account and shall be considered accumulated contributions of the member. Payment by the member may be by lump sum or by installment payments as provided in KRS 161.597. Notwithstanding any other statute to the contrary, the Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System shall recognize nonqualified service credit purchased with another retirement system only to the extent that the member had an equivalent number of full months of active employment in the position covered by the other retirement system during the period that the nonqualified service was purchased. This section shall not apply to individuals who become members on or after July 1, 2008, except that a teacher of a local school board may purchase up to ten (10) months of service under this section if the teacher is retiring and has completed the prior school year with at least twenty-six (26) years and two (2) months of service but less than twenty-seven (27) years of service.

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

With regard to members who purchase service credit pursuant to the statute and who qualify for retirement pursuant to KRS 161.600, the Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System must provide medical insurance benefits to those members for those years purchased. OAG 99-7.

The purchase of service credits pursuant to the statute cannot be restricted to only those members who are retiring. OAG 99-7.

The payment for the purchase of service credits under the statute is not required to be only by lump sum payment; thus, members may pay for such service credits in installment payments pursuant to KRS 161.597. OAG 99-7.

2. Two and seven hundred seventy-five thousandths percent (2.775%) of annual compensation shall be used to provide funding to the medical insurance fund as provided under KRS 161.420(5). If the board of trustees establishes a trust fund under 26 U.S.C. sec. 115, the board may deposit the employer contribution provided in this subparagraph in that trust fund;

(d) Ten and three-quarters percent (10.75%) of the total annual compensation of nonuniversity members who become members on or after January 1, 2022. Of this permanent employer contribution rate:

1. Eight percent (8%) of the total annual compensation shall be used to fund pension and life insurance benefits. The contribution provided by this subparagraph shall not be used to fund the supplemental benefit account as provided by KRS 161.635;

2. Two percent (2%) of the total annual compensation shall be used to fund the mandatory employer contribution of the supplemental benefit component, except that the board may direct these contributions on a prospective basis into the pension and life insurance funds to contain costs within the provisions of KRS 161.633; and

3. Three-quarters of one percent (0.75%) of annual compensation shall be used to provide funding to the medical insurance fund as provided under KRS 161.420(5). If the board of trustees establishes a trust fund under 26 U.S.C. sec. 115, the board may deposit the employer contribution provided in this subdivision in that trust fund; and

(e) Nine and seven hundred seventy-five thousandths percent (9.775%) of total annual compensation of university members who become members on or after January 1, 2022. Of this permanent employer contribution rate:

1. Five and seven hundred seventy-five thousandths percent (5.775%) of the total annual compensation shall be used to fund pension and life insurance benefits. The contribution provided by this subparagraph shall not be used to fund the supplemental benefit account as provided by KRS 161.636;

2. Two percent (2.0%) of the total annual compensation shall be used to fund the mandatory employer contribution of the supplemental benefit component, except that the board may direct these contributions on a prospective basis into the pension and life insurance funds to contain costs within the provisions of KRS 161.634; and

3. Two percent (2.0%) of annual compensation shall be used to provide funding to the medical insurance fund as provided under KRS 161.420(5). If the board of trustees establishes a trust fund under 26 U.S.C. sec. 115, the board may deposit the employer contribution provided in this subparagraph in that trust fund.

(2) In addition to the required contributions in subsection (1) of this section, the state shall contribute annually to the Teachers' Retirement System a percentage of the total salaries of the state-funded and federally funded members it employs to pay the cost of health insurance coverage for retirees who are not eligible for Medicare and who retire on or after July 1, 2010, less the amounts that are otherwise required to be paid by the retirees under KRS 161.675. The board shall deposit funds in the medical insurance fund unless the board of trustees has established a trust fund under 26 U.S.C. sec. 115 for this purpose. In this case, the board may deposit the employer contribution in that trust fund. This contribution shall be known as the state medical insurance fund stabilization contribution. The percentage to be contributed by the state under this subsection:

(a) Shall be determined by the retirement system's actuary for each biennial budget period;

(b) May be suspended or adjusted by the General Assembly if in its judgment the welfare of the Commonwealth so demands; and

(c) Shall not exceed the lesser of the actual benefit cost for retirees not eligible for Medicare who retire on or after July 1, 2010, or the amount contributed by employers under subsection (3) of this section.

(3) All employers who employ nonuniversity members shall make a contribution for each payroll on behalf of their active employees who participate in the Teachers' Retirement System in an amount equal to three percent (3%) of payroll of those active employees. The contribution specified by this subsection shall be used to fund retiree health benefits.

(4) When the medical insurance fund established under KRS 161.420(5) achieves a sufficient prefunded status as determined by the Teachers' Retirement System's actuary, the board of trustees shall recommend to the General Assembly that the contributions required under subsections (1)(c)2. and (e)3. and (3) of this section shall, in an actuarially accountable manner, be either decreased, suspended, or eliminated. The decrease, suspension, or elimination in contributions required under subsection (1)(c)2. of this section shall not exceed two and twenty-five thousandths percent (2.025%) of annual compensation. The decrease, suspension, or elimination in contributions required under subsection (1)(e)3. of this section shall not exceed one and twenty-five hundredths percent (1.25%) of annual compensation.

(5) Each employer shall remit the required employer contributions to the retirement system under the terms and conditions specified for member contributions under KRS 161.560. The state shall provide annual appropriations based upon estimated funds needed to meet the requirements of KRS 161.155, 161.168, 161.507(4), 161.515, 161.545, 161.553, 161.605, 161.612, and 161.620(1), (3), (5), (6), and (7). In the event an annual appropriation is less than the amount of these requirements, the state shall make up the deficit in the next biennium budget appropriation to the retirement system. Employer contributions to the retirement system are for the exclusive purpose of providing benefits to members and annuitants and these contributions shall be considered deferred compensation to the members. This subsection shall not apply to costs applicable to individuals who become members on or after January 1, 2022.

Legislative Research Commission Notes.

(12/13/2018). On December 13, 2018, the Kentucky Supreme Court ruled that the passage of 2018 SB 151 (2018 Ky. Acts ch. 107), did not comply with the three-readings rule of Kentucky Constitution Section 46 and that the legislation is, therefore, constitutionally invalid and declared void. That ruling applies to changes made to this statute in that Act.

(7/13/90). In amending this section, 1990 House Bill 653, Acts Ch. 442, § 11, did not underline the year "1990" which was intended to be added after "July 1," at the beginning of the section. As directed by KRS 446.270, the Reviser of Statutes has deleted this material from the text of this statute. Section 20 of Acts Ch. 442 provides, however, that "the provisions of this Act shall become effective July 1, 1990."

161.556. Employer contributions for members employed by regional educational cooperatives.

Each regional educational cooperative referred to in KRS 161.220(4)(e) employing members of the Teachers' Retirement System shall have the employer contributions provided in the same manner as for members employed by local boards of education.

History.

Enact. Acts 1994, ch. 369, § 14, effective July 1, 1994.

161.560. Deduction and forwarding of teachers' contributions — Reporting requirements — Picked-up employee contributions — Correction of omitted member contributions.

(1)(a) Each agency, school district, and institution employing members of the retirement system shall deduct from the compensation of each member for each payroll period subsequent to the date the individual became a member, the percentage of his or her compensation due under the rates prescribed in KRS 161.540. No later than fifteen (15) days following each pay date, the employer shall have on deposit with the retirement system all required deductions. The retirement system may charge the employer interest at an annual rate not to exceed eight percent (8%) for deductions not deposited within the specified fifteen (15) days.

(b) Each employer employing members of the retirement system shall have on file at the retirement system's office no later than fifteen (15) days following each pay date payroll reports, contributions lists, and other data required by administrative regulation of the board. The retirement system may impose a penalty on the employer not to exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000) when the employer does not meet the reporting date. However, the retirement system may waive the penalty for good cause.

(c) Each employer employing members of the retirement system shall have on file at the retirement system's office an annual summary report of member contributions and periods employed no later than August 1 following the completion of each fiscal year. The retirement system may impose a penalty on the employer not to exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000) when the employer does not meet the August 1 reporting date. However, the retirement system may waive the penalty for good cause.

(d) The deductions described by paragraph (a) of this subsection shall be made notwithstanding the fact that the salary as a result may be less than the minimum compensation provided by law. Every member shall be deemed to consent and agree to the deductions, and the deductions shall be considered as having been paid to the member. After August 1, 1982, member contributions shall be picked up by the agency pursuant to KRS 161.540(2).

(2) If an employer fails to deduct the correct retirement contribution from a member's compensation, the member may make the contribution that should have been deducted by the employer and receive retirement credit for the payment. For correction of omitted member contributions that occur more than one (1) year after the year in which the error was made, the employer shall be responsible for paying interest to the retirement system at a rate of eight percent (8%) from the end of the year in which the service was performed to the date of payment.

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

ROTC teachers who hold regular teacher's certification are eligible for membership in the Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System and their employing school district is required to deduct from their salary the membership dues as provided by this section. OAG 74-387 (opinion prior to 1990 repeal, and reenact.).

KRS 161.540(2) and this section, which are clear and unequivocal on their face, require an interpretation which would foreclose any direct payment by a local board of education to the Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System (KTRS) of a portion of the employee's contributions to the retirement system; however, these sections would not exclude any arrangement whereby a local board of education would reimburse its employees for a portion of the employee's contributions into the retirement system after the payroll deductions have already been made and credited to the KTRS. OAG 81-373 (opinion prior to 1990 repeal, and reenact.).

161.567. Authorization for optional retirement plan for designated employees of certain public universities.

(1) An optional retirement plan is hereby authorized for designated employees of public postsecondary education institutions who are also eligible for membership in the Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System under KRS 161.220(4)(b) and 161.470(1). The purpose of the optional retirement plan shall be to provide suitable retirement and death benefits, while affording the maximum portability of these benefits to the eligible employees as an alternative to membership in the retirement system. Benefits shall be provided by the purchase of annuity contracts, mutual fund accounts, or similar investment products, or a combination thereof, collectively referred to as contracts or annuity contracts, at the option of the participant and offered by the selected provider for plans established under Section 403(b) of the Internal Revenue Code. The specific provisions of provider contracts with respect to the benefits payable to members and their beneficiaries shall prevail over specific provisions relating to the same subjects found in KRS 161.220 to 161.716, other than this section.

(2) The boards of regents of those institutions identified in KRS 161.220(4)(b) shall select no less than two (2) but no more than four (4) companies from which to purchase contracts under the optional retirement plan. As criteria for this selection, the boards of regents shall consider, among other things, and as appropriate for the type of contract provider, the following:

(a) The portability of the contracts offered or to be offered by a company, based on the number of states in which the company provides contracts under similar plans;

(b) The efficacy of the contracts in the recruitment and retention of employees for the various state public postsecondary education institutions;

(c) The nature and extent of the rights and benefits to be provided by the contracts for participating employees and their beneficiaries;

(d) The relation of the rights and benefits to the amount of contributions required;

(e) The suitability of the rights and benefits to the needs and interests of eligible employees and the various state public postsecondary education institutions; and

(f) The ability of the designated companies to provide the rights and benefits under those contracts.

161.568. Eligibility to participate in optional retirement plan — Election to change from optional retirement plan to Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System.

(1) Eligibility to participate in the optional retirement plan shall be determined by the board of regents of each of the state public postsecondary education institutions identified in KRS 161.220(4)(b). The employees of these institutions of higher education who are initially employed on or after the implementation date of the optional retirement plan may make an election to participate in the optional retirement plan within thirty (30) days after their employment date. This election shall be irrevocable except as otherwise provided in this subsection. No member of the Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System who terminates employment and is subsequently reemployed by the same or another public postsecondary education institution which participates in the Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System may be eligible to elect to participate in the optional retirement plan unless the date of reemployment is at least six (6) months after the date of termination. All elections made under this subsection shall be in writing and shall be filed with the appropriate officer of the employer institution. Persons who originally elected to participate in the optional retirement plan may later change their elections only as follows:

(a) Any person otherwise eligible for membership in the Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System may irrevocably elect one (1) time during his or her lifetime to change his or her election and to prospectively participate in the Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System. This election to change from the optional retirement plan to Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System shall be effective beginning on the first day of the first month immediately following the date that written application for the election is received in the retirement system's office on forms prescribed by the system. Any person exercising this election shall not be entitled to purchase as service credit in the Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System any prior service with his or her postsecondary education institution employer;

(b) Any person otherwise eligible for membership in the Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System who previously elected to participate in the optional retirement plan may irrevocably elect one (1) time within his or her first six (6) years and six (6) months of continuous service in any one (1) or more of the institutions identified in KRS 161.220(4)(b), to change his or her election and to prospectively participate in the Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System and also become eligible to purchase as service credit his or her prior service with his or her postsecondary education employer. This election to change from the optional retirement plan to the Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System shall be effective beginning on the first day of the first month immediately following the date that written application for the election is received in the retirement system's office on forms prescribed by the retirement system. Persons electing to change from the optional retirement plan to the Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System may purchase service credit only for their prior years of service for a postsecondary education institution identified in KRS 161.220(4)(b) during which they participated in the optional retirement plan. The election to purchase prior service as service credit shall be received in the retirement system's office on forms prescribed by the retirement system within the six (6) year and six (6) month period provided to make the election to begin participation in the Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System. The cost of purchasing this service shall be calculated by adding both the employer and member contributions that would have been paid to the Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System had the individual purchasing this service participated in the Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System instead of the optional retirement plan, less the amount contributed to the Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System by the postsecondary education institution as provided by KRS 161.569(5), or KRS 161.569(5)(a)2. as it existed on June 30, 2007. Interest at Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System's actuarially assumed rate shall be paid on these net contributions by the person electing to change to the Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System from the optional retirement plan. These payments shall not be picked up as described in KRS

161.540(2). Persons who elect to change from the optional retirement plan to the Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System may elect to purchase as service credit, beginning with the most recent years, any portion of their prior years of service during which time they participated in the optional retirement plan, or none of those years. Members may purchase service credit for prior years of service by rolling over funds from their optional retirement plan account as provided under KRS 161.5461, or by rolling over or transferring other plan funds as permitted by the rules set forth in the Internal Revenue Code, or by making an after-tax lump-sum cash payment;

(c) Effective July 1, 2008, persons otherwise eligible for membership in the Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System may irrevocably elect one (1) time to change their election and to prospectively participate in the Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System and purchase service credit for their prior years of service during which they participated in the optional retirement plan. This election shall be filed in writing with the Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System no later than December 31, 2008. Persons who change their election prior to July 1, 2008, to prospectively participate in the Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System may purchase service credit for their prior years of service during which they participated in the optional retirement plan. The purchase of prior years of service under this paragraph shall be subject to the same conditions and purchase costs as described in paragraph (b) of this subsection, except that the election to purchase service credit shall be on file with the Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System no later than December 31, 2008; and

(d) Persons electing to change to the Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System under paragraphs (a), (b), and (c) of this subsection shall be eligible to participate, based upon their age and allowable service credit, in the disability, survivorship, and medical insurance programs under the conditions and in the degree as they exist on the date that they file their election with the retirement system, but shall be subject to any changes to those programs from that date forward, including any changes that may affect their eligibility for or degree of participation in those programs. Prior service purchased as service credit as permitted under paragraphs (b) and (c) of this subsection shall not be considered for meeting eligibility requirements or determining the extent of participation in these programs. Persons electing to change to the Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System shall not be eligible for the survivorship or disability programs based upon medical conditions that existed prior to the filing of their elections.

(2) Elections of eligible employees hired on or after the implementation date of the optional retirement plan at their employer institution shall be effective on the date of their employment. If an eligible employee hired subsequent to the implementation date at the employer institution fails to make the election provided for in this section, the employee shall become a member of the regular retirement plan of the Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System.

Legislative Research Commission Notes.

(12/13/2018). On December 13, 2018, the Kentucky Supreme Court ruled that the passage of 2018 SB 151 (2018 Ky. Acts ch. 107), did not comply with the three-readings rule of Kentucky Constitution Section 46 and that the legislation is, therefore, constitutionally invalid and declared void. That ruling applies to changes made to this statute in that Act.

161.569. Effect of election to participate — Payment of benefits — Taxation and attachment of benefits — Employer contributions.

(1) Any person electing to participate in the optional retirement plan shall be ineligible for membership in the regular retirement plan of the Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System for as long as the participant is employed in a position for which the optional retirement plan is available, except as provided in KRS 161.568(1).

(2) Any person electing to participate in the optional retirement plan shall acknowledge in writing that the benefits payable to participants are not the obligation of the Commonwealth of Kentucky or the Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System, and that these benefits and other rights of the optional retirement plan are the liability and responsibility solely of the designated companies to which contributions have been made.

(3) Benefits shall be payable to optional retirement plan participants or their beneficiaries by the designated companies in accordance with the contracts issued by each company and the retirement plan provisions adopted by each public institution.

(4) Annuity contracts issued under the optional retirement plan and all rights of a participant in the optional retirement plan shall be exempt from any state, local, or municipal tax; assessment for the insolvency of any life, health, or casualty insurance company; any levy or sale, garnishment, or attachment; or any process whatsoever, and shall be unassignable except as otherwise specifically provided by the contracts offered under the optional retirement plan adopted by the respective public institutions of higher education. Except contracts issued and rights accrued in the optional retirement plan on or after January 1, 1998, shall be subject to the tax imposed by KRS 141.020, to the extent provided in KRS 141.010 and 141.0215.

(5) Each institution shall contribute for each payroll period of each fiscal year to the Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System, an amount equal to five and one-tenth percent (5.1%) of the total salaries of all persons who elect or elected to participate in the optional retirement plan instead of the Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System. This payment shall continue to be made until June 30, 2018. No contributions shall be payable on or after July 1, 2018, to the Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System for all persons who elect or elected to participate in the optional retirement plan instead of the Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System.

This section (4506b-38) was repealed by Acts 1964, ch. 43, § 23.

161.580. Individual accounts to be kept — Other data — Summary plan description — Publication — Recipients.

(1) The board of trustees shall provide for the maintenance of an individual account for each member showing the amount of the member's accumulated account balance. Such individual accounts shall be identified in the records of the system by name, date of birth, and Social Security number. It shall collect and keep in convenient form such data as is necessary for the preparation of the required mortality and service tables and for the compilation of such other information as is required for the actuarial valuation of the assets and liabilities of the various funds of the retirement system.

(2) The board shall prepare and furnish to all active contributing members a summary plan description, written in a manner calculated to be understood by the average member or annuitant, and sufficiently accurate and comprehensive to reasonably apprise them of their rights and obligations under the Teachers' Retirement System. The board may furnish the summary plan description by posting it on the retirement system's Web site.

(3) The summary plan description shall include:

(a) The name of the retirement system, the name and address of the executive secretary, and the name, address, and title of each member of the board of trustees;

(b) The name and address of the person designated for the service of legal process;

(c) The system's requirements for participation and benefits;

(d) A description of retirement formulas for normal, early, and disability retirement, and survivor benefits;

(e) A description of the requirements for vesting of pension benefits;

(f) A list of circumstances which would result in disqualification, ineligibility, or denial or loss of benefits;

(g) The sources of financing retirement benefits, and statutory requirements for funding;

(h) A statement after each actuarial valuation as to whether funding requirements are being met; and

(i) The procedures to be followed in presenting claims for benefits under the plan, and the remedies available under the plan for the redress of claims which are denied in whole or in part.

(4) The board may publish the summary plan description in the form of a comprehensive pamphlet or booklet, or in the form of periodic newsletters which shall incorporate all the information required in the summary plan description within a period of two (2) years. Any changes in statutory requirements or administrative practices which alter the provisions of the plan as described in the summary plan description shall be summarized as required in subsection (2) of this section and furnished to active contributing members in the form of a supplement to a comprehensive booklet, or reported in the periodic newsletter.

(5) The board shall provide to annuitants so much of the summary plan description as they need to understand changes in benefits which apply to them.

161.585. Member's account confidential — Release of certain information from accounts of current or former legislators — Medical records on file confidential — Production of records in response to a subpoena or court order. [Effective January 1, 2022]

(1) Each member's or annuitant's account shall be administered in a confidential manner, and specific data regarding a member or annuitant shall not be released for publication, except that:

(a) The member or annuitant may authorize the release of his or her account information;

(b) The board of trustees may release member or annuitant account information to the employer or to other state and federal agencies as it deems necessary or in response to a lawful subpoena or order issued by a court of law; or

(c)1. Upon request by any person, the system shall release the following information from the accounts of any member or annuitant of the Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System, if the member or annuitant is a current or former officeholder in the Kentucky General Assembly:

a. The first and last name of the member or annuitant;

b. The status of the member or annuitant, including but not limited to whether he or she is a contributing member, a member who is not contributing but has not retired, a retiree receiving a monthly retirement allowance, or a retiree who has returned to work following retirement with an agency participating in the system;

c. If the individual is an annuitant, the monthly retirement allowance that he or she was receiving at the end of the most recently completed fiscal year;

d. If the individual is a member who has not yet retired, the estimated monthly retirement allowance that he or she is eligible to receive on the first date he or she would be eligible for an unreduced retirement allowance, using his or her service credit, accumulated account balance, and final average salary at the end of the most recently completed fiscal year; and

e. The current or last participating employer of the member or annuitant, if applicable.

2. No information shall be disclosed under this paragraph from an account that is paying benefits to a beneficiary due to the death of a member or annuitant.

(2) The release of information under subsection (1)(c) of this section shall not constitute a violation of the Open Records Act, KRS 61.870 to 61.884.

(3) Medical records which are included in a member's or annuitant's file maintained by the Teachers' Retirement System are confidential and shall not be released unless authorized by the member or annuitant in writing or as otherwise provided by law or in response to a lawful subpoena or order issued by a court of law.

(4)(a) When a subpoena is served upon any employee of the Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System requiring the production of any data, information, or records, it is sufficient if the employee of the Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System charged with the responsibility of being custodian of the original, or his or her designated staff, delivers within five (5) working days by certified mail or by personal delivery to the person specified in the subpoena either of the following:

1. Legible and durable copies of records certified by the employee or designated staff; or

2. An affidavit stating the information required by the subpoena.

(b) The production of records or an affidavit shall be in lieu of any personal testimony of any employee of the Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System unless, after the production of records or an affidavit, a separate subpoena is served upon the retirement system specifically directing the testimony of an employee of the retirement system. When a subpoena is served on any employee of the retirement system requiring the employee to give testimony or produce records for any purpose, in the absence of a court order requiring the testimony or production of records by a specific employee, the system may designate an employee to give testimony or produce records upon the matter referred to in the subpoena. The board of trustees may promulgate an administrative regulation for the recovery of reasonable travel and administrative expenses for those occasions when an employee of the retirement system is required to travel from his or her home or office to provide testimony or records. Recoverable expenses may include the wages, salary, and overtime paid to the employee by the retirement system for the period of time that the employee is away from the office. The cost of these expenses shall be borne by the party issuing the subpoena compelling the employee's travel. The board of trustees may also promulgate an administrative regulation establishing a reasonable fee for the copying, compiling, and mailing of requested records.

(c) The certification required by this subsection shall be signed before a notary public by the employee and shall include the full name of the member or annuitant, the member or annuitant identification number assigned to the member or annuitant by the retirement system, and a legend substantially to the following effect: "The records are true and complete reproductions of the original, microfiched, or electronically stored records which are housed in the retirement system's office. This certification is given in lieu of the undersigned's personal appearance."

(d) When an affidavit or copies of records are personally delivered, a receipt shall be presented to the person receiving the records for his or her signature and shall be immediately signed and returned to the person delivering the records. When an affidavit or copies of records are sent via certified mail, the receipt used by the postal authorities shall be sufficient to prove receipt of the affidavit or copies of records.

(e) When the affidavit or copies of records are delivered to a party for use in deposition they shall, after termination of the deposition, be delivered personally or by certified mail to the clerk of the court or other body before which the action or proceeding is pending.

(f) Upon completion of delivery by the retirement system of copies of records by their deposit in the mail or by their personal delivery to the requesting party, the retirement system shall cease to have any responsibility or liability for the records and their continued maintenance in a confidential manner.

(g) Records of the Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System that are susceptible to reproduction may be proved as to foundation, identity, and authenticity without preliminary testimony, by use of legible and durable copies, certified in accordance with the provisions of this subsection.(h) The provisions of this subsection shall not be construed to prohibit the Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System from asserting any exemption, exception, or relief provided under the Kentucky Rules of Civil Procedure or other applicable law.

(h) The provisions of this subsection shall not be construed to prohibit the Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System from asserting any exemption, exception, or relief provided under the Kentucky Rules of Civil Procedure or other applicable law.

(5) For purposes of this section, "records" includes retirement estimates, affidavits, and other documents prepared by the Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System in response to information requested in a lawful subpoena or order issued by a court of law.

History.

Repealed and reenacted by 2021 ch. 157, § 29, effective January 1, 2022.

Legislative Research Commission Notes.

(12/13/2018). On December 13, 2018, the Kentucky Supreme Court ruled that the passage of 2018 SB 151 (2018 Ky. Acts ch. 107), did not comply with the three-readings rule of Kentucky Constitution Section 46 and that the legislation is, therefore, constitutionally invalid and declared void. That ruling applies to changes made to this statute in that Act.

(7/1/2010). This section was amended by 2010 Ky. Acts chs. 148 and 164 which are in conflict in their use of the terms "documents" and "records" in this section. Pursuant to KRS 446.250, Acts ch. 164 which was last enacted by the General Assembly prevails; however, four instances of the term "documents" in subsection (4)(b) of this section have been changed in codification to "records" in order to use the term consistently and in accordance with its meaning as set forth in subsection (1) of this section. This change was made by the Reviser of Statutes under the authority of KRS 7.136(1).

161.590. Service credit at retirement.

(1) At retirement the total service credited to a teacher shall consist of prior and subsequent service rendered by him or her for which service credit has been allowed.

(2) Kentucky service, presented at the time of retirement, may not be used in calculating benefits under KRS 161.525, 161.620, or 161.661, if such service has been used to increase benefits in another retirement system, not including Old Age and Survivors Insurance Benefits under the Social Security Administration.

(3) No service credit shall be added to a member's account after the effective date of retirement for service.

161.597. Installment payments for purchase of service credit by active contributing members.

(1) A member in active contributing status may purchase any service credit which the member is authorized to purchase by making installment payments in lieu of a lump-sum payment.

(2) To initiate an installment payment plan, a member shall make a written request to the retirement system for an estimate to purchase service credit by making installment payments.

(3) To qualify for installment payments, the total cost of the service purchase, including any chargeable interest, shall exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000).

(4) Installment payments shall be at least fifty dollars ($50) per month and shall be made for a period of time which is not less than twelve (12) months nor more than sixty (60) months. Interest at eight percent (8%) per annum, unless the board specifies in an administrative regulation a different interest rate, shall be charged on all installment payment purchases of service credit that are purchasable at less than full actuarial cost. Interest shall be assigned to the guarantee fund.

(5) Installment payments shall be made on a monthly basis by electronic fund transfer. The payments shall be considered accumulated contributions and shall not be picked up as provided in KRS 161.560, except that subject to approval by the Internal Revenue Service and only as permitted by the Internal Revenue Code, installment payments shall be made on a tax-deferred basis.

(6) A member may elect to terminate electronic fund transfers at any time and purchase the remaining service credit by lump-sum payment. A member on a leave of absence may continue to make installment payments. Termination of employment in a covered position shall terminate installment payments. If the member is later employed by a different employer in a covered position, the member may request a new estimate and reinstate installment payments. A member that misses two (2) consecutive installment payments shall be in default. A member in default shall receive a refund of all prior installment payments and the member's service credit shall be reduced accordingly. A member in default may not reinstate installment payments for twelve (12) months from the date the member was in default.

(7) If a member dies before completing scheduled installment payments, the named beneficiary of the member's retirement account may pay the remaining balance due by a lump-sum payment within thirty (30) days of the death of the member.

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

The payment for the purchase of service credits under the statute is not required to be only by lump sum payment; thus, members may pay for such service credits in installment payments pursuant to this section. OAG 99-7.

161.600. Retirement conditions — Consolidation of accounts — Applications and forms — Surviving spouse.

(1) An individual who becomes a member of the retirement system prior to January 1, 2022, may qualify for service retirement by meeting one (1) of the following requirements:

(a) Attainment of age sixty (60) years and completion of five (5) years of Kentucky service;

(b)1. For an individual who becomes a member before July 1, 2008, attainment of age fifty-five (55) years and completion of a minimum of five (5) years of Kentucky service with an actuarial reduction of the basic allowance of five percent (5%) for each year the member's age is less than sixty (60) years or for each year the member's years of Kentucky service credit is less than twenty-seven (27), whichever is the lesser number; and

2. For an individual who becomes a member on or after July 1, 2008, attainment of age fifty-five (55) years and completion of a minimum of ten (10) years of Kentucky service with an actuarial reduction of the basic retirement allowance of six percent (6%) for each year the member's age is less than sixty (60) years or for each year the member's years of Kentucky service credit is less than twenty-seven (27), whichever is the lesser number;

(c) Completion of twenty-seven (27) years of Kentucky service. Out-of-state service earned in accordance with the provisions of KRS 161.515(2) may be used to meet this requirement; or

(d) Completion of the necessary years of service under provisions of KRS 61.559(2)(c) if the member is retiring under the reciprocity provisions of KRS 61.680. A member retiring under this paragraph who has not attained age fifty-five (55) shall incur an actuarial reduction of the basic allowance determined by the system's actuary for each year the member's service credit is less than twenty-seven (27).

(2) An individual who becomes a member of the retirement system on or after January 1, 2022, shall, except as adjusted by the board pursuant to KRS 161.633 and 161.634, as applicable, be eligible to retire upon attainment of:

(a) Age sixty-five (65) and completion of a minimum of five (5) years of Kentucky service;

(b) Age sixty (60) and completion of a minimum of ten (10) years of Kentucky service;

(c) Age fifty-seven (57) and completion of a minimum of thirty (30) years of Kentucky service; or

(d) Age fifty-seven (57) and completion of a minimum of ten (10) years of Kentucky service with an actuarial reduction of the basic retirement allowance of six percent (6%) for each year the member's age is less than sixty (60) years or for each year the member's years of Kentucky service credit is less than thirty (30), whichever is the lesser number.

(3) Any person who has been a member in Kentucky for twenty-seven (27) years or more and who withdraws from covered employment may continue to pay into the fund each year until the end of the fiscal year in which he or she reaches the age of sixty-five (65) years, the current contribution rate based on the annual compensation received during the member's last full year in covered employment, less any payment received for accrued sick leave or accrued leave from an employer. The member shall be entitled to receive a retirement allowance as provided in KRS 161.620 at any time after withdrawing from covered employment and payment of contributions under this subsection. No member shall make contributions as provided for in this subsection if the member is at the same time making contributions to another retirement system in Kentucky supported wholly or in part by public funds.

(4) Service credit in the Kentucky Employees Retirement System, the State Police Retirement System, the Legislators' Retirement Plan, the County Employees Retirement System, or the Judicial Retirement System may be used in meeting the service requirements of subsections (1)(a) to (c) and (2) of this section, provided the service is subsequent to July 1, 1956.

(5) Upon death, disability, or service retirement, a member's accounts under all state supported retirement systems shall be consolidated, as provided by this section and by KRS 61.680, for the purpose of determining eligibility and amount of benefits, which shall include medical benefits. Upon determination of benefits, each system shall pay the applicable percentage of total benefits. The effective date of retirement under this subsection shall be determined by each retirement system for the portion of the payments that will be made.

(6) No retirement annuity shall be effective until written application and option election forms are filed with the retirement office in accordance with administrative regulations of the board of trustees. A member may withdraw his or her retirement application, postpone his or her effective retirement date, or change his or her retirement option if these elections are made no later than the fifteenth day of the month in which the member has made application for retirement.

(7) The surviving spouse of an active contributing member, if named as beneficiary of the member's account, may purchase retirement credit that the member was eligible to purchase prior to the member's death.

Legislative Research Commission Notes.

(12/13/2018). On December 13, 2018, the Kentucky Supreme Court ruled that the passage of 2018 SB 151 (2018 Ky. Acts ch. 107), did not comply with the three-readings rule of Kentucky Constitution Section 46 and that the legislation is, therefore, constitutionally invalid and declared void. That ruling applies to changes made to this statute in that Act.

(7/13/90). The Act amending this section prevails over the repeal and reenactment in House Bill 940, Acts Ch. 476, pursuant to Section 653(1) of Acts Ch. 476.

This section was amended by three 1988 Acts, part of which conflict and cannot be compiled together. Pursuant to KRS 446.250, the later enactment prevails.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

1. Compulsory Retirement.

A regulation requiring compulsory retirement of teachers at age 65 does not conflict with this section since a teacher's employment between age 65 and age 70, the statutory age for compulsory retirement, is discretionary with the board of education under KRS 161.720. Belcher v. Gish, 555 S.W.2d 264, 1977 Ky. LEXIS 505 (Ky. 1977) (decided under prior law).

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

That portion of a regulation that fixes the effective date of all applications for service retirement as of July 1 of the fiscal year succeeding the fiscal year in which the application was filed, is valid as an explanation and elaboration of the phrase “end of the current fiscal year” as used in this section, but so much of the regulation as authorizes the executive secretary to make exceptions is invalid. OAG 60-792 (decided under prior law).

There is no vested right in a pension system until the participant has become an actual beneficiary, and consequently, the General Assembly may change teachers’ retirement benefits except where the benefits have become vested through the member’s having met the conditions and having become an actual beneficiary; so that a teacher who retires after the effective date of the 1968 amendment to subsection (1) of this section with fewer than five years of Kentucky service will not be entitled to a pension but in lieu thereof will receive a refund of his accumulated employee contributions. OAG 68-316 (decided under prior law).

A teacher who taught in Kentucky prior to 1941 would fulfill the condition of subsection (2) of this section when her Kentucky service, either prior or subsequent, totaled five years, and when she reached the age of 70. She would of course have to teach subsequently to 1941 in order to receive credit for her prior service under KRS 161.510 (now repealed); however, she would not have to have five (5) years of subsequent service. OAG 70-822 (decided under prior law).

The mandatory retirement age for teachers is set at 70 by this section and this may not be changed by a regulation of the board of education. OAG 72-363 (decided under prior law).

There is no age limit requiring retirement of substitute teachers. OAG 73-847 (decided under prior law).

Seventy is the mandatory retirement age, but a teacher between ages 65 and 70 is on a limited contract and does not have a right to work until age 70 if the school board decides prior to May 15 any year after age 65 not to rehire. OAG 74-454 (decided under prior law).

Upon reaching the age of 65 a school administrator no longer has a continuing service contract but may be employed on a limited contract from year to year until reaching the age of 70, the mandatory retirement age provided by this section. OAG 75-2 (decided under prior law).

An individual may serve as a superintendent under contract pursuant to KRS 160.350 until the end of the school year in which the age of 70 is reached. OAG 79-213 (decided under prior law).

Generally, in order to qualify for retirement, a member of the retirement system must have completed 27 years of service, notwithstanding accumulation of sick leave. OAG 91-219.

One time payments to teachers to induce retirement are constitutional under Ky. Const., § 3 as such payments are in consideration of public service. The key fact that makes these payments constitutional is the voluntary retirement of the teacher; such an act is a “present” service for which an emolument is paid, not a past service for which a gratuity is given. OAG 96-23.

161.605. Resumption of employment by retired member — Continuation of retirement allowance — Individuals who retire and are reemployed — Waiver of annuity — Part-time, substitute teaching, and nonteaching employment.

Any member retired by reason of service may return to work in a position covered by the Kentucky Teachers’ Retirement System and continue to receive his or her retirement allowance under the following conditions:

(1) Any member who is retired with thirty (30) or more years of service may return to work in a full-time or a part-time position, or in a position providing substitute teaching service, covered by the Teachers’ Retirement System and earn up to a maximum of seventy-five percent (75%) of the member’s last annual compensation measured on a daily rate to be determined by the board of trustees. For purposes of determining whether the salary of a member returning to work is seventy-five percent (75%) or less of the member’s last annual compensation, all remuneration paid and benefits provided to the member, on an actual dollar or fair market value basis as determined by the retirement system, excluding employer-provided medical insurance required under subsection (5) of this section, shall be considered. Members who were retired on or before June 30, 2002, shall be entitled to return to work under the provisions of this section as if they had retired with thirty (30) years of service. Nonqualified service credit purchased under the provisions of KRS 161.5465 or elsewhere with any state-administered retirement system shall not be used to meet the thirty (30) year requirement set forth in this subsection. Out-of state teaching service provided in public schools for kindergarten through grade twelve (12) may count toward the thirty (30) year requirement set forth in this subsection even if it is not purchased as service credit, if the member obtains from his or her out-of-state employer certification of this service on forms prescribed by the retirement system;

(2) Any member who is retired with less than thirty (30) years of service after June 30, 2002, may return to work in a full-time or part-time position, or in a position providing substitute teaching service, covered by the Teachers’ Retirement System and earn up to a maximum of sixty-five percent (65%) of the member’s last annual compensation measured on a daily rate to be determined by the board of trustees. For purposes of determining whether the salary of a member returning to work is sixty-five percent (65%) or less of the member's last annual compensation, all remuneration paid and benefits provided to the member, on an actual dollar or fair market value basis as determined by the retirement system, excluding employer-provided medical insurance required under subsection (5) of this section, shall be considered;

(3) Reemployment of a retired member under subsection (1) or (2) of this section in a full-time teaching or nonteaching position in a local school district shall be permitted only if the employer certifies to the Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System that there are no other qualified applicants available to fill the teaching or nonteaching position. The employer may use any source considered reliable, including but not limited to data provided by the Education Professional Standards Board and the Department of Education, to determine whether other qualified applicants are available to fill the teaching or nonteaching position. The Kentucky Board of Education shall promulgate administrative regulations to establish procedures to determine whether other qualified applicants are available to fill a teaching or nonteaching position and, if not, for filling the position with a retired member who will then be permitted to return to work in that position under subsection (1) or (2) of this section. The administrative regulations shall ensure that a retired member shall not be hired in a teaching or nonteaching position by a local school district until the superintendent of the school district assures the Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System that every reasonable effort has been made to recruit other qualified applicants for the position on an annual basis;

(4) Under this section, an employer may employ full-time a number of retired members not to exceed three percent (3%) of the membership actively employed full-time by that employer. The board of trustees may reduce this three percent (3%) cap upon recommendation of the retirement system's actuary if a reduction is necessary to maintain the actuarial soundness of the retirement system. The board of trustees may increase the three percent (3%) cap upon a determination that an increase is warranted to help address a shortage in the number of available teachers and upon the determination of the retirement system's actuary that the proposed cap increase allows the actuarial soundness of the retirement system to be maintained. For purposes of this subsection, "full-time" means the same as defined by KRS 161.220(21). A local school district may exceed the quota established by this subsection by making an annual written request to the Kentucky Department of Education which the department may approve on a year-by-year basis if the statewide quota has not been met. A district's written request to exceed its quota shall be submitted no sooner than two (2) weeks after the start of the school year;

(5)(a) Except as provided by subsection (10) of this section, a member returning to work in a full-time or part-time position, or in a position providing substitute teaching service, under subsection (1) or (2) of this section shall contribute to an account with the retirement system that shall be administered independently from and with no reciprocal impact with the member's original retirement account, or any other account from which the member is eligible to draw a retirement allowance.

(b) Except as provided by subsection (10) of this section, a member returning to work under subsection (1) or (2) of this section shall make contributions to the retirement system at the rate provided under KRS 161.540. The new account shall independently meet all vesting requirements as well as all other conditions set forth in KRS 161.600(1) or (2), as applicable, before any retirement allowance is payable from this account. The retirement allowance accruing under this new account shall be calculated pursuant to KRS 161.620. This new account shall not entitle the member to a duplication of the benefits offered under KRS 161.620(7) or 161.675, nor shall this new account provide the benefits offered by KRS 161.520, 161.525, 161.620(3), 161.655, 161.661, or 161.663.

(c) A member returning to work under subsection (1) or (2) of this section shall waive his or her medical insurance with the Teachers' Retirement System during the period of reemployment and shall receive the medical insurance coverage that is generally provided by the member's active employer to the other members of the retirement system that the active employer employs. If medical insurance coverage is not available from the employer, the Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System may provide coverage for the member.

(d) A member returning to work under subsection (1) or (2) of this section shall not be eligible to purchase service credit for any service provided after the member's effective date of retirement but prior to the date that the member returns to work. A member returning to work under subsection (1) or (2) of this section shall not be eligible to purchase service credit that the member would have otherwise been eligible to purchase prior to the member's initial retirement.

(e) A member who returns to work under subsection (1) or (2) of this section, or in the event of the death of the member, the member's estate or applicably designated beneficiary, shall be entitled, within ninety (90) days of the posting of the annual report submitted by the employer, to a refund of contributions as permitted and limited by KRS 161.470;

(6) The board of trustees may annually, on July 1, adjust the current daily rate of a member's last annual compensation, for each full twelve (12) month period that has elapsed subsequent to the member earning his or her last annual compensation, by the percentage increase in the annual average of the consumer price index for all urban consumers for the calendar year preceding the adjustment as published by the Federal Bureau of Labor Statistics, not to exceed five percent (5%) annually. Each annual adjustment shall become part of the member's daily rate base. Failure to comply with the salary limitations set forth in subsections (1) and (2) of this section as may be adjusted by this subsection shall result in a reduction of the member's retirement allowance or any other benefit to which the member would otherwise be entitled on a dollar-for-dollar basis for each dollar that the member exceeds these salary limitations, and the member shall be refunded his or her retirement contributions made on the compensation that exceeds these salary limitations. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, a member retiring from a local school district who returns to work for a local school district under subsection (1) or (2) of this section shall be entitled, without any reduction to his or her retirement allowance or any other retirement benefit, to earn a minimum amount equal to one hundred seventy dollars ($170) per day;

(7)(a) A retired member returning to work under subsection (1) or (2) of this section shall have separated from service for a period of at least one (1) year if returning to work for the same employer on a full-time basis, and at least three (3) months if returning to work for a different employer on a full-time basis. A retired member returning to work under subsection (1) or (2) of this section on a part-time basis shall have separated from service for a period of at least three (3) months before returning to work for any employer.

(b) As an alternative to the separation-from-service requirements in paragraph (a) of this subsection, a retired member who is returning to work for the same employer in a full-time position under subsections (1) and (2) of this section may elect a separation-from-service of not less than two (2) months followed by a forfeiture of the retired member's retirement allowance on a month-to-month basis for each month that the member has separated from service for less than twelve (12) full months. A retired member returning to work for the same employer in a part-time position, or for a different employer in a full-time position, may elect an alternative separation-from-service requirement of at least two (2) months followed by a forfeiture of the member's retirement allowance for one (1) month. During the period that the member forfeits his or her retirement allowance and thereafter, member and employer contributions shall be made to the retirement system as a result of employment in any position subject to membership in the retirement system. The member shall contribute to an account with the retirement system subject to the conditions set forth in subsection (5) of this section.

(c) A retired member who is returning to work for an employer that has employees who participate in the Teachers' Retirement System shall comply with the separation-from-service requirements in this subsection before performing any service for the employer, regardless of whether the retired member is providing service in a position covered by the Teachers' Retirement System.

(d) The starting date for any separation from service required under this subsection shall be the effective date of the member's retirement.

(e) The separation-from-service requirements of this subsection are not met if there is a prearranged agreement between the member and an employer that has employees who participate in the Teachers' Retirement System prior to retirement for the member to work for the employer after retirement.

(f) The Teachers' Retirement System may require the member and the employer for which the member is returning to work to certify in writing on a form prescribed by the Teachers' Retirement System that no prearranged agreement was or will be entered into between the member and employer prior to retirement for the member to work for the employer after retirement.

(g) Failure to comply with the separation-from-service requirements in this subsection voids a member's retirement and the member shall be required to return all the retirement benefits he or she received, with interest, for the period of time that the member returned to work without a sufficient separation from service;

(8)(a) Effective July 1, 2004, local school districts may employ retired members in full-time or part-time teaching or administrative positions without limitation on the compensation of the retired members that is otherwise required by subsections (1) and (2) of this section. Under provisions of this subsection, a local school district may only employ retired members to fill critical shortage positions for which there are no other qualified applicants as determined by the local superintendent. The number of retired members that a local school district may employ under this subsection shall be no more than two (2) members per local school district or one percent (1%) of the total active members employed by the local school district on a full-time basis as defined under KRS 161.220(21), whichever number is greater. Retired members returning to work under this subsection shall be subject to the separation-from-service requirements set forth in subsection (7) of this section. Retired members returning to work under this subsection shall waive their medical insurance coverage with the retirement system during their period of reemployment and receive medical insurance coverage that is offered to other full-time members employed by the local school district. Retired members returning to work under this subsection shall contribute to an account subject to the conditions set forth in subsection (5) of this section. Retired members returning to work under this subsection shall make contributions to the retirement system at the rate provided under KRS 161.540. The employer shall make contributions at the rate provided under KRS 161.550. Local school districts shall make annual payments to the retirement system on the compensation paid to the reemployed retirees at the rates determined by the retirement system's actuary that reflect any accrued liability resulting from the reemployment of these members.

(b) The Department of Education may employ retired members in full-time or part-time teaching or nonteaching positions without the limitations on compensation otherwise required by subsections (1) and (2) of this section to fill critical shortage areas in the schools it operates, including the Kentucky School for the Blind, the Kentucky School for the Deaf, and the Kentucky Virtual High School, and to serve on audit teams. The department shall be subject to the same requirements as local school districts as provided in paragraph (a) of this subsection, except the Teachers' Retirement System shall determine the maximum number of employees that may be employed under this paragraph;

(9) The return-to-work limitations set forth in this section shall apply to retired members who are returning to work in the same position from which they retired, or a position substantially similar to the one from which they retired, or a position described in KRS 161.046 or any position listed in KRS 161.220(4) which requires membership in the retirement system. Positions which generally require certification or graduation from a four (4) year college or university as a condition of employment which are created, or changed to remove the position from coverage under KRS 161.220(4) are also subject to the return to work limitations set forth in this section. The board of trustees shall determine whether employment in a nonteaching position is subject to this subsection;

(10)(a) Notwithstanding the provisions of this section, individuals who become members on or after January 1, 2022, who subsequently retire and begin drawing a monthly lifetime retirement allowance from the Teachers' Retirement System, who following retirement are reemployed with an employer participating in the Teachers' Retirement System, shall not be eligible to contribute to or earn benefits in a second retirement account in the Teachers' Retirement System during the period of reemployment.

(b) The provisions of subsections (1) to (8) of this section are not subject to KRS 161.714;

(11) Any member retired by reason of service may waive his or her annuity and return to full-time employment in a position covered by the Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System under the following conditions:

(a) The member shall receive no annuity payments while employed in a covered position, shall waive his or her medical insurance coverage with the Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System during the period of reemployment, and shall receive the medical insurance coverage that is generally offered by the member's active employer to the other members of the retirement system employed by the active employer. The member's estate or, if there is a beneficiary applicably designated by the member, then the beneficiary, shall continue to be eligible for life insurance benefits as provided in KRS 161.655. Service subsequent to retirement shall not be used to improve an annuity, except as provided in paragraphs (b) and (c) of this subsection;

(b) Any member who waives regular annuity benefits and returns to teaching or covered employment shall be entitled to make contributions on the salaries received for this service and have his or her retirement annuity recalculated as provided in the regular retirement formula in KRS 161.620(1), less any applicable actuarial discount applied to the original retirement allowance due to the election of a joint and last survivor option. Retirement option and beneficiary designation on original retirement shall not be altered by postretirement employment, and dependents and spouses of the members shall not become eligible for benefits under KRS 161.520, 161.525, or 161.661 because of postretirement employment;

(c) When a member returns to full-time teaching or covered employment as provided in subsection (b) of this section, the employer is required to withhold and remit regular retirement contributions. The member must be employed full-time for at least one (1) consecutive contract year to be eligible to improve an annuity. The member shall be returned to the annuity rolls on July 1 following completion of the contract year or on the first day of the month following the month of termination of service if full-time employment exceeds one (1) consecutive contract year. A member shall not be returned to the annuity rolls until after he or she has filed a retirement application in compliance with KRS 161.600(6). Any discounts applied at the time of the original retirement due to service or age may be reduced or eliminated due to additional employment if full-time employment is for one (1) consecutive contract year or longer; and

(d) A member retired by reason of service who has been employed the equivalent of twenty-five (25) days or more during a school year under KRS 161.605 may waive the member's retirement annuity and return to regular employment covered by the Teachers' Retirement System during that school year a maximum of one (1) time during any five (5) year period, beginning with that school year;

(12) Retired members may be employed in a part-time teaching capacity by an agency described in KRS 161.220(4)(b) or (n), not to exceed the equivalent of twelve (12) teaching hours in any one (1) fiscal year. Retired members may be employed for a period not to exceed the equivalent of one hundred (100) days in any one (1) fiscal year in a part-time administrative or nonteaching capacity by an agency described in KRS 161.220(4)(b) or (n) in a position that would otherwise be covered by the retirement system. Except as otherwise provided by this subsection, the return to work provisions set forth in subsections (1) to (8) of this section shall not apply to retired members who return to work solely for an agency described in KRS 161.220(4)(b) or (n). Calculation of the number of days and teaching hours for part-time teaching, substitute teaching, or part-time employment in a nonteaching capacity under this section shall not exceed the ratio between a school year and the actual months of retirement for the member during that school year. The board of trustees by administrative regulation may establish fractional equivalents of a day of teaching service. Any member who exceeds the twelve (12) hour or one hundred (100) day limitations of this subsection shall be subject to having his or her retirement voided and be required to return all retirement allowances and other benefits paid to the member or on the member's behalf since the effective date of retirement. In lieu of voiding a member's retirement, the system may reduce the member's retirement allowance or any other benefit to which the member would otherwise be entitled on a dollar-for-dollar basis for each dollar of compensation that the member earns in employment exceeding twelve (12) hours, one hundred (100) days, or any apportionment of the two (2) combined. Retired members returning to work for an employer described in KRS 161.220(4)(b) or (n) shall comply with the separation-from-service requirements of subsection (7) of this section;

(13) When a retired member returns to employment in a part-time teaching capacity or in a non-teaching capacity as provided in subsection (12) of this section, the employer shall contribute annually to the retirement system on the compensation paid to the retired member at rates determined by the retirement system actuary that reflect accrued liability for retired members who return to work under subsection (12) of this section; and

(14) For retired members who return to work during any one (1) fiscal year in both a position described in KRS 161.220(4)(b) or (n) and in a position described under another provision under KRS 161.220(4), and for retired members who return to work in a position described under KRS 161.220(4)(b) or (n) in both a teaching and an administrative or nonteaching capacity, the board of trustees shall adopt a methodology for a pro rata apportionment of days and hours that the retired member may work in each position.

Legislative Research Commission Notes.

(1/1/2022). This statute was amended by 2021 Ky. Acts chs. 157 and 192, which do not appear to be in conflict and have been codified together.

(12/13/2018). On December 13, 2018, the Kentucky Supreme Court ruled that the passage of 2018 SB 151 (2018 Ky. Acts ch. 107), did not comply with the three-readings rule of Kentucky Constitution Section 46 and that the legislation is, therefore, constitutionally invalid and declared void. That ruling applies to changes made to this statute in that Act.

(7/1/2004). In subsection (13) of this statute, two references to "subsection (11) of this section" have been changed to read "subsection (12) of this section." When the statute was amended in 2004 Ky. Acts ch. 121, sec. 16, the subsections were renumbered, but the references to subsection (11) were not changed to conform. The Reviser of Statutes has made the conforming change under authority of KRS 7.136.

(7/1/2004). 2004 Ky. Acts ch. 121, sec. 27, provides that "The provisions of subsection (8) of Section 16 of this Act [KRS 161.605] supersede the provisions relating to critical shortage positions set forth in 2003 Kentucky Acts ch. 156, sec. 1 [Executive Branch Budget Bill]."

161.607. Employment in position covered by other Kentucky retirement system.

(1) Any member of the Teachers' Retirement System who enters employment covered by the Kentucky Employees Retirement System, the State Police Retirement System, or the County Employees Retirement System, prior to July 1, 1976, may retain membership in the Teachers' Retirement System instead of joining the new system.

(2) Retention of membership in the Teachers' Retirement System by any member of the General Assembly who upon election is a contributing member of the Teachers' Retirement System shall be effected by conforming with KRS 61.680(4)(c). Members of the General Assembly who retain membership shall make retirement contributions based upon their annual compensation as defined under KRS 161.220 or on their creditable compensation as defined under KRS 61.510, whichever is the larger amount. Service as a member of the General Assembly may be used to meet the service requirements of KRS 61.680(2)(a) regardless of the system to which contributions are made by the member.

(3) Any member of the Teachers' Retirement System entering employment as described in subsection (1) of this section must exercise the option within ninety (90) days of the beginning of such employment.

(4) Persons who enter service covered by the Teachers' Retirement System prior to July 1, 1976, and who hold membership in a Kentucky retirement system financed in whole or part with public funds may retain membership in that system providing the statutes and regulations governing said system make continued membership possible.

(5) Any person who has elected an option provided in this section may cancel such election and gain membership in the system which normally covers the position in which currently employed, provided that such cancellation of option election must be completed prior to January 1, 1977.

Enact. Acts 1964, ch. 43, § 21; 1968, ch. 136, § 10; 1976, ch. 351, § 17, effective July 1, 1976; 1980, ch. 206, § 8, effective July 1, 1980; 1982, ch. 458, § 6, effective April 15, 1982; repealed and reenact., Acts 1990, ch. 476, Pt. V, § 527, effective July 13, 1990; 2000, ch. 498, § 17, effective July 1, 2000.

This section (Enact. Acts 1964, ch. 43, § 21; 1968, ch. 136, § 10; 1976, ch. 351, § 17, effective July 1, 1976; 1980, ch. 206, § 8, effective July 1, 1980; 1982, ch. 458, § 6, effective April 15, 1982) was repealed and reenacted by Acts 1990, ch. 476, Part V, § 527, effective July 13, 1990.

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

Persons who are covered by any one of the three publicly financed Kentucky retirement systems can maintain their coverage in the system of their choice provided they are qualified when they change jobs. While the statutes do not specifically prohibit a subsequent change after an election has been made, neither do they give a covered employee the unqualified right to make such a change. However, in the absence of a specific provision prohibiting subsequent change after an election, and in view of the broad authorization for reciprocal arrangements, we believe the statutes would permit the various retirement systems to authorize a subsequent change, provided appropriate regulations are promulgated. OAG 69-501.

There is no statutory right for an employee who has made an election to remain in one of the three publicly financed Kentucky retirement systems to have his account frozen in that system and be treated as a new employee by the agency which has been employing him. Such procedure could not be permitted without appropriate reciprocal regulations by the retirement systems involved. OAG 69-501.

The term "employment covered by the Kentucky employees retirement system" in this section embraces the term "service" as defined in KRS 61.510(9) and as referred to in KRS 61.595 so that an employee of the Kentucky Department of Agriculture for the three years immediately preceding July 1, 1956, when there was no Kentucky Employees Retirement System in existence, would still be entitled to purchase credit in the Teachers' Retirement System for the three years in question pursuant to the option contained in this section. OAG 73-749.

Any employee of the Kentucky Authority for Educational Television currently a member of the Kentucky Employees Retirement System who, because of KRS 161.220(4), may be qualified to participate in the teachers' retirement system has the option of joining the teachers' retirement system as provided by subsection (3) (now subsection (4)) of this section or retaining membership in Kentucky Employees Retirement System as provided by KRS 61.680. OAG 74-305.

In the present situation, the language of subsection (5) of this section and KRS 61.680(4)(b) is clear and unambiguous, and while these statutes provide that an employee may retain Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System membership upon transfer to another agency covered by other government retirement systems, and that such an employee may cancel his election to retain KTRS membership, it specifically provides that any cancellation of option election must be made prior to January 1, 1977. OAG 78-744.

161.608. Computation of benefits of member who has an account with another state system.

The provisions of KRS 61.680 are hereby recognized and shall be followed in computing benefits of any member of the Teachers' Retirement System who also has an account with the Kentucky Employees Retirement System, County Employees Retirement System, or State Police Retirement System.

History.

Enact. Acts 1974, ch. 128, § 38, effective March 26, 1974; repealed and reenact., Acts 1990, ch. 476, Pt. V, § 528, effective July 13, 1990.

Compiler's Notes.

This section (Enact. Acts 1974, ch. 128, § 38, effective March 26, 1974) was repealed and reenacted by Acts 1990, ch. 476, Part V, § 528, effective July 13, 1990.

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

This section and KRS 61.680 are to be interpreted to mean that once an individual with joint accounts in the various state retirement systems consolidates those accounts and is eligible to retire in the system under which he is presently covered and does so, all other retirement systems in which he has an account must pay their proportional share of benefits to him even though he might not otherwise be eligible due to his age. This section (4506b-42: amend. Acts 1950, ch. 194; 1962, ch. 64, § 13) was repealed by Acts 1964, ch. 43, § 23.

161.611. Supplemental retirement benefit plan — Purpose — Administration — Eligibility — Payments.

(1) The board of trustees is authorized to provide a supplemental retirement benefit plan for the sole purpose of enabling the employer to apply the same formula for determining benefits payable to all members of the retirement system employed by the employer, whose benefits under the retirement system are limited by Section 415 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended from time to time. This plan is intended to constitute a qualified governmental excess benefit plan as described in Section 415 of the Internal Revenue Code.

(2) The board of trustees shall administer this plan and have full discretionary fiduciary authority to determine all questions in connection with the plan. The board of trustees may adopt procedural rules and administrative regulations and may employ and rely on any legal counsel, actuaries, accountants, and agents as it deems advisable to assist in the administration of this plan.

(3) All members and retired former members in the retirement system shall be eligible to participate in this plan whenever their benefits under the retirement system would exceed the limitation on benefits imposed by Section 415 of the Internal Revenue Code.

(4) On or after the effective date of this plan, the employer shall pay to each eligible member in the retirement system who retires on or after that date and to each former member who retired before that date and his or her beneficiaries a supplemental pension benefit, equal to the amount by which the benefit that would have been payable under the retirement system, without regard to any provision therein incorporating the limitation on benefits imposed by Section 415 of the Internal Revenue Code, exceeds the benefit actually payable, taking into account the limitation imposed on the retirement system by Section 415 of the code. These supplemental pension benefits shall be computed and payable under the same terms and conditions and to the same person as the benefits payable to, or on account of, an eligible member under the retirement system.

(5) Benefits payable under this plan shall not be subject to the dollar limit applicable to eligible deferred compensation plans under Section 457 of the Internal Revenue Code, nor to the “substantial risk or forfeiture” rules of Section 457(f) of the code applicable to ineligible deferred compensation plans. In addition, benefits payable under this plan shall not be taken into account in determining whether any other plan of the employer is an eligible deferred compensation plan under Section 457 of the code.

(6) Funding of benefits payable under this plan shall be provided by the state, as employer, and shall be segregated from funds that are maintained by the retirement system for payment of the regular benefits provided by the retirement system. The employer may establish a grantor trust for payment of benefits provided under this plan, with the employer treated as “grantor” thereof for purposes of Section 677 of the Internal Revenue Code. The rights of any person to receive benefits under this plan are limited to those of a general creditor of the employer.

Limitations on benefits, 102 KAR 1:230.

161.612. Membership of individuals providing part-time and substitute services — Service credit — Participation in benefits.

Effective July 1, 2002, any individual occupying a position on a part-time basis that requires certification or graduation from a four (4) year college or university as a condition of employment and any individual providing part-time or substitute teaching services that are the same or similar to those teaching services provided by certified, full-time teachers shall be a member of the Teachers’ Retirement System, according to the conditions and only to the extent set forth in this section, if the individual is employed by one (1) of the public boards, institutions, or agencies set forth in KRS 161.220, excluding those public boards, institutions, and agencies described in KRS 161.220(4)(b) and (n). Members providing part-time and substitute services shall participate in the retirement system as follows:

(1) Members providing part-time and substitute services shall accrue service credit as provided under KRS 161.500 and be entitled to a retirement allowance upon meeting the service retirement conditions of KRS 161.600. The board of trustees shall adopt a methodology for accrediting service credit to these members on a pro rata basis. The methodology adopted by the board of trustees may be amended as necessary to ensure its actuarial soundness. The retirement allowance for members providing part-time and substitute services shall be calculated pursuant to KRS 161.620 and 161.635 or 161.636, as applicable, except that the provisions of KRS 161.620(3) shall not apply. Members providing part-time and substitute services who meet the service retirement conditions of KRS 161.600 may also be eligible to participate as approved by the board of trustees in the medical insurance program provided by the retirement system under KRS 161.675. Members providing part-time and substitute services shall make contributions to the Teachers’ Retirement System at the rate provided under KRS 161.540. A member who provides part-time or substitute services, or in the event of the death of the member, the member’s estate or applicably designated beneficiary, will be entitled, within ninety (90) days of the posting of the annual report submitted by the member’s employer, to a refund of contributions as permitted and limited by KRS 161.470;

(2)(a)1. The board of trustees shall adopt eligibility conditions under which members providing part-time and substitute services may participate in the benefits provided under KRS 161.520, 161.655, 161.661, and 161.663.

2. For all disability retirement applications filed with the Teachers’ Retirement System on or after July 1, 2021, disability retirement payments and any other recurring payments payable by any other state-administered retirement system to members providing part-time or substitute services shall be applied to reduce, on a dollar-for-dollar basis, the minimum monthly disability retirement allowance of five hundred dollars ($500) provided for under KRS 161.661(6).

3. Effective July 1, 2021, members providing part-time or substitute services shall not be eligible to apply for a disability retirement allowance if they are eligible for a service retirement allowance that is not subject to an actuarial reduction required under KRS 161.600(1)(b) or (d).

(b) The board of trustees may permit members providing part-time or substitute services to participate in other benefits offered by the retirement system by promulgating administrative regulations that establish eligibility conditions for participation in these benefits. All eligibility conditions adopted by the board of trustees pursuant to this subsection may be amended as necessary to ensure their actuarial soundness;

(3) In addition to the pro rata methodology adopted by the board of trustees under subsection (1) of this section, members providing part-time and substitute services shall be subject to all limitations and conditions regarding the accrual, retention, accreditation, and use of service credit that apply to members providing full-time services. In addition to the eligibility conditions set forth by the board of trustees under subsection (2) of this section, members providing part-time and substitute services shall be subject to all limitations and conditions regarding both the eligibility to participate and the extent of participation in any benefit offered under KRS 161.220 to 161.716 that apply to members providing full-time services;

(4) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this section to the contrary, instructional assistants who provide teaching services in the local school districts on a full-time basis in positions covered by the County Employees Retirement System who are used as substitute teachers on an emergency basis for five (5) days or less during any one (1) fiscal year shall not be considered members of the Teachers' Retirement System during that period in which they are serving as substitute teachers for five (5) days or less;

(5) The board of trustees may adopt a pro rata methodology to determine the annual compensation of members providing part-time and substitute services in order to determine benefits provided under KRS 161.661 and 161.663. Members providing part-time and substitute services who had retirement contributions posted to their accounts during the previous fiscal year and who have not had those contributions refunded to them are eligible to vote for the board of trustees;

(6) The board of trustees of the Teachers' Retirement System shall be responsible for final determination of membership eligibility and may direct employers to take whatever action that may be necessary to correct any error relating to membership; and

(7) The provisions of this section are not subject to KRS 161.714.

161.614. Court-ordered back salary and reinstatement.

A court order awarding additional back salary to or reinstating a member as a result of employment in a position covered by the Teachers' Retirement System shall entitle the member to additional salary or service credit, or both, under the following circumstances:

(1) Members shall make contributions to the Teachers' Retirement System at the rate set forth in KRS 161.540 and members' employers shall make contributions at the rate set forth in KRS 161.550, with interest accruing on all contributions at the rate of eight percent (8%) per annum from the end of each fiscal year that back salary or the reinstatement was ordered. Contributions, plus interest, shall be made for each year that back salary or reinstatement was ordered. No service or salary credit shall be credited to a member's account unless full contributions are paid to the Teachers' Retirement System;

(2) The member may have court-ordered back salary credited to his or her account only to the extent that the member actually received payment for the back salary and only to the extent that the court-ordered back salary is within the salary scale that was available to the member in the covered position for the years that the back salary was awarded. Court-ordered back salary can be credited to the member's account only as permitted under KRS 161.220(9) and (10). The member may have court-ordered service credited to his or her account only after the retirement system has received the contributions and interest on the full compensation that would normally be earned in the position that is the subject of the litigation;

(3) The member's employer ordered to pay back salary or to reinstate the member by a court of competent jurisdiction shall provide the retirement system with a breakdown of the back salary awarded to the member on a year-by-year basis;

(4) The calculations of the contributions and interest required to be paid for court-ordered back salary or reinstatement shall be provided by the retirement system to the member or the member's employer at the member's or employer's request. Requests for these calculations shall be made with at least two (2) weeks of advance notice to the retirement system to provide these calculations. The retirement system will calculate accrued interest as of the last day of the month during which payment of the full contributions are made;

(5) For purposes of this section, a settlement agreement that provides back salary or reinstatement, and is adopted by order or judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction or is referenced in an order dismissing the action as settled shall have the same effect as a court order adjudicating the matter. Orders entered by a government board or agency as a result of litigation conducted on an administrative hearing level and legally binding arbitration and mediation awards shall be considered as court orders for the purposes of this section; and

(6) Under no circumstances shall a member be entitled to service credit as a result of court-ordered reinstatement that is in violation of the provisions of KRS 161.500.

161.615. Limited defined contribution plan — Purpose — Administration — Eligibility — Payments.

(1) The board of trustees is authorized to implement a limited defined contribution plan for the sole purpose of providing retirement allowance payments for retired members who have been approved by the retirement system for full-time reemployment as provided in KRS 161.605.

(2) The defined contribution plan shall be administered separately from the regular benefits provided for members of the retirement system, except that the contributions to the plan shall be invested in the same manner as other contributions to the retirement system.

(3) The provisions of this section apply only to those retired members who were permitted to return to work under the critical shortage provisions of KRS 161.605(7) as they existed on June 30, 2002. The provisions of this section shall not apply to any retired member returning to work on or after July 1, 2002.

(4) Separate member accounts shall be maintained for participants in this plan which shall reflect the annual contributions made to the participant's account based on the rates and interest levels specified in KRS 161.605.

(5) When the retiree's reemployment terminates, the total contributions and accrued interest in the participant's account will be paid in a lump-sum payment or on an actuarial straight life monthly basis to the retiree. If the member dies prior to making application for a retirement allowance under this plan, the beneficiary designated by the participant for this plan shall receive a refund of the funds in the account. If there is a remaining balance in the account at the death of the participant after retirement from this plan, it shall be paid to the beneficiary designated by the participant for this benefit.

(6) Retired members shall be eligible to receive their retirement annuity when approved for reemployment and participation in this plan. Service as a reemployed retiree may not be used in any manner for credit under the regular retirement benefit plans provided by the retirement system.

161.620. Retirement allowances for university and nonuniversity retirees — Amount — Increases — Payments for adult dependents.

(1) The retirement allowance, in the form of a life annuity with refundable balance, of a member retiring for service shall be calculated as follows:

(a) For retirements effective July 1, 1998, and thereafter, except as otherwise provided by this section, the annual allowance for each year of service shall be two percent (2%) of the final average salary for service performed prior to July 1, 1983, and two and one-half percent (2.5%) of the final average salary for service performed after July 1, 1983, for all nonuniversity members. Except as otherwise provided by this section, the annual retirement allowance for each year of service performed by members of the Teachers' Retirement System who are university members shall be two percent (2%) of the final average salary. Actuarial discounts due to age or service credit at retirement may be applied as provided in this section;

(b) For individuals who become nonuniversity members of the Teachers' Retirement System on or after July 1, 2002, and before July 1, 2008, who upon retirement have earned less than ten (10) full years of service credit, the retirement allowance shall be two percent (2%) of the member's final average salary for each year of service. For individuals who become nonuniversity members of the Teachers' Retirement System on or after July 1, 2002, and before July 1, 2008, and who upon retirement have earned at least ten (10) full years of service credit, the annual allowance for each year of service shall be two and one-half percent (2.5%) of the member's final average salary;

(c) The board of trustees may approve for members who initially retire on or after July 1, 2004, and who become nonuniversity members before July 1, 2008, a retirement allowance of three percent (3%) of the member's final average salary for each year or partial year of service credit earned in excess of thirty (30) years. This three percent (3%) factor shall be in lieu of the two and one-half percent (2.5%) factor provided for in paragraph (b) of this subsection for every year or fraction of a year of service in excess of thirty (30) years. Upon approval of this three percent (3%) retirement factor, the board of trustees may establish conditions of eligibility regarding the type of service credit that will qualify for meeting the requirements of this subsection. This subsection is optional with the board of trustees and shall not be subject to KRS 161.714;

(d) For individuals who become nonuniversity members of the Teachers' Retirement System on or after July 1, 2008, but prior to January 1, 2022, the retirement allowance shall be:

1.a. One and seven-tenths percent (1.7%) of the member's final average salary for each year of service if the member has earned ten (10) or less years of service at retirement;

b. Two percent (2%) of the member's final average salary for each year of service if the member has earned greater than ten (10) but no more than twenty (20) years of service at retirement;

c. Two and three-tenths percent (2.3%) of the member's final average salary for each year of service if the member has earned greater than twenty (20) but no more than twenty-six (26) years of service at retirement; or

d. Two and one-half percent (2.5%) of the member's final average salary for each year of service if the member has earned greater than twenty-six (26) but no more than thirty (30) years of service at retirement; and

2. Three percent (3%) of the member's final average salary for each year or partial year of service earned in excess of thirty (30) years of service at retirement subject to the same terms and conditions as set forth in paragraph (c) of this subsection;

(e) For individuals who become university members of the Teachers' Retirement System on or after July 1, 2008, but prior to January 1, 2022, the retirement allowance shall be:

1. One and one-half percent (1.5%) of the member's final average salary for each year of service if the member has earned ten (10) or less years of service at retirement;

2. One and seven-tenths percent (1.7%) of the member's final average salary for each year of service if the member has earned greater than ten (10) but no more than twenty (20) years of service at retirement;

3. One and eighty-five hundredths percent (1.85%) of the member's final average salary for each year of service if the member has earned greater than twenty (20) but less than twenty-seven (27) years of service at retirement; or

4. Two percent (2%) of the member's final average salary for each year of service if the member has earned twenty-seven (27) or more years of service at retirement;

(f) For individuals who become nonuniversity members of the Teachers' Retirement System on or after January 1, 2022, the retirement allowance shall, except as adjusted by the board pursuant to KRS 161.633, be the following percentage of the member's final average salary for each year of service:

1. One and seven-tenths percent (1.7%), which shall be increased incrementally each month the member's age at retirement is greater than sixty (60) so that the incremental increase is four onehundredths of one percent (0.04%) for each complete additional year of age at retirement in excess of sixty (60), not to exceed a value of one and nine-tenths percent (1.9%) at age sixty-five (65) or greater; plus

2.a. One-quarter of one percent (0.25%), if the member has earned at least twenty (20) but less than thirty (30) years of service at retirement; or

b. One-half of one percent (0.50%), if the member has earned thirty (30) or more years of service at retirement;

(g) For individuals who become university members of the Teachers' Retirement System on or after January 1, 2022, the retirement allowance shall, except as adjusted by the board pursuant to KRS 161.634, be the following percentage of the member's final average salary for each year of service:

1. Seven-tenths of one percent (0.7%), which shall be increased incrementally each month the member's age at retirement is greater than sixty (60) so that the incremental increase is four one-hundredths of one percent (0.04%) for each complete additional year of age in excess of sixty (60), not to exceed a value of nine-tenths of one percent (0.9%) at age sixty-five (65) or greater; plus

2.a. One-quarter of one percent (0.25%), if the member has earned at least twenty (20) but less than thirty (30) years of service at retirement; or

b. One-half of one percent (0.50%), if the member has earned thirty (30) or more years of service at retirement; and

(h) The retirement allowance of a member at retirement, as measured on a life annuity, shall not exceed the member's last yearly salary or the member's final average salary, whichever is the greater amount. For purposes of this section, "yearly salary" means the compensation earned by a member during the most recent period of contributing service, either consecutive or nonconsecutive, preceding the member's effective retirement date and shall be subject to the provisions of KRS 161.220(9) and (10). This paragraph shall not apply to the supplemental benefit component.

(2) Effective July 1, 2002, and annually on July 1 thereafter, the retirement allowance of each retired member and of each beneficiary of a retirement option shall be increased in the amount of one and one-half percent (1.5%), provided the retired member had been retired for at least the full twelve (12) months immediately preceding the date that the increase is effective. In the event that the retired member had been retired for less than the full twelve (12) months immediately preceding the date that the increase is effective, then the increase shall be reduced on a pro rata basis by each month that the retired member had not been retired for the full twelve (12) months immediately preceding the effective date of the increase. This subsection shall not apply to benefits from the supplemental benefit component, and the board may adjust this value for individuals who become members on or after January 1, 2022, as provided by KRS 161.633 or 161.634, as applicable.

(3) Any member qualifying for retirement under a life annuity with refundable balance shall be entitled to receive an annual allowance amounting to not less than four hundred dollars ($400) effective July 1, 2002, and not less than four hundred forty dollars ($440) effective July 1, 2003, multiplied by the service credit years of the member. These minimums shall apply to the retired members receiving annuity payments and to those members retiring on or subsequent to the effective dates listed in this subsection, except the following:

(a) Individuals who become members of the Teachers' Retirement System on or after July 1, 2008; or

(b) Members whose retirement allowance payment is reduced below the minimum allowance as a result of its division in a qualified domestic relations order or any other provision permitted under KRS 161.700.

(4) The minimum retirement allowance provided in this section shall apply in the case of members retired or retiring under an option other than a life annuity with refundable balance in the same proportion to the benefits of the member and his or her beneficiary or beneficiaries as provided in the duly-adopted option tables at the time of the member's retirement.

(5) Effective July 1, 2008, the monthly allowance of each retired member and each recipient of a retirement option of the retired member may be increased in an amount not to exceed three and one-half percent (3.5%) of the monthly allowance in effect the previous month, provided the retired member had been retired for at least the full twelve (12) months immediately preceding the date that the increase is effective. In the event that the retired member had been retired for less than the full twelve (12) months immediately preceding the date that the increase is effective, then the increase shall be reduced on a pro rata basis by each month that the retired member had not been retired for the full twelve (12) months immediately preceding the effective date of the increase. The level of increase provided for in this subsection shall be determined by the funding provided in the 2008-2010 biennium budget appropriation.

(6) Effective July 1, 2009, the monthly allowance of each retired member and each recipient of a retirement option of the retired member may be increased in an amount not to exceed seven-tenths of one percent (0.7%) of the monthly allowance in effect the previous month, provided the retired member had been retired for at least the full twelve (12) months immediately preceding the date that the increase is effective. In the event that the retired member had been retired for less than the full twelve (12) months immediately preceding the date that the increase is effective, then the increase shall be reduced on a pro rata basis by each month that the retired member had not been retired for the full twelve (12) months immediately preceding the effective date of the increase. The level of increase provided for in this subsection shall be determined by the funding provided in the 2008-2010 biennium budget appropriation.

(7) Effective July 1, 1990, monthly payments of two hundred dollars ($200) shall be payable for the benefit of an adult child of a member retired for service when the child's mental or physical condition is sufficient to cause dependency on the member at the time of retirement. Eligibility for this payment shall continue for the life of the child or until the time the mental or physical condition creating the dependency no longer exists or the child marries. Benefits under this subsection shall apply to legally adopted survivors provided the proceedings for the adoption were initiated at least one (1) year prior to the death of the member. The board of trustees shall be the sole judge of eligibility or dependency and may require formal application or information relating thereto.

(8) Members of the Teachers' Retirement System shall be subject to the annuity income limitations imposed by Section 415 of the Internal Revenue Service Code.

(9) Compensation in excess of the limitations imposed by Section 401(a)(17) of the Internal Revenue Code shall not be used in determining a member's retirement annuity. The limitation on compensation for eligible members shall not be less than the amount which was allowed to be taken into account by the retirement system in effect on July 1, 1993. For this purpose, an eligible member is an individual who was a member of the retirement system before the first plan year beginning after December 31, 1995.

Legislative Research Commission Notes.

(1/1/2022). This statute was amended by 2021 Ky. Acts chs. 157 and 192, which do not appear to be in conflict and have been codified together.

(12/13/2018). On December 13, 2018, the Kentucky Supreme Court ruled that the passage of 2018 SB 151 (2018 Ky. Acts ch. 107), did not comply with the three-readings rule of Kentucky Constitution Section 46 and that the legislation is, therefore, constitutionally invalid and declared void. That ruling applies to changes made to this statute in that Act.

(7/13/90). The two Acts amending this section prevail over the repeal and reenactment in House Bill 940, Acts Ch. 476, pursuant to Section 653(1) of Acts Ch. 476. The two amending Acts have been compiled together where they are not in conflict. Where a conflict exists, the Act which was last enacted by the General Assembly prevails, pursuant to KRS 446.250.

Sections 401(a)(17) and 415 of the Internal Revenue Service Code, referred to in this section, are codified as 26 USCS §§ 401(a)(17) and 415, respectively.

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

While subsection (1) of this section provided a mandatory increase applicable to all teachers retired prior to July 1, 1964, the increase must be regarded as increasing the actuarial value and would not necessarily increase monthly payments in benefit options other than the straight life annuity. 161.623. Use of unused sick-leave days to determine service credit — Applicability to individuals becoming members on or after July 1, 2008 — Maximum amount.

(1) Effective July 1, 1982, and thereafter, a district board of education or other employer of members of the Teachers' Retirement System may compensate, at the time of retirement for service, an active contributing member for unused sick-leave days in accordance with this section.

(2) Upon the member's application for service retirement, the employer shall certify the retiring member's unused accumulated sick-leave balance to the board of trustees of the Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System. The member's sick-leave balance, expressed in days, shall be divided by one hundred eighty-five (185) days to determine the amount of service credit that may be considered for addition to the member's retirement account for the purpose of determining the retirement allowance under KRS 161.620. Notwithstanding any statute to the contrary, sick-leave credit that is accredited under this section or by one (1) of the other state-administered retirement systems shall not be used for the purpose of determining whether the member is eligible to receive a retirement allowance from the Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System.

(3) The board shall compute the cost to the retirement system of the sick-leave credit for each retiring member and shall bill the last employer of the retiring member for such cost. The employer shall pay the cost of such service credit to the retirement system within fifteen (15) days after receiving notification of the cost from the board.

(4) Retiring members who receive service credit under this section shall not be eligible to receive compensation for accrued sick leave under KRS 161.155(10) or any other statutory provision.

(5) Employer participation is optional and the employer may opt to purchase less service credit than the member is eligible to receive provided the same percentage of reduction is made applicable to all retiring members of the employer during a school fiscal year.

(6) The board of trustees shall formulate and adopt necessary rules and regulations for the administration of the foregoing provisions.

(7) Payments to the retirement system for service credit obtained under this section or for compensation credit obtained under KRS 161.155(10) shall be based on the full actuarial cost as defined in KRS 161.220(22).

(8) For an individual who becomes a member on or after July 1, 2008, the maximum amount of unused accumulated sick leave that may be considered for addition to the member's retirement account for purposes of determining the retirement allowance under KRS 161.620 shall not exceed three hundred (300) days.

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

Generally, in order to qualify for retirement, a member of the retirement system must have completed 27 years of service, notwithstanding accumulation of sick leave. OAG 91-219.

At the death of an employed active public school teacher, a school board may not pay the decedent's estate or named beneficiary the value of the employee's accumulated unused sick leave even if the employee were eligible for retirement; rather, a local school district may only compensate a district employee at the time of retirement for accumulated unused sick leave. OAG 94-39.

161.624. Responsibilities of members.

The employees of the Teachers' Retirement System shall endeavor to provide full and complete information to all inquiries presented by members or beneficiaries of members. The members or beneficiaries of the members shall assume full responsibility for obtaining adequate and sufficient information concerning their eligibility for retirement benefits, for selection of the type of benefit available to them, and for adherence to the employment restrictions applicable to retired members.

161.630. Benefit options — Change in benefit option by retiree — Beneficiary redesignation after retirement.

(1)(a) A member, upon retirement, shall receive a retirement allowance in the form of a life annuity, with refundable balance, as provided in KRS 161.620, unless an election is made before the effective date of retirement to receive actuarially equivalent benefits under options which the board of trustees approves.

(b) An individual who is participating in the supplemental benefit component as provided by KRS 161.635 or 161.636 may, before the effective date of retirement, elect to receive his or her accumulated account balance accrued in the supplemental benefit component annuitized into a monthly payment under one (1) of the actuarial equivalent payment options approved by the board of trustees.

(c) No option shall provide for a benefit with an actuarial value at the age of retirement greater than that provided in KRS 161.620, 161.635(5)(a), or 161.636(5)(a), as applicable. This section does not apply to disability allowances as provided in KRS 161.661(1).

(2) The retirement option chosen by a retiree at the time of service retirement shall remain in force unless the retiree elects to make a change under the following conditions:

(a) A divorce, annulment, or marriage dissolution following retirement shall, at the election of the retiree, cancel any optional plan selected at retirement that provides indefinitely continuing benefits to a spousal beneficiary and return the retiree to a single lifetime benefit equivalent as determined by the board; or

(b) Following marriage or remarriage, or the death of the designated beneficiary, a retiree may elect a new optional plan of payment based on the actuarial equivalent of a single lifetime benefit at the time of the election, as determined by the board. The plan shall become effective the first of the month following receipt of an application on a form approved by the board.

(3) Except as otherwise provided in this section, a beneficiary designation shall not be changed after the effective date of retirement except for retirees who elect the life annuity with refundable balance or the predetermined years certain and life thereafter option. A member may remove a beneficiary at any time, but shall not designate a substitute beneficiary. If a member elects to remove a beneficiary, the member's retirement allowance shall not change regardless of the retirement option selected by the member, even if the removed beneficiary predeceases the member.

(4) A member who experiences a qualifying event under subsection (2) of this section and who elects a new optional plan of payment shall make that election within sixty (60) days of the qualifying event.

161.633. Foundational component for persons who became nonuniversity members on or after January 1, 2022 — Valuation assessment — Adjustments to maintain funding level and contain costs — Construction.

(1) Individuals who become nonuniversity members of the Teachers' Retirement System on or after January 1, 2022, shall be provided a foundational plan, which shall be known as the foundational benefit component, a supplemental benefit component established by KRS 161.635, and retiree health benefits as provided by KRS 161.675. For purposes of this section, the foundational benefit component includes all benefits provided by KRS 161.220 to 161.716 for individuals who become nonuniversity members of the Teachers' Retirement System on or after January 1, 2022, with the exception of the supplemental benefit component established by KRS 161.635 and retiree health benefits established by KRS 161.675.

(2) Notwithstanding KRS 161.220 to 161.716, the activity designated by the board of trustees under KRS 161.400 shall, as part of the annual valuation of the pension fund, assess the funding levels, unfunded liabilities, and the actuarially required employer contribution rates payable solely on behalf of individuals who first become nonuniversity members on or after January 1, 2022. Computation of the employer contribution rate payable shall be based upon amortizing unfunded liabilities using the level-dollar amortization method.

(3) If, on the basis of the valuation assessment required under subsection (2) of this section, the funding level for the foundational benefit component payable on behalf of individuals who first become nonuniversity members on or after January 1, 2022, falls below ninety percent (90%), the board shall, notwithstanding any other provision of KRS 161.220 to 161.716 to the contrary, make one (1) or more of the following changes to maintain the funding level and to contain pension and life insurance benefit costs within the maximum statutory employer contribution rate for the foundational benefit component of eight percent (8%) of annual compensation as provided by KRS 161.550(1)(d)1.:

(a) Utilize moneys from the stabilization reserve account for nonuniversity membership and employers established by KRS 161.420(10)(a);

(b) Utilize prospective mandatory employee and employer contributions to the supplemental benefit component as provided by KRS 161.635 to provide funding for the foundational benefit component; or

(c) Prospectively adjust for individuals who become nonuniversity members on or after January 1, 2022, one (1) or more of the following parts of the foundational benefit component:

1. Regular interest rate established by KRS 161.220(13)(c);

2. The retirement factors established by KRS 161.620(1)(f);

3. The age and service requirements to retire as established by KRS 161.600(2);

4. The cost-of-living adjustment established by KRS 161.620(2); or

5. The age and service requirements and the retirement allowance provided during the entitlement period under KRS 161.661.

Notwithstanding any other provision of KRS 161.220 to 161.716 to the contrary, the board of trustees may utilize any and all of the above adjustments at any time on all individuals who become nonuniversity members on or after January 1, 2022, in order to maintain the funding level of the foundational benefit component and employer costs as provided by this subsection.

(4) For purposes of this section, "funding level" means the actuarial value of assets divided by the actuarially accrued liability expressed as a percentage that is determined and reported by the system's actuary in the system's actuarial valuation.

(5) This section shall only apply to individuals who became nonuniversity members of the Teachers' Retirement System on or after January 1, 2022.

(6) The provisions of this section shall not be construed to authorize the board to retroactively restore benefits or eligibility for benefits in the foundational benefit component or supplemental benefit that were previously reduced by the board pursuant to subsection (3)(b) and (c) of this section.

161.634. Foundational component for persons who became university members on or after January 1, 2022 — Valuation assessment — Adjustments to maintain funding level and contain costs — Construction.

(1) Individuals who become university members of the Teachers' Retirement System on or after January 1, 2022, shall be provided a foundational plan, which shall be known as the foundational benefit component, a supplemental benefit component established by KRS 161.636, and retiree health benefits as provided by KRS 161.675. For purposes of this section, the foundational benefit component includes all benefits provided by KRS 161.220 to 161.716 for individuals who become university members of the Teachers' Retirement System on or after January 1, 2022, with the exception of the supplemental benefit component established by KRS 161.636 and retiree health benefits established by KRS 161.675.

(2) Notwithstanding KRS 161.220 to 161.716, the actuary designated by the board of trustees under KRS 161.400 shall, as part of the annual valuation of the pension fund, assess the funding levels, unfunded liabilities, and the actuarially required employer contribution rates payable solely on behalf of individuals who first become university members on or after January 1, 2022. Computation of the employer contribution rate payable shall be based upon amortizing unfunded liabilities using the level-dollar amortization method.

(3) If, on the basis of the valuation assessment required under subsection (2) of this section, the funding level for the foundational benefit component payable on behalf of individuals who first become university members on or after January 1, 2022, falls below ninety percent (90%), the board shall, notwithstanding any other provision of KRS 161.220 to 161.716 to the contrary, make one (1) or more of the following changes to maintain the funding level and to contain pension and life insurance benefit costs within the maximum statutory employer contribution rate for the foundational benefit component of five and seven hundred seventy-five thousandths percent (5.775%) of annual compensation as provided by KRS 161.550(1)(e)1.:

(a) Utilize moneys from the stabilization reserve account for university membership and employers established by KRS 161.420(10)(b);

(b) Utilize prospective mandatory employee and employer contributions to the supplemental benefit component as provided by KRS 161.636 to provide funding for the foundational benefit component; or

(c) Prospectively adjust for individuals who become university members on or after January 1, 2022, one (1) or more of the following parts of the foundational benefit component:

1. Regular interest rate established by KRS 161.220(13)(c);

2. The retirement factors established by KRS 161.620(1)(g);

3. The age and service requirements to retire as established by KRS 161.600(2);

4. The cost-of-living adjustment established by KRS 161.620(2); or

5. The age and service requirements and the retirement allowance provided during the entitlement period under KRS 161.661.

Notwithstanding any other provision of KRS 161.220 to 161.716 to the contrary, the board of trustees may utilize any and all of the above adjustments at any time on all individuals who become university members on or after January 1, 2022, in order to maintain the funding level of the foundational benefit component and employer costs as provided by this subsection.

(4) For purposes of this section, “funding level” means the actuarial value of assets divided by the actuarially accrued liability expressed as a percentage that is determined and reported by the system’s actuary in the system’s actuarial valuation.

(5) This section shall only apply to individuals who became university members of the Teachers’ Retirement System on or after January 1, 2022.

(6) The provisions of this section shall not be construed to authorize the board to retroactively restore benefits or eligibility for benefits in the foundational benefit component or supplemental benefit that were previously reduced by the board pursuant to subsection (3)(b) and (c) of this section.

2021 ch. 157, § 2, effective January 1, 2022.

161.635. Supplemental component for persons who became nonuniversity members on or after January 1, 2022 — Benefit — Contributions — Election upon termination of employment and upon retirement — Plans authorized under Internal Revenue Code.

(1) An individual who becomes a nonuniversity member of the Teachers’ Retirement System on or after January 1, 2022, shall receive the retirement benefits provided by this section in addition to the retirement benefits provided under KRS 161.620. The retirement benefits provided by this section shall be known as the supplemental benefit component.

(2) The supplemental benefit component shall provide a benefit based upon a member’s accumulated account balance which shall include:

(a) Mandatory contributions made by the member as provided by KRS 161.540(1)(c)2.;

(b) Voluntary contributions made by the member, which may include lump-sum payments;

(c) Mandatory contributions made by the employer as provided by KRS 161.550(1)(d)2.;

(d) Voluntary employer contributions; and

(e) Regular interest, which shall be credited to the member’s account annually on June 30 of each fiscal year, by multiplying the member’s accumulated account balance in the supplemental benefit component on June 30 of the preceding fiscal year by the regular interest rate.

(3)(a) Member contributions and employer contributions as provided by subsection (2)(a) to (d) of this section shall be credited to the member’s account at least monthly as contributions are reported and posted to the system in accordance with KRS 161.560.

(b) No employer contributions or interest shall be provided to a member who has taken a refund of his or her accumulated account balance as provided by KRS 161.470 or who has retired and annuitized his or her accumulated account balance as authorized by this section.

(4)(a) Upon termination of employment, a member who has less than five (5) years of service credited under KRS 161.500, who elects to take a refund of his or her accumulated account balance as provided by KRS 161.470, shall forfeit the accumulated employer contribution, and shall only receive a refund of his or her accumulated contributions.

(b) Upon termination of employment, a member who has five (5) or more years of service credited under KRS 161.500, who elects to take a refund of his or her accumulated account balance as provided by KRS 161.470, shall receive a full refund of his or her accumulated account balance.

(5) A nonuniversity member eligible to retire under KRS 161.600(2) may upon retirement, in addition to the other benefits provided by KRS 161.620, elect to:

(a) Have his or her accumulated account balance in the supplemental benefit component annuitized into a lifetime monthly retirement allowance by the system in accordance with the actuarial assumptions and actuarial methods adopted by the board for the supplemental benefit component and in effect on the member’s retirement date;

(b) Receive the actuarial equivalent of his or her retirement allowance calculated under paragraph (a) of this subsection payable under one (1) of the options established by the board pursuant to KRS 161.630;

(c) Take a distribution of the accumulated account balance in the supplemental benefit component over a period certain as authorized by the board; or

(d) Take a full or partial refund of his or her accumulated account balance as provided by KRS 161.470.

A member participating in the supplemental benefit component shall not be required to take a distribution or annuitize his or her accumulated account balance in the supplemental benefit component when he or she begins drawing a retirement allowance from the foundational benefit component and may instead choose to begin drawing a distribution or annuitize his or her accumulated account balance in the supplemental benefit component at any date following his or her retirement date from the foundational benefit component.

(6) This section only applies to individuals who become nonuniversity members of the Teachers’ Retirement System on or after January 1, 2022.

(7) The board of trustees shall have the authority to utilize or establish any plan or plans authorized under the Internal Revenue Code to provide the benefits set forth in this section.

History.

2021 ch. 157, § 3, effective January 1, 2022.

161.636. Supplemental component for persons who became university members on or after January 1, 2022 — Benefit — Contributions — Election upon termination of employment and upon retirement — Plans authorized under Internal Revenue Code.

(1) An individual who becomes a university member of the Teachers' Retirement System on or after January 1, 2022, shall receive the retirement benefits provided by this section in addition to the retirement benefits provided under KRS 161.620. The retirement benefits provided by this section shall be known as the supplemental benefit component.

(2) The supplemental benefit component shall provide a benefit based upon a member's accumulated account balance which shall include:

(a) Mandatory contributions made by the member as provided by KRS 161.540(1)(d)2.;

(b) Voluntary contributions made by the member, which may include lump-sum payments;

(c) Mandatory contributions made by the employer as provided by KRS 161.550(1)(e)2.;

(d) Voluntary employer contributions; and

(3)(a) Member contributions and employer contributions as provided by subsection (2)(a) to (d) of this section shall be credited to the member's account at least monthly as contributions are reported and posted to the system in accordance with KRS 161.560.

(b) No employer contributions or interest shall be provided to a member who has taken a refund of his or her accumulated account balance as provided by KRS 161.470 or who has retired and annuitized his or her accumulated account balance as authorized by this section.

(4)(a) Upon termination of employment, a member who has less than five (5) years of service credited under KRS 161.500, who elects to take a refund of his or her accumulated account balance as provided by KRS 161.470, shall forfeit the accumulated employer contribution, and shall only receive a refund of his or her accumulated contributions.

(b) Upon termination of employment, a member who has five (5) or more years of service credited under KRS 161.500, who elects to take a refund of his or her accumulated account balance as provided by KRS 161.470, shall receive a full refund of his or her accumulated account balance.

(5) A university member eligible to retire under KRS 161.600(2) may upon retirement, in addition to the other benefits provided by KRS 161.620, elect to:

(a) Have his or her accumulated account balance in the supplemental benefit component annuitized into a lifetime monthly retirement allowance by the system in accordance with the actuarial assumptions and actuarial methods adopted by the board for the supplemental benefit component and in effect on the member's retirement date;

(b) Receive the actuarial equivalent of his or her retirement allowance calculated under paragraph (a) of this subsection payable under one (1) of the options established by the board pursuant to KRS 161.630;

(c) Take a distribution of the accumulated account balance in the supplemental benefit component over a period certain as authorized by the board; or

(d) Take a full or partial refund of his or her accumulated account balance as provided by KRS 161.470.

A member participating in the supplemental benefit component shall not be required to take a distribution or annuitize his or her accumulated account balance in the supplemental benefit component when he or she begins drawing a retirement allowance from the foundational benefit component and may instead choose to begin drawing a distribution or annuitize his or her accumulated account balance in the supplemental benefit component at any date following his or her retirement date from the foundational benefit component.

(6) This section only applies to individuals who become university members of the Teachers' Retirement System on or after January 1, 2022.

(7) The board of trustees shall have the authority to utilize or establish any plan or plans authorized under the Internal Revenue Code to provide the benefits set forth in this section.

History.

2021 ch. 157, § 4, effective January 1, 2022.

161.640. Payment of annuities — Payroll deductions — Electronic fund transfer, exception.

(1) Retirement annuities shall be payable monthly. The first payment to an annuitant shall be made at the payment date at the end of one (1) full payment period after his retirement and shall consist of one (1) regular monthly payment. Retirement for a member receiving one (1) full year of service credit during a fiscal year shall be no earlier than July 1 next following the end of such fiscal year. Notwithstanding any other statutory provisions to the contrary, members filling positions that customarily require twelve (12) months of service during a fiscal year cannot retire prior to July 1 without a corresponding pro rata reduction in salary and service credit. The board of trustees may determine which positions customarily require twelve (12) months of service during a fiscal year.

(2) The board of trustees may enter into agreements with retired members for payroll deductions when it is deemed in the best interest of the retired members and the retirement system.

(3)(a) All new retirees, on or after July 1, 1998, shall receive their monthly annuity checks by electronic fund transfer. All retiree, beneficiary, and survivor monthly allowance payments, except as otherwise provided in paragraph (b) of this subsection, shall be made by electronic fund transfer. Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this subsection, all monthly payments shall be made payable only to an account solely in the name of the retiree, beneficiary, or survivor as an individual and natural person, or to a joint account in the name of the retiree, beneficiary, or survivor as an individual and natural person and another individual and natural person.

(b) If the retiree, beneficiary, or survivor is a resident of a nursing or assisted-care home, monthly payments may be made to the order of the nursing or assisted-care home for the benefit of the retiree, beneficiary, or survivor by including the retiree's, beneficiary's, or survivor's name. Monthly annuity checks so paid to a nursing or assisted-care home may be sent by mail rather than electronic fund transfer.

161.643. Records and annual reports for annuitants employed by school districts or agencies — Penalty for noncompliance — System may require more frequent reporting.

(1) Each school district, institution, and agency employing annuitants of the retirement system shall have on file at the retirement system's office an annual summary report of the days employed and the compensation paid to each annuitant and other data as required by administrative regulation of the board of trustees no later than August 1, following the completion of each fiscal year.

(2) The retirement system may impose a penalty on the employer not to exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000) when the employer does not meet the August 1 filing date or fails to provide the information required for employment of annuitants of the retirement system. However, the retirement system may waive the penalty for good cause.

(3) The retirement system may promulgate administrative regulations in accordance with KRS Chapter 13A to require employers to report more frequently than on an annual basis.

161.650. Death of retired member — Payment to beneficiaries — Effect of divorce decree — Failure to designate beneficiary.

(1) In the case of death of a member who has retired by reason of service or disability, any portion of the member's accumulated contributions, including member contributions to the state accumulation fund and regular interest to the date of retirement, that has not, and will not be paid as an allowance or benefit shall be paid to the member's beneficiary in such manner as the board of trustees elects.

(2)(a) The member may designate a primary beneficiary or two (2) or more cobeneficiaries to receive any remaining accumulated member contributions payable under this section.

(b) A contingent beneficiary may be designated in addition to the primary beneficiary or the cobeneficiaries. The member may designate two (2) or more contingent beneficiaries.

(c) To the extent permitted by the Internal Revenue Code, a trust may be designated as beneficiary for receipt of any remaining funds of the member's accumulated contributions.

(d) Members may designate as beneficiaries only presently identifiable and existing individuals, or trusts where otherwise permitted, without contingency instructions, on forms prescribed by the retirement system. Cobeneficiaries shall be composed of a single class of individuals, or trusts where permitted, who will share in equal proportions in any payment that may become available under this section.

2. Subsequent marriage by the member shall void the primary beneficiary and any cobeneficiary designation, even that of a trust, and the spouse of the member at death shall be considered as the primary beneficiary, unless the member subsequent to marriage designates another beneficiary. An individual who is married prior to becoming a retired member of the retirement system and remains married at the time of becoming a retired member shall have his or her spouse considered the primary beneficiary, unless the member designates another beneficiary for any amounts payable under subsection (1) of this section.

3. A final divorce decree shall terminate the beneficiary status of an ex-spouse unless, subsequent to divorce, the member redesignates the former spouse as a beneficiary. A final divorce decree shall not terminate the designation of a trust as beneficiary regardless of who is designated as beneficiary of the trust.

(f) In the event that the member fails to designate a beneficiary or all designated beneficiaries predecease the member, any remaining accumulated member contributions shall be payable to the member's estate, unless the member is married at the time of his or her death, in which case any remaining contributions shall be payable to his or her spouse.

(12/13/2018). On December 13, 2018, the Kentucky Supreme Court ruled that the passage of 2018 SB 151 (2018 Ky. Acts ch. 107), did not comply with the three-readings rule of Kentucky Constitution Section 46 and that the legislation is, therefore, constitutionally invalid and declared void. That ruling applies to changes made to this statute in that Act.

161.655. Life insurance benefit — Assignment of benefit.

(1) Effective July 1, 2000, the Teachers' Retirement System shall:

(a) Provide a life insurance benefit in a minimum amount of five thousand dollars ($5,000) for its members who are retired for service or disability, except that the minimum amount for an individual who becomes a member on or after January 1, 2022, and retires for service or disability shall be ten thousand dollars ($10,000). This life insurance benefit shall be payable upon the death of a member retired for service or disability to the member's estate or to a party designated by the member on a form prescribed by the retirement system; and

(b) Provide a life insurance benefit in a minimum amount of two thousand dollars ($2,000) for its active contributing members, except that the minimum amount for an individual who becomes a member on or after January 1, 2022, and is an active contributing member shall be five thousand dollars ($5,000). This life insurance benefit shall be payable upon the death of an active contributing member to the member's estate or to a party designated by the member on a form prescribed by the retirement system.

(2)(a) The member may name one (1) primary and one (1) contingent beneficiary for receipt of the life insurance benefit. To the extent permitted by the Internal Revenue Code, a trust may be designated as beneficiary for receipt of the life insurance benefit.

(b) Members may designate as beneficiaries only presently identifiable and existing individuals, or trusts where otherwise permitted, without contingency instructions, on forms prescribed by the retirement system.

(c) In the event that a member fails to designate a beneficiary, or all designated beneficiaries predecease the member, the member's estate shall be deemed to be the beneficiary, unless the member is married at the time of his or her death, in which case the spouse shall be deemed the beneficiary.

(d)1. Any beneficiary designation made by the member, including the estate should the estate become the beneficiary by default, shall remain in effect until changed by the member on forms prescribed by the retirement system, except in the event of subsequent marriage or divorce.

2. A valid marriage license shall terminate any previously designated beneficiary, even that of a trust, and establish the spouse as beneficiary unless, subsequent proof of the marriage, the member or retired member redesignates someone other than the new spouse as the beneficiary.

3. An individual who is married prior to becoming an active member or a retired member of the retirement system and remains married at the time of becoming an active or retired member of the retirement system shall have his or her spouse considered the primary beneficiary, unless the member designates another beneficiary.

4. A final divorce decree shall terminate the beneficiary status of an ex-spouse unless, subsequent to divorce, the member redesignates the former spouse as a beneficiary. A final divorce decree shall not terminate the designation of a trust as beneficiary regardless of who is designated as beneficiary of the trust.

(e) The Teachers' Retirement System shall not acknowledge a beneficiary designation unless the life insurance beneficiary form is received by the Teachers' Retirement System prior to the member's death, or the life insurance beneficiary form has been deposited in the mail with a postmark date no later than the date of the member's death.

(3) Application for payment of life insurance proceeds shall be made to the Teachers' Retirement System together with acceptable evidence of death and eligibility. The reciprocal provisions of KRS 61.680(2)(a) shall not apply to the coverage and payment of proceeds by the life insurance benefit under this section.

(4) Suit or civil action shall not be required for the collection of the proceeds of the life insurance benefit provided for by this section, but nothing in this section shall prevent the maintenance of suit or civil action against the beneficiary or legal representative receiving the proceeds of the life insurance benefit.

(5) Upon the death of a member of the Teachers' Retirement System, the life insurance provided pursuant to subsection (1) of this section may be assigned by the designated beneficiary to a bank or licensed funeral home.

161.660. Disability allowance. [Repealed.]

Compiler's Notes.

This section (4506b-44; amend. Acts 1946, ch. 111, § 5; 1950, ch. 79, § 1; 1958, ch. 7, § 3; 1962, ch. 64, § 18) was repealed by Acts 1964, ch. 43, § 23.

161.661. Disability retirement.

(1)(a) Any member who is accredited by the Teachers' Retirement System for five (5) or more years of service in Kentucky after July 1, 1941, may retire for disability and be granted a disability allowance if found to be eligible as provided in this section. Application for disability benefits shall be made within one (1) year of the last contributing service in Kentucky, and the disability must have occurred during the most recent period of employment in a position covered by the Teachers' Retirement System and subsequent to the accreditation by the Teachers' Retirement System of five (5) years of retirement system service credit in Kentucky. A disability occurring during the regular vacation immediately following the last period of active service in Kentucky or during an official leave for which the member is entitled to make regular contributions to the retirement system, shall be considered as having occurred during a period of active service.

(b) The annual disability allowance shall be equal to sixty percent (60%) of the member's final average salary.

(c) The following individuals shall not be eligible for disability benefits under this section:

1. Members with twenty-seven (27) or more years of service credit; and

2. Individuals who become members on or after July 1, 2021, who are eligible for an unreduced benefit under KRS 161.600(1)(b)2. or (d).

(2) The provisions of KRS 161.520, 161.525, and subsections (3), (4), and (5) of this section shall not apply to disability retirees whose benefits were calculated on the service retirement formula nor to survivors of these members.

(3) Members shall earn one (1) year of entitlement to disability retirement, at sixty percent (60%) of the member's final average salary, for each four (4) years of service in a covered position, but any member meeting the service requirement for disability retirement shall be credited with no less than five (5) years of eligibility.

(4) A member retired by reason of disability shall continue to earn service credit at the rate of one (1) year for each year retired for disability. This service shall be credited to the member's account at the expiration of entitlement as defined in subsection (3) of this section, or when the member's eligibility for disability benefits is terminated upon recommendation of a medical review committee, and this service shall be used in calculating benefits as provided in subsection (5) of this section, but under no circumstances shall this service be used to provide the member with more than twenty-seven (27) years of total service credit. The service credit shall be valued at the same level as service earned by active members as provided under KRS 161.600 or 161.620.

(5) Any member retired by reason of disability and remaining disabled at the expiration of the entitlement period shall have his or her disability benefits recalculated using the service retirement formula with service credit earned as set out in subsection (4) of this section. The retirement allowance shall be calculated as set forth in KRS 161.620, except that those persons less than sixty (60) years of age shall be considered as sixty (60) years of age. Members having their disability benefits recalculated under this subsection shall not be entitled to a benefit based upon an average of their three (3) highest salaries as set forth in KRS 161.220(9), unless approved otherwise by the board of trustees.

(6) Members who have their disability retirement allowance recalculated at the expiration of the entitlement period shall continue to have coverage under the post-retirement medical insurance program. Restrictions on employment shall remain in effect until the member attains age seventy (70) or until the member's eligibility is discontinued. KRS 161.520 and 161.525 shall not apply to survivors of disability retirees whose retirement allowances have been recalculated at the expiration of the entitlement period. Members who have their disability retirement allowance recalculated at the expiration of their entitlement period shall be entitled to a minimum monthly allowance of five hundred dollars ($500) as the basic straight life annuity. The minimum allowance shall be effective July 1, 1992, and shall apply to those members who have had their allowance recalculated prior to that date and to disability retirees who will have their benefit allowance recalculated on or after that date. For individuals who become members on or after July 1, 2021, disability retirement payments and any other recurring payments payable by any other state-administered retirement system shall be applied to reduce, on a dollar-for-dollar basis, the minimum monthly disability retirement allowance payable under this subsection.

(7) Effective July 1, 1992, members retired for disability prior to July 1, 1964, shall be entitled to a minimum monthly allowance of five hundred dollars ($500) as their basic straight life annuity and their surviving spouse shall be eligible for survivor benefits as provided in KRS 161.520(1)(a) and (b).

(8) Any member retired by reason of disability may voluntarily waive disability benefits and return to teaching or any member, who is age sixty (60) years or older, may elect to waive disability benefits and retire for service on the basis of service credited to the member on the effective date of the disability retirement.

(9) In order to qualify for retirement by reason of disability a member must suffer from a physical or mental condition presumed to be permanent in duration and of a nature as to render the member incapable of being gainfully employed in a covered position. The incapability must be revealed by a competent examination by a licensed physician or physicians and must be approved by a majority of a medical review committee.

(10) A member retired by reason of disability shall be required to undergo periodic examinations at the discretion of the board of trustees to determine whether the disability allowance shall be continued. When examination and recommendation of a medical review committee indicate the disability no longer exists, the allowance shall be discontinued.

(11) Eligibility for payment shall begin on the first day of the month following receipt of the application in the Teachers' Retirement System office, or the first of the month next following the last payment of salary or sick leave benefits by the employer, whichever is the later date.

(12) No person who receives a disability allowance may be employed in a position that entails duties or qualification requirements similar to positions subject to participation in the retirement system either within or without the State of Kentucky. So doing shall constitute a misdemeanor and shall result in loss of the allowance from the first date of this service. For purposes of this subsection and subsection (13) of this section, "employment" and "occupation," and derivatives thereof, mean any activity engaged in by the member receiving disability allowance from which income is earned. A member who applies for and is approved for disability retirement on or after July 1, 2002, and whose annual disability benefit is less than forty thousand dollars ($40,000) may earn income in any occupation other than covered employment only to the extent that the annual income from the other employment when added to the annual disability benefit does not exceed forty thousand dollars ($40,000). For any member who exceeds this limit as a result of income from other employment, the Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System shall reduce the member's disability benefit on a dollar-for-dollar basis for each dollar that the member's combined annual disability benefit and annual income from other employment exceeds forty thousand dollars ($40,000). The board of trustees may annually increase the forty thousand dollar ($40,000) limit by the percentage increase in the annual average of the consumer price index for all urban consumers for the most recent calendar year as published by the Federal Bureau of Labor Statistics, not to exceed five percent (5%). The retirement system may require income verification from the member, including but not limited to copies of tax returns and federal forms W-2 and W-4P.

(13) All members who applied for disability retirement before July 1, 2002, and were approved as a result of that application shall be subject to the income limitations as they existed on June 30, 2002, until July 1, 2006. Effective July 1, 2006, the twenty-seven thousand dollar ($27,000) limitation shall be increased to forty thousand dollars ($40,000) and may be adjusted by the board of trustees by the consumer price index in the manner described in subsection (12) of this section. The recipient of a disability allowance who engages in any gainful occupation other than covered employment must make a report of the duties involved, compensation received, and any other pertinent information required by the board of trustees. The retirement system may require income verification from the member, including but not limited to copies of tax returns and federal forms W-2 and W-4P.

(14) The board of trustees shall designate medical review committees, each consisting of three (3) licensed physicians. A medical review committee shall pass upon all applications for disability retirement and upon all applicant statements, medical certifications, and examinations submitted in connection with disability applications. The disposition of each case shall be recommended by a medical review committee in writing to the retirement system. Members of a medical review committee shall follow administrative regulations regarding procedures as the board of trustees may enact and shall be paid reasonable fees and expenses as authorized by the board of trustees in compliance with the provisions of KRS 161.330 and 161.340. The retirement system may secure additional medical examinations and information as it deems necessary. A member may appeal any final agency decision denying his or her disability retirement application pursuant to the provisions of KRS 161.250(2).

(15) A disability may be presumed to be permanent if the condition creating the disability may be reasonably expected to continue for one (1) year or more from the date of application for disability benefits.

(16) Any member who has voluntarily waived disability benefits or whose disability benefits have been discontinued on recommendation of a medical review committee, may apply for reinstatement of disability benefits. The application for reinstatement must be made to the retirement system within twelve (12) months of the date disability benefits terminated. If the termination of benefits were voluntary, the reinstatement may be made without medical examination if application is made within three (3) months of the termination date. Other applications for reinstatement will be processed in the same manner as new applications for benefits.

(17) No person who is receiving disability benefits under this section may be employed in a position which qualifies the person for membership in a retirement system financed wholly or in part with public funds. Employment in a position prohibited by this subsection shall result in disqualification for those disability benefits from the date of employment in the prohibited position.

(18) Any person who is receiving benefits and becomes disqualified from receiving those benefits under this section, or becomes disqualified from receiving a portion of those benefits due to income from other than covered employment, shall immediately notify the Teachers' Retirement System of this disqualification in writing and shall return all benefits paid after the date of disqualification. Failure to comply with these provisions shall create an indebtedness of that person to the Teachers' Retirement System. Interest at the rate of eight percent (8%) per annum shall be charged if the debt is not repaid within sixty (60) days after the date of disqualification. Failure to repay this debt creates a lien in favor of the Teachers' Retirement System upon all property of the person who improperly receives benefits and does not repay those benefits. The Teachers' Retirement System may, in order to collect an outstanding debt, reduce or terminate any benefit that a member is otherwise entitled to receive.

(19) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section to the contrary, individuals who become members on or after January 1, 2022, shall be eligible for an actuarially determined disability benefit as prescribed by the board of trustees via administrative regulations promulgated by the board. The board of trustees shall arrange by appropriate contract or on a self-insured basis a disability plan to provide the disability benefits and may adjust the benefits in accordance with KRS 161.633(3) or 161.634(3).

(12/13/2018). On December 13, 2018, the Kentucky Supreme Court ruled that the passage of 2018 SB 151 (2018 Ky. Acts ch. 107), did not comply with the three-readings rule of Kentucky Constitution Section 46 and that the legislation is, therefore, constitutionally invalid and declared void. That ruling applies to changes made to this statute in that Act.

Justice v. Pike County Bd. of Educ., 348 F.3d 554, 2003 FED App. 0392P, 2003 U.S. App. LEXIS 22631 (6th Cir. Ky. 2003).

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

A teacher retired for disability would remain in disability retirement until her eligibility period had expired, even though she had reached age 60 during such eligibility period. OAG 64-741.

An application for a disability allowance does not have to be made within any specific time. OAG 70-476.

The applicant's condition at the time of the termination of employment would govern in determining whether or not he is disabled. OAG 70-476.

A member of the retirement system who qualifies for and accepts disability retirement may not thereafter during such period of disability elect to qualify and receive regular retirement for service until the period of eligibility for disability benefits has expired. OAG 73-181.

Where a school teacher was terminated in 1976, and instituted suit in an attempt to be reinstated, which suit was finally resolved against him in 1978, he clearly missed the deadline of one year provided in subsection (1) and could not, thereafter, apply for disability retirement. OAG 79-49.

A teacher seeking benefits under subsection (1) of this section while on leave of absence under KRS 161.770 has in effect terminated his or her tenure contract status and accompanying rights with the board of education when the teachers' retirement system approves that teacher's application for disability retirement, which means the teacher has "retired" for the purposes of KRS 161.720 to 161.810; and if the teacher, who has been granted leave of absence and accepted by the teachers' retirement system for disability retirement benefits, then becomes able to return to work, the board of education no longer has to afford to that teacher his or her former tenure rights. OAG 79-157.

161.662. Status of disabled teachers and superintendents.

(1) Teachers and superintendents with continuing status who retire because of disability shall, notwithstanding provisions of KRS 161.720 to 161.810 to the contrary, retain continuing status in the school district from which they retired for twenty-four (24) calendar months from the date of retirement, if the teacher or superintendent:

(a) Is approved for disability retirement under the provisions of KRS 161.661, or

(b) Is approved for disability retirement but elects to have benefits calculated on the service retirement formula under the provisions of KRS 161.661, or

(c) Is disqualified from receiving disability retirement benefits by KRS 161.661(2) but is otherwise eligible for disability retirement under the remaining provisions of KRS 161.661.

(2)(a) If the superintendent recovers from disability and presents written notice of such recovery, supported by the statement of a licensed physician, to the employing board of education within the twenty-four (24) calendar month period but not later than April 15 prior to the beginning of the school term, the board of education shall reinstate the superintendent to active continuing status at the beginning of the school term. If notice of recovery from disability is not presented to the employing board of education within the twenty-four (24) calendar month period, or if the superintendent states to the board, in a verified document, prior to expiration of the twenty-four (24) calendar month period that he or she will not return to employment in the school system, the continuing service contract of the superintendent shall terminate as by retirement under the provisions of KRS 161.661.

(b) If the teacher recovers from disability and presents written notice of such recovery, supported by the statement of a licensed physician, to the superintendent within the twenty-four (24) calendar month period but not later than April 15 prior to the beginning of the school term, the superintendent shall reinstate the teacher to active continuing status at the beginning of the school term. If notice of recovery from disability is not presented to the superintendent within the twenty-four (24) calendar month period, or if the teacher states to the superintendent, in a verified document, prior to expiration of the twenty-four (24) calendar month period that he or she will not return to employment in the school system, the continuing service contract of the teacher shall terminate as by retirement under the provisions of KRS 161.661.

(4)(a) If the superintendent recovers from the disability and presents written notice of such recovery, supported by the statement of a licensed physician, to the employing board of education within twenty-five (25) through forty-two (42) months from the date of retirement, the board shall give priority consideration to reemployment of the superintendent for the first available position for which the superintendent is qualified and certified.

(b) If the teacher recovers from the disability and presents written notice of such recovery, supported by the statement of a licensed physician, to the superintendent within twenty-five (25) through forty-two (42) months from the date of retirement, the superintendent shall give priority consideration to reemployment of the teacher for the first available position for which the teacher is qualified and certified.

Any active contributing member with less than five (5) years of Kentucky service may apply and be approved for disability retirement under KRS 161.661 if the member is found to be mentally or physically incapacitated as a result of an injury related directly to their covered employment. All conditions and restrictions specified under KRS 161.661 shall be applicable, except that the initial annual disability allowance shall be equal to fifty percent (50%) of the member's current annual contract salary and the member's last annual contract salary shall be used in lieu of the final average salary in the recalculation of the member's benefit at the expiration of the eligibility period.

161.675. Hospital and medical benefits and health insurance coverage for eligible recipients of retirement allowances from Teachers' Retirement System — Applicability to individuals becoming members on or after July 1, 2008 — Health insurance supplement payments — Coverage for spouses, dependents, and disabled children of retirees — Exemption from premium tax.

(1) The board of trustees shall arrange by appropriate contract or on a self-insured basis to provide a broad program of group hospital and medical insurance for present and future eligible recipients of a retirement allowance from the Teachers' Retirement System. The board of trustees may also arrange to provide health insurance coverage through an insurer licensed pursuant to Subtitle 38 of KRS Chapter 304 and offering a managed care plan as defined in KRS 304.17A-500 as an alternative to group hospital and medical insurance for persons eligible for hospital and medical benefits under this section. The board of trustees may authorize eligible recipients of a retirement allowance from the Teachers' Retirement System who are less than age sixty-five (65) to be included in the state-sponsored health insurance that is provided to active teachers and state employees under KRS 18A.225. Members who are sixty-five (65) or older and retired for service shall not be eligible to participate in the state employee health insurance program as described in KRS 18A.225.

(2)(a) The coverage provided shall be as set forth in the contracts and the administrative regulations of the board of trustees. The board of trustees may change the levels of coverage and eligibility conditions to meet the changing needs of the annuitants and, when necessary, to contain the expenses of the insurance program within the funds available to finance the insurance program, except as provided by paragraph (b) of this subsection. The contracts and administrative regulations shall provide for but not be limited to hospital room and board, surgical procedures, doctors' care in the hospital, and miscellaneous hospital costs. An annuitant whose effective date of retirement is July 1, 1974, and thereafter, must have a minimum of five (5) years' creditable Kentucky service in the Teachers' Retirement System or five (5) years of combined creditable service in the state-administered retirement systems if the member is retiring under the reciprocity provisions of KRS 61.680, 61.702, and 78.5536. An annuitant shall not elect coverage through more than one (1) of the state-administered retirement systems. The board of trustees shall offer coverage to the disabled child of an annuitant regardless of the disabled child's age if the annuitant pays the entire premium for the disabled child's coverage. A child shall be considered disabled if he has been determined to be eligible for federal Social Security disability benefits.

(b) Individuals who become members of the Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System on or after July 1, 2008, shall not be eligible for benefits under this section unless the member has at least fifteen (15) or more years of service credited under KRS 161.500 or another state-administered retirement system.

(3) All expenses for benefits under this section shall be paid from the funding provisions contained in KRS 161.420(5), from a trust fund established by the board under 26 U.S.C. sec. 115, premium charges received from the annuitants and the spouses, and from funds that may be appropriated or allocated by statute.

(4)(a) The board of trustees shall determine the amount of health insurance supplement payments that the Teachers' Retirement System will provide to assist eligible annuitants in paying the cost of their health insurance, based on the funds available in the medical insurance fund and any trust fund established by the board for this purpose under 26 U.S.C. sec. 115. The board of trustees shall establish the maximum monthly amounts of health insurance supplement payments that will be made by the Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System for eligible annuitants. The board of trustees shall annually establish the percentage of the maximum monthly health insurance supplement payment that will be made, based on age and years of service credit of eligible recipients of a retirement allowance. Monthly health insurance supplement payments made by the retirement system may not exceed the amount of the single coverage insurance premium chosen by the eligible annuitants. In order to qualify for health insurance supplements, the annuitant must agree to pay the difference between the insurance premium and the applicable supplement payment, by payroll deduction from his retirement allowance, or by a payment method approved by the retirement system.

(b) The board shall, effective July 1, 2010, have the authority to charge retired members who are not paying the Standard Medicare Part B premium an amount equal to the Standard Medicare Part B premium in addition to any other payments determined by the board to be necessary to contain costs within the available funding. If the board determines that retired members who are not paying the Standard Medicare Part B premium should pay the equivalent of the Standard Medicare Part B premium, the board shall phase in the premium according to the following schedule:

July 1, 2010	Thirty-three percent (33%)
July 1, 2011	Sixty-seven percent (67%)
July 1, 2012, and thereafter ..	One hundred percent (100%)

Nothing in this paragraph shall limit the board's authority to change the levels of coverage, eligibility conditions, or levels of health insurance supplement for retirees in order to contain costs within available funding.

(c) The board of trustees may offer, on a full-cost basis, health care insurance coverage provided by the retirement system to spouses and dependents of eligible annuitants not otherwise eligible for regular coverage. Recipients of a retirement allowance from the retirement system must agree to pay the cost of this coverage by payroll deduction from their retirement allowance or by a payment method approved by the retirement system.

(d) The board of trustees shall offer, on a full-cost basis, health insurance coverage provided by the retirement system to the disabled child of an annuitant, regardless of the age of the disabled child. A child shall be considered disabled for purposes of this section if the child has been determined to be eligible for federal Social Security disability benefits.

(5) The board of trustees is empowered to require the annuitant and the annuitant's spouse to pay a premium charge to assist in the financing of the hospital and medical insurance program. The board of trustees is empowered to pay the expenses for insurance coverage from the medical insurance fund, from any trust fund established by the board for this purpose under 26 U.S.C. sec. 115, from the premium charges received from the annuitants and the spouses, and from funds that may be appropriated or allocated by statute. The board may provide insurance coverage by making payment to insurance carriers including health insurance plans that are available to active and retired state employees and active teachers, institutions, and individuals for services performed, or the board of trustees may elect to provide insurance on a "self-insurance" basis or a combination of these provisions.

(6) The board of trustees may approve health insurance supplement payments to eligible annuitants who are less than sixty-five (65) years of age, as reimbursement for hospital and medical insurance premiums made by annuitants for their individual coverage. Eligible annuitants or recipients are those annuitants who are not eligible for Medicare and who do not reside in Kentucky or in an area outside of Kentucky where comparable coverage is available. The reimbursement payments shall not exceed the minimum supplement payment that would have been made had the annuitant lived in Kentucky. Eligible annuitants or recipients shall submit proof of payment to the retirement system for hospital and medical insurance that they have obtained. Reimbursement payments shall be made on a quarterly basis.

(7) Contracts negotiated may include the provision that a stated amount of hospital cost or period of hospitalization shall incur no obligation on the part of the insurance carrier or the retirement system or any trust fund established for this purpose by the board.

(8) The board of trustees is empowered to promulgate administrative regulations to assure efficient operation of the hospital and medical insurance program.

(9) Premiums paid for hospital and medical insurance coverage procured under authority of this section shall be exempt from any premium tax which might otherwise be required under KRS Chapter 136. The payment of premiums by the medical insurance fund or another trust fund established by the board for this purpose shall not constitute taxable income to an insured recipient.

(10) In the event that a member is providing services on less than a full-time basis under KRS 161.605, the retirement system may pay the full cost of the member's health insurance coverage for the full fiscal year that the member is providing those services, at the conclusion of which, the retirement system may then bill the active employer and the active employer shall reimburse the retirement system for the cost of the health insurance coverage incurred by the retirement system on a pro rata basis for the time that the member was employed by the active employer.

161.677. Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System insurance trust fund.

(1)(a) The Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System insurance trust fund is hereby created. All assets received in the trust fund shall be deemed trust funds to be held and applied solely as provided in this section. Assets of the trust fund shall not be used for any other purpose and shall not be used to pay the claims of creditors or any individual, person, or employer participating in the Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System.

(b) The trust fund is intended to be established as a trust exempt from taxation under 26 U.S.C. sec. 115.

(2) The trust fund is created for the purpose of providing a trust separate from the funds under KRS 161.420. Trust fund assets are dedicated for use for health benefits as provided in KRS 161.675, and as permitted under 26 U.S.C. secs. 105 and 106, for present and future eligible recipients of a retirement allowance from the Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System.

(3) The trust fund shall be administered by the board of trustees established by KRS 161.250, and the board shall serve as trustees of the fund. The board shall manage the assets of the fund in the same general manner in which it administers the retirement funds, except that the asset allocation may differ and separate accounting and financial reporting shall be maintained for the trust fund.

(4) In addition to the requirements of subsection (2) of this section, the employers participating in the trust fund are limited to the Commonwealth, political subdivisions of the Commonwealth, and entities whose income is exempt from taxation under 26 U.S.C. sec. 115. No other entity may participate in the trust fund.

(5) If the trust fund is terminated, the assets in the trust fund may revert, after the payment of all liabilities, to the participating employers as determined by the board of trustees.

(6) The board of trustees may promulgate administrative regulations and adopt procedures and a trust document to implement this section and take all action necessary and appropriate to provide that the income of the trust fund shall not diminish or expand the rights of any recipients, employees, or dependents to health benefits.

(7) The establishment of the Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System insurance trust fund shall not diminish or expand the rights of any recipients, employees, or dependents to health benefits.

(8) The trust fund established under this section, at the direction of the board of trustees, shall consist of amounts, excluding those amounts that have been deposited to an account established pursuant to 26 U.S.C. sec. 401(h), that have been accumulated for the purpose of providing benefits as provided in KRS 161.675, including:

- (a) Contributions required under KRS 161.550;
- (b) Contributions required under KRS 161.675(4)(b); and
- (c) Interest income from the investments of the fund from contributions received by the fund and from income earned on those investments.

161.680. Mistake in payment — Correction of error — Collection of overpayments.

(1) If any change or error in a record results in any individual receiving from the retirement system more or less than the individual was entitled to receive, the board of trustees shall, when the error is discovered, correct the error, and as far as practicable adjust the payments so that the actuarial equivalent of the benefit to which the individual was entitled shall be paid.

(2) The Teachers' Retirement System shall take all practicable and cost-effective steps to collect overpayments from a member's or retiree's account. Methods of correction of overpayments from any member's or retiree's account shall include but are not limited to reclamation of the overpayment from the member's or retiree's account at the depository bank, the deduction of moneys from account refunds, deduction from the retirement allowance or joint and survivor annuity payable from the account, and deduction of moneys from the life insurance benefit. Collection of overpayments shall be initiated regardless of the designated beneficiary for any amounts payable from the account.

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

This section cannot be applied retroactively to correct an error in granting a full year's service credit for half-time teaching, as it was a teachers' retirement system policy during the period of time involved to give such credit and therefore there was no mistake. OAG 73-270.

A teacher who retires from his Kentucky teaching position without informing the teachers' retirement system of any teaching service he may have accumulated as a teacher outside the state and whose annuity is calculated on the basis of his service in Kentucky cannot under this section be credited with his out-of-state service more than two years after the effective date of his retirement since a change or error in a record is not involved. OAG 74-671.

Compiler's Notes.

This section (4506b-50) was repealed and reenacted by Acts 1990, ch. 476, Part V, § 540, effective July 13, 1990.

161.695. Use and acceptance of electronic signatures.

(1) Notwithstanding any provision of KRS 161.220 to 161.716 to the contrary, the Teachers' Retirement System may, when it deems appropriate, use and accept electronic signatures on any retirement system document, and for any reason that the retirement system would otherwise require a signature, if the electronic signatures are submitted using technology that the board of trustees of the retirement system deems sufficient to protect their integrity, security, and authenticity.

(2) If deemed appropriate for use and acceptance under this section, an electronic signature shall have the same force and effect as a handwritten signature.

(3) The board of trustees of the retirement system may promulgate an administrative regulation in accordance with KRS Chapter 13A to establish guidelines for the use and acceptance of electronic signatures.

History.

2021 ch. 192, § 1, effective June 29, 2021.

