The provisions of KRS 67.750 to 67.790 shall apply on and after July 15, 2008, to all tax districts that levy an occupational license fee or a tax on net profits or gross receipts, except that the provisions of KRS 67.750 to 67.790 shall not apply to the utilities gross receipts tax levied by school districts pursuant to KRS 160.613 and 160.614. A tax district may apply the provisions of KRS 67.750 to 67.790 to the levy of an occupational license fee or a tax on net profits or gross receipts, except the utilities gross receipts tax levied by school districts pursuant to KRS 160.613 and 160.614, by adoption of an ordinance prior to July 15, 2008.

LICENSE TAXES

68.180. Occupational license tax in counties containing 300,000 population — Exemptions from local fees and taxes — Regulation of ministers.

- (1) The fiscal court of each county having a population of three hundred thousand (300,000) or more may by order or resolution impose license fees on franchises, provide for licensing any business, trade, occupation, or profession, and the using, holding, or exhibiting of any animal, article, or other thing.

(2) License fees on such business, trade, occupation, or profession for revenue purposes, except those of the common schools, shall be imposed at a percentage rate not to exceed one and one-fourth percent (1.25%) of:

(a) Salaries, wages, commissions, and other compensation earned by persons within the county for work done and services performed or rendered in the county; and

(b) The net profits of businesses, trades, professions, or occupations from activities conducted in the county.

(3)(a) No public service company that pays an ad valorem tax shall be required to pay a license tax.

(b)1. It is the intent of the General Assembly to continue the exemption from local license fees and occupational taxes that existed on January 1, 2006, for providers of multichannel video programming services or communications services as defined in KRS 136.602 that were taxed under KRS 136.120 prior to January 1, 2006.

2. To further this intent, no company providing multichannel video programming services or communications services as defined in KRS 136.602 shall be required to pay a license tax. If only a portion of an entity's business is providing multichannel video programming services or communications services, including products or services that are related to and provided in support of the multichannel video programming services or communications services, this exclusion applies only to that portion of the business that provides multichannel video programming services or communications services, including products or services that are related to and provided in support of the multichannel video programming services or communications services.

(c) No license tax shall be imposed upon or collected from any bank, trust company, combined bank and trust company, combined trust, banking and title business in this state, any savings and loan association, whether state or federally chartered.

(d) No license tax shall be imposed upon income received by members of the Kentucky National Guard for active duty training, unit training assemblies, and annual field training.

(e) No license tax shall be imposed upon income received by precinct workers for election training or work at election booths in state, county, and local primary, regular, or special elections.

(f) No license tax shall be imposed upon any profits, earnings, or distributions of an investment fund which would qualify under KRS 154.20-250 to 154.20-284 to the extent any profits, earnings, or distributions would not be taxable to an individual investor, or in other cases where the county is prohibited by law from imposing a license tax.

- (g)1. No license tax shall be imposed upon:
 - a. The profits earned; or
 - b. Income received for work performed;

during a disaster response period by a disaster response business or a disaster response employee.

2. As used in this paragraph, “disaster response business,” “disaster response employee,” and “disaster response period” have the same meaning as in KRS 141.010.

(4) The provisions and limitations of subsection (2) of this section shall not apply to license fees imposed for regulatory purposes as to form and amount, or to the license fees authorized by KRS 160.482 to 160.488.

(5) Pursuant to this section, no fiscal court shall regulate any aspect of the manner in which any duly ordained, commissioned, or denominationally licensed minister of religion may perform his or her duties and activities as a minister of religion. Duly ordained, commissioned, or denominationally licensed ministers of religion shall be subject to the same license fees imposed on others in the county on salaries, wages, commissions, and other compensation earned for work done and services performed or rendered.

Compiler’s Notes.

Section 10 of Acts 1998, ch. 509, provided that the 1998 amendments to this section “apply to tax years beginning after December 31, 1997.”

NOTES TO DECISIONS

1. Constitutionality.

KRS 68.180 to 68.195 was not special legislation prohibited by Ky. Const., §§ 59 and 60 and did not violate the uniformity provisions of Ky. Const., §§ 171 and 181. Kupper v. Fiscal Court of Jefferson County, 346 S.W.2d 766, 1961 Ky. LEXIS 337 (Ky. 1961).

Commissioners of Sinking Fund v. Estate of Doyle, 573 S.W.2d 932, 1978 Ky. App. LEXIS 615 (Ky. Ct. App. 1978).

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

Where, prior to January 1, 1965, the Kentucky department of agriculture did not withhold city and county occupational license taxes from employees employed in the city and county, neither the department nor Commonwealth was liable for taxes, interest or penalty for any prior period, and the city and county would have to look to the employees for any unpaid taxes. OAG 65-845.

This section is a prohibition against a county fiscal court levying certain license fees, but there is no reference to a prohibition against the levying of a license tax against savings and loans by municipalities. OAG 76-708.

In a county with a population of less than thirty thousand, a fiscal court can produce new or additional revenue other than that derived from the ordinary ad valorem tax rate by levying a license or occupational tax without a vote of the people if the county does not already have a general license or occupational tax. OAG 85-84.

68.185. Fiscal court’s function in collection and appropriation of tax.

(1) The fiscal court of each county having a population of three hundred thousand (300,000) or more may provide for the levy, assessment, and collection of the license fees authorized by KRS 68.180 and 160.482 to 160.488, provide for the issuance and enforcement of licenses, and specify the county governmental purposes to which the revenue derived from license fees authorized by KRS 68.180 shall be applied.

(2) In making the provisions described in subsection (1), and without limiting them, the fiscal court may, by resolution or order, adopt reasonable rules or regulations requiring the preparation and filing of timely, accurate, and truthful returns, accounts, and license applications which will aid in the determination of the amount of the fee.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Analysis

1. Constitutionality.
2. Delegation of Authority.

1. Constitutionality.

KRS 68.180 to 68.195 was not special legislation prohibited by Ky. Const., §§ 59 and 60 and did not violate the uniformity provisions of Ky. Const., §§ 171 and 181. Kupper v. Fiscal Court of Jefferson County, 346 S.W.2d 766, 1961 Ky. LEXIS 337 (Ky. 1961).

2. Delegation of Authority.

The fiscal court could provide for the assessment and collection of the license fees by delegating that authority to the Sinking Fund of the City of Louisville. Commissioners of Sinking Fund v. Estate of Doyle, 573 S.W.2d 932, 1978 Ky. App. LEXIS 615 (Ky. Ct. App. 1978).

68.190. Credit for payment of similar city tax.

Any amount paid to any city of the first class within such county as a license fee, for the same privilege and for the same period, shall be credited against the county license fee payable under subsections (1) and 2 of KRS 68.180. Any amount paid to any other city within such county as a license fee, for the same privilege and for the same period, shall be credited against the county license fee payable under subsections (1) and 2 of KRS 68.180, provided that such city, at least thirty (30) days prior to the beginning of any county fiscal year, has contracted with the fiscal court to contribute annually to the support of joint agencies of such county and one or more cities in the county, an amount which bears the same ratio to the annual appropriation made for such joint agencies by a city of the first class in the county, as the assessed valuations for county tax purposes, as determined by the property valuation administrator, of the real and tangible personal property, excluding franchises, located within the corporate limits of such other cities, respectively, bears to the same assessed valuations within a city of the first class in said county.

Compiler's Notes.

This section (Enact. Acts 1960, ch. 80, § 3; 1965 (1st Ex. Sess.), ch. 2, § 25) was repealed and reenacted by Acts 1990, ch. 476, Part V, § 299, effective July 13, 1990.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

1. Constitutionality.

KRS 68.180 to 68.195 was not special legislation prohibited by Ky. Const., §§ 59 and 60 and did not violate the uniformity provisions of Ky. Const., §§ 171 and 181. Kupper v. Fiscal Court of Jefferson County, 346 S.W.2d 766, 1961 Ky. LEXIS 337 (Ky. 1961).

68.199. County that attains population of 30,000 — Credit against occupational license fee — Voluntary credit — New fee or increase in fee.

(1) Notwithstanding the provisions of KRS 68.197(7), a county that enacts an occupational license fee under the authority of KRS 67.083 prior to attaining a population of thirty thousand (30,000) shall not be required to allow a credit against the county occupational license fee for an occupational license fee paid to a city within the county when it is determined that the population of the county exceeds thirty thousand (30,000).

(2) If prior to July 15, 2002, a county voluntarily granted a credit against the county occupational license fee under the terms of an ordinance, interlocal agreement, or other agreement with a city, the county shall not eliminate the credit after it is determined that the population of the county exceeds thirty thousand (30,000).

(3) After July 15, 2002, a county that enacts a new county occupational license fee or increases a county occupational license fee, after it is determined that the county population exceeds thirty thousand (30,000), shall be required to allow the credit against the city fee required by KRS 68.197(7) to the extent of the increase or new fee.

(4) For purposes of this section, the county population shall be determined based only on the official decennial census by the United States Bureau of the Census.

History.

PENALTIES

68.990. Penalties.

(1) Any outgoing county treasurer who fails for ten (10) days to comply with any of the provisions of KRS 68.050 shall be fined not less than fifty (50) nor more than five hundred dollars ($500).

(2) The fiscal court and each of its members who fails or refuses to comply with any of the provisions of KRS 68.080 shall be fined fifty dollars ($50) for each offense.

(3) Any county officer or member of a fiscal court who violates any of the provisions of KRS 68.110(3) shall be fined not less than one hundred ($100) nor more than five hundred dollars ($500), or imprisoned in the county jail for not less than one (1) month nor more than twelve (12) months, or both.

(4) The fiscal court and each of its members who fails or refuses to implement a system of uniform accounts as prescribed by the state local finance officer pursuant to KRS 68.210 shall be fined one hundred dollars ($100) for each offense.

(5) Any local government official who fails to submit a financial report requested by the state local finance officer pursuant to KRS 68.210 shall, fifteen (15) days after written notice of noncompliance by the state local finance officer, be fined two hundred fifty dollars ($250) per day until compliance.

(6) Any county or state officer who knowingly violates any of the provisions of KRS 68.250(4), 68.270, 68.280, 68.310, or 68.320 shall, in addition to the specific liabilities imposed for violating any of the provisions of those sections, be guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction thereof, shall have his office declared vacant, and may also be fined not more than five hundred dollars ($500) or imprisoned for not more than ninety (90) days, or both.

(7) Any county officer who willfully violates any of the provisions of KRS 68.010, 68.020(4), 68.220 to 68.260, 68.290, 68.300, or 68.360 shall be fined not less than fifty (50) nor more than two hundred dollars ($200).

(8) Any person, including a corporation, who willfully fails to prepare or file a timely return, account, or license application described in KRS 68.185, or who willfully prepares or files a false or inaccurate return, account, or license application shall be fined not more than one hundred dollars ($100).

CHAPTER 78 COUNTY EMPLOYEES' CIVIL SERVICE AND RETIREMENT

County Employees Retirement System.

Section

78.606. Service credit earned upon retirement of noncertified employee — Recalculation of benefits.

78.615. Deduction of employee contributions — Service credit — Employer's report — Picked-up employee contributions.

COUNTY EMPLOYEES RETIREMENT SYSTEM

78.606. Service credit earned upon retirement of noncertified employee — Recalculation of benefits.

(1) Upon retirement, a noncertified employee shall have his service credit earned after July 1, 1998, recalculated in accordance with KRS 78.615 except that the employee shall receive service credit determined by dividing the actual number of contracted days worked by twenty (20) and rounding any remainder to the next whole month, provided that the number of hours worked during the period averages eighty (80) or more hours.

(2) The Kentucky Retirement Systems shall adjust the service credit for all affected members who earned service credit for the school years 1996-97 and 1997-98 by recomputing the members' service based on the rounding method provided in subsection (1) of this section.

History.

Enact. Acts 1998, ch. 246, § 1, effective July 15, 1998; 2002, ch. 52, § 19, effective July 15, 2002.

78.615. Deduction of employee contributions — Service credit — Employer's report — Picked-up employee contributions.

(1) Employee contributions shall be deducted each payroll period from the creditable compensation of each employee of an employer participating in the system while he or she is classified as regular full-time as defined in KRS 78.510 unless the person did not elect to become a member as provided by KRS 78.540 or is not eligible to participate in the system as provided by KRS 78.535. After August 1, 1982, employee contributions shall be picked up by the employer pursuant to KRS 78.610(4).

(a) For employees who are not employed by a school board, service credit shall be allowed for each month contributions are deducted or picked up during a fiscal or calendar year, if the employee receives creditable compensation for an average of one hundred (100) hours or more of work per month based on the actual hours worked in a calendar or fiscal year. If the average number of hours of work is less than one hundred (100) hours per month, the employee shall be allowed credit only for those months he or she receives creditable compensation for one hundred (100) hours of work.

(b) For noncertified employees of school boards, for service prior to July 1, 2000, service credit shall be allowed for each month contributions are deducted or picked up under the employee's employment contract during a school year determined by dividing the actual number of contracted calendar days worked by twenty (20) and rounded to the nearest whole month if the employee receives creditable compensation for an average of eighty (80) or more hours of work per month based on the employee's employment contract. The school board shall certify the number of calendar days worked, the rate of pay, and the hours in a work day for each employee monthly or annually. The employer shall file at the retirement office the final monthly report or the annual report for a fiscal year no later than twenty (20) days following the completion of the fiscal year. The retirement system shall impose a penalty on the employer of one thousand dollars ($1,000) if the information is not submitted by the date required with an additional two hundred and fifty dollars ($250) for each additional thirty (30) day period the information is reported late.

1. If the employee works fewer than the number of contracted calendar days, the employee shall receive service credit determined by dividing the actual number of contracted calendar days worked by twenty (20) and rounded to the nearest whole month, provided that the number of hours worked during the period averages eighty (80) or more hours.

2. If the employee works fewer than the number of contracted calendar days and the average number of hours worked is less than eighty (80) per month, then the employee shall receive service credit for each calendar month in which he or she worked eighty (80) or more hours.

3. The retirement system shall refund contributions and service credit for any period for which the employee is not given credit under this subsection.

(c) For noncertified employees of school boards, for service on and after July 1, 2000, at the close of each fiscal year, the retirement system shall add service credit to the account of each employee who made contributions to his or her account during the year. Employees shall be entitled to a full year of service credit if their total paid calendar days were not less than one hundred eighty (180) calendar days for a regular school or fiscal year. In the event an employee is paid for less than one hundred eighty (180) calendar days, the employee may purchase credit according to administrative regulations promulgated by the system. In no case shall more than one (1) year of service be credited for all service performed in one (1) fiscal year. Employees who complete their employment contract prior to the close of a fiscal year and elect to retire prior to the close of a fiscal year shall have their service credit reduced by eight percent (8%) for each calendar month that the retirement becomes effective prior to July 1. Employees who are employed and paid for less than the number of calendar days required in their normal employment year shall be entitled to pro rata service credit for the fractional service. This credit shall be based upon the number of calendar days employed and the number of calendar days in the employee's annual employment agreement or normal employment year. Service credit may not exceed the ratio between the school or fiscal year and the number of months or fraction of a month the employee is employed during that year.

(d) Notwithstanding paragraph (c) of this subsection, a noncertified employee of a school board who retires between July 1, 2000, and August 1, 2001, may choose to have service earned between July 1, 2000, and August 1, 2001, credited as described in paragraph (b) of this subsection, if the employee or retired member notifies the retirement system within one (1) year of his or her initial retirement. The decision once made shall be irrevocable.

(2) Employee contributions shall not be deducted from the creditable compensation of any employee or picked up by the employer while he or she is seasonal, emergency, temporary, or part-time. No service credit shall be earned.

(3) Contributions shall not be made or picked up by the employer and no service credit shall be earned by a member while on leave except:

(a) A member on military leave shall be entitled to service credit in accordance with KRS 61.552; and

(b) A member on approved educational leave, who is receiving seventy-five percent (75%) or more of full salary, shall receive service credit and shall pay member contributions in accordance with KRS 78.610, and his or her employer shall pay employer contributions in accordance with KRS 78.635. If a tuition agreement is broken by the member, the member and employer contributions paid or picked up during the period of educational leave shall be refunded.

(4) The retirement office, upon detection, shall refund any erroneous employer and employee contributions made to the retirement system and any interest credited in accordance with KRS 78.640.

Compiler's Notes.

Section 10 of Acts 1990, ch. 222 provides that: "Any employee or former employee not retired who participated in more than one (1) retirement system administered by the Kentucky Retirement Systems prior to July 15, 1990, may retroactively choose to receive and shall be granted full service credit for time served in one (1) of those systems, and thereby shall relinquish service credit in the other systems for the same time period, and his contributions related to the relinquished credit shall be refunded."

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

A member of the county employees' retirement system who has entered into a deferred compensation plan must contribute to the system on the basis of his gross salary as there is no legal authority which would indicate that one's creditable compensation may be reduced by the amount a member would contribute to a deferred compensation plan. OAG 74-74.

CHAPTER 79

INTERCITY, INTERCOUNTY AND CITY-COUNTY COMPACTS FOR PURCHASING AND MERIT SYSTEMS — RETIREMENT AND DISABILITY PLANS FOR EMPLOYEES OF COUNTIES AND CITIES

Section

79.080. Retirement, disability, health maintenance organization coverage, or hospitalization benefits for employees and elected officers — Participation in state health insurance coverage program for state employees — Termination of participation — Coverage provided in County Employees Retirement System after August 1, 1988.

79.080. Retirement, disability, health maintenance organization coverage, or hospitalization benefits for employees and elected officers — Participation in state health insurance coverage program for state employees — Termination of participation — Coverage provided in County Employees Retirement System after August 1, 1988.

(1) The term "health maintenance organization" for the purposes of this section, means a health maintenance organization as defined in KRS 304.38-030, which has been issued a certificate of authority by the Department of Insurance as a health maintenance organization and which is qualified under the requirements of the United States Department of Health, Education and Welfare, except as provided in subsection (4) of this section.

(2) Cities of all classes, counties, and urban-county governments and the agencies of cities, counties, charter county, and urban-county governments are authorized to establish and operate plans for the payment of retirement, disability, health maintenance organization coverage, or hospitalization benefits to their employees and elected officers, and health maintenance organization coverage or hospitalization benefits to the immediate families of their employees and elected officers. The plan may require employees to pay a percentage of their salaries into a fund from which coverage or benefits are paid, or the city, county, charter county, urban-county government, or agency may pay out of its own funds the entire cost of the coverage or benefits. A plan may include a combination of contributions by employees and elected officers and by the city, county, charter county, urban-county government, or agency into a fund from which coverage or benefits are paid, or it may take any form desired by the city, county, charter county, urban-county government, or agency. Each city, county, charter county, urban-county government, or agency may make rules and regulations and do all other things necessary in the establishment and operation of the plan.

(3) Cities of all classes, counties, charter counties, urban-county governments, the agencies of cities, counties, charter counties, and urban-county governments, and all other political subdivisions of the state may provide disability, hospitalization, or other health or medical care coverage to their officers and employees, including their elected officers, through independent or cooperative self-insurance programs and may cooperatively purchase the coverages.

(4) Any city, county, charter county, or urban-county government which is a contributing member to any one (1) of the retirement systems administered by the state may participate in the state health insurance coverage program for state employees as defined in KRS 18A.225 to 18A.229. Should any city, county, charter county, or urban-county government opt at any time to participate in the state health insurance coverage program, it shall do so for a minimum of three (3) consecutive years. If after the three (3) year participation period, the city, county, charter county, or urban-county government chooses to terminate participation in the state health insurance coverage program, it will be excluded from further participation for a period of three (3) consecutive years. If a city, county, charter county, or urban-county government, or one (1) of its agencies, terminates participation of its active employees in the state health insurance coverage program and there is a state appropriation for the employer's contribution for active employees' health insurance coverage, neither the unit of government, or its agency, nor the employees shall receive the state-funded contribution after termination from the state employee health insurance program. The three (3) year participation and exclusion cycles shall take effect each time a city, county, charter county, or urban-county government changes its participation status.

(5) Any city, county, charter county, urban-county government, or other political subdivision of the state which employs more than twenty-five (25) persons and which provides hospitalization benefits or health maintenance organization coverage to its employees and elected officers, shall annually give its employees an option to elect either standard hospitalization benefits or membership in a qualified health maintenance organization which is engaged in providing basic health services in a health maintenance service area in which at least twenty-five (25) of the employees reside; except that if any city, county, charter county, urban-county government, or agencies of any city, county, charter county, urban-county government, or any other political subdivision of the state which does not have a qualified health maintenance organization engaged in providing basic health services in a health maintenance service area in which at least twenty-five (25) of the employees reside, the city, county, charter county, urban-county government, or agencies of the city, county, charter county, urban-county government, or any other political subdivision of the state may annually give its employees an option to elect either standard hospitalization benefits or membership in a health maintenance organization which has been issued a certificate of authority by the Department of Insurance as a health maintenance organization and which is engaged in providing basic health services in a health maintenance service area in which at least twenty-five (25) of the employees reside. Any premium due for health maintenance organization coverage over the amount contributed by the city, county, charter county, urban-county government, or other political subdivision of the state which employs more than twenty-five (25) persons for any other hospitalization benefit shall be paid by the employee.

(6) If an employee moves his place of residence or employment out of the service area of a health maintenance organization, under which he has elected coverage, into either the service area of another health maintenance organization or into an area of the state not within a health maintenance organization service area, the employee shall be given an option, at the time of the move or transfer, to elect coverage either by the health maintenance organization into which service area he moves or is transferred or to elect standard hospitalization coverage offered by the employer.

(7) Any plan adopted shall provide that any officer or member of a paid fire or police department who has completed five (5) years or more as a member of the department, but who is unable to perform his duties by reason of heart disease or any disease of the lungs or respiratory tract, is presumed to have contracted his disease while on active duty as a result of strain or the inhalation of noxious fumes, poison or gases, and shall be retired by the pension board under terms of the pension system of which he is a member, if the member passed an entrance physical examination and was found to be in good health as required.

(8) The term "agency" as used herein shall include boards appointed to operate waterworks, electric plants, hospitals, airports, housing projects, golf courses, parks, health departments, or any other public project.

(9) After August 1, 1988, except as permitted by KRS 65.156, no new retirement plan shall be created pursuant to this section, and cities which were covered by this section on or prior to August 1, 1988, shall participate in the County Employees Retirement System effective August 1, 1988. Any city, county, charter county, urban-county, or agency thereof which provided a retirement plan for its employees, pursuant to this section, on or prior to August 1, 1988, shall place employees hired after August 1, 1988, in the County Employees Retirement System. The city, county, charter county, urban-county, or agency thereof shall offer employees hired on or prior to August 1, 1988, membership in the County Employees Retirement System under the alternate participation plan as described in KRS 78.530(3), but such employees may elect to retain coverage under this section.

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

The provisions of this section have no application to the police and fire departments of a second-class city. OAG 68-451.

It is not mandatory that a member of the police or fire department of a second-class city who might qualify as to disability under this section be retired. OAG 68-451.

A city could not legally enlarge the retirement, disability or hospitalization benefits it furnishes for its employees to include coverage for the members of the immediate families of such employees. OAG 69-657.

The provisions of this section have no application to those police and fire departments mandatorily required to operate under the terms of KRS 95.851 to 95.885 (KRS 95.885 renumbered as KRS 95.991). OAG 70-140.

A city of the fourth class could not take group hospital insurance and permit the mayor and city councilmen to be included in the coverage with the city paying one half of the premium. OAG 70-720.

This section would not allow premium payments for deputy county clerks as such clerks are officers rather than "employees" of the county. OAG 72-540.

A third-class city may, under the provisions of this section, pay more than fifty percent of the premiums for disability, retirement or hospitalization insurance for city policeman. OAG 72-709.

Although any city may establish and operate a retirement plan for its employees, it cannot apply to municipal officers such as the clerk-treasurer or the chief of police and members of the police department of a fifth-class city, who are required to operate under KRS Chapter 95. OAG 73-283.

County funds could be utilized to pay for Blue Cross medical insurance covering not only county employees but also county officials, including justices of the peace. OAG 73-589.

The fiscal court could take out hospital and medical care insurance covering both elected county officials and county employees. OAG 74-281.

Whether the presumption created by KRS 79.080 can be overcome by a physician is one that only the courts can decide. OAG 74-617.

If group life insurance coverage under KRS 82.040 (now repealed) or health insurance coverage under KRS 79.080 were given to municipal officers to be paid for in whole or part by the city, such contribution would not constitute extra compensation in violation of Const., § 161. OAG 75-470.

The fiscal court may pay all or any part of the insurance premiums of county employees but if county officials are included under the plan, they must pay their own premiums. See OAG 75-582 under this section for withdrawal of opinion. OAG 75-538.

The fiscal court may pay the Blue Cross-Blue Shield premiums for county officers under the county's home rule statute, KRS 67.083, and that portion of OAG 75-538 in conflict with this opinion is withdrawn. OAG 75-582.

The employees of a fire department of a city, county or urban-county government may be included with other city employees under a hospitalization plan adopted pursuant to the terms of this section. OAG 76-517.

This section does not authorize the payment of premiums out of excess fees of constitutional officers for such insurance covering deputies of constitutional fee officers, since the legislature intended to cover only county "employees" hired under the aegis of fiscal court under KRS 67.083, 67.710(7) and this section and this prevails over all conflicting opinions. OAG 78-806.

A city, under the existing statutory provisions, is not authorized to establish a pension program for municipal officers, and municipal officers, such as the treasurer-clerk, could only participate in a municipal employees' pension plan if those officers paid all required premiums from their own personal funds. OAG 79-20.

A city of the fourth class may, under the provisions of this section, pay all or any part of the cost of its employees' hospitalization plan. OAG 80-354.

A city of the fourth class may not operate a pension plan for its police officers under subsection (2) of this section but, rather, it must utilize the provisions of KRS 95.767 to 95.785 or KRS 95.520 to 95.620 or KRS 90.300 to 90.420. OAG 81-191.

Municipal employees of a fourth-class city could be included in a retirement plan enacted pursuant to subsection (2) of this section; however, that subsection is limited to municipal employees and a municipal officer could only participate in such retirement plan if he paid all the required amounts due from his own personal funds. OAG 81-191.

The terms of this section authorizing hospitalization coverage of city employees do not authorize the exclusion of a group of city employees for any reason, much less one based upon the total family income of the individual employee which is completely unrelated to his public employment duties. Such would be considered discriminatory and create an arbitrary classification in violation of Const., § 3 and the Equal Protection Clause of the Fourteenth Amendment of the U.S. Constitution. OAG 82-247.

A city of the fourth class can, pursuant to this section, provide its employees with a hospitalization plan. A city cannot, however, extend the coverage of such a plan to include city officers as this section is limited to employees and the immediate families of those employees. OAG 82-294.

A county can pay the costs of hospitalization insurance coverage for its employees but it is for the courts to determine whether paying such costs for the immediate families of county employees is an expenditure of public money for a public purpose. OAG 82-294.

Since cities and counties have the authority under subsection (2) of this section to establish and operate, individually, plans for the payment of hospitalization benefits, they may, under the authority of the Interlocal Cooperation Act, KRS 65.210 to 65.300, operate such plans jointly with other cities and counties. The agreement must ultimately be approved by the attorney general. OAG 82-294.

While this section provides in part that a hospitalization plan may take any form desired by the city and county and necessary rules and regulations may be adopted in the establishment and operation of such a plan, there are limitations as to how and for what purposes governmental units may expend their funds. The governmental units may pay the actual costs of the hospitalization insurance plan. If the program is successful, the benefits to the employees should be reflected in terms of lower rates or expanded coverage but not in terms of cash payments to employees. OAG 82-294.

The statutory presumption of subsection (5) (now (7)) of this section that heart disease or respiratory disease was contracted by a member of the department while on active duty is subject to rebuttal by evidence that may be submitted by the board in conjunction with the medical examination required to be made under KRS 95.864; in other words, the burden of proof that the disease was not contracted while on active duty and as a result of strain or the inhalation of noxious fumes, poison or gas, shifts to the board. OAG 83-282.

A city must pay its nonelective officers in accordance with the compensation set forth by ordinance which, of course, can be changed at any time by amendment. However, such compensation that has been fixed for such office should not include the amount contributed by the city for hospitalization insurance under a group program established pursuant to this section, particularly since such payment is unauthorized in the first place. OAG 84-294.

There is no statutory authority which would allow a county clerk to pay the health insurance premiums on himself and his deputies without fiscal court approval. OAG 84-324.

In reading subsection (2) of this section and KRS 304.18-020 together, any fiscal court is authorized to establish a program whereby the county will pay for the group health insurance coverage premiums on the part of the county's employees, its elected county officials, and their deputies under proper budgeting procedure. OAG 85-13.

For purposes of country-wide health insurance, the General Assembly has drawn no distinction among employees, assistants, deputies, and elected officers. In this section the legislature has authorized counties to procure health insurance for "employees and elected officers." This includes deputies of elected officers. OAG 92-108.

Statute authorizing cities, counties, urban counties, and agencies thereof, to establish health coverage programs for employees and elected officers does not provide for a pay raise in lieu of coverage under the governmentally provided program. OAG 94-15.

An elected county fee official cannot offer his employees a health insurance benefits plan which provides a different level of coverage than that provided to the county fee official. OAG 94-15.

96.905. Regional Development Agency Assistance Program — Grants for economic development and job creation activities — Annual reports — Certification of proper use of funds.

FURNISHING WATER OR LIGHT TO ANOTHER CITY OR OUTSIDE LIMITS

96.150. Extending water supply or sanitary sewer system outside city limits — Limitation — Consideration of installation of fire hydrants on extended lines.

(1) Any city that owns or operates a water supply or sanitary sewer system may extend the system into, and furnish and sell water and provide sanitary sewers to any person within, any territory contiguous to the city, and may install within that territory necessary apparatus; provided, however, that the extension of a water supply or sanitary sewer system shall not enter into any territory served by an existing water supply or sanitary sewer district unless such district requests the extension of water or sewer services from a city. For these purposes the city or sanitation authority established by an interlocal agreement may condemn or otherwise acquire franchises, rights, and rights-of-way, as private corporations may do.

(2) When extending the system to any person, water district, or water association, the city may consider the installation of fire hydrants on the extended lines. The city may extend water lines which are incapable of servicing fire hydrants only if the city determines that servicing hydrants is not feasible. The determination shall include consideration of the incremental costs of adequately sized pipe and associated pumps and towers, and the benefits of real estate development, water sales, the availability of fire protection insurance, and the reduction in fire insurance premiums which may result from the installation of hydrants at specified intervals. When extending lines to a water district or water association, the determination may be made in consultation with the district or association, taking into consideration their fiscal capacity.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Analysis

1. Construction.
2. Controversies Between Utilities.
3. Annexation.

1. Construction.

Since this section expressly authorizes city water company to extend its facilities into territory within five miles of the city limits, there is no basis for a holding that the company cannot incur the expense of furnishing or installing the facilities in such territory. Louisville Water Co. v. Public Service Com., 318 S.W.2d 537, 1958 Ky. LEXIS 141 (Ky. 1958), overruled, McClellan v. Louisville Water Co., 351 S.W.2d 197, 1961 Ky. LEXIS 160 (Ky. 1961).

2. Controversies Between Utilities.

Since a city-owned water supply system is not a utility subject to the jurisdiction of the public service commission, the commission was without jurisdiction to resolve a territorial dispute between a city and a private water company where the city undertook to extend its water supply system beyond city limits into a contiguous territory served by the private company. Georgetown v. Public Service Com., 516 S.W.2d 842, 1974 Ky. LEXIS 173 (Ky. 1974).

3. Annexation.

Where subdivision was annexed by city over a month after previously formed water district received a certificate of public convenience and necessity authorizing it to provide the subdivision with water, the city had a right to provide water in the subdivision and water district was excluded. Flemingsburg v. Public Service Com., 411 S.W.2d 920, 1966 Ky. LEXIS 28 (Ky. 1966).

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

A city has complete discretion as to whether or not extensions of water lines are made to sections outside of the city limits. OAG 60-357.

A city had the legal authority to abandon an old water line that served one nonresident customer and thus terminate this utility service. OAG 62-475.

A city of the fifth class could extend its municipal water lines beyond the corporate limits of the city where the cost of the extension was paid for by the city. OAG 71-237.

If the city of Bardstown elects to acquire and operate nonprofit corporation's water system under this section, the provisions of KRS 96.360 need not necessarily be complied with. OAG 72-20.

While the Mayfield Electric and Water System has authority to extend its water system up to 15 miles outside the corporate limits of a city and fix and regulate the prices to private consumers only the courts can determine whether the tap-on fee for residents to be serviced outside the city limits would be considered arbitrary and discriminatory (opinion prior to 1974 amendment). OAG 73-483.

Utility companies supplying water may use highway rights of way to carry water for public purposes, pursuant to KRS 416.140, but a determination must be made as to whether the potential industrial sites to be served are in territory contiguous to the city and within 15 miles of the corporate limits (opinion prior to 1974 amendment). OAG 73-748.

In the absence of any statutory authority or the existence of an emergency situation concerning the health and sanitation of city residents, a city cannot force nonresidents to hook up to the city sewer system and to pay a sewage use charge for city sewer services the nonresidents do not use or do not want to use. OAG 74-618.

Where the city water system does not extend beyond the city limits, nonresident individuals acquire no rights against the city. OAG 74-656.

Whether or not a purchaser of a lot in a subdivision outside the city can be required by the subdivision developer who also installed the subdivision's water system, to pay a fee beyond that required by the city for water services to hook onto this private system, said additional fee representing the pro rata share of the cost of the installation of the subdivision's water system but which was not paid by prior purchasers of subdivision lots, is a private matter and the city should not become involved in a private dispute concerning a private water system. OAG 74-656.

All lot owners in a particular subdivision should be charged the same city tap fee for receiving water from the city. OAG 74-656.

A city may condemn right of way for its water system into territory contiguous to the city in the same manner as private corporations do so. OAG 74-753.

A sewer line which was built outside the city limits and later connected to the city sewer system belongs to the property owners outside the city limits and not to the city since no emergency relating to the health and sanitation of the residents of the city exists and the line is outside the city limits. OAG 75-107.

Pursuant to this section and KRS 86.110 (8) (repealed), under the broad discretion resting in a city through its council, a city has the power to condemn land in the county and outside of the city boundaries for the purpose of city water supply, even though another solution to the water problem may exist which would not involve condemnation, and such action cannot be overturned by the courts absent a showing that the council acted fraudulently, or in bad faith or grossly abused its discretion. OAG 75-151.

While the city has the authority to extend its water system beyond the city limits it is not required to do so and, since the benefactors of the proposed water system are nonresidents the city cannot force these people to hook up to the system and pay for services they do not want. OAG 75-586.

Not only may a city which has extended its water supply system outside of its boundary charge for water furnished by contract at higher rates than those charged resident customers, but the city may also require users of the extended water facility to provide their own conduit to the main line of the system or pay for the extension of the water mains. OAG 76-234.

The authority of a city, which has extended its water supply system outside its boundaries and into a territory contiguous thereto, to install necessary apparatus would include fire hydrants along the main line. OAG 76-234.

“Person,” as used in this section, includes any corporation or body politic so that a city could extend its water line to a water district boundary and sell water to the district. OAG 76-234.

A city has the authority to contract with nonresidents in areas contiguous to the city in connection with the furnishing of water to those persons by the city even though these people reside within the territorial boundaries of a water district presumably organized pursuant to KRS Chapter 74. OAG 76-554.

A city water company could not extend its system into another county as such territory would not be contiguous to the city. OAG 77-188.

Inasmuch as the extension of lead water mains originating within a city to any territory outside the city would make such territory “contiguous” to the city regardless of the location of the actual area serviced, a city could extend its water system from the city limits to service an area in an adjoining county. OAG 77-559.

A city is not required to extend its water system outside of its boundaries, but, if it desires to do so, it may extend the system and pay for the extension and at the same time charge a reasonable rate for water furnished by contract at a higher rate than that charged resident customers; the users of the extended water facility outside of the city can be required to provide their own conduit to the main line of the system and pay for the extension of the water mains. OAG 78-818.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

96.536. City owned light, water, or gas plant may pay tax equivalent to school district.

(1) Each board of education of a public school district in which is located the property or properties of a publicly-owned light, water, or gas plant may each year be paid by the governing board of the plant from the proceeds of the sale of electrical energy, water, or gas an amount which shall not exceed that determined by multiplying the book value of the property or properties of the publicly-owned light, water, or gas plant as of the beginning of each year by the current tax rate levied for school purposes for the school district in which the property or properties may be located. “Book value,” as used in this section, means the cost of tangible property plus additions, extensions, and betterments, less reasonable depreciation or retirement reserve, and “year” as herein used shall mean the twelve (12) month period ending June 30. The book value so determined shall be in accordance with standard accounting practices. No payment may be made under this section except pursuant to a resolution of the governing board of the plant, adopted by a unanimous vote of the members of the board.

(2) Amounts for any year, as provided in subsection (1) of this section, shall be paid to the board of education on or before January 1 of each year.

(3) This section shall not apply to any publicly owned electric plant that is subject to the provisions of KRS 96.820.

(4) This section shall be construed only as an enabling act and shall in no way confer upon any board of education of a public school district authority to require this money to be paid to it.

T.V.A. ACT

96.820. Payment of sums equivalent to taxes based on book value.

(1) For the purposes of this section, unless the context requires otherwise:

(a) “Taxing jurisdiction” shall mean each county, each school district, each municipality, and each other special taxing district located within the state.

(b) “State” shall mean the Commonwealth of Kentucky.

(c) “Tax equivalent” shall mean the amount in lieu of taxes computed according to this section which is required to be paid by each board to the state and to each taxing jurisdiction in which the board operates and required by subsection (11) of KRS 96.570 to be included in resale rates.

(d) “Tax year” shall mean the twelve (12) calendar-month period ending with December 31.

(e) “Current tax rate” shall mean the actual levied ad valorem property tax rate of the state and of each taxing jurisdiction which is applicable to all property of the same class as a board’s property subject to taxation for the tax year involved.

(f) “Book value of property” or “book value of property owned by the board” shall mean the sum of:

1. The original cost (less reasonable depreciation or retirement reserve) of a board’s electric plant in service on December 31 of the immediately preceding calendar year located within the state, used and held for use in the transmission, distribution, and generation of electric energy, and

2. The cost of the material and supplies owned by a board on December 31 of the immediately preceding calendar year. For the purpose of this definition, "electric plant in service" shall mean those items included in the "electric plant in service" account prescribed by the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission uniform system of accounts for electric utilities, and "material and supplies" shall mean those items included in the accounts grouped under the heading "material and supplies" in the said system of accounts.

(g) "Adjusted book value of property" or "adjusted book value of property owned by the board" shall mean the book value of property owned by the board excluding manufacturing machinery as interpreted by the Department of Revenue for franchise tax determination purposes.

(h) The "adjustment factor" shall be one hundred twenty-five percent (125%) for the tax year 1970. For each tax year thereafter, it shall be the duty of the Department of Revenue to compute the adjustment factor for that tax year as follows: For each five (5) percentage points or major fraction thereof by which the adjustment ratio for electric utility property for the immediately preceding tax year exceeded or was less than one hundred sixteen percent (116%), five (5) percentage points shall be added to or subtracted from one hundred twenty-five percent (125%). For the purposes of this computation, "adjustment ratio for electric utility property" shall mean the ratio of total assessed value to total property value for all public service corporations distributing electric energy to more than fifty thousand (50,000) retail electric customers within the state. "Total assessed value" shall mean the total actual cash value assigned by the Department of Revenue for ad valorem property tax purposes to the property of such corporations located within the state (properly adjusted for property under construction). "Total property value" shall mean the sum of:

1. The depreciated original cost of the total utility plant in service of such corporations within the state, and

2. The book value of material and supplies of such corporations located within the state, both as derived from published reports of the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, or in the absence thereof, from information provided to the Department of Revenue by such corporations.

(i) "Electric operations" shall mean all activities associated with the establishment, development, administration, and operation of any electric system and the supplying of electric energy and associated services to the public, including without limitation the generation, purchase, sale, and resale of electric energy and the purchase, use, and consumption thereof by ultimate consumers.

(2) It shall be the duty of each board, on or before April 30, to certify to the Department of Revenue the book value of property owned by the board and the adjusted book value of property owned by the board and located within the state and within each taxing jurisdiction in which the board operates. A copy of the certification shall also be sent by the board to each such taxing jurisdiction. The book value of property and adjusted book value of property shall be determined, and the books and records of the board shall be kept in accordance with standard accounting practices, and the books and records of each board shall be subject to inspection by the Department of Revenue and by representatives of the affected taxing jurisdictions and to adjustment by the Department of Revenue if found not to comply with the provisions of this section. Upon the receipt of the required certification from a board, the Department of Revenue shall make any inspection and adjustment, hereinabove authorized, as it deems necessary, and no earlier than September 1 of each year the Department of Revenue shall certify to the board and to the county clerk of each county in which the board operates the book value of property owned by the board and the adjusted book value of property owned by the board, located within each taxing jurisdiction in which the board operates and within the state. At the same time, the Department of Revenue shall certify to the board and to the county clerk the adjustment factor for the tax year. The county clerk shall promptly certify the book value of property, the adjusted book value of property, and the adjustment factor certified by the Department of Revenue, to the respective taxing jurisdiction in which the board operates.

(3)(a) Each board shall pay for each tax year, beginning with the tax year 1970, to the state and to each taxing jurisdiction in which the board operates, a tax equivalent from the revenues derived from the board's electric operations for that tax year, computed according to this subsection.

(b) The tax equivalent for each tax year payable to the state shall be the total of:

1. The book value of the property owned by the board within the state, multiplied by the adjustment factor, multiplied by the current tax rate of the state, less thirty cents ($0.30), plus

2. The state's portion of the amount payable under paragraph (d) of this subsection.

(c) The tax equivalent for each tax year payable to each taxing jurisdiction in which the board operates shall be the total of:

1. The adjusted book value of property owned by the board within the taxing jurisdiction, multiplied by the adjustment factor, multiplied by the current tax rate of the taxing jurisdiction; provided, however, for the purpose of this calculation the tax rate for school districts shall be increased by thirty cents ($0.30), plus

2. The taxing jurisdiction's portion of the amount payable under paragraph (d) of this subsection.

(d) For purposes of this subsection, "amount payable" shall mean four-tenths of one percent (0.4%) of the book value of property owned by the board located within the state. The state shall be paid the same proportion of the amount payable as the payment to the state under subparagraph 1. of paragraph (b) of this subsection represents of the total payments to the state and all taxing jurisdictions in which the board operates required by subparagraph 1. of paragraph (b) and subparagraph 1. of paragraph (c) of this subsection. Each taxing jurisdiction in which the board operates shall be paid the same proportion of the amount payable as the payment to the taxing jurisdiction under subparagraph 1. of paragraph (c) of this subsection represents of the total payments to the state and all taxing jurisdictions in which the board operates required by subparagraph 1. of paragraph (b) and subparagraph 1. of paragraph (c) of this subsection. Under the regulations the Department of Revenue may prescribe, upon the board's receipt from the state and taxing jurisdictions of notice of the amount due under subparagraph 1. of paragraph (b) and subparagraph 1. of paragraph (c) of this subsection, the board shall compute the portion of the amount payable which is due the state and each taxing jurisdiction in which the board operates.

(e) Payment of the tax equivalent under this section for each tax year shall be made by each board to the state within thirty (30) days after receipt by the board of the certification from the Department of Revenue required by subsection (2) of this section and shall be made directly to each taxing jurisdiction in which the board operates within thirty (30) days from the date of the certifications by the county clerk required by subsection (2) of this section. The state and each taxing jurisdiction in which a board operates shall have a superior lien upon the proceeds of the sale of electric energy by that board for the amounts required by this section to be paid to it.

(4) Except as hereinafter provided, the tax equivalents computed under this section shall be in lieu of all state, municipal, county, school district, special taxing district, other taxing district, and other state and local taxes or charges on the tangible and intangible property, the income, franchises, rights, and resources of every kind and description of any municipal electric system operating under KRS 96.550 to 96.900 and on the electric operations of any board established pursuant thereto, and the tax equivalent for any tax year computed and payable under this section to the state or to any taxing jurisdiction in which any board operates shall be reduced by the aggregate amount of any tax or charge within the meaning of this sentence which is imposed by the state, or by any taxing jurisdiction in which a board operates, on the board, the electric system, or the board's electric operations. Provided, however, that if any school district in which property of a board is located has elected, or does hereafter elect, to apply the utility gross receipts license tax for schools to all utility services as provided by KRS 160.613 through KRS 160.617, or as may hereafter be provided by other statutes, the amount of such utility gross receipts license tax shall not reduce, or in any manner affect, the amount payable to any such board or boards under the provisions of this section. It is the intent and purpose of this provision to eliminate all sums received by any such board or boards by reason of the utility gross receipts license tax from any computation of the amount payable under this section to any such board or boards, irrespective of the manner in which that payment is computed, so that, in no event, shall any sum received by any school district by reason of the utility gross receipts license tax reduce, directly or indirectly, the amount payable to such district under this chapter. Provided, further, that if the state shall levy a statewide retail sales or use tax on electric power or energy, collected by retailers of the energy from the vendees or users thereof, and imposed at the same rate or rates as are generally applicable to the sale or use of personal property or services, including natural or artificial gas, fuel oil, and coal as well as electric power or energy, the retail sales or use tax shall not be deemed to be a tax or charge within the meaning of the first sentence of this subsection, and the tax equivalent payable for the tax year to the state under this section shall not be reduced on account of such retail sales or use tax.

(5)(a) Notwithstanding subsection (3) of this section, until the first tax year in which the total of:

1. The tax equivalent payable to the state, or to any taxing jurisdiction in which the board operates, computed under subsection (3) of this section, plus

2. The additional amounts permitted to be paid to the state or taxing jurisdiction without deduction under the second and third sentences of subsection (4) of this section, exceeds the minimum payment to the state or taxing jurisdiction specified in paragraph (b) of this subsection, the tax equivalent for each tax year payable to the state or taxing jurisdiction shall be an amount equal to the minimum payment computed under paragraph (b) of this subsection.

(b) For purposes of this subsection, the minimum payment to the state or to any taxing jurisdiction in which the board operates shall mean an amount equal to the total of:

1. The largest actual payment made by the board pursuant to this section to the state or to the taxing jurisdiction for any of the tax years 1964, 1965, or 1966, plus

2. The state's or taxing jurisdiction's pro rata share of an amount equal to four-tenths of one percent (0.4%) of the increase since July 1, 1964, in the book value of property owned by the board within the state. For the purposes of this paragraph "pro rata share" shall mean the same proportion of the amount computed under this subparagraph as the largest actual payment in lieu of taxes made by the board to the state or taxing jurisdiction for the applicable tax year under subparagraph 1. of this paragraph represents of the total amount of the largest actual payments in lieu of taxes made by the board to the state and to all taxing jurisdictions in which it operated for any of the applicable tax years.

(c) The provisions of paragraph (e) of subsection (3) of this section shall apply to all payments required under this subsection.

(d) This subsection shall not be applicable for the first tax year specified in paragraph (a) of this subsection or for any tax year thereafter, except however, that tax year 1977 shall not be deemed as the "first tax year" as specified in paragraph (a) and this subsection shall continue to apply in such cases.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

1. Amount in Lieu of Taxes.

Where a municipal electric plant paid the city an amount in lieu of taxes the amounts paid were not to be counted in computing the total revenue received from "public service companies" to determine the total revenue received in the previous year to be used as a basis for computing the property tax rollback. Southern Bell Tel. & Tel. Co. v. Hopkinsville, 443 S.W.2d 224, 1969 Ky. LEXIS 240 (Ky. 1969).

Where an action for collection in lieu of tax payments was pending at the time the parties joined in a suit for a declaratory judgment on the same issue, the suit for collection should be abated pending the outcome of the declaratory judgment action but not dismissed. Paducah v. Electric Plant Board of Paducah, 449 S.W.2d 907, 1970 Ky. LEXIS 483 (Ky. 1970).

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

Where a city purchased property of a water company, part of which was located in another city, if the city was operating the water company under the T.V.A. Act it was required to make in lieu of taxes payments on the portion of the property located in the second city. OAG 63-862.

Revenue received by school districts from electric plant boards is not ad valorem tax revenue for purposes of KRS 160.470 and a plant board does not have net assessment growth that can be included in the department of revenue's certification of net assessment growth as required in subsec. (3)(b) of KRS 160.470. OAG 66-441.

An electric plant board will make in lieu of taxes payments at the rate of 20.7 cents per $100 of the book value of its property for the year 1966. OAG 66-633.

The amount of payment in lieu of taxes due for each year under this section is determined on the statutory assessment date by multiplying the book value of the property of the electric system located in each such jurisdiction by the current tax rate, and the fact that the electric plant operates on a fiscal year basis has no bearing on when payment will be made or on the rate that will be applied. OAG 66-639.

An electric plant board may bypass the sheriff's office in the county and make in lieu of tax payments directly to the taxing district concerned. OAG 71-13.

96.895. Proration and distribution of payments of sums equivalent to taxes based on book value among the state, counties, cities, and school districts — Regional development agency assistance fund — Portion of TVA payment received by state to be transferred to fund for distribution to regional development agencies in fund-eligible counties — Annual report.

(1) As used in this section, unless the context requires otherwise:

(a) "Book value" means original cost unadjusted for depreciation as reflected in the TVA's books of account;

(b) "Fund" means the regional development agency assistance fund established in subsection (4) of this section;

(c) "Fund-eligible county" means one (1) of Adair, Allen, Ballard, Barren, Bell, Butler, Caldwell, Callo-way, Carlisle, Christian, Clinton, Cumberland, Edmonson, Fulton, Graves, Grayson, Harlan, Hart, Henderson, Hickman, Livingston, Logan, Lyon, Marshall, McCracken, McCreary, Metcalfe, Monroe, Muhlenberg, Ohio, Russell, Simpson, Todd, Trigg, Union, Warren, Wayne, Webster, or Whitley Counties;

(d) "Regional development agency" or "agency" means a special purpose governmental entity as defined in KRS 65A.010(9) that is designated by a fiscal court to receive a payment pursuant to this section;

(e) "TVA" means the Tennessee Valley Authority; and

(f) "TVA property" means land owned by the United States and in the custody of the TVA, together with improvements that have a fixed situs on the land, including work in progress but excluding temporary construction facilities, if these improvements either:

1. Were in existence when title to the land on which they are situated was acquired by the United States; or

2. Are allocated by the TVA or determined by it to be allocable to power. However, manufacturing machinery as interpreted by the Department of Revenue for franchise tax determination; ash disposal systems; and coal handling facilities, including railroads, cranes and hoists, and crushing and conveying equipment, shall be excluded.

(2) Book value shall be determined, for purposes of applying this section, as of the June 30 used by the TVA in computing the annual payment to the Commonwealth that is subject to redistribution by the Commonwealth.

(3) Except for payments made directly by the TVA to counties, the total fiscal year payment received by the Commonwealth of Kentucky from the TVA, as authorized by Section 13 of the Tennessee Valley Authority Act, as amended, shall be prorated thirty percent (30%) to the general fund of the Commonwealth and seventy percent (70%) among counties, cities, and school districts, as provided in subsections (6) and (7) of this section.

(4)(a) The regional development agency assistance fund is hereby established in the State Treasury.

(b) The fund shall be administered by the Department for Local Government for the purpose of providing funding to agencies that are designated to receive funding in a given fiscal year by the fiscal court of each fund-eligible county through the Regional Development Agency Assistance Program established in KRS 96.905.

(c) The fund shall only receive the moneys transferred from the general fund pursuant to subsection (5) of this section.

(d) Notwithstanding KRS 45.229, any moneys remaining in the fund at the close of the fiscal year shall not lapse but shall be carried forward into the succeeding fiscal year. Any interest earnings of the fund shall become a part of the fund and shall not lapse.

(5)(a) For fiscal years beginning on or after July 1, 2020, a portion of the total fiscal year payment received by the Commonwealth that is allocated to the general fund shall be transferred from the general fund to the regional development agency assistance fund established in subsection (4) of this section.

(b) This portion shall be equal to six million dollars ($6,000,000).

(c) Distribution of these moneys shall be made by dividing the amount in paragraph (b) of this subsection equally among each fund-eligible county.

(6) The payment to each county, city, and school district shall be determined by the proportion that the book value of TVA property in such taxing district, multiplied by the current tax rate, bears to the total of the book values of TVA property in all such taxing districts in the Commonwealth, multiplied by their respective tax rates. However, for purposes of this calculation, each public school district shall have its tax rate increased by thirty cents ($0.30).

(7)(a) As soon as practicable after the amount of payment to be made to the Commonwealth is finally determined by the TVA, the Department of Revenue shall determine the book value of TVA property in each county, city, and school district and shall prorate the payments allocated to counties, cities, and school districts under subsection (3) of this section among the distributees as provided in subsection (6) of this section.

(b) The Department of Revenue shall:

1. Certify the payment due each county, city, and school district, including the amount distributed to the county under subsection (5) of this section, to the Finance and Administration Cabinet; and

2. Notify the Department for Local Government of that certification.

(c) Upon certification by the Department of Revenue, the Finance and Administration Cabinet shall make the payment to such district.

(8) In each fiscal year, after the Department of Revenue has calculated the prorated payment amount that is due to each county, city, and school district under subsections (6) and (7) of this section, the Department for Local Government shall notify in writing the fiscal court of each fund-eligible county regarding the amount that the county, city, and school district shall receive for the fiscal year, including the amount distributed to the county under subsection (5) of this section.

(9) No amount shall be taken from the fund to pay administrative expenses by the Department for Local Government.

(10) All agencies receiving funds under this section shall provide a written report annually, no later than October 1, to the fiscal court that designated it for payment and to the Interim Joint Committee on Appropriations and Revenue. The report shall describe how the funds were expended and the results of the use of funds in terms of economic development and job creation.

Section 13 of the Tennessee Valley Authority Act, referred to in subsections (1) and (5) of this section, is compiled as 16 USCS § 831l.

96.905. Regional Development Agency Assistance Program — Grants for economic development and job creation activities — Annual reports — Certification of proper use of funds.

(1) A Regional Development Agency Assistance Program is established to consist of a system of grants to agencies designated by fiscal courts of counties designated in KRS 96.895. Grants shall be administered by the Department for Local Government.

(2)(a) Grants obtained under this program shall be used for:

1. Economic development and job creation activities;
2. Acquiring federal, state, or private matching funds to the extent possible; and
3. Debt service for approved projects; that the agency is empowered to undertake in that county.

(b) Grants obtained under this program shall not be used for:

1. Salaries;
2. Consulting fees; or
3. Operational expenses.

(3) Applications for grants from funds provided for in KRS 96.895 shall:

- (a) Be made by the legislative bodies of one (1) or more counties entitled to receive money from the regional development agency assistance fund;
- (b) Include any recipient agency as a co-applicant on the application; and
- (c) Include a concurrence letter from each legislative body entitled to receive money.

(4) The Department for Local Government shall review and approve grant applications from counties for agencies that operate in, or serve the interest of, the county whose fiscal court designated it to receive funding. Multiple counties may also submit a joint application requesting that part of their allotted funds be directed to an agency for a project that affects the counties.

(5) By October 1 of each year, the commissioner of the Department for Local Government shall provide, in writing, to each the Governor and the Legislative Research Commission a listing of all applications for grants received pursuant to this section since the last report, a listing of all grants awarded, the amount of the award, the recipient agency, and the related project.

(6) The Department for Local Government shall require that any funds granted under this section include an agreement that the recipient agency shall certify that the funds were expended for the purpose intended. The department shall determine whether the certification should be an independent annual audit or an internal certification, taking into account the size of the agency and the financial burden an independent annual audit may impose on the agency. In the case of an independent annual audit, the audit report shall include a certification that the funds were expended for the purpose intended. A copy of the audit or certification of compliance shall be forwarded to the Department for Local Government within eighteen (18) months after the end of the fiscal year.

PARKS, PLAYGROUNDS, AND RECREATION

97.010. City and county recreation facilities.

97.020. Establishment of local recreational facilities.

97.010. City and county recreation facilities.

(1) The acquisition, development, maintenance and operation of parks, playgrounds and recreation centers, which may include but is not limited to zoos and museums, is a proper municipal purpose for all cities and counties. The legislative body of any city or the fiscal court of any county may dedicate for use as parks, playgrounds and recreation centers any lands or buildings owned or leased by the city or county and not devoted to an inconsistent public use and may acquire real property for such purpose by purchases, lease, condemnation or otherwise, at any place reasonably accessible to the inhabitants of the city or county and either within or without the boundaries of the city or the county.

(2) Any two (2) or more cities, or any city and county, may jointly establish, maintain and conduct a park and recreation system. Any school district may join with any city or county in providing and conducting public parks, playgrounds and recreation centers.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Analysis

1. Construction.
2. Use of School Funds.
3. Lease of School Facilities.
4. Condemnation.
5. Sovereign Immunity.

1. Construction.

A zoo qualifies for inclusion in this section's authorization of "parks, playgrounds and recreation centers." O'Bryan v. Louisville, 382 S.W.2d 386, 1964 Ky. LEXIS 341 (Ky. 1964).

2. Use of School Funds.

While there is no explicit provision for the expenditure by the board of education of public school funds in such amount as may appear to it in the exercise of reasonable discretion necessary to further the purpose of maintenance of a joint recreation plan with the county, the power and authority granted by this section includes that which is necessarily implied as incident to the accomplishment of those things which are expressly authorized, and therefore board may appropriate funds for such project. Dodge v. Jefferson County Board of Education, 298 Ky. 1, 181 S.W.2d 406, 1944 Ky. LEXIS 815 (Ky. 1944).

Purchase by a school district, acting alone, of land in another county for the establishment of a recreation center for the joint benefit of school children and 4-H club members was an arbitrary administration of public funds and, thus illegal. Wilson v. Graves County Board of Education, 307 Ky. 203, 210 S.W.2d 350, 1948 Ky. LEXIS 704 (Ky. 1948).

3. Lease of School Facilities.

Action of fiscal court which leased school buildings and lands for recreational purposes and agreed to pay annual rental was authorized by law and not violative of constitutional provisions. Sawyer v. Jefferson County Fiscal Court, 392 S.W.2d 83, 1965 Ky. LEXIS 275 (Ky. 1965).

4. Condemnation.

Under this section cities of the sixth class have power to condemn property outside the city limits for both a water reservoir and for recreational use. Embry v. Caneyville, 397 S.W.2d 141, 1965 Ky. LEXIS 65 (Ky. 1965).

5. Sovereign Immunity.

Operating a golf course is not an "integral" function of state government; thus, a statutorily created agency so functioning as a non-profit, no capital stock corporation, formed to provide recreational facilities for the county, operated without the shield of sovereign immunity. Kenton County Pub. Parks Corp. v. Modlin, 901 S.W.2d 876, 1995 Ky. App. LEXIS 70 (Ky. Ct. App. 1995).

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

Membership on the playground and recreation board would disqualify the person from serving on the electric plant board. OAG 61-846.

Where the program is operated solely by the city and where there is no true joint planning or maintenance, a county may not contribute to a city park and recreation program. OAG 62-808.

A fiscal court would not be authorized to make a contribution to the chamber of commerce for the purpose of promoting a folk festival in the county. OAG 64-252.

Park and recreational facilities of a second-class city and the county may be merged. OAG 67-64.

Neither the city nor the playground and recreational board could lease the city recreational park to a local civic club if the club would be vested with the control and operation of the park. OAG 68-36.

A city is legally authorized to appropriate public funds to the recreational board to pay various employes in the operation and control of the recreation department. OAG 68-129.

An appropriation voted by the city council to grant money to lease property in an adjacent city on which to develop and operate a playground would be valid. OAG 68-398.

Where the county assigned a city a contract involving more than $1,000, the city could not enter into the contract without letting out new bids. OAG 68-479.

Where the city and county leased property for a golf course and the county advertised for and conditionally accepted a bid for the construction of the golf course, acceptance by the city of the contract and the county's interest in the lease would not convert the county's conditional acceptance into a firm contract. OAG 68-479.

A city of the fifth class had ample statutory authority to purchase property for use as a city hall building, for a playground, and to be used in a new street pattern. OAG 68-592.

In view of Const., § 179, a city cannot legally appropriate funds to assist a women's civic club to construct an amphitheater on land owned by the board of education, a separate public entity. The city could, however, build the amphitheater as a public project, or jointly establish a recreational system with the school district pursuant to this section which could include the amphitheater or, pursuant to the same statute, the city could lease land from the school board to establish a recreational center. OAG 70-514.