161.700. Funds exempt from taxation and process — Taxability after December 31, 1997 — Benefits not considered marital property — Qualified domestic relations order.

(1) Except as otherwise provided by this section and KRS 161.655(5), the right of a member to a retirement allowance and to the return of contributions, any benefit or right accrued or accruing to any person under KRS 161.220 to 161.716, and the money in the various funds established pursuant to KRS 161.220 to 161.716 are hereby exempt from any state or municipal tax, and shall not be subject to execution, garnishment, attachment, or other process, and shall not be assigned.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section, retirement benefits accrued or accruing to any person under this retirement system on or after January 1, 1998, shall be subject to the tax imposed by KRS 141.020, to the extent provided in KRS 141.010 and 141.0215.

(3) Retirement allowance, disability allowance, accumulated account balance, or any other benefit under the retirement system shall not be classified as marital property pursuant to KRS 403.190(1), except to the extent permitted under KRS 403.190(4). Retirement allowance, disability allowance, accumulated contributions, or any other benefit under the retirement system shall not be considered as an economic circumstance during the division of marital property in an action for dissolution of marriage pursuant to KRS 403.190(1)(d), except to the extent permitted under KRS 403.190(4).

(4) Qualified domestic relations orders issued by a court or administrative agency shall be honored by the retirement system if:

(a) The benefits payable pursuant to the order meet the requirements of a qualified domestic relations order as provided by 26 U.S.C. sec. 414(p). The retirement system shall follow applicable provisions of 26 U.S.C. sec. 414(p) in administering qualified domestic relations orders;

(b) The order meets the requirements established by the retirement system and by subsections (4) to (12) of this section. The board of trustees of the retirement system shall establish the requirements, procedures, and forms necessary for the administration of qualified domestic relations order by promulgation of administrative regulations in accordance with KRS Chapter 13A; and

(c) The order is on the form established by the retirement system pursuant to the retirement system's authority provided under paragraph (b) of this subsection.

(5) A qualified domestic relations order shall not:

(a) Require the retirement system to take any action not authorized under state or federal law;

(b) Require the retirement system to provide any benefit, allowance, or other payment not authorized under state or federal law;

(c) Grant or be construed to grant the alternate payee any separate right, title, or interest in or to any retirement benefit other than to receive payments from the participant's account in accordance with the administrative regulations promulgated by the system and as provided by subsections (4) to (12) of this section; or

(d) Grant any separate interest to any person other than the participant.

(6) Any qualified domestic relations order submitted to the retirement system shall specify the dollar amount or percentage amount of the participant's benefit to be paid to the alternate payee. In calculating the amount to be paid to the alternate payee, the court or administrative agency that is responsible for issuing the order shall follow the requirements set forth in the administrative regulations promulgated by the board of trustees. Notwithstanding any other statute to the contrary, the board shall not be required to honor a qualified domestic relations order that does not follow the requirements set forth in the administrative regulations promulgated by the board of trustees.

(7) If the qualified domestic relations order meets the requirements established by the system and by subsections (4) to (12) of this section, payments to the alternate payee shall be distributed under the following conditions:

(a) If the participant is retired and is receiving a monthly retirement allowance, the month following the date the retirement system receives a qualified domestic relations order that complies with the administrative regulations promulgated by the retirement system and subsections (4) to (12) of this section; or

(b) If the participant is not retired, the month of the participant's effective retirement date in which the first retirement allowance is payable to the participant or the month in which the participant receives a refund of his or her accumulated account balance as provided by KRS 161.470(6).

(8) An alternate payee's benefits and rights under a qualified domestic relations order shall terminate upon the earlier of:

(a) The death of the participant;

(b) The death of the alternate payee; or

(c) The termination of benefits to the participant under any provision of KRS 161.220 to 161.716.

(9) An alternate payee shall not receive a monthly payment under a qualified domestic relations order if the participant is not receiving a monthly retirement allowance.

(10) The cost of living adjustment provided to the participant pursuant to KRS 161.620 shall be divided between the participant and alternate payee in a qualified domestic relations order as follows:

(a) If the order specifies the alternate payee is to receive a percentage of the participant's benefit, then the cost of living adjustment shall be divided between the participant and the alternate payee based upon the percentage of the total benefit each is receiving upon the participant's retirement or upon the date the order is approved by the retirement system, whichever is later; or

(b) If the order specifies that the alternate payee is to receive a set dollar amount of the participant's benefit, then the order shall specify that:

1. The cost of living adjustment shall be divided between the participant and the alternate payee based upon the percentage of the total benefit each is receiving upon the participant's retirement or upon the date the order is approved by the retirement system, whichever is later; or

2. The alternate payee shall receive no cost of living adjustment.

If the order does not specify the division of the cost of living adjustment as required by this paragraph, then no cost of living adjustment shall be payable to the alternate payee. If no cost of living adjustment is provided to the alternate payee, then the participant shall receive the full cost of living adjustment he or she would have received if the order had not been applied to the participant's account.

(11) Except in cases involving child support payments, the retirement system may charge reasonable and necessary fees and expenses to the recipient and the alternate payee of a qualified domestic relations order for the administration of the qualified domestic relations order by retirement system. All fees and expenses shall be established by the administrative regulations promulgated by the board of trustees of the retirement system. The qualified domestic relations order shall specify whether the fees and expenses provided by this subsection shall be paid:

(a) Solely by the participant;

(b) Solely by the alternate payee; or

(c) Equally shared by the participant and alternate payee.

(12) The retirement system shall honor a qualified domestic relations order issued prior to July 15, 2010, for prospective benefit payments if the order or an amended version of the order meets the requirements established by this section and the administrative regulations promulgated by the retirement system. The order shall not apply to benefit payments issued by the retirement system prior to the date the order was approved by the retirement system.

Repealed and reenacted by 2021 ch. 157, § 39, effective January 1, 2022.

Legislative Research Commission Notes.

(12/13/2018). On December 13, 2018, the Kentucky Supreme Court ruled that the passage of 2018 SB 151 (2018 Ky. Acts ch. 107), did not comply with the three-readings rule of Kentucky Constitution Section 46 and that the legislation is, therefore, constitutionally invalid and declared void. That ruling applies to changes made to this statute in that Act.

161.705. Voluntary contributions by or for member. [Repealed.]

Compiler's Notes.

This section (Enact. Acts 1950, ch. 79, § 2; 1964, ch. 43, § 17; 1974, ch. 395, § 19, effective July 1, 1974; 1978, ch. 152, § 19, effective March 28, 1978; 1982, ch. 166, § 35, effective July 15, 1982; 1984, ch. 302, § 9, effective July 13, 1984 which was repealed and reenacted by Acts 1990, ch. 476, Pt. V, § 542, effective July 13, 1990) was repealed by Acts 1992, ch. 192, § 18, effective July 1, 1992.

161.710. Local system merged with state system.

(1) The local retirement systems merged with the state retirement system under the provisions of 1938 Ky. Acts (1st Ex. Sess.), ch. 1, sec. 49, shall be discontinued. The payment of all benefits to members on the retired roll at the time of discontinuance shall become the obligation of the school district in which the local system was operated prior to its discontinuance. The method of determining and paying refundable deposits due members of the local system shall be as provided in 1938 Ky. Acts (1st Ex. Sess.), ch. 1, sec. 49.

(2) Payments to annuitants in cities of the first class or in areas formerly constituting a city of the first class which have been consolidated with their county shall not exceed the amount being received by them at the time the local retirement system is discontinued. The sum that remains after the death of all annuitants shall be used by the local board of education for general school purposes.

(3) The local board of education shall continue to invest the funds transferred to it for the benefit of the existing annuitants as long as such annuitants live. Such investment shall be governed by 1934 Ky. Acts, ch. 65, Art. IX, except that the local board of education is substituted for the board of trustees of the local retirement system. The local board of education shall keep all funds transferred to it by the local retirement system and all income from the investment of such funds in a separate fund to be known as the annuity fund. The local board of education may pay from the fund any reasonable expenses necessary for the fund's administration and general management. The local board of education shall safeguard the fund by requiring such additional surety bond of the treasurer as it deems necessary, by providing for an annual audit by a reputable auditing firm, by spreading on the minutes of the board of education at least annually a report of investments, assets, and liabilities, and the names, addresses, and annuities of annuitants, and by making such an appropriation to the fund from local school revenues as will guarantee the full and complete discharge of all obligations to annuitants.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Analysis

1. Constitutionality.
2. Purpose.
3. Rights of Employees on Merger.
4. Payment from General Funds.

1. Constitutionality.

That portion of this section which authorized a special levy by the local board of education violated Ky. Const., § 51. Board of Education v. Louisville, 288 Ky. 656, 157 S.W.2d 337, 1941 Ky. LEXIS 198 (Ky. 1941).

Payment of teachers' retirement pensions does not violate Ky. Const., §§ 3, 179, 181 nor 181a (now 181). Board of Education v. Louisville, 288 Ky. 656, 157 S.W.2d 337, 1941 Ky. LEXIS 198 (Ky. 1941).

2. Purpose.

This section is intended to recognize rather than impair the right of retired teachers. Board of Education v. Louisville, 288 Ky. 656, 157 S.W.2d 337, 1941 Ky. LEXIS 198 (Ky. 1941).

3. Rights of Employees on Merger.

Retired teachers belonging to a local system who have made mandatory contributions have a vested contract right to payment which may not be revoked or impaired. Board of Education v. Louisville, 288 Ky. 656, 157 S.W.2d 337, 1941 Ky. LEXIS 198 (Ky. 1941).

Merger of Louisville system with state system caused cessation of conditions for which Louisville retirement trust fund was created, justifying precipitation of right of beneficiaries. Louisville v. Board of Education, 291 Ky. 7, 163 S.W.2d 23, 1942 Ky. LEXIS 170 (Ky. 1942).

Where law under which Louisville teachers' retirement system was established provided that teachers terminating their employment or dying before receiving any benefits should be entitled to the return of one-half of the contributions paid in by them, such teachers were entitled, upon the merging of the Louisville system with the state system, to an immediate return of one-half of their contributions, by virtue of the provisions of Acts 1938 (1st Ex. Sess.), ch. 1, § 49, without being required to wait until their employment was terminated. Louisville v. Board of Education, 291 Ky. 7, 163 S.W.2d 23, 1942 Ky. LEXIS 170 (Ky. 1942).

4. Payment from General Funds.

The intention of the legislature that local school districts shall continue liable for pensions due retired teachers under local retirement systems is so strong that, even though a special tax authorized for that purpose is unconstitutional, the districts must necessarily pay said obligations from general funds in order to effectuate said intention. Board of Education v. Louisville, 288 Ky. 656, 157 S.W.2d 337, 1941 Ky. LEXIS 198 (Ky. 1941).

Payments to retired teachers of pensions out of general school funds are for school purposes, and the legislature is authorized to so provide. Board of Education v. Louisville, 288 Ky. 656, 157 S.W.2d 337, 1941 Ky. LEXIS 198 (Ky. 1941).

161.712. Payments to teachers who worked prior to July 1, 1940. [Repealed.]

Compiler's Notes.

This section (Enact. Acts 1980, ch. 206, § 15, effective July 1, 1980, repealed and reenact. Acts 1990, ch. 476, Pt. V, § 544, effective July 13, 1990) was repealed by Acts 1996, ch. 359, § 20, effective July 1, 1996.

161.714. Inviolable contract.

It is hereby declared that in consideration of the contributions by members and in further consideration of benefits received by the state from the member's employment, KRS 161.220 to 161.710 shall constitute, except as provided in KRS 6.696, an inviolable contract of the Commonwealth, and the benefits provided herein, except as provided in KRS 6.696, shall not be subject to reduction or impairment by alteration, amendment, or repeal.

History.

Enact. Acts 1978, ch. 152, § 20, effective March 28, 1978; repealed and reenact., Acts 1990, ch. 476, Pt. V, § 545, effective July 13, 1990; 1992, ch. 192, § 17, effective July 1, 1992; 1993 (1st Ex. Sess.), ch. 4, § 82, effective September 16, 1993; 2018 ch. 107, § 80, effective July 14, 2018; 2021 ch. 157, § 40, effective January 1, 2022.

Legislative Research Commission Notes.

(12/13/2018). On December 13, 2018, the Kentucky Supreme Court ruled that the passage of 2018 SB 151 (2018 Ky. Acts ch. 107), did not comply with the three-readings rule of Kentucky Constitution Section 46 and that the legislation is, therefore, constitutionally invalid and declared void. That ruling applies to changes made to this statute in that Act.

Compiler's Notes.

This section (Enact. Acts 1978, ch. 152, § 20, effective March 28, 1978) was repealed and reenacted by Acts 1990, ch. 476, Part V, § 545, effective July 13, 1990.

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

Since the membership of the system is composed of all new teachers and all present teachers, the contract is not merely between the retired members of the system and the Commonwealth, but between the present teachers and all new teachers and the Commonwealth. OAG 81-416.

The General Assembly is prohibited by this section, Const., § 19 and U.S. Const., art. I, § 10, from enacting any law which would impair or reduce the expected retirement benefit of any present or new teacher, or those benefits received by retired members; however, any amendment which would not reduce or impair benefits is not prohibited and the retirement system statutes may also be amended to affect those individuals who will become members of the system at a future date. OAG 81-416.

161.715. Pensions for certain teachers not eligible for benefits under teachers' retirement system. [Repealed.]

Compiler's Notes.

This section (Enact. Acts 1962, ch. 140, §§ 1, 2) was repealed by Acts 1976, ch. 351, § 23.

161.716. Federal laws take precedence over Kentucky statutes pertaining to Teachers' Retirement System.

In the event that federal laws are in conflict with the Kentucky Revised Statutes pertaining to the Teachers' Retirement System, federal laws shall take precedence. When necessary to comply with federal laws, the board of trustees may defer or stop payments of allowances until the conflict is resolved. The board of trustees shall adopt such regulations as are necessary to remove any conflicts with federal laws and to protect the interests of the members, survivors of members and the system.

TEACHERS' TENURE

161.720. Definitions for teachers' tenure law.

(1) The term "teacher" for the purpose of KRS 161.730 to 161.810 shall mean any person for whom certification is required as a basis of employment in the public schools of the state, with the exception of the superintendent.

(2) The term "year" as applied to terms of service means actual service of not less than seven (7) school months within a school year; provided, however, that any board of education may grant a leave of absence for professional advancement or military leave for active duty service with full credit for service.

(3) The term "limited contract" shall mean a contract for the employment of a teacher for a term of one (1) year only or for that portion of the school year that remains at the time of employment.

(4) The term "continuing service contract" shall mean a contract for the employment of a teacher which shall remain in full force and effect until:

(a) The teacher resigns or retires;

(b) The contract is terminated or suspended as provided in KRS 161.790 and 161.800; or

(c) For contracts entered into on or after July 1, 2019, the teacher begins employment in a district-level administrative position in a county school district in a county with a consolidated local government adopted under KRS Chapter 67C. For purposes of this section and KRS 161.730 to 161.810, “district-level administrative position” means an administrative position in a local school district that has administrative-level duties and responsibilities that are not limited to one (1) school in the district.

(5) The term “continuing status” means employment of a teacher under a continuing contract.

(6) The term “standard” or “college” certificate for the purpose of KRS 161.730 to 161.810 shall mean any certificate issued upon the basis of graduation from a standard four (4) year college or completion of a local district alternative certification training program.

(7) The term “superintendent” for the purpose of KRS 161.765 shall mean the school officer appointed by a board of education under the authority of KRS 160.350 or any person authorized by law to perform the duties of that officer.

(8) The term “administrator” for the purpose of KRS 161.765 shall mean a certified employee, below the rank of superintendent, who devotes the majority of his or her employed time to service as a principal, assistant principal, supervisor, coordinator, director, assistant director, administrative assistant, finance officer, pupil personnel worker, guidance counselor, school psychologist, or school business administrator. The term “administrator” shall also include those assistant, associate, or deputy superintendents who do not fall within the definition of “superintendent” as set forth in subsection (7) of this section.

(9) The terms “demote” or “demotion” for the purpose of KRS 161.765 shall mean a reduction in rank from one (1) position on the school district salary schedule to a different position on that schedule for which a lower salary is paid. The terms shall not include lateral transfers to positions of similar rank and pay or minor alterations in pay increments required by the salary schedule.

History.

Enact. Acts 1942, ch. 113, § 1; 1944, ch. 98; 1964, ch. 41, § 1; 1974, ch. 356, § 1; 1988, ch. 50, § 1, effective July 15, 1988; 1990, ch. 518, § 8, effective July 13, 1990; 1990, ch. 476, § 80, effective July 13, 1990; 1992, ch. 85, § 1, effective July 14, 1992; 1998, ch. 176, § 1, effective July 15, 1998; 2004, ch. 161, § 2, effective July 13, 2004; 2019 ch. 65, § 3, effective June 27, 2019.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Analysis

1. Legislative Intent.
2. Nature of Tenure.
3. Continuing Service Contract.
4. Certificate.
5. Less Than Four Year Degree.
6. Enforcement.
7. Administrator.
8. Resignation.

9. Superintendent.
10. Transfer to Noncertified Position.
11. Demotion.
12. Notification Requirements.
13. Determining Type of Contract.
14. Limited Contract.

1. Legislative Intent.

The legislative intent of subsection (8) of this section was not to classify as an administrator one who, incidental to his primary duties which are not administrative in nature, occasionally evaluates or supervises other board employees. Bradshaw v. Board of Education, 607 S.W.2d 427, 1979 Ky. App. LEXIS 541 (Ky. Ct. App. 1979).

2. Nature of Tenure.

Teacher tenure is statutory and not contractual, and the Legislature may abridge or destroy it. Gullett v. Sparks, 444 S.W.2d 901, 1969 Ky. LEXIS 234 (Ky. 1969).

3. Continuing Service Contract.

Where continuing contract under teacher’s tenure law provided that services under the contract “are to be performed in such school or schools and/or in such position and at such place or places as may be designated by the superintendent of the district and approved by the board,” the board of education had the right to transfer the principal from one position to another and from one school to another on recommendation of the superintendent but his salary could not be reduced even though the contract stated it could be increased or decreased. Board of Education v. Hogge, 239 S.W.2d 459, 1951 Ky. LEXIS 885 (Ky. 1951).

Board of education could transfer teacher under continuing service contract but could not reduce his salary unless the contract had been modified by mutual consent in writing. Huff v. Harlan County Board of Education, 408 S.W.2d 457, 1966 Ky. LEXIS 111 (Ky. 1966).

Where teacher employed under continuing service contract as an elementary school principal, refused to accept transfer to position as principal of high school at same salary on ground he was not qualified and then was given position as teacher at reduced salary, he was entitled to judgment for difference between the old and new salaries. Huff v. Harlan County Board of Education, 408 S.W.2d 457, 1966 Ky. LEXIS 111 (Ky. 1966).

A continuing service contract is a legislatively granted status rather than a real contractual right, and the legislature having created the status could abolish it regardless of any papers that the parties executed. Gullett v. Sparks, 444 S.W.2d 901, 1969 Ky. LEXIS 234 (Ky. 1969).

The board of education improperly denied a continuing service contract to a teacher who taught continuously in the same district from 1958 through 1971 except for the 1966-67 school year, since under the provisions of KRS 161.740(1)(b) he was eligible for such a contract. Estill County Board of Education v. Rose, 518 S.W.2d 341, 1974 Ky. LEXIS 14 (Ky. 1974).

Under subsection (4), a continuing service contract ends by operation of law on a teacher’s 65th birthday so that the teacher reverts to a nontenure status and may be employed at the discretion of the board of education upon a limited contract for one year at a time. Belcher v. Gish, 555 S.W.2d 264, 1977 Ky. LEXIS 505 (Ky. 1977) (decided under prior law).

Tenured school teachers who were suspended because of decreased enrollment did not have a property right in continued employment and its benefits to entitle them to a pre-suspension hearing. Downs v. Henry County Bd. of Education, 769 S.W.2d 49, 1988 Ky. App. LEXIS 190 (Ky. Ct. App. 1988).

4. Certificate.

A certificate of professional standing may be abolished or limited by the legislature. Gullett v. Sparks, 444 S.W.2d 901, 1969 Ky. LEXIS 234 (Ky. 1969).

5. Less Than Four Year Degree.

The General Assembly has the power to provide that teachers with less qualification than a four-year degree shall receive only a minimum salary and the fact that the motive of such a provision might be to make teaching so economically unattractive as to discourage the less-qualified teachers from continuing in service does not make the provision unfair. Gullett v. Sparks, 444 S.W.2d 901, 1969 Ky. LEXIS 234 (Ky. 1969).

6. Enforcement.

The State Department of Education should use the means at its disposal to see that the provisions of the teachers' tenure law are observed. Marshall v. Conley, 258 S.W.2d 911, 1953 Ky. LEXIS 893 (Ky. 1953).

A teacher's salary is established and paid by public officials and, as such, injunctive relief in the form of mandamus is an appropriate means of enforcing rights to salary during a teacher's tenure in office. White v. Board of Education, 697 S.W.2d 161, 1985 Ky. App. LEXIS 631 (Ky. Ct. App. 1985).

7. Administrator.

An assistant principal with administrative tenure was an "administrator" within the meaning of subsection (8). Harlan County Board of Education v. Stagnolia, 555 S.W.2d 828, 1977 Ky. App. LEXIS 805 (Ky. Ct. App. 1977).

Where a high school classroom teacher also served as the head football coach at the school, the fact that during the time he was coach he had assistant coaches who were under his supervision was not enough to classify him as an administrator within subsection (8) of this section for the purpose of KRS 161.765 relating to the demotion of administrators, since his occasional supervision of other board employees was merely incidental to his primary duties which were not administrative in nature. Bradshaw v. Board of Education, 607 S.W.2d 427, 1979 Ky. App. LEXIS 541 (Ky. Ct. App. 1979).

An administrator is one who (1) holds a position categorized as an administrative position pursuant to subsection (8) of this section, or pursuant to approval by the State Board of Education of the position as a certified administrative position; and (2) is duly certified by the State Board of Education as an administrator. Petett v. Board of Education, 684 S.W.2d 7, 1984 Ky. App. LEXIS 529 (Ky. Ct. App. 1984).

The ordinary duties of a school principal differ greatly from those of a school teacher, as administrative personnel have either fiscal management duties and educational supervisory duties, or both, with responsibilities which are quite different from those of classroom teachers. The role of an administrator in carrying out policy and in formulating overall policy is also quite different from that of a teacher, and it is certainly not beyond reason that the legislature would deem it advisable not to give one whose supervisory and policy role is so different the same kind of job protection given to a classroom teacher. Hooks v. Smith, 781 S.W.2d 522, 1989 Ky. App. LEXIS 151 (Ky. Ct. App. 1989).

In suit by principal who was demoted to teacher, alleging that denial of his right to the pre-demotion hearing provided for administrators in KRS 161.765 deprived him of equal protection of the laws guaranteed by the Fourteenth Amendment of the U.S. Constitution and an exercise of arbitrary power prohibited by Ky. Const., § 2, since "administrators" as defined by subsection (8) of this section as it existed prior to its 1992 amendment did not include "principals" as "administrators", the court employing the "rational basis scrutiny" held that since there were several distinctions between "principals" and "administrators", there was a rational basis for the exclusion of "principals" from the definition of "administrators" and thus such exclusion did violate the Fourteenth Amendment of the U.S. Constitution or Ky. Const., § 2. 902 S.W.2d 842, 1995 Ky. App. LEXIS 77.

8. Resignation.

Where plaintiff, a teacher, had been employed in one school district for six (6) successive years, resigned, taught in another school system the following year, again resigned, took a year off and then taught for three (3) years in a third school district before being released, he was entitled to no hearing under KRS 161.790, since, although he had achieved tenure at his first position, when he resigned he lost his tenure by reason of subsection (4) of this section and subdivision (1)(c) of KRS 161.740 is inapplicable. Carpenter v. Board of Education, 582 S.W.2d 645, 1979 Ky. LEXIS 265 (Ky. 1979).

9. Superintendent.

A superintendent is not afforded the protection of KRS 161.765 which deals exclusively with the procedure for demotion of administrative personnel. Floyd v. Board of Education, 598 S.W.2d 460, 1979 Ky. App. LEXIS 528 (Ky. Ct. App. 1979).

The office of superintendent is outside the scope of the provisions of the Teacher Tenure Act. Floyd v. Board of Education, 598 S.W.2d 460, 1979 Ky. App. LEXIS 528 (Ky. Ct. App. 1979).

10. Transfer to Noncertified Position.

Where a high school principal was transferred, at the same pay level, to a newly created position, as the supervisor of transportation for the school system, the transfer from a certified to a noncertified position amounted to "termination" as a "teacher" under subsections (1) and (4) of this section; accordingly the principal was entitled to a hearing as required by KRS 161.790. Crawley v. Board of Education, 658 F.2d 450, 1981 U.S. App. LEXIS 18054 (6th Cir. Ky. 1981).

11. Demotion.

Where an educator is transferred to a position of less responsibility, and the transfer is not accompanied by an immediate major reduction in pay, but there is to be a reduction in a subsequent year, the transfer becomes a demotion when (and if) that reduction takes place. Accordingly, where principal was transferred to less responsible post but his salary remained the same, it could not be said that he had been demoted from one position on the salary schedule to a position for which a lower salary was paid. Stafford v. Board of Education, 642 S.W.2d 596, 1982 Ky. App. LEXIS 267 (Ky. Ct. App. 1982).

In the case of the demotion or reassignment of a probationary administrator, the provision in the definition of a school year covering seven months' service only has meaning when coupled with the words "within a school year." Thus an administrator must only serve seven months "within each school year" beginning July 1 and ending June 30 in order to have worked "three years" as an administrator. If such administrator has already worked seven months during his third school year or will have worked seven months before June 30 of his third year of administrative service, he must be notified of a demotion before May 15 of that year, under this section. Board of Educ. v. Paul, 846 S.W.2d 675, 1992 Ky. LEXIS 116 (Ky. 1992).

12. Notification Requirements.

A full-time teacher in 1986-87 who had her 1987-88 contract reduced to half time, but received no notification of the reduction in responsibilities, was deemed reemployed for the succeeding school year which constituted her fourth year and satisfied the service requirement under the tenure law. Board of Educ. v. Powell, 792 S.W.2d 376, 1990 Ky. App. LEXIS 81 (Ky. Ct. App. 1990).

13. Determining Type of Contract.

Where the school board minutes did not disclose whether teacher/plaintiff's contract was continuing or limited, resorting to other pertinent records was permissible. Board of Educ. v. Jones, 823 S.W.2d 457, 1992 Ky. LEXIS 6 (Ky. 1992).

Where dismissed bus driver's lack of legitimate expectation of continued employment within the Whitley County Schools was evidenced by both his contract of employment and by this section, he could not pursue a due process claim based upon the assertion of a property right. Creager v. Board of Educ., 914 F. Supp. 1457, 1996 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 6302 (E.D. Ky. 1996).

14. Limited Contract.

Where the employment contract signed by teacher was clearly designated a "Limited Contract of Employment" appearing in large block letters and in bold type, the document unequivocally designated the period of employment under the contract as one year and nowhere provided that her contract was one of a continuing nature or tenured status. Board of Educ. v. Jones, 823 S.W.2d 457, 1992 Ky. LEXIS 6 (Ky. 1992).

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

Teachers at the Kentucky School for the blind are protected by the tenure law. OAG 60-1043.

The tenure law only guarantees a teacher the right to continued employment within the school system of the contracting district and consequently a board of education may transfer a teacher from one position and/or school to another within the district. OAG 61-559.

Since under KRS 161.760(3) (now (4)), a teacher has no right to employment in a particular position or school within the school district, the refusal to assume a tendered position, pursuant to the provisions of subsection (4) of this section, works a forfeiture of the right of continued employment, and a teacher who rejected tendered employment at the beginning of the school year but assumed another position in the same school district one month after the opening of school, is not entitled to be paid for the first month of the school year. OAG 70-150.

A principal who has tenure in a school district who wishes to resign his supervisory position and retain tenure status by accepting a teaching position should request the school board for such a reassignment in order that his continuing service contract will remain in effect, but if the board denies the request for reassignment, he will have to continue to work at his principal's post to keep his continuing service contract in effect. OAG 72-214.

It is clear under subsections (1) and (4) of this section that resignation ends the continuing service contract provided for each teacher. OAG 72-214.

Under subsection (4) of this section, a teacher's right to tenure under a continuing service contract terminates on his sixty-fifth birthday and, if the employing board gives notice by May 15 that the teacher will not be employed after age 65, the teacher does not have either a continuing or a limited contract after age 65. OAG 73-232 (decided under prior law).

Under this section and KRS 161.740, a local board of education may not require a master's degree of a teacher in order to qualify for a continuing contract and, since teachers' tenure is regulated by statute, it may not be altered by any regulations of a local board of education. OAG 73-421.

It is within the legal discretion of the board of education to adopt a policy of compulsory retirement at age 65 or at any age between 65 and 70. OAG 73-456 (decided under prior law).

Teachers who were not granted professional leaves of absence and who obtained other employment forfeited their rights under the teachers' tenure law. OAG 74-311.

A person who has reached the age of 65 no longer has a continuing contract and therefore has no vested right to be employed or reemployed as a teacher. OAG 74-638 (decided under prior law).

Where the particular local board of education has adopted a policy of not employing any person 65 years of age or older, it may employ a person as director of pupil personnel under the implementation of state board of education regulation 40.220(2) rather than employ a fully certified and experienced person who is available in the county but who has attained the age of 65 years. OAG 74-638 (decided under prior law).

Upon reaching the age of 65 a school administrator no longer has a continuing service contract but may be employed on a limited contract from year to year until reaching the age of 70, the mandatory retirement age provided by KRS 161.600 (decided under prior law). OAG 75-2.

Although KRS 161.765 applies to guidance counsellors, where a counsellor is reassigned as a teacher at the same salary he is not entitled to a hearing under KRS 161.765 since he has not been demoted within the meaning of this section. OAG 75-368.

When a teacher transfers from the local board of education to the vocational school system, none of the teacher's accrued benefits are carried over to the new position. OAG 76-151.

Neither a teacher who has taught three hours per day for 185 school days nor a teacher who has taught full time for 94 school days may be considered to have a year of actual service for tenure purposes. OAG 76-278.

A teacher who was employed as a substitute teacher for at least 140 school days in the 1972-73 and 1973-74 school years and who was employed as a regular teacher during the 1974-75 and 1975-76 school years would have tenure in the school system if employed by the board of education for the academic year of 1976-77. OAG 76-282.

A teacher must be certified before commencing service which is to be credited toward the four years actual service in the same school district required for continuing service status. OAG 76-284.

Where a teacher taught regularly in the school system for four years and received a continuing education contract and then during the next three years taught but was required to take many days leave of absence due to illness, was on maternity leave and then resigned from her teaching position and such resignation was accepted and the following year she requested to be considered for a position and was reemployed, such teacher should be reemployed and given a limited contract for the school year; however, if such teacher is recommended to the board by the superintendent for a contract for the following school year that contract will be for a continuing service status. OAG 76-490.

The transfer from assistant principal to guidance counselor with an accompanying withdrawal of the pay increment provided for the position of assistant principal does not amount to a demotion. OAG 77-332.

It would appear that a demotion involves at least two positions and, accordingly, when a school board changes only contract characteristics, specifically duration of the contract, of a single administrative position, this action does not constitute a demotion for the purposes of KRS 161.765. OAG 78-148.

A superintendent is specifically excluded from the definition of the term "administrator" in subsection (8) of this section. OAG 79-111.

A teacher seeking benefits under KRS 161.661(1) while on leave of absence under KRS 161.770 has in effect terminated his or her tenure contract status and accompanying rights with the board of education when the teachers' retirement system approves that teacher's application for disability retirement, which means the teacher has "retired" for the purposes of KRS 161.720 to 161.810; and if the teacher, who has been granted leave of absence and accepted by the teachers' retirement system for disability retirement benefits, then becomes able to return to work, the board of education no longer has to afford to that teacher his or her former tenure rights. OAG 79-157.

There are no provisions in the tenure laws to preclude a teacher from being employed for additional years of employment past the age of 70 years on a limited year-to-year contract basis under this section. OAG 81-72.

A teacher must teach at least 140 six-hour days in a 185-day school term in order to be given credit for a year under the tenure law. OAG 82-614.

Where a teacher worked only one-half time in the school years 1976-77, 1977-78, 1978-79 and 1979-80 and did not in any school year teach at least 140 six-hour school days so as to be entitled to a year of credit towards tenure, the board of education had no legal right to award a continuing service contract to her after she had completed four years of part-time teaching and such contract was not binding and was void and could have no legal effect; in such instance, the board should issue a limited contract to such teacher after a majority vote on a motion before the board to do so and the minutes of the board should reference the previous minutes when the unlawful tenure contract had been approved. OAG 82-614.

A teacher on a limited teaching contract only has a statutorily protected expectation of employment for a one-year term. OAG 84-43.

The federal Age Discrimination in Employment Act, (ADEA) as amended effective January 1, 1987, preempts and makes invalid the upper age restrictions found in subsection (4) of this section; school boards may not have any employment practice affecting employees in the protected age range (which is age 40 and over) that is motivated by or the result of age, and tenured school employees in the protected age range may hold that tenure status or merit status until they resign, retire, or until their contracts are lawfully terminated or suspended. OAG 87-12 (withdrawing OAG 79-204; opinion prior to 1988 amendment.)

A teacher with tenure in one district must achieve tenure in the second district within the statutory time period. OAG 91-189.

Under subsection (2) of this section, the part-time service of a teacher for school years 1988-1990 does not qualify for consideration for eligibility for tenure. OAG 91-189.

161.721. Superintendent eligible for continuing contract status.

The superintendent shall be eligible for continuing contract status when he meets all requirements prescribed in KRS 161.720 to 161.810 for continuing contracts for teachers.

History.

Enact. Acts 1944, ch. 98; repealed and reenact. Acts 1990, ch. 476, Pt. V, § 615, effective July 13, 1990.

Compiler's Notes.

This section (Enact. Acts 1944, ch. 98) was repealed and reenacted by Acts 1990, ch. 476, Part V, § 615, effective July 13, 1990.

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

There is no conflict between this section and KRS 160.350 as, irrespective of when a superintendent becomes eligible for continuing contract status in the district, such status is not as to the position of superintendent of the school but just to employment in the school district. OAG 76-82; 76-99.

A local board of education may give a superintendent who is over 65 a contract for more than one year. OAG 79-213.

While a superintendent is eligible for tenure in a school system, a person holding the position of local school superintendent is not per se covered by the teacher tenure laws. OAG 79-213.

While a superintendent may acquire tenure in the same manner as for teachers, that does not make an appointment as a superintendent under KRS 160.350, which is under an entirely different contractual basis and which may be for one, two, three or four years, employment where "teacher tenure" may be transferred to the position pursuant to KRS 161.740; thus, where a teacher attains tenure in one school system and then accepts the position of superintendent of schools in another school district, the superintendent would be required to attain tenure in the new school system by following this section. OAG 80-147.

161.730. Limited or continuing contract with teachers required.

Each local district shall enter into written contracts, either limited or continuing, for the employment of all teachers.

History.

Analysis

1. Right to Continuing Contract.
2. Length of Contract.

1. Right to Continuing Contract.

A teacher, eligible for a continuing contract, after having taught two (2) years under a limited contract, acquires no absolute right to a continuing contract upon subsequent reemployment under a limited contract. Payne v. Bush, 249 S.W.2d 789, 1952 Ky. LEXIS 867 (Ky. 1952).

2. Length of Contract.

Where there was no formal contract of employment between assistant supervisor and the board as contemplated by this section, his reemployment could not be for less than two years as provided by KRS 161.750 and although the board had the unquestioned right to transfer him from position of assistant supervisor to teacher it had no authority to reduce his salary for the second year. Board of Education v. Moore, 264 S.W.2d 292, 1953 Ky. LEXIS 1250 (Ky. Ct. App. 1953) (Decision prior to 1964 amendment of KRS 161.750).

Where board reemployed principal year by year by accepting the recommendation of the superintendent and making a minute thereof despite the mandatory provision of KRS 161.750 that the reemployment may be for not less than two (2) years, his contract extended through two school years and his salary could not be reduced during the second year upon transfer to a position paying less compensation without charges being preferred against him under KRS 161.790. Board of Education v. Justice, 268 S.W.2d 648, 1954 Ky. LEXIS 921 (Ky. 1954) (Decision prior to 1964 amendment of KRS 161.750).

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

That a certain anticipated source or revenue fails to materialize cannot authorize a refusal by the local boards to honor the legal contractual obligations that exist with their teachers for at least a minimum school term. OAG 82-106.

Even though the contracts entered into between local boards and their teachers fail to reference the minimum 185 day school term, these contracts could not be construed to cover any period less than the 185 school days established by statute since all full-time teachers in the public common schools have, by operation of law, a contract that entitles them to be paid for 185 school days, four of which are to be utilized as in-service and professional development and planning activities; accordingly, the teachers employed by the local school boards for the 1981-82 school year had a vested right to employment and salary for at least 185 school days and the possible reduction in state funds for teachers' salaries for two mandated in-service days in no way could be used to divorce the local school districts from their preexisting obligation of contracts for a minimum school term of 185 days. OAG 82-106.

Appointment of school employees, KRS 160.380.

161.740. Eligibility for continuing service status — Limited status employee on approved military leave — Transfer of teachers — Reinstatement after service in Armed Forces — District-level administrative position in county with consolidated local government.

(1) Teachers eligible for continuing service status in any school district shall be those teachers who meet qualifications listed in this section:

(a) Hold a standard or college certificate as defined in KRS 161.720 or meet the certification standards for vocational education teachers established by the Education Professional Standards Board.

(b) When a currently employed teacher is reemployed by the superintendent after teaching four (4) consecutive years in the same district, or after teaching four (4) years which shall fall within a period not to exceed six (6) years in the same district, the year of present employment included, the superintendent shall issue a written continuing contract if the teacher assumes his or her duties, except as provided in subsection (4) of this section, and the superintendent shall notify the board of the action taken. A limited status employee on approved military leave shall be awarded service credit for each year of military service or each year of combined military and school service within a school year toward continuing contract status. If the leave time will qualify the teacher for continuing contract status, the local district may require the teacher to complete a one (1) year probationary period upon return. If required, the local district shall notify the teacher in writing within fourteen (14) days following receipt of the military leave request. Each day served in the General Assembly by a board of education employee during a regular or extraordinary session shall be included in the computation of a year as defined in KRS 161.720(2).

(c) When a teacher has attained continuing contract status in one (1) district and becomes employed in another district, the teacher shall retain that status, except as provided in subsection (4) of this section. However, a district may require a one (1) year probationary period of service in that district before granting that status. For purposes of this subsection, the continuing contract of a teacher shall not be terminated when the teacher leaves employment, all provisions of KRS 161.720 to 161.810 to the contrary notwithstanding, and the continuing service contract shall be transferred to the next school district, under conditions set forth in this section, for a period of up to seven (7) months from the time employment in the first school district has terminated. Nothing contained herein shall be construed to give a teacher a right to reemployment in the first school district during the seven (7) month period following termination.

(d) Service credit toward a continuing contract shall begin only when a teacher is properly certified as defined in KRS 161.720(6) or, in the case of a vocational education teacher, when the required certification standards established by the Education Professional Standards Board have been met.

(2) Vocational education teachers fulfilling the requirements in subsection (1) of this section as of July 15, 1982, shall be eligible for continuing service status.

(3) Whether employed under a limited contract or continuing service contract status, any teacher or superintendent who has been or may be hereafter inducted into the Armed Forces of this country, shall at the expiration of service be reemployed or reinstated in a comparable position as of the beginning of the next school year, provided application is made at least thirty

(30) days before the opening of school, unless physically or mentally incapacitated according to medical notations on official discharge papers. Vacancies created by military leaves shall be filled by teachers or superintendents employed by the board of education under a limited contract of one (1) year or less.

(4) Beginning July 1, 2019, a teacher employed in a district-level administrative position in a county school district in a county with a consolidated local government adopted under KRS Chapter 67C shall not be issued a written continuing contract. However, if a teacher had a written continuing contract prior to becoming employed in a district-level administrative position and transfers to another position in the district that is not a district-level administrative position, then the teacher shall revert to continuing service contract status. If the teacher becomes employed in another district, the teacher shall revert to continuing service contract status subject to the provisions of subsection (2)(c) of this section regarding probation and the time period for transferring a continuing service contract to another school district.

2. Contracts.

3. — Eligibility.

This section does not require teaching in the six (6) successive years immediately preceding the 1955-56 school year in its eligibility provisions. Cooksey v. Board of Education, 316 S.W.2d 70, 1957 Ky. LEXIS 3 (Ky. 1957).

It is sufficient under this section for a teacher to have taught any six (6) years, hold a certificate as defined in KRS 161.720 and be employed for the school year 1955-56. Cooksey v. Board of Education, 316 S.W.2d 70, 1957 Ky. LEXIS 3 (Ky. 1957).

Where teacher had taught three (3) consecutive years before signing a limited contract of two (2) years, she was entitled under the law to a continuing service contract at the end of the first year of the limited two-year contract. Moore v. Babb, 343 S.W.2d 373, 1960 Ky. LEXIS 105 (Ky. 1960).

In 1963, to be eligible for continuing service status, the four years of service required did not need to be accumulated after a certificate had been obtained but could include years of service acquired prior to the time of obtaining a certificate. Whitley County Board of Education v. Meadors, 444 S.W.2d 890, 1969 Ky. LEXIS 230 (Ky. 1969).

In 1971, a board of education improperly denied a continuing service contract to a teacher who had taught continuously in the same district from 1958 through 1971 except for the 1966-67 school year, since under the provisions of subsection (1)(b) of this section he was eligible for such a contract. Estill County Board of Education v. Rose, 518 S.W.2d 341, 1974 Ky. LEXIS 14 (Ky. 1974).

Where teacher was employed under limited contract for four (4) years and her name was on the superintendent's list of teachers eligible for continuing contracts but the school board voted not to hire her, in which action the superintendent acquiesced, such refusal to renew the contract was proper. Dorr v. Fitzer, 525 S.W.2d 462, 1975 Ky. LEXIS 104 (Ky. 1975).

This section is applicable only during the fourth year of employment and not after that year is completed and a subsequent year begun. Singleton v. Board of Education, 553 S.W.2d 848, 1977 Ky. App. LEXIS 751 (Ky. Ct. App. 1977).

Where a teacher has completed the four-year probationary period under a limited contract, thus attaining eligibility for a continuing contract, this section and not KRS 161.750 is the controlling statute regarding notice and the giving of reasons requirements. Singleton v. Board of Education, 553 S.W.2d 848, 1977 Ky. App. LEXIS 751 (Ky. Ct. App. 1977).

Where a teacher's contract for one school year called for his services as a half-day assistant principal, along with being the track coach and the assistant football coach, his contract as such required him to expend hours appreciably less than the regular school hours, and therefore, his contract for that year would not be credited toward a continuing service contract and would not be used in computing his tenure. Board of Education v. Rothfuss, 639 S.W.2d 545, 1982 Ky. LEXIS 297 (Ky. 1982).

4. —Continuing Contract.

The law will not step in and vitiate an agreement limited as to time, which the teacher consented to teach under, and automatically enlarge it into a contract of unrestricted duration. Payne v. Bush, 249 S.W.2d 789, 1952 Ky. LEXIS 867 (Ky. 1952).

Under this section tenure of teachers with seven (7) years of consecutive service extended beyond the time that the board of education had any authority to enter into limited contract, and when after such time had elapsed, new contracts were entered into, such new contracts could only have been continuing contracts. Taylor v. Hampton, 271 S.W.2d 887, 1954 Ky. LEXIS 1057 (Ky. 1954).

A contract of employment for a period of time other than a regular school year, except for excused absences, does not qualify the teacher toward continuing contract status. Board of Education v. Rothfuss, 639 S.W.2d 545, 1982 Ky. LEXIS 297 (Ky. 1982).

Tenured school teachers who were suspended because of decreased enrollment did not have a property right in continued employment and its benefits to entitle them to a pre-suspension hearing. Downs v. Henry County Bd. of Education, 769 S.W.2d 49, 1988 Ky. App. LEXIS 190 (Ky. Ct. App. 1988).

Although the teacher was employed for four consecutive years, the teacher was subsequently employed in a different capacity; therefore, because the teacher was not "currently employed," the teacher was not denied a continuing service contract pursuant to KRS 161.740(b)(1) when the offer of employment as a substitute teacher was extended. Jones v.

Bd. of Educ. of Laurel County, 295 S.W.3d 120, 2008 Ky. App. LEXIS 345 (Ky. Ct. App. 2008).

Circuit court's ruling that a continuing service contract was unenforceable was error as the analytical focus was on the portability of a teacher's tenure status from one school district to the next, which was measured by how long a tenured teacher went without working before employment in another district, not on how long the teacher worked in a particular school year. Smith v. Bennett, 644 S.W.3d 516, 2021 Ky. App. LEXIS 109 (Ky. Ct. App. 2021).

Circuit court had applied the wrong statute, Ky. Rev. Stat. Ann. § 161.720(2), where the Legislature had clearly intended that no statute other than Ky. Rev. Stat. Ann. § 161.740(1)(a) was to bear on the determination of a teacher's continuing service status. Smith v. Bennett, 644 S.W.3d 516, 2021 Ky. App. LEXIS 109 (Ky. Ct. App. 2021).

Under Ky. Rev. Stat. Ann. § 161.740(1)(a), the teacher was entitled to continuing contract status and enforcement of the continuing service contract as he had been continuously employed before the board hired him, and there was no evidence of unsatisfactory performance. Smith v. Bennett, 644 S.W.3d 516, 2021 Ky. App. LEXIS 109 (Ky. Ct. App. 2021).

5. — — Approval by Board.

The provision that "if the teacher is employed by the board" a continuing contract shall be issued, when construed in relation with KRS 160.380 which provides for recommended appointments of teachers, means that the board has an open choice whether or not to make the employment that will result in a continuation contract. Dorr v. Fitzer, 525 S.W.2d 462, 1975 Ky. LEXIS 104 (Ky. 1975).

School board was entitled to reject a recommendation for a continuing contract for a teacher without a finding of cause. Dorr v. Fitzer, 525 S.W.2d 462, 1975 Ky. LEXIS 104 (Ky. 1975).

6. — Determination of Type.

Where the school board minutes did not disclose whether teacher/plaintiff's contract was continuing or limited, resorting to other pertinent records was permissible. Board of Educ. v. Jones, 823 S.W.2d 457, 1992 Ky. LEXIS 6 (Ky. 1992).

7. — Nonrenewal.

Although teacher had not yet completed four years employment, she was entitled to notice and a statement of the reasons for the decision of the school board not to renew her contract. Sparks v. Board of Education, 549 S.W.2d 323, 1977 Ky. App. LEXIS 664 (Ky. Ct. App. 1977).

Teachers under limited contracts who completed four (4) years of teaching had neither a statutory nor an implied right under the Fourteenth Amendment to a statement of specific reasons for the failure of the board of education to extend a continuing contract. Singleton v. Board of Education, 553 S.W.2d 848, 1977 Ky. App. LEXIS 751 (Ky. Ct. App. 1977).

Where plaintiff, a teacher, was employed in one school district for six (6) successive years, resigned, taught in another school system the following year, again resigned, took a year off and then taught for three (3) years in a third school district before being released, he was entitled to no hearing under KRS 161.790, since, although he had achieved tenure at his first position, when he resigned he lost his tenure by reason of subsection (4) of KRS 161.720 and subdivision (1)(c) of this section is inapplicable. Carpenter v. Board of Education, 582 S.W.2d 645, 1979 Ky. LEXIS 265 (Ky. 1979).

8. Reduction of Responsibilities.

A full-time teacher in 1986-87 who had her 1987-88 contract reduced to half time, but received no notification of the reduction in responsibilities, was deemed reemployed for the succeeding school year which constituted her fourth year and satisfied the service requirement under the tenure law. Board of Educ. v. Powell, 792 S.W.2d 376, 1990 Ky. App. LEXIS 81 (Ky. Ct. App. 1990).

Where a teacher had a reduction of responsibilities without proper statutory notification for both the 1987-88 and 1988-89 school years, she was entitled to a full-time contract and full pay and benefits commensurate with her educational rank and teaching experience as determined by the school district's approved salary schedule for the school years in question. Omitted contributions to the Kentucky Teachers Retirement System for 1987-88 and 1988-89 should also have been paid by the board and teacher in their proper proportions as determined by statutory law. Board of Educ. v. Powell, 792 S.W.2d 376, 1990 Ky. App. LEXIS 81 (Ky. Ct. App. 1990).

9. Reemployment.

This section provides that upon the recommendation of the superintendent of schools a teacher eligible for continuing service status shall be reemployed but this does not mean that he must be employed to teach in the same school in which he taught the preceding year. Ritchie v. Dunn, 297 Ky. 410, 180 S.W.2d 284, 1944 Ky. LEXIS 738 (Ky. 1944).

Where the plaintiff was employed as a teacher in this Commonwealth when he was inducted into military service, he was entitled to service credit for his military service, even though he was not reemployed by the same school system. Watkins v. Oldham, 731 S.W.2d 829, 1987 Ky. App. LEXIS 503 (Ky. Ct. App. 1987).

10. Transfer of Accumulated Benefits.

The sick leave statute and the tenure statute, as embodied in KRS 161.155 and in this section respectively, are both designed to protect a teacher by allowing transfer from one school district to another without losing accumulated benefits. Young v. Board of Education, 661 S.W.2d 787, 1983 Ky. App. LEXIS 384 (Ky. Ct. App. 1983).

11. Waiver of Rights.

Though teacher who had not worked the requisite four (4) years to attain tenure had received a tenure contract by mistake, school board did not waive its right to insist upon the qualifications in this section. Dause v. Bates, 369 F. Supp. 139, 1973 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 13495 (W.D. Ky. 1973), rev'd, 502 F.2d 865, 1974 U.S. App. LEXIS 6898 (6th Cir. 1974) (on other grounds).

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

The board may, without cause, refuse to reemploy a teacher who has taught only two (2) years in the school district. OAG 61-567.

This section does not require that the procurement of the college or standard certificate precede the four-year period of teaching within the district, and if a teacher who has taught four (4) years in a school district and subsequently received his college certificate is recommended for reemployment, he is eligible for a continuing contract. OAG 61-567.

Under subsection (1)(b) of this section, a teacher who has four (4) years of service within the district and who satisfied the other requirements is eligible for continuing contract status, if he is recommended for reemployment, whether that service be consecutive or not. OAG 61-597.

A teacher who holds a life extended teaching certificate based on less than graduation from a standard four-year college and who also holds an AB degree but has no teaching certificate based on that degree, does not meet the eligibility requirements for a continuing service contract, and the erroneous issue of such contract by a board of education is void. OAG 67-24.

A teacher returning to employment with a board of education after being discharged from military service is entitled to those increments which normally would have accrued if employment with the board had not been interrupted by military service. OAG 70-709.

The principles applicable to reinstatement of veterans in employment by the central branch of state government are equally applicable to employment with a board of education. OAG 70-709.

Where a teacher left his teaching position to enter military service and remained in the service for 25 years, on his return to teaching he was not entitled to credit military service in determining his salary increments. OAG 71-416.

A teacher who has taught in the same district and is recommended by the superintendent to be reemployed is issued a written continuing contract and the application blank a school board requires to be filled out and submitted each year does not constitute a contract. OAG 72-349.

A teacher acquires tenure even while teaching out of his qualified field if he has been doing so upon a provisional certificate. OAG 72-637.

A teacher who has taught four (4) out of the last six (6) years, is reemployed for a fifth year and who has a standard certificate has acquired tenure. OAG 72-637.

A teacher who taught on a limited contract for four (4) years and was asked to resign after her fourth year with the understanding that she would be rehired and who was in fact rehired on her fifth limited contract would be eligible for tenure. OAG 72-664.

Subsection (2) (now (3)) of this section which contains the term "reemployed or reinstated in a comparable position" means that the employment after military service must be comparable to the prior employment only as to compensation and employee benefits but the employment assignment need not be the same or comparable to the employment assignment prior to military service and the reemployed teacher is entitled to be credited with the same seniority he would have gained upon proper performance of his employment if it had not been interrupted for military duty and to receive the same increments he would have received. OAG 73-266.

Subsection (2) (now (3)) of this section refers only to the armed forces of the United States, and has no reference to an elementary school principal being elected to the state legislature. OAG 73-322.

When a shortage of funds necessitates the reduction of teaching personnel, the only statutory preference granted is to teachers with a continuing contract, and the school board upon the recommendation of the superintendent may reemploy or not reemploy such teachers as have a limited contract provided those not to be reemployed are notified by May 15th. OAG 73-383.

Since teachers' tenure is regulated by statute it may not be altered by any regulation of a local board of education and under this section and KRS 161.720 a local board of education may not require a master's degree of a teacher in order to qualify for a continuing contract. OAG 73-421.

When a teacher taught for four consecutive years in a school district, took a leave of absence for three (3) years, returned from her leave and taught two (2) consecutive years in the same district, she has by law a continuing service contract and is legally entitled to be reemployed in the coming year regardless of the notice she has received unless her contract is terminated for cause or her contract is suspended. OAG 73-486; 73-702.

Where a teacher with two years' teaching experience in the county school system immediately prior to serving two (2) years in the armed forces from which he was recently discharged timely applied for reemployment in the school system, said teacher should be "reinstated or reemployed in a comparable position" in conformity with the interpretation of that phrase and it was improper to notify this veteran that he would not be reemployed as a teacher because of loss of units and funds in the school system. OAG 73-513.

A teacher who had been employed for five consecutive years in one school district prior to July 1973, resigned his position in August 1973, and returned to his teaching position in January 1974 would be eligible for a limited contract but if at the end of the 1973-74 school year was reemployed, would then be eligible for a continuing contract by operation of law since he would meet all of the criteria of subsection (1)(b) of this section. OAG 74-31.

When a teacher is relieved from military service and makes proper application to be reemployed, the school district is required to promptly reinstate the teacher with all the rights and benefits provided public employees by KRS 61.371-61.379 which supersedes KRS 161.740(2) (now (3)). OAG 74-258.

The board does not have the option to delay, for one year, awarding a teacher who has served on four limited contracts, a continuing contract. OAG 74-290.

A teacher who has tenure after the effective date of the 1974 amendment cannot be placed on probationary status in any school district in the state. OAG 74-370.

When a teacher who has a continuing contract in one district transfers to another school district in the state, the employing district may employ the teacher with the understanding he is to be on probation for one year, but the employing board should include such a provision in the teacher's contract and also record the condition in its official minutes. OAG 74-396, modifying OAG 74-370.

A teacher who had tenure but did not teach during the prior year because of dismissal or resignation can regain tenure in one year only by reemployment in the original district, and only then can the move be made to a new district without loss of the original tenure. OAG 74-421.

A school board cannot confer tenure upon a teacher as a teacher acquires tenure by operation of law when the conditions of this section are fulfilled. OAG 74-580.

Teachers who have not been on tenure in any system since the 1970-71 school year cannot be on tenure in the 1974-75 school year unless they have taught in the school district for four consecutive years or four out of the last six years and are now reemployed by the school district upon recommendation of the superintendent. OAG 74-580.

There is only one class of tenure and it includes school administrators who are required to have certification by the state department of education and are therefore included under the term "teachers" under KRS 161.720 for the purpose of a continuing service contract. OAG 75-2.

An individual, who has completed one year as an assistant principal and who for ten years just prior to said year was not employed in education and prior to the ten-year period, was a teacher on tenure, cannot be demoted without following the procedures of KRS 161.765 but under KRS 161.740 does not have tenure or a continuing contract and could be dismissed upon recommendation of the superintendent at the end of the school year without going through the procedures of KRS 161.790. OAG 75-413.

A teacher, after being employed for four (4) years as principal in a school which has now been closed and then being demoted to an elementary teacher, cannot be given a one-year contract for the coming year as this section provides that when a currently employed teacher is reemployed after teaching four consecutive years in the same district, he shall have a continuing contract. OAG 75-492.

Where a teacher was employed by a board of education for four consecutive years from the 1970-71 school year through the 1973-74 school year, and where the teacher was rehired by the school board for the 1975-76 school year following his employment as a teacher in Ohio during the 1974-75 school year, the teacher was only eligible for a limited contract by the 1975-76 academic year, but upon reemployment for 1976-77, the teacher was entitled to a continuing status contract. OAG 76-277.

Neither a teacher who has taught three (3) hours per day for 185 days nor a teacher who has taught full time for 94 school days may be considered to have a year of actual service for tenure purposes. OAG 76-278.

A teacher who was employed as a substitute teacher for at least 140 school days in the 1972-73 and 1973-74 school years and who was employed as a regular teacher during the 1974-75 and 1975-76 school years would have tenure in the school system if employed by the board of education for the academic year of 1976-77. OAG 76-282.

A board of education may not legally grant a continuing service contract to a teacher after only three (3) years of service in the district. OAG 76-282.

A teacher must be certified before commencing service which is to be credited toward the four (4) years actual service in the same school district required for continuing service status. OAG 76-284.

Years spent in military service are not to be considered toward the four-year requirement for tenure status. OAG 76-316.

Where a teacher taught regularly in the school system for four (4) years and received a continuing education contract and then during the next three (3) years taught but was required to take many days leave of absence due to illness, was on maternity leave and then resigned from her teaching position and such resignation was accepted and the following year she requested to be considered for a position and was reemployed, such teacher should be reemployed and given a limited contract for the school year; however, if such teacher is recommended to the board by the superintendent for a contract for the following school year that contract will be for a continuing service status. OAG 76-490.

In a renewal of a limited contract situation, the absence of a recommendation to the board not to renew must be considered as a positive recommendation for renewal of the contract and those teachers in that situation would have a teaching contract for the ensuing year. OAG 77-308.

When a currently employed teacher who is eligible for continuing contract status is recommended for reemployment by the superintendent and the board votes favorably on that recommendation, the teacher is rehired and is entitled to tenure in the school system. OAG 77-413.

Where a teacher, who had attained tenure with a common school system, left to teach for seven years at a state correctional facility, and then rejoined the common school system, he lost his tenure when he resigned the county teaching position to accept employment with the state and since he had not been employed by another public common school the provision of subsection (1)(c) of this section is inapplicable and thus he must satisfy the requirements for securing tenure. OAG 78-319.

The language of subsection (1)(c) of this section calls for continuity of teacher service from one school district to another, and any other construction would permit lapse of unlimited time between teaching service in one school district and another; if the lapse has been long enough, a one-year probationary period could be wholly insufficient to afford an opportunity for the second school district to evaluate the teacher's performance before a tenure contract would have to be considered. OAG 78-320.

Although the chairman and secretary of the board of education, and the teacher, each signed a continuing service contract, the action would be ultra vires and void where the teacher had three (3) years of experience teaching, and a limited contract must issue. OAG 78-831.

If a teacher moved from one school system where a tenure status contract was enjoyed in the 1973-1974 school year to another school system for the 1974-1975 school year, tenure status could have been given immediately or after a one-year probation but if the move had been made in the 1972-1973 school year, the school system would not have been at liberty to give a tenured contract two (2) years hence for 1974-1975 and a full four years' service would have been required before a teacher would have been eligible for a tenure contract. OAG 79-28.

Subsection (1)(c) of this section and KRS 161.155(3) are quite similar and should be construed consistently one with the other. OAG 79-148.

Where a school teacher has obtained tenure in a continuing service contract in one school district and becomes employed in another district, he can either be immediately granted a tenured contract without a probationary one-year period in the new district or can be placed on a one-year probation period, but the new superintendent and board cannot, under this section, wait two (2), three (3) or four (4) years before granting tenure in a continuing service contract. OAG 81-68.

A teacher must teach at least 140 six-hour days in a 185-day school term in order to be given credit for a year under the tenure law. OAG 82-614.

Where a teacher worked only one-half ($\frac{1}{2}$) time in the school years 1976-77, 1977-78, 1978-79 and 1979-80 and did not in any school year teach at least 140 six-hour school days so as to be entitled to a year of credit towards tenure, the board of education had no legal right to award a continuing service contract to her after she had completed four (4) years of part-time teaching and such contract was not binding and was void and could have no legal effect; in such instance, the board should issue a limited contract to such teacher after a majority vote on a motion before the board to do so and the minutes of the board should reference the previous minutes when the unlawful tenure contract had been approved. OAG 82-614.

Subdivision (1)(c) of this section, as amended in 1982, may be applied to any teacher who either had already resigned or who, since July 15, 1982, has resigned and seven months have not elapsed since the resignation; in either situation, at the time of the resignation, the teacher must have enjoyed continuing service contract status with the school district resigned from. OAG 82-619.

A teacher who had taught the prerequisite four years and had been reemployed by a board for the fifth year but who resigned before signing a continuing contract, and before performing any work at the beginning of the fifth year, acquired tenure and where such teacher had resigned after accepting employment with second school system, which system required teachers who had tenure in another district to serve a one-year probationary period before being placed on tenure or continuing contract status, the teacher was entitled to a continuing service contract and tenure upon being reemployed by the second school system after serving the one-year's probationary service. OAG 82-619.

When a teacher with tenure in one district resigns and becomes employed in a second district, if the second district requires a year of probation, the teacher must complete probation during the time period that the teacher retains status in the former district. OAG 91-189.

One time payments to teachers to induce retirement are constitutional under Ky. Const., § 3 as such payments are in consideration of public service. The key fact that makes these payments constitutional is the voluntary retirement of the teacher; such an act is a "present" service for which an emolument is paid, not a past service for which a gratuity is given. OAG 96-23.

161.750. Nonrenewal of limited contracts.

(1) Any teacher employed under a limited contract may be reemployed under the provisions of KRS 161.720 to 161.810 for the succeeding school year at the same salary, plus any increment or decrease as provided by the salary schedule, upon notification of the board by the superintendent of schools that the contract of the teacher is renewed.

(2) If the superintendent does not renew the contract he shall present written notice to the teacher that the contract will not be renewed no later than May 15 of the school year during which the contract is in effect. Upon receipt of a request by the teacher, the superintendent shall provide a written statement containing the specific, detailed, and complete statement of grounds upon which the nonrenewal of contract is based.

(3) The teacher shall be presumed to have accepted employment, unless he notifies the superintendent of schools in writing to the contrary on or before the fifteenth day of June, and a written contract for the succeeding year shall be executed accordingly.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Analysis

1. Constitutionality.
2. Construction.
3. Notice.
4. Reemployment.
5. Action Against Board.
6. Statement of Grounds.
7. Hearing.
8. Governmental Immunity.

1. Constitutionality.

Absent any showing of a compelling governmental interest, the alleged policy of a school board in showing preference for hiring natives of its county would have constituted an inherently suspect classification and, therefore, would have been unconstitutionally discriminatory and preferential in violation of Ky. Const., §§ 1, 2, and 3. Johnson v. Dixon, 501 S.W.2d 256, 1973 Ky. LEXIS 128 (Ky. 1973).

2. Construction.

In this section, "may" has reference to the discretion of the board in employing teachers under limited contracts within the minimum and maximum limits provided by the statute. Board of Education v. Moore, 264 S.W.2d 292, 1953 Ky. LEXIS 1250 (Ky. Ct. App. 1953) (decision prior to 1964 amendment).

If the school board had reemployed a nontenured teacher for an additional school year or if he had not received written notice prior to May 15 of the year for which he was employed, then he would have a contract valid for the succeeding school year as provided by this section and his salary could not have been reduced except pursuant to KRS 161.760. Bowlin v. Thomas, 548 S.W.2d 515, 1977 Ky. App. LEXIS 654 (Ky. Ct. App. 1977).

3. Notice.

Where board did not give teacher notice as required by this section of intention not to reemploy her a short delay in obtaining a renewal certificate from the state superintendent did not justify the board in denying her the right to teach and it was liable for her salary as teacher for the school term which she would have earned if she had taught. Ball v. Bunch, 324 S.W.2d 828, 1959 Ky. LEXIS 394 (Ky. 1959).

Registered letters sent on May 1, 1973, to inform three teachers that their continuing service contract would expire on July 1, 1973, and would not be renewed met the requirements of subsection (2). Belcher v. Gish, 555 S.W.2d 264, 1977 Ky. LEXIS 505 (Ky. 1977), (decision prior to 1976 amendment).

Although teacher had not yet completed four years employment, she was entitled to notice and a statement of the reasons for the decision of the school board not to renew her contract. Sparks v. Board of Education, 549 S.W.2d 323, 1977 Ky. App. LEXIS 664 (Ky. Ct. App. 1977).

Requirement of giving specific reasons upon request is not a condition of the validity of the school board's action in not renewing a contract. Sparks v. Board of Education, 549 S.W.2d 323, 1977 Ky. App. LEXIS 664 (Ky. Ct. App. 1977).

Where a teacher has completed the four-year probationary period under a limited contract, thus attaining eligibility for a continuing contract, KRS 161.740 and not this section is the controlling statute regarding notice and the giving of reasons requirements. Singleton v. Board of Education, 553 S.W.2d 848, 1977 Ky. App. LEXIS 751 (Ky. Ct. App. 1977).

The underlying intent of subsection (2) is to insure untenured teachers ample notice of not being reemployed so that they will have adequate time to obtain employment elsewhere for the coming school year, and that the teacher has a right to know why he is not being reemployed, so that the situation may be corrected if it is within the power of the teacher to do so. Gaines v. Board of Education, 554 S.W.2d 394, 1977 Ky. App. LEXIS 759 (Ky. Ct. App. 1977).

The giving of timely written notice by the local superintendent of schools to two (2) untenured teachers that their contracts would not be renewed was sufficient to terminate their employment without the approval of the board of education. Gaines v. Board of Education, 554 S.W.2d 394, 1977 Ky. App. LEXIS 759 (Ky. Ct. App. 1977).

A full-time teacher in 1986-87 who had her 1987-88 contract reduced to half time, but received no notification of the reduction in responsibilities, was deemed reemployed for the succeeding school year which constituted her fourth year and satisfied the service requirement under the tenure law. Board of Educ. v. Powell, 792 S.W.2d 376, 1990 Ky. App. LEXIS 81 (Ky. Ct. App. 1990).

Where a teacher had a reduction of responsibilities without proper statutory notification for both the 1987-88 and 1988-89 school years, she was entitled to a full-time contract and full pay and benefits commensurate with her educational rank and teaching experience as determined by the school district's approved salary schedule for the school years in question. Omitted contributions to the Kentucky Teachers Retirement System for 1987-88 and 1988-89 should also have been paid by the board and Powell in their proper proportions as determined by statutory law. Board of Educ. v. Powell, 792 S.W.2d 376, 1990 Ky. App. LEXIS 81 (Ky. Ct. App. 1990).

County's procedure of notifying all nontenured teachers that they will not be rehired, when in practice most are, is obviously an attempt to "circumvent" this section. Gibson v. Board of Educ., 805 S.W.2d 673, 1991 Ky. App. LEXIS 31 (Ky. Ct. App. 1991).

Had the board of education provided a written statement of the actual reasons for refusing to rehire a nontenured teacher, as contemplated by subsection (2) of this section, its duty to him would have been fulfilled by the mailing of same to the teacher's current address. Gibson v. Board of Educ., 805 S.W.2d 673, 1991 Ky. App. LEXIS 31 (Ky. Ct. App. 1991).

Subsection (2) of this section requires a statement, if requested, from the school board to the nontenured teacher giving the specific, detailed and complete reasons why the teacher is not being reemployed. Failure to provide the statement results in the nontenured teacher being reemployed automatically by operation of law in the school system. Thompson v. Board of Educ., 838 S.W.2d 390, 1992 Ky. LEXIS 130 (Ky. 1992).

4. Reemployment.

Board has no right to contract for reemployment for one year only after employee has had a year's service or after the termination of the first contract and such reemployment contracts will be held to be for successive two-year periods commencing from the expiration of the year's service or after termination of the first contract. Board of Education v. Justice, 268 S.W.2d 648, 1954 Ky. LEXIS 921 (Ky. 1954) (decision prior to 1964 amendment).

Where the defendant board of education entered into a "professional agreement" with the plaintiff education association outlining a five-step grievance procedure, this need not be utilized in a case where the board decides "not to reemploy" a teacher pursuant to subsection (2) of this section, since the board has an absolute right of dismissal which cannot be limited by contract. Board of Education v. Louisville Education Asso., 574 S.W.2d 310, 1977 Ky. App. LEXIS 931 (Ky. Ct. App. 1977).

In a civil rights suit brought under 42 USCS § 1983 and Kentucky law and asserting that a teacher was not rehired because of her union activities. Where the school superintendent admitted that he had made hiring decisions for district-wide positions the teacher was denied, and KRS 161.164 and 161.750 provided further support of the superintendent's role in the hiring process, the teacher established, for summary judgment purposes, the causation element of her First Amendment retaliation claim, and because it had long been clear that discharging a public employee for engaging in protected speech and association violated the First Amendment, the superintendent was not entitled to qualified immunity against liability for that claim. Smith v. Floyd County Bd. of Educ., 401 F. Supp. 2d 789, 2005 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 29220 (E.D. Ky. 2005).

5. Action Against Board.

Nontenured teacher who brought suit alleging that the school board wrongfully failed to renew his teaching contract was not required to go through the useless act of requesting the board to give him specific reasons for his not being reemployed when the board had already stated its reasons in a letter notifying him of the nonrenewal of his contract. Bowlin v. Thomas, 548 S.W.2d 515, 1977 Ky. App. LEXIS 654 (Ky. Ct. App. 1977).

In a civil rights suit brought under 42 USCS § 1983 and Kentucky law and asserting that a teacher was not rehired because of her union activities, where the teacher failed to establish that a school board participated in, or should have participated in, the challenged hiring decisions, and KRS 161.164 and 161.750 indicated that the school board played no role in such hiring decisions, the teacher failed to establish causation and the school board was entitled to summary judgment on the teacher's First Amendment retaliation claim. Smith v. Floyd County Bd. of Educ., 401 F. Supp. 2d 789, 2005 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 29220 (E.D. Ky. 2005).

6. Statement of Grounds.

Subsection (2) of this section requires a board of education to do more than merely recite its provision, it requires a board to provide substantive reasons for nonrenewal of a nontenured teacher's contract. Phillips v. Board of Education, 580 S.W.2d 730, 1979 Ky. App. LEXIS 401 (Ky. Ct. App. 1979).

7. Hearing.

A school board neither has to rehire a teacher on a limited contract nor provide him with a hearing if he is not rehired. Gibson v. Board of Educ., 805 S.W.2d 673, 1991 Ky. App. LEXIS 31 (Ky. Ct. App. 1991).

8. Governmental Immunity.

In a civil rights suit brought under 42 USCS § 1983 and Kentucky law, specifically §§ 1, 2 and 8 of the Kentucky Constitution and KRS 161.164 and 161.750(2), a teacher asserted that she was not rehired because of her union activities. Because hiring school district employees is an act essential to the function of the school district, Kentucky's governmental immunity protected the school district and the school superintendent, in his official capacity, from liability for the teacher's state-law claims. Smith v. Floyd County Bd. of Educ., 401 F. Supp. 2d 789, 2005 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 29220 (E.D. Ky. 2005).

In a civil rights suit brought under 42 USCS § 1983 and Kentucky law, specifically §§ 1, 2 and 8 of the Kentucky Constitution and KRS 161.164 and 161.750(2), a teacher asserted that she was not rehired because of her union activities. For claims against the school superintendent in his individual capacity for hiring decisions in which he actually participated and or in which his role was unclear, the superintendent was not entitled to summary judgment; it had long been established that discharging or failing to hire or retain an employee because she engaged in protected speech was wrongful, so the superintendent was not entitled to qualified immunity from liability for those claims. Smith v. Floyd County Bd. of Educ., 401 F. Supp. 2d 789, 2005 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 29220 (E.D. Ky. 2005).

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

Mailing notice on May 15 to a teacher on a limited contract that his contract would not be renewed for the following year would not be effective where the notice could not possibly be received by him until a day or two later. OAG 71-338.

When a continuing service contract terminates by operation of law at age 65 the status of the teacher then becomes the same as one who is employed under a limited contract, and unless notified before May 15 that he is not reemployed for the ensuing year the teacher has a limited contract for the next year. OAG 72-363.

If a school board has given a written limited contract to a teacher between the ages of 65 and 70, but chooses in a subsequent year not to renew said contract, a statement that the board has a policy against employing teachers who have reached the age of 65 years is a sufficient reason for not renewing the teacher's contract. OAG 73-231 (decided under prior law).

If a superintendent does not recommend a teacher for reemployment, that teacher's contract does not automatically end with the school year as board of education action is absolutely necessary in order to create a contract or to deny a renewal of a contract which will otherwise be renewed by operation of law. OAG 74-661.

A local board of education can direct the superintendent to make a recommendation relative to a teacher's contract since a recommendation is required by law and may be a part of appropriately adopted local board policies; the refusal by a superintendent to make a recommendation could be considered legal cause for the superintendent's removal. OAG 80-205.

Although a superintendent could refuse to make a recommendation to the board of education regarding the renewal or not of a teacher's contract, such refusal would be a neglect of a lawfully imposed duty. OAG 80-205.

If there is no recommendation by a superintendent and no action by the board of education, the teacher will be deemed reemployed since the board of education unequivocally cannot vote for nonrenewal of a teacher's contract absent a recommendation of the superintendent. OAG 80-205.

The effect of a tie vote by a board of education on the renewal of a teacher's contract is that the matter being voted upon has not been passed or approved. OAG 80-205.

Where a board of education member abstains from voting in a rehire or fire situation, the member's "pass" vote is to be counted as voting with the majority of those present and voting. OAG 80-205.

A teacher who had taught the prerequisite four years and had been reemployed by a board for the fifth year but who resigned before signing a continuing contract, and before performing any work at the beginning of the fifth year, acquired tenure and where such teacher had resigned after accepting employment with second school system, which system required teachers who had tenure in another district to serve a one-year probationary period before being placed on tenure or continuing contract status, was entitled to a continuing service contract and tenure upon being reemployed by the second school system after serving the one-year's probationary service. OAG 82-619.

161.760. Notice of salary to be paid to teacher — Increases — Reductions in responsibility.

(1) The superintendent of schools shall give notice not later than forty-five (45) days before the first student attendance day of the succeeding school year or June 15, whichever occurs earlier, to each teacher who holds a contract valid for the succeeding school year, stating the best estimate as to the salary to be paid the teacher during the year. The salary shall not be lower than the salary paid during the preceding school year, unless the reduction is a part of a uniform plan affecting all teachers in the entire district, or unless there is a reduction of responsibilities. Nothing herein shall prevent increases of salary after the superintendent's annual notice has been given. All teachers who refuse assignment shall notify the superintendent in writing not later than thirty (30) days before the first student attendance day of the school year.

(2) Transfer or change in appointment of teachers later than thirty (30) days before the first student attendance day of the school year shall be made only to fill vacancies created by illness, death, or resignations; to reduce or increase personnel because of a shift in school population; to make personnel adjustments after consolidation or merger; or to assign personnel according to their certification pursuant to KRS 161.010 to 161.120 provided, in the latter instance, that the teacher was appointed to a position outside his or her field of certification in the previous year.

(3) Reduction of responsibility for a teacher may be accompanied by a corresponding reduction in salary provided that written notification stating the specific reason for the reduction shall be furnished to the teacher not later than ninety (90) days before the first student attendance day of the school year or May 15, whichever occurs earlier.

(4) Employment of a teacher, under either a limited or a continuing contract, is employment in the school district only and not in a particular position or school.

13. — “Major” Reduction.
14. — Uniform Plan of Reduction.
15. Transfer.

1. Application.

This section applies to annual contract teachers and the notice required to alter their pay or reassign them; it does not apply to the demotion of tenured administrative personnel. Frisby v. Board of Education, 707 S.W.2d 359, 1986 Ky. App. LEXIS 1097 (Ky. Ct. App. 1986).

While this section is couched in terms only of “teachers” its provisions apply to school administrators as well, since, by definition, administrators are also teachers. Estreicher v. Board of Educ., 950 S.W.2d 839, 1997 Ky. LEXIS 88 (Ky. 1997).

2. Property Interest.

Employment of a teacher is employment in the school district only and not in a particular position or school; therefore, a teacher has no constitutionally protected property interest in his or her present position. Banks v. Burkich, 788 F.2d 1161, 1986 U.S. App. LEXIS 24368 (6th Cir. Ky. 1986).

3. Arbitrary Action.

It is clear from the language of this section that the prohibition against arbitrary action applies to all public bodies and all public officials, e.g., school boards and school superintendents, in their assertion or attempted exercise of political power. Board of Educ. v. Jayne, 812 S.W.2d 129, 1991 Ky. LEXIS 51 (Ky. 1991).

4. Particular Employees.

5. — Administrators With Longer Tenure.

Where subsection (1) of KRS 161.765, which applies to an administrator with less than three years of administrative service, provides that procedural safeguards of this section concerning notice and reassignment must be complied with, subsection (2) of KRS 161.765, which provides no such express requirement, must be read together with this section in order to furnish administrators of longer tenure with procedural safeguards in addition to those provided under this section. Miller v. Board of Educ., 610 S.W.2d 935, 1980 Ky. App. LEXIS 414 (Ky. Ct. App. 1980).

6. — Superintendent.

7. Demotion.

Where an assistant principal was simply transferred to a position of less responsibility, which would command substantially less pay, but the transfer was not accompanied by an immediate major reduction in pay (and thus was not a demotion as defined), it nevertheless became a demotion when the pay was reduced in a subsequent year. Cooper v. Board of Education, 587 S.W.2d 845, 1979 Ky. App. LEXIS 473 (Ky. Ct. App. 1979).

The Circuit Court did not err in requiring the county board of education to pay a school principal who had been demoted to classroom teacher the same salary in the succeeding year after the demotion as he was paid in his last year as principal, where the school board had not yet acted on the superintendent’s recommendation and reduced the principal’s salary by May 15 of his last year as principal. Daugherty v. Hunt, 694 S.W.2d 719, 1985 Ky. App. LEXIS 587 (Ky. Ct. App. 1985).

year covering seven months’ service only has meaning when coupled with the words “within a school year.” Thus an administrator must only serve seven months “within each school year” beginning July 1 and ending June 30 in order to have worked “three years” as an administrator. If such administrator has already worked seven months during his third school year or will have worked seven months before June 30 of his third year of administrative service, he must be notified of a demotion before May 15 of that year, under KRS 161.760. Board of Educ. v. Paul, 846 S.W.2d 675, 1992 Ky. LEXIS 116 (Ky. 1992).

The Kentucky Board of Education’s failure to take official, and presumably final, action in informing school personnel of demotion prior to May 15 as provided by subsection (3) of this section and thus invalidating the demotion had been changed by the enactment of KRS 160.390 which effectively superseded the May 15 requirement and under the plain language of this section and KRS 160.390 made the superintendent’s action of demotion effective upon mere written notice to the affected employee of the action. Estreicher v. Board of Educ., 950 S.W.2d 839, 1997 Ky. LEXIS 88 (Ky. 1997).

Since superintendent’s action in demoting school administrator was effective when administrator received notice of demotion from superintendent, while KRS 161.765 admittedly provides administrators with enhanced procedural protections, it does nothing to change the effective date of a demotion, and it is that effective date that controls for the purpose of the May 15 deadline set forth in this section and the fact that an administrator might contest the demotion, and thus the action might not become final for some time is of no consequence under KRS 160.390(2). Estreicher v. Board of Educ., 950 S.W.2d 839, 1997 Ky. LEXIS 88 (Ky. 1997).

Subsection (2) of this section does not require finality to effect a reduction in salary and by its very terms KRS 160.390(2) makes the superintendent’s personnel action effective upon receipt of the written notice by the affected employee; therefore, where administrator received notice of demotion on April 26 followed by a specific statement of reasons for the demotion on May 9, the requirements of subsection (3) of this section were met. Estreicher v. Board of Educ., 950 S.W.2d 839, 1997 Ky. LEXIS 88 (Ky. 1997).

8. — Grounds.

The grounds for a demotion of an administrator are left to the sound discretion of the superintendent and board of education so long as they do not act in an arbitrary or unreasonable manner. Board of Educ. v. Williams, 806 S.W.2d 649, 1991 Ky. App. LEXIS 10 (Ky. Ct. App. 1991).

9. Reduction of Responsibility.

Where a teacher had a reduction of responsibilities without proper statutory notification for both the 1987-88 and 1988-89 school years, she was entitled to a full-time contract and full pay and benefits commensurate with her educational rank and teaching experience as determined by the school district’s approved salary schedule for the school years in question. Omitted contributions to the Kentucky Teachers Retirement System for 1987-88 and 1988-89 should also have been paid by the board and Powell in their proper proportions as determined by statutory law. Board of Educ. v. Powell, 792 S.W.2d 376, 1990 Ky. App. LEXIS 81 (Ky. Ct. App. 1990).

10. — Notice.

Regarding notice of reduction of responsibility, actual notice is not sufficient to satisfy this section; written notification is required. Board of Educ. v. Williams, 806 S.W.2d 649, 1991 Ky. App. LEXIS 10 (Ky. Ct. App. 1991).

Where certified letter notifying teacher of his removal as vocational coordinator and of a corresponding reduction in salary was delivered to the post office on May 13 and a return receipt placed in teacher’s box on that date but teacher did not pick up the letter until May 17, written notification was furnished teacher prior to May 15 as required by this section and his own failure to collect and read his mail does not negate that fact. Board of Educ. v. Williams, 806 S.W.2d 649, 1991 Ky. App. LEXIS 10 (Ky. Ct. App. 1991).

11. — Reason.

Where letter informing teacher of removal as a coordinator and of a corresponding reduction in salary stated that the reason for such replacement was that the position would be incorporated into the central office staff but superintendent in his disposition, stated that the reason for transferring the duties was that he had had "numerous complaints among the vocational staff there" but declined to identify who had complained or what the complaints involved, the reason stated in the letter was not the reason underlying the action, and the notification did not satisfy subsection (3) of this section. Board of Educ. v. Williams, 806 S.W.2d 649, 1991 Ky. App. LEXIS 10 (Ky. Ct. App. 1991).

When this section requires reasons, it means true reasons. Charges against a teacher must be specific enough for him to prepare a defense. Board of Educ. v. Williams, 806 S.W.2d 649, 1991 Ky. App. LEXIS 10 (Ky. Ct. App. 1991).

12. Reduction of Salary.

County board of education could not predicate any right to reduce school principal's salary after August 1st upon the mere absence of a formal order reinstating his continuing contract suspended in March based on an order discontinuing school which order was rescinded in May and the board thereafter had a position in its school system for which he was qualified and to which the board assigned him in July. Board of Education v. Hogge, 239 S.W.2d 459, 1951 Ky. LEXIS 885 (Ky. 1951) (decision prior to 1964 amendment).

While a principal holding a continuing contract under teacher's tenure law could be transferred to a teaching position in another school his salary could not be reduced even though he was employed under a continuing contract stating his salary could be increased or decreased. Board of Education v. Hogge, 239 S.W.2d 459, 1951 Ky. LEXIS 885 (Ky. 1951) (decision prior to 1964 amendment).

A board of education does not have the right to reduce the salaries of its school principals without a reduction in the salaries of its other teaching personnel, since the reduction of salaries of all principals in the district did not constitute a uniform plan affecting the entire teaching staff. Greenup County Bd. of Education v. Harper, 256 S.W.2d 37, 1953 Ky. LEXIS 718 (Ky. 1953), but see Preuss v. Board of Education, 667 S.W.2d 391, 1984 Ky. App. LEXIS 448 (Ky. Ct. App. 1984).

This section says that if a teacher having continuing service status has been entrusted with a position of extra responsibility which carries extra compensation above the base salary, she shall be deemed to possess such experience, training and other qualifications as to command the higher pay, and is entitled to continue to receive the higher compensation by reason of such qualifications, without regard to whether she continues to be assigned extra duties. Board of Education v. Lawrence, 375 S.W.2d 830, 1963 Ky. LEXIS 193 (Ky. 1963).

Although he had refused a position as high school principal on the ground he was not qualified and later learned he was qualified, the board of education could transfer an employe whose continuing service contract did not specify the school or class of position from elementary principal of one school to high school teacher in another school but it could not reduce his salary where the reduction was not part of a uniform plan affecting the entire district unless the continuing service contract was modified by mutual consent in writing. Huff v. Harlan County Board of Education, 408 S.W.2d 457, 1966 Ky. LEXIS 111 (Ky. 1966).

A teacher was not estopped, by continuing to teach, from claiming his full former salary where his duties were reduced, but this section was not complied with as to salary reduction notification. Board of Education v. Stephens, 449 S.W.2d 421, 1970 Ky. LEXIS 467 (Ky. 1970).

The failure of the board of education to notify a teacher by May 15 foreclosed the board's right to reduce the teacher's salary for the ensuing school year, even though it had reduced his duties from those of a principal to a teacher. Board of Education v. Stephens, 449 S.W.2d 421, 1970 Ky. LEXIS 467 (Ky. 1970).

If the school board had reemployed a nontenured teacher for an additional school year or if he had not received written notice prior to May 15 of the year for which he was employed then he would have had a contract valid for the succeeding school year and his salary could not have been reduced except pursuant to the provisions of this section. Bowlin v. Thomas, 548 S.W.2d 515, 1977 Ky. App. LEXIS 654 (Ky. Ct. App. 1977).

Even though tenured teacher was aware of reduction in duties and salary for ensuing year by May 15 of preceding year, the board of education had no right to reduce his salary for the ensuing school year where it failed to give him timely notice in writing of the proposed reduction in salary. Settle v. Camic, 552 S.W.2d 693, 1977 Ky. App. LEXIS 736 (Ky. Ct. App. 1977).

Where a school board hired a math and science coordinator for 11 months, rather than nine and one-fourth (9¼) months at an increased salary, and therefore was aware of his position despite their claims that he was not officially hired in a capacity as a math and science coordinator, and where the board subsequently stripped him of his coordinating duties and reduced his salary without the recommendation of the superintendent, its action was arbitrary, capricious and void. Board of Education v. Garner, 556 S.W.2d 453, 1977 Ky. App. LEXIS 819 (Ky. Ct. App. 1977).

The notice required by this section to notify a teacher of the reason for reduction in his salary need not contain a specific reason for the reduction of that teacher's responsibility. Bradshaw v. Board of Education, 607 S.W.2d 427, 1979 Ky. App. LEXIS 541 (Ky. Ct. App. 1979).

Where a notice of proposed demotion was sent to a school principal three (3) days after the May 15 statutory deadline for notice of reduction in salary under this section, there was no valid notice of reduction in salary or reassignment since the notice was only superintendent's recommendation that she be demoted and the board of education had not yet acted on the superintendent's recommendation. Miller v. Board of Educ., 610 S.W.2d 935, 1980 Ky. App. LEXIS 414 (Ky. Ct. App. 1980).

A school board must affirmatively act on a superintendent's recommendation of a proposed demotion and notify the teacher involved of such action before May 15 in order for it to be effective; accordingly, where the superintendent's recommendation that the administrator be demoted from director of pupil personnel to a position as a classroom teacher was made in April, but the board of education failed to act on the recommendation until June, the notice requirements of subsection (2) (now (3)) of this section were not complied with and the board's action was void. Banks v. Board of Education, 648 S.W.2d 542, 1983 Ky. App. LEXIS 281 (Ky. Ct. App. 1983).

Although statutes do not require a school district to compensate its certified personnel for extra services, once extra compensation is paid, no reduction thereof may be made except in the two situations allowed by subsection (1) of this section. Preuss v. Board of Education, 667 S.W.2d 391, 1984 Ky. App. LEXIS 448 (Ky. Ct. App. 1984).

Where school system adopted new method of paying administrators which did not use the three components of base pay, extended pay and extra service pay, and principal's extra service pay was thereby reduced even though his total salary increased, principal, and others in same position, did incur a salary reduction under this section; since administrators' duties were not decreased and as they were not provided notice of the reduction in salary, the reductions were validly made only if the administrative salary schedule was a part of a uniform plan affecting the entire district. Preuss v. Board of Education, 667 S.W.2d 391, 1984 Ky. App. LEXIS 448 (Ky. Ct. App. 1984).

Where a reduction decreased a component of salary paid only to principals and not to teachers, i.e., the extra service component, it was necessary, in order to be uniform, only that all principals with the same education, experience and other classifying factors received the same pay throughout the entire system; where that was done the reduction in the salary component did not violate this section even though it applied only to administrators and not to teachers. Preuss v. Board of Education, 667 S.W.2d 391, 1984 Ky. App. LEXIS 448 (Ky. Ct. App. 1984).

13. — “Major” Reduction.

A 25 percent reduction in earnings as a result of transfer would be a major, as opposed to a minor, reduction in earnings. Cooper v. Board of Education, 587 S.W.2d 845, 1979 Ky. App. LEXIS 473 (Ky. Ct. App. 1979).

14. — Uniform Plan of Reduction.

The specific notice of the nature of that provided in subsection (3) of this section is not required as a condition precedent to implementation of a state-mandated plan encompassing all teachers simply because some teachers are affected more than others or perhaps some teachers are not affected at all. White v. Board of Education, 697 S.W.2d 161, 1985 Ky. App. LEXIS 631 (Ky. Ct. App. 1985).

“A uniform plan affecting all teachers in the entire district” does not mean that every teacher must suffer a like impact from a plan, or indeed any impact at all, rather, it means that a plan encompassing every teacher is valid notwithstanding that some teachers may be situated outside the scope of impact. White v. Board of Education, 697 S.W.2d 161, 1985 Ky. App. LEXIS 631 (Ky. Ct. App. 1985).

The clear wording of this section mandates that reductions in salary which are a part of “a uniform plan affecting all teachers in the entire district” may be had without the specific notice required in subsection (3) of this section; this latter section is designed to give notice only to those persons who have suffered a reduction in responsibility and corresponding reduction in salary outside of an overall plan affecting all teachers. White v. Board of Education, 697 S.W.2d 161, 1985 Ky. App. LEXIS 631 (Ky. Ct. App. 1985).

15. Transfer.

The provisions of this section prohibiting the transfer of a teacher after July 15, except for specific, statutory exceptions, are to be strictly construed; accordingly, where the superintendent, in early July, recommended the transfer of two teachers but the board failed to approve the transfer, consistently deadlocking on a 2-2 vote for several days beyond July 15, the board, in effect, failed to act on the recommendation and consequently, the circuit court’s finding that a de facto transfer had occurred was without authority and erroneous. Burkhart v. Board of Education, 649 S.W.2d 855, 1983 Ky. App. LEXIS 286 (Ky. Ct. App. 1983).

By the enactment of this statute the General Assembly of Kentucky clearly established that a teacher who has a contract to teach, has no absolute right to a particular teaching job in a particular school and the school boards have discretion to transfer teachers within their district. Board of Educ. v. Jayne, 812 S.W.2d 129, 1991 Ky. LEXIS 51 (Ky. 1991).

Two (2) teachers who were transferred to other schools after failing to improve their pass/failure rate, suffered no injury as they suffered no loss of pay, and no loss of fringe benefits, nor was there evidence indicating that the decision of the superintendent and the school board was based on racial discrimination, gender discrimination, religious discrimination, or political activity discrimination and therefore Ky. Const., § 2 was not invoked. Board of Educ. v. Jayne, 812 S.W.2d 129, 1991 Ky. LEXIS 51 (Ky. 1991).

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

There is no reduction in the salary of a coach who is transferred to a teaching position if the compensation paid for the extra duty of coaching is terminated when he stops performing coaching services. OAG 61-559.

This section and KRS 161.780 are not in conflict since this section concerns termination of employment only and KRS 161.780 concerns refusal of an assignment. OAG 64-576.

An individual who served as a principal of a high school during the 1970-71 school year, and was reduced to the position of a teacher in an elementary school for the school year of 1971-72, was entitled to the same salary he received as a high school principal, since he was not notified of the reduction until after May 15, 1971, as required by this section. OAG 72-72.

A principal may not be given less increase in his over-all salary than the basic salary increase passed by the legislature for all teachers when all other teachers have received the stipulated increase. OAG 72-390.

A school board may not reduce a principal’s extra pay for extra services without also making a reduction in the extra services accordingly. OAG 72-390.

If an elementary school principal was granted a leave of absence to serve in an elective office, he would not be entitled to his original position upon the termination of his leave of absence, but could be assigned by the board of education to any position. OAG 73-322.

No right upon the part of the teacher to have a hearing against the decision of the board in making the reassignment is implicit in this section and such decision can only be challenged upon the grounds that it is arbitrary. OAG 73-342.

When a school board decides to demote a principal or teacher it should give him notice prior to May 15th as provided by this section, together with a statement of the causes for demotion, and within a reasonable time it should notify him of a given date between May 15th and July 1st upon which he may have a hearing if he desires one. OAG 74-96, modifying OAG 73-342.

As the superintendent is the executive agent of the board of education and has the responsibility to carry out the lawful orders of the board, the order of the board eliminating the position of deputy superintendent for the year 1973-74 and to so notify the incumbent is a lawful order but the incumbent must be notified by May 15 that his salary for the next year will be reduced or he will be entitled to at least the same salary he received during the present year. OAG 73-378.

When a board of education officially decides to eliminate a position or not to fill a position for the coming year and to employ the person filling the eliminated position in a position of reduced responsibility and salary, it is necessary that the employee be notified that his position and salary will be reduced for the coming year before May 15 and the superintendent and the board will then have until July 1 to decide on the new position for said employee. OAG 73-378; OAG 76-360.

School board may withhold an increment from a teacher’s salary where teacher did not conform to board policy requiring normal progress toward an M.A. degree, subject to the provisions of former KRS 157.420. OAG 74-290.

When the superintendent has not recommended a reduction in duties and salary and when a proper notice has not been given stating the reasons therefor by May 15, the board of education may not on its own volition vote a reduction in salary. OAG 74-625.

There is no provision in this section which gives a teacher a right to a supervisory position because of his seniority, since the assignment of teachers and principals is entirely within the discretion of the school board. OAG 74-757.

Notice of the amount of a reduction in compensation due to the reduction or elimination of extra service must be given along with the notice of the reduction in extra service by May 15. OAG 75-339.

Serving as a coach or assistant coach of a school team is extra service as contemplated in this section. OAG 75-339.

A teacher who also is a coach may resign his coaching duties without resigning as a teacher and upon such resignation may be assigned to teach in another school in the district. OAG 75-397.

Not permitting a husband and wife to teach in the same building is a legitimate exercise of the power of the school board. OAG 75-532.

Although an outgoing superintendent of a county school system had the responsibility for making the recommendations for contracts for the limited contract personnel for the next school term by May 15, the new superintendent could determine position assignments of the certified personnel in the school system up to July 15. OAG 76-290.

A teacher who was hired to teach and placed in a reading position by the board does not have a claim to that position and her rights would not be violated if the principal and the superintendent later feeling it would be in the best interest of the school transferred the teacher to a fifth grade class in the same school, for a teacher, whether under limited or continuing contract, is employed in the school district only and not in a particular position or school and a teacher may be reassigned by the school board, upon recommendation by the superintendent, up to July 15 and after this date reassignment of certified personnel may be made only under the limited circumstances provided for in subsection (1) (now (2)) of this section. OAG 76-436.

Where because of budgetary considerations a county board of education must reduce the number of administrative personnel through the elimination of administrative positions, those individuals who have not completed three years of administrative service in the school system must first be recommended for demotion. OAG 77-282.

If by May 15 a county board of education has not notified a certified employee who has held the position of athletic director that he will no longer be assigned that position and the reasons therefor and that there will be a reduction in pay, the board would be foreclosed from reducing that employee's salary for the upcoming school year. OAG 77-573.

The dates specified in subsection (1) of this section are actual and no changes in the salary schedule may be made for the following school year thereafter, unless a deficit would otherwise result. OAG 78-641.

While a clear obligation rests with the local school superintendent to professionally advise and to prepare salary schedules, the local board is in a position of adopting as is or modifying the tendered salary schedule as it, in exercising its discretion consistent with state laws and budgetary constraints, deems necessary. OAG 78-641.

If employment of a teacher is going to be linked to a particular position or responsibility, such as coaching, the superintendent should recommend accordingly; and by like token the board of education is not at liberty to, in essence, vote upon only part of the recommendation. OAG 80-205.

For individuals who have failed to hold administrative positions in a school district for at least three years, the school district is not required to implement the due process procedures including a hearing outlined in KRS 161.765, but must only follow this section. OAG 82-135.

Seniority is not required by statute to come into play in deciding which administrative employees to transfer as a result of reductions; however, school districts may adopt a procedure of considering seniority as a factor in a reduction of administrators situation. OAG 82-135.

Since the Court of Appeals has concluded that an administrator protected by KRS 161.765 should also have the benefit of the procedural safeguards of subsection (2) (now subsection (3)) of this section, if a school district, with the recommendation of the local superintendent, intends to demote an administrator with three or more years administrative service, the written notice of demotion and the opportunity for a due process hearing under KRS 161.765 must be completed before May 15. OAG 82-135.

Teachers and administrators, even those with more than three years of administrative service who are protected under KRS 161.765, do not have a statutorily protected right to a particular teaching or administrative position. OAG 82-135.

Where a local board of education has been paying a supplement to a teacher or a specific group of teachers for a period of several years, and then decides to reduce the supplement by a small amount over a period of years, with the intent to eliminating it, the board is not required to show that reduction when providing its July 1st best estimate of salaries or salaries to be paid to the teacher or group of teachers. OAG 85-87.

A superintendent may change assignments of personnel prior to July 16 without creating "vacancies" as defined by KRS 160.380(1)(b) (now (1)(c)), but after July 15, when positions are occupied by personnel as assigned by the superintendent, and when certified position openings occur due to resignation, dismissal, transfer, death, nonrenewal of contract, or creation of new positions, those openings constitute "vacancies" under KRS 160.380(1)(b) (now (1)(c)). OAG 91-149.

Employment of teachers is deemed to be employment in the district, not in a particular position or school, consequently, assignments of position and school, under certain conditions, do not constitute transfers when those assignments are different from previous assignments of position and school. OAG 91-149.

While the superintendent is responsible for personnel actions including, among other things, hiring and assignments, to the extent that the local board is responsible for control and management of school funds, the board may determine the amount of extended employment and compensation for personnel employed beyond the 185 day period; any reduction in salary to a teacher (which includes most administrators for purposes of the teachers tenure law), must be accompanied by appropriate notice. OAG 92-29.

161.765. Procedures for demotion of administrative personnel — Appeal.

(1) A superintendent may demote an administrator by complying with the requirements of KRS 161.760 when the administrator:

(a) Has not completed three (3) years of administrative service, not including leave granted under KRS 161.770; or

(b) Is in a district-level administrative position in a county school district in a county with a consolidated local government adopted under KRS Chapter 67C.

(2) Except for an administrator described in subsection (1)(b) of this section, an administrator who has completed three (3) years of administrative service, not including leave granted under KRS 161.770, cannot be demoted unless the following procedures have been complied with:

(a) The superintendent shall give written notice of the demotion to the board of education and to the administrator. If the administrator wishes to contest the demotion, he or she shall, within ten (10) days of receipt of the notice, file a written statement of his or her intent to contest with the superintendent. If the administrator does not make timely filing of his or her statement of intent to contest, the action shall be final.

(b) Upon receipt of the notice of intent to contest the demotion, a written statement of grounds for demotion, signed by the superintendent, shall be served on the administrator. The statement shall contain:

1. A specific and complete statement of grounds upon which the proposed demotion is based, including, where appropriate, dates, times, names, places, and circumstances;

2. The date, time, and place for a hearing, the date to be not less than twenty (20) nor more than thirty (30) days from the date of service of the statement of grounds for demotion upon the administrator.

(c) Upon receipt of the statement of grounds for demotion the administrator shall, within ten (10) days, file a written answer. Failure to file such answer, within the stated period, will relieve the board of any further obligation to hold a hearing and the action shall be final. The board shall issue subpoenas as are requested.

(d) The hearing on the demotion shall be public or private, at the discretion of the administrator and shall be limited to the matters set forth in the written statement of grounds for demotion. The board shall provide to the administrator a verbatim transcript of the hearing. The board of education shall hear the case, with the board chairman presiding. The board, upon hearing the evidence and argument presented, shall retire to private chambers to arrive at a decision. Counsel or representatives for either party in the hearing shall not be consulted by the board unless the corresponding counsel or representatives for the other party are present and unless a verbatim transcript of such consultation is made for the record.

(e) Within five (5) days from the close of the hearing, the board of education shall advise the parties of its decision and shall take official action in the case.

(f) Appeal from final board action may be taken in the same manner and under the same provisions as an appeal from tribunal action under KRS 161.790.

1. Application.

The language of this section would seem to indicate that it was intended to apply to disciplinary actions against tenured school administrators for it refers to giving complete and specific grounds upon which the proposed demotion is based including dates, names, places and circumstances; provides for a hearing of the grounds which may be in private at the request of the administrator; and provides that the board, upon hearing the evidence and argument of counsel, shall decide the issue. Cooper v. Board of Education, 587 S.W.2d 845, 1979 Ky. App. LEXIS 473 (Ky. Ct. App. 1979).

The Kentucky Board of Education's failure to take official, and presumably final, action in informing school personnel of demotion prior to May 15 as provided by KRS 161.760(3) and thus invalidating the demotion had been changed by the enactment of KRS 160.390 which effectively superseded the May 15 requirement and under the plain language of KRS 161.760 and 160.390 made the superintendent's action of demotion effective upon mere written notice to the affected employee of the action. Estreicher v. Board of Educ., 950 S.W.2d 839, 1997 Ky. LEXIS 88 (Ky. 1997).

Since superintendent's action in demoting school administrator was effective when administrator received notice of demotion from superintendent, while this section admittedly provides administrators with enhanced procedural protections, it does nothing to change the effective date of a demotion, and it is that effective date that controls for the purpose of the May 15 deadline set forth in KRS 161.760 and the fact that an administrator might contest the demotion, and thus the action might not become final for some time is of no consequence under KRS 160.390(2). Estreicher v. Board of Educ., 950 S.W.2d 839, 1997 Ky. LEXIS 88 (Ky. 1997).

Language is plain: once an administrator completes three years of administrative service, not including any leaves of absence, he or she is entitled to the statute's procedural safeguards; the statute does not require that the administrative service occur in the same school district. Hardin v. Jefferson Cty. Bd. of Educ., 558 S.W.3d 1, 2018 Ky. App. LEXIS 217 (Ky. Ct. App. 2018).

Phrase "three years of administrative service, not including leave granted under Ky. Rev. Stat. Ann. § 161.770" in Ky. Rev. Stat. Ann. § 161.765 plainly means exactly what it appears to mean: the three-year prerequisite period of § 161.765 does not include any time an administrator spends on leave pursuant to Ky. Rev. Stat. Ann. § 161.770. Hardin v. Jefferson Cty. Bd. of Educ., 558 S.W.3d 1, 2018 Ky. App. LEXIS 217 (Ky. Ct. App. 2018).

2. Administrators.

3. — Generally.

An administrator is one who (1) holds a position categorized as an administrative position pursuant to KRS 161.720(8), or pursuant to approval by the State Board of Education of the position as a certified administrative position; and (2) is duly certified by the State Board of Education as an administrator. Petett v. Board of Education, 684 S.W.2d 7, 1984 Ky. App. LEXIS 529 (Ky. Ct. App. 1984).

This section requires that an administrative position itself be certificated and that the employee also be specifically certified for the position, before the due process provisions of this section are triggered; thus, where the employee held an administrative position, but he was not certified as such by the State Board of Education, he was therefore not technically qualified for such position, so that his transfer from the position of health coordinator to teacher was made according to law, and his due process rights were not offended. Petett v. Board of Education, 684 S.W.2d 7, 1984 Ky. App. LEXIS 529 (Ky. Ct. App. 1984).

The ordinary duties of a school principal differ greatly from those of a school teacher, as administrative personnel have either fiscal management duties and educational supervisory duties, or both, with responsibilities which are quite different from those of classroom teachers. The role of an administrator in carrying out policy and in formulating overall policy is also quite different from that of a teacher, and it is certainly not beyond reason that the legislature would deem it advisable not to give one whose supervisory and policy role is so different the same kind of job protection given to a classroom teacher. Hooks v. Smith, 781 S.W.2d 522, 1989 Ky. App. LEXIS 151 (Ky. Ct. App. 1989).

4. — Longer Tenure.

Where subsection (1) of this section, which applies to an administrator with less than three years of administrative service, provides that procedural safeguards of KRS 161.760 concerning notice and reassignment must be complied with, subsection (2) of this section, which provides no such express requirement, must be read together with KRS 161.760 in order to furnish administrators of longer tenure with procedural safeguards in addition to those provided under KRS 161.760. Miller v. Board of Educ., 610 S.W.2d 935, 1980 Ky. App. LEXIS 414 (Ky. Ct. App. 1980).

5. — Probationary.

In the case of the demotion or reassignment of a probationary administrator, the provision in the definition of a school year covering seven months' service only has meaning when coupled with the words "within a school year." Thus an administrator must only serve seven months "within each school year" beginning July 1 and ending June 30 in order to have worked "three years" as an administrator. If such administrator has already worked seven months during his third school year or will have worked seven months before June 30 of his third year of administrative service, he must be notified of a demotion before May 15 of that year, under KRS 161.760. Board of Educ. v. Paul, 846 S.W.2d 675, 1992 Ky. LEXIS 116 (Ky. 1992).

3. — Generally.

Administrator had completed five years of administrator service prior to the decision to demote him: three years in one county and two years in another; he was entitled to the procedural safeguards before being demoted, the school system failed to afford him those protections, and the circuit court erred in finding that the administrator failed to state a claim. Hardin v. Jefferson Cty. Bd. of Educ., 558 S.W.3d 1, 2018 Ky. App. LEXIS 217 (Ky. Ct. App. 2018).

6. Superintendent.

A superintendent is not afforded the protection of this section which deals exclusively with the procedure for demotion of administrative personnel. Floyd v. Board of Education, 598 S.W.2d 460, 1979 Ky. App. LEXIS 528 (Ky. Ct. App. 1979).

7. Continuing Service Contract.

Unlike a teacher, a school administrator, even one who has completed three (3) years administrative service, is not ever granted a continuing service contract as an administrator. Hooks v. Smith, 781 S.W.2d 522, 1989 Ky. App. LEXIS 151 (Ky. Ct. App. 1989).

8. Statement of Grounds for Demotion.

Where notice to school counselors only stated that demotion was based upon required reduction of expenditures and did not say why expenditures were required to be reduced, why the reduction should be applied to the counselors as opposed to reducing some other expenditure, why a particular counselor was selected as opposed to another counselor or other administrator of equal pay and rank, where the specific budget adjustment was made nor when a budget would be adopted for that year or if one had been adopted, such notice was inadequate. Hartman v. Board of Education, 562 S.W.2d 674, 1978 Ky. App. LEXIS 477 (Ky. Ct. App. 1978).

Where statement of grounds for school principal's demotion gave specific occasions with dates in some instances and in others, where dates were not given, the nature of the allegations were such that citing specific dates or occasions would not seem necessary to permit principal to formulate a defense, the statement sufficiently complies with the specificity and completeness of subsection (2)(b) of this section. Miller v. Board of Educ., 610 S.W.2d 935, 1980 Ky. App. LEXIS 414 (Ky. Ct. App. 1980).

Since this section does not set forth the grounds necessary to demote a school administrator who has completed three (3) years of administrative service nor even state a specific requirement of "cause" for demotion, the grounds are left to the sound discretion of the local superintendent and board of education, subject to the limitation that the grounds not be arbitrary or unreasonable or otherwise violative of a right protected by the state or federal Constitution. Miller v. Board of Educ., 610 S.W.2d 935, 1980 Ky. App. LEXIS 414 (Ky. Ct. App. 1980).

Where superintendent's letter to administrator, while arguably containing only general statements of charges against administrator alluded to past correspondence between the two that set forth in some detail the source of the superintendent's dissatisfaction with administrator's performance, administrator was sufficiently informed of the specific reasons for his demotion and corresponding reduction in salary. Estreicher v. Board of Educ., 950 S.W.2d 839, 1997 Ky. LEXIS 88 (Ky. 1997).

Subsection (2)(b)(1) of this section protects administrators from demotions based on vague, unsubstantiated or generalized allegations of misconduct. The provision exists to allow administrators to know the specific nature of the charges against them, in order to evaluate the accusation intelligently and prepare for a hearing on the matter. Estreicher v. Board of Educ., 950 S.W.2d 839, 1997 Ky. LEXIS 88 (Ky. 1997).

Although superintendent failed to set out a date, time and place for the hearing on the demotion of the administrator in letter sent to administrator informing him of the reasons for his demotion, where administrator requested and received a twenty-five (25) day continuance, the failure to comply with the technical requirements of subsection (2)(b)(2) of this section in no way compromised his defense, and no prejudice resulted. Estreicher v. Board of Educ., 950 S.W.2d 839, 1997 Ky. LEXIS 88 (Ky. 1997).

9. Untimely Notification of Demotion.

A school board must affirmatively act on a superintendent's recommendation of a proposed demotion and notify the teacher involved of such action before May 15 in order for it to be effective; accordingly, where the superintendent's recommendation that the administrator be demoted from director of pupil personnel to a position as a classroom teacher was made in April, but the board of education failed to act on the recommendation until June, the notice requirements of subsection (2) (now (3)) of KRS 161.760 were not complied with and the board's action was void. Banks v. Board of Education, 648 S.W.2d 542, 1983 Ky. App. LEXIS 281 (Ky. Ct. App. 1983).

The Circuit Court did not err in requiring the county board of education to pay a school principal who had been demoted to classroom teacher the same salary in the succeeding year after the demotion as he was paid in his last year as principal, where the school board had not yet acted on the superintendent's recommendation and reduced the principal's salary by May 15 of his last year as principal. Daugherty v. Hunt, 694 S.W.2d 719, 1985 Ky. App. LEXIS 587 (Ky. Ct. App. 1985).

10. Lateral Transfer.

This section cannot be evaded by the expedient of a lateral transfer to a position of less responsibility in one year followed by a reduction in pay in a succeeding year when the duties of the new position at the time of the transfer were so significantly less as to have justified a major reduction in pay at the time of transfer. Cooper v. Board of Education, 587 S.W.2d 845, 1979 Ky. App. LEXIS 473 (Ky. Ct. App. 1979).

Where an assistant principal was simply transferred to a position of less responsibility, which would command substantially less pay, but the transfer was not accompanied by an immediate major reduction in pay (and thus was not a demotion as defined), it nevertheless became a demotion when the pay was reduced in a subsequent year. Cooper v. Board of Education, 587 S.W.2d 845, 1979 Ky. App. LEXIS 473 (Ky. Ct. App. 1979).

A 25 percent reduction in earnings as a result of transfer would be a major, as opposed to a minor, reduction in earnings. Cooper v. Board of Education, 587 S.W.2d 845, 1979 Ky. App. LEXIS 473 (Ky. Ct. App. 1979).

Where an educator is transferred to a position of less responsibility, and the transfer is not accompanied by an immediate major reduction in pay, but there is to be a reduction in a subsequent year, the transfer becomes a demotion when (and if) that reduction takes place. Accordingly, where principal was transferred to less responsible post but his salary remained the same, it could not be said that he had been demoted from one position on the salary schedule to a position for which a lower salary was paid. Stafford v. Board of Education, 642 S.W.2d 596, 1982 Ky. App. LEXIS 267 (Ky. Ct. App. 1982).

11. Removal.

An administrator has been given no right of tenure to an administrative position and may be removed from such position by the local board of education upon recommendation of the superintendent for any reason not offending some right protected by the state or federal constitutions or KRS 161.162 (repealed). Hooks v. Smith, 781 S.W.2d 522, 1989 Ky. App. LEXIS 151 (Ky. Ct. App. 1989).

12. Reinstatement.

Where school principal had been demoted after a Roman circus type hearing by a school board biased against him, and based on testimony of a group of teachers similarly biased against him to the point they had agitated for his removal, the board's decision was arbitrary and unreasonable and the trial court's order reinstating the principal would be affirmed. Hart County Board of Education v. Broady, 577 S.W.2d 423, 1979 Ky. App. LEXIS 376 (Ky. Ct. App. 1979).

13. Hearing.

Under this section, an administrator must be afforded a hearing in the event of demotion regardless of the reason for the demotion. Harlan County Board of Education v. Stagnolia, 555 S.W.2d 828, 1977 Ky. App. LEXIS 805 (Ky. Ct. App. 1977).

Where an assistant principal was an administrator with tenure and, subsequent to his termination, was reemployed as an elementary school teacher, he was in fact demoted and was entitled to a hearing. Harlan County Board of Education v. Stagnolia, 555 S.W.2d 828, 1977 Ky. App. LEXIS 805 (Ky. Ct. App. 1977).

The vote of the board of education to demote a school principal need not be held in public. Miller v. Board of Educ., 610 S.W.2d 935, 1980 Ky. App. LEXIS 414 (Ky. Ct. App. 1980).

This section, as amended in 1990 to eliminate principals' right to a hearing before demotion while protecting lesser administrators, did not deny equal protection where one basis for eliminating the right of principals to the cumbersome procedural safeguards of other administrators was to permit the swift removal of principals who may be in a unique position to hinder easy implementation of the Kentucky Education Reform Act (KERA); therefore, there was a legitimate distinction between principals and other administrators supporting the sweep of the tenure statute. Arney v. Campbell, 856 F. Supp. 1203, 1994 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 9120 (W.D. Ky. 1994).

In suit by principal who was demoted to teacher, alleging that denial of his right to the pre-demotion hearing provided for administrators in this section deprived him of equal protection of the laws guaranteed by the Fourteenth Amendment of the U.S. Constitution and an exercise of arbitrary power prohibited by Ky. Const., § 2, since "administrators" as defined by subsection (8) of KRS 161.720 as it existed prior to its 1992 amendment did not include "principals" as "administrators", the court employing the "rational basis scrutiny" held that since there were several distinctions between "principals" and "administrators", there was a rational basis for the exclusion of "principals" from the definition of "administrators" and thus such exclusion did violate the Fourteenth Amendment of the U.S. Constitution or Ky. Const., § 2. 902 S.W.2d 842, 1995 Ky. App. LEXIS 77.

14. Appeal.

Where a teacher received unequivocal notice that she would be demoted from an administrative position and reassigned as a special education teacher, and she failed to appeal the school board's action for approximately 15 months, her claim was properly dismissed. Frisby v. Board of Education, 707 S.W.2d 359, 1986 Ky. App. LEXIS 1097 (Ky. Ct. App. 1986).

At best, this section gives an administrator with at least three years experience an additional procedural opportunity to convince the board of the lack of merit in the superintendent's recommendation of demotion, or that it violates a constitutional or statutory right. Hooks v. Smith, 781 S.W.2d 522, 1989 Ky. App. LEXIS 151 (Ky. Ct. App. 1989).

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

This section has no application to personnel action taken before June 21, 1974. OAG 74-370.

This section deals only with demotion and not with dismissal. OAG 75-2.

Although this section applies to guidance counselors, where a counselor is reassigned as a teacher at the same salary he is not entitled to a hearing under this section since, in view of KRS 161.720, he has not been demoted within the meaning of the law. OAG 75-368.

An individual, who has completed one (1) year as an assistant principal and who for ten (10) years just prior to said year was not employed in education and prior to the ten-year period, was a teacher on tenure and had had at least three (3) years' experience as an administrator comes under this section and cannot be demoted without following the procedures of this section. OAG 75-413; 76-99.

An athletic director would be an administrator for the purposes of this section. OAG 77-114.

Inasmuch as administrative service in another school system is of no consequence whatsoever as concerns this section, a certified employee who has in excess of three (3) years of administrative experience but who has served only two (2) years as a principal in the school system where presently employed would not be entitled to a hearing if demoted by the board. OAG 77-157.

The assignment of an administrator with at least three (3) years' administrative service in the same school system to a teaching position or any position not having administrative responsibilities would be a demotion, irrespective of the similarity of salary. OAG 77-328.

Since years of service as superintendent of schools would not be counted for purposes of this section, a school business administrator who has completed two (2) years of service following a four-year term as superintendent could be demoted. OAG 77-493.

A board of education could reduce the term of an elementary school principal's contract from 12 months to a lesser number of months, but could not reduce his salary without giving written notice as required by subsection (2) of this section. OAG 78-148.

An elementary school principal could not be demoted to a classroom teacher with a reduction in salary unless the procedures of this section were followed. OAG 78-148.

It would appear that a demotion involves at least two positions and, accordingly, when a school board changes only contract characteristics, specifically duration of the contract, of a single administrative position, this action does not constitute a demotion for the purposes of this section. OAG 78-148.

While upon timely recommendation by the superintendent and approval by the board of education (before May 15), an administrator serving a school system protected under the provisions of this section may still be assigned to a different administrative position in the school system, the new administrative position may not subject the individual to a substantial alteration in pay received for performing administrative services in the school system. OAG 78-793.

A demotion can be made, after a full following of the procedures mandated in the statute, on strictly economic and nonpersonal grounds. OAG 79-111.

If the reasons for the reduction in expenditures are fully given, the requirements of subdivision (2)(b) of this section will have been met. OAG 79-111.

This section does not give one protected by its provisions any right to a particular administrative position in the school system. OAG 79-111.

This section is not a "tenure" statute. OAG 79-111.

This section provides administrative procedural due process which must be complied with before a certified employee who has been an administrator in a school system for three years may be demoted. OAG 79-111.

For individuals who have failed to hold administrative positions in a school district for at least three years, the school district is not required to implement the due process procedures including a hearing outlined in this section, but must only follow KRS 161.760. OAG 82-135.

For those administrators who have the requisite three (3) years or more administrative experience in a school district, which years need not be in the same administrative position, the detailed due process procedures of subsection (2) of this section must be followed before a school district may demote them back into the classroom. OAG 82-135.

Seniority is not required by statute to come into play in deciding which administrative employees to transfer as a result of reductions; however, school districts may adopt a procedure of considering seniority as a factor in a reduction of administrators situation. OAG 82-135.

Since the Court of Appeals has concluded that an administrator protected by this section should also have the benefit of the procedural safeguards of KRS 161.760(2), if a school district, with the recommendation of the local superintendent, intends to demote an administrator with three or more years administrative service, the written notice of demotion and the opportunity for a due process hearing must be completed before May 15. OAG 82-135.

Teachers and administrators, even those with more than three (3) years of administrative service, do not have a statutorily protected right to a particular teaching or administrative position. OAG 82-135.

The demotion process under this section was not intended by the general assembly to be available solely as a disciplinary measure to be taken only if an administrator was not adequately performing expected administrative services. "Grounds" can also be premised upon budgetary problems. OAG 82-135.

A teacher may take an unpaid leave of absence for maternity, which may properly include time for care of a newborn infant, even if there is no disability, and this maternity leave shall be granted by the local board of education for a reasonable period of time on an individual basis, considering individual circumstances. OAG 86-66.

Effective July 13, 1990, the Kentucky Education Reform Act, House Bill 940, Acts Chapter 476, removed responsibility for personnel decisions from the local school board and placed that responsibility with the superintendent. Accordingly, the superintendent may legally demote a principal who has served three or more years in administrative service only upon fully abiding by this section. Similarly, the superintendent may legally demote a central office administrator (such as an assistant superintendent, general supervisor, director of pupil personnel, etc.) only upon fully abiding by this section. OAG 91-119.

161.770. Leaves of absence.

(1) Upon written request of a teacher or superintendent, a board of education may grant a leave of absence for a period of not more than two (2) consecutive school years for educational or professional purposes, and shall grant such leave where illness, maternity, adoption of a child or children, or other disability is the reason for the request. Upon subsequent request, such leave may be renewed by the board. A board of education may pay a sum of money equivalent to all or any portion of salary to a teacher or superintendent who has been granted leave for educational or professional purposes if the person taking said leave agrees in writing to employment with the board for no less than two (2) years.

(2) Without request, a board of education may grant leave of absence and renewals thereof to any teacher or superintendent because of physical or mental disability, but such teacher or superintendent shall have the right to a hearing and appeal on such unrequested leave of absence or its renewal in accordance with the provisions for hearing and appeal in KRS 161.790.

(3) Any action taken under subsection (1) or (2) of this section shall not violate the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996, or any other applicable federal law. A board of education:

(a) May only request medical information necessary to decide whether to grant a leave of absence;

(b) Shall not request or retain unnecessary medical information; and

(c) Shall not disclose any medical information received, except as permitted by state and federal law.

(4) Upon the return to service of a teacher or superintendent at the expiration of a leave of absence, he shall resume the contract status which he held prior to such leave.

(5) Payments to any teacher or superintendent under this section by a local district are intended and presumed to be for and in consideration of services rendered and for the benefit of the common schools and such payments do not affect the eligibility of any school district to share in the distribution of funds from the public school funds as established in KRS Chapter 157.

History.

Enact. Acts 1942, ch. 113, § 6; 1944, ch. 98; 1976, ch. 158, § 1; 1986, ch. 395, § 2, effective July 15, 1986; 1990, ch. 476, Pt. IV, § 247, effective July 13, 1990; 2019 ch. 30, § 1, effective June 27, 2019.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

1. Construction With Other Laws.

Phrase “three years of administrative service, not including leave granted under Ky. Rev. Stat. Ann. § 161.770” in Ky. Rev. Stat. Ann. § 161.765 plainly means exactly what it appears to mean: the three-year prerequisite period of § 161.765 does not include any time an administrator spends on leave pursuant to Ky. Rev. Stat. Ann. § 161.770. Hardin v. Jefferson Cty. Bd. of Educ., 558 S.W.3d 1, 2018 Ky. App. LEXIS 217 (Ky. Ct. App. 2018).

Estill County Board of Education v. Rose, 518 S.W.2d 341, 1974 Ky. LEXIS 14 (Ky. 1974).

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

It is not an abuse of discretion for the board to grant a leave of absence to a teacher who, while unable to perform his duties because of illness, did not make a written request for leave until about seven (7) or eight (8) months after the inception of the illness, when the teacher had previously advised the superintendent orally of his illness. OAG 60-472.

A local board of education may not grant a teacher leave of absence with pay to serve on a committee appointed by the Commission on Public Education. OAG 60-1152.

The provisions of this section concerning the granting of leave of absence for illness are mandatory and the board must grant the leave on written request. OAG 61-633.

A board of education has adequate authority to adopt regulations which would require teachers to submit to periodic physical examinations, if it appears that they are physically unable to discharge their duties as a teacher. OAG 65-560.

The fact that a teacher has taught for several years possessing a disability which is actually sufficient to impair his teaching services does not estop the teacher from requesting a leave of absence because of that disability. OAG 68-586.

The phrase “other disability” as used in this section encompasses any disability which would substantially impair the effective performance by a teacher of the full scope of duties involved in the teaching assignments for which he is qualified and the fact that a teacher is able to perform satisfactorily in some other line of work which may be more sedentary and less strenuous, specifically having been elected to the office of county judge (now county judge/executive), would not in and of itself be conclusive as to lack of disability for teaching. OAG 68-586.

Maternity leave is not “sick leave” within the meaning of KRS 161.155 but a “leave of absence” under this section and as such it results in a cessation of salary benefits during the period of absence. OAG 70-730.

This section is to be regarded as exclusive and takes precedence over KRS 160.290. OAG 70-771.

Within the purview of this section, a district board of education may, in its discretion, grant a leave of absence to a superintendent for the purpose of his seeking and/or accepting the office of state superintendent of public instruction. OAG 70-771.

A board of education has discretion in granting leave for professional or educational purposes, but it has no discretion and must grant leave where illness, maternity, or other disability is the reason, if the request is the first request. OAG 71-303.

Where a teacher neither resigned nor requested maternity leave but merely informed the board that she could not teach the following year and was subsequently employed by the board on a continuing contract which provided that the teacher was entitled to accumulated leave, the board waived any contention that the teacher did not request maternity leave in writing. OAG 71-303.

A teacher on leave of absence could not be paid for “calamity days” which were granted during the time of his leave. OAG 72-554.

A school board may grant a leave of absence, without loss of tenure, to an employee who takes employment with another educationally related system even though the teacher states that he may not return to employment in the school district at the end of his leave of absence, but such a statement could very well have an influence on the board’s decision as to whether or not to grant the leave of absence. OAG 73-377.

A school board would not be authorized to grant a leave of absence to a teacher who is going to work outside of the educational field, as this section which permits the granting of a privilege to a public employee should be narrowly construed in the interest of the public and the board would not be authorized to grant a leave of absence for any purpose except an “educational or professional purpose.” OAG 73-377.

When a teacher taught for four (4) consecutive years in a school district, took a leave of absence for three (3) years, returned from her leave and taught two (2) consecutive years in the same district, she has by law a continuing service contract and is legally entitled to be reemployed in the coming year regardless of the notice she has received, unless her contract is terminated for cause or her contract is suspended. OAG 73-486.

As a leave of absence from the school system can only be granted for illness, maternity or other disability, and educational or professional purposes and as operating a garbage service is not one of these statutory reasons, the school board should not have granted a leave of absence but should have required the teacher to resign or continue working and, if the teacher is on a bona fide leave of absence, he would be violating KRS 156.480 by selling his garbage service to the school system. OAG 73-651.

The board of education should deal with requests for maternity leave on an individual basis considering the time of the year in which the birth occurs and the physical condition of the teacher as reported by the teacher and her doctor, and keeping in mind that the only statutory purposes for leave are educational or professional purposes and where illness, maternity or other disability is the reason for the request. OAG 73-665.

Board of education may not grant a leave of absence to a teacher for one semester for the purpose of attending a professional baseball umpires school. OAG 74-157.

Although accumulated sick leave may not be granted for child care following childbirth, a leave of absence is appropriate for that purpose. OAG 75-259 (withdrawing OAG 73-585 and 74-274).

A board of education is not required to grant leave for child rearing as such is not a disability. OAG 76-18.

It would be a reasonable board requirement to have a teacher submit a statement of disability from a personal doctor when requesting disability leave although a board probably cannot require examination by a board appointed doctor. OAG 76-18.

A continued absence for disability not supported by a doctor's statement is neglect of duty by a teacher. OAG 76-18.

A local board of education, in its reasonable exercise of discretion to grant a leave of absence for educational or professional reasons, may include working elsewhere in the teaching profession. OAG 79-106.

A local board of education may grant a leave of absence under this section without the local superintendent's recommendation. OAG 79-106.

Where a teacher talked about resigning, or requesting a leave of absence, less than a month before school was to open, so as to accept a teaching position elsewhere, but eventually just left to accept that position, and where the local board of education, upon learning of this, at first voted to terminate her, but then, before notifying her, reversed itself and voted to grant her an unrequested leave of absence for the year, although there was no legally supportable reason why the teacher should not be denied a teaching position for the following year, since she never requested a leave as required by subsection (1) of this section, nevertheless the board's action in granting the leave meant that the teacher would be entitled to resume her original status, at the end of the year, if she elected to return. OAG 79-106.

A teacher seeking benefits under KRS 161.661(1) while on leave of absence under this section has in effect terminated his or her tenure contract status and accompanying rights with the board of education when the teachers' retirement system approves that teacher's application for disability retirement, which means the teacher has "retired" for the purposes of KRS 161.720 to 161.810; and if the teacher, who has been granted leave of absence and accepted by the teachers' retirement system for disability retirement benefits, then becomes able to return to work, the board of education no longer has to afford to that teacher his or her former tenure rights. OAG 79-157.

While participation as a representative in the General Assembly does not fall within the exact perimeters of this section, a local board of education could not legally deny an individual board employee a leave to serve in the General Assembly. OAG 80-18.

A board of education may require a physician's certificate of medical disability for purposes of this section so long as such certificate is required of all persons requesting leave for "illness, maternity or other disability." OAG 80-151.