A proposed community center to be constructed with funds partly supplied by the federal government, the county and the school board and to be operated when complete by the board of education and superintendent of schools as agent of the fiscal court does not meet the criterion of a multi-educational program, and, in view of the projects and activities to be conducted and the mix of school and nonschool purposes projected for the proposed community center, goes far beyond the limitations established by the case law and this section and the school board cannot spend money for such purposes. OAG 71-184.

While a school board may furnish property and cooperate in many ways to provide recreational facilities and programs as an official function of the governmental unit and, while a school board has authority to sell school property for its fair market value, it would be a violation of Const., § 3 for a school board to sell school property to any person or organization for a nominal sum simply because the purchaser proposed to use the property for laudable public purposes and although KRS 45.360 does not apply to school boards, such a board and its members would be well advised to follow the procedure prescribed therein for their own protection. OAG 72-30.

A school board may not make a contribution to a park commission which is seeking to accumulate a fund in order to secure matching federal funds for development of a community recreation park as the school board would have no ownership or control over the property, this would not be the kind of cooperative enterprise envisioned in subsection (2) of this section and such action is unconstitutional under §§ 180 and 186 of the Kentucky constitution. OAG 72-95.

The joint use of school-owned property as a mini-park by both school pupils and city residents is permissible as long as title to property stays in the school board. OAG 72-376.

Where the board of education desires to lease to the city council six-tenths ($\frac{9}{10}$) of an acre of school property for the construction of tennis courts for a minimum of ten (10) years so that a federal grant may be secured but the state department of education has refused to grant approval for a lease of more than one (1) year, a board of education may lease surplus property for any duration if it receives a fair rental for said property and it may do so even if the state board of education disapproves as there is no statutory authority which requires that the state board of education give its approval to the sale or leasing of property by a school board. OAG 73-177.

The expenditure of city funds for the purpose of using and maintaining land as a sports field for boys and girls under 18 years as a recreational park would be legal because the restrictions as to the use is not inconsistent with the phrase "inhabitants of the city" appearing in this section and KRS

97.060 (repealed) and the intent is to merely restrict city parks in general to city residents. OAG 73-401.

There is no authority for the levy of a recreation tax by a county recreation commission or by the city or county on behalf of the commission or for placing such a question on any ballot to be voted upon by the voters of the city and county. OAG 74-695.

When this section, KRS 97.030, 97.035 and 97.060 are read together, it appears that the parks board, formed by a joint city-county agreement, is vested with a certain autonomy in the control and management of parks, subject to any specific delimitation by the city and county governments acting jointly, which would include the setting of the director's salary. OAG 75-46.

A city may lease land from a school board over a long term, and may install recreational facilities thereon, when those facilities will be beneficial to the school district. OAG 78-472.

A county fiscal court has the authority, pursuant to Const., § 157, to place the question of a special ad valorem tax levy for park construction and maintenance on the November general election ballot, if a contractual indebtedness in connection with the park is envisioned and such contractual indebtedness cannot be funded out of current county revenues; the requisite vote for passage is two thirds of the voters voting at such election. OAG 80-381.

There is no statutory authority for a fiscal court to contribute to a city park program. OAG 85-99.

An expenditure of common school funds or a donation of school property for a public purpose other than for the benefit of public education is not permissible under Const., §§ 180, 184 and 186; therefore, under Const., §§ 180, 184, and 186, any transfer of surplus school buildings to community service organizations must be based on the fair market value of the property. OAG 91-85.

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

Where property is conveyed to a city in trust for the use and benefit of the citizens as a recreation center, statutory provisions relating to the appointment of a recreation board control over provisions of the dedicatory deed which prescribe conditions as to the recreation board, since the operation and maintenance of recreation property by a municipality is a governmental function and boards to implement this function are established in the statutes. OAG 76-181.

An appointed member of the park and recreation system board may not sell equipment to the park board from his private business, with or without competitive bids, since it is assumed that he intends to make a profit and this violates public policy. OAG 81-107.

MUNICIPAL IMPROVEMENTS — ALTERNATE METHODS

107.140. Benefited property, what constitutes, assessment of governmental property — Procedure against state.

107.140. Benefited property, what constitutes, assessment of governmental property — Procedure against state.

(1)(a) In the case of improvements of public ways, the benefited property shall consist of all real property abutting upon both sides of the improvement project, and the cost of improving intersections shall be included in the total costs to be assessed and apportioned, unless and to the extent the city shall appropriate, within constitutional limitations, from available funds, a definite and specified sum as a contribution thereto, or a portion of the aggregate cost, or the cost of specified portions of the improvement; provided, however, that if provisions shall be made for sidewalk improvements, as an integral part of the improvement of a "public way," as defined in subsection (3) of KRS 107.020, upon only one side of the project, the costs of the sidewalk improvement shall be ascertained and assessed separately against the property abutting upon that side only, but the governing body may provide that such assessment shall include a fair share of the over-all costs as herein defined, other than the amounts of the actual construction contracts.

(b) In the case of improvements for draining sewage, storm water, or a combination thereof, the benefited properties shall consist of all properties which are thereby afforded a means of drainage, including not only the properties which may be contiguous to the improvements, but also adjacent properties within a reasonable distance therefrom as the governing body may in the proceedings set forth.

(c) In the case of an improvement project consisting in whole or in part of a sewage treatment plant, or enlargement or substantial reconstruction of an existing sewage treatment plant, the benefited properties shall be all those properties the sewage from which is treated in such plant, including properties already provided with sewer drainage facilities as well as those properties which the improvement project will provide with such drainage facilities, but the governing body may classify properties according to the extent of benefits to be afforded to them, and may establish one (1) rate of assessment applicable to all properties participating in the benefits of the sewage treatment installations, and an additional rate of assessment applicable to properties for which the improvement project will also provide sewer drainage facilities. In relation to wastewater collection projects constructed by metropolitan sewer districts, benefited property shall consist of all property whether improved or unimproved to which the project affords a means of discharging wastewater.

(d) The governing body may, either in the proceedings initiating an improvement project, or in subsequent proceedings, recognize the necessity or desirability in the interest of the public health, safety and general welfare, that properties other than the properties originally benefited by an improvement under paragraphs (b) or (c) of this subsection, be permitted to connect to such sewer drainage and/or treatment facilities, and may make equitable provisions which may be adjustable from year to year as bonds are retired, whereby the owners of such later-connecting properties, may, by paying charges for the privilege of connecting, and/or by assuming a share of improvement assessments, or otherwise, be placed as nearly as practicable on a basis of financial equity with the owners of properties initially provided to be assessed.

(e) The governing body may, either in the proceedings initiating an improvement project, or in subsequent proceedings, recognize the necessity or desirability in the interest of the public health, safety and general welfare that residential properties within one thousand feet (1000'), measured along paved roads, of a fire hydrant in a city may be assessed on the same basis as property abutting upon a street where a fire hydrant is to be installed.

(2)(a) Benefited property owned by the city or county, or owned by the United States government or any of its agencies, if such property is subject to assessment by Act of Congress, shall be assessed annually the same as private property, and the amount of the annual assessment shall be paid by the city, county, or United States government, as the case may be. The same right of action shall lie against the county as against a private owner.

(b) Benefited property owned by the state, except property the title to which is vested in the Commonwealth for the benefit of a district board of education pursuant to KRS 162.010, shall be assessed as follows: Before assessing the state, the governing body shall serve written notice on the secretary of the Finance and Administration Cabinet setting forth specific details including the estimated total amount of any improvement assessment proposed to be levied against any state property relative to any proposed improvement project. Said written notice shall be served prior to the next even-numbered-year regular session of the General Assembly so that the amount of any specific improvement assessment may be included in the biennial executive branch budget recommendation to be submitted to the General Assembly. Payment of any assessment shall be made only from funds specifically appropriated for that assessment. If an amount sufficient to pay the total amount of any assessment has been appropriated, then the total amount shall be paid; if an amount sufficient only to pay annual assessments has been appropriated, then only the amount of the annual assessment shall be paid. The amount of the assessment shall be certified by the city treasurer to the Finance and Administration Cabinet, which shall thereupon draw a warrant upon the State Treasurer, payable to the city treasurer, and the State Treasurer shall pay the same.

(c) In the case of property the title to which is vested in the Commonwealth for the benefit of a district board of education, the amount of the annual assessment shall be paid by the city or other local governmental agency or authority which undertook the improvement project.

(3) No benefited property shall be exempt from assessment.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

1. Benefited Property.

116.200. Roster of voters eligible to vote in city and school board elections — Information to be provided to county clerk.

116.046. Voter registration forms for public high schools, area technology centers, and private schools — Public education program.

(1) The county clerk shall provide voter registration forms annually to each principal or assistant principal of every public high school, each area technology center, and private schools, and each school shall have a designated person who shall be responsible for informing students and school personnel of the availability of the registration forms and assist them in properly registering. The completed forms shall be returned to the county clerk, for official registration by the county clerk.

(2) Any person designated to assist in registration in subsection (1) of this section shall fulfill this responsibility in an impartial and fair manner and shall not recruit a registrant for any particular party.

(3) The State Board of Education shall implement annual programs of public education regarding elections, voting procedures, and election fraud, which shall include an audio-visual presentation for high school juniors and seniors. The State Board of Education, after consultation with the State Board of Elections, shall update the public education programs required by this section as relevant statutory changes occur, as different types of voting systems are used, or as more effective methods of presentation shall be developed.

116.200. Roster of voters eligible to vote in city and school board elections — Information to be provided to county clerk.

(1)(a) On or before January 1, 2011, each city clerk, except in consolidated local governments and urban-county governments, shall provide the clerk of the county or counties in which the city is located with a list of all properties within the city and a map of the city boundaries for the county clerk to maintain a roster of voters who are eligible to vote in city elections. A county clerk may accept the list of city properties in an electronic format and the city clerk may provide a copy of the city's boundary map maintained by the Kentucky Commonwealth Office of Technology, Division of Geographic Information Systems; and

(b) Documentation of any change to the boundaries of a city shall be reported to the county clerk in accordance with KRS 81A.475.

(2)(a) On or before January 1, 2011, each school district board shall provide the clerk of the county in which the school district is located with maps and written descriptions of the boundaries of each school board district located in the county for the county clerk to maintain a roster of voters who are eligible to vote in school board elections.

(b) Documentation of any change to a school district's boundaries shall be reported to the county clerk within sixty (60) days of the change, or immediately if the change is within sixty (60) days of the August 1 deadline established in KRS 160.210(4)(d).

(3) Each county clerk shall code all registered voters in that county in such a manner that precinct election officers may determine the voter's eligibility to vote in city and school board elections prior to each primary and regular election for city officers in that county, each regular election for school board members in that county, and each special election in which a ballot question is presented to the residents of a city or a school board district.

(4) Notwithstanding KRS 64.012, the county clerk shall not charge a fee to a city or school district providing any information required by subsections (1)(a) and (2)(a) of this section.

(5) Nothing in this section shall prohibit a county clerk from requesting additional information from the city, school district board, or any other reliable source to ascertain whether a registered voter resides within a city or a school district boundary.

CHAPTER 117 REGULATION OF ELECTIONS

Miscellaneous Provisions.

Section
117.315. Appointment of challengers and inspectors.

Penalties.

Section
117.995. Penalties.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

117.315. Appointment of challengers and inspectors.

(1) Each political party is entitled to have not exceeding two (2) challengers at each precinct during the holding of the primary election. Any group of bona fide candidates, as defined in KRS 118.176, of the same political party equal to twenty-five percent (25%) of all the candidates for that party to be voted for in a county in any primary, including state, district, and all other candidates, may recommend to the county committee or governing authority of the party for the county a list of persons whom they desire to have appointed as challengers in each precinct in the county. If more than two (2) such lists are furnished, the committee or governing authority, in making appointments of challengers, shall alternate between the several lists so furnished so as to give to each list an equal amount or proportion of the appointments, but in no event shall there be appointed more than one (1) challenger for any precinct from any one (1) list. The list of challengers shall be presented to the chair or secretary of the party committee of the county on or before the third Friday in April preceding the primary, and the committee or the chairman thereof shall make the appointments, certify to same, and present a list of certified challengers to the county clerk at least twenty (20) days before the date on which the primary is held. The appointment of challengers shall be certified in all respects as challengers at regular elections, except as otherwise provided in this section. The challengers shall be registered voters of the county in which the primary is held and shall be subject to the same penalties and possess the same rights and privileges as challengers at regular elections, except that the challengers of one political party shall not be entitled to challenge persons who offer to vote for candidates of any other party in the primary. The provisions of this section shall be enforceable against the chair of the political party committees by a mandatory summary proceeding instituted in the Circuit Court. The order of the court may be reviewed by the Court of Appeals as provided for the granting or dissolving of temporary injunctions.

(2) Any school board candidate, any independent ticket or candidate for city office, any nonpartisan city candidate, or candidate for an office of the Court of Justice at the primary or regular election may designate not more than one (1) challenger to be present at and witness the holding of primaries or elections in each precinct in the county. A candidate who designates a challenger shall present the county clerk with the name of the challenger at least twenty (20) days preceding the primary or regular election. The challenger shall be entitled to stay in the room or at the door. The challenger shall be a registered voter of the county in which the primary or election is held, shall be appointed in writing by the chair of the committee, independent candidate, or candidates representing a ticket, and shall produce written appointment on demand of any election officer.

(3) The county executive committee of any political party having a ticket to elect at any regular or special election may designate not more than two (2) challengers to be present at and witness the holding of the election in each precinct in the county. The challengers shall be entitled to stay in the room or at the door. The challengers shall be registered voters of the county in which the election is held, shall be appointed in writing signed by the chair of the committee, and shall produce written appointments on demand of any election officer. The committee or chair shall present the county clerk with a list of designated challengers at least twenty (20) days preceding a regular election and at least fifteen (15) days preceding a special election.

(4) Except as provided in KRS Chapter 242, not later than the fourth Tuesday preceding an election at which constitutional amendments or other public questions are to be submitted to the vote of the people, any committee that in good faith advocates or opposes an amendment or public question may file a petition with the clerk of the county asking that the petitioners be recognized as the committee entitled to nominate challengers to serve at the election at which the constitutional amendment or public question is to be voted on. If more than one (1) committee alleging itself to advocate or oppose the same amendment file such a petition, the county board of elections shall decide, and announce by certified mail, return receipt requested, to each committee not less than the third Tuesday preceding the election, which committee is entitled to nominate the challengers. The decision shall not be final, but any aggrieved party may institute proceedings with the county judge/executive and, upon hearing, the county judge/executive shall determine which of the committees shall be recognized as the one to select challengers at the election.

(5) The committee shall file the names of the persons nominated by it with the clerk of the county at least twenty (20) days before the primary and regular elections and not less than fifteen (15) days preceding the date of a special election. The county board of elections shall, not later than the Thursday preceding the election, certify the nominees of the committee for the respective precincts to serve as challengers at the election where any constitutional amendment or public question is to be voted upon. If more than one (1) amendment or question is to be voted upon, the county board of elections may designate, on the petition of the committee, one (1) person for each amendment and question to serve as challenger at the election.

(6) The challengers shall perform their duties in the same manner and be subject to the same privileges as other challengers at an election.

Legislative Research Commission Note.

(7/14/92). This section was amended by two 1992 Acts. Where those Acts are not in conflict, they have been compiled together. Where a conflict exists, the Act which was last enacted by the General Assembly prevails, pursuant to KRS 446.250.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Analysis

1. Designation.
2. — By Political Group.
3. Disagreements of Challengers.
4. Unauthorized Challenger.
5. Exclusion.
6. Miscellaneous.

1. Designation.

A party executive committee may delegate to its chairman the authority to designate challengers. Commonwealth v. Miller, 98 Ky. 446, 33 S.W. 401, 17 Ky. L. Rptr. 1033, 1895 Ky. LEXIS 79 (Ky. 1895) (decided under prior law).

2. — By Political Group.

A faction of the Democratic Party, not constituting in itself an established political party, was not entitled to designate challengers. Weaver v. Toney, 107 Ky. 419, 54 S.W. 732, 21 Ky. L. Rptr. 1157, 1899 Ky. LEXIS 187 (Ky. 1899) (decided under prior law).

A political group is not entitled to designate challengers unless it is a distinct political party and has a ticket to elect. Weaver v. Toney, 107 Ky. 419, 54 S.W. 732, 21 Ky. L. Rptr. 1157, 1899 Ky. LEXIS 187 (Ky. 1899) (decided under prior law).

3. Disagreements of Challengers.

Arguments between challengers of opposing parties, involving threats of violence to each other, would not be cause for throwing out vote of precinct in absence of evidence that voters were intimidated or that an orderly election was interfered with. Land v. Land, 244 Ky. 126, 50 S.W.2d 518, 1931 Ky. LEXIS 720 (Ky. 1931) (decided under prior law).

4. Unauthorized Challenger.

Permitting unauthorized person to act as challenger would not invalidate election in absence of evidence that his presence in any way prevented a fair election or affected the result of the election. Muncy v. Duff, 194 Ky. 303, 239 S.W. 49, 1922 Ky. LEXIS 163 (Ky. 1922) (decided under prior law).

5. Exclusion.

The Circuit Court has no jurisdiction to issue a mandatory injunction compelling election officers to admit a challenger designated by a political party. Weaver v. Toney, 107 Ky. 419, 54 S.W. 732, 21 Ky. L. Rptr. 1157, 1899 Ky. LEXIS 187 (Ky. 1899) (decided under prior law).

The election officers may exclude any person who does not produce evidence of his proper appointment as a challenger. Muncy v. Duff, 194 Ky. 303, 239 S.W. 49, 1922 Ky. LEXIS 163 (Ky. 1922) (decided under prior law).

6. Miscellaneous.

In a federal prosecution of a deputy clerk for participation in a vote buying conspiracy, the jury was incorrectly told that Kentucky law prohibited the clerk from supervising in-person absentee voting; because a challenger is not an election officer, a challenger's presence did not result in equal representation of political parties, and the clerk's supervision was proper. The error was not prejudicial because the jury was correctly instructed that the clerk could not lawfully assist voters. United States v. Risner, 737 Fed. Appx. 751, 2018 FED App. 0304N, 2018 U.S. App. LEXIS 16252 (6th Cir. Ky. 2018).

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

Challengers may stay within the voting room while the vote is being polled, the election judges having no authority to eject them therefrom, and the challengers may exercise reasonable discretion in deciding where in the room they will post themselves, including withdrawing from the voting room when they feel it necessary. OAG 75-95.

In view of the fact that there is no official form for the designation of challengers and that there is no requirement that such appointments be notarized, a procedure whereby the challenger's name and precinct is designated in writing and signed by the chairman of the county party complies with this section. OAG 76-702.

Aside from the regular election officers, a person must be designated a challenger at the polls in order for such person to challenge a voter who presents himself to vote. OAG 77-645.

A write-in candidate who did not qualify as an independent candidate for the office of magistrate would not be entitled to designate challengers. OAG 77-654.

At least 25 percent of all the candidates of a particular party in the primary must combine and agree to recommend challengers in order for such challengers to be appointed, and when it speaks of all the candidates of a party, it means every candidate for every office to be voted for in the primary including state, district and local candidates. OAG 79-145.

There is no reason why challengers, designated in accordance with this section, could not serve as representatives to check the vote count; the statute plainly allows candidates to appoint such representatives with the only requirement being that the representatives must be designated to the county board of elections. OAG 91-190.

PENALTIES

117.995. Penalties.

(1) Any person appointed to serve as an election officer but who shall knowingly and willfully fail to serve and who is not excused by the county board of elections for the reasons specified in this chapter shall be guilty of a violation and shall be ineligible to serve as an election officer for a period of five (5) years.

(2) Any county clerk or member of the county board of elections who knowingly and willfully violates any of the provisions of this chapter, including furnishing applications for absentee ballots, applications for federal provisional absentee ballots, and mail-in absentee ballots to persons other than those specified by the provisions of this chapter, and failure to type the name of the voter on the application form as required by the provisions of this chapter, shall be guilty of a Class D felony.

(3) Any officer who willfully fails to prepare or furnish ballots, federal provisional ballots, federal provisional absentee ballots, or absentee ballots or fails to allow a qualified voter to cast his or her vote using voting equipment as required of the voter by this chapter shall be guilty of a Class A misdemeanor.

(4) Any election officer who knowingly and willfully violates any of the provisions of this chapter, including failure to enforce the prohibition against electioneering established by KRS 117.235, shall be guilty of a Class A misdemeanor for the first offense and a Class D felony for each subsequent offense.

(5) Any person who violates KRS 117.0861, or who signs a name other than his or her own on an application for an absentee ballot, the verification form for the ballot, an emergency absentee ballot affidavit, a voter or election official affirmation, or any person who votes an absentee ballot other than the one issued in his or her name, or any person who applies for the ballot for the use of anyone other than himself or herself or the person designated by the provisions of this chapter, or any person who makes a false statement on an application for an absentee ballot or on an emergency absentee ballot affidavit shall be guilty of a Class D felony.

(6) Any person who violates any provision of KRS 117.235 or 117.236 related to prohibited activities during absentee voting or on election day, after he or she has been duly notified of the provisions by any precinct election officer, county clerk, deputy county clerk, or other law enforcement official, shall, for each offense, be guilty of a Class A misdemeanor.

(7) Any person who knowingly and willfully prepares or assists in the preparation of an inaccurate or incomplete voter assistance form or fails to complete a voter assistance form when required shall be guilty of a Class A misdemeanor for the first offense and a Class D felony for each subsequent offense; however, if a voter has been permanently certified as requiring voting assistance, there shall be no offense for the failure of the voter to complete the form.

(8) The members of a county board of elections who fail to provide the training to precinct election officers required by KRS 117.187(2) shall be subject to removal by the State Board of Elections.

(9) Any local or state election official, including the Secretary of State, employees of the Secretary, and members of the State Board of Elections and their staff, who knowingly and willfully uses the voter registration roster in violation of KRS 117.025(3)(a) shall, for each offense, be guilty of a Class A misdemeanor.

(10) Any person who knowingly and willfully violates KRS 45A.657(2) or KRS 65.014(2) shall, for a first offense, be guilty of a Class D felony. For a second or subsequent offense, the person shall be guilty of a Class C felony.

Legislative Research Commission Notes.

(7/14/2022). 2022 Ky. Acts ch. 23, sec. 6, provided that Act, which amended this statute, may be cited as the Stop Outside Influence Over Elections Act of 2022.

(7/13/90). The Act amending this section prevails over the repeal and reenactment in House Bill 940, Acts ch. 476, pursuant to Section 653(1) of Acts ch. 476.

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

The penalty provision of subsection (1) of this section authorizing a fine of not less than $100 nor more than $1,000, or imprisonment in the county jail for not more than one year, or both, constitutes a misdemeanor, both as to the fine and jail sentence. OAG 79-519.

CHAPTER 118

CONDUCT OF ELECTIONS

Section

118.025. Voting to be by secret paper ballot — General laws applicable — Time for holding elections.

Regular Elections.

118.315. Nomination for regular election by petition — Form of petition — Examination of petition — Ineligibility of Senior Status Special Judge.

118.365. Time for filing certificates and petitions of nomination — Statement-of-candidacy forms — Petitions for recall elections or elections on public questions.

118.367. Statement-of-candidacy form for independent, political organization, or political group candidate — Exceptions — Examination of forms.

118.025. Voting to be by secret paper ballot — General laws applicable — Time for holding elections.

(1) Except as otherwise provided by law, voting in all primaries and elections shall be by secret paper ballot.

(2) The general laws applying to primaries, regular elections, and special elections shall apply to primaries, regular elections, and special elections conducted with the use of voting equipment, and all provisions of the general laws applying to the custody of ballot boxes shall apply, as far as applicable, to the custody of the voting system or voting equipment.

(3) A primary for the nomination of candidates to be voted for at the next regular election shall be held on the first Tuesday after the third Monday in May of each year.

(4) The election of all officers of all governmental units shall be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November.

(5) If the law authorizes the calling of a special election on a day other than the day of the regular election in November, the election shall be held on a Tuesday.

(6) If the law requires that a special election be held within a period of time during which the voting equipment must be locked as required by KRS 117.295, the special election shall be held on the fourth Tuesday following the expiration of the period during which the voting equipment is locked.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Analysis

1. Secrecy.
2. Testimony as to Vote.
3. Secondary Evidence on Voting.
4. School Elections.
5. School Subdistrict Tax Elections.

1. Secrecy.

The secrecy of the ballot is the fundamental idea of all elections. Banks v. Sergeant, 104 Ky. 843, 20 Ky. L. Rptr. 1024, 48 S.W. 149, 1898 Ky. LEXIS 230 (Ky. 1898), overruled in part, Widick v. Ralston, 303 Ky. 373, 197 S.W.2d 261, 1946 Ky. LEXIS 880 (1946), overruled on other grounds, Widick v. Ralston, 303 Ky. 373, 197 S.W.2d 261, 1946 Ky. LEXIS 880 (Ky. 1946) (decided under prior law).

Where election officers permitted such irregularities that secrecy of ballot was not preserved, entire vote of precinct would be disregarded. Banks v. Sergeant, 104 Ky. 843, 20 Ky. L. Rptr. 1024, 48 S.W. 149, 1898 Ky. LEXIS 230 (Ky. 1898), overruled in part, Widick v. Ralston, 303 Ky. 373, 197 S.W.2d 261, 1946 Ky. LEXIS 880 (1946), overruled on other grounds, Widick v. Ralston, 303 Ky. 373, 197 S.W.2d 261, 1946 Ky. LEXIS 880 (Ky. 1946) (decided under prior law).

An essential requirement of a valid election is that the ballot shall be secret, and statutes necessary to effect that end are mandatory, but mere irregularities of election officers and voters, which do not affect the secrecy of the ballot, will not vitiate the election nor affect the validity of a vote. Marilla v. Ratterman, 209 Ky. 409, 273 S.W. 69, 1925 Ky. LEXIS 513 (Ky. 1925) (decided under prior law).

2. Testimony as to Vote.

A voter may testify as to how he voted. Tunks v. Vincent, 106 Ky. 829, 51 S.W. 622, 21 Ky. L. Rptr. 475, 1899 Ky. LEXIS 111 (Ky. 1899) (decided under prior law).

Illegal votes cast by secret ballot may be relied on to show the general uncertainty of an election, without proving for whom they were cast. Scholl v. Bell, 125 Ky. 750, 102 S.W. 248, 31 Ky. L. Rptr. 335, 1907 Ky. LEXIS 328 (Ky. 1907) (decided under prior law).

An illegal voter may testify as to how he voted, and a legal voter may testify as to how he voted on a ballot illegally cast. A voter who has voted illegally may be compelled to testify how he voted, unless there is a criminal penalty for the particular kind of illegality involved and the voter claims immunity on the ground of self-incrimination. Vansant v. McPherson, 155 Ky. 34, 159 S.W. 630, 1913 Ky. LEXIS 190 (Ky. 1913). See Tunks v. Vincent, 106 Ky. 829, 51 S.W. 622, 21 Ky. L. Rptr. 475, 1899 Ky. LEXIS 111 (Ky. 1899); Scholl v. Bell, 125 Ky. 750, 102 S.W. 248, 31 Ky. L. Rptr. 335, 1907 Ky. LEXIS 328 (Ky. 1907); Skain v. Milward, 138 Ky. 200, 127 S.W. 773, 1910 Ky. LEXIS 61 (Ky. 1910); Heitzman v. Voiers, 155 Ky. 39, 159 S.W. 625, 1913 Ky. LEXIS 189 (Ky. 1913); Black v. Spillman, 185 Ky. 201, 215 S.W. 28, 1919 Ky. LEXIS 269 (Ky. 1919) (decided under prior law).

A voter who cast his vote after closing time may be compelled to testify for whom he voted, since there is no criminal penalty for voting after hours. Vansant v. McPherson, 155 Ky. 34, 159 S.W. 630, 1913 Ky. LEXIS 190 (Ky. 1913). See Hogg v.

Caudill, 254 Ky. 409, 71 S.W.2d 1020, 1934 Ky. LEXIS 105 (Ky. 1934) (decided under prior law).

A voter in a primary election may be compelled to testify as to how he cast his vote. Runyon v. Trent, 270 Ky. 134, 109 S.W.2d 396, 1937 Ky. LEXIS 40 (Ky. 1937) (decided under prior law).

3. Secondary Evidence on Voting.

Where there was conflicting evidence as to whether a certain voter was of sound mind, the mere proof that he was a member of a certain political party would not be sufficient to establish that he voted for the candidates of that party. Edwards v. Logan, 114 Ky. 312, 70 S.W. 852, 75 S.W. 257, 24 Ky. L. Rptr. 1099, 25 Ky. L. Rptr. 435, 1902 Ky. LEXIS 164 (Ky. 1902) (decided under prior law).

Proof that a voter made statements after election that he had voted for a certain candidate, or for all of the candidates of a certain party, was hearsay evidence and not admissible to prove how such voter voted. Edwards v. Logan, 114 Ky. 312, 70 S.W. 852, 75 S.W. 257, 24 Ky. L. Rptr. 1099, 25 Ky. L. Rptr. 435, 1902 Ky. LEXIS 164 (Ky. 1902) (decided under prior law).

Evidence that a voter was a member of a certain political party was not sufficient to establish that he voted for the candidates of that party at a general election. Felts v. Edwards, 181 Ky. 287, 204 S.W. 145 (Ky. 1918). But see Tunks v. Vincent, 106 Ky. 829, 51 S.W. 622, 21 Ky. L. Rptr. 475, 1899 Ky. LEXIS 111 (Ky. 1899) (decided under prior law).

The fact that voters subpoenaed by contestant did not appear, though coupled with evidence that they were friends of contestee, was not sufficient to establish that they had voted for contestee. Alsip v. Perkins, 236 Ky. 5, 36 Ky. 5, 32 S.W.2d 565, 1930 Ky. LEXIS 684 (Ky. 1930) (decided under prior law).

4. School Elections.

School elections are exempted from the general requirement of a secret ballot by Const., § 155. Moss v. Riley, 102 Ky. 1, 43 S.W. 421, 19 Ky. L. Rptr. 993, 1897 Ky. LEXIS 104 (Ky. 1897) (decided under prior law).

5. School Subdistrict Tax Elections.

In school subdistrict tax elections, secret ballot should be used. Gill v. Board of Education, 288 Ky. 790, 156 S.W.2d 844, 1941 Ky. LEXIS 142 (Ky. 1941) (decided under prior law).