A father is not eligible for leave under this section to care for a newborn child. OAG 80-151.

A request for leave by reason of "illness, maternity or other disability" may continue so long as a disability continues to exist and there is no two-year limit. OAG 80-151.

A teacher is not entitled to a maternity leave under this section if the teacher simply wants to stay home to take care of a child since a maternity leave is only available for a medical disability condition; when the teacher is no longer disabled from the pregnancy, childbirth and recovery therefrom, the teacher's leave of absence without pay should terminate, and she should commence her teaching duties. OAG 80-151.

Although KRS 161.155 will not permit a school board requirement of a physician's certificate of an employee's disability to work in that an affidavit of the teacher will suffice, there is nothing in this section to preclude a board of education from requiring a physician's certificate; a school board could adopt such a policy pursuant to KRS 160.340(2)(e) which requires the board to adopt personnel policies that apply to certified employees. OAG 80-151.

This section places no duration limitation on a request for a leave due to "illness, maternity or other disability" since the two-year language is germane only to the educational or professional leave request as is the renewal language. OAG 80-151.

When a teacher has been approved to go on an unpaid leave of absence pursuant to this section for disability reasons, he or she is no longer entitled to use accumulated sick leave days, and is not entitled to pay for any holidays occurring during that absence. OAG 83-457.

The teacher on a leave of absence is subject to the usual application of school laws as to his or her employment contract status. OAG 84-43.

Subsection (3) of this section may not be construed so as to place a limited contract teacher on leave of absence in a different position than every other limited contract teacher in a school system; therefore, a nontenured teacher on leave of absence at the time renewal of his or her contract comes under consideration (before April 30th), may be recommended by a superintendent for nonrenewal the same as all other limited contract teachers in the school system. OAG 84-43.

The language in subsection (3) of this section is applicable and limited to a return to education responsibilities from a leave of absence during a given contract period, which, for a limited contract teacher is for a one year period only. OAG 84-43.

Payment by a board of education for the sabbatical leave of a teacher or superintendent is constitutional so long as the teacher or superintendent agrees to extend at least two years of future services to the school board. OAG 88-29.

When subsection (1) of this section authorizes a leave of absence for not more than "two (2) consecutive school years," that period of time encompasses two consecutive time periods beginning on July 1 and ending on June 30. Therefore, this language does not authorize the granting of a leave of absence that spans three consecutive school years, although the leave may only last two consecutive calendar years. OAG 91-134.

Both this section and KRS 158.782(2) provide for the granting of a leave for a period of not more than two (2) consecutive school years; however, both statutes authorize renewal of a leave of absence, upon approval. OAG 91-134.

A school board may grant an unpaid leave of absence only if it determines that the leave of absence falls within one or more of the statutory categories, i.e., educational or professional purposes, illness, maternity, adoption of a child, or other disability. OAG 01-9.

Whalen, The Kentucky Education Reform Act of 1990 and Local Boards of Education, Vol. 57, No. 1, Winter 1993, Ky. Bench & Bar 11.

161.780. Termination of contract by teacher or superintendent — Resignation binding as of date of acceptance.

(1) No teacher shall be permitted to terminate his or her contract within fifteen (15) days prior to the first instructional day of the school term at a school to which the teacher is assigned or during the school term without the consent of the superintendent. No superintendent shall be permitted to terminate his or her contract within thirty (30) days prior to the beginning of the school term or during the school term without the consent of the employing board of education. A teacher shall be permitted to terminate his or her contract at any other time when schools are not in session by giving two (2) weeks written notice to the employing superintendent. A superintendent shall be permitted to terminate his or her contract at any other time when schools are not in session by giving two (2) weeks written notice to the employing board of education. Upon complaint by the employing board or superintendent to the Education Professional Standards Board, the certificate of a teacher or superintendent terminating his contract in any manner other than provided in this section may be suspended for not more than one (1) year, pursuant to the hearing procedures set forth in KRS 161.120.

(2) If a teacher voluntarily resigns his contract during the school term, the resignation shall be in writing and shall become binding on the date the resignation is accepted by the superintendent. No further action by the employing board is necessary. The resignation is effective on the date specified in the letter of resignation. A resignation, once accepted, may be withdrawn only with the approval of the employing board of education. Nothing in this subsection shall release the teacher from liability to the local board of education for breach of contract.

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

KRS 161.760(1) and this section are not in conflict since KRS 161.760(1) concerns termination of employment only and this section concerns refusal of an assignment. OAG 64-576.

Although neither this section nor the regulation governing the procedure for suspending a certificate after a breach of contract provides any guidelines for when the complaint is to be made by the employing board, a local board of education should present the matter to the superintendent of public instruction within a reasonable period following the occurrence of the wrongful termination; the board would not be acting conscientiously to delay its complaint since the one-year suspension period was meant to coincide with the school year prior to which the wrongful termination took place. OAG 80-120.

The provisions of this section do not apply to terminations by teachers of their contracts while schools are in session during the regular school term. OAG 80-120.

161.790. Termination of contract by board — Administrative hearing tribunal — Sanctions.

(1) The contract of a teacher shall remain in force during good behavior and efficient and competent service by the teacher and shall not be terminated except for any of the following causes:

(a) Insubordination, including but not limited to violation of the school laws of the state or administrative regulations adopted by the Kentucky Board of Education, the Education Professional Standards Board, or lawful rules and regulations established by the local board of education for the operation of schools, or refusal to recognize or obey the authority of the superintendent, principal, or any other supervisory personnel of the board in the performance of their duties;

(b) Immoral character or conduct unbecoming a teacher;

(c) Physical or mental disability; or

(d) Inefficiency, incompetency, or neglect of duty, when a written statement identifying the problems or difficulties has been furnished the teacher or teachers involved.

(2) Charges under subsection (1)(a) and (d) of this section shall be supported by a written record of the actions of the teacher upon which the charge is based, provided by the superintendent, principal, or other supervisory personnel of the district, except when the charges are brought as a result of a recommendation made under KRS 158.6455.

(3) No contract shall be terminated except upon notification of the board by the superintendent. Prior to notification of the board, the superintendent shall furnish the teacher with a written statement specifying in detail the charge against the teacher. The teacher may within ten (10) days after receiving the charge notify the commissioner of education and the superintendent of his or her intention to answer the charge, and upon failure of the teacher to give notice within ten (10) days, the dismissal shall be final.

(4)(a) Except as provided in KRS 163.032, upon receiving the teacher's notice of his or her intention to answer the charge, the commissioner of education shall appoint a three (3) member tribunal, consisting of one (1) teacher, who may be retired, one (1) administrator, who may be retired, and one (1) attorney to serve as hearing officer and chairperson of the tribunal, none of whom reside in the district, to conduct an administrative hearing in accordance with KRS Chapter 13B within the district. Priority for selection as a teacher or administrator tribunal member shall be from a pool of potential tribunal members who have been designated and trained to serve as tribunal members on a regular and ongoing basis, pursuant to administrative regulations promulgated by the Kentucky Board of Education. Funds appropriated to the Department of Education for professional development may be used to provide tribunal member training. The commissioner of education shall set the date and time for the hearing. The hearing shall begin no later than forty-five (45) days after the teacher files the notice of intent to answer the charge unless an extension is granted by the hearing officer or otherwise agreed to by the parties.

(b) The hearing officer shall be appointed from a pool of hearing officers who have received in-depth training in the law related to employment of teachers and in the conduct of due process hearings pursuant to KRS Chapter 13B, and who hold other qualifications as determined by the Kentucky Board of Education.

(c) The hearing officer training shall be designed and conducted by the Kentucky Department of Education.

(d) The Kentucky Board of Education shall adopt administrative regulations to implement the due process provisions required by this section. Persons serving as hearing officers shall be paid or reimbursed as provided in KRS 13B.030.

(5) The hearing officer shall schedule a mandatory prehearing conference with the parties, which may be held in person or electronically through the use of technology. Prehearing motions may be disposed of at the conference. The hearing officer shall have the authority to mediate settlement and to enter an agreed order if the matter is resolved by the parties. A hearing officer shall have final authority to rule on dispositive prehearing motions.

(6) If the matter is not settled or dismissed as a result of the prehearing conference, a tribunal hearing shall be conducted. The hearing may be public or private at the discretion of the teacher. At the hearing, the hearing officer appointed by the commissioner of education shall preside with authority to rule on procedural matters, but the tribunal as a whole shall be the ultimate trier of fact. The local board shall pay each teacher and administrator member of the tribunal a per diem of one hundred dollars ($100) and travel expenses.

(7) Upon hearing both sides of the case, the tribunal may by a majority vote render its decision or may defer its action for not more than five (5) days. The decision, written in a recommended order, shall be limited to upholding or overturning the decision of the superintendent. The hearing officer shall then within fifteen (15) days submit to the parties the written recommended order in a form complying with the requirements of KRS 13B.110(1). Each party may file written exceptions no later than fifteen (15) days from receipt of the recommended order. Upon consideration of the exceptions filed by the parties, the hearing officer may order a settlement conference between the parties. Within ten (10) days after either the consideration of the exceptions or a settlement conference, whichever occurs later, the hearing officer shall enter a final order. If there is no settlement reached, the final order shall affirm the recommended order. If a settlement is reached, the final order shall approve the terms of a written settlement as an agreed order. Provisions of KRS Chapter 13B notwithstanding, the hearing officer's decision shall be a final order.

(8) The superintendent may suspend the teacher pending final action to terminate the contract, if, in his or her judgment, the character of the charge warrants the action. If the contract termination is overturned by the final order, the suspended teacher shall be paid his or her full salary for any period of suspension.

(9) The teacher shall have the right to make an appeal to the Circuit Court having jurisdiction in the county where the school district is located in accordance with KRS Chapter 13B. The review of the final order shall be conducted by the Circuit Court as required by KRS 13B.150.

(10) As an alternative to termination of a teacher's contract, the superintendent upon notifying the board and providing written notification to the teacher of the charge may impose other sanctions, including suspension without pay, public reprimand, or private reprimand. The procedures set out in subsection (3) of this section shall apply if the teacher is suspended without pay or publicly reprimanded. The teacher may appeal the action of the superintendent if these sanctions are imposed in the same manner as established in subsections (4) to (9) of this section. Upon completion of a suspension period, the teacher may be reinstated.

1. Constitutionality.

Termination of a "tenured teacher" does not deprive the teacher of property interests and contract rights without procedural due process merely because the school board is cast into and occupies the roles of employer, accuser, investigator, prosecutor, judge and jury. Board of Education v. Burkett, 525 S.W.2d 747, 1975 Ky. LEXIS 108 (Ky. 1975).

Where the teacher had a 15-year-old student show a controversial, highly suggestive, and somewhat sexually explicit movie to a group of high school students aged 14 to 17, she did not preview the movie, despite the fact that she had been warned that portions were unsuitable for viewing in this context, and she made no attempt at any time to explain the meaning of the movie or to use it as an educational tool, this section proscribing "conduct unbecoming a teacher" gave her adequate notice that such conduct would subject her to discipline; accordingly, this section was not unconstitutionally vague as applied to her conduct. Fowler v. Board of Education, 819 F.2d 657, 1987 U.S. App. LEXIS 6912 (6th Cir. Ky.), cert. denied, 484 U.S. 986, 108 S. Ct. 502, 98 L. Ed. 2d 501, 1987 U.S. LEXIS 5177 (U.S. 1987).

2. Power of Board.

It was the intention of the legislature in enacting this section to allow the local board of education to make the final determination of dismissal and once the board's hearing is commenced, the superintendent may not attempt to terminate the proceedings by withdrawing his recommendation. Bell v. Board of Education, 557 S.W.2d 433, 1977 Ky. App. LEXIS 836 (Ky. Ct. App. 1977).

This section does not require that the board's deliberations and decision on termination must be held at a public meeting and, accordingly, a decision to dismiss two (2) teachers was not void because it was taken during a closed session. Bell v. Board of Education, 557 S.W.2d 433, 1977 Ky. App. LEXIS 836 (Ky. Ct. App. 1977); Carter v. Craig, 574 S.W.2d 352, 1978 Ky. App. LEXIS 626 (Ky. Ct. App. 1978).

The power of the board of education to discipline teachers is not based on personal moral judgments by board members; it exists only because of the legitimate interests of the government in protecting the school community and the students from harm. Board of Education v. Wood, 717 S.W.2d 837, 1986 Ky. LEXIS 306 (Ky. 1986).

It was not the intention of the legislature to subject every teacher to discipline or dismissal for private shortcomings that might come to the attention of the board of education but have no relation to the teacher's involvement or example to the school community. Board of Education v. Wood, 717 S.W.2d 837, 1986 Ky. LEXIS 306 (Ky. 1986).

County board of education had an inherent right to appeal decision of tribunal's that teacher should not have been terminated on grounds that tribunal decision was arbitrary even though the board did not have a liberty interest at stake. Reis v. Campbell County Bd. of Educ., 938 S.W.2d 880, 1996 Ky. LEXIS 130 (Ky. 1996).

Although no express right of appeal was given board of education under subsection (8) of this section, since the three-member tribunal created in subsection (4) of this section is a separate and distinguishable entity from the county board of education and thus the tribunal is not an agent of the board, the board is not barred from appealing the tribunal's decision that a teacher's contract should not be terminated. Reis v. Campbell County Bd. of Educ., 938 S.W.2d 880, 1996 Ky. LEXIS 130 (Ky. 1996).

Although a ban that prohibited a teacher from attending a local teachers' meeting made by a school principal and a director of employee relations violated his free association rights, the unconstitutional acts were not made by final policymakers under KRS 161.790, 160.370, and 160.340 and thus could not give rise to school board liability. Baar v. Jefferson County Bd. of Educ., 666 F. Supp. 2d 701, 2009 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 100066 (W.D. Ky. 2009), modified, 686 F. Supp. 2d 699, 2010 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 14570 (W.D. Ky. 2010).

3. — Constitutional Protection.

County board of education is a political body with a corporate structure and is entitled to the protection of Ky. Const.,

§ 2. Reis v. Campbell County Bd. of Educ., 938 S.W.2d 880, 1996 Ky. LEXIS 130 (Ky. 1996).

4. Notice.

This section does not require greater exactitude than a civil complaint and fair notice of the essential notice and bases is sufficient. Board of Education v. Chattin, 376 S.W.2d 693, 1964 Ky. LEXIS 471 (Ky. 1964), overruled, Osborne v. Bullitt County Bd. of Educ., 415 S.W.2d 607, 1967 Ky. LEXIS 325 (Ky. 1967).

Where formal notice of termination of contract referred to a supervisor's report for details of charges against teacher and it gave adequate notice of such details, the notice was sufficient. Knox County Board of Education v. Willis, 405 S.W.2d 952, 1966 Ky. LEXIS 277 (Ky. 1966).

Requirement of a very particular statement is a prerequisite to termination of an existing contract but does not apply to failure to renew a contract. Sparks v. Board of Education, 549 S.W.2d 323, 1977 Ky. App. LEXIS 664 (Ky. Ct. App. 1977).

Where a charge of insubordination specified that a tenured teacher failed to obey the instruction of the superintendent that he cease and desist all forms of physical and mental punishment of students and where the charge of conduct unbecoming a teacher specified abusive treatment of young students, the charges and specifications coupled with the information furnished appellant as to the nature of anticipated testimony were sufficiently specific as to inform him of the acts which he had to defend against. Mavis v. Board of Education, 563 S.W.2d 738, 1977 Ky. App. LEXIS 906 (Ky. Ct. App. 1977).

The allegations made against a teacher were not in sufficient detail to satisfy the statutory requirements, and they did not afford him the notice to adequately prepare a defense where he was not told the names, dates, occurrences or other data upon which his supervisor relied to prove his inefficiency as a classroom teacher. Blackburn v. Board of Education, 564 S.W.2d 35, 1978 Ky. App. LEXIS 495 (Ky. Ct. App. 1978).

The giving of mere notice of a general grounds for termination in the language used in the statute, such as inefficiency or incompetency, is not sufficient to inform a teacher of the specific nature of the charges against him, so as to permit the preparation of an adequate defense. Blackburn v. Board of Education, 564 S.W.2d 35, 1978 Ky. App. LEXIS 495 (Ky. Ct. App. 1978).

As neither a superintendent nor a school commissioner received a teacher's response within 10 days of the teacher's receipt of a termination letter, the teacher failed to strictly comply with the notice requirements of KRS 161.790(3). The teacher's failure to meet the notice requirement denied the appellate court jurisdiction to consider the teacher's defense to charges of insubordination and conduct unbecoming a teacher. Sajko v. Jefferson County Bd. of Educ., 2008 Ky. App. LEXIS 297 (Ky. Ct. App. Sept. 19, 2008), aff'd in part and rev'd in part, 314 S.W.3d 290, 2010 Ky. LEXIS 160 (Ky. 2010).

Administrative tribunal erred in holding that KRS 161.790(3) did not require actual receipt, rather than mere mailing, of a teacher's notice of intent to answer charges within ten days of the teacher's receipt of a superintendent's dismissal letter; where the method of notice was not specified, actual receipt was required. Sajko v. Jefferson County Bd. of Educ., 314 S.W.3d 290, 2010 Ky. LEXIS 160 (Ky. 2010).

5. Charges.

Where written charges against teacher were so vague and indefinite so that they did not furnish teacher sufficient information upon which he could base a defense such charges were not sufficient to support order of dismissal. Osborne v. Bullitt County Bd. of Educ., 415 S.W.2d 607, 1967 Ky. LEXIS 325 (Ky. 1967).

A tenured teacher has the right to contest the truth of the grounds alleged for termination in a hearing before the school board and, if successful, in a trial de novo before the Circuit Court. Bowlin v. Thomas, 548 S.W.2d 515, 1977 Ky. App. LEXIS 654 (Ky. Ct. App. 1977).

Where the school board did not make any written findings indicating which charge it found to be grounds for termination but the record showed that the charges were proven by ample evidence, the dismissal was supported by the evidence and written findings were not required. Bell v. Board of Education, 557 S.W.2d 433, 1977 Ky. App. LEXIS 836 (Ky. Ct. App. 1977).

The board was not required to issue findings as to the particular charges of which a tenured teacher was deemed guilty, where there were only two (2) charges, and the evidence supported a finding of guilt on each charge. Mavis v. Board of Education, 563 S.W.2d 738, 1977 Ky. App. LEXIS 906 (Ky. Ct. App. 1977).

The charges against a teacher were not supported by written records of teacher performance, as required by this section, where the teacher had been employed in the school system for nine (9) years and no written evaluation of his performance had been prepared during those years until only a few weeks before his discharge. Blackburn v. Board of Education, 564 S.W.2d 35, 1978 Ky. App. LEXIS 495 (Ky. Ct. App. 1978).

A petition signed by parents of children in a teacher's class complaining of corporal punishment she inflicted on the children is not "written records" within subsection (2)(a) (deleted by 1990 amendment) of this section. Carter v. Craig, 574 S.W.2d 352, 1978 Ky. App. LEXIS 626 (Ky. Ct. App. 1978).

One purpose of the requirements of subsection (2)(a) (deleted by 1990 amendment) of this section is to make the teacher aware of deficiencies so that she or he may correct same before being terminated. Carter v. Craig, 574 S.W.2d 352, 1978 Ky. App. LEXIS 626 (Ky. Ct. App. 1978).

Tape recordings and notes of student interviews made by the school superintendent of which a teacher was uninformed prior to a hearing to determine whether to continue her services are not "written records" within the meaning of subsection (2)(a) (deleted by 1990 amendment) of this section. Carter v. Craig, 574 S.W.2d 352, 1978 Ky. App. LEXIS 626 (Ky. Ct. App. 1978).

6. Particular Grounds.

7. — Absence Due to Illness.

Where a teacher had frequently been unable to attend classes because of his illnesses, and had been granted a leave of absence to allow psychiatric care on at least one occasion and where he would be able to work only on a part-time basis and was still a patient in the University of Kentucky Medical Center, such evidence supported the board's decision to terminate his contract. Kelly v. Board of Education, 566 S.W.2d 165, 1977 Ky. App. LEXIS 916 (Ky. Ct. App. 1977).

8. — Incompetency.

When the charges upon which the teacher is to be dismissed involve inefficiency, incompetency or neglect of duty, a written statement identifying the problem or problems must have been previously furnished to the teacher and it is clear that some opportunity for the teacher to correct the problem should be permitted. Blackburn v. Board of Education, 564 S.W.2d 35, 1978 Ky. App. LEXIS 495 (Ky. Ct. App. 1978).

Written charges, furnished to the teacher at the time of a termination, do not fulfill the requirement of a written statement identifying the problem when incompetency, inefficiency or neglect of duty are the grounds for such termination. Blackburn v. Board of Education, 564 S.W.2d 35, 1978 Ky. App. LEXIS 495 (Ky. Ct. App. 1978).

Where a year had passed since a teacher had been transferred, and she had subsequently been rehired, whatever notice of problems and difficulties she may have had then had dissipated, since the rehiring indicated the board was not too dissatisfied by her performance. Carter v. Craig, 574 S.W.2d 352, 1978 Ky. App. LEXIS 626 (Ky. Ct. App. 1978).

9. — Insubordination.

Where teacher was denied reemployment after taking an unauthorized leave of absence, which demonstrated rank insubordination and amounted to neglect of duty on his part, his allegation that the defendants were motivated by political considerations was an unsupported legal conclusion and was insufficient to withstand the motion for summary judgment. Miller v. Board of Education, 54 F.R.D. 393, 1971 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 14508 (D. Ky.), aff'd, 452 F.2d 894, 1971 U.S. App. LEXIS 6457 (6th Cir. Ky. 1971).

10. — Misconduct.

This section applies only where there is an element of misconduct on the part of the teacher which gives rise to the termination. Harlan County Board of Education v. Stagnolia, 555 S.W.2d 828, 1977 Ky. App. LEXIS 805 (Ky. Ct. App. 1977).

Contracts of tenured teachers may be terminated for conduct unbecoming a teacher or immoral conduct involving off-campus activities involving students, notwithstanding written records indicating a satisfactory teacher performance. Board of Education v. Wood, 717 S.W.2d 837, 1986 Ky. LEXIS 306 (Ky. 1986).

Great care must be taken to ensure that proof of conduct of an immoral nature or conduct unbecoming a teacher which is sufficient to merit discharge of a tenured teacher should be of the same quality as required by other subsections of this section, that is, written documentation from impartial sources to substantiate the charges or its substantial equivalent. Board of Education v. Wood, 717 S.W.2d 837, 1986 Ky. LEXIS 306 (Ky. 1986).

Conduct of an immoral nature or conduct unbecoming a teacher which is sufficient to merit discharge of a tenured teacher, when it occurs in a context other than professional competency in the classroom, should have some nexus to the teacher's occupation, as was true where the defendant smoked marijuana with two (2) students. Board of Education v. Wood, 717 S.W.2d 837, 1986 Ky. LEXIS 306 (Ky. 1986).

A teacher is held to a standard of personal conduct which does not permit the commission of immoral or criminal acts because of the harmful impression made on the students. Board of Education v. McCollum, 721 S.W.2d 703, 1986 Ky. LEXIS 302 (Ky. 1986).

Where the teacher deliberately and intentionally took sick leave from his employment for the purpose of driving a coal truck to another state, he executed a false affidavit in regard to the sick day, and he failed to visit a homebound student for the minimum required time, there was substantial evidence supporting the termination of the teacher for conduct unbecoming a teacher under subdivision (1)(b) of this section. Board of Education v. McCollum, 721 S.W.2d 703, 1986 Ky. LEXIS 302 (Ky. 1986).

Where the teacher introduced a controversial and sexually explicit movie into a classroom of adolescents without preview, preparation, or discussion, her conduct constituted "conduct unbecoming a teacher" within the meaning of subdivision (1)(b) of this section. Fowler v. Board of Education, 819 F.2d 657, 1987 U.S. App. LEXIS 6912 (6th Cir. Ky.), cert. denied, 484 U.S. 986, 108 S. Ct. 502, 98 L. Ed. 2d 501, 1987 U.S. LEXIS 5177 (U.S. 1987).

Statements made by education association, its representative and teacher at public meetings and hearings were protected by the First Amendment to the United States Constitution, where association and teacher at school board meetings called for the termination of principal accused of using a racial epithet to introduce a school employee. Eaton v. Newport Bd. of Educ., 975 F.2d 292, 1992 U.S. App. LEXIS 22220 (6th Cir. Ky. 1992), cert. denied, 508 U.S. 957, 113 S. Ct. 2459, 124 L. Ed. 2d 674, 1993 U.S. LEXIS 3851 (U.S. 1993).

It was not arbitrary and capricious for Commissioner of Education to require acting county school superintendent to dismiss former school superintendent who had been reassigned as an at-will employee and against whom serious charges of financial misconduct had been brought while formerly employed as superintendent. Shepherd v. Boysen, 849 F. Supp. 1168, 1994 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 5330 (E.D. Ky. 1994).

Because the school employee had not presented evidence from which a reasonable jury could conclude that the employer's proffered reason for firing her was pretextual, and because the employee had forfeited her retaliation claims and state-law claims, the appellate court affirmed the judgment of the district court. Macy v. Hopkins County Sch. Bd. of Educ., 484 F.3d 357, 2007 FED App. 0133P, 2007 U.S. App. LEXIS 8382 (6th Cir. Ky. 2007), cert. denied, 552 U.S. 826, 128 S. Ct. 201, 169 L. Ed. 2d 37, 2007 U.S. LEXIS 9127 (U.S. 2007), overruled, Lewis v. Humboldt Acquisition Corp., 681 F.3d 312, 2012 FED App. 155P, 2012 U.S. App. LEXIS 10618 (6th Cir. Tenn. 2012).

Where a teacher was discharged after being charged with assault, violating a domestic violence order, carrying a concealed weapon, and stalking, she was ineligible to receive unemployment benefits under KRS 341.370 because she engaged in disqualifying misconduct in engaging in conduct unbecoming a teacher under KRS 161.790. Hutchison v. Ky. Unemployment Ins. Comm'n, 329 S.W.3d 353, 2010 Ky. App. LEXIS 222 (Ky. Ct. App. 2010).

Trial court properly reversed an administrative decision from a tribunal hearing regarding the discipline of a teacher who was charged with conduct unbecoming a teacher, in violation of KRS 161.790(1)(b), as the tribunal's factual findings provided no indication that the teacher exhibited any such conduct. "Conduct unbecoming a teacher" meant more than one incident of physically coercing an unruly child to the office; the grouping of "conduct unbecoming a teacher" in the same section as "immoral character" implied that the former conduct was the type of conduct that had the suggestion of immorality or similarly egregious conduct. Bd. of Educ. v. Hurley-Richards, 2011 Ky. App. LEXIS 147 (Ky. Ct. App. Sept. 2, 2011), aff'd, 396 S.W.3d 879, 2013 Ky. LEXIS 88 (Ky. 2013).

Teacher's conduct, as found by the Tribunal and described in its final order, did not constitute "conduct unbecoming a teacher" within the meaning of KRS 161.790(1)(b), and did not justify the termination or suspension of her contract; the teacher's conduct was entirely reasonable under the circumstances and did not offend the sensibilities of a reasonable person. Bd. of Educ. v. Hurley-Richards, 396 S.W.3d 879, 2013 Ky. LEXIS 88 (Ky. 2013).

School principal's termination for conduct unbecoming a teacher was justified because the principal's attempts to hide evidence and influence witnesses during investigations into security breaches in standardized student testing procedures used at the principal's school was conduct which offended the sensibilities of reasonable persons under the circumstances. Mike v. Dep't of Educ., 529 S.W.3d 781, 2017 Ky. App. LEXIS 44 (Ky. Ct. App. 2017).

11. — Voluntary Leave of Absence.

Where a teacher took an indeterminate voluntary leave of absence without the consent of the school board, an act of resignation occurred and the school board was under no obligation to take the teacher back. Miller v. Noe, 432 S.W.2d 818, 1968 Ky. LEXIS 358 (Ky. 1968).

12. Resignation.

Where plaintiff, a teacher, was employed in one school district for six successive years, resigned, taught in another school system the following year, again resigned, took a year off and then taught for three years in a third school district before being released, he was entitled to no hearing under this section, since, although he had achieved tenure at his first position, when he resigned he lost his tenure by reason of subsection (4) of KRS 161.720 and subdivision (1)(c) of KRS 161.740 is inapplicable. Carpenter v. Board of Education, 582 S.W.2d 645, 1979 Ky. LEXIS 265 (Ky. 1979).

13. Transfer to Noncertified Position.

Where a high school principal was transferred, at the same pay level, to a newly created position as supervisor of transportation for the school system, the transfer from a certified to a noncertified position amounted to "termination" as a "teacher" under subsections (1) and (4) of KRS 161.720; accordingly, the principal was entitled to a hearing as required by this section. Crawley v. Board of Education, 658 F.2d 450, 1981 U.S. App. LEXIS 18054 (6th Cir. Ky. 1981).

14. Undesirable Reassignment.

The statutory method of terminating a teacher's tenure contract under this section and KRS 161.800 should be used rather than the indirect means of unworthy or undesirable reassignment. Lewis v. Board of Education, 348 S.W.2d 921, 1961 Ky. LEXIS 42 (Ky. 1961).

15. Written Records of Teacher Performance.

Where the charge for termination of a tenured teacher is based on evidence of immoral character or conduct unbecoming a teacher, the requirement of former subdivision (2)(a) of this section, that the charge be supported by written records of teacher performance, did not require an evaluation of the teacher during the tenure of employment. Board of Education v. McCollum, 721 S.W.2d 703, 1986 Ky. LEXIS 302 (Ky. 1986).

In connection with KRS 161.790, a charge of insubordination must be supported by a written record of teacher performance, which cannot be based solely on statutes, regulations, local board of education policies, or teacher contracts, but must be specific to the individual teacher and the circumstances leading up to the charge; thus, where a superintendent failed to support his charge of insubordination against a teacher who was absent without leave while she served a 90-day federal prison term for trespass on federal property, dismissal of the charge against the teacher was required. James v. Sevre-Duszynska, 173 S.W.3d 250, 2005 Ky. App. LEXIS 188 (Ky. Ct. App. 2005).

Although a tribunal established pursuant to this section had authority to modify penalty imposed by superintendent, it did not have the authority to reduce teacher's termination to a lesser sanction where the tribunal made specific findings that the teacher's insubordination and conduct unbecoming a teacher merited termination, made no mitigating findings on behalf of teacher or any findings that superintendent had acted arbitrarily, and gave no reason for its reduction of the penalty. Gallatin County Bd. of Educ. v. Mann, 971 S.W.2d 295, 1998 Ky. App. LEXIS 50 (Ky. Ct. App. 1998).

Substantial evidence in the record supported the hearing tribunal's conclusion that the school employee's two (2) violations of the teacher tenure statute warranted a reprimand and suspension, and not the termination recommended by superintendent; the tribunal alone had the right under the statute to decide the appropriate sanction, thus, its other finding that denied the school employee's motion for directed verdict on the issue of the termination of her contract as a teacher also had to be upheld since substantial evidence supported that decision as well. Fankhauser v. Cobb, 2002 Ky. App. LEXIS 587 (Ky. Ct. App. Mar. 29, 2002), aff'd, 163 S.W.3d 389, 2005 Ky. LEXIS 155 (Ky. 2005).

The ordinary duties of a school principal differ greatly from those of a school teacher, as administrative personnel have either fiscal management duties and educational supervisory duties, or both, with responsibilities which are quite different from those of classroom teachers. The role of an administrator in carrying out policy and in formulating overall policy is also quite different from that of a teacher, and it is certainly not beyond reason that the legislature would deem it advisable not to give one whose supervisory and policy role is so different the same kind of job protection given to a classroom teacher. Hooks v. Smith, 781 S.W.2d 522, 1989 Ky. App. LEXIS 151 (Ky. Ct. App. 1989).

18. Liability of Board Members.

The individual members of a school board are liable in damages for breaching a contract with a teacher employed by them. Race v. Humphrey, 301 Ky. 10, 190 S.W.2d 686, 1945 Ky. LEXIS 680 (Ky. 1945).

19. Civil Rights Challenge.

Where a second state administrative tribunal upheld a teacher's termination eight years after the first tribunal found that the teacher had engaged in conduct unbecoming a teacher within the meaning of KRS 161.790(1)(b) by taking topless photographs of a female student, the teacher failed to comply with the applicable one-year statute of limitations under KRS 413.140(1)(a) when he filed an action under 42 U.S.C.S. § 1983 after the second hearing and alleged that a principal and school attorney violated his due process rights by allowing "faked" photographs to be submitted against him at the original hearing; the alleged violation of due process was not an ongoing or continuing violation through the time of the second tribunal hearing. Dixon v. Clem, 2007 FED App. 0255P, 2007 U.S. App. LEXIS 16247 (6th Cir. Ky. July 10, 2007), amended, 492 F.3d 665, 2007 FED App. 0296A, 2007 U.S. App. LEXIS 18614 (6th Cir. Ky. 2007).

20. Appeal.

The findings of the court on review should be given the same consideration as in the cases where the court acts in place of a properly instructed jury and unless the decision is flagrantly or palpably against the evidence the Court of Appeals will not set it aside. Hapner v. Carlisle County Board of Education, 305 Ky. 858, 205 S.W.2d 325, 1947 Ky. LEXIS 892 (Ky. 1947).

The Circuit Court is not confined to the record of the administrative body nor bound by its decision but may require a trial de novo especially where due process has not been observed in the administrative proceedings. Osborne v. Bullitt County Bd. of Educ., 415 S.W.2d 607, 1967 Ky. LEXIS 325 (Ky. 1967). See Story v. Simpson County Board of Education, 420 S.W.2d 578, 1967 Ky. LEXIS 120 (Ky. 1967).

Provision authorizing court on appeal to hear additional evidence is valid, (overruling holding to contrary in Board of Educ. v. Chattin, 376 S.W.2d 693, 1964 Ky. LEXIS 471 (Ky. Ct. App. 1964)). Osborne v. Bullitt County Bd. of Educ., 415 S.W.2d 607, 1967 Ky. LEXIS 325 (Ky. 1967). See Story v. Simpson County Board of Education, 420 S.W.2d 578, 1967 Ky. LEXIS 120 (Ky. 1967).

The opportunity for a de novo hearing at the Circuit Court level with the right to offer additional evidence, if so desired, was intended by the legislature to cure any deficiencies in the due process hearing at the board level. Kelly v. Board of Education, 566 S.W.2d 165, 1977 Ky. App. LEXIS 916 (Ky. Ct. App. 1977).

Where a teacher received unequivocal notice that she would be demoted from an administrative position and reassigned as a special education teacher, and she failed to appeal the school board's action for approximately 15 months, her claim was properly dismissed. Frisby v. Board of Education, 707 S.W.2d 359, 1986 Ky. App. LEXIS 1097 (Ky. Ct. App. 1986).

Although no express right of appeal was given board of education under subsection (8) of this section, under the Constitution it had such right to appeal three-member tribunal's decision that teacher's contract should not have been terminated. Reis v. Campbell County Bd. of Educ., 938 S.W.2d 880, 1996 Ky. LEXIS 130 (Ky. 1996).

Circuit court properly dismissed a petition for a writ of prohibition where a teacher had a fully executed continuing contract of employment that entitled her to a tribunal hearing under Ky. Rev. Stat. Ann. § 161.790. Miracle v. Duncan, 568 S.W.3d 358, 2018 Ky. App. LEXIS 241 (Ky. Ct. App. 2018).

NOTES TO UNPUBLISHED DECISIONS

1. Civil Rights Challenge.

Unpublished decision: Defendant board of education was not liable for plaintiff teacher's claim of constitutional violation, as his reprimand was ordered by other defendant school officials who acted without a policy or custom of the board, and under KRS 161.790, 160.370, 160.340, the officials who reprimanded the teacher had no final policymaking authority. Baar v. Jefferson County Bd. of Educ., 476 Fed. Appx. 621, 2012 FED App. 0262N, 2012 U.S. App. LEXIS 5019 (6th Cir. Ky. 2012).

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

A school employee could not without the permission of the board and superintendent sign a letter in his capacity as an employee of the school system recommending that an individual be reelected to the General Assembly. OAG 63-572.

A board of education has adequate authority to adopt regulations which would require teachers to submit to periodic physical examinations, if it appears that they are physically unable to discharge their duties as a teacher. OAG 65-560.

A teacher under a continuing service contract may not be dismissed without cause and without following the provisions of this section. OAG 72-363.

This section does not apply to the assignment of duties and reduction in salary but it applies only to the termination of a contract for one of the causes specified in the statute as authorizing termination. OAG 73-342.

When a teacher taught for four consecutive years in a school district, took a leave of absence for three years, returned from her leave and taught two (2) consecutive years in the same district, she has by law a continuing service contract and is legally entitled to be reemployed in the coming year regardless of the notice she has received, unless her contract is terminated for cause or her contract is suspended. OAG 73-486.

Since, under this section, the only way the continuing contract of tenured personnel can be terminated is by resignation, retirement or for cause, it is not necessary for the board of education to take any formal action at a board meeting relative to the continuing employment of tenured personnel, although there is no objection to incorporating into the minutes of the board the designation of names and positions of all tenured personnel in the school district for the ensuing school year. OAG 73-523.

Where a teacher was dismissed by the school board and accepted such termination voluntarily by not demanding or receiving a hearing upon notification of termination, if such teacher's civil rights were violated, not just contractual rights, any action for redress would have to be made in the courts but the present board would not be authorized to make a decision on such a matter or to grant tenure or restore sick leave. OAG 73-697.

An individual, who has completed one year as an assistant principal, who for ten years just prior to said year was not employed in education and prior to the ten-year period, was a teacher on tenure and has had at least three years' experience as an administrator, cannot be demoted without following the procedures of KRS 161.765 but under KRS 161.740 does not have tenure or a continuing contract and could be dismissed upon recommendation of the superintendent at the end of the school year without going through the procedures of KRS 161.790. OAG 75-413.

A board of education may not pay a suspended teacher any salary accumulated during his suspension unless it is determined at a hearing that the teacher's contract will not be terminated. OAG 76-102.

An order requesting a teacher to search for a bomb or other such device would be both unreasonable and dangerous and therefore a teacher's refusal to obey such an order would not be insubordination. OAG 77-254.

A local board of education may terminate the employment of a teacher under this section within the protected 40-70 age range based upon individual assessment of the teacher's ability, capabilities, etc. OAG 79-204.

If a superintendent determines that grounds exist for cause for contract termination, the procedures specified in this section are to be followed. OAG 83-362.

The term "teacher" in this statute embraces all certified employees in a school system below the superintendent. A principal or other administrator, in the context of school law, is first a teacher; in other words, the school administrator is a teacher assigned to administrative responsibilities in a school system. OAG 83-362.

As with the other listed discharge for cause categories, there are no definitions in subdivision (1)(b) of this section to guide a local superintendent and board of education relative to the scope of the terms "immoral" or "conduct unbecoming a teacher"; obviously then there is some discretion to be exercised in a fair and reasonable manner by a superintendent and subsequently by a board of education in commencing and conducting a proceeding to terminate a teacher's contract based upon one or more of these general legal cause categories. It is not believed the lack of definitions or need for exercising such discretion presents a problem of vagueness in this section. OAG 83-362.

A single act showing immoral character or conduct unbecoming a teacher may be sufficiently serious enough on its own to stand as the basis for termination of teacher contract proceedings under subdivision (1)(b) of this section; the fulfillment of the requirements of subdivision (2)(a) (deleted by 1990 amendment) in situations of this sort would be accomplished by some supervisory personnel of the board, superintendent or principal, preparing in writing the manner in which it is believed the teacher's performance will be compromised or in whatever way adversely affected by the act showing immoral character or unbecoming conduct. OAG 83-362.

Since a trait of character is the issue under subdivision (1)(b) of this section, one method of proving character would be by a showing of a specific act or acts; thus, a charge of "immoral character," as used in that subdivision, may be based upon a specific act inimical to the public welfare and perhaps more importantly the welfare of a community school system. OAG 83-362.

Acts involving dishonesty, sexual misconduct or criminal action may be considered as either immoral conduct or conduct unbecoming a teacher within the scope of the causes for discharge; however, not every act involving dishonesty, sexual misconduct or criminal action can be deemed to impair the services of the teacher or administrator in instructing and supervising students or other school employees. School officials must be able to show that a nexus, or as it is sometimes referred to "rational connection," exists between the conduct and school purposes such as to justify the discharge of a school employee. OAG 83-362.

The tapes of the hearing concerning a teacher contract termination proceeding conducted pursuant to this section were available for public inspection under the Open Records Law, even though the tapes were in the possession of the reporter-transcriber rather than the Board of Education, as the teacher requested a public hearing and the matter had not reached the courts. OAG 87-62.

A recommendation of dismissal of a certified staff member from a distinguished educator is binding on the superintendent. Upon receiving the recommendation, the superintendent is required to notify the staff member pursuant to this section. OAG 92-135.

A tribunal is required to be appointed under subsection (4) of this section upon receipt of the teacher's notice of intention to answer the charge. OAG 92-135.

Teachers dismissed upon recommendation of a distinguished educator continue to have a statutory right to be given cause for their dismissal and a right of appeal. OAG 92-135.

Teachers retain the right to an individual determination of competence and compliance with school laws. The fact that the teachers are evaluated by the distinguished educator does not change the fact that, ultimately, dismissal occurs under this section for the reasons set forth therein. OAG 92-135.

Termination of a teacher who is placed on probation under the criteria of KRS 158.6455(5) constitutes termination for cause under this section, and accordingly invokes a right of appeal. OAG 92-135.

When a distinguished educator makes a dismissal recommendation to the superintendent pursuant to KRS 158.6455, that recommendation is binding on the superintendent. The recommendation is based on an individual evaluation of the teacher by the distinguished educator after a minimum of six months of evaluation. In view of the fact that the termination is for cause, based on an evaluation of the teacher, some documentation or evidence is required. OAG 92-135.

One time payments to teachers to induce retirement are constitutional under Ky. Const., § 3 as such payments are in consideration of public service. The key fact that makes these payments constitutional is the voluntary retirement of the teacher; such an act is a "present" service for which an emolument is paid, not a past service for which a gratuity is given. OAG 96-23.

A school district's denial of access to a settlement agreement with a former employee could not be justified by KRS 61.878(1)(l), operating in tandem with subsection (5) of this section, since the latter statute does not shield from disclosure a settlement agreement entered into by a teacher and a school district. OAG 00-ORD-5.

(1) In cases where a decision or judgment was tendered in an administrative or judicial proceeding before July 15, 1998, in an investigation of allegations that a teacher, administrator, or other school employee acted improperly relating to the statewide assessment program required by KRS 158.6453, all references relating to the investigation, findings, and disciplinary actions shall be expunged from the individual's personnel file by the local school district, and the Kentucky Department of Education and the Education Professional Standards Board shall expunge any references to the investigation and findings in all agency files. This shall apply to all affected persons found not guilty of the allegations.

(2) After July 15, 1998, allegations that a teacher, administrator, or other school employee has acted improperly relating to the statewide assessment program required by KRS 158.6453 shall be investigated. If the individual is found not guilty of the allegations, all references to the charges shall be immediately expunged from the individual's personnel file in the local school district, and the Kentucky Department of Education and the Education Professional Standards Board shall expunge all references to the investigation from all agency files.

161.800. Suspension of contracts on reducing number of teachers.

When by reason of decreased enrollment of pupils, or by reason of suspension of schools or territorial changes affecting the district, a local superintendent decides that it shall be necessary to reduce the number of teachers, he shall have full authority to make reasonable reduction. But, in making such reduction, the local superintendent shall, within each teaching field affected, give preference to teachers on continuing contracts and to teachers who have greater seniority. Teachers whose continuing contracts are suspended shall have the right of restoration in continuing service status in the order of seniority of service in the district if teaching positions become vacant or are created for which any of the teachers are or become qualified.

Analysis

1. Construction.
2. Pre-Suspension Hearing.

1. Construction.

This section deals with seniority only as it affects employment and not as it affects position. Marshall v. Conley, 258 S.W.2d 911, 1953 Ky. LEXIS 893 (Ky. 1953).

2. Pre-Suspension Hearing.

Tenured school teachers who were suspended because of decreased enrollment did not have a property right in continued employment and its benefits to entitle them to a pre-suspension hearing. Downs v. Henry County Bd. of Education, 769 S.W.2d 49, 1988 Ky. App. LEXIS 190 (Ky. Ct. App. 1988).

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

Under this section a teacher with a lifetime certificate based on 64 college hours and ten years' experience has seniority over the teacher who possesses a temporary certificate with 120 college hours and only three years' experience. OAG 61-528.

This section is applicable to both teachers with limited contracts and teachers with continuing contracts. OAG 61-528.

Seniority gives no special preference on nontenure teachers. OAG 73-383; 73-702.

When a shortage of funds necessitates the reduction of teaching personnel the only statutory preference granted is to teachers with a continuing contract, and the school board upon the recommendation of the superintendent may reemploy or not reemploy such teachers as have a limited contract provided those not to be reemployed are notified by May 15th. OAG 73-383; 73-702.

When a teacher taught for four consecutive years in a school district, took a leave of absence for three years, returned from her leave and taught two consecutive years in the same district, she has by law a continuing service contract and is legally entitled to be reemployed in the coming year regardless of the notice she has received, unless her contract is terminated for cause or her contract is suspended. OAG 73-486.

The suspension of contracts under this section must be based upon continuing contracts and seniority and further, the certification of the teacher must be taken into account. OAG 80-150.

The term "qualified" at the end of this section must be construed as equivalent to certification, thus, if a teacher suspended from the teaching field affected is properly certified to teach in another teaching field in the school system and the suspended teacher has greater seniority than teachers in the field for which he or she is also qualified, then the continuing contract status teacher with the least seniority in that teaching field may be suspended under this section and so on. OAG 80-150.

Seniority is not required by statute to come into play in deciding which administrative employees to transfer as a result of reductions; however, school districts may adopt a procedure of considering seniority as a factor in a reduction of administrators situation. OAG 82-135.

161.810. Continuance of status in case of annexation or consolidation of schools.

If an entire school district or that part of a school district which comprises the territory in which a school or schools are situated is transferred to any other district, or if the schools in an independent or county school district are consolidated or centralized, the teachers in such consolidated or centralized schools employed on continuing contracts immediately prior to such transfer, consolidation, or centralization shall, subject to the limitations imposed by KRS 161.800, have continuing service status in the newly centralized or consolidated school, or in the district to which the territory is transferred.

SCHOOL PROPERTY162.010. Title to school property.

The title to all property owned by a school district is vested in the Commonwealth for the benefit of the district board of education. In the acquisition of land for school purposes, whether by purchase or condemnation, or otherwise, the title obtained shall be in fee simple, except that title to land received from the federal government or any agency thereof can be received in other than fee simple with the approval of the Attorney General of the Commonwealth. Any reversionary interest in any land held by boards of education on June 14, 1934, shall not deprive such boards of the ownership of the buildings or other improvements thereon.

History.

Compiler's Notes.

This section (4399-19; amend. Acts 1954, ch. 20, § 1; 1958, ch. 136, § 1) was repealed and reenacted by Acts 1990, ch. 476, Part V, § 548, effective July 13, 1990.

Analysis

1. Purpose of Acquisition.
2. Title in Commonwealth.
3. Abolishment of School District.
4. Conveyance.
5. — Warranty Deed.
6. Reversionary Interest.
7. — Creation.
8. — Trustee As Grantor.
9. — Buildings and Improvements.
10. Decisions Made by Local School Board.
11. Adverse Possession.

1. Purpose of Acquisition.

The board of education had no power under this section to acquire any land except for school purposes. Ford v. Pike County Board of Education, 310 Ky. 177, 220 S.W.2d 389, 1949 Ky. LEXIS 876 (Ky. 1949).

The phrase "school purposes" was broad and comprehensive and included building living quarters for teachers and custodial employes, where conditions warranted. Ford v. Pike County Board of Education, 310 Ky. 177, 220 S.W.2d 389, 1949 Ky. LEXIS 876 (Ky. 1949).

2. Title in Commonwealth.

Where property conveyed to private trustees in trust "for school purposes" was operated for many years by county board of education under agreement with trustees, the law vesting title to all school property in the Commonwealth operated to transfer title to the property from the trustees to the Commonwealth. Subsequent legislation requiring city independent district in which property was located to provide school service of the type being furnished in the school located on the property did not affect the title, which remained in the Commonwealth. Board of Education v. Board of Education, 292 Ky. 261, 166 S.W.2d 295, 1942 Ky. LEXIS 69 (Ky. 1942).

3. Abolishment of School District.

When a district was abolished, title to its property passed to the successor district. Breathitt County Board of Education v. Back, 214 Ky. 284, 283 S.W. 99, 1926 Ky. LEXIS 328 (Ky. 1926) (decided under prior law).

When duty to provide school service for colored children in cities of fifth and sixth classes was transferred from county board to city board, city board was entitled to use school building formerly used by county board for colored children. Board of Education v. Board of Education, 292 Ky. 261, 166 S.W.2d 295, 1942 Ky. LEXIS 69 (Ky. 1942).

4. Conveyance.

Boards of education had statutory authority to convey property. Bellamy v. Board of Education, 255 Ky. 447, 74 S.W.2d 920, 1934 Ky. LEXIS 259 (Ky. 1934) (decided under prior law).

A board of education could not rescind a conveyance made five years earlier by a former board on the mere ground that it was a bad bargain. Trustees of Congregational Church v. Everts Graded Common School Dist., 230 Ky. 94, 18 S.W.2d 887, 1929 Ky. LEXIS 25 (Ky. 1929) (decided under prior law).

Law that provided for acquisition of land for school in fee simple in school board while binding on the school board, did not bind the grantor and his privies, and did not invest a school board with better title than the deed purported to convey. Webster County Board of Education v. Gentry, 233 Ky. 35, 24 S.W.2d 910, 1930 Ky. LEXIS 486 (Ky. 1930) (decided under prior law).

5. — Warranty Deed.

Where grantor, who had only a life estate, conveyed land to a school district under a general warranty deed, subsequent acquisition of the fee by the grantor inured to the benefit of the school district. Hollon v. Wolfe County Board of Education, 307 Ky. 671, 212 S.W.2d 129, 1948 Ky. LEXIS 815 (Ky. 1948).

6. Reversionary Interest.

A conveyance "for school purposes" did not, in and of itself, create a reversionary interest. Binder v. County Board of Education, 224 Ky. 143, 5 S.W.2d 903, 1928 Ky. LEXIS 549 (Ky. 1928) (decided under prior law).

When the grantor of a lot to a school district was also one of the trustees, and received a valuable consideration, a clause of reversion could not have been enforced by him or a grantee without consideration. Terry v. Rose, 251 Ky. 314, 64 S.W.2d 909, 1933 Ky. LEXIS 857 (Ky. 1933) (decided under prior law).

This section did not bar operation of a reversionary clause in deed conveying land to school district for school purposes. Lykins v. Wolfe County Board of Education, 307 Ky. 24, 209 S.W.2d 717, 1948 Ky. LEXIS 672 (Ky. 1948).

Reversionary interest in school property will be enforced. Board of Education v. Society of Alumni, etc., 239 S.W.2d 931, 1951 Ky. LEXIS 907 (Ky. 1951).

7. — Creation.

A deed to school district containing a clause of reversion created in the trustees a determinable or qualified fee. Fayette County Board of Education v. Bryan, 263 Ky. 61, 91 S.W.2d 990, 1936 Ky. LEXIS 133 (Ky. 1936).

A conveyance to be held so long as the property was used for school purposes did create a reversionary interest. Fayette County Board of Education v. Bryan, 263 Ky. 61, 91 S.W.2d 990, 1936 Ky. LEXIS 133 (Ky. 1936).

Title to land should have reverted to grantor's descendants where deed to school district, by describing land as that on which new school house "now stands," and by providing that it was not to be conveyed for use of individual, created limitation or condition, and school district thereafter abandoned land and conveyed it to individual. Devine v. Isham, 284 Ky. 587, 145 S.W.2d 529, 1940 Ky. LEXIS 546 (Ky. 1940).

8. — Trustee As Grantor.

Provision in deed of land made by grantor, who was member of trustees of school district, that land should revert to donors, their heirs and assigns, as soon as school site was changed, was void, since it was duty of trustees under this section to acquire title to school sites in fee simple, and hence successors of grantor could not recover land notwithstanding trustees had abandoned land for school purposes. Keeton v. Wayne County Board of Education, 287 Ky. 174, 152 S.W.2d 595, 1941 Ky. LEXIS 518 (Ky. 1941).

9. — Buildings and Improvements.

Where county board of education in violation of statute took title to school lot with a reversion to grantors or their legal heirs when it ceased to be used for school purposes and later sold original school building which was removed from land after suit was filed by grantors' successors, there was an abandonment or cessation of use in the absence of affirmative showing of plan to erect a new building within a reasonable time and grantors' successors could have recovered land and building. Webster County Board of Education v. Wynn, 303 Ky. 110, 196 S.W.2d 983, 1946 Ky. LEXIS 801 (Ky. 1946).

While lands might have reverted to heirs or grantees of the original grantor, the title to buildings and other improvements remained in the Commonwealth for the benefit of the proper school district authorities. Cole v. Shockley, 309 Ky. 313, 217 S.W.2d 649, 1949 Ky. LEXIS 695 (Ky. 1949).

Statute in existence at time a deed of land to school district was executed, and reading substantially as this section, was construed to prevent title to abandoned school building or equipment from passing to owner of reversionary interest in the land. Cole v. Shockley, 309 Ky. 313, 217 S.W.2d 649, 1949 Ky. LEXIS 695 (Ky. 1949).

Provision providing that any reversionary interest in land used for school purposes should not deprive board of education of buildings or other improvements thereon, was not applicable to deed executed prior to passing of statute. Barren County Board of Education v. Jordan, 249 S.W.2d 814, 1952 Ky. LEXIS 879 (Ky. 1952).

10. Decisions Made by Local School Board.

The underlying theme of this section is that the actual decisions addressed hereunder are to be made by the local school board, not the state. Blackburn v. Floyd County Bd. of Educ., 749 F. Supp. 159, 1990 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 18321 (E.D. Ky. 1990).

11. Adverse Possession.

Title to property for school purposes may have been acquired by adverse possession. County Board of Education v. Mill Creek Methodist Church, 242 Ky. 147, 45 S.W.2d 1026, 1932 Ky. LEXIS 231 (Ky. 1932) (decided under prior law).

LEXIS 1088 (Ky. 1953); Robertson v. Danville, 291 S.W.2d 816, 1956 Ky. LEXIS 400 (Ky. 1956).

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

Under this section, the title to land acquired for school purposes is required to be in fee simple, and the acquisition of land by deed of easement is not permitted. OAG 60-423.

A municipality may not erect a water tank on school premises without the consent of the board of education and the payment of fair compensation for the use of school property. OAG 63-1060.

The right of the grantor to place and use mining entries through the surface of the land adjacent to school buildings and near which school children might be playing would violate the statute. OAG 65-345.

The intent and purpose of the statute are satisfied if title is taken in fee simple only to the surface rights which are unlimited as to duration and descendibility. OAG 65-345.

Purchases of athletic equipment of over $1,000 by a district school board would have to be made by the bidding procedure even though the purchase money was derived from admissions to athletic exhibitions. OAG 69-327.

A school board is not required to obtain prior approval of the local planning unit in order to construct a new school building. OAG 69-659.

The exemption for schools contained in KRS 100.361(2) would not apply until the property is acquired. OAG 69-659.

A city could not require a contractor to obtain a building permit for the construction of a county school within the city limits. OAG 70-636.

A city could legally deed property for $1.00 to the Commonwealth for the benefit of the school board, with a reverter provision which would give a fee simple title subject to a right of entry (reverter), unless construction of a school building has begun within five years of the date of the deed's execution, but if construction has begun within five years, the title would become a fee simple absolute. OAG 70-797.

Where a school board bought land, the deed to which contained a covenant running with the land that the buyer would maintain a fence for the benefit of the adjoining tract, the covenant did not violate this section. OAG 71-407.

Where title to property conveyed by the United States to a local board of education was a fee simple title, the transaction did not require the specific approval of the Attorney General even though the deed to the United States by its grantor contained a special warranty. OAG 72-316.

It would be allowable for a transfer of property from the federal government to a Commonwealth school board to contain a right of entry clause so long as that right of entry is not carried beyond the 30-year limit set out in KRS 381.219. OAG 72-477.

Subsection (1) of KRS 156.070 does not give the State Board of Education the authority to enact an administrative regulation requiring that surplus property be disposed of either through sealed bids or by public auction, as the legal obligation of a school board in selling property is to get the fair market value for the property sold in order that its value will not be lost to the district and to school purposes and a school board has the legal authority to convey good title under this section to the surplus property it has agreed to sell. OAG 73-204.

Since public common school buildings and school property are public property, no alcoholic beverages may be consumed in public school buildings or on public school property at any time. OAG 76-266.

Once approval to sell school property as surplus is given by the Superintendent of Public Instruction, there is no legal requirement that a board of education must dispose of the property by public auction or advertisement of sealed bids and the board may establish a price for the land and sell to any purchaser willing and able to meet that price if the figure represents at least the appraised fair market value of the property. OAG 76-291.

A deed of property to a local school board, subject to the grant of a prior 20-year lease of a portion of the property, to a local community action agency, at an annual rental of $1.00 but with the requirement that the lessee keep the leasehold in good repair, does not destroy or impair severely the fee title received. OAG 79-543.

162.020. Transfer of property from one district to another — Title not affected — District may own school in another district.

(1) The title to school property in territory transferred from one (1) school district to another shall not be affected by the transfer. In case of the sale of such property the board of education to which the property belongs may allow a credit on the sale price of the property in proportion to the ratio which the school population of the transferred territory is to the total school population of the district from which the territory was transferred before the transfer was made.

(2) A board of education owning and operating a school plant in another district on June 14, 1934, may continue to own and operate the plant, and a county board of education may establish and maintain a school in an independent school district. Any independent school district may purchase school sites and establish and maintain schools outside the limits of the independent district, but independent districts containing cities of the first class or designated cities shall not purchase school sites or establish or maintain schools outside the county in which the independent district is located.

(3) As used in this section, “designated city” means a city classified as a city of the second class as of January 1, 2014, under the city classification system in effect prior to January 1, 2015. The Department of Education shall, on or before January 1, 2015, create an official registry listing the cities that qualify as a “designated city” under this section and shall publish that registry on its Web site.

Analysis

1. Construction.
2. Merger with Two Districts.

1. Construction.

This section contemplates a situation in which the district from which territory was transferred would continue to operate as a school district. Board of Education v. Board of Education, 284 Ky. 774, 146 S.W.2d 30, 1940 Ky. LEXIS 581 (Ky. 1940).

2. Merger with Two Districts.

Where town independent school district was dissolved and part of it went to city district and part to county district resulting in merger with those districts, equitable disposition of property of former town district would be to divide it between city and county districts in proportion of population which became part of city district to that which became part of county district; liabilities of former town district being assumed by city and county districts in same proportion. Board of Education v. Board of Education, 284 Ky. 774, 146 S.W.2d 30, 1940 Ky. LEXIS 581 (Ky. 1940).

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Analysis

1. Future Needs.
2. Resolution of Board.
3. Negotiations.
4. School Purposes.
5. Compensation.

1. Future Needs.

Authority of school board to condemn is not limited to immediate needs only, but it may, and indeed should give consideration to future needs and the fact that a portion of the land taken will continue to be put to private use by a public utility holding a lease thereon until the needs of the board require its use does not destroy the right of eminent domain. Pike County Board of Education v. Ford, 279 S.W.2d 245, 1955 Ky. LEXIS 521 (Ky. 1955).

2. Resolution of Board.

Technical strictness in the language of resolution adopted by board of education in condemnation proceedings is not required. Pike County Board of Education v. Ford, 279 S.W.2d 245, 1955 Ky. LEXIS 521 (Ky. 1955).

3. Negotiations.

Where board made an inadequate offer but left the matter open to further negotiation by “if they feel that they can make some offer with some degree of reasonableness attached thereto, we shall be happy to receive and consider their offer” there was a good faith effort to negotiate and the board’s offer was not a “take it or leave it” offer. Pike County Board of Education v. Ford, 279 S.W.2d 245, 1955 Ky. LEXIS 521 (Ky. 1955).

Where the board offered $150,000 for a 43.3-acre parcel when the owner had assessed the value of the entire 103-acre tract at $122,600, the condemnor made all the effort required by this section. Usher & Gardner, Inc. v. Mayfield Independent Board of Education, 461 S.W.2d 560, 1970 Ky. LEXIS 641 (Ky. 1970).

4. School Purposes.

Where the approval of the proposed site by the Superintendent of Public Instruction and the State Department of Education was clearly proved, there was ample evidence to support the finding of the trial judge that the proposed acquisition was for school purposes. Usher & Gardner, Inc. v. Mayfield Independent Board of Education, 461 S.W.2d 560, 1970 Ky. LEXIS 641 (Ky. 1970).

5. Compensation.

The landowner was entitled to receive as just compensation the difference in the fair market value of the total tract of land immediately before and immediately after the taking of a portion of the land for school purposes. Usher & Gardner, Inc. v. Mayfield Independent Board of Education, 461 S.W.2d 560, 1970 Ky. LEXIS 641 (Ky. 1970).

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

A city cannot require a subdivider to dedicate certain lands, shown or not shown on the master plan of current adoption, to the public for use as a site for schools and/or parks. OAG 65-417.

The discretion in the matter of the use of a school house is given to the board of education and not the principal, but, unless there is some good reason to refuse the use of the property to a particular organization, the board should allow requesting organizations the use of the property under uniform conditions. The utterance of prayers or the reading of the Bible can continue in PTA meetings and voluntary Bible classes held without the regular school hours or school curriculum. OAG 64-111.

An independent school district can construct an auditorium-gymnasium and, after its completion, use the money which the city wishes to contribute as rent for the times when the building could be leased to the city. OAG 64-475.

Under this section school students who voluntarily out of spontaneous wishes hold prayer sessions outside of regular school hours on school property may be permitted to continue to do so, as the school board is not violating constitutional principles in allowing this specific activity. OAG 72-386.

The use of school facilities is subject to the determination of a local board of education and it is paramount that the board adopt rules and regulations regarding the permitting of the use of school property so that such use does not in any way interfere with the conducting of any school program, curricular or co-curricular. A local board of education has the lawful authority and duty to prescribe the manner in which school buildings and facilities may be used by groups during nonschool hours. OAG 80-78.

162.055. Use of school property by public for recreational, sporting, academic, literary, artistic, or community uses — Limited civil immunity.

(1) As used in this section:

(a) "Nonschool hours" refers to those times occurring during the school week which precede or follow regular classroom instruction and also includes weekends, holidays, and vacation breaks;

(b) "Public members of the community" includes, in addition to ordinary community members, both students who are not involved in a school-sanctioned curricular or extracurricular activity during non-school hours and school staff when not working as employees of the school;

(c) "Recreation" includes any indoor or outdoor game or physical activity, either organized or unorganized, undertaken for exercise or sport;

(d) "School property" includes all indoor or outdoor school structures, facilities, and land, whether owned, rented, or leased by the school or school district; and

(e) "Sport" means an activity requiring physical exertion and skill, and which by its nature and organization is competitive, includes a set of rules, and is generally accepted in the community as a sport.

(2) A local school board may authorize the use of school property by public members of the community during nonschool hours for the purpose of recreation, sport, academic, literary, artistic, or community uses pursuant to policies adopted by the local school board.

(3) A school district and its board members, officers, and employees shall retain the same immunities for any claim for loss or injury arising from use of indoor or outdoor school property or facilities during nonschool hours allowed under this section as would otherwise apply or be available had the use occurred during school hours or for school-related activities.

(4) Nothing in this section shall be construed to:

(a) Create a duty of care or ground of liability for injury to persons or property;

(b) Relieve any person using the school property for recreation from any obligation which he or she may have in the absence of this section to exercise care in his or her use of the school property and his or her activities thereon, or from the legal consequences of failure to employ such care;

(c) Ripen into a claim for adverse possession, absent a claim of title or legal right; or

(d) Limit the liability protections available under KRS 411.190 or other law.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Analysis

1. Discretion of Board and Superintendent.
2. Contract for Construction.
3. Decisions Made by Local School Board.

1. Discretion of Board and Superintendent.

When the board has obtained the approval of the Superintendent of Public Instruction of its plans for a new building, courts will not interfere with the proposed plans unless there is positive proof of fraud, collusion or a clear abuse of discretion since the obligation of locating school sites rests with the county board of education and it is not for the courts to say whether the board has acted wisely or unwisely in determining where the school should be located but the only question for the court's determination is whether the board is exceeding its authority or is acting arbitrarily. Perry County Board of Education v. Deaton, 311 Ky. 227, 223 S.W.2d 882, 1949 Ky. LEXIS 1100 (Ky. 1949).

2. Contract for Construction.

A board of education lacks the power or capacity to enter a contract for school construction where the revenue bond method provided in KRS 162.120 to 162.290 is utilized. Hacker Bros. Constr. Co. v. Board of Education, 590 S.W.2d 897, 1979 Ky. App. LEXIS 493 (Ky. Ct. App. 1979).

3. Decisions Made by Local School Board.

The underlying theme of this section is that the actual decisions addressed hereunder are to be made by the local school board, not the state. Blackburn v. Floyd County Bd. of Educ., 749 F. Supp. 159, 1990 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 18321 (E.D. Ky. 1990).

162.065. Administrative regulations for use by local school boards when constructing schools using construction managers — Items considered equal to specifications may be furnished.

The State Board of Education shall promulgate administrative regulations for use by local school boards when constructing school buildings using construction managers. A construction manager is an experienced and qualified construction contracting organization that is paid a fee for its professional management and supervision services. The regulations shall include, but not be limited to:

(1) A standard “Request for Proposal” form, including appropriate criteria for use by local school boards to ensure only qualified construction managers are considered:

(a) A list of successfully completed projects or a demonstrated capability to perform projects of a similar type;

(b) A descriptive detail of projects showing the experience and the ability to perform budget estimating, value engineering, and scheduling; and

(c) A list of experienced and qualified personnel with a track record of achieved quality and the capability to provide bidder solicitation;

(2) Adequate public notice of the invitation for proposals shall be given a sufficient time prior to the date set for the opening of proposals;

(3) A requirement for bids, when requested by a construction manager, be submitted to the architect or owner and opened in public;

(4) A requirement that all bids for school construction projects be advertised in newspapers with the largest local circulation;

(5) A sample fee schedule for construction manager services shall be developed by recommendation of a diversified committee consisting of Department of Education personnel, architects, and construction managers for the guidance of local school boards;

(6) A requirement that established qualifications-based selection procedures be implemented by local boards when selecting firms to provide architectural and engineering services; and

(7) A requirement that specifications in every invitation for bids or request for proposals shall provide that an item equal to that named or described in the specifications may be furnished. The specifications may identify a sole brand in cases where, in the written opinion of the chief procurement officer, documented unique and valid conditions require compatibility, continuity, or conformity with established standards. An item shall be considered equal to the item named or described if, in the opinion of the local board and the design professional responsible for the specifications:

(a) It is at least equal in quality, durability, strength, design, and other criteria deemed appropriate;

(b) It will perform at least equally the function imposed by the general design for the public work being contracted for or the material being purchased; and

(c) It conforms substantially to the detailed requirements for the item in the specifications.

162.070. Contracts for buildings, improvements, and materials to be let on competitive bidding — When advertisements not required.

The contracts for the erection of new school buildings, additions and repairs to old buildings, except additions or repairs not exceeding seven thousand five hundred dollars ($7,500), shall be made by the board of education with the lowest and best responsible bidder complying with the terms of the letting, after advertisement for competitive bids pursuant to KRS Chapter 424, but the board may reject any or all bids. All necessary specifications and drawings shall be prepared for all such work. The board shall advertise for bids on all supplies and equipment that it desires to purchase, except where the amount of the purchase does not exceed seven thousand five hundred dollars ($7,500), and shall accept the bid of the lowest and best bidder taking into consideration the price and the reciprocal preference for resident bidders under KRS 45A.494, but the board may reject any and all bids.

Compiler’s Notes.

A former identical section (4399-48; amend. Acts 1954, ch. 172; 1966, ch. 239, § 148; 1976, ch. 185, § 1; 1978, ch. 58, § 1) was repealed by Acts 1978, ch. 110, § 106, effective January 1, 1980.

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

Under the wording “lowest and best responsible bidder,” as set forth in this section, it means not only the lowest monetary bid, but it means that the factors of business judgment, capacity, skill, and responsibility of the bidder must be carefully assessed in awarding the bid. OAG 80-396.

Although site work can be and is usually interpreted to be a part of a project involving school building construction or remodeling, site work unrelated to school building construction does not come within the scope of this section. Thus, where a school district wished to correct a drainage problem at one of its schools, KRS 424.260 and the $7,500 "small purchases" ceiling was applicable to the contract for drainage site work. OAG 82-407.

To the extent this section and KRS 424.260 are in conflict, the provisions and therefore the $7,500 amount found in KRS 424.260, as amended in 1982, must be deemed to prevail over the lower $5,000 amount remaining in this section. OAG 82-407. (The amount now specified by KRS 424.260 is $20,000.)

A Labor Agreement between a local Board of Education and a Labor Union in a school construction project is not prohibited provided the terms of the labor agreement do not offend or violate the Kentucky Model Procurement Code (KRS Chapter 45A) or the public school construction statute found at KRS 162.070. OAG 10-006.

162.075. Compliance with code not necessary on purchases from federal government.

The provisions of KRS Chapter 45A and KRS 162.070 shall not apply to purchases made by the boards of education within the Commonwealth of Kentucky from the United States of America, or any agency thereof.

162.080. Bond issues for school sites and buildings — Authorization — Election.

(1) Whenever a board of education deems it necessary for the proper accommodation of the schools of its district to enlarge sites for school buildings, to purchase new sites, which in the case of independent districts may be not more than two (2) miles without the boundary lines of the district, to improve, remodel, or restore school buildings, to erect or equip new school buildings, or for any or all of these purposes, and the annual funds raised from other sources are not sufficient to accomplish the purpose, the board shall make a careful estimate of the amount of money required for the purpose and shall determine the amount of money for which bonds shall be issued and the purpose to which the proceeds shall be applied. Upon request of the board of education of any district, the county clerk shall submit to the qualified voters of the district, the question as to whether bonds shall be issued for the purpose. The question shall be so framed that the voter may by his vote answer "for" or "against."

(2) The request shall be accompanied by an ordinance or resolution which shall fix the time the bonds shall run and, if a serial issue, the amount to mature at each time. It shall limit the rate of interest to be permitted on the bonds, which shall not exceed the amount permitted by law, and the total amount of bonds to be issued, and shall provide for the levy of a tax to pay the interest and to create a sinking fund to retire them at their maturity.

(3) The election shall be held not less than fifteen (15) nor more than thirty (30) days from the time the request of the board of education is filed with the county clerk, and reasonable notice of the election shall be given. The election shall be conducted and carried out in the school district in all respects as required by the general election laws, and shall be held by the same officers as required by the general election laws. The expense of the election shall be borne by the school district.

1. Authority of Board.

The kind and cost of a school building are matters to be determined by the board of education. Boll v. Ludlow, 234 Ky. 812, 29 S.W.2d 547, 1930 Ky. LEXIS 274 (Ky. 1930) (decided under prior law).

Where school board was renting school building constructed under holding company plan, and one of buildings was destroyed by fire, school board had no authority to issue funding bonds to enable building to be reconstructed. Stith v. Board of Education, 292 Ky. 91, 166 S.W.2d 58, 1942 Ky. LEXIS 53 (Ky. 1942).

2. Stadium.

A board is not authorized to expend funds for a high school stadium, as the latter is not a "school building" within the meaning of this statute. Board of Education v. Williams, 256 S.W.2d 29, 1953 Ky. LEXIS 714 (Ky. 1953) (decided under prior law).

3. Application of Proceeds.

When the question submitted concerns only sites and buildings, no part of the bond proceeds may be used to equip buildings. Hager v. Board of Education, 254 Ky. 791, 72 S.W.2d 475, 1934 Ky. LEXIS 160 (Ky. 1934).

4. Resolution.

Omissions in the resolution of the school board may be supplied by the ordinance or resolution of the taxing authority. Mollette v. Board of Education, 260 Ky. 737, 86 S.W.2d 990, 1935 Ky. LEXIS 562 (Ky. 1935).

Where resolution of board provided for issuance of serial bonds and ordinance provided for issuance of bonds in the amount of $1,000 each to mature in not exceeding 40 years the bonds were invalid as the resolution did not comply with the ordinance. Suratt v. Board of Education, 313 Ky. 343, 231 S.W.2d 88, 1950 Ky. LEXIS 894 (Ky. 1950).

5. Time of Maturity.

The question as to whether school improvement bonds should be callable before maturity is one of time of payment as dealt with in this section and not merely a mechanical detail as dealt with in KRS 162.090. Howard v. Board of Education, 311 Ky. 130, 223 S.W.2d 721, 1949 Ky. LEXIS 1076 (Ky. 1949).

6. Voting in Accordance with Ordinance.

All of the authority vested in the board as to the sale and handling of the bonds and their payment is predicated upon the manner in which they are voted, which must be in accordance with the ordinance of the fiscal court providing for the bond election. Howard v. Board of Education, 311 Ky. 130, 223 S.W.2d 721, 1949 Ky. LEXIS 1076 (Ky. 1949).

7. Submission.

Where board of education followed the procedure of this section and certified its action to the board of aldermen of city of first class, the proper tax levying authority, it was the duty of the board of aldermen to provide for the submission of the question of their issuance to the people and take other consistent proceedings. Louisville v. Board of Education, 302 Ky. 647, 195 S.W.2d 291, 1946 Ky. LEXIS 725 (Ky. 1946).

8. Election.

Provision of law requiring election to be held in not less than 15 nor more than 30 days after filing of certificate, was merely directory, and an election held 33 days thereafter was a substantial compliance with the law and was valid. Davidson v. Board of Education, 225 Ky. 165, 7 S.W.2d 1056, 1928 Ky. LEXIS 738 (Ky. 1928) (decided under prior law).

9. — Time for Holding.

The date of school elections is not controlled by Ky. Const., § 148. Mollette v. Board of Education, 260 Ky. 737, 86 S.W.2d 990, 1935 Ky. LEXIS 562 (Ky. 1935).

Although polling hours are from six a.m. to four p.m., when an election is held at different hours it must be shown that such hours affected the result of the election. Mollette v. Board of Education, 260 Ky. 737, 86 S.W.2d 990, 1935 Ky. LEXIS 562 (Ky. 1935).

It will be presumed that the election was held at the proper hours, even though call and notice provided otherwise. Mollette v. Board of Education, 260 Ky. 737, 86 S.W.2d 990, 1935 Ky. LEXIS 562 (Ky. 1935).

10. — Notice.

Publication of notice of election in one issue of a newspaper of general circulation in the district, and posting in six public places 15 days before the election, constituted sufficient notice. Mollette v. Board of Education, 260 Ky. 737, 86 S.W.2d 990, 1935 Ky. LEXIS 562 (Ky. 1935).

162.090. Issuance and sale of bonds — Proceeds — Tax to pay.

(1) If two-thirds ($\frac{2}{3}$) of those voting on the question vote in favor of the proposition, the bonds shall be issued. The bonds shall be designated "school improvement bonds." They shall be placed under the control of the board of education, and the board shall determine when, at what price and how the bonds shall be sold, the date, number of bonds, denomination, whether coupon or registered, the rate of interest, the frequency and place of payment of principal and interest, and other details as desired, embodied in the bonds or in the request providing for their issue. The board shall at once adopt a resolution in conformity therewith. The bonds shall be signed by the chairman and secretary of the board of education. As the bonds are sold, their proceeds shall be placed to the credit of the board of education in a depository designated by the board of education, and shall be kept in a separate account. The depository shall be required to execute proper bond covering the funds.

(2) The board of education of the district shall, in addition to the levy made for the maintenance of schools, levy annually a tax sufficient to raise a sum for the payment of the interest and to create a sinking fund for the payment of the bonds at maturity. The bonds shall be a charge upon the school district.

1. Sale and Issuance.

All of the authority vested in the board as to the sale and handling of the bonds and their payment is predicated upon the manner in which they are voted, which must be in accordance with the ordinance of the fiscal court providing for the bond election. Howard v. Board of Education, 311 Ky. 130, 223 S.W.2d 721, 1949 Ky. LEXIS 1076 (Ky. 1949).

2. — Ordinance.

Absence of details in ordinance is not fatal in absence of showing that they were also omitted from bonds. Mollette v. Board of Education, 260 Ky. 737, 86 S.W.2d 990, 1935 Ky. LEXIS 562 (Ky. 1935).

3. — Time.

It is unnecessary that all bonds voted be issued and sold at the same time. Hager v. Board of Education, 254 Ky. 791, 72 S.W.2d 475, 1934 Ky. LEXIS 160 (Ky. 1934). See Runyon v. Simpson, 270 Ky. 646, 110 S.W.2d 440, 1937 Ky. LEXIS 135 (Ky. 1937).

Lapse of more than four years from date of election authorizing a bond issue does not preclude issuance of part or all of said issue. Hager v. Board of Education, 254 Ky. 791, 72 S.W.2d 475, 1934 Ky. LEXIS 160 (Ky. 1934). See Runyon v. Simpson, 270 Ky. 646, 110 S.W.2d 440, 1937 Ky. LEXIS 135 (Ky. 1937).

4. Obligations.

5. — School District.

The provisions of this section, making school bonds the obligation of the city in cases where the city school district embraces the city, cannot constitutionally be applied where the city boundaries extend beyond those of the school district, therefore the bonds constitute obligations of the school district, for which only property within the district may be taxed and for which only voters in the district may vote on the question of issuance of bonds. Board of Education v. Louisville, 258 S.W.2d 707, 1953 Ky. LEXIS 877 (Ky. 1953).

6. — Board of Education.

This section expressly makes the bonds a charge or obligation of the board of education except where the school district embraces a city of the first or second class. Louisville v. Board of Education, 302 Ky. 647, 195 S.W.2d 291, 1946 Ky. LEXIS 725 (Ky. 1946).

7. — City.

In independent districts embracing a city of the second class the bonds are bonds of the city. Hager v. Board of Education, 254 Ky. 791, 72 S.W.2d 475, 1934 Ky. LEXIS 160 (Ky. 1934). See Hager v. Cisco, 256 Ky. 708, 76 S.W.2d 614, 1934 Ky. LEXIS 446 (Ky. 1934).

8. Competitive Bidding.

Bonds can be sold only upon competitive bidding after public and reasonable advertisement or a proposal to receive bids or offers for bonds proposed to be issued and sold; however, this decision is not retroactive, and applies only to future transactions. Eagle v. Corbin, 275 Ky. 808, 122 S.W.2d 798, 1938 Ky. LEXIS 507 (Ky. 1938).

Where contract of board of education to issue bonds to purchaser was made before the effective date of Eagle v. City of Corbin, 275 Ky. 808, 122 S.W.2d 798, 1938 Ky. LEXIS 507 (1938), such contract was not invalidated by failure to advertise bonds for competitive bidding, since the decision in Eagle v. Corbin does not have retroactive effect. Ebert v. Board of Education, 277 Ky. 633, 126 S.W.2d 1111, 1939 Ky. LEXIS 706 (Ky. 1939).

The decision in Eagle v. City of Corbin, 275 Ky. 808, 122 S.W.2d 798, 1938 Ky. LEXIS 507 (1938), does not prohibit the sale of bonds upon competitive bids upon interest rates, as long as the ordinance states the maximum rate of interest. Funk v. Strathmoor Village, 278 Ky. 627, 129 S.W.2d 151, 1939 Ky. LEXIS 477 (Ky. 1939).

9. Tax Levy.

An attempt by school board to levy tax for retirement of bonds will be deemed a request to the tax levying authority to levy such a tax. Mollette v. Board of Education, 260 Ky. 737, 86 S.W.2d 990, 1935 Ky. LEXIS 562 (Ky. 1935).

10. Misapplication of Sinking Fund.

The fact that board had been enjoined, in suit by taxpayers, from further collection of original tax for bonds, was no defense where board had misapplied from sinking fund more than enough to pay the bonds. Board of Education v. Highland Cemetery, 292 Ky. 374, 166 S.W.2d 854, 1942 Ky. LEXIS 99 (Ky. 1942) (decided under prior law).

Where school subdistrict used, for general school purposes, the proceeds of a tax levied to pay bonds, which proceeds would have been sufficient to pay bonds in full, bondholders were entitled to judgment requiring school board to pay bonds out of board's general fund, and to levy a tax to pay the balance of the bonds if the amount in the general fund was not sufficient to pay the bonds in full. Board of Education v. Highland Cemetery, 292 Ky. 374, 166 S.W.2d 854, 1942 Ky. LEXIS 99 (Ky. 1942) (decided under prior law).

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

Local boards of education must assume all administrative responsibility concerning bond issues for school sites and buildings; however, since school financing is done almost exclusively through school building revenue bonds pursuant to KRS 162.210 through 162.300 and KRS 58.010 through 58.120 inclusive, there is no authority for any change in the preexisting procedure used for school revenue bonds and the fiscal courts and county treasurers must continue to perform the customary functions heretofore served by them in that regard. 1. Conveyance and Lease Back.

Bonds issued by a city as a conduit of independent school district pursuant to KRS 162.120 to 162.300 to pay costs of school auditorium-gymnasium to be erected on site conveyed by county board of education to the independent school district which was to convey it to the city which was to lease it back to school district until retirement of the bonds would not constitute direct obligations of the city or of the independent school district but would be secured by a first lien upon the auditorium-gymnasium and the right of the bondholders to enforce the lien would in no way be affected by a merger of independent school district and county school district. Ranier v. Board of Education, 273 S.W.2d 577, 1954 Ky. LEXIS 1190 (Ky. 1954).

The school board had the right to convey a school site to the city and then lease back the site and improvements thereon. Bowling Green v. Board of Education, 443 S.W.2d 243, 1969 Ky. LEXIS 244 (Ky. 1969).

The school board is authorized to convey a building site to the city and lease it back with improvements financed by city's bonds. Bowling Green v. Board of Education, 443 S.W.2d 243, 1969 Ky. LEXIS 244 (Ky. 1969).

The authority of the school board to convey property to the city and then lease back the property with improvements was not conditioned upon financing under any particular statutory authority. Bowling Green v. Board of Education, 443 S.W.2d 243, 1969 Ky. LEXIS 244 (Ky. 1969).

2. Selection of Site.

The selection of the site is to be made by the board of education. Franklin County v. Franklin County Board of Education, 267 Ky. 554, 102 S.W.2d 1024, 1937 Ky. LEXIS 355 (Ky. 1937).

4. Merger with County after Conveyance to City.

The fact that after conveyance to the city, the independent district was merged with the county district does not affect the right of the city to consummate the original plan. Piggott v. Kasey, 271 Ky. 651, 113 S.W.2d 5, 1938 Ky. LEXIS 33 (Ky. 1938).

5. Acquisition of Property and Buildings.

A county or city may acquire property on which school buildings have already been erected and finance the cost of acquisition under the provisions of KRS 162.120 to 162.300. Morgan v. Fayette County Board of Education, 294 Ky. 597, 172 S.W.2d 64, 1943 Ky. LEXIS 480 (Ky. 1943).

6. Liability for Tax.

Regardless of time or amount, the voting of a tax to pay revenue bonds issued for school construction does not impose a tax in futuro but merely grants authority to the taxing power to increase the amount of annual tax that the law otherwise authorized to be levied and property transferred by county school board to city school district is not liable for county school building tax voted prior to the transfer. Board of Education v. Board of Education, 250 S.W.2d 1017, 1952 Ky. LEXIS 897 (Ky. 1952).

7. Revenue Bonds.

Revenue bonds issued under KRS 162.120 to 162.300 did not constitute an indebtedness of county school district so city school district to which territory was transferred from county school district after voters of county district authorized a special school building tax to pay rentals for the school buildings to be erected and financed by the bonds was not liable for any part of the revenue bonds under proportional assumption statute KRS 160.065. Board of Education v. Board of Education, 250 S.W.2d 1017, 1952 Ky. LEXIS 897 (Ky. 1952).

City is required to cooperate with independent school district in the issuance and sale of bonds but it is merely a conduit through which the board of education acts to have the bonds issued and sold and has no discretion in the matter. Ranier v. Board of Education, 273 S.W.2d 577, 1954 Ky. LEXIS 1190 (Ky. 1954).

8. Contract for Construction.

A board of education lacks the power or capacity to enter a contract for school construction where the revenue bond method provided in KRS 162.120 to 162.290 is utilized. Hacker Bros. Constr. Co. v. Board of Education, 590 S.W.2d 897, 1979 Ky. App. LEXIS 493 (Ky. Ct. App. 1979).

9. — Unenforceable.

Where a construction company was attempting to maintain an action on the basis that it had a valid contract with the school board, the contract was unenforceable because the approval of the voters of the county was not obtained, as required by § 157 of the Kentucky Constitution; on the other hand, if the construction company was attempting to maintain the action on the basis that the revenue bond methods provided for in KRS 162.120 to 162.290 were followed, the contract was unenforceable because the only government agency possessing the power and authority to execute such a contract failed to do so. *Hacker Bros. OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

Where the fee simple title to school property was owned by the county and the city wanted to blacktop certain roads on the property, the county was liable for its apportionate cost of the improvement as a benefited property owner. OAG 60-377.

A fund resulting from the sale of school property could be used for the purchase of sites for school buildings, for the erection and complete equipping of school buildings, and for the major alteration, enlargement and complete equipping of buildings, in accordance with the provisions of KRS 160.476, even though refunding revenue bonds were outstanding on other school property. OAG 66-224.

Other school property, title to which has been retained by the school district, does not represent part of the security for refunding revenue bonds issued to provide for a specific building. OAG 66-224.

Although, under this section through KRS 162.300, a certificate from the trustee stating certain bonds and coupons were redeemed and canceled is sufficient evidence that the bonds and coupons have been paid and properly canceled, the school board treasurer should normally visually inspect the bonds and coupons before incineration. OAG 72-487.

Under the provisions of this section through KRS 162.300 a school board may not relieve itself of liability for the bonds and coupons by a transfer of the "rental" money to a trustee since the board is contractually responsible for taking steps to insure that the debt service and liquidation of coupons and bonds for the benefit of bondholders is effectively secured. OAG 72-487.

Under the provisions of this section through KRS 162.300 the school board should require the trustee to make an accounting each year of money received and bonds and coupons paid. OAG 72-487.

Under this section through KRS 162.300 any excess money left after liability for the bonds has ceased would revert to the school board treasury. OAG 72-487.

Under this section through KRS 162.300 if a paying agent or trustee pays a wrong bond or coupon the improper payment is the liability of the trustee and not the school as the board does not insure the trustee's acts in this regard; therefore, the trustee is liable to the board but the board is liable to the holder. OAG 72-487.

Under this section through KRS 162.300 when bonds or coupons are not presented at maturity liability for these items would continue subject to the applicable statute of limitations. OAG 72-487.

Since financing of school bonds is done almost exclusively through the authority of KRS 162.120 through 162.300 and KRS 58.010 through 58.120, there is no authority for any change in the preexisting administration procedure used for school building revenue bonds and fiscal courts and county treasurers must continue to perform the customary functions heretofore served by them in that regard. OAG 77-139, modifying OAG 76-711.

The Kentucky School Facilities Construction Commission Act, KRS 157.611 to 157.640, does not give the Commission unilateral power to choose whether that Act or KRS 162.120 to 162.300 will be used to finance school building construction. OAG 86-50.

Immediately upon the approval of the plans and specifications as provided in KRS 162.130, the board of education shall offer to lease the building for a term of one (1) year from the time the building is completed and ready for occupancy. The lease by its terms shall give the lessee the right and option to extend the term of the lease from year to year, for periods of one (1) year, until the original term of the lease has been extended for a total number of years, acceptable to the city, not exceeding thirty (30) years, at a rental which, if paid for the original term and for each of the full number of years for which the term is extended, will amortize the total cost of the erection of the building and appurte-

1. Authority to Lease.
2. Abuse of Board's Discretion.
3. Lease for Thirty Years Invalid.

1. Authority to Lease.

The authority of the school board to convey property to the city and then lease back the property with improvements was not conditioned upon financing under any particular statutory authority. Bowling Green v. Board of Education, 443 S.W.2d 243, 1969 Ky. LEXIS 244 (Ky. 1969).

The school board had the right to convey a school site to the city and then lease back the site and improvements thereon. Bowling Green v. Board of Education, 443 S.W.2d 243, 1969 Ky. LEXIS 244 (Ky. 1969).

The school board is authorized to convey a building site to the city and lease it back with improvements financed by city's bonds. Bowling Green v. Board of Education, 443 S.W.2d 243, 1969 Ky. LEXIS 244 (Ky. 1969).

2. Abuse of Board's Discretion.

Where county had existing bonded debt of $225,000 and the county board of education a debt of nearly $100,000 and estimates of future revenue indicated there would be available $2,000 to $5,600 more than necessary for servicing existing debts and meeting obligations incurred in building proposed new school, approval of plan by which county board of education and fiscal court proposed to erect a new high school and issue $250,000 in bonds payable from rents received annually from school board over 20-year period was not an abuse of discretion. Carter v. Taylor, 313 Ky. 445, 231 S.W.2d 601, 1950 Ky. LEXIS 896 (Ky. 1950).

3. Lease for Thirty Years Invalid.

A lease for one year with annual renewal option is valid, when rental involved does not result in violation of Const., § 157. However a 30-year lease is invalid since it does result in a violation of said constitutional section. Davis v. Board of Education, 260 Ky. 294, 83 S.W.2d 34, 1935 Ky. LEXIS 396 (Ky. 1935).

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

The school board has broad discretion under KRS 160.160 and 160.290 in the selection of school sites and the establishment of schools so that even if the county is the legal owner of the property and is leasing it to the the school board under this section, as the school district holds equitable title, the fiscal court has no rights relative to a high school building which the board of education plans to tear down and replace with a new building, unless the county could negotiate to purchase the property from the school board. OAG 74-221.

A school board should not tie up school property for a period exceeding a year but should, instead, provide for an extension of the term of the lease from year to year, for periods of one year, for a specified number of total years. OAG 77-771.

Boards of education may place their general funds in banks designated as depositories pursuant to KRS 160.570 and obtain from such banks certificates of deposit representing time deposits of surplus funds subject to withdrawal on demand. OAG 64-70.

The "school building revenue bond and interest redemption fund" mentioned on the face of the specimen copy of a typical school bond is really a part and parcel of the "sinking fund" mentioned in this section, and the transfer of such funds finally to the trustee of the bonds does not automatically relieve the board of education of liability, since the board is contractually responsible for taking steps to insure that the debt service and liquidation of coupons and bonds for the benefit of bondholders is effectively secured. (1) "City" means "county," including a county containing a consolidated local government, or "urban-county," as the case may be;

(2) "City clerk" means "county clerk" or the appropriate recordkeeping officer in an urban-county government or a consolidated local government;

(3) "Governing body of the city" means "fiscal court" or the governing body of an urban-county government or a consolidated local government, as the case may be;

(4) “Mayor” means “county judge/executive,” “chief executive officer of the urban-county government,” or “mayor of a consolidated local government,” as the case may be; and

(5) “Ordinance” means either “ordinance” or “resolution.”

Analysis

1. Authority of Board.
2. Determination of Site.
3. Acquisition of School Buildings.
4. Borrowing Money.
5. Lease of School Building.
6. Power of Fiscal Court.
7. Bondholders’ Rights.

1. Authority of Board.

The authority vested in the school board is clearly a general and comprehensive power, given it without limitation, express or implied, effective to forbid it from making its financing plan of a group conveyance of three school properties and providing for a refund of all taxes paid by holders of its school bonds where amount was within its annual income. Scott County Board of Education v. McMillen, 270 Ky. 483, 109 S.W.2d 1201, 1937 Ky. LEXIS 100 (Ky. 1937).

County board of education is vested with the broad power and authority to control, buy and sell real estate for school sites, and to control and manage all public school property of its district and to use such school funds and property to promote public education in such ways as it deems necessary and proper in the exercise of its judgment and discretion. Scott County Board of Education v. McMillen, 270 Ky. 483, 109 S.W.2d 1201, 1937 Ky. LEXIS 100 (Ky. 1937).

A county board of education had no authority to execute a plan by which board was to convey to a nonprofit corporation 20 percent of school property in county, but not site on which school building was to be erected, and corporation was to erect building and execute lease-option contract to board by which, after payment of rental for period of years, board was to become owner of all property conveyed to corporation. Weeks v. Board of Education, 282 Ky. 241, 137 S.W.2d 1094, 1940 Ky. LEXIS 132 (Ky. 1940).

Board of education is naked trustee of school property and the real beneficiaries are the pupils for whose benefit school property is donated and the board could not appropriate the proceeds of fire policy taken out by it on colored schoolhouse which had been donated to it for exclusive benefit of the colored school district to the public school funds for the benefit of all public schools within its jurisdiction. Board of Education v. Todd County Board of Education, 289 Ky. 803, 160 S.W.2d 170, 1942 Ky. LEXIS 645 (Ky. 1942).

Where school board was renting school building constructed under holding company plan, and one of buildings was destroyed by fire, school board had no authority to issue funding bonds to enable building to be reconstructed. Stith v. Board of

2. Determination of Site.

Board of education and not the fiscal court has both the power and the duty to determine the site upon which school building will be erected. Franklin County v. Franklin County Board of Education, 267 Ky. 554, 102 S.W.2d 1024, 1937 Ky. LEXIS 355 (Ky. 1937).

3. Acquisition of School Buildings.

A county or city may acquire property on which school buildings have already been erected and finance the cost of acquisition under the provisions of KRS 162.120 to 162.300. Morgan v. Fayette County Board of Education, 294 Ky. 597, 172 S.W.2d 64, 1943 Ky. LEXIS 480 (Ky. 1943).

County had authority to acquire school buildings from private holding company, and issue bonds in exchange for outstanding bonds of holding company and in such case several buildings or properties may be included in one mortgage and bond issue. Morgan v. Fayette County Board of Education, 294 Ky. 597, 172 S.W.2d 64, 1943 Ky. LEXIS 480 (Ky. 1943).

4. Borrowing Money.

Counties and cities, in financing construction of school buildings, may borrow money from sources other than the federal government. Morgan v. Fayette County Board of Education, 294 Ky. 597, 172 S.W.2d 64, 1943 Ky. LEXIS 480 (Ky. 1943).

5. Lease of School Building.

Provision that lease of school building by fiscal court to school district would continue from year to year for a rental sufficient to pay interest on the bonds and eventually retire the bonds violated the constitutional limitation on indebtedness but it could be changed to one year with the privilege of renewal and the school board would not be presently bound for the entire period required for the rentals to liquidate the proposed indebtedness but would be bound only for one year at a time as renewed which would be within the income of the board for each particular year. Fiscal Court of Jackson County v. Board of Education, 268 Ky. 336, 104 S.W.2d 1103, 1937 Ky. LEXIS 466 (Ky. 1937).

6. Power of Fiscal Court.

When the legislature enacted this section it did not intend that the acts of a county board of education might be vetoed by the fiscal court. Fyfe v. Hardin County Board of Education, 305 Ky. 589, 205 S.W.2d 165, 1947 Ky. LEXIS 880 (Ky. 1947).

Fiscal court must comply with request of county board of education for issuance of revenue bonds for school buildings under this section, and cannot question need for buildings or use its own judgment as to whether bonds shall be issued. Fyfe v. Hardin County Board of Education, 305 Ky. 589, 205 S.W.2d 165, 1947 Ky. LEXIS 880 (Ky. 1947).

7. Bondholders’ Rights.

Where county had issued revenue bonds pursuant to this section under a plan where the school board conveyed a tract of land to the fiscal court which issued revenue bonds and constructed a school building and then leased the building to the school board for one year with option to renew for successive one year periods and when sufficient rentals were paid over a period of years to retire the bonds the land and building were to be conveyed by the fiscal court to the school board, one of the bondholders could not attack a proposed new bond issue on the same plan for an entirely separate school to be erected on a separate tract of land on the basis the board did not have enough finances since under the plan the bondholder was not concerned with the future soundness of the school system but took the risk that the school board could abandon the school building at the end of any year. Wagner v. Fiscal Court of Jessamine County, 306 S.W.2d 288, 1957 Ky. LEXIS 39 (Ky. 1957).

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

Where the fee simple title to school property was owned by the county and the city wanted to blacktop certain roads on the property, the county was liable for its apportionate cost of the improvement as a benefited property owner. OAG 60-377.

A fund resulting from the sale of school property could be used for the purchase of sites for school buildings, for the erection and complete equipping of school buildings, and for the major alteration, enlargement and complete equipping of buildings, in accordance with the provisions of KRS 160.476, even though refunding revenue bonds were outstanding on other school property. OAG 66-224.

Other school property, title to which has been retained by the school district, does not represent part of the security for refunding revenue bonds issued to provide for a specific building. OAG 66-224.

Where the construction of a school building and later lease back to the school district was to be assumed by the county, a company in which the county judge (now county judge/executive) was the principal stockholder would be prohibited from selling materials to private contractors building the school. OAG 66-564.

After merger, an urban-county government would stand in the place of the fiscal court as far as the agency to contract with the county board of education in connection with the construction of school facilities in the county and the issuance of bonds for such construction. OAG 74-187.

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

Even though housing bond revenues are required to go into the State Treasury, subject to payment out to the trustee for sinking fund purposes, KRS 56.873 has no application to university housing revenue bonds, since the act (Ch. 96 of 1980) requires legislative approval only where state general fund expenditures are involved. OAG 80-592.

162.360. Revenues from building — Determination and use.

The governing body of a state educational institution erecting a building or buildings and appurtenances under the provisions of KRS 162.340 shall, by resolution, provide that the bonds shall be payable, solely from the revenues of such building or buildings, provided, said governing body may in its discretion, by said resolution, also provide that the bonds shall be payable from the revenues of any other building or buildings theretofore or as may be thereafter erected and used, in connection with the institution for educational purposes provided, further, any such provision for the payment of the bonds from the revenues of such other building or buildings theretofore erected shall be subject to and in all respects in full conformity and compliance with the rights of the holders of any bonds or obligations payable from the revenues of such other building or buildings theretofore issued by the governing body then outstanding. The resolution shall fix the initial minimum rents, tolls, fees, and other charges to be imposed in connection with the services furnished by the building or buildings to be erected and may also provide that the governing body of the institution shall monthly as the service accrues pay from the current funds of the institution or from student fees, or both, into the special fund provided by KRS 162.230, as that section is made applicable by KRS 162.350, a minimum amount representing the reasonable cost and value of any service rendered to the educational institution by such building or buildings in furnishing any educational facilities in the operation of the educational institution. The resolution shall fix the extent of the pledge of revenues from such other building or buildings toward the payment of the bonds and interest thereon and may specify the terms and conditions upon which additional bonds may be thereafter issued and sold ranking on a parity with and payable from the same source as the bonds authorized by such resolution, and such additional parity bonds may thereafter be so issued and sold to pay all or any part of the cost of building or buildings and appurtenances. The resolution shall definitely fix the minimum amount of revenues necessary to be set apart on or before stated intervals and applied to the payment of the principal and interest on the bonds and the balance of the income and revenues shall be set aside as a proper operation and maintenance fund, including a sufficient sum to pay the cost of insuring the building or buildings against loss or damage by fire and windstorm or other calamity as may have been stipulated in the resolution or resolutions authorizing the bonds. The charges for the services from the building or buildings, together with the available revenues of any other building or buildings pledged to the payment of said bonds and interest thereon, shall be sufficient at all times to provide for the payment of such interest and to create a sinking fund to accomplish retirement of such bonds at or before maturity, and to pay the current operation and maintenance expenses of the building or buildings to the extent such expenses are not otherwise provided. The charges shall be revised from time to time so as to produce these amounts.

When applied to such boards of education, KRS 162.120 to 162.290 shall be so read that the term:

(a) "City" means a finance corporation acting as an agency and instrumentality of the board pursuant to KRS 58.180;

(b) "City clerk" means the secretary of the finance corporation;

(c) "Governing body of the city" means the board of directors of the finance corporation or other governing body thereof;

(d) "Mayor" means president or chief executive officer of the finance corporation; and

(e) "Ordinance" means an ordinance, resolution, or trust indenture or a similar document.

(2) In order to promote uniformity in the financing of school facilities, each finance corporation shall include the identity of the school district for which it acts in its title and shall be designated as "..... School District Finance Corporation."

(3) Bonds issued by a finance corporation on behalf of a board of education shall constitute "bonds" within the meaning of KRS 157.615(3) and the School Facilities Construction Commission shall be authorized to assist qualified boards in meeting rental payments due under a lease from the finance corporation to the board which shall constitute a "lease" within the meaning of KRS 157.615(8).

INSURANCE FUNDS

162.440. Insurance fund for board of education in a designated city or county containing a designated city.

(1) The board of education of any designated city or of a county containing a designated city may, by resolution, establish a fund to be known as the "insurance fund" after written approval of the plan to administer the fund has been secured from the chief state school officer. The resolution shall fix the maximum limit of the fund. The fund shall be maintained separate from the other funds and moneys of the board, and shall be used exclusively for replacing or repairing any injury or destruction to any of the buildings owned by the board or to their contents when caused by fire, tornado, windstorm, cyclone, casualty, explosion, riot, or flood, but not when caused by wear and tear or the natural processes of decadence or deterioration.

(2) As used in this section, "designated city" means a city classified as a city of the second class as of January 1, 2014, under the city classification system in effect prior to January 1, 2015. The Department of Education shall, on or before January 1, 2015, create an official registry listing the cities that qualify as a "designated city" under this section and shall publish that registry on its Web site.

162.540. Interpretation of terms in KRS 162.120 to 162.300 when applied to KRS 162.520 to 162.620.

Upon receiving a request in writing from a board of education, the authority may, in its discretion, assist such board of education in financing any project by acting in the capacity and manner authorized to be performed by cities under KRS 162.120 to 162.290, and by counties under KRS 162.300. When applied to the authority, KRS 162.120 to 162.300 shall be so read that the following terms and passages have the following respective meanings or interpretations:

- (1) "City" or "county" means "authority";
- (2) "City clerk" or "county clerk" means "secretary or assistant secretary of the authority";
- (3) "Governing body of the city" or "fiscal court" means "authority";
- (4) "Mayor" or "county judge/executive" means "chairman or vice chairman of the authority";
- (5) "Ordinance" in the case of a city, or "resolution" in the case of a county, means a resolution of the authority;

(6) "Building and appurtenances" means "project" as defined in subsection (4) of KRS 162.520;

(7) The last sentence of KRS 162.190 shall read, "It shall be plainly stated on the face of each bond that it was or is issued under the provisions of KRS 162.520 to 162.620 (omitting reference to KRS 162.150 to 162.280 as such), and that it does not constitute an indebtedness of the authority or of the Commonwealth";

(8) KRS 162.200 is modified to permit use of money received from bonds for the additional purpose of paying reasonable expenses incurred in the authorization, advertising, preparation, sale, and delivery of bonds, and may include a fee contracted to be paid to a fiscal agent for financial advice and services if the contract or agreement therefor shall have been approved by the board of education and by the authority;

(9) As used in KRS 162.140, "lease" shall have the meaning defined in subsection (5) of KRS 162.520, and the same shall be recorded or filed for recording in the office of the county clerk of the county in which the project is situated, as evidenced by a written receipt or acknowledgment of filing issued by such clerk, or by a copy of the lease attested or certified by such clerk as being of record in his office. It shall be the duty of the secretary of the authority to obtain such evidence before delivery of the bonds to a purchaser thereof; but failure to obtain the same shall not affect the validity of the bonds in the hands of any purchaser or holder;

(10) KRS 162.240 shall not apply; and the following provisions shall govern in lieu thereof:

"One (1) or more depositories and paying agents may be selected and designated by the board of education, subject to the approval of the authority, which approval shall not unreasonably be withheld; but each depository and paying agent shall be a financial institution, within or without the Commonwealth, which is a member of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation. All deposits of sinking funds and of bond proceeds shall continuously be secured by a pledge to the authority of direct obligations of the United States, exclusive of accrued interest, at all times at least equal to the balance on deposit in the fund or account, such securities to be deposited with the authority or held by a trustee or agent designated by the authority; provided, however, in lieu of requiring such security the authority may in its discretion invest, or cause to be invested and reinvested, any moneys in direct obligations of the United States until such time as cash funds may be needed, and the authority may prescribe for the custody and safe-keeping of such securities. When cash funds are needed, the authority shall direct the conversion into cash of such securities, or a sufficient portion thereof, and may require that the same be secured until disbursement, as herein provided. All income from such securities shall accrue to the board of education, but may be retained by the authority and credited upon any rental obligation of the board of education under the lease, or applied to supplement bond proceeds if the same should for any reason turn out to be insufficient to defray the costs and expenses of the project."

Sess.), ch. 20, § 6, effective January 2, 1978; 1978, ch. 384, § 293, effective June 17, 1978; 1986, ch. 23, § 13, effective July 15, 1986) was repealed and reenacted by Acts 1990, ch. 476, Part V, § 585, effective July 13, 1990.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

1. Escrow.

Designation of an out-of-state bank as escrow agent whose duties were to protect bondholders rather than city does not invalidate revenue bond financing plan. Gregory v. Lewisport, 369 S.W.2d 133, 1963 Ky. LEXIS 70 (Ky. 1963).

162.550. Ownership of certain moneys determined.

Moneys received by the authority as rentals under any lease, and from the sale of bonds, are declared not to be funds of the Commonwealth but shall be corporate funds of the authority to be held, administered, invested, and disbursed as trust funds under the terms, provisions, pledges, covenants, and agreements set forth in its leases and bond resolutions and bonds.

History.

Enact. Acts 1960, ch. 81, § 5, effective June 16, 1960; repealed and reenact., Acts 1990, ch. 476, Pt. V, § 586, effective July 13, 1990.

162.580. Duty of authority as to each bond issue.

In connection with each bond issue of the authority, it shall be the duty of the authority:

(1) To require the board of education to insure the project to its full insurable value, or to the amount of the bonds outstanding from time to time, whichever is the less, against the hazards covered by the standard fire insurance policy with standard endorsement of "extended coverage"; and to require that a copy of each policy be delivered to the authority for inspection and for its records;

(2) To require periodic accounting from all depositories of funds, the same to be submitted on forms prepared and supplied by the authority;

(3) To furnish to the auditing staff of the department a summary identification and description of each issue, and to request that the financial records of the board of education relating thereto be audited as a part of the annual audit of the board of education, and that a separate statement or report thereof be filed with the authority;

(4) To send to each board of education, at least thirty (30) days before the due date of any rental payment, a notice of the amount of rental to become due, and the date thereof, and to require acknowledgment thereof;

(5) In the event of failure to receive from the board of education satisfactory evidence that sufficient funds have been transmitted to the authority, or will be so transmitted, for paying bond principal and/or interest when due, as provided in the lease, to notify and request that the department withhold from the board of education a sufficient portion of any undisbursed funds then held or set aside or allocated to it, and to request that the department transfer the required amount thereof to the authority for the account of the board of education.

162.600. Bonds to issue in name of authority — Identification — Investment designation.

(1) Bonds of the authority shall be issued in the name of the authority, shall be designated "school building revenue bonds," or, if appropriate, "school building revenue refunding bonds," and shall additionally be identified by the name of the board of education executing the lease. If the authority shall issue more than one (1) series of bonds for the same lessee from time to time, each series, including the first or subsequent to the first, shall additionally be identified distinctly by alphabetical or chronological designation, by date of the bonds, or otherwise as the authority may determine.

(2) For the purposes of determining any limit prescribed by any law for investment of any public funds, or funds of banks, trust companies, insurance companies, building and loan associations, credit unions, pension and retirement funds, and fiduciaries, in obligations of a single obligor, bonds issued by the authority pursuant to KRS 162.520 to 162.620 shall not be deemed to be bonds or obligations of the same obligor except to the aggregate of all series of bonds involving leases of a single board of education.

(3) Bonds issued by the authority under the provisions of KRS 162.520 to 162.620 are hereby made securities in which all public officers and public bodies of the Commonwealth and its political subdivisions, all insurance companies, trust companies, banking associations, investment companies, executors, trustees, and other fiduciaries, and all other persons whatsoever who are now or may hereafter be authorized to invest in bonds or other obligations of a similar nature may properly and legally invest funds, including capital in their control or belonging to them. Such bonds are hereby made securities which may properly and legally be deposited with and received by any state or municipal officer or any agency or political subdivision of the Commonwealth for any purpose for which the deposit of bonds or other obligations of the Commonwealth is now or may hereafter be authorized by law.

162.620. Sale of bonds — Conditions.

Bonds of the authority shall be sold only upon the basis of sealed bids or proposals, publicly solicited, received, opened and acted upon. The "publication area," as that term is used in KRS Chapter 424, shall not be deemed to be the area within which the office of the authority is situated, but shall be deemed to be the "publication area" of the board of education executing the lease. Each sale shall be publicly advertised by means of a notice conforming to the provisions of KRS 424.140(3), and the same shall be published at least one (1) time, at least seven (7) days in advance of the date set forth for opening bids, in a daily newspaper having bona fide general circulation throughout the Commonwealth. If such publication is made, it shall be sufficient for publication in the "publication area" to be made only one (1) time, at least seven (7) days in advance of the date set forth for the opening of bids, notwithstanding provisions for publication more often as provided in KRS Chapter 424. If a copy of the sale notice be delivered or transmitted in good faith to the qualified newspaper of the "publication area" in time for publication in an issue thereof published seven (7) days or more in advance of the date set forth for the opening of bids, and with direction for publication therein, any failure of such newspaper to make publication as directed shall not invalidate the sale of the bonds by the authority on the designated date, nor require postponement or cancellation thereof.

PENALTIES

Any person who violates any of the provisions of KRS 162.500 is liable to the board of education, in an action brought by the board of education, or by any citizen of the district, or by the chief state school officer, for the restoration of the wrongful appropriation. In addition, he is guilty of malfeasance in office and upon conviction shall forfeit his office, and may for each offense be fined not less than fifty dollars ($50) nor more than one thousand dollars ($1,000), or imprisoned from one (1) to five (5) years, or both so fined and imprisoned. One-half (½) of the fine shall be paid to the board of education by the collecting officer.

GENERAL PROVISIONS

163.010. Definitions. [Repealed.]

Compiler's Notes.

This section (4526-5) was repealed by Acts 1956, ch. 165, § 1.

163.020. Federal acts relating to vocational education accepted. [Repealed, reenacted and amended.]

Compiler's Notes.

This section (4526-1; amend. Acts 1956, ch. 165, § 2) was repealed, reenacted and amended as KRS 151B.145 by Acts 1990, ch. 470, § 28, effective July 1, 1990, which prevailed over the repeal and reenactment of this section by Acts 1990, ch. 476, Pt. V, § 591, effective July 13, 1990.

163.030. State board for vocational-technical, adult education and vocational rehabilitation services authorized to carry out vocational education program. [Repealed, reenacted and amended.]

Compiler's Notes.

This section (4526-2; amend. Acts 1956, ch. 165, § 3; 1978, ch. 155, § 83, effective June 17, 1978) was repealed, reenacted and amended as KRS 151B.150 by Acts 1990, ch. 470, § 29, effective July 1, 1990, which prevailed over an amendment by Acts 1990, ch. 476, Pt. IV, § 262, effective July 13, 1990.

163.032. Salary schedule for teachers and administrators in schools for deaf and blind — Employment status and benefits — Hiring process — Work location assignments — Accrued leave.

(1) The Kentucky Department of Education, with assistance from the Kentucky Personnel Cabinet, shall adopt a salary schedule for teachers in the Kentucky School for the Deaf and the Kentucky School for the Blind. The salary schedule shall be the same as salary schedules in effect in local school districts in counties containing a city of the first class and shall conform to the requirements for a single salary schedule as defined in KRS 157.320, except the salary schedule shall not limit the number of years of experience for a certified employee who transfers to the school.

(2)(a) Certified teachers in the Kentucky School for the Deaf and the Kentucky School for the Blind shall have the same statutory employment status and benefits as certified teachers in the public schools.

(b) If a teacher qualifies for and requests a tribunal under KRS 161.790, the Attorney General shall appoint the members.

(3) Once a teacher has been selected for hiring at the Kentucky School for the Blind or the Kentucky School for the Deaf, the Department of Education and the Personnel Cabinet shall complete the hiring process within two (2) weeks.

(4) A certified teacher employed at one (1) of the schools on July 12, 2006, whose job description does not include outreach responsibilities shall not be involuntarily assigned to work on a permanent basis outside the county in which the employing school is located.

(5) Nothing in KRS 18A.115 or 163.032 shall result in a loss of any leave accrued by a certified teacher employed prior to July 12, 2006, by one (1) of the schools. Accrued leave may be taken in accordance with the policy of the school.

(6) The Kentucky Department of Education, with assistance from the Kentucky Personnel Cabinet, shall adopt a salary schedule for administrators for the Kentucky School for the Deaf and the Kentucky School for the Blind. In considering the rate of pay and the requirements of KRS 18A.110(7)(b), the department and the cabinet shall consider rates that are based upon the duties and responsibilities of the positions and that are competitive with rates for similar or comparable services in Kentucky school districts. The salary schedule, which shall be computed prior to September 1 of each year, shall be based on two hundred sixty (260) days per year.

History.

Acts 1980, ch. 277, § 1, effective July 15, 1980; 1986, ch. 219, § 1, effective July 15, 1986; 1988, ch. 361, § 16, effective July 15, 1988; 1990, ch. 233, § 1, effective July 13, 1990; 1990, ch. 470, § 55, effective July 1, 1990; 1990, ch. 476, Pt. IV, § 263, effective July 13, 1990; 1998, ch. 154, § 80, effective July 15, 1998; 2006, ch. 208, § 2, effective July 12, 2006; 2011, ch. 103, § 1, effective June 8, 2011.

Legislative Research Commission Note.

(7/13/90). This section was amended by three 1990 Acts. Where those Acts are not in conflict, they have been compiled together. Where a conflict exists, the Act which was last enacted by the General Assembly prevails, pursuant to KRS 446.250.

2022-2024 Budget Reference.

See State/Executive Branch Budget, 2022 Ky. Acts ch. 199, Pt. IV, 2 at 1755.

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

There is a reasonable distinction which justifies the separate treatment given to the salaries of beginning teachers in the state-supported vocational schools, the State School for the Deaf, and the State School for the Blind; therefore, this section is not "special" legislation in violation of either § 59 or § 60 of the Constitution. OAG 85-86.

REHABILITATION SERVICES FOR THE BLIND AND VISUALLY IMPAIRED

163.450. Purpose.

The purpose of KRS 163.450 to 163.470 is to provide for a separate and specialized agency for the blind to provide for and improve the rehabilitation of the blind and visually impaired citizens of the Commonwealth of Kentucky in order that they may increase their social and economic well-being and the productive capacity of the Commonwealth and the nation.

History.

Enact. Acts 1976, ch. 377, § 1.

163.460. Definitions for chapter.

As used in this chapter unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) "Office" means the Office of Vocational Rehabilitation, or the duly authorized division within the Office of Vocational Rehabilitation;

(2) "Legally blind" means a visual acuity of 20/200 or less in the better eye with correction or a visual field of 20 degrees or less;

(3) "Visually impaired" means a condition of the eye with correction which constitutes or progressively results for the individual in a substantial disability to employment; and

(4) "Executive director" means the executive director of the Office of Vocational Rehabilitation or the director of the duly authorized division within the Office of Vocational Rehabilitation.

History.

Enact. Acts 1976, ch. 377, § 2; 1982, ch. 353, § 1, effective July 15, 1982; 1994, ch. 49, § 1, effective July 15, 1994; 1994, ch. 405, § 31, effective July 15, 1994; 2006, ch. 211, § 92, effective July 12, 2006; 2019 ch. 146, § 32, effective June 27, 2019.

Legislative Research Commission Note.

(7/15/94). This section was amended by 1994 Ky. Acts chs. 49 and 405. Where these Acts are not in conflict, they have been codified together. Where a conflict exists, Acts ch. 405, which was last enacted by the General Assembly, prevails under KRS 446.250.

163.470. Office for Vocational Rehabilitation responsible for services for the blind and visually impaired.

(1) The executive director shall be appointed by the secretary of the Education and Labor Cabinet pursuant to KRS 12.050.

(2) The office shall be the state agency responsible for all rehabilitation services for the blind and the visually impaired and other services as deemed necessary. The office shall be the agency authorized to expend all state and federal funds designated for rehabilitation services for the blind and visually impaired. The Office of the Secretary of the Education and Labor Cabinet is authorized as the state agency to receive all state and federal funds and gifts and bequests for the benefit of rehabilitation services for the blind and visually impaired. The State Treasurer is designated as the custodian of all funds and shall make disbursements for rehabilitation purposes upon certification by the executive director.

(3) The office shall establish and implement policies and procedures for the carrying out of the program of services for the blind.

(4) At the close of each biennium, the office shall prepare a financial report and present it to the secretary of the Education and Labor Cabinet and to the Governor. The biennial report shall be published. The biennial report shall also contain a precise review of the work of the office and contain necessary suggestions for improvement.

(5) The office shall coordinate its functions with other appropriate public and private agencies.

(6) The office shall perform all other duties as required of it by law.

(7) The executive director shall hire personnel as necessary to carry out the work of the office and the provisions of KRS 163.450 to 163.470. Preference shall be given to hiring qualified blind persons.

(8) The Office of Vocational Rehabilitation shall provide intake and rehabilitation counseling services; distribute or sell technical educational and other aids to the blind; provide educational materials such as recorded texts, braille or large-type texts, or such other materials as may be deemed necessary for the education of the blind; research into the development of new technical aids for the blind, mobility training, work evaluation, personal adjustment, independent living, and other services as needed for blind adults, and services for the blind who have other disabilities; and promote employment of the blind in public and private sectors.

(9) There shall be established under the authority of the office, to be directed by a director appointed by the secretary pursuant to KRS 12.050, the Division of Kentucky Business Enterprise. This division shall manage and supervise the Vending Facilities Program and license qualified blind persons as vendors. In connection therewith, the office shall be authorized to own or lease vending equipment for the operation of vending facilities in federal, state, private, and other buildings. The set-aside charges levied shall comply with the existing federal regulations as specified in 34 CFR 395.9. One (1) or more facility placement agents shall be employed to locate and establish additional vending facilities. The office shall make such surveys as may be deemed necessary to determine the vending facility opportunities for blind vendors in state buildings or on other property owned, leased, or otherwise occupied by the state government and shall install vending facilities in suitable locations on such property for the use of the blind. All of the net income from vending machines which are on the same property as a vending facility shall be paid to the blind vendor of the vending facility. Whenever there exists a conflict of interest between state agencies seeking to vend merchandise on the same state property, the agencies shall negotiate a fair agreement which shall protect the interest of both from unreasonable competition. The agreement shall be submitted to the custodial authority having jurisdiction over the property for approval. Provided, however, that in all situations the blind vendor shall be permitted to vend all items of merchandise customarily sold at similar vending facilities.

(10) The office, at all times, shall be authorized to provide industrial evaluation, training, and employment. The office shall provide staff services which shall include staff development and training, program development and evaluation, and other staff services as may be deemed necessary.

(11) The provisions of any other statute notwithstanding, the executive director is authorized to use receipt of funds from the Social Security reimbursement program for a direct service delivery staff incentive program. Incentives may be awarded if case service costs are reimbursed for job placement of Social Security or Supplemental Security Income recipients at the Substantial Gainful Activity (SGA) level for nine (9) months pursuant to 42 U.S.C. sec. 422 and under those conditions and criteria as are established by the federal reimbursement program.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

1. Application.

By virtue of the provision of the state government vending facility program for blind vendors, subsection (11) of this section, and guided by federal law and regulations, authority for supervision and control of vending services operations must be deemed to reside in the state licensing agency and this supervisory authority includes a correlative right of product control; thus, state university could not extend to cola company an exclusive contract to sell its drink products on campus. Kentucky State Univ. v. Kentucky Dep't for the Blind, 923 S.W.2d 296, 1996 Ky. App. LEXIS 93 (Ky. Ct. App. 1996).

While provisions of the state government vending facility program for blind vendors did not prohibit state university from competing in any way with blind vendor in the area of food service, university was required to negotiate a fair agreement to protect blind vendor from unreasonable competition; this protection did not require extending to blind vendor a right of first refusal with every expansion of the university's food service line. Kentucky State Univ. v. Kentucky Dep't for the Blind, 923 S.W.2d 296, 1996 Ky. App. LEXIS 93 (Ky. Ct. App. 1996).

With respect to whether experts fell within treating physician exception to requirement for written expert report disclosure, employees from Kentucky Office for the Blind could not be perfunctorily excluded from consideration merely because their statutorily imposed duties focused on providing assistive devices, mobility training and work evaluation services. Barnes v. CSXT Transp., Inc., 2017 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 53650 (W.D. Ky. Apr. 7, 2017).

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

Where the Bureau (now Department) for the Blind, pursuant to subsection (14) (now (11)) of this section, operates a concession stand within the Louisville post office, the concession operation is subject to audit by the auditor of public accounts pursuant to KRS 43.050(2)(a); since the state auditor has the responsibility for auditing the Bureau for the Blind, there is nothing in the statutes that would permit him to accept an audit of the concession stand done by a Bureau for the Blind employee. OAG 80-155.

163.475. Legislative findings and provisions relating to transition of operation of Kentucky Industries for the Blind.

(1) The General Assembly finds that the provision of industrial evaluation, training, and employment opportunities for individuals who are blind or visually impaired is a valuable and necessary component of vocational rehabilitation services. The office has sole responsibility for and the obligation to operate and manage a Division of the Kentucky Industries for the Blind. This facility has struggled to meet these mandates but, faced with declining available state revenues, expects a continual diminishment to a submarginal operation with respect to providing viable long-term employment opportunities that are self-sustaining and sufficiently diversified for individuals who are blind or visually impaired.

(2) The General Assembly finds that increased flexibility in contract negotiation, purchasing, and hiring will enhance the competitiveness of the Kentucky Industries for the Blind, resulting in additional production contracts thereby guaranteeing continued and expanded jobs and other opportunities for individuals who are blind or visually impaired. This flexibility and competitiveness can be achieved through the operation of the Kentucky Industries for the Blind by a nonprofit corporation, the members of which have expertise in management skills and background pertaining to sound business practices and rehabilitation philosophy.

(3) The General Assembly finds that a transition period from state division to a nonprofit operation is necessary to ensure the success and continuation of the important functions of the Kentucky Industries for the Blind. Therefore, the General Assembly shall continue to support the Division of the Kentucky Industries for the Blind through appropriations to the office for six (6) years in order to eliminate eventually the necessity for annual state appropriations. The office shall monitor and safeguard the expenditure of those public moneys for the use and benefit of the Kentucky Industries for the Blind and citizens who are blind and visually impaired in the Commonwealth.

(4) The General Assembly finds that the continued employment of current employees of the Division of the Kentucky Industries for the Blind is a necessary and important outcome. The office shall ensure through contractual provisions that the nonprofit corporation it contracts with pursuant to KRS 163.480(2) offers employment to every employee of the Kentucky Industries for the Blind at the time the nonprofit corporation assumes total responsibility for the operation of the workshop. The office shall maximize the retirement benefits for each current employee of the Division of Kentucky Industries for the Blind at the time the office contracts for total operation by the nonprofit corporation through the parted employer provisions of KRS 61.510 to 61.705.

(5) The General Assembly finds that at the time the Kentucky Industries for the Blind is operated totally by the nonprofit corporation, the office shall have the authority to convey ownership of the workshop to any nonprofit corporation with which it contracts pursuant to KRS 163.480(2) without financial consideration, including real and personal property, inventory of materials, and stores for resale. The instrument of conveyance to such nonprofit corporation shall provide that the real property and production equipment conveyed, or sufficient remuneration therefor, shall revert to the state at any time the nonprofit corporation or its successor shall cease operating the Kentucky Industries for the Blind for the benefit of individuals who are blind or visually impaired.

163.480. Office's authority to contract with non-profit corporation for employment services.

(1) The office may contract, to the extent funds are available under this chapter and under conditions and standards established by the office, with any nonprofit corporation able to provide expertise in the operation of workshops for and rehabilitation of individuals who are blind or visually impaired and whose objectives are to carry out the purposes of KRS 163.470(10).

(2) The office shall contract with a nonprofit corporation, effective July 1, 2000, to provide industrial evaluation, training, and employment opportunities for individuals who are blind or visually impaired.

ACCESSIBLE ELECTRONIC INFORMATION

163.485. Legislative findings and declarations relating to accessible electronic information for the disabled.

The General Assembly finds and declares that:

(1) Approximately eight hundred seventy-four thousand (874,000) Kentuckians have disabilities and, of this number, approximately three hundred thousand (300,000) are blind or visually impaired or have other print impairments that prevent them from using conventional print material;

(2) Kentucky fulfills an important responsibility by providing books and magazines prepared in Braille, audio, and large-type formats to eligible blind and disabled persons;

(3) The technology, transcription methods, and means of distribution used for these materials are labor-intensive and cannot support rapid dissemination to individuals in rural and urban areas throughout the state;

(4) Lack of direct and prompt access to information included in newspapers, magazines, newsletters, schedules, announcements, and other time-sensitive materials limits educational, employment, and independent opportunities, literacy, and full participation in society by blind and disabled persons;

(5) This limitation can be overcome through the use of high-speed computer, radio, and telecommunications technology, combined with customized software, providing a practical cost-effective way to convert electronic text-based information into human or synthetic speech suitable for statewide distribution and accessible through radio, a touch-tone telephone, and modern telecommunications technology;

(6) Radio, telecommunications, and voice-based information systems are cost-efficient information delivery systems for this state;

(7) Federal funds have been used to develop the technology and infrastructure needed for statewide toll-free access to daily newspapers and other timely information of local, state, and national interests, providing an efficient and cost-effective means of reader registration, content acquisition, and intrastate telecommunications support; and

(8) Use of this accessible electronic information service will enhance Kentucky's efforts to meet the needs of blind and disabled citizens for access to information that is otherwise available in print, thereby reducing isolation and supporting full integration and equal access for such individuals.

History.

Enact. Acts 2004, ch. 129, § 1, effective July 13, 2004.

Legislative Research Commission Note.

(7/13/2004). 2004 Ky. Acts ch. 129, sec. 4, provides that 2004 Ky. Acts ch. 129, which creates KRS 163.485, 163.487, and 163.489, is to be known as the Accessible Electronic Information Acts.

As used in KRS 163.485 to 163.489, unless the context requires otherwise:

(1) "Accessible electronic information service" means news and other timely information, including but not limited to magazines, newsletters, schedules, announcements, and newspapers, provided to eligible individuals using high-speed computers, radios, and telecommunications technology for acquisition of content and rapid distribution in a form appropriate for use by those individuals; and

(2) "Blind and disabled persons" means those individuals who are eligible for library loan services through the Library of Congress and the office pursuant to 36 C.F.R. sec. 701.10(b).

History.

Enact. Acts 2004, ch. 129, § 2, effective July 13, 2004; 2006, ch. 211, § 96, effective July 12, 2006; 2019 ch. 146, § 36, effective June 27, 2019.

163.489. Creation of Accessible Electronic Information Service Program — Access provided — Use of funding.

(1) The Accessible Electronic Information Service Program is created and shall be provided by the office. The program shall include:

(a) Intrastate access for eligible persons to read audio editions of newspapers, magazines, newsletters, schedules, announcements, and other information using a touch-tone telephone, radio, or other technologies that produce audio editions by use of computer; and

(b) A means of program administration and reader registration on the Internet, or by mail, telephone, or any other method providing consumer access.

(2) The program shall:

(a) Provide accessible electronic information services for all eligible blind and disabled persons as defined by KRS 163.487(2); and

(b) Make maximum use of available state, federal, and other funds by obtaining grants or in-kind support from appropriate programs and securing access to low-cost interstate rates for telecommunications by reimbursement or otherwise.

(3) The office shall review new technologies and current service programs in Kentucky for the blind and visually impaired that are available to expand audio communication if the office determines that these new technologies will expand access to consumers in a cost-efficient manner. The office may implement recommendations from the Statewide Council for Vocational Rehabilitation for improving the program.

163.525. Telecommunications Access Program — Distribution of specialized telecommunications equipment — Authority for administrative regulations.

- (1) As used in this section and KRS 163.527:
- (a) “Specialized telecommunications equipment” means devices such as, but not limited to, telecommunications devices for the deaf, amplified phones, loud ringers, visual alert signalers, tactile signalers, captioned telephones, and appropriate wireless devices; and

(b) “Telecommunications Access Program” means the program to furnish specialized telecommunications equipment to deaf, hard-of-hearing, and speech-impaired persons in order that they may have equal access to telecommunications services through the telecommunications relay service established pursuant to KRS 278.548. The program shall include maintenance and repair of the equipment.

(2)(a) On or before July 1, 1995, the Commission on the Deaf and Hard of Hearing shall establish a program to distribute specialized telecommunications equipment to any deaf, hard-of-hearing, or speech-impaired person qualified to receive the equipment pursuant to subsection (3) of this section.

(b) Prior to the establishment of the Telecommunications Access Program, the Commission on the Deaf and Hard of Hearing shall initiate an investigation, conduct public hearings, and solicit the advice and counsel of deaf, hard-of-hearing, and speech-impaired persons and the organizations serving them.

(c) The Commission on the Deaf and Hard of Hearing may contract with any person, public, or private organization to provide part or all components of the Telecommunications Access Program, if applicable statutory procurement provisions are followed. The Commission on the Deaf and Hard of Hearing may use assistance from public agencies of the state or federal government or from private organizations to accomplish the purposes of this section. The Kentucky Commission on the Deaf and Hard of Hearing shall enter into memoranda of agreement with the Public Service Commission for coordination and oversight of funding and operations to meet the objectives of this section and KRS 278.5499. The Commission on the Deaf and Hard of Hearing may also enter into memoranda of agreement with other state agencies to accomplish the purposes of this section.

(3) Factors to determine a person’s eligibility to receive specialized telecommunications equipment shall include, but not be limited to:

- (a) Kentucky residency;
- (b) Attainment of at least five (5) years of age; and
- (c) Certification as deaf, hard of hearing, or severely speech-impaired by a licensed physician, audiologist, speech pathologist, advanced practice registered nurse, or by any other method recognized by the Commission on the Deaf and Hard of Hearing. Certification implies that the individual cannot use the telephone for communication without adaptive equipment.

(4) No more than one (1) piece of specialized telecommunications equipment shall be provided to a person qualified to receive the equipment pursuant to subsection (3) of this section. However, a malfunctioning piece of specialized telecommunications equipment originally distributed by the program may be returned for repair or replacement. The Commission on the Deaf and Hard of Hearing may prioritize distribution of the specialized telecommunications equipment on the basis of need.

(5) The Commission on the Deaf and Hard of Hearing shall establish procedures for application and distribution of specialized telecommunications equipment by the promulgation of administrative regulations in accordance with provisions of KRS Chapter 13A.

COUNCIL ON POSTSECONDARY EDUCATION

164.020. Powers and duties of council.

The Council on Postsecondary Education in Kentucky shall:

(1) Develop and implement the strategic agenda with the advice and counsel of the Strategic Committee on Postsecondary Education. The council shall provide for and direct the planning process and subsequent strategic implementation plans based on the strategic agenda as provided in KRS 164.0203;

(2) Revise the strategic agenda and strategic implementation plan with the advice and counsel of the committee as set forth in KRS 164.004;

(3) Develop a system of public accountability related to the strategic agenda by evaluating the performance and effectiveness of the state's postsecondary system. The council shall prepare a report in conjunction with the accountability reporting described in KRS 164.095, which shall be submitted to the committee, the Governor, and the General Assembly by December 1 annually. This report shall include a description of contributions by postsecondary institutions to the quality of elementary and secondary education in the Commonwealth;

(4) Review, revise, and approve the missions of the state's universities and the Kentucky Community and Technical College System. The Council on Postsecondary Education shall have the final authority to determine the compliance of postsecondary institutions with their academic, service, and research missions;

(5) Establish and ensure that all postsecondary institutions in Kentucky cooperatively provide for an integrated system of postsecondary education. The council shall guard against inappropriate and unnecessary conflict and duplication by promoting transferability of credits and easy access of information among institutions;

(6) Engage in analyses and research to determine the overall needs of postsecondary education and adult education in the Commonwealth;

(7) Develop plans that may be required by federal legislation. The council shall for all purposes of federal legislation relating to planning be considered the "single state agency" as that term may be used in federal legislation. When federal legislation requires additional representation on any "single state agency," the Council on Postsecondary Education shall establish advisory groups necessary to satisfy federal legislative or regulatory guidelines;

(8)(a) Determine tuition and approve the minimum qualifications for admission to the state postsecondary educational system. In defining residency, the council shall classify a student as having Kentucky residency if the student met the residency requirements at the beginning of his or her last year in high school and enters a Kentucky postsecondary education institution within two (2) years of high school graduation. In determining the tuition for non-Kentucky residents, the council shall consider the fees required of Kentucky students by institutions in adjoining states, the resident fees charged by other states, the total actual per student cost of training in the institutions for which the fees are being determined, and the ratios of Kentucky students to non-Kentucky students comprising the enrollments of the respective institutions, and other factors the council may in its sole discretion deem pertinent, except that the Kentucky Community and Technical College System may assess a mandatory student fee not to exceed eight dollars ($8) per credit hour to be used exclusively for debt service on amounts not to exceed seventy-five percent (75%) of the total project cost of the Kentucky Community and Technical College System agency bond projects included in 2014 Ky. Acts ch. 117, Part II, J., 11.

(b) The Kentucky Community and Technical College System mandatory fee established in this subsection shall only be used for debt service on agency bond projects.

(c) Any fee established as provided by this subsection shall cease to be assessed upon the retirement of the project bonds for which it services debt.

(d) Prior to the issuance of any bonds, the Kentucky Community and Technical College System shall certify in writing to the secretary of the Finance and Administration Cabinet that sufficient funds have been raised to meet the local match equivalent to twenty-five percent (25%) of the total project cost;

(9) Devise, establish, and periodically review and revise policies to be used in making recommendations to the Governor for consideration in developing recommendations to the General Assembly for appropriations to the universities, the Kentucky Community and Technical College System, and to support strategies for persons to maintain necessary levels of literacy throughout their lifetimes. The council has sole discretion, with advice of the Strategic Committee on Postsecondary Education and the executive officers of the postsecondary education system, to devise policies that provide for allocation of funds among the universities and the Kentucky Community and Technical College System;

(10) Lead and provide staff support for the biennial budget process as provided under KRS Chapter 48, in cooperation with the committee;

(11)(a) Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this subsection, review and approve all capital construction projects covered by KRS 45.750(1)(f), including real property acquisitions, and regardless of the source of funding for projects or acquisitions. Approval of capital projects and real property acquisitions shall be on a basis consistent with the strategic agenda and the mission of the respective universities and the Kentucky Community and Technical College System.

(b) The organized groups that are establishing community college satellites as branches of existing community colleges in the counties of Laurel, Leslie, and Muhlenberg, and that have substantially obtained cash, pledges, real property, or other commitments to build the satellite at no cost to the Commonwealth, other than operating costs that shall be paid as part of the operating budget of the main community college of which the satellite is a branch, are authorized to begin construction of the satellite on or after January 1, 1998;

(12) Require reports from the executive officer of each institution it deems necessary for the effectual performance of its duties;

(13) Ensure that the state postsecondary system does not unnecessarily duplicate services and programs provided by private postsecondary institutions and shall promote maximum cooperation between the state postsecondary system and private postsecondary institutions. Receive and consider an annual report prepared by the Association of Independent Kentucky Colleges and Universities stating the condition of independent institutions, listing opportunities for more collaboration between the state and independent institutions and other information as appropriate;

(14) Establish course credit, transfer, and degree components as required in KRS 164.2951;

(15) Define and approve the offering of all postsecondary education technical, associate, baccalaureate, graduate, and professional degree, certificate, or diploma programs in the public postsecondary education institutions. The council shall expedite wherever possible the approval of requests from the Kentucky Community and Technical College System board of regents relating to new certificate, diploma, technical, or associate degree programs of a vocational-technical and occupational nature. Without the consent of the General Assembly, the council shall not abolish or limit the total enrollment of the general program offered at any community college to meet the goal of reasonable access throughout the Commonwealth to a two (2) year course of general studies designed for transfer to a baccalaureate program. This does not restrict or limit the authority of the council, as set forth in this section, to eliminate or make changes in individual programs within that general program;

(16) Eliminate, in its discretion, existing programs or make any changes in existing academic programs at the state's postsecondary educational institutions, taking into consideration these criteria:

(a) Consistency with the institution's mission and the strategic agenda;

(b) Alignment with the priorities in the strategic implementation plan for achieving the strategic agenda;

(c) Elimination of unnecessary duplication of programs within and among institutions; and

(d) Efforts to create cooperative programs with other institutions through traditional means, or by use of distance learning technology and electronic resources, to achieve effective and efficient program delivery;

(17) Ensure the governing board and faculty of all postsecondary education institutions are committed to providing instruction free of discrimination against students who hold political views and opinions contrary to those of the governing board and faculty;

(18) Review proposals and make recommendations to the Governor regarding the establishment of new public community colleges, technical institutions, and new four (4) year colleges;

(19) Postpone the approval of any new program at a state postsecondary educational institution, unless the institution has met its equal educational opportunity goals, as established by the council. In accordance with administrative regulations promulgated by the council, those institutions not meeting the goals shall be able to obtain a temporary waiver, if the institution has made substantial progress toward meeting its equal educational opportunity goals;

(20) Ensure the coordination, transferability, and connectivity of technology among postsecondary institutions in the Commonwealth including the development and implementation of a technology plan as a component of the strategic agenda;

(21) Approve the teacher education programs in the public institutions that comply with standards established by the Education Professional Standards Board pursuant to KRS 161.028;

(22) Constitute the representative agency of the Commonwealth in all matters of postsecondary education of a general and statewide nature which are not otherwise delegated to one (1) or more institutions of postsecondary learning. The responsibility may be exercised through appropriate contractual relationships with individuals or agencies located within or without the Commonwealth. The authority includes but is not limited to contractual arrangements for programs of research, specialized training, and cultural enrichment;

(23) Maintain procedures for the approval of a designated receiver to provide for the maintenance of student records of the public institutions of higher education and the colleges as defined in KRS 164.945, and institutions operating pursuant to KRS 165A.310 which offer collegiate level courses for academic credit, which cease to operate. Procedures shall include assurances that, upon proper request, subject to federal and state laws and regulations, copies of student records shall be made available within a reasonable length of time for a minimum fee;

(24) Monitor and transmit a report on compliance with KRS 164.351 to the director of the Legislative Research Commission for distribution to the Health and Welfare Committee;

(25)(a) Develop in cooperation with each public university and the Kentucky Community and Technical College System a comprehensive orientation and education program for new members of the council and the governing boards and continuing education opportunities for all council and board members. For new members of the council and institutional governing boards, the council shall:

1. Ensure that the orientation and education program comprises six (6) hours of instruction time and includes but is not limited to information concerning the roles of the council and governing board members, the strategic agenda and the strategic implementation plan, and the respective institution's mission, budget and finances, strategic plans and priorities, institutional policies and procedures, board fiduciary responsibilities, legal considerations including open records and open meetings requirements, ethical considerations arising from board membership, and the board member removal and replacement provisions of KRS 63.080;

2. Establish delivery methods by which the orientation and education program can be completed in person or electronically by new members within one (1) year of their appointment or election;

3. Provide an annual report to the Governor and Legislative Research Commission of those new board members who do not complete the required orientation and education program; and

4. Invite governing board members of private colleges and universities licensed by the Council on Postsecondary Education to participate in the orientation and education program described in this subsection;

(b) Offer, in cooperation with the public universities and the Kentucky Community and Technical College System, continuing education opportunities for all council and governing board members; and

(c) Review and approve the orientation programs of each public university and the Kentucky Community and Technical College System for their governing board members to ensure that all programs and information adhere to this subsection;

(26) Develop a financial reporting procedure to be used by all state postsecondary education institutions to ensure uniformity of financial information available to state agencies and the public;

(27) Select and appoint a president of the council under KRS 164.013;

(28) Employ consultants and other persons and employees as may be required for the council's operations, functions, and responsibilities;

(29) Promulgate administrative regulations, in accordance with KRS Chapter 13A, governing its powers, duties, and responsibilities as described in this section;

(30) Prepare and present by January 31 of each year an annual status report on postsecondary education in the Commonwealth to the Governor, the Strategic Committee on Postsecondary Education, and the Legislative Research Commission;

(31) Consider the role, function, and capacity of independent institutions of postsecondary education in developing policies to meet the immediate and future needs of the state. When it is found that independent institutions can meet state needs effectively, state resources may be used to contract with or otherwise assist independent institutions in meeting these needs;

(32) Create advisory groups representing the presidents, faculty, nonteaching staff, and students of the public postsecondary education system and the independent colleges and universities;

(33) Develop a statewide policy to promote employee and faculty development in state and locally operated secondary area technology centers through the waiver of tuition for college credit coursework in the public postsecondary education system. Any regular full-time employee of a state or locally operated secondary area technology center may, with prior administrative approval of the course offering institution, take a maximum of six (6) credit hours per term at any public postsecondary institution. The institution shall waive the tuition up to a maximum of six (6) credit hours per term. The employee shall complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid to determine the level of need and eligibility for state and federal financial aid programs. The amount of tuition waived shall not exceed the cost of tuition at the institution less any state or federal grants received, which shall be credited first to the student's tuition;

(34) Participate with the Kentucky Department of Education, the Kentucky Board of Education, and postsecondary education institutions to ensure that academic content requirements for successful entry into postsecondary education programs are aligned with high school content standards and that students who master the high school academic content standards shall not need remedial courses. The council shall monitor the results on an ongoing basis;

(35) Cooperate with the Kentucky Department of Education and the Education Professional Standards Board in providing information sessions to selected postsecondary education content faculty and teacher educators of the high school academic content standards as required under KRS 158.6453(2)(l);

(36) Cooperate with the Office of the Kentucky Center for Statistics and ensure the participation of the public institutions as required in KRS 151B.133;

(37) Pursuant to KRS 63.080, review written notices from the Governor or from a board of trustees or board of regents concerning removal of a board member or the entire appointed membership of a board, investigate the member or board and the conduct alleged to support removal, and make written recommendations to the Governor and the Legislative Research Commission as to whether the member or board should be removed; and

(38) Exercise any other powers, duties, and responsibilities necessary to carry out the purposes of this chapter. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to grant the Council on Postsecondary Education authority to disestablish or eliminate any college of law which became a part of the state system of higher education through merger with a state college.

Legislative Research Commission Notes.

(6/27/2019). This statute was amended by 2019 Ky. Acts chs. 146 and 154, which do not appear to be in conflict and have been codified together.

164.0203. Strategic agenda — Strategic implementation plan — Benchmarks — Review of goals and plan.

(1) The Council on Postsecondary Education shall adopt a strategic agenda that identifies specific short-term objectives in furtherance of the long-term goals established in KRS 164.003(2).

(2)(a) The purpose of the strategic agenda is to further the public purposes under KRS 164.003 by creating high-quality, relevant, postsecondary education and adult education opportunities in the Commonwealth. The strategic agenda shall:

1. Serve as the public agenda for postsecondary education and adult education for the citizens of the Commonwealth, providing statewide priorities and a vision for long-term economic growth;

2. State those important issues and aspirations of the Commonwealth's students, employers, and workforce reflecting high expectations for their performance and the performance of the educational institutions and providers that serve them; and

3. Sustain a long-term commitment for constant improvement, while valuing market-driven responsiveness, accountability to the public, technology-based strategies, and incentive-based motivation.

(b) The council shall develop a strategic implementation plan, which may be periodically revised, to achieve the strategic agenda. The strategic agenda shall serve as a guide for institutional plans and missions.

(3) The framework for the strategic implementation plan of the strategic agenda shall include the following elements:

- (a) A mission statement;
- (b) Goals;
- (c) Principles;
- (d) Strategies and objectives;
- (e) Benchmarks; and
- (f) Incentives to achieve desired results.

(4) The implementation plan for the strategic agenda shall take into consideration the value to society of a quality liberal arts education and the needs and concerns of Kentucky's employers.

(5) The council shall develop benchmarks using criteria that shall include but not be limited to:

- (a) Use of the statistical information commonly provided by governmental and regulatory agencies or specific data gathered by authorization of the council;
- (b) Comparison of regions and areas within the Commonwealth and comparisons of the Commonwealth to other states and the nation; and
- (c) Measures of educational attainment, effectiveness, and efficiency, including but not limited to those set forth in KRS 164.095.

(6) The council shall review the goals established by KRS 164.003(2) at least every four (4) years and shall review its implementation plan at least every two (2) years.

(7) In developing the strategic agenda, the council shall actively seek input from the Department of Education and local school districts to create necessary linkages to assure a smooth and effective transition for students from the elementary and secondary education system to the postsecondary education system. Upon completion of the strategic agenda and strategic implementation plan, the council shall distribute copies to each local school district.

(8) The strategic agenda shall include a long-term strategy, developed in partnership with the Office of Adult Education, for raising the knowledge and skills of Kentucky's adult population, and ensuring lifelong learning opportunities for all Kentucky adults, drawing on the resources of all state government cabinets and agencies, business and civic leadership, and voluntary organizations.

164.0206. Public postsecondary education institution's program in speech-language pathology and teacher education.

A public postsecondary education institution with a degree program in speech-language pathology and a teacher education program, under the direction of the Council on Postsecondary Education, and in consultation with the Education Professional Standards Board and the Kentucky Board of Speech-Language Pathology and Audiology, shall:

(1) Align the programs of studies for speech-language pathology and teacher education to permit a student to successfully prepare for licensure as a speech-language pathology assistant and certification as a bachelor's level teacher of exceptional children/communication disorders;

(2) Increase the number of qualified students accepted into programs leading to licensure as a speech-language pathologist or speech-language pathology assistant and certification as a teacher of exceptional children/communication disorders, subject to:

(a) Requirements for program certification by national certifying bodies, including, but not limited to, student to faculty ratios;

(b) The strategic plans of the Council on Postsecondary Education and the postsecondary education institution; and

(c) The budgetary considerations of the postsecondary education institution.

(3) Provide expanded opportunities for speech-language pathology assistants working in public schools to pursue licensure as a speech-language pathologist and certification as a teacher of exceptional children/communication disorders, which may include:

(a) Expanded opportunities for admission to on-campus programs;

(b) The development and expansion of distance learning opportunities in collaboration with the Kentucky Commonwealth Virtual University; and

(c) Admissions requirements that take into account successful professional experience as a speech-language pathology assistant in lieu of other admissions requirements.

164.0207. Collaborative Center for Literacy Development: Early Childhood through Adulthood — Duties — Report.

(1) The Collaborative Center for Literacy Development: Early Childhood through Adulthood is created to make available professional development for educators in reliable, replicable evidence-based reading programs, and to promote literacy development, including cooperating with other entities that provide family literacy services. The center shall be responsible for:

(a) Developing and implementing a clearinghouse for information about programs addressing reading and literacy from early childhood and the elementary grades (P-5) through adult education;

(b) Providing advice to the Kentucky Board of Education regarding evidence-based comprehensive reading instruction and in other matters relating to reading;

(c) Collaborating with public and private institutions of postsecondary education and adult education providers to provide for teachers and administrators quality preservice and professional development relating to reading diagnostic assessments and intervention and to the essential components of successful reading: phonemic awareness, phonics, fluency, vocabulary, comprehension, and the connections between writing and reading acquisition and motivation to read;

(d) Collaborating with the Kentucky Department of Education to assist districts with students functioning at low levels of reading skills to assess and address identified literacy needs;

(e) Providing professional development and coaching for early childhood educators and classroom teachers, including adult education teachers, implementing selected reliable, replicable evidence-based reading programs. The professional development shall utilize technology when appropriate;

(f) Developing and implementing a comprehensive research agenda evaluating comprehensive reading programs and reading intervention programs implemented in accordance with KRS 158.792;

(g) Maintaining a demonstration and training site for early literacy located at each of the public universities;

(h) Assisting middle and high schools in the development of comprehensive adolescent reading plans and maintaining a repository of instructional materials or summary materials that identify comprehension best practices in the teaching of each subject area and a list of classroom-based diagnostic reading comprehension assessments that measure student progress in developing students' reading comprehension skills; and

(i) Evaluating the reading and literacy components of the model adult education programs funded under the adult education and literacy initiative fund created under KRS 151B.409.

(2) The center shall review national research and disseminate appropriate research abstracts, when appropriate, as well as conduct ongoing research of reading programs throughout the state. Research activities undertaken by the center shall consist of descriptive as well as empirical studies.

(a) The center may contract for research studies to be conducted on its behalf.

(b) The research agenda should, at a minimum, consider the impact of various reading and intervention programs:

1. In eliminating academic achievement gaps among students with differing characteristics, including subpopulations of students with disabilities, students with low socioeconomic status, students from racial minority groups, students with limited English proficiency, and students of different gender;

2. In schools with differing characteristics, such as urban versus rural schools, poverty versus non-poverty schools, schools with strong library media center programs versus schools with weak library media center programs, and schools in different geographic regions of the state;

3. In terms of their costs and effectiveness; and

4. In maintaining positive student progress over a sustained period of time.

(3) The center shall submit an annual report of its activities to the Kentucky Department of Education, the Governor, and the Legislative Research Commission no later than September 1 of each year.

(4) With advice from the Department of Education, the Council on Postsecondary Education shall develop a process to solicit, review, and approve a proposal for locating the Collaborative Center for Literacy Development at a public institution of postsecondary education. The Council on Postsecondary Education shall approve the location. The center, in conjunction with the council, shall establish goals and performance objectives related to the functions described in this section.

164.0284. Annual compilation of data concerning in-demand jobs, college costs, student loan debt, graduation rates, and student and graduate employment — Administrative regulations.

(1) In order to help prospective students make more informed decisions about their futures and ensure that they are adequately aware of the cost of college and other career paths, the Council on Postsecondary Education shall compile on an annual basis the following information:

(a) The most in-demand jobs in the state along with the starting salary, the median salary, and the typical education level for those jobs;

(b) For the University of Kentucky, the University of Louisville, each comprehensive university, and each college within the Kentucky Community and Technical College System:

1. The average cost;

2. The average three (3) year student loan default rate;

3. The average student loan debt for students who have attended the institution;

4. The percentage of students taking out student loans;

5. The average graduation rate and average time to completion;

6. The number of students completing high school credential programs and career and technical education programs, and, as available, the number of students completing apprenticeship programs; and

7. The median and range of starting salaries for graduates; and

(c) For each college within the Kentucky Community and Technical College System, the percentage of students employed by program area and, as data becomes available, the rate of students gainfully employed in the recognized occupation for which the student was trained or in a related comparable recognized occupation.

(2) The Council on Postsecondary Education shall maintain and ensure access to the information by prospective students in the state. The council shall work with the Kentucky Center for Statistics, the Kentucky Department of Education, the Education and Labor Cabinet, and the Kentucky Higher Education Assistance Authority and other stakeholders the council determines necessary to develop a delivery method to carry out the objectives of this section.

(3) The council may promulgate administrative regulations necessary to carry out this section and may require and compile information for specific programs within the postsecondary institutions identified in subsection (1)(b) of this section.

164.0286. STEM Initiative Task Force — Purpose — Membership — Steering committee oversight and coordination — Administrative attachment — Contracting — Funding.

(1) The Council on Postsecondary Education shall create a STEM Initiative Task Force for the purpose of providing leadership and strategic direction to a comprehensive, statewide STEM initiative to improve Kentucky’s position for success in the knowledge-based economy by expanding and strengthening educational and economic development opportunities in science, technology, engineering, and mathematics. The STEM Initiative Task Force shall be composed of representatives from the executive and legislative branches of government, postsecondary education, elementary and secondary education, professionals within the STEM disciplines, and the business community.

(2) The president of the Council on Postsecondary Education shall appoint members to the STEM Initiative Task Force, except that the President of the Senate shall appoint two (2) members of the Kentucky Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives shall appoint two (2) members of the House of Representatives to the task force. The task force members appointed by the president of the Council on Postsecondary Education shall include but not be limited to the representatives on the STEM Initiative Steering Committee under subsection (4) of this section. The total number of members of the STEM Initiative Task Force shall be determined by the president of the Council on Postsecondary Education.

(3) The task force shall have a chair, who shall be the presiding officer and shall coordinate the functions and activities of the task force. The chair shall be elected by majority vote of the members present at the first meeting of the task force after July 15, 2008. Thereafter, the chair shall be elected each calendar year.

(4) The STEM Initiative Task Force shall have a steering committee to provide oversight and coordination of the implementation of the STEM strategic and business plans developed by the task force under KRS 164.0287, and to determine the allocation of funds from Kentucky STEM Initiative fund under KRS 164.0288. The chair of the STEM Initiative Task Force shall be the chair of the steering committee, and a vice chair shall be elected by members of the steering committee. The steering committee shall be composed of task force members as follows:

(a) Two (2) representatives of the Kentucky Cabinet for Economic Development;

(b) One (1) representative of the Center for Applied Energy Research at the University of Kentucky;

(c) One (1) representative of the Kentucky Rural Energy Consortium at the University of Louisville;

(d) Two (2) representatives of the Kentucky Chamber of Commerce;

(e) One (1) representative of the Kentucky Science and Technology Corporation;

(f) Two (2) representatives of the Council on Postsecondary Education;

(g) One (1) president of a public university;

(h) One (1) representative of the Kentucky Community and Technical College System;

(i) One (1) representative of the Association of Kentucky Independent Colleges and Universities;

(j) Two (2) representatives of the Kentucky Department of Education;

(k) Two (2) representatives of the Kentucky Education Association;

(l) One (1) representative of the Kentucky School Boards Association;

(m) One (1) representative of the Kentucky Association of School Administrators;

(n) One (1) representative of the Education Professional Standards Board; and

(o) The task force chair.

(5) When making the appointment of a representative required under subsection (4) of this section, the president of the Council on Postsecondary Education shall seek the advice of the chief executive officer of the organization, agency, or association being represented, except that the advice of the Kentucky Council of Presidents shall be sought regarding the selection of a public university president to serve.

(6) Each STEM Initiative Task Force member shall serve a term of three (3) years, or until a successor is appointed or qualified, except that, to the degree possible, for members appointed by the president of the Council on Postsecondary Education, the initial term of one-third ($\frac{1}{3}$) of the members shall be for one (1) year, one-third ($\frac{1}{3}$) for two (2) years, and one-third ($\frac{1}{3}$) for three (3) years. A member may be reappointed to the task force at the discretion of the president of the Council on Postsecondary Education.

(7) The task force shall meet at least semiannually or upon the call of the chair, and a majority of the full membership shall constitute a quorum.

(8) The task force, under the leadership of the chair, may appoint committees, subcommittees, advisory groups, or other work structures to accomplish its purposes.

(9) Members of the task force shall serve without compensation but may be reimbursed for necessary travel and expenses while attending meetings or conducting approved activities at a per diem rate not to exceed the rate promulgated in administrative regulation for state employees under the provisions of KRS Chapter 45.

(10) The task force shall be attached to the Council on Postsecondary Education for administrative purposes. The council may enter into a memorandum of agreement with the Kentucky Department of Education for staff and other administrative expenses relating to the implementation of KRS 164.0285 to 164.0288.

(11) The task force may create a public or nonprofit corporation or contract with an existing nonprofit corporation to facilitate the public-private collaboration in the development and implementation of the STEM Initiative.

(12) The task force or the public or nonprofit corporation which may be utilized under subsection (11) of this section may receive and expend funds from state appropriations and may solicit, apply for, and receive funds, grants, contracts, contributions, property, or services from a person, government agency, or other organization, public or private. Determination of the use of funds received by the task force shall be established by the STEM Initiative Steering Committee pursuant to this section.

(13) Funds appropriated to the task force or the public or nonprofit corporation which may be utilized under subsection (11) of this section shall not lapse at the end of a fiscal year but shall be carried forward to the next fiscal year to be used solely to support the purposes for which the funds were appropriated.

(14) The task force or the public or nonprofit corporation which may be utilized under subsection (11) of this section shall:

- (a) Follow standard accounting practices;
- (b) Have an independent auditor conduct an annual financial audit; and
- (c) Submit a quarterly report of receipts and expenditures no later than sixty (60) days after the end of a calendar quarter. The task force shall file its report with the Council on Postsecondary Education and a public or nonprofit corporation shall file its report to the STEM Initiative Task Force.

(15) The task force or the public or nonprofit corporation which may be utilized under subsection (11) of this section shall submit an annual financial and progress report for the previous fiscal year by September 30 to the Governor, the Legislative Research Commission, the commissioner of education, and the president of the Council on Postsecondary Education.

164.0287. Duties of STEM Initiative Task Force — Strategic plan — Business plan.

(1) The STEM Initiative Task Force shall explore the critical relationship between STEM degree production and the knowledge-based economy of Kentucky and make recommendations to accelerate Kentucky's performance in the STEM disciplines. The task force shall develop a comprehensive, statewide strategic plan and a business plan to improve STEM performance in government, business, elementary and secondary education, and postsecondary education.

(2) The strategic plan shall include but not be limited to:

- (a) Energizing a statewide public awareness campaign to help Kentuckians understand the critical importance of STEM to their own economic competitiveness and that of the Commonwealth;

(b) Creating incentives and a supportive environment for students, teachers, and institutions that pursue, succeed, and excel in the STEM disciplines throughout the P-20 educational pipeline;

(c) Implementing international best practices in professional development programs for P-16 STEM teachers to increase the intensity, duration, and rigor of professional development;

(d) Improving teacher preparation programs and encouraging people with undergraduate and graduate degrees in the STEM disciplines to enter the teaching profession;

(e) Revolutionizing how STEM subjects are taught, learned, and assessed and implementing a statewide, research-based STEM curriculum that is aligned with global workforce and academic standards;

(f) Engaging business, industry, and civic leaders to improve STEM education and skills in the Commonwealth and creating incentives for Kentucky businesses that employ and invest in STEM-educated students;

(g) Developing an ongoing, coordinated, statewide STEM initiative that maximizes the impact of resources among government agencies, schools, colleges and universities, and businesses, and which is focused on developing and attracting STEM-related jobs in Kentucky;

(h) Targeting energy sustainability problems and opportunities in Kentucky and the nation as a primary objective of statewide STEM enhancements;

(i) Developing STEM mentoring programs that partner students in grades five (5) through twelve (12), their teachers, or both, with engineers, business professionals, college or university professors, university students, or others with expertise in the STEM disciplines to link academic coursework with the real world, underscoring the importance of rigorous academic preparation and encouraging pursuit of careers in the STEM disciplines; and

(j) Creating recognition awards and activities and financial support for individuals, businesses, or organizations that exhibit excellence in mentoring within the STEM disciplines.

(3) The STEM Task Force shall develop a business plan aligned with the strategic plan which includes measurable benchmarks for progress in achieving the goals within the strategic plan for one (1) year, three (3) year, and five (5) year time periods. The initial business plan shall be presented to the Interim Joint Committees on Appropriations and Revenue and Education by December 30, 2008. In subsequent years, the task force shall review and revise the business plan as needed to further the purposes of the STEM Initiative.

164.033. Local P-16 councils.

(1) Effective August 1, 2002, the Council on Postsecondary Education shall administer a competitive grant program to enable the establishment of local P-16 councils. A P-16 council may be called a council of partners. The Council on Postsecondary Education and the Kentucky Board of Education shall jointly establish the criteria for participation in the grant program and the amount of funds available to each local P-16 council based on funds appropriated for this purpose. A postsecondary education institution shall assume the leadership role for managing a local P-16 council grant.

(2) A local P-16 council shall promote the preparation and development of teachers, the alignment of competency standards, and the elimination of barriers that impede student transition from preschool through baccalaureate programs.

(3) Each local P-16 council shall provide an annual written report of its activities and recommendations to its members and the institutions they represent, the Kentucky Board of Education, the Council on Postsecondary Education, and the Education Professional Standards Board.

Legislative Research Commission Note.

(6/25/2013). This statute was created by 2013 Ky. Acts chs. 18 and 90, which were companion bills and are substantively identical. Where these Acts are not in conflict, they have been codified together. Where a conflict exists, Acts ch. 90 prevails under KRS 446.250 as the Act which passed the General Assembly last.

164.041. Adult education and literacy initiative fund. [Repealed, reenacted and amended.]

History.

Repealed and reenact., Acts 2000, ch. 526, § 7, effective July 14, 2000; 2006, ch. 211, § 104, effective July 12, 2006; 2019 ch. 146, was repealed and amended as KRS 151B.409 by Acts 2019, ch. 146, § 49, effective June 27, 2019.

Compiler's Notes.

This section was formerly compiled as KRS 151B.142.

Legislative Research Commission Note.

(7/7/97). Although designated to be created as a new section of KRS Chapter 164 by 1997 (1st Extra. Sess.) Ky. Acts ch. 1, § 150, this statute has been codified into KRS Chapter 151B under KRS 7.136(1)(a) and (h) because its subject matter clearly belongs within that chapter.

164.097. Certification of postsecondary institutions to receive funds for teacher education or model program.

No postsecondary education institution shall receive funds from the Council on Postsecondary Education from any trust fund for the purposes of teacher education or model programs of teaching and learning unless the Education Professional Standards Board has certified to the council that the institution has met the following conditions:

- (1) The college or university has developed viable partnerships with local school districts and schools;
- (2) There is evidence of ongoing dialogue and collaboration among liberal arts and sciences faculty and administrators with faculty and administrators in the department, school, or college of education;

(3) The college or university has demonstrated a commitment to participate in teacher academies;

(4) The college or university has an active recruitment plan for attracting and retaining minority faculty as well as students, and particularly in the department, school, or college of education;

(5) The college or university has initiated the development of incentives or rewards for faculty across the institution to participate in service activities to local schools;

(6) The department, school, or college of education has developed at least one (1) accelerated alternative plan for teacher education or nontraditional program of teacher preparation, or commits to developing an accelerated alternative or nontraditional program;

(7) The department, school, or college of education provides consistent and quality classroom and field experiences, including early practicums and student teaching experience for all students;

(8) The department, school, or college of education has, as an element of its curriculum, substantial course work and classroom and field experiences directly addressing teacher training in classroom management;

(9) There are no major accreditation deficiencies; and

(10) The institution has demonstrated at least one (1) or more innovations in teacher education.

INSTITUTIONS OF HIGHER LEARNING

164.281. Public institution of postsecondary education criminal history background checks — Initial hires, contractors, employees, volunteers, visitors — Disclosures — Termination.

(1) Each public institution of postsecondary education shall require a criminal history background check on all initial hires.

(a) The background check shall consist of a state criminal history background check and a national criminal history background check.

(b) Applications shall authorize the appropriate agency to search police records for convictions and make results known to the institution, and the institution may require the applicant to bear the cost of the criminal history background check.

(2) Each public institution of postsecondary education may require a criminal history background check on a contractor, employee of a contractor, volunteer for the institution or a program of the institution, or visitor, subject to the same terms and conditions as in subsection (1) of this section.

(3) If, upon review of the results of the criminal history background check, a public institution of postsecondary education finds that the applicant, contractor, employee of a contractor, volunteer, or visitor has been convicted of, pled guilty to, or entered an Alford plea to a sex crime as specified in KRS 17.500 or a violent offense as specified in KRS 439.3401, the institution may:

(a) Deny employment or modify the conditions of employment to provide for appropriate supervision;

(b) Deny a contractor or a contractor’s employee a permit to enter the institution or its grounds, or modify the contract to provide for appropriate supervision;

(c) Prohibit a person from volunteering or require the person to agree to appropriate supervision; or

(d) Prohibit a person from visiting the institution or its grounds, or require that person to agree to appropriate supervision.

(4) Each application or renewal form, provided by the institution to an applicant for employment, shall conspicuously state the following: “FOR THIS TYPE OF EMPLOYMENT, STATE LAW REQUIRES A STATE AND NATIONAL CRIMINAL HISTORY BACKGROUND CHECK AS A CONDITION OF EMPLOYMENT.”

(5) If the institution requires a criminal history background check for contractors, employees of contractors, volunteers, or visitors, the institution shall provide to the prospective person or organization the following statement: “FOR THIS TYPE OF CONTRACT OR FOR BEING AN EMPLOYEE OF A CONTRACTOR, A VOLUNTEER FOR THE INSTITUTION OR AN INSTITUTIONAL PROGRAM, OR A VISITOR OF THE INSTITUTION, THIS INSTITUTION RE-

QUIRES A STATE AND NATIONAL CRIMINAL HISTORY BACKGROUND CHECK.”

(6) If an employee of the public institution of postsecondary education is convicted of, pleads guilty to, enters an Alford plea to, or is adjudicated guilty of an offense specified in subsection (3) of this section, the employment of that person may, at the discretion of the institution, be terminated as of the date of the conviction.

(7) A private college or university located in the Commonwealth may utilize at its discretion any of the provisions of this section, providing that it does so in a written institutional document.

164.2845. Tuition-free courses for supervising teachers and resource teachers.

(1) In recognition of valuable service to the preparation of teachers and the need for all teachers to have continual professional growth, a supervising teacher or a resource teacher for teacher interns may, with prior approval of the course-offering institution, take a maximum of six (6) credit hours per term at any public postsecondary institution and pay no tuition. The postsecondary institution shall waive the tuition up to a maximum of six (6) credit hours.

(2) The teachers covered in this section may exercise the tuition-free course option only if there is available space within a given course offering. A postsecondary institution shall not be required to establish a course to meet teacher requests.

(3) The tuition-free courses may be used to partially satisfy requirements for an advanced degree.

(4) Each public postsecondary education institution shall establish the procedures for implementing the provisions of this section, effective August 1, 2000.

164.2847. Waiver of tuition and mandatory student fees for Kentucky foster or adopted children.

(1) Tuition and mandatory student fees for any undergraduate or graduate program of any Kentucky public postsecondary institution, including all four (4) year universities and colleges and institutions of the Kentucky Community and Technical College System, shall be waived for a Kentucky foster or adopted child who is a full-time or part-time student if the student meets all entrance requirements and maintains academic eligibility while enrolled at the postsecondary institution, and if:

(a) The student's family receives state-funded adoption assistance under KRS 199.555;

(b) The student is currently committed to the Cabinet for Health and Family Services under KRS 610.010(5) and placed in a family foster home or is placed in accordance with KRS 605.090(3);

(c) The student is in an independent living program and the placement is funded by the Cabinet for Health and Family Services;

(d) The student who is an adopted child was in the permanent legal custody of and placed for adoption by the Cabinet for Health and Family Services. A student who meets the eligibility criteria of this paragraph and lives outside of Kentucky at the time of application to a Kentucky postsecondary institution may apply for the waiver up to the amount of tuition for a Kentucky resident; or

(e) The Cabinet for Health and Family Services was the student's legal custodian on his or her eighteenth birthday.

(2) Tuition and mandatory student fees for any undergraduate program of any Kentucky public postsecondary institution, including all four (4) year universities and colleges and institutions of the Kentucky Community and Technical College System, shall be waived for a Department of Juvenile Justice foster child who is a full-time or part-time student if the student meets all entrance requirements and maintains academic eligibility while enrolled at the postsecondary institution and obtains a recommendation for participation from an official from the Department of Juvenile Justice, and if:

(a) The student has not been sentenced to the Department of Juvenile Justice under KRS Chapter 640;

(b) The student has been committed to the Department of Juvenile Justice for a period of at least twelve (12) months;

(c) The student is in an independent living program and placement is funded by the Department of Juvenile Justice;

(d) The parental rights of the student's biological parents have been terminated; or

(e) The student was committed to the Cabinet for Health and Family Services prior to a commitment to the Department of Juvenile Justice.

(3) Upon request of the postsecondary institution, the Cabinet for Health and Family Services shall confirm the eligibility status under subsection (1) of this section and the Department of Juvenile Justice shall confirm the eligibility status and recommendations under subsection (2) of this section of the student seeking to participate in the waiver program. Release of this information shall not constitute a breach of confidentiality required by KRS 199.570, 610.320, or 620.050.

(4) The student shall complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid to determine the level of need and eligibility for state and federal financial aid programs. If the sum of the tuition waiver plus other student financial assistance, except loans and the work study program under 42 U.S.C. secs. 2751-2756b, from all sources exceeds the student's total cost of attendance, as defined in 20 U.S.C. sec. 1087ll, the tuition waiver shall be reduced by the amount exceeding the total cost of attendance.

(5) Except when extended in accordance with subsection (6) of this section, the student shall be eligible for the tuition waiver:

(a) For entrance to the institution for a period of no more than four (4) years after the date of graduation from high school or obtaining a high school equivalency diploma; and

(b) For one hundred fifty (150) consecutive or nonconsecutive credit hours earned, after first admittance to any Kentucky institution if satisfactory progress is achieved or maintained up to age twenty-eight (28).

(6) The expiration of a student's eligibility under subsection (5)(a) of this section shall be extended by the number of academic terms the institution determines the student was unable to enroll for or complete due to serving:

(a) On active duty status in the United States Armed Forces;

(b) As an officer in the Commissioned Corps of the United States Public Health Service; or

(c) On active service in the Peace Corps Act or the Americorps.

The original age limitation under subsection (5)(b) of this section shall be extended by the total number of years during which the student was on active duty status. The number of months served on active duty status shall be rounded up to the next higher year to determine the maximum length of eligibility extension allowed.

(7) The Council on Postsecondary Education shall report nonidentifying data on graduation rates of students participating in the tuition waiver program by November 30 each year to the Legislative Research Commission.

(8) Nothing in this section shall be construed to:

(a) Guarantee acceptance of or entrance into any postsecondary institution for a foster or adopted child;

(b) Limit the participation of a foster or adopted student in any other program of financial assistance for postsecondary education;

(c) Require any postsecondary institution to waive costs or fees relating to room and board; or

(d) Restrict any postsecondary institution, the Department of Juvenile Justice, or the Cabinet for Health and Family Services from accessing other sources of financial assistance, except loans, that may be available to a foster or adopted student.

164.2849. Legislative finding.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky finds and declares that it is in the best interests of the Commonwealth to encourage and support adults to adopt and provide foster care for children in the custody of the state. The General Assembly recognizes that a child whose care, custody, and control has been assumed by the Commonwealth as evidenced by termination of the rights of the biological parents and adoption from state custody or a custodial commitment to the Cabinet for Health and Family Services or the Department of Juvenile Justice is a special ward of the state and faces particular challenges in pursuing higher education. Because it is the intent of the General Assembly to support adoption, foster parenting, and educational advancement, the purpose of KRS 164.2847 is to provide postsecondary education advancement opportunity for foster and adopted children who are or were wards of the state.

STATE COLLEGES AND UNIVERSITIES

164.304. Teacher preparation programs for elementary and secondary regular education to include instruction on dyslexia and other learning disabilities and core elements of response-to-intervention system.

By the 2019-2020 academic year, postsecondary institutions offering teacher preparation programs for elementary and secondary regular education shall, subject to available funds, include instruction on:

(1) The definition and characteristics of dyslexia;

(2) Processes for identifying dyslexia;

(3) Evidence-based interventions and accommodations for dyslexia and other disorders defined in KRS 158.305 and related literacy and learning challenges; and

(4) Core elements of a response-to-intervention framework addressing reading, writing, mathematics, and behavior, including;

(a) Universal screening;

(b) Evidence-based research interventions;

(c) Progress monitoring of the effectiveness of interventions on student performance;

(d) Data-based decision-making procedures related to:

1. Determining intervention effectiveness on student performance; and

2. Determining the need to continue, alter, or discontinue interventions or conduct further evaluation of student needs; and

(e) Application and implementation of response-to-intervention and dyslexia instructional practices in the classroom setting.

(7/14/2018). 2018 Ky. Acts ch. 88, sec. 4 provides that 2018 Ky. Acts ch. 88 shall be known and may be cited as the "Ready to Read Act." This statute was created in Section 3 of that Act.

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT FOR CHILD-CARE WORKERS

164.518. Scholarships and awards for persons who are employed or provide training in child-care and early childhood settings.

(1) It is the intent of the General Assembly to create a seamless system to upgrade the professional development of persons who are employed or provide training in a child-care or early childhood setting through scholarships, merit awards, and monetary incentives, to assist these persons in obtaining a child development associate credential, post-secondary certificate, diploma, degree, or specialty credential in an area of study determined by the Early Childhood Advisory Council.

(2) Eligibility for scholarship funds shall be for individuals who do not have access to professional development funds from other education programs that receive state or federal funds, and who are:

(a) Employed at least twenty (20) hours per week providing services in a child-care or early childhood setting; or

(b) Involved in providing professional development training for teachers in an early childhood setting.

(3) The Kentucky Higher Education Assistance Authority, after consultation with the Early Childhood Advisory Council and the Cabinet for Health and Family Services, shall promulgate administrative regulations, including a system of monetary incentives for scholarship program participants for completing classes, in accordance with KRS Chapter 13A as necessary to implement this section.

IRREDEEMABLE BOND

164.525. Center for Mathematics — Creation, duties, and location.

(1) The Center for Mathematics is hereby created to make available professional development for teachers in reliable, research-based diagnostic assessment and intervention strategies, coaching and mentoring models, and other programs in mathematics. The center shall be headed by an executive director and administered by a public postsecondary education institution. The center shall:

(a) Act as a clearinghouse for information about professional development programs for teachers that address mathematics diagnostic assessment, intervention programs, coaching and mentoring programs, and other instructional strategies to address students' needs;

(b) Collaborate with Kentucky's other public and private postsecondary institutions to develop teachers' mathematical knowledge needed for teaching and help teachers improve students' mathematical concepts, thinking, problem-solving, and skills, with an emphasis on diagnostic assessment and intervention programs for students in the primary program;

(c) Provide teacher training to develop teacher leaders and teaching specialists in primary programs who have skills in diagnostic assessment and intervention services to assist struggling students or those who are at risk of failure in mathematics. The center may contract for services in order to carry out this responsibility;

(d) Maintain a demonstration and training site for mathematics located at each of the public universities;

(e) Advise the Kentucky Department of Education and Kentucky Board of Education regarding:

1. Early mathematics content, diagnostic assessment practices, and intervention programs;

2. Costs and effectiveness of various mathematics intervention programs;

3. Coaching and mentoring models that help improve student achievements;

4. Trends and issues relating to mathematics programs in schools throughout the state; and

5. The establishment and implementation of the Middle School Mathematics and Science Scholars Program established under KRS 158.848; and

(f) Disseminate information to teachers, administrators, and policymakers on an ongoing basis.

(2) The Council on Postsecondary Education shall select a location for the center no later than January 1, 2006. The council shall use a request for proposal process. In developing the request for proposal, the council shall seek advice from the Committee for Mathematics Achievement created in KRS 158.842 and the commissioner of education. The center shall be located at the selected university through July 1, 2011, unless funding is not available, the council deems the performance of the institute to be inadequate, or the university requests to discontinue its relationship to the institute. Contingent upon available funding at the end of the initial cycle, and each five (5) year period thereafter, the council shall issue a request for proposal to all public postsecondary education institutions to administer the center.

Legislative Research Commission Note.

(3/18/2005). 2005 Ky. Acts ch. 164, sec. 4, contained one reference to the Mathematics Achievement Committee. The correct name for this entity is the Committee for Mathematics Achievement. The Statute Reviser, under the authority of KRS 7.136, has changed this reference to be consistent with sec. 2 of this Act, which created the Committee for Mathematics Achievement and was codified as KRS 158.842.

ATHLETE AGENTS AND AGENCY CONTRACTS

164.6901. Short title.

KRS 164.6901 to 164.6935 may be cited as the Revised Uniform Athlete Agents Act.

History.

Enact. Acts 2003, ch. 172, § 1, effective June 24, 2003; 2018 ch. 205, § 1, effective July 14, 2018.

164.6903. Definitions for KRS 164.6901 to 164.6935.

As used in KRS 164.6901 to 164.6935, unless the context requires otherwise:

(1) "Agency contract" means an agreement in which a student-athlete authorizes a person to negotiate or solicit on behalf of the student-athlete a professional-sports-services contract; a name, image, and likeness agreement as defined in KRS 164.6941; or an endorsement contract;

(2) "Athlete agent":

(a) Means an individual, whether registered under KRS 164.6901 to 164.6935 or not, who:

1. Directly or indirectly, recruits or solicits a student-athlete to enter into an agency contract or, for compensation, procures employment or offers, promises, attempts, or negotiates to obtain employment for a student-athlete as a professional athlete or member of a professional sports team or organization;

2. For compensation or in anticipation of compensation related to a student-athlete's participation in athletics:

a. Serves the student-athlete in an advisor capacity on a matter related to finances, business pursuits, or career management decisions, unless the individual is an employee of an educational institution acting exclusively as an employee of the institution for the benefit of the institution; or

b. Manages the business affairs of the student-athlete by providing assistance with bills, payments, contracts or taxes; or

3. In anticipation of representing a student-athlete for a purpose related to the student-athlete's participation in athletics:

a. Gives consideration to the student-athlete or another person;

b. Serves the student-athlete in an advisory capacity on a matter related to finances, business pursuits, or career management decisions; or

c. Manages the business affairs of the student-athlete by providing assistance with bills, payments, contracts, or taxes; and

(b) Does not include an individual who:

1. Acts solely on behalf of a professional sports team or organization; or

2. Is a licensed, registered, or certified professional and offers or provides services to a student-athlete customarily provided by members of the profession, unless the individual:

a. Also recruits or solicits the student-athlete to enter into an agency contract;

b. For compensation, procures employment or offers, promises, attempts, or negotiates to obtain employment for the student-athlete as a professional athlete or member of a professional sports team or organization; or

c. Receives consideration for providing the services calculated using a different method than for an individual who is not a student-athlete; or

3. Is a parent or guardian of a student-athlete, unless the parent or guardian for compensation, or any form of valuable consideration or reasonable expectation thereof, influences or attempts to influence the student-athlete to enter into an agency contract, or procures employment or offers, promises, attempts, or negotiates to obtain employment for the student-athlete as a professional athlete or member of a professional sports team or organization;

(3) "Athletic director" means an individual responsible for administering the overall athletic program of an educational institution or, if an educational institution has separately administered athletic programs for male and female students, the athletic program for males or the athletic program for females, as appropriate;

(4) "Contact" means a communication, direct or indirect, between an athlete agent and a student-athlete, to recruit or solicit the student-athlete to enter into an agency contract;

(5) "Department" means the Department of Professional Licensing in the Public Protection Cabinet;

(6) "Educational institution" includes a public or private elementary school, secondary school, technical or vocational school, community college, college, and university;

(7) "Endorsement contract" means an agreement under which a student-athlete is employed or receives consideration to use on behalf of the other party any value that the student-athlete may have because of publicity, reputation, following, or fame obtained because of athletic ability or performance;

(8) "Enrolled" means registered for courses and attending athletic practice or class;

(9) "Intercollegiate sport" means a sport played at the collegiate level for which eligibility requirements for participation by a student-athlete are established by a national association that promotes or regulates collegiate athletics;

(10) "Interscholastic sport" means a sport played between educational institutions that are not community colleges, colleges, or universities;

(11) "Licensed, registered, or certified professional" means an individual licensed, registered, or certified as an attorney, dealer in securities, financial planner, insurance agent, real estate broker or sales agent, tax consultant, accountant, or member of a profession other than that of an athlete agent who is licensed, registered, or certified by the state or a nationally recognized organization that licenses, registers, or certifies members of the profession on the basis of experience, education, or testing;

(12) "Person" means an individual, corporation, business trust, estate, trust, partnership, limited liability company, association, joint venture, or government; governmental subdivision, agency, or instrumentality; public corporation, or any other legal or commercial entity;

(13) "Professional-sports-services contract" means an agreement under which an individual is employed, or agrees to render services, as a player on a professional sports team, with a professional sports organization, or as a professional athlete;

(14) "Record" means information that is inscribed on a tangible medium or that is stored in an electronic or other medium and is retrievable in perceivable form;

(15) "Recruit or solicit" means to attempt to influence the choice of an athlete agent by a student-athlete or, if the student-athlete is a minor, a parent or guardian of the student-athlete. The term does not include giving advice on the selection of a particular agent in a family, coaching, or social situation unless the individual giving the advice does so because of the receipt or anticipated receipt of an economic benefit, directly or indirectly, from the agent;

(16) "Registration" means registration as an athlete agent pursuant to KRS 164.6901 to 164.6935;

(17) "Sign" means with present intent to authenticate or adopt a record:

(a) To execute or adopt a tangible symbol; or

(b) To attach to or logically associate with the record an electronic symbol, sound, or process;

(18) "State" means a state of the United States, the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico, the United States Virgin Islands, or any territory or insular possession subject to the jurisdiction of the United States; and

(19) "Student-athlete" means an individual who is eligible to attend an educational institution and engages in, is eligible to engage in, or may be eligible in the future to engage in, any interscholastic or intercollegiate sport. "Student-athlete" does not include an individual permanently ineligible to participate in a particular interscholastic or intercollegiate sport for that sport.

3. Any means of communicating electronically, including a facsimile number, electronic mail address, and personal and business or employer Web sites;

(b) The name of the applicant's business or employer, if applicable, including for each business or employer, the mailing address, telephone number, organization form, and the nature of the business;

(c) Each social media account with which the applicant or the applicant's business or employer is affiliated;

(d) Each business or occupation engaged in by the applicant for the five (5) years before the date of the application, including self-employment and employment by others, and any professional or occupational license, registration, or certification held by the applicant during that time;

(e) A description of the applicant's:

1. Formal training as an athlete;
2. Practical experience as an athlete agent; and
3. Educational background relating to the applicant's activities as an athlete agent;

(f) The name of each student-athlete for whom the applicant acted as an athlete agent within five (5) years before the date of the application or, if the student-athlete is a minor, the name of the parent or guardian of the minor, together with the student-athlete's sport and last known team;

(g) The name and address of each person that:

1. Is a partner, member, officer, manager, associate, or profit sharer or directly or indirectly holds an equity interest of five percent (5%) or more of the athlete agent's business if it is not a corporation; and
2. Is an officer or director of a corporation employing the athlete agent or a shareholder having an interest of five percent (5%) or more in the corporation;

(h) A description of the status of any application by the applicant or any person named pursuant to paragraph (g) of this subsection for a state or federal agency, including any denial, refusal to renew, suspension, withdrawal, or termination of the license and any reprimand or censure related to the license;

(i) Whether the applicant or any person named pursuant to paragraph (g) of this subsection has been convicted of, or has charges pending for, a crime that would involve sexual misconduct, has dishonesty as a necessary element, or would be a felony if committed in this state, and, if so, identification of:

1. The crime;
2. The law enforcement agency involved; and
3. If applicable, the date of the conviction and the fine or penalty imposed;

(j) Whether, within fifteen (15) years before the date of the application, the applicant or any person named pursuant to paragraph (g) of this subsection has been a defendant or respondent in a civil proceeding, including a proceeding seeking an adjudication of legal incompetence, and if so, the date and a full explanation of each proceeding;

(k) Whether the applicant or any person named pursuant to paragraph (g) of this subsection has an unsatisfied judgment of continuing effect, including alimony or a domestic order in the nature of child support, which is not current at the date of the application;

(l) Whether, within ten (10) years before the date of the application, the applicant or any person named pursuant to paragraph (g) of this subsection was adjudicated bankrupt or was an owner of a business that was adjudicated bankrupt;

(m) Whether there has been any administrative or judicial determination that the applicant or any person named pursuant to paragraph (g) of this subsection has made a false, misleading, deceptive, or fraudulent representation;

(n) Each instance in which the conduct of the applicant or any person named pursuant to paragraph (g) of this subsection resulted in the imposition of a sanction, suspension, or declaration of ineligibility to participate in an interscholastic or intercollegiate, or professional athletic event on a student-athlete or a sanction on an educational institution;

(o) Each sanction, suspension, or disciplinary action taken against the applicant or any person named pursuant to paragraph (g) of this subsection arising out of occupational or professional conduct;

(p) Whether there has been any denial of an application for, suspension or revocation of, refusal to renew, or abandonment of the registration of the applicant or any person named pursuant to paragraph (g) of this subsection as an athlete agent in any state;

(q) Each state in which the applicant currently is registered as an athlete agent or has applied to be registered as an athlete agent; and

(r) If the applicant is certified or registered by a professional league or players association:

1. The name of the league or association;
2. The date of certification or registration, and the date of expiration of the certification or registration, if any; and
3. If applicable, the date of any denial of an application for, suspension or revocation of, refusal to renew, withdrawal of, or termination of registration; and

(s) Any additional information required by the department.

(2) Instead of proceeding under subsection (1) of this section, an individual registered as an athlete agent in another state, may apply for registration as an athlete agent in this state by submitting to the department:

(a) A copy of the application for registration in the other state;

(b) A statement that identifies any material change in the information on the application or verifies that there is no material change in the information, signed under penalty of perjury; and

(c) A copy of the certificate of registration from the other state.

(3) The department shall issue a certificate of registration to an individual who applies for registration under subsection (2) of this section if the department determines:

(a) The application and registration requirements of the other state are substantially similar to or more restrictive than the Commonwealth's; and

(b) The registration has not been revoked or suspended and no action involving the individual's conduct as an athlete agent is pending against the individual or the individual's registration in any state.

(4) For purposes of implementing subsection (3) of this section, the department shall:

(a) Cooperate with national organizations concerned with athlete agent issues and agencies in other states which register athlete agents to develop a common registration form and determine which states have laws that are substantially similar to or more restrictive than the Commonwealth's; and

(b) Exchange information, including information related to actions taken against registered agents or their registrations, with those organizations and agencies.

History.

Enact. Acts 1998, ch. 259, § 3, effective July 15, 1998; repealed and reenact., Acts 2003, ch. 172, § 5, effective June 24, 2003; 2010, ch. 24, § 216, effective July 15, 2010; 2017 ch. 178, § 11, effective April 11, 2017; 2018 ch. 205, § 4, effective July 14, 2018.

Compiler's Notes.

This section was formerly compiled as KRS 164.682.

164.6911. Office may refuse to issue certificate — Renewal of registration.

(1) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (2) of this section, the department shall issue a certificate of registration to an individual who complies with KRS 164.6909(1).

(2) The department may refuse to issue a certificate of registration if the department determines that the applicant has engaged in conduct that significantly adversely reflects on the applicant's fitness to act as an athlete agent. In making the determination, the department may consider whether the applicant has:

(a) Pleaded guilty or no contest to, been convicted of, or has charges pending for a crime that involves sexual misconduct, has dishonesty as a necessary element, or is a felony if committed in this state;

(b) Made a materially false, misleading, deceptive, or fraudulent representation in the application or as an athlete agent;

(c) Engaged in conduct that would disqualify the applicant from serving in a fiduciary capacity;

(d) Engaged in conduct prohibited by KRS 164.6925;

(e) Had a registration as an athlete agent suspended, revoked, or denied in any state;

(f) Been refused renewal of registration or licensure as an athlete agent in any state;

(g) Engaged in conduct resulting in the imposition of a sanction, suspension, or declaration of ineligibility to participate in an interscholastic, intercollegiate, or professional athletic event on a student-athlete or a sanction on an educational institution; or

(h) Engaged in conduct that significantly adversely reflects on the applicant's credibility, honesty, or integrity.

(3) In making a determination under subsection (2) of this section, the department shall consider:

(a) How recently the conduct occurred;

(b) The nature of the conduct and the context in which it occurred; and

(c) Any other relevant conduct of the applicant.

(4) An athlete agent registered under subsection (1) of this section may apply to renew a registration by submitting an application for renewal in a form prescribed by the department. An application filed under this section is a public record. The applicant shall sign the application for renewal under penalty of perjury and include current information on all matters required in an original registration.

(5) An athlete agent registered under KRS 164.6909(3) may renew the registration by proceeding under subsection (4) of this section or, if the registration in the other state has been renewed, by submitting to the department copies of the application for renewal in the other state and the renewed registration from the other state. The department shall renew the registration if the department determines:

(a) The registration requirements of the other state are substantially similar to or more restrictive than the Commonwealth's; and

(b) The renewed registration has not been suspended or revoked and no action involving the individual's conduct as an athlete agent is pending against the individual or the individual's registration in any state.

(6) A certificate of registration or a renewal of registration is valid for two (2) years.

History.

Enact. Acts 2003, ch. 172, § 6, effective June 24, 2003; 2010, ch. 24, § 217, effective July 15, 2010; 2018 ch. 205, § 5, effective July 14, 2018.

164.6913. Limitation, suspension, revocation, or nonrenewal of certificate.

(1) The department may limit, suspend, revoke, or refuse to renew a registration for conduct that would have justified refusal to issue a certificate of registration under KRS 164.6911(2).

(2) The department may suspend or revoke the registration of an individual registered under KRS 164.6909(3) or renewed under KRS 164.6911(5) for any reason for which the department could have refused to grant or renew registration or for conduct that would justify refusal to issue a certificate of registration under KRS 164.6911(2).

History.

Enact. Acts 1998, ch. 259, § 8, effective July 15, 1998; repealed and reenact., Acts 2003, ch. 172, § 7, effective June 24, 2003; 2010, ch. 24, § 218, effective July 15, 2010; 2017 ch. 178, § 13, effective April 11, 2017; 2018 ch. 205, § 6, effective July 14, 2018.

Compiler's Notes.

164.6914. Temporary certificate of resignation.

The department may issue a temporary certificate of registration as an athlete agent while an application for registration or renewal of registration is pending.

History.

2018 ch. 205, § 7, effective July 14, 2018.

164.6915. Fees.

An application for registration or renewal of registration shall be accompanied by a fee in the following amount:

- (1) An initial application for registration fee determined by the department, not to exceed three hundred dollars ($300);
- (2) A renewal fee determined by the department, not to exceed three hundred dollars ($300);
- (3) An application for registration fee based upon certification of registration or licensure issued by another state determined by the department, not to exceed two hundred fifty dollars ($250); or
- (4) An application for renewal of registration based on a renewal of registration in another state, not to exceed two hundred fifty dollars ($250).

History.

Enact. Acts 2003, ch. 172, § 8, effective June 24, 2003; 2010, ch. 24, § 219, effective July 15, 2010; 2017 ch. 178, § 14, effective April 11, 2017; 2018 ch. 205, § 8, effective July 14, 2018.

164.6917. Requirements for agency contract.

- (1) An agency contract must be in a record, signed or otherwise authenticated by the parties.
- (2) An agency contract shall contain:
 - (a) A statement that the athlete agent is registered as an athlete agent in this state and a list of other states in which the agent is registered as an athlete agent;
 - (b) The amount and method of calculating the consideration to be paid by the student-athlete for services to be provided by the athlete agent under the contract and any other consideration the athlete agent has received or may receive from any other source for entering into the contract or for providing the services;
 - (c) The name of any person not listed in the athlete agent's application for registration or renewal of registration who will be compensated because the student-athlete signed the contract;
 - (d) A description of any expenses that the student-athlete agrees to reimburse;
 - (e) A description of the services to be provided to the student-athlete;
 - (f) The duration of the contract; and
 - (g) The date of execution.
- (3) Subject to subsection (7) of this section, an agency contract shall contain a conspicuous notice in boldface type and in substantially the following form:

WARNING TO STUDENT-ATHLETE

IF YOU SIGN THIS CONTRACT:

- (1) YOU MAY LOSE YOUR ELIGIBILITY TO COMPETE AS A STUDENT-ATHLETE IN YOUR SPORT;
- (2) IF YOU HAVE AN ATHLETIC DIRECTOR, WITHIN 72 HOURS AFTER SIGNING THE CONTRACT OR BEFORE THE NEXT SCHEDULED ATHLETIC EVENT IN WHICH YOU PARTICIPATE, WHICHEVER OCCURS FIRST, BOTH YOU AND YOUR ATHLETE AGENT MUST NOTIFY YOUR ATHLETIC DIRECTOR THAT YOU HAVE ENTERED INTO THIS CONTRACT AND PROVIDE THE NAME AND CONTACT INFORMATION OF THE ATHLETE AGENT; AND
- (3) YOU MAY CANCEL THIS CONTRACT WITHIN 14 DAYS AFTER SIGNING IT. CANCELLATION OF THIS CONTRACT MAY NOT REINSTATE YOUR ELIGIBILITY AS A STUDENT-ATHLETE IN YOUR SPORT.

(4) An agency contract shall be accompanied by a separate record signed by the student-athlete or, if the athlete is a minor, the parent or guardian of the student-athlete acknowledging that signing the contract may result in the loss of the student-athlete's eligibility to participate in the student-athlete's sport.

(5) A student-athlete or, if the student-athlete is a minor, the parent or guardian of the student-athlete may void an agency contract that does not conform to this section. If the contract is voided, any consideration received from the athlete agent under the contract to induce entering into the contract is not required to be returned.

(6) At the time an agency contract is executed, the athlete agent shall give the student-athlete or, if the student-athlete is a minor, the parent or guardian of the student-athlete a copy in a record of the contract and the separate acknowledgement required by subsection (4) of this section.

(7) If a student is a minor, an agency contract shall be signed by the parent or guardian of the minor and the notice required by subsection (3) of this section shall be revised accordingly.

164.6919. Notice to athletic director — Responsibilities of student-athlete, athlete agent, and educational institution.

- (1) In this section, "communicating or attempting to communicate" means contacting or attempting to contact by an in-person meeting, a record, or any other method that conveys or attempts to convey a message.
- (2) Within seventy-two (72) hours after entering into an agency contract or before the next scheduled athletic event in which the student-athlete may participate, whichever occurs first, the athlete agent shall give notice in a record of the existence of the contract to the athletic director of the educational institution at which the student-athlete is enrolled or the athlete agent has reasonable grounds to believe the student-athlete intends to enroll.
- (3) Within seventy-two (72) hours after entering into an agency contract or before the next scheduled athletic event in which the student-athlete may participate, whichever occurs first, the student-athlete shall inform the athletic director of the educational institution at which the student-athlete is enrolled that he or she has entered into an agency contract and the name and contact information of the athlete agent.
- (4) If an athlete agent enters into an agency contract with a student-athlete and the student-athlete subsequently enrolls at an educational institution, the agent shall notify the athletic director of the institution of the existence of the contract not later than seventy-two (72) hours after the agent knew or should have known the student-athlete enrolled.
- (5) If an athlete agent has a relationship with a student-athlete before the student-athlete enrolls in an educational institution and receives an athletic scholarship from the institution, the athlete agent shall notify the institution of the relationship not later than ten (10) days after the enrollment if the agent knows or should have known of the enrollment and:

(a) The relationship was motivated in whole or in part by the intention of the athlete agent to recruit or solicit the athlete to enter an agency contract in the future; or

(b) The athlete agent directly or indirectly recruited or solicited the student-athlete to enter an agency contract before the enrollment.

(6) An athlete agent shall give notice in a record to the athletic director of any educational institution at which a student-athlete is enrolled before the agent communicates or attempts to communicate with:

(a) The student-athlete or, if the student-athlete is a minor, a parent or guardian of the student-athlete, to influence the student-athlete or parent or guardian to enter into an agency contract; or

(b) Another individual to have that individual influence the student-athlete or, if the student-athlete is a minor, the parent or guardian of the student-athlete to enter into an agency contract.

(7) If a communication or attempt to communicate with an athlete agent is initiated by a student-athlete or another individual on behalf of the student-athlete, the athlete agent shall notify in a record the athletic director of any educational institution at which the student-athlete is enrolled. The notification shall be made not later than ten (10) days after the communication or attempt.

(8) An educational institution that becomes aware of a violation of KRS 164.6901 to 164.6935 by an athlete agent shall notify the department and any professional league or players association with which the institution is aware the athlete agent is licensed or registered of the violation.

164.6921. Cancellation of agency contract by student-athlete.

(1) A student-athlete or, if the student-athlete is a minor, the parent or guardian of the student-athlete may cancel an agency contract by giving notice of the cancellation to the athlete agent in a record within fourteen (14) days after the contract is signed.

(2) A student-athlete or, if the student-athlete is a minor, the parent or guardian of the student-athlete may not waive the right to cancel an agency contract.

(3) If a student-athlete, parent, or guardian cancels an agency contract, the student-athlete is not required to pay any consideration under the contract or to return any consideration received from the athlete agent to induce the student-athlete to enter into the contract.

164.6923. Records to be retained by athlete agent.

(1) An athlete agent shall create and retain the following records for a period of five (5) years:

(a) The name and address of each individual represented by the athlete agent;

(b) Any agency contract entered into by the athlete agent; and

(c) Any direct costs incurred by the athlete agent in the recruitment or solicitation of a student-athlete to enter into an agency contract.

(2) Records required to be retained in subsection (1) of this section are open to inspection by the department during normal business hours.

History.

Enact. Acts 2003, ch. 172, § 12, effective June 24, 2003; 2010, ch. 24, § 220, effective July 15, 2010; 2017 ch. 178, § 15, effective April 11, 2017; 2018 ch. 205, § 12, effective July 14, 2018.

164.6925. Prohibited acts — Authorization to pay certain expenses.

(1) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (3) of this section, an athlete agent, with the intent to influence a student-athlete or, if the student-athlete is a minor, a parent or guardian of the student-athlete to enter into an agency contract, may not take any of the following actions or encourage any other individual to take or assist any other individual in taking any of the following actions on behalf of the athlete agent:

(a) Give any materially false or misleading information or make a materially false promise or representation;

(b) Furnish anything of value to a student-athlete before the student-athlete enters into the agency contract; or

(c) Furnish anything of value to any individual other than the student-athlete or another registered athlete agent.

(2) An athlete agent shall not intentionally do any of the following or encourage any other individual to do any of the following on behalf of the agent:

(a) Initiate contact, directly or indirectly, with a student-athlete or, if the student-athlete is a minor, a parent or guardian of the student-athlete, to recruit or solicit the student-athlete, parent, or guardian to enter an agency contract unless registered under KRS 164.6901 to 164.6935;

(b) Fail to create or retain or permit inspection of the records required to be retained by KRS 164.6923;

(c) Fail to register when required by KRS 164.6907;

(d) Provide materially false or misleading information in an application for registration or renewal of registration;

(e) Predate or postdate an agency contract; or

(f) Fail to notify a student-athlete or, if the student-athlete is a minor, a parent or guardian of the student-athlete, before the student-athlete, parent, or guardian signs or otherwise authenticates an agency contract for a particular sport that the signing or authentication may make the student-athlete ineligible to participate as a student-athlete in that sport.

(3) An athlete agent registered under KRS 164.6901 to 164.6935 who is certified as an athlete agent in a particular sport by a national association that promotes or regulates intercollegiate athletics and establishes eligibility standards for participation by a student athlete in the sport may pay expenses incurred before the signing of an agency contract by a student athlete, a family member of the student athlete, and an individual who is a member of a class of individuals authorized to receive payment for the expenses by the national association that certified the agent if the expenses are:

- (a) For the benefit of the athlete who is a member of a class of athletes authorized to receive the benefit by the national association that certified the agent;
- (b) Of a type authorized to be paid by a certified agent by the national association that certified the agent; and
- (c) For a purpose authorized by the national association that certified the agent.

164.6929. Right of action of educational institution or student-athlete for damages caused by violation of KRS 164.6901 to 164.6935.

(1) An educational institution or student-athlete may bring an action for damages against an athlete agent if the institution or student-athlete is adversely affected by an act or omission of the athlete agent in violation of KRS 164.6901 to 164.6935. An education institution or student-athlete is adversely affected by an act or omission of the athlete agent only if, because of the act or omission, the institution or an individual who was a student-athlete at the time of the act or omission and enrolled in the institution:

- (a) Is suspended or disqualified from participation in an interscholastic or intercollegiate sports event by or under the rules of a state or national federation or association that promotes or regulates interscholastic or intercollegiate sports; or
- (b) Suffers financial damage.

(2) Damages under subsection (1) of this section include losses and expenses incurred because, as a result of the conduct of an athlete agent or former student-athlete, the educational institution was injured by a violation of KRS 164.6901 to 164.6935 or was penalized, disqualified, or suspended from participation in athletics by a national association for the promotion and regulation of athletics, by an athletic conference, or by reasonable self-imposed disciplinary action taken to mitigate sanctions likely to be imposed by such an organization.

(3) A plaintiff that prevails in an action under this section may recover actual damages, costs, and reasonable attorney's fees. An athlete agent found liable under this section forfeits any right of payment for anything of benefit or value provided to the student-athlete and shall refund any consideration paid to the agent by or on behalf of the student-athlete.

(4) A right of action under this section does not accrue until the educational institution discovers or by the exercise of reasonable diligence would have discovered the violation by the athlete agent or former student-athlete.

(5) Any liability of the athlete agent or the former student-athlete under this section is several and not joint.

(6) The department may assess a civil penalty against an athlete agent not to exceed fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) for a violation of KRS 164.6901 to 164.6935.

(7) KRS 164.6901 to 164.6935 does not restrict rights, remedies, or defenses of any person under law or equity.

HIGHER EDUCATION ASSISTANCE164.7534. Endowment trust for student financial assistance benefits — Authority to establish corporation to administer — Annual report.

(1) The board is authorized to incorporate an organization pursuant to KRS Chapter 273 for the eleemosynary, charitable, and educational purposes of administering an endowment trust. The organization so created shall be an instrumentality of the Commonwealth, but shall possess no part of the sovereign powers of the Commonwealth. The corporation shall be created to qualify as a tax exempt organization pursuant to Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(2) The endowment trust created pursuant to subsection (1) of this section shall solicit and accept gifts, grants, donations, bequests, or other endowments, including general fund appropriations from the Commonwealth and grants from any federal or other governmental agency, for the purposes of the endowment trust.

(3) The endowment trust shall provide student financial assistance benefits, including but not limited to college access programs administered by the board or grants, scholarships, or loans to pay higher education costs of Kentucky residents who enroll in an institution of higher education in Kentucky.

(4) Any gifts, grants, or donations made by any governmental unit or any person, firm, partnership or corporation to the endowment trust shall be a grant, gift, or donation for the accomplishment of a valid public, eleemosynary, charitable, and educational purpose.

(5) The endowment trust shall submit an annual audited report to the board not later than the fifteenth of each September.

164.757. District teacher certification loan fund.

(1) For purposes of this section unless the context requires otherwise:

(a) "Critical shortage area" means an area in which there are insufficient numbers of fully certified staff in a particular subject, school, or geographic location;

(b) "Emergency certified teacher" means an individual who has not completed certification requirements but has been awarded a temporary certificate for a certification area in which no fully qualified teacher was available;

(c) "Qualified teacher" means a teacher who holds the appropriate certification for a position unless the superintendent of the employing local school district has documented evidence that the teacher is unsuitable for appointment;

(d) "Qualified teaching service" means teaching for at least seventy (70) days each semester or the equivalent in the certification area for which an individual received a forgivable loan in the Kentucky school district that recommended the individual for a loan or in another Kentucky private or public school district in the certification area for which an individual received a forgivable loan if no position was available in the recommending school district at the time when the individual completed his or her certification;

(e) "Semester" means a period which usually makes up one-half (½) of a school year or one-half (½) of a postsecondary institution's academic year; and

(f) "Summer term" means an academic period consisting of one (1) or more sessions of instruction between a spring and a fall semester at a postsecondary education institution.

(2) To increase the number of qualified teachers in local school districts and to reduce the number of emergency certified teachers, there is hereby created the district teacher certification loan fund in the State Treasury. The loans shall be used to provide forgivable loans to emergency certified personnel, fully certified teachers who are willing to seek additional certification in hard-to-fill or critical shortage areas, and paraprofessionals in local school districts to become fully certified teachers and to continue service within the local district.

(3) The fund shall be administered by the Kentucky Higher Education Assistance Authority. The authority shall promulgate administrative regulations to specify the terms and conditions of the award, cancellation, and repayment of loans, including but not limited to the maximum amount that may be loaned per term and the maximum aggregate amount per applicant, the selection process, eligibility for renewal, the specific administrative procedures for utilizing the funds, and the rate of repayment.

(4) To qualify for a forgivable loan, an applicant shall meet the following requirements:

(a) Be employed by a specific local district as a certified teacher, an emergency full-time or part-time teacher, an emergency substitute teacher, or a para-professional at the time he or she makes application for the loan;

(b) Be recommended by the superintendent as an individual that he or she would recommend to be employed in a teaching position for which the applicant is pursuing certification if the applicant fulfills all credentialing requirements;

(c) Be endorsed by the school-based decision making council of the school in which he or she serves to receive a loan for the purposes of obtaining teacher certification in a specific certification area; except that the endorsement shall not be construed as a commitment of securing a position in the particular school in the future;

(d) Be admitted and enrolled as an undergraduate or graduate student in a Kentucky private or public postsecondary institution that offers a teacher certification program in the area for which he or she is seeking certification; and

(e) Be enrolled in a minimum of six (6) credit hours and not more than nine (9) credit hours during each semester of an academic term while employed concurrently in the school district and in not less than six (6) credit hours during the summer term. If a school district recommends an applicant for a loan under provisions of this section and grants a leave of absence to the employee to pursue certification, the employee shall be enrolled as a full-time undergraduate or graduate student as defined by the institution in which he or she is enrolled.

(5) A participant in a local district alternative certification program as defined in KRS 161.048(2) may be eligible for a loan under provisions of this section to offset costs associated with the program. The authority shall establish by administrative regulation the specific requirements, notwithstanding requirements in subsection (4) of this section.

(6) A loan shall not be awarded or a promissory note cancellation shall not be granted to any person who is in default on any obligation to the authority under any program administered pursuant to KRS 164.740 to 164.785 until financial obligations to the authority are satisfied, except that ineligibility for this reason may be waived by the authority for cause.

(7) Recipients shall render one (1) semester of qualified teaching service for each semester or summer term for which a loan was received. Upon completion of each semester of qualified teacher service, the authority shall cancel the appropriate portion of the promissory notes.

(8) If the recipient of a loan fails to complete the certification at a participating institution or fails to render qualified teaching service in any semester following certification, unless the failure is temporarily waived for cause by the authority, the recipient shall immediately become liable to the authority for repayment of the sum of all outstanding promissory notes and accrued interest. Persons liable for repayment of loans under this subsection shall be liable for interest accruing from the dates on which the loans were disbursed.

(9) Failure to meet repayment obligations imposed by this section shall be cause for the revocation of a person's certification, subject to the procedures set forth in KRS 161.120.

(10) All moneys repaid to the authority under this section shall be added to the fund in this section. Any fund balance at the close of a fiscal year shall not lapse but shall be carried forward to the next fiscal year and continuously appropriated for the purposes specified in this section.

(11) The authority may execute appropriate contracts and promissory notes for administering this section.

(12) If available funds are insufficient for all requested loans for eligible applicants during any fiscal year, the authority shall give priority consideration to eligible applicants who previously received loans. If funds are insufficient to make all requested renewal loans to eligible applicants, the authority shall reduce all loans to the extent necessary to provide loans to all qualified renewal applicants. If, after awarding all eligible renewal applicants, funds are not depleted, priority shall be given to loans for those applicants who are seeking certification in critical shortage areas.

164.769. Teacher scholarships for eligible persons agreeing to render qualified teaching service in Kentucky — Cancellation or repayment of notes.

(1) It is the intent of the General Assembly to establish a teacher scholarship program to assist highly qualified individuals to become certified Kentucky teachers and render teaching service in Kentucky schools.

(2) For purposes of this section, the terms listed below shall have the following meanings:

(a) "Critical shortage area" means an understaffing of teachers in particular subject matters at the secondary level, in grade levels, or in geographic locations at the elementary and secondary level, as determined by the commissioner of education in consultation with the authority. The commissioner and the authority may use any source considered reliable, including but not limited to local education agencies, to identify the critical shortage areas;

(b) "Dual credit" has the same meaning as in KRS 158.007;

(c) "Eligible program of study" means an undergraduate or graduate program of study which is preparatory to teacher certification;

(d) "Expected family contribution" means the amount that a student and his family are expected to contribute toward the cost of the student's education determined by applying methodology set forth in 20 U.S.C. sec. 1087 kk to 1087 vv;

(e) "Participating institution" means an institution of higher education located in Kentucky which offers an eligible program of study and has in force an agreement with the authority providing for administration of this program;

(f) "Qualified teaching service" means teaching the major portion of each school day for at least seventy (70) days each semester in a public school of the Commonwealth or a private school certified pursuant to KRS 156.160(3), except that an individual having a disability defined by Title II of the Americans with Disabilities Act (42 U.S.C. secs. 12131 et seq.) or serious and extended illness, whose disability or illness, certified by a licensed physician, prevents that individual from teaching a major portion of each school day, shall be deemed to perform qualified teaching service by teaching the maximum time permitted by the attending physician;

(g) "Semester" means a period of about eighteen (18) weeks, which usually makes up one-half (1/2) of a school year or one-half (1/2) of a participating institution's academic year; and

(h) "Summer term" means an academic period consisting of one (1) or more sessions of instruction between a spring and a fall semester.

(3) The authority may, to the extent of appropriations and other funds available to it pursuant to subsection (9) of this section, award teacher scholarships to persons eligible under subsection (4) of this section, who initially demonstrate financial need in accordance with standards and criteria established by the authority or received teacher scholarships pursuant to this section prior to July 1, 1996. Each teacher scholarship shall be evidenced by a promissory note that requires repayment or cancellation pursuant to subsection (6) of this section.

(4) Kentucky residents who are United States citizens and enrolled or accepted for enrollment in an eligible program of study at a participating institution shall be eligible to apply for and be awarded teacher scholarships. Teacher scholarships shall first be awarded to highly qualified eligible students who meet standards and requirements established by the Education Professional Standards Board pursuant to KRS 161.028 for admission to a teacher education program at a participating institution in pursuit of initial teacher certification. If funds are not depleted after awarding teacher scholarships to students who meet the preceding criteria, then awards shall be made to any otherwise eligible students.

(5) The authority shall establish, by administrative regulation, the maximum amount of scholarship to be awarded for each semester and summer term under this section, and shall prorate the amount awarded to any student enrolled less than full-time in accordance with subsection (6)(a) of this section. The aggregate amount of scholarships awarded to an individual shall not exceed twelve thousand five hundred dollars ($12,500) for undergraduate students and seven thousand five hundred dollars ($7,500) for postbaccalaureate students, except that the aggregate amount of scholarships awarded to an individual who received teacher scholarships pursuant to this section prior to July 1, 1996, including any amount received pursuant to KRS 156.611, 156.613, 164.768, or 164.770, shall not exceed twenty thousand dollars ($20,000). The amount of each scholarship to be awarded shall not exceed the applicant's total cost of education minus other financial assistance received or expected to be received by the applicant during the academic period.

(6)(a) The authority shall disburse teacher scholarships to eligible students who agree to render qualified teaching service as certified teachers, and are unconditionally admitted and enrolled in an eligible program of study.

(b) A teacher scholarship shall not be awarded or a promissory note cancellation shall not be granted to any person who is in default on any obligation to the authority under any program administered by the authority pursuant to KRS 164.740 to 164.785 until financial obligations to the authority are satisfied, except that ineligibility for this reason may be waived by the authority for cause.

(c) Recipients shall render one (1) semester of qualified teaching service for each semester or summer term of scholarship received, except that recipients who teach in a critical shortage area designated by the authority or teach dual credit coursework in a certified Kentucky high school shall render one (1) semester of qualified teaching service as repayment for two (2) semesters or summer terms of scholarships received. Upon completion of each semester of qualified teacher service, the authority shall cancel the appropriate number of promissory notes.

(d) If the recipient of a teacher scholarship fails to complete an eligible program of study at a participating institution or fails to render qualified teaching service in any semester following certification or recertification, unless the failure is temporarily waived for cause by the authority, the recipient shall immediately become liable to the authority for repayment of the sum of all outstanding promissory notes and accrued interest. Persons liable for repayment of scholarships under this paragraph shall be liable for interest accruing from the dates on which the teacher scholarships were disbursed.

(e) Recipients who have outstanding loans or scholarships under KRS 156.611, 156.613, 164.768, or 164.770 respectively, and who render qualified teaching service, shall have their notes canceled in accordance with subsection (6)(c) of this section.

(f) The authority shall establish, by administrative regulation, the terms and conditions for the award, cancellation, and repayment of teacher scholarships including, but not limited to, the selection criteria, eligibility for renewal awards, amount of scholarship payments, deferments, the rate of repayment, and the interest rate thereon.

(g) Notwithstanding any other statute to the contrary, the maximum interest rate applicable to repayment of a promissory note under this section shall be twelve percent (12%) per annum, except that if a judgment is rendered to recover payment, the judgment shall bear interest at the rate of five percent (5%) greater than the rate actually charged on the promissory note.

(7) A repayment obligation imposed by this section shall not be voidable by reason of the age of the recipient at the time of receiving the teacher scholarship.

(8) Failure to meet repayment obligations imposed by this section shall be cause for the revocation of a person's teaching certificate, subject to the procedures set forth in KRS 161.120.

(9) All moneys repaid to the authority under this section shall be added to the appropriations made for purposes of this section, and the funds and unobligated appropriations shall not lapse.

(10) The authority may execute appropriate contracts and promissory notes for administering this section.

(11) Notwithstanding any other statute to the contrary, if available funds are insufficient for all requested scholarships for eligible applicants during any fiscal year, the authority shall give priority consideration to eligible applicants who previously received teacher scholarships and, until June 30, 2018, to loan forgiveness for teachers who have outstanding loan balance eligibility for Best in Class loans issued prior to June 30, 2008. If funds are insufficient to make all requested renewal scholarships to eligible applicants, the authority shall reduce all scholarship awards to the extent necessary to provide scholarships to all qualified renewal applicants. If, after awarding all eligible renewal applicants, funds are not depleted, initial applications shall be ranked according to regulatory selection criteria, which may include expected family contribution and application date, and awards shall be made to highly qualified applicants until funds are depleted.

Legislative Research Commission Note.

(6/29/2017). In subsection (5) of this statute, reference is made to a process for awarding a prorated scholarship amount to a student who is enrolled on a less than full-time basis "in accordance with subsection (6)(a) of this section." However, in 2017 Ky. Acts ch. 40, sec. 2, this statute was amended to delete the language in subsection (6)(a) relating to the prorated disbursement, but the reference to it in subsection (5) was not deleted to conform. The Reviser of Statutes has determined that striking "in accordance with subsection (6)(a) of this section" is beyond the authority given in KRS 7.136(1)(h) to correct manifest clerical or typographical errors, so that language is retained for further legislative action.

(b)1. Has been accepted by or is enrolled as a full-time student in a program of study leading to a postsecondary degree at a Kentucky independent college or university which is accredited by a regional accrediting association recognized by the United States Department of Education and whose institutional programs are not composed solely of sectarian instruction;

2. Has been accepted by or is enrolled as a full-time student in a program of study leading to a postsecondary degree at an out-of-state postsecondary education institution licensed by the Council on Postsecondary Education to operate in Kentucky which is accredited by a regional accrediting association recognized by the United States Department of Education and whose institutional programs are not composed solely of sectarian instruction; or

3. Has been accepted or is enrolled as a student in a comprehensive transition and postsecondary program at an institution described in subparagraph 1. of this paragraph. For purposes of this section, a student enrolled in a comprehensive transition and postsecondary program shall be considered a part-time student, and the grant amount shall be adjusted accordingly by the Kentucky Higher Education Assistance Authority.

An otherwise eligible student having a disability defined by Title II of the Americans with Disabilities Act (42 U.S.C. secs. 12131 et seq.), certified by a licensed physician to be unable to attend the eligible program of study full-time because of the disability may also qualify under this paragraph; and

(c) Has not previously attended college or university more than the maximum number of academic terms established by the authority in administrative regulations.

(2) The amount of the tuition grant to be paid to a student each semester, or appropriate academic term, shall be determined by the Kentucky Higher Education Assistance Authority.

(3) The maximum amount shall not exceed fifty percent (50%) of the average state appropriation per full-time equivalent student enrolled in all public institutions of higher education. Such tuition grants are to be calculated annually by the Kentucky Higher Education Assistance Authority.

(4) The need of each applicant shall be determined by acceptable need analysis such as use of the free application for federal student aid in conjunction with Part E of the federal act, 20 U.S.C. secs. 1087kk through 1087vv, and such other analyses as the authority may determine, subject to the approval by the United States Secretary of Education.

(5) An adjustment shall be made in the tuition grant of any student awarded a scholarship from any other source provided the combination of grants and awards exceeds the calculated need of the student.

(6) Accepted or enrolled students qualifying under the provisions of subsection (1)(b) of this section prior to the 2011-2012 academic year shall be under those provisions and continue under those provisions until June 30, 2014.

(7) Beginning with the 2011-2012 academic year, and each year thereafter:

(a) A student may enroll and receive a Kentucky tuition grant at any Kentucky independent college or university whose institutional programs are not composed solely of sectarian instruction and is accredited by:

1. The Southern Association of Colleges and Schools; or

2.a. A national accreditation agency that is recognized by the United States Department of Education; and

b. Is a college or university eligible to receive federal funding under 20 U.S.C. secs. 1061 to 1063;

(b) Programs or campuses of any out-of-state postsecondary education institution that is licensed by the Council on Postsecondary Education to operate in Kentucky and whose institutional programs are not composed solely of sectarian instruction shall be accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools in order to qualify as an eligible institution in which a student may enroll and receive a Kentucky tuition grant, except as provided in paragraph (c) of this subsection; and

(c) Programs or campuses of any out-of-state postsecondary education institution that is licensed by the Council on Postsecondary Education to operate in Kentucky and whose institutional programs are not composed solely of sectarian instruction, but in which accreditation by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools is not an option, shall be reviewed and approved by the Council on Postsecondary Education based on accreditation criteria that mirrors Southern Association of Colleges and Schools accreditation criteria in order to qualify as an eligible institution in which a student may enroll and receive a Kentucky tuition grant. All costs associated with the institutional reviews shall be the responsibility of the institution seeking approval by the council. The Council on Postsecondary Education shall promulgate administrative regulations in accordance with KRS Chapter 13A to carry out the provisions of this paragraph.

164.786. Dual Credit Scholarship Program.

(1) For purposes of this section:

(a) "Academic term" means the fall or spring academic semester;

(b) "Academic year" means July 1 through June 30 of each year;

(c) "Approved dual credit course" means a dual credit course developed in accordance with KRS 164.098 and shall include general education courses and career and technical education courses within a career pathway approved by the Kentucky Department of Education that leads to an industry-recognized credential;

(d) "Authority" means the Kentucky Higher Education Assistance Authority;

(e) "Dual credit" has the same meaning as in KRS 158.007;

(f) "Dual credit tuition rate ceiling" means one-third (1/3) of the per credit hour tuition amount charged by the Kentucky Community and Technical College System for in-state students;

(g) "Eligible high school student" means a student who:

1. Is a Kentucky resident;

2. Is enrolled in a Kentucky high school as a senior or junior;

3. Has completed a thirty (30) minute college success counseling session; and

4. Is enrolled, or accepted for enrollment, in an approved dual credit course at a participating institution;

(h) "Participating institution" means a postsecondary institution that:

1. Has an agreement with the authority for the administration of the Dual Credit Scholarship Program;

2. Charges no more than the dual credit tuition rate ceiling per credit hour, including any additional fees, for any dual credit course it offers to any Kentucky public or nonpublic high school student;

3. Does not charge any tuition or fees to an eligible high school student for an approved dual credit course beyond what is paid by the Dual Credit Scholarship Program when the course is not successfully completed; and

4. Is a:

a. Kentucky Community and Technical College System institution;

b. Four (4) year Kentucky public college or university; or

c. Four (4) year private college or university that is accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools and whose main campus is located in Kentucky; and

(i) “Successfully completed” means a student receiving both secondary and postsecondary credit upon completion of an approved dual credit course.

(2) To promote dual credit coursework opportunities at no cost to eligible Kentucky high school students, the General Assembly hereby establishes the Dual Credit Scholarship Program.

(3) In consultation with the Education and Labor Cabinet, the authority shall administer the Dual Credit Scholarship Program and shall promulgate administrative regulations in accordance with KRS Chapter 13A as may be needed for the administration of the program.

(4)(a) Each high school shall apply to the authority for dual credit scholarship funds for each eligible high school student.

(b) The authority may award a dual credit scholarship to an eligible high school student for an academic term to the extent funds are available for that purpose, except that a scholarship shall be awarded to an eligible high school senior prior to awarding an eligible high school junior.

(c) An eligible high school student may receive a dual credit scholarship for a maximum of two (2) successfully completed dual credit courses.

(d) The dual credit scholarship award amount shall be equal to the amount charged by a participating institution, not to exceed the dual credit tuition rate ceiling for each dual credit hour, except the scholarship amount shall be reduced by fifty percent (50%) if the dual credit course is not successfully completed by the student.

(e) Dual credit scholarship funds shall not be used for remedial or developmental coursework.

(5) Each participating institution shall submit information each academic term to the authority required for the administration of the scholarship as determined by the authority.

(6) Beginning August 1, 2017, and each year thereafter, the authority shall provide a report to the secretary of the Education and Labor Cabinet, the president of the Council on Postsecondary Education, and the commissioner of the Kentucky Department of Education to include:

(a) The number of students, by local school district and in total, served by the Dual Credit Scholarship Program; and

(b) The number of dual credits earned by students by high school and in total.

(7) By May 31, 2019, and each year thereafter, the Kentucky Center for Education and Workforce Statistics, in collaboration with the authority, shall publish data on the Dual Credit Scholarship Program’s academic and workforce outcomes. The center shall annually provide a report on the data to the Interim Joint Committee on Education.

(8)(a) The Dual Credit Scholarship Program trust fund is hereby created as a trust fund in the State Treasury to be administered by the Kentucky Higher Education Assistance Authority for the purpose of providing scholarships described in this section.

(b) The trust fund shall consist of state general fund appropriations, gifts and grants from public and private sources, and federal funds. All moneys included in the fund shall be appropriated for the purposes set forth in this section.

(c) Any unallotted or unencumbered balances in the trust fund shall be invested as provided in KRS 42.500(9). Income earned from the investments shall be credited to the trust fund.

(d) Notwithstanding KRS 45.229, any fund balance at the close of the fiscal year shall not lapse but shall be carried forward to the next fiscal year and continuously appropriated only for the purposes specified in this section.

164.787. Work Ready Kentucky Scholarship Program — Eligibility requirements for high school and workforce students — Scholarship amount — Annual report — Trust fund.

(1) The General Assembly hereby establishes the Work Ready Kentucky Scholarship Program to ensure that all Kentuckians who have not yet earned a postsecondary degree have affordable access to an industry-recognized certificate, diploma, or associate of applied science degree and, for students with intellectual disabilities enrolled in comprehensive transition and postsecondary programs, affordable access to meaningful credentials to prepare for competitive integrated employment.

(2) For purposes of this section:

(a) “Academic term” means a fall, spring, or summer academic term or other time period specified in an administrative regulation promulgated by the authority;

(b) “Academic year” means July 1 through June 30 of each year;

(c) “Approved dual credit course” means a dual credit course developed in accordance with KRS 164.098 that is a career and technical education course within a career pathway approved by the Kentucky Department of Education that leads to an industry-recognized credential;

(d) “Dual credit tuition rate ceiling” means the same as defined in 164.786;

(e) “Eligible institution” means an institution defined in KRS 164.001 that:

1. Actively participates in the federal Pell Grant program;

2. Executes a contract with the authority on terms the authority deems necessary or appropriate for the administration of its programs;

3. Charges no more than the dual credit tuition rate ceiling per credit hour, including any additional fees, for any dual credit course it offers to any Kentucky public or nonpublic high school student; and

4. Is a:

- a. Kentucky Community and Technical College System institution;
- b. Kentucky public university; or
- c. College, university, or vocational-technical school that is accredited by a recognized regional or national accrediting body and licensed to operate at a site in Kentucky;

(f) "Eligible program of study" means a program approved by the authority that leads to an industry-recognized certificate, diploma, or associate of applied science degree in one (1) of Kentucky's top five (5) high-demand workforce sectors identified by the Kentucky Workforce Innovation Board and the Education and Labor Cabinet or a program of study in a comprehensive transition and postsecondary program that leads to a credential, certificate, diploma, or degree;

(g) "Fees" means mandatory fees charged by an eligible institution for enrollment in a course, including but not limited to online course fees, lab fees, and administrative fees. "Fees" does not include tools, books, or other instructional materials that may be required for a course; and

(h) "Tuition" means the in-state tuition charged to all students as a condition of enrollment in an eligible institution.

(3) In consultation with the Education and Labor Cabinet, the Kentucky Department of Education, and the Council on Postsecondary Education, the Kentucky Higher Education Assistance Authority shall administer the Work Ready Kentucky Scholarship Program and promulgate administrative regulations in accordance with KRS Chapter 13A as may be needed for the administration of the scholarship.

(4) An eligible high school student shall:

- (a) Be a Kentucky resident;
- (b) Be enrolled in a Kentucky high school;
- (c) Be enrolled, or accepted for enrollment, in an approved dual credit course at an eligible institution; and
- (d) Complete and submit a Work Ready Kentucky Scholarship dual credit application to the authority.

(5) An eligible workforce student shall:

(a) Be a citizen or permanent resident of the United States;

(b) Be a Kentucky resident as determined by the eligible institution in accordance with criteria established by the Council on Postsecondary Education for the purposes of admission and tuition assessment;

(c)1. Have earned a high school diploma or a High School Equivalency Diploma or be enrolled in a High School Equivalency Diploma program; or

2. For a student enrolled in a comprehensive transition and postsecondary program, have received an alternative high school diploma described in KRS 158.140(2)(b) or have attended a Kentucky public high school and is a student with an intellectual disability as defined in 34 C.F.R. sec. 668.231;

(d) Not have earned an associate's degree or higher level postsecondary degree;

(e) Complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid for the academic year in which the scholarship is awarded;

(f) Complete and submit a Work Ready Kentucky Scholarship application to the authority;

(g) Enroll in an eligible program of study at an eligible institution;

(h) Not be enrolled in an ineligible degree program, such as a bachelor or unapproved associate program, at any postsecondary institution;

(i) Following the first academic term scholarship funds are received, achieve and maintain satisfactory academic progress as determined by the eligible institution; and

(j) Not be in default on any program under Title IV of the federal act or any obligation to the authority under any program administered by the authority under KRS 164.740 to 164.7891 or 164.7894, except that ineligibility for this reason may be waived by the authority for cause.

(6)(a) Beginning with the 2019-2020 academic year, the authority shall award a Work Ready Kentucky Scholarship each academic term to any person who meets the requirements of this section to the extent funds are available for that purpose.

(b) The scholarship amount awarded to an eligible workforce student for an academic term shall be the amount remaining after subtracting the student's federal and state grants and scholarships from the maximum scholarship amount. The maximum scholarship amount shall be the per credit hour in-state tuition rate at the Kentucky Community and Technical College System multiplied by the number of credit hours in which the student is enrolled and the fees charged to the student. The authority shall promulgate an administrative regulation in accordance with KRS Chapter 13A to specify the maximum amount to be awarded for fees, except that for the 2019-2020 academic year the amount awarded for fees shall not exceed four hundred dollars ($400).

(c) The scholarship award for an eligible high school student shall be limited to two (2) approved dual credit courses per academic year. The scholarship amount awarded shall be equal to the amount charged by an eligible institution for an approved dual credit course, in accordance with subsection (2)(e)3. of this section.

(7)(a) Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this subsection, an eligible workforce student's eligibility for the scholarship shall terminate upon the earlier of:

- 1. Receiving the scholarship for a total of sixty (60) credit hours; or
- 2. Obtaining an associate's degree.

(b) For an eligible workforce student enrolled in a comprehensive transition and postsecondary program, eligibility for the scholarship shall terminate upon the earlier of completing the program or receiving the scholarship for up to nine (9) academic terms within three (3) academic years.

(8) The authority shall annually provide a report on the Work Ready Kentucky Scholarship Program, prepared in collaboration with the Office for Education and Workforce Statistics, to the secretary of the Education and Labor Cabinet that includes, by academic term, academic year, institution, and workforce sector, the number of:

(a) Students served by the scholarship and the total amount disbursed;

(b) Credits, certificates, diplomas, and associate of applied science degrees earned by students receiving the scholarship; and

(c) Students receiving the scholarship who are enrolled in a comprehensive transition and postsecondary program and credentials earned by those students.

(9) The authority shall report Work Ready Kentucky Scholarship program data to the Office for Education and Workforce Statistics for analysis of the program's success in meeting the goal of increasing skilled workforce participation rates.

(10)(a) The Work Ready Kentucky Scholarship fund is hereby created as a trust fund in the State Treasury to be administered by the authority for the purpose of providing scholarships as described in this section.

(b) The trust fund shall consist of state general fund appropriations, gifts and grants from public and private sources, and federal funds. All moneys included in the fund shall be appropriated for the purposes set forth in this section.

(c) Any unallotted or unencumbered balances in the trust fund shall be invested as provided in KRS 42.500(9). Income earned from the investments shall be credited to the trust fund.

(d) Notwithstanding KRS 45.229, any fund balance at the close of the fiscal year shall not lapse but shall be carried forward to the next fiscal year and continuously appropriated only for the purposes specified in this section.

164.7870. Optometry Scholarship Program.

(1) The General Assembly hereby establishes the Optometry Scholarship Program to provide eligible Kentucky students the opportunity to attend an accredited school of optometry to become certified practitioners rendering medical service in the Commonwealth.

(2) For purposes of this section:

(a) "Authority" means the Kentucky Higher Education Assistance Authority;

(b) "Eligible institution" means an accredited school of optometry that:

1. Is the Kentucky College of Optometry; or
- 2.a. Has a main campus outside the Commonwealth; and

b. Executes an agreement with the authority on terms the authority deems necessary or appropriate for administration of the program;

(c) "Eligible program of study" means a program accredited by the Accreditation Council on Optometric Education that leads to a Doctor of Optometry degree;

(d) "Eligible student" means any person who:

1. Is a United States citizen;

2. Is a Kentucky resident as determined by the institution in accordance with criteria established by the Council on Postsecondary Education for the purposes of admission and tuition assessment;

3. Is enrolled or accepted for enrollment at an eligible institution in an eligible program of study on a full-time basis;

4. Completes and submits an optometry scholarship application to the authority; and

5. Is not in default on any program under Title IV of the federal act or any obligation to the authority under any program administered by the authority under KRS 164.740 to 164.785 or 164.7894, except that ineligibility for this reason may be waived by the authority for cause; and

(e) "Optometry Scholarship Committee" means a group of individuals selected in accordance with regulations promulgated by the authority whose membership shall be composed of:

1. A representative from the Kentucky Optometric Association;

2. A representative from the Kentucky College of Optometry;

3. Two (2) at-large members with optometric education experience; and

4. One (1) representative from an eligible institution located outside the Commonwealth.

(3) The authority shall administer the Optometry Scholarship Program and shall promulgate administrative regulations in accordance with KRS Chapter 13A as may be needed for the administration of the program.

(4) Beginning with the 2021-2022 academic year, the authority may award an optometry scholarship under this section, to the extent funds are available for that purpose, to any eligible student who is selected by the Optometry Scholarship Committee to be a recipient.

(5) A minimum of one-third ($\frac{1}{3}$) of the amount appropriated for scholarships under this section shall be awarded to eligible students attending an eligible institution located in the Commonwealth.

(6) Should funds be insufficient to award all eligible students, those previously receiving tuition assistance through the optometry contract spaces program administered by the Council on Postsecondary Education shall receive priority until such time they complete or withdraw from an eligible program of study or have received assistance for four (4) years of study.

(7) The authority shall provide an annual report on the Optometry Scholarship Program to the General Assembly that includes the:

- (a) Number of students served by the scholarship, the total amount disbursed, and distribution by institution;

- (b) Number of recipients completing an eligible program and the number practicing in Kentucky following program completion; and

(c) Geographic distribution and occupational demand of optometrists in the state.

(8)(a) The Optometry Scholarship Program fund is hereby created as a trust fund in the State Treasury to be administered by the authority for the purpose of providing scholarships described in this section.

(b) The trust fund shall consist of state general fund appropriations, gifts and grants from public and private sources, and federal funds. All moneys included in the fund shall be appropriated for the purposes set forth in this section.

(c) Any unallotted or unencumbered balances in the trust fund shall be invested as provided in KRS 42.500(9). Income earned from the investments shall be credited to the trust fund.

(d) Notwithstanding KRS 45.229, any fund balance at the close of the fiscal year shall not lapse but shall be carried forward to the next fiscal year and continuously appropriated only for the purposes specified in this section.

Legislative Research Commission Notes.

(3/25/2009). In subsection (3) of this statute, a reference to “KRS 158.6453(12)(a)3.” has been changed to read “KRS 158.6453(11)(a)3.” When Section 2 of 2009 Ky. Acts ch. 101 [KRS 158.6453] was renumbered, the reference to subsection (12) of KRS 158.6453 in subsection (3) of this statute was not changed. The Reviser of Statutes has made a conforming change under the authority of KRS 7.136.

(7/15/2008). A reference to “KRS 164.7879(3)(c)” in subsection (13)(b) of this statute has been changed in codification to “KRS 164.7879(3)(d)” by the Reviser of Statutes under the authority of KRS 7.136(1) to reflect the insertion of a new paragraph in KRS 164.7879(3) and change the designation of succeeding paragraphs in 2008 Ky. Acts ch. 134, sec. 23.

164.7879. Calculation of educational excellence scholarship awards — Inclusion of certain out-of-state educational experience in grade point average calculation — Graduation after three years — Supplemental award eligibility and calculation of amounts.

(1) Kentucky educational excellence scholarship awards shall be based upon an established base scholarship amount and an eligible high school student's grade point average. The base scholarship amount for students attaining a grade point average of at least 2.5 for the 1998-1999 academic year shall be as follows:

GPA	Amount	GPA	Amount
2.50	$125.00	3.30	$325.00
2.60	$150.00	3.40	$350.00
2.70	$175.00	3.50	$375.00
2.75	$187.00	3.60	$400.00
2.80	$200.00	3.70	$425.00
2.90	$225.00	3.75	$437.00
3.00	$250.00	3.80	$450.00
3.10	$275.00	3.90	$475.00
3.20	$300.00	4.00	$500.00
3.25	$312.00

The authority shall review the base amount of the Kentucky educational excellence scholarship each academic year and may promulgate an administrative regulation to make adjustments after considering the availability of funds.

(2)(a) The authority shall commit to provide to each eligible high school student the base amount of the Kentucky educational excellence scholarship for each academic year of high school study in the Kentucky educational excellence scholarship curriculum that the high school student has attained at least a 2.5 grade point average. The award shall be based upon the eligible high school student's grade point average at the close of each academic year. An award attributable to a past academic year shall not be increased after the award has been earned by an eligible high school student, regardless of any subsequent increases made to the base amount of the Kentucky educational excellence scholarship through the promulgation of an administrative regulation by the authority.

(b) Notwithstanding the definitions of “eligible high school student” and “high school” in KRS 164.7874, any high school student who maintains Kentucky residency and completes the academic courses that are required for a Kentucky educational excellence scholarship while participating in an approved educational high school foreign exchange program or participating in the United States Congressional Page School may apply his or her grade point average for that academic year toward the base as described in paragraph (a) of this subsection. The grade point average shall be reported by the student's Kentucky home high school, based on an official transcript from the school that the student attended during the out-of-state educational experience. The authority shall promulgate administrative regulations that describe the approval process for the educational exchange programs that qualify under this paragraph. The provisions in this paragraph shall likewise apply to any Kentucky high school student who participated in an approved educational exchange program or in a Congressional Page School since the 1998-99 school year and maintained his or her Kentucky residency throughout.

(c)1. Notwithstanding the definitions of “eligible high school student” and “high school” in KRS 164.7874 and the requirement that a student graduate from a Kentucky high school, a high school student who completes the KEES curriculum while attending an accredited out-of-state high school or Department of Defense school may apply the grade point average for any applicable academic year toward the base as described in paragraph (a) of this subsection and shall also qualify for a supplemental award under subsection (3) of this section when:

a. His or her custodial parent or guardian is in active service of the Armed Forces of the United States; and

b. The custodial parent or guardian maintained Kentucky as the home of record at the time the student attended an accredited out-of-state high school or a Department of Defense school.

2. The student or parent shall arrange for the out-of-state school to report the student's grade point average each academic year and the student's highest ACT score to the authority as required under KRS 164.7885. The authority shall promulgate administrative regulations implementing the requirements in this paragraph, including:

a. The documentation that the parent shall submit to the authority establishing the student's eligibility for the scholarship; and

b. The assurances that an out-of-state institution shall submit to the authority for submission of the student grade point average.

3. The provisions in this paragraph shall apply to the 2001-2002 school year and thereafter.

(d) Beginning with the 2013-2014 academic year, a student who meets the Kentucky core academic standards for high school graduation established in administrative regulation and graduates after completing three (3) years of high school shall receive a Kentucky educational excellence scholarship award equivalent to completing high school in four (4) years. The award shall be determined by dividing the total actual KEES scholarship earned under subsection (1) of this section by three (3) and multiplying that number by four (4). The resulting number shall be the annual award the student is eligible for under subsection (1) of this section.

(3)(a) The authority shall commit to provide to each eligible high school student graduating from high school before June 30, 1999, and achieving a score of at least 15 on the American College Test, a supplemental award for the award period beginning in the fall of 1999, based on the eligible high school student's highest ACT score attained by the date of graduation from high school. The amount of the supplemental award shall be determined as follows:

ACT Score	Annual Bonus	ACT Score	Annual Bonus
16	$43	23	$193
17	$64	24	$214
18	$86	25	$236
19	$107	26	$257
20	$129	27	$279
21	$150	28 or above	$300

Subsequent supplemental awards for eligible high school students graduating before June 30, 1999, shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (b) of this subsection.

(b) The authority shall commit to provide to each eligible high school student upon achievement after June 30, 1999, of an ACT score of at least 15 on the American College Test a supplemental award based on the eligible high school student's highest ACT score attained by the date of graduation from high school. The amount of the supplemental award shall be determined as follows:

ACT Score	Amount	ACT Score	Amount
15	$36	22	$286
16	$71	23	$321
17	$107	24	$357
18	$143	25	$393
19	$179	26	$428
20	$214	27	$464
21	$250	28 and above	$500

The authority shall review the base amount of the supplemental award beginning with the 2001-2002 academic year and each academic year thereafter and may promulgate an administrative regulation to make adjustments after considering the availability of funds.

(c) Beginning with the 2008-2009 academic year, the authority shall commit to provide a supplemental award for achievement on examinations for Advanced Placement or International Baccalaureate as defined in KRS 164.002 to an eligible high school student whose family was eligible for free or reduced-price lunch for any year during high school enrollment.

1. The supplemental award for AP examination scores are as follows:

- a. Two hundred dollars ($200) for each score of three (3);
- b. Two hundred fifty dollars ($250) for each score of four (4); and
- c. Three hundred dollars ($300) for each score of five (5).

2. The supplemental award for IB examination scores are as follows:

- a. Two hundred dollars ($200) for each score of five (5);
- b. Two hundred fifty dollars ($250) for each score of six (6); and
- c. Three hundred dollars ($300) for each score of seven (7).

(d) Beginning with the 2013-2014 academic year, the authority shall commit to provide a supplemental award for achievement on examinations for Cambridge Advanced International as defined in KRS 164.002 to an eligible high school student whose family was eligible for free or reduced-priced lunch for any year during high school enrollment. The supplemental award for Cambridge Advanced International examination scores are as follows:

- 1. Two hundred dollars ($200) for each score of "e";
- 2. Two hundred fifty dollars ($250) for each score of "c" or "d"; and
- 3. Three hundred dollars ($300) for each score of "a", "a", or "b".

(e) The authority shall promulgate administrative regulations establishing the eligibility criteria and procedures for making a supplemental award to Kentucky residents who are citizens, nationals, or permanent residents of the United States and who graduate from a nonpublic secondary school not certified by the Kentucky Board of Education and Kentucky residents who are citizens, nationals, or permanent residents of the United States and who obtain a High School Equivalency Diploma within five (5) years of their high school graduating class, and students under subsection (2)(c) of this section who do not attend an accredited high school.

164.7881. Eligibility for educational excellence scholarship and supplemental awards — Time limits for receiving aid — Adjustment of amounts and loss of award — Extension of time limits — Senator Jeff Green Scholars.

(1) Eligible high school students who have graduated from high school and eligible postsecondary students who have earned a Kentucky educational excellence scholarship, a Kentucky educational excellence scholarship and a supplemental award, or a supplemental award only pursuant to KRS 164.7879(3)(e), shall be eligible to receive the Kentucky educational excellence scholarship, the Kentucky educational excellence scholarship and the supplemental award, or a supplemental award only for a maximum of eight (8) academic terms in an undergraduate or other postsecondary program of study at a participating institution, except as provided in subsections (5) and (6) of this section.

(2) To receive the Kentucky educational excellence scholarship, a Kentucky educational excellence scholarship and supplemental award, or a supplemental award only, an eligible high school or postsecondary student shall:

(a) Enroll in and attend a participating institution as a full-time student or a part-time student; and

(b) Maintain eligibility as provided in subsection (3) of this section.

(3) Eligibility for a Kentucky educational excellence scholarship or a Kentucky educational excellence scholarship and supplemental award shall terminate upon the earlier of:

(a) The expiration of five (5) years following the student's graduation from high school, except as provided in subsection (5) or (6) of this section; or

(b) The successful completion of an undergraduate or other postsecondary course of study. However, any student who successfully completes the requirements for a degree or certification involving a postsecondary course of study that normally requires less than eight (8) academic terms to complete may continue to receive the benefits of a Kentucky educational excellence scholarship, a Kentucky educational excellence scholarship and supplemental award, or a supplemental award only, for a cumulative total of eight (8) academic terms if the student enrolls as at least a part-time student in a four (4) year program.

(4)(a) The maximum award amount shall be determined by the authority and shall be adjusted as provided in this subsection. The award amount ultimately determined to be available to an eligible postsecondary student for an award period shall be delivered by the authority to the participating institution for disbursement to the eligible postsecondary student.

(b) The authority shall, by promulgation of administrative regulations, provide for the proportionate reduction of the maximum award amount for an eligible postsecondary student for any academic term in which the student is enrolled on a part-time basis. Each academic term for which any scholarship or supplemental award funds are accepted by an eligible postsecondary student shall count as a full academic term, even if the award amount was reduced to reflect the part-time status of the eligible postsecondary student, except if the eligible postsecondary student interrupts enrollment during the award period for any reason specified in subsection (5) of this section, and the participating institution does not certify a cumulative grade point average for that student at the end of that award period.

(c)1. An eligible postsecondary student who is enrolled full-time in an undergraduate program of study, in the pharmacy program at the University of Kentucky, or in a program of study designated as an equivalent undergraduate program of study by the authority in an administrative regulation, shall receive the maximum award amount for the first award period that the student is enrolled in and attending the program of study.

2. To retain the maximum award for the second award period, an eligible postsecondary student shall have at least a 2.5 grade point average at the end of the first award period. If the eligible postsecondary student interrupts enrollment during the award period for any reason specified in subsection (5) of this section, and the participating institution does not certify a cumulative grade point average for that student at the end of that award period, the eligible postsecondary student shall, subject to paragraph (b) of this subsection, retain the maximum award for the award period in which he or she resumes enrollment.

3. To retain the maximum award amount for subsequent award periods, an eligible postsecondary student shall have:

a. A cumulative grade point average of 3.0 or greater at the end of the prior award period. If the eligible postsecondary student interrupts enrollment during the award period for any reason specified in subsection (5) of this section, and the participating institution does not certify a cumulative grade point average for that student at the end of that award period, the eligible postsecondary student shall, subject to paragraph (b) of this subsection, retain the same award for the award period in which he or she resumes enrollment as he or she received in the award period in which enrollment was interrupted; or

b. A cumulative grade point average of 2.5 or greater but less than 3.0 at the end of the prior award period and be on track to graduate. If the eligible postsecondary student interrupts enrollment during the award period for any reason specified in subsection (5) of this section, and the participating institution does not certify a cumulative grade point average for that student at the end of that award period, the eligible postsecondary student shall, subject to paragraph (b) of this subsection, retain the same award for the award period in which he or she resumes enrollment as he or she received in the award period in which enrollment was interrupted.

4. Any eligible full-time postsecondary student who maintains a cumulative grade point average of less than 3.0 but at least 2.5 but is not on track to graduate at the completion of any award period shall receive a reduction in the maximum award amount equal to fifty percent (50%) of the maximum award amount for the next award period.

5. Any eligible postsecondary student who maintains a cumulative grade point average of less than 2.5 at the completion of any award period shall lose his or her award for the next award period.

6.a. Each participating institution shall certify to the authority at the close of each award period the cumulative grade point average of each Kentucky educational excellence scholarship recipient enrolled as a full-time or part-time student at the participating institution.

b. In addition to reporting the grade point average, beginning with the 2010-2011 academic year, each participating institution shall certify to the authority at the close of each award period whether a Kentucky educational excellence scholarship recipient who initially enrolled in college in 2009-2010 or thereafter is on track to graduate.

7. Any student who loses eligibility through failure to maintain the required cumulative grade point average may regain eligibility in a subsequent award period upon reestablishing at least a 2.5 cumulative grade point average or its equivalent during a subsequent award period, as certified by the participating institution.

(5) The expiration of a student's eight (8) academic terms and five (5) year eligibility shall be extended by the authority upon a determination that the student was unable to enroll for or complete an academic term due to any of the following circumstances:

(a) A serious and extended illness or injury of the student, certified by an attending physician;

(b) The death or serious and extended illness or injury of an immediate family member of the student, certified by an attending physician, which would render the student unable to attend classes;

(c) Natural disasters that would render a student unable to attend classes; or

(d)1. Active duty status for the student in the United States Armed Forces or as an officer in the Commissioned Corps of the United States Public Health Service, or active service by the student in the Peace Corps Act or the Americorps, for the total number of years during which the student was on active duty status. The number of months served on active duty status shall be rounded up to the next higher year to determine the maximum length of eligibility extension allowed.

2. A student whose eligibility expired prior to July 15, 2008, due to the three (3) year time limit on eligibility extensions imposed by this paragraph prior to July 15, 2008, shall have his or her eligibility reinstated for the number of years beyond the three (3) years during which he or she was on active duty status. The number of months served on active duty status shall be rounded up to the next higher year to determine the maximum length of eligibility extension allowed.

(6) An eligible postsecondary student who is enrolled at a participating institution in a five (5) year undergraduate degree program designated in an administrative regulation promulgated by the authority shall be eligible to receive the Kentucky educational excellence scholarship, the Kentucky educational excellence scholarship and the supplemental award, or the supplemental award only for a maximum of ten (10) academic terms. The expiration of an eligible postsecondary student's five (5) year eligibility shall be extended to six (6) years for eligible postsecondary students meeting the requirements of this subsection.

(7) Each participating institution shall notify its students of their terms of eligibility.

(8) Each eligible high school student who attains a 28 or above on the ACT and a 4.0 grade point average for all four (4) years of high school shall be designated as a "Senator Jeff Green Scholar" in honor of the late Senator Jeff Green of Mayfield, Kentucky, First District, and shall be recognized by the high school in a manner consistent with recognition given by the high school to other high levels of academic achievement.

164.7885. Annual submission by high schools of list of eligible students — Data in list — Verification of eligibility — Reduction of award — Students ineligible for awards — Administrative regulations.

(1) Not later than August 1, 1999, and each June 30 thereafter, each Kentucky high school shall submit to the authority, a compiled list of all high school students during the academic year. A high school shall report the grade point average of an eligible high school student pursuant to KRS 164.7874 by January 15 following the end of the fall academic term in which the student completed the high school graduation requirements. The list shall identify the high school and shall contain each high school student's name, Social Security number, address, grade point average for the academic year, expected or actual graduation date, highest ACT score, family eligibility status for free or reduced-price lunch, and each AP, Cambridge Advanced International, or IB examination score. The Gatton Academy of Mathematics and Science in Kentucky, the Craft Academy for Excellence in Science and Mathematics, and the high school of a model and practice school under KRS 164.380 shall report the data on its students to the authority. The list need not contain the ACT, AP, Cambridge Advanced International, or IB if the authority receives the scores directly from the testing services. The authority shall notify each eligible high school student of his or her Kentucky educational excellence scholarship award earned each academic year. The authority shall determine the final Kentucky educational excellence scholarship and supplemental award based upon the actual final grade point average, highest ACT score, and qualifying AP, Cambridge Advanced International, or IB scores and shall notify each eligible twelfth-grade high school student of the final determination. The authority shall make available a list of eligible high school and postsecondary students to participating institutions.

(2) The authority shall provide data access only to the Kentucky Longitudinal Data System and to those participating institutions that have either received an admission application from an eligible high school or postsecondary student or have been listed by the eligible high school or postsecondary student on the Free Application For Federal Student Aid.

(3) For each eligible postsecondary student enrolling in a participating institution after July 1, 1999, the participating institution shall verify to the authority:

(a) The student's initial eligibility for a Kentucky educational excellence scholarship, Kentucky educational excellence scholarship and supplemental award, or supplemental award only pursuant to KRS 164.7879(3)(d) through the comprehensive list compiled by the authority or an alternative source satisfactory to the authority;

(b) The student's highest ACT score attained by the date of graduation from high school, provided that the participating institution need not report the ACT score if the authority receives the ACT score directly from the testing services;

(c) The eligible postsecondary student's full-time or part-time enrollment status at the beginning of each academic term; and

(d) The eligible postsecondary student's cumulative grade point average after the completion of each award period.

(4) Each participating institution shall submit to the authority a report, in a form satisfactory to the authority, of all eligible postsecondary students enrolled for that academic term. Kentucky educational excellence scholarships and supplemental awards shall be disbursed by the authority to each eligible postsecondary student attending a participating institution during the academic term within thirty (30) days after receiving a satisfactory report.

(5) The Kentucky educational excellence scholarship and the supplemental award shall not be reduced, except as provided in KRS 164.7881(4).

(6) Kentucky educational excellence scholarships and supplemental awards shall not be awarded or disbursed to any eligible postsecondary students who are:

(a) In default on any loan under Title IV of the federal act; or

(b) Liable for any amounts that exceed annual or aggregate limits on any loan under Title IV of the federal act; or

(c) Liable for overpayment of any grant or loan under Title IV of the federal act; or

(d) In default on any obligation to the authority under any programs administered by the authority until financial obligations to the authority are satisfied, except that ineligibility may be waived by the authority for cause.

(7) Notwithstanding the provisions of KRS 164.753, the authority may promulgate administrative regulations for the administration of Kentucky educational excellence scholarships and supplemental awards under the provisions of KRS 164.7871 to 164.7885 and KRS 164.7889.

164.7890. Coal county scholarship program for pharmacy students.

(1) To ensure the public health purpose of access to pharmaceutical services in the coal-producing counties of the Commonwealth, which have been traditionally underserved for pharmaceutical services due to a shortage of pharmacists in the Commonwealth, the General Assembly hereby establishes a coal county scholarship program to provide eligible Kentucky students the opportunity to attend an accredited school of pharmacy or a provisionally accredited school of pharmacy in the Commonwealth, and to become certified pharmacists in the Commonwealth, provided that the scholarship recipient agrees to practice pharmacy in a coal-producing county for each year a scholarship is provided.

(2) "Coal-producing county" as used in this section has the same meaning as in KRS 42.4592(1)(c).

(3) The authority may award scholarships, to the extent funds are available for that purpose, to any person who:

(a) Is a Kentucky resident;

(b) Is considered a permanent resident of a coal-producing county for at least one (1) year immediately preceding July 1 of the academic year in which the scholarship is made for students who first receive a scholarship under this section on or after July 1, 2014;

(c) Is a United States citizen as determined by the institution in accordance with criteria established by the Council on Postsecondary Education for the purposes of admission and tuition assessment;

(d) Is enrolled or accepted for enrollment in a Pharm.D. program at an accredited institution or a provisionally accredited institution in the Commonwealth on a full-time basis, or is a student who has a disability defined by Title II of the Americans with Disabilities Act, 42 U.S.C. secs. 12131 et seq., certified by a licensed physician to be unable to attend the eligible program of study full-time because of the disability;

(e) Agrees to render one (1) year of qualified service in a coal-producing county of the Commonwealth for each year the scholarship was awarded. "Qualified service" means a full-time practice in a coal-producing county of the Commonwealth of Kentucky as a licensed pharmacist for a majority of the calendar year, except that an individual having a disability defined by Title II of the Americans with Disabilities Act, 42 U.S.C. secs. 12131 et seq., whose disability, certified by another licensed physician, prevents him or her from practicing full-time, shall be deemed to perform qualified service by practicing the maximum time permitted by the attending physician, in the coal-producing county; and

(f) Agrees to sign a promissory note as evidence of the scholarship awarded and the obligation to repay the scholarship amount or render pharmacy service as agreed in lieu of payment.

(4)(a) Notwithstanding KRS 164.753(3), the amount of the scholarship shall not exceed forty percent (40%) of the approximate average of first professional year in-state tuition for all pharmacy schools in the United States. The authority shall establish, by administrative regulation a procedure for awarding scholarships which shall give preference to students residing in coal-producing counties and which shall establish procedures to award scholarships should funding be insufficient to award scholarships to all eligible students. The authority may also, by administrative regulation, establish scholarship amounts based on demonstration of initial financial need by eligible students.

(b) The actual amount of the scholarship awarded to each eligible student by the authority for each semester shall be based on the amount of funds available and the criteria established under paragraph (a) of this subsection.

(5)(a) The authority shall require each student receiving a scholarship to execute a promissory note as evidence of the obligation.

(b) The recipient shall render one (1) year of qualified service in a coal-producing county for each year the scholarship was awarded. Upon completion of each year of qualified service in a coal-producing county, the authority shall cancel the appropriate number of promissory notes. Promissory notes shall be canceled by qualified service in the order in which the promissory notes were executed. Service credit shall not include residency service.

(c) If a recipient fails to complete an eligible program of study, or fails to render service as a pharmacist as agreed in this subsection, the recipient shall be liable for the total repayment of the sum of all outstanding promissory notes and accrued interest.

(6) Any person who is in default on any obligation to the authority under any program administered by the authority under KRS 164.740 to 164.785 shall not be awarded a scholarship or have a promissory note canceled until all financial obligations to the authority are satisfied, except that ineligibility for this reason may be waived by the authority for cause.

(7) A repayment obligation imposed by this section shall not be voidable by reason of the age of the recipient at the time of executing the promissory note.

(8) Failure to meet repayment obligations imposed by this section shall be cause for the revocation of the scholarship recipient's license to practice pharmacy, subject to the procedures set forth in KRS Chapter 311.

(9) Notwithstanding KRS 164.753(3), the authority shall establish by administrative regulation procedures for the administration of this program, including but not limited to the execution of appropriate contracts and promissory notes, cancellation of obligations, the rate of repayment, and deferment of repayment of outstanding debt.