REGULAR ELECTIONS

118.315. Nomination for regular election by petition — Form of petition — Examination of petition — Ineligibility of Senior Status Special Judge.

(1) A candidate for any office to be voted for at any regular election may be nominated by a petition of electors qualified to vote for him or her, complying with the provisions of subsection (2) of this section. No person whose registration status is as a registered member of a political party shall be eligible to election as an independent, or political organization, or political group candidate, nor shall any person be eligible to election as an independent, or political organization, or political group candidate whose registration status was as a registered member of a political party on January 1 immediately preceding the regular election for which the person seeks to be a candidate. This restriction shall not apply to candidates to those offices specified in KRS 118.105(7), for supervisor of a soil and water conservation district, for candidates for mayor or legislative body in cities of the home rule class, or to candidates participating in nonpartisan elections.

(2) The form of the petition shall be prescribed by the State Board of Elections. It shall be signed by the candidate and by registered voters from the district or jurisdiction from which the candidate seeks nomination. The petition shall include a declaration, sworn to by the candidate, that he or she possesses all the constitutional and statutory requirements of the office for which the candidate has filed. Signatures for a petition of nomination for a candidate seeking any office, excluding President of the United States in accordance with KRS 118.591(1), shall not be affixed on the document to be filed prior to the first Wednesday after the first Monday in November of the year preceding the year in which the office will appear on the ballot. Signatures for nomination papers shall not be affixed on the document to be filed prior to the first Wednesday after the first Monday in November of the year preceding the year in which the office will appear on the ballot. A petition of nomination for a state officer, or any officer for whom all the electors of the state are entitled to vote, shall contain five thousand (5,000) petitioners; for a representative in Congress from any congressional district, or for any officer from any other district except as herein provided, four hundred (400) petitioners; for a county officer, member of the General Assembly, or Commonwealth's attorney, one hundred (100) petitioners; for a soil and water conservation district supervisor, twenty-five (25) petitioners; for a city officer or board of education member, two (2) petitioners; and for an officer of a division less than a county, except as herein provided, twenty (20) petitioners. It shall not be necessary that the signatures of the petition be appended to one (1) paper. Each petitioner shall include the date he or she affixes the signature, address of residence, and date of birth. Failure of a voter to include the signature affixation date, date of birth, and address of residence shall result in the signature not being counted. If any person joins in nominating, by petition, more than one (1) nominee for any office to be filled, he or she shall be counted as a petitioner for the candidate whose petition is filed first, except a petitioner for the nomination of candidates for soil and water conservation district supervisors may be counted for every petition to which his or her signature is affixed.

(3) Titles, ranks, or spurious phrases shall not be accepted on the filing papers and shall not be printed on the ballots as part of the candidate's name; however, nicknames, initials, and contractions of given names may be accepted as the candidate's name.

(4) The Secretary of State and county clerks shall examine the petitions of all candidates who file with them to determine whether each petition is regular on its face. If there is an error, the Secretary of State or the county clerk shall notify the candidate by certified mail within twenty-four (24) hours of filing.

(5) A judge who elected to retire as a Senior Status Special Judge in accordance with KRS 21.580 shall not become a candidate or a nominee for any elected office during the five (5) year term prescribed in KRS 21.580(1)(a)1., regardless of the number of days served by the judge acting as a Senior Status Special Judge.

24. Objection to Petition.

1. Constitutionality.

The requirement of subsection (2) of this section that a candidate's petition include a declaration that "the subscribers desire . . . to vote for the candidate" violates the right to a secret ballot guaranteed by Ky. Const., § 147, since the declaration operates to discourage signers from participating in the electoral process by revealing how they would vote. Anderson v. Mills, 664 F.2d 600, 1981 U.S. App. LEXIS 15841 (6th Cir. Ky. 1981).

The requirement of subsection (2) of this section, that only those supporters of a candidate who is attempting to be placed on the general election ballot through a petition need to declare that they desire to vote for that particular candidate, imposes an unnecessary burden on voting and associational rights in violation of the equal protection clause of U.S. Const., amend. 14; there is no compelling reason for making the declaration a mandatory part of the election in light of the less burdensome alternatives, such as restrictions on primary voting, to achieve the fundamental state interest. Anderson v. Mills, 664 F.2d 600, 1981 U.S. App. LEXIS 15841 (6th Cir. Ky. 1981).

The statutory scheme whereby a candidate is required by this section to obtain 5,000 signatures in order to be placed on the general ballot, but a candidate of a political party needs only two signatures to be placed on the primary ballot under the provisions of KRS 118.125, does not violate the equal protection clause of the United States Constitution, since it reflects the Legislature's recognition of the differences between established, well-financed parties and candidates and those parties and candidates who have no elaborate political network by providing greater access to the political process than a single route to the general election ballot. Anderson v. Mills, 664 F.2d 600, 1981 U.S. App. LEXIS 15841 (6th Cir. Ky. 1981).

The 1990 amendment to this section requiring nominating petitions to be signed by registered voters of the same political party affiliation as the petitioning candidate is unconstitutional and must be severed from this statute. Libertarian Party of Kentucky v. Ehrler, 776 F. Supp. 1200, 1991 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 16002 (E.D. Ky. 1991).

The 1990 amendment to this section that a voter who signs a nominating petition must include his Social Security number in order for his signature to be counted is in violation of Section VII of the Federal Privacy Act of 1974, Public Law 93-579, Title 5 USCS § 552a, and must be severed from this statute. Libertarian Party of Kentucky v. Ehrler, 776 F. Supp. 1200, 1991 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 16002 (E.D. Ky. 1991).

The requirement in subsection (2) of this section that a nominating petition of an independent candidate or a minority party candidate for statewide office contain the signatures of 5,000 registered voters in Kentucky is constitutional. Libertarian Party of Kentucky v. Ehrler, 776 F. Supp. 1200, 1991 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 16002 (E.D. Ky. 1991).

2. Construction.

The primary election law did not repeal that part of former similar section providing for nomination by petition of candidates who do not seek to be placed upon the ballot under the emblem of a political party within the meaning of the primary election law. Eagle v. Cox, 268 Ky. 58, 103 S.W.2d 682, 1937 Ky. LEXIS 411 (Ky. 1937) (decided under prior law).

While former similar section referred to "a candidate," it was not to be construed as prohibiting several candidates for different offices from being grouped as one organization or under one name or device. Greene v. Slusher, 300 Ky. 715, 190 S.W.2d 29, 1945 Ky. LEXIS 628 (Ky. 1945).

Former similar section dealt only with nomination of independent candidates by petition and could not be used to keep the name of a candidate for justice of the peace off the primary ballot on grounds that the affidavits supporting his notification and declaration were filed by persons not qualified electors of the magisterial district involved. Brown v. Read, 311 Ky. 104, 223 S.W.2d 592, 1949 Ky. LEXIS 1074 (Ky. 1949) (decided under prior law).

Statute uses mandatory language of "shall" when requiring petitioners to date when they sign the nominating petition and "shall not" when specifying that the petition should not be signed earlier than a certain date; while the statute provides that certain missing information, including the lack of a date shall result in the signature not being counted, it does not specify the result which will follow if the petition contains a date that indicates the petitioner signed the petition prematurely. Stoecklin v. Fennell, 526 S.W.3d 104, 2017 Ky. App. LEXIS 440 (Ky. Ct. App. 2017).

Requirement in the statute that the nominating petition signatures be dated or they will not count, is not mandatory, so long as it can be established that the petition signers are eligible voters for the relevant election; if the provision that signatures be dated or they will not count is not mandatory, it is not logical to interpret the provision that voters must not sign before a certain date (which does not specify a penalty for noncompliance) as mandatory. Stoecklin v. Fennell, 526 S.W.3d 104, 2017 Ky. App. LEXIS 440 (Ky. Ct. App. 2017).

Requirement that petitioners not sign a nominating petition before a certain date is intended to ensure that voters sign the petition for the next election and will still likely be residents; where two voters sign the petition a day early, another voter signs two days early and another voter signs two weeks early, this intent was still accomplished, and the date on which the petition is signed is a mere directory requirement as to timing that does not affect the merits of the election. Stoecklin v. Fennell, 526 S.W.3d 104, 2017 Ky. App. LEXIS 440 (Ky. Ct. App. 2017).

3. Application.

Candidates for city offices in city operating under commission form of government cannot be nominated by petition. Whitney v. Skinner, 194 Ky. 804, 241 S.W. 350, 1922 Ky. LEXIS 259 (Ky. 1922) (decided under prior law).

4. Minority Political Parties.

Absent a showing of a significant modicum of support, members of a minority political party are not entitled to have their candidates placed on the November general election ballot. Libertarian Party of Kentucky v. Ehrler, 776 F. Supp. 1200, 1991 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 16002 (E.D. Ky. 1991).

5. Sufficiency of Petition.

Where petition of nomination prayed that nominee be placed upon the ballot as the nominee of a designated political party, but petition was not sufficient for that purpose, the nominee was not entitled to be placed upon the ballot as an independent. Southall v. Griffith, 100 Ky. 91, 37 S.W. 577, 18 Ky. L. Rptr. 599, 1896 Ky. LEXIS 151 (Ky. 1896).

Circuit court properly affirmed the candidate's election to the city commission because there was substantial compliance with the statute; the fact that the petition was signed early was insignificant given that the nominating petition was signed by eligible registered voters, submitted timely, otherwise followed all statutory requirements and was not noted to have any error by the county clerk. Stoecklin v. Fennell, 526 S.W.3d 104, 2017 Ky. App. LEXIS 440 (Ky. Ct. App. 2017).

6. — Personal Signing Required.

The language of subsection (2) of this section is sufficiently explicit and unambiguous to require its literal application and precludes a voter from authorizing another to sign for him or her; names of persons authorizing their names to be affixed to independent candidate's petition for nomination but not personally signing it were invalid and candidate was disqualified. Barnard v. Stone, 933 S.W.2d 394, 1996 Ky. LEXIS 114 (Ky. 1996).

7. Nominations by Nonparty Organization.

Where independent ticket for five offices was nominated by petition, and the petition requested that the names be placed upon the ballot in one column under one device, it was the duty of the county clerk to so place them. Browning v. Lovett, 29 Ky. L. Rptr. 692 (1906) (decided under prior law).

A group of petitioners may select a party name and device, and nominate one candidate for each of several offices by one petition, in which it is requested that all of such nominees be placed on the ballot under the designated title and device. Asher v. Johnson, 192 Ky. 575, 234 S.W. 18, 1921 Ky. LEXIS 110 (Ky. 1921) (decided under prior law).

An organization of voters may nominate by petition a group of candidates, under a designated party name and device, and are entitled to have their nominees placed on the ballot under such name and device and it is not necessary that the persons signing the petition be members of the organization or party. Greene v. Slusher, 300 Ky. 715, 190 S.W.2d 29, 1945 Ky. LEXIS 628 (Ky. 1945) (decided under prior law).

It is a general rule that combinations of electors are entitled to nominate candidates by petition where they do not constitute a political party that is required by statute to make a nomination in another way. Queenan v. Mimms, 283 S.W.2d 380, 1955 Ky. LEXIS 313 (Ky. 1955) (decided under prior law).

8. — Vacancy in Nomination.

A political organization, not constituting a "party" within the meaning of former statute that defined "political party" may fill a vacancy in its nomination by filing a supplementary petition of nomination, as contemplated by former law which provided procedure whereby a vacancy created by the death, resignation or removal of a candidate could be filled, even though the organization did not cast as much as two per cent of the votes at the last preceding election. Greene v. Slusher, 300 Ky. 715, 190 S.W.2d 29, 1945 Ky. LEXIS 628 (Ky. 1945) (decided under prior law).

9. Requirements of Petition.

It was not necessary that a petition seeking to have a person placed on the ballot as the candidate of a political party allege that the party has failed to nominate by convention. When the time for filing evidences of nomination has closed, if there was only one nomination of a party on file, and that was by petition, that fact was sufficient to inform the clerk that the party had failed to nominate by convention, and to warrant him in placing on the ballot the person nominated by petition. Wilkins v. Duffy, 114 Ky. 111, 70 S.W. 668, 24 Ky. L. Rptr. 913, 24 Ky. L. Rptr. 968, 1902 Ky. LEXIS 157 (Ky. 1902) (decided under prior law).

If a petition of nomination is properly signed, and the nominee is designated as a member and candidate of a political party for a designated office, and the party title and device is designated, the clerk must place the nominee on the ballot as the candidate of such party, unless a certificate of nomination by convention is filed before the time for filing expires, or unless petition for another candidate of such party has previously been filed. Wilkins v. Duffy, 114 Ky. 111, 70 S.W. 668, 24 Ky. L. Rptr. 913, 24 Ky. L. Rptr. 968, 1902 Ky. LEXIS 157 (Ky. 1902) (decided under prior law).

The requirements that the petition state the residence of the nominee, that he is legally qualified to hold the office, and that the petitioners desire and are legally qualified to vote for the nominee, are mandatory and a petition which failed to state those facts was not sufficient to entitle nominee to be placed on ballot. Ison v. Weddle, 226 Ky. 201, 10 S.W.2d 814, 1928 Ky. LEXIS 56 (Ky. 1928), overruled in part, Bogie v. Hill, 286 Ky. 732, 151 S.W.2d 765, 1941 Ky. LEXIS 323 (Ky. 1941). See Clark v. Nash, 192 Ky. 594, 234 S.W. 1, 1921 Ky. LEXIS 102 (Ky. 1921) (decided under prior law).

In regard to nominations by petition, it is not required that petitioners or candidates be members of the party or organization described, but simply that it be stated that the nominee is legally qualified to hold the office and that the subscribers desire and are legally qualified to vote for him. Greene v. Slusher, 300 Ky. 715, 190 S.W.2d 29, 1945 Ky. LEXIS 628 (Ky. 1945) (decided under prior law).

Separate petitions are not required for each candidate where several candidates will run for different offices and the petitioners are qualified to make nominations for each, and thus a single petition may embrace the name of one candidate of an independent party group for every office to be filled. Queenan v. Mimms, 283 S.W.2d 380, 1955 Ky. LEXIS 313 (Ky. 1955) (decided under prior law).

10. — Registered Voters.

Since city was not divided into wards and each member of council was elected by the qualified voters of the entire city it followed that the nomination of candidates could have been made by qualified voters of entire city. Queenan v. Mimms, 283 S.W.2d 380, 1955 Ky. LEXIS 313 (Ky. 1955) (decided under prior law).

Signers of nominating petition must be registered voters. Hall v. Reid, 305 S.W.2d 923, 1957 Ky. LEXIS 349 (Ky. 1957) (decided under prior law).

The signer of a nominating petition filed under former similar section should have been a registered voter legally qualified to vote for the candidate. Huie v. Jones, 362 S.W.2d 287, 1962 Ky. LEXIS 255 (Ky. 1962) (decided under prior law).

11. — Number of Signers.

A city is a "division less than a county" within the meaning of a former similar section and only 20 names are required. Jones v. Wilshire, 98 Ky. 391, 33 S.W. 199, 17 Ky. L. Rptr. 989, 1895 Ky. LEXIS 73 (Ky. 1895) (decided under prior law).

If petition was signed by less than required number of electors, the nominee was not entitled to have his name placed on ballots, and votes cast for him would not be counted. Morgan v. Revis, 215 Ky. 30, 284 S.W. 111, 1926 Ky. LEXIS 646 (Ky. 1926). See Combs v. Dixon, 215 Ky. 566, 286 S.W. 797, 1926 Ky. LEXIS 767 (Ky. 1926); Ledford v. Hubbard, 219 Ky. 9, 292 S.W. 345, 1926 Ky. LEXIS 123 (Ky. 1926) (decided under prior law).

12. — Signing More Than Once.

Where person signs same petition more than once, one of his signatures will be counted. Ledford v. Hubbard, 219 Ky. 9, 292 S.W. 345, 1926 Ky. LEXIS 123 (Ky. 1926) (decided under prior law).

13. — Names Signed by Other.

The name of a married person may not be signed to a nominating petition by the spouse in his or her absence, and a subsequent ratification of such signing will not validate it. Morgan v. Revis, 215 Ky. 30, 284 S.W. 111, 1926 Ky. LEXIS 646 (Ky. 1926). See Ledford v. Hubbard, 219 Ky. 9, 292 S.W. 345, 1926 Ky. LEXIS 123 (Ky. 1926) (decided under prior law).

Names signed to petition by another, without authority, direction or consent of persons whose names were signed, could not be counted. Combs v. Dixon, 215 Ky. 566, 286 S.W. 797, 1926 Ky. LEXIS 767 (Ky. 1926) (decided under prior law).

A person's name may properly be signed to a petition by another, if it is done in his presence and by his direction, but not otherwise. Ledford v. Hubbard, 219 Ky. 9, 292 S.W. 345, 1926 Ky. LEXIS 123 (Ky. 1926) (decided under prior law).

Signature of person written for him by another is not valid unless he can see the signature being written. Ledford v. Hubbard, 219 Ky. 9, 292 S.W. 345, 1926 Ky. LEXIS 123 (Ky. 1926) (decided under prior law).

14. — Presumption as to Validity.

When a petition of nomination is regular on its face, the county clerk must place the name of the nominee on the ballot as requested by the petition, and he cannot question the qualifications of the persons who signed the petition. Wilkins v. Duffy, 114 Ky. 111, 70 S.W. 668, 24 Ky. L. Rptr. 913, 24 Ky. L. Rptr. 968, 1902 Ky. LEXIS 157 (Ky. 1902) (decided under prior law).

15. — Presumption as to Signatures.

There is a presumption that signatures appearing on petition were written by alleged signers and a person attacking the validity of petition has burden of showing that signatures were written by others than alleged signers, but upon his so showing the burden shifts to the proponent of the petition to show that the signatures were written in the presence and at the direction of the alleged signers. Ledford v. Hubbard, 219 Ky. 9, 292 S.W. 345, 1926 Ky. LEXIS 123 (Ky. 1926) (decided under prior law).

16. — Address.

The provision that the address of each petitioner be stated is mandatory. Where only 78 signers of petition for county office gave their address, the petition was insufficient. Skidmore v. Hurst, 113 Ky. 694, 68 S.W. 841, 24 Ky. L. Rptr. 536, 1902 Ky. LEXIS 90 (Ky. 1902) (decided under prior law).

The requirement that the residence and post office address of each signer be designated is directory to the extent that the county clerk may exercise his discretion as to whether the designation is sufficient. Blackburn v. Welch, 138 Ky. 267, 127 S.W. 991, 1910 Ky. LEXIS 68 (Ky. 1910) (decided under prior law).

The requirement of former similar section that the residence and post office address of each petitioner be "designated" meant only that the county clerk must have been informed in some way of the residence and address, not necessarily by setting it forth in the petition. Blackburn v. Welch, 138 Ky. 267, 127 S.W. 991, 1910 Ky. LEXIS 68 (Ky. 1910) (decided under prior law).

Petition nominating candidate for city office in sixth-class city was sufficient, although address of some of signers was not designated, where county clerk knew signers and knew that they were residents of the city. Blackburn v. Welch, 138 Ky. 267, 127 S.W. 991, 1910 Ky. LEXIS 68 (Ky. 1910) (decided under prior law).

County clerk may reject petition if he knows that addresses designated in petition are not true. Blackburn v. Welch, 138 Ky. 267, 127 S.W. 991, 1910 Ky. LEXIS 68 (Ky. 1910) (decided under prior law).

Where heading of petition stated that all of undersigned petitioners were "residents and qualified voters of the first magisterial district of Jefferson County, Kentucky," it was a sufficient designation of address for signers to write only their street address after their names, without adding the city, county and state. Lorenz v. Buckrop, 251 Ky. 1, 64 S.W.2d 168, 1933 Ky. LEXIS 796 (Ky. 1933) (decided under prior law).

Where some of signers of petition of nomination for a county office did not designate their residence and post office address, and there was nothing in the petition to indicate that they were residents of county, other than statement in heading of petition that all signers were "legal voters" of county, and there was no proof that county clerk personally knew such signers to be qualified, they could not be counted in determining whether there were sufficient signatures to petition. Combs v. Dixon, 215 Ky. 566, 286 S.W. 797, 1926 Ky. LEXIS 767 (Ky. 1926) (decided under prior law).

Nominating petitions that stated petitioners' respective house numbers, street names and "Louisville, Kentucky" met the requirements of former similar section without having specifically said that the same were "the post office addresses" of the respective signers. Rudy v. Queenan, 283 S.W.2d 383, 1955 Ky. LEXIS 314 (Ky. 1955) (decided under prior law).

17. Burden of Compliance.

Person seeking to establish his right to have his name placed on ballot by virtue of petition of nomination has burden of showing that petition complies with the statute. Ledford v. Hubbard, 219 Ky. 9, 292 S.W. 345, 1926 Ky. LEXIS 123 (Ky. 1926) (decided under prior law).

A good faith purpose to nominate a candidate for public office should be recognized unless "plain or manifest purpose of the law" demands a decision invalidating the petition. Carter v. Herickson, 361 S.W.2d 102, 1962 Ky. LEXIS 227 (Ky. 1962) (decided under prior law).

18. Mistake as to Number of Candidates.

Where ordinance increasing size of city council from six to 12 was never published and thus was invalid and petitioners in good faith mistakenly nominated 12 persons for 12 offices when only six (6) offices were vacant and then six of the 12 persons they sought to nominate withdrew, the fact of their error ought not to vitiate their petition and deprive electors of privilege of nominating the remainder. Queenan v. Mimms, 283 S.W.2d 380, 1955 Ky. LEXIS 313 (Ky. 1955) (decided under prior law).

19. Conflicting Nominations.

It is neither proper nor right for same petitioner or petitioners to make conflicting nominations by naming more than one candidate for each city office. Queenan v. Mimms, 283 S.W.2d 380, 1955 Ky. LEXIS 313 (Ky. 1955) (decided under prior law).

20. Write-in Candidates.

There is no authority for the contention that because the appellees had failed to secure nomination by petition under former similar section they were ineligible for election as write-in candidates. Dupin v. Sullivan, 355 S.W.2d 676, 1962 Ky. LEXIS 79 (Ky. 1962) (decided under prior law).

21. Designation of Device or Title.

Where county clerk, relying on opinion of Attorney General and acting honestly, placed names of persons nominated by petition on ballot under title and device of "Independent Party," although petitions were sufficient to entitle persons to be placed on ballot as candidates of regular party, no nomination by convention having been made, the election would not be held void notwithstanding that clerk's conduct probably affected result of election. Wilkins v. Duffy, 114 Ky. 111, 70 S.W. 668, 24 Ky. L. Rptr. 913, 24 Ky. L. Rptr. 968, 1902 Ky. LEXIS 157 (Ky. 1902) (decided under prior law).

A candidate who does not seek to have his name placed on the ballot under the device and title of a political party need not designate in his petition any device or title, in which case he will be listed on the ballot as an independent. Eversole v. Holliday, 123 Ky. 496, 96 S.W. 590, 29 Ky. L. Rptr. 927, 1906 Ky. LEXIS 168 (Ky. 1906) (decided under prior law).

22. — Failure to Put on Ballot.

Failure of clerk to place on ballot the device designated in petition of nomination would not invalidate votes cast for such candidate. Thompson v. Yowell, 137 Ky. 766, 126 S.W. 1102, 1910 Ky. LEXIS 623 (Ky. 1910) (decided under prior law).

23. Filing in More Than One County.

In the case of a city situated in more than one county, where petitions of nomination for city offices were required to be filed with the county clerk of each county, the nomination would have been valid if the petition filed with one of the clerks was sufficient in form, although the petition filed with the other clerk was defective. Eagle v. Cox, 268 Ky. 58, 103 S.W.2d 682, 1937 Ky. LEXIS 411 (Ky. 1937) (decided under prior law).

24. Objection to Petition.

Where defeated candidate had opportunity to inspect the list of successful candidate's petitioners, before filing suit to restrain placing of the latter's name on ballot, he was estopped from questioning sufficiency of successful candidate's petition in later suit to contest election. Revis v. Duff, 275 Ky. 626, 122 S.W.2d 518, 1938 Ky. LEXIS 488 (Ky. 1938) (decided under prior law).

Libertarian Party v. Davis, 601 F. Supp. 522, 1985 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 23566 (E.D. Ky. 1985).

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

The nominating petitions filed by candidates for the board of education of an independent school district, parts of which lie in two (2) counties, must be filed with the county clerks of each of the two (2) counties, the original copy with one county clerk and a duplicate copy with the other county clerk, not less than 55 days prior to the November election. OAG 74-647.

The statutory requirements that petitioners state that the nominee is legally qualified to hold the office and that the petitioners desire and are legally qualified to vote for the nominee are mandatory and any petition which fails to state these facts is not sufficient to establish the nominee to be placed on the ballots. OAG 74-676.

After a petition has been filed and accepted by the clerk, it is necessary for a summary action to be filed in circuit court if one wishes to prevent the candidate's name from appearing on the November ballot and the action must be filed by either an opposing candidate or a qualified voter pursuant to KRS 118.176. OAG 74-676.

School board candidates, as well as other candidates for nomination, should use the filing form prescribed by the state board pursuant to this section, copies of which are in the clerk's office. OAG 74-676.

A petition which fails to indicate the residence of the signers or that they are qualified voters of the school district is insufficient to entitle the nominee's name to be placed on the ballot. OAG 74-677.

If the clerk conditionally accepts a petition pending a determination as to its compliance with the requirements of this section, he may reject it when the petition is determined invalid; but if it was accepted unconditionally, it will be necessary for an opposing candidate or a qualified voter to bring a summary action in Circuit Court to prevent the proposed candidate's name from appearing on the ballot. OAG 74-677.

Most of the requirements of this section are basic to the validity of any petition and are mandatory. OAG 74-677.

Candidates filing as independents for election to board of trustees of cities of the sixth class are nominated by petition which must be filed with the county clerk pursuant to KRS 118.356 if they are candidates voted for by a county or by a district less than a county, but candidates for congress and the General Assembly must file with the Secretary of State. OAG 75-227.

A registered Democrat or Republican may sign the petition of a candidate desiring to run as an independent for county wide office so long as the voter meets the other qualifications of this section. OAG 75-228.

A candidate who already has filed for nomination for judicial office as both a Democrat and a Republican under KRS 118.145 (repealed) also may file for nomination under this section. OAG 75-267.

The number of candidates that may be listed on a single independent slate or ticket is limited to the number of positions to be filled. OAG 75-347.

Where the petitioners nominate a greater number of candidates than the number of offices to be filled, the petition is invalid and unacceptable to the clerk. OAG 75-347.

Where a county sheriff died on or about May 3, 1975, which was too late for candidates to file and run in the May primary for the unexpired term, the major parties were authorized to make nominations for the November election pursuant to party rules under KRS 118.115 and, at the same time, any qualified person could file a petition to become an independent candidate for the office in question at the coming November election under the authority expressed in KRS 118.375 so that any person desiring to run as an independent must file a petition on a form prescribed by the state board which is in accordance with the requirements of this section. OAG 75-401.

The only candidates who may file for office as independents after the May primary under KRS 118.365 would be those candidates seeking a city or school board office and any other independent candidates must file their petition pursuant to this section. OAG 75-441.

The requirements of this section as to the contents of a nominating petition are mandatory and if any of the required contents are omitted, the names of the nominees may not be placed on the ballot unless the petition is made complete prior to the statutory deadline and the county clerk may not supply the missing facts of his own knowledge. OAG 75-611.

Since school board candidates nominated by petition under this section may not, under KRS 160.230, be represented by any political organization, the petitioners of such candidates may not fill vacancies occurring after the deadline for filing in the manner prescribed in KRS 118.325. OAG 75-612.

Even though a person registered as an independent could not qualify to run in the May primary as a Democrat or Republican under the restrictions of KRS 116.055 and 118.125, he could nevertheless run as an independent by timely filing a petition as prescribed in this section. OAG 76-78.

Where a vacancy occurs in a magisterial district, any candidate desiring to run for the unexpired term as an independent would have to file not less than 55 days before the May primary a petition containing the names and addresses of 20 petitioners. OAG 76-179.

A person running as an independent candidate for any elective office in a regular November election may be registered as a Democrat or a Republican rather than an independent; likewise any person signing an independent petition may be registered as a member of any party or no party. OAG 76-191.

If there is sufficient address stated beside the petitioner's name to satisfy the county clerk that he is in fact a resident of the school district, the clerk should accept the nominating petition of a school board candidate as being in compliance with the requirements of this section. OAG 76-519.

Where an independent candidate's petition states that the petitioner is a candidate for magisterial district "one," there would be sufficient compliance with the requirement that a candidate indicate the office that he seeks and the district from which he is running. OAG 77-638.

Where one candidate filed to fill vacancy in city commission under former KRS 89.060, which was then in effect, and second candidate subsequently filed, the names of both candidates should be listed on the general election ballot (following a drawing for position) under the heading of "city commissioner," unexpired term, since theoretically both candidates were legally nominated under two separate laws though one was no longer in effect by the time of the election. OAG 80-507.

A group of six (6) or fewer candidates for the office of city council may not file a single petition for the position, since group filing is not permitted under subsection (3) of KRS 83A.170, even though it is permitted for independent petitions under this section. OAG 81-54.

Defeated candidates in the Republican primary for state-wide offices can run as an independent group for offices for which they were not defeated by filing a single petition with a minimum of 5,000 signatures and may designate a party name such as "Citizens United," together with a symbol or device to represent said independent party. OAG 83-279.

Where a number of candidates desire to run as an independent ticket with each candidate seeking a separate office, the number of signers required would be the same as that required of an individual candidate, which in the case of state-wide offices would be 5,000 signatures of registered voters under the requirements of this section. This is based on the theory that each petitioner would have been entitled to sign the petition of each candidate had he filed individually. OAG 83-279.

The provisions of § 7 (5 USCS § 552a note) of the Federal Privacy Act of 1974 prohibit any local government agency from denying an individual any right or privilege provided by law because of such individual's refusal to disclose his Social Security account number, unless such disclosure requirement was in existence before January 1, 1975; therefore, since the requirement of subsection (2) of this section that the petitioner state his Social Security account number when signing a petition on behalf of an independent candidate was inserted by amendment in 1982, it must be construed as directory only. Thus being directory, the fact that the petitioner does not indicate his Social Security account number will not affect the validity of his signature in ascertaining the required number of petitioners necessary to establish the fact that the candidate has complied with the filing requirements of this section. OAG 83-437.