(10) Notwithstanding any other statute to the contrary, the maximum interest rate applicable to repayment of a promissory note under this section shall be twelve percent (12%) per annum, except that if a judgment is rendered to recover payment, the judgment shall bear interest at the rate of five percent (5%) greater than the rate actually charged on the promissory note.

(11)(a) The coal county pharmacy scholarship fund is hereby created as a revolving fund in the State Treasury to be administered by the Kentucky Higher Education Assistance Authority for the purpose of providing scholarships to qualifying students studying pharmacy in schools in the Commonwealth.

(b) The fund shall consist of amounts transferred from coal severance tax receipts as provided in paragraph (c) of this subsection and any other proceeds from grants, contributions, appropriations, or other moneys made available for the fund.

(c)1. Receipts from the coal severance tax levied under KRS 143.020 shall be transferred to the fund on an annual basis in an amount not to exceed the lesser of:

a. Four percent (4%) of the total annual coal severance tax revenues collected under KRS 143.020; or

b. The amount necessary to provide full funding for all students who qualify for a scholarship under this section, considering all other resources available.

2. Transfers required by subparagraph 1. of this paragraph shall be made as follows:

a. On or before August 1 of each year, sixty-five percent (65%) of the amount of funding provided for in this paragraph shall be transferred to the fund; and

b. The remaining thirty-five percent (35%) shall be transferred on or before December 1 of each year.

3. The amount transferred shall be based upon the prevailing revenue estimate for coal severance tax receipts at the time each transfer is made.

(d) Any unallotted or unencumbered balances in the trust fund shall be invested as provided in KRS 42.500(9).

(e) Income earned from the investments shall be credited to the trust fund.

(f) Notwithstanding KRS 45.229, any fund balance at the close of the fiscal year shall not lapse but shall be transferred to the Osteopathic Medicine Scholarship Program described in KRS 164.7891 within ninety (90) days of the end of the fiscal year.

(g) All amounts included in the fund shall be continuously appropriated only for the purposes specified in this section.

(h) A general statement that all continuing appropriations are repealed, discontinued, or suspended shall not operate to repeal, discontinue, or suspend this fund or to repeal this action.

(i) All moneys repaid to the authority under this section shall be added to the fund.

History.

Enact. Acts 2013, ch. 104, § 2, effective June 25, 2013.

164.7894. Kentucky Coal County College Completion Program.

(1) The General Assembly recognizes that the bachelor degree attainment rate in the coal-producing counties of Kentucky is lower than the state average. It is the intent of the General Assembly to establish the Kentucky Coal County College Completion Program to assist residents of coal-producing counties who are attending postsecondary education institutions located in coal-producing counties by providing:

(a) Scholarships to:

1. Decrease the financial barriers to bachelor's degree completion; and

2. Encourage students to remain in the area; and

(b) Grants to community colleges located in coal-producing counties to enhance the extent and quality of student support services and program offerings necessary to increase student success and degree production in the area.

(2) For purposes of this section:

(a) "District" means the Kentucky Coal County District consisting of coal-producing counties as defined in KRS 42.4592(1)(c);

(b) "High school" means a Kentucky public high school or a private, parochial, or church school located in Kentucky that has been certified by the

Kentucky Board of Education as voluntarily complying with curriculum, certification, and textbook standards established by the Kentucky Board of Education under KRS 156.160;

(c) "Kentucky Coal County College Completion scholarship" or "KCCCC scholarship" means a scholarship described in subsection (1)(a) of this section;

(d) "Kentucky Coal County College Completion student services grant" or "KCCCC student services grant" means a grant described in subsection (1)(b) of this section; and

(e) "Tuition" means the in-state tuition and mandatory fees charged to all students as a condition of enrollment in an undergraduate program.

(3) A participating institution shall:

(a) Be physically located in the district;

(b) Offer bachelor's degree programs; and be:

(c)1. A regionally accredited, independent nonprofit Kentucky college or university licensed by the Council on Postsecondary Education whose main campus is based in the district, including a work-college as determined by the Kentucky Higher Education Assistance Authority;

2. A four (4) year public university extension campus; or

3. A regional postsecondary education center, including the University Center of the Mountains.

(4) A participating institution may establish extension campuses within the district to offer bachelor degree programs for purposes of this section.

(5) A nonparticipating institution shall:

(a) Have its main campus located in Kentucky but not in the district;

(b) Offer a bachelor's degree program not offered at any participating institution;

(c) Be accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools; and

(d) Be a public or independent, nonprofit college or university that is licensed by the Council on Postsecondary Education.

(6) The Kentucky Higher Education Assistance Authority shall administer the Kentucky Coal County College Completion Program and shall promulgate administrative regulations in accordance with KRS Chapter 13A as may be needed for the administration of the program.

(7) The authority may award a KCCCC scholarship under this section, to the extent funds are available for that purpose, to any person who:

(a) Is considered a permanent resident of the district for at least one (1) year immediately preceding July 1 of the academic year in which the scholarship is made;

(b) Is a United States citizen;

(c) Is a Kentucky resident as determined by the institution in accordance with criteria established by the Council on Postsecondary Education for the purposes of admission and tuition assessment;

(d) Completes and submits the Free Application for Federal Student Aid for the academic year in which the grant is made;

(e) Has earned at least sixty (60) credits or the equivalent of completed coursework toward a bachelor's degree;

(f) Is enrolled at least half-time at a participating institution, or a nonparticipating institution in accordance with subsection (8) of this section, in upper division courses in a program of study that leads to a bachelor's degree;

(g) Is in good academic standing in accordance with the institution's policy; and

(h) Is not in default on any obligation to the authority under any program administered by the authority under KRS 164.740 to 164.785, except that ineligibility for this reason may be waived by the authority for cause.

(8) A student otherwise eligible for the KCCCC scholarship who is enrolled in a nonparticipating institution shall be eligible to receive the KCCCC scholarship if he or she is enrolled in a bachelor's degree program in a field of study that is not offered at any participating institution. A program shall be clearly unlike any degree program offered by a participating institution to be eligible. The authority shall promulgate administrative regulations to establish procedures to designate the approved programs of study at nonparticipating institutions for which an eligible student can receive the KCCCC scholarship, which shall include a program review process that requires fifty percent (50%) or more of the courses offered in a program to be different from courses available in a program offered by a participating institution. The maximum annual total of KCCCC scholarships expended for this purpose, to the extent funds are available, shall not exceed five percent (5%) of the amount appropriated for KCCCC scholarships.

(9)(a) The KCCCC scholarship amount provided to a student may be applied to the student's cost of attendance and shall be forty percent (40%), up to the maximum amount defined in subsections (10) and (11) of this section, of the amount remaining after subtracting the student's federal and state grants and scholarships from the institution's published tuition and mandatory fees amount that is used for purposes of packaging federal student aid. Work study and student loan funds shall not be included in the calculation.

(b) For purposes of this subsection, the tuition amount for a work-college, as described in subsection (3)(c)1. of this section, shall be the average tuition and mandatory fees amount of the participating institutions that are described in subsection (3)(c)1. of this section and are not work-colleges.

(c) Students attending less than full-time shall receive a pro rata amount as determined by the authority.

(10) The maximum KCCCC scholarship award amount for the 2014-2015 academic year shall not exceed:

(a) Six thousand eight hundred dollars ($6,800) per academic year for a student attending a participating institution that is a nonprofit, independent college or university;

(b) Two thousand three hundred dollars ($2,300) per academic year for a student attending a participating institution that is a public university extension campus or a regional postsecondary education center; or

(c) Three thousand four hundred dollars ($3,400) per academic year for a student attending a nonparticipating institution as prescribed in subsection (8) of this section.

(11) The authority shall calculate the average annual percentage increase in tuition for the six (6) comprehensive universities as defined in KRS 164.001. The maximum KCCCC scholarship amounts in subsection (10) of this section shall be increased for each subsequent academic year by the total average percentage increase since the 2014-2015 academic year.

(12) The authority shall award KCCCC scholarships chronologically based on when applicants submit the Free Application for Federal Student Aid until funds are exhausted, except prior recipients shall be awarded before any new KCCCC scholarship recipients. Applicants who received a KCCCC scholarship in the immediately preceding academic semester and apply by the deadline established by the authority shall be awarded first.

(13) A student may receive a KCCCC scholarship for a maximum of five (5) full-time fall or spring academic semesters, or their equivalent under a trimester or quarter system, or until the completion of a first bachelor's degree, whichever occurs first. The authority shall determine the equivalent usage of academic semester eligibility for students enrolled less than full-time.

(14) The authority may award KCCCC student services grants under this section, to the extent funds are available for that purpose, to a Kentucky Community and Technical College System institution that is physically located in the district.

(15) The maximum annual KCCCC student services grant shall be one hundred fifty thousand dollars ($150,000) per institution.

(16) KCCCC student services grants shall be used for the following purposes:

(a) To expand outreach services in high schools, in coordination with outreach services provided by the authority, to advise students of the advantages and importance of seeking a bachelor's degree and the opportunities to attain a bachelor's degree within the district;

(b) To expand advising resources to encourage completion of associate degree programs and transfer into bachelor's degree programs;

(c) To expand career advising resources to better link baccalaureate academic pursuits to career opportunities, especially within the district; and

(d) To provide multifaceted retention and student transfer initiatives to encourage associate degree completion leading to bachelor's degree programs.

(17) Beginning November 1, 2015, and each year thereafter, the authority shall make an annual report to the Interim Joint Committee on Education on the status of the Kentucky Coal County College Completion Program.

(18) Every four (4) years after implementation of the Kentucky Coal County College Completion Program, the authority shall evaluate the program to ensure the policy objectives are being realized and to suggest adjustments to maximize the increase in bachelor's degree completion rates.

(19) Each participating institution, nonparticipating institution, and recipient of a KCCCC student services grant shall make data available to the authority for the report and evaluation described in subsections (17) and (18) of this section.

(20) If any participating institution, nonparticipating institution, or recipient of a KCCCC student services grant does not demonstrate improved performance in student performance metrics, including but not limited to graduation and transfer rates, the authority may revoke the institution's eligibility for participation in the KCCCC scholarship or KCCCC student services grant.

(21)(a) The coal county college completion scholarship fund is hereby created as a trust fund in the State Treasury to be administered by the Kentucky Higher Education Assistance Authority for the purpose of providing scholarships described in subsection (1)(a) of this section.

(b) The trust fund shall consist of amounts appropriated annually from coal severance tax receipts to the extent that the enacted biennial budget of the Commonwealth includes such appropriations. The trust fund may also receive gifts and grants from public and private sources and federal funds. No general fund moneys shall be appropriated for this purpose.

(c) Any unallotted or unencumbered balances in the trust fund shall be invested as provided in KRS 42.500(9). Income earned from the investments shall be credited to the trust fund.

(d) Notwithstanding KRS 45.229, any fund balance at the close of the fiscal year shall not lapse but shall be carried forward to the next fiscal year and continuously appropriated only for the purposes specified in this section.

(22)(a) The coal county college completion student services grant fund is hereby created as a trust fund in the State Treasury to be administered by the Kentucky Higher Education Assistance Authority for the purpose of providing grants described in subsection (1)(b) of this section.

(b) The trust fund shall consist of amounts appropriated annually from coal severance tax receipts to the extent that the enacted biennial budget of the Commonwealth includes such appropriations. The trust fund may also receive gifts and grants from public and private sources and federal funds. No general fund moneys shall be appropriated for this purpose.

(c) Any unallotted or unencumbered balances in the trust fund shall be invested as provided in KRS 42.500(9). Income earned from the investments shall be credited to the trust fund.

(d) Notwithstanding KRS 45.229, any fund balance at the close of the fiscal year shall not lapse but shall be carried forward to the next fiscal year and continuously appropriated only for the purposes specified in this section.

KENTUCKY EDUCATIONAL SAVINGS PLAN TRUST

164A.300. Legislative findings and intent.

(1) The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky hereby declares as a legislative finding of fact that the general welfare and well-being of the Commonwealth are directly related to the educational levels and skills of the citizens of the Commonwealth. Therefore, a vital and valid public purpose of the Commonwealth is served by the creation and implementation of programs which encourage and make possible the attainment of higher education by the greatest number of citizens of the Commonwealth.

(2) The General Assembly finds, declares, and recognizes that the Commonwealth has limited resources to provide additional programs for higher education funding and that the continued operation and maintenance of the institutions of higher education in Kentucky and the general welfare of the citizens and the Commonwealth will be enhanced by creation of a program pursuant to which citizens and others may invest money in a public trust for future application to the payment of higher education costs in the Commonwealth and elsewhere and that the creation of a means of encouragement of citizens in the investment of funds for such future higher education application represents the carrying out of a valid and vital public purpose of the Commonwealth. In order to make available to the citizens of the Commonwealth an opportunity to fund future higher education needs for beneficiaries, it is necessary that a public trust be established in which the citizens of the Commonwealth and others may invest moneys for future educational use.

(3) It is the intent of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky to create the Kentucky Educational Savings Plan Trust. The implementation and effectuation of the Kentucky Educational Savings Plan Trust as provided by KRS 164A.300 to 164A.380 constitutes the carrying out of a valid and vital public purpose for which public funds of the Commonwealth may be expended.

(4) It is in the best interest of the people of the Commonwealth to establish and provide for the operation of the Kentucky Educational Savings Plan Trust in a manner conforming to federal law that allows participants and beneficiaries federal income taxation benefits on contributions and earnings on contributions expended by the trust for the higher education costs of a beneficiary.

164A.330. Participation agreements for savings plan trust — Confidentiality of information.

The savings plan trust shall have the authority to enter into participation agreements with participants on behalf of beneficiaries pursuant to the following terms and agreements:

(1) Each participation agreement shall require a participant to agree to invest a specific amount of money in the trust for a specific period of time for the benefit of a specific beneficiary. Participation agreements may be amended to provide for adjusted levels of contributions based upon changed circumstances or changes in educational plans and may contain penalties for failure to make contributions when scheduled;

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1) of this section, participants may elect to enter into a lump-sum contribution participation agreement in connection with which a single, lump-sum contribution is made by the participant for the benefit of a beneficiary;

(3) Execution of a participation agreement by the trust shall not guarantee in any way that educational costs will be equal to projections and estimates provided by the trust or that the beneficiary named in any participation agreement will:

(a) Be admitted to an educational institution;

(b) Be allowed to continue attendance at the educational institution following admission;

(c) Graduate from the educational institution; or

(d) With regard to an institute of higher education, if admitted, be determined to be a resident for tuition purposes by the institution, unless the participation agreement is vested;

(4) Beneficiaries may be changed as permitted by the rules and regulations of the board upon written request of the participant provided, however, that the substitute beneficiary shall be eligible;

(5) Participation agreements shall be freely amended throughout their terms in order to enable participants to increase or decrease the level of participation, change the designation of beneficiaries, and carry out similar matters;

(6) Each participation agreement shall provide that for vested participation agreements, the beneficiary shall be considered a resident of the Commonwealth for tuition purposes if the beneficiary enrolls in an institution of higher education in Kentucky;

(7) Each participation agreement shall provide that it may be canceled under the terms and conditions, including payment of the fees and costs, set forth in the rules and regulations promulgated by the board;

(8) The participation agreement shall ensure that contributions made pursuant to subsections (1) and (2) of this section shall not be made in real or personal property other than cash and shall not exceed the anticipated education costs of the beneficiary;

(9) The participation agreement shall provide that the participant and the beneficiary shall not directly or indirectly or otherwise control the investment of contributions or earnings on contributions;

(10) Information obtained from a participant or a beneficiary and other personally identifiable records made by the trust in the administration of this chapter shall not be published or be open for public inspection pursuant to KRS 61.870 to 61.884, except as provided below:

(a) Upon written request, a participant or beneficiary or his legal representative shall be entitled to be advised of the aggregate balance of contributions and earnings for all participation agreements that designate that same beneficiary;

(b) Information may be made available to public employees in the performance of their duties, but the agency receiving the information shall assure the confidentiality, as provided for in this section, of all information so released;

(c) Statistical information derived from information and records obtained or made by the trust may be published, if it in no way reveals the identity of any participant or beneficiary; and

(d) Nothing in this section shall preclude the program administrator or any employee of the board from testifying or introducing as evidence information or records obtained or made by the trust in any proceeding under this chapter, in an action to which the trust is a party, or upon order of a court.

164A.335. Program and administrative funds for savings plan trust — Investment and payments from funds.

The board, as trustee, shall segregate moneys received by the savings plan trust into two (2) funds, which shall be identified as the program fund and the administrative fund. Transfers may be made from the program fund to the administrative fund for the purpose of paying operating costs associated with administering the trust and as required by KRS 164A.300 to 164A.380. All moneys credited to the administrative fund shall be deposited in accordance with KRS 41.070. All moneys paid by participants in connection with participation agreements shall be deposited as received into the program fund and shall be promptly invested and accounted for separately. Contributions shall be accounted for separately for each beneficiary. Deposits and interest thereon accumulated on behalf of participants in the program fund of the savings plan trust may be used for payments to any institution of higher education.

164A.337. Endowment trust for student financial assistance benefits — Authority to incorporate corporation to administer — Annual report. [Repealed]

(1) The board is authorized to incorporate an organization pursuant to KRS Chapter 273 for the eleemosynary, charitable, and educational purposes of administering an endowment trust. The organization so created shall be an instrumentality of the Commonwealth, but shall possess no part of the sovereign powers of the Commonwealth. The corporation shall be created to qualify as a tax exempt organization pursuant to Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(2) The endowment trust created pursuant to subsection (1) of this section shall solicit and accept gifts, grants, donations, bequests, or other endowments, including general fund appropriations from the Commonwealth and grants from any federal or other governmental agency, for the purposes of the endowment trust.

(3) The endowment trust shall provide student financial assistance benefits, including, but not limited to, grants, scholarships, or loans to pay higher education costs of members of the public, designated as beneficiaries of participation agreements under the Kentucky Educational Savings Plan Trust, who enroll in an institution of higher education in Kentucky.

(4) The board is authorized to transfer to the endowment trust, after its qualification under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, any funds or assets then held in the endowment fund initially established pursuant to KRS 164A.335.

(5) Any gifts, grants, or donations made by any governmental unit or any person, firm, partnership or corporation to the endowment trust shall be a grant, gift, or donation for the accomplishment of a valid public, eleemosynary, charitable, and educational purpose.

(6) The endowment trust shall submit an annual audited report, in accordance with KRS 164A.365(1) and (2), to the program administrator not later than the fifteenth of each September.

164A.350. Ownership of contributions and interest — Cancellation of participation agreement — Transfer of ownership rights — Penalty on earnings refunded due to cancellation or nondistribution — Exemption from creditor's execution.

For all purposes of Kentucky law, the following shall be applicable:

(1) The trust shall exercise ownership of all contributions made under any participation agreement and all interest derived from the investment of the contributions made by the participant up to the date of utilization for payment of educational costs for the beneficiary. All contributions made under any participant agreement and interest derived from the investment of the contributions made by the participant shall be deemed to be held in trust for the benefit of the beneficiary;

(2) Any participant may cancel a participation agreement at any time, and terminate the trust's ownership rights thereby created in whole or in part, by delivering an instrument in writing signed and delivered to the program administrator or his designee. In the event the participation agreement is terminated in part, the trust shall retain ownership of all contributions made under the participation agreement not previously expended for the qualified educational expenses of the beneficiary and not returned to the participant. The participant shall retain a reversionary right to receive upon termination the actual market value of the participant's account at the time of the cancellation, including interest, except that the participant may be required to pay a penalty upon the interest that has been credited to the participant's account in accordance with subsection (6) of this section;

(3) The educational institution shall obtain ownership of the distributions made from the participant's account for the qualified educational expenses paid to the institution at the time each payment is made to the institution;

(4) Any amounts received by the trust pursuant to the Kentucky Educational Savings Plan Trust which are not listed in this section shall be owned by the trust;

(5) A participant may transfer the participant's rights to another eligible participant, including, but not limited to, a gift of the participant's rights to a minor beneficiary pursuant to KRS Chapter 385, except that, notwithstanding KRS 385.202(1), the transfer shall be effected and the property distributed in accordance with administrative regulations promulgated by the board or the terms of the participation agreement;

(6) Notwithstanding any other law to the contrary, if any earnings on contributions are refunded due to cancellation of the participation agreement by the participant or nondistribution of the funds for payment of the beneficiary's qualified educational expenses, the board may charge a penalty to the participant against the earnings on contributions. No penalty shall be charged when a refund is made due to:

(a) The death, permanent disability, or mental incapacity of the beneficiary; or

(b) The beneficiary's receipt of a scholarship, an educational assistance allowance under Chapters 30, 31, 32, 34, or 35 of Title 38, United States Code, or a payment exempt from income taxation by any law of the United States, other than a gift, bequest, devise, or inheritance within the meaning of Section 102(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, 26 U.S.C. sec. 102(a), for educational expenses, or attributable to attendance at an institution of higher education, to the extent that the amount refunded does not exceed the amount of the scholarship, allowance, or payment; and

(7) Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, contributions and earnings on contributions held by the trust shall be exempt from levy of execution, attachment, garnishment, distress for rent, or fee bill by a creditor of the participant or the beneficiary. No interest of the participant or beneficiary in the trust shall be pledged or otherwise encumbered as security for a debt.

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

The Kentucky Postsecondary Education Prepaid Trust Fund is a public instrumentality of the Commonwealth of Kentucky for purposes of the Securities Act of 1933, Securities Exchange Act of 1934, and Trust Indenture Act of 1939. OAG 01-3.

164A.701. Commonwealth postsecondary education prepaid tuition trust fund — Prepaid postsecondary tuition administrative account.

(1)(a) There is hereby created an instrumentality of the Commonwealth to be known as the “Commonwealth postsecondary education prepaid tuition trust fund”, to be governed by the board and administered by the Tuition Account Program Office. The fund shall be attached to the Kentucky Higher Education Assistance Authority for administrative and reporting purposes, and shall be governed, managed, and administered as a separate and distinct instrumentality of the Commonwealth under the provisions of KRS 164A.700 to 164A.709.

(b) The fund shall consist of payments received from prepaid tuition contracts under KRS 164A.700 to 164A.709. Payments received relating to contracts in existence on April 25, 2006, and income earned from the investment of those payments shall be maintained separately from payments received relating to contracts entered into after April 25, 2006, and income earned from the investment of those payments. Income earned from the investment of payments to the fund shall remain in the fund and be credited to it.

(c) Notwithstanding any other statute to the contrary, all moneys received under the authority of KRS 164A.700 to 164A.709 shall be deemed to be trust funds to be held and applied solely for payment to qualified beneficiaries and purchasers and to meet the expenses necessary for the administration and maintenance of the fund as provided in KRS 164A.700 to 164A.709.

(d) The fund shall not constitute an investment company as defined in KRS 291.010.

(e) Obligations under a prepaid tuition contract incurred in accordance with the provisions of KRS 164A.700 to 164A.709 shall not be deemed to constitute a debt, liability, or obligation of the Kentucky Higher Education Assistance Authority, but shall be payable solely from the fund. Each prepaid tuition contract shall contain a statement that the obligation shall be payable solely from the fund.

(2) The purposes of the fund are:

(a) To provide affordable access to participating institutions for the qualified beneficiaries; and

(b) To provide students and their parents economic protection against rising tuition costs.

(3) The Tuition Account Program Office and the facilities of the Kentucky Higher Education Assistance Authority shall be used and employed in the administration of the fund including, but not limited to, the keeping of records, the employment of staff to assist in the administration of the fund, the management of accounts and other investments, the transfer of funds, and the safekeeping of securities evidencing investments.

(4)(a) Assets of the fund shall be invested in any of the following security types that are deemed appropriate by the board:

1. Government and agency bonds;
2. Investment grade asset-backed securities and corporate bonds;
3. Mortgages, excluding interest-only (IO), principal-only (PO), and inverse floaters; and
4. Equities.

(b) Equities shall constitute no greater than sixty percent (60%) of the entire portfolio, including up to ten percent (10%) in equities from outside the United States.

(c) The duration of the fixed-income portion of the portfolio shall reflect the future liability of the fund for tuition payments.

(d) Assets may be pooled for investment purposes with any other investment of the Commonwealth that is eligible for asset pooling.

(e) Leveraging is strictly prohibited.

(5) The board may receive and deposit into the fund gifts made by any individual or agency as deemed acceptable by the board together with funds that are obtained from sources legally available and determined by the board to be applicable for the purposes of KRS 164A.700 to 164A.709.

(6) There is created a separate account within the Kentucky Higher Education Assistance Authority to be known as the prepaid postsecondary tuition administrative account for the purposes of implementing and maintaining the fund.

(a) Moneys shall be transferred from the fund to the administrative account to meet the expenses necessary for the administration and maintenance of the fund. Expenses incurred by the board and the Tuition Account Program Office in carrying out the provisions of KRS 164A.700 to 164A.709 shall be made payable from the fund through the administrative account, and no administrative expenses shall be incurred by the Kentucky Higher Education Assistance Authority beyond those for which moneys are provided by the fund.

(b) The board may establish administrative fees for handling prepaid tuition contracts and deposit the funds attributable to the fees in the administrative account.

164A.703. Board of directors. [Repealed.]

Compiler's Notes.

This section (Enact. Acts 2000, ch. 163, § 3, effective July 14, 2000; 2002, ch. 25, § 3, effective July 15, 2002) was repealed by 2005, ch. 162, § 10, effective July 1, 2005.

Legislative Research Commission Note.

(7/1/2005). Under KRS 446.260, the repeal of this section in 2005 Ky. Acts ch. 162 prevails over its amendment in 2005 Ky. Acts ch. 85.

164A.704. Duties of board.

The board shall:

(1) Promulgate administrative regulations, set fees, and adopt procedures as are necessary to implement the provisions of KRS 164A.700 to 164A.709;

(2) Enter into contractual agreements, including contracts for legal, actuarial, financial, and consulting services;

(3) Invest moneys in the fund in any instruments, obligations, securities, or property as permitted by KRS 164A.701(4) and deemed appropriate by the board;

(4) Procure insurance to protect against any loss in connection with the fund's property, assets, or activities and to indemnify board members from personal loss or accountability from liability arising from any action or inaction as a board member;

(5) Make arrangements with eligible educational institutions in the Commonwealth to fulfill obligations under prepaid tuition contracts, including, but not limited to, payment from the fund of the tuition cost on behalf of a qualified beneficiary to attend an eligible educational institution in which the beneficiary is admitted and enrolled;

(6) Develop requirements, procedures, and guidelines regarding prepaid tuition contracts, including but not limited to, the termination, withdrawal, or transfer of payments under a prepaid tuition contract; tuition shortfalls; number of participants; time limitations for prepaid tuition contracts and the use of tuition benefits; tuition conversions; payment schedules; payroll deductions; penalties for failure of purchasers to adhere to contracts; and transfer of prepaid tuition credits towards private education in the Commonwealth or for out-of-state institutions;

(7) Have the actuarial soundness of the fund evaluated by a nationally recognized independent actuary annually, by October 1 of each year, to determine:

(a) The amount of prepaid tuition for each tuition plan; and for each eligible educational institution for specific academic years, the corresponding value;

(b) Whether additional assets are necessary to defray the obligations of the portion of the fund relating to contracts entered into before April 25, 2006, and when those funds will be needed.

1. For purposes of this paragraph, a "real liability expected to accrue during the next biennium" exists if the amount in the fund representing contracts entered into before April 25, 2006, is not sufficient to meet all anticipated distributions under contracts entered into before April 25, 2006, and the expense of maintaining and operating the fund for the upcoming biennium.

2. If the report of the actuary submitted in an odd-numbered year reflects that there will be a real liability expected to accrue during the next biennium, the secretary of the Finance and Administration Cabinet shall include in the budget request for the cabinet an appropriation to the board in an amount necessary to meet the real liability in each fiscal year of the biennium, and the General Assembly shall appropriate the necessary funds; and

(c) Whether additional assets are necessary to defray the obligations of the portion of the fund

relating to contracts entered into after April 25, 2006, and when those funds will be needed. If the assets of the portion of the fund relating to contracts entered into after April 25, 2006, are insufficient to ensure the actuarial soundness of that portion of the fund, as reported by the actuary, the board shall adjust the price of subsequent purchases of prepaid tuition contracts to the extent necessary to restore the actuarial soundness of the fund. The board may suspend the sale of prepaid tuition contracts until the next annual actuarial evaluation is completed if the board determines the action is needed to restore the actuarial soundness of the fund. During a suspension of sales of contracts, the board and Tuition Account Program Office shall continue to service existing contract accounts and meet all obligations under existing prepaid tuition contracts; and

(8) Make an annual report each year by November 1 to the Legislative Research Commission and the Governor showing the fund's condition, and whether additional assets will be necessary to defray the obligations of the fund.

History.

Enact. Acts 2000, ch. 163, § 4, effective July 14, 2000; 2002, ch. 25, § 4, effective July 15, 2002; 2005, ch. 162, § 5, effective July 1, 2005; 2006, ch. 252, Pt. XXXI, § 4, effective April 25, 2006.

164A.705. Obligations of fund and of purchaser or qualified beneficiary — Limitation of liability — Use of tuition account.

(1) The prepaid tuition contract entered into by the purchaser and the board shall constitute an irrevocable pledge and guarantee by the fund to pay for the tuition of a qualified beneficiary upon acceptance and enrollment at an eligible educational institution in accordance with the tuition plan purchased.

(2) A board member or any employee of the Tuition Account Program Office or the Kentucky Higher Education Assistance Authority shall not be subject to any personal liability by reason of his or her issuance or execution of a prepaid tuition contract under KRS 164A.700 to 164A.709.

(3) Under a tuition plan for private colleges and universities, tuition shall be paid based on the same percentage that University of Kentucky tuition is increased from the year the prepaid tuition contract is purchased to the year of payment.

(4) The purchaser or qualified beneficiary shall pay to the eligible educational institution the amount of any prepaid tuition academic year conversion shortfall and the amount of any prepaid tuition conversion shortfall.

(5) A qualified beneficiary attending an eligible educational institution may apply the value of a prepaid tuition account to a specific academic year at the maximum course load or maximum number of credit hours generally permitted to full-time undergraduates at that institution.

(6) The value of a prepaid tuition account remaining after tuition is paid may be used for other qualified educational expenses under administrative regulations promulgated by the board in compliance with 26 U.S.C.

sec. 529. The board may permit the use of the value of a prepaid tuition account for part-time undergraduate enrollment or graduate programs at eligible educational institutions.

(7) During an account's utilization period, the value of the prepaid tuition account shall increase consistent with tuition rates for the applicable tuition plan and academic year. If all tuition benefits have not been used at the conclusion of this period, no additional value shall be added to the prepaid tuition account, except that, for an account with a utilization period defined in KRS 164A.700, the account value shall increase at a rate of three percent (3%) per annum or the applicable tuition plan value increase, whichever is less, for a period not to exceed two (2) additional years.

(8) If a qualified beneficiary attends an eligible educational institution for which payment of tuition is not guaranteed by the fund in whole or in part, and if the cost of tuition exceeds the value of a prepaid tuition account, the fund shall have no responsibility to pay the difference. If the value of a prepaid tuition account exceeds the cost of tuition, the excess may be used for other qualified postsecondary education expenses as directed by the purchaser.

(9) The value of a prepaid tuition account shall not be used in calculating personal asset contribution for determining eligibility and need for student loan programs, student grant programs, or other student aid programs administered by any agency of the Commonwealth, except as otherwise may be provided by federal law.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

1. Amendment.

Changing the Kentucky Affordable Prepaid Tuition Fund (KAPT) plan in a way that impairs the benefits of participants seeking to educate their children violates the covenant of good faith and fair dealing, and the legislature does not intend the statutes to be interpreted in a way that undermines the Commonwealth's "irrevocable pledge"; subsection (1) is the legislature's imprimatur of respect for KAPT's obligations. Maze v. Bd. of Dirs. for the Commonwealth Postsecondary Educ. Prepaid Tuition Trust Fund, 559 S.W.3d 354, 2018 Ky. LEXIS 447 (Ky. 2018).

Retroactive imposition of the Kentucky Affordable Prepaid Tuition Fund (KAPT) amendments upon a parent unlawfully impaired her contract because the 2014 amendments did not address a broad and general social or economic problem; the fact that the KAPT program's costs of performing its contractual obligations exceeded its own expectations did not justify altering the obligations so they more closely conformed to its faulty expectations. Maze v. Bd. of Dirs. for the Commonwealth Postsecondary Educ. Prepaid Tuition Trust Fund, 559 S.W.3d 354, 2018 Ky. LEXIS 447 (Ky. 2018).

Retroactive imposition of the Kentucky Affordable Prepaid Tuition Fund (KAPT) amendments upon a parent unlawfully impaired her contract because the 2014 amendments were neither reasonable nor necessary; the State cannot escape an unfavorable contract with retroactive legislation that substantially impairs the State's contractual obligations because this result is prohibited by the respective Contract Clauses of the United States and Kentucky Constitutions. Maze v. Bd. of Dirs. for the Commonwealth Postsecondary Educ. Prepaid Tuition Trust Fund, 559 S.W.3d 354, 2018 Ky. LEXIS 447 (Ky. 2018).

Kentucky Affordable Prepaid Tuition Fund (KAPT) contract a parent executed did not provide for retroactive amendments because the changes did not fit within the limited category set forth in the contract; the language of the contract reflected the agreement of the parent to accept future amendments of the governing statutes only to the extent they were necessary to assure compliance with applicable state or federal law or regulations or to preserve favorable tax treatment of the KAPT program. Maze v. Bd. of Dirs. for the Commonwealth Postsecondary Educ. Prepaid Tuition Trust Fund, 559 S.W.3d 354, 2018 Ky. LEXIS 447 (Ky. 2018).

Retroactive imposition of the Kentucky Affordable Prepaid Tuition Fund (KAPT) amendments upon a parent unlawfully impaired her contract because the amendments fundamentally altered her contractual right to use, for her children, her KAPT funds for graduate school and directly curtailed the financial value of the benefit by capping future growth so that the promised tuition might not be paid; those changes were imposed retroactively, significantly devaluing the benefit promised to the parent. Maze v. Bd. of Dirs. for the Commonwealth Postsecondary Educ. Prepaid Tuition Trust Fund, 559 S.W.3d 354, 2018 Ky. LEXIS 447 (Ky. 2018).

164A.707. Prepaid tuition contracts — Amendments — Accounts not subject to creditors or taxes — No guarantee of attendance at institution — Payment of contracts — Beneficiaries — Investments and earnings — Contracts not securities or annuities — Contracts subject to amendment by subsequent change to statute, regulation, or policy.

(1) Purchasers buying prepaid tuition for a qualified beneficiary shall enter into prepaid tuition contracts with the board. These contracts shall be in a form as shall be determined by the office. The contract shall provide for the purchase of a tuition plan for prepaid tuition for the qualified beneficiary from one (1) to five (5) specific academic years.

(2) Upon written notification to the office a purchaser may amend the prepaid tuition contract to change:

(a) The qualified beneficiary, in accordance with 26 U.S.C. sec. 529;

(b) The projected college entrance year for which prepaid tuition is purchased. Beginning July 15, 2014, if the amendment extends the projected college entrance year, the utilization period shall begin with the initial projected college entrance year;

(c) A tuition plan designation to another tuition plan designation;

(d) The number of years for which prepaid tuition is purchased; or

(e) Other provisions of the prepaid tuition contract as permitted by the board.

(3) A prepaid tuition account shall not be subject to attachment, levy, or execution by any creditor of a purchaser or qualified beneficiary. Prepaid tuition accounts shall be exempt from all state and local taxes including, but not limited to, intangible personal property tax levied under KRS 132.020, individual income tax levied under KRS 141.020, and the inheritance tax levied under KRS Chapter 140. Payments from a prepaid tuition account used to pay qualified postsecondary education expenses, or disbursed due to the death or disability of the beneficiary, or receipt of a scholarship by the beneficiary shall be exempt from tax liabilities.

(4) Nothing in KRS 164A.700 to 164A.709 or in a prepaid tuition contract shall be construed as a promise or guarantee that a qualified beneficiary shall be admitted to an eligible educational institution, be allowed to continue to attend an eligible educational institution after having been admitted, or be graduated from an eligible educational institution.

(5) Prepaid tuition contract payments shall not be made in real or personal property other than cash and shall not exceed the prepaid tuition. Prepaid tuition contract payments may be made in a lump sum or installments.

(6) The purchaser shall designate the qualified beneficiary at the time the purchaser enters into a prepaid tuition contract, except for a prepaid tuition contract purchased in accordance with KRS 164A.700(13)(d). In the case of gifts made to the fund, the board shall designate a qualified beneficiary at the time of the gift.

(7) The prepaid tuition contract shall provide that the purchaser and the qualified beneficiary shall not directly or indirectly or otherwise control the investment of the prepaid tuition account or earnings on the account. Payments made for prepaid tuition shall be accounted for separately for each qualified beneficiary. No interest or earnings on a prepaid tuition contract of the purchaser or qualified beneficiary shall be pledged or otherwise encumbered as security of a debt.

(8) A prepaid tuition contract does not constitute a security as defined in KRS 292.310 or an annuity as defined in KRS 304.5-030.

(9) Each prepaid tuition contract is subject to, and shall incorporate by reference, all operating procedures and policies adopted by the board, the statutes governing prepaid tuition contracts in KRS 164A.700 to 164A.709, and administrative regulations promulgated thereunder. Any amendments to statutes, administrative regulations, and operating procedures and policies shall automatically amend prepaid tuition contracts, with retroactive or prospective effect, as applicable.

164A.708. Prepaid tuition contracts entered into before and after April 25, 2006 — Obligations of the Commonwealth.

(1)(a) All prepaid tuition contracts in existence on April 25, 2006, shall be supported by the full faith and credit of the Commonwealth.

(b) If the report of the actuary submitted under KRS 164A.704(7) reflects that there will be a real liability expected to accrue for contracts in existence on April 25, 2006, during the next biennium, the secretary of the Finance and Administration Cabinet shall include in the budget request for the cabinet an appropriation to the board in an amount necessary to meet the real liability in each fiscal year of the biennium, and the General Assembly shall appropriate the necessary funds to meet the liability.

(2)(a) New contracts entered into after April 25, 2006, for a tuition plan approved by the board shall contain actuarially sound premiums sufficient to prevent their contribution to a program fund deficit.

(b) Payments received from contracts entered into after April 25, 2006, shall be maintained separately from contracts in existence on April 25, 2006.

(c) The Commonwealth shall have no obligation to support contracts entered into after April 25, 2006, with appropriations if a shortfall occurs.

(1) A purchaser may terminate a prepaid tuition contract at any time upon written request to the office.

(2) Upon termination of a prepaid tuition contract at the request of a purchaser, the office shall pay from the fund to the purchaser:

(a) The value of the prepaid tuition account or, if the contract has not been paid in full, a pro rata amount calculated according to the portion of the plan that had been paid, if the contract is terminated for the death of the qualified beneficiary or the disability of the qualified beneficiary that, in the opinion of the office, would make attendance by the beneficiary at an eligible educational institution impossible or unreasonably burdensome;

(b) The amounts paid on the purchaser's prepaid tuition contract if the contract is terminated and a request for refund is made before July 1 of the qualified beneficiary's projected college entrance year. The board may determine a rate of interest to accrue for payment on the amount otherwise payable under this paragraph;

(c) For a prepaid tuition account terminated after June 30 of the qualified beneficiary's projected college entrance year and prior to June 27, 2019:

1. The value of the prepaid tuition account for the 2014-2015 academic year for accounts with a utilization period end date prior to 2012; or

2. The value of the prepaid tuition account at the end of the account's utilization period plus three percent (3%) per annum for a maximum of two (2) years thereafter, or the applicable tuition plan value increase, whichever is less, for accounts with a utilization period end date of 2012 or later; or

(d) For a prepaid tuition account terminated after June 30 of the qualified beneficiary's projected college entrance year and on or after June 27, 2019, the value of the prepaid tuition account at the time of termination.

(3) All refunds paid shall be less any benefits previously paid from the plan and any administrative fees as determined by the board. The office may impose a fee upon termination of the account for administrative costs and deduct the fee from the amount otherwise payable under this section.

(4) If a qualified beneficiary is awarded a scholarship that covers tuition costs included in a prepaid tuition contract, the purchaser may request a refund consisting of the amount of the value of the prepaid tuition account, not to exceed the amount of the scholarship.

(5) If the purchaser wishes to transfer funds from the prepaid tuition account to the Kentucky Educational Savings Plan Trust, the purchaser may do so under administrative regulations promulgated by the board and the board of directors of the Kentucky Educational Savings Plan Trust under KRS 164A.325. The transfer amount shall be calculated in the same way a refund is determined in accordance with this section.

(6) If the purchaser wishes to transfer funds from the prepaid tuition account to another qualified tuition program as defined in 26 U.S.C. sec. 529(b)(1), the purchaser may do so under administrative regulations promulgated by the board. The transfer amount shall be calculated in the same way a refund is determined in accordance with this section.

(7) The board may terminate a prepaid tuition contract at any time due to the fraud or misrepresentation of a purchaser or qualified beneficiary with respect to the prepaid tuition contract.

(8) All operations of the Commonwealth postsecondary education prepaid tuition trust fund and the Tuition Account Program Office shall end on June 30, 2030. On or before that date, any remaining prepaid tuition account funds that have not been utilized, transferred to another qualified tuition program, or refunded upon the request of the purchaser shall be refunded to the purchaser in accordance with subsection (2) of this section.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Analysis

2. Amendment.
14. Particular Statutes.

2. Amendment.

Retroactive imposition of the Kentucky Affordable Prepaid Tuition Fund (KAPT) amendments upon a parent unlawfully impaired her contract because the amendments fundamentally altered her contractual right to use, for her children, her KAPT funds for graduate school and directly curtailed the financial value of the benefit by capping future growth so that the promised tuition might not be paid; those changes were imposed retroactively, significantly devaluing the benefit promised to the parent. Maze v. Bd. of Dirs. for the Commonwealth Postsecondary Educ. Prepaid Tuition Trust Fund, 559 S.W.3d 354, 2018 Ky. LEXIS 447 (Ky. 2018).

Retroactive imposition of the Kentucky Affordable Prepaid Tuition Fund (KAPT) amendments upon a parent unlawfully impaired her contract because the 2014 amendments did not address a broad and general social or economic problem; the fact that the KAPT program's costs of performing its contractual obligations exceeded its own expectations did not justify altering the obligations so they more closely conformed to its faulty expectations. Maze v. Bd. of Dirs. for the Commonwealth Postsecondary Educ. Prepaid Tuition Trust Fund, 559 S.W.3d 354, 2018 Ky. LEXIS 447 (Ky. 2018).

Retroactive imposition of the Kentucky Affordable Prepaid Tuition Fund (KAPT) amendments upon a parent unlawfully impaired her contract because the 2014 amendments were neither reasonable nor necessary; the State cannot escape an unfavorable contract with retroactive legislation that substantially impairs the State's contractual obligations because this result is prohibited by the respective Contract Clauses of the United States and Kentucky Constitutions. Maze v. Bd. of Dirs. for the Commonwealth Postsecondary Educ. Prepaid Tuition Trust Fund, 559 S.W.3d 354, 2018 Ky. LEXIS 447 (Ky. 2018).

Kentucky Affordable Prepaid Tuition Fund (KAPT) contract a parent executed did not provide for retroactive amendments because the changes did not fit within the limited category set forth in the contract; the language of the contract reflected the agreement of the parent to accept future amendments of the governing statutes only to the extent they were necessary to assure compliance with applicable state or federal law or regulations or to preserve favorable tax treatment of the KAPT program. Maze v. Bd. of Dirs. for the Commonwealth Postsecondary Educ. Prepaid Tuition Trust Fund, 559 S.W.3d 354, 2018 Ky. LEXIS 447 (Ky. 2018).

167.015. Management for Kentucky School for the Blind and School for the Deaf — Extramural services and programs.

(1) The Kentucky School for the Blind at Louisville, Kentucky, and the Kentucky School for the Deaf at Danville, Kentucky, shall be managed and controlled by the Kentucky Board of Education. The board shall have possession and the responsibility and authority for preservation, repair, and control of the buildings and grounds belonging to the state and dedicated to the schools. The board may, except as provided in KRS 45A.045, sell any property held for the use and benefit of the schools, and purchase other property deemed by the board to be suitably and conveniently located, and erect buildings necessary for carrying out the purposes of the schools. The board may promulgate administrative regulations to carry into effect its powers with respect to the schools, and may require from the superintendent of the schools any reports and information it desires as to the condition of the schools.

(2) In addition to being recognized as a school providing quality, full-time educational services to students who are deaf and hard of hearing or who are blind or visually impaired, the Kentucky School for the Deaf and the Kentucky School for the Blind shall also serve as the Statewide Educational Resource Center on Deafness and as the Statewide Educational Resource Center on Blindness, respectively. They shall provide technical assistance and resource services to local school districts, parents, and other agencies or organizations serving children and youth who are deaf and hard of hearing or who are blind or visually impaired. Depending on the availability of funding, services may include, but not be limited to, assessments; consultations on curriculum; language and communication; orientation and mobility; classroom devices, including telecommunication devices for the deaf and hard of hearing and Braille for the blind and visually impaired; assistive technology; professional development; and program development and implementation. The Kentucky School for the Deaf and the Kentucky School for the Blind may enter into collaborative agreements with local school districts and other public and private agencies to provide for regional or satellite programs for children and youth who are deaf and hard of hearing or who are blind or visually impaired.

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

In determining whether the State Department of Education can utilize a particular school to provide education for blind-deaf pupils, the criteria is not who owns and operates the school but in what manner and to what purpose is the school being conducted and if religion is part of the school program, the State Department of Education cannot utilize such a school to provide education for blind-deaf pupils. OAG 74-660.

Although this section does not authorize a school district to contract with an approved out-of-state school for special educational services for exceptional pupils who are not blind and deaf, it may do so under KRS 157.280. OAG 74-742.

167.250. Liability insurance for drivers of motor vehicles transporting specified students.

The chief state school officer may provide liability insurance or an indemnity bond against the negligence of drivers of motor vehicles owned or operated by the Department of Education for the transportation of members of the student bodies of the Kentucky School for the Blind, the Kentucky School for the Deaf, and the Carl D. Perkins Vocational Training Center. If the transportation of members of the student bodies is let out under contract, the contract shall require the contractor to carry an indemnity bond or liability insurance against negligence in such amounts as the chief state school officer designates. In either case, the indemnity bond or insurance policy shall be issued by a surety or insurance company authorized to transact business in this state, and shall bind the company to pay any final judgment not to exceed the limits of the policy rendered against the insured for loss or damage to property of any student or other person, or death or injury of any student or other person.

168.020. Definitions for KRS 168.010 to 168.100.

As used in KRS 168.010 to 168.100, the following words and terms have the following meanings, unless in any instance, the context shall clearly indicate another meaning, in which event the context shall be controlling:

(1) "Authority" means the Kentucky Authority for Educational Television;

(2) "Board" means the Kentucky Board of Education;

(3) "Department" means the Kentucky Department of Education;

(4) "Public schools" means the state-supported schools of the elementary and secondary levels, as defined in KRS 157.320;

(5) "Commission" means the State Property and Buildings Commission of Kentucky;

(6) "Council" means the Council on Postsecondary Education in Kentucky;

(7) "University of Kentucky" means the University of Kentucky as one (1) entity, including its present and future extensions;

(8) "State colleges and universities" means and includes Eastern Kentucky University, Kentucky State University, Morehead State University, Murray State University, Northern Kentucky University, Western Kentucky University, and the University of Louisville, and institutions in the Kentucky Community and Technical College System;

(9) "Educational television" means and includes the production of television programs, the filming or taping thereof, the purchase or lease of filmed or taped programs produced by others, and the transmission or relaying of them for utilization:

(a) Which may be used in aid of education in the public schools and public institutions of higher education; and

(b) For limited and incidental use in furtherance of other proper public functions;

(10) "Television facilities" means and includes sites, buildings, structures, machinery, equipment, and installations, each with necessary or appropriate appurtenances, used or useful in the furtherance of educational television;

(11) "Related functions" or "related services" means and includes the use of facilities operated or leased by the authority, or which may be added or connected to such facilities as permitted by applicable statutes, and to prepare, transmit, or enable the exchange of nontelevision programs, services, or functions for and among the public schools, public institutions of higher education, and other state agencies:

(a) In aid of education; and

(b) For use in other proper public functions; provided, however, that such related functions or related services may include, but are not limited to, the following examples: computer-assisted instruction, data for teaching or administrative purposes, and educational noncommercial radio;

(12) "Related facilities" means and includes sites, buildings, structures, machinery, equipment, and installations, each with necessary or appropriate appurtenances, used or useful in the furtherance of related functions or services.

168.030. Kentucky Authority for Educational Television.

An independent agency and instrumentality of the Commonwealth is hereby created and established to be known as "The Kentucky Authority for Educational Television," the same being a public body corporate and politic, with perpetual succession, the power in its own name to contract and be contracted with, sue and be sued, to adopt and use a corporate seal, to adopt bylaws for the orderly conduct of its affairs and to alter the same from time to time, to prescribe and enforce regulations governing the use of educational television and television facilities and related functions and facilities, and generally to have and use all powers of private corporations as set forth in KRS Chapter 271B, except as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions of KRS 168.010 to 168.100.

History.

Enact. Acts 1962, ch. 16, § 2; 1970, ch. 204, § 2; 1972, ch. 274, § 147; repealed and reenact., Acts 1990, ch. 476, Pt. V, § 605, effective July 13, 1990.

Compiler's Notes.

This section (Enact. Acts 1962, ch. 16, § 2; 1970, ch. 204, § 2; 1972, ch. 274, § 147) was repealed and reenacted by Acts 1990, ch. 476, Part V, § 605, effective July 13, 1990.

168.040. Membership of authority.

(1) The authority shall consist of nine (9) members, as follows:

The chief state school officer, ex officio, who shall initially serve as temporary chairman and shall call and preside over the organizational meeting or meetings until the members of the authority shall elect a chairman from among their number; a member of the staff or personnel of the department elected by the board upon recommendation of the chief state school officer as being qualified to serve as liaison and coordinator between the authority and the department on matters of curriculum, and his term shall be the same as that of the chief state school officer by whom he is recommended, but terminable by the board in the event he is transferred to other duties in the department, and automatically terminated in the event of his severance from the department for any reason; a representative of the University of Kentucky and a representative of the state universities to be elected by the Council on Postsecondary Education; and five (5) additional members appointed by the Governor who need possess no special or prescribed qualifications except that they shall be citizens of Kentucky.

(2) Effective at 11:59 p.m. on June 30, 1994, all terms of gubernatorial appointees to the authority shall expire. Effective July 1, 1994, five (5) appointees nominated pursuant to KRS 164.005 and appointed by the Governor shall become members of the authority.

History.

Enact. Acts 1962, ch. 16, § 4 (1st par.); 1970, ch. 204, § 4; 1978, ch. 59, § 1, effective June 17, 1978; 1984, ch. 315, § 2, effective July 13, 1984; 1990, ch. 476, Pt. IV, § 279, effective July 13, 1990; 1994, ch. 91, § 2, effective March 22, 1994; 1997 (1st Ex. Sess.), ch. 1, § 143, effective May 30, 1997.

168.050. Terms of members — Vacancies — Re-election or reappointment.

(1) Effective July 1, 1994, the terms of the members other than the chief state school officer and the member appointed from the staff or personnel of the department shall be originally, two (2) members for a term of four (4) years; two (2) members for a term of three (3) years; two (2) members for a term of two (2) years; and one (1) member for a term of one (1) year, to be determined by the Governor. Thereafter the terms shall be for four (4) years.

(2) In addition to vacancies from death or resignation, vacancies shall occur upon removal of permanent residence from the Commonwealth; in the case of the elected member representing the department and the board, by change of assignment or by severance from relationship with the department or the board for any reason; and, in the cases of the members representing the University of Kentucky and the state colleges, by termination of the member's membership on the council for any reason. Vacancies during the term of any member shall be filled for the unexpired portion of the term only; and vacancies of elected or appointed members by reason of the expiration of the term shall be for terms of four (4) years each, in the same manner as the initial election or appointment, as the case may be.

(3) Elected or appointed members shall be eligible for reelection or reappointment for any number of terms, as long as the prescribed qualifications prevail.

History.

Enact. Acts 1962, ch. 16, § 4 (2nd, 3rd pars.); 1970, ch. 204, § 5; 1990, ch. 476, Pt. IV, § 280, effective July 13, 1990; 1994, ch. 91, § 3, effective March 22, 1994.

168.060. Meetings — Notice — Quorum — Organization.

(1) The authority shall meet not less frequently than quarterly, and otherwise as often as necessary for the orderly conduct of its affairs. If it sees fit to do so, it may establish in its bylaws, or by resolution, four (4) or more fixed dates for regular meetings at one (1) or more specified places, in which event any proper business may come before the authority on such occasions, and it shall not be necessary that the members be given notice thereof unless the chairman shall deem it necessary or desirable that the day, place, or hour be changed, whereupon notice to such effect shall be mailed to each member by the chairman or secretary, by ordinary first-class mail, postage prepaid, not less than one (1) week in advance. Regular meetings may be adjourned to convene again at another time and place, if the facts are shown in a motion or resolution adopted by a majority of those present and entered upon the minutes; and if such be done, the adjourned session shall constitute a continuation of the regular session without notice to absent members; but the motion or resolution of adjournment may specify that every reasonable effort be made to give such notice to absent members as time and circumstances may permit, whereupon the secretary (or in his absence the chairman or any designated member) shall make such effort and report the same and the success or failure thereof as to each member, at the occasion of the adjourned session of the regular meeting. Special meetings may be called by the chairman, vice chairman, secretary, or any two (2) members upon notice of the time, place and business to be transacted, similarly given; and special meetings may be adjourned in like manner as in the case of regular meetings, except that the matters considered shall be limited to such as are set forth in the notice of the special meeting.

(2) Any member may waive notice orally or in writing at any time before, at, or after any meeting; and the presence of a member at any meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice unless such member tenders at such meeting a written protest on the ground of want of sufficient notice.

(3) Five (5) or more members shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at any meeting, and a majority vote thereof shall be sufficient to transact any business properly before the meeting. Any lesser number may adjourn to reconvene at another time for failure to muster a quorum.

(4) Immediately upon receiving notice of the election or appointment of all other members, the chief state school officer shall call a meeting for organizational purposes, to be held at Frankfort, Kentucky, at a time and place set forth in a written notice mailed to each member, as set forth above. At this meeting, the chief state school officer shall preside as temporary chairman, and the authority shall elect from among the members a chairman, a vice chairman, a secretary, and a treasurer, and define the duties thereof; or it may combine the office of treasurer with any other office of the authority or with any position created pursuant to KRS 168.080.

History.

Enact. Acts 1962, ch. 16, § 5; 1964, ch. 120; 1990, ch. 476, Pt. IV, § 281, effective July 13, 1990.

168.070. Executive committee.

At such organizational meeting, or at any subsequent meeting, the authority may elect an executive committee, not less than three (3) in number, of which the chairman or vice chairman of the authority shall be a member and the presiding officer. The powers of the executive committee to transact business between meetings of the authority shall be defined, and may be limited, but it shall not be provided that actions of the executive committee within its defined powers and limitations are subject to review, or not final and binding as actions of the authority. The executive committee shall preserve minutes of its proceedings, and file a written copy thereof with the secretary at or before the next ensuing regular meeting of the authority.

This section (Enact. Acts 1962, ch. 16, § 5 (5th par.)) was repealed and reenacted by Acts 1990, ch. 476, Part V, § 606, effective July 13, 1990.

168.080. Employees.

Subject only to availability of funds from any source, the authority may employ and prescribe the qualifications and duties of such persons as it may deem necessary to the proper performance of its purposes and functions, including an executive director to serve as the principal executive of the authority, and a chief engineer to supervise its engineering staff. Compensation shall be such as may be fixed in accordance with the standards established by the State secretary of the Personnel Cabinet, except that the compensation for those officers and employees exempt from classified services as provided in KRS 18A.115 shall be determined by the authority not to exceed the maximum established by KRS 64.640(2).

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

Since under KRS 64.640 the Governor sets the compensation payable out of the State Treasury to each officer of an independent agency, the Authority for Educational Television can only recommend to the Governor the annual compensation of the agency's chief executive. OAG 77-707.

The statutes do not grant sole authority to Kentucky Authority for Educational Television to determine who may be exempt from KRS Chapter 18 (repealed, see KRS Chapter 18A); at most, they exclude from the commissioner of personnel's determination of salary those positions exempted by the merit system under KRS 18.140 (now see KRS 18A.115); Kentucky Educational Television was not given authority to exempt other positions not so listed, nor was it given the sole right to determine the salary of nonexempted positions. OAG 80-537.

168.090. Compensation and expenses of members.

(1) Members of the authority who are otherwise compensated by the Commonwealth on a full-time basis shall receive no additional compensation as members of the authority, or for attendance at meetings.

Members who are not otherwise compensated by the Commonwealth on a full-time basis shall receive a per diem of fifty dollars ($50) for attendance at each meeting, including reasonable travel time necessarily required.

(2) All members may be reimbursed for actual travel and other proper expenses according to reasonable rules and regulations of the authority. The scope of travel shall not be limited to the confines of the Commonwealth; but may extend to any place outside the Commonwealth if specifically authorized by the authority by motion, resolution, or directive reciting the occasion, necessity, and persons authorized to travel.

168.100. Powers of authority.

The authority shall have no power of taxation, nor is it vested with the police power of the Commonwealth, except insofar as the exercise of the power of eminent domain may be deemed a part thereof. Otherwise, in general terms, it shall have and is hereby given all such constitutional powers as are necessary to its accomplishment of the purpose and implementation of the public policy set forth in KRS 168.010. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, but only for assurance to parties transacting business with the authority, and who may demand and be entitled to assurance, the following specific powers are hereby vested in the authority:

(1) To receive and use in the furtherance of its lawful objectives state funds as may be appropriated or allotted to it, any funds received for services rendered under contract or from the sale of property owned by it, and contributions, matching funds, gifts, bequests, and devises from any source, whether state or federal, and whether public or private; unless the same be tendered subject to one (1) or more conditions which are inconsistent with KRS 168.010 to 168.100, or otherwise unlawful;

(2) To make contracts and agreements whereunder the authority may undertake to provide educational television facilities and related functions and facilities to or for any public body of the state or federal government in furtherance of educational television or in aid of any other public function. However, it shall be an express provision of every such contract that the authority will not undertake to transmit or relay, and will not permit any other party to transmit or relay, in the use of the authority's television facilities, any subversive matter, any political propaganda, or any image or message in the interests of any political party or candidate for public office; or be used by, or in aid of, any church, sectarian, or denominational school; but this proviso is not intended and shall not be construed to be a limitation upon dissemination by the authority of legitimate objective instructional material which is properly related to the study of history or of current events, or which is no more than factually informative, of current issues of government, or of various political ideologies;

(3) To produce, prepare, transmit, and relay, either from life or by recording on tape or films, educational television programs and related services coordinated with the curricula prescribed or approved for the public schools of the Commonwealth by the department or the board pursuant to KRS 158.6451;

(4) To purchase or lease from others, or to contract with others for the use of, or the right to transmit or relay, similar educational television programs and related services, whenever in the opinion of the authority the same are suitable and cannot be produced as effectively or economically through the use of its own facilities;

(5) To purchase, lease, or otherwise acquire, and to operate, television and related facilities deemed by the authority to be necessary in the furtherance of its lawful objectives; and in this connection to acquire property by the exercise of the power of eminent domain, in the manner authorized for the Department of Highways by the Eminent Domain Act of Kentucky, whenever the same cannot be purchased, leased, or otherwise acquired at a reasonable price after reasonable negotiations with the owner or owners. In all such matters, the authority shall be subject to the provisions of KRS Chapters 45A and 56;

(6) To prescribe standards for receiving instruments which are purchased in the future for use in the public schools, in order that reception of educational television programs and related services may be acceptable and in conformity with the manner of transmission thereof; and to disseminate such standards, together with technical information with regard to installations and use of receiving instruments, to all of the public school districts, or to such as may request the same;

(7) In its discretion and within the limitation of availability of funds from any sources, to:

(a) Establish a program of matching funds as an inducement to public school districts to purchase and install proper facilities for receiving and utilizing educational television programs and related services, especially in situations where by reason of topographical difficulties of reception, special antennas, or other equipment may be required, and

(b) If so requested by the boards of education of a sufficient number of public school districts, to purchase through the Finance and Administration Cabinet, subject to the provisions of KRS Chapter 45A, receiving instruments on their behalf on a wholesale basis for the purposes of economy, any such purchases to be on a public competitive basis after due advertisement according to law, but restricted to such receiving instruments as meet the standards prescribed by the authority.

Legislative Research Commission Note.

(7/13/90). This section was amended by two 1990 Acts which do not appear to be in conflict and have been compiled together.

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

A private college could not legally be permitted to erect an FM antenna on a tower built as an educational television facility. OAG 71-354.

KRS 168.010 to 168.100 expressly prohibit educational television facilities from being used in any way by or in aid of any church, sectarian or denominational school. OAG 71-354.

KRS 168.100(2) and 156.070 restrict the furnishing of educational television facilities and related functions and facilities to and for public bodies of state and federal government. OAG 71-354.

An employee of the Kentucky Authority for Educational Television under the state merit system who receives no profit from her work other than her regular salary may legally become a candidate for and serve, if elected, as a member of the local school board and at the same time retain her employment with the Kentucky Authority for Educational Television. OAG 76-394.

If this section was interpreted to prohibit Kentucky Educational Television from providing time for legally qualified candidates for public office it would conflict with the Federal Communications Act of 1934. OAG 79-465.

No provisions of state law prohibit Kentucky Educational Television (KET) from providing time for political candidates in programs produced, purchased or leased by KET for general broadcast purposes. OAG 79-465.

Subsection (2) of this section purports to proscribe the broadcast of, among other things, "political propaganda" or "any image or message in the interests of any political party or candidate for public office," only where such material is broadcast pursuant to a contract or agreement to provide educational television services or facilities "to or for any public body of the state or federal governments," and if the authority chooses to produce programming presenting political candidates not pursuant to any such contract or agreement, the statutory prohibition would be inapplicable. OAG 79-465.

The "political broadcast" limitation of subsection (2) of this section was imposed to protect the authority from any pressure to broadcast presentations of political candidates at the request of legislative or other governmental bodies, and was not designed to restrict its discretion in the production and selection of programming not broadcast under such an arrangement. OAG 79-465.

The legislative intent is that the Kentucky Authority for Educational Television is the state agency charged with operating the educational television network, and should be the licensee for the television transmitters; accordingly, licenses issued to the State Board of Education could be transferred to the Authority either by joint or separate resolutions of the boards or by executive order. OAG 80-511.

The decision to rent space on a tower belonging to the authority should be decided on the principles of good business. OAG 83-85.

There is no constitutional or statutory impediment against the authority renting tower space for fair market value to a religious organization since such a business transaction is neutral as to the purposes of the private organization which is the lessee and does not involve the issue of separation of church and state. OAG 83-85.

Under this section, the use of state funds appropriated for educational purpose may be applied by Kentucky Educational Television only for the benefit of public or common schools in order to avoid violation of Const., §§ 171, 184, 186, and 189. Accordingly, KET is required to charge nonstate schools, whether private and nonsectarian or parochial, for services delivered in the process of returning student responses to the KET master computer. OAG 91-71.

DEPARTMENT FOR LIBRARIES AND ARCHIVES

171.130. Department for Libraries and Archives — Commissioner.

The Department for Libraries and Archives is established. The department shall be headed by a commissioner whose title shall be state librarian who shall be appointed by and serve at the pleasure of the Governor, and who shall have had technical training in the field of library science.

History.

Enact. Acts 1954, ch. 41, § 1; 1962, ch. 106, Art. VIII, § 2; 1980, ch. 188, § 127, effective July 15, 1980; 1982, ch. 381, § 6, effective July 15, 1982.

171.140. General powers and duties.

(1) The department shall give assistance and advice to all state institutional and public libraries, and to all counties in the state which propose to establish public libraries, as to the best means of their establishment and operation and may send any of its members to aid in organizing such libraries or assist in the improvement of those already established.

(2) It may receive gifts which may be used or held for the purpose given, and may purchase and operate traveling libraries under such conditions and rules as it thinks necessary to protect the interests of the state and best increase the efficiency of its service to the public.

(3) The department may issue printed material, such as lists and circulars of information, and in the publication thereof may cooperate with other state library commissions and libraries, in order to secure the more economical administration of the work for which it was formed. It may provide for library educational opportunities in various parts of the state.

(4) The department shall perform such other service in behalf of public libraries as it considers for the best interests of the state.

(5) The department shall maintain a strong central collection of library materials in a variety of formats and assure access to those materials and to other information resources throughout the state and nation for the purposes of providing information and reference services to state government agencies and of supplementing the resources of local libraries.

History.

2438c-4; 1990, ch. 62, § 2, effective July 13, 1990.

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

The Department for Libraries and Archives does not have the power to retrieve the various copies of the Register of Births and Deaths from public libraries for no statute gives such broad supervisory authority to the Department for Libraries and Archives over local public libraries. OAG 91-25.

171.145. Authority to provide library services for qualified readers with disabilities.

For the benefit of qualified readers with disabilities of Kentucky, the Department for Libraries and Archives may make available books and other reading matter in Braille, talking books or any other medium of reading used by qualified readers with disabilities. To this end, the department is authorized to provide library services for qualified citizens with disabilities of the Commonwealth through contract, agreement or otherwise with the Library of Congress or any regional library thereof.

History.

Enact. Acts 1960, ch. 58; 1974, ch. 8, § 1; 1974, ch. 74, Art. VIII, B, § 1; 1994, ch. 405, § 33, effective July 15, 1994.

171.223. Delivery to Attorney General of written information concerning retention and management of public records.

The Department for Libraries and Archives shall, within sixty (60) days of June 20, 2005, and thereafter, within sixty (60) days of the effective date of any legislation amending the provisions of the Open Meetings Act, KRS 61.805 to 61.850, or the Open Records Act, KRS 61.870 to 61.884, deliver to the Office of the Attorney General written information that explains proper retention and management of public records, which information shall be included in the Office of the Attorney General's distributions as specified in KRS 15.257.

History.

Enact. Acts 2005, ch. 45, § 2, effective June 20, 2005.

STATE ARCHIVES AND RECORDS

171.410. Definitions for KRS 171.420 to 171.740.

As used in KRS 171.420 to 171.740:

(1) "Public record or record" means all books, papers, maps, photographs, cards, tapes, disks, diskettes, recordings, and other documentary materials, regardless of physical form or characteristics, which are prepared, owned, used, in the possession of or retained by a public agency. "Public record" shall not include any records owned by a private person or corporation that are not related to functions, activities, programs or operations funded by state or local authority;

(2) "Department" means the Department for Libraries and Archives;

(3) "Commission" means the State Archives and Records Commission; and

(4) "Public agency" means every state or local office, state department, division, bureau, board, commission and authority; every legislative board, commission, committee and officer; every county and city governing body, council, school district board, special district board, municipal corporation, and any board, department, commission, committee, subcommittee, ad hoc committee, council or agency thereof; and any other body which is created by state or local authority and which derives at least twenty-five percent (25%) of its funds from state or local authority.

History.

Enact. Acts 1958, ch. 49, § 1; 1962, ch. 106, Art. V, § 2; 1966, ch. 255, § 159; 1970, ch. 92, § 32; 1974, ch. 74, Art. VIII, B, § 2; 1982, ch. 245, § 1, effective July 15, 1982; 1986, ch. 150, § 3, effective July 15, 1986.

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

Fiscal court claims which have been paid would come within the definition of "records" as used in KRS 171.410 to 171.740. OAG 61-831.

Fiscal court claims which have been paid and tax rolls come within the definition of "records." OAG 61-831.

Neither the interested person nor his representative has the right to reproduce the records of a district board of education by any photostatic means whatsoever. OAG 68-291.

Neither an interested person nor his representative has the absolute right to take the original records of a district board of education into a private room without the secretary or the secretary's representative being present. OAG 68-291.

Where the necessary interest is present, the interested person or his representative is entitled to obtain a certified copy of the contract between the board of education and the secretary upon payment of such reasonable fee therefor as may be prescribed by regulation of the district board. OAG 68-291.

Information concerning textbook titles and course enrollment requested by a private bookstore would be a part of the university's records and would be subject to the statutory privilege of inspection by any interested person. OAG 69-24.

Disposal of municipal records is subject to the rules and regulations of the Archives and Records Commission. OAG 69-108.

As the daily "minute sheets" of the clerks of the circuit Court contain no information which is not being permanently preserved elsewhere in the Circuit Court's records, their destruction, once the official orders have been taken from them, would constitute neither a criminal act under KRS 519.060 nor an infringement on the authority of the State Archives and Records Commission under this section. OAG 75-103.

It is apparent from the 1982 amendment to subdivision (1) of this section, which added cards, tapes, disks and recordings to the definition of "records," that it was the intent of the legislature to facilitate the maintenance of public records by modernizing the means of preserving those records; therefore, it appears that Kentucky law does permit Kentucky State University to maintain its records via microfilm microfiche. OAG 83-161.

The fiscal court should provide sufficient space to store case reports, evidence from death scenes, photographs and autopsy reports for the period of usefulness to the coroner in carrying out his work; since there is no statute expressly dealing with the retention time or final disposal, in the absence of a court order, or the applicable storage of such records by State Archives, the coroner should use his good judgment in disposing of items no longer needed. OAG 84-246.

A housing authority established and operating pursuant to KRS Chapter 80 is required to comply with KRS 171.410 through 171.990, dealing with state archives and records. OAG 84-375.

171.420. State Libraries, Archives, and Records Commission.

(1) The State Libraries, Archives, and Records Commission is hereby created and shall be a seventeen (17) member body constituted as follows:

(a) The state librarian or his or her designee, who shall be the chairperson of the commission;

(b) The secretary of the Education and Labor Cabinet or his or her designee, who shall serve as vice chairperson;

(c) The Auditor of Public Accounts or his or her designee;

(d) The state law librarian or his or her designee;

(e) The director of the Legislative Research Commission or his or her designee;

(f) The Attorney General or his or her designee;

(g) The executive director of the Kentucky Military Heritage Commission or a designee of the commission;

(h) The executive director of the Commonwealth Office of Technology or his or her designee;

(i) The president of the Kentucky Association of School Librarians or his or her designee;

(j) The executive director of the Kentucky Historical Society or his or her designee;

(k) The executive director of the Kentucky Library Association or his or her designee;

(l) The president of the Council on Postsecondary Education or his or her designee;

(m) Four (4) citizens at large appointed by the Governor, including one (1) member representing library users with disabilities, one (1) member representing disadvantaged persons, and two (2) members representing library users; and

(n) One (1) member, who shall not be an elected official, appointed by the Governor from a list of three (3) persons, with one (1) name submitted by each of the presidents of the Kentucky League of Cities, the Kentucky Association of Counties, and the Kentucky Association of School Administrators.

(2) Vacancies for appointed members shall be filled by the Governor in the same manner as initial appointments are made. All appointed members shall serve for a term of three (3) years, except when making the appointments under subsection (3) of this section, two (2) shall be for a term of three (3) years, two (2) for two (2) years, and one (1) for one (1) year.

(3) On July 14, 2018, all terms of gubernatorial appointees made prior to July 14, 2018, shall expire, and the Governor shall appoint five (5) members to the commission in accordance with paragraphs (m) and (n) of subsection (1) of this section.

(4) The commission shall be the state advisory council on libraries and shall advise the Department for Libraries and Archives on matters relating to federal and state library development issues, archives and records management, federal and state funding, public library standards, and other federal and state library service issues. The commission shall have the authority to review and approve schedules for retention and destruction of records submitted by state and local agencies. In all cases, the commission shall determine questions which relate to destruction of public records, and their decision shall be binding on the parties concerned and final, except that the commission may reconsider or modify its actions upon the agreement of a simple majority of the membership present and voting.

Legislative Research Commission Notes.

(7/12/2006). Under the authority of KRS 7.136(1)(c) and for the sake of clarity, the Reviser of Statutes has divided this statute as contained in 2006 Ky. Act ch. 211, sec. 111, into numbered subsections and paragraphs.

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

State agencies should not destroy public records, such as the Register of Births and Deaths, without the authority of the Archives and Records Commission, except under specific circumstances and therefore, such an order sent by the Cabinet for Human Resources without the approval of the Archives and Records Commission was invalid. 171.450. Department procedures and regulations.

(1) The department shall establish:

(a) Procedures for the compilation and submission to the department of lists and schedules of public records proposed for disposal;

(b) Procedures for the disposal or destruction of public records authorized for disposal or destruction, including appropriate procedures to protect against unauthorized access to or use of personal information as defined by KRS 61.931;

(c) Standards and procedures for recording, managing, and preserving public records and for the reproduction of public records by photographic or microphotographic process; and

(d) Procedures for collection and distribution by the central depository of all reports and publications, except the Kentucky Revised Statutes editions, issued by any department, board, commission, officer or other agency of the Commonwealth for general public distribution after July 1, 1958.

(2) The department shall enforce the provisions of KRS 171.410 to 171.740 by appropriate rules and regulations.

(3) The department shall make copies of such rules and regulations available to all officials affected by KRS 171.410 to 171.740 subject to the provisions of KRS Chapter 13A.

(4) Such rules and regulations when approved by the department shall be binding on all state and local agencies, subject to the provisions of KRS Chapter 13A. The department shall perform any acts deemed necessary, legal and proper to carry out the duties and responsibilities imposed upon it pursuant to the authority granted herein.

Legislative Research Commission Notes.

(10/5/90). Pursuant to KRS 7.136(1), KRS Chapter 13A has been substituted for the prior reference to KRS Chapter 13 in this statute. The sections in KRS Chapter 13 were repealed by 1984 Ky. Acts ch. 417, § 36 and KRS Chapter 13A was created in that same chapter of the 1984 Ky. Acts.

(1/1/2015). 2014 Ky. Acts ch. 74, sec. 10 provided that “the provisions of this Act shall not impact the provisions of KRS 61.870 to 61.884.” That proviso applies to this statute as amended in Section 8 of that Act.

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

Requests for disposal or destruction of the records of the office of county treasurer must be submitted to the State Archives and Records Commission for determination and the request must be initially channeled through the Director of State Archives and Records Service. OAG 65-207.

Disposal of municipal records is subject to the rules and regulations of the Archives and Records Commission. OAG 69-108.

There is no statutory authority to permit a delegation of the function of making the final decision as to the inclusion or exclusion of documents to be deposited with the Department of Library and Archives (now Department for Libraries and Archives) to the Director of the Department. OAG 75-114.

The state’s departments, boards, and agencies cannot be themselves required to distribute to depository libraries, copies of their reports and publications issued for general public distribution since this function is specifically reserved to the Department of Library and Archives (now Department for Libraries and Archives) as the central depository for state records but can be required to deposit a sufficient number for distribution. (1) The department shall, with due regard to the program activities of the state and local agencies concerned, prescribe the policies and principles to be followed by state and local agencies in the conduct of their records management programs, and make provisions for the economical and efficient management of records by state and local agencies by analyzing, developing, promoting, and coordinating standards, procedures, and techniques designed to improve the management of records, to insure the maintenance and security of records deemed appropriate for preservation, and to facilitate the segregation and disposal of records of temporary value and by promoting the efficient and economical utilization of space, equipment, and supplies needed for the purpose of creating, maintaining, storing, and servicing records. The department may accept, administer and grant any money appropriated or granted to it, in addition to appropriations from the general fund, for providing and improving records management programs of state and local agencies.

(2) To effect the purposes of subsection (1) of this section, the department shall prepare a plan for a comprehensive records management system for Kentucky state government. This plan shall include a proposal for funding through cost allocation or other methods in lieu of a general fund appropriation. The plan shall provide for a records management certification program, to identify state agencies in compliance with records management practices implemented by the department, and shall be completed by July 1, 1987. The plan shall be submitted to the Office of Policy and Management and the Legislative Research Commission for evaluation.

(3) The department shall promulgate necessary rules and regulations for the furtherance of this section.

171.530. Retention and recovery of records.

The commission shall establish standards for the selective retention of records of continuing value, and the department shall assist state and local agencies in applying such standards to records in their custody. The department shall notify the head of any such agency of any actual, impending, or threatening unlawful removal, defacing, alteration, or destruction of records in the custody of such agency that has come to its attention, and initiate action through the agency head or Attorney General for the recovery of such records as shall have been unlawfully removed and for such other redress as may be provided by law.

History.

Enact. Acts 1958, ch. 49, § 13; 1970, ch. 92, § 40; 1982, ch. 245, § 5, effective July 15, 1982.

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

A county desiring to destroy or dispose of records must do so in accordance with the rules and regulations of the Archives and Records Commission, and in the absence of such rule or regulation must secure prior approval of the Commission. OAG 60-835.

Disposal of municipal records is subject to the rules and regulations of the archives and Records Commission. OAG 69-108.

Where records have not been unlawfully removed but are threatened with an unauthorized transfer, the department may enjoin their removal. OAG 78-519.

Since the Open Records Act does not regulate management practices of keeping public records and since the Attorney General's decisions are limited to whether a requested document is in the possession of a public agency and whether such document is subject to public inspection, the request that university, in not identifying one person as the official custodian in charge of enforcing proper records keeping practices, be charged with violating the Open Records Act, as well as the request for provision of a copy of the contract of the person thought to be the official custodian of the university's records, were denied. OAG 94-ORD-8.

Although the Attorney General may be called on to intervene in the recovery of records when it comes to the attention of the Department for Library and Archives that those records are threatened with unlawful removal, defacing, alteration, or destruction pursuant to this section, he is not empowered to issue a legally enforceable decision relative to those acts; his decisions under the Open Records Act are limited to the question of whether the agency violated the provisions of KRS 61.870 to 61.884. OAG 94-ORD-12.

171.540. Inspection of agency records.

The department is authorized to inspect or survey the records of any state or local agency, as well as to make surveys of records management and records disposal practices in such agencies, and shall be given full cooperation of officials and employees of agencies in such inspection and surveys; provided, that records, the use of which is restricted by or pursuant to law or for reasons of security or the public interest, shall be inspected or surveyed only in accordance with law, and the rules and regulations of the department.

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

Neither this section nor regulation 725 KAR 1:030 § 3 gives authority to any person or agency to transfer records without the approval of the department. OAG 78-519.

The Department of Library and Archives (now Department for Libraries and Archives) has plenary authority under this section to prohibit the transfer of any public record as defined in KRS 171.410 (1) from state or local government offices to the University of Louisville. OAG 78-519.

Should the Department for Libraries and Archives elect to authorize the transfer of copies of the Register of Births and Deaths to other agencies, a disclaimer should be placed inside each of the volumes of the Register which would indicate that the information contained in the Register may not be accurate and that the Register does not represent an update-to-date listing of Kentucky births and deaths. 171.570. Extension of agency retention period.

The department may empower any state or local agency, upon the submission of evidence of the need therefor, to retain records for a longer period than that specified in any approved disposal schedule, or by law but the agency shall report all such actions to the commission at its next meeting for approval or disapproval.

Disposal of municipal records is subject to the rules and regulations of the Archives and Records Commission. OAG 69-108.

171.580. Historical records.

The department, whenever it appears to be in the public interest, is authorized:

(1) To accept for deposit in the State Archives and Records Center the records of any state or local agency or of the General Assembly that are determined by the department to have sufficient historical or other value to warrant their continued preservation;

(2) To direct and effect the transfer to the department of any records that have been in existence for more than fifty (50) years and that are determined by the department to have sufficient historical or other value to warrant their continued preservation, unless the head of the state or local agency which has custody of them certifies in writing to the department that they must be retained in his custody for use in the conduct of the regular current business of the said agency;

(3) To direct and effect, with the approval of the head of the originating agency, or its successor, if any, the transfer of records deposited, or approved for deposit, in the State Archives and Records Center to public or educational institutions for special research or exhibit purposes; provided that title to such records shall remain vested in the Commonwealth of Kentucky unless otherwise authorized by law, and provided further such records may be recalled after reasonable notice in writing;

(4) To direct and effect the transfer of materials from private sources authorized to be received by the State Archives and Records Center by the provisions of KRS 171.620.

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

Should the Department for Libraries and Archives elect to authorize the transfer of copies of the Register of Births and Deaths to other agencies, a disclaimer should be placed inside each of the volumes of the Register which would indicate that the information contained in the Register may not be accurate and that the Register does not represent an update-to-date listing of Kentucky births and deaths. NOTES TO DECISIONS

1. Statutory Restrictions.

Under law providing that information acquired in tax administration is not to be divulged, the annual reports filed in the auditor's office under law requiring annual reports from corporations, and other documents based upon them, are not "public records," so as to be subject to the inspection of any party needing the information for purposes of suit, but "confidential reports," to be divulged only in accordance with the statute. *Fayette County v. All such fees shall be paid into a revolving fund for the continuation of such services on a self-sustaining basis as possible. There shall be no charge for making or authenticating copies or reproductions of such materials for official use by the government of the Commonwealth of Kentucky; provided that reimbursement may be accepted to cover the cost of furnishing such copies or reproductions that could not otherwise be furnished.

171.640. Documentation of agency matters — Standards, rules and regulations.

Such documentation shall be created, managed, and preserved in accordance with standards, rules and regulations prescribed by the department under the provisions of KRS 171.410 to 171.740.

History.

Enact. Acts 1958, ch. 49, § 24; 1986, ch. 66, § 2, effective July 15, 1986.

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

Since the Open Records Act does not regulate management practices of keeping public records and since the Attorney General's decisions are limited to whether a requested document is in the possession of a public agency and whether such document is subject to public inspection, the request that university, in not identifying one person as the official custodian in charge of enforcing proper records keeping practices, be charged with violating the Open Records Act as well as the request for provision of a copy of the contract of the person thought to be the official custodian of the university's records were denied. OAG 94-ORD-8.

While there is certainly an essential relationship between KRS Chapter 61, the Open Records Act, and KRS Chapter 171, state archives and records, insofar as effective records management facilitates efficient governmental operation and public accountability, KRS 61.876 requires each public agency to adopt rules and regulations in conformity with the provisions of KRS 61.870 to 61.884 which provision is aimed at insuring that each agency will educate the public on its particular policies and practices relative to open records; the records retention and disposal schedule envisioned by KRS Chapter 171 does not correspond to the rules and regulations for public agencies mandated by KRS 61.876, nor are agencies required to formulate these rules and regulations under the direction of the Department for Libraries and Archives. OAG 94-ORD-12.

Because teacher council member election records are scheduled public records for purposes of records retention and management, the school's inability to produce these records for inspection and copying because it does not maintain them constituted a subversion of the intent of both the Open Records Act and the State Archive and Records Act. OAG 01-ORD-94.

171.650. Public nature of agency records. [Repealed.]

Compiler's Notes.

This section (Acts 1958, ch. 49, § 25) was repealed by Acts 1976, ch. 273, § 10. For present law see KRS 61.870 to 61.884.

171.660. Authorized reproductions — Disposal of originals.

When the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or any state agency or subdivision or the principal officer thereof shall reproduce and preserve for record any records or papers by photographic, microphotographic, nonerasable optical image, or other process which accurately reproduces the original records, which forms a durable medium, and which is performed in accordance with rules and regulations promulgated by the department, the original may be disposed of or destroyed.

History.

Enact. Acts 1958, ch. 49, § 26; 1970, ch. 92, § 51; 1986, ch. 223, § 1, effective July 15, 1986; 1990, ch. 37, § 1, effective July 13, 1990; 1990, ch. 88, § 82, effective July 1, 1992.

Compiler's Notes.

This section was amended by § 82 of Acts 1990, ch. 88 to contingently become effective as provided by § 93 of Acts 1990, ch. 88. However, § 93 of Acts 1990, ch. 88 was repealed by § 30 of Acts 1992, ch. 324, effective July 1, 1992. Therefore the amendment of this section by § 82 of Acts 1990, ch. 88 became effective July 1, 1992.

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

A county desiring to destroy or dispose of records must do so in accordance with the rules and regulations of the Archives and Records Commission, and in the absence of such rule or regulation must secure prior approval of the Commission. OAG 60-835.

171.680. Records management by agencies.

(1) The head of each state and local agency shall establish and maintain an active, continuing program for the economical and efficient management of the records of the agency.

(2) Such program shall provide for:

(a) Effective controls over the creation, maintenance, and use of records in the conduct of current business;

(b) Cooperation with the department in applying standards, procedures, and techniques designed to improve the management of records;

(c) Promotion of the maintenance and security of records deemed appropriate for preservation, and facilitation of the segregation and disposal of records of temporary value;

(d) Compliance with the provisions of KRS 171.410 to 171.740 and the rules and regulations of the department; and

(e) Compliance with the provisions of KRS 61.931 to 61.934.

Legislative Research Commission Note.

(1/1/2015). 2014 Ky. Acts ch. 74, sec. 10 provided that “the provisions of this Act shall not impact the provisions of KRS 61.870 to 61.884.” That proviso applies to this statute as amended in Section 9 of that Act.

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

The University of Kentucky subverted the intent of the Open Records Act, which is essentially related to the intent of the State Archives and Records Act, by failing to develop an adequate program for ensuring records management through agency oversight of employee records handling practices; and by failing to develop a coherent scheme for the organized maintenance of records at identified maintenance locations. OAG 94-ORD-121.

Since July 15, 1994, when the amendments to the Open Records Act took effect, there is a higher standard of review relative to denials based on the nonexistence, or the destruction, of the requested records. In order to satisfy its statutory burden of proof, a public agency must, at a minimum, document what efforts were made to locate the missing records. Because the agency failed to provide even a minimal explanation for the loss of the requested records, the agency failed to adequately manage its records. OAG 94-ORD-141.

171.690. Storage of agency records.

Whenever the head of a state or local agency determines that substantial economies or increased operating efficiency can be effected thereby, he shall provide for the storage, processing and servicing of records that are appropriate therefor in the records center maintained and operated by the department or, when approved by the department in such location maintained and operated by the head of such agency.

A county clerk may not store any records with a private storage firm without approval from the Department for Libraries and Archives, and even with such approval, can only store records with a private firm if the local agency maintains and operates the storage space. OAG 82-283.

171.700. Certification of records.

Any official who is authorized to certify to facts on the basis of records in his custody is authorized to certify to facts on the basis of records that have been transferred by him or his predecessors to the department, further provided, that any fee due any official of the state or its subdivisions shall not be eliminated by KRS 171.410 to 171.740.

History.

Enact. Acts 1958, ch. 49, § 30; 1970, ch. 92, § 55.

171.710. Safeguarding agency records.

The head of each state and local agency shall establish such safeguards against removal or loss of records as he shall deem necessary and as may be required by rules and regulations issued under authority of KRS

171.410 to 171.740. Such safeguards shall include making it known to all officials and employees of the agency that no records are to be alienated or destroyed except in accordance with law, and calling their attention to the penalties provided by law for the unlawful removal or destruction of records.

171.720. Agency recovery of records.

The head of each state and local agency shall notify the department of any actual, impending or threatened unlawful removal, defacing, alteration or destruction of records in the custody of the agency that shall come to his attention, and with the assistance of the department shall initiate action through the Attorney General for recovery of such records as shall have been unlawfully removed and for such other redress as may be provided by law.

Nothing in KRS 171.410 to 171.740 shall be construed as changing, modifying or affecting the present law or laws concerning confidential records of any state agency and the use thereof. All such laws remain in full force and effect.

(2) The board for certification of librarians may revoke the certificate of any person violating any of the provisions of KRS 171.240 to 171.300, or any of the regulations as established by the board for certification.

(3) Any person knowingly violating the rules and regulations of the department pursuant to the provisions of KRS 171.450, 171.560, 171.670, 171.710, or 171.720 is guilty of a Class A misdemeanor and is also liable for damages or losses incurred by the Commonwealth. Any state employee who knowingly violates these provisions shall also be subject to dismissal from state employment upon a determination of fact, at a hearing, that a serious violation did occur. The employee's right to appeal to the state personnel board is not abridged or denied. In the event of an appeal, the decision of the state personnel board is final.

COUNTY ROADS — GRADE CROSSING ELIMINATION

Section

178.200. Tax levy to retire bonds and pay interest.

178.210. Special tax for construction of roads — Submission to vote — Short-term bonds.

178.290. Construction of sidewalks along public roads — School bus turn-around areas.

Penalties.

178.990. Penalties.

178.200. Tax levy to retire bonds and pay interest.

(1) If bonds are sold to enable the fiscal court to construct roads and bridges, the fiscal court shall levy a tax of not over twenty cents ($.20) on the one hundred dollars ($100) of the assessed valuation of the county. The tax shall be collected as other county taxes and allocated, first, to the payment of the interest on the bonds, and the balance placed to the credit of a sinking fund for the redemption of the bonds.

(2) Any accumulation in the sinking fund may be loaned by the fiscal court on first mortgage real estate security, on the basis of fifty percent (50%) of its value, at the legal rate of interest, which shall accrue to the sinking fund, but before the loan is made all titles shall be looked up and papers approved by the county attorney.

(3) For the 1966 tax year and for all subsequent years the rate levied by the levying authority under the provisions of this section for levies which were approved prior to December 16, 1965, shall be the compensating tax rate as defined in KRS 132.010, except as provided in subsection (4) of this section.

(4) Notwithstanding the limitations contained in subsection (3) of this section no tax rate shall be set lower than that necessary to provide such funds as are required to meet principal and interest payments on outstanding bonded indebtedness.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Analysis

1. Constitutionality.
2. Maximum Road Tax.
3. Appropriation from General Taxes.
4. Application of Funds.
5. Powers of Fiscal Court.
6. Refunding Bond Issue.
7. Loan of Sinking Fund.
8. Collection Fee.

1. Constitutionality.

The levy of tax provided for in this section is valid under Const., § 157a to the extent of 20¢. Mitchell v. Knox County Fiscal Court, 165 Ky. 543, 177 S.W. 279, 1915 Ky. LEXIS 557 (Ky. 1915). See Cleary v. Pieper, 169 Ky. 434, 184 S.W. 4, 1916 Ky. LEXIS 707 (Ky. 1916); Houston v. Boltz, 169 Ky. 640, 185 S.W. 76, 1916 Ky. LEXIS 754 (Ky. 1916).

The provision of law which authorized maximum tax rate of 30¢ violated Ky. Const., § 157a, which fixes maximum rate at 20¢. Pulaski County v. Ben Hur Life Ass'n, 286 Ky. 119, 149 S.W.2d 738, 1941 Ky. LEXIS 210 (Ky. 1941) (decision prior to 1965 amendment).

2. Maximum Road Tax.

The 20¢ tax levy provided for in this section may be made in addition to the tax of 50¢ for general purposes provided for by Const., § 157. Smith v. Livingston County, 195 Ky. 382, 242 S.W. 612, 1922 Ky. LEXIS 337 (Ky. 1922).

Constitution, § 157a limits the rate of county taxation for road purposes to 20¢, and whether the proceeds from such a levy are realized at once by the issue of bonds under KRS 178.170, or whether the levy is an annual one to be spent each year on roads as and when collected under KRS 178.210, the adoption of either statutory plan has no enlarging effect on the authority of the fiscal court to impose the tax and levies made under either provision may not run concurrently. Anderson v. Gillis, 242 Ky. 404, 46 S.W.2d 508, 1932 Ky. LEXIS 282 (Ky. 1932). See Gillis v. Anderson, 256 Ky. 472, 76 S.W.2d 279, 1934 Ky. LEXIS 433 (Ky. 1934).

3. Appropriation from General Taxes.

A fiscal court may supplement a 20¢ road tax, levied under either this section or KRS 178.210, by appropriating for road purposes so much as it may desire out of its ordinary county tax of 50¢ for general purposes. Smith v. Livingston County, 195 Ky. 382, 242 S.W. 612, 1922 Ky. LEXIS 337 (Ky. 1922). See Gillis v. Anderson, 256 Ky. 472, 76 S.W.2d 279, 1934 Ky. LEXIS 433 (Ky. 1934).

4. Application of Funds.

All money raised by a 20¢ tax for road purposes must be applied to payment of indebtedness created under Const., § 157a until this indebtedness has been satisfied in full, and if any part is appropriated or used by fiscal court for any other purpose the members of the court become subject to civil and criminal liability. Bird v. Asher, 170 Ky. 726, 186 S.W. 663, 1916 Ky. LEXIS 129 (Ky. 1916). See Collier v. Bourbon Fiscal Court, 188 Ky. 491, 223 S.W. 149, 1920 Ky. LEXIS 307 (Ky. 1920).

5. Powers of Fiscal Court.

A fiscal court has no authority to lend the proceeds of bonds, or sell bonds on credit, since the court has only the powers expressly granted by this statute. Webster County v. Hall, 275 Ky. 54, 120 S.W.2d 756, 1938 Ky. LEXIS 367 (Ky. 1938).

6. Refunding Bond Issue.

Where county was in default on issue of road and bridge bonds, and plan was worked out to refund issue by exchanging a new issue bearing a lower rate of interest, county had authority to agree to pay, out of road and bridge sinking fund, reasonable compensation to agent who perfected plan, the costs of publishing call notices, and service charges to an agency for handling interest and principal payments. Governor v. Wolfe County, 291 Ky. 267, 163 S.W.2d 485, 1942 Ky. LEXIS 213 (Ky. 1942).

7. Loan of Sinking Fund.

Where fiscal court did not require county treasurer to obtain security for loan of sinking fund for road bonds, treasurer is not liable for loss of funds on closing of bank. Edwards v. Logan County, 244 Ky. 296, 50 S.W.2d 83, 1932 Ky. LEXIS 393 (Ky. 1932).

Fiscal court had no power to cancel interest on note and mortgage representing investment of sinking fund under this section where there was no dispute as to amount due, maker was financially responsible, and mortgage security was ample. Ward v. Roberts, 281 Ky. 418, 136 S.W.2d 549, 1940 Ky. LEXIS 50 (Ky. 1940).

8. Collection Fee.

The sheriff is entitled to four percent commission for collecting tax levied to pay interest and provide a sinking fund for payment of county road bonds issued under KRS 178.170. Caldwell County v. Farmer, 231 Ky. 200, 21 S.W.2d 244, 1929 Ky. LEXIS 238 (Ky. 1929). See Bailey v. Magoffin County, 238 Ky. 805, 38 S.W.2d 923, 1931 Ky. LEXIS 314 (Ky. 1931).

Property Tax Revenue Assessment Levels and Taxing Rate: The Kentucky Rollback Law, 60 Ky. L.J. 105 (1971).

178.210. Special tax for construction of roads — Submission to vote — Short-term bonds.

(1) The fiscal court of any county may submit to the voters at a special election to be held for that purpose, the question of voting a tax of any sum not exceeding twenty cents ($0.20) on the hundred dollars ($100) on all property subject by law to local taxation, for the construction of the public roads and bridges of the county, as the fiscal court directs. The order of the fiscal court calling the election shall specify the amount of the tax to be levied each year and the number of years for which the tax may be imposed, not exceeding ten (10) years, and shall also provide that no money in excess of the amount that can be raised by the levy in any one (1) year shall be expended in that year.

(2) The fiscal court may borrow money and issue bonds therefor in advance of the collection of the tax for any year, but the amount borrowed shall not exceed eighty percent (80%) of the estimated tax for the year. The amount of the tax shall be estimated according to the assessment and collection of the preceding year. Any money so borrowed shall be paid out of the money raised from the tax in the year in which the money is borrowed.

(3) For the 1966 tax year and for all subsequent years the rate levied by the levying authority under the provisions of this section for levies which were approved prior to December 16, 1965, shall be the compensating tax rate as defined in KRS 132.010, except as provided in subsection (4) of this section.

(4) Notwithstanding the limitations contained in subsection (3) of this section no tax rate shall be set lower than that necessary to provide such funds as are required to meet principal and interest payments on outstanding bonded indebtedness.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Analysis

1. Constitutionality.
2. Construction.
3. Voting Tax Levy.
4. Twenty Cent Limit.
5. Funds.
6. — Use.
7. Enjoining Collection.

1. Constitutionality.

This section is valid as authorized by Const., § 157a. Collier v. Bourbon Fiscal Court, 188 Ky. 491, 223 S.W. 149, 1920 Ky. LEXIS 307 (Ky. 1920).

2. Construction.

Constitution, § 157a limits the rate of county taxation for road purposes to 20¢ and whether the proceeds from such a levy are realized at once by the issue of bonds under KRS 178.170, or whether the levy is an annual one to be spent each year on roads as and when collected under this section, the adoption of either statutory plan has no enlarging effect on the authority of the fiscal court to impose the tax and levies made under either provision may not run concurrently. Anderson v. Gillis, 242 Ky. 404, 46 S.W.2d 508, 1932 Ky. LEXIS 282 (Ky. 1932). See Gillis v. Anderson, 256 Ky. 472, 76 S.W.2d 279, 1934 Ky. LEXIS 433 (Ky. 1934).

3. Voting Tax Levy.

The question of tax levy provided for in this section may be voted on at a special election called for that purpose or on day of regular election. Collier v. Bourbon Fiscal Court, 188 Ky. 491, 223 S.W. 149, 1920 Ky. LEXIS 307 (Ky. 1920).

The question of voting this 20¢ tax may be voted on at the same election as the road bond issue under KRS 178.170, whether it be a special or regular election. Collier v. Bourbon Fiscal Court, 188 Ky. 491, 223 S.W. 149, 1920 Ky. LEXIS 307 (Ky. 1920).

No actual existing indebtedness is required but only a good faith purpose to undertake and accomplish specified road and bridge construction or improvement, in order to warrant submission of question of whether tax shall be levied and the levying of the tax if voted. Hughes v. Eison, 190 Ky. 661, 228 S.W. 676, 1921 Ky. LEXIS 509 (Ky. 1921).

4. Twenty Cent Limit.

Where levy of 20¢ road tax was still in effect on unpaid part of county road bond issue, the county could not make an additional tax levy under Const., § 157a or this section. Rockcastle County v. Louisville & N. R. Co., 232 Ky. 439, 23 S.W.2d 276, 1929 Ky. LEXIS 447 (Ky. 1929).

The total amount for road purposes is limited to 20¢ per $100 of assessed valuation, not to 20¢ for current expenditures and 20¢ for payment of outstanding bonds. Anderson v. Gillis, 242 Ky. 404, 46 S.W.2d 508, 1932 Ky. LEXIS 282 (Ky. 1932).

5. Funds.

6. — Use.

A sufficient part of special road tax of 20¢ voted under this section on same day road bonds were voted under KRS 178.170, must be set aside to pay interest on and liquidate bonds, but such part as annually remains may be used in building roads and bridges. Collier v. Bourbon Fiscal Court, 188 Ky. 491, 223 S.W. 149, 1920 Ky. LEXIS 307 (Ky. 1920).

Special road tax of 20¢ voted under this section prior to voting of road bonds under KRS 178.170 must be appropriated first as needed for bond issue, and what is left over may then be devoted to purposes provided for by this section. Smith v. Livingston County, 195 Ky. 382, 242 S.W. 612, 1922 Ky. LEXIS 337 (Ky. 1922). See Gillis v. Anderson, 256 Ky. 472, 76 S.W.2d 279, 1934 Ky. LEXIS 433 (Ky. 1934).

Fiscal court has no discretion, in determining whether funds realized from tax levy may be spent for purpose other than specified statutory purpose, as this section is mandatory insofar as purpose for which money must be used is concerned. Thompson v. Bracken County, 294 S.W.2d 943, 1956 Ky. LEXIS 153 (Ky. 1956).

A distinction in the use of the words “improvement” and “construct” and “repair” and “maintain” has been recognized in statutes concerning highways and roads; improvement and construct mean to make better the original status while maintain and repair mean to preserve or remedy the original condition. Thompson v. Bracken County, 294 S.W.2d 943, 1956 Ky. LEXIS 153 (Ky. 1956).

Since the purpose of this section is to improve and construct rather than to repair and maintain, the diversion or expenditure of the funds realized from the collection of the special tax levy for repair or maintenance of county roads or bridges was improper and illegal and as such expenditures were not within the purview of the specified purpose of this section they were in violation of Const., § 180 and KRS 68.110. Thompson v. Bracken County, 294 S.W.2d 943, 1956 Ky. LEXIS 153 (Ky. 1956).

To hold that the words “improve and construct,” when used in this section, include maintenance and repair of roads would be giving these ordinary words a strained and unwarranted meaning, a meaning not contemplated by the legislators. Thompson v. Bracken County, 294 S.W.2d 943, 1956 Ky. LEXIS 153 (Ky. 1956).

Where fiscal court used funds from special tax levy, levied for purpose of improving and constructing county roads and bridges, for the purposes of repairing and maintaining roads and bridges, the funds were being improperly used and court erred in failing to grant a permanent injunction to prevent them from expending such proceeds in such improper manner. Thompson v. Bracken County, 294 S.W.2d 943, 1956 Ky. LEXIS 153 (Ky. 1956).

7. Enjoining Collection.

In action to enjoin collection of illegal county road tax, both the county and a representative of bondholders should be made parties to the litigation. Anderson v. Gillis, 242 Ky. 404, 46 S.W.2d 508, 1932 Ky. LEXIS 282 (Ky. 1932). See Gillis v. Anderson, 256 Ky. 472, 76 S.W.2d 279, 1934 Ky. LEXIS 433 (Ky. 1934).

DECISIONS UNDER PRIOR LAW

1. Use of Funds.

A fiscal court may supplement a 20¢ road tax, levied under either KRS 178.200 or this section, by appropriating for road purposes so much as it may desire out of its ordinary county tax of 50¢ for general purposes. Russell County v. Hill, 164 Ky. 360, 175 S.W. 988, 1915 Ky. LEXIS 396 (Ky. 1915); Mitchell v. Knox County Fiscal Court, 165 Ky. 543, 177 S.W. 279, 1915 Ky.

LEXIS 557 (Ky. 1915); Houston v. Boltz, 169 Ky. 640, 185 S.W. 76, 1916 Ky. LEXIS 754 (Ky. 1916).

All money raised by a 20¢ tax for road purposes must be applied to payment of indebtedness created under Const., § 157a until this indebtedness has been satisfied in full, and if any part was appropriated or used by fiscal court for any other purpose the members of the court become subject to civil and criminal liability. Bird v. Asher, 170 Ky. 726, 186 S.W. 663, 1916 Ky. LEXIS 129 (Ky. 1916).

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

The question of levying a special tax of 20¢ on each $100 of taxable property for the construction of roads authorized under KRS 178.210 to 178.240 can be voted on in the May primary provided a separate ballot is used. OAG 62-218.

If equipment purchased from special levy funds is used for any purpose other than the construction or improvement of the county's roads, it must definitely be shown what part of its cost can be attributed to that use and that cost must be paid from funds other than those of the special tax levy. OAG 66-368.

A county could legally purchase equipment from special levy funds if that equipment was to be used for the construction or improvement of the county's roads. OAG 66-368.

The compensating tax rate is not applicable to any tax approved by the voters after December 16, 1965. OAG 66-749.

If the county taxes and special district taxes, excluding school taxes and excluding a special road tax, charged to the sheriff for the year are less than $150,000, the sheriff will be allowed, by the county treasurer for collecting such taxes, 10% on the first $10,000 and 4% on the remainder but if the amount is $150,000 or more, the sheriff will be allowed 10% upon the first $5,000 and 4% on the residue and the sheriff's fee for collecting the special road tax is 1% of the amount collected. OAG 74-64.

It is proper and legal to place on an election ballot, other than the general election ballot, a question to the voters on whether they would be in favor of a special road tax (authorized under Const., § 157a and this section) which could be used for new construction of roads and bridges. OAG 82-602.

178.290. Construction of sidewalks along public roads — School bus turn-around areas.

(1) Any person may build a sidewalk composed of gravel, concrete, or other suitable material along the side of any public road in this state. The sidewalk shall not exceed sixty (60) inches in width and the construction and repair and the use of the sidewalk shall be without expense of any kind to any other person who may want to use it. All persons who desire shall be permitted to use the sidewalk, and it shall be so constructed as not to interfere with the traveling public on any public road. The governing body of each city, county, urban-county, consolidated local government, and charter county may build and repair sidewalks along public roads where the need exists for the safety of school children. Before the beginning of construction of the sidewalk, written approval must be obtained from the governmental agency having jurisdiction over the public road.

(2) The fiscal court may, where needed, build and maintain suitable areas for the safe turning around of school buses.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

1. Condemnation by County.

This section could not be construed as prohibiting county from condemning property. Jones v. Cook, 378 S.W.2d 795, 1964 Ky. LEXIS 204 (Ky. 1964).

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

The fiscal court can, in its sound discretion, and where such construction is needed, build and maintain suitable areas for the safe turning around of school buses, but the county would have to acquire at least an easement right from affected landowners for such areas sufficient to justify the cost to the county. OAG 72-134.

Where a school bus must travel two-tenths or three-tenths of a mile from a county road over a private drive to reach an area maintained as a turn around pursuant to subsection (2) of this section, the county must acquire the private drive interval by agreement or condemnation, since this section strongly suggests that a turn around is part of the county road system and does not contemplate a private ownership or interval between the county's road holdings. OAG 81-428.

The fiscal court could, with written permission of the city having jurisdiction over a road or street as a city street, construct sidewalks alongside the road or street where needed for school children. Where the public road is not under the jurisdiction of a city or other governmental agency, the fiscal court would have to procure the appropriate easement rights. OAG 82-136.

The only exceptions to the basic rule that formal acceptance of a road into the county road system is a prerequisite to a fiscal court's authority to spend county money on a road or to improve or maintain it, relate to sidewalks and bus turn-arounds for school children, as treated under this section. OAG 82-136.

Under this section, a fiscal court may, where needed, build and maintain suitable areas for the safe turning around of school buses. However, the fiscal court would have to acquire at least an easement right from affected landowners for such areas sufficient to justify the cost to the county; neither the school board nor the private owner is responsible for such construction. OAG 82-136.

There does not appear to be any statute permitting the fiscal court to place county gravel on school parking lots, even though the gravel would be on public property and the school system would pay the cost of the materials. OAG 83-398.

A school board cannot lawfully agree to provide materials paid for with school funds, or provide school funds themselves, whether under an intergovernmental agreement or otherwise, for the construction or maintenance of school bus turnarounds within the meaning of subsection (2) of this section. OAG 93-63.

Fiscal court was not authorized to expend funds for the construction or maintenance of a private driveway needed to accommodate the parking of a school bus on property owned by a school bus driver. OAG 94-21.

PENALTIES

178.990. Penalties.

(1) Any county road engineer who fails to comply with the provisions of KRS 178.050 shall be fined not less than ten ($10) nor more than one hundred dollars ($100) for each offense.

(2) Any county road engineer who makes a change in the location of a road without complying with the provisions of this chapter shall be fined not less than twenty-five dollars ($25).

(3) Any person who injures a sidewalk constructed under the provisions of KRS 178.290 and fails to repair or replace the sidewalk shall be fined not less than four ($4) nor more than fifty dollars ($50).

(4) Any owner or occupier of a dam who fails to comply with the provisions of KRS 178.300 shall be fined two dollars ($2) for every twenty-four (24) hours of noncompliance. Where a milldam is carried away or destroyed, the owner or occupier shall not be subject to the fine until one (1) month after the mill has been put in operation.

(5) If a fiscal court or county judge/executive willfully fails to perform any duty required of it by the provisions of this chapter, except KRS 178.170 and 178.210 to 178.240, every member of such court concurring in the failure shall be fined not less than ten ($10) nor more than one hundred dollars ($100) by the Circuit Court of the county.

(6) All fines imposed by this chapter shall be paid into the county road fund, except that in case of a privately owned road or bridge, the fines shall accrue to the owner.

(7) No fines imposed by this chapter shall bar action for damages for breach of contract.

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

While the grand jury and courts cannot disturb the fiscal court when it is properly performing its ministerial duties in keeping the courthouse and county roads in proper repair, the members of the fiscal court would be subject to indictment and prosecution where charges are properly drawn alleging misfeasance or malfeasance in office, or wilful neglect in discharge of official duties. MOTOR VEHICLE LICENSES

186.060. Motor vehicles leased or owned by governmental units or emergency and ambulance vehicles operated by nonprofit corporations organized by units of government — Use of official plates on motor vehicles leased by governmental entity.

(1) Applications for registration of motor vehicles leased or owned by a county, city, urban-county, or board of education, or emergency and ambulance vehicles operated by nonprofit corporations organized by units of government in the state or by the state or federal government shall be accompanied by a statement from the head of the department of the governmental unit that leases or owns the motor vehicle, certifying that the motor vehicle is leased or owned and operated by the governmental unit. The application and statement shall be forwarded by the county clerk to the cabinet, which shall give special authority to the clerk to register it. Upon receiving that authority, the clerk shall issue a registration receipt and the official number plate described in KRS 186.240(6), and report the registration to the head of the department authorizing the registration. For his services in issuing such certificate of registration and number plate and reporting the same, the county clerk shall be entitled to a fee of three dollars ($3) in each instance, to be paid by the department upon whose authorization such license was issued.

(2) After such registration of any vehicle leased or owned by a county, city, urban-county, or board of education, or emergency and ambulance vehicles operated by nonprofit corporations organized by units of government in the state, or by the state or federal government and after issuance of such number plate for such vehicle so leased or owned, no subsequent registration or renewal of same, and no subsequent renewal of a number plate of the vehicle shall be necessary so long as the vehicle is leased or owned by the governmental unit except in the case of loss or destruction of the license plate. In the event of loss or destruction, the number plate shall be replaced in the same manner as if no plate had ever been issued.

(3) When a motor vehicle leased or owned by a county, city, urban-county, or board of education, or emergency and ambulance vehicles operated by nonprofit corporations organized by units of government in the state, or by the state or federal government is transferred or sold to another governmental unit, a new license plate shall be issued for the vehicle in the same manner as provided for in subsection (1) of this section and shall have the same effect as given to such license plates in subsection (2) of this section.

(4) No person shall use on a motor vehicle, not leased or owned by a county, city, urban-county, board of education, or emergency and ambulance vehicles operated by nonprofit corporations organized by units of government in the state, or the state or federal government, any license plate that has been issued for use on a motor vehicle leased or owned by the governmental unit.

(5) Notwithstanding the provisions of KRS 186.020 and 186.050, a governmental entity which leases a motor vehicle may have that vehicle equipped with an official plate under this section. Upon termination of the lease agreement, if ownership of the motor vehicle does not revert to an entity allowed to use an official plate under this section, the owner of the motor vehicle shall surrender the official plates and apply for registration under the provisions of KRS 186.050.

A school board was without authority to authorize the use of its buses by a civic organization in the absence of a showing of some specific connection between the proposed trip and regular school functions. OAG 60-690.

So long as motor vehicles are owned exclusively by a board of education they need not be re-registered after the initial registration and the license tags will be permanent. OAG 65-421.

The LKLP Council, a private nonprofit corporation whose general objective is the social, individual, and economic growth of Leslie, Knott, Letcher and Perry Counties, is not a governmental agency as defined in this section and is not entitled to an official license tag. OAG 67-257.

Community Action Lexington-Fayette County, Inc. (CALF) is not qualified to obtain state license plates for its vehicles. OAG 71-467.

A city may not equip a motor vehicle with an official license if the vehicle is leased rather than purchased. OAG 73-6.

A fire truck owned by a nonstock, nonprofit corporation for the purpose of offering fire protection, said corporation not having been created under KRS chapter 75 does not constitute a political subdivision or governmental unit and, as provided by this section, would not be entitled to a governmental license plate. OAG 73-145.

A residential manpower center is not entitled to receive official license plates for automobiles acquired under a General Motors lending agreement and used in its driver's education program as it is not a governmental unit and the automobiles are not owned and used exclusively by it. OAG 74-363.

The driver education vehicles owned by an independent school district and operated exclusively for the conduct of a school program by a residential manpower center as an agency of the school district qualify for official license plates under this section. OAG 74-395.

A governmental agency may not use official license plates on leased cars. OAG 74-456.

KRS 186.060(4), as amended in 1996, allows federal, state, and local governmental units to use official license plates on vehicles leased or owned by them; prior opinions to the contrary are abrogated insofar as they rely on prior statutory language. OAG 12-001, 2012 Ky. AG LEXIS 25.

(7/15/94). This section was amended by 1994 Ky. Acts chs. 267, 416, and 455. Where these Acts are not in conflict, they have been codified together. Where a conflict exists, Acts ch. 416, which was last enacted by the General Assembly, prevails under KRS 446.250.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Analysis

1. Constitutionality.
2. Nonresident.
3. Clearance Letter Requirement.

1. Constitutionality.

This section does not violate equal protection of the law on the theory that it treats driver's license applicants with suspended out-of-state licenses differently from driver's license applicants with suspended Kentucky licenses; this section is rationally related to the two legitimate purposes of protecting the public from drivers whose licenses have been suspended for DUI offenses and of preventing "license shopping" by nonresidents with suspended out-of-state licenses. Commonwealth Transp. Cabinet v. Hobson, 870 S.W.2d 228, 1993 Ky. App. LEXIS 158 (Ky. Ct. App. 1993).

2. Nonresident.

This section compels denial of a Kentucky license to a nonresident during such time as his license remains revoked in the issuing state; the word "nonresident" refers to the status of the driver at the time of revocation and that an individual who moves to Kentucky cannot successfully avoid the provisions of the statute by the simple expedient of changing his residence. Commonwealth Transp. Cabinet v.

Hobson, 870 S.W.2d 228, 1993 Ky. App. LEXIS 158 (Ky. Ct. App. 1993).

3. Clearance Letter Requirement.

Failure to produce a clearance letter from another state which showed that the license issued to driver by that state was no longer suspended was sufficient grounds for this state's refusal to issue an operator's license under the provisions of this section and 601 KAR 12:020, even though the requirement of a clearance letter was the only one of several license reinstatement conditions the driver had not met. Transportation Cabinet v. Feige, 889 S.W.2d 52, 1994 Ky. App. LEXIS 147 (Ky. Ct. App. 1994).

LEXIS 95 (Ky. 1998).

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

A peace officer has authority to stop the operator of a motor bike for the purpose of determining whether or not the operator has the required license where it appears the operator is under the age of 16. OAG 65-354.

Since a person under 16 cannot obtain a license to operate a motor vehicle, if a person sells a car to a person under 16 knowingly, then such seller could be prosecuted for causing the juvenile to be charged with a crime. OAG 67-360.

Operation of a motor vehicle in disregard of valid restrictions on a motor vehicle operator's license is operation without a license in violation of KRS 186.410 for which a person may be convicted and fined or imprisoned or both pursuant to KRS 186.990(3), and for which a peace officer may issue a citation if the offense is committed in his presence. OAG 67-530.

Juvenile offenders sixteen years of age or older charged with operating a motorcycle without an operator's license must, in view of KRS 208.020 (now repealed), be proceeded against as adult offenders and the juvenile court has no jurisdiction in such cases, but juvenile offenders under sixteen years of age in such cases must be proceeded against in juvenile court. OAG 75-563.

The lawful minimum age of a moped operator is 16. OAG 84-176.

PENALTIES

186.990. Penalties.

(1) Any person who violates any of the provisions of KRS 186.020, 186.030, 186.040, 186.045(4), 186.050, 186.056, 186.060, 186.073, 186.110, 186.130, 186.140, 186.160, 186.170, 186.180(1) to (4)(a), 186.210(1), 186.230, or KRS 186.655 to 186.680 shall be guilty of a violation.

(2) Any person who violates any of the provisions of KRS 138.465, 186.072, 186.190, 186.200, or 186.210(2) shall be guilty of a Class A misdemeanor.

(3) A person who violates the provisions of KRS 186.450(4), (5), or (6) or 186.452(3), (4), or (5) shall be guilty of a violation. A person who violates any of the other provisions of KRS 186.400 to 186.640 shall be guilty of a Class B misdemeanor.

(4) Any clerk or judge failing to comply with KRS 186.550(1) shall be guilty of a violation.

(5) If it appears to the satisfaction of the trial court that any offender under KRS 186.400 to 186.640 has a driver's license but in good faith failed to have it on his or her person or misplaced or lost it, the court may, in its discretion, dismiss the charges against the defendant without fine, imprisonment, or cost.

(6) Any person who steals a motor vehicle registration plate or renewal decal shall be guilty of a Class D felony. Displaying a canceled registration plate on a motor vehicle shall be prima facie evidence of guilt under this section.

(7) Any person who violates the provisions of KRS 186.1911 shall be guilty of a Class A misdemeanor.

(8) Any person who makes a false affidavit to secure a license plate under KRS 186.172 shall be guilty of a Class A misdemeanor.

(9) Any person who violates any provision of KRS 186.070 or 186.150 shall be guilty of a Class A misdemeanor.

(10) Any person who operates a vehicle bearing a dealer's plate upon the highways of this Commonwealth with intent to evade the motor vehicle usage tax or registration fee shall be guilty of a Class A misdemeanor for the first offense and a Class D felony for each subsequent offense.

(11) Any person, other than a licensed dealer or manufacturer, who procures a dealer's plate with intent to evade the motor vehicle usage tax or registration fee shall be guilty of a Class D felony.

(12) Any resident who unlawfully registers, titles, or licenses a motor vehicle in any state other than Kentucky with intent to evade the motor vehicle usage tax or the registration fee shall be guilty of a Class A misdemeanor if the amount of tax due is less than one hundred dollars ($100), or of a Class D felony if the amount of tax due is more than one hundred dollars ($100), and in addition shall be liable for all taxes so evaded with applicable interest and penalties.

(6/24/2003). 2000 Ky. Acts ch. 408, sec. 178, renumbered the former subsection (2) of KRS 186.045 as subsection (1), but that Act failed to include a conforming amendment to change the reference to that subsection in subsection (1) of this statute. Under KRS 7.136(1)(e), that change has now been made.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Analysis

1. Evidence of Fine Admissible.
2. Failure to Illuminate License Plates.
3. Possessing Stolen Plates.

1. Evidence of Fine Admissible.

Evidence of conviction of violation of KRS 186.190 and fine under this section was admissible in action to recover on an alleged breach of contract of sale and of a claimed warranty of a used automobile. Harlow v. Dick, 245 S.W.2d 616, 1952 Ky. LEXIS 601 (Ky. 1952).

2. Failure to Illuminate License Plates.

Police officers were entitled to summary judgment on the issue of qualified immunity in a 42 USCS § 1983 suit alleging an illegal arrest in violation of plaintiff's Fourth Amendment rights because, although the officers initially began their pursuit because plaintiff did not have his license plate illuminated as required by KRS 186.170 and 186.990, they arrested plaintiff for fleeing in violation of KRS 520.095 and 520.100 and there was no dispute as to the officers' assertion that plaintiff failed to stop once they were in pursuit. Nelson v. Riddle, 217 Fed. Appx. 456, 2007 FED App. 0129N, 2007 U.S. App. LEXIS 3592 (6th Cir. Ky. 2007).

3. Possessing Stolen Plates.

In investigating a stolen vehicle registration plate allegedly belonging to defendant's mother, because exigent circumstances existed when law enforcement found an active methamphetamine lab in the trunk of the car which had the stolen license plate affixed to it, suppression of the lab was properly denied. Bishop v. Commonwealth, 237 S.W.3d 567, 2007 Ky. App. LEXIS 365 (Ky. Ct. App. 2007).

NOTES TO UNPUBLISHED DECISIONS

1. Search and Seizure.

Unpublished decision: Where defendant dropped a baggie of crack cocaine in anticipation of a strip-search at a jail, suppression was not warranted, because, inter alia, the police did not need reasonable suspicion or probable cause of defendant's commission of any other crime to take defendant into custody and search defendant incident to arrest since police could properly arrest defendant for driving on a suspended license. United States v. Warfield, 404 Fed. Appx. 994, 2011 FED App. 0002N, 2011 U.S. App. LEXIS 55 (6th Cir. Ky. 2011).

2. Evidence.

Unpublished decision: Trial court did not err in denying a directed verdict to defendant on a charge of theft of a license plate. Although defendant provided an explanation of why he had the plate, the placement of the plate on his truck was prima facie evidence of his guilt and provided the jury with sufficient evidence from which to determine defendant's guilt on the charge. Casey v. Commonwealth, 2012 Ky. App. Unpub. LEXIS 1054 (Ky. Ct. App. Sept. 21, 2012), review denied, ordered not published, 2013 Ky. LEXIS 495 (Ky. Aug. 21, 2013).

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL

No officer, agent or employee of the Commonwealth has authority to confiscate license plates issued by another state to a person who drives a car bearing those plates into Kentucky regardless of the fact that the person's driver's license was revoked by the Commonwealth of Kentucky. OAG 60-1055.

If the registrant is a bona fide resident of the county wherein the vehicle is registered, the registration is valid for that year even though the registrant should become a resident of another county during that year. OAG 61-219.

In an action brought against a person believed to be in violation of KRS 186.020 or KRS 186.210, the burden of proof would be on the prosecuting attorney to show that the registrant was not a bona fide resident of the county of registration. OAG 61-219.

Registrations are valid where a vendee purchases a vehicle from an individual-vendor or dealer-vendor who registered the vehicle in a county other than the county of residence of the purchaser. OAG 61-219.

Since a person under 16 cannot obtain a license to operate a motor vehicle, if a person sells a car to a person under 16 knowingly, then such seller could be prosecuted for causing the juvenile to be charged with a crime. OAG 67-360.

Operation of a motor vehicle in disregard of valid restrictions on a motor vehicle operator's license is operation without a license in violation of KRS 186.410 for which a person may be convicted and fined or imprisoned or both pursuant to this section, and for which a peace officer may issue a citation if the offense is committed in his presence. OAG 67-530.

The fact that subsection (6) of this section includes the penalty in the same subsection as the violation does not violate Ky. Const., § 51. OAG 72-90.

A moped operator must be licensed or face a $12 to $500 fine and six months in jail. OAG 84-176.

Penalties.

- 189.990. Penalties. [Effective until July 1, 2024].
- 189.993. Penalties.

189.292. Use of personal communication device prohibited while operating motor vehicle in motion on traveled portion of roadway — Exclusions — Administrative regulations.

(1) As used in this section, "personal communication device" means a device capable of two (2) way audio or text communication that emits an audible signal, vibrates, displays a message, or otherwise summons or delivers communication to the possessor, including but not limited to a paging device and a cellular telephone.

(2) Except as provided in subsection (3) of this section, no person shall, while operating a motor vehicle that is in motion on the traveled portion of a roadway, write, send, or read text-based communication using a personal communication device to manually communicate with any person using text-based communication, including but not limited to communications referred to as a text message, instant message, or electronic mail.

(3) Subsection (2) of this section shall not apply to:

(a) The use of a global positioning system feature of a personal communication device;

(b) The use of a global positioning or navigation system that is physically or electronically integrated into the motor vehicle;

(c) The reading, selecting, or entering of a telephone number or name in a personal communication device for the purpose of making a phone call;

(d) An operator of an emergency or public safety vehicle, when the use of a personal communication device is an essential function of the operator's official duties; or

(e) The operator of a motor vehicle who writes a text message on a personal communication device to:

1. Report illegal activity;
2. Summon medical help;
3. Summon a law enforcement or public safety agency; or
4. Prevent injury to a person or property.

(4) The secretary of the Transportation Cabinet may promulgate administrative regulations pursuant to KRS Chapter 13A to implement the provisions of this section, including but not limited to updates or advances in the automotive and information technology industries.

189.294. Use of personal communication device by minor prohibited while operating motor vehicle, motorcycle, or moped in motion on traveled portion of roadway — Exclusions — Administrative regulations.

(1) As used in this section, “personal communication device” shall have the same meaning as defined in KRS 189.292.

(2) Any person under the age of eighteen (18) who has been issued an instruction permit, intermediate license, or operator’s license shall not operate a motor vehicle, motorcycle, or moped that is in motion on the traveled portion of a roadway while using a personal communication device, except to summon medical help or a law enforcement or public safety agency in an emergency situation.

(3) Use of a personal communication device does not include a stand-alone global positioning system, a global positioning or navigation system that is physically or electronically integrated into the motor vehicle, or an in-vehicle security, diagnostics, and communications system, but does include manually entering information into the global positioning system feature of a personal communication device.

(4) This section shall not apply to the use of a citizens band radio or an amateur radio by a motor vehicle operator.

(5) The secretary of the Transportation Cabinet may promulgate administrative regulations pursuant to KRS Chapter 13A to implement the provisions of this section, including but not limited to updates or advances in the automotive and information technology industries.

189.336. Installation of flasher lights near schools — Speed limits.

(1) Fiscal courts, with respect to school zones situated in unincorporated areas, may authorize by resolution installation at county expense of school flasher lights and other traffic control devices on highways in school zones as they deem reasonable and necessary.

(2) Cities, with respect to school zones within their incorporated areas, may authorize by ordinance installation at city expense of school flasher lights and other traffic control devices on highways in school zones as they deem reasonable and necessary.

(3) The speed limit on all highways where school flasher lights are in operation shall be determined by the governmental unit having control of the highway where a school flasher light is in operation. Flasher lights shall be placed one-eighth ($\frac{1}{8}$) of a mile on each side of the principal school building where practical. The governmental unit having control of the highway where the lights are in operation shall erect signs notifying motorists of the speed limit.

(4) “Highways” as used in this section shall mean any public road or street maintained by a city, county or the state.

(5) Any traffic control devices erected by any governmental unit shall conform to standards and specifications authorized by KRS 189.337.

History.

Enact. Acts 1972, ch. 49, § 1; 1974, ch. 27, § 1; 1978, ch. 227, § 1, effective June 17, 1978.

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

Fiscal courts, and cities by ordinance, may authorize the installation of traffic devices that conform to the standards and specifications of KRS 189.337 on highways in school zones as they deem reasonable and necessary with or without authorization from the bureau (now department) of highways, except where federal aid highways are involved, since any traffic control devices placed thereon must be approved by the bureau (now department) of highways as required by 23 USCS, § 109(d). OAG 74-774.

A board of education in making reasonable rules for the control and management of the schools may establish student safety patrols for street traffic instructional purposes inside the limits of school property but may not make or enforce traffic regulations on roads or driveways within or outside the limits of school property. OAG 75-614.

A city ordinance making school crossing guards, who are sworn peace officers with authority to issue citations and place and remove traffic control devices, employees of the school board rather than the city is invalid under KRS 94.360 (now repealed), giving a city exclusive control over its streets, this section, giving a city exclusive authority to place traffic control devices, and Ky. Const., § 184 requiring school board funds be used only for the purpose of education. OAG 79-107.

The city has authority to employ school crossing guards to regulate traffic, while the local school board does not; due to the city’s exclusive control over its streets, no other governmental entity has similar control. OAG 92-6.

The city school board does not have the authority to regulate traffic, as the city has exclusive control over traffic and traffic control devices. OAG 92-6.

There is no statutory authority allowing the city to abdicate its responsibility and jurisdiction over existing city streets and in fact, subsection (2) of this section expressly authorizes a city, by ordinance, to install, at city expense, school flasher lights in school zones, as necessary. OAG 92-6.

189.370. Passing stopped school or church bus prohibited — Application to properly marked vehicles — Rebuttable presumption as to identity of violator.

(1) If any school or church bus used in the transportation of children is stopped upon a highway for the purpose of receiving or discharging passengers, with the stop arm and signal lights activated, the operator of a vehicle approaching from any direction shall bring his vehicle to a stop and shall not proceed until the bus has completed receiving or discharging passengers and has been put into motion. The stop requirement provided for in this section shall not apply to vehicles approaching a stopped bus from the opposite direction upon a highway of four (4) or more lanes.

(2) Subsection (1) of this section shall be applicable only when the bus displays the markings and equipment required by Kentucky minimum specifications for school buses.