The American Party may fill the vacancy created by the death of one of its designated presidential electors by appro-ropriate certification filed with the Secretary of State by the chairman of the party's state committee. OAG 84-170.

A write in candidate may only run for a school board seat in which there is a validly filed and qualified candidate on the ballot. OAG 03-001.

(1) Certificates of nomination issued by the State Board of Elections shall be filed by that board with the Secretary of State immediately. The certificates issued by the county board of elections shall be filed by that board with the county clerk immediately.

(2) Petitions of nomination for candidates for city offices except as provided in KRS 83A.047, for candidates for members of boards of education, and for candidates for supervisors of soil and water conservation districts shall be filed with the county clerk not earlier than the first Wednesday after the first Monday in November of the year preceding the year in which the office will appear on the ballot and not later than the first Tuesday after the first Monday in June preceding the day fixed by law for the holding of regular elections for the offices sought.

(3) Candidates for an office, the nomination to which is to be made by a convention pursuant to KRS 118.325(1) and (2), except for the office of electors of President and Vice President of the United States, shall file the statements required by KRS 118.325(3), with the official designated in KRS 118.165 with whom notification and declaration are filed for the office, not earlier than the first Wednesday after the first Monday in November of the year preceding the year in which the office will appear on the ballot and not later than the first Tuesday after the first Monday in June preceding the regular election for the office sought.

(4) Certificates of nomination made by the governing authority of a political party within the meaning of KRS 118.015 or a political organization not constituting a political party within the meaning of KRS 118.015 but whose candidate received two percent (2%) of the vote of the state at the last preceding election for presidential electors to fill vacancies in office, as provided in KRS 118.115 and 118.325, shall be filed as required with the Secretary of State or county clerk.

(5) Except as otherwise provided in this section, petitions of nomination shall be filed as required with the Secretary of State or county clerk not earlier than the first Wednesday after the first Monday in November of the year preceding the year in which the offices will appear on the ballot and not later than the first Tuesday after the first Monday in June preceding the day fixed by law for the holding of regular elections for the offices sought. The filing of petitions of nomination for independent, or political organization, or political group candidates shall not be accepted by the Secretary of State or the county clerk if the candidate has not filed a statement-of-candidacy form as required by KRS 118.367.

(6) Petitions and certificates of nomination for electors of President and Vice President of the United States shall be filed with the Secretary of State not earlier than the first Wednesday after the first Monday in November of the year preceding the year in which there is an election for President and Vice President of the United States and not later than the Friday following the first Tuesday in September preceding the date fixed by law for the election of the electors.

(7) Petitions for recall elections or elections on public questions shall be filed as required with the county clerk not later than the second Tuesday in August preceding the day fixed by law for holding a regular election.

(8) Petitions of any kind named in this section, statements, and certificates of nomination shall be filed no later than 4 p.m. local time at the place of filing when filed on the last date on which papers are permitted to be filed.

14. Sufficient Compliance.

1. In General.

It is the duty of the candidate to see that his petition or certificate of nomination is filed within the prescribed time.

Daniel v. Blankenship, 177 Ky. 726, 198 S.W. 48, 1917 Ky. LEXIS 657 (Ky. 1917) (decided under prior law).

2. Constitutionality.

This section, which was amended effective July 13, 1984, and with which political party failed to comply in submitting petitions with the required number of signatures 70 days before the date of the election, is constitutional, and did not violate the political party's rights under the First, Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution. Libertarian Party v. Davis, 601 F. Supp. 522, 1985 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 23566 (E.D. Ky. 1985).

3. Application.

Former similar section applied to elections for Circuit Judge and Judge of the Court of Appeals. Asher v. Arnett, 280 Ky. 347, 132 S.W.2d 772, 1939 Ky. LEXIS 87 (Ky. 1939) (decided under prior law).

The filing deadline of 119 days prior to the primary election for the nominating petitions of independent candidates and minority party candidates, is impermissibly early and is unconstitutional. Libertarian Party of Kentucky v. Ehrler, 776 F. Supp. 1200, 1991 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 16002 (E.D. Ky. 1991) (decided under prior law).

4. Independent Presidential Candidates.

Electorates for independent presidential candidates are not required to file petitions and certificates of nomination until 55 days before the general election, as required by subsection (4) of this section prior to amendment, since that subsection made no distinction between independent and major party candidates; moreover, if the Legislature had intended that subsection to apply only to major parties, it could have omitted the word "petition." Anderson v. Mills, 664 F.2d 600, 1981 U.S. App. LEXIS 15841 (6th Cir. Ky. 1981).

5. Delay in Seeking Relief.

Where political party waited 48 days after the Secretary of State had refused to allow it to file petition containing only 2,450 signatures, and waited 94 days after this section as amended and effective July 13, 1984, became law before filing suit, where it had constructive knowledge of the amendment, and where inclusion of such party's candidates would mean redesigning and reprinting the ballot face of voting machines at considerable cost, failure of such party to press its case when it should have known that an injury had occurred was fatal to its receiving any relief. Libertarian Party v. Davis, 601 F. Supp. 522, 1985 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 23566 (E.D. Ky. 1985).

6. Filing.

7. — Method.

A certificate or petition may be "filed" by delivering it to the custody of the clerk, accompanied with the communication to the clerk of the desire on the part of the candidate that it be filed. There is no requirement that the clerk indorse the date and fact of filing. Daniel v. Blankenship, 177 Ky. 726, 198 S.W. 48, 1917 Ky. LEXIS 657 (Ky. 1917). See Schnabel v. Sutton, 213 Ky. 116, 280 S.W. 488, 1926 Ky. LEXIS 463 (Ky. 1926) (decided under prior law).

If a candidate's name is printed on the ballot, although he did not file his evidence of nomination within the required time, the votes cast for him will not be counted. Justice v. Justice, 184 Ky. 130, 211 S.W. 419, 1919 Ky. LEXIS 27 (Ky. 1919). See Hewlett v. Carter, 194 Ky. 454, 239 S.W. 789, 1922 Ky. LEXIS 179 (Ky. 1922); Morgan v. Revis, 215 Ky. 30, 284 S.W. 111, 1926 Ky. LEXIS 646 (Ky. 1926); Combs v. Dixon, 215 Ky. 566, 286 S.W. 797, 1926 Ky. LEXIS 767 (Ky. 1926); Lewis v. Mosely, 215 Ky. 573, 286 S.W. 793, 1926 Ky. LEXIS 766 (Ky. 1926) (decided under prior law).

8. — Time.

There is no provision by which a person can have his name placed upon the ballot as an independent candidate to fill a vacancy, if the vacancy occurs after the time prescribed in former similar section for filing petitions of nominations has expired. Lisle v. Schooler, 288 S.W.2d 652, 1956 Ky. LEXIS 272 (Ky. 1956) (decided under prior law).

As to the timing of filing tax protest petitions, because KRS 132.017(1)(a) specifically governs the levy and assessment of property taxes, it controls over the general statute in KRS 118.365(7), concerning the conduct of elections; therefore, the trial court correctly determined that the taxpayers had 45 days in which to file their recall petition, and that the petition was valid and timely filed even though it did not specify "that portion" of the rate subject to recall. Daviess County Pub. Library Taxing Dist. v. Boswell, 185 S.W.3d 651, 2005 Ky. App. LEXIS 263 (Ky. Ct. App. 2005).

9. — Minimum Time Mandatory.

The requirement that evidences of nomination must be filed before a certain date is mandatory, and if the requirement is not met the clerk has no right to place the candidate's name on the ballot. Brodie v. Hook, 135 Ky. 87, 121 S.W. 979, 1909 Ky. LEXIS 263 (Ky. 1909). See Daniel v. Blankenship, 177 Ky. 726, 198 S.W. 48, 1917 Ky. LEXIS 657 (Ky. 1917); Justice v. Justice, 184 Ky. 130, 211 S.W. 419, 1919 Ky. LEXIS 27 (Ky. 1919); Whitney v. Skinner, 194 Ky. 804, 241 S.W. 350, 1922 Ky. LEXIS 259 (Ky. 1922); Morgan v. Revis, 215 Ky. 30, 284 S.W. 111, 1926 Ky. LEXIS 646 (Ky. 1926); Combs v. Dixon, 215 Ky. 566, 286 S.W. 797, 1926 Ky. LEXIS 767 (Ky. 1926); Lewis v. Mosely, 215 Ky. 573, 286 S.W. 793, 1926 Ky. LEXIS 766 (Ky. 1926) (decided under prior law).

10. — Exclusion of Day of Primary.

The day of primary election should be excluded from the count since law regarding time of filing for city office provided that the candidate must file his declaration not more than forty-five days before the day fixed by law for the election. Treadway v. Miller, 354 S.W.2d 500, 1962 Ky. LEXIS 43 (Ky. 1962) (decided under prior law).

11. — Failure.

Where certificate of nomination is not filed within prescribed time, nomination becomes vacant, and vacancy can be filled by party authorities, who may nominate person who had received certificate of nomination if they so desire. Ledford v. Hubbard, 219 Ky. 9, 292 S.W. 345, 1926 Ky. LEXIS 123 (Ky. 1926). See Lewis v. Mosely, 215 Ky. 573, 286 S.W. 793, 1926 Ky. LEXIS 766 (Ky. 1926) (decided under prior law).

12. Inadvertent Omission of Candidate.

Where certificate of nomination of group of candidates by party convention was filed in time, but name of candidate for one office was inadvertently omitted, a subsequent certificate correcting the omission could not be accepted where it was tendered for filing after the time for filing had expired. Brodie v. Hook, 135 Ky. 87, 121 S.W. 979, 1909 Ky. LEXIS 263 (Ky. 1909) (decided under prior law).

13. Municipal and School Elections.

In elections for municipal offices, boards of education, or school trustees, candidates may file their nominating papers with the county clerk at any time prior to 15 days before the election. Logsdon v. Howard, 280 Ky. 342, 133 S.W.2d 60, 1939 Ky. LEXIS 116 (Ky. 1939) (decided under prior law).

14. Sufficient Compliance.

Where candidates nominated at primary election came to county clerk's office and tendered their certificates of nomination within proper time, but the clerk told them that filing would not be necessary because duplicate certificates accompanying election returns filed by election commissioners would be sufficient, there was a sufficient compliance with this section and such candidates were entitled to have their names printed on the ballots. Schnabel v. Sutton, 213 Ky. 116, 280 S.W. 488, 1926 Ky. LEXIS 463 (Ky. 1926) (decided under prior law).

Where county clerk had possession of candidate's certificate of nomination, and candidate went to clerk before time for filing had expired and asked that clerk file the certificate, but clerk said it would not be necessary to file it until 15 days before election, the candidate's request that the certificate be filed was a sufficient compliance with this section, although clerk did not mark certificate "filed" until after time for filing had expired. James v. Buster, 234 Ky. 462, 28 S.W.2d 501, 1930 Ky. LEXIS 209 (Ky. 1930) (decided under prior law).

Filing of certificate of returns with county clerk by board of election commissioners does not constitute compliance with requirement that certificate of nomination be filed. Lewis v. Mosely, 215 Ky. 573, 286 S.W. 793, 1926 Ky. LEXIS 766 (Ky. 1926) (decided under prior law).

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

The nominating petitions filed by candidates for the board of education of an independent school district, parts of which lie in two (2) counties, must be filed with the county clerks of each of the two (2) counties, the original copy with one county clerk and a duplicate copy with the other county clerk, not less than 55 days prior to the November election. OAG 74-647.

The only candidates who may file for office as an independent after the May primary would be those candidates seeking a city or school board office and any other independent candidates must file their petition pursuant to the requirements of KRS 118.315. OAG 75-441.

As a vacancy in the office of county judge occurred less than 70 days before the primary, this section would control and both the Republican and Democratic parties may nominate a person of their choice pursuant to their party rules and file a statement of nomination with the county clerk not less than 55 days before the general election as provided by this section. OAG 75-525.

Where a school board member's resignation is not tendered in writing to and accepted by the board prior to 55 days before the general election, there is no vacancy and the office need not be placed on the ballot until the following election. OAG 75-635.

A candidate desiring to run as an independent for a vacancy on a city council need not file his nominating petition until 55 days before the general election pursuant to subsection (4) of this section. OAG 76-15.

Though a person registered as an independent could not qualify to run in the 1976 May primary as a Democrat or Republican under the restrictions of KRS 116.055 and 118.125, he could still run as an independent by filing a petition as prescribed in KRS 118.315 not later than March 31, 1976, as required by this section. OAG 76-78.

Even though no one filed a petition to run against the current county jailer as an independent, or sought nomination in the primary, any qualified voter could campaign for the office as a "write-in" candidate. OAG 79-462.

In view of the 1982 amendment to this section, any person can file as an Independent for any office to be filled for a regular or unexpired term, not less than 55 days before the regular election. accordingly, where two candidates for the vacant office of constable filed for a primary which was not held because of the erroneous assumption that the office could not be filled in the following regular election, the two party candidates in question, irrespective of their party affiliation, and any other individual, could file an independent petition containing the names of a minimum of 20 petitioners for the office, provided they filed their petition within the 55-day deadline. OAG 82-415.

Where a constable resigned his office in early 1984, but neither major party nominated a candidate for the office in the May 1984 primary, regardless of whether or not anyone filed as an independent for constable, Ky. Const., § 152 would require the office to be placed on the November 1984 ballot for "write-in" purposes, since the office must be filled by an election; if no one is elected, then a vacancy occurs to be filled by the county judge/executive for the remainder of the term ending in January 1986. OAG 84-244.

Persons filing for city council in a city of the fourth class who desire to file as an independent or for party nomination must file 90 days before the May primary election; with respect to candidates for city council in cities of the fifth class who are prohibited under KRS 118.105(4) from seeking party nomination, they may file independent petitions up until 70 days before the general election. OAG 84-318.

Where a few days before the primary election the unopposed Republican candidate for Property Valuation Administrator (PVA), who was the incumbent PVA in the county, died, and where the only other person having a qualified certificate issued pursuant to KRS 132.380 qualifying him to run for PVA was the unopposed Democratic candidate, the giving of a special examination was mandatory in light of the provisions of KRS 118.105(3) and KRS 132.380, with the takers limited to registered Republicans, since the Democratic Party had a qualified nominee, and it was too late for an independent candidate to file for the office under the terms of this section. OAG 85-101.

The 120-day filing deadline established in this section and KRS 118.165 and 118A.060 was meant to uniformly apply to all filing deadlines, except those for municipal offices, and therefore by implication applies to candidates seeking unexpired terms under the provisions of KRS 118.115, 118.375 and 118A.100. OAG 89-5.

118.367. Statement-of-candidacy form for independent, political organization, or political group candidate — Exceptions — Examination of forms.

(1) An independent, or political organization, or political group candidate required to file nomination papers pursuant to KRS 118.365(5) shall be required to file a statement-of-candidacy form with the same office at which nomination papers are filed. Candidates for federal office and candidates for mayor or legislative body in cities of the home rule class participating in partisan elections shall not be required to file a statement-of-candidacy form. The statement-of-candidacy form shall be filed not earlier than the first Wednesday after the first Monday in November of the year preceding the year in which the office will appear on the ballot and not later than April 1 preceding the day fixed by law for holding of regular elections for the offices sought. If the office in which the statement-of-candidacy form is to be filed is closed on April 1, the form may be filed on the next business day. The statement-of-candidacy form shall be filed no later than 4 p.m. local time when filed on the last day on which papers are permitted to be filed. No person shall file a statement-of-candidacy form for more than one (1) public office during an election cycle.

(2) The statement-of-candidacy form shall be prescribed by the State Board of Elections. The statement-of-candidacy form shall be signed by the candidate upon filing. No charge shall be assessed for the filing of a statement-of-candidacy form. The Secretary of State and county clerks shall examine the statement-ofcandidacy form of each candidate who files the form to determine if there is an error. If an error has occurred, the candidate shall be notified by certified mail within twenty-four (24) hours.

DEPARTMENT OF REVENUE

General Provisions.

Section

- 131.110. Protest of assessment by Department of Revenue — Review — Appeal.

GENERAL PROVISIONS

131.110. Protest of assessment by Department of Revenue — Review — Appeal.

(1)(a) The department shall mail to the taxpayer a notice of any tax assessed by it. The assessment shall be due and payable if not protested in writing to the department within:

1. Forty-five (45) days from the date of notice, for assessments issued prior to July 1, 2018; and
2. Sixty (60) days from the date of notice, for assessments issued on or after July 1, 2018.

(b) Claims for refund of paid assessments may be made under KRS 134.580 and denials appealed under KRS 49.220.

(c)1. The protest shall be accompanied by a supporting statement setting forth the grounds upon which the protest is made.

2. Upon written request, the department may extend the time for filing the supporting statement if it appears the delay is necessary and unavoidable.

3. The refusal of the extension may be reviewed in the same manner as a protested assessment.

(2) After a timely protest has been filed, the taxpayer may request a conference with the department. The request shall be granted in writing stating the date and time set for the conference. The taxpayer may appear in person or by representative. Further conferences may be held by mutual agreement.

(3)(a) After considering the taxpayer's protest, including any matters presented at the final conference, the department shall issue a final ruling on any matter still in controversy, which shall be mailed to the taxpayer. The ruling shall state that it is a final ruling of the department, generally state the issues in controversy, the department's position thereon and set forth the procedure for prosecuting an appeal to the Board of Tax Appeals.

(b) The taxpayer may request in writing a final ruling at any time after filing a timely protest and supporting statement. When a final ruling is requested, the department shall issue such ruling within thirty (30) days from the date the request is received by the department.

(c) If a taxpayer files a timely protest in dispute of a property tax assessment issued under KRS 136.120 to 136.180 and does not receive from the department, within one (1) year from the date on which the protest was filed:

1. A fully executed written agreement to settle the protest as authorized under KRS 131.030(3);
2. A final ruling in accordance with paragraphs (a) or (b) of this subsection; or
3. Resolution and closure of the protest; the department shall immediately issue a final ruling that accepts the taxpayer's grounds of the protest, including the taxpayer's proposed true value as stated in the protest.

(4) After a final ruling has been issued, the taxpayer may appeal to the Board of Tax Appeals pursuant to the provisions of KRS 49.220.

1. In General.

The Revenue Cabinet is not required to consider every variable in assessing the tax value of unmined coal tracts; its consideration of mineable and merchantable acres, average clean coal seam thickness, location by county, and whether the coal was idle, permitted, or permitted and producing provided sufficient information to make a logical and reasonable estimate of the property's cash value. Prior to initiating a lawsuit, taxpayers who believe their valuations are in excess of fair cash value should exhaust the administrative remedies of formally protesting the assessment and, if necessary, appealing any final determination by the Cabinet to the Kentucky Board of Tax Appeals. Revenue Cabinet v. Gillig, 957 S.W.2d 206, 1997 Ky. LEXIS 91 (Ky. 1997).

2. Assessment Void.

Where the undisputed facts showed that taxpayer had no property within the jurisdiction of this state, and did no business therein, attempted assessment of franchise tax by Department of Revenue was void, and could be enjoined. Reeves v. Service Lines, Inc., 291 Ky. 410, 164 S.W.2d 593, 1942 Ky. LEXIS 236 (Ky. 1942).

3. Taxes Due.

Under this section taxes become due and payable on the day the assessment becomes final. Commonwealth ex rel. Luckett v. Kettenacker, 335 S.W.2d 339, 1960 Ky. LEXIS 256 (Ky. 1960).

4. Notice of Assessment.

Where in an action to collect unpaid sales taxes, the defendant corporation claimed that it had never received notice of the assessment, and the record disclosed that the commonwealth did not or could not offer any proof that the subject notice of taxes due had been mailed to, or received by, the defendant corporation, the commonwealth was not entitled to a presumption that the tax notices were properly mailed as a usual business practice; therefore, where there was no proof by the commonwealth of a regular system or scheme for mailing the tax notices, it was a question of fact as to whether the defendant received the notice of assessment, and the trial court erred when it granted summary judgment in favor of the commonwealth. Koscot Interplanetary, Inc. v. Commonwealth, 649 S.W.2d 201, 1983 Ky. LEXIS 243 (Ky. 1983).

Notice of tax assessment was properly addressed, for purposes of the presumption that a properly mailed letter is received in due course, where it was shown that the correct zip code and the incorrect one used were both used to deliver mail on the same road in the same city, and that the taxpayer received other correspondence from the department (now cabinet) with the same incorrect zip code. Zeigler Coal Co. v. Commonwealth, Dep't of Revenue, 691 S.W.2d 216, 1985 Ky. App. LEXIS 495 (Ky. Ct. App. 1985).

Department's initial, timely letter, which notified the telephone company of a sales tax assessment and of the amount of the assessed tax deficiency, was sufficient to satisfy the statute of limitations, KRS 139.620(1), and to allow collection of the tax because the letter was not required to contain all five requirements of KRS 131.081(8). Revenue Cabinet v. GTE South, Inc., 238 S.W.3d 655, 2007 Ky. LEXIS 160 (Ky. 2007).

5. Petition for Review.

The department or commissioner need not submit a petition for review to the tax commission unless the petition is filed within 15 days. Reeves v. Fries, 292 Ky. 450, 166 S.W.2d 985, 1942 Ky. LEXIS 116 (Ky. 1942) (decided under prior law).

6. Time of Filing.

Where taxpayer did not file petition for review within 15-day period, his right to relief was barred. The action of the commissioner (now secretary) of revenue in ruling on the merits of the taxpayer's complaint did not operate to waive the statute, where the commissioner in making the ruling expressly reserved the question as to whether the complaint was timely, and finally rejected the complaint on the ground that it was not filed in time. Reeves v. Fries, 292 Ky. 450, 166 S.W.2d 985, 1942 Ky. LEXIS 116 (Ky. 1942) (decided under prior law).

7. Hearing.

The hearing by the tax commission is not an appeal, but a de novo redetermination. Reeves v. Fries, 292 Ky. 450, 166 S.W.2d 985, 1942 Ky. LEXIS 116 (Ky. 1942).

8. Remedy Exclusive.

Where the defendant failed to object to or appeal from the department's (now cabinet's) classification of income, the remedy was exclusive and the assessment became final. Koehler v. Commonwealth, 432 S.W.2d 397, 1968 Ky. LEXIS 325 (Ky. 1968).

The question of the defendant's residence was foreclosed when he neglected to pursue his statutory remedy and the issue could not be raised in an action to collect the delinquent tax. Koehler v. Commonwealth, 432 S.W.2d 397, 1968 Ky. LEXIS 325 (Ky. 1968).

9. Sales and Use Taxes.

The general provisions contained in this section do not govern appeals as to overdue sales and use taxes where the chapter concerned with the levy and collection of such taxes has provisions that are exclusive and controlling in all matters concerning the due date, penalties and interest. Kentucky Board of Tax Appeals v. Brown Hotel Co., 528 S.W.2d 715, 1975 Ky. LEXIS 83 (Ky. 1975).

10. Judicial Review.

Where religious organization failed to exhaust administrative remedies by filing protest under this section within 30 days after jeopardy assessment under KRS 131.150, there was judicial review by trial court considering separate temporary injunction issue since it determined that activities at state fair were sales not protected by constitutional privileges of the First Amendment to the United States Constitution; thus, failure to exhaust remedies was not fatal to right of judicial review. International Soc. for Krishna Consciousness, Inc. v. Commonwealth, 610 S.W.2d 910, 1980 Ky. App. LEXIS 406 (Ky. Ct. App. 1980).

Court of Appeals erred in determining that a facial constitutional issue raised by a taxpayer was one that the Kentucky Board of Tax Appeals could not decide because the case did not challenge the constitutionality of the administrative process for collecting a tax refund, there were several administrative issues that had to be resolved prior to addressing the statute's constitutionality, which necessitated formal written findings, and the deference afforded the findings would be dependent upon their sufficiency. Commonwealth v. AT&T Corp., 462 S.W.3d 399, 2015 Ky. LEXIS 1631 (Ky. 2015).

11. Supporting Statement.

Something more substantial than mere denials of tax liability is required as a "supporting statement" under this section.

Eagle Machine Co. v. Commonwealth, 698 S.W.2d 528, 1985 Ky. App. LEXIS 600 (Ky. Ct. App. 1985).

The term “supporting statement” is not limited to full and complete tax returns; however, a taxpayer has an obligation to provide financial statements, records or some other documentation that would allow the revenue department some basis for reconsideration. Eagle Machine Co. v. Commonwealth, 698 S.W.2d 528, 1985 Ky. App. LEXIS 600 (Ky. Ct. App. 1985).

12. Mandatory Nature of Requirements.

Regardless of the motive of the entity being assessed, this section is mandatory in nature and, therefore, a taxpayer who failed to submit the required documentation before the Revenue Cabinet issued its final order, failed to preserve his right to review of a delinquency assessed by the Revenue Cabinet for sales and use taxes. Scotty’s Constr. Co. v. Commonwealth Revenue Cabinet, 779 S.W.2d 234, 1989 Ky. App. LEXIS 146 (Ky. Ct. App. 1989).

13. Final Ruling Necessary.

This statute clearly indicates that after a protest to a tax assessment has been made by a taxpayer, the Cabinet shall issue a final ruling or determination on the matter. It is only when such ruling is final—and so states—that it can be appealed to the Board of Tax Appeals. Revenue Cabinet v. Castleton, Inc., 826 S.W.2d 334, 1992 Ky. App. LEXIS 67 (Ky. Ct. App. 1992).

14. Claim for Refund.

The remedy for filing a claim for a refund of taxes pursuant to KRS 134.580 is not conditioned upon satisfaction of the procedural requirements provided in this section for filing a protest of a tax assessment. Subsection (1) of this section allows a taxpayer 30 (now 45) days within which to file such a protest. KRS 134.580(3) and 139.770(1), on the other hand, are concerned with requests for refunds of taxes already paid and provide that claims for refund must be made within four (4) years of the due date of the return or the date the money was paid into the treasury, whichever is later. Revenue Cabinet v. Castleton, Inc., 826 S.W.2d 334, 1992 Ky. App. LEXIS 67 (Ky. Ct. App. 1992).

Under KRS 134.580, an “overpayment” or “payment where no tax was due” must occur before a refund is authorized under KRS 139.770, and, thus, a taxpayer is only entitled to a refund if he has overpaid his tax liability; therefore, although the court had held that a timely notice of assessment issued by the Commonwealth of Kentucky, Revenue Cabinet was deficient under KRS 131.081(8) and KRS 131.110(1) and that its subsequent notice was barred by the statute of limitations under KRS 139.620(1), it accepted the Cabinet’s alternative argument that the taxpayer was not entitled to a refund concerning the sales and use taxes it paid during a certain period because it did not “overpay” its taxes for that period, and it held that the Cabinet had the right to retain prior excess payments for that time period to the extent that they did not exceed the amount which might have been properly assessed and demanded. GTE South, Inc. v. Commonwealth, 2004 Ky. App. LEXIS 86 (Ky. Ct. App. 2004), rehearing denied, 2004 Ky. App. LEXIS 180 (Ky. Ct. App. 2004), rev’d, Revenue Cabinet v. GTE South, Inc., 238 S.W.3d 655, 2007 Ky. LEXIS 160 (Ky. 2007) (reversed on grounds that the notice of assessment was sufficient).

Company could receive a refund of its payment of an ad valorem tax assessment, where the company filed its refund claim within the statute of limitations provided by KRS 134.590, protested the denial of its claim in accordance with KRS 131.110, and exhausted the administrative remedies available. Dep’t of Revenue, Fin. & Admin. Cabinet v. Cox Interior, Inc., 2010 Ky. App. Unpub. LEXIS 1008 (Ky. Ct. App. Nov. 5, 2010), aff’d, 400 S.W.3d 240, 2013 Ky. LEXIS 288 (Ky. 2013).

“Or other administrative remedy procedures” language at the end of KRS 134.590(2) is an acknowledgement that a protest pursuant to KRS 131.110 is not the only administrative remedy procedure that may be applicable in a refund situation. Indeed, the disjunctive use of the word “or” which joins “other administrative remedy procedures,” evidences an intention that all prior references in the sentence are not to be treated as conjunctive, or in steps, but in the disjunctive, and this affords the taxpayer the option to use any one and maybe all of the administrative remedies available. Dep’t of Revenue, Fin. & Admin. Cabinet v. Cox Interior, Inc., 2010 Ky. App. Unpub. LEXIS 1008 (Ky. Ct. App. Nov. 5, 2010), aff’d, 400 S.W.3d 240, 2013 Ky. LEXIS 288 (Ky. 2013).

No specific administrative protest procedures are required for a tax refund claim involving a classification issue, which may be brought within two years after payment; thus, by filing for a refund of tangible personal property tax and appealing its denial before seeking judicial review, a taxpayer properly challenged the classification and tax rate applied to manufacturing machinery without going through the expedited assessment protest procedure. Dep’t of Revenue, Fin. & Admin. Cabinet v. Cox Interior, Inc., 400 S.W.3d 240, 2013 Ky. LEXIS 288 (Ky. 2013).

15. Cabinet’s Authority.

Revenue Cabinet initiated an audit of defendant to address the failure of defendant’s earlier management to maintain exemption certificates representing that sales of thoroughbred yearlings to out-of-state buyers were not subject to sales tax, according to KRS 139.531. When defendant submitted 22 exemption certificates to the Cabinet, under the language of KRS 139.531 it did not place those sales “in controversy”—absent fraud, it disposed of the controversy. The Cabinet does not have the arbitrary authority to at any time determine that a taxpayer, who in a good faith manner began the submission of evidence, has in fact supplied a quanta of evidence insufficient to perfect a protest and place a matter “in controversy”, and thereupon issue an “Eagle Machine Letter”, (Eagle Machine Co. v. Commonwealth, 698 S.W.2d 528, 529, 1985 Ky. App. LEXIS 600 (1985)) (1) which does not advise the taxpayer of the finality of the Cabinet’s ruling; (2) which does not let the taxpayer know that no additional documentation will be accepted by the Cabinet; (3) which does not state the pertinent issues and the Cabinet’s position thereon; and, perhaps most egregiously on a practical level, (4) which does not notify the taxpayer of the procedure for undertaking an appeal to the Kentucky Board of Tax Appeals—all things required of the Cabinet by KRS 131.110(3). Commonwealth, Revenue Cabinet v. Kenington Sales, Inc., 836 S.W.2d 902, 1992 Ky. App. LEXIS 129 (Ky. Ct. App. 1992).

NOTES TO UNPUBLISHED DECISIONS

1. In General.

Unpublished decision: Department of Revenue was required to produce for inspection redacted copies of its final rulings because the production of the material a tax attorney and tax analysts sought was required by the Open Records Act; the Department's final rulings contained information related to its reasoning and analysis with respect to its task in administration of the tax laws, and that information could be made available without jeopardizing taxpayers' privacy interests under the Taxpayers' Bill of Rights. Fin. & Admin. Cabinet v. Sommer, 2017 Ky. App. LEXIS 9 (Ky. Ct. App. Jan. 13, 2017, sub. op., 2017 Ky. App. Unpub. LEXIS 624 (Ky. Ct. App. Jan. 13, 2017)).

Unpublished decision: Final rulings of the Department of Revenue must contain a general statement of the issues in controversy and the Department's position with respect to them; consequently, the substantive portions of final rulings contain a wealth of information relative to the implementation of our tax laws. Fin. & Admin. Cabinet v. Sommer, 2017 Ky. App. LEXIS 9 (Ky. Ct. App. Jan. 13, 2017, sub. op., 2017 Ky. App. Unpub. LEXIS 624 (Ky. Ct. App. Jan. 13, 2017)).

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

Letter of electric corporation attached to payment of ad valorem taxes protesting payment and asking the sheriff to sign the letter acknowledging receipt of the protest did not constitute a valid or legal protest, since such taxes are assessed by the Revenue Cabinet and thus protests of such assessments must be made to the Revenue Cabinet; therefore, the sheriff should not sign such protest. 132.010. Definitions for chapter.

As used in this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires:

- (1) "Department" means the Department of Revenue;
- (2) "Taxpayer" means any person made liable by law to file a return or pay a tax;
- (3) "Real property" includes all lands within this state and improvements thereon;
- (4) "Personal property" includes every species and character of property, tangible and intangible, other than real property;

(5) "Resident" means any person who has taken up a place of abode within this state with the intention of continuing to abide in this state; any person who has had his or her actual or habitual place of abode in this state for the larger portion of the twelve (12) months next preceding the date as of which an assessment is due to be made shall be deemed to have intended to become a resident of this state;

(6) "Compensating tax rate" means that rate which, rounded to the next higher one-tenth of one cent ($.001) per one hundred dollars ($100) of assessed value and applied to the current year's assessment of the property subject to taxation by a taxing district, excluding new property and personal property, produces an amount of revenue approximately equal to that produced in the preceding year from real property. However, in no event shall the compensating tax rate be a rate which, when applied to the total current year assessment of all classes of taxable property, produces an amount of revenue less than was produced in the preceding year from all classes of taxable property. For purposes of this subsection, "property subject to taxation" means the total fair cash value of all property subject to full local rates, less the total valuation exempted from taxation by the homestead exemption provision of the Constitution and the difference between the fair cash value and agricultural or horticultural value of agricultural or horticultural land;

(7) "Net assessment growth" means the difference between:

(a) The total valuation of property subject to taxation by the county, city, school district, or special district in the preceding year, less the total valuation exempted from taxation by the homestead exemption provision of the Constitution in the current year over that exempted in the preceding year; and

(b) The total valuation of property subject to taxation by the county, city, school district, or special district for the current year;

(8) "New property" means the net difference in taxable value between real property additions and deletions to the property tax roll for the current year. "Real property additions" shall mean:

(a) Property annexed or incorporated by a municipal corporation, or any other taxing jurisdiction; however, this definition shall not apply to property acquired through the merger or consolidation of school districts, or the transfer of property from one (1) school district to another;

(b) Property, the ownership of which has been transferred from a tax-exempt entity to a nontax-exempt entity;

(c) The value of improvements to existing non-residential property;

(d) The value of new residential improvements to property;

(e) The value of improvements to existing residential property when the improvement increases the assessed value of the property by fifty percent (50%) or more;

(f) Property created by the subdivision of unimproved property, provided, that when the property is reclassified from farm to subdivision by the property valuation administrator, the value of the property as a farm shall be a deletion from that category;

(g) Property exempt from taxation, as an inducement for industrial or business use, at the expiration of its tax exempt status;

(h) Property, the tax rate of which will change, according to the provisions of KRS 82.085, to reflect additional urban services to be provided by the taxing jurisdiction, provided, however, that the property shall be considered "real property additions" only in proportion to the additional urban services to be provided to the property over the urban services previously provided; and

(i) The value of improvements to real property previously under assessment moratorium.

"Real property deletions" shall be limited to the value of real property removed from, or reduced over the preceding year on, the property tax roll for the current year;

(9) "Agricultural land" means:

(b) Any tract of land, including all income-producing improvements, of at least five (5) contiguous acres in area commercially used for aquaculture; or

(c) Any tract of land devoted to and meeting the requirements and qualifications for payments pursuant to agriculture programs under an agreement with the state or federal government;

(10) "Horticultural land" means any tract of land, including all income-producing improvements, of at least five (5) contiguous acres in area commercially used for the cultivation of a garden, orchard, or the raising of fruits or nuts, vegetables, flowers, or ornamental plants;

(11) "Agricultural or horticultural value" means the use value of "agricultural or horticultural land" based upon income-producing capability and comparable sales of farmland purchased for farm purposes where the price is indicative of farm use value, excluding sales representing purchases for farm expansion, better accessibility, and other factors which inflate the purchase price beyond farm use value, if any, considering the following factors as they affect a taxable unit:

(a) Relative percentages of tillable land, pasture land, and woodland;

(b) Degree of productivity of the soil;

(c) Risk of flooding;

(d) Improvements to and on the land that relate to the production of income;

(e) Row crop capability including allotted crops other than tobacco;

(f) Accessibility to all-weather roads and markets; and

(g) Factors which affect the general agricultural or horticultural economy, such as: interest, price of farm products, cost of farm materials and supplies, labor, or any economic factor which would affect net farm income;

(12) "Deferred tax" means the difference in the tax based on agricultural or horticultural value and the tax based on fair cash value;

(13) "Homestead" means real property maintained as the permanent residence of the owner with all land and improvements adjoining and contiguous thereto including but not limited to lawns, drives, flower or vegetable gardens, outbuildings, and all other land connected thereto;

(14) "Residential unit" means all or that part of real property occupied as the permanent residence of the owner;

(c) “County judge/executive” means the chief executive officer of any county, consolidated local government, urban-county government, unified local government, or charter county government;

(27) “Taxing district” means any entity with the authority to levy a local ad valorem tax, including special purpose governmental entities;

(28) “Special purpose governmental entity” shall have the same meaning as in KRS 65A.010, and as used in this chapter shall include only those special purpose governmental entities with the authority to levy ad valorem taxes, and that are not specifically exempt from the provisions of this chapter by another provision of the Kentucky Revised Statutes;

(29)(a) “Broadcast” means the transmission of audio, video, or other signals, through any electronic, radio, light, or similar medium or method now in existence or later devised over the airwaves to the public in general.

(b) “Broadcast” shall not apply to operations performed by multichannel video programming service providers as defined in KRS 136.602 or any other operations that transmit audio, video, or other signals, exclusively to persons for a fee;

(30) “Livestock” means cattle, sheep, swine, goats, horses, alpacas, llamas, buffaloes, and any other animals of the bovine, ovine, porcine, caprine, equine, or camelid species;

(31) “Heavy equipment rental agreement” means the short-term rental contract under which qualified heavy equipment is rented without an operator for a period:

(a) Not to exceed three hundred sixty-five (365) days; or

(b) That is open-ended under the terms of the contract with no specified end date;

(32) “Heavy equipment rental company” means an entity that is primarily engaged in a line of business described in Code 532412 or 532310 of the North American Industry Classification System Manual in effect on January 1, 2019;

(33) “Qualified heavy equipment” means machinery and equipment, including ancillary equipment and any attachments used in conjunction with the machinery and equipment, that is:

(a) Primarily used and designed for construction, mining, forestry, or industrial purposes, including but not limited to cranes, earthmoving equipment, well-drilling machinery and equipment, lifts, material handling equipment, pumps, generators, and pollution-reducing equipment; and

(b) Held in a heavy equipment rental company’s inventory for:

1. Rental under a heavy equipment rental agreement; or
2. Sale in the regular course of business; and

(34) “Veteran service organization” means an organization wholly dedicated to advocating on behalf of military veterans and providing charitable programs in honor and on behalf of military veterans.

Legislative Research Commission Notes.

(7/14/2022). 2022 Ky. Acts ch. 212, sec. 69, provides that the amendments made to this statute shall be apply to property assessed on or after January 1, 2023.

(1/1/2014). 2013 Ky. Acts ch. 119, sec. 26, provides that the amendments to this statute in 2013 Ky. Acts ch. 119, sec. 6, shall apply to property assessed on or after January 1, 2014.

(7/15/2010). Under the authority of KRS 7.136, the Reviser of Statutes has corrected manifest clerical or typographical errors by inserting “a” before the first occurrence of “charter county government” and “the” before “legislative body” and “chief executive officer” in subsection (23) of this section.

(6/26/2007) A manifest clerical or typographical error in subsection (21)(f)2. has been corrected by the Reviser of Statutes under the authority of KRS 7.136.

(6/20/2005). 2005 Ky. Acts ch. 168, sec. 170, provided: “Subsection (18) of Section 54 of this Act, relating to property tax changes, take[s] effect January 1, 2006. Subsection (19) of Section 54 of this Act, relating to the voluntary environmental remediation credit, takes effect January 1, 2005.” Because of the order in which the subsections become effective, the Statute Reviser, under the authority of KRS 7.136, has codified subsection (18) of Section 54, relating to property tax changes, as KRS 132.010(19), and subsection (19) of Section 54, relating to the voluntary remediation credit, as KRS 132.010(18).

15. Agricultural Land.

1. Constitutionality.

Subsections (9) and (10) of this section and KRS 132.450(2)(a) do not violate the Constitution of Kentucky; dwelling houses are to be assessed at fair cash value, and the income and acreage standards to qualify for “agricultural land” or “horticultural land” are not unreasonable. Dolan v. Land, 667 S.W.2d 684, 1984 Ky. LEXIS 211 (Ky. 1984) (decided under prior law).

2. Construction.

In enacting subsection (1) of former KRS 160.477 and subsection (6) of this section in the same special session, the legislature was expressing its intention that the authorization for a levy of 50¢ should yet prevail notwithstanding the “roll-back” provisions also enacted. Mullen v. Board of Education, 440 S.W.2d 261, 1969 Ky. LEXIS 336 (Ky. 1969) (decided under prior law).

3. Property.

“Property” means everything of value that a person owns that is or may be the subject of sale or exchange or that when offered for sale will bring some price. Commonwealth ex rel. Huntsman v. Kentucky Distilleries & Warehouse Co., 143 Ky. 314, 136 S.W. 1032, 1911 Ky. LEXIS 466 (Ky. 1911) (decided under prior law).

Amounts due whiskey warehouseman for storage on whiskey against which negotiable warehouse receipts had been issued, which amounts were due when whiskey was withdrawn from warehouse, were “property” subject to taxation. Commonwealth ex rel. Huntsman v. Kentucky Distilleries &

Warehouse Co., 143 Ky. 314, 136 S.W. 1032, 1911 Ky. LEXIS 466 (Ky. 1911) (decided under prior law).

Any existing, enforceable, collectible demand that one person has against another person or against property upon which it is a lien, and out of which it can be collected, is property. Commonwealth ex rel. Huntsman v. Kentucky Distilleries & Warehouse Co., 143 Ky. 314, 136 S.W. 1032, 1911 Ky. LEXIS 466 (Ky. 1911) (decided under prior law).

In determining whether a thing is “property” within the meaning of the tax laws, the test is whether the thing has a cash value in some amount, and whether a bidder could be found who would pay a cash price, no matter how small, for it. Raydure v. Board of Sup’rs, 183 Ky. 84, 209 S.W. 19, 1919 Ky. LEXIS 469 (Ky. 1919) (decided under prior law).

4. —Real.

Where right-of-way for oil pipeline was acquired by deed granting perpetual right, rather than by lease, the right-of-way was real property, notwithstanding that grantee had right to remove line. Cumberland Pipe Line Co. v. Lewis, 17 F.2d 167, 1926 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 1652 (D. Ky. 1926) (decided under prior law).

Pipe imbedded in ground in right-of-way, and pumping machinery set in concrete rigidly attached to ground, were real property. Cumberland Pipe Line Co. v. Lewis, 17 F.2d 167, 1926 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 1652 (D. Ky. 1926) (decided under prior law).

“Real property” does not include mineral rights which the owner of the land, by lease or otherwise, has severed from the land itself. Commonwealth by Revenue Agent v. Garrett, 202 Ky. 548, 260 S.W. 379, 1924 Ky. LEXIS 766 (Ky. 1924) (decided under prior law).

Grasses, fruits and perennial crops are considered a part of the realty. Burley Tobacco Growers’ Co-op. Asso. v. Carrollton, 208 Ky. 270, 270 S.W. 749, 1925 Ky. LEXIS 268 (Ky. 1925) (decided under prior law).

The interest of the lessee in a coal mining lease is real property. Commonwealth v. Elkhorn-Piney Coal Min. Co., 241 Ky. 245, 43 S.W.2d 684, 1931 Ky. LEXIS 51 (Ky. 1931) (decided under prior law).

5. —Personal.

Annual crops are generally regarded as personalty. Burley Tobacco Growers’ Co-op. Asso. v. Carrollton, 208 Ky. 270, 270 S.W. 749, 1925 Ky. LEXIS 268 (Ky. 1925) (decided under prior law).

Poles and wires of rural electric cooperative corporation located on rights of way acquired under easement agreements are personal property. Inter-County Rural Electric Co-operative Corp. v. Reeves, 294 Ky. 458, 171 S.W.2d 978, 1943 Ky. LEXIS 446 (Ky. 1943) (decided under prior law).

Where an easement for a right-of-way across land does not subsist as an appurtenance to any interest in land owned by the person who owns the easement, and there is no dominant estate, the easement and any fixtures upon the right of way are personal property. Inter-County Rural Electric Co-operative Corp. v. Reeves, 294 Ky. 458, 171 S.W.2d 978, 1943 Ky. LEXIS 446 (Ky. 1943) (decided under prior law).

Distilled spirits are personal property within meaning of Ky. Const., §§ 171 and 172. Reeves v. Jefferson County, 245 S.W.2d 606, 1951 Ky. LEXIS 1263 (Ky. 1951) (decided under prior law).

6. —Leased.

An oil lease giving the exclusive right of development is “property” in the hands of the lessee, even though no wells have been drilled and no oil discovered in paying quantities. Raydure v. Board of Sup’rs, 183 Ky. 84, 209 S.W. 19, 1919 Ky. LEXIS 469 (Ky. 1919) (decided under prior law).

Where land was leased for 99-year term, at a nominal rental, with covenant by lessor to renew for successive 99-year terms perpetually, the leasehold was taxable against the lessee, whether considered as real or personal property, and the leasehold was not such an interest as was required to be listed by the owner of the fee under KRS 132.220. Purcell v. Lexington, 186 Ky. 381, 216 S.W. 599, 1919 Ky. LEXIS 226 (Ky. 1919), writ of error dismissed, 253 U.S. 476, 40 S. Ct. 583, 64 L. Ed. 1021, 1920 U.S. LEXIS 1430 (U.S. 1920).

Ordinarily, the value of the interest of the lessee in a lease of real estate is not taxable, the owner of the real estate being required to pay taxes on all interests connected with the real estate. Purcell v. Lexington, 186 Ky. 381, 216 S.W. 599, 1919 Ky. LEXIS 226 (Ky. 1919), writ of error dismissed, 253 U.S. 476, 40 S. Ct. 583, 64 L. Ed. 1021, 1920 U.S. LEXIS 1430 (U.S. 1920).

Where the owner is a municipality or for some other reason is not required to pay taxes on the fee, the interest of the lessee is taxable. Purcell v. Lexington, 186 Ky. 381, 216 S.W. 599, 1919 Ky. LEXIS 226 (Ky. 1919), writ of error dismissed, 253 U.S. 476, 40 S. Ct. 583, 64 L. Ed. 1021, 1920 U.S. LEXIS 1430 (U.S. 1920).

7. Resident.

Where a mental incompetent who had been a resident of Kentucky prior to being declared incompetent was sent by his committee to an asylum in another state for care and treatment, his residence for the purpose of taxation remained in Kentucky. Sumrall's Committee v. Commonwealth, 162 Ky. 658, 172 S.W. 1057, 1915 Ky. LEXIS 129 (Ky. 1915) (decided under prior law).

The fact that an individual purchased the controlling interest in a Kentucky corporation doing business in Louisville, maintained a personal checking account in a Louisville bank, and took a year's lease on an apartment in Louisville, did not constitute him a resident of Kentucky for the purpose of taxation, where the purchase of the corporation was for speculative purposes only, the banking account and apartment were used only for his convenience during trips to Louisville, and he spent the greater portion of his time in Texas, where he had a permanent dwelling and which he always claimed as his home. Semple v. Commonwealth, 181 Ky. 675, 205 S.W. 789, 1918 Ky. LEXIS 601 (Ky. 1918) (decided under prior law).

The fact that a person who was originally a resident of Tennessee bought a farm in Kentucky, improved and furnished the house on the farm and resided there a substantial portion of his time, personally managed the farm, kept a bank account in a Kentucky bank and occasionally referred to the farm as his "home," did not fix his legal residence in Kentucky, where he continued to maintain a home for his mother, brothers and sisters in Tennessee, where he kept his personal belongings, participated in church and lodge affairs in Tennessee, purchased a family cemetery lot there, and always claimed to be a resident of Tennessee. Millett's Ex'r v. Commonwealth, 184 Ky. 193, 211 S.W. 562, 1919 Ky. LEXIS 39 (Ky. 1919) (decided under prior law).

A person may have more than one actual residence but he can have but one domicile or legal residence. The place where a person is born is his legal residence until he establishes another by choice, and when a legal residence has been established by choice it continues indefinitely until he establishes a new one, which may be done by actual residence and intention. Millett's Ex'r v. Commonwealth, 184 Ky. 193, 211 S.W. 562, 1919 Ky. LEXIS 39 (Ky. 1919) (decided under prior law).

The question of residence is one of fact and intention. The fact of actual residence joined with the intention fixes legal residence. But the fact is more powerful than the intention, for intention may be inferred from the fact, whereas the fact cannot be shown by or inferred from intention. Where one's residence is shown by his conduct to be in one place, his expressed intention that it shall be in another will not control. Pettit's Ex'r v. Lexington, 193 Ky. 679, 237 S.W. 391, 1922 Ky. LEXIS 64 (Ky. 1922) (decided under prior law).

Where taxpayer maintained a permanent dwelling for himself and family in Lexington, his legal residence was there, although he owned a farm in the county where he spent part of the time each summer, reserved rooms in the farm house in leasing it, voted in the county rather than in the city, and publicly declared that his residence was in the county. Pettit's Ex'r v. Lexington, 193 Ky. 679, 237 S.W. 391, 1922 Ky. LEXIS 64 (Ky. 1922) (decided under prior law).

Where person resided part of time each year in Florida, where he paid personal property taxes and was a registered voter, and resided balance of time in Kentucky, he was not taxable as a Kentucky resident in absence of proof that during years tax was sought to be imposed he resided in Kentucky more than six months. Utz v. Wallace's Adm'x, 249 Ky. 296, 60 S.W.2d 614, 1933 Ky. LEXIS 510 (Ky. 1933) (decided under prior law).

8. —Change.

Where resident of Kentucky announced his intention to move to Texas and make his home there, and left Kentucky for that purpose a few days before the date as of which property is assessed in Kentucky, but did not reach Texas until several days after such date, he was a legal resident of Kentucky on the assessment date, his Texas residence not becoming effective until he reached that state. Boyd's Ex'r v. Commonwealth, 149 Ky. 764, 149 S.W. 1022, 1912 Ky. LEXIS 716 (Ky. 1912) (decided under prior law).

In order to change residence there must be an intention to make the change and the taking up of an actual abode at the place selected as the new domicile. Boyd's Ex'r v. Commonwealth, 149 Ky. 764, 149 S.W. 1022, 1912 Ky. LEXIS 716 (Ky. 1912) (decided under prior law).

The committee of an incompetent has no power to change the legal residence of the incompetent from one state to another, although it may change his local residence. Sumrall's Committee v. Commonwealth, 162 Ky. 658, 172 S.W. 1057, 1915 Ky. LEXIS 129 (Ky. 1915) (decided under prior law).

The fact that the purpose of a taxpayer in changing his residence is to avoid taxation does not affect the validity of the change. Covington v. Shinkle, 175 Ky. 530, 194 S.W. 766, 1917 Ky. LEXIS 351 (Ky. 1917) (decided under prior law).

9. —Declared Intention.

The declared intention of a person as to his residence will control unless his acts or conduct are inconsistent therewith. Semple v. Commonwealth, 181 Ky. 675, 205 S.W. 789, 1918 Ky. LEXIS 601 (Ky. 1918) (decided under prior law).

10. —Summer Home.

Where taxpayer owned home in city of Covington, farm in Kenton County, and summer home in Rhode Island, and divided his time between those places and Florida, it was held that his legal residence was at the farm in Kenton County, based on his repeated declarations, voting, and tax listing, although he had a business office in Covington and in one or two deeds was described as a resident of Covington. Covington v. Shinkle, 175 Ky. 530, 194 S.W. 766, 1917 Ky. LEXIS 351 (Ky. 1917) (decided under prior law).

11. Compensating Tax Rate.

Where the legislation established a maximum of 50¢ and the district had obtained a 50¢ authorization by a 1953 election, the effect of the 1965 "roll back" legislation was to reduce that authorization from 50¢ to 13.8¢ leaving the school board with an unused authorization of 36.2¢. Mullen v. Board of Education, 440 S.W.2d 261, 1969 Ky. LEXIS 336 (Ky. 1969) (decided under prior law).

The special school tax election was proper as being within the unused statutory authorization for the special tax where 13.8¢ already being levied and the 15¢ to be levied still fell short of the 50¢ statutory maximum. Mullen v. Board of

12. Roll Back.

Although the “roll back” prevented the governmental body from levying a greatly increased tax by application of an old voted rate to greatly increased assessments, the voters possessed power to impose upon themselves an additional tax, levied pursuant to current assessments so long as the rate of the combined voted taxes did not exceed the statutorily permitted limit of 50¢ per $100. Mullen v. Board of Education, 440 S.W.2d 261, 1969 Ky. LEXIS 336 (Ky. 1969) (decided under prior law).

A tax voted in 1968 after enactment of the “roll back” provision, was not subject to being “rolled back.” Mullen v. Board of Education, 440 S.W.2d 261, 1969 Ky. LEXIS 336 (Ky. 1969) (decided under prior law).

The roll-back provisions of this chapter apply to tax levies to maintain public libraries. Under this chapter, a taxing district’s revenue from ad valorem taxes is limited; this chapter has the effect of rolling back the tax rate to maintain a constant revenue. Taxes levied to support a library created under KRS 173.310 or KRS 173.450 would have to comply with this chapter; however, where the library is not maintained by a tax levy, but by appropriation of funds from the local government, KRS 173.310 does not mandate a levy to maintain libraries created under that section. Lexington-Fayette Urban County Government v. Hayse, 684 S.W.2d 301, 1984 Ky. App. LEXIS 586 (Ky. Ct. App. 1984) (decided under prior law).

13. Royalties.

Royalties due owner of real estate from oil lease were taxable, as against contention that the value of the royalty interest could not be separately assessed from the land itself. Commonwealth by Revenue Agent v. Garrett, 202 Ky. 548, 260 S.W. 379, 1924 Ky. LEXIS 766 (Ky. 1924) (decided under prior law).

14. Notice.

Where the new property valuation administrator had attempted to reassess, upward, property valuations, but had only sent notices to about 40 percent of the affected property owners, but where some owners had actual notice and had appealed their valuations, the proper remedy would be to allow the increase as to those owners who had notice or had actual notice and appealed, subject to the outcome of those appeals, and to void the increases as to those property owners without notice and who had not appealed their reassessments. Layson v. Brady, 576 S.W.2d 223, 1978 Ky. App. LEXIS 651 (Ky. Ct. App. 1978) (decided under prior law).

15. Agricultural Land.

Housing located on farm property occupied by a nonowner and used in income-producing activity of the farm as dwellings for tenant farmers and farm workers is not a “residential unit”; such dwellings are “income-producing improvements” and a part of the agricultural land for ad valorem assessment purposes. Dolan v. Land, 667 S.W.2d 684, 1984 Ky. LEXIS 211 (Ky. 1984) (decided under prior law).

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

A soldier stationed in Kentucky did not acquire residence in the state for purposes of taxation by reason of being stationed there until he acted affirmatively to make the state his permanent residence. OAG 61-354.

A watershed conservancy district which is comprised of parts of four (4) counties is a “taxing district” within the meaning of this section and must make a determination of one uniform standard tax rate to be applied against all of the real property within the district. OAG 66-386.

For the 1966 assessment, all of the property in the city, including merchants’ inventories, is subjected to the city tax rate but the rate must be computed so that the amount of total revenue produced in 1966 will be no more than that produced in 1965 plus a ten per cent (10%) increase. OAG 67-13.

Tax rate for tangible personal property cannot be separated for rates from all other property subject to ad valorem property taxes in the city; the same rate must be applied to such property as is applied to real property in the city. OAG 67-101.

A city which did not levy a public works cumulative reserve fund in 1965 could do so in a later year by allocating or earmarking a portion of its overall compensating tax rate for that purpose. OAG 67-351.

Where a fire protection district came into existence after the roll-back provisions on tax rates and budgets, the tax rate could be computed on the current assessed value of property in the district. OAG 68-244.

Where after the rollback a library district did not have sufficient funds to operate, under KRS 173.610 a petition could be filed putting the question of an increased tax levy to a vote of the people, and if the vote was affirmative the tax could be raised to exceed the roll-back rate. OAG 68-606.

The compensating tax rate provisions of this section apply to the assessed value of automobiles in the city as it does to all other property subject to ad valorem tax. OAG 68-610.

Each year the library district tax rate must be so adjusted, assuming a change in assessment valuation, in connection with the current property assessment, that the amount of revenue produced in the particular tax year is approximately equal to that produced in 1965. OAG 69-330.

An area planning commission could not levy a tax rate which exceeded the compensating tax rate defined in KRS 132.010. OAG 69-532.

The property valuation administrator may, under the direction and supervision of the Department of Revenue, keep a record of the property of public utility corporations, but this does not constitute an assessment. OAG 71-249.

Where a city failed to include or omitted in its 1965 property assessment a class of personal property, it could not for a subsequent year assess such personal property and not include the property value in arriving at the compensating tax rate as defined in this section. OAG 71-395.

A city may increase its general fund tax rate to offset a revenue loss occasioned by property being exempted from property tax by the homestead exemption amendment to Ky. Const., § 170. OAG 71-537.

The rollback provision of subsection (6) of this section applies to a proposed five cent ($0.05) levy on property in a fourth-class city under KRS 97.590 for the purpose of purchasing and maintaining a public park in the city limits. OAG 72-193.

Under the terms of this section and KRS 132.425 (repealed), it is clear that the legislature intended to guarantee to the taxing districts and authorities a level of tax revenue approximately equal to that produced in 1971, excluding net assessment growth. OAG 72-726.

After a city has sufficient revenue in a sinking fund bonds for which a specific tax has been levied, the city would then be bound by subsection (6) of this section and KRS 132.027 with respect to the tax rate which could be applied for general municipal purposes and it would be a violation of KRS 92.330 and 92.340 to continue to levy the specific tax and divert it to general municipal purposes. OAG 74-368.

Once funding bonds have been paid off, levy must be discontinued. OAG 75-162.

The 65-year-old or older owner-occupant of a mobile home, which is a single-unit residence, placed on a rented lot is entitled to the homestead exemption if the mobile home qualifies as real property under KRS 132.750 (now repealed) by resting on a permanent fixed foundation and having the wheels or mobile parts removed. OAG 75-264.

This section, which sets out the compensating tax rate, is locked in as of 1972, since it does not provide for a "compensating tax rate" for any year subsequent to 1972, and therefore the city may not raise its tax rate as a result of the decline in value of stored whiskey which is stored in the city. OAG 75-433.

Even though "net assessment growth," as defined in KRS 132.425 (repealed), refers only to the county or a school district, this section encompasses a taxing district and KRS 132.023 and 132.027 clearly show that KRS 132.425 (repealed) is by reference made applicable to cities so that any city which levied a poll tax in 1973 may adjust its compensating tax rate to reflect the loss in poll tax revenue. OAG 75-544.

On the basis of subsection (6) of this section, cities presumably have the authority to reduce their tax rates for the following school year and increase it in a subsequent year so long as the increased rate does not go above the compensating tax rate established in 1972. OAG 75-677.

Where a third-class city operates jointly with the county a system of parks under a city-county parks and recreation board, under KRS 97.080 (repealed) such a city may provide funds for park and recreation purposes controlled by the revenue limitations set out in KRS 132.027 and this section. OAG 76-85.

A county conservation district, which assists individual landowners with the development and implementation of a resource conservation plan for a unit of land, is required to allow Department of Revenue representatives access to individual resource conservation plans upon request on a confidential basis. OAG 76-272.

There would not be a substantial increase in revenue from real estate tax simply by increasing the assessed value of property in a city. OAG 79-90.

Insofar as they are used in KRS 132.023 and KRS 132.027, as amended by Acts 1979 (Ex. Sess.), ch. 25, for those governmental units operating on a calendar basis: (1) "... a tax rate for 1979-80 ..." means that unit's tax rate for the 1980 calendar year; (2) "... application of the maximum tax rate that could have been levied in 1978-79 ..." means the unit's compensating tax rate for the 1979 calendar year, calculated in accordance with KRS 132.010(6) as it read prior to February 13, 1979; and (3) "... the 1978-79 assessment" means the unit's assessment as of January 1, 1979, assuming that the unit's assessment date is January 1. OAG 79-217.

KRS 132.023(1)(a) and (2) (now (2)(a) and (3)) makes the compensating tax rate provisions of subsection (6) of this section apply specifically to public health taxing districts. OAG 79-344.

This section and KRS 132.023 apply to the tax rate to be set by a county hospital board for setting a tax rate for 1979-1980 and thereafter. OAG 79-422.

The compensating tax rate would be computed on the rate passed by the voters of a county library district, whatever that rate may be for the previous year. OAG 79-597.