(3) If any vehicle is witnessed to be in violation of subsection (1) of this section and the identity of the operator is not otherwise apparent, it shall be a rebuttable presumption that the person in whose name the vehicle is registered or leased was the operator of the vehicle at the time of the alleged violation and is subject to the penalties as provided for in KRS 189.990(5).

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Analysis

1. Purpose.
2. Bus Driver.
3. — Duty.
4. — Negligence.
5. Negligence of Motorist.
6. Involuntary Manslaughter.
7. "In use."

1. Purpose.

The Constitution, statute and case law of this state reflect a policy of special protection of minors from injury. Pike v. George, 434 S.W.2d 626, 1968 Ky. LEXIS 235 (Ky. 1968).

2. Bus Driver.

3. — Duty.

School bus driver owes other motorists duty of operating his bus in a careful manner with respect to their safety under KRS 189.290. Greyhound Corp. v. White, 323 S.W.2d 578, 1958 Ky. LEXIS 21 (Ky. 1958).

4. — Negligence.

Where a school bus driver stopped in his left lane a few feet behind a commercial bus which was stopped partially in the right lane and the school bus driver could easily have pulled completely off of the road, the question of whether the school bus driver was negligent should have been submitted to the jury and were it not for the requirement that all motorists stop before passing a school bus and the possibility that the school bus driver, therefore, reasonably thought that any motorist behind him would be prepared to stop when he did, there should have been a directed verdict against the school bus driver in favor of a passenger in a car which hit both buses from behind on slick road. Greyhound Corp. v. White, 323 S.W.2d 578, 1958 Ky. LEXIS 21 (Ky. 1958).

5. Negligence of Motorist.

Where a motorist was following a school bus on a slick road, the school bus pulled into the left lane revealing a commercial bus stopped partially in the right lane, the school bus then stopped in the left lane a few feet behind the commercial bus to pick up children, and the motorist slid into both buses, the issue of the motorist's negligence should have been submitted to the jury in an action by passengers in his automobile. Greyhound Corp. v. White, 323 S.W.2d 578, 1958 Ky. LEXIS 21 (Ky. 1958).

6. Involuntary Manslaughter.

Driver who failed to bring his automobile to a complete stop as he approached school bus which had stopped on highway for the purpose of discharging passengers and who passed bus while it was discharging passengers was guilty of involuntary manslaughter when he struck and killed child who had alighted from the bus. Commonwealth v. Mullins, 296 Ky. 190, 176 S.W.2d 403, 1943 Ky. LEXIS 137 (Ky. 1943).

7. "In use."

Where truck passed school bus on the left and struck the child, child's death arose out of the "use" of the school bus, and insurer of the school bus had a duty to defend; until the child had reached the other side of the street safely the school bus had not stopped operating as a school bus in relation to the child. Hartford Ins. Cos. of Am. v. Kentucky Sch. Bds. Ins. Trust, 17 S.W.3d 525, 1999 Ky. App. LEXIS 124 (Ky. Ct. App. 1999).

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

Regardless of whether a bus was marked "school bus" or "church bus" when it was being used to carry children to a church function, a motorist passing such a bus while the bus was stopped for receiving or disembarking passengers, whether or not the bus was "upon a highway," would be in violation of subsection (1) of this section. OAG 60-1237.

The provisions of subsection (1) of this section were intended primarily to apply to the passing of a bus which was loading or unloading passengers on the highway. OAG 60-1237.

Painted stripes between opposite traffic lanes would not fall within the definition of a mountable median. OAG 65-120.

When a school bus driver has seen a vehicle pass a stopped school bus loading or unloading children, has noted the license number of the vehicle, and has ascertained the name of the registered owner, he has sufficient information to justify making a complaint before a judge against the registered owner and the complaint should not be dismissed without a trial, but unless the prosecution has obtained additional evidence, either direct or circumstantial, identifying the driver of the vehicle at the time of the violation, the court would be justified in dismissing the case without requiring the defendant to make any defense. OAG 79-263.

189.375. School or church bus signaling device — Use — Stopping regulated.

No school or church bus shall be licensed or operated for the transportation of school children unless it is equipped with bus alternating flashing signal lamps and a stop arm folding sign. The bus body shall be equipped with a system of four (4) red signal lamps, two (2) on the front and two (2) on the rear of the bus, and four (4) amber signal lamps. Each amber signal lamp shall be located near each red signal lamp, at the same level, but closer to the vertical centerline of the bus. The bus body shall be equipped with a stop arm folding sign on the driver's side with letters at least six (6) inches in height displaying the word "stop" on both sides. Prior to stopping the school bus for the purpose of receiving or discharging school children, the driver shall activate the amber flashing signal lamps. Once the bus comes to a complete stop, the driver shall extend the stop arm and activate the red flashing signal lights prior to opening the door so it shall be plainly visible to traffic approaching from both directions that the bus is in the process of receiving or discharging passengers. No driver shall stop a school or church bus for receiving or discharging passengers in a no passing zone which does not afford reasonable visibility to approaching motor vehicles from both directions unless a "School Bus Stop Ahead" sign has been installed a reasonable distance before that spot in the roadway. No driver shall stop a school or church bus for the purpose of receiving passengers from or discharging passengers to the opposite side of the road on a highway of four (4) or more lanes; provided, that this provision does not prohibit the discharging of passengers at a marked pedestrian crossing.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

1. Bus Driver's Standard of Care.

A school bus driver is required to exercise the highest degree of care for a child's safety until the child is on the side of the street where his home is located and is out of danger of injury from passing traffic. Croghan v. Hart County Board of Education, 549 S.W.2d 306, 1977 Ky. App. LEXIS 658 (Ky. Ct. App. 1977).

Where child was allowed to disembark from school bus on side of highway opposite his home and bus driver failed to use flashing signals or operate stop sign, bus driver and county school board were negligent as a matter of law. Croghan v. Hart County Board of Education, 549 S.W.2d 306, 1977 Ky. App. LEXIS 658 (Ky. Ct. App. 1977).

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

A school bus may not stop to receive or discharge passengers in a no passing area as defined in KRS 189.340(4) (now KRS 189.340(5)). OAG 64-23.

189.380. Signals.

(1) A person shall not turn a vehicle or move right or left upon a roadway until the movement can be made with reasonable safety nor without giving an appropriate signal in the manner hereinafter provided.

(2) A signal indicating the intention to turn right or left shall be given continuously for not less than the last one hundred (100) feet traveled by the motor vehicle before the turn.

(3) A bus driver shall not stop or suddenly decrease the speed of a vehicle without first giving an appropriate signal to traffic following the bus.

(4) All signals required for a motor vehicle shall be given by signal lamps or mechanical signal devices.

(5) A signal required for a vehicle that is not a motor vehicle may be given by either hand signals, signal lamps, or mechanical signal devices. The signal shall be given intermittently for the last fifty (50) feet traveled by the vehicle before the turn.

(6) Hand signals shall be executed in the following manner when operating a vehicle that is not a motor vehicle:

(a) The hand and arm shall be extended horizontally from the left side of the vehicle to indicate a left turn;

(b) The left arm shall be extended horizontally with the hand and arm extended upward from the elbow or the right arm and hand shall be extended horizontally to indicate a right turn;

(c) Either arm shall be extended horizontally with the hand and arm extended downward from the elbow to indicate a stop or decrease in speed.

1. Purpose.

Signal required of operator of turning vehicle is not only for protection of vehicles in rear, but also of all vehicles whose movements may reasonably be affected by change in direction. Lindig v. Breen, 268 Ky. 153, 103 S.W.2d 941, 1937 Ky. LEXIS 423 (Ky. 1937).

A turn signal can have but one legally-recognized meaning for a vehicle in motion, and that is a turn. Campbell v. Markham, 426 S.W.2d 431, 1968 Ky. LEXIS 644 (Ky. 1968).

2. Duties of Driver.

While a vehicle proceeding in a straight course should be given priority, the plaintiff, as he approached the highway junction intending to follow a straight course, had a duty to keep his automobile under reasonable control, to drive at a reasonable speed, to maintain a lookout for other automobiles and signals and to exercise ordinary care to avoid a collision with a vehicle turning at the junction. Moskowitz v. Peariso, 458 F.2d 240, 1972 U.S. App. LEXIS 10221 (6th Cir. Ky. 1972).

A motorist following another motorist at a distance of about 25 feet at a speed of 20 to 25 miles per hour had a reasonable right to assume that the preceding motorist would, in the event the latter decided to stop or turn, observe his duty under this section to properly indicate his intention. Berry v. Jorris, 303 Ky. 799, 199 S.W.2d 616, 1947 Ky. LEXIS 562 (Ky. 1947).

Subsection (1) of this section imposes a double duty on a driver who wants to change the direction of his vehicle. He must first ascertain that his movement can be made with reasonable safety and then he must give a signal to drivers of other vehicles of his intention to change direction. Kentucky Bus Lines, Inc. v. Wilson, 258 S.W.2d 486, 1953 Ky. LEXIS 843 (Ky. 1953).

Once a driver had signaled a left turn and then changed his mind and swerved back on to his right side of the road and stopped or slowed almost to a stop, it was necessary that he make known his change of intention in compliance with this section. McCoy v. Carter, 323 S.W.2d 210, 1959 Ky. LEXIS 323 (Ky. 1959).

An instruction that the plaintiff driver should have his motor vehicle under reasonable control and should keep a reasonable lookout ahead, although irrelevant because negligence claim was predicated on violation of other statutory duties, was not error. Lockridge v. Mercer, 438 S.W.2d 486, 1968 Ky. LEXIS 151 (Ky. 1968).

Drivers are under a duty not to turn their vehicles from a direct course upon the highway by changing lanes until such movement can be made with reasonable safety. Yellow Cab Co. v. Crume, 552 S.W.2d 662, 1977 Ky. App. LEXIS 727 (Ky. Ct. App. 1977).

Drivers have a duty to maintain a lookout ahead and to the rear in attempting to change from the left to the right lane of traffic and it is up to the jury to determine whether a driver was acting in a reasonably prudent manner when he looked in his rearview mirror rather than looking out ahead immediately before a collision. Yellow Cab Co. v. Crume, 552 S.W.2d 662, 1977 Ky. App. LEXIS 727 (Ky. Ct. App. 1977).

3. — Turns.

Instruction imposing on truck driver duty to give signals in any and all events regardless of whether movement of car might reasonably affect operation of another, imposed greater burden upon truck driver than statute required. Lehr v. Fenton Dry Cleaning & Dyeing Co., 258 Ky. 663, 80 S.W.2d 831, 1935 Ky. LEXIS 220 (Ky. 1935).

Operator contemplating turn or change of course must look, and if he sees anyone to whom to give signal, he must do so; but he need not give signal if contemplated turn or change of course will not affect anyone. Cook v. Gillespie, 259 Ky. 281, 82 S.W.2d 347, 1935 Ky. LEXIS 307 (Ky. 1935).

This section places a duty upon a driver about to change the course of his vehicle to see that there is sufficient space for the turn to be made in safety and to give a proper signal if it appears that the movement of another vehicle may reasonably be affected. Stockdale v. Eads, 314 Ky. 384, 235 S.W.2d 998, 1951 Ky. LEXIS 661 (Ky. 1951).

The driver of a vehicle is under no duty to give a signal under this section if no vehicle is in sight which might reasonably be affected by the change in direction. Stockdale v. Eads, 314 Ky. 384, 235 S.W.2d 998, 1951 Ky. LEXIS 661 (Ky. 1951).

Where cars approach an intersection from opposite directions and the one which reaches the intersection first intends to make a left turn, the right of way of the car turning and the duty of the other car to yield the right-of-way are secondary to the duty of the turning car to signal his intent to turn. Zogg v. O'Bryan, 314 Ky. 821, 237 S.W.2d 511, 1951 Ky. LEXIS 757 (Ky. 1951).

Signals required under this statute need not be given unless the movement of another vehicle might reasonably be affected by the failure to do so and if an approaching vehicle is not in sight when a turn to the right or left on a highway is made, the flashing of the turn indicator would be a futile gesture. Adams v. Feck, 303 S.W.2d 287, 1957 Ky. LEXIS 247 (Ky. 1957).

This section requires a driver to ascertain whether a turn can be made with reasonable safety and to give a proper signal for a distance of 100 feet before turning. Riley v. Thomas, 310 S.W.2d 49, 1958 Ky. LEXIS 370 (Ky. 1958).

An implicit requirement in this section is that the operator keep a lookout ahead in order to ascertain if he can make his turn with reasonable safety. Jackson v. Shipley, 312 S.W.2d 627, 1958 Ky. LEXIS 237 (Ky. 1958).

Where instruction as to duties under subsections (1) and (2) of this section was given with respect to driver of lead car it was not error to refuse to give the same instruction as to driver of following car since the requirement to signal before changing lanes has no application to the following car. Ford v. Robinson, 428 S.W.2d 772, 1968 Ky. LEXIS 725 (Ky. 1968).

The statute imposes a continuing duty on a motorist, after giving his signal, to observe traffic conditions both fore and aft up to the time of actual turning. Lockridge v. Mercer, 438 S.W.2d 486, 1968 Ky. LEXIS 151 (Ky. 1968).

4. — Left Turn.

Arm signal for left-hand turn is for benefit of other vehicles and does not apply where automobile making left turn struck pedestrian. Jefferson's Adm'x v. Baker, 232 Ky. 98, 22 S.W.2d 448, 1929 Ky. LEXIS 399 (Ky. 1929).

Driver of automobile was not liable for making left turn into side road without having sufficient space therefor, where uncontradicted evidence was that there was sufficient space and evidence indicated that collision occurred because driver of trailing car disregarded signal given by driver of leading car and sought to pass to his left. White v. McClintock-Field Co., 242 Ky. 688, 47 S.W.2d 527, 1932 Ky. LEXIS 346 (Ky. 1932).

Motorist was entitled to make left turn across highway when other car was approaching, and could assume that other car was not being driven at speed greater than was reasonable and proper. Rutherford v. Smith, 284 Ky. 592, 145 S.W.2d 533, 1940 Ky. LEXIS 548 (Ky. 1940).

Evidence that plaintiff was driving at more than 40 miles per hour in a congested area justified finding by jury that he was contributorily negligent in collision with approaching automobile which turned to the left across the road in front of plaintiff's car. Hilsenrad v. Bowling, 292 Ky. 368, 166 S.W.2d 847, 1942 Ky. LEXIS 96 (Ky. 1942).

Where a driver approaching an intersection through which he had the right-of-way saw a bus about 80 feet from the intersection coming toward the intersection from the opposite direction and also having the right-of-way, thought the bus was going to stop at the intersection, and made a left turn in the intersection colliding with the bus which was about in the middle of the intersection at the time of impact, the driver was contributorily negligent as a matter of law. Louisville Transit Co. v. Gipe, 277 S.W.2d 52, 1955 Ky. LEXIS 464 (Ky. 1955).

Where one motorist attempted to pass another within 100 feet of an intersection, the other attempted a left turn at the intersection, and they collided, both were guilty of negligence contributing to the accident and neither should recover. Garnett v. Hicks, 333 S.W.2d 509, 1960 Ky. LEXIS 193 (Ky. 1960), overruled, Dr. Pepper Bottling Co. v. Ricks, 376 S.W.2d 299, 1964 Ky. LEXIS 443 (Ky. 1964).

When there is nothing to prevent a left turning driver from observing the imminent approach of a vehicle which is traveling in a straight course, the left turning driver is negligent as a matter of law when a collision results. Covington v. Friend

Tractor & Motor Co., 547 S.W.2d 771, 1977 Ky. App. LEXIS 634 (Ky. Ct. App. 1977).

The driver of an automobile seeking to make a left turn across the projected path of oncoming traffic must yield the right-of-way unless and until it appears to him in the exercise of ordinary care that the left turn can be made in reasonable safety. Covington v. Friend Tractor & Motor Co., 547 S.W.2d 771, 1977 Ky. App. LEXIS 634 (Ky. Ct. App. 1977).

5. — — — Failure to Signal.

Driver who signaled intention only 50 feet before making left turn across highway was guilty of negligence per se. Rutherford v. Smith, 284 Ky. 592, 145 S.W.2d 533, 1940 Ky. LEXIS 548 (Ky. 1940).

Whether motorist making left turn to enter intersecting street was guilty of negligence proximately causing collision was jury question, where evidence showed that he was going about 12 miles per hour and extended arm when about 50 feet before making turn and that oncoming car was going about 70 miles an hour and struck rear of his automobile. Rutherford v. Smith, 284 Ky. 592, 145 S.W.2d 533, 1940 Ky. LEXIS 548 (Ky. 1940).

In action against motorist for alleged negligence in making left turn across highway, in which motorist filed counterclaim, favorable verdict on counterclaim showed that his negligence in not giving signal at proper distance before making turn was not proximate cause of collision. Rutherford v. Smith, 284 Ky. 592, 145 S.W.2d 533, 1940 Ky. LEXIS 548 (Ky. 1940).

Contributory negligence of driver of automobile following other car barred recovery as matter of law, where driver was going at 35 to 50 miles per hour when following other car which was slowing down to turn into side street, and where, without slackening speed, he attempted to pass it, and collided with oncoming truck, despite some evidence that motorist in other car did not give signal of intention to turn. Peden's Adm'r v. Reynolds, 287 Ky. 641, 154 S.W.2d 708, 1941 Ky. LEXIS 595 (Ky. 1941).

Where the evidence established that the defendant's driver turned to left across highway without maintaining a proper lookout or proper signal, and at a time when plaintiff's oncoming car was but 80 feet away, the proximate cause of the collision with the approaching car was the negligence of the defendant's driver, notwithstanding plaintiff's possible violation of the federal speed limit. Davis v. Kunkle, 302 Ky. 258, 194 S.W.2d 513, 1946 Ky. LEXIS 653 (Ky. 1946).

In an action for personal injuries, where motorist coming over crest of hill struck defendant's automobile making a left turn across highway into private driveway, and subsequently struck plaintiff's automobile following defendant, conflicting evidence as to whether defendant gave proper signal for making turn and whether his failure, if any, to give signal was the proximate cause of the collision, was for the jury. Wilburn v. Simons, 302 Ky. 752, 196 S.W.2d 356, 1946 Ky. LEXIS 744 (Ky. 1946).

Where a motorist turned left in front of another motorist trying to pass him from the rear, resulting in a collision, the trial court erred in instructing the jury that the passing motorist could fulfill his duty under KRS 189.340 by notice other than sounding his horn, such as by signaling with his lights. However, this was not reversible error, because the evidence that the turning motorist's failure to signal for the required distance before turning was the proximate cause of the accident and was sufficient to sustain the verdict for the passing motorist. Victory Cab Co. v. Watson, 238 S.W.2d 1004, 1951 Ky. LEXIS 831 (Ky. 1951).

Instruction that if defendant manifested an intention to make a left turn by getting over on the left side of the road and then abandoned making such a movement and returned wholly to his right side, he was obligated under this section to give the statutory signal before turning back to the right, and, also, not to stop his vehicle abruptly immediately in front of another vehicle was not error. McCoy v. Carter, 323 S.W.2d 210, 1959 Ky. LEXIS 323 (Ky. 1959).

In an action for personal injuries and property damage by automobile driver and her passenger, defendant truck driver was entitled to a directed verdict where the automobile driver had stopped on the right-hand side of the road directly opposite a private driveway and then turned left across the highway directly in front of the truck approaching from the opposite direction since the truck driver had the right to assume that the automobile driver would give a signal if she was going to turn left and would not violate this section by turning until she could do so with reasonable safety. Hollar v. Harrison, 323 S.W.2d 219, 1959 Ky. LEXIS 324 (Ky. 1959).

Question of contributory negligence in observing presence of motorist and giving left turn signal was for jury where plaintiff truck driver was making left turn into junk yard and motorist who was attempting to pass truck collided with it. Collett v. Taylor, 383 S.W.2d 692, 1964 Ky. LEXIS 59 (Ky. 1964).

6. — — — Reasonable Safety.

Although he has signaled his intention to make a left turn, a motorist may make such a turn only when it may be done in reasonable safety, thus where a motorist so signaled then turned in front of a truck which hit his car and then ran into a building damaging both vehicles, the building, and injuring an occupant of the building and the only negligence alleged against the truck driver was his failure to steer around the motorist, the trial court erred in not directing the verdict in favor of the truck driver and owner as against the motorist and other injured parties. Smith v. Sizemore, 300 S.W.2d 225, 1957 Ky. LEXIS 442 (Ky. 1957).

Where driver testified he first observed approaching car when it came over a rise 1,000 feet away and that it then looked to him to be going at a "pretty fast rate of speed" he must have known he could not venture a left turn with reasonable safety. Wandling v. Wandling, 357 S.W.2d 857, 1962 Ky. LEXIS 150 (Ky. 1962).

In action based on collision between car passing another which was making left turn, instruction requiring that operator refrain from turning vehicle until turn could be made with reasonable safety, should be given. Salyer v. Booher, 419 S.W.2d 533, 1967 Ky. LEXIS 152 (Ky. 1967).

The plaintiff was negligent as a matter of law in turning across the defendant's lane of traffic when the defendant was so close that the turn could not be made with reasonable safety. Hall v. King, 432 S.W.2d 394, 1968 Ky. LEXIS 324 (Ky. 1968).

The defendant driver was negligent where he began a left turn, stopped because a car following him started to pass him and then completed the turn although he knew a car was approaching him when he first began the turn. Gentry v. Peak, 436 S.W.2d 785, 1969 Ky. LEXIS 488 (Ky. 1969).

Where testimony of witnesses indicated that left-turning motorist's view of oncoming vehicle was obstructed by other vehicles in left-hand lane of oncoming traffic and that oncoming automobile was in that left-hand lane until it neared the intersection at which time it moved to the right-hand lane, left-turning motorist did not breach her duty to see that her turn could be made with reasonable safety. Compton v. Johnson, 522 S.W.2d 448, 1975 Ky. LEXIS 135 (Ky. 1975).

Although subsection (1) of this section enjoins a driver from turning a vehicle to the right or left "until such movement can be made with reasonable safety," this duty is not absolute in the sense that any collision itself proves conclusively that the turn could not be made with reasonable safety. Mason v. Keltner, 854 S.W.2d 780, 1992 Ky. App. LEXIS 199 (Ky. Ct. App. 1992).

7. — — — Right Turn.

Holding out right arm from jeep 25 feet before right turn could not be considered to have complied with this section and to have been sufficient to have given overtaking vehicle clear chance to avoid collision with turning vehicle. Riley v. Thomas, 310 S.W.2d 49, 1958 Ky. LEXIS 370 (Ky. 1958).

8. — U-turn.

Under subsection (2) of this section motorist before making U-turn should see that movement could be made in safety and, if it appeared that operation of other car might reasonably be affected, should give plainly visible signals by use of arm or of electrical or mechanical device. Marsee v. Bates, 235 Ky. 60, 29 S.W.2d 632, 1930 Ky. LEXIS 310 (Ky. 1930).

9. — Control of Vehicle.

The jury could determine from the evidence, although certain portions of it were in conflict, that plaintiff acted as an ordinarily prudent man in the operation of his vehicle in the face of the extraordinary hazard with which he was confronted when he drove into a curve and was suddenly confronted by an automobile stopped for highway construction. Adams Constr. Corp. v. Short, 324 S.W.2d 118, 1959 Ky. LEXIS 352 (Ky. 1959) (decided under prior law).

10. — Reasonable Space.

Before turning his automobile driver must see that there is sufficient space to make such turn in safety, and, if jury believes that operation of another vehicle would reasonably be affected, he must give visible signal of intention to turn by extending arm. Mendel v. Dorman, 202 Ky. 29, 258 S.W. 936, 1924 Ky. LEXIS 659 (Ky. 1924) (decision prior to 1950 amendment).

11. Duties of Other Drivers.

In rear-end collision, where leading automobile started to pass car ahead but desisted and sought to regain position, following bus driver was not exculpated as matter of law, since, even if motorist checked speed, and did not signal before turning back, bus driver was required to operate carefully, including regulation of speed. Consolidated Coach Corp. v. Saunders, 229 Ky. 284, 17 S.W.2d 233, 1929 Ky. LEXIS 758 (Ky. 1929).

Where statute imposes duties upon operators to give signals relative to turning, stopping, or changing course, the operators of trailing or approaching vehicles must heed such signals. Wright v. Clausen, 253 Ky. 498, 69 S.W.2d 1062, 1934 Ky. LEXIS 712 (Ky. 1934). See Cook v. Gillespie, 259 Ky. 281, 82 S.W.2d 347, 1935 Ky. LEXIS 307 (Ky. 1935).

A driver is under no duty to foresee that the driver directly ahead may suddenly slow down or stop without first giving the statutory signal, but he must use ordinary care to avoid striking the automobile ahead. Vinson v. Kissinger's Adm'r, 274 Ky. 606, 119 S.W.2d 628, 1938 Ky. LEXIS 296 (Ky. 1938).

12. Traveling in Own Lane.

Under this section and KRS 189.300 a driver is not authorized by law to travel in other than his own lane without showing that he was passing or forced out and instruction that "It was his (Sensen, the truck driver's) duty not to pull to the left of the highway after James H. Devore in driving his car had started to pass until said Devore had passed, if you believe he did so attempt to pass" was not erroneous. Carnation Co. v. Devore, 252 S.W.2d 860, 1952 Ky. LEXIS 1026 (Ky. 1952).

An instruction authorizing plaintiff's recovery, if the plaintiff, who turned into the left lane to pass a tractor and was hit from behind by defendant, had been driving in the left lane for a sufficient distance for the defendant in the exercise of ordinary care to avoid him, properly presented the question of whether the plaintiff had made his move to the left lane with reasonable safety. Weaver v. Caudill, 375 S.W.2d 712, 1964 Ky. LEXIS 432 (Ky. 1964).

Even if this section was intended to cover deviations of direction in one's own lane of traffic, an instruction given under subsections (1) and (2) of this section requiring a minor bicycle rider "to exercise ordinary care not to turn his bicycle from a direct course upon the highway unless and until such movement could be made with reasonable safety and not to turn his bicycle to the left if any other vehicle could be affected by such movement without giving a signal to turn left by extending his hand and arm horizontally for at least the last 100 feet traveled by his bicycle before turning" was prejudicial where the bicycle rider admittedly was in his own lane of traffic, close to the shoulder of the road and had no statutory warning of the approach of automobile when accident happened. Lareau v. Trader, 403 S.W.2d 265, 1965 Ky. LEXIS 7 (Ky. 1965).

13. Pedestrians.

Where a plaintiff pedestrian was struck by defendant's motor vehicle as it made a left turn while he was crossing the street in compliance with the automatic traffic signal, a verdict should have been directed for the plaintiff. Railway Express Agency v. Bailey, 310 Ky. 781, 220 S.W.2d 997, 1949 Ky. LEXIS 946 (Ky. 1949).

Where pedestrian was not guilty of any negligence nor was accident unavoidable he was entitled to a directed verdict except as to damages and on appeal, court could not consider lower court's instructions concerning hand signals and sounding horn. Railway Express Agency v. Bailey, 310 Ky. 781, 220 S.W.2d 997, 1949 Ky. LEXIS 946 (Ky. 1949).

Operator of motor vehicle was not required to sound his horn before making a left turn where no pedestrian would be affected. Victory Cab Co. v. Watson, 238 S.W.2d 1004, 1951 Ky. LEXIS 831 (Ky. 1951).

14. Failure to Signal.

Failure of driver to signal continuously for the last 100 feet before turning to the left across the highway was negligence, but where there was evidence that approaching car with which she collided was 600 feet away when she started the turn, and that the approaching car was traveling at an excessive rate of speed, the question whether her negligence was the proximate cause of the collision was for the jury. Hilsenrad v. Bowling, 292 Ky. 368, 166 S.W.2d 847, 1942 Ky. LEXIS 96 (Ky. 1942).

Technical negligence of defendant driver in failing to comply with the requirement of this section of giving left-turn signal a full 100 feet before reaching intersection was not the proximate cause of truck jackknifing into front of store. Sanders Trucking Co. v. King, 313 Ky. 29, 230 S.W.2d 87, 1950 Ky. LEXIS 801 (Ky. 1950).

Where truck driver was attempting to pass defendant's automobile within 100 feet of an intersection when defendant signalled her intent to turn left about 15 to 20 feet before reaching the intersection, the truck driver sounded his horn and attempted to return to the right-hand lane, thus losing control of the truck causing it to crash into a building, and the defendant continued straight through the intersection, the negligence of the truck driver was the primary cause of the accident. Sanders Trucking Co. v. King, 313 Ky. 29, 230 S.W.2d 87, 1950 Ky. LEXIS 801 (Ky. 1950).

Circuit court erred in granting defendant's motion to suppress evidence of marijuana and cocaine seized during a traffic stop, because a police officer had probable cause for the traffic stop based upon defendant's failure to signal a lane change in violation of KRS 189.380. Commonwealth v. Fowler, 409 S.W.3d 355, 2012 Ky. App. LEXIS 187 (Ky. Ct. App. 2012).

15. Stopping.

Stopping automobile without first ascertaining whether movement of other vehicles, including following truck, would reasonably be affected would be negligence, precluding recovery unless driver of following truck, who owed duty of lookout, saw or should have seen the peril to car ahead in time to avoid injuring it by exercising ordinary care. Jellico Grocery Co. v.

Biggs, 252 Ky. 827, 68 S.W.2d 429, 1934 Ky. LEXIS 870 (Ky. 1934).

Where defendant brought her car to abrupt stop on highway, at point where there had been a wreck and a car overturned on the edge of the highway, without any signal of her intention to do so and plaintiff's truck being unable to go to the left of defendant's car as another vehicle was approaching from the opposite direction was forced in order to avoid a collision to run off the right side of the road thereby overturning the truck facts did not show emergency requiring defendant to stop suddenly without giving signal. Fahrenholtz v. Loomis, 280 Ky. 9, 132 S.W.2d 307, 1939 Ky. LEXIS 49 (Ky. 1939).

Where plaintiff's claim was that defendant backed his truck into plaintiff's auto after stopping on hill, trial court had no duty to instruct jury as to defendant's duty to signal his intention to stop, since failure to signal could not have been cause of collision. Vale v. Illinois Pipe Line Co., 281 Ky. 1, 134 S.W.2d 940, 1939 Ky. LEXIS 2 (Ky. 1939).

In action for injuries arising out of a motor vehicular accident allegedly caused by the defendant operating his car from the berm of a highway into the path of the plaintiff's car causing the plaintiff to lose control, the trial court erred in directing the verdict against the defendant where he testified that he was 700 feet in front of the plaintiff's car when he pulled onto the traveled portion of the highway and the driver of the plaintiff's car admitted seeing defendant's car by the road and that she knew that he would drive back onto the road after he picked up a passenger. Hargis v. Noel, 310 Ky. 542, 221 S.W.2d 94, 1949 Ky. LEXIS 969 (Ky. 1949).

Where there was conflict in the evidence as to whether a "stop" signal was flashed on the rear of defendant's car as it was brought to a stop, an instruction requiring defendant to stop for bus could not have been prejudicial to plaintiff. Davis v. McFarland, 265 S.W.2d 66, 1954 Ky. LEXIS 718 (Ky. 1954).

Taillights activated by the sudden application of brakes are not an appropriate warning of the intention to stop suddenly for the sole purpose of aiding a pedestrian. Hainline v. Hukill, 383 S.W.2d 353, 1964 Ky. LEXIS 35 (Ky. 1964).

Where motorist on approaching heavily traveled expressway stopped, then moved forward a short distance before stopping again, he was not required to give a hand signal, and operator of vehicle colliding with rear end of auto when so stopped was negligent. Massingille v. Meridith, 408 S.W.2d 209, 1966 Ky. LEXIS 92 (Ky. 1966).

16. Decreasing Speed.

In sudden emergencies, acts which might violate normal duties are not always negligent acts and where automobile made a sudden right turn without a signal and car behind it slowed down and pulled into passing lane to avoid striking it and car behind second car suddenly slowed without giving a signal as required by subsection (3) of this section and was struck in the rear by a tractor-trailer the truck driver was not negligent as a matter of law and the question of whether there was causative negligence should have been submitted to the jury. Lucas v. Davis, 409 S.W.2d 297, 1966 Ky. LEXIS 54 (Ky. 1966).

17. Methods of Signalling.

Fines paid by truck operator for failing to have truck equipped with turn signals were deductible from gross income as ordinary and necessary business expense where statute was later construed as not requiring the mechanical device if truck driver gave a hand signal since the allowance would not frustrate any clearly defined public policy. Hoover Motor Express Co. v. United States, 135 F. Supp. 818, 1955 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 2659 (M.D. Tenn. 1955), aff'd, 241 F.2d 459, 1957 U.S. App. LEXIS 4296 (6th Cir. Tenn. 1957).

Signals required by this section may be given either by hand or by automatic signals, thus the trial court erred in giving an instruction that a hand signal was required without also stating that an automatic light signal was sufficient. Ellis v. McCubbins, 312 Ky. 837, 229 S.W.2d 992, 1950 Ky. LEXIS 787 (Ky. 1950).

The signal to turn or stop required by this section may be given by either hand and arm or by an electrical device; both are not required. Anderson v. Shields, 314 Ky. 228, 234 S.W.2d 739, 1950 Ky. LEXIS 1064 (Ky. 1950).

18. Instructions.

In head-on collision case where evidence whether accident happened on curve was conflicting, instruction following words of statute and imposing duty on driver to give warning if he was approaching a curve or obstruction to view of distance ahead of at least 150 feet was proper. Berryman v. Worthington, 240 Ky. 756, 43 S.W.2d 5, 1931 Ky. LEXIS 490 (Ky. 1931) (decided under prior law).

If defendant wished instruction upon statute requiring certain signals before turning if movement of other vehicles would reasonably be affected, he should have requested it, in view of plaintiff's evidence that no car was in sight when turn was made. Sweazy v. King, 248 Ky. 432, 58 S.W.2d 659, 1933 Ky. LEXIS 255 (Ky. 1933).

In action involving overtaking and passing cars instruction on turning signals by leading car was erroneous, where it assumed that leading car had commenced to turn, but did not submit issue that turn had not started when collision occurred. Perkins v. Stevenson, 268 Ky. 692, 105 S.W.2d 832, 1937 Ky. LEXIS 518 (Ky. 1937).

Where the instruction qualified the statutory designation of acceptable signals by the phrase "other than the stop lights on the rear of an automobile which are normally activated by pressure upon the brake pedal," such qualification was too restrictive and not proper. Sorg v. Purvis, 487 S.W.2d 943, 1972 Ky. LEXIS 97 (Ky. 1972).

The words, "unless and until" in subsection (1) of this section should be phrased in the instructions as "unless and until it appeared to him in the exercise of ordinary care that such movement could be made with reasonable safety". Compton v. Johnson, 522 S.W.2d 448, 1975 Ky. LEXIS 135 (Ky. 1975).

In action brought by passenger in oncoming vehicle against left-turning motorist for injuries sustained in automobile accident, instruction to the jury that left-turning motorist's duty was not to make the turn if it reasonably appeared that the movement might affect the movement of the oncoming vehicle was not erroneous. Compton v. Johnson, 522 S.W.2d 448, 1975 Ky. LEXIS 135 (Ky. 1975).

19. Standard of Care.

Whether a change of course can be executed by the motorist with reasonable safety is to be judged by the standard of ordinary care. Compton v. Johnson, 522 S.W.2d 448, 1975 Ky. LEXIS 135 (Ky. 1975).

(2) For speeding in excess of the speeds shown on the specific fine schedule the fine shall be not less than sixty dollars ($60) nor more than one hundred dollars ($100).

(3) For any violation shown on the chart for which a specific fine is prescribed, the defendant may elect to pay the fine and court costs to the circuit clerk before the date of his trial or to be tried in the normal manner. Payment of the fine and court costs to the clerk shall be considered as a plea of guilty for all purposes.

(4) If the offense charged shows a speed in excess of the speeds shown on the specific fine schedule the defendant shall appear for trial and may not pay the fine to the clerk before the trial date.

(5) If the offense occurred in an area near a school where flasher lights have been installed and are flashing, and a speed limit has been set pursuant to KRS 189.336, the fine established by subsection (1) or (2) of this section shall be doubled.

Kentucky Instructions To Juries (Criminal), 5th Ed., Offenses Against Public Order, Safety and Morals, Part 4 Offenses Relating to Firearms and Destructive Devices, §§ 8.70A, 8.70B.

189.450. Stopping, standing, parking, or repairing vehicle on roadway or shoulders of highway.

(1) No person shall stop a vehicle, leave it standing, or cause it to stop or to be left standing upon any portion of the roadway; provided, however, that this section shall not be construed to prevent parking in front of a private residence off the roadway or street in a city or suburban area where such parking is otherwise permitted, as long as the vehicle so parked does not impede the flow of traffic. This subsection shall not apply to:

(a) A vehicle that has been disabled on the right-of-way of such a highway in such a manner and to such extent that it is impossible to avoid the occupation of the shoulder of a state-maintained highway or impracticable to remove it from the shoulder of the highway until repairs have been made or sufficient help obtained for its removal. In no event shall a disabled vehicle remain on the shoulder of a state-maintained highway for twenty-four (24) hours or more;

(b) Motor vehicles when required to stop in obedience to the provisions of any section of the Kentucky Revised Statutes or any traffic ordinance, regulation, or sign or the command of any peace officer;

(c) Vehicles operating as common carriers of passengers for hire and school buses taking passengers on such vehicle or discharging passengers therefrom; provided, that no such vehicle shall stop for such purposes at a place on the highway which does not afford reasonable visibility to approaching motor vehicles from both directions;

(d) Vehicles which are stopped for a period of not more than fifteen (15) minutes at a time for the purpose of collecting and transporting solid waste as defined in KRS 224.1-010(30) (a), and which are operated by a:

1. Collection service registered in accordance with KRS 224.43-315; or

2. Person or organization actively participating in the Adopt-a-Highway Program; or

(e) Any vehicle required to stop by reason of an obstruction to its progress.

(2) When any police officer finds a vehicle standing upon such a highway in violation of this section, he may move or cause to be moved the vehicle or require the operator or other person in charge of the vehicle to move it. The police officer may cause the vehicle to be removed by ordering any person engaged in the business of storing or towing motor vehicles to remove the vehicle to a site chosen by such person. Ownership of the vehicle shall be determined by the police officer's enforcement agency through the vehicle's license plates, serial number, or other means of determining ownership. As soon as practicable, the police officer's enforcement agency shall notify the owner by mail that the vehicle was illegally upon public property; the name and address of the storage facility where the vehicle is located; that removal of the vehicle from the storage facility will involve payment of towing and storage charges; and that the vehicle may be sold pursuant to the provisions of KRS 376.275 if not claimed within sixty (60) days. No notification shall be required if ownership cannot be determined. In the event of a sale pursuant to KRS 376.275, the state shall receive any proceeds after the satisfaction of all liens placed on the vehicle.

(3) No vehicle shall be parked, stopped, or allowed to stand on the shoulders of any toll road, interstate highway, or other fully controlled access highway, including ramps thereto, nor shall any vehicle registered at a gross weight of over forty-four thousand (44,000) pounds be parked, stopped, or allowed to stand on the shoulders of any state-maintained highway, except that, in the case of emergency or in response to a peace officer's signal, vehicles shall be permitted to stop on the shoulders to the right of the traveled way with all wheels and projecting parts of the vehicles, including the load, completely clear of the traveled way. Parking of any vehicle which is disabled on the shoulders of a toll road, interstate highway, other fully controlled access highway, including ramps thereto, or any state-maintained highway not mentioned in this section for twenty-four (24) hours continuously is prohibited and vehicles violating this provision may be towed away at the cost of the owner.

(4) When any police officer finds a vehicle unattended upon any bridge or causeway or in a tunnel where the vehicle constitutes an obstruction to traffic, the officer may provide for the removal of the vehicle to the nearest garage or other place of safety as provided in subsection (2) of this section.

(5) No person shall stop or park a vehicle except when necessary to avoid conflict with other traffic or in compliance with the directions of a police officer or traffic control device, in the following places:

- (a) On a sidewalk;
- (b) In front of sidewalk ramps provided for persons with disabilities;
- (c) In front of a public or private driveway;
- (d) Within an intersection or on a crosswalk;
- (e) At any place where official signs prohibit stopping or parking;
- (f) Within thirty (30) feet upon the approach to any flashing beacon, stop sign, or traffic control signal located at the side of a roadway;
- (g) On any controlled access highway;
- (h) Within a highway tunnel;
- (i) Within fifteen (15) feet of a fire hydrant; or
- (j) In an area between the roadways of a divided highway.

(6) No person shall move a vehicle not lawfully under his control into any such prohibited area.

(7) The restrictions in subsection (5)(e) of this section shall not apply to sheriffs and their deputies or police officers when operating properly identified vehicles during performance of their official duties.

1. Purpose.

Although this section related to stopping of motor vehicles to make repairs or for passengers, its purpose was to prevent a person from leaving a motor vehicle standing on a main traveled portion of a public highway. Bradley v. Clarke, 219 Ky. 438, 293 S.W. 1082, 1927 Ky. LEXIS 391 (Ky. 1927).

Apparently this section relates to the stopping of a motor vehicle for the purpose of making repairs or taking on or discharging passengers, but the purpose of the statute undoubtedly was to prevent any person from stopping a motor vehicle and leaving it standing on a main traveled portion of any public highway. Hendricks v. Garst, 314 Ky. 49, 234 S.W.2d 160, 1950 Ky. LEXIS 1009 (Ky. 1950).

Purpose of this section was to prevent any person from stopping a motor vehicle and leaving it standing on main traveled portion of a highway and one who parks his car in such a position has burden of showing that he is within the exceptions stated in the statute. Bosshammer v. Lawton, 237 S.W.2d 520, 1951 Ky. LEXIS 759 (Ky. 1951).

The purpose of this section is to prevent the highway from being obstructed by stationary vehicles, and one leaving a vehicle standing on the highway has the burden of showing that he comes within one of the exceptions enumerated therein. Banner Transfer Co. v. Morse, 274 S.W.2d 380, 1954 Ky. LEXIS 1226 (Ky. 1954).

2. Construction.

Subsection (1) of this section is not limited by subsection (4) (now (5)). The latter subsection is aimed primarily at stopping or parking off the main traveled portion of a highway. Jack Cole Co. v. Hoff, 274 S.W.2d 658, 1954 Ky. LEXIS 1236 (Ky. 1954).

3. Application.

This section does not apply to state highway within residential district of city. Cottrell v. Martin A. Ceder, Inc., 376 S.W.2d 536, 1964 Ky. LEXIS 457 (Ky. 1964).

Although this section does not apply to city streets, the exemption does not extend to counties even though they contain suburban areas. Evans v. Lorenz, 454 S.W.2d 691, 1969 Ky. LEXIS 10 (Ky. 1969).

This section is applicable to suburban streets in unincorporated areas. Wheeler v. Creekmore, 469 S.W.2d 559, 1971 Ky. LEXIS 304 (Ky. 1971).

Police officer was not exempt pursuant to KRS 189.450(7) from the requirements of KRS 189.430 that required all motor vehicle operators to stop the engine and take the keys to the ignition when exiting the vehicle. Fact that the officer was investigating an accident scene did not exempt him from this duty imposed on all drivers. Pile v. City of Brandenburg, 215 S.W.3d 36, 2006 Ky. LEXIS 322 (Ky. 2006).

State statute prohibiting parking on a roadway under KRS 189.450 prevailed over a municipal ordinance pursuant to KRS 82.082 because the ordinance conflicted with the state provision. Norton v. Canadian Am. Tank Lines, 2009 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 2184 (W.D. Ky. Jan. 12, 2009).

4. Stopping on Highway.

While stopping a vehicle on the main traveled portion of a highway is negligence per se, it does not create liability unless such stopping was a proximate cause of the injury. Michael v. United States, 338 F.2d 219, 1964 U.S. App. LEXIS 3861 (6th Cir. Ky. 1964).

Truck driver forced to stop truck on highway in order to make switch to auxiliary gasoline tank was not negligent in stopping on right-hand side of highway which, though having a slight upgrade, was straight at that point. Freeman v. W. T. Sistrunk & Co., 312 Ky. 438, 227 S.W.2d 979, 1950 Ky. LEXIS 665 (Ky. 1950), overruled in part, Mitchell v. Doolittle, 429 S.W.2d 862, 1968 Ky. LEXIS 765 (Ky. 1968), but see, Mitchell v. Doolittle, 429 S.W.2d 862, 1968 Ky. LEXIS 765 (Ky. 1968).

Where plaintiff was driving 30 to 35 miles per hour at night in heavy fog and struck defendant's automobile which was stopped in the plaintiff's lane with the lights burning, the trial court erred in directing the verdict for the plaintiff and should have submitted the question to the jury on the question of proximate cause. Burnett v. Yurt, 247 S.W.2d 227, 1952 Ky. LEXIS 683 (Ky. 1952).

Questions of whether the taillights of car rammed in the rear were on and of contributory negligence of motorist hitting the car in the rear were for the jury where the evidence was conflicting and the driver of the car hit in the rear denied he was stopped on the highway in violation of this section and that his taillights were not on but testified he was traveling very slowly hunting a place to stop for he had noticed a car in the ditch along his right side of the highway. Richardson v. Baker, 251 S.W.2d 858, 1952 Ky. LEXIS 939 (Ky. 1952).

Where a vehicle operator stopped his car on the traveled portion of the highway because the hood flew up and obstructed his vision and he remained on highway for 15 minutes or longer when the evidence showed that the car could have been driven off the traveled portion of the road with a minimum of care, he was negligent as a matter of law. Mullins v. Bullens, 383 S.W.2d 130, 1964 Ky. LEXIS 15 (Ky. 1964).

Where highway employe stopped highway truck on traveled portion of the highway and failed to put out signs and by reason thereof an injury was occasioned to a traveler on the highway, the highway employe was liable for negligence. Dixie Transport Co. v. Reed, 386 S.W.2d 735, 1964 Ky. LEXIS 177 (Ky. 1964).

Where the plaintiff struck a state police car that had slowed in the driving lane to signal to an approaching wrecker to direct him to a disabled vehicle, the wrecker did not come under the exceptions to the prohibition against stopping on a highway because the wrecker was not "at the scene of" an accident. Williams v. Chilton, 427 S.W.2d 586, 1968 Ky. LEXIS 687 (Ky. 1968), overruled in part, Hilen v. Hays, 673 S.W.2d 713, 1984 Ky. LEXIS 261 (Ky. 1984) (decision prior to 1970 amendment).

Owner of taxi was not liable for injuries to motorist and his car where driver of taxi without owner's knowledge or consent and outside the scope of his duties stopped the taxi in violation of this section to assist the motorist from a ditch and in so doing partially blocked the highway and another automobile struck motorist's automobile and even if it had been in the scope of taxi driver's duties the motorist was grossly negligent where he was present and did not himself place signals warning other travelers of the danger. Brock v. Bennett, 304 Ky. 338, 200 S.W.2d 745, 1947 Ky. LEXIS 635 (Ky. 1947).

A motorist is absolved from his duty not to voluntarily stop on the main traveled portion of the road if his car becomes disabled and it becomes impossible or impracticable not to occupy that portion of the highway. Floyd v. Gray, 657 S.W.2d 936, 1983 Ky. LEXIS 273 (Ky. 1983), limited, Hardin v. Action Graphics, Inc., 57 S.W.3d 844, 2001 Ky. App. LEXIS 7 (Ky. Ct. App. 2001).

Because a truck driver violated KRS 189.450 by parking with his truck extended into a roadway as defined under KRS 189.010, he was negligent as a matter of law under KRS 446.070 and his employer was vicariously liable for plaintiff's injuries resulting from that negligence. Norton v. Canadian Am. Tank Lines, 2009 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 2184 (W.D. Ky. Jan. 12, 2009).

5. — Last Clear Chance.

Open violation of this section and KRS 189.030 and 189.040 in bringing unlighted automobile to rest on left side of center of highway obstructing the entire portion of the right traffic lane would have precluded any recovery plaintiff's estate might otherwise have been entitled to on account of defendant's negligent operation of car with vision restricted by use of lights on low beam driving at a maximum lawful rate of speed at nighttime on a highway known to be heavily traveled except for the last clear chance doctrine but where it was undisputed that no approaching traffic was observed and that no traffic was closely following, defendant could have passed from right traffic lane to the left and avoided the collision. Johnson v. Hunt, 122 F. Supp. 816, 1954 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 3318 (D. Ky. 1954).

Where a driver stopped on the main traveled portion of a highway so that she could back up onto the shoulder of the road and was struck by a following driver after two cars had gone by her in the passing lane, her stopping in violation of this section was a direct and proximate cause of the accident as a matter of law, with the result that she could recover against the following driver only under the last clear chance doctrine while the following driver could recover on his counterclaim if he was not contributorily negligent. Woosley v. Smith, 471 S.W.2d 737, 1971 Ky. LEXIS 262 (Ky. 1971).

6. — Command of Police Officer.

Where a state police officer signaled for an approaching wrecker to slow down so the officer could direct the wrecker to a disabled vehicle, the signal given by the officer was a command within the meaning of the statute but such a signal did not relieve the driver of the wrecker from exercising ordinary care. Williams v. Chilton, 427 S.W.2d 586, 1968 Ky. LEXIS 687 (Ky. 1968), overruled in part, Hilen v. Hays, 673 S.W.2d 713, 1984 Ky. LEXIS 261 (Ky. 1984).

7. Parking.

No liability should be imposed upon truck owners who parked their trucks near curb on city street, in absence of ordinance controlling subject or of evidence of negligent parking. Kimble v. Standard Oil Co., 235 Ky. 169, 30 S.W.2d 890, 1930 Ky. LEXIS 324 (Ky. 1930), limited, Evans v. Lorenz, 454 S.W.2d 691, 1969 Ky. LEXIS 10 (Ky. 1969).

One transporting seven-year-old boy for hire from school to home who stopped on opposite side of city street from home, thus requiring boy to cross street, was negligent as to selecting place to discharge boy, since driver could have stopped on left side next to home. Taylor v. Patterson's Adm'r, 272 Ky. 415, 114 S.W.2d 488, 1938 Ky. LEXIS 131 (Ky. 1938).

Where bus driver, on coming over rise 500 feet from the point where car was parked, sounded his horn and slowed his speed to about 25 miles per hour, but did not sound his horn again until he was within 15 or 20 feet of parked car, second sounding of horn was not sufficient to warn person who was standing beside parked car, and it was a jury question as to whether bus driver used proper diligence in approaching the parked car. Short Way Lines, Inc. v. Sutton's Adm'r, 291 Ky. 541, 164 S.W.2d 809, 1942 Ky. LEXIS 239 (Ky. 1942).

Evidence that truck was parked partly on pavement, on wrong side of road and without lights, was sufficient to take case to jury, notwithstanding some evidence of contributory negligence on part of driver of car that struck truck. Midland Baking Co. v. Kitchen, 293 Ky. 160, 168 S.W.2d 372, 1942 Ky. LEXIS 8 (Ky. 1942).

When a motorist collided with rear of defendant's wrecker which was parked without flares on traveled portion of highway on rainy, foggy night in front of a private driveway and less than 150 feet from brow of a hill in violation of this section and the motorist saw lights on rear of wrecker before accident occurred, question of proximate cause of collision should have been submitted to jury. Carpenter v. Page Bros. Motor Co., 242 S.W.2d 993, 1951 Ky. LEXIS 1094 (Ky. 1951) (decision prior to 1970 amendment).

Where wrecker was parked on straight level stretch of highway and no brow of a hill or other obstruction interfered with driver's view, instruction on this section presented false issue unrelated to facts of the case. Harry Holder Motor Co. v. Davidson, 243 S.W.2d 926, 1951 Ky. LEXIS 1188 (Ky. 1951) (decision prior to 1970 amendment).

A sixth-class city may by ordinance properly prohibit parking in front of a bus station from 15 minutes before a bus is due until it leaves, may require the bus company to post signs showing the times at which buses arrive, and allow a bus to protrude into an intersection when parked where the bus company is required to have someone at the intersection to direct traffic when a bus is so protruding. Gibson v. Hardinsburg, 247 S.W.2d 31, 1952 Ky. LEXIS 662 (Ky. 1952).

Under this section in the absence of a city ordinance or lawful police regulation, authorized by ordinance prohibiting parking, a person may lawfully park in a proper manner on a city street in the daytime. Duff v. Lykins, 306 S.W.2d 252, 1957 Ky. LEXIS 21 (Ky. 1957), limited, Evans v. Lorenz, 454 S.W.2d 691, 1969 Ky. LEXIS 10 (Ky. 1969).

In litigation growing out of collision of two trucks allegedly caused by parking of a third truck on the highway on a curve in ice and snow in violation of this section, which was admitted, and questions of negligence, contributory negligence and unavoidable accident under the circumstances were submitted to the jury and not complained of by motorist violating the section, court on appeal concluded the proof supported the jury's finding and award. Peck v. Hickman, 321 S.W.2d 395, 1959 Ky. LEXIS 277 (Ky. 1959).

Where the driver of defendant's truck stopped the truck partially in the eastbound lane of a two-lane road and another agent of the defendant parked a car in the middle of the road beside the truck so that the car lights blinded approaching eastbound drivers, the parking of the car was negligent as a matter of law. Duncan v. Wiseman Baking Co., 357 S.W.2d 694, 1961 Ky. LEXIS 27 (Ky. 1961).

Although party was clearly negligent in having his auto parked partly on traveled portion of highway, contributory negligence of one colliding with it would prevent recovery. Russell v. Prater, 419 S.W.2d 764, 1967 Ky. LEXIS 193 (Ky. 1967).

8. — Near Highway.

One who in nighttime was working on his automobile which was not standing on paved, traveled portion of county highway and had lights burning was not contributorily negligent as matter of law when struck by rapidly moving truck. Glasgow Ice Cream Co. v. Fults' Adm'r, 268 Ky. 447, 105 S.W.2d 135, 1937 Ky. LEXIS 472 (Ky. 1937).

Presence of parked car on side of road is notice or warning to other vehicle operators that someone might be about the car and in a place of danger. Short Way Lines, Inc. v. Sutton's Adm'r, 291 Ky. 541, 164 S.W.2d 809, 1942 Ky. LEXIS 239 (Ky. 1942).

Where a highway divided to form a "v," the middle of which was customarily used as a parking area although not officially so marked, and the traveled portions of the highway were well defined on either side of this middle area, the parking of a bus in this middle area well off of the traveled portions of the highway was not negligent. Howard v. Fowler, 306 Ky. 567, 207 S.W.2d 559, 1947 Ky. LEXIS 1016 (Ky. 1947).

If a motorist lawfully may park a vehicle at a particular place in the daytime he reasonably assumes he may leave it there after dark as a parked vehicle. Duff v. Lykins, 306 S.W.2d 252, 1957 Ky. LEXIS 21 (Ky. 1957), limited, Evans v. Lorenz, 454 S.W.2d 691, 1969 Ky. LEXIS 10 (Ky. 1969).

Where the plaintiff had parked his truck one half on the highway and one half on the grass, he had violated this section even though the county had not designated the area as a "no parking area." Evans v. Lorenz, 454 S.W.2d 691, 1969 Ky. LEXIS 10 (Ky. 1969).

Where the plaintiff parked her car in the left-hand lane of a highway and was hit head-on by an approaching car, her actions were a probable cause of the accident. Wheeler v. Creekmore, 469 S.W.2d 559, 1971 Ky. LEXIS 304 (Ky. 1971).

Where trucker parked his truck on shoulder of road in violation of subsection (3) of this section and driver of car who fell asleep at wheel of his car ran into the truck, since evidence was uncontradicted that truck driver's parking on the shoulder created a situation harmless unless acted upon by other forces for which trucker was not responsible, jury was free to conclude that car driver's own negligence was so overwhelming as to negate trucker's negligence. Tennyson v. Brower, 823 F. Supp. 421, 1993 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 8612 (E.D. Ky. 1993).

9. — At Curb.

Operator of "curb service" gasoline service station was not liable for injuries sustained by customer whose auto, parked at curb to receive gasoline, was struck by another auto. Gates v. Kuchle, 281 Ky. 13, 134 S.W.2d 1002, 1939 Ky. LEXIS 19 (Ky. 1939).

Operator of "curb service" gasoline station had no control over street and was not a guarantor of the safety of the street; his operation of station was not an obstruction of the street and he had no duty to warn customer of dangers of parking at curb to receive gasoline, since dangers were equally apparent to customer. Gates v. Kuchle, 281 Ky. 13, 134 S.W.2d 1002, 1939 Ky. LEXIS 19 (Ky. 1939).

If parking at curb to receive gasoline from "curb service" gasoline station was a violation of this section, the negligence arising therefrom could not form the basis of liability on the part of the operator of the station. Gates v. Kuchle, 281 Ky. 13, 134 S.W.2d 1002, 1939 Ky. LEXIS 19 (Ky. 1939).

10. — Wrong Side of Highway.

Truck driver was guilty of negligence where he parked truck on wrong side of country highway with headlights burning and because of fog and darkness oncoming motorist could not locate side of highway on which it was located and believed it was moving. Padgett v. Brangan, 228 Ky. 440, 15 S.W.2d 277, 1929 Ky. LEXIS 569 (Ky. 1929).

11. — Driveway.

A property owner may not park on a public street so as to block his own drive. Allsmiller v. Johnson, 309 Ky. 695, 218 S.W.2d 28, 1949 Ky. LEXIS 738 (Ky. 1949).

12. Backing in Emergency Lane.

Where a driver traveling on an interstate highway realized he had missed his exit, pulled to the emergency lane, began backing his automobile, backed onto the highway and was hit from behind by an approaching automobile, he was negligent as a matter of law. Ferguson v. Stevenson, 427 S.W.2d 822, 1968 Ky. LEXIS 698 (Ky. 1968).

13. Ordinary Care.

A mere compliance with the statute or ordinance does not absolve a motorist from negligence if he has failed to exercise ordinary care. O'Donley v. Shelby, 262 S.W.2d 362, 1953 Ky. LEXIS 1085 (Ky. 1953).

14. Passengers.

One who merely accompanied owner of truck, but had nothing to do with its operation and who alighted when it broke down to assist in repairing it, had status of pedestrian, required to use due care for own safety but not responsible for violation, if any, of this section. Tate v. Hall, 247 Ky. 843, 57 S.W.2d 986, 1933 Ky. LEXIS 454 (Ky. 1933).

15. Disabled Vehicles.

This section does not apply where traveling automobile becomes disabled on highway making it impossible to avoid occupying part of road or impracticable to remove car therefrom while being repaired. Tate v. Hall, 247 Ky. 843, 57 S.W.2d 986, 1933 Ky. LEXIS 454 (Ky. 1933).

Heavily loaded truck whose rear wheel came off on highway was within exception against leaving vehicle standing on main traveled portion of highway, and was not liable for rear-end collision with automobile, where truck's rear lights were left burning and flares were placed on highway while operator sought aid for repairs. Stevens' Adm'r v. Watt, 266 Ky. 608, 99 S.W.2d 753, 1936 Ky. LEXIS 717 (Ky. 1936).

Where car had already gotten out of ditch and was moving under its own power at time of collision, there was no reason for instruction relating to disabled cars. Tucker v. Ragland-Potter Co., 285 Ky. 533, 148 S.W.2d 691, 1941 Ky. LEXIS 422 (Ky. 1941).

Under this section it is not negligence to leave a car temporarily upon the main traveled portion of the highway if it is disabled. American Fidelity & Casualty Co. v. Patterson, 243 S.W.2d 472, 1951 Ky. LEXIS 1127 (Ky. 1951).

Where automobile overturned on right side of main traveled portion of highway and driver and passengers went to nearby house, action of driver of automobile in leaving the automobile on the highway was not such negligence as to make her responsible for damages resulting when bus crashed into automobile and caused automobile to strike bystanders. American Fidelity & Casualty Co. v. Patterson, 243 S.W.2d 472, 1951 Ky. LEXIS 1127 (Ky. 1951).

Where a motorist struck a vehicle stopped in the other lane of a two-lane highway for repairs while he was temporarily blinded by the lights of another vehicle, the question of which motorist's negligence was the proximate cause of the collision was properly submitted to the jury. Ashton v. Roop, 244 S.W.2d 727, 1951 Ky. LEXIS 1231 (Ky. 1951).

A disabled vehicle must be removed from the highway unless it is impracticable to do so. Banner Transfer Co. v. Morse, 274 S.W.2d 380, 1954 Ky. LEXIS 1226 (Ky. 1954).

This section does not prevent a vehicle which is disabled from stopping on the main traveled portion of a highway. Smith v. Collins, 277 S.W.2d 38, 1955 Ky. LEXIS 460 (Ky. 1955).

If stopping a motor vehicle on the highway is necessary for the safe operation of the vehicle (or in compliance with law) it is not prohibited. Clardy v. Robinson, 284 S.W.2d 651, 1955 Ky. LEXIS 29 (Ky. 1955).

Where a disabled truck had been stopped partially on a road at least 15 minutes and two men had had time to set out a flare 100 feet in front of the truck and start connecting jumper cables, the failure to place a warning flare behind the truck was negligence as a matter of law. Duncan v. Wiseman Baking Co., 357 S.W.2d 694, 1961 Ky. LEXIS 27 (Ky. 1961).

A disabled vehicle must be removed from the highway unless it is impractical to do so and whether failure to remove vehicle constituted negligence was jury question under evidence. Service Lines, Inc. v. Mitchell, 419 S.W.2d 525, 1967 Ky. LEXIS 150 (Ky. 1967).

16. — Repairing Flat.

This section does not allow a motorist to leave his car on a road when it has only minor damage and is movable, but, where the decedent had stopped his car partially on a road in order to repair a flat tire, it was for the jury to determine whether the decedent was negligent in stopping his car on the road. Sears v. Frost's Adm'r, 279 S.W.2d 776, 1955 Ky. LEXIS 539 (Ky. 1955).

Violation of this section in leaving car parked on highway did not constitute a breach of any duty owed to garage employee who was killed by passing automobile while changing a tire on the automobile and even if it should be considered that a violation of this section was negligence as to the garage employe the violation did not constitute a proximate cause of the accident since the garage employee, knowing the danger involved in changing a tire on a heavily traveled highway, assumed the risk. Lanzner v. Wentworth, 315 S.W.2d 622, 1958 Ky. LEXIS 330 (Ky. 1958).

Where a bus had a flat tire and the driver stopped it after pulling off the road as far as possible to the right, partially on the road, but there was a graveled strip along the left side of the road that was wide enough for the bus to occupy without protruding onto the road, the bus driver testified that the bus could not practically be stopped on that graveled strip, and another person familiar with the operation of buses testified that the bus could have easily been stopped on such strip, the question of the bus driver's negligence should have been submitted to the jury, if it had been relevant. Greyhound Corp. v. White, 323 S.W.2d 578, 1958 Ky. LEXIS 21 (Ky. 1958).

Where a commercial bus stopped partially in the right traffic lane of a road in order to repair a flat tire, a school bus traveling in the same direction was then stopped in the left lane a few feet behind it, and a car also traveling in the same direction then hit both buses in an attempt to stop on the slick road, the parking of the school bus so as to materially obstruct the road was so unusual and extraordinary that the commercial bus driver could not have foreseen it and therefore the parking of the school bus was an intervening cause of the accident so as to relieve the commercial bus driver of liability even if his stopping was negligent. Greyhound Corp. v. White, 323 S.W.2d 578, 1958 Ky. LEXIS 21 (Ky. 1958).

The pure assumption of risk doctrine under which a plaintiff is barred even though he acted reasonably should no longer be recognized or applied because reasonableness of conduct should be the basic consideration of all negligence cases and whether plaintiff was contributorily negligent in failing to observe the standard of care of the ordinarily prudent man or the statutory standard of care is a question for the jury but a man who stopped to change a tire on a woman's automobile illegally parked under this section and who was injured when the car was struck in the rear by a passing motorist did not himself violate the section and is not chargeable with statutory negligence and he could be found guilty of common-law negligence only if he failed to act as an ordinarily prudent man, which was a question for the jury. Parker v. Redden, 421 S.W.2d 586, 1967 Ky. LEXIS 71 (Ky. 1967).

17. Emergency Vehicle.

The legislature intended the term "emergency vehicle" to include ambulances, fire trucks and similar vehicles which ordinarily are equipped with flashing lights and other warning devices. Jack Cole Co. v. Hoff, 274 S.W.2d 658, 1954 Ky. LEXIS 1236 (Ky. 1954) (decision prior to 1970 amendment).

The legislature did not intend the term “emergency vehicle” to apply to the ordinary motorist who stops to assist a fellow motorist in distress. Jack Cole Co. v. Hoff, 274 S.W.2d 658, 1954 Ky. LEXIS 1236 (Ky. 1954) (decision prior to 1970 amendment).

Where the plaintiff struck a state police car that had slowed in the driving lane to signal an approaching wrecker to direct him to a disabled vehicle, the police car’s statutory exemption from the prohibition against stopping on a highway did not relieve the officer from exercising ordinary care. Williams v. Chilton, 427 S.W.2d 586, 1968 Ky. LEXIS 687 (Ky. 1968), overruled in part, Hilen v. Hays, 673 S.W.2d 713, 1984 Ky. LEXIS 261 (Ky. 1984) (decision prior to 1970 amendment).

Where the plaintiff struck a state police car that had slowed in the driving lane to signal to an approaching wrecker to direct him to a disabled vehicle, the exceptions apply to the state police officer because a “police vehicle” is an emergency vehicle “at all times.” Williams v. Chilton, 427 S.W.2d 586, 1968 Ky. LEXIS 687 (Ky. 1968), overruled in part, Hilen v. Hays, 673 S.W.2d 713, 1984 Ky. LEXIS 261 (Ky. 1984) (decision prior to 1970 amendment).

18. Instructions.

Where owner of a pharmacy noticed one of his employes waiting at a bus stop and stopped on a four-lane highway to pick her up and take her to work and his automobile was struck in the rear by a truck and there was a conflict in the evidence as to signals, how far the stopped automobile was on the highway and whether there was another automobile present and the circuit judge gave instruction that it was the duty of the owner of the pharmacy not to stop or leave his automobile standing upon the main traveled portion of the highway and upon the request of the jury for clarification refused to clarify the instruction on the ground that it followed a statute and was stated in understandable words and no objection was made to his refusal, the objection was not properly preserved for appeal. Jackson v. Louisville Asphalt Co., 308 S.W.2d 790, 1957 Ky. LEXIS 139 (Ky. 1957).

It is not the duty of the trial court to instruct the jury that violation of this section is negligence as a matter of law but the plaintiff should have presented the question to the trial court by a motion to direct the jury to find a verdict in favor of plaintiff on the liability of defendant for damages thus leaving the amount of damages to be determined by the jury if the motion was sustained and after an adverse ruling and verdict the plaintiff should have presented the question again by a motion for judgment notwithstanding the verdict and in absence of proper motions the trial court had no duty to make such rulings and the verdict could not be attacked on appeal as being contrary to the law and evidence. Thacker’s Adm’r v. Salyers, 290 S.W.2d 830, 1956 Ky. LEXIS 348 (Ky. 1956).

The trial court did not err in giving an instruction that the plaintiff had a duty not to stop her car and leave it standing on the main portion of the highway. Wheeler v. Creekmore, 469 S.W.2d 559, 1971 Ky. LEXIS 304 (Ky. 1971).

Whether the plaintiff stopped her car in the left-hand lane and was hit head-on by an approaching car, the plaintiff was entitled to a last clear chance instruction conditioned on whether the jury did or did not believe her lights were on so that her plight could be readily seen by the defendant. Wheeler v. Creekmore, 469 S.W.2d 559, 1971 Ky. LEXIS 304 (Ky. 1971).

Kentucky Instructions To Juries (Civil), 5th Ed., Automobiles, §§ 16.30, 16.32 — 16.37.

189.540. Regulations for school buses — Operator required to have commercial driver’s license with school bus endorsement.

(1) The Kentucky Board of Education shall promulgate administrative regulations to govern the design and operation of all Kentucky school buses and to govern the operation of district-owned passenger vehicles transporting students under KRS 156.153(2). The board shall, with the advice and aid of the Department of Kentucky State Police and the Transportation Cabinet, enforce the administrative regulations governing the operation of all school buses whether owned by a school district or privately contracted and all district-owned passenger vehicles transporting students under KRS 156.153(2). The regulations covering the operation shall by reference be made a part of any contract with a school district. Every school district and private contractor referred to under this subsection shall be subject to those regulations.

(2) Any employee of any school district who violates any of the administrative regulations in any contract executed on behalf of a school district shall be subject to removal from office. Any person operating a school bus under contract with a school district who fails to comply with any of the administrative regulations shall be guilty of breach of contract and the contract shall be canceled after proper notice and a hearing by the responsible officers of such school district.

(3) Any person who operates a school bus shall be required to possess a commercial driver’s license issued pursuant to KRS 281A.170 with a school bus endorsement as described in KRS 281A.175.

Legislative Research Commission Note.

(7/13/90). The Act amending this section prevails over the repeal and reenactment in House Bill 940, Acts Ch. 476, pursuant to Section 653(1) of Acts Ch. 476.

(6/17/78). This section was amended by 1978 Ky. Acts chs. 83 and 434, part of which are in conflict and cannot be compiled together. Effect has been given to all provisions except for the conflicting provision in subsection (3), in which the later amendment by 1978 Ky. Acts ch. 434, sec. 7, prevails.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

1. Authority to Regulate.

Where language of KRS 156.160 and this section was clear and unambiguous and authorized the Department of Transportation to regulate the operation of school buses, which necessarily included those persons operating the buses, there was no room for construction of the statutes and they must be accepted as they were written. Cornette v. Commonwealth, 899 S.W.2d 502, 1995 Ky. App. LEXIS 108 (Ky. Ct. App. 1995).

Statutory grant of authority under KRS 156.160 and this section to Department of Transportation to adopt regulations to govern the design and operation of school buses was not unconstitutional special legislation because it applied only to public and not to private or parochial school bus drivers; the statutes apply equally to a class and further a legitimate state interest in safe transportation of public school children. Cornette v. Commonwealth, 899 S.W.2d 502, 1995 Ky. App. LEXIS 108 (Ky. Ct. App. 1995).

It was not the case that KRS Chapter 281A set forth a comprehensive scheme of regulating the same matter which was being regulated by an administrative agency, in violation of KRS 13A.120, as the administrative regulation was more detailed, comprehensive and pertinent regarding school bus drivers than was the statute, which dealt with commercial driver's licenses. Cornette v. Commonwealth, 899 S.W.2d 502, 1995 Ky. App. LEXIS 108 (Ky. Ct. App. 1995).

189.550. Vehicles used for transporting children to stop at railroad crossings.

Operators of all buses and motor vehicles used for transporting children shall stop their vehicles before crossing any railroad when tracks are at the same level of the roadway. The stop shall be made not less than fifteen (15) feet nor more than fifty (50) feet from the nearest track over which the highway crosses, except where the crossing is protected by gates or a flagman employed by the railroad. After making the stop, the operator shall open the service door and carefully look in each direction and listen for approaching trains or other on-track equipment before proceeding. If visibility is impaired at the required distance for stopping under this section, the operator may allow the vehicle to slowly roll forward for the purpose of gaining the visibility necessary to safely cross the railroad tracks.

PENALTIES

189.990. Penalties. [Effective until July 1, 2024]

(1) Any person who violates any of the provisions of KRS 189.020 to 189.040, subsection (1) or (4) of KRS 189.050, KRS 189.060 to 189.080, subsections (1) to (3) of KRS 189.090, KRS 189.100, 189.110, 189.130 to 189.160, subsections (2) to (4) of KRS 189.190, KRS 189.200, 189.285, 189.290, 189.300 to 189.360, KRS 189.380, KRS 189.400 to 189.430, KRS 189.450 to 189.458, KRS 189.4595 to 189.480, subsection (1) of KRS 189.520, KRS 189.540, KRS 189.570 to 189.590, except subsection (1)(b) or (6)(b) of KRS 189.580, KRS 189.345, subsection (6) of KRS 189.456, and 189.960 shall be fined not less than twenty dollars ($20) nor more than one hundred dollars ($100) for each offense. Any person who violates subsection (1)(a) of KRS 189.580 shall be fined not less than twenty dollars ($20) nor more than two thousand dollars ($2,000) or imprisoned in the county jail for not more than one (1) year, or both, unless the accident involved death or serious physical injury and the person knew or should have known of the death or serious physical injury, in which case the person shall be guilty of a Class D felony. Any person who violates paragraph (c) of subsection (5) of KRS 189.390 shall be fined not less than eleven dollars ($11) nor more than thirty dollars ($30). Neither court costs nor fees shall be taxed against any person violating paragraph (c) of subsection (5) of KRS 189.390.

(2)(a) Any person who violates the weight provisions of KRS 189.212, 189.221, 189.222, 189.226, 189.230, 189.270, or 189.2713 shall be fined two cents ($0.02) per pound for each pound of excess load when the excess is five thousand (5,000) pounds or less. When the excess exceeds five thousand (5,000) pounds the fine shall be two cents ($0.02) per pound for each pound of excess load, but the fine levied shall not be less than one hundred dollars ($100) and shall not be more than five hundred dollars ($500).

(b) Any person who violates the provisions of KRS 189.271 and is operating on a route designated on the permit shall be fined one hundred dollars ($100); otherwise, the penalties in paragraph (a) of this subsection shall apply.

(c) Any person who violates any provision of subsection (2) or (3) of KRS 189.050, subsection (4) of KRS 189.090, KRS 189.221 to 189.230, 189.270, 189.2713, 189.280, or the dimension provisions of KRS 189.212, for which another penalty is not specifically provided shall be fined not less than ten dollars ($10) nor more than five hundred dollars ($500).

(d)1. Any person who violates the provisions of KRS 177.985 while operating on a route design-nated in KRS 177.986 shall be fined one hundred dollars ($100).

2. Any person who operates a vehicle with a permit under KRS 177.985 in excess of eighty thousand (80,000) pounds while operating on a route not designated in KRS 177.986 shall be fined one thousand dollars ($1,000).

(e) Nothing in this subsection or in KRS 189.221 to 189.228 shall be deemed to prejudice or affect the authority of the Department of Vehicle Regulation to suspend or revoke certificates of common carriers, permits of contract carriers, or drivers' or chauffeurs' licenses, for any violation of KRS 189.221 to 189.228 or any other act applicable to motor vehicles, as provided by law.

(3)(a) Any person who violates subsection (1) of KRS 189.190 shall be fined not more than fifteen dollars ($15).

(b) Any person who violates subsection (5) of KRS 189.190 shall be fined not less than thirty-five dollars ($35) nor more than two hundred dollars ($200).

(4)(a) Any person who violates subsection (1) of KRS 189.210 shall be fined not less than twenty-five dollars ($25) nor more than one hundred dollars ($100).

(b) Any peace officer who fails, when properly informed, to enforce KRS 189.210 shall be fined not less than twenty-five dollars ($25) nor more than one hundred dollars ($100).

(c) All fines collected under this subsection, after payment of commissions to officers entitled thereto, shall go to the county road fund if the offense is committed in the county, or to the city street fund if committed in the city.

(5) Any person who violates KRS 189.370 shall for the first offense be fined not less than one hundred dollars ($100) nor more than two hundred dollars ($200) or imprisoned not less than thirty (30) days nor more than sixty (60) days, or both. For each subsequent offense occurring within three (3) years, the person shall be fined not less than three hundred dollars ($300) nor more than five hundred dollars ($500) or imprisoned not less than sixty (60) days nor more than six (6) months, or both. The minimum fine for this violation shall not be subject to suspension. A minimum of six (6) points shall be assessed against the driving record of any person convicted.

(6) Any person who violates KRS 189.500 shall be fined not more than fifteen dollars ($15) in excess of the cost of the repair of the road.

(7) Any person who violates KRS 189.510 or KRS 189.515 shall be fined not less than twenty dollars ($20) nor more than fifty dollars ($50).

(8) Any peace officer who violates subsection (2) of KRS 189.520 shall be fined not less than thirty-five dollars ($35) nor more than one hundred dollars ($100).

(9)(a) Any person who violates KRS 189.530(1) shall be fined not less than thirty-five dollars ($35) nor more than one hundred dollars ($100), or imprisoned not less than thirty (30) days nor more than twelve (12) months, or both.

(b) Any person who violates KRS 189.530(2) shall be fined not less than thirty-five dollars ($35) nor more than one hundred dollars ($100).

(10) Any person who violates any of the provisions of KRS 189.550 shall be guilty of a Class B misdemeanor.

(11) Any person who violates subsection (3) of KRS 189.560 shall be fined not less than thirty dollars ($30) nor more than one hundred dollars ($100) for each offense.

(12) The fines imposed by paragraph (a) of subsection (3) and subsections (6) and (7) of this section shall, in the case of a public highway, be paid into the county road fund, and, in the case of a privately owned road or bridge, be paid to the owner. These fines shall not bar an action for damages for breach of contract.

(13) Any person who violates any of the provisions of KRS 189.120 shall be fined not less than twenty dollars ($20) nor more than one hundred dollars ($100) for each offense.

(14) Any person who violates any provision of KRS 189.575 shall be fined not less than twenty dollars ($20) nor more than twenty-five dollars ($25).

(15) Any person who violates subsection (2) of KRS 189.231 shall be fined not less than twenty dollars ($20) nor more than one hundred dollars ($100) for each offense.

(16) Any person who violates restrictions or regulations established by the secretary of transportation pursuant to subsection (3) of KRS 189.231 shall, upon first offense, be fined one hundred dollars ($100) and, upon subsequent convictions, be fined not less than one hundred dollars ($100) nor more than five hundred dollars ($500) or imprisoned for thirty (30) days, or both.

(17)(a) Any person who violates any of the provisions of KRS 189.565 shall be guilty of a Class B misdemeanor.

(b) In addition to the penalties prescribed in paragraph (a) of this subsection, in case of violation by any person in whose name the vehicle used in the transportation of inflammable liquids or explosives is licensed, the person shall be fined not less than one hundred dollars ($100) nor more than five hundred dollars ($500). Each violation shall constitute a separate offense.

(18) Any person who abandons a vehicle upon the right-of-way of a state highway for three (3) consecutive days shall be fined not less than thirty-five dollars ($35) nor more than one hundred dollars ($100), or imprisoned for not less than ten (10) days nor more than thirty (30) days.

(19) Every person violating KRS 189.393 shall be guilty of a Class B misdemeanor, unless the offense is being committed by a defendant fleeing the commission of a felony offense which the defendant was also charged with violating and was subsequently convicted of that felony, in which case it is a Class A misdemeanor.

(20) Any law enforcement agency which fails or refuses to forward the reports required by KRS 189.635 shall be subject to the penalties prescribed in KRS 17.157.

(21) A person who operates a bicycle in violation of the administrative regulations promulgated pursuant to KRS 189.287 shall be fined not less than ten dollars ($10) nor more than one hundred dollars ($100).

(22) Any person who violates KRS 189.860 shall be fined not more than five hundred dollars ($500) or imprisoned for not more than six (6) months, or both.

(23) Any person who violates KRS 189.754 shall be fined not less than twenty-five dollars ($25) nor more than three hundred dollars ($300).

(24) Any person who violates the provisions of KRS 189.125(3)(a) shall be fined fifty dollars ($50). This fine shall be subject to prepayment. A fine imposed under this subsection shall not be subject to court costs pursuant to KRS 24A.175, additional court costs pursuant to KRS 24A.176, the fee imposed pursuant to KRS 24A.1765, or any other additional fees or costs.

(25) Any person who violates the provisions of KRS 189.125(3)(b) shall not be issued a uniform citation, but shall instead receive a courtesy warning up until July 1, 2009. For a violation on or after July 1, 2009, the person shall be fined thirty dollars ($30). This fine shall be subject to prepayment. A fine imposed under this subsection shall not be subject to court costs pursuant to KRS 24A.175, additional court costs pursuant to KRS 24A.176, a fee imposed pursuant to KRS 24A.1765, or any other additional fees or costs. A person who has not been previously charged with a violation of KRS 189.125(3)(b) may elect to acquire a booster seat meeting the requirements of KRS 189.125. Upon presentation of sufficient proof of the acquisition, the charge shall be dismissed and no fees or costs shall be imposed.

(26) Any person who violates the provisions of KRS 189.125(6) shall be fined an amount not to exceed twenty-five dollars ($25). This fine shall be subject to prepayment. A fine imposed under this subsection shall not be subject to court costs pursuant to KRS 24A.175, additional court costs pursuant to KRS 24A.176, the fee imposed pursuant to KRS 24A.1765, or any other additional fees or costs.

(27) Fines levied pursuant to this chapter shall be assessed in the manner required by KRS 534.020, in amounts consistent with this chapter. Nonpayment of fines shall be governed by KRS 534.020 and 534.060.

(28) A licensed driver under the age of eighteen (18) charged with a moving violation pursuant to this chapter as the driver of a motor vehicle may be referred, prior to trial, by the court to a diversionary program. The diversionary program under this subsection shall consist of one (1) or both of the following:

(a) Execution of a diversion agreement which prohibits the driver from operating a vehicle for a period not to exceed forty-five (45) days and which allows the court to retain the driver's operator's license during this period; and

(b) Attendance at a driver improvement clinic established pursuant to KRS 186.574. If the person completes the terms of this diversionary program satisfactorily the violation shall be dismissed.

(29) A person who violates the provisions of subsection (2) or (3) of KRS 189.459 shall be fined two hundred fifty dollars ($250). The fines and costs for a violation of subsection (2) or (3) of KRS 189.459 shall be collected and disposed of in accordance with KRS 24A.180. Once deposited into the State Treasury, ninety percent (90%) of the fine collected under this subsection shall immediately be forwarded to the personal care assistance program under KRS 205.900 to 205.920. Ten percent (10%) of the fine collected under this subsection shall annually be returned to the county where the violation occurred and distributed equally to all law enforcement agencies within the county.

(30) Any person who violates KRS 189.292 or 189.294 shall be fined twenty-five dollars ($25) for the first offense and fifty dollars ($50) for each subsequent offense.

(31) Any person who violates KRS 189.281(5) or (7)(b) shall be subject to a fine of two hundred fifty dollars ($250). This fine shall be subject to prepayment. A fine imposed under this subsection shall not be subject to court costs pursuant to KRS 24A.175, additional costs pursuant to KRS 24A.176, the fee imposed pursuant to KRS 24A.1765, or any other additional fees or costs.

Former subsections (19) and (20) (Enact. Acts 1956, ch. 125, § 3) were repealed by Acts 1966, ch. 115, § 12 and former subsection (21) (Enact. Acts 1966, ch. 142, § 2) was repealed by implication by Acts 1968, ch. 152, § 123.

Legislative Research Commission Notes.

(6/29/2021). This statute was created by Section 6 of 2021 Ky. Acts ch. 186. Section 9 of that Act provides that "Sections 6 to 8 of this Act are part of a pilot program and shall sunset on July 1, 2024."

(7/12/2006). Because of typographical error, in 2006 Ky. Acts ch. 173, sec. 32, which amended KRS 189.990, an erroneous reference to a nonexistent KRS section, KRS 189.599, appears in subsection (1). The correct citation is KRS 189.590. Under the authority of KRS 7.136(1), the Reviser of Statutes has inserted the correct citation.

4. Failure to Render Aid.
5. Voluntary Manslaughter.
6. Revocation of Operator's License.
7. Fine Not Debt.
8. Indictment.
9. Evidence.
10. Appeal.
11. Imposition of Fine.

1. Reduction of Maximum Fine.

A city ordinance fixing maximum fine of $50 for exceeding speed limit of 15 miles per hour is not consistent with statute and therefore repugnant to Ky. Const., § 168 where KRS 189.390 authorizes municipalities to fix speed limits within their boundaries when conditions warrant but the penalty provided for violation of KRS 189.390 is set forth in this section as a fine of not less than $10 or more than $100. Murphy v. Lake Louisville, 303 S.W.2d 307, 1957 Ky. LEXIS 257 (Ky. 1957).

2. Permitting Prisoner to Obtain Attorney.

Two hour delay by arresting officer and jailer in permitting motorist arrested for driving a motor vehicle while intoxicated to call her attorney was not unreasonable or prejudicial where the delay was due to her conduct. Sharp v. Commonwealth, 414 S.W.2d 902, 1967 Ky. LEXIS 372 (Ky. 1967).

3. Leaving Scene of Accident.

The defendant's flight from the scene of a fatal automobile accident, and his subsequent attempts at concealment or suppression of evidence, proved at most that he believed he was at fault, which was just as consistent with ordinary negligence or recklessness as it is with "wanton" conduct. Fugate v. Commonwealth, 445 S.W.2d 675, 1969 Ky. LEXIS 169 (Ky. 1969), overruled, Commonwealth v. Sawhill, 660 S.W.2d 3, 1983 Ky. LEXIS 303 (Ky. 1983).

The act of leaving the scene of the accident without stopping to render aid, though it may have amounted to gross and wanton misconduct in itself, was a separate crime from the manslaughter charged as a result of the original striking. Fugate v. Commonwealth, 445 S.W.2d 675, 1969 Ky. LEXIS 169 (Ky. 1969), overruled, Commonwealth v. Sawhill, 660 S.W.2d 3, 1983 Ky. LEXIS 303 (Ky. 1983).

4. Failure to Render Aid.

The maximum fine provided for the offense of failing to render aid and assistance after an accident in violation of KRS 189.580(1) is $2,000.00 rather than the $500.00 maximum set for a class A misdemeanor. Commonwealth v. Schindler, 685 S.W.2d 544, 1984 Ky. LEXIS 298 (Ky. 1984).

5. Voluntary Manslaughter.

Where driver intentionally drove his automobile at a speed that was excessive in view of the topography of the highway and in so doing committed a misdemeanor in failing to operate his vehicle in a careful manner in violation of KRS 189.290 and this section and perhaps in violation of KRS 189.300 by failing to keep to the right he was negligent per se but without any evidence of how excessive it was or what other conditions led up to it, it did not necessarily forecast a sufficient likelihood or probability of accident and injury to support a verdict of voluntary manslaughter. Agee v. Hammons, 335 S.W.2d 732, 1960 Ky. LEXIS 279 (Ky. 1960).

6. Revocation of Operator's License.

The revocation of operator's license for operating a motor vehicle while intoxicated in violation of KRS 189.580 is not by the magistrate but merely recommended by him and is not a punishment in addition to the fine and confinement provided by this section which would deprive the magistrate of jurisdiction. Commonwealth v. Burnett, 274 Ky. 231, 118 S.W.2d 558, 1938 Ky. LEXIS 257 (Ky. 1938).

7. Fine Not Debt.

Person brought before county court on a criminal charge of violating KRS 189.222 and who pleaded guilty and was fined $500 under this section and placed in jail on failure to pay the fine could not be released on surrender of his estate for benefit of creditors under Ky. Const., § 18 for he was not a "debtor" to the Commonwealth within the meaning of Ky. Const., § 18. Wilson v. Commonwealth, 240 S.W.2d 587, 1951 Ky. LEXIS 982 (Ky. 1951).

8. Indictment.

Wilful and wanton failure of motorist injuring person to stop and render assistance does not constitute voluntary manslaughter even though the person dies as a result and an indictment charging voluntary manslaughter for wilful and wanton failure to stop and render assistance violates the criminal code by combining two offenses in one indictment, one a charge of voluntary manslaughter under KRS 435.020 (now repealed) carrying a penalty of confinement in penitentiary for not less than 2 or more than 21 years and the other a violation of KRS 189.580 carrying the penalty provided in subsection (1) of this section. Commonwealth v. Nevius, 249 S.W.2d 717, 1952 Ky. LEXIS 840 (Ky. 1952).

9. Evidence.

Where automobile driver violated KRS 189.330 and this section by failing to stop at caution light for which officers were authorized to make an arrest and after the arrest the driver disclosed he had illegal whiskey in the automobile, the evidence of finding the liquor in the car was competent in charge of transporting intoxicating liquor for purpose of sale in local option territory and the trial court committed error in directing a verdict of acquittal. Commonwealth v. Bentley, 259 S.W.2d 441, 1953 Ky. LEXIS 946 (Ky. 1953).

10. Appeal.

Where offense is a misdemeanor punishable by fine only under this section the Commonwealth may appeal and upon reversal have a new trial, notwithstanding the former judgment of acquittal. Commonwealth v. Abell, 275 Ky. 802, 122 S.W.2d 757, 1938 Ky. LEXIS 498 (Ky. 1938).

11. Imposition of Fine.

Circuit court properly imposed a $100 fine for excessive window tinting and allowed a deferred payment of that fine because the fine was not subject to waiver inasmuch as both the offense and the fine were defined outside of the penal code. Fultz v. Commonwealth, 554 S.W.3d 385, 2018 Ky. App. LEXIS 214 (Ky. Ct. App. 2018).

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

If an arrest is made by a local peace officer for a violation under KRS 189.221, 189.222 or 189.270, the fines recovered as well as the taxes levied must all be sent by the collecting court directly within 30 days after they are imposed and collected. OAG 62-815.

If an arrest for a violation of KRS 189.221, 189.222 or 189.270 is made by a state trooper, state highway agent or department of motor transportation (now transportation cabinet) agent, the fines and taxes are treated as any other fines and are sent to the circuit court clerk who reports and forwards them to the state treasury. OAG 62-815.

The fine applicable to a violation of an order entered pursuant to KRS 189.230 is found in subsection (2)(b) (now (2)(c)) of this section, and the fact that the county judge (now county judge/executive) in entering that order may have referred to subsection (2)(a) is of no significance. OAG 66-380.

All fines collected under violations of KRS 189.210 and as mentioned in subsection (5)(a), (b) and (c) (now (4)(a), (b) and (c)) of this section, after payment of commissions to officers entitled thereto, mandatorily go to the county road fund if the offense is committed in the county. OAG 72-204.

Under subsection (5) (now (4)) of this section, 15% of fines collected in the quarterly court for violations of KRS 189.210 will go to the county road fund which is the amount available after payment of the requisite percentages of the fines to the commonwealth's attorney, the county attorney, and the circuit clerk. OAG 72-237.

To the extent that a fiscal court cannot agree not to enforce hauling and weight restrictions governing the use of public roads, a contract whereby a coal company would pay a fee to the county, based on the tonnage hauled, to compensate for future expected damages to county roads would be impermissible. OAG 76-170.

As between legislation of broad and general nature on one hand and legislation dealing minutely with specific matter on the other hand, the specific will prevail over the general, and, accordingly, the specific prohibition of this section against imposing of costs in parking violations prevails over the generality of KRS 24A.175, which purports to require payment of costs in all criminal prosecutions upon conviction. OAG 78-328.

Where two statutes enacted at the same session are destructively repugnant, the law last enacted must be regarded as the final expression of the legislative will and permitted to prevail; since amended subsection (1) of this section and KRS 24A.175 are destructively repugnant, this section, as the last enacted, prevails. OAG 78-328.

KRS 346.185, which imposes an additional cost of ten dollars for all offenses for which imprisonment may be imposed, only applies to traffic offenses for which a term of imprisonment may be imposed for a violation. OAG 82-332.

A driving under the influence (DUI) conviction entered prior to June 21, 1974 may be used to enhance the penalty for a subsequent DUI conviction pursuant to KRS 189.520(2) and subdivision (9)(a) (deleted by 1984 amendment) of this section. OAG 84-175.

KRS 189.520(2) and subsection (9) (now subsection (8)) of this section must be construed by the express or literal language contained therein; accordingly, any previous conviction under KRS 189.520(2) may be used for enhancement purposes under subsection (9) (now subsection (8)) of this section. If proof of previous convictions cannot be obtained from the Transportation Cabinet due to a destruction of records which are over five years old or have occurred prior to June 21, 1974, proof by any other means is acceptable so long as introduction of such proof complies with the rules on evidence. OAG 84-175.

(1) Any person who violates KRS 189.045 shall be fined not less than one hundred dollars ($100) nor more than one thousand dollars ($1,000).

(2) Any person convicted of violating any of the provisions of KRS 189.095 shall be fined sixty dollars ($60) and costs of prosecution.

(3) Any person who violates any provision of KRS 189.205 shall be fined not less than twenty dollars ($20) nor more than one hundred dollars ($100).

(4) Any person who violates any provision of KRS 189.375 shall be fined not less than twenty dollars ($20) nor more than one hundred dollars ($100).

(5) Any person who violates KRS 189.505 shall be fined not less than sixty dollars ($60) nor more than two hundred dollars ($200) or be imprisoned for not more than thirty (30) days, or both.

(6) Any person found violating any provision of KRS 189.820 or 189.830 is guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be fined not less than twenty dollars ($20) nor more than thirty-five dollars ($35).

(7) Any person who violates KRS 189.920 shall be fined not less than one hundred dollars ($100) nor more than one thousand dollars ($1,000), or imprisoned in the county jail for not more than thirty (30) days, or both. In the case of a private vehicle not authorized to use emergency lights under KRS 189.920, all lighting and other equipment used in violation of KRS 189.910 to 189.950 shall be confiscated and forfeited to the county in which the offense occurred.

(8) Any person who violates KRS 189.930 shall be fined not less than sixty dollars ($60) nor more than five hundred dollars ($500), or be imprisoned in the county jail for not more than thirty (30) days, or both.

(9) Any person who violates KRS 189.940 shall be fined not less than sixty dollars ($60) nor more than one thousand dollars ($1,000) or be imprisoned in the county jail for not more than six (6) months, or both. In the case of a private vehicle, except as outlined in subsection (11) of this section, all lighting and other equipment used in violation of KRS 189.910 to 189.950 shall be confiscated and forfeited to the county in which the offense occurred.

(10) If a member of a regular or volunteer fire department, ambulance service, or rescue squad violates any provisions of subsection (6) of KRS 189.940, he shall, in addition to any other penalty provided under KRS 189.990 or this section, be immediately dismissed from his membership or employment with the fire department, ambulance service, or rescue squad and shall be disqualified from being employed by or being a member of any fire department, ambulance service, or rescue squad in the Commonwealth for a period of three (3) years. Upon conviction of a second offense he shall be permanently barred from employment or membership in any fire department, ambulance service, rescue squad, police department, or sheriff's office in the Commonwealth, nor shall he be permitted to operate any public safety vehicle as defined in KRS 189.910.

(11)(a) Any person who violates KRS 189.950(3) shall be fined one hundred dollars ($100) for the first offense, two hundred dollars ($200) for the second offense, and one thousand dollars ($1,000) for each subsequent offense.

(b) Except as provided in paragraph (a) of this subsection, any person who violates KRS 189.950 shall be fined not less than one hundred dollars ($100) nor more than one thousand dollars ($1,000) or be imprisoned in the county jail for not more than thirty (30) days, or both. In the case of a privately owned vehicle, all lighting and other equipment used or installed in violation of KRS 189.910 to 189.950 shall be confiscated and forfeited to the county in which the offense occurred.

(12) Any person who violates any provision of this chapter for which no penalty is otherwise provided shall, upon conviction, be fined not less than twenty dollars ($20) nor more than one hundred dollars ($100) for each offense, except that no penalty shall be assessed for a violation of KRS 189.580(1)(b) or (6)(b).

(13) No producer or processor of natural resources shall allow the transporting of natural resources over the highways of the Commonwealth in excess of the weight limits without possessing a resource recovery road hauling permit. Violation for hauling in excess of prescribed limits without possession of a permit or transporting natural resources over prescribed limits of the resource recovery road hauling permit shall be not less than five hundred dollars ($500) nor more than one thousand dollars ($1,000) for each violation and shall be deposited in the resource recovery road fund.

194A.115. Statewide Independent Living Council.

(1) The Statewide Independent Living Council is hereby created and attached to the Cabinet for Health and Family Services in accordance with 42 U.S.C. sec. 3515e for administrative purposes to accomplish the purposes enumerated in 29 U.S.C. sec. 796d (Title VII, Part A, Section 705 of the Rehabilitation Act Amendments of 1998). Members of the council shall be appointed by the Governor from recommendations submitted by the Department for Aging and Independent Living consistent with the federal mandate to include a majority of individuals with disabilities representing geographical and disability diversity, as well as representatives from identified service providers and other entities. The composition, qualifications, and terms of service of the council shall conform to the federal law.

(2)(a) Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this subsection, any vacancy occurring in the membership of the Statewide Independent Living Council shall be filled in the same manner as the original appointment. The vacancy shall not affect the power of the remaining members of the council.

(b) The Governor may delegate the authority to fill a vacancy to the remaining voting members of the council.

(3) Each member of the Statewide Independent Living Council may receive a per diem of one hundred dollars ($100), not to exceed six hundred dollars ($600) annually, for each regular or special meeting attended if the member is not employed or must forfeit wages from other employment. Each member may have travel expenses approved at the established state rate and expenses reimbursed at the established state agency rate for services such as personal assistance, child care, and drivers for attendance at council meetings, and in the performance of duties authorized by the Statewide Independent Living Council. The per diem and expenses shall be paid out of the federal funds appropriated under 29 U.S.C. ch. 16.

CHAPTER 195

MANPOWER SERVICES

Section

195.105. Training program authorized — Research assignment — Classification — Compensation — Contract.

195.105. Training program authorized — Research assignment — Classification — Compensation — Contract.

(1) The secretary for health and family services in coordination with the Personnel Cabinet is authorized to establish formal training programs within the Cabinet for Health and Family Services or within any of the departments, divisions, or sections of the cabinet for the training of necessary personnel for the administration of the programs of the cabinet. When courses of study, applicable to the program processes of the cabinet, are not available through instruction within the cabinet, arrangements may be made for the training of employees in any public or private school or institution having available facilities for that purpose, and this training shall be deemed to be a part of the cabinet's training program. Training of employees in public or private schools or institutions for this purpose shall be deemed a part of research assignments to be completed during the period of study, these assignments to relate directly to the work assignment of the employee. After consulting with the Personnel Cabinet, position classifications in the research series shall be established for employees on work study assignments, and funds of the cabinet may be used to pay salaries commensurate with the appropriate classification while the employee is receiving such training.

(2) Any employee who is paid a salary while receiving such training shall be required to enter into a contract, prior to receiving the training, that he will complete a specified work assignment, and that unless he continues in the employ of the cabinet for at least a period equivalent to the training period, immediately following the completion of such training, the state will hold a claim against that person for the amount of salary paid during the training period, and he will repay to the cabinet the sum paid to him by the cabinet during the period of his training.

- (j) Radio stations;
- (k) Telephone exchanges; and
- (l) Television stations.

(6) "Certified building inspector" means a person who has been certified by the department as having successfully completed the test requirements provided by KRS 198B.090 to practice as a city, county, or state building inspector within the Commonwealth.

(7) "Certified plans and specifications inspector" means a person who has been certified by the department as having successfully completed the test requirements provided by KRS 198B.090 to practice as a city, county, or state plans and specifications inspector within the Commonwealth.

(8) "Certified plumbing inspector" means a person who has been certified by the department as having successfully completed the test requirements provided by KRS 198B.090 and 318.140, or 318.090 to practice as a city, county, or state plumbing inspector within the Commonwealth.

(9) "Commissioner" means the commissioner of the department.

(10) "Committee" means the Housing, Buildings and Construction Advisory Committee established by KRS 198B.032.

(11) "Construction" means the erection, fabrication, reconstruction, substantial alteration or conversion of a building, or the installation of equipment therein, but shall not include the ordinary repair of a building or structure.

(12) "Controlled environment agriculture facility":

(a) Means a facility that utilizes a technologically advanced form of hydroponic or soilless-based production that includes a combination of engineering, plant science, and computer-managed greenhouse control technologies in growing spaces and all connected sorting, packing, and storage areas to allow complete and stable control of the plant environment, including temperature, light, and carbon dioxide;

(b) Includes the immediate sorting, packing, and shipping of fresh, ready-to-consume produce; and

(c) Shall not be used for retail sales or allow open access to the public.

(13) "Department" means the Department of Housing, Buildings and Construction.

(14) "Educational occupancy" means the occupancy or use of a building or structure or any portion thereof by persons assembled for the purpose of learning or of receiving educational instruction. "Educational occupancy" shall not include a building for occupancy or use by thirty-five (35) persons or less assembled to receive religious and educational instruction. "Educational occupancy" includes but is not limited to:

- (a) Academies;
- (b) Care centers;
- (c) Colleges;

- (d) Kindergartens;
- (e) Libraries;
- (f) Preschools;
- (g) Relocatable classroom units;
- (h) Schools;
- (i) Seminaries; and
- (j) Universities.

(15) "Equipment" means facilities or installations, including but not limited to heating, electrical, ventilating, air conditioning, and refrigerating facilities or installations.

(16) "High hazard occupancy" means the occupancy or use of a building or structure or any portion thereof that involves highly combustible, highly flammable, or explosive materials or which has inherent characteristics that constitute a special fire hazard, including among others:

- (a) Aluminum powder factories;
- (b) Charging or filling stations;
- (c) Distilleries;

(20) “Mobile home” means mobile home as defined in KRS 227.550.

(21) “Ordinary repair” means any nonstructural reconstruction or renewal of any part of an existing building for the purpose of its maintenance, or decoration, and shall include but not be limited to the replacement or installation of nonstructural components of the building such as roofing, siding, windows, storm windows, insulation, drywall or lath and plaster, or any other replacement, in kind, that does not alter the structural integrity, alter the occupancy or use of the building, or affect, by rearrangement, exitways and means of egress; but shall not include additions to, or alteration of, or relocation of any standpipe, water supply, sewer, drainage, gas, soil, waste, vent or similar piping, electric wiring, or mechanical equipment including furnaces and hot water heaters or other work affecting public health or safety.

(22) “Story” means that part of a building comprised between a floor and the floor or roof next above which is not a basement or an attic.

(23) “Person with a physical disability” means a person confined to a wheelchair; a person who uses braces or crutches; a person who because of the loss of a foot or leg or because of an arthritic, spastic, pulmonary, or cardiac condition, walks with difficulty or insecurity; a person who suffers from a faulty coordination or palsy; a person who is blind or whose sight is so impaired that, functioning in a public area, he or she is insecure or exposed to danger; a person whose hearing is so impaired that he or she is unable to hear warning signals; and a person whose mobility, flexibility, coordination, and perceptiveness are significantly reduced by aging.

(24) “Facility for persons with physical disabilities” means any convenience or device which facilitates the health, safety, or comfort of a person with a disability, including, but not limited to, ramps, handrails, elevators, and doors.

(25) “Manufactured home” is defined as in KRS 227.550.

History.

Enact. Acts 1978, ch. 117, § 1, effective June 17, 1978; 1980, ch. 361, § 1, effective July 15, 1980; 1982, ch. 189, § 1, effective July 15, 1982; 1982, ch. 308, § 1, effective July 15, 1982; 1994, ch. 405, § 49, effective July 15, 1994; 1996, ch. 340, § 15, effective July 15, 1996; 1998, ch. 9, § 1, effective July 15, 1998; 2006, ch. 223, § 2, effective April 22, 2006; 2010, ch. 24, § 245, effective July 15, 2010; 2017 ch. 169, § 2, effective June 29, 2017; 2022 ch. 108, § 4, effective April 8, 2022.

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

The Uniform State Building Code, as it relates to the National Electric Code and the state plumbing code, applies to single-family dwellings; however, farm dwellings are not “buildings” for purposes of the Uniform State Building Code and are not subject to the National Electric Code and the State Plumbing Code for purposes of this chapter. OAG 82-172.

This chapter does not intend to treat farm dwellings the same as single-family dwellings because it refers to both types separately and those terms are not synonymous for purposes of the application of sections of the Uniform State Building Code. OAG 82-172.

CHILD CARE AND PLACEMENT AGENCIES

199.642. Staff members of child-caring facilities must submit to background checks in accordance with federal law and regulations — Administrative regulations.

- (1) As used in this section, “staff member” means:
- (a) An individual who is employed by a child-caring facility or child-placing agency for compensation;

(b) A contract employee or a self-employed individual whose employment directly involves the care or supervision of children or unsupervised access to children placed with the child-caring facility or child-placing agency; or

(c) A volunteer or intern whose activities on behalf of a child-caring facility or child-placing agency involve the care or supervision of children or unsupervised access to children.

(2) The cabinet shall require a staff member of a child-caring facility or child-placing agency to submit to background checks in accordance with 42 U.S.C. sec. 671(a)(20)(D) and the implementing federal rules, including national and state fingerprint-supported criminal background checks by the Department of Kentucky State Police and the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

(3) The child-caring facility or child-placing agency staff member shall provide the staff member's fingerprints to the Department of Kentucky State Police for submission to the Federal Bureau of Investigation after a state criminal background check is conducted.

(4) The results of the national and state criminal background checks shall be sent to the cabinet.

(5) The cabinet shall provide notice to a child-caring facility or child-placing agency if a staff member is eligible for employment not to exceed seven (7) business days after the date the staff member submitted fingerprints through a means approved by the cabinet to the Department of Kentucky State Police. The cabinet shall reissue notice of the staff member's eligibility for employment subsequent to the cabinet's receipt of additional information about the staff member, including a result from the rap back.

(6) The cabinet may register a child-caring facility or child-placing agency staff member in the rap back system.

(7) The request for background checks shall be in a manner approved by the Justice and Public Safety Cabinet, and the Cabinet for Health and Family Services may charge a fee to be paid by a child-caring facility or child-placing agency not to exceed the actual cost of processing the request.

(8) The cabinet shall promulgate administrative regulations in accordance with KRS Chapter 13A to implement this section.

(9) The requirements of this section shall apply to a child-placing agency only if a background check required under subsection (2) of this section can be accomplished electronically, pursuant to KRS 17.185.

PLACEMENT COORDINATION

199.800. Definitions for KRS 199.800 to 199.801.

For the purposes of KRS 199.800 to 199.801:

- (1) “Department” means the Department for Community Based Services;

(2) “Home county” means the county in which the child’s natural parents, adoptive parents, or guardian reside. If the parents are divorced, the home county is the county of residence of the parent with legal custody. If the child is committed, the home county is the county of original commitment or case responsibility;

(3) “Home region” means the Department for Community Based Services region in which the child’s home county is located;

(4) “Type of placement” means the living arrangement, including family foster home, child-caring facility, or other residential alternative that is deemed appropriate for a child as determined by the department; and

(5) “Unmet need” means the type of facility or placement needed to serve the child’s needs which is unavailable at the time placement is being sought for the child.

History.

Enact. Acts 1998, ch. 395, § 3, effective July 15, 1998; 2000, ch. 14, § 23, effective July 14, 2000; 2018 ch. 159, § 6, effective July 14, 2018.

199.801. Procedure for placement of children who are in custody of department — State-level and regional placement coordinators — Type of placement — Cases of unmet need — Recruitment and reporting.

(1) The department shall establish a procedure throughout the state that is designed to determine and expedite the placement of children who are in the custody of or committed to the department. The procedure shall utilize state-level and regional placement coordinators who may be state employees or employees of a contracted entity.

(2) The type of placement selected for a child in the custody of or committed to the department shall be the best alternative for the child that is in closest proximity to the child’s home county, including considerations of the child’s current early care and education provider or school, in order to promote educational stability for the child to the extent practicable in accordance with KRS 199.802 and the federal Every Student Succeeds Act of 2015, Pub. L. No. 114-95.

(3) If the type of placement that best suits the child’s needs is not available in the child’s home county, the regional placement coordinator shall document the circumstance as an unmet need and may seek a placement in surrounding counties, regions, and the state, in that order.

(4) If the type of placement that best suits the child’s needs is not available within the state, the regional placement coordinator shall contact the commissioner of the department or the commissioner’s designee to explore out-of-state placement.

(5) The department shall develop a diligent recruitment plan and reporting to support the recruitment and retention of family foster homes that are responsive to the needs of children in care, areas of unmet need, and strategies to meet the need. The plan and reporting shall be used as a guide in the establishment and modification of agreements with placements for the care of children in the custody of or committed to the cabinet and shall be made available upon request.

History.

199.802. Consideration of best interest of child in placing child within same or different school district — Transportation to be provided as needed — Timely record and information sharing — Confidentiality of information.

(1) As used in this section:

(a) “Best interest of the child” means the determination regarding the enrollment of a child made when considering all factors relating to the best interest of a child, as outlined in 20 U.S.C. secs. 6301 et seq., including but not limited to:

1. The benefits to the child of maintaining educational stability;
2. The appropriateness of the current educational setting;
3. The child’s attachment and meaningful relationships with staff and peers at the current educational setting;
4. The influence of the school’s climate on the child;
5. The safety of the child; and
6. The proximity of the placement to the school of origin, and how the length of a commute would impact the child;

(b) “Child” means any person who has not reached his or her eighteenth birthday, unless otherwise provided, that is in the care of the department;

(c) “Educational stability” means the maintenance of the enrollment of a child in a particular school upon a transition to a different placement or living arrangement when such maintenance is in the best interest of the child, and if not, the enrollment of the child in a new school in a time and manner that ensures the child experiences a minimal lapse in school attendance; and

(d) “School of origin” means the public school in which the child was enrolled immediately prior to placement.

(2) In determining the placement of a child under KRS 199.801, the department shall, if practicable, locate a placement within the same school district where the child was most recently enrolled to allow the child to remain enrolled in the school of origin.

(3)(a) The department, in consultation with the local education agency, shall make the determination on whether the child shall remain enrolled in the school of origin based on the best interest of the child, weighing the promotion of educational stability as a primary factor.

(b) In accordance with 20 U.S.C. secs. 6301 et seq., the cost of transportation shall not be a factor in determining the best interest of a child for an enrollment decision.

(4) If the department finds it is in the best interest of a child to remain in the school of origin upon placement of the child in a new school district, reasonable transportation shall be offered from the location of placement to the school of origin in which the child is enrolled for any regularly scheduled school day. In accordance with 20 U.S.C. secs. 6301 et seq., costs incurred by a school district, foster parent, child-placing agency, or child-caring facility for transportation to the school shall be reimbursed by the department upon request.

(5) Upon the determination that changing a child's school of enrollment is in the best interest of the child:

(a) The department, any applicable child-caring facility, child-placing agency, school, and local school district, and the child's state agency caseworker shall collaborate to ensure the immediate and appropriate enrollment of the child;

(b)1. The child's state agency caseworker shall immediately contact the receiving district to inform the district of the pending enrollment changes.

2. The child's state agency caseworker or child-caring facility or child-placing agency case manager shall either accompany the child and the foster parent to the new school to enroll the child or contact applicable staff at the new school via telephone during the day of enrollment, to assist with the enrollment, to share information relating to the child's unique needs and prior experiences that may impact their education, and to identify and prevent disruptions in any instructional or support services that the child may have been receiving prior to that time, including but not limited to medical and behavioral health history and individual service plans;

(c) In accordance with 20 U.S.C. secs. 6301 et seq., the new school shall immediately enroll the child, even if the child is unable to produce records required for enrollment, including but not limited to:

1. Academic records;
2. Medical records; and
3. Proof of residency;

(d) The new school shall immediately request the records of the child from the child's previous school;

(e) The previous school shall provide the new school:

1. Notwithstanding KRS 159.170, all records within the student information system maintained by the Kentucky Department of Education regarding the child by the end of the working day on the day of receipt of a request made under this subsection. If a record provided to the new school is incomplete, the previous school shall provide the completed record within three (3) working days of the original request; and

2. In accordance with KRS 159.170, all remaining records regarding the child within ten (10) working days of receipt of a request made under this subsection;

(f) In accordance with 20 U.S.C. sec. 1232g, the department responsible for the child, and the child's state agency caseworker, or child-caring facility or child-placing agency case manager shall be granted access to all educational records on a confidential basis in order to facilitate the proper transfer, enrollment, and educational placement of the child;

(g) In accordance with KRS 158.140(1), promotions or credits earned in attendance in any approved public school shall be accepted as valid at the new school;

(h) The department, child-caring facilities, child-placing agencies, child's state agency caseworkers, school districts, and foster parents shall each collaborate with one another to ensure the educational stability of each child, and to assist one another with meeting the educational needs of each child in furtherance of the rights enumerated in KRS 620.363; and

(i)1. The department, child-caring facilities, child-placing agencies, and a child's state agency caseworker, may share information regarding a child and facts learned about a child and his or her unique needs and prior experiences, as necessary, with staff of the new school district in which the child is enrolling in order to identify and serve the educational needs of the child.

2. All information regarding a child or facts learned about a child by the department, any child-caring facility or child-placing agency licensed by the cabinet, or a child's state agency caseworker, and shared with staff of a school district pursuant to this section, shall be deemed confidential in the same manner and subject to the same provisions as similar records of the cabinet. The information thus obtained shall not be published or be open for public inspection, except to authorized employees of the school district in performance of their duties and to identify and serve the educational needs of the child.

(6) The school district in which the child is enrolled upon his or her successful completion of all high school graduation requirements shall issue a diploma indicating graduation from high school to the child.

(7/14/2018). 2018 Ky. Acts ch. 147, sec. 2 provides that this statute created in 2018 Ky. Acts ch. 147, sec. 1 may be cited as the Uninterrupted Scholars Act of Kentucky.

199.803. Limitation on purpose of release of child's educational records.

In accordance with the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act, 20 U.S.C. sec. 1232g, when a statute within this chapter refers to the release of educational records, the purpose of the release shall be limited to providing the department with the ability to effectively serve the needs of the child whose records are sought, and any educational records shall only be released to persons authorized by statute and shall not be released to any other person without the written consent of the parent of the child.

CHILD CARE

199.892. Declaration of legislative intent.

In enacting legislation relating to the regulation of day-care centers, it is the intention of the General Assembly to enable the Cabinet for Health and Family Services to qualify to receive federal funds under provisions of the Federal Social Security Act and to provide for effective regulation of day-care centers.

History.

Enact. Acts 1962, ch. 196, § 1; 1974, ch. 74, Art. VI, § 107(1), (13); 1998, ch. 426, § 155, effective July 15, 1998; 2005, ch. 99, § 192, effective June 20, 2005.

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

A day-care center for mentally retarded children who are considered “educable” or “trainable,” which is operated by a regional mental health board established pursuant to KRS 203.450 (renumbered KRS 210.410), must comply with the licensing requirements for day-care centers. OAG 67-345.

A regional mental health board, established pursuant to KRS 203.450 (renumbered KRS 210.410), that operates a day-care center for mentally retarded children who are considered “educable” or “trainable” must be licensed as a day-care center under KRS 199.892 to 199.896, but, since any education of the children would only be incidental to their care, need not be licensed as a kindergarten or nursery school under KRS 158.300 (repealed). OAG 67-345.

199.894. Definitions for KRS 199.892 to 199.896.

As used in KRS 199.892 to 199.896, unless the context otherwise requires:

- (1) “Cabinet” means the Cabinet for Health and Family Services;
- (2) “Secretary” means secretary for health and family services;
- (3) “Child-care center” means any child-care center that provides full- or part-time care, day or night, to four (4) or more children in a nonresidential setting who are not the children, grandchildren, nieces, nephews, or children in legal custody of the operator. “Child-care center” shall not include any child-care facility operated by a religious organization while religious services are being conducted, or a youth development agency. For the purposes of this section, “youth development agency” means a program with tax-exempt status under 26 U.S.C. sec. 501(c)(3), which operates continuously throughout the year as an outside-school-hours center for youth who are six (6) years of age or older, and for which there are no fee or scheduled-care arrangements with the parent or guardian of the youth served;
- (4) “Department” means the Department for Community Based Services; and

(5) “Family child-care home” means a private home that is the primary residence of an individual who provides full or part-time care day or night for six (6) or fewer children who are not the children, siblings, stepchildren, grandchildren, nieces, nephews, or children in legal custody of the provider.

History.

Enact. Acts 1962, ch. 196, § 2; 1974, ch. 74, Art. VI, § 107(1), (13), (21) and (30); 1992, ch. 57, § 3, effective July 14, 1992; 1996, ch. 81, § 1, effective July 15, 1996; 1998, ch. 426, § 156, effective July 15, 1998; 2000, ch. 308, § 17, effective July 14, 2000; 2005, ch. 99, § 193, effective June 20, 2005; 2020 ch. 36, § 10, effective July 15, 2020.

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

The Attorney General cannot categorically state whether a facility operated by a particular organization, association or individual and caring for four or more children comes within the definition of “day-care center” since such determination is the duty of the Department for Human Resources (now Cabinet for Families and Children). OAG 74-736.

199.8941. Monetary incentives for child-care facilities — Professional development.

(1) To the extent that funds are available, the Cabinet for Health and Family Services, in consultation with the Early Childhood Advisory Council, shall, by administrative regulation promulgated in accordance with KRS Chapter 13A, establish a program of monetary incentives including but not limited to an increased child-care subsidy and a one-time merit achievement award for child-care centers and certified family child-care homes that are tied to a quality rating system for child care as established under KRS 199.8943.

(2) The monetary incentive program shall be reviewed annually by the cabinet, in consultation with the council, for the purpose of determining future opportunities to provide incentives.

(3) Participation in the program of monetary incentives and in the quality rating system by public-funded child-care centers and certified family child-care homes is mandatory.

(4) The Cabinet for Health and Family Services shall encourage the professional development of persons who are employed or provide training in a child-care or early childhood setting by facilitating their participation in the scholarship program for obtaining a child development associate credential, postsecondary certificate, diploma, degree, or specialty credential as established under KRS 164.518.

199.895. Evacuation plan required for child-care centers and family child-care homes — Annual updating of plan — Provision of plan to local emergency management officials and parents.

(1) A child-care center licensed under KRS 199.896 and a family child-care home certified under KRS 199.8982 shall have a written plan for evacuation in the event of fire, natural disaster, or other threatening situation that may pose a health or safety hazard to the children in the center or home. The plan shall include but not be limited to:

(a) A designated relocation site and evacuation route;

(b) Procedures for notifying parents of the relocation and ensuring family reunification;

(c) Procedures to address the needs of individual children including children with special needs;

(d) Instructions relating to the training of staff or the reassignment of staff duties, as appropriate;

(e) Coordination with local emergency management officials; and

(f) A program to ensure that appropriate staff are familiar with the plan's components.

(2) A child-care center and a family child-care home shall update the evacuation plan by December 31 each year.

(3) A child-care center and a family child-care home shall retain an updated copy of the plan for evacuation, provide an updated copy to appropriate local emergency management officials, and provide a copy to each parent, custodian, or guardian of the child at the time of the child's enrollment in the program and whenever the plan is updated.

2016 ch. 122, § 1, effective July 15, 2016.

199.896. License requirement — Application — Fee — Emergency action — Use of information — Hearing — Disposition of receipts — Advertisement — Unannounced inspections — Orientation and training requirements — Prohibition against use of corporal physical discipline — Partial and full exemption from regulation — Criminal record check — Probationary employment status — Cabinet's powers during state of emergency.

(1) No person, association, or organization shall conduct, operate, maintain, or advertise any child-care center without obtaining a license as provided in KRS 199.892 to 199.896.

(2) The cabinet may promulgate administrative regulations pursuant to KRS Chapter 13A relating to license fees and may, in the administrative regulations, establish standards of care and service for a child-care center, criteria for the denial of a license if criminal records indicate convictions that may impact the safety and security of children in care, and procedures for enforcement of penalties which are not in contravention of this section.

(3) Each initial application for a license shall be made to the cabinet and shall be accompanied by a fee that shall not exceed administrative costs of the program to the cabinet and shall be renewable annually upon expiration and reapplication when accompanied by a renewal fee that shall not exceed administrative costs of the program to the cabinet. Regular licenses and renewals thereof shall expire one (1) year from their effective date.

(4) No child-care center shall be refused a license or have its license revoked for failure to meet standards set by the secretary until after the expiration of a period not to exceed six (6) months from the date of the first official notice that the standards have not been met. If, however, the cabinet has probable cause to believe that an immediate threat to the public health, safety, or welfare exists, the cabinet may take emergency action pursuant to KRS 13B.125. All administrative hearings conducted under authority of KRS 199.892 to 199.896 shall be conducted in accordance with KRS Chapter 13B.

(5) If, upon inspection or investigation, the inspector general finds that a child-care center licensed under this section has violated the administrative regulations, standards, or requirements of the cabinet, the inspector general shall issue a statement of deficiency to the center containing:

- (a) A statement of fact;
- (b) A statement of how an administrative regulation, standard, or requirement of the cabinet was violated; and
- (c) The timeframe, negotiated with the child-care center, within which a violation is to be corrected, except that a violation that poses an immediate threat to the health, safety, or welfare of children in the center shall be corrected in no event later than five (5) working days from the date of the statement of deficiency.

(6) The Cabinet for Health and Family Services, in consultation with the Office of the Inspector General, shall establish by administrative regulations promulgated in accordance with KRS Chapter 13A an informal dispute resolution process through which a child-care provider may dispute licensure deficiencies that have an adverse effect on the child-care provider's license.

(7) A child-care center shall have the right to appeal to the Cabinet for Health and Family Services under KRS Chapter 13B any action adverse to its license or the assessment of a civil penalty issued by the inspector general as the result of a violation contained in a statement of deficiency within twenty (20) days of the issuance of the action or assessment of the civil penalty. An appeal shall not act to stay the correction of a violation.

(8) In assessing the civil penalty to be levied against a child-care center for a violation contained in a statement of deficiency issued under this section, the inspector general or the inspector general's designee shall take into consideration the following factors:

- (a) The gravity of the threat to the health, safety, or welfare of children posed by the violation;
- (b) The number and type of previous violations of the child-care center;
- (c) The reasonable diligence exercised by the child-care center and efforts to correct the violation; and
- (d) The amount of assessment necessary to assure immediate and continued compliance.

(9) Upon a child-care center's failure to take action to correct a violation of the administrative regulations, standards, or requirements of the cabinet contained in a statement of deficiency, or at any time when the operation of a child-care center poses an immediate threat to the health, safety, or welfare of children in the center, and the child-care center continues to operate after the cabinet has taken emergency action to deny, suspend, or revoke its license, the cabinet or the cabinet's designee shall take at least one (1) of the following actions against the center:

- (a) Institute proceedings to obtain an order compelling compliance with the administrative regulations, standards, and requirements of the cabinet;
- (b) Institute injunctive proceedings in Circuit Court to terminate the operation of the center;
- (c) Institute action to discontinue payment of child-care subsidies; or
- (d) Suspend or revoke the license or impose other penalties provided by law.

(10) Upon request of any person, the cabinet shall provide information regarding the denial, revocation, suspension, or violation of any type of child-care center license of the operator. Identifying information regarding children and their families shall remain confidential.

(11) The cabinet shall provide, upon request, public information regarding the inspections of and the plans of correction for the child-care center within the past year. All information distributed by the cabinet under this subsection shall include a statement indicating that the reports as provided under this subsection for the past five (5) years are available from the child-care center upon the parent's, custodian's, guardian's, or other interested person's request.

(12) All fees collected under the provisions of KRS 199.892 to 199.896 for license and certification applications shall be paid into the State Treasury and credited to a special fund for the purpose of administering KRS 199.892 to 199.896 including the payment of expenses of and to the participants in child-care workshops. The funds collected are hereby appropriated for the use of the cabinet. The balance of the special fund shall lapse to the general fund at the end of each biennium.

(13) Any advertisement for child-care services shall include the address of where the service is being provided.

(14) All inspections of licensed and unlicensed child-care centers by the Cabinet for Health and Family Services shall be unannounced.

(15) All employees and owners of a child-care center who provide care to children shall demonstrate within the first three (3) months of employment completion of at least a total of six (6) hours of orientation in the following areas:

- (a) Basic health, safety, and sanitation;
- (b) Recognizing and reporting child abuse; and
- (c) Developmentally appropriate child-care practice.

(16) All employees and owners of a child-care center who provide care to children shall annually demonstrate to the department completion of at least six (6) hours of training in child development. These hours shall include but are not limited to one and one-half (1.5) hours one (1) time every five (5) years of continuing education in the recognition and prevention of pediatric abusive head trauma, as defined in KRS 620.020. Training in recognizing pediatric abusive head trauma may be designed in collaboration with organizations and agencies that specialize in the prevention and recognition of pediatric head trauma approved by the secretary of the Cabinet for Health and Family Services. The one and one-half (1.5) hours required under this section shall be included in the current number of required continuing education hours.

(17) The Cabinet for Health and Family Services shall make available either through the development or approval of a model training curriculum and training materials, including video instructional materials, to cover the areas specified in subsection (15) of this section. The cabinet shall develop or approve the model training curriculum and training materials to cover the areas specified in subsection (15) of this section.

(18) Child-care centers licensed pursuant to this section and family child-care homes certified pursuant to KRS 199.8982 shall not use corporal physical discipline, including the use of spanking, shaking, or paddling, as a means of punishment, discipline, behavior modification, or for any other reason. For the purposes of this section, "corporal physical discipline" means the deliberate infliction of physical pain and does not include spontaneous physical contact that is intended to protect a child from immediate danger.

(19) Child-care centers that provide instructional and educational programs for preschool-aged children that operate for a maximum of twenty (20) hours per week and that a child attends for no more than fifteen (15) hours per week shall:

- (a) Notify the cabinet in writing that the center is operating;
- (b) Meet all child-care center licensure requirements and administrative regulations related to employee background checks;
- (c) Meet all child-care center licensure requirements and administrative regulations related to tuberculosis screenings; and
- (d) Be exempt from all other child-care center licensure requirements and administrative regulations.

(20) Child-care centers that provide instructional and educational programs for preschool-aged children that operate for a maximum of twenty (20) hours per week and that a child attends for no more than ten (10) hours per week shall be exempt from all child-care licensure requirements and administrative regulations.

(21) Instructional programs for school-age children shall be exempt from all child-care licensure administrative regulations if the following criteria are met:

- (a) The program provides direct instruction in a single skill, talent, ability, expertise, or proficiency;
- (b) The program does not provide services or offerings that are not directly related to the single talent, ability, expertise, or proficiency;
- (c) The program operates outside the time period when school is in session, including before or after school hours, holidays, school breaks, teaching planning days, or summer vacation;
- (d) The program does not advertise or otherwise represent that the program is a licensed child-care center or that the program offers child-care services;
- (e) The program informs the parent or guardian:
 1. That the program is not licensed by the cabinet; and
 2. About the physical risks a child may face while participating in the program; and
- (f) The program conducts the following background checks for all program employees and volunteers who work with children:
 1. Check of the child abuse and neglect records maintained by the cabinet; and
 2. In-state criminal background information check from the Justice and Public Safety Cabinet or Administrative Office of the Courts.

(22) Directors and employees of child-care centers in a position that involves supervisory or disciplinary power over a minor, or direct contact with a minor, shall submit to a criminal record check in accordance with KRS 199.8965.

(23) A director or employee of a child-care center may be employed on a probationary status pending receipt of the criminal background check. Application for the criminal record of a probationary employee shall be made no later than the date probationary employment begins.

(24) The cabinet shall promulgate administrative regulations to identify emergency care providers who provide essential child-care services during an identified state of emergency.

(25) Notwithstanding any state law, administrative regulation, executive order, or executive directive to the contrary, during the 2020 or 2021 state of emergency declared by the Governor in response to COVID-19, including but not limited to any mutated strain of the COVID-19 virus, the cabinet shall not establish any restrictions on capacity for class or group size or the ability to combine classes and groups for capacity limits in the morning or afternoon that is below the number that was in effect on February 1, 2020.

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

The Attorney General cannot categorically state whether a facility operated by a particular organization, association or individual and caring for four or more children must be licensed as a “day-care center” since such determination is the duty of the Department for Human Resources (now Cabinet for Families and Children). OAG 74-736.

199.8962. Required standards for child-care centers licensed under KRS 199.896 — Administrative regulations.

(1) Child-care centers licensed pursuant to KRS 199.896 shall have the following standards:

- (a) Nutrition standards, if the child-care center provides food, that are consistent with the meal and snack patterns of the most recent version of the United States Department of Agriculture’s Food and Nutrition Service standards for the Child and Adult Care Food Program. These nutrition standards do not apply to food that is brought from a child’s home;
- (b) Physical activity standards;
- (c) Screen time standards; and
- (d) Sugary drink standards.