A special tax assessment to pay a tort judgment can be levied by a city where the city has levied its statutory maximum assessment pursuant to this chapter, under the basic principle that to hold otherwise would permit cities to take advantage of their own negligence by depriving a person who has been injured of all effective remedies. OAG 80-253.

Because the clear and unambiguous intent of the general assembly was to place a ceiling upon real property tax rates while specifically exempting personal property tax rates, the unavoidable conclusion is that the county fiscal court may establish two separate tax rates—one for real property and one for personal property. OAG 80-545.

If the city governing body proposes to impose the same tax rate for the succeeding year as the preceding year but due to increased assessments more than four percent (4%) revenue is produced in the succeeding year than had been produced in the preceding year, that portion of the tax rate which causes a breach in the four percent (4%) ceiling is subject to recall. OAG 80-558.

If the proposed county tax rate used to fund emergency ambulance service is more than four percent (4%) over the amount of revenue produced by the compensating tax rate, as defined in this section, a recall vote or reconsideration by the county voters, as provided in KRS 132.017, shall be advertised as directed in KRS 68.245(6)(b); however, upon a recall petition being filed, the fiscal court may cancel an election on the question of exceeding four percent (4%) over the compensating tax rate by simply reducing the tax rate so as not to exceed four percent (4%). OAG 81-344.

Where a court decision greatly increased a 1981 city tax assessment so that the application of 1980 tax rates would result in a tax revenue increase greater than four percent (4%) over the previous year, the city must comply with the recall vote or reconsideration provisions of KRS 132.027, since an assessment increase resulting from a court decision is not the type of increase contemplated in the definition of "net assessment growth" under subsection (7) of this section and the resulting revenue cannot, therefore, be excluded under subdivision (1)(b) of KRS 132.027. OAG 81-425 (Opinion prior to 1990 amendment).

Acts 1979 (Ex. Sess.), ch. 25, which limits a county's increase in property taxes, does not limit in effect the public health district tax which is levied by a county pursuant to either KRS 212.725 or 212.755. OAG 82-151.

This section and KRS 132.750 (now repealed) concerning the treatment of mobile homes as real estate do not abrogate the requirement that in order for tangible personal property to become an improvement to the land it must be attached to or built upon the soil. In the case of mobile homes, this occurs when the utilities are connected or when some other relatively permanent attachment to the land is formed. The amendments of former KRS 132.750 are intended to allow, and effectuate the purpose of allowing, similar tax treatment for similarly situated mobile homes regardless of vestigial differences between them. OAG 82-584.

The recall provisions of KRS 68.245(6) are only triggered when a real property tax rate exceeds, by more than four percent, the compensating tax rate as defined in KRS 132.010(6). In calculating the compensating tax rate, personal property must be included when applying a rate to "all classes of taxable property" to determine whether use of a substitute rate is required by KRS 132.010(6). OAG 10-005.

132.017. Recall petition — Requirements and procedures — Reconsideration — Election — Tax dollars not to be used to advocate for or against public question — Second billing.

(1) As used in this section, "local governmental entity" includes a county fiscal court and legislative body of a city, urban-county government, consolidated local government, charter county government, unified local government, or other taxing district.

(2)(a)1. Except as provided in subparagraph 2. of this paragraph, the portion of a tax rate levied by an ordinance, order, resolution, or motion of a local governmental entity or district board of education subject to recall as provided for in KRS 68.245, 132.023, 132.027, and 160.470, shall go into effect forty-five (45) days after its passage.

2. When a tax rate is levied by a district board of education or other taxing district that is primarily located in a county containing an urban-county government or a consolidated local government, the portion of a tax rate levied by an ordinance, order, resolution, or motion of a district board of education or other taxing district subject to recall as provided for in KRS 68.245, 132.023, 132.027, and 160.470, shall go into effect fifty (50) days after its passage.

(b) During the same forty-five (45) day or fifty (50) day time period provided by paragraph (a) of this subsection, any five (5) qualified voters, who reside in the area where the tax levy will be imposed, may commence petition proceedings to protest the passage of the ordinance, order, resolution, or motion by filing an affidavit with the county clerk. The affidavit shall state:

1. The five (5) qualified voters constitute the members of the petition committee;

2. The petition committee will be responsible for circulating the petition;

3. The petition committee will file the petition in the proper form within the same forty-five (45) day or fifty (50) day time period provided by paragraph (a) of this subsection;

4. The names and addresses of the petition committee members;

5. The address to which all notices to the committee are to be sent; and

6. For petition committees filing petitions in response to a tax rate levied by a district board of education or other taxing district that is primarily located in a county containing an urban-county government or a consolidated local government, whether or not the petition committee is willing to incur all of the expenses associated with electronic petition signatures. If the petition committee is not willing to incur all of the expenses, then electronic petition signatures shall not be allowed for the petition.

(c) Upon receipt of the affidavit, the county clerk shall immediately:

1. Notify the petition committee of all statutory requirements for the filing of a valid petition under this section;

2. Notify the petition committee that the clerk will publish a notice identifying the tax levy being challenged and providing the names and addresses of the petition committee in a newspaper of general circulation within the county, if:
 - a. There is a newspaper within the county in which to publish the notice; and
 - b. The petition committee remits an amount equal to the cost of publishing the notice determined in accordance with the provisions of KRS 424.160 at the time of the filing of the affidavit.

If the petition committee elects to have the notice published, the clerk shall publish the notice within five (5) days of receipt of the affidavit; and

3. Deliver a copy of the affidavit to the appropriate local governmental entity or district board of education.

(d) The petition shall be filed with the county clerk within the same forty-five (45) day or fifty (50) day time period provided by paragraph (a) of this subsection and meet the following requirements:

1. All papers of the petition shall be substantially uniform in size and style and shall be assembled in one (1) instrument for filing;

2. For a district board of education or other taxing district that is primarily located in a county containing an urban-county government or a consolidated local government, each sheet of the petition may contain the names of voters from more than one (1) voting precinct, and for a district board of education or other taxing district that is not primarily located in a county containing an urban-county government or a consolidated local government, each sheet of the petition shall contain the names of voters from one (1) voting precinct;

3. Each nonelectronic petition signature shall be executed in ink or indelible pencil;

4. Each electronic petition signature shall comply with the requirements of the Uniform Electronic Transactions Act, KRS 369.101 to 369.120;

5. Each electronic and nonelectronic petition signature shall be followed by the printed name, street address, Social Security number or birth month, and the name and number of the designated voting precinct of the person signing; and

- 6.a. The petition shall be signed by a number of registered and qualified voters residing in the affected jurisdiction equal to at least ten percent (10%) of the total number of votes cast in the last preceding presidential election.

- b. Electronic petition signatures shall be included in determining whether the required number of petition signatures has been obtained when the expenses associated with the electronic petition signatures have been incurred in accordance with paragraph (b)6. of this subsection, the electronic petition signatures comply with the requirements of this subsection, and the petition was filed in response to a tax rate levied by a district board of education or other taxing district that is primarily located in a county containing an urban-county government or a consolidated local government. The inclusion of an invalid electronic or nonelectronic petition signature on a page shall not invalidate the entire page of the petition, but shall instead result in the invalid petition signature being stricken and not counted.

- c. Notwithstanding subdivision a. of this subparagraph if a petition is filed in response to a tax rate levied by a district board of education, the petition shall be signed by at least five thousand (5,000) registered and qualified voters residing in the affected jurisdiction, or signed by a number of registered and qualified voters residing in the affected jurisdiction equal to at least ten percent (10%) of the total number of votes cast in the last preceding presidential election, whichever is less.

- (e) Upon the filing of the petition with the county clerk, the ordinance, order, resolution, or motion shall be suspended from going into effect until after the election referred to in subsection (3) of this section is held, or until the petition is finally determined to be insufficient and no further action may be taken pursuant to paragraph (i) of this subsection.

- (f) The county clerk shall immediately notify the presiding officer of the appropriate local governmental entity or district board of education that the petition has been received and shall, within thirty (30) days of the receipt of the petition, make a determination of whether the petition contains enough signatures of qualified voters to place the ordinance, order, resolution, or motion before the voters.

- (g) If the county clerk finds the petition to be sufficient, the clerk shall certify to the petition committee and the local governmental entity or district board of education within the thirty (30) day period provided for in paragraph (f) of this subsection that the petition is properly presented and in compliance with the provisions of this section, and that the ordinance, order, resolution, or motion levying the tax will be placed before the voters for approval.

- (h) If the county clerk finds the petition to be insufficient, the clerk shall, within the thirty (30) day period provided for in paragraph (f) of this subsection, notify, in writing, the petition committee and the local governmental entity or district board of education of the specific deficiencies found. Notification shall be sent by certified mail and shall be published at least one (1) time in a newspaper of general circulation within the county containing the local governmental entity or district board of education levying the tax. If there is not a newspaper within the county in which to publish the notification, then the notification shall be posted at the courthouse door.

- (i) A final determination of the sufficiency of a petition shall be subject to final review by the Circuit Court of the county in which the local governmental entity or district board of education is located, and shall be limited to the validity of the county clerk's determination. Any petition challenging the county clerk's final determination shall be filed within ten (10) days of the issuance of the clerk's final determination.

(j) The local governmental entity or district board of education may cause the cancellation of the election by reconsidering and amending the ordinance, order, resolution, or motion to levy a tax rate which will produce no more revenue from real property, exclusive of revenue from new property as defined in KRS 132.010, than four percent (4%) over the amount of revenue produced by the compensating tax rate defined in KRS 132.010 from real property. The action by the local governmental entity or district board of education shall be valid only if taken within fifteen (15) days following the date the clerk finds the petition to be sufficient.

(3)(a) If an election is necessary under the provisions of subsection (2) of this section, the local governmental entity shall cause to be submitted to the voters of the district at the next regular election, the question as to whether the property tax rate shall be levied. The question shall be submitted to the county clerk not later than the second Tuesday in August preceding the regular election.

(b) If an election is necessary for a school district under the provisions of subsection (2) of this section, the district board of education may cause to be submitted to the voters of the district in a called common school election not less than thirty-five (35) days nor more than forty-five (45) days from the date the signatures on the petition are validated by the county clerk, or at the next regular election, at the option of the district board of education, the question as to whether the property tax rate shall be levied. If the election is held in conjunction with a regular election, the question shall be submitted to the county clerk not later than the second Tuesday in August preceding the regular election. The cost of a called common school election shall be borne by the school district holding the election. Any called common school election shall comply with the provisions of KRS 118.025.

(c) In an election held under paragraph (a) or (b) of this subsection, the question shall be so framed that the voter may by his or her vote answer "for" or "against." If a majority of the votes cast upon the question oppose its passage, the ordinance, order, resolution, or motion shall not go into effect. If a majority of the votes cast upon the question favor its passage, the ordinance, order, resolution, or motion shall become effective.

(d) If the ordinance, order, resolution, or motion fails to pass pursuant to an election held under paragraph (a) or (b) of this subsection, the property tax rate which will produce four percent (4%) more revenues from real property, exclusive of revenue from new property as defined in KRS 132.010, than the amount of revenue produced by the compensating tax rate defined in KRS 132.010, shall be levied without further approval by the local governmental entity or district board of education.

(e) Local, state, and federal tax dollars shall not be used to advocate, in partial terms, for or against any public question that appears on the ballot in this subsection. For purposes of this section, "local" means and includes any city, county, urban-county government, consolidated local government, unified local government, charter county, or special district.

(4) Notwithstanding any statutory provision to the contrary, if a local governmental entity or district board of education has not established a final tax rate as of September 15, due to the recall provisions of this section, KRS 68.245, 132.027, or 160.470, regular tax bills shall be prepared as required in KRS 133.220 for all districts having a tax rate established by that date; and a second set of bills shall be prepared and collected in the regular manner, according to the provisions of KRS Chapter 132, upon establishment of final tax rates by the remaining districts.

(5) If a second billing is necessary, the collection period shall be extended to conform with the second billing date.

(6) All costs associated with the second billing shall be paid by the taxing district or districts requiring the second billing.

Legislative Research Commission Notes.

(6/29/2021). This statute was amended by 2021 Ky. Acts chs. 149 and 197, which do not appear to be in conflict and have been codified together.

(6/20/2005). 2005 Ky. Acts ch. 121, § 6, provides: "The provisions of this Act shall apply to ordinances, orders, resolutions or motions passed after July 15, 2005."

(7/13/90) The Act amending this section prevails over the repeal and reenactment in House Bill 940, Acts Ch. 476, pursuant to Section 653(1) of Acts Ch. 476.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Analysis

1. Timeliness.
2. Sufficiency of Recall Petition.

1. Timeliness.

As to the timing of filing tax protest petitions, because KRS 132.017(1)(a) specifically governs the levy and assessment of property taxes, it controls over the general statute in KRS 118.365(7), concerning the conduct of elections; therefore, the trial court correctly determined that the taxpayers had 45 days in which to file their recall petition, and that the petition was valid and timely filed even though it did not specify "that portion" of the rate subject to recall. Daviess County Pub. Library Taxing Dist. v. Boswell, 185 S.W.3d 651, 2005 Ky. App. LEXIS 263 (Ky. Ct. App. 2005).

2. Sufficiency of Recall Petition.

Circuit court erred in granting summary judgment to a board of education and declaring that the county clerk erred in certifying a tax recall petition because "petition committee" was merely a convenient way to refer to the individuals who initiated the petition and did not deprive them of standing, although there were technical flaws, given the liberal construction afforded to statutes, the petition substantially complied with the statutory requirements, and the county clerk properly determined that because the committee did not request publication of notice, none was required. Petition Comm. v. Bd. of Educ., 509 S.W.3d 58, 2016 Ky. App. LEXIS 109 (Ky. Ct. App. 2016).

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

Insofar as they are used in KRS 132.023 and KRS 132.027, as amended by Acts 1979 (Ex. Sess.), ch. 25, for those governmental units operating on a calendar basis: (1) “... a tax rate for 1979-80 ...” means that unit’s tax rate for the 1980 calendar year; (2) “... application of the maximum tax rate that could have been levied in 1978-79 ...” means the unit’s compensating tax rate for the 1979 calendar year, calculated in accordance with subsection (6) of this section as it read prior to February 13, 1979; and (3) “... the 1978-79 assessment” means the unit’s assessment as of January 1, 1979, assuming that the unit’s assessment date is January 1. OAG 79-217.

Under the literal language of KRS 133.220, when read together with this section, a county clerk was not required to wait until the library board established a final tax rate in order to get out the tax bills in the regular way envisioned by KRS 133.220 but should make up the tax bills, based upon the already established tax rates relating to the state, county, school and other taxing districts, and place the bills with the sheriff; in connection with the library district tax levy, which had not been established because of the recall provisions, a second set of bills must be prepared in the regular manner upon the establishment of the final tax rate by any remaining districts and all costs associated with the second billing must be paid by the taxing district or districts requiring the second billing. OAG 80-503.

If the proposed county tax rate used to fund emergency ambulance service is more than four percent over the amount of revenue produced by the compensating tax rate as defined in KRS 132.010, a recall vote or reconsideration by the county voters, as provided in this section, shall be advertised as directed in subsection (6)(b) of KRS 68.245; however, upon a recall petition being filed, the fiscal court may cancel an election on the question of exceeding four percent over the compensating tax rate by simply reducing the tax rate so as not to exceed four percent. OAG 81-344.

Even though, due to a delay in certifying the county assessment, the advertising and hearing requirements necessary to levying a school district’s tax rate would not be completed 45 days before the date of the next regular election, the school district, of its own volition, could waive the petition and place the question on the ballot. OAG 82-485.

If a Board of Education desires to increase the rate of tax levied pursuant to KRS 160.477 (now repealed), it must comply with the terms of KRS 160.470. This provides for hearings and in certain cases makes the setting of the rate subject to a recall vote or reconsideration as provided for in this section. OAG 83-201.

132.018. Reduction of tax rate on personal property.

(1) If the tax rate applicable to real property levied by a county fiscal court, district board of education, or legislative body of a city, consolidated local government, urban-county government, or other taxing district is reduced as a result of reconsideration by the county fiscal court, district board of education, or legislative body of a city, consolidated local government, urban-county government, or other taxing district under the provisions of KRS 132.017(2)(j), the tax rate applicable to personal property levied under the provisions of KRS 68.248(1), 132.024(1), 132.029(1), and 160.473(1) shall be reduced by the respective county fiscal court, district board of education, or legislative body of a city, consolidated local government, urban-county government, or other taxing district to an amount which will produce the same percentage increase in revenue from personal property as the percentage increase in revenue from real property resulting from the reduced tax rate applicable to real property.

(2) If the tax rate applicable to real property levied by a county fiscal court, district board of education, or legislative body of a city, consolidated local government, urban-county government, or other taxing district is reduced, under the provisions of KRS 132.017(3), as a result of a majority of votes cast in an election being opposed to such a rate, the tax rate applicable to personal property levied by the respective county fiscal court, district board of education, or legislative body of a city, consolidated local government, urban-county government, or other taxing district shall be reduced, without further action by the levying body, to an amount which will produce the same percentage increase in revenue from personal property as the percentage increase in revenue from real property resulting from the reduced tax rate applicable to real property.

Legislative Research Commission Notes.

(6/20/2005). 2005 Ky. Acts ch. 121, § 6, provides: “The provisions of this Act shall apply to ordinances, orders, resolutions or motions passed after July 15, 2005.”

(6/20/2005). The paragraph in KRS 132.017(2) that is referred to in subsection (1) of this section has been changed in codification by the Reviser of Statutes under the authority of KRS 7.136 to reflect the correct lettering of paragraphs in 2005 Ky. Acts ch. 121, § 1, subsec. (2).

132.020. State ad valorem taxes.

(1) The owner or person assessed shall pay an annual ad valorem tax for state purposes at the rate of:

(a) Thirty-one and one-half cents ($0.315) upon each one hundred dollars ($100) of value of all real property directed to be assessed for taxation;

(b) Twenty-five cents ($0.25) upon each one hundred dollars ($100) of value of all motor vehicles qualifying for permanent registration as historic motor vehicles under KRS 186.043;

(c) Fifteen cents ($0.15) upon each one hundred dollars ($100) of value of all:

1. Machinery actually engaged in manufacturing;

2. Commercial radio and television equipment used to receive, capture, produce, edit, enhance, modify, process, store, convey, or transmit audio or video content or electronic signals which are broadcast over the air to an antenna, including radio and television towers used to transmit or facilitate the transmission of the signal broadcast and equipment used to gather or transmit weather information, but excluding telephone and cellular communication towers; and

3. Tangible personal property which has been certified as a pollution control facility as defined in KRS 224.1-300. In the case of tangible personal property certified as a pollution control facility which is incorporated into a landfill facility, the tangible personal property shall be presumed to remain tangible personal property for purposes of this paragraph if the tangible personal property is being used for its intended purposes;

(d) Ten cents ($0.10) upon each one hundred dollars ($100) of value on the operating property of railroads or railway companies that operate solely within the Commonwealth;

(e) Five cents ($0.05) upon each one hundred dollars ($100) of value of goods held for sale in the regular course of business, which includes:

1. Machinery and equipment held in a retailer's inventory for sale or lease originating under a floor plan financing arrangement;

2. Motor vehicles:

a. Held for sale in the inventory of a licensed motor vehicle dealer, including licensed motor vehicle auction dealers, which are not currently titled and registered in Kentucky and are held on an assignment pursuant to KRS 186A.230; or

b. That are in the possession of a licensed motor vehicle dealer, including licensed motor vehicle auction dealers, for sale, although ownership has not been transferred to the dealer;

3. Raw materials, which includes distilled spirits and distilled spirits inventory;

4. In-process materials, which includes distilled spirits and distilled spirits inventory, held for incorporation in finished goods held for sale in the regular course of business; and

5. Qualified heavy equipment;

(f) One and one-half cents ($0.015) upon each one hundred dollars ($100) of value of all:

1. Privately owned leasehold interests in industrial buildings, as defined under KRS 103.200, owned and financed by a tax-exempt governmental unit, or tax-exempt statutory authority under the provisions of KRS Chapter 103, upon the prior approval of the Kentucky Economic Development Finance Authority, except that the rate shall not apply to the proportion of value of the leasehold interest created through any private financing;

2. Qualifying voluntary environmental remediation property, provided the property owner has corrected the effect of all known releases of hazardous substances, pollutants, contaminants, petroleum, or petroleum products located on the property consistent with a corrective action plan approved by the Energy and Environment Cabinet pursuant to KRS 224.1-400, 224.1-405, or 224.60-135, and provided the cleanup was not financed through a public grant or the petroleum storage tank environmental assurance fund. This rate shall apply for a period of three(3) years following the Energy and Environment Cabinet's issuance of a No Further Action Letter or its equivalent, after which the regular tax rate shall apply;

3. Tobacco directed to be assessed for taxation;

4. Unmanufactured agricultural products;

5. Aircraft not used in the business of transporting persons or property for compensation or hire;

6. Federally documented vessels not used in the business of transporting persons or property for compensation or hire, or for other commercial purposes; and

7. Privately owned leasehold interests in residential property described in KRS 132.195(2)(g);

(g) One-tenth of one cent ($0.001) upon each one hundred dollars ($100) of value of all:

1. Farm implements and farm machinery owned by or leased to a person actually engaged in farming and used in his farm operations;

2. Livestock and domestic fowl;

3. Tangible personal property located in a foreign trade zone established pursuant to 19 U.S.C. sec. 81, provided that the zone is activated in accordance with the regulations of the United States Customs Service and the Foreign Trade Zones Board; and

4. Property which has been certified as an alcohol production facility as defined in KRS 247.910, or as a fluidized bed energy production facility as defined in KRS 211.390; and

(h) Forty-five cents ($0.45) upon each one hundred dollars ($100) of value of all other property directed to be assessed for taxation shall be paid by the owner or person assessed, except as provided in KRS 132.030, 132.200, 136.300, and 136.320, providing a different tax rate for particular property.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1)(a) of this section, the state tax rate on real property shall be reduced to compensate for any increase in the aggregate assessed value of real property to the extent that the increase exceeds the preceding year's assessment by more than four percent (4%), excluding:

(a) The assessment of new property as defined in KRS 132.010(8);

(b) The assessment from property which is subject to tax increment financing pursuant to KRS Chapter 65; and

(c) The assessment from leasehold property which is owned and financed by a tax-exempt governmental unit, or tax-exempt statutory authority under the provisions of KRS Chapter 103 and entitled to the reduced rate of one and one-half cents ($0.015) pursuant to subsection (1)(f) of this section. In any year in which the aggregate assessed value of real property is less than the preceding year, the state rate shall be increased to the extent necessary to produce the approximate amount of revenue that was produced in the preceding year from real property.

(3) By July 1 each year, the department shall compute the state tax rate applicable to real property for the current year in accordance with the provisions of subsection (2) of this section and certify the rate to the county clerks for their use in preparing the tax bills. If the assessments for all counties have not been certified by July 1, the department shall, when either real property assessments of at least seventy-five percent (75%) of the total number of counties of the Commonwealth have been determined to be acceptable by the department, or when the number of counties having at least seventy-five percent (75%) of the total real property assessment for the previous year have been determined to be acceptable by the department, make an estimate of the real property assessments of the uncertified counties and compute the state tax rate.

(4) If the tax rate set by the department as provided in subsection (2) of this section produces more than a four percent (4%) increase in real property tax revenues, excluding:

(a) The revenue resulting from new property as defined in KRS 132.010(8);

(b) The revenue from property which is subject to tax increment financing pursuant to KRS Chapter 65; and the rate shall be adjusted in the succeeding year so that the cumulative total of each year's property tax revenue increase shall not exceed four percent (4%) per year.

(c) The revenue from leasehold property which is owned and financed by a tax-exempt governmental unit, or tax-exempt statutory authority under the provisions of KRS Chapter 103 and entitled to the reduced rate of one and one-half cents ($.015) pursuant to subsection (1) of this section;

(5) The provisions of subsection (2) of this section notwithstanding, the assessed value of unmined coal certified by the department after July 1, 1994, shall not be included with the assessed value of other real property in determining the state real property tax rate. All omitted unmined coal assessments made after July 1, 1994, shall also be excluded from the provisions of subsection (2) of this section. The calculated rate shall, however, be applied to unmined coal property, and the state revenue shall be devoted to the program described in KRS 146.550 to 146.570, except that four hundred thousand dollars ($400,000) of the state revenue shall be paid annually to the State Treasury and credited to the Office of Energy Policy for the purpose of public education of coal-related issues.

Section 4 of Acts 1994, ch. 263, provided that the 1994 amendment to this section "shall apply for the 1994 tax assessment year."

Legislative Research Commission Notes.

(4/15/2020). 2020 Ky. Acts ch. 91, sec. 79 provides that the changes made to this statute in Section 61 of that Act apply to privately owned leasehold interests in residential property assessed on or after January 1, 2021.

(6/27/2019). Section 81 of 2019 Ky. Acts ch. 151 states that the amendments to this statute made in Section 9 of that Act apply to tangible personal property assessed on or after January 1, 2020.

(1/1/2014). 2013 Ky. Acts ch. 119, sec. 26, provides that the amendments to this statute in 2013 Ky. Acts, ch. 119, sec. 7, shall apply to property assessed on or after January 1, 2014.

(1/1/2014). 2013 Ky. Acts ch. 119, sec. 24, provides, "It is the intent of the General Assembly that the changes made in [this statute and KRS 132.200], relating to tangible personal property which has been certified as a pollution control facility, are to clarify existing provisions in the law, as follows:

"(1) That the tax rate of fifteen cents ($.15) upon each one hundred dollars ($100) of value only applies to tangible personal property which has been certified as a pollution control facility; and

(2) That only tangible personal property certified as a pollution control facility is subject to taxation for state purposes only while being exempt from taxation in the county, city, school, or other taxing district in which it has a taxable situs."

(3/18/2005). 2005 Ky. Acts ch. 168, § 171, provides that: "Sections 55 (KRS 132.020) and 57 (KRS 132.200) of this Act, relating to property tax changes, take effect on January 1, 2006, except the changes made to paragraph (c) of subsection (1) of Section 55, relating to the voluntary environmental remediation credit, paragraph (a) of subsection (2) of Section 55, and paragraph (a) of subsection (4) of Section 55 of this Act, relating to new property and the state property assessment, and subsection (21) of Section 57 of this Act, which shall take effect on the effective date of this Act and which shall apply to tax years beginning on or after January 1, 2005."

1. In General.

Law which repealed law providing for state ad valorem taxes and enacted a new law in its place, exempting real estate from taxation, was unconstitutional because the legislature has no power to exempt property from state taxation and as a result the law remained in force as it was prior to the attempted repeal. Martin v. High Splint Coal Co., 268 Ky. 11, 103 S.W.2d 711, 1937 Ky. LEXIS 421 (Ky. 1937).

Intent of the Legislature in passing Corporate Shares Tax (KRS 132.020) and Exemptions Statutes (former KRS 136.030(1) (now repealed)) was to avoid double taxation of both a corporation and its shareholders. St. Ledger v. Revenue Cabinet, 942 S.W.2d 893, 1997 Ky. LEXIS 17 (Ky. 1997), modified, 1997 Ky. LEXIS 45 (Ky. Apr. 24, 1997), reprinted, 942 S.W.2d 893 (Ky. 1997), limited, Dawson v. Birenbaum, 968 S.W.2d 663, 1998 Ky. LEXIS 56 (Ky. 1998).

2. Constitutionality.

It is not unconstitutional to tax deposits in out-of-state banks at 50¢ per $100 under this section, while deposits in domestic banks are taxed at only 10¢ per $100 under KRS 132.030. Madden v. Kentucky, 309 U.S. 83, 60 S. Ct. 406, 84 L. Ed. 590, 1940 U.S. LEXIS 956 (U.S. 1940).

Former subsection (5) of this section, creating a separate tax classification for unmined coal by treating it differently from all other interests in real estate, including other interests with similar characteristics such as oil and gas in its natural state, is a classification that is not related to a constitutionally permissible classification for the purpose of raising revenue and is therefore unconstitutional. Gillis v. Yount, 748 S.W.2d 357, 1988 Ky. LEXIS 13 (Ky. 1988).

Having declared former subsection (10) of this section unconstitutional the court properly used its discretion, and chose not to apply the general tax rate retroactively to distilled spirits but to impose the increased rate prospectively only. Yount v. Calvert, 826 S.W.2d 833, 1991 Ky. App. LEXIS 102 (Ky. Ct. App. 1991).

Subsection (10) (since repealed) of this section is repugnant to the Kentucky Constitution. It is a manifest violation of both the letter and the spirit of the law. Accordingly, the judgment of the Circuit Court declaring KRS 132.020(10) to be an unconstitutional infringement upon the Constitution and mandating that the Kentucky Revenue Cabinet tax distilled spirits at the rate provided for under the general provisions set forth in this section was proper. Yount v. Calvert, 826 S.W.2d 833, 1991 Ky. App. LEXIS 102 (Ky. Ct. App. 1991).

The corporate shares tax, KRS 132.020 and the exemption statute, former KRS 136.030(1) (now repealed), are inseparable because the striking of the exemption statute would result in the taxation not only of corporations, but their shareholders which result would be in direct contravention of the expressed intent of the General Assembly; thus both statutes are invalid as they discriminate against interstate commerce and thus violate the Commerce Clause of the United States Constitution under the reasoning of Fulton Corp. v. Faulkner, 516 U.S. 325, 116 S.Ct. 848, 133 L.Ed.2d 796, 1996 U.S. LEXIS 1379 (1996). St. Ledger v. Revenue Cabinet, 942 S.W.2d 893, 1997 Ky. LEXIS 17 (Ky. 1997), modified, 1997 Ky. LEXIS 45 (Ky. Apr. 24, 1997), reprinted, 942 S.W.2d 893 (Ky. 1997), limited, Dawson v. Birenbaum, 968 S.W.2d 663, 1998 Ky. LEXIS 56 (Ky. 1998).

3. Insurance Beneficiary.

Where widow beneficiary had the right to withdraw the entire principal of insurance policy on deceased husband, such right was much more than a "right to receive income" under former KRS 132.215 and this section governs. Luckett v. Ferguson, 302 S.W.2d 114, 1957 Ky. LEXIS 174 (Ky. 1957).

4. Bank Deposits.

Bank deposits of a resident of Kentucky in banks outside of Kentucky are subject to the rate of 50¢ per $100 imposed by this section, and not the rate of 10¢ per $100 imposed by KRS 132.030. Madden v. Kentucky, 309 U.S. 83, 60 S. Ct. 406, 84 L. Ed. 590, 1940 U.S. LEXIS 956 (U.S. 1940).