(2) The cabinet shall, within ninety (90) days of July 15, 2020, promulgate administrative regulations, in consultation with the Kentucky Early Childhood Advisory Council established pursuant to KRS 200.700, the Kentucky Child Care Advisory Council established pursuant to KRS 199.8983, and state and national organizations that have expertise in nutrition, physical activity, screen time, and sugary drink standards, to establish the requirements and procedures for the implementation of the standards established in this section.

199.8965. Child care staff members must submit to background checks in accordance with federal law and regulations — Administrative regulations.

(1) For the purposes of this section, “child care staff member” has the same meaning as in 42 U.S.C. sec. 9858f and the implementing federal rules.

(2) The cabinet shall require a child care staff member to submit to background checks in accordance with 42 U.S.C. sec. 9858f and the implementing federal rules, including national and state fingerprint-supported criminal background checks by the Department of Kentucky State Police and the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

(3) The child care staff member shall provide the member’s fingerprints to the Department of Kentucky State Police for submission to the Federal Bureau of Investigation after a state criminal background check is conducted.

(4) The results of the national and state criminal background checks shall be sent to the cabinet.

(5) The cabinet may register a child care staff member in the rap back system.

(6) The request for background checks shall be in a manner approved by the Justice and Public Safety Cabinet, and the cabinet may charge a fee to be paid by a child care staff member for the actual cost of processing the request.

(7) Any fee charged by the Department of Kentucky State Police or the Federal Bureau of Investigation shall be an amount no greater than the actual cost of processing the request and conducting the criminal background check and rap back system ongoing status notification.

(8) The cabinet shall promulgate administrative regulations in accordance with KRS Chapter 13A to implement this section.

199.898. Rights for children in child-care programs and their parents, custodians, or guardians — Posting and distribution requirements.

(1) All children receiving child-care services in a day-care center licensed pursuant to KRS 199.896, a family child-care home certified pursuant to KRS 199.8982, or from a provider or program receiving public funds shall have the following rights:

- (a) The right to be free from physical or mental abuse;
- (b) The right not to be subjected to abusive language or abusive punishment; and
- (c) The right to be in the care of adults who shall meet their health, safety, and developmental needs.

(2) Parents, custodians, or guardians of children specified in subsection (1) of this section shall have the following rights:

(a) The right to have access to their children at all times the child is in care and access to the provider caring for their children during normal hours of provider operation and whenever the children are in the care of the provider;

(b) The right to be provided with information about child-care regulatory standards, if applicable; where to direct questions about regulatory standards; and how to file a complaint;

(c) The right to file a complaint against a child-care provider without any retribution against the parent, custodian, guardian, or child;

(d) The right to obtain information from the cabinet regarding any type of licensure denial, suspension, or revocation of an operator, and cabinet reports that have found abuse or neglect by any child-care provider or any employee of a child care provider. Identifying information regarding children and their families shall remain confidential;

(e) The right to obtain information from the cabinet regarding the inspections and plans of correction of the day-care center, the family child-care home, or the provider or program receiving public funds within the past year; and

(f) The right to review and discuss with the provider any state reports and deficiencies revealed by such reports.

(3) The child-care provider who is licensed pursuant to KRS 199.896 or certified pursuant to KRS 199.8982 shall post these rights in a prominent place and shall provide a copy of these rights to the parent, custodian, or guardian of the child at the time of the child's enrollment in the program.

History.

199.8982. Family child-care home certification program — When required — Requirements for certification — Unannounced inspection — Use of information — Authority to promulgate administrative regulations — Hearing — Emergency action — Training — Powers of local government in regulation of certified family child-care homes.

(1)(a) The cabinet shall establish a family child-care home certification program which shall be administered by the department. A family child-care provider shall apply for certification of the provider's home if the provider is caring for four (4) to six (6) children unrelated to the provider. A family child-care provider caring for three (3) or fewer children may apply for certification of the provider's home at the discretion of the provider. Applicants for certification shall not have been found by the cabinet or a court to have abused or neglected a child, and shall meet the following minimum requirements:

1. Submit two (2) written character references;

2. Provide a written statement from a physician or advanced practice registered nurse that the applicant is in good health;

3. Submit to a criminal record check in accordance with KRS 199.8965;

4. Provide smoke detectors, a telephone, an adequate water supply, sufficient lighting and space, and a safe environment in the residence in which care is provided;

5. Provide a copy of the results of a tuberculosis risk assessment and the results of any appropriate follow-up with skin testing or chest X-ray for applicants who are determined to be at risk for developing tuberculosis in accordance with the recommendations of the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention within thirty (30) days of the date of application for certification; and

6. Demonstrate completion of a total of at least six (6) hours of training in the following areas within three (3) months of application for certification:

- a. Basic health, safety, and sanitation;
- b. Recognizing and reporting child abuse; and
- c. Developmentally appropriate child-care practice.

(b) Initial applications for certification shall be made to the department. The cabinet may promulgate administrative regulations to establish fees that shall not exceed costs of the program to the cabinet, for proper administration of the certification. The department shall issue a certificate of operation upon inspecting the family child-care home and determining the provider's compliance with the provisions of this section. The inspection shall be unannounced. A certificate of operation issued pursuant to this section shall not be transferable and shall be renewed every two (2) years for a fee that shall not exceed costs of the program to the cabinet for renewal.

(c) A certified family child-care provider shall display the certificate of operation in a prominent place within the residence in which care is provided. The cabinet shall provide the certified family child-care provider with written information explaining the requirements for a family day-care provider and instructions on the method of reporting violations of the requirements which the provider shall distribute to parents.

(d) Upon request of any person, the cabinet shall provide information regarding the denial, revocation, suspension, or violation of any type of day-care license of the family child-care provider. Identifying information regarding children and their families shall remain confidential.

(e) The cabinet shall provide, upon request, public information regarding the inspections of and the plans of correction for the family child-care home within the past year. All information distributed by the cabinet under this paragraph shall include a statement indicating that the reports as provided under this paragraph from the past five (5) years are available from the family child-care home upon the parent's, custodian's, guardian's, or other interested person's request.

(f) The cabinet shall promulgate administrative regulations in accordance with KRS Chapter 13A which establish standards for the issuance, monitoring, release of information under this section and KRS 199.896 and 199.898, renewal, denial, revocation, and suspension of a certificate of operation for a family child-care home and establish criteria for the denial of certification if criminal records indicate convictions that may impact the safety and security of children in care. A denial, suspension, or revocation of a certificate may be appealed, and upon appeal an administrative hearing shall be conducted in accordance with KRS Chapter 13B. If the cabinet has probable cause to believe that there is an immediate threat to the public health, safety, or welfare, the cabinet may take emergency action to suspend a certificate pursuant to KRS 13B.125. The cabinet shall promulgate administrative regulations to impose minimum staff-to-child ratios. The cabinet may promulgate administrative regulations relating to other requirements necessary to ensure minimum safety in family child-care homes. The cabinet shall develop and provide an “easy-to-read” guide containing the following information to a family child-care provider seeking certification of his home:

1. Certification requirements and procedures;
2. Information about available child-care training; and
3. Child-care food sponsoring organizations.

(2) Family child-care providers shall annually demonstrate to the department completion of at least six (6) hours of training in child development. These hours shall include but are not limited to one and one-half (1.5) hours one (1) time every five (5) years of continuing education in the recognition and prevention of pediatric abusive head trauma, as defined in KRS 620.020. Training in recognizing pediatric abusive head trauma may be designed in collaboration with organizations and agencies that specialize in the prevention and recognition of pediatric abusive head trauma approved by the secretary of the Cabinet for Health and Family Services. The one and one-half (1.5) hours of continuing education required under this section shall be included in the current number of required continuing education hours.

(3) The cabinet shall, either through the development of or approval of, make available a model training curriculum and training materials, including video instructional materials, to cover the areas specified in subsection (1)(a)6. of this section. The cabinet shall develop or approve the model training curriculum and training materials to cover the areas specified in subsection (1)(a)6. of this section.

(4)(a) As used in this subsection “local government” means a city, county, charter county, urban-county government, consolidated local government, or unified local government.

(b) The provisions of this section shall supersede all local government ordinances or regulations pertaining to the certification, licensure, and training requirements related to the operation of family child-care homes and no local government shall adopt or enforce any additional licensure, certification, or training requirements specifically applicable to family child-care homes in addition to those provided in this section. This subsection shall not be interpreted or construed to exempt family child-care homes from compliance with local government ordinances and regulations that apply generally within the jurisdiction.

(c) Because the availability of adequate child-care as an essential business is vital to the Commonwealth’s state and local economies, by January 1, 2022, a local government that has adopted land use regulations pursuant to KRS Chapter 100 shall specifically name family child-care homes in the text of its zoning regulations to authorize the board of adjustments to separately consider the applications of proposed family child-care homes for conditional use permits within the residential zones of the planning unit where they are not a fully permitted use pursuant to KRS 100.237.

199.8984. Child-Care Policy Council. [Repealed.]

Compiler's Notes.

This section (Enact. Acts 1992, ch. 57, § 5, effective July 14, 1992; 1994, ch. 486, § 29, effective July 15, 1994; 1998, ch. 426, § 159, effective July 15, 1998) was repealed by Acts 2000, ch. 308, § 28, effective July 14, 2000. For present law, see KRS 200.700 et seq.

Legislative Research Commission Notes.

(7/14/2000). Under KRS 446.260, the repeal of this section in 2000 Ky. Acts ch. 308 prevails over its amendment in 2000 Ky. Acts ch. 14.

199.899. Market-rate survey to determine rates for child-care services receiving public funds.

(1) The Cabinet for Health and Family Services shall conduct a market-rate survey at least biennially to set the minimum rates paid by the cabinet for child-care services receiving public funds in the Commonwealth. The market-rate survey shall:

- (a) Survey all child-care programs in the Commonwealth licensed pursuant to KRS 199.896 or certified pursuant to KRS 199.8982;
- (b) Determine market rates; and
- (c) Make public its findings.

(2) In counties containing no more than two (2) child-care programs of the same type regulated by the cabinet, the cabinet shall pay the rate charged by the program up to the maximum allowable market rate, set in accordance with federal regulations, paid to a program of the same type in that area development district.

(3) The Cabinet for Health and Family Services shall evaluate, at least annually, the adequacy of the child-care subsidy to enable low income families in need of child-care services to obtain child care.

History.

Enact. Acts 1992, ch. 57, § 6, effective July 14, 1992; 1998, ch. 426, § 160, effective July 15, 1998; 2000, ch. 308, § 20, effective July 14, 2000; 2005, ch. 99, § 196, effective June 20, 2005.

199.8992. Development of statewide network of community-based child-care resource and referral services — Awarding of contracts. [Repealed]

History.

Enact. Acts 1992, ch. 57, § 7, effective July 14, 1992; 1998, ch. 426, § 161, effective July 15, 1998; 2000, ch. 308, § 21, effective July 14, 2000; 2005, ch. 99, § 197, effective June 20, 2005; repealed by 2020 ch. 36, § 44, effective July 15, 2020.

199.8994. Uniform administration of child-care funds — Dedicated child-care licensing surveyors.

(1) All child-day-care funds administered by the cabinet, including Title XX of the Social Security Act, shall be administered by the Cabinet for Health and Family Services to the extent allowable under federal law or regulation and in a manner which is in the best interest of the clients to be served. To the extent permitted by federal law or regulations, requirements relating to application, eligibility, provider agreements, and payment for child-care services shall be the same regardless of the source of public funding.

(2) The cabinet shall, to the extent allowable under federal law or regulation and in a manner which is in the best interest of the clients to be served, develop a system which provides a single intake point in each county through which parents seeking public subsidies for child-care services can make application.

(3) The cabinet shall, subject to the extent funds are available, cooperate with the Cabinet for Health and Family Services to fund and establish dedicated child-care licensing surveyor positions within the Division of Licensed Child Care to conduct all the cabinet's child-care licensing activities. The cabinet shall have the authority to request the transfer of funds to establish these positions. Where possible, dedicated child-care surveyors shall have expertise or experience in child-care or early childhood education.

(4) The targeted ratio of dedicated child-care licensing surveyor positions shall be one (1) surveyor for each fifty (50) child-care facilities in order to allow for the provision of an expedient, constructive, and thorough licensing visit.

(5) The cabinet shall, in cooperation with the Division of Licensed Child Care, Cabinet for Health and Family Services, provide appropriate specialized training for child-care surveyors.

(6)(a) The cabinet shall evaluate ways to improve the monitoring of unregulated child-care providers that receive a public subsidy for child care, and promulgate administrative regulations in accordance with KRS Chapter 13A that establish minimum health and safety standards, limitations on the maximum number of children in care, training requirements for a child-care provider that receives a child-care subsidy administered by the cabinet, and criteria for the denial of subsidies if criminal records indicate convictions that impact the safety and security of children in care.

(b) If the cabinet has probable cause to believe that there is an immediate threat to the public health, safety, or welfare, it may take emergency action to deny a public subsidy for child-care services under KRS 13B.125.

199.8996. Reports on child-care program activity.

(1) The Cabinet for Health and Family Services shall prepare the following reports on child-care programs, and shall make them available upon request:

(a) State and federally mandated reports on the child-care funds administered by the Department for Community Based Services; and

(b) Reports on the child-care subsidy programs, training, resource and referral, and similar activities upon request by the public, the Early Childhood Advisory Council, or the Child Care Advisory Council, to the extent resources are available within the cabinet and as permitted under the Kentucky Open Records Act, KRS 61.870 to 61.884, and state and federal laws governing the protection of human research subjects.

(2) The cabinet shall include the number of dedicated child-care licensing surveyor positions and the ratio of surveyors to child-care facilities within its half-year block grant status reports.

(3) By November 1, 2017, the Cabinet for Health and Family Services and the Early Childhood Advisory Council shall report to the Interim Joint Committee on Education and the Interim Joint Committee on Health and Welfare on recommendations and plans for sustaining the quality-based graduated early care and education program after the depletion of federal Race to the Top-Early Learning Challenge grant funds.

PERSONNEL TRAINING

199.900. Training programs authorized — Research assignment — Classification — Compensation — Contract.

(1) The secretary for health and family services in coordination with the Personnel Cabinet is authorized to establish formal training programs within the Cabinet for Health and Family Services or within any of the divisions or sections of the cabinet for the training of necessary personnel for the administration of the programs of the cabinet. When courses of study, applicable to the program processes of the cabinet, are not available through cabinet instruction, arrangements may be made for the training of employees in any public or private school or institution having available facilities for that purpose, and such training shall be deemed to be a part of the cabinet training program. Training of employees in public or private schools or institutions for this purpose shall be deemed a part of research assignments to be completed during the period of study, and these assignments are to relate directly to the work assignment of the employee. After consulting with the Personnel Cabinet, position classifications in the research series shall be established for employees on such work study assignments, and funds of the cabinet may be used to pay salaries commensurate with the appropriate classification while the employee is receiving training.

(2) Any employee who is paid a salary while receiving such training shall be required to enter into a contract, prior to receiving the training, that he will complete a specified work assignment, and that unless he continues in the employ of the cabinet for at least a period equivalent to the training period, immediately following the completion of training, the state will hold a claim against him for the amount of salary paid during the training period, and he will repay to the cabinet the sum paid to him by the cabinet during the period of his training.

PENALTIES

(1) Any person who violates any of the provisions of KRS 199.430, 199.470, 199.473, 199.570, 199.572, and 199.590 except subsection (2), or 199.640 to 199.670, or any rule or regulation under such sections the violation of which is made unlawful shall be fined not less than five hundred dollars ($500) nor more than two thousand dollars ($2,000) or imprisoned for not more than six (6) months, or both. Each day such violation continues shall constitute a separate offense.

(2) Any person who willfully violates any other of the provisions of KRS 199.420 to 199.670 or any rule or regulation thereunder, the violation of which is made unlawful under the terms of those sections, and for which no other penalty is prescribed in those sections, or in any other applicable statute, shall be fined not less than one hundred dollars ($100) nor more than two hundred dollars ($200) or imprisoned for not more than thirty (30) days, or both.

(3) Any violation of the regulations, standards, or requirements of the cabinet under the provisions of KRS 199.896 that poses an immediate threat to the health, safety, or welfare of any child served by the child-care center shall be subject to a civil penalty of no more than one thousand dollars ($1,000) for each occurrence. Treble penalties shall be assessed for two (2) or more violations within twelve (12) months. All money collected as a result of civil penalties assessed under the provisions of KRS 199.896 shall be paid into the State Treasury and credited to a special fund for the purpose of the Early Childhood Scholarship Program created in accordance with KRS 164.518. The balance of the fund shall not lapse to the general fund at the end of each biennium.

(4) A person who commits a violation of the regulations, standards, or requirements of the cabinet under the provisions of KRS 199.896 shall be fined not less than one thousand dollars ($1,000) or imprisoned for not more than twelve (12) months, or be fined and imprisoned, at the discretion of the court.

(5) Any person who violates any of the provisions of KRS 199.590(2) shall be guilty of a Class D felony.

(6) Any person who knowingly or intentionally registers false information under KRS 199.503(4) shall be fined not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000) or imprisoned for not more than twelve (12) months, or be fined and imprisoned, at the discretion of the court.

(7) Any person who knowingly or intentionally releases or requests confidential information in violation of KRS 199.503(8) or (9) or in violation of KRS 199.505 shall be fined not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000) or imprisoned for not more than twelve (12) months, or be fined and imprisoned, at the discretion of the court. It is a defense under this subsection if the cabinet releases confidential information while acting in good faith and with reasonable diligence.

(8) Any person who intentionally registers false information under KRS 199.881 to 199.888 with the cabinet in pursuit of the benefits of this program shall be subject to a civil penalty of no more than five hundred dollars ($500) per violation. All money collected as a result of penalties assessed under KRS 199.881 to 199.888 shall be paid into the State Treasury and credited to the Employee Child Care Assistance Partnership fund.

EARLY INTERVENTION SERVICES

200.650. Legislative findings.

The General Assembly hereby finds and declares that there is an urgent and substantial need:

(1) To enhance the development of all infants and toddlers with disabilities in the Commonwealth of Kentucky in order to minimize developmental delay, and to maximize individual potential for adult independence;

(2) To enhance the capacity of families to meet the needs of their infants and toddlers with disabilities;

(3) To reduce the educational costs by minimizing the need for special education and related services after infants and toddlers with disabilities reach school age;

(4) To reduce future social services costs and to minimize the likelihood of institutionalization of individuals with disabilities;

(5) To prevent secondary impairments and disabilities by improving the health of infants and toddlers, thereby reducing health costs for the families and the state; and

(6) To comply with federal law as it pertains to services for infants and toddlers with disabilities and their families.

History.

Enact. Acts 1994, ch. 313, § 1, effective July 15, 1994.

200.652. Legislative declaration of policy.

It is the intent of the General Assembly that the policy of the Commonwealth of Kentucky shall be:

(1) To reaffirm the importance of the family in all areas of the child's development and to reinforce the role of the family in the decision making processes regarding their children;

(2) To provide assistance and support to the family of an infant or toddler with a disability that addresses the individual needs of that family;

(3) To develop and implement a statewide, comprehensive, coordinated, multidisciplinary, interagency system of early intervention services for all infants and toddlers with disabilities and their families;

(4) To enhance the capacity to provide quality early intervention services and expand and improve existing early intervention services being provided to infants and toddlers with disabilities;

(5) To facilitate the coordination of payment for early intervention services from federal, state, local, and private insurance coverage, and the use of sliding fee scales; and

(6) To coordinate and provide individualized early intervention services to infants and toddlers with disabilities and their families.

History.

Enact. Acts 1994, ch. 313, § 2, effective July 15, 1994.

200.654. Definitions for KRS 200.650 to 200.676.

As used in KRS 200.650 to 200.676, unless the context requires otherwise:

(1) "Awards and contracts" means the state and federal funds designated by the cabinet for projects relating to planning, resource development, or provision of direct early intervention services, as defined in this section, to infants and toddlers with disabilities and their families;

(2) "Cabinet" means the Cabinet for Health and Family Services;

(3) "Child find" means a system to identify, locate, and evaluate all infants and toddlers with disabilities who are eligible for early intervention services, determine which children are receiving services, and coordinate the effort with other state agencies and departments;

(4) "Council" means the Kentucky Early Intervention System Interagency Coordinating Council;

(5) "District" means one (1) of the fifteen (15) area development districts;

(6) "District early intervention committee" means an interagency coordinating committee established within each of the fifteen (15) area development districts to facilitate interagency coordination at the district level;

(7) "Early intervention services" means services for infants and toddlers with disabilities and their families delivered according to an individualized family service plan developed by the child multidisciplinary team to meet the developmental needs of eligible children, as defined in this section, and provided by entities receiving public funds using qualified personnel. The individualized family services plan is developed and the services are provided in collaboration with the families and, to the maximum extent appropriate, in natural environments, including home and community settings in which infants and toddlers without disabilities would participate. These services are necessary to enable the child to reach maximum potential. Services to be made available shall include but not be limited to the following:

(a) Screening services;

(b) Evaluation services;

(c) Assessment services;

(d) Service coordination;

(e) Transportation and related costs for accessing early intervention services;

(f) Family services including counseling, psychological, and social work services;

(g) Health services including medical services for diagnostic and evaluation purposes only;

(h) Nutrition services;

(i) Occupational therapy services;

(j) Physical therapy services;

(k) Communication development services;

(l) Sensory development services;

(m) Developmental intervention services;

(n) Assistive technology services; and

(o) Respite services;

(8) "Early intervention system" means the management structure established in KRS 200.654 to 200.670 and which is comprised of the interdependent array of services and activities for the provision of a statewide, comprehensive, coordinated, multidisciplinary, interagency program for infants and toddlers with disabilities and their families;

(9) "Individual family service plan" means the singular comprehensive written service plan developed by the child's multidisciplinary team, with the child's parents serving as fully participating members of the team, to be followed by all agencies and other entities involved in providing early intervention services to an infant or toddler with disabilities and the child's family;

(10) "Infants and toddlers with disabilities" and "eligible children" mean children from birth to thirty-six (36) months of age in need of early intervention services as a result of one (1) of the following circumstances:

(a) The child is experiencing developmental delays, as measured by diagnostic instruments and procedures in one (1) or more of the following skill areas: physical; cognitive; communication; social or emotional; or adaptive development;

(b) The child has a diagnosed physical or mental condition which has a high probability of resulting in developmental delay; or

(c) The child has a diagnosis of pervasive developmental disorder;

(11) "Multidisciplinary team" means the child-specific group responsible for determining the services needed by the infant or toddler with disabilities and the child's family, and development of the individualized family services plan. The team for each child shall include the parent or guardian of the child and individuals representing at least two (2) applicable disciplines which may include but need not be limited to the following: physical therapy; speech therapy; social work; nursing; or education;

(12) "Point of entry" means an easily identifiable, highly accessible nonstigmatized entry into services; and

(13) "Qualified service provider" means an entity, including but not limited to an individual, program, department, or agency, responsible for the delivery of early intervention services to eligible infants and toddlers with disabilities and their families who has met the highest minimum standards of state-approved or recognized certification, licensing, registration, or other comparable requirements that apply to the area in which the entity is providing early intervention services.

History.

Enact. Acts 1994, ch. 313, § 3, effective July 15, 1994; 1998, ch. 426, § 174, effective July 15, 1998; 2002, ch. 162, § 2, effective July 15, 2002; 2005, ch. 99, § 210, effective June 20, 2005.

200.656. Kentucky Early Intervention System.

There is hereby created in state government the Kentucky Early Intervention System to provide services for infants and toddlers with a disability and their families. For administrative purposes, the Kentucky Early Intervention System shall be attached to the Cabinet for Health and Family Services.

History.

Enact. Acts 1994, ch. 313, § 4, effective July 15, 1994; 1998, ch. 426, § 175, effective July 15, 1998; 2005, ch. 99, § 211, effective June 20, 2005.

200.658. Kentucky Early Intervention System Interagency Coordinating Council — Membership — Duties — Annual report — Conflict of interest to bar voting.

(1) There is hereby created the Kentucky Early Intervention System Interagency Coordinating Council to be comprised of twenty-five (25) members to be appointed by the Governor to serve a term of three (3) years. The members of the council shall be geographically and culturally representative of the population of the Commonwealth and conform to the requirements of federal law and regulations. For administrative purposes, the council shall be attached to the Early Childhood Advisory Council. Pursuant to federal law and regulations, the membership shall be as follows:

(a) At least five (5) members shall be the parents, including minority parents, of a child with a disability who is twelve (12) years of age or less, with at least one (1) being the parent of a child six (6) years of age or less. Each parent shall have knowledge of or experience with programs for infants and toddlers with disabilities;

(b) At least five (5) members shall be public or private providers of early intervention services to infants and toddlers with disabilities;

(c) At least one (1) member shall be a member of the Kentucky General Assembly;

(d) At least one (1) member shall be representative of an entity responsible for personnel preparation and may include personnel from an institution of higher education or preservice training organization;

(e) At least one (1) member shall be the commissioner or individual serving in a position of equivalent authority, or the designee, from the Department for Public Health;

(f) At least one (1) member shall be the commissioner or individual serving in a position of equivalent authority, or the designee, from the Department for Medicaid Services;

(g) At least one (1) member shall be the commissioner or individual serving in a position of equivalent authority, or the designee, from the Department for Behavioral Health, Developmental and Intellectual Disabilities;

(h) At least one (1) member shall be the commissioner or individual serving in a position of equivalent authority, or the designee, from the Department for Community Based Services;

(i) At least one (1) member shall be the commissioner or designee of the Department of Education;

(j) At least one (1) member shall be the commissioner or designee of the Department of Insurance;

(k) At least one (1) member shall be a representative of the Office for Children with Special Health Care Needs;

(l) At least one (1) member shall be a representative for the Head Start program; and

(m) At least one (1) member shall be a representative of the Education of Homeless Children and Youth program.

(2) In matters concerning the Kentucky Early Intervention System, the council shall advise and assist the cabinet in areas, including but not limited to the following:

(a) Development and implementation of the statewide system and the administrative regulations promulgated pursuant to KRS 200.650 to 200.676;

(b) Achieving the full participation, coordination, and cooperation of all appropriate entities in the state, including, but not limited to, individuals, departments, and agencies, through the promotion of interagency agreements;

(c) Establishing a process to seek information from service providers, service coordinators, parents, and others concerning the identification of service delivery problems and the resolution of those problems;

(d) Resolution of disputes, to the extent deemed appropriate by the cabinet;

(e) Provision of appropriate services for children from birth to three (3) years of age;

(f) Identifying sources of fiscal and other support services for early intervention programs;

(g) Preparing applications to Part C of the Federal Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA) and any amendments to the applications;

(h) Transitioning of infants and toddlers with disabilities and their families from the early intervention system to appropriate services provided under Part B of the Federal Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA) operated by the state Department of Education; and

(i) Developing performance measures to assess the outcomes for children receiving services.

(3) The council shall prepare no later than December 30 of each year an annual report on the progress toward and any barriers to full implementation of the Kentucky Early Intervention System for infants and toddlers with disabilities and their families. The report shall include recommendations concerning the Kentucky Early Intervention System, including recommendations of ways to improve quality and cost effectiveness, and shall be submitted to the Governor, Legislative Research Commission, and the Secretary of the United States Department of Education.

(4) No member of the council shall cast a vote on any matter which would provide direct financial benefit to that member or otherwise give the appearance of the existence of a conflict of interest.

200.662. District early intervention committee — Membership — Duties. [Repealed]

History.

Enact. Acts 1994, ch. 313, § 7, effective July 15, 1994; 2000, ch. 14, § 31, effective July 14, 2000; 2012, ch. 146, § 31, effective July 12, 2012; repealed by 2020 ch. 36, § 44, effective July 15, 2020.

200.664. Individualized family services plans.

(1) Upon identification of an eligible infant or toddler with disabilities, representatives of the entity serving as point of entry shall cause a multidisciplinary team, as defined in KRS 200.654, to be created for the child and family.

(2) The multidisciplinary team shall develop an individualized family service plan, as defined in KRS 200.654, for the child and family.

(3) The individualized family services plan shall include:

(a) A comprehensive multidisciplinary evaluation of the present level of development of and services needed by the child and an assessment of and plan to address the resources, priorities, and concerns of the family;

(b) An explanation of the multidisciplinary evaluation and all service options to be made available in the family's cultural language, in their primary mode of communication, or through a speech or language interpreter, whichever is necessary to facilitate comprehension.

(4) The plan shall be developed within forty-five (45) days of the referral date of the child and family to the point of entry. If the completion of the initial evaluation and assessment is delayed and will not be completed within the forty-five (45) day time period due to the request of the child's parent, illness of the child, or other reasonable circumstances beyond the control of the multidisciplinary team, the point of entry shall document the reason for the delay and shall develop and implement an interim individualized family service plan.

(5) The informed written consent of the parent or guardian is required prior to the implementation of the plan. The parent may reject some services contained in the plan, however, no services to which the parent consents shall be withheld if the parent does not consent to all services in the plan.

(6) The parent or guardian shall sign an agreement to accept responsibility for being an active participant in the child's plan and for learning skills from providers so that the intensity and frequency of services may decline as the child reaches appropriate developmental levels and the family is able to do more for the child.

(7) The plan shall be reviewed by members of the child's current multidisciplinary team or other appropriate entities at no more than six (6) month intervals or more frequently if deemed appropriate based on the needs of the infant or toddler and the family. The child shall be evaluated at least annually to determine continuing program eligibility and the effectiveness of services provided to the child.

(e) One (1) nonvoting ex officio member from the Senate who shall be appointed by and serve at the pleasure of the President of the Senate;

(f) Six (6) private sector members knowledgeable about the health, mental health, education, and development of prenatal to school entry children who shall be appointed by the Governor. One (1) private sector member shall be appointed from each congressional district;

(g) Seven (7) citizens at large of the Commonwealth who shall be appointed by the Governor;

(h) One (1) early childhood development advocate who shall be appointed by the Governor;

(i) One (1) member representing higher education with expertise in early childhood who shall be appointed by the Governor; and

(j) Six (6) members appointed by the Governor, including one (1) member from a Head Start program located in the state, one (1) member from a local education agency, one (1) member from the state agency responsible for education, one (1) member from the state agency responsible for child care, one (1) member from the state agency responsible for Part C of the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA), and one (1) member from the state agency for health and mental health.

(4)(a) The initial terms of the private sector and citizen-at-large members of the council shall be for:

1. One (1) year for five (5) of the initial terms;
2. Two (2) years for five (5) of the initial terms;
3. Three (3) years for six (6) of the initial terms;

and

4. Four (4) years for five (5) of the initial appointments.

(b) All succeeding appointments shall be for four (4) years from the expiration date of the preceding appointment. The private and citizen-at-large members shall serve no more than two (2) full successive terms. A term shall expire on June 30 in the appropriate year.

(c) Members shall serve until a successor has been appointed. If a vacancy on the council occurs, the Governor shall appoint a replacement for the remainder of the unexpired term except for the members appointed by the Speaker of the House and President of the Senate.

(d) The members and nonmember appointees of the council shall comply with the gift and conflict of interest statutes in KRS Chapter 11A. Any conflict of interest issue shall be submitted to the Executive Branch Ethics Commission for resolution.

(e) The Governor shall appoint the chair of the council from the private sector or citizen-at-large membership.

(f) The chair may appoint nonmembers of the council to committees or workgroups.

(5) Private sector and citizen-at-large members and nonmembers appointed to a committee or workgroup shall serve without compensation but shall be reimbursed for reasonable and necessary expenses in accordance with state travel expenses and reimbursement administrative regulations.

(6) In making appointments to the council, the Governor shall assure broad geographical, ethnic, and gender diversity representation from the major sectors of Kentucky's early childhood development community. In filling vacancies, the Governor shall attempt to assure the continuing representation on the council of broad constituencies of Kentucky's early childhood development community.

(7) The council shall meet at least quarterly and at other times upon call of the chair or a majority of the council.

(8) Members of the council shall serve on a voluntary basis and be reimbursed for their expenses in accordance with state travel expense and reimbursement administrative regulations.

Section 30 of Acts 2000, ch. 308, effective July 14, 2000, read: "This Act may be cited as the Early Childhood Development Act."

200.703. Duties of Early Childhood Advisory Council — Implementation of programs — Plan for identification of early childhood development funding priorities — Disbanding or suspension of councils — Expiration of authority, councils, and initiatives — Requests for proposals.

(1) The Early Childhood Advisory Council is responsible for the following:

(a) Promoting the vision for Kentucky's early childhood system;

(b) Advocating for improved quality of early childhood services;

(c) Promoting the definition of school readiness and the expanded and appropriate use of the early childhood standards;

(d) Strengthening state, regional, and local level coordination and collaboration among the various sectors and settings of early childhood programs in the state;

(e) Identifying opportunities and strategies to reduce barriers to coordination and collaboration among existing private, federal, and state-funded early childhood programs;

(f) Developing and implementing recommendations for:

1. Increasing overall participation of children in existing federal, state, and local child care and early education programs, including outreach to underrepresented and special populations;
2. Establishing or improving core elements of the state early childhood system;
3. Enhancing the professional development system and career ladder for early childhood educators and caregivers; and
4. Promoting high-quality state early learning standards and undertaking efforts to ensure the development and use of high-quality comprehensive early learning standards, as appropriate;

(g) Assessing the capacity and effectiveness of institutes of higher education in the state toward supporting the development of early childhood educators;

(h) Facilitating the development or enhancement of high-quality systems of early childhood care and education designed to improve school readiness through one (1) or more of the following activities:

1. Promoting school preparedness of children from birth through school entry;
2. Supporting professional development, recruitment, and retention initiatives for early childhood educators and caregivers;
3. Enhancing existing early childhood education and development programs and services;
4. Carrying out other activities consistent with the state's plan and application; and
5. Establishing priorities for programs and the expenditure of funds that include but are not limited to the following:
 - a. Implementation of public health initiatives identified by the General Assembly, including those listed in KRS 211.690 and 199.8945;
 - b. Provision of preconception and prenatal vitamins, with priority for folic acid for the prevention of neural tube defects;
 - c. Voluntary immunization for children not covered by public or private health insurance;
 - d. Expanding availability of high-quality, affordable early child-care and education options; and
 - e. Increasing public awareness of the importance of the early childhood years for the well-being of all of Kentucky's citizens;

(i) Requesting reports and issuing progress updates on state and federally funded services that impact the quality of Kentucky's early childhood system;

(j) Receiving, requesting, and utilizing, consistent with this section, federal, state, and private funds, including from philanthropic sources;

(k) Involving the corporate community, county judge/executives, and mayors in supporting issues of importance to working families with young children in the Commonwealth;

(l) Collecting and disseminating information about the various ways business and local government can become involved in supporting early childhood; and

(m) Other duties and responsibilities as designated by the Governor.

(2) The council shall develop a state plan on a biennial basis that identifies early childhood development funding priorities. Every two (2) years the council shall review its priorities and make necessary adjustments to its state plan. The state plan shall incorporate priorities included in the final report and recommendations of the Governor's Task Force on Early Childhood Development and Education, November 2010, and recommendations identified by the community early childhood councils. The council shall file a report on the state plan with the Governor and the Legislative Research Commission by July 15 of odd-numbered years.

(3) Programs funded by the council shall be implemented by the appropriate agencies within the Cabinet for Health and Family Services, the Education and Labor Cabinet, the Finance and Administration Cabinet, or other appropriate administrative agency.

(4) The council shall assure that a public hearing is held on the expenditure of funds. Advertisement of the public hearing shall be published at least once but may be published two (2) more times, if one (1) publication occurs not less than seven (7) days nor more than twenty-one (21) days before the scheduled date of the public hearing.

(5) The council shall promulgate administrative regulations in accordance with KRS Chapter 13A to:

- (a) Coordinate and improve early childhood development services, outcomes, and policies;
- (b) Establish procedures that relate to its governance;
- (c) Designate service areas of the Commonwealth where the community early childhood councils may be established to identify and address the early childhood development needs of young children and their families for the communities that they serve;
- (d) Establish procedures that relate to the monitoring of grants, services, and activities of the community early childhood councils and their governance;
- (e) Establish procedures for accountability and measurement of the success of programs that receive funds from the council; and

(f) Establish standards for the payment of funds to a designated service provider and grantee of a community early childhood council. These standards shall include requirements relating to:

1. The financial management of funds paid to grantees;
2. The maintenance of records; and
3. An independent audit of the use of grant funds.

(6) The council may disband or suspend a community early childhood council, and may remove one (1) or more members for nonperformance or malfeasance. The council may also recover funds that have been determined by the council to have been misappropriated or misspent in relation to a grant award.

(7) An appeal to the council may be made by a community early childhood council as to a decision made by the council on the disbanding or suspension of a community early childhood council, service provider, or grantee on a determination that funds have been misappropriated or misspent and are subject to recovery. The appeal shall be conducted in accordance with KRS Chapter 13B.

(8) The council, community early childhood councils established by the council, and initiatives funded by the council with expenditures from the early childhood development fund shall expire when:

(a) Funds are no longer designated to the Commonwealth from the master settlement agreement signed on November 22, 1998, between the participating tobacco manufacturers and the forty (40) settling states or related federal legislation; or

(b) Funds are no longer designated to the early childhood development fund from gifts, grants, or federal funds to fund the council, the community early childhood councils established by the council, or any programs that had been funded by the council with expenditures from the early childhood development fund.

(9) The council shall develop a request for proposal process by which local early childhood councils may request any funding appropriated to the council for use by the councils.

Legislative Research Commission Notes.

(6/20/2005) 2005 Ky. Acts ch. 127, which included an amendment to this section, KRS 200.703, provides that the Act shall be cited as the “Read to Achieve Act of 2005.”

200.705. Duties of Department of Education to early childhood entities.

The Department of Education shall provide staffing and administrative support to:

- (1) The Early Childhood Advisory Council;
- (2) The Early Childhood Professional Development Council; and
- (3) The Kentucky Early Intervention System Interagency Coordinating Council.

History.

Enact. Acts 2000, ch. 308, § 3, effective July 14, 2000; 2006, ch. 211, § 121, effective July 12, 2006.

Legislative Research Commission Notes.

(6/25/2013). In codification, a reference to the Early Childhood Business Council has been removed from the list in this statute of agencies the Department of Education must provide staffing and administrative support to because the statute creating the Early Childhood Business Council (KRS 200.709) was repealed in 2013 Ky. Acts ch. 57, sec. 10. The Reviser of Statutes has corrected this manifest clerical or typographical error under the authority of KRS 7.136(1)(h).

(6/25/2013). A reference to the “Early Childhood Development Authority” in this statute has been changed in codification to the “Early Childhood Advisory Council” to reflect the reorganization of certain parts of the Executive Branch, as set forth in Executive Order 2012-586 and confirmed by the General Assembly in 2013 Ky. Acts ch. 57.

200.707. Community early childhood councils.

(1) The Early Childhood Advisory Council may recognize and fund a community early childhood council. A council shall be composed of no fewer than seven (7) and no more than twenty-seven (27) members. Each council shall be composed of at least one (1) member representing local agencies or organizations from profit, nonprofit, or family child care, Head Start or Early Head Start, and each school district in its designated service area. Other members may be appointed who represent local agencies and organizations, including, but not limited to, the organizations or agencies listed:

- (a) Early childhood advocate;
- (b) Faith community;
- (c) Family resource center;
- (d) Military establishment;
- (e) Child-care resource and referral agency or child-care subsidy agent;
- (f) Child-care consumer or parent;
- (g) County cooperative extension service;
- (h) Department for public health;
- (i) University, college, or technical school;
- (j) United Way;

- (t) Business community;
- (u) Home schooling association;
- (v) Health care professional;
- (w) Foster care parent; or
- (x) Adoptive parent.

(2) Members shall serve on a community early childhood council on a voluntary basis and receive no compensation or expense reimbursement for their service.

(3)(a) Members shall serve for a term of two (2) years and until their successors are appointed, except that for those members initially appointed, the terms shall be as follows:

1. One-third ($\frac{1}{3}$) of the members shall be appointed for three (3) years;
2. One-third ($\frac{1}{3}$) shall be appointed for two (2) years; and
3. One-third ($\frac{1}{3}$) shall be appointed for one (1) year.

(b) Vacancies shall be appointed for unexpired terms in the same manner as original appointments.

(4) A community early childhood council shall collaborate with the District Early Intervention Committee, the Preschool Interagency Planning Council, and other existing interagency groups in the service area.

(5) A community early childhood council may apply for a competitive grant from the Early Childhood Advisory Council, consistent with a state plan for grant participation as established by the Early Childhood Advisory Council. Grant proposals shall:

(a) Include a needs assessment and budget proposal for the respective service area served by a community early childhood council;

(b) Not include administrative costs that exceed five percent (5%); and

(c) Contain a signed statement from each member of the community early childhood council certifying that no program, agency, or individual that may receive part of an award would constitute a conflict of interest under KRS Chapter 11A for the council member. Issues concerning conflicts of interest shall be submitted to the Executive Branch Ethics Commission for resolution.

(6) A community early childhood council shall submit an annual report to the Early Childhood Advisory Council that details the activities and services of the community early childhood council, including the progress that the community early childhood council has made toward addressing the early childhood development and school readiness goals for its designated service area and recommendations that may be included in the state plan.

(7) Any records that are in the custody of a community early childhood council, a designated service provider, or a grantee that contain personal and identifying information relating to a family or children receiving services through the council shall be confidential and not subject to public disclosure, except as otherwise authorized by law.

EQUAL OPPORTUNITIES ACT

207.135. Protections available to persons with HIV — Employment discrimination prohibited.

(1) Any person with acquired immunodeficiency syndrome, acquired immunodeficiency syndrome related complex, or human immunodeficiency virus shall have every protection made available to individuals with disabilities under KRS 207.130 to 207.240 and Section 504, Public Law No. 93-112, the Rehabilitation Act of 1973.

(2)(a) No person may require an individual to take a human immunodeficiency virus related test as a condition of hiring, promotion, or continued employment, unless the absence of human immunodeficiency virus infection is a bona fide occupational qualification for the job in question.

(b) A person who asserts that a bona fide occupational qualification exists for human immunodeficiency virus-related testing shall have the burden of proving that:

1. The human immunodeficiency virus-related test is necessary to ascertain whether an employee is currently able to perform in a reasonable manner the duties of the particular job or whether an employee will present a significant risk of transmitting human immunodeficiency virus infection to other persons in the course of normal work activities; and

2. There exists no means of reasonable accommodation short of requiring the test.

(3)(a) A person shall not discriminate against an otherwise qualified individual in housing, public accommodations, or governmental services on the basis of the fact that such individual is, or is regarded as being, infected with human immunodeficiency virus.

(b) A person or other entity receiving or benefiting from state financial assistance shall not discriminate against an otherwise qualified individual on the basis of the fact that such individual is, or is regarded as being, infected with human immunodeficiency virus.

(c) A person who asserts that an individual who is infected with human immunodeficiency virus is not otherwise qualified shall have the burden of proving that no reasonable accommodation can be made to prevent the likelihood that the individual will, under the circumstances involved, expose other individuals to a significant possibility of being infected with human immunodeficiency virus.

(d) No person shall fail or refuse to hire or discharge any individual, segregate or classify any individual in any way which would deprive or tend to deprive that individual of employment opportunities or adversely affect his or her status as an employee, or otherwise discriminate against any individual with respect to compensation, terms, conditions, or privileges of employment on the basis of the fact that the individual is a licensed health care professional who treats or provides patient care to persons infected with human immunodeficiency virus.

GENERAL PROVISIONS

212.210. Powers and duties of the Cabinet for Health and Family Services and local health boards.

(1) The Cabinet for Health and Family Services and the local boards of health may examine into all nuisances, sources of filth, and causes of sickness that may, in their opinion, be injurious to the health of the inhabitants in any county in this state, or in any vessel within any harbor or port in any county in this state. Whenever any such nuisance, source of filth, or cause of sickness is found to exist on any private property, or in any vessel within any port or harbor in any county in this state, or upon any watercourse in this state, the Cabinet for Health and Family Services or the local board of health may order, in writing, the owner or occupant thereof, at his own expense, to remove the same within twenty-four (24) hours, or within such reasonable time thereafter as the board may order.

(2) If drinking water used by school children is found to be dangerous to their health, the local board of health or Cabinet for Health and Family Services may order that a supply of pure water be furnished at the expense of the county or city board of education.

(3) If in the opinion of the local board of health or Cabinet for Health and Family Services a school building is constructed in violation of law and is found to be unsanitary or unsafe for the housing of children, the local board of health or Cabinet for Health and Family Services may institute an action in the Circuit Court of the county where the building is situated, and the court, after due hearing and verifying the facts, may order a safe and sanitary school building to be erected within a reasonable time by the county or city board of education in accordance with the laws of the state governing the erection of schoolhouses and the control of disease, and the rules and regulations of the Cabinet for Health and Family Services.

(4) Any local board of health shall, for the purpose of controlling and eradicating rats and other unsanitary nuisances, require the owner or possessor of any building designed for human habitation and containing two (2) or more apartment units, to provide, where a specific area has been designated for the depositing of refuse on the premises, waste receptacles approved by the board. The board may further require that the design, construction, and maintenance of the area in which the waste receptacles are kept meet reasonable standards set by the board.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Analysis

- 1. Impure Water.
- 2. Abatement of Nuisances.
- 3. Regulations.

1. Impure Water.

Although State Board of Health (now Cabinet for Health and Family Services), in abating nuisance, could stop the supply of impure water to a community, it could not direct water company to install particular plant; company could adopt any system which produced pure water. Purnell v. Maysville Water Co., 193 Ky. 85, 234 S.W. 967, 1921 Ky. LEXIS 189 (Ky. 1921).

State Board of Health (now Cabinet for Health and Family Services) could not order installation of filtration plant by water company where formerly impure water had been rendered pure by sedimentation basin and chlorination. Purnell v. Maysville Water Co., 193 Ky. 85, 234 S.W. 967, 1921 Ky. LEXIS 189 (Ky. 1921).

2. Abatement of Nuisances.

State Board of Health (now Cabinet for Health and Family Services) may abate any nuisance in state caused by filth which produces sickness; its power is broad but not unlimited and must be exercised with sound discretion and not capriciously. Purnell v. Maysville Water Co., 193 Ky. 85, 234 S.W. 967, 1921 Ky. LEXIS 189 (Ky. 1921).

County board of health may require persons responsible for unsanitary condition to abate the nuisance under its regulations. Jefferson County v. Jefferson County Fiscal Court, 269 Ky. 535, 108 S.W.2d 181, 1937 Ky. LEXIS 635 (Ky. 1937).

Requirement that fiscal court maintain health department does not include power to appropriate funds to abate nuisances specifically directed to be discontinued by individuals responsible therefor. Jefferson County v. Jefferson County Fiscal Court, 269 Ky. 535, 108 S.W.2d 181, 1937 Ky. LEXIS 635 (Ky. 1937).

Since this section did not abrogate the common law concerning nuisances, it was proper to bring charge for offense of maintaining a common nuisance under the common law. Old Lewis Hunter Distillery Co. v. Commonwealth, 273 Ky. 316, 116 S.W.2d 647, 1938 Ky. LEXIS 635 (Ky. 1938).

3. Regulations.

Legislature may create local boards of health and authorize them to make reasonable regulations for health of community. Board of Health v. Kollman, 156 Ky. 351, 160 S.W. 1052, 1913 Ky. LEXIS 424 (Ky. 1913).

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

Although a city-county board of health would be authorized to adopt a regulation requiring the cutting and removal of weeds if the board finds that an accumulation of weeds does in fact constitute a public health nuisance or a health menace, it is not authorized to have the work done and assess the cost against the owner as a property tax. OAG 63-981.

A local board of health does not have the power to order a water company, private or public, to discontinue water services to a customer who is responsible for a public health nuisance. OAG 63-1078.

When a local health board acts to abate a nuisance injurious to the public health, it must do so pursuant to the provisions of this section and of KRS 212.245(6) and 212.990(1). OAG 63-1078.

A local health department is not confined by any statute as to the frequency or bases for inspection of a school building and grounds or facilities. OAG 77-138.

Despite transfer of the Division of Water Patrol from the Natural Resources and Environmental Protection Cabinet to the Department of Fish and Wildlife, the Natural Resources and Environmental Protection Cabinet retains jurisdiction for enforcement of statutes relating to marine toilets found in KRS Chapter 235. OAG 95-19.

PENALTIES

212.990. Penalties.

(1) Any owner or occupant who fails to comply with an order made under the provisions of subsection (1) of KRS 212.210 shall be fined not less than ten dollars ($10) nor more than one hundred dollars ($100) and each day's continuance of the nuisance, source of filth, or cause of sickness, after the owner or occupant has been notified to remove it, shall be a separate offense.

(2) Any person who violates KRS 212.715 or any rule or regulation adopted by any consolidated local government, city, county, or city-county board of health, except as otherwise provided by subsection (3) of this section for counties containing cities of the first class or consolidated local government, shall be fined not less than ten dollars ($10) nor more than one hundred dollars ($100) for each day the violation continues.

(3) The violation of any health regulation promulgated by the city-county board of health or of any order made by the board under KRS 212.350 to 212.620, directing the abatement of a nuisance, source of filth, or cause or probable cause of sickness, is hereby declared to be a misdemeanor, and any person, firm, or corporation, or member of a firm or officer or director of a corporation, upon conviction thereof shall be fined not less than five dollars ($5) nor more than one hundred dollars ($100) for each such offense. If any offense is continued for more than one (1) day, each day upon which such offense occurs or is continued shall be considered and constitute a separate offense and a separate fine may be imposed therefor.

(4) Any physician who fails to comply with the provisions of KRS 212.343, upon conviction thereof shall be fined not more than five hundred dollars ($500).

(5) Failure to procure the informed consent of those required to give their consent pursuant to KRS 212.345, prior to performing a nontherapeutic sterilization shall be punishable by imprisonment in the county jail not to exceed one (1) year or a fine not to exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000), or both.

(6) Any physician violating KRS 212.347 shall be imprisoned in the county jail not to exceed one (1) year or shall pay a fine not to exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000), or both.

CHAPTER 213 VITAL STATISTICS

Section

213.031. Duties of state registrar.

213.031. Duties of state registrar.

The state registrar, under the supervision of the commissioner of health, shall:

(1) Administer and enforce the provisions of this chapter and the administrative regulations issued hereunder; issue instructions for the efficient administration of the system of vital statistics; direct the system and Vital Statistics Branch and be custodian of its records; supervise the activities of all persons when they are engaged in the operation of the system; and conduct training programs to promote uniformity of the system's policy and procedures throughout the Commonwealth;

(2) With the approval of the cabinet, design, furnish, and distribute forms required by this chapter and the administrative regulations issued hereunder, or prescribe other means for transmission of data to accomplish the purpose of complete and accurate reporting and registration;

(3) Assist in preparing and publishing reports of vital statistics of the Commonwealth and other reports as required;

(4) Provide to local health departments copies of or data derived from certificates and reports required under this chapter. The state registrar shall establish a schedule with each local health department for transmittal of the copies or data. The copies shall remain the property of the Vital Statistics Branch, and the uses which may be made of them and the period of their retention in the county shall be governed by the state registrar;

(5) Prepare and maintain a complete continuous index of all vital records registered under this chapter and provide, at not more than two (2) year intervals, a copy of the index to each local registrar; and

(6) Investigate cases of irregularity or violation of this chapter and when the cabinet deems it necessary, report violations to the Commonwealth's attorney of the proper county for prosecution.

History.

Enact. Acts 1990, ch. 369, § 5, effective July 13, 1990; 1992, ch. 195, § 11, effective July 14, 1992; 2005, ch. 99, § 431, effective June 20, 2005; 2020 ch. 36, § 22, effective July 15, 2020.

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

Private or public institutions which own copies of the Register of Births and Deaths are under no legal obligation to return this property to the Cabinet for Human Resources (now Health and Family Services) but if the institution is in possession of copies of the Register under a loan agreement with the Cabinet, the Cabinet as the owner might request that they be promptly returned depending upon the specifications of the loan agreement. OAG 91-25.

The Department for Libraries and Archives does not have the power to retrieve the various copies of the Register of Births and Deaths from public libraries, for no statute gives such broad supervisory authority to the Department for Libraries and Archives over local public libraries. OAG 91-25.

The Department for Libraries and Archives does not have to comply with a request from the Cabinet for Human Resources (now Health and Family Services) that copies of the index books stored at the archives be removed from public inspection. The statutes provide little direction as to who becomes the legal custodian of records which are transferred to the Kentucky Department for Libraries and Archives, for under KRS 61.870 either the state archives or the official custodian of the agency might be legally deemed to be the custodian of the records, and since the copies of the Register are open to public inspection the Department for Libraries and Archives need not comply with the request of the Cabinet to restrict access to the records. OAG 91-25.

The microfilm copies of the Register of Births and Deaths now in the possession of the university libraries are private publications which they obtained from the Latter Day Saints, and the Cabinet for Human Resources (now Health and Family Services) has no legal authority to replevin these materials. OAG 91-25.

GENERAL PROVISIONS

214.032. Definition for KRS 158.035, 214.010, 214.020, and 214.032 to 214.036.

As used in KRS 158.035, 214.010, 214.020, and 214.032 to 214.036 the term “child” means a person under eighteen (18) years of age.

History.

Enact. Acts 1962, ch. 95, § 1; 1968, ch. 87, § 1.

214.034. Immunization of children — Testing and treatment of children for tuberculosis — Requirement for reception and retention of current immunization certificate by schools and child-care facilities.

Except as otherwise provided in KRS 214.036:

(1) All parents, guardians, and other persons having care, custody, or control of any child shall have the child immunized against diphtheria, tetanus, poliomyelitis, pertussis, measles, rubella, mumps, hepatitis B, and haemophilis influenzae disease in accordance with testing and immunization schedules established by regulations of the Cabinet for Health and Family Services. Additional immunizations may be required by the Cabinet for Health and Family Services through the promulgation of an administrative regulation pursuant to KRS Chapter 13A if recommended by the United States Public Health Service or the American Academy of Pediatrics. All parents, guardians, and other persons having care, custody, or control of any child shall also have any child found to be infected with tuberculosis examined and treated according to administrative regulations of the Cabinet for Health and Family Services promulgated under KRS Chapter 13A. The persons shall also have booster immunizations administered to the child in accordance with the regulations of the Cabinet for Health and Family Services.

(2) A local health department may, with the approval of the Department of Public Health, require all first-time enrollees in a public or private school within the health department’s jurisdiction to be tested for tuberculosis prior to entering school. Following the first year of school, upon an epidemiological determination made by the state or local health officer in accordance with administrative regulations promulgated by the Cabinet for Health and Family Services, all parents, guardians, and other persons having care, custody, or control of any child shall have the child tested for tuberculosis, and shall have any child found to be infected with tuberculosis examined and treated according to administrative regulations of the Cabinet for Health and Family Services. Nothing in this section shall be construed to require the testing for tuberculosis of any child whose parent or guardian is opposed to such testing, and who objects by a written sworn statement to the testing for tuberculosis of the child on religious grounds. However, in a suspected case of tuberculosis, a local health department may require testing of this child.

(3) All public or private primary or secondary schools, and preschool programs shall require a current immunization certificate for any child enrolled as a regular attendee, as provided by administrative regulation of the Cabinet for Health and Family Services, promulgated under KRS Chapter 13A, to be on file within two (2) weeks of the child’s attendance.

(4) All public or private primary schools shall require a current immunization certificate for hepatitis B for any child enrolled as a regular attendee in the sixth grade, as provided by administrative regulation of the Cabinet for Health and Family Services, promulgated under KRS Chapter 13A, to be on file within two (2) weeks of the child’s attendance.

(5) For each child cared for in a day-care center, certified family child-care home, or any other licensed facility which cares for children, a current immunization certificate, as provided by administrative regulation of the Cabinet for Health and Family Services, promulgated under KRS Chapter 13A, shall be on file in the center, home, or facility within thirty (30) days of entrance into the program or admission to the facility.

(6) Any forms relating to exemption from immunization requirements shall be available at public or private primary or secondary schools, preschool programs, day-care centers, certified family child-care homes, or other licensed facilities which care for children.

History.

Enact. Acts 1962, ch. 95, § 2; 1968, ch. 87, § 2; 1972, ch. 341, § 2; 1974, ch. 74, Art. VI, § 107(1), (3); 1976, ch. 14, § 1; 1976, ch. 128, § 4; 1982, ch. 271, § 1, effective July 15, 1982; 1996, ch. 306, § 1, effective July 15, 1996; 1998, ch. 302, § 1, effective July 15, 1998; 1998, ch. 426, § 395, effective July 15, 1998; 2000, ch. 349, § 1, effective July 14, 2000; 2005, ch. 99, § 448, effective June 20, 2005; 2008, ch. 124, § 1, effective July 15, 2008.

Legislative Research Commission Notes.

(7/15/98). A reference in this statute to the former Department of Health Services has been changed to the Department of Public Health under 1998 Ky. Acts ch. 426, sec. 629, and KRS 7.136(2).

NOTES TO DECISIONS

1. Constitutionality.

Since the primary effect of the state immunization program was to improve and protect the health and well-being of citizens, the exemption for members of a religious denomination, the teachings of which are opposed to medical immunization against disease, did not make this statute unconstitutional as being in violation of the establishment clause of the First Amendment. Kleid v. Board of Education, 406 F. Supp. 902, 1976 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 16997 (W.D. Ky. 1976).

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

A certificate stating that a child has been tested for tuberculosis is required for initial enrollment in any public or private elementary or secondary school system irrespective of age or grade of the child. OAG 76-255.

The county board of health is authorized to enforce the immunization requirements of this section and KRS 158.035 by entering an order under KRS 212.245 or by proceeding directly against the parent, guardian, or custodian of the child who fails to have him immunized by having a criminal complaint sworn out against the offending adult. OAG 78-24.

Although it is principally no longer required that a child be tested for tuberculosis as a condition to be met before enrolling in school, and the state board could so recognize this fact by appropriate regulation, the law clearly still requires under this section that all children are to be tested for tuberculosis. Even absent a required schedule for tuberculosis testing, children should be so tested before enrolling in school for the first time. OAG 82-131.

It is mandatory by law that children are to be tested for tuberculosis and, of course, treated if the child is found to be infected with tuberculosis. OAG 82-131.

214.036. Exceptions to testing or immunization requirement.

(1) Nothing contained in KRS 158.035, 214.010, 214.020, 214.032 to 214.036, and 214.990 shall be construed to require:

(a) The testing for tuberculosis or the immunization of any child at a time when, in the written opinion of his or her attending health care provider, such testing or immunization would be injurious to the child's health;

(b) The immunization of any child whose parents or guardian are opposed to medical immunization against disease, and who object by a written sworn statement to the immunization of such child based on religious grounds; or

(c) The immunization of any emancipated minor or adult who is opposed to medical immunization against disease, and who objects by a written sworn statement to the immunization based on religious grounds.

(2) In the event of an epidemic in a given area, the Cabinet for Health and Family Services may require the immunization of all persons within the area of epidemic, against the disease responsible for such epidemic, except that any administrative regulation promulgated pursuant to KRS Chapter 13A, administrative order issued by the cabinet or a local public health department, or executive order issued pursuant to KRS Chapter 39A requiring such immunization shall not include:

(a) The immunization of any child or adult for whom, in the written opinion of his or her attending health care provider, such testing or immunization would be injurious to his or her health;

(b) The immunization of any child whose parents or guardians are opposed to medical immunization against disease and who object by a written sworn statement to the immunization based on religious grounds or conscientiously held beliefs; or

(c) The immunization of any emancipated minor or adult who is opposed to medical immunization against disease, and who objects by a written sworn statement to the immunization based on religious grounds or conscientiously held beliefs.

(3) The cabinet shall:

(a) Develop and make available on its Web site a standardized form relating to exemptions in this section from the immunization requirements; and

(b) Accept a completed standardized form when submitted.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Analysis

1. Constitutionality.
2. Children's Best Interests.

1. Constitutionality.

Since the primary effect of the state immunization program was to improve and protect the health and well-being of citizens, this statute was not unconstitutional as being in violation of the establishment clause of the First Amendment. Kleid v. Board of Education, 406 F. Supp. 902, 1976 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 16997 (W.D. Ky. 1976).

2. Children's Best Interests.

Requiring children to be vaccinated despite the mother's religious objection was proper because the parents, as joint custodians, failed to agree on the issue and a hearing was conducted where it was found to be in the children's best interest to be vaccinated based on pediatric advice and CDC guidelines. Burch v. Lipscomb, 638 S.W.3d 460, 2021 Ky. App. LEXIS 130 (Ky. Ct. App. 2021).

Piatt v. Louisville & Jefferson County Board of Education, 556 F.2d 809, 1977 U.S. App. LEXIS 12994 (6th Cir. 1977).

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

A chiropractor is not a physician within the meaning of the statute authorizing physicians under certain circumstances by written opinion to exempt children from immunization otherwise required nor was his certification "the best interests of their health" sufficient to meet the statutory requirement that "such immunization would be injurious to the child's health." OAG 74-758.

Unless a child is excepted from immunization or testing for tuberculosis under this section, a child who does not comply with immunization and testing requirements cannot enroll in any public or private school system, and the child's failure to attend school will subject the parents or the custodians to the penalties set forth in KRS 159.990. OAG 76-256.

214.185. Diagnosis and treatment of disease, addictions, or other conditions of minor — Provision of outpatient mental health counseling — Effective consent.

(1) Any physician, upon consultation by a minor as a patient, with the consent of such minor may make a diagnostic examination for venereal disease, pregnancy, or substance use disorder and may advise, prescribe for, and treat such minor regarding venereal disease, substance use disorder, contraception, pregnancy, or childbirth, all without the consent of or notification to the parent, parents, or guardian of such minor patient, or to any other person having custody of such minor patient. Treatment under this section does not include inducing of an abortion or performance of a sterilization operation. In any such case, the physician shall incur no civil or criminal liability by reason of having made such diagnostic examination or rendered such treatment, but such immunity shall not apply to any negligent acts or omissions.

(2) Any physician may provide outpatient mental health counseling to any child age sixteen (16) or older upon request of such child without the consent of a parent, parents, or guardian of such child.

(3) Any qualified mental health professional, as defined by KRS 202A.011, may provide outpatient mental health counseling to any child who is age sixteen (16) or older and is an unaccompanied youth, as defined by 42 U.S.C. sec. 11434a(6), upon request of such child without the consent of a parent, parents, or guardian of such child.

(4) Notwithstanding any other provision of the law, and without limiting cases in which consent may be otherwise obtained or is not required, any emancipated minor or any minor who has contracted a lawful marriage or borne a child may give consent to the furnishing of hospital, medical, dental, or surgical care to his or her child or himself or herself and such consent shall not be subject to disaffirmance because of minority. The consent of the parent or parents of such married or emancipated minor shall not be necessary in order to authorize such care. For the purpose of this section only, a subsequent judgment of annulment of marriage or judgment of divorce shall not deprive the minor of his or her adult status once obtained. The provider of care may look only to the minor or spouse for payment for services under this section unless other persons specifically agree to assume the cost.

(5) Medical, dental, and other health services may be rendered to minors of any age without the consent of a parent or legal guardian when, in the professional's judgment, the risk to the minor's life or health is of such a nature that treatment should be given without delay and the requirement of consent would result in delay or denial of treatment.

(6) The consent of a minor who represents that he or she may give effective consent for the purpose of receiving medical, dental, or other health services but who may not in fact do so, shall be deemed effective without the consent of the minor's parent or legal guardian, if the person rendering the service relied in good faith upon the representations of the minor.

(7) The consent of a minor who represents that he or she may give effective consent for the purpose of receiving outpatient mental health counseling from a qualified mental health professional, but who may not in fact do so, shall be deemed effective without the consent of the minor's parent or legal guardian if the person rendering the service relied in good faith upon the representations of the minor after a reasonable attempt to obtain parental consent or to verify the minor's age and status as an unaccompanied youth.

(8) The professional may inform the parent or legal guardian of the minor patient of any treatment given or needed where, in the judgment of the professional, informing the parent or guardian would benefit the health of the minor patient.

(9) Except as otherwise provided in this section, parents, the Cabinet for Health and Family Services, or any other custodian or guardian of a minor shall not be financially responsible for services rendered under this section unless they are essential for the preservation of the health of the minor.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

1. Consent to Abortion.

During that stage of pregnancy before viability of the fetus parental consent to a minor's abortion is not required since such a regulation would interfere with pregnant minor's right of privacy in abortion decision at a time when the state's interest in protecting the potentiality of human life is not compelling. Wolfe v. Schroering, 388 F. Supp. 631, 1974 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 5712 (W.D. Ky. 1974), aff'd in part and rev'd in part, 541 F.2d 523, 1976 U.S. App. LEXIS 7513 (6th Cir. Ky. 1976).

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

Under the 1972 amendment to this section by Chapter 163, paragraph (1), a health department would not be liable in the event that contraceptive services were refused to a minor who had requested them and the minor subsequently became pregnant as a result of the failure to provide such services, as the provisions of this section are permissive rather than mandatory. OAG 72-185.

Under the 1972 amendment to this section by Chapter 163, paragraph (1), a health department would not be liable for suit where contraceptive services were provided to a minor without the permission of or in spite of objections by the parent or legal guardian of the minor. OAG 72-490.

BLOOD DONATION

214.468. Donation of blood to nonprofit voluntary program by person age seventeen or older — Criteria for donation by person sixteen years of age.

(1) Any person seventeen (17) years of age or older may donate blood in a voluntary blood program, which is not operated for profit, without consent of the person's parent or legally authorized representative.

(2) Any person sixteen (16) years of age and weighing at least one hundred ten (110) pounds may donate blood in a voluntary blood program, which is not operated for profit, with the written consent of the person's parent or legally authorized representative.

(3) The parent or legally authorized representative of a person who donates blood pursuant to subsection (1) or (2) of this section shall not be held financially responsible for any medical complications arising from the blood donation.

(4) Before soliciting blood donations from students in high schools, joint vocational schools, or technical schools, a blood program, in cooperation with school authorities, shall make reasonable efforts to notify the parents or legally authorized representatives of the students that the students will be requested to donate blood.

PENALTIES

214.990. Penalties.

(1) Every head of a family who willfully fails or refuses and every physician who fails or refuses to comply with KRS 214.010 shall be guilty of a violation for each day he neglects or refuses to report. Repeated failure to report is sufficient cause for the revocation of a physician's certificate to practice medicine in this state.

(2) Any person who willfully violates any administrative regulation promulgated under KRS Chapter 13A by the Cabinet for Health and Family Services under KRS 214.020 shall be guilty of a Class B misdemeanor.

(3) Any physician or other person legally permitted to engage in attendance upon a pregnant woman during pregnancy or at delivery who fails to exercise due diligence in complying with KRS 214.160 and 214.170 shall be guilty of a violation.

(4) Any person who violates any of the provisions of KRS 214.280 to 214.310 shall be guilty of a Class A misdemeanor.

(5) Any person who violates any provision of KRS 214.034 or KRS 158.035 shall be guilty of a Class B misdemeanor.

(6) Any person who violates any provision of KRS 214.420 shall be guilty of a violation. Each violation shall constitute a separate offense.

(7) Any person who knowingly violates any provision of KRS 214.452 to 214.466 shall be guilty of a Class D felony. Each violation shall constitute a separate offense.

MISCELLANEOUS HEALTH CARE PROVISIONS

216.2970. Auditory screening of infants at hospitals and birthing centers — Forwarding of reports.

(1) As a condition of licensure or relicensure, all hospitals offering obstetric services and alternative birthing centers with at least forty (40) births per year shall provide an auditory screening for all infants using one (1) of the methods approved by the Office for Children with Special Health Care Needs by administrative regulation promulgated in accordance with KRS Chapter 13A.

(2) An auditory screening report that indicates a finding of potential hearing loss shall be forwarded by the hospital or alternative birthing center within twenty-four (24) hours of receipt to the:

- (a) Attending physician or health care provider;
- (b) Parents;
- (c) Office for Children with Special Health Care Needs for evaluation or referral for further evaluation in accordance with KRS 211.647; and
- (d) Audiological assessment and diagnostic center approved by the office if a follow-up assessment has been scheduled prior to the infant's discharge from the hospital.

(3) An auditory screening report that does not indicate a potential hearing loss shall be forwarded within one (1) week to the Office for Children with Special Health Care Needs with no information that personally identifies the child.

Legislative Research Commission Notes.

(8/23/2019). In 2018 Ky. Acts ch. 114, sec. 1, the General Assembly renamed the "Commission for Children with Special Health Care Needs" as the "Office for Children with Special Health Care Needs." A reference to that "commission" was changed to "Office" in subsection (2)(d) of this statute. This name correction should have been addressed when 2018 Ky. Acts ch. 114 was codified, but it wasn't. This change is being made now under the authority of KRS 7.136(2).

(7/14/2018). Under the authority of KRS 7.136(2), one or more references to the "Commission for Children with Special Health Care Needs" in this statute have been changed in codification to the "Office for Children with Special Health Care Needs" to reflect the renaming of the commission by the General Assembly in 2018 Ky. Acts ch. 114.

CHAPTER 217

FOODS, DRUGS, AND POISONS

Food, Drug and Cosmetic Act.

Section

217.125. Authority of secretary and cabinet to promulgate administrative regulations — Permits required for food establishment, service, processing, storage, and distribution operations — Fees.

FOOD, DRUG AND COSMETIC ACT

217.125. Authority of secretary and cabinet to promulgate administrative regulations — Permits required for food establishment, service, processing, storage, and distribution operations — Fees.

(1) The authority to promulgate regulations for the efficient administration and enforcement of KRS

217.005 to 217.215 is hereby vested in the secretary. The secretary may make the regulations promulgated under KRS 217.005 to 217.215 consistent with those promulgated under the federal act and the Fair Packaging and Labeling Act. Regulations promulgated may require permits to operate and include provisions for regulating the issuance, suspension, and reinstatement of permits. The authority to promulgate regulations pursuant to KRS 217.005 to 217.205 is restricted to the Cabinet for Health and Family Services.

(2) No person shall operate a food processing establishment, food storage warehouse, salvage distributor, or salvage processing plant without having obtained an annual permit to operate from the cabinet. An application for the permit to operate shall be made to the cabinet upon forms provided by it and shall be accompanied by the required fee as shall be provided by regulation. The secretary shall promulgate administrative regulations to establish a fee schedule not to exceed costs of the program to the cabinet. Fees collected by the cabinet shall be deposited in the State Treasury and credited to a revolving fund account for use by the cabinet in carrying out the provisions of KRS 217.025 to 217.390 and the regulations adopted by the secretary pursuant thereto. The balance of the account shall lapse to the general fund at the end of each biennium.

(3) No person shall operate a retail food establishment without having obtained a permit to operate from the cabinet. An application for a permit to operate any retail food establishment shall be made to the cabinet upon forms provided by it and shall contain the information the cabinet may reasonably require.

(4)(a) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (11) of this section, each application for a temporary food service establishment or for an annual permit to operate a retail food establishment shall be accompanied by the required fee. The secretary shall promulgate administrative regulations to establish a fee schedule not to exceed costs to the cabinet.

(b) The total fees for permitting and inspection:

1. Shall be the total of the operational and administrative costs of the programs to the cabinet and to agencies as defined in KRS 211.185;

2. Beginning on March 17, 2020, until December 31, 2020, shall not increase more than twenty-five percent (25%) of the fee amount on March 17, 2020; and

3. Beginning on or after January 1, 2021, shall not increase more than five percent (5%) for each year thereafter.

(5) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (11) of this section, each application for a farmers market temporary food service establishment shall be accompanied by the required fee of at least fifty dollars ($50). The secretary shall establish a fee schedule by promulgation of administrative regulation. Fees collected by the cabinet shall be used to carry out duties related to farmers market temporary food service establishments, including but not limited to inspections and the issuance of permits.

(6) An applicant for a permit to operate a farmers market temporary food service establishment must provide documentation of successful completion of a food safety training program offered by either the state, a local health department, or other entity approved by the cabinet to conduct food safety training. Each certification of food safety training shall expire after a period of twenty-four (24) months from the date of issuance. Permits issued shall be posted in a conspicuous place in the establishment, and a person who has completed the food safety training for farmers market temporary food service establishments shall be present at all times during the operation of the establishment.

(7) Upon expiration of a temporary food service establishment permit, any subsequent permits shall not be issued to the same operator to operate at the same location until a period of thirty (30) days has elapsed.

(8) Upon receipt of an application for a permit to operate a food processing establishment, food storage warehouse, salvage distributor, or salvage processing plant or a retail food establishment accompanied by the required fee, the cabinet shall issue a permit if the establishment meets the requirements of KRS 217.005 to 217.215 and regulations adopted by the cabinet. Retail food establishments holding a valid and effective permit on January 1, 1973, even though not fully meeting the construction requirements of KRS 217.005 to 217.215 and the regulations adopted pursuant thereto, may continue to be eligible for permit renewal if in good repair and capable of being maintained in a safe and sanitary manner.

(9) Permits shall not be issued to operate a temporary food service establishment and a farmers market temporary food service establishment simultaneously at the same location and by the same operator.

(10) In all instances of permit issuance for either a temporary food service establishment permit or a farmers market temporary food service establishment permit, any subsequent permits shall not be issued until a period of thirty (30) days has elapsed.

(11) Private, parochial, and public school cafeterias or lunchroom facilities through the twelfth grade, charitable food kitchens, and all facilities operated by the Cabinet for Health and Family Services or Department of Corrections shall be exempt from the payment of fees, but shall comply with all other provisions of KRS 217.005 to 217.215 and the state retail food establishment code. For this subsection, the term "charitable food kitchens" means a not-for-profit, benevolent food service establishment where more than one-half (1/2) of the employees are volunteers.

(12) Each annual permit to operate a food processing establishment, food storage warehouse, salvage distributor, or salvage processing plant or a retail food establishment, unless previously suspended or revoked, shall expire on December 31 following its date of issuance, and be renewable annually upon application accompanied by the required fee, except as otherwise provided in subsection (11) of this section, and if the establishment is in compliance with KRS 217.005 to 217.215 and regulations of the cabinet.

(13) Each permit to operate a food processing establishment, food storage warehouse, salvage distributor, salvage processing plant, or a retail food establishment shall be issued only for the premises and person named in the application and shall not be transferable. Permits issued shall be posted in a conspicuous place in the establishment.

WATER PLANT OPERATORS

223.160. Operators of water treatment plant to have certificate of competency — Limited certificate of competency.

(1) It is the intent of KRS 223.160 to 223.220 and 223.991 that every operator in responsible charge of a water treatment plant or water distribution system be required to hold a valid and effective certificate of competency issued by the Energy and Environment Cabinet in a class equal to or higher than the class of the particular treatment plant or distribution system where he is currently employed in order to protect the public health. Operators other than those in responsible charge of such facilities shall also be eligible to apply for certification.

(2) An operator of a water treatment facility for a school and for a semipublic water supply shall be entitled to a limited certificate of competency for his particular facility provided he has demonstrated that he has the knowledge and experience required to operate properly the particular water treatment facility for which he is responsible. A limited certificate of competency so issued is not transferable to any other water treatment facility, nor is the period of operation under such a limited certificate eligible for consideration toward the experience requirements for a certificate of competency as provided in subsection (1) of this section.

224.20-300. Purpose.

For the purpose of adopting the Asbestos Hazard Emergency Response Act, called AHERA, Public Law (99-519), as amended, the cabinet may develop, adopt, and maintain a comprehensive statewide asbestos assessment and response program and an accreditation program that shall replicate the federal environmental protection agency model plan issued April 30, 1987 and the provisions of Title 40 of the Code of Federal Regulations, Part 763, Subpart E. The programs shall include but not be limited to:

- (1) Identifying and controlling asbestos hazards in public and private schools, grades K-12;
- (2) Providing for accreditation of asbestos inspectors, management planners, abatement project designers, abatement contractors, supervisors, and abatement workers;
- (3) Reviewing training courses to determine if they are approvable under the criteria established in the April 30, 1987 model plan and any other criteria adopted by the cabinet; and
- (4) Reviewing school asbestos management plans and inspecting school buildings for compliance with this section.

SUBCHAPTER 99. PENALTIES

224.99-010. Penalties.

(1) Any person who violates KRS 224.10-110(2) or (3), 224.70-110, 224.73-120, 224.20-050, 224.20-110, 224.46-580, 224.1-400, or who fails to perform any duties imposed by these sections, or who violates any determination, permit, administrative regulation, or order of the cabinet promulgated pursuant thereto shall be liable for a civil penalty not to exceed the sum of twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) for each day during which such violation continues, and in addition, may be concurrently enjoined from any violations as hereinafter provided in this section and KRS 224.99-020.

(2) Any person who violates KRS 224.10-110(4) or (5), or KRS 224.40-100, 224.40-305, or any provision of this chapter relating to noise, or who fails to perform any determination, permit, administrative regulation, or order of the cabinet promulgated pursuant thereto shall be liable for a civil penalty not to exceed the sum of five thousand dollars ($5,000) for said violation and an additional civil penalty not to exceed five thousand dollars ($5,000) for each day during which such violation continues, and in addition, may be concurrently enjoined from any violations as hereinafter provided in this section and KRS 224.99-020.

(3)(a) Any person who shall knowingly violate any of the provisions of this chapter relating to noise or any determination or order of the cabinet promulgated pursuant to those sections which have become final shall be guilty of a Class A misdemeanor. Each day upon which the violation occurs shall constitute a separate violation.

(b) For offenses by motor vehicles, a person shall be guilty of a violation.

(4) Any person who knowingly violates KRS 224.70-110, 224.73-120, 224.40-100, 224.20-110, 224.20-050, 224.40-305, or 224.10-110(2) or (3), or any determination, permit, administrative regulation, or order of the cabinet promulgated pursuant to those sections which have become final, or who knowingly provides false information in any document filed or required to be maintained under this chapter, or who knowingly renders inaccurate any monitoring device or method, or who tampers with a water supply, water purification plant, or water distribution system so as to knowingly endanger human life, shall be guilty of a Class D felony, and upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by a fine not to exceed twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000), or by imprisonment for a term of not less than one (1) year and not more than five (5) years, or by both fine and imprisonment, for each separate violation. Each day upon which a violation occurs shall constitute a separate violation.

(5) If any person engages in generation, treatment, storage, transportation, or disposal of hazardous waste in violation of the hazardous waste management provisions of this chapter or contrary to a permit, order, or rule issued or promulgated under this chapter, or fails to provide information or to meet reporting requirements required by terms and conditions of a permit or administrative regulations promulgated pursuant to this chapter, the secretary may issue an order requiring compliance within a specified time period or may commence a civil action in a court of appropriate jurisdiction. The violator shall be liable for a civil penalty not to exceed the sum of twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) for each day during which the violation continues, and in addition, may be enjoined from any violations in a court of appropriate jurisdiction.

(6) Any person who knowingly is engaged in generation, treatment, storage, transportation, or disposal of hazardous waste in violation of this chapter or contrary to a permit, order, or administrative regulation issued or promulgated under this chapter, or knowingly makes a false statement, representation, or certification in an application for or form pertaining to a permit or in a notice or report required by the terms and conditions of an issued permit, shall be guilty of a Class D felony, and upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by a fine not to exceed twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) for each day of violation, or by imprisonment for a term of not less than one (1) year and not more than five (5) years, or by both fine and imprisonment, for each separate violation. Each day upon which a violation occurs shall constitute a separate violation.

(7) Nothing contained in subsections (4) or (5) of this section shall abridge the right of any person to recover actual compensatory damages resulting from any violation.

(8) Any person who violates any provision of this chapter to which no express penalty provision applies, except as provided in KRS 211.995, or who fails to perform any duties imposed by those sections, or who violates any determination or order of the cabinet promulgated pursuant thereto shall be liable for a civil penalty not to exceed the sum of one thousand dollars ($1,000) for said violation and an additional civil penalty not to exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000) for each day during which the violation continues, and in addition, may be concurrently enjoined from any violations as hereinafter provided in this section and KRS 224.99-020.

(9) The Franklin Circuit Court shall hold concurrent jurisdiction and venue of all civil, criminal, and injunctive actions instituted by the cabinet or by the Attorney General on its behalf for the enforcement of the provisions of this chapter or the orders and administrative regulations of the cabinet promulgated pursuant thereto.

(10) Any person who deposits leaves, clippings, prunings, garden refuse, or household waste materials in any litter receptacle, except with permission of the owner of the receptacle, or who places litter into a receptacle in such a manner that the litter may be carried away or deposited by the elements upon any property or water not owned by him is guilty of a Class B misdemeanor. Penalties imposed under this subsection shall be, when collected, transferred to the county treasurer where the offense occurred and placed into a fund for solid waste cleanup. This subsection shall not be construed to divert any other fines assessed and collected by the cabinet or funds available to the cabinet for the purpose of remediation of open dumps.

(11) In addition to or in lieu of the penalties set forth in this section or in KRS Chapters 532 and 534, any person found guilty of a second or subsequent offense related to littering may be ordered by the court to pick up litter for not less than four (4) hours.

(12) Any person who violates KRS 224.20-300, 224.20-310, any other provision of this chapter, or any determination, permit, administrative regulation, or order of the cabinet relating to the Asbestos Hazard Emergency Response Act of 1986 (AHERA), Public Law 99-519, as amended, shall be liable to the Commonwealth of Kentucky for a civil penalty in an amount not to exceed twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) for each violation. Each day a violation continues shall, for purposes of this subsection, constitute a separate violation of provisions of this chapter relating to AHERA.

(13) A violation of KRS 224.50-413 shall be subject to a fifty dollar ($50) fine for each day the violation continues.

(14) Any person who removes a methamphetamine contamination notice posted under KRS 224.1-410(9) contrary to the administrative regulations governing methamphetamine contamination notice removal shall be guilty of a Class A misdemeanor.

(15) Any person who leases, rents, or sells a property that has been determined to be contaminated property under KRS 224.1-410(4) to a lessee, renter, or buyer without giving written notice that the property is a contaminated property pursuant to KRS 224.1-410(10) shall be guilty of a Class D felony.

Compiler's Notes.

The Asbestos Hazard Emergency Response Act of 1986, referred to in subsection (12) of this section, is compiled primarily as 15 USCS § 2641 et seq.

This section was formerly compiled as KRS 224.994.

This section is set out above to reflect a correction to the section reference appearing in subsection (1) from 224.01-400 to 224.1-400, subsection (14) from 224.01-410(9) to 224.1-410(9), and subsection (15) from 224.01-410(4) to 224.1-410(4) and 224.01-410(10) to 224.1-410(10) due to renumbering by the state reviser effective in 2013.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Analysis

1. Constitutionality.
2. — Concurrent Jurisdiction.
3. Consent Decree.

1. Constitutionality.

2. — Concurrent Jurisdiction.

Concurrent criminal jurisdiction provided by subsection (9) of this section is violative of Ky. Const., § 11 in situations where there is no valid connection between the criminal activity and Franklin County; judgments asserting defendant's entitlement to venue in county where dumping violations of KRS 224.40-100(2) and 224.40-305 occurred were affirmed. Commonwealth v. Crider & Rogers, 929 S.W.2d 179, 1996 Ky. LEXIS 77 (Ky. 1996).

3. Consent Decree.

Metropolitan sewer district was not entitled to employ the dispute resolution provision of a consent decree arising from an action under 33 USCS § 1319 of the Clean Water Act and KRS 224.99-010 and 224.70-110, because the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency's request for information under 33 USCS § 1318 did not generate a dispute arising under or with respect to the consent decree. Kentucky v. Louisville & Jefferson County Metro. Sewer Dist., 542 F. Supp. 2d 668, 2008 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 11319 (W.D. Ky. 2008).

FIRE PREVENTION AND PROTECTION

227.220. Duties of state fire marshal and chief state building official relating to fire loss.

(1) The state fire marshal shall enforce or aid in the enforcement of all laws, administrative regulations, and ordinances of the state and its political subdivisions relating to fire loss as defined in KRS 227.200:

(a) The prevention or reduction of loss by fire or by other hazard or risk insured by property or casualty insurance companies doing business in this state, except as to disability insurance and workers' compensation, and shall enforce any other regulations or methods adopted for the prevention of loss from such hazards or risks in order to promote the safety of persons or property;

(b) The manufacture, transportation, storage, sale, or use of combustibles, explosives, and hazardous materials or equipment;

(c) The design, construction, and maintenance of property which has a direct bearing on safety to life and property;

(d) The construction, installation, maintenance, or equipment of fire alarm systems, fire protection and extinguishing equipment, and fire escapes and other means of access to or exit from property; and

(e) Arson and related offenses.

(2) The chief state building official shall enforce and administer all applicable provisions of the Kentucky Building Code, including all the provisions designed for the prevention of fire loss, and shall have all the powers and duties awarded by KRS Chapter 198B and the Kentucky Building Code.

(3) The state fire marshal is authorized to:

(a) Investigate the cause, origin, and circumstances of fires and explosions for the purpose of detecting and suppressing arson and related offenses, or for the purpose of minimizing or preventing fire loss;

(b) Supervise and make periodic inspections of all property within the state, and assist cities having fire departments in making like periodic inspections of all property in cities, except occupied private dwellings;

(c) Issue and enforce reasonable emergency orders and orders in accordance with KRS 227.330 for the prevention of fire loss, and for the adoption, approval, and installation of safety measures, remodeling, and equipment as will minimize fire loss;

(d) Provide technical and engineering advice and assistance to state and local governmental agencies in relation to fire prevention or fire protection;

(e) Direct and assist owners of educational institutions, places of public assembly, institutional buildings, public buildings, factories, business buildings, or other places where persons congregate, in the instruction of fire prevention, and the holding of fire drills;

(f) Conduct fire prevention and educational campaigns;

(g) Conduct examinations into the cause, origin, or circumstances of fire losses;

(h) Hold administrative hearings in accordance with the KRS Chapter 13B, as may be required by law or deemed by the state fire marshal necessary or desirable as to any matter within the scope of this chapter. All administrative hearings shall be public, unless the state fire marshal, or an authorized designee, determines that a private hearing would be in the public interest, in which case, and only with the consent of all parties to the hearing, the hearing shall be private;

(i) Direct research in the field of fire protection and accept gifts and grants for these purposes;

(j) Appoint deputy fire marshals to be fire investigators; and

(k) Recommend curricula for advanced courses and seminars in fire science training in colleges and institutions of higher education.

(4) The state fire marshal shall head the Division of Fire Prevention in the department.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Analysis

1. Hearsay.
2. Closing of Public Building.
3. Delegation of Power.

1. Hearsay.

The fact that the Legislature in this section recognizes the magnitude of arson problems and directs investigation and enforcement of laws concerning it does not enhance or broaden the hearsay rule exception that an expert witness may express a testimonial opinion that is based in part upon hearsay evidence. Therefore, it was not error for the trial court to prohibit state police officers from directly testifying and relating hearsay testimony in question, the effect of which would have been that they had statements from the persons who allegedly did the actual burning who told them that the person allegedly hired by the insureds to burn the building told the person who allegedly did the actual burning that the insured hired him to hire them to burn the premises and its contents for a certain sum of money and that they did so. American Hardware Mut. Ins. Co. v. Fryer, 692 S.W.2d 278, 1984 Ky. App. LEXIS 574 (Ky. Ct. App. 1984).

2. Closing of Public Building.

Law providing procedures for fire prevention and protection conferred no express authority to close a theater or public building. Foster v. Goodpaster, 290 Ky. 410, 161 S.W.2d 626, 1942 Ky. LEXIS 418 (Ky. 1942) (decided under prior law).

3. Delegation of Power.

The Legislature could not delegate to the director of insurance the power to enact under the guise of a standard of safety, a law prohibiting the operation of a movie theater in a building, the main floor of which was more than four feet above the adjoining grade level in view of the sweeping and confiscatory effect of such law and in absence of any standards or limitations fixed for its operation. Goodpaster v. Foster, 296 Ky. 614, 178 S.W.2d 29, 1944 Ky. LEXIS 597 (Ky. 1944) (decided under prior law).

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

Neither this section nor KRS 227.300 grants authority for the Fire Marshal to require retroactive application of any new standards of safety to existing structures. OAG 78-185.

The fact that deficiencies had been noted in the courthouse building by the Fire Marshal's office would not necessarily preclude the county from proceeding to remodel the courtroom of the courthouse, presuming, however, that the county adhered to the requirements of the administrative regulations adopted on behalf of the State Fire Marshal's office by submitting, to the State Fire Marshal's office for inspection and approval by that office, the plans and specifications involving the proposed remodeling project; even if the county complied with the requirements of the regulation and obtained a permit to remodel the courtroom, it would not be relieved of its obligation to correct all the other deficiencies in the courthouse discovered by the State Fire Marshal's office during the course of its authorized inspections. PENALTIES

227.990. Penalties.

(1) Except for manufactured homes manufactured under the federal act, any person who violates any provision of this chapter or any provision of a lawful order, rule, or regulation made under the provisions of this chapter, or who induces another to violate any provisions of this chapter or of any lawful order, rule, or regulation made thereunder, upon conviction thereof shall be fined not less than twenty-five dollars ($25) nor more than one thousand dollars ($1,000), or confined in the county jail for not more than sixty (60) days, or both. Each day such violations exist shall, in the discretion of the courts, be considered as a separate offense.

(2) Any person who, for manufactured homes manufactured under the federal act, violates any provision of the federal act or of KRS 227.550 to 227.660 or any regulation or final order issued thereunder shall be liable for a civil penalty not to exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000) for each such violation. Each violation of a provision of KRS 227.550 to 227.660 or of the federal act or any regulation or order issued thereunder shall constitute a separate violation with respect to each manufactured home or mobile home or with respect to each failure or refusal to allow or perform an act required thereby, except that the maximum civil penalty may not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000) for any related series of violations occurring within one (1) year from the date of the first violation.

(3) Any individual, or a director, officer, or agent of a corporation who knowingly and willfully violates the federal act or KRS 227.550 to 227.660 in a manner which threatens the health or safety of any purchaser shall be fined not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000) or imprisoned not more than one (1) year in the county jail, or both.

(4) Any person violating the provisions of KRS 227.702 to 227.750, the regulations issued thereunder, or any order issued thereunder, or who knowingly induces another, directly or indirectly, to violate the provisions of those sections, shall be fined not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000), or imprisoned in the county jail for not more than thirty (30) days, or both.

Compiler's Notes.

A former section KRS 227.990 (762b-24, 1376L-2) was repealed by Acts 1954, ch. 201, § 23.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

1. Closing Buildings.

Although the director could, after hearing, order remedied or removed, defects and hazards violating the standards of safety and could inaugurate prosecutions and invoke the penalties prescribed in this section, he had no express authority to order buildings closed. Foster v. Goodpaster, 290 Ky. 410, 161 S.W.2d 626, 1942 Ky. LEXIS 418 (Ky. 1942) (decided under prior law).

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

Although the concept of sovereign immunity would generally preclude an action from being brought against the State, a city or a county for violations of the State Fire Marshal's regulations relating to the minimum requirements for facilities for physically handicapped persons in public buildings, a mandamus action could be maintained against the governmental entity and those officers responsible for the operation and maintenance of the buildings to compel them to conform to the requirements of the regulations. 236.005. Title.

This chapter shall be known and may be cited as the Boiler and Pressure Vessel Safety Act, and, except as otherwise provided herein, shall apply to all boilers and pressure vessels.

History.

Enact. Acts 1962, ch. 89, § 1; 1980, ch. 207, § 1, effective July 15, 1980.

Compiler's Notes.

The functions, powers and duties of the Commission on Fire Protection Personnel Standards and Education and the Department of Public Safety regarding boiler safety in this chapter have been transferred and vested in the department of Housing, Buildings, and Construction.

236.010. Definitions for chapter.

As used in this chapter:

(1) "Boiler" or "boilers" means and includes a closed vessel in which water or other liquid is heated, steam or vapor is generated, steam is superheated, or in which any combination of these functions is accomplished, under pressure or vacuum, for use externally to itself, by the direct application of energy from the combustion of fuels, or from electricity, solar or nuclear energy. The term "boiler" shall include fired units for heating or vaporizing liquids other than water where these units are separate from processing systems and are complete within themselves:

(a) "Power boiler" means a boiler in which steam or other vapor is generated at a pressure of more than fifteen (15) pounds per square inch gauge;

(b) "High pressure, high temperature water boiler" means a water boiler operating at pressures exceeding one hundred sixty (160) pounds per square inch gauge or temperatures exceeding two hundred fifty (250) degrees Fahrenheit;

(c) "Heating boiler" means a steam or vapor boiler operating at pressures not exceeding fifteen (15) pounds per square inch gauge or a hot water boiler operating at pressures not exceeding one hundred sixty (160) pounds per square inch gauge or temperatures not exceeding two hundred fifty (250) degrees Fahrenheit; and

(d) "Portable boiler" means a boiler which is primarily intended for a temporary location, construction and usage of which allows the boiler to be readily removed from one (1) location to another;

(2) "Pressure vessel" means a vessel in which the pressure is obtained from an external source or by the application of heat other than those vessels defined in subsection (1) of this section;

(3) "Commissioner" means the commissioner of Department of Housing, Buildings and Construction;

(4) "Department" means the Department of Housing, Buildings and Construction;

(5) "ASME" means American Society of Mechanical Engineers;

(6) "Committee" means the Housing, Buildings and Construction Advisory Committee created by KRS 198B.032;

(7) "Certificate inspection" means an inspection, the report of which is used by the chief boiler inspector to determine whether or not a certificate, as provided by subsection (1) of KRS 236.120, may be issued;

(8) "Administrative regulation" means an administrative regulation adopted by the department and filed and approved in accordance with KRS Chapter 13A that is designed to ensure the safety of boilers and pressure vessels that affects or may affect property rights of a designated class of owners, or designed for the prevention of loss or damage to property, loss of life, or personal injury from boiler or pressure vessel explosion or from certain indicated hazards related thereto;

(9) "Order" or "emergency order" means an order of the department, chief boiler inspector, or boiler inspector issued in accordance with this chapter for the prevention of:

(a) Loss or damage to property;

(b) Loss of life from boiler or pressure vessel malfunction or explosion; or

(c) Personal injury from boiler or pressure vessel malfunction or explosion;

(10) "Division" means the Division of Plumbing in the department;

(11) "Qualified welder" means a welder or welding machine operator who has successfully passed the tests required by the appropriate ASME boiler, pressure vessel, or piping code;

(12) "Person" or "firm" means any individual, firm, partnership, or corporation;

(13) "Chief boiler inspector" means the person employed by the department who shall serve as the boiler section supervisor within the Division of Plumbing;

(14) "Boiler inspector" means a duly authorized employee of the department who is charged with the responsibility of inspecting boilers and pressure vessels and with the enforcement of the state boiler laws;

(15) "Special boiler inspector" means any person employed by an insurance company authorized to insure boilers and pressure vessels in the Commonwealth and who holds a commission as provided in KRS 236.080. This term shall apply to both in-service inspectors and authorized inspectors of repairs, alterations, and shop work;

(16) "Domestic water" means potable water delivered by a piping system for personal use or consumption;

(17) "Potable water" means water free from impurities present in amounts sufficient to cause disease or harmful physiological effects and conforming in its bacteriological and chemical quality to the requirements of the Division of Water or the administrative regulations of the department;

(18) "Cryogenic service" means a fluid held under pressure and having a boiling point below one hundred degrees below zero (-100) Fahrenheit at one (1) atmospheric pressure, which upon release results in auto-refrigeration or cooling effect;

(19) "Oil refinery" means a facility used primarily for the refinement of petroleum products;

(20) "Qualified welding procedure" means a welding procedure that has passed tests required by the applicable ASME boiler, pressure vessel, or piping code;

(21) "Boiler external piping" means boiler piping as defined by ASME;

(22) "Non-boiler external piping" means boiler piping and boiler proper connections as defined in ASME Section I and applicable figures, and shall conform to either ASME B31.1 or ASME B31.3, including steam, boiler feedwater, blowdown, vents and drains, and chemical injection piping outside the boiler boundary;

(23) "MAWP" means the maximum allowable working pressure for a boiler, pressure vessel, or piping system;

(24) "Owner facility" means any facility licensed pursuant to KRS 236.097(1);

(25) "Owner's piping inspector" means any person licensed pursuant to KRS 236.097(2);

(26) “Independent inspection agency” means a person or company licensed under KRS 236.097(3) who is retained by an owner facility to conduct inspections under KRS 236.097(1); and

(27) “Owner-user facility” means any facility that operates pressure vessels and is accredited as an owner-user inspection organization by the national board.

236.030. Administrative regulations.

(1) After reasonable notice and opportunity to be heard in accordance with KRS Chapter 13A, the commissioner, upon advisement and subject to comment by the committee under the requirements of KRS 198B.030(8) shall, by administrative regulation, fix reasonable standards for the safe construction, installation, inspection, and repair of boilers, pressure vessels, and associated pressure piping in this state. Administrative regulations shall be enforced by the Department of Housing, Buildings and Construction, Division of Plumbing.

(2) The department may adopt any other administrative regulation necessary to administer this chapter if the regulation has been subject to review and comment by the committee under the requirements of KRS 198B.030(8).

236.040. Conformity required of boilers, pressure vessels, and connecting piping — Inspections.

(1) No boiler or pressure vessel which fails to conform to the rules and regulations formulated by the commissioner governing new construction and installation shall be installed and operated in this state.

(2) Subject to exemptions established in this chapter, all new connecting piping subjected to pressure emanating from a power boiler, heating boiler, hot water supply boiler, or pressure vessel shall be considered part of the boiler or pressure vessel installation, subject to the same boiler or pressure vessel code requirements, and shall be designed in accordance with the rules of ASME piping codes B31.1, B31.3, B31.5, B31.9, or B31.12 or their subsequent revisions, and ASME boiler and pressure vessel code Sections I, III, IV, VIII (Division 1, 2, or 3), or X or subsequent revisions of each. Inspection of such piping shall be performed by an inspector qualified under KRS 236.070, 236.080, or 236.097.

(3) Pressure vessels for human occupancy shall comply with subsection (2) of this section and ASME requirements for pressure vessels for human occupancy. Inspection of such piping shall be performed by a boiler inspector qualified under KRS 236.070, 236.080, and 236.097.

236.050. Maximum working pressure allowed — Construction of chapter.

(1) The maximum allowable working pressure of a boiler or pressure vessel carrying the ASME code symbol shall be determined by the applicable sections of the code under which it was constructed and stamped.

(2) The maximum allowable working pressure of a boiler or pressure vessel which does not carry the ASME code symbol shall be computed in accordance with the American Petroleum Institute 579/ASME FFS-1 (Fitness for Service) evaluation as adopted by the department and the regulations adopted in accordance with KRS 236.030.

(3) This chapter shall not be construed as in any way preventing the use or sale of a boiler referred to in this section, provided it has been made to conform to the rules and regulations of the commissioner governing existing installations; and provided, further, it has not been found upon inspection to be in an unsafe condition.

236.060. Application of chapter and KRS 236.005 to 236.150.

(1) This chapter applies to all boilers, pressure vessels, and related piping in the Commonwealth unless statutorily exempted.

(2) KRS 236.005 to 236.150 shall not apply to boilers or pressure vessels or related piping under federal control.

(3) KRS 236.005 to 236.150 shall not apply to the following:

(a) Portable boilers or pressure vessels located on land dedicated to agricultural use, as defined in KRS 100.111, and used solely for agricultural purposes;

(b) Boilers or pressure vessels located at any oil refineries;

(c) Steam or vapor boilers used for heating purposes carrying a pressure of not more than fifteen (15) pounds per square inch gauge, and which are located in private residences;

(d) Hot water heating boilers carrying a pressure of not more than thirty (30) pounds per square inch gauge or hot water heaters which are located in private residences;

(e) Any pressure vessels used as containers for liquefied petroleum gases and subject to the jurisdiction of the Department of Housing, Buildings and Construction under KRS Chapter 234;

(f) Pressure vessels used for transportation of compressed gases if constructed and operated in compliance with specifications and regulations of another state or federal authority;

(g) Pressure vessels containing air located on vehicles operating under the regulations of another state or federal authority;

(h) Pressure vessels having an internal or external operating pressure of fifteen (15) PSI or less;

(i) Single wall pressure vessels having an inside diameter, width, height, or cross-section diagonal not exceeding six (6) inches;

(j) Any combination unit having an internal or external pressure in each chamber not exceeding fifteen (15) PSI and differential pressure on the common element not exceeding fifteen (15) PSI;

(k) Pressure vessels with a nominal water containing capacity of one hundred twenty (120) gallons or less, to be used for domestic supply purposes, for containing water under pressure, including those containing air, the compression of which serves only as a cushion;

(l) Pressure vessels not exceeding the design pressure at the top of the vessel and with no limitation in size, not exceeding the following:

1. Vessels having an internal or external pressure of fifteen (15) PSI (100 kilopascals); or

2. Combination units having an internal or external pressure in each chamber of fifteen (15) PSI (100 kilopascals) and differential pressure on the common elements not exceeding fifteen (15) PSI (100 kilopascals);

(m) Pressure vessels containing water heated by steam or other indirect means when none of the following are exceeded:

1. Heat input of two hundred thousand (200,000) BTU/Hr.;

2. Water temperature of two hundred ten (210) degrees Fahrenheit; or

3. Water storage capacity of one hundred twenty (120) gallons;

(n) Coil type hot water boilers without a steam space and where no steam is generated within the confines of the unit but where water flashes into steam when released to atmospheric pressure by the operation of a manually operated nozzle, unless one (1) of the following is exceeded:

1. Three quarter ($\frac{3}{4}$) inch inside diameter tubing or pipe size with no drum or header attached;

2. Six (6) gallon water containing capacity; or

3. Three hundred fifty (350) degrees Fahrenheit water temperature;

(o) Water heaters, hot water supply boilers, or hot water storage tanks, which are directly fired with oil, gas, or electricity, when none of the following limitations are exceeded:

1. Heat input of two hundred thousand (200,000) BTU/Hr.;

2. A water temperature of two hundred ten (210) degrees Fahrenheit; or

3. A water containing capacity of one hundred twenty (120) gallons;

(p) Pressure vessels which may be classified as:

1. Pressure containers which are integral parts of components of rotating or reciprocating mechanical devices such as pumps, compressors, turbines, generators, engines, and hydraulic or pneumatic cylinders where the primary design considerations, stresses, or both are derived from the functional requirements of the device; or

2. Structures whose primary function is the transport of fluids from one location to another within a system of which it is an integral part, that is, piping system;

(q) Pressure vessels ASME "UM" stamped and which do not exceed the following:

1. One and one-half ($1\frac{1}{2}$) cubic feet in volume and six hundred (600) PSI MAWP;

2. Three (3) cubic feet in volume and three hundred fifty (350) PSI MAWP; or

3. Five (5) cubic feet in volume and two hundred fifty (250) PSI MAWP; or

(r) Compressed air receivers of one hundred twenty (120) gallons or less.

(4) This chapter shall apply only to piping associated with boilers and pressure vessels operating in the Commonwealth in the following applications and fluid services:

(a) All boiler external piping, conforming to ASME B31.1;

(b) Non-boiler external piping, including steam, boiler feedwater, blowdown, vents, drains, and chemical injection outside the boiler boundary conforming to ASME B31.1 or B31.3;

(c) All building services piping conforming to ASME B31.9;

(d) All compressed air piping emanating from a pressure vessel conforming to ASME B31.1, B31.3, or B31.9;

(e) All hot oil piping conforming to ASME B31.1 or B31.3; and

(f) All anhydrous ammonia piping conforming to ASME B31.3 or B31.5.

(5) Piping associated with boilers and pressure vessels exempted in subsection (2) of this section shall conform to the appropriate ASME piping code. The owner of the piping shall assume all oversight and responsibilities as established in the appropriate ASME piping code.

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

While the legislature exempted boilers under federal control from meeting the standards prescribed in the Boiler Safety Act, federal agencies can voluntarily comply with the act and request an inspection by state officials, provided the inspection fees are paid. OAG 67-558.

236.070. Boiler inspectors.

The department shall employ boiler inspectors who have at the time of appointment not less than five (5) years of practical experience in the construction, maintenance, repair, or operation of high pressure boilers and pressure vessels as a mechanical engineer, practical steam operating engineer, boilermaker, pressure vessel inspector or boiler inspector, and who shall have passed the examination required by KRS 236.090.

History.

Enact. Acts 1962, ch. 89, § 7; 1980, ch. 207, § 8, effective July 15, 1980; 2010, ch. 24, § 520, effective July 15, 2010; 2012, ch. 14, § 7, effective July 12, 2012; 2017 ch. 169, § 92, effective June 29, 2017.

236.080. Special boiler inspectors — State salary prohibited — Duties — Report.

(1) In addition to the boiler inspectors authorized by KRS 236.070, the department shall, upon the request of any company authorized to insure against loss from explosion of boilers and pressure vessels in this state, issue to any boiler inspectors of said company commissions as special boiler inspectors, provided that each such special boiler inspector before receiving such commission, shall satisfactorily pass the examination provided for in KRS 236.090, or, in lieu of such examination, shall hold a commission or certificate of competency as an inspector of boilers and pressure vessels for a state that has a standard of examination substantially equal to that of this Commonwealth or a commission as an inspector of boilers and pressure vessels issued by the National Board of Boiler and Pressure Vessel Inspectors.

(2) Such special boiler inspectors shall receive no salary from, nor shall any of their expenses be paid by, the state and the continuance of a special inspector's commission shall be conditioned upon his or her continuing in the employ of an insurance company duly authorized as aforesaid and upon his or her maintenance of the standards imposed by this chapter.

(3) Such special boiler inspectors shall inspect all boilers and pressure vessels insured by their respective companies, and, when so inspected and reported as required, the owners and users of such insured boilers and pressure vessels shall be exempt from the payment to the state of the inspection fees as provided for in KRS 236.120 and 236.130.

(4) Each company employing such special boiler inspectors shall within thirty (30) days following each certificate inspection made by such inspectors, file a report of such inspection with the division upon appropriate forms prescribed by the division. Other than the certificate inspection report, no reporting of other inspections shall be required except when such inspections disclose that the boiler or pressure vessel is in a dangerous condition.

236.090. Examination.

Examination for a certificate of competency or a national board commission for boiler inspectors or special boiler inspectors shall be in writing and shall be given and monitored by the boiler inspection section of the division. Examinations are given on the first Wednesday and Thursday of the months of March, June, September and December of each year. The record of an applicant's examination shall be accessible to said applicant and his employer.

236.095. Owner-user inspectors — Issuance of commission — Requirements — Reports — State salary prohibited.

(1) In addition to boiler inspectors authorized by KRS 236.070, the department shall issue an owner-user inspector commission to any inspector commissioned by a company operating a pressure vessel within the Commonwealth if:

(a) The company has an established and regular inspection program;

(b) The company is listed as an accredited Owner-User Inspection Organization in compliance with the National Board of Boiler and Pressure Vessel Inspectors Accreditation of Owner-User Inspection Organizations;

(c) The inspection program, personnel, equipment, and supervision meet the requirements established by the department; and

(d)1. The owner-user inspector applicant has successfully passed the examination required by KRS 236.090; or

2. The owner-user inspector applicant holds a commission as an inspector of boilers and pressure vessels issued by the National Board of Boiler and Pressure Vessel Inspectors.

(2) A commission as an owner-user inspector shall be issued only if, in addition to meeting the requirements of this section, the inspector is continuously employed by the company for the purpose of making inspections of pressure vessels used or to be used by the company, not of pressure vessels to be resold.

(3) A licensed owner-user inspector may not inspect boilers within the Commonwealth.

(4) A licensed owner-user inspector may inspect only pressure vessels insured by the inspector's employing company. When the vessels are inspected and reported as required, the owners and users of insured pressure vessels shall be exempt from payment to the state of inspection fees as provided in KRS 236.130.

(5) Each company employing a licensed owner-user inspector shall, within thirty (30) days following each certificate of inspection, file a report of inspection with the department. Reports shall be submitted upon forms prescribed by the department.

(6) No reporting of inspections other than the certificate of inspection reports shall be required unless an inspection reveals that the pressure vessel is in a dangerous condition.

(7) A licensed owner-user inspector shall receive no salary from, nor shall any expenses be paid by, the Commonwealth.

(8) Continuance of an owner-user inspector's commission shall be conditioned upon the inspector continuing employment for an owner-user company meeting requirements of subsection (1) of this section.

236.097. Owner facility license — Owner's piping inspector license — Independent inspection agency license — Application of licensing requirements.

(1) An owner facility subject to piping inspection by the department under this chapter may apply for a license from the department to allow the facility to conduct its own site piping inspections, other than for boiler external piping, in lieu of an inspection by the department.

(a) No piping inspections shall be conducted under an owner facility license unless the owner's piping inspector is licensed pursuant to subsection (2) of this section, or the contracted independent inspection agency is licensed pursuant to subsection (3) of this section. The department shall be notified of the owner facility's retention of the owner's piping inspector or independent inspection agency.

(b)1. The department shall develop and make available on the department's Web site an application for a license described in this subsection.

2. The application shall require the owner facility to:

- a. List all owner's piping inspectors retained by the facility;
- b. List all independent inspection agencies retained by the facility; and
- c. Provide evidence that the facility has employees who hold, or retains a contractor who holds, a license issued under KRS 236.210 for the facility and the facility has general liability insurance through a company permitted to transact insurance in Kentucky.

3. The list of owner's piping inspectors and independent inspection agencies shall be updated and provided to the department within thirty (30) days of a change.

(c) The department shall issue or deny a license under this subsection within forty-five (45) days of receiving a complete application.

(d) With the application, the applicant shall submit a fee of one thousand dollars ($1,000). If the application is denied by the department, the department shall refund five hundred dollars ($500) of the application fee to the applicant.

(e) An owner facility license shall be issued for a period of two (2) years.

(f) To renew a license the applicant shall submit a completed renewal application no later than sixty (60) days prior to license expiration with a nonrefundable renewal fee of five hundred dollars ($500).

(g) Prior to renewal, the department shall conduct an audit of piping at owner-licensed facilities. The audit shall verify that the piping conforms to standards prescribed by the ASME adopted by the department. An owner facility license shall continue in effect until approved or denied by the department so long as a renewal application is submitted as required by paragraph (f) of this subsection.

(h) Each licensed owner facility shall maintain records of all piping inspections, including identification of the owner's piping inspector or independent inspection agency, for a period of five (5) years following the inspection. Records of inspections shall be made available to the department upon request.

(2) An owner's piping inspector shall be licensed by the department prior to conducting piping inspections, other than for boiler external piping.

(a) The department shall develop and make available on the department's Web site an application for an owner's piping inspector license.

(b) The department shall issue or deny a license under this subsection upon review of a completed application demonstrating that the applicant meets the following criteria:

1. For inspections of piping repairs, the applicant is certified as defined under American Petroleum Institute Standard 570, Piping Inspection Code: Inspection, Repair, Alteration, and Rerating of In-Service Piping Systems; or

2. For all other inspections of piping, the applicant qualifies under owner inspection requirements pursuant to ASME piping code B31.1 or B31.3, as applicable, or the applicant holds a commission from the National Board of Boiler and Pressure Vessel Inspectors.

(c) With the application, the applicant shall submit an initial nonrefundable license application fee of one hundred dollars ($100) for a two (2) year license.

(d) The initial license fee may be prorated for not less than thirteen (13) months or more than thirty-six (36) months.

(e) An initial owner's piping inspector license shall expire on the final day of the applicant's birth month in the second year following the issue date.

(f) To renew a license, the applicant shall submit a completed renewal application and a nonrefundable renewal fee of fifty dollars ($50) to the department.

(3) Any independent inspection agency that employs licensed owner's piping inspectors shall be licensed by the department as an independent inspection agency.

(a) The department shall develop and make available on the department's Web site an independent inspection agency license application.

(b) With the application, the applicant shall submit a fee of one thousand dollars ($1,000) and a list of all owner's piping inspectors employed by the independent inspection agency. If the application is denied, five hundred dollars ($500) shall be refunded to the applicant.

(c) The list of owner's piping inspectors employed by the independent inspection agency shall be updated and provided to the department within thirty (30) days of change.

(d) An independent inspection agency license shall be effective for a period of two (2) years following the date of issuance.

(e) To renew a license, the applicant shall submit a completed renewal application and a nonrefundable renewal fee of five hundred dollars ($500).

(f) Each licensed independent inspection agency shall maintain a record of all piping inspections for a period of five (5) years following the inspection, including identification of the owner's piping inspectors. Records of inspections shall be made available to the department upon request.

(4) The licensing requirements of this section shall only apply to piping otherwise required to be inspected by a boiler inspector employed by the department pursuant to this chapter.

236.100. Suspension or revocation of appointment or commission — Notice and hearing — Reinstatement — Penalty for falsification of application or inspection report.

(1) Any boiler inspector's, special inspector's, owner-user inspector's, or owner's piping inspector's appointment or commission may be suspended or revoked by the department, after due investigation and hearing thereon, for the incompetence or untrustworthiness of the holder thereof, or for willful falsification of any matter or statement contained in his or her application or in a report of any inspection made by him or her. Written notice of and an opportunity for a hearing on any suspension or revocation under this subsection shall be given by the department to the inspector, and in the case of a special boiler inspector, also to his or her employer in accordance with the provisions of KRS Chapter 13B.

(2) A person whose appointment or commission has been suspended shall be entitled to apply to the commissioner, after ninety (90) days from the date of the suspension, for reinstatement of the appointment or commission.

(3) Any willful falsification of an application or inspection report shall constitute a misdemeanor and shall subject the inspector or special inspector to the penalties provided in KRS 236.990.

History.

Enact. Acts 1962, ch. 89, § 10; 1980, ch. 207, § 11, effective July 15, 1980; 1996, ch. 318, § 154, effective July 15, 1996;

2010, ch. 24, § 523, effective July 15, 2010; 2012, ch. 14, § 11, effective July 12, 2012.

236.110. Inspection of boilers and pressure vessels required — Certificate of inspection — Periods of inspection — Penalty for falsifying certificate of inspection.

(1) Each boiler or pressure vessel used or proposed to be used within this state, except boilers or pressure vessels exempt under KRS 236.060, shall be thoroughly inspected as to their construction, installation, and condition as follows:

(a) Power boilers shall receive a certificate of inspection annually which shall be an internal inspection where construction permits; otherwise it shall be as complete an inspection as possible. Such boilers shall also be externally inspected while under pressure if possible;

(b) Low pressure steam or vapor heating boilers, hot water heating boilers, and hot water supply boilers shall receive a certificate of inspection biennially; said inspection shall include internal inspection where construction permits. External inspections shall be required where construction does not permit internal inspection;

(c) Pressure vessels shall be inspected at time of installation to ascertain that they are in conformance with KRS 236.040. Subsequent reinspections, if any, shall be set by administrative regulation of the department;

(d) A grace period of two (2) months beyond the periods specified in paragraphs (a), (b), and (c) of this subsection may elapse between inspections;

(e) The department may at its discretion permit longer periods between inspections;

(f) All new boiler or pressure vessel installations to be used within this state, excepting boilers or pressure vessels exempted under KRS 236.060, shall be inspected during the installation period to ascertain that all pressure piping conforms to the requirements of KRS 236.040. A certificate of inspection may not be issued on any new installation until these requirements are fulfilled;

(g) It shall be the responsibility of the installing contractor to request the above inspection by notifying the boiler inspection section that the installation is ready for inspection. Notification shall be accomplished prior to covering of any welded or mechanical joints on pressure piping or valves by insulation, paint, or structural materials. The contractor shall provide ready access for the inspector to all parts of the piping system;

(h) Inspection of pressure piping shall apply only to new boiler, pressure vessel, or new pressure piping system installations, or reinstallations, or installation of secondhand boilers (as defined under "Boiler Rules and Regulations"). No annual or biennial reinspection shall be required once the system has been approved;

(i) "Existing installations," as applied to inspection of piping systems is defined as any boiler and piping system completed and approved for operation prior to July 1, 1970, or pressure vessels and associated piping systems completed and approved for operation prior to July 15, 1980. These existing installations shall not be subject to the foregoing piping inspection unless adjudged patently unsafe for operation by a boiler inspector holding a commission issued by the National Board of Boiler and Pressure Vessel Inspectors, or by an owner's piping inspector, when authorized. If an existing installation is so adjudged, the owner or user shall be granted full rights of appeal as set forth under KRS 236.150;

(j) If an existing installation undergoes extensive overhaul or more than fifty (50) linear feet of pressure piping requires renewal or is added to the existing system, the entire system of piping carrying pressure emanating from the boilers shall be subject to inspection and shall be brought up to standards required by KRS 236.040;

(k) The installing contractor of a piping system carrying pressure emanating from a boiler or pressure vessel subject to inspection under provisions of this chapter, shall pay to the department, upon completion of inspection, fees in accordance with a schedule established by the department;

(l) Operation of a pressure piping system in conjunction with a boiler or pressure vessel, either of which has not been inspected and approved as set forth above, shall be subject to fines and penalties as set forth in KRS 236.990; and

(m) For any boiler or pressure vessel used by a utility to generate power, and operating under a certificate issued pursuant to KRS 278.020, if the boiler or pressure vessel is inspected by a special boiler inspector pursuant to this section, the inspection interval shall be extended to eighteen (18) months.

(2) The inspections required in this section shall be made by a boiler inspector or by a special boiler inspector, except that all new installations shall be inspected by a boiler inspector employed by the department. However, an owner's piping inspector may inspect new, repaired, and replaced ASME standard process piping.

(3) If at any time a hydrostatic, pneumatic, or any other nondestructive test shall be deemed necessary for ascertaining acceptability of a boiler, pressure vessel, or associated piping, the same shall be made by the contractor or owner-user, whoever is responsible for the condition, and be witnessed by a boiler inspector, special boiler inspector, or owner's piping inspector in authorized locations.

(4) All boilers to be installed in this state after July 1, 1970, and all pressure vessels installed in this state after July 15, 1980, shall be inspected during construction as required by the applicable rules and regulations of the department by a boiler inspector authorized to inspect boilers and pressure vessels in this state, or, if constructed outside of the state, by an inspector holding a commission from the national board as an inspector of boilers and pressure vessels.

(5) No person shall willfully falsify any statement designed to secure the issuance, renewal or reinstatement of a certificate of inspection. Violation of this subsection shall subject such a person to the penalties stated in KRS 236.990.

History.

Enact. Acts 1962, ch. 89, § 11; 1970, ch. 246, § 5; 1978, ch. 384, § 98, effective June 17, 1978; 1980, ch. 207, § 12, effective July 15, 1980; 2010, ch. 24, § 524, effective July 15, 2010; 2012, ch. 14, § 12, effective July 12, 2012; 2017 ch. 169, § 94, effective June 29, 2017.

236.120. Certificate of inspection — Fee — Term — Posting — Termination — Suspension — Reissuance.

(1) If, upon inspection, a boiler or pressure vessel is found to comply with the administrative regulations of the department, the owner, user, or insurance company of it shall pay to the department the sum of fifteen dollars ($15). When the inspection is made by a special inspector, the inspector shall attach the certificate fee to his or her report. The chief boiler inspector, or his or her duly authorized representative, shall issue to the owner or user a certificate of inspection for the boiler or pressure vessel bearing the date of inspection and specifying the maximum pressure under which the boiler or pressure vessel may be operated. An inspection certificate shall be valid for not more than fourteen (14) months from its date in the case of power boilers, and twenty-six (26) months in the case of low pressure steam or vapor heating boilers, hot water heating boilers, or hot water supply boilers. The most recently issued certificate of inspection shall be posted in the room containing the boiler inspected or, in the case of a portable boiler, shall be kept in a tool box accompanying the boiler. The most recently issued certificate of inspection for each pressure vessel shall be kept in the owner's files.

(2) No certificate of inspection issued for an insured boiler, inspected by a special inspector, shall be valid after the insurance on the boiler for which it was issued terminates. Boilers shall be insured by a company duly authorized by this state to carry the insurance.

(3) The commissioner or his or her authorized representative may at any time suspend a certificate of inspection if, in his or her opinion, the boiler or pressure vessel for which it was issued cannot be operated without menace to the public safety, or if the boiler or pressure vessel is found not in compliance with this chapter or the administrative regulations of the department. A special boiler inspector shall have corresponding powers with respect to suspending certificates of inspection for boilers or pressure vessels insured by the company employing him or her. The suspension of a certificate of inspection shall continue in effect until the boiler or pressure vessel conforms to this chapter and administrative regulations of the department, and until the inspection certificate is reinstated.

(4) A suspended certificate of inspection shall be reissued on the recommendation of the boiler inspector or special boiler inspector who first caused the suspension or at the discretion of the chief boiler inspector.

236.130. Inspection fees — Administrative regulations — Fund.

(1) The owner or user of a boiler or pressure vessel required by this chapter to be inspected shall pay to the department, upon completion of inspection, reasonable fees not to exceed the cost of inspection as established by the commissioner in an administrative regulation promulgated in accordance with KRS Chapter 13A.

(2) All other inspections, including shop inspections and inspection of secondhand or used boilers made by the boiler inspector shall be charged for at the rate set by administrative regulation promulgated by the commissioner in accordance with KRS Chapter 13A.

(3) All fees received by the department shall be held in a trust and agency fund from which the expenses of administering this chapter and other department responsibilities may be paid, and no portion of the fund shall lapse into the general fund at the end of each fiscal year.

236.210. License required for installing, erecting, or repairing boilers or pressure vessels — Issuance — Renewal — Exception.

(1) A person shall not engage in the business of installing, erecting, or repairing boilers or pressure vessels unless that person first obtains a license from the commissioner.

(2) Each person, firm, or corporation shall pass an examination prepared and administered by the department.

(3) A license shall be issued by the commissioner or the chief boiler inspector to qualified applicants upon payment of a reasonable fee not to exceed the cost of examination and other expenses involved as established by the commissioner in an administrative regulation promulgated in accordance with KRS Chapter 13A.

(4) The license shall be renewable annually, not later than the first of the month following the expiration date, upon payment of a reasonable fee not to exceed the costs involved in such renewal as established by the commissioner in an administrative regulation promulgated in accordance with KRS Chapter 13A.

(5) All individuals in the employ of a licensee shall not be required to be licensed.

History.

Acts 1974, ch. 209, § 2; 1980, ch. 207, § 16, effective July 15, 1980; 1986, ch. 127, § 2, effective July 15, 1986; 2003, ch. 77, § 2, effective June 24, 2003; 2010, ch. 24, § 528, effective July 15, 2010; 2012, ch. 14, § 15, effective July 12, 2012; 2017 ch. 169, § 97, effective June 29, 2017.

236.220. Procedure for suspension or revocation of license.

(1) A license issued under KRS 236.210 to 236.260 may be suspended or revoked for falsification of any information contained in the application. Written notice of a suspension shall be given to the licensee by the chief boiler inspector within ten (10) days of the first notification of the violation. A person whose license has been suspended may appeal to the department, and a hearing shall be conducted in accordance with KRS Chapter 13B.

(2) If the department has reason to believe that a licensee is no longer qualified to hold a license, the department shall hold a hearing to be conducted in accordance with KRS Chapter 13B. If, as a result of the hearing, the department finds that the licensee is no longer qualified to hold a license, the department shall state in a final order that the license is revoked or suspended.

(3) A person whose license has been suspended may apply for reinstatement of the license after ninety (90) days from the date of the suspension.

236.230. Reissue of lost or destroyed license.

If a license is lost or destroyed, a new license shall be issued in its place, without submitting another application, upon request and payment of a fee of five dollars ($5).

History.

Enact. Acts 1974, ch. 209, § 4.

236.240. Permit required for installation, erection, or repair — Fees.

(1) A person shall not install, erect, or make repairs affecting the strength of a boiler or pressure vessel without first securing a permit from the department. Permits shall be issued only to a person licensed under KRS 236.210 to 236.260.

(2) No work shall be performed except by or under the supervision of a licensed person. The permit fees shall be set by the department.

(3) The permit fees shall include one (1) interim inspection and one (1) final inspection for issuance of a boiler or pressure vessel certificate of inspection.

(4) Special inspections and more than two (2) inspections requested by the licensee for each permit shall be charged fees in accordance with KRS 236.130.

History.

Enact. Acts 1974, ch. 209, § 5; 1980, ch. 207, § 18, effective July 15, 1980; 2010, ch. 24, § 529, effective July 15, 2010; 2012, ch. 14, § 16, effective July 12, 2012; 2017 ch. 169, § 99, effective June 29, 2017.

236.250. Exceptions to permit requirements — Payment of permit to repair fees — Emergency repairs.

(1) A person shall not make repairs affecting the strength or safety of boilers or pressure vessels without first securing a permit from the department unless repairs have been authorized by a boiler inspector or special boiler inspector pending issuance of the permit or unless such repairs are emergency repairs authorized by the department, a special boiler inspector or a boiler inspector pending issuance of the permit. A permit shall not be required for emergency items not affecting the strength of the boiler or pressure vessel, when performed by qualified welders regularly employed by firms utilizing properly qualified welding procedures. Permits shall only be issued to persons licensed under this chapter. A permit fee shall be paid directly to the department, and shall accompany the repair application.

(2) Payment of permit to repair fees shall be required from operating companies performing pressure vessel repairs in accordance with the National Board of Boiler and Pressure Vessel Inspectors inspection code and utilizing properly qualified welding procedures and regularly employing qualified welders to weld on boilers owned and operated by such firm.

(3) For emergency repairs authorized by a boiler inspector or special boiler inspector, a repair permit shall be obtained and filed with the department within thirty (30) days of repair completion.

236.990. Penalties.

(1) It shall be unlawful for any person, firm, partnership, or corporation to operate in this state a boiler or pressure vessel without a valid certificate of inspection. The operation of a boiler or pressure vessel without a valid certificate, or at a pressure exceeding that specified in an inspection certificate, shall constitute a Class B misdemeanor on the part of the owner, user, or operator. Each day of unlawful operation shall constitute a separate offense.

(2) Any person who violates any provision of KRS 236.040(1); 236.080(4); 236.110(1), (4) and (5); 236.210(1); 236.220(1); 236.240(1) and (2); 236.250(1); or any proper order or administrative regulation made or promulgated thereunder; or who hinders or obstructs an authorized inspector in the performance of his or her duties under this chapter, shall be subject to the penalties in subsection (1) of this section.

(3) Any person who willfully violates any provision of this chapter, or any administrative regulation, emergency order, order of the state fire marshal, order of an authorized deputy state fire marshal, order of the chief boiler inspector, or order of any authorized boiler inspector, promulgated or made pursuant to this chapter, shall be subject to suspension or revocation of any appointment, commission, certification, registration, license, or permit made or issued by the department and held by that person, in accordance with the procedures specified in KRS 236.220, or in lieu of a suspension or revocation, shall be subject to an administrative fine of not less than ten dollars ($10) and not exceeding five hundred dollars ($500) after notice and hearing by the department in accordance with KRS 236.220. Each day these violations exist shall, in the discretion of the department, be considered as a separate violation.

(4) As an aid to enforcement of this chapter, or of any administrative regulation or order relating thereto, the department or chief boiler inspector may take any administrative action or bring any authorized legal action designed to prevent or correct any condition constituting or threatening to constitute a violation of any provision of this chapter.

History.

2019 ch. 10, § 1, effective June 27, 2019.

CARRYING CONCEALED DEADLY WEAPON237.110. License to carry concealed deadly weapon — Criteria — Training — Paper or electronic application — Issuance and denial of licenses — Automated listing of license holders — Suspension or revocation — Renewal — Prohibitions — Reciprocity — Reports — Requirements for training classes.

(1) The Department of Kentucky State Police is authorized to issue and renew licenses to carry concealed firearms or other deadly weapons, or a combination thereof, to persons qualified as provided in this section.

(2) An original or renewal license issued pursuant to this section shall:

(a) Be valid throughout the Commonwealth and, except as provided in this section or other specific section of the Kentucky Revised Statutes or federal law, permit the holder of the license to carry firearms, ammunition, or other deadly weapons, or a combination thereof, at any location in the Commonwealth;

(b) Unless revoked or suspended as provided by law, be valid for a period of five (5) years from the date of issuance;

(c) Authorize the holder of the license to carry a concealed firearm or other deadly weapon, or a combination thereof, on or about his or her person; and

(d) Authorize the holder of the license to carry ammunition for a firearm on or about his or her person.

(3) Prior to the issuance of an original or renewal license to carry a concealed deadly weapon, the Department of Kentucky State Police, upon receipt of a completed application, applicable fees, and any documentation required by this section or administrative regulation promulgated by the Department of Kentucky State Police, shall conduct a background check to ascertain whether the applicant is eligible under 18 U.S.C. sec. 922(g) and (n), any other applicable federal law, and state law to purchase, receive, or possess a firearm or ammunition, or both. The background check shall include:

(a) A state records check covering the items specified in this subsection, together with any other requirements of this section;

(b) A federal records check, which shall include a National Instant Criminal Background Check System (NICS) check;

(c) A federal Immigration Alien Query if the person is an alien who has been lawfully admitted to the United States by the United States government or an agency thereof; and

(d) In addition to the Immigration Alien Query, if the applicant has not been lawfully admitted to the United States under permanent resident status, the Department of Kentucky State Police shall, if a doubt exists relating to an alien's eligibility to purchase a firearm, consult with the United States Department of Homeland Security, United States Department of Justice, United States Department of State, or other federal agency to confirm whether the alien is eligible to purchase a firearm in the United States, bring a firearm into the United States, or possess a firearm in the United States under federal law.

(4) The Department of Kentucky State Police shall issue an original or renewal license if the applicant:

(a) Is not prohibited from the purchase, receipt, or possession of firearms, ammunition, or both pursuant to 18 U.S.C. 922(g), 18 U.S.C. 922(n), or applicable federal or state law;

(b)1. Is a citizen of the United States who is a resident of this Commonwealth;

2. Is a citizen of the United States who is a member of the Armed Forces of the United States who is on active duty, who is at the time of application assigned to a military posting in Kentucky;

3. Is lawfully admitted to the United States by the United States government or an agency thereof, is permitted by federal law to purchase a firearm, and is a resident of this Commonwealth; or

4. Is lawfully admitted to the United States by the United States government or an agency thereof, is permitted by federal law to purchase a firearm, is, at the time of the application, assigned to a military posting in Kentucky, and has been assigned to a posting in the Commonwealth;

(c) Is twenty-one (21) years of age or older;

(d) Has not been committed to a state or federal facility for the abuse of a controlled substance or been convicted of a misdemeanor violation of KRS Chapter 218A or similar laws of any other state relating to controlled substances, within a three (3) year period immediately preceding the date on which the application is submitted;

(e) Does not chronically and habitually use alcoholic beverages as evidenced by the applicant having two (2) or more convictions for violating KRS 189A.010 within the three (3) years immediately preceding the date on which the application is submitted, or having been committed as an alcoholic pursuant to KRS Chapter 222 or similar laws of another state within the three (3) year period immediately preceding the date on which the application is submitted;

(f) Does not owe a child support arrearage which equals or exceeds the cumulative amount which would be owed after one (1) year of nonpayment, if the Department of Kentucky State Police has been notified of the arrearage by the Cabinet for Health and Family Services;

(g) Has complied with any subpoena or warrant relating to child support or paternity proceedings. If the Department of Kentucky State Police has not been notified by the Cabinet for Health and Family Services that the applicant has failed to meet this requirement, the Department of Kentucky State Police shall assume that paternity and child support proceedings are not an issue;

(h) Has not been convicted of a violation of KRS 508.030 or 508.080 within the three (3) years immediately preceding the date on which the application is submitted. The commissioner of the Department of Kentucky State Police may waive this requirement upon good cause shown and a determination that the applicant is not a danger and that a waiver would not violate federal law;

(i) Demonstrates competence with a firearm by successful completion of a firearms safety or training course that is conducted by a firearms instructor who is certified by a national organization with membership open to residents of any state or territory of the United States, which was created to promote firearms education, safety, and the profession of firearms use and training, and to foster professional behavior in its members. The organization shall require members to adhere to its own code of ethics and conduct a program which certifies firearms instructors and includes the use of written tests, in person instruction, and a component of live-fire training. These national organizations shall include but are not limited to the National Rifle Association, the United States Concealed Carry Association, and the National Shooting Sports Foundation. The training requirement may also be fulfilled through any firearms safety course offered or approved by the Department of Criminal Justice Training. The firearms safety course offered or approved by the Department of Criminal Justice Training shall:

1. Be not more than eight (8) hours in length;
2. Include instruction on handguns, the safe use of handguns, the care and cleaning of handguns, and handgun marksmanship principles;
3. Include actual range firing of a handgun in a safe manner, and the firing of not more than twenty (20) rounds at a full-size silhouette target, during which firing, not less than eleven (11) rounds must hit the silhouette portion of the target; and

4. Include information on and a copy of laws relating to possession and carrying of firearms, as set forth in KRS Chapters 237 and 527, and the laws relating to the use of force, as set forth in KRS Chapter 503; and

(j) Demonstrates knowledge of the law regarding the justifiable use of force by including with the application a copy of the concealed carry deadly weapons legal handout made available by the Department of Criminal Justice Training and a signed statement that indicates that applicant has read and understands the handout.

(5)(a) A legible photocopy or electronic copy of a certificate of completion issued by a firearms instructor certified by a national organization or the Department of Criminal Justice Training shall constitute evidence of qualification under subsection (4)(i) of this section.

(b) Persons qualifying under subsection (6)(d) of this section may submit with their application:

1. At least one (1) of the following paper or electronic forms or their successor forms showing evidence of handgun training or handgun qualifications:

- a. Department of Defense Form DD 2586;
- b. Department of Defense Form DD 214;
- c. Coast Guard Form CG 3029;
- d. Department of the Army Form DA 88-R;
- e. Department of the Army Form DA 5704-R;
- f. Department of the Navy Form OPNAV 3591-1; or
- g. Department of the Air Force Form AF 522;

or

2.a. Documentary evidence of an honorable discharge; and

b. A notarized affidavit on a form provided by the Department of Kentucky State Police, signed under penalty of perjury, stating the person has met the training requirements of subsection (6)(d) of this section.

(6)(a) Peace officers who are currently certified as peace officers by the Kentucky Law Enforcement Council pursuant to KRS 15.380 to 15.404 and peace officers who are retired and are members of the Kentucky Employees Retirement System, State Police Retirement System, or County Employees Retirement System or other retirement system operated by or for a city, county, or urban-county in Kentucky shall be deemed to have met the training requirement.

(b) Current and retired peace officers of the following federal agencies shall be deemed to have met the training requirement:

1. Any peace officer employed by a federal agency specified in KRS 61.365;
2. Any peace officer employed by a federal civilian law enforcement agency not specified above who has successfully completed the basic law enforcement training course required by that agency;
3. Any military peace officer of the United States Army, Navy, Marine Corps, or Air Force, or a reserve component thereof, or of the Army National Guard or Air National Guard who has successfully completed the military law enforcement training course required by that branch of the military;

4. Any member of the United States Coast Guard serving in a peace officer role who has successfully completed the law enforcement training course specified by the United States Coast Guard.

(c) Corrections officers who are currently employed by a consolidated local government, an urban-county government, or the Department of Corrections who have successfully completed a basic firearms training course required for their employment, and corrections officers who were formerly employed by a consolidated local government, an urban-county government, or the Department of Corrections who are retired, and who successfully completed a basic firearms training course required for their employment, and are members of a state-administered retirement system or other retirement system operated by or for a city, county, or urban-county government in Kentucky shall be deemed to have met the training requirement.

(d) Active or honorably discharged service members in the United States Army, Navy, Marine Corps, Air Force, or Coast Guard, or a reserve component thereof, or of the Army National Guard or Air National Guard shall be deemed to have met the training requirement if these persons:

1. Successfully completed handgun training which was conducted by the United States Army, Navy, Marine Corps, Air Force, or Coast Guard, or a reserve component thereof, or of the Army National Guard or Air National Guard; or

2. Successfully completed handgun qualification within the United States Army, Navy, Marine Corps, Air Force, or Coast Guard, or a reserve component thereof, or of the Army National Guard or Air Force National Guard.

(7)(a)1. A paper application for a license, or renewal of a license, to carry a concealed deadly weapon shall be obtained from and submitted to the office of the sheriff in the county in which the person resides.

2. An applicant, in lieu of a paper application, may submit an electronic application for a license, or renewal of a license, to carry a concealed deadly weapon to the Department of Kentucky State Police.

3. Persons qualifying under subsection (6)(d) of this section shall be supplied the information in subsection (4)(i)4. of this section upon obtaining an application.

(b)1. The completed paper application and any documentation required by this section plus an application fee or renewal fee, as appropriate, of sixty dollars ($60) shall be presented to the office of the sheriff of the county in which the applicant resides.

2. The sheriff shall transmit the paper application and accompanying material to the Department of Kentucky State Police within five (5) working days.

3. Twenty dollars ($20) of the paper application fee shall be retained by the office of the sheriff for official expenses of the office. Twenty dollars ($20) shall be sent to the Department of Kentucky State Police with the application. Ten dollars ($10) shall be transmitted by the sheriff to the Administrative Office of the Courts to fund background checks for youth leaders, and ten dollars ($10) shall be transmitted to the Administrative Office of the Courts to fund background checks for applicants for concealed weapons.

(c)1. A completed electronic application submitted in lieu of a paper application, any documentation required by this section, and an application fee or renewal fee, as appropriate, of seventy dollars ($70) shall be presented to the Department of Kentucky State Police.

2. If an electronic application is submitted in lieu of a paper application, thirty dollars ($30) of the electronic application fee shall be retained by the Department of Kentucky State Police. Twenty dollars ($20) shall be sent to the office of the sheriff of the applicant's county of residence for official expenses of the office. Ten dollars ($10) shall be transmitted to the Administrative Office of the Courts to fund background checks for youth leaders, and ten dollars ($10) shall be transmitted to the Administrative Office of the Courts to fund background checks for applicants for concealed weapon carry permits.

(d) A full-time or part-time peace officer who is currently certified as a peace officer by the Kentucky Law Enforcement Council and who is authorized by his or her employer or government authority to carry a concealed deadly weapon at all times and all locations within the Commonwealth pursuant to KRS 527.020, or a retired peace officer who is a member of the Kentucky Employees Retirement System, State Police Retirement System, County Employees Retirement System, or other retirement system operated by or for a city, county, or urban-county government in Kentucky, shall be exempt from paying the paper or electronic application or renewal fees.

(e) The application, whether paper or electronic, shall be completed, under oath, on a form or in a manner promulgated by the Department of Kentucky State Police by administrative regulation which shall include:

1.a. The name, address, place and date of birth, citizenship, gender, Social Security number of the applicant; and

b. If not a citizen of the United States, alien registration number if applicable, passport number, visa number, mother's maiden name, and other information necessary to determine the immigration status and eligibility to purchase a firearm under federal law of a person who is not a citizen of the United States;

2. A statement that, to the best of his or her knowledge, the applicant is in compliance with criteria contained within subsections (3) and (4) of this section;

3. A statement that the applicant, if qualifying under subsection (6)(c) of this section, has provided:

a. At least one (1) of the forms listed in subsection (5) of this section; or b.i. Documentary evidence of an honorable discharge; and

ii. A notarized affidavit on a form provided by the Department of Kentucky State Police stating the person has met the training requirements of subsection (6)(c) of this section;

4. A statement that the applicant has been furnished a copy of this section and is knowledgeable about its provisions;

5. A statement that the applicant has been furnished a copy of, has read, and understands KRS Chapter 503 as it pertains to the use of deadly force for self-defense in Kentucky; and

6. A conspicuous warning that the application is executed under oath and that a materially false answer to any question, or the submission of any materially false document by the applicant, subjects the applicant to criminal prosecution under KRS 523.030.

(8) The applicant shall submit to the sheriff of the applicant's county of residence or county of military posting if submitting a paper application, or to the Department of Kentucky State Police if submitting an electronic application:

(a) A completed application as described in subsection (7) of this section;

(b) A recent color photograph of the applicant, as prescribed by administrative regulation;

(c) A paper or electronic certificate or an affidavit or document as described in subsection (5) of this section;

(d) A paper or electronic document establishing the training exemption as described in subsection (6) of this section; and

(e) For an applicant who is not a citizen of the United States and has been lawfully admitted to the United States by the United States government or an agency thereof, an affidavit as prescribed by administrative regulation concerning his or her immigration status and his or her United States government issued:

1. Permanent Resident Card I-551 or its equivalent successor identification;

2. Other United States government issued evidence of lawful admission to the United States which includes the category of admission, if admission has not been granted as a permanent resident; and

3. Evidence of compliance with the provisions of 18 U.S.C. sec. 922(g)(5), 18 U.S.C. sec. 922(d)(5), or 18 U.S.C. sec. 922(y)(2), and 27 C.F.R. Part 178, including, as appropriate, but not limited to evidence of ninety (90) day residence in the Commonwealth, a valid current Kentucky hunting license if claiming exemption as a hunter, or other evidence of eligibility to purchase a firearm by an alien which is required by federal law or regulation.

If an applicant presents identification specified in this paragraph, the sheriff shall examine the identification, may record information from the identification presented, and shall return the identification to the applicant.

(9) The Department of Kentucky State Police shall, within sixty (60) days after the date of receipt of the items listed in subsection (8) of this section if the applicant submitted a paper application, or within fifteen (15) business days after the date of receipt of the items listed in subsection (8) of this section if the applicant applied electronically, either:

(a) Issue the license; or

(b) Deny the application based solely on the grounds that the applicant fails to qualify under the criteria listed in subsection (3) or (4) of this section. If the Department of Kentucky State Police denies the application, it shall notify the applicant in writing, stating the grounds for denial and informing the applicant of a right to submit, within thirty (30) days, any additional documentation relating to the grounds of denial. Upon receiving any additional documentation, the Department of Kentucky State Police shall reconsider its decision and inform the applicant within twenty (20) days of the result of the reconsideration. The applicant shall further be informed of the right to seek de novo review of the denial in the District Court of his or her place of residence within ninety (90) days from the date of the letter advising the applicant of the denial.

(10) The Department of Kentucky State Police shall maintain an automated listing of license holders and pertinent information, and this information shall be available upon request, at all times to all Kentucky, federal, and other states' law enforcement agencies. A request for the entire list of licensees, or for all licensees in a geographic area, shall be denied. Only requests relating to a named licensee shall be honored or available to law enforcement agencies. Information on applications for licenses, names and addresses, or other identifying information relating to license holders shall be confidential and shall not be made available except to law enforcement agencies. No request for lists of local or statewide permit holders shall be made to any state or local law enforcement agency, peace officer, or other agency of government other than the Department of Kentucky State Police, and no state or local law enforcement agency, peace officer, or agency of government, other than the Department of Kentucky State Police, shall provide any information to any requester not entitled to it by law.

(11) Within thirty (30) days after the changing of a permanent address, or within thirty (30) days after the loss, theft, or destruction of a license, the licensee shall notify the Department of Kentucky State Police of the loss, theft, or destruction. Failure to notify the Department of Kentucky State Police shall constitute a non-criminal violation with a penalty of twenty-five dollars ($25) payable to the clerk of the District Court. No court costs shall be assessed for a violation of this subsection. When a licensee makes application to change his or her residence address or other information on the license, neither the sheriff nor the Department of Kentucky State Police shall require a surrender of the license until a new license is in the office of the applicable sheriff and available for issuance. Upon the issuance of a new license, the old license shall be destroyed by the sheriff.

(12) If a license is lost, stolen, or destroyed, the license shall be automatically invalid, and the person to whom the same was issued may, upon payment of fifteen dollars ($15) for a paper request, or twenty-five dollars ($25) for an electronic request submitted in lieu of a paper request, to the Department of Kentucky State Police, obtain a duplicate, upon furnishing a notarized statement to the Department of Kentucky State Police that the license has been lost, stolen, or destroyed.

(13)(a) The commissioner of the Department of Kentucky State Police, or his or her designee in writing, shall revoke the license of any person who becomes permanently ineligible to be issued a license or have a license renewed under the criteria set forth in this section.

(b) The commissioner of the Department of Kentucky State Police, or his or her designee in writing, shall suspend the license of any person who becomes temporarily ineligible to be issued a license or have a license renewed under the criteria set forth in this section. The license shall remain suspended until the person is again eligible for the issuance or renewal of a license.

(c) Upon the suspension or revocation of a license, the commissioner of the Department of Kentucky State Police, or his or her designee in writing, shall:

1. Order any peace officer to seize the license from the person whose license was suspended or revoked; or

2. Direct the person whose license was suspended or revoked to surrender the license to the sheriff of the person's county of residence within two (2) business days of the receipt of the notice.

(d) If the person whose license was suspended or revoked desires a hearing on the matter, the person shall surrender the license as provided in paragraph (c)2. of this subsection and petition the commissioner of the Department of Kentucky State Police to hold a hearing on the issue of suspension or revocation of the license.

(e) Upon receipt of the petition, the commissioner of the Department of Kentucky State Police shall cause a hearing to be held in accordance with KRS Chapter 13B on the suspension or revocation of the license. If the license has not been surrendered, no hearing shall be scheduled or held.

(f) If the hearing officer determines that the licensee's license was wrongly suspended or revoked, the hearing officer shall order the commissioner of the Department of Kentucky State Police to return the license and abrogate the suspension or revocation of the license.

(g) Any party may appeal a decision pursuant to this subsection to the District Court in the licensee's county of residence in the same manner as for the denial of a license.

(h) If the license is not surrendered as ordered, the commissioner of the Department of Kentucky State Police shall order a peace officer to seize the license and deliver it to the commissioner.

(i) Failure to surrender a suspended or revoked license as ordered is a Class A misdemeanor.

(j) The provisions of this subsection relating to surrender of a license shall not apply if a court of competent jurisdiction has enjoined its surrender.

(k) When a domestic violence order or emergency protective order is issued pursuant to the provisions of KRS Chapter 403 against a person holding a license issued under this section, the holder of the permit shall surrender the license to the court or to the officer serving the order. The officer to whom the license is surrendered shall forthwith transmit the license to the court issuing the order. The license shall be suspended until the order is terminated, or until the judge who issued the order terminates the suspension prior to the termination of the underlying domestic violence order or emergency protective order, in writing and by return of the license, upon proper motion by the license holder. Subject to the same conditions as above, a peace officer against whom an emergency protective order or domestic violence order has been issued shall not be permitted to carry a concealed deadly weapon when not on duty, the provisions of KRS 527.020 to the contrary notwithstanding.

(14)(a) Not less than one hundred twenty (120) days prior to the expiration date of the license, the Department of Kentucky State Police shall mail to each licensee a written notice of the expiration and a renewal form prescribed by the Department of Kentucky State Police. The outside of the envelope containing the license renewal notice shall bear only the name and address of the applicant. No other information relating to the applicant shall appear on the outside of the envelope sent to the applicant. The licensee may renew his or her license on or before the expiration date by filing with the sheriff of his or her county of residence the paper renewal form, or by filing with the Department of Kentucky State Police an electronic renewal form in lieu of a paper renewal form, stating that the licensee remains qualified pursuant to the criteria specified in subsections (3) and (4) of this section, and the required renewal fee set forth in subsection (7) of this section. The sheriff shall issue to the applicant a receipt for the paper application for renewal of the license and shall date the receipt. The Department of Kentucky State Police shall issue to the applicant a receipt for an electronic application for renewal of the license submitted in lieu of a paper application for renewal and shall date the receipt.

(b) A license which has expired shall be void and shall not be valid for any purpose other than surrender to the sheriff in exchange for a renewal license.

(c) The license shall be renewed to a qualified applicant upon receipt of the completed renewal application, records check as specified in subsection (3) of this section, determination that the renewal applicant is not ineligible for a license as specified in subsection (4), and appropriate payment of fees. Upon the issuance of a new license, the old license shall be destroyed by the sheriff. A licensee who fails to file a renewal application on or before its expiration date may renew his or her license by paying, in addition to the license fees, a late fee of fifteen dollars ($15). No license shall be renewed six (6) months or more after its expiration date, and the license shall be deemed to be permanently expired six (6) months after its expiration date. A person whose license has permanently expired may reapply for licensure pursuant to subsections (7), (8), and (9) of this section.

(15) The licensee shall carry the license at all times the licensee is carrying a concealed firearm or other deadly weapon and shall display the license upon request of a law enforcement officer. Violation of the provisions of this subsection shall constitute a non-criminal violation with a penalty of twenty-five dollars ($25), payable to the clerk of the District Court, but no court costs shall be assessed.

(16) Except as provided in KRS 527.020, no license issued pursuant to this section shall authorize any person to carry a concealed firearm into:

- (a) Any police station or sheriff's office;
- (b) Any detention facility, prison, or jail;
- (c) Any courthouse, solely occupied by the Court of Justice courtroom, or court proceeding;
- (d) Any meeting of the governing body of a county, municipality, or special district; or any meeting of the General Assembly or a committee of the General Assembly, except that nothing in this section shall preclude a member of the body, holding a concealed deadly weapon license, from carrying a concealed deadly weapon at a meeting of the body of which he or she is a member;

(e) Any portion of an establishment licensed to dispense beer or alcoholic beverages for consumption on the premises, which portion of the establishment is primarily devoted to that purpose;

(f) Any elementary or secondary school facility without the consent of school authorities as provided in KRS 527.070, any child-caring facility as defined in KRS 199.011, any day-care center as defined in KRS 199.894, or any certified family child-care home as defined in KRS 199.8982, except however, any owner of a certified child-care home may carry a concealed firearm into the owner's residence used as a certified child-care home;

(g) An area of an airport to which access is controlled by the inspection of persons and property; or

(h) Any place where the carrying of firearms is prohibited by federal law.

(17) The owner, business or commercial lessee, or manager of a private business enterprise, day-care center as defined in KRS 199.894 or certified or licensed family child-care home as defined in KRS 199.8982, or a health-care facility licensed under KRS Chapter 216B, except facilities renting or leasing housing, may prohibit persons holding concealed deadly weapon licenses from carrying concealed deadly weapons on the premises and may prohibit employees, not authorized by the employer, holding concealed deadly weapons licenses from carrying concealed deadly weapons on the property of the employer. If the building or the premises are open to the public, the employer or business enterprise shall post signs on or about the premises if carrying concealed weapons is prohibited. Possession of weapons, or ammunition, or both in a vehicle on the premises shall not be a criminal offense so long as the weapons, or ammunition, or both are not removed from the vehicle or brandished while the vehicle is on the premises. A private but not a public employer may prohibit employees or other persons holding a concealed deadly weapons license from carrying concealed deadly weapons, or ammunition, or both in vehicles owned by the employer, but may not prohibit employees or other persons holding a concealed deadly weapons license from carrying concealed deadly weapons, or ammunition, or both in vehicles owned by the employee, except that the Justice and Public Safety Cabinet may prohibit an employee from carrying any weapons, or ammunition, or both other than the weapons, or ammunition, or both issued or authorized to be used by the employee of the cabinet, in a vehicle while transporting persons under the employee's supervision or jurisdiction. Carrying of a concealed weapon, or ammunition, or both in a location specified in this subsection by a license holder shall not be a criminal act but may subject the person to denial from the premises or removal from the premises, and, if an employee of an employer, disciplinary measures by the employer.

(18) All moneys collected by the Department of Kentucky State Police pursuant to this section shall be used to administer the provisions of this section and KRS 237.138 to 237.142. By March 1 of each year, the Department of Kentucky State Police and the Administrative Office of the Courts shall submit reports to the Governor, the President of the Senate, and the Speaker of the House of Representatives, indicating the amounts of money collected and the expenditures related to this section, KRS 237.138 to 237.142, and KRS 237.115, 244.125, 527.020, and 527.070, and the administration of the provisions of this section, KRS 237.138 to 237.142, and KRS 237.115, 244.125, 527.020, and 527.070.

(19) The General Assembly finds as a matter of public policy that it is necessary to provide statewide uniform standards for issuing licenses to carry concealed firearms and to occupy the field of regulation of the bearing of concealed firearms to ensure that no person who qualifies under the provisions of this section is denied his rights. The General Assembly does not delegate to the Department of Kentucky State Police the authority to regulate or restrict the issuing of licenses provided for in this section beyond those provisions contained in this section. This section shall be liberally construed to carry out the constitutional right to bear arms for self-defense.

(20)(a) A person who is not a resident of Kentucky and who has a valid license issued by another state of the United States to carry a concealed deadly weapon in that state may, subject to provisions of Kentucky law, carry a concealed deadly weapon in Kentucky, and his or her license shall be considered as valid in Kentucky.

(b) If a person with a valid license to carry a concealed deadly weapon issued from another state that has entered into a reciprocity agreement with the Department of Kentucky State Police becomes a resident of Kentucky, the license issued by the other state shall be considered as valid for the first one hundred twenty (120) days of the person's residence in Kentucky, if within sixty (60) days of moving to Kentucky, the person completes a form promulgated by the Department of Kentucky State Police which shall include:

1. A signed and notarized statement averring that to the best of his or her knowledge the person's license to carry a concealed deadly weapon is valid and in compliance with applicable out-of-state law, and has not been revoked or suspended for any reason except for valid forfeiture due to departure from the issuing state;

2. The person's name, date of birth, citizenship, gender, Social Security number if applicable, proof that he or she is a citizen of the United States, a permanent resident of the United States, or otherwise lawfully present in the United States, former out-of-state address, current address within the state of Kentucky, date on which Kentucky residence began, state which issued the concealed carry license, the issuing state's concealed carry license number, and the state of issuance of license; and

3. A photocopy of the person's out-of-state license to carry a concealed deadly weapon.

(c) Within sixty (60) days of moving to Kentucky, the person shall deliver the form and accompanying documents by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, to the address indicated on the form provided by the Department of Kentucky State Police pursuant to this subsection.

(d) The out-of-state concealed carry license shall become invalid in Kentucky upon the earlier of:

1. The out-of-state person having resided in Kentucky for more than one hundred twenty (120) days; or

2. The person being issued a Kentucky concealed deadly weapon license pursuant to this section.

(e) The Department of Kentucky State Police shall, not later than thirty (30) days after July 15, 1998, and not less than once every twelve (12) months thereafter, make written inquiry of the concealed deadly weapon carrying licensing authorities in each other state as to whether a Kentucky resident may carry a concealed deadly weapon in their state based upon having a valid Kentucky concealed deadly weapon license, or whether a Kentucky resident may apply for a concealed deadly weapon carrying license in that state based upon having a valid Kentucky concealed deadly weapon license. The Department of Kentucky State Police shall attempt to secure from each other state permission for Kentucky residents who hold a valid Kentucky concealed deadly weapon license to carry concealed deadly weapons in that state, either on the basis of the Kentucky license or on the basis that the Kentucky license is sufficient to permit the issuance of a similar license by the other state. The Department of Kentucky State Police shall enter into a written reciprocity agreement with the appropriate agency in each state that agrees to permit Kentucky residents to carry concealed deadly weapons in the other state on the basis of a Kentucky-issued concealed deadly weapon license or that will issue a license to carry concealed deadly weapons in the other state based upon a Kentucky concealed deadly weapon license. If a reciprocity agreement is reached, the requirement to recontact the other state each twelve (12) months shall be eliminated as long as the reciprocity agreement is in force. The information shall be a public record and shall be available to individual requesters free of charge for the first copy and at the normal rate for open records requests for additional copies.

(21) By March 1 of each year, the Department of Kentucky State Police shall submit a statistical report to the Governor, the President of the Senate, and the Speaker of the House of Representatives, indicating the number of licenses issued, revoked, suspended, and denied since the previous report and in total and also the number of licenses currently valid. The report shall also include the number of arrests, convictions, and types of crimes committed since the previous report by individuals licensed to carry concealed weapons.

(22) The following provisions shall apply to concealed deadly weapon training classes conducted by the Department of Criminal Justice Training or any other agency pursuant to this section:

(a) No concealed deadly weapon instructor trainer shall have his or her certification as a concealed deadly weapon instructor trainer reduced to that of instructor or revoked except after a hearing conducted pursuant to KRS Chapter 13B in which the instructor is found to have committed an act in violation of the applicable statutes or administrative regulations;

(b) No concealed deadly weapon instructor shall have his or her certification as a concealed deadly weapon instructor license suspended or revoked except after a hearing conducted pursuant to KRS Chapter 13B in which the instructor is found to have committed an act in violation of the applicable statutes or administrative regulations;

(c) The department shall not require prior notification that an applicant class or instructor class will be conducted by a certified instructor or instructor trainer;

(d) Each concealed deadly weapon instructor or instructor trainer who teaches a concealed deadly weapon applicant or concealed deadly weapon instructor class shall supply the Department of Criminal Justice Training with a class roster indicating which students enrolled and successfully completed the class, and which contains the name and address of each student, within five (5) working days of the completion of the class. The information may be sent by mail, facsimile, e-mail, or other method which will result in the receipt of or production of a hard copy of the information. The postmark, facsimile date, or e-mail date shall be considered as the date on which the notice was sent. Concealed deadly weapon class applicant, instructor, and instructor trainer information and records shall be confidential. The department may release to any person or organization the name, address, and telephone number of a concealed deadly weapon instructor or instructor trainer if that instructor or instructor trainer authorizes the release of the information in writing. The department shall include on any application for an instructor or instructor trainer certification a statement that the applicant either does or does not desire the applicant's name, address, and telephone number to be made public;

(e) An instructor trainer who assists in the conduct of a concealed deadly weapon instructor class or concealed deadly weapon applicant class for more than two (2) hours shall be considered as to have taught a class for the purpose of maintaining his or her certification. All class record forms shall include spaces for assistant instructors to sign and certify that they have assisted in the conduct of a concealed deadly weapon instructor or concealed deadly weapon class;

(f) An instructor who assists in the conduct of a concealed deadly weapon applicant class for more than two (2) hours shall be considered as to have taught a class for the purpose of maintaining his or her license. All class record forms shall include spaces for assistant instructors to sign and certify that they have assisted in the conduct of a concealed deadly weapon class;

(g) If the Department of Criminal Justice Training believes that a firearms instructor trainer or certified firearms instructor has not in fact complied with the requirements for teaching a certified firearms instructor or applicant class by not teaching the class as specified in KRS 237.126, or who has taught an insufficient class as specified in KRS 237.128, the department shall send to each person who has been listed as successfully completing the concealed deadly weapon applicant class or concealed deadly weapon instructor class a verification form on which the time, date, date of range firing if different from the date on which the class was conducted, location, and instructor of the class is listed by the department and which requires the person to answer “yes” or “no” to specific questions regarding the conduct of the training class. The form shall be completed under oath and shall be returned to the Department of Criminal Justice Training not later than forty-five (45) days after its receipt. A person who fails to complete the form, to sign the form, or to return the form to the Department of Criminal Justice Training within the time frame specified in this section or who, as a result of information on the returned form, is determined by the Department of Criminal Justice Training, following a hearing pursuant to KRS Chapter 13B, to not have received the training required by law shall have his or her concealed deadly weapon license revoked by the Department of Kentucky State Police, following a hearing conducted by the Department of Criminal Justice Training pursuant to KRS Chapter 13B, at which hearing the person is found to have violated the provisions of this section or who has been found not to have received the training required by law;

(h) The department shall annually, not later than December 31 of each year, report to the Legislative Research Commission:

1. The number of firearms instructor trainers and certified firearms instructors whose certifications were suspended, revoked, denied, or who were otherwise disciplined;

2. The reasons for the imposition of suspensions, revocations, denials, or other discipline; and

3. Suggestions for improvement of the concealed deadly weapon applicant training program and instructor process;

(i) If a concealed deadly weapon license holder is convicted of, pleads guilty to, or enters an Alford plea to a felony offense, then his or her concealed deadly weapon license shall be forthwith revoked by the Department of Kentucky State Police as a matter of law;

(j) If a concealed deadly weapon instructor or instructor trainer is convicted of, pleads guilty to, or enters an Alford plea to a felony offense, then his or her concealed deadly weapon instructor certification or concealed deadly weapon instructor trainer certification shall be revoked by the Department of Criminal Justice Training as a matter of law; and

(k) The following shall be in effect:

1. Action to eliminate the firearms instructor trainer program is prohibited. The program shall remain in effect, and no firearms instructor trainer shall have his or her certification reduced to that of certified firearms instructor;

2. The Department of Kentucky State Police shall revoke the concealed deadly weapon license of any person who received no firearms training as required by KRS 237.126 and administrative regulations, or who received insufficient training as required by KRS 237.128 and administrative regulations, if the person voluntarily admits nonreceipt of training or admits receipt of insufficient training, or if either nonreceipt of training or receipt of insufficient training is proven following a hearing conducted by the Department of Criminal Justice Training pursuant to KRS Chapter 13B.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Analysis

1. In General.
2. Termination of Employment.

1. In General.

The statute does not require that any employee who carries a concealed weapon on the premises be terminated; instead, it actually creates a right to carry concealed weapons upon proper licensing, and subsection (14) (see now (17)) is an exception to that general right. Service Welding v. International Bhd. Boilermakers, Local 40, 2000 U.S. App. LEXIS 15970 (6th Cir. Ky. July 5, 2000).

2. Termination of Employment.

University employee established that his discharge was contrary to a fundamental and well-defined public policy, i.e., the right to bear arms, as evidenced by the Kentucky Revised Statutes. Further, an explicit legislative statement prohibited the employee's discharge, and the reason for the employee's discharge was his exercise of a right conferred by well-established legislative enactments. Mitchell v. Univ. of Ky., 366 S.W.3d 895, 2012 Ky. LEXIS 47 (Ky. 2012).

NOTES TO UNPUBLISHED DECISIONS

2. Termination of Employment.

Unpublished decision: Where former employee alleged he was illegally fired because of his lawful possession of a concealed firearm on his employer's property, the employee's actions were not protected because he removed his handgun from his vehicle and had a subordinate store the gun in his vehicle. Holly v. UPS Supply Chain Solutions, Inc., 680 Fed. Appx. 458, 2017 FED App. 0135N, 2017 U.S. App. LEXIS 3899 (6th Cir. Ky. 2017).

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

By enacting former KRS 237.110(8) (now see (10)), the General Assembly expressly restricted disclosure of the public records requested to "hard copy form only." Since KRS 61.878(1)(l) exempts from disclosure public records or information the disclosure of which is prohibited or restricted or otherwise made confidential by enactment of the General Assembly, the Kentucky State Police properly denied the request to produce the requested list of names of concealed permit holders in electronic format. OAG 03-ORD-222.

Because any identifying information relating to concealed deadly weapon license holders other than a list naming all CCDW license holders (in hard copy format only) is exempt from disclosure pursuant to KRS 237.110(8) (see now (10)), incorporated into the Open Records Act by operation of KRS 61.878(1)(l), the State Police properly relied upon KRS 237.110(8) (see now (10)) in denying the request. OAG 04-ORD-60.

237.115. Construction of KRS 237.110 — Prohibition by local government units of carrying concealed deadly weapons in governmental buildings — Restriction on criminal penalties.

(1) Except as provided in KRS 527.020, nothing contained in KRS 237.109 or 237.110 shall be construed to limit, restrict, or prohibit in any manner the right of a college, university, or any postsecondary education facility, including technical schools and community colleges, to control the possession of deadly weapons on any property owned or controlled by them or the right of a unit of state, city, county, urban-county, or charter county government to prohibit the carrying of concealed deadly weapons in that portion of a building actually owned, leased, or occupied by that unit of government.

(2) Except as provided in KRS 527.020, the legislative body of a state, city, county, or urban-county government may, by statute, administrative regulation, or ordinance, prohibit or limit the carrying of concealed deadly weapons in that portion of a building owned, leased, or controlled by that unit of government. That portion of a building in which the carrying of concealed deadly weapons is prohibited or limited shall be clearly identified by signs posted at the entrance to the restricted area. The statute or ordinance shall exempt any building used for public housing by private persons, highway rest areas, firing ranges, and private dwellings owned, leased, or controlled by that unit of government from any restriction on the carrying or possession of deadly weapons. The statute, administrative regulation, or ordinance shall not specify any criminal penalty for its violation but may specify that persons violating the statute or ordinance may be denied entrance to the building, ordered to leave the building, and if employees of the unit of government, be subject to employee disciplinary measures for violation of the provisions of the statute or ordinance. The provisions of this section shall not be deemed to be a violation of KRS 65.870 if the requirements of this section are followed. The provisions of this section shall not apply to any other unit of government.

(3) Unless otherwise specifically provided by the Kentucky Revised Statutes or applicable federal law, no criminal penalty shall attach to carrying a concealed firearm or other deadly weapon at any location at which an unconcealed firearm or other deadly weapon may be constitutionally carried.

History.

Enact. Acts 1996, ch. 119, § 5, effective October 1, 1996; 2005, ch. 182, § 16, effective March 31, 2005; 2019 ch. 10, § 3, effective June 27, 2019.

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

Neither a fiscal court nor its county judge executive, or any other local official, can ban the possession or carrying in a public park the open or concealed carrying of firearms, except the fiscal court, which if it properly passes an ordinance, may prohibit or limit the carrying of concealed firearms in park buildings or portions thereof owned, leased or controlled by it. OAG 96-39.

While subsection (1) of this section recognizes the right of colleges and universities to control possession of deadly weapons, generally, on their properties, subsection (1) of this section limits other units of state government, city governments, county governments, urban-county governments, and charter county governments to prohibiting only the carrying of concealed deadly weapons. The Kentucky General Assembly, therefore, has recognized that the governing board of a college or university of this Commonwealth has a right to control the possession of all deadly weapons on its properties, regardless of whether the weapons are concealed or carried openly. OAG 96-40.

CHAPTER 238

CHARITABLE GAMING

Section

238.535. Licensing of charitable organizations conducting charitable gaming — Exemptions — Qualifications.

238.550. Standards for management and accounting of funds — Reports — Charitable gaming expenses.

238.535. Licensing of charitable organizations conducting charitable gaming — Exemptions — Qualifications.

(1) Any charitable organization conducting charitable gaming in the Commonwealth of Kentucky shall be licensed by the department. A charitable organization qualifying under subsection (12) of this section but not exceeding the limitations provided in this subsection shall be exempt from the licensure requirements when conducting the following charitable gaming activities:

(a) Bingo in which the gross receipts do not exceed a total of twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) per year;

(b) A raffle or raffles for which the gross receipts do not exceed twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) per year; and

(c) A charity fundraising event or events that do not involve special limited charitable games and the gross gaming receipts for which do not exceed twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) per year.

However, at no time shall a charitable organization's total limitations under this subsection exceed twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000).

(2)(a) Any charitable organization exempt from the process of applying for a license under subsection (1) of this section, shall notify the department in writing, on a simple form issued by the department, of its intent to engage in exempt charitable gaming and the address at which the gaming is to occur. Any charitable organization exempt from the process of applying for a license under subsection (1) of this section, shall comply with all other provisions of this chapter relating to the conduct of charitable gaming, except:

1. Payment of the fee imposed under the provisions of KRS 238.570; and

2. The quarterly reporting requirements imposed under the provisions of KRS 238.550(7), unless the exempt charitable organization obtains a retroactive license pursuant to subsection (9) of this section.

(b) Before January 31 of the year immediately following the year of exemption, a charitable organization exempt from licensure under the provisions of subsection (1) of this section shall file a financial report with the department, on a form issued by the department, that contains the following information:

1. The type of gaming activity in which it engaged during that year;

2. The total gross receipts derived from gaming;

3. The amount of charitable gaming expenses paid;

4. The amount of net receipts derived; and

5. The disposition of those net receipts.

(3) An exemption that has been granted to a charitable organization for the preceding calendar year shall be automatically renewed on January 1 of the following year.

(4) If upon receipt of the financial report the department determines that the information appearing on the financial report renders the charitable organization ineligible to possess an exemption, the department shall notify the charitable organization that its exemption is rescinded. The organization may request an appeal of this rescission pursuant to KRS 238.565.

(5) If the annual financial report is not received by January 31, the exemption is automatically rescinded unless an extension of no more than thirty (30) days is granted by the department. The organization may request an appeal of this rescission pursuant to KRS 238.565.

(6) If an exemption is revoked because an organization has exceeded the limit imposed in subsection (1) of this section, the organization shall apply for a retroactive license in accordance with subsection (7) of this section.

(7) If an organization exceeds the limit imposed by any subsection of this section it shall:

(a) Report the amount to the department; and

(b) Apply for a retroactive charitable gaming license.

(8) Upon receipt of a report and application for a retroactive charitable gaming license, the department shall investigate to determine if the organization is otherwise qualified to hold the license.

(9) If the department determines that the applicant is qualified, it shall issue a charitable gaming license retroactive to the date on which the exemption limit was exceeded. The retroactive charitable gaming license shall be issued in the same manner as regular charitable gaming licenses.

(10) If the department determines that the applicant is not qualified it shall deny the license and take enforcement action, if appropriate.

(11) Once a retroactive or regular gaming license is issued to an organization, that organization shall not be eligible for exempt status in the future and shall maintain a charitable gaming license if it intends to continue charitable gaming activities, unless the charitable organization has not exceeded the exemption limitations of subsection (1) of this section for a period of two (2) years prior to its exemption request.

(12)(a) In order to qualify for licensure, a charitable organization shall:

1.a. Possess a tax exempt status under 26 U.S.C. secs. 501(c)(3), 501(c)(4), 501(c)(8), 501(c)(10), or 501(c)(19), or be covered under a group ruling issued by the Internal Revenue Service under authority of those sections; or

b. Be organized within the Commonwealth of Kentucky as a common school as defined in KRS 158.030, as an institution of higher education as defined in KRS 164A.305, or as a state college or university as provided for in KRS 164.290;

2. Have been established and continuously operating within the Commonwealth of Kentucky for charitable purposes, other than the conduct of charitable gaming, for a period of three (3) years prior to application for licensure. For purposes of this paragraph, an applicant shall demonstrate establishment and continuous operation in Kentucky by its conduct of charitable activities from an office physically located within Kentucky both during the three (3) years immediately preceding its application for licensure and at all times during which it possesses a charitable gaming license. However, a charitable organization that operates for charitable purposes in more than ten (10) states and whose principal place of business is physically located in a state other than Kentucky may satisfy the requirements of this paragraph if it can document that it has:

a. Been actively engaged in charitable activities and has made reasonable progress, as defined in subparagraph 3. of this paragraph, in the conduct of charitable activities or the expenditure of funds within Kentucky for a period of three (3) years prior to application for licensure; and

b. Operated for charitable purposes from an office or place of business in the Kentucky county where it proposes to conduct charitable gaming for at least one (1) year prior to application for licensure, in accordance with subparagraph 4. of this paragraph and paragraph (c) of this subsection;

3. Have been actively engaged in charitable activities during the three (3) years immediately prior to application for licensure and be able to demonstrate, to the satisfaction of the department, reasonable progress in accomplishing its charitable purposes during this period. As used in this paragraph, "reasonable progress in accomplishing its charitable purposes" means the regular and uninterrupted conduct of activities within the Commonwealth or the expenditure of funds within the Commonwealth to accomplish relief of poverty, advancement of education, protection of health, relief from disease, relief from suffering or distress, protection of the environment, conservation of wildlife, advancement of civic, governmental, or municipal purposes, or advancement of those purposes delineated in KRS 238.505(3). In order to demonstrate reasonable progress in accomplishing its charitable purposes when applying to renew an existing license, a licensed charitable organization shall additionally provide to the department a detailed accounting regarding its expenditure of charitable gaming net receipts for the purposes described in this paragraph; and

4. Have maintained an office or place of business, other than for the conduct of charitable gaming, for at least one (1) year in the county in which charitable gaming is to be conducted. The office or place of business shall be a separate and distinct address and location from that of any other licensee of the Department of Charitable Gaming; except that up to three (3) licensed charitable organizations may have the same address if they legitimately share office space.

(b)1. A charitable organization that has established and maintained an office or place of business in the county for a period of at least one (1) year may hold a raffle drawing or a charity fundraising event, including special limited charity fundraising events, in a Kentucky county other than that in which the organization's office or place of business is located.

2. For raffles, the organization shall notify the Department of Charitable Gaming in writing of the organization's intent to change the drawing's location at least thirty (30) days before the drawing takes place. This written notification:

a. May be transmitted in any commercially reasonable means, authorized by the department, including facsimile and electronic mail; and

b. Shall set out the place and the county in which the drawing will take place.

Approval by the department shall be received prior to the conduct of the raffle drawing at the new location.

(c) Any charitable organization that was registered with the county clerk to conduct charitable gaming in a county on or before March 31, 1992, shall satisfy the requirement contained in paragraph (a)4. of this subsection if it maintained a place of business or operation, other than for the conduct of charitable gaming, for one (1) year prior to application in a Kentucky county adjoining the county in which they were registered.

(13) In applying for a license, the information to be submitted shall include but not be limited to the following:

(a) The name and address of the charitable organization;

(b) The date of the charitable organization's establishment in the Commonwealth of Kentucky and the date of establishment in the county or counties in which charitable gaming is to be conducted;

(c) A statement of the charitable purpose or purposes for which the organization was organized. If the charitable organization is incorporated, a copy of the articles of incorporation shall satisfy this requirement;

(d) A statement explaining the organizational structure and management of the organization. For incorporated entities, a copy of the organizations' bylaws shall satisfy this requirement;

(e) A detailed accounting of the charitable activities in which the charitable organization has been engaged for the three (3) years preceding application for licensure;

(f) The names, addresses, dates of birth, and Social Security numbers of all officers of the organization;

(g) The names, addresses, dates of birth, and Social Security numbers of all employees and members of the charitable organization who will be involved in the management and supervision of charitable gaming. No fewer than two (2) employees or members of the charitable organization who are involved in the management and supervision of charitable gaming, along with the chief executive officer or the director of the applicant organization, shall be designated as chairpersons;

(h) The address of the location at which charitable gaming will be conducted and the name and address of the owner of the property, if it is owned by a person other than the charitable organization;

(i) A copy of the letter or other legal document issued by the Internal Revenue Service to grant tax-exempt status;

(j) A statement signed by the presiding or other responsible officer of the charitable organization attesting that the information submitted in the application is true and correct and that the organization agrees to comply with all applicable laws and administrative regulations regarding charitable gaming;

(k) An agreement that the charitable organization's records may be released by the Federal Internal Revenue Service to the department; and

(l) Any other information the department deems appropriate.

(14)(a) An organization or a group of individuals that does not meet the licensing requirements of subsection (12) of this section may hold a raffle if:

1. The gross receipts do not exceed five hundred dollars ($500);
2. All proceeds from the raffle are distributed to a charitable organization; and
3. The organization or group of individuals holds no more than three (3) raffles each year; and shall be exempt from complying with the notification, application, and reporting requirements of subsections (2) and (13) of this section.

(b) An organization or a group of individuals that does not meet the licensing requirements of subsection (12) of this section may hold a raffle if:

1. The organization holds a special event raffle license issued by the department and complies with the regulatory requirements in this chapter, including but not limited to the quarterly reporting requirements of KRS 238.550(7), the retention requirements of KRS 238.536, and payment of the fee imposed by KRS 238.570;

2. The organization possesses a tax-exempt status under 26 U.S.C. sec. 501(c)(7);

3. The organization holds no more than twelve (12) raffles per year;

4. Each raffle complies with the department's raffle standards in KRS 238.545 and administrative regulations promulgated thereunder and is approved by the department in writing prior to the sale of the first raffle ticket;

5. The gross receipts of each raffle do not exceed five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000); and

6. One hundred percent (100%) of the net receipts of each raffle shall be distributed to a charitable organization licensed by the department pursuant to subsection (12) of this section to conduct charitable gaming as follows:

- a. All distributed net receipts shall be maintained by the recipient licensed charitable organization in a separate account to be designated as the "raffle recipient account";

- b. All distributed net receipts shall be expended by the recipient licensed charitable organization to further the charitable purpose of the recipient licensed charitable organization as required by KRS 238.550(4); and

- c. All distributed net receipts, and the expenditure thereof, shall be reported to the department and be subject to the department's auditing and investigative authority consistent with the provisions of this chapter.

(c) An applicant qualifying under paragraph (b) of this subsection shall submit an application for a special event raffle license, and the information to be submitted shall include but not be limited to the following:

1. The name and address of the organization;
2. The date of the organization's establishment in the Commonwealth of Kentucky and the date of the organization's establishment in the county or counties in which charitable gaming is to be conducted;
3. A statement of the purpose or purposes for which the organization was organized and identification of the licensed charitable organization to which the applicant will distribute its net receipts. If the organization is incorporated, a copy of the articles of incorporation shall satisfy this requirement;

4. A statement explaining the organizational structure and management of the organization. For incorporated entities, a copy of the organization's bylaws shall satisfy this requirement;

5. The names, addresses, dates of birth, and Social Security numbers of all officers of the organization;

6. The names, addresses, dates of birth, and Social Security numbers of all employees and members of the organization who will be involved in the management and supervision of charitable gaming. No fewer than two (2) employees or members of the organization who are involved in the management and supervision of charitable gaming, along with the chief executive officer or the director of the applicant organization, shall be designated as chairpersons;

7. The address of the location at which charitable gaming will be conducted and the name and address of the owner of the property, if it is owned by a person other than the organization;

8. A copy of the letter or other legal document issued by the Internal Revenue Service to grant tax-exempt status;

9. A statement signed by the presiding or other responsible officer of the organization attesting that the information submitted in the application is true and correct and that the organization agrees to comply with all applicable laws and administrative regulations regarding charitable gaming;

10. An agreement that the organization's records may be released by the federal Internal Revenue Service to the department; and

11. Any other information as determined by the department through the promulgation of administrative regulations.

(15) The department may issue a license for a specified period of time, based on the type of charitable gaming involved and the desired duration of the activity.

(16) The department shall charge a fee for each license issued and renewed, not to exceed three hundred dollars ($300). Specific fees to be charged shall be prescribed in a graduated scale promulgated by administrative regulations and based on type of license, type of charitable gaming, actual or projected gross receipts, or other applicable factors, or combination of factors.

(17)(a) A licensed charitable organization may place its charitable gaming license in escrow if:

1. The licensee notifies the department in writing that it desires to place its license in escrow; and

2. The license is in good standing and the department has not initiated disciplinary action against the licensee.

(b) During the escrow period, the licensee shall not engage in charitable gaming, and the escrow period shall not be included in calculating the licensee's retention rate under KRS 238.536.

(c) A charitable organization may apply for reinstatement of its active license and the license shall be reinstated provided:

1. The charitable organization continues to qualify for licensure;
2. The charitable organization has not engaged in charitable gaming during the escrow period; and
3. The charitable organization pays a reinstatement fee established by the department.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

1. Constitutionality.

This section does not create arbitrary distinctions among charitable organizations but is designed to further a state interest in ensuring that only established charities operate charitable gaming facilities. Commonwealth v. Louisville Atlantis Community/Adapt, 971 S.W.2d 810, 1997 Ky. App. LEXIS 86 (Ky. Ct. App. 1997).

238.550. Standards for management and accounting of funds — Reports — Charitable gaming expenses.

(1) All adjusted gross receipts from charitable gaming shall be handled only by chairpersons, officers, or employees of the licensed charitable organization.

(2) Within two (2) business days after the completion of a charitable gaming event or session, all gross receipts and adjusted gross receipts shall be deposited into one checking account devoted exclusively to charitable gaming. This checking account shall be designated the “charitable gaming account,” and the licensed charitable organization shall maintain its account at a financial institution located in the Commonwealth of Kentucky. No other funds may be deposited or transferred into the charitable gaming account.

(3) All payments for charitable gaming expenses, payments made for prizes purchased, and any charitable donations from charitable gaming receipts shall be made from the charitable gaming account and the payments or donations shall be made only by bona fide officers of the organization by checks having preprinted consecutive numbers and made payable to specific persons or organizations. No check drawn on the charitable gaming account may be made payable to “cash,” or “bearer,” except that a licensed charitable organization may withdraw start-up funds for a charitable gaming event or session from the charitable gaming account by check made payable to “cash” or “bearer,” if these start-up funds are redeposited into the charitable gaming account together with all adjusted gross receipts derived from the particular event or session. Checks shall be imprinted with the words “charitable gaming account” and shall contain the organization’s license number on the face of each check. Payments for charitable gaming expenses, prizes purchased, and charitable donations may be made by electronic funds transfer if the payments are made to specific persons or organizations. The department may by administrative regulation adopt alternative reporting requirements for charitable gaming of limited scope or duration, if these requirements are sufficient to ensure accountability for all moneys handled.

(4) A licensed charitable organization shall expend net receipts exclusively for purposes consistent with the charitable, religious, educational, literary, civic, fraternal, or patriotic functions or objectives for which the licensed charitable organization received and maintains federal tax-exempt status, or consistent with its status as a common school, an institution of higher education, or a state college or university. No net receipts shall inure to the private benefit or financial gain of any individual.

(5) Accurate records and books shall be maintained by each organization exempt from licensure under KRS 238.535(1) and each licensed charitable organization for a period of three (3) years. Department staff shall have access to these records at reasonable times. Licensed charitable organizations and exempt organizations shall maintain their charitable gaming records at their offices or places of business within the Commonwealth of Kentucky as identified in their license applications or applications for exempt status. An exempt organization shall submit a yearly financial report in accordance with KRS 238.535(2), and failure to file this report shall constitute grounds for revocation of the organization’s exempt status.

(6) All licensed charitable organizations that have annual gross receipts of two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000) or less and do not have a weekly bingo session shall report to the department annually at the time and on a form established in administrative regulations promulgated by the department.

(7) All other licensed charitable organizations shall submit reports to the department at least quarterly at the time and on a form established in administrative regulations promulgated by the department.

(8) Failure by a licensed charitable organization to file reports required under this chapter shall constitute grounds for revocation of the organization’s license or denial of the organization’s application to renew its license in accordance with KRS 238.560(3). Reports filed by a licensed charitable organization shall include but shall not be limited to the following information:

(a) All gross receipts received from charitable gaming for the reporting period, classified by type of gaming activity;

(b) The names and addresses of all persons who are winners of prizes having a fair market value of six hundred dollars ($600) or more;

(c) All expenses paid and the names and addresses of all persons to whom expenses were paid;

(d) All net receipts retained and the names and addresses of all charitable endeavors that received money from the net receipts; and

(e) Any other information the department deems appropriate.

(9) No licensed charitable organization shall incur charitable gaming expenses, except as provided in this chapter. No licensed charitable organization shall be permitted to expend amounts in excess of prevailing market rates for the following charitable gaming expenses:

- (a) Charitable gaming supplies and equipment;
- (b) Rent;
- (c) Utilities;
- (d) Insurance;
- (e) Advertising;
- (f) Janitorial services;
- (g) Bookkeeping and accounting services;
- (h) Security services;
- (i) Membership dues for its participation in any charitable gaming trade organization; and
- (j) Any other expenses the department may determine by administrative regulation to be legitimate.

(10) No licensed charitable organization shall expend receipts from charitable gaming activities nor incur expenses to form, maintain, or operate as a labor organization.

History.

Enact. Acts 1994, ch. 66, § 11, effective March 16, 1994; 1996, ch. 331, § 10, effective April 10, 1996; 1998, ch. 232, § 11, effective April 1, 1998; 2000, ch. 374, § 12, effective July 14, 2000; 2007, ch. 120, § 1, effective June 26, 2007; 2010, ch. 24, § 544, effective July 15, 2010.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

1. Constitutionality.

Provisions of this section requiring gross receipts from charitable gambling to be handled only by bona fide officers and employees of the charitable organization and limiting rent and other expenses are rationally related to the state's interest in ensuring that receipts from charitable gaming are actually applied to charitable works and are therefore constitutionally protected; nor is subsection (5) overbroad, since no constitutionally protected conduct is prohibited. Commonwealth v. Louisville Atlantis Community/Adapt, 971 S.W.2d 810, 1997 Ky. App. LEXIS 86 (Ky. Ct. App. 1997).

The requirement to retain 40% of adjusted gross receipts is not clearly unreasonable because the Commonwealth has an express and legitimate interest in insuring that gaming receipts are used for solely charitable purposes and that they are not unwisely or improperly diverted, and the requirement that a significant portion of adjusted gross gaming receipts be retained and accounted for by the charity is rationally related to this state objective. Pigeons' Roost v. Commonwealth, 10 S.W.3d 133, 1999 Ky. App. LEXIS 56 (Ky. Ct. App. 1999).

EXPERIMENT STATION AND EXTENSION WORK

247.080. Boards of education may aid extension work.

County boards of education may appropriate such sums of money out of their annual funds as in their wisdom are necessary to aid in carrying on extension work in agriculture and home economics in their respective counties, in connection with the University of Kentucky.

History.

4636g-2; repealed and reenact., Acts 1990, ch. 476, Pt. V, § 610, effective July 13, 1990.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Analysis

- 1. County Agent.
- 2. Extension Work.

1. County Agent.

County agent, for whom salary is appropriated under this section, is not a necessary county officer, and county may not become indebted in making such appropriation in violation of Ky. Const., § 157. Carman v. Hickman County, 185 Ky. 630, 215 S.W. 408, 1919 Ky. LEXIS 351 (Ky. 1919); Knott County v. Michael, 264 Ky. 36, 94 S.W.2d 44, 1936 Ky. LEXIS 271 (Ky. 1936).

County farm agent is not such a necessary county officer as to authorize his employment where to do so would carry county indebtedness beyond limit fixed by Ky. Const., § 157. Adair County Farm Bureau v. Fiscal Court of Adair County, 263 Ky. 23, 91 S.W.2d 537, 1936 Ky. LEXIS 122 (Ky. 1936).

County agent, for whom a salary is appropriated under this section, is agent of university but not agent of county and appropriations for such purpose must be made from "annual" funds of county. Knott County v. Michael, 264 Ky. 36, 94 S.W.2d 44, 1936 Ky. LEXIS 271 (Ky. 1936).

2. Extension Work.

Appropriations for extension work in agriculture and home economics are not authorized under this section unless the work is done jointly or in connection with University of Kentucky. Jefferson County ex rel. Grauman v. Jefferson County Fiscal Court, 269 Ky. 444, 107 S.W.2d 320, 1937 Ky. LEXIS 625 (Ky. 1937).

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

Appropriations for extension work under KRS 247.300 and this section shall not exceed the current revenues as provided in Ky. Const., §§ 157 and 158. OAG 63-494.

If adequate funds were available, there would be no liability on the part of the members of the fiscal court for appropriating funds for extension work under this section in excess of the maximum specified in KRS 247.300 (2). OAG 63-494.

The appropriation for extension work under KRS 247.300 is mandatory; any appropriation under this section is permissive. OAG 63-494.

The limit of the appropriation by the fiscal court of a county under KRS 247.300 (1) and (2) is $5,000 per year, but under this section, the court may appropriate additional funds of the county out of their annual funds as may be necessary for extension work in agriculture and home economics. OAG 63-494.

A fiscal court has no statutory authority to appropriate money out of its annual funds toward the purchase of land to be used as a county fairground. OAG 63-643.

The county agent is not an employee or official of the county. OAG 70-110.

The purchase of land by a county through its fiscal court for the purpose of leasing the same to the 4-H Association of the county who in turn would sublet the property to the United States department of agriculture would not be within the powers of the fiscal court under KRS 67.080(2), nor under this section which provides that the court may aid extension work in agriculture in connection with the University of Kentucky, nor under KRS 247.300 authorizing the fiscal court to appropriate money for the farm bureau but not for the purchase and lease of property under the subject arrangement and the subject purposes. OAG 72-53.

Where a fiscal court considered a motion to employ a full time 4-H agent and such motion was defeated, the fiscal court, in dealing with this legislative function of appropriation, could reconsider at another meeting the matter of making an appropriation for the 4-H agent employment. OAG 77-515.

259.200. Trespassing on park, camp grounds or floodwalls prohibited.

History.

4645n-2: amend. Acts 1954, ch. 229, § 1.

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

The legislature has seen fit to impose fines on persons who permit cattle to run or trespass on certain public lands but apparently no broader criminal liability for trespassing animals has been imposed. OAG 82-262.

259.990. Penalties.

(1) Any person who violates KRS 259.200 shall be fined not less than ten dollars ($10) nor more than one hundred dollars ($100), and each head of cattle trespassing shall constitute a separate offense.

(2) Any person who violates KRS 259.210 shall be fined not less than five dollars ($5) nor more than twenty-five dollars ($25).

Original subsection (1) (4658) of this section was repealed by Acts 1950, ch. 20, § 6.

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

The legislature has seen fit to impose fines on persons who permit cattle to run or trespass on certain public lands but apparently no broader criminal liability for trespassing animals has been imposed. OAG 82-262.

SUBTITLE 3.

PURPOSES AND POWERS

271B.3-020. General powers.

(1) Unless its articles of incorporation provide otherwise, every corporation shall have perpetual duration and succession in its corporate name and shall have the same powers as an individual to do all things necessary or convenient to carry out its business and affairs, including without limitation power to:

(a) Sue and be sued, complain and defend in its corporate name;

(b) Have a corporate seal, which may be altered at will, and to use it, or a facsimile of it, by impressing or affixing it or in any other manner reproducing it;

(c) Make and amend bylaws, not inconsistent with its articles of incorporation or with the laws of this state, for managing the business and regulating the affairs of the corporation;

(d) Purchase, receive, lease, or otherwise acquire, and own, hold, improve, use and otherwise deal with, real or personal property, or any legal or equitable interest in property, wherever located;

(e) Sell, convey, mortgage, pledge, lease, exchange, and otherwise dispose of all or any part of its property;

(f) Purchase, receive, subscribe for, or otherwise acquire; own, hold, vote, use, sell, mortgage, lend, pledge, or otherwise dispose of; and deal in and with shares or other interests in, or obligations of, any other entity;

(g) Make contracts and guarantees, incur liabilities, borrow money, issue its notes, bonds, and other obligations (which may be convertible into or include the option to purchase other securities of the corporation), and secure any of its obligations by mortgage or pledge of any of its property, franchises, or income;

(h) Lend money, invest and reinvest its funds, and receive and hold real and personal property as security for repayment;

(i) Be a promoter, partner, member, associate, or manager of any partnership, joint venture, trust, or other entity;

(j) Conduct its business, locate offices, and exercise the powers granted by this chapter within or without this state;

(k) Elect directors and appoint officers, employees and agents of the corporation, define their duties, fix their compensation, and lend them money and credit;

(l) Pay pensions and establish pension plans, pension trusts, profit sharing plans, share bonus plans, share option plans, and benefit or incentive plans for any or all of its current or former directors, officers, employees, and agents;

(m) Make donations for the public welfare or for charitable, scientific, or educational purposes;

(n) Transact any lawful business that will aid governmental policy; and

(o) Make payments or donations, or do any other act, not inconsistent with law, that furthers the business and affairs of the corporation.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1)(b) of this section, the presence or absence of a corporate seal on or from a writing shall neither add to nor detract from the legality thereof nor affect its validity in any manner or respect.

CHAPTER 281

MOTOR CARRIERS

Department of Vehicle Regulation.

Section

281.605. Exemption of motor vehicles used for certain purposes.

DEPARTMENT OF VEHICLE REGULATION

281.605. Exemption of motor vehicles used for certain purposes.

The provisions of this chapter shall not apply, except as to safety regulations, to:

(1) Motor vehicles used as school buses and while engaged in the transportation of students, under the supervision and control and at the direction of school authorities;

(2) Except as provided in paragraph (e) of this subsection, motor vehicles, regardless of ownership, used exclusively:

(a) For the transportation of agricultural and dairy products, including fruit, livestock, meats, fertilizer, wood, lumber, cotton, products of grove or orchard, poultry, and eggs, while owned by the producer of the products, including landlord where the relation of landlord and tenant or landlord and cropper is involved, from the farm to a market, warehouse, dairy, or mill, or from one (1) market, warehouse, dairy, or mill to another market, warehouse, dairy, or mill. As used in this paragraph and in paragraph (b) of this subsection, "livestock" means cattle, sheep, swine, goats, horses, alpacas, llamas, buffaloes, or any other animals of the bovine, ovine, porcine, caprine, equine, or camelid species;

(b) For the transportation of agricultural and dairy products, livestock, farm machinery, feed, fertilizer, and other materials and supplies essential to farm operation, from market or shipping terminal to farm;

(c) For both the purposes described in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this subsection;

(d) For the transportation of agricultural and dairy products from farm to regularly organized fairs and exhibits and return; or

(e) Motor vehicles used for the transportation of fly ash, in bags, sacks, or other containers, the aggregate weight of which does not exceed ten thousand (10,000) pounds; or bottom ash, waste ash, sludge, and pozatec which is being removed from the premises of a power generator facility for the purpose of disposal;

(3) Motor vehicles used exclusively as church buses and while operated in the transportation of persons to and from a church or place of worship or for other religious work under the supervision and control and at the direction of church authorities;

(4) Motor vehicles used exclusively for the transportation of property belonging to a nonprofit cooperative association or its members where the vehicle is owned or leased exclusively by the association;

(5) Motor vehicles owned in whole or in part by any person and used by such person to transport commodities of which such person is the bona fide owner, lessee, consignee, or bailee; provided, however, that such transportation is for the purpose of sale, lease, rent, or bailment, and is an incidental adjunct to an established private business owned and operated by such person within the scope and in furtherance of any primary commercial enterprise of such person other than the business of transportation of property for hire;

(6) Motor vehicles used in pick-up or delivery service within a city or within a city and its commercial area for a carrier by rail;

(7) Motor vehicles used exclusively for the transportation of coal from the point at which such coal is mined to a railhead or tippie where the railhead or tippie is located at a point not more than fifty (50) air miles from the point at which the coal is mined;

(8) Motor vehicles used as ambulances in transporting wounded, injured, or sick animals or as ambulances as defined in KRS 311A.010;

(9) Motor vehicles used by transit authorities as created and defined in KRS Chapter 96A except as required by KRS 96A.170. Vehicles operated under the authority and direct responsibility of such transit authorities, through contractual agreement, shall be included within this exemption, without regard to the legal ownership of the vehicles, but only for such times as they are operated under the authority and responsibility of the transit authority;

(10) Motor vehicles having a seating capacity of fifteen (15) or fewer passengers and while transporting persons between their places of residence, on the one hand, and, on the other, their places of employment, provided the driver himself or herself is on his way to or from his or her place of employment, and further provided that any person who operates or controls the operation of vehicles hereunder of which said person is the owner or lessee, and any spouse of said person and any partnership or corporation with said person or his or her spouse having an interest therein doing such, shall be eligible to so operate an aggregate number of not more than one (1) vehicle on other than a nonprofit basis;

(11) Motor vehicles used to transport cash letters, data processing material, instruments, or documents, regardless of the ownership of any of said cash letters, data processing material, instruments, or documents;

(12) Motor vehicles operated by integrated intermodal small package carriers who provide intermodal-air-and-ground-transportation. For the purposes of this section, “integrated intermodal small package carrier” shall mean an air carrier holding a certificate or qualifying as an indirect air carrier that undertakes, by itself or through a company affiliated through common ownership, to provide intermodal-air-and-ground-transportation, and “intermodal-air-and-ground-transportation” shall mean transportation involving the carriage of articles weighing not more than one hundred fifty (150) pounds by aircraft or other forms of transportation, including by motor vehicle, wholly within the Commonwealth of Kentucky. The incidental or occasional use of aircraft in transporting packages or articles shall not constitute an integrated intermodal operation within the meaning of this section;

(13) Motor vehicles operated pursuant to a grant of funds in furtherance of and governed by 49 U.S.C. secs. 5310 or 5311, including all amendments, and whose operators have jurisdictions and services approved annually by the Transportation Cabinet in accordance with 49 C.F.R. Title VI;

(14) Motor vehicles used to transport children to educational events or conservation camps run by, or sponsored by, the Department of Fish and Wildlife;

(15) Motor vehicles used to transport children to events or camps run by, or sponsored by, the Kentucky Sheriffs Association; or (16)(a) Motor vehicles used in the transportation of persons who are eighteen (18) years of age or older, if the motor vehicles are owned by a nonprofit organization or being used on behalf of a nonprofit organization that is exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(b) Motor vehicles owned and operated by a nonprofit organization that are exempt under this subsection shall be subject to liability insurance coverage as established by KRS 281.655.

(c) Motor vehicles owned privately but operated on behalf of a nonprofit organization that are exempt under this subsection shall be subject to liability insurance coverage as established by KRS 304.39-110.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Analysis

1. Legislative Intent.
2. Nonresident Property Carriers.
3. Agricultural and Dairy Products.
4. Nonprofit Cooperative Associations.
5. Operation Within City Limits or Suburban Area.

1. Legislative Intent.

The legislature specifically exempted school buses from the provisions of this section, except as to safety regulations. Cornette v. Commonwealth, 899 S.W.2d 502, 1995 Ky. App. LEXIS 108 (Ky. Ct. App. 1995).

2. Nonresident Property Carriers.

Provision of this section which exempted vehicles registered in Kentucky for which the registration fee imposed by law had been paid and vehicles owned by nonresidents and registered under laws of another state from weight tax permitted a nonresident to operate in a specific urban area and no other regardless of whether the vehicle was used in interstate commerce or only within the designated urban area of Kentucky. Blackburn v. Maxwell Co., 305 S.W.2d 112, 1957 Ky. LEXIS 297 (Ky. 1957) (decision prior to 1958 amendment).

Where provisions of this section permitted weight tax exemption to nonresident property carriers for a specific vehicle in a specific urban area and no other, no vested rights accrued to carriers where department of motor transportation (now Department of Vehicle Regulation) failed to change its regulation to conform to the change made in law by amendment, for the law controlled and not the regulation. Blackburn v. Maxwell Co., 305 S.W.2d 112, 1957 Ky. LEXIS 297 (Ky. 1957) (decision prior to 1958 amendment).

3. Agricultural and Dairy Products.

After title to agricultural products passed from producer to another, the producer had no right to transport them in a truck owned by him under a private contract unless he obtained a certificate and paid excise tax. Blanton v. Noel, 289

Ky. 105, 158 S.W.2d 9, 1941 Ky. LEXIS 24 (Ky. 1941) (decided under prior law).

Transportation of lumber from a mill for the producer of the lumber, in whom the title to the lumber remained during the transportation, was not exempt as agricultural or dairy products where it was not shown the producer of the lumber owned the land on which the timber was grown. Brown v. Blanton, 297 Ky. 389, 180 S.W.2d 288, 1944 Ky. LEXIS 741 (Ky. 1944) (decided under prior law).

4. Nonprofit Cooperative Associations.

Exemption of vehicles used by nonprofit cooperative associations was constitutional as permissible classification. Baker v. Glenn, 2 F. Supp. 880, 1933 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 1816 (D. Ky. 1933) (decided under prior law).

5. Operation Within City Limits or Suburban Area.

Exemption, from state regulation, of bus lines "wholly within corporate limits of any city" included bus lines running between connected cities. Monmouth St. Merchants' Bus Ass'n v. Ryan, 247 Ky. 162, 56 S.W.2d 963, 1933 Ky. LEXIS 370 (Ky. 1933) (decided under prior law).

Division of motor transportation (now department of vehicle regulation) could not issue motor carrier a certificate covering operation exclusively within city limits. Ashland v. Fannin, 271 Ky. 270, 111 S.W.2d 420, 1937 Ky. LEXIS 187 (Ky. 1937) (decided under prior law).

The exemption of motor vehicles transporting passengers for hire operating exclusively within a city or ten miles of its limits did not embrace cars licensed or registered in any city outside of Kentucky except cars temporarily in the state. Reeves v. Deisenroth, 288 Ky. 724, 157 S.W.2d 331, 1941 Ky. LEXIS 197 (Ky. 1941) (decided under prior law).

The fact that the operations of motor trucks were always within ten miles of some city did not bring them within the exemption granted by statute, such exemption applying only to operations in and near the city in which the owner's permanent place of business is located. Rogers v. Blanton, 292 Ky. 681, 167 S.W.2d 818, 1942 Ky. LEXIS 148 (Ky. 1942) (decided under prior law).

The provision of law exempting motor vehicles operating exclusively within the limits of a city or within ten miles of its limits was intended to exempt only those vehicles operated within the limits of the city constituting the permanent place of business of the owner, or within ten miles of the limits of that city. A permanent change of business location to another city, or the establishment of bona fide permanent places of business in several cities, would carry the exemption with it, but the establishment of a temporary focal point for operations in a city other than the city in which the permanent place of business is located will not carry the exemption. Rogers v. Blanton, 292 Ky. 681, 167 S.W.2d 818, 1942 Ky. LEXIS 148 (Ky. 1942) (decided under prior law).

Where common carrier had exemption permit for vehicles used exclusively within city limits and suburban areas and a distilled spirit and transporter's license which did not designate any points or routes, but was conditioned upon the holding of a common carrier certificate, such license authorized transportation of distilled spirits only between the points and over the routes designated in the common carrier certificate. Medley v. Edward Torstrick Transfer Co., 267 S.W.2d 534, 1954 Ky. LEXIS 843 (Ky. 1954) (decided under prior law).

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

A truck used by a mine owner to transport coal from his mine to a coal yard does not qualify for the tax exemption provided for coal trucks by this section since it makes no mention of motor vehicles used to transport coal to coal yards, and the words of a statute must be given their literal meaning unless to do so would lead to an absurd or wholly unreasonable conclusion. OAG 62-442.

281A.175. Requirements for school bus endorsement.

(1) An applicant for a school bus endorsement shall satisfy the following requirements:

(a) Qualify for a passenger vehicle endorsement by passing the knowledge and skills test for obtaining a passenger vehicle endorsement;

(b) Demonstrate knowledge of loading and unloading children, including the safe operation of stop signal devices, external mirror systems, flashing lights, and other warning and safety devices required for school buses by state or federal law or regulation;

(c) Demonstrate knowledge of emergency exits and procedures for safely evacuating passengers in an emergency;

(d) Demonstrate knowledge of state and federal laws and regulations related to safely traversing highway rail grade crossings; and

(e) Submit to an annual physical examination in accordance with 49 C.F.R. pt. 391, completed by a medical examiner as defined by 49 C.F.R. pt. 390.

(2) An applicant for a school bus endorsement shall take a driving skills test in a school bus of the same vehicle group as the school bus the applicant will drive.

281A.190. Disqualification — Suspension, revocation, or cancellation — Right to appeal.

(1) A person who holds or is required to hold a CDL shall be disqualified from driving a commercial motor vehicle for a period of one (1) year if convicted of:

(a) Driving or being in physical control of a motor vehicle under the influence of alcohol or a controlled substance;

(b) Driving or being in physical control of a motor vehicle while the alcohol concentration of the person's blood or breath or urine is four hundredths (0.04) or more;

(c) Leaving the scene of an accident involving a motor vehicle driven by a person who holds or is required to hold a CDL;

(d) Using a motor vehicle in the commission of any felony listed in KRS 186.560;

(e) Refusing to submit to testing as required by KRS 281A.220 when driving a motor vehicle;

(f) Committing a first violation of driving a commercial motor vehicle while the person's commercial driver's license is revoked, suspended, or canceled, or when the person is disqualified from operating a commercial motor vehicle; or

(g) Causing a fatality through negligent or criminal operation of a commercial motor vehicle.

(2) A person who holds or is required to hold a CDL shall be disqualified for life if convicted of two (2) or more violations of any of the offenses specified in subsection (1) of this section or any combination of those offenses, arising from two (2) or more separate incidents. The provisions of this subsection shall only apply to convictions that occurred after the disqualification dates established by the Federal Motor Carrier Safety Administration. The Transportation Cabinet shall set forth those dates in an administrative regulation promulgated pursuant to KRS Chapter 13A.

(3) If any violation specified in subsection (1) of this section occurred while transporting a hazardous material required to be placarded, the person who holds or is required to hold a CDL shall be disqualified for a period of three (3) years.

(4) Notwithstanding any other provisions of law, a period of suspension, revocation, or disqualification imposed under the provisions of this chapter shall not be reduced. However, in accordance with the provisions of Title 49, Code of Federal Regulations, Part 383, the cabinet may establish guidelines including conditions under which a disqualification of not less than ten (10) years may be imposed.

(5) A person who holds or is required to hold a CDL shall be disqualified from driving a commercial motor vehicle for life who uses a commercial motor vehicle in the commission of any felony involving the manufacture, distribution, or dispensing of a controlled substance, or possession with intent to manufacture, distribute, or dispense a controlled substance.

(6) A person who holds or is required to hold a CDL shall be disqualified from driving a commercial motor vehicle for a period of sixty (60) days if convicted of two (2) serious traffic violations, or one hundred twenty (120) days consecutively if convicted of three (3) serious traffic violations, committed in a commercial motor vehicle arising from separate incidents occurring within a three (3) year period.

(7) A person who holds or is required to hold a CDL shall be disqualified for the first offense from driving a commercial motor vehicle for six (6) months if the person has been convicted of committing any of those offenses enumerated in KRS 186.610 involving a commercial motor vehicle, commercial driver's license, or application for that license. For the second and each subsequent offense, the person shall be disqualified from operating a commercial motor vehicle for a period of one (1) year.

(8) The cabinet shall deny a person a commercial driver's license or shall suspend, revoke, or cancel his commercial driving privilege, subject to a hearing conducted in accordance with KRS 189A.107, when the cabinet has reason to believe that the person refused to submit to a test to determine his alcohol concentration while driving a commercial motor vehicle.

(9) If a person who holds or is required to hold a CDL is convicted of any of the railroad crossing offenses or conduct enumerated in KRS 189.500, 189.560, and 189.565, then the person shall be disqualified from operating a commercial motor vehicle for a period of:

(a) Sixty (60) days for the first offense;

(b) One hundred twenty (120) days for the second offense within a three (3) year period; and

(c) One (1) year for the third or subsequent offense within a three (3) year period.

(10) If a person who holds or is required to hold a CDL violates an out-of-service order while transporting nonhazardous materials, then the person shall be disqualified from operating a commercial motor vehicle for a period of:

(a) Ninety (90) days for the first offense;

(b) One (1) year for the second offense in a separate incident within a ten (10) year period; and

(c) Three (3) years for the third or subsequent offense in a separate incident within a ten (10) year period.

(11) If a person who holds or is required to hold a CDL violates an out-of-service order while transporting hazardous materials required to be placarded under the 49 U.S.C. sec. 5101 et seq., or operating a commercial motor vehicle designed to transport sixteen (16) or more passengers, including the driver, then the person shall be disqualified from operating a commercial motor vehicle for a period of:

(a) One hundred eighty (180) days for the first offense; and

(b) Three (3) years for the second or subsequent offense in a separate incident within a ten (10) year period.

(12) A person who violates the provisions of KRS 281A.205 shall be fined fifty dollars ($50) for the first offense. For a subsequent offense, a violator shall be fined one hundred dollars ($100) and shall have his or her school bus endorsement suspended for a period of six (6) months.

(13) After disqualifying a commercial driver's license holder or suspending, revoking, or canceling a commercial driver's license, the Transportation Cabinet shall update its records to reflect that action within ten (10) days of receipt. After disqualifying a commercial driver's license holder or suspending, revoking, or canceling an out-of-state commercial driver's license holder's privilege to operate a commercial motor vehicle for at least sixty (60) days, the Transportation Cabinet shall notify the licensing authority of the state which issued the commercial driver's license or commercial driver's instruction permit with this information within ten (10) days. The notification shall include both the disqualification and the violation that resulted in the disqualification, suspension, cancellation, or revocation.

(14) Upon notice from the Federal Motor Carrier Safety Administration that a driver has been determined to be an imminent hazard and has been disqualified from operating a commercial motor vehicle, the cabinet shall act in accordance with the provisions of 49 C.F.R. sec. 383.52. The cabinet shall notify the driver of the disqualification, which shall not exceed one (1) year in duration, and of the right to appeal to the Federal Motor Carrier Safety Administration in accordance with 49 C.F.R. sec. 383.52.

Enact. Acts 1990, ch. 455, § 19, effective July 1, 1991; 1992, ch. 274, § 6, effective April 7, 1992; 1996, ch. 318, § 210, effective July 15, 1996; 2005, ch. 165, § 8, effective June 20, 2005; 2007, ch. 28, § 7, effective June 26, 2007; 2007, ch. 138, § 2, effective June 26, 2007.

Compiler's Notes.

Section 37 of Acts 1990, ch. 455 provided that: "Sections 5, 7, 8, 9, 10, 12, 13, 17, 18, 19, 21, 22, 23, 24, and 25 of this Act shall become effective on July 1, 1991, notwithstanding the Transportation Cabinet may delay implementation until the automated commercial records system is on-line and operational."

Legislative Research Commission Note.

(6/26/2007). This section was amended by 2007 Ky. Acts chs. 28 and 138, which do not appear to be in conflict and have been codified together.

281A.205. Operation of school bus while using cellular telephone prohibited — Exceptions.

(1) As used in this section, "cellular telephone" means a cellular, analog, wireless, or digital telephone.

(2) A person shall not operate a school bus, as defined in KRS 281A.010, on any highway while using a cellular telephone while the bus is in motion and transporting one (1) or more children, except for communications made to and from a central dispatch, school transportation department, or its equivalent when the bus is not equipped with a functioning two (2) way radio.

(3) Notwithstanding subsection (2) of this section, a person operating a school bus shall be allowed to use a cellular telephone in the event of a bona fide emergency.

TITLE XXV

BUSINESS AND FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS

Chapter

286. Kentucky Financial Services Code.

304. Insurance Code.

CHAPTER 286

KENTUCKY FINANCIAL SERVICES CODE

Subtitle 3. Banks and Trust Companies.

Section

286.3-280. Maximum debt of persons to bank or trust company.

286.3-290. Exceptions to maximum debt to banks.

286.3-330. Assets may be pledged or surety bonds provided as collateral security — Security not required if deposit insured.

SUBTITLE 3.

BANKS AND TRUST COMPANIES

286.3-280. Maximum debt of persons to bank or trust company.

(1) Except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, no bank or trust company shall permit any person to become indebted to it or to become obligated as guarantor or surety to it in an amount exceeding twenty per cent (20%) of its capital stock actually paid in and its actual amount of surplus, unless the person pledges with it good collateral security or executes to it a mortgage upon real or personal property which at the time is of more than the cash value of the indebtedness or obligation above all other encumbrances; but the indebtedness or obligation of any person shall not exceed thirty percent (30%) of the paid-in capital and actual surplus of the bank or trust company. When computing the total capital stock and surplus, the negative balance of a bank's undivided profits account shall be deducted.

(2) A bank organized as a limited liability company shall not be covered by subsection (1) of this section, but shall comply with the legal lending limits applicable to national banks set forth in 12 U.S.C. sec. 84 and 12 C.F.R. sec. 32.4, as may be amended.

(3) No bank or trust company shall permit any of its directors or executive officers to become indebted to it or become obligated as guarantor or surety to it in an amount which exceeds that which any other person is authorized by this section to become indebted or obligated.

(4) In computing the indebtedness of any person:

(a) The liability of any partnership in which the person acts as a general partner, and any obligation entered into for the benefit of a person, partnership, or association, shall be included in the total liabilities of the person, partnership, or association; and

(b) Any credit exposure arising from a derivative transaction, repurchase agreement, reverse purchase agreement, securities lending transaction, or securities borrowing transaction shall be included. For the purposes of this paragraph, the term "derivative transaction" includes any transaction that is a contract, agreement, swap, warrant, note, or option that is based, in whole or in part, on the value of, any interest in, or any quantitative measure or the occurrence of any event relating to, one (1) or more commodities, securities, currencies, interest or other rates, indices, or other assets.

(5) Except as otherwise provided in this section, the same security, both in kind and amount, shall be required from stockholders as from nonstockholders.

(6) The discount of bills of exchange drawn against actually existing value, and the purchase or discounting of commercial or business paper actually owned by the person negotiating the paper shall not be considered as borrowed money within the meaning of this section in fixing the limit of indebtedness or obligation of any person selling or negotiating the paper to a bank.

History.

581, 583, 609, 610: amend. Acts 1986, ch. 444, § 9, effective July 15, 1986; 1986, ch. 472, § 1, effective July 15, 1986; 1992, ch. 77, § 3, effective July 14, 1992; 2006, ch. 183, § 9, effective July 12, 2006; renum. 2006, ch. 247, § 38, effective July 12, 2006; 2010, ch. 28, § 15, effective July 15, 2010; 2012, ch. 77, § 1, effective July 12, 2012.

Compiler's Notes.

This section was formerly compiled as KRS 287.280 and was renumbered as this section effective July 12, 2006.

Legislative Research Commission Note.

(7/12/2006). This section was amended in 2006 Ky. Acts ch. 183. In that same session, 2006 Ky. Acts ch. 247, sec. 38 required that all sections of KRS Chapters 287, 288, 290, 291, 294, 366, 366A, and 368 be renumbered as sections of a single KRS chapter entitled the "Kentucky Financial Services Code." Therefore, the Statute Reviser, acting under KRS 7.136(1), has changed the number of this section and codified it as a section of KRS Chapter 286.

This section was amended by two 1986 Acts which do not appear to be in conflict and have been compiled together. However, in combining the amendments it was necessary to retain the words "in an amount" in subsection (2) of this section which had been deleted by Acts 1986, ch. 472, § 1.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Analysis

1. Applicability.
2. Indebtedness.
3. Purchase of Paper.
4. Liability of Directors and Officers.
5. Piercing the Corporate Veil.

1. Applicability.

Subsection (3) of this section applies only to persons primarily liable, and does not apply to guarantors. Petition of Hawesville Deposit Bank, 226 Ky. 236, 10 S.W.2d 819, 1928 Ky. LEXIS 60 (Ky. 1928).

2. Indebtedness.

Indebtedness to a bank does not include paper which has been rediscounted by the bank to another person or firm. Commonwealth v. Morton, 145 Ky. 521, 140 S.W. 685, 1911 Ky. LEXIS 890 (Ky. 1911).

3. Purchase of Paper.

This section includes the purchase of paper by bank from another. Wickliffe v. Turner, 154 Ky. 571, 157 S.W. 1125, 1913 Ky. LEXIS 126 (Ky. 1913).

4. Liability of Directors and Officers.

An indictment under former subsection (11) of KRS 287.990 (now 286.3-990) for making a false report as to indebtedness of individuals needed not state the actual amount of indebtedness but merely negative the maximum recited in the report. Anderson v. Commonwealth, 117 S.W. 364, 1909 Ky. LEXIS 497 (Ky. 1909).

Bank president is not liable to it for a loan made by its cashier in violation of this section. First State Bank v. Morton, 146 Ky. 287, 142 S.W. 694, 1912 Ky. LEXIS 75 (Ky. 1912).

Directors who consented to loans violating this section were liable under subsection (7) of KRS 287.990 (now 286.3-990) for the loss occasioned by the lending of the excess. Wickliffe v. Turner, 154 Ky. 571, 157 S.W. 1125, 1913 Ky. LEXIS 126 (Ky. 1913). See Cunningham v. Shellman, 164 Ky. 584, 175 S.W. 1045, 1915 Ky. LEXIS 419 (Ky. 1915); Scott's Ex'rs v. Young, 231 Ky. 577, 21 S.W.2d 994, 1929 Ky. LEXIS 328 (Ky. 1929).

Actions hereunder against directors are upon a statutory liability and the cause of action arises at the latest at the time the bank suspends business. The period of limitations applicable is that prescribed by KRS 413.120. Purcell v. Baker, 270 Ky. 772, 110 S.W.2d 1079, 1937 Ky. LEXIS 162 (Ky. 1937).

5. Piercing the Corporate Veil.

Although the limits contained in this section do not apply to corporations, only persons, the corporate shell may be disregarded when the corporation is used for fraudulent purposes. Federal Deposit Ins. Corp. v. Reliance Ins. Corp., 716 F. Supp. 1001, 1989 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 9354 (E.D. Ky. 1989).

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

Subsection (1) of KRS 287.290 (now 286.3-290) applies where the borrower is the United States or the state of Kentucky and has no application to reduce the amount of security required of bank directors or officers by subsection (2) of this section. OAG 67-77.

In a transaction whereby a tobacco warehouse sells the tobacco of a particular farmer to a tobacco company and draws an order or bearer draft on the company which it takes to a bank to be discounted, such a draft is a bill of exchange within the meaning of subsection (6) of this section and the discount of such draft drawn against actual existing value shall not be considered as indebtedness within the meaning of this section. OAG 73-41.

The restrictions of this section and KRS 287.290 (now 286.3-290) do not apply to federal fund transactions since they are basically in the nature of time deposits and not loans, so that the commissioner of banking (now financial institutions) would have the authority to repeal or rescind regulation BR 70-2, since the legal basis thought to have existed does not exist and said commissioner could, by a new regulation, define federal fund transactions as being time deposits rather than loans. OAG 73-289.

The lending limits of subsection (6) of this section are not applicable to transactions where a bank acquires personal property and leases it to a customer for a term of years. OAG 74-16.

286.3-290. Exceptions to maximum debt to banks.

In the case of obligations to banks and trust companies, the limitations and restrictions of KRS 286.3-280 shall not apply to:

- (1) Obligations of the United States or of the State of Kentucky;
- (2) Obligations guaranteed as to principal and interest by the United States or the State of Kentucky; or all obligations to the extent secured or covered by guarantees or by commitments or agreements to take over or to purchase the same made by any federal reserve bank or by the United States or by any department, bureau, board, commission or establishment of the United States, including any corporation wholly owned directly or indirectly by the United States; or consolidated bonds issued by or for federal land banks or consolidated debentures issued by or for federal intermediate credit banks under the Act of Congress known as the "Federal Farm Loan Act," and amendments thereto; or consolidated debentures issued by or for banks for cooperatives under the Act of Congress known as the "Farm Credit Act of 1933," and amendments thereto; or obligations issued by the federal home loan banks; or obligations which are insured by the federal housing administrator pursuant to Title 12, Section 12, Section 1713, United States Code, if the debentures to be issued in payment of such insured obligations are guaranteed as to the principal and interest by the United States; or obligations of national mortgage associations; except that the commissioner may make, alter and repeal regulations respecting the total liabilities of any person which:
 - (a) Are secured by direct obligations of the United States or the State of Kentucky, and
 - (b) Have a face value at least equal to the amount of such liabilities, and
 - (c) Will mature within five (5) years from the date such liabilities were incurred;
- (3) Obligations of Kentucky counties and school districts incurred through borrowing in anticipation of the current year's tax receipts as authorized by KRS 68.320 and 160.540; and
- (4) Loans secured by a segregated deposit account in the lending bank if the lending bank has a perfected security interest in the segregated deposit account and if the security interest is clearly documented in the bank's books and records.

Compiler's Notes.

This section was formerly compiled as KRS 287.290 and was renumbered as this section effective July 12, 2006.

The Federal Farm Loan Act referenced in subsection (2) above was classified as 12 USCS §§ 641 et seq. and was repealed by Act Dec. 10, 1971, P.L. 92-181, § 26(a), 85 Stat. 624. For similar provisions, see 12 §§ USCS 2001 et seq.

The Farm Credit Act of 1933 referenced in subsection (2) above was classified as 12 USCS 1131 et seq. and was repealed by Act Dec. 10, 1971, P.L. 92-181. For similar provisions, see 12 §§ USCS 2001 et seq.

Legislative Research Commission Note.

(7/15/2010). This section was amended by 2010 Ky. Acts chs. 24 and 28, which do not appear to be in conflict and have been codified together.

(7/12/2006). In accordance with 2006 Ky. Acts ch. 247, secs. 38 and 39, this statute has been renumbered as a section of the Kentucky Financial Services Code, KRS Chapter 286, and KRS references within this statute have been adjusted to conform with the 2006 renumbering of that code.

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

Subsection (1) of this section applies where the borrower is the United States or the state of Kentucky and has no application to reduce the amount of security required of bank directors or officers by subsection (2) of KRS 287.280 (now 286.3-280). OAG 67-77.

Under subsection (3) of KRS 287.280 (now 286.3-280) a bank may not loan more than 30 percent of its capital and surplus to any one borrower and this section does not create an exception for loans that are secured by obligations of the United States government where the loans have not been guaranteed as to principal and interest by the United States government. OAG 69-551.

The restrictions of this section and KRS 287.280 (now 286.3-280) do not apply to federal fund transactions since they are basically in the nature of time deposits and not loans, so that the commissioner of banking (now financial institutions) would have the authority to repeal or rescind regulation BR 70-2, since the legal basis thought to have existed does not exist and said commissioner could, by a new regulation, define federal fund transactions as being time deposits rather than loans. OAG 73-289.

Subsection (3) of this section is broad enough to embrace loans made to cities by banks in anticipation of revenue for that fiscal year, which means that if a city borrows money from a bank in anticipation of revenue for that fiscal year, and the loan does not exceed, when considering total financial obligations of the city for the particular fiscal year, the anticipated current revenue of the city for that fiscal year, the loan comes under the exception of subsection (3) of this section. OAG 78-572.

If a county borrows money from a bank in anticipation of revenue for that fiscal year, and the loan does not exceed, when considering total financial obligations of the county for the particular fiscal year, the anticipated current revenue of the county for that fiscal year, the loan comes under the exception of subsection (3) of this section. OAG 79-226.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Analysis

1. Pledge of Assets.
2. Securing Public Funds.
3. Liquidation.

1. Pledge of Assets.

Except in instances specifically authorized by statute a bank has no authority to pledge its assets as security for deposits. Commercial Banking & Trust Co. v. Citizens' Trust & Guaranty Co., 153 Ky. 566, 156 S.W. 160, 1913 Ky. LEXIS 901 (Ky. 1913). See Louisville v. Fidelity & Columbia Trust Co., 245 Ky. 704, 54 S.W.2d 40, 1932 Ky. LEXIS 661 (Ky. 1932).

2. Securing Public Funds.

Federal reserve members may secure public funds by transferring such deposits to its commercial department and transferring specific and readily marketable securities to its trust department to secure the repayment of same. Louisville Bridge Com. v. Louisville Trust Co., 258 Ky. 846, 81 S.W.2d 894, 1935 Ky. LEXIS 254 (Ky. 1935).

Revenues of the Louisville Bridge Commission are public funds, the deposits of which may be secured by a pledge of specific collateral. Louisville Bridge Com. v. Louisville Trust Co., 258 Ky. 846, 81 S.W.2d 894, 1935 Ky. LEXIS 254 (Ky. 1935).

3. Liquidation.

A bank has no authority to contract with a secured depositor that in the event of the bank's liquidation the depositor may receive its pro rata distributable share upon its debt before applying the security, such a contract was in violation of KRS 287.610 (now repealed). Louisville v. Fidelity & Columbia

SUBTITLE 12. TRADE PRACTICES AND FRAUDS

304.12-260. Prohibition against refusal of liability insurer to pay on policy for school's posting of Ten Commandments.

Because the posting of the Ten Commandments in a public school building is a lawful posting of a historical document under KRS 158.195, no liability insurer shall refuse to pay under the terms of the policy an insured who is sued for posting the Ten Commandments in compliance with KRS 158.195 in a public school building on the grounds that this act by the insured constitutes an illegal act for which the insurer is not liable to pay under the terms of the policy.

SUBTITLE 13. RATES AND RATING ORGANIZATIONS

304.13-167. Workers' compensation insurers — Uniform classification and experience rating systems — Reporting — Subclassifications, rating plans, and other variations from manual rules — Credit for drug-free workplace program.

(1) Every workers' compensation insurer shall adhere to a uniform classification system and uniform experience rating system filed with the commissioner by an advisory organization designated by the commissioner.

(2) Every workers' compensation insurer shall report its experience in accordance with the statistical plans and other reporting requirements in use by an advisory organization designated by the commissioner.

(3) A workers' compensation insurer may develop subclassifications of the uniform classification system upon which rates may be made. These subclassifications and their filing shall be subject to the provisions of this chapter applicable to filings generally.

(4) A workers' compensation insurer may develop rating plans which identify loss experience as a factor to be used. These rating plans and their filing shall be subject to the provisions of this chapter applicable to filings generally.

(5) The commissioner shall disapprove subclassifications, rating plans, or other variations from manual rules filed by a workers' compensation insurer if the insurer fails to demonstrate that the data thereby produced can be reported consistent with the uniform classification system and experience rating system and in such a fashion so as to allow for the application of experience rating filed by the advisory organization.

(6) The commissioner shall approve rating plans for workers' compensation insurance that give specific identifiable consideration in the setting of rates to employers who implement a drug-free workplace program pursuant to administrative regulations adopted by the Department of Workers' Claims in the Education and Labor Cabinet. The plans shall take effect January 1, 2008, shall be actuarially sound, and shall state the savings anticipated to result from such drug-free workplace programs. The credit shall be at least five percent (5%) unless the commissioner determines that five percent (5%) is actuarially unsound. The commissioner is also authorized to develop a schedule of premium credits for workers' compensation insurance for employers who have safety programs that contain certain criteria for safety programs. The commissioner shall consult with the commissioner of the Department of Workers' Claims in the Education and Labor Cabinet in setting such criteria. A drug-free workplace credit under this subsection shall not be available to employers who receive a credit under KRS 304.13-412 or KRS Chapter 351.

INTERPRETATION FOR THE DEAF AND HARD OF HEARING

309.300. Definitions for KRS 309.300 to 309.319.

As used in KRS 309.300 to 309.319, unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) "Board" means Kentucky Board of Interpreters for the Deaf and Hard of Hearing.

(2) "Committee" means Kentucky Board of Interpreters for the Deaf and Hard of Hearing Policy Committee.

(3) "Consumer" means a person who is deaf, hard of hearing, or who requires special communication techniques in order to communicate.

(4) "Interpreter" means a person who engages in the practice of interpreting.

(5) "Interpreting" means the translating or transliterating of English concepts to any necessary specialized vocabulary used by a consumer or the translating of a consumer's specialized vocabulary to English concepts. Necessary specialized vocabularies include, but are not limited to, American Sign Language, English-based sign language, cued speech, and oral interpreting.

(6) "Nationally recognized certification" means certification granted by a national organization that is based on a skills assessment of the applicant. These organizations include, but are not limited to, the Registry of Interpreters for the Deaf, the National Association of the Deaf, and the National Training, Evaluation, and Certification Unit.

History.

Enact. Acts 1998, ch. 11, § 1, effective July 15, 1998.

309.301. Licensing for interpreters required — Exceptions.

(1) Effective July 1, 2003, no person shall represent himself or herself as an interpreter or engage in the practice of interpreting as defined in KRS 309.300 unless he or she is licensed in accordance with the provisions of KRS 309.300 to 309.319.

(2) The provisions of KRS 309.300 to 309.319 shall not apply to:

(a) Nonresident interpreters working in the Commonwealth less than twenty (20) days per year;

(b) Interpreters working at religious activities;

(c) Interpreters working as volunteers without compensation. However, all volunteers interpreting for state agencies must be eligible for licensure as described in KRS 309.312;

(d) Interpreters working in an emergency. An emergency is a situation where the consumer decides that the delay necessary to obtain a licensed interpreter is likely to cause injury or loss to the consumer; or

(e) The activities and services of an interpreter intern or a student in training who is:

1. Enrolled in a program of study in interpreting at an accredited institution of higher learning;

2. Interpreting under the supervision of a licensed interpreter as part of a supervised program of study; and

3. Identified as an interpreter intern or student in training.

History.

Enact. Acts 1998, ch. 11, § 2, effective July 15, 1998.

309.302. Kentucky Board of Interpreters for the Deaf and Hard of Hearing.

(1) There is hereby created a board to be known as the “Kentucky Board of Interpreters for the Deaf and Hard of Hearing.”

(2) The board shall consist of seven (7) members appointed by the Governor as follows:

(a) Five (5) practicing interpreters who hold current nationally recognized certification and have at least five (5) years interpreting experience;

(b) One (1) deaf interpreter with past or current nationally recognized certification; and

(c) One (1) consumer with knowledge about interpreter issues.

(3) After the initial term of each appointment, all members shall be appointed for a term of four (4) years.

(4) Board members shall not be allowed to succeed themselves but a former member may be reappointed to the board if that member has not served in the preceding four (4) years.

(5) The members of the board shall receive no compensation for their services on the board, but they shall be reimbursed for actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of their official duties.

(6) The board shall annually elect a chairman, a vice chairman, and a secretary-treasurer from the members of the board.

(7) The board shall hold at least one (1) meeting annually and additional meetings as the board may deem necessary. The additional meetings may be held upon call of the chairman or upon written request of a quorum. Four (4) members of the board shall constitute a quorum to conduct business.

(8) Upon recommendation of the board, the Governor may remove any member of the board for neglect of duty or malfeasance in office.

History.

Enact. Acts 1998, ch. 11, § 3, effective July 15, 1998.

309.304. Powers and duties of board — Administrative regulations.

(1) The board shall administer and enforce the provisions of this chapter and shall have the responsibility of evaluating the qualifications of applicants for licensure and the issuance of licenses.

(2) The board may issue subpoenas, examine witnesses, pay appropriate witness fees, administer oaths, and investigate allegations of practices violating the provisions of this chapter.

(3) The board shall promulgate necessary and reasonable administrative regulations in accordance with KRS Chapter 13A and this chapter to effectively carry out and enforce the provisions of KRS 309.300 to 309.319, including regulations to establish authorized fees. Fees shall not exceed amounts necessary to generate sufficient funds to effectively carry out and enforce the provisions of KRS 309.300 to 309.319.

(4) The board may conduct hearings in accordance with KRS Chapter 13B and keep records and minutes necessary to carry out the functions of KRS 309.300 to 309.319.

(5) The board may renew licenses and require continuing education as a condition for renewal.

(6) The board may suspend or revoke licenses, or impose supervisory or probationary conditions upon licensees, or impose administrative disciplinary fines, issue written reprimands, or any combination thereof.

(7) The board may seek injunctive relief in Franklin Circuit Court to stop the unlawful practice of interpreting by unlicensed persons.

(8) The board may employ any persons it deems necessary to carry on the work of the board, and shall define their duties and fix their compensation.

(9) Beginning in 1999, on October 1 of each year, the board shall submit a report to the Legislative Research Commission indicating:

(a) The current number of licensed interpreters; and

(b) The number of complaints received against interpreters and any disciplinary action taken within the previous calendar year.

History.

Enact. Acts 1998, ch. 11, § 4, effective July 15, 1998.

309.306. Fees credited to revolving fund.

(1) All fees and other moneys received by the board under the provisions of KRS 309.300 to 309.319 shall be deposited in the State Treasury to the credit of a revolving fund for the use of the board.

(2) No part of this revolving fund shall revert to the general fund of this Commonwealth.

(3) This revolving fund shall pay for the reimbursement of board members for actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of their official duties, the compensation of all of the employees of the board, and those operational expenses incurred in fulfilling the board's duties as described in administrative regulation.

History.

Enact. Acts 1998, ch. 11, § 5, effective July 15, 1998.

309.308. Kentucky Board of Interpreters for the Deaf and Hard of Hearing Policy Committee.

(1) There is hereby created a committee to be known as the "Kentucky Board of Interpreters for the Deaf and Hard of Hearing Policy Committee."

(2) The committee shall consist of ten (10) members as follows:

- (a) The president or a designee of:
 - 1. Kentucky Association of the Deaf; and
 - 2. Kentucky Registry of Interpreters for the Deaf;
- (b) A representative from:
 - 1. Kentucky Commission on the Deaf and Hard of Hearing (KCDHH);
 - 2. Eastern Kentucky University Interpreter Training Program;
 - 3. Kentucky Department of Education;
 - 4. Kentucky Office of Vocational Rehabilitation;
 - 5. Kentucky School for the Deaf; and
 - 6. Cabinet for Health and Family Services; and

(c) Two (2) members at large, who are consumers, appointed by the board.

(3) The members of the committee shall receive no compensation for their services on the committee. The member from the Kentucky Association of the Deaf, the member from the Kentucky Registry of Interpreters for the Deaf, and the at-large members shall be reimbursed for actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of their committee duties.

History.

Enact. Acts 1998, ch. 11, § 6, effective July 15, 1998; 2005, ch. 99, § 65, effective June 20, 2005; 2006, ch. 211, § 129, effective July 12, 2006.

309.310. Duties of policy committee.

(1) The committee shall provide ongoing advice and input to the board regarding the criteria for licensure and the ratio between consumer demand and the existing supply of licensed interpreters or those eligible for licensure.

(2) The committee shall make recommendations to the board regarding the content of relevant administrative regulations.

(3) The committee shall provide ongoing review of professional development and support systems for interpreters including existing public and private education programs and training resources within the Commonwealth.

History.

Enact. Acts 1998, ch. 11, § 7, effective July 15, 1998.

309.312. Eligibility for license and temporary license.

(1) To be eligible for licensure by the board as an interpreter, the applicant shall submit an application which includes:

(a) An application fee; and

(b) Current certification from a nationally recognized organization at the requisite level for sign language interpreters, oral interpreters, or cued speech transliterators as determined by the board and promulgated by administrative regulation.

(2) The board shall issue an interpreter license to an applicant who fulfills these requirements. The front of the license shall clearly list all certifications held by the licensee.

(3) The board may issue a temporary license as an interpreter to an applicant who is certified at a level below that required for licensure in subsection (1) of this section. A temporary license shall be available for a person who is training under the supervision of a licensed interpreter under circumstances defined by the board in administrative regulation. A temporary license is valid for only a certain period until the licensee achieves the minimum level of certification required for licensure under subsection (1) of this section. A temporary license is not renewable although extensions may be granted under circumstances defined by administrative regulation.

(a) For graduates of a baccalaureate interpreter training program, a temporary license shall be valid for up to one (1) year.

(b) For graduates of an associate of arts interpreter training program, a temporary license shall be valid for up to two (2) years.

(c) For nondegree applicants, a temporary license shall be valid for up to two (2) years.

(4) Upon payment of the application fee, the board shall grant licensure to an applicant holding a valid license, certificate, or equivalent issued by another state if it is based upon standards equivalent to or exceeding the standards required by KRS 309.300 to 309.319.

History.

Enact. Acts 1998, ch. 11, § 8, effective July 15, 1998.

309.314. Renewal and reinstatement of license — Continuing education.

(1) Each person licensed as an interpreter shall annually, on or before July 1, submit to the board current proof of nationally recognized certification and pay a fee for the renewal of the interpreter license. The amount of the fee shall be promulgated by administrative regulation of the board. All licenses not renewed by July 1 of each year shall expire.

(2) A sixty (60) day grace period shall be allowed after July 1, during which time individuals may continue to practice and may renew their licenses upon payment of the renewal fee plus a late renewal fee as promulgated by administrative regulation of the board.

(3) All licenses not renewed by August 31 shall terminate based on the failure of the individual to renew in a timely manner. Upon termination, the licensee is no longer eligible to practice in the Commonwealth.

(4) After the sixty (60) day grace period, but before five (5) years from the date of termination, individuals with a terminated license may have their licenses reinstated upon payment of the renewal fee plus a reinstatement fee as promulgated by administrative regulation of the board.

(5) A suspended license is subject to expiration and termination and may be renewed as provided in KRS 309.300 to 309.319. Renewal shall not entitle the licensee to engage in the practice of interpreting until the suspension has ended or is otherwise removed by the board and the right to practice is restored by the board.

(6) A revoked license is subject to expiration and termination but shall not be renewed. If it is reinstated, the licensee shall pay the reinstatement fee as set forth in subsection (4) of this section and the renewal fee as set forth in subsection (1) of this section.

(7) The board may require that a person applying for renewal or reinstatement of licensure show evidence of completion of continuing education as prescribed by the board by administrative regulation.

History.

Enact. Acts 1998, ch. 11, § 9, effective July 15, 1998.

309.316. Classification of offenses — Investigation of wrongdoing — Hearing — Sanctions — Hearing for denial of application.

(1) The board shall by administrative regulation classify types of offenses and the recommended administrative action. The type of action to be taken shall be based on the nature, severity, and frequency of the offense. Administrative action authorized in this section shall be in addition to any criminal penalties provided in KRS 309.300 to 309.319 or under other provisions of law.

(2) The board may investigate allegations of wrongdoing upon complaint or upon its own volition. The board shall establish procedures for receiving and investigating complaints by administrative regulation.

(3) If the board's investigation reveals evidence supporting the complaint, the board shall set the matter for hearing in accordance with the provisions of KRS Chapter 13B before suspending, revoking, imposing probationary or supervisory conditions or an administrative fine, issuing a written reprimand, or any combination of actions regarding any license under the provisions of this chapter.

(4) If, after an investigation that includes opportunity for the licensee to respond, the board determines that a violation took place but was not of a serious nature, it may issue a written admonishment to the licensee. A copy of the admonishment shall be placed in the permanent file of the licensee. The licensee shall have the right to file a response to the admonishment within thirty (30) days of its receipt and to have the response placed in the permanent licensure file. The licensee may alternatively, within thirty (30) days of the receipt, file a request for hearing with the board. Upon receipt of this request, the board shall set aside the written admonishment and set the matter for hearing under the provisions of KRS Chapter 13B.

(5) After denying an application under the provisions of KRS 309.300 to 309.319, the board may grant a hearing to the denied applicant in accordance with the provisions of KRS Chapter 13B.

History.

Enact. Acts 1998, ch. 11, § 10, effective July 15, 1998.

309.318. Board's disciplinary powers — Reasons for sanctions — Appeal to Franklin Circuit Court.

(1) The board may refuse to issue a license or suspend, revoke, impose probationary conditions upon, impose an administrative fine, issue a written reprimand, or any combination thereof regarding any licensee upon proof that the licensee has:

(a) Been convicted of a crime as described in KRS 335B.010(4) that directly relates to the occupation of interpreter, if in accordance with KRS Chapter 335B. A plea of "no contest" may be treated as a conviction for purposes of disciplinary action;

(b) Knowingly misrepresented or concealed a material fact in obtaining a license or in reinstatement thereof;

(c) Committed any fraudulent act or practice;

(d) Been incompetent or negligent in the practice of interpreting;

(e) Violated any state statute or administrative regulation governing the practice of interpreting;

(f) Violated the code of ethics of the national organization issuing the licensee's certification as incorporated in administrative regulation; or

(g) Violated any federal or state law considered by the board to be applicable to the practice of interpreting.

(2) When the board issues a written reprimand to the licensee, a copy of the reprimand shall be placed in the permanent file of the licensee. The licensee shall have the right to submit a response within thirty (30) days of its receipt and to have that response filed in the permanent file.

(3) At any time during the investigative or hearing processes, the board may accept an assurance of voluntary compliance from the licensee which effectively deals with the complaint.

(4) The board may reconsider, modify, or reverse its probation, suspensions, or other disciplinary action.

(5) Five (5) years from the date of a revocation, any person whose license has been revoked may petition the board for reinstatement. The board shall investigate the petition and may reinstate the license upon a finding that the individual has complied with any terms prescribed by the board and is again able to competently engage in the practice of interpreting.

(6) Any party aggrieved by a disciplinary action of the board may bring an action in Franklin Circuit Court in accordance with the provisions of KRS Chapter 13B.

PSYCHOLOGISTS

Section

319.010. Definitions.

319.015. Activities not included in practice of psychology.

319.010. Definitions.

As used in this chapter unless the context requires otherwise:

(1) “Association” means the Kentucky Psychological Association;

(2) “Board” means the Kentucky Board of Examiners of Psychology;

(3) “Credential holder” means any person who is regulated by the board;

(4) “EPPP” means the Examination for Professional Practice in Psychology developed by the Association of State and Provincial Psychology Boards;

(5) “IPC” means the Interjurisdictional Practice Certificate developed by the Association of State and Provincial Psychology Boards;

(6) “License” means the credential issued by the board to a licensed psychologist, licensed psychological practitioner, certified psychologist with autonomous functioning, certified psychologist, or a licensed psychological associate;

(7) “Practice of psychology” means rendering to individuals, groups, organizations, or the public any psychological service involving the application of principles, methods, and procedures of understanding, predicting, and influencing behavior, such as the principles pertaining to learning, perception, motivation, thinking, emotions, and interpersonal relationships; the methods and procedures of interviewing, counseling, and psychotherapy; and psychological testing in constructing, administering, and interpreting tests of mental abilities, aptitudes, interests, attitudes, personality characteristics, emotion, and motivation. The application of said principles in testing, evaluation, treatment, use of psychotherapeutic techniques, and other methods includes, but is not limited to: diagnosis, prevention, and amelioration of adjustment problems and emotional, mental, nervous, and addictive disorders and mental health conditions of individuals and groups; educational and vocational counseling; the evaluation and planning for effective work and learning situations; and the resolution of interpersonal and social conflicts;

(8) “Psychotherapy” means the use of learning, conditioning methods, and emotional reactions, in a professional relationship, to assist a person or persons to modify feelings, attitudes, and behavior which are intellectually, socially, or emotionally maladjustive or ineffectual; and

(9) “Psychologist” means any person who holds himself or herself out by any title or description of services incorporating the words “psychologic,” “psychological,” “psychologist,” “psychology,” “psychop- practice,” or any other term or terms that imply he or she is trained, experienced, or an expert in the field of psychology.

History.

Enact. Acts 1948, ch. 169, § 1; 1964, ch. 154, § 1; 1986, ch. 128, § 2, effective July 15, 1986; 2001, ch. 80, § 2, effective June 21, 2001; 2010, ch. 50, § 1, effective July 15, 2010.

NOTES TO DECISIONS1. Practice of Psychology.

Kentucky State Board of Examiners of Psychology had subject matter jurisdiction over administrative complaint alleging that a psychologist violated KRS 319.082(1)(c), (d), and (f) by rendering a formal, professional opinion about a child without direct and substantial professional contact with, or a formal assessment of, the child because while the evaluation of the child was in the context of a judicial proceeding, the conduct still constituted the practice of psychology under KRS 319.010(6) (now (7)). Maggard v. Commonwealth, 282 S.W.3d 301, 2008 Ky. LEXIS 237 (Ky. 2008).

Cited:

Mosley v. Commonwealth, 420 S.W.2d 679, 1967 Ky. LEXIS 130 (Ky. 1967).

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

This section exempts from the definition of psychology and, therefore, from the licensing requirements of KRS Chapter 319, “the teaching of principles of psychology for accredited educational institutions,” a fortiori, the teaching of the principles of psychotherapy for accredited educational institutions is similarly exempted and no further licensing would be required. OAG 80-326.

A practitioner of “thanatology,” which is described as the counseling and helping of families to cope with the news that a loved one is terminally ill and to help said families after the death of the loved one, should either be a licensed physician or a licensed social worker. A licensed psychologist is also probably legally qualified to practice “thanatology.” OAG 83-402.

319.015. Activities not included in practice of psychology.

Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to limit:

(1) The activities, services, and use of title on the part of a person in the employ of the federal government;

(2) Persons from engaging in the teaching of psychology, the conduct of psychological research, the provision of consultation services to organizations or institutions, or the provision of expert testimony, provided that such activities do not involve the delivery or supervision of direct psychological services to individuals or groups;

(3) Persons licensed, certified, or registered under any other provision of the Kentucky Revised Statutes from rendering services consistent with the laws regulating their professional practice and the ethics of their profession. The use of written or computerized interpretations of any psychological testing or the administration and use of symptomatic and behavioral assessments by a practitioner of the healing arts as defined in KRS 311.271(2), clinical social worker, marriage and family therapist, professional art therapist, advanced practice registered nurse, physician, physical therapist, or occupational therapist who uses these interpretations or administrators and uses these assessments shall not be limited. They shall not represent themselves to be psychologists or use the term “psychological” in describing their services;

(4) The activities of a student, intern, or resident in psychology, pursuing a course of study approved by the department of psychology of an educational institution rated acceptable by the board for qualifying training and experience, provided such activities are recognized by transcript as a part of his or her supervised course of study;

(5) The recognized educational activities of teachers in accredited public and private schools, the authorized duties of guidance counselors who are certified by the Education Professional Standards Board, or the activities of persons using psychological techniques in business and industrial organizations for employment placement, promotion, or job adjustment of their own officers and employees;

(6) Persons who are credentialed as school psychologists by the Education Professional Standards Board from using the title “school psychologist” and practicing psychology as defined in KRS 319.010, if their practice is restricted to regular employment within a setting under the purview of the Education Professional Standards Board. These individuals shall be employees of the educational institution and not independent contractors providing psychological services to educational institutions;

(7) A duly ordained minister, priest, rabbi, Christian Science practitioner, or other clergyman from carrying out his or her responsibilities while functioning in a ministerial capacity within a recognized religious organization serving the spiritual needs of its constituency, if he or she does not hold himself or herself out as a psychologist; or

(8) Any nonresident temporarily employed in this state from rendering psychological services for not more than thirty (30) days every two (2) years, if he or she holds a valid current license or certificate as a psychologist in his or her home state or country and registers with the board prior to commencing practice in the Commonwealth or if he or she holds a valid current IPC.

History.

Enact. Acts 1964, ch. 154, § 15; 1986, ch. 128, § 3, effective July 15, 1986; 1992, ch. 104, § 2, effective July 14, 1992; 1996, ch. 362, § 6, effective July 15, 1996; 2001, ch. 80, § 3, effective June 21, 2001; 2002, ch. 79, § 10, effective July 15, 2002; 2010, ch. 50, § 2, effective July 15, 2010.

Legislative Research Commission Note.

(7/15/2010). 2010 Ky. Acts ch. 85, sec. 52, changed the designation of “advanced registered nurse practitioner” to “advanced practice registered nurse” in KRS 314.011, the definitions section for KRS Chapter 314 relating to nursing. A change has been made in the text of this statute to conform.

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

A person employed as a school psychologist is not within the group of school personnel excluded from the provisions of this chapter by subsection (4) (now (5)) of this section and must be licensed under this chapter in order to be employed as a school psychologist. OAG 67-180.

The members of the staff of the Reading Research Institute of Berea College are not required to be licensed as psychologists under KRS Chapter 319 in order to be authorized to administer tests to students to carry on the work of the institute, since such work is not against the public interest and constitutes the conduct of research in problems of human behavior and subsection (1) of this section exempts from licensure the activities of a person in the employ of an accredited institution of higher education to the extent that such activities are a part of such person’s official duties. OAG 68-209.

Unless the Board of Examiners of Psychologists grants an exception or the statute is amended, a school psychologist must have both a psychologist’s license and a state Department of Education certificate. OAG 74-5.

ENGINEERS AND SURVEYORS

322.010. Definitions for chapter.

As used in this chapter, unless the context requires otherwise:

(1) “Board” means the State Board of Licensure for Professional Engineers and Land Surveyors;

(2) “Engineer” means a person who is qualified to engage in the practice of professional engineering by reason of special knowledge and use of:

(a) The mathematical, physical, and engineering sciences; and

(b) The principles and methods of engineering analysis and design, acquired by engineering education and practical engineering experience;

(3) “Professional engineer” means a person who is licensed as a professional engineer by the board;

(4) “Engineering” means any professional service or creative work, the adequate performance of which requires engineering education, training, and experience as an engineer.

(a) “Engineering” shall include:

1. Consultation, investigation, evaluation, planning, certification, and design of engineering works and systems;

- a. Engineering design and engineering work associated with design/build projects;
 - b. Engineering works and systems which involve earth materials, water or other liquids, and gases;
 - c. Planning the use of land, air, and waters; and
 - d. Performing engineering surveys and studies;
2. The review of construction for the purpose of assuring compliance with drawings and specifications; any of which embraces this service or work, either public or private, in connection with any utilities, structures, certain buildings, building systems, machines, equipment, processes, work systems, or projects with which the public welfare or the safeguarding of life, health, or property is concerned, when that professional service or work requires the application of engineering principles and data;
3. The teaching of engineering design courses in any program accredited by the Engineering Accreditation Commission of the Accreditation Board for Engineering and Technology or any engineering program deemed equivalent by the board;
4. The negotiation or solicitation of engineering services on any project in this state, regardless of whether the persons engaged in the practice of engineering:
- a. Are residents of this state;
 - b. Have their principal place of business in this state; or
 - c. Are in responsible charge of the engineering services performed; and
5. The services of a professional engineer who engages in the practice of land surveying incident to the practice of engineering that does not relate to the location or determination of land boundaries.
- (b) "Engineering" shall not include the professional services performed by persons who:
- 1. Develop or administer construction project safety programs, construction safety compliance, construction safety rules or regulations, or related administrative regulations; or
 - 2. Only operate or maintain machinery or equipment;
- (5) "Practice of engineering" means the performance of any professional service included in subsection (4)(a) of this section;
- (6) "Engineer in training" means a person who has passed the Fundamentals of Engineering Examination and is otherwise qualified to earn experience toward licensure as a professional engineer;
- (7) "Responsible charge of engineering" means direct control and personal supervision of engineering, or teaching experience with the rank equivalent to assistant professor or higher in a board-approved engineering program;
- (8) "Land surveyor" means a person who is qualified to engage in the practice of land surveying by reason of special knowledge and use of mathematics, the physical and applied sciences, and the principles and methods of land surveying, acquired by education and practical experience in land surveying;

(9) "Professional land surveyor" means a person who is licensed as a professional land surveyor by the board;

(10) "Land surveying" means any professional service or work, the adequate performance of which requires the education, training, and experience as a land surveyor.

(a) "Land surveying" shall include but not be limited to the following:

1. Measuring and locating, establishing, or reestablishing lines, angles, elevations, natural and man-made features in the air, on the surface and immediate subsurface of the earth, within underground workings, and on the beds or surfaces of bodies of water involving the:

a. Determination or establishment of the facts of size, shape, topography, and acreage;

b. Establishment of photogrammetric and geodetic control that is published and used for the determination, monumentation, or description of property boundaries;

c. Subdivision, division, and consolidation of lands;

d. Measurement of existing improvements, including condominiums, after construction and the preparation of plans depicting existing improvements, if the improvements are shown in relation to property boundaries;

e. Layout of proposed improvements, if those improvements are to be referenced to property boundaries;

f. Preparation of subdivision record plats;

g. Determination of existing grades and elevations of roads and land;

h. Creation and perpetuation of alignments related to maps, record plats, field note records, reports, property descriptions, and plans and drawings that represent them; and

i. Certification of documents;

2. The negotiation or solicitation of land surveying services on any project in this state, regardless of whether the persons engaged in the practice of land surveying:

a. Are residents of this state;

b. Have their principal office or place of business in this state; or

c. Are in responsible charge of the land surveying services or work performed; and

3. The preparation of survey descriptions for use in legal instruments affecting real property or property rights. "Land surveying" does not include the preparation of a physical description that identifies and describes the tract, parcel, or lot by reference to the tract, parcel, lot, block, or unit number of any subdivision, or other summary identifier appearing on a properly recorded plat of record, or by reference to a deed of record.

(b) "Land surveying" shall not include:

1. The measurement of crops or agricultural land area under any agricultural program sponsored by an agency of the federal government or the state of Kentucky;

2. The services of a professional engineer who engages in the practice of land surveying incident to the practice of engineering, if the land surveying work does not relate to the location or determination of land boundaries; or

3. The design of grades and elevations of roads and land;

(11) "Practice of land surveying" means the performance of any professional service included in subsection (10)(a) of this section;

(12) "Land surveyor in training" means a person who has passed the Fundamentals of Land Surveying Examination and is otherwise qualified to earn experience toward licensure as a professional land surveyor;

Analysis

1. Purpose.
2. Practice of Engineering.

1. Purpose.

This chapter, KRS Chapter 322, is designed to control and regulate the licensing and practice of professional engineering and to prescribe certain times and conditions when the services of a licensed engineer are required; the legislature never intended that every contractor be, or employ, a licensed engineer or architect for every type of design and construction project; the legislation was primarily intended to prevent individuals from holding themselves out as professional engineers without a license. Thomas v. Surf Pools, Inc., 602 S.W.2d 437, 1980 Ky. App. LEXIS 343 (Ky. Ct. App. 1980).

2. Practice of Engineering.

A professional engineer was not performing services "incident to the practice of engineering", within the meaning of KRS 322.370, in drawing the preliminary plans and specifications for a nursing home and such act constituted practicing architecture without a license. Dahlem Constr. Co. v. State Board of Examiners & Registration of Architects, 459 S.W.2d 169, 1970 Ky. LEXIS 130 (Ky. 1970).

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

The legislature, in defining land surveying and its practice, is speaking of the actual surveying of land by metes and bounds through the taking of linear and angular measurements, in applying the principles of geometry and trigonometry, by means of engineering or surveying equipment designed to enable a surveyor to make such calculations. OAG 66-575.

A land surveyor can legally prepare a map showing contours and elevations for planning and facilities. OAG 67-385.

A land surveyor cannot make original and final cross sections for pay quantities in earthwork excavation. OAG 67-385.

A land surveyor or any other person would be prohibited from acting as an advisor to a planning commission on matters involving planning of subdivision streets and construction if the advice required the application of engineering principles and data as outlined in the statute unless such person was licensed as a professional engineer. OAG 67-385.

Land surveying includes the location of boundary lines, acreage and the inevitable and concomitant plats depicting on paper just precisely what the surveyor did on the ground in locating boundaries and land boundary corners and includes maps showing roads, streets and rights of way. OAG 67-385.

It is not a violation of KRS 322.020 for a person or a corporation performing engineering services of the type described and defined in subdivisions (4) and (5) (now subdivisions (3) and (4)) of this section to use a business name which includes the phrase “engineering company” where the owner is engaged in the business, although not licensed as a professional engineer, and has licensed engineer associates or employees who are also engaged in the business on a substantially full-time basis; there is no violation if at least some members are licensed professional engineers and if the engineering services are performed by licensed professional engineers in their own names. OAG 81-356.

The preparation of sprinkler plans involves the practice of engineering and such plans should have the seal of a registered professional engineer. OAG 82-3.

322.020. Practice of engineering or land surveying without license prohibited.

(1) Unless licensed as a professional engineer, no person shall:

- (a) Engage in the practice of engineering;
- (b) Offer to practice engineering; or
- (c) Use, assume, or advertise in any way any title or description tending to convey the impression that he or she is a professional engineer.

(2) Unless licensed as a professional land surveyor, no person shall:

- (a) Engage in the practice of land surveying;
- (b) Offer to practice land surveying; or
- (c) Use, assume, or advertise in any way any title or description tending to convey the impression that he or she is a professional land surveyor.

4. Limitations.

1. Purpose.

This section is designed to protect the public from being imposed upon by persons not qualified to render a professional service. Kennoy v. Graves, 300 S.W.2d 568, 1957 Ky. LEXIS 462 (Ky. 1957).

This chapter, KRS Chapter 322, is designed to control and regulate the licensing and practice of professional engineering and to prescribe certain times and conditions when the services of a licensed engineer are required; the legislature never intended that every contractor be, or employ, a licensed engineer or architect for every type of design and construction project; the legislation was primarily intended to prevent

2. Contract.

The technical requirements of this section play no part in the determination of just claims between persons in the same business field who have contracted with knowledge of each other’s respective professional qualifications. Kennoy v. Graves, 300 S.W.2d 568, 1957 Ky. LEXIS 462 (Ky. 1957).

When a statute requires a license to practice a particular profession, a contract for those professional services entered into with one not licensed is void and unenforceable. Kennoy v. Graves, 300 S.W.2d 568, 1957 Ky. LEXIS 462 (Ky. 1957).

3. Use of Term “Engineering.”