5. Federal Postal Savings Deposits.

Federal postal savings deposits could not be subjected to tax imposed by this section, since to do so would result in unjust discrimination against federal instrumentality in favor of domestic banks, whose deposits are taxable at only 10¢ per $100 under KRS 132.030. In re Kentucky Fuel Gas Corp., 127 F.2d 657, 1942 U.S. App. LEXIS 3945 (6th Cir. Ky.), cert. denied, 317 U.S. 593, 63 S. Ct. 71, 87 L. Ed. 485, 1942 U.S. LEXIS 185 (U.S. 1942).

6. Legislative Power.

The Legislature has no power to substitute a license tax for an ad valorem tax. Raydure v. Board of Sup'rs, 183 Ky. 84, 209 S.W. 19, 1919 Ky. LEXIS 469 (Ky. 1919).

Absent the element of arbitrariness, the legislature is free to provide various classes, especially in the field of taxation. Paducah v. T.C.B., Inc., 817 S.W.2d 234, 1991 Ky. App. LEXIS 119 (Ky. Ct. App. 1991).

7. Industrial Loan Corporations.

Although the business of an industrial loan corporation resembles the operation of part of the usual business of a bank, the resemblance did not entitle it to be regarded as a bank under former KRS 136.270 (now repealed) and former KRS 136.280 (now repealed) and it was liable for payment of a tax on intangibles imposed by this section. First Industrial Plan v. Kentucky Board of Tax Appeals, 500 S.W.2d 70, 1973 Ky. LEXIS 203 (Ky. 1973).

8. State Tax Rate.

KRS 133.185, which relates to the imposition of a tax rate for a taxing district, such as a city, county or school, has no relationship to Ky. Const., § 171 which requires that the General Assembly shall provide an annual tax sufficient to defray the estimated expenses of the commonwealth; the state tax rate on all personal property, including motor vehicles, is not fixed by the processes outlined in KRS 133.185, 132.487(2), or 132.487(6) which provide for submission of a proposal, recapitulation of motor vehicles by the property valuation administrator, and certification by the Department of Revenue, but rather, the state tax rate is fixed by the General Assembly and is currently embodied in this section. There is no conflict between KRS 132.487(2) and 132.487(6) with the constitutional provision that the taxes shall be sufficient to defray the expenses of the state. Kling v. Geary, 667 S.W.2d 379, 1984 Ky. LEXIS 216 (Ky. 1984).

9. Real Property.

Where a taxpayer held equitable title in real estate consisting of all incidents of ownership except legal title and the taxpayer paid ad valorem tax on the property, former KRS 134.060 (now repealed), Ky. Const., § 172 and this section did not require the taxation of the power to dispose of the property as an intangible, separate and distinct from the underlying real property. Kentucky Power Co. v. Revenue Cabinet, 705 S.W.2d 904, 1985 Ky. LEXIS 293 (Ky. 1985).

10. Priorities.

Ad valorem taxes assessed after a duly recorded mortgage do not become liens until assessed, but are given priority over mortgages. Liberty Nat'l Bank & Trust Co. v. Vanderkraats, 899 S.W.2d 511, 1995 Ky. App. LEXIS 114 (Ky. Ct. App. 1995).

11. Refunds.

Where suit challenged the constitutionality of an exemption statute (former KRS 136.030(1) (now repealed)), a corporate shares tax statute (KRS 132.020), and involved the Revenue Cabinet and such statutes were declared unconstitutional, taxpayers were required to file for a refund for taxes paid under such statutes within two (2) years of payment of such taxes as provided in KRS 134.590(1) and (2), not two (2) years from the date of filing the lawsuit challenging the constitutionality of the statutes as provided in KRS 134.590(6). St. Ledger v. Revenue Cabinet, 942 S.W.2d 893, 1997 Ky. LEXIS 17 (Ky. 1997), modified, 1997 Ky. LEXIS 45 (Ky. Apr. 24, 1997), reprinted, 942 S.W.2d 893 (Ky. 1997), limited, Dawson v. Birenbaum, 968 S.W.2d 663, 1998 Ky. LEXIS 56 (Ky. 1998).

12. Industrial Buildings.

It is not clear whether the exemption for an industrial building that is "owned and financed" by a tax-exempt entity (KRS 132.200(8)) (now (7)) was intended to apply after the collateral is no longer financed; therefore, the statute must be construed against the taxpayers and they are not permitted to take advantage of the exemption and the reduced state rate pursuant to this section. Owens-Illinois Labels, Inc. v. Commonwealth, 27 S.W.3d 798, 2000 Ky. App. LEXIS 48 (Ky. Ct. App. 2000).

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

A fifth-class city must, by ordinance, levy an annual tax rate, prepare an annual budget and publish both the budget or summary thereof together with the rate in the local newspaper. OAG 70-630.

A mortgage and deed of trust secured by real estate and other tangible property is not a property interest subject to ad valorem property tax under this section nor intangible property subject to tax under subsection (1) of KRS 132.190. OAG 74-352.

Payments made, pursuant to a lease for a building constructed by a city beyond its boundaries under the provisions of KRS 103.200 et seq., are in lieu of all other taxes except those under this section, and, as such payments are not technically city revenue, the city is free to designate the local school district as beneficiary of the contract if it so desires. OAG 79-132.

"Money in hand," under former subsection (1) of this section, means literally what it says: money in the personal control or possession of the taxpayer. OAG 79-140.

The state tax rate computed by the Revenue Cabinet pursuant to former subsection (8) of this section is a single tax rate applicable to all counties and the limitation on the increase of real property tax revenues to four percent in any single year provided for by former subsections (7) and (9) of this section is a limitation in the aggregate so that, in determining whether the four percent limit has been violated, one must look at the real property tax revenues of the state as a whole. Thus, the percentage increase or decrease in real property tax revenues in any particular county as a result of the application of the state tax rate is irrelevant in determining whether the four percent rule has been violated. OAG 83-17.

Investments of the Kenton-Boone Cable Television Board in time deposits in an Ohio bank are subject to the intangible property tax levied by subsection (1) of this section since intangibles, like other personalty, are generally situated at the domicile of their owner. OAG 84-296.

The words "actually engaged in manufacturing," as used in subsection (1) of this section and KRS 132.200(4) modify "individuals or corporations," not "machinery." OAG 90-5.

Machinery owned by an individual or corporation, which individual or corporation is actually engaged in manufacturing, awaiting to be installed and put into use in the manufacturing plant should be classified as manufacturing machinery at the state rate of 15¢ per $100 of assessed valuation and is exempt from local taxation. OAG 90-5.

132.0225. Deadline for establishing final tax rate — Exemption — Procedure if increased revenue is greater than four percent.

(1) A taxing district that does not elect to attempt to set a rate that will produce more than four percent (4%) in additional revenue, exclusive of revenue from new property as defined in KRS 132.010, over the amount of revenue produced by the compensating tax rate as defined in KRS 132.010 shall establish a final tax rate within forty-five (45) days of the department's certification of the county's property tax roll. A city that does not elect to have city ad valorem taxes collected by the sheriff as provided in KRS 91A.070(1) shall be exempt from this deadline. Any nonexempt taxing district that fails to meet this deadline shall be required to use the compensating tax rate for that year's property tax bills.

(2) A taxing district that elects to attempt to set a rate that will produce more than four percent (4%) in additional revenue, exclusive of revenue from new property as defined in KRS 132.010, over the amount of revenue produced by the compensating tax rate as defined in KRS 132.010 shall follow the provisions of KRS 132.017.

(10/21/2005). 2005 Ky. Such a correction has been made in this section.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

1. Applicability.

Even though KRS 132.0225 requires all taxing districts to levy their tax rates within forty-five (45) days, cities that have elected to adopt a county's assessment are empowered by KRS 132.285 to fix the time for levying their tax rates, notwithstanding any other statutory provisions to the contrary. Light v. City of Louisville, 248 S.W.3d 559, 2008 Ky. LEXIS 68 (Ky. 2008).

As the more specific language of KRS 132.285 controlled over the more general language in KRS 132.0225, a city did not violate KRS 132.0225 when it adopted its ad valorem tax rates more than 45 days after county assessments had been certified. Once the city elected to operate under KRS 132.285, the city could set its own date for levying its taxes. Light v. City of Louisville, 248 S.W.3d 559, 2008 Ky. LEXIS 68 (Ky. 2008).

(1) No special purpose governmental entity shall levy a tax rate which exceeds the compensating tax rate until the taxing district has complied with the provisions of KRS 65A.110 and subsection (2) of this section.

(2)(a) A special purpose governmental entity proposing to levy a tax rate which exceeds the compensating tax rate shall submit the proposed rate as required by KRS 65A.110 and shall hold a public hearing to hear comments from the public regarding the proposed tax rate. The hearing shall be held in the same location where the governing body of the city or county where the largest number of citizens served by the special purpose governmental entity reside meets, and shall be held immediately before a regularly scheduled meeting of that governing body.

(b) The special purpose governmental entity shall advertise the hearing by causing to be published at least twice in two (2) consecutive weeks, in the newspaper of largest circulation in the county, a display type advertisement of not less than twelve (12) column inches, the following:

1. The tax rate levied in the preceding year, and the revenue produced by that rate;

2. The tax rate proposed for the current year and the revenue expected to be produced by that rate;

3. The compensating tax rate and the revenue expected from it;

4. The revenue expected from new property and personal property;

5. The general areas to which revenue in excess of the revenue produced in the preceding year is to be allocated;

6. A time and place for the public hearing which shall be held not less than seven (7) days, nor more than ten (10) days, after the day that the second advertisement is published;

7. The purpose of the hearing; and

8. A statement to the effect that the General Assembly has required publication of the advertisement and the information contained therein.

(c) In lieu of the two (2) published notices, a single notice containing the required information may be sent by first-class mail to each person owning real property in the special purpose governmental entity, addressed to the property owner at his residence or principal place of business as shown on the current year property tax roll.

(d) The hearing shall be open to the public. All persons desiring to be heard shall be given an opportunity to present oral testimony. The special purpose governmental entity may set reasonable time limits for testimony.

(3)(a) That portion of a tax rate levied by an action of a special purpose governmental entity which will produce revenue from real property, exclusive of revenue from new property, more than four percent (4%) over the amount of revenue produced by the compensating tax rate shall be subject to a recall vote or reconsideration by the special purpose governmental entity, as provided for in KRS 132.017, and shall be advertised as provided in paragraph (b) of this subsection.

(b) The special purpose governmental entity shall, within seven (7) days following adoption of an ordinance, order, resolution, or motion to levy a tax rate which will produce revenue from real property, exclusive of revenue from new property, more than four percent (4%) over the amount of revenue produced by the compensating tax rate, cause to be published, in the newspaper of largest circulation in the county, a display type advertisement of not less than twelve (12) column inches the following:

1. The fact that the taxing district has adopted a rate;

2. The fact that the part of the rate which will produce revenue from real property, exclusive of new property, in excess of four percent (4%) over the amount of revenue produced by the compensating tax rate is subject to recall; and

3. The name, address, and telephone number of the county clerk of the county in which the special purpose governmental entity is located, with a notation to the effect that that official can provide the necessary information about the petition required to initiate recall of the tax rate.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Analysis

1. Motor Vehicles.
2. Library districts.

1. Motor Vehicles.

The language of KRS 132.487(3), governing a centralized ad valorem tax system for motor vehicles, clearly and unequivocally removes all valuations of and tax revenues from motor vehicles from the base amount used in determining the compensating tax rate and maximum possible tax rate envisioned under the provisions of this section and KRS 68.245, 132.027, and 160.470. Kling v. Geary, 667 S.W.2d 379, 1984 Ky. LEXIS 216 (Ky. 1984).

2. Library districts.

Circuit courts erred in rendering summary judgments in favor of two library districts because, while the applicable statutes were facially in conflict, they were both applicable to library districts formed by petition and could be harmonized in their application, where, if revenue from ad valorem taxes was to be increased above four percent, the increase had to be approved by petition of the voters. Campbell County Library Bd. of Trs. v. Coleman, 475 S.W.3d 40, 2015 Ky. App. LEXIS 39 (Ky. Ct. App. 2015).

Baker v. Strode, 348 F. Supp. 1257, 1971 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 14893 (W.D. Ky. 1971); Miller v. Nunnelle, 468 S.W.2d 298, 1971 Ky. LEXIS 334 (Ky. 1971).

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

Public health taxing districts are limited to a compensating tax rate based on the actual 1965 levy and not the maximum voted for the county. OAG 66-22.

Since extension service districts have not been excepted from the compensating tax rate defined in KRS 132.010, the rate should be applied to the tax imposed by such districts. OAG 66-229.

A public health taxing district is a taxing district within the meaning of this section despite the fact that the voters had previously approved a higher rate. OAG 66-356.

A county soil conservation district board may request and the fiscal court of such county may levy a tax of two cents ($0.02) per acre, even though such tax rate is an increase from the rate levied in previous years. OAG 67-346.

Where after the roll back a library district did not have sufficient funds to operate, under KRS 173.610 a petition could be filed putting the question of an increased tax levy to a vote of the people, and if the vote was affirmative the tax could be raised to exceed the roll back rate. OAG 68-606.

Each year the library district tax rate must be so adjusted, assuming a change in assessment valuation, in connection with the current property assessment, that the amount of revenue produced in the particular tax year is approximately equal to that produced in 1965. OAG 69-330.

This section does not apply to a county library established under KRS 173.310. OAG 69-394.

An area planning commission could not levy a tax rate which exceeded the compensating tax rate defined in KRS 132.010. OAG 69-532.

In view of the fact that the present rollback statutes in effect provide a maximum revenue level, the library tax rate may be adjusted and applied against the assessment base such as to produce the maximum revenue provided by the rollback law as if the homestead exemption to § 170 of the Kentucky Constitution had never come into being. OAG 72-124.

As the 1972 amendment to this section was passed before the 1972 amendment to KRS 75.040, the provisions of the latter section as to the tax rate for fire prevention districts will prevail. OAG 72-646.

Even though "net assessment growth," as defined in KRS 132.425 (repealed), refers only to the county or a school district, KRS 132.010 encompasses a taxing district and this section and KRS 132.027 clearly show that KRS 132.425 (repealed) is by reference made applicable to cities so that any city which levied a poll tax in 1973 may adjust its compensating tax rate to reflect the loss in poll tax revenue. OAG 75-544.

Insofar as they are used in this section and KRS 132.027, as amended by Acts 1979 (Ex. Sess.), ch. 25, for those governmental units operating on a calendar basis: (1) "... a tax rate for 1979-80 ..." means that unit's tax rate for the 1980 calendar year; (2) "... application of the maximum tax rate that could have been levied in 1978-79 ..." means the unit's compensating tax rate for the 1979 calendar year, calculated in accordance with KRS 132.010(6) as it read prior to February 13, 1979; and (3) "... the 1978-79 assessment" means the unit's assessment as of January 1, 1979, assuming that the unit's assessment date is January 1. OAG 79-217.

Hearings held pursuant to this section must be held by the board of directors of an extension district, and by a fiscal court, in the case of a county health district. OAG 79-365.

In the case of a county extension district the responsibility to set tax rates in compliance with the law is that of the board of directors of the district, while in the case of a county health district, it is the fiscal court's responsibility. OAG 79-365.

KRS 132.010 and this section apply to the tax rate to be set by a county hospital board for setting a tax rate for 1979-1980 and thereafter. OAG 79-422.

In determining the net assessment growth, "revenue" does not include moneys earned from interest, special fees, contributions, or any other nontaxing revenue. OAG 79-478.

Former subsection (4)(a) of this section applies to the first fiscal year 1979-80 and the maximum tax rate allowed is something less than 10 cents per $100 of assessed valuation. OAG 79-478 (Opinion prior to 1990 amendment).

This section applies to fire protection districts and volunteer fire departments. OAG 79-478.

Acts 1979 (Ex. Sess.), ch. 25, amending this section, applies to the 1979-1980 tax rate for a county library district established pursuant to KRS 173.450 et seq. OAG 79-479.

An ambulance district, created under KRS 108.100, may levy a tax rate that does not exceed the rate voted on in creating the district, without being subject to the special tax limitations of this section. OAG 81-99.

Where an ambulance district is created pursuant to KRS 108.105, the statutory tax rate limits of this section would apply to the special district, since no voted levy is involved. OAG 81-99.

The amendment of subsection (4) of KRS 262.200 to limit the maximum total tax revenue from real property millage tax to $25,000 per year does not unconstitutionally impact upon this section, since the General Assembly may constitutionally levy rates which lessen taxes. OAG 81-174.

Acts 1979 (Ex. Sess.), ch. 25, which limits a county's increase in property taxes, does not limit in effect the public health district tax which is levied by a county pursuant to either KRS 212.725 or 212.755. OAG 82-151.

If there is any conflict between KRS 75.040(1) and this section, it relates to what tax rate may be set initially; there is no inconsistency between the statutes and this section applies whenever an already established rate is increased. OAG 82-323.

(7/13/90) The Act amending this section prevails over the repeal and reenactment in House Bill 940, Acts Ch. 476, pursuant to Section 653(1) of Acts Ch. 476.

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

Subsection (2) of former KRS 68.249 (now repealed), limiting the increase in the county tax rate on personal property, means that the tax rate levied under KRS 68.248 on such property for 1982-83 cannot exceed the tax rate levied in 1981-82; additionally, the tax rate levied under subsection (1) of former KRS 68.249 cannot exceed the tax rate levied in 1981-82; however, the two rates collectively may exceed such rate. This determination is extended to all similar provisions of Acts 1982, ch. 397, i.e., KRS 132.024, 132.025, 132.029, 132.0291, 160.473 and 160.474. OAG 83-221 (Opinion prior to 1990 amendment to KRS 68.249 and 132.024, 132.025, 132.029, 160.473 and repeal of KRS 132.0291 and 160.474).

(1) In the event that the tax rate levied by an action of a taxing district, other than the state, counties, school districts, cities, and urban-county governments, for 1979-80, 1980-81, or 1981-82 produced a percentage increase in revenue from personal property less than the percentage increase in revenue from real property for the respective year, the taxing district, other than the state, counties, school districts, cities, and urban-county governments, may levy a tax rate applicable to personal property for 1982-83 only, which will produce the same cumulative percentage increase in revenue from personal property as was produced from real property in 1979-80, 1980-81 and 1981-82. Such a tax rate may be in addition to the tax rate levied under the provisions of KRS 132.024.

(2) The tax rate levied under the provision of KRS 132.024 and subsection (1) of this section shall not exceed the tax rate applicable to personal property levied by the respective taxing district, other than the state, counties, school districts, cities, and urban-county governments, in 1981-82.

(3) The tax rate applicable to personal property levied by a taxing district, other than the state, counties, school districts, cities, and urban-county governments shall not be subject to the public hearing provisions of KRS 132.023(2) and to the recall provisions of KRS 132.023(3).

History.

Enact. Acts 1982, ch. 397, § 4, effective July 15, 1982; repealed and reenact., Acts 1990, ch. 476, Pt. V, § 313, effective July 13, 1990; 2020 ch. 90, § 3, effective January 1, 2021.

Compiler's Notes.

Former KRS 132.025 (Enact. Acts 1982, ch. 397, § 4, effective July 15, 1982) was repealed and reenacted by Acts 1990, ch. 476, Pt. V, § 313, effective July 13, 1990.

Legislative Research Commission Notes.

(7/13/90) Pursuant to Section 653(2) of 1990 House Bill 940, Acts Ch. 476, the repeal and reenactment of this section in that Act prevails over its repeal in another Act (ch. 343, § 10) of the 1990 Regular Session.

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

Subsection (2) of former KRS 68.249 (now repealed), limiting the increase in the county tax rate on personal property, means that the tax rate levied under KRS 68.248 on such property for 1982-83 cannot exceed the tax rate levied in 1981-82; additionally, the tax rate levied under subsection (1) of former KRS 68.249 cannot exceed the tax rate levied in 1981-82; however, the two rates collectively may exceed such rate. This determination is extended to all similar provisions of Acts 1982, ch. 397, i.e., KRS 132.024, 132.025, 132.029, 132.0291, 160.473 and 160.474. OAG 83-221 (Opinion prior to 1990 amendment of KRS 68.249, 132.024, 132.025, 132.029, 160.473 and the repeal of KRS 132.0291 and 160.474).

132.027. City and urban-county government tax rate limitation — Levy exceeding compensating tax rate subject to recall vote or reconsideration.

(1) No city or urban-county government shall levy a tax rate which exceeds the compensating tax rate defined in KRS 132.010 until the city or urban-county government has complied with the provisions of subsection (2) of this section.

(2)(a) Cities or urban-county governments proposing to levy a tax rate which exceeds the compensating tax rate defined in KRS 132.010 shall hold a public hearing to hear comments from the public regarding the proposed tax rate. The hearing shall be held in the principal office of the taxing district, or, in the event the taxing district has no office, or the office is not suitable for a hearing, the hearing shall be held in a suitable facility as near as possible to the geographic center of the district.

(b) The city or urban-county government shall advertise the hearing by causing to be published at least twice in two (2) consecutive weeks, in the newspaper of largest circulation in the county, a display type advertisement of not less than twelve (12) column inches, the following:

1. The tax rate levied in the preceding year, and the revenue produced by that rate;
2. The tax rate proposed for the current year and the revenue expected to be produced by that rate;
3. The compensating tax rate and the revenue expected from it;
4. The revenue expected from new property and personal property;
5. The general areas to which revenue in excess of the revenue produced in the preceding year is to be allocated;
6. A time and place for the public hearing which shall be held not less than seven (7) days nor more than ten (10) days after the day the second advertisement is published;
7. The purpose of the hearing; and
8. A statement to the effect that the General Assembly has required publication of the advertisement and the information contained therein.

(c) In lieu of the two (2) published notices, a single notice containing the required information may be sent by first-class mail to each person owning real property in the taxing district, addressed to the property owner at his residence or principal place of business as shown on the current year property tax roll.

(d) The hearing shall be open to the public. All persons desiring to be heard shall be given an opportunity to present oral testimony. The taxing district may set reasonable time limits for testimony.

(3)(a) That portion of a tax rate levied by an action of a city or urban-county government which will produce revenue from real property, exclusive of revenue from new property, more than four percent (4%) over the amount of revenue produced by the compensating tax rate defined in KRS 132.010 shall be subject to a recall vote or reconsideration by the taxing district, as provided for in KRS 132.017, and shall be advertised as provided for in paragraph (b) of this subsection.

(b) The city or urban-county government shall, within seven (7) days following adoption of an ordinance to levy a tax rate which will produce revenue from real property, exclusive of revenue from new property as defined in KRS 132.010, more than four percent (4%) over the amount of revenue produced by the compensating tax rate defined in KRS 132.010, cause to be published, in the newspaper of largest circulation in the county, a display type advertisement of not less than twelve (12) column inches the following:

1. The fact that the city or urban-county government has adopted a rate;
2. The fact that the part of the rate which will produce revenue from real property, exclusive of new property as defined in KRS 132.010, in excess of four percent (4%) over the amount of revenue produced by the compensating tax rate defined in KRS 132.010 is subject to recall, and
3. The name, address, and telephone number of the county clerk of the county or urban-county in which the taxing district is located, with a notation to the effect that that official can provide the necessary information about the petition required to initiate recall of the tax rate.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Analysis

1. Constitutionality.
2. Application.
3. Legislative Intent.
4. Motor Vehicles.

1. Constitutionality.

This section does not unconstitutionally discriminate against cities' taxation powers even though the counties are allowed "net assessment growth" while the cities are not, since no constitutional provision requires cities to be treated the same as counties as far as concerns the extent of their tax-levying powers. Ashland v. Webb, 470 S.W.2d 604, 1971 Ky. LEXIS 279 (Ky. 1971) (decision prior to 1972 amendment).

2. Application.

The limitation on indebtedness imposed by this section is not applicable to limit the rate at which taxes must necessarily be levied to pay an indebtedness incurred by authority of a vote of the people under Ky. Const., § 157. Raque v. Louisville, 402 S.W.2d 697, 1966 Ky. LEXIS 375 (Ky. 1966).

3. Legislative Intent.

The limitation on indebtedness imposed by this section was intended by the Legislature to safeguard against unintended tax burdens and not those that are specifically intended and authorized. Raque v. Louisville, 402 S.W.2d 697, 1966 Ky. LEXIS 375 (Ky. 1966).

4. Motor Vehicles.

The language of KRS 132.487(3), governing a centralized ad valorem tax system for motor vehicles, clearly and unequivocally removes all valuations of and tax revenues from motor vehicles from the base amount used in determining the compensating tax rate and maximum possible tax rate envisioned under the provisions of this section and KRS 68.245, 132.023, and 160.470. Kling v. Geary, 667 S.W.2d 379, 1984 Ky. LEXIS 216 (Ky. 1984).

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

KRS 95.627 and 95.629 supersede and provide an exception to this section. OAG 66-562.

A city of the third class may levy a tax in excess of the compensating tax rate to the extent that it is necessary to do so in order to maintain the alternative pension plan authorized by KRS 95.621 to 95.629. OAG 66-562.

For the 1966 assessment, all of the property in the city, including merchants' inventories, is subject to the city tax rate but the rate must be computed so that the amount of total revenue produced in 1966 will be no more than that produced in 1965 plus a ten percent (10%) increase. OAG 67-13.

The general intent of the 1965 legislation establishing a "compensating tax rate" was to limit property tax revenue (and the burden of the taxpayers) to the same level in existence before 100 per cent assessments were put into effect (plus two (2) permissible percentage increases) and other revenue derived from property newly added to the tax rolls. OAG 67-40.

Tax rates for tangible personal property cannot be separated from all other property subject to ad valorem property taxes in the city; the same rate must be applied to such property as is applied to all property in the city. OAG 67-101.

A city which did not levy a public works cumulative reserve fund in 1965 could do so in a later year by allocating or earmarking a portion of its overall compensating tax rate for that purpose. OAG 67-351.

A city which was levying a public works cumulative reserve fund property tax in 1965 could continue to do so in 1966 and subsequent years at the appropriate compensating tax rate or at such other rate as the city chose provided the overall tax rate did not exceed the compensating rate applicable to the overall levy. OAG 67-351.

The fact that a town did not collect taxes in 1965 would not prevent it from collecting taxes in subsequent years using Ky. Const., § 157 to find the base rate and applying the compensating factor of this section to it. OAG 67-449.

If a city failed to increase its tax rate by ten percent (10%) increases in each of the years 1966 and 1967, it is bound by the tax rate it now has in effect. OAG 68-222.

The ten percent (10%) increases permitted by subsection (2) of this section, if not taken in the years 1966-67 and 1967-68, were waived. OAG 68-246.

The tax rate levied by a municipality for library services under subsection (1) of KRS 173.360 is subject to the compensating tax rate provisions of this section even when this section would require a lower tax levy than the minimum established in subsection (1) of KRS 173.360. OAG 68-259.

A library created under KRS 173.310 is not a separate taxing district. The library tax must be included in the city's general tax levy and the city's legislative body establishes the library tax, under the provisions of KRS 173.360, at a rate which cannot be lower than five cents, subject to the roll-back provisions of KRS 132.027. OAG 68-320.

An area planning commission could not levy a tax rate which exceeded the compensating tax rate defined in KRS 132.010. OAG 69-532.

Where libraries were established under KRS 173.310, prior to the 1965 roll-back legislation, the city or county which established such libraries must reduce its respective library tax to the applicable compensating tax rate, or restricted budget, regardless of whether that rate or revenue would be less than five cents on the 100. OAG 69-590.

A city would be barred under this section from taking any increase in its tax rate to become effective in 1971. OAG 70-576.

Initiative and referendum cannot be used to increase the tax rate in a fourth-class city with the councilmanic form of government. OAG 70-576.

A city may increase its general fund tax rate to offset a revenue loss occasioned by property being exempted from property tax by the homestead exemption amendment to Ky. Const., § 170. OAG 71-537.

The rollback provision of this section applies to a proposed five cent levy on property in a fourth-class city under KRS 97.590 for the purpose of purchasing and maintaining a public park in the city limits. OAG 72-193.

After a city has sufficient revenue in a sinking fund to retire bonds for which a specific tax has been levied, the city would then be bound by KRS 132.010 and this section with respect to the tax rate which could be applied for general municipal purposes and it would be a violation of KRS 92.330 and 92.340 to continue to levy the specific tax and divert it to general municipal purposes. OAG 74-368.

Once funding bonds have been paid off, levy must be discontinued. OAG 75-162.

A third-class city may levy a tax in excess of the compensating tax rate where such is necessary to provide support for the alternative pension plan provided for in KRS 95.621 to 95.629. OAG 75-203.

Even though "net assessment growth," as defined in KRS 132.425 (repealed), refers only to the county or a school district, KRS 132.010 encompasses a taxing district and KRS 132.023 and this section clearly show that KRS 132.425 (repealed) is by reference made applicable to cities so that any city which levied a poll tax in 1973 may adjust its compensating tax rate to reflect the loss in poll tax revenue. OAG 75-544.

Where a third-class city operates jointly with the county a system of parks under a city-county parks and recreation board, under KRS 97.080 (repealed) such a city may provide funds for park and recreation purposes controlled by the revenue limitations set out in KRS 132.010 and this section. OAG 76-85.

A city cannot raise its tax rate by a referendum vote. OAG 77-112.

If the sinking fund rate is a part of the overall general fund rate, it would appear that the only thing that is being done is a shifting of a part of the sinking fund rate to the main general fund rate, and if so it could be added to the general fund rate maintaining the overall tax rate at the same level. OAG 78-797.

There would not be a substantial increase in revenue from real estate tax simply by increasing the assessed value of property in a city. OAG 79-90.

Insofar as they are used in KRS 132.023 and this section, as amended by Acts 1979 (Ex. Sess.), ch. 25, for those governmental units operating on a calendar basis: (1) "... a tax rate for 1979-80 ..." means that unit's tax rate for the 1980 calendar year; (2) "... application of the maximum tax rate that could have been levied in 1978-79 ..." means the unit's compensating tax rate for the 1979 calendar year, calculated in accordance with KRS 132.010(6) as it read prior to February 13, 1979; and (3) "... the 1978-79 assessment" means the unit's assessment as of January 1, 1979, assuming that the unit's assessment date is January 1. OAG 79-217.

So long as the limitations imposed by this section are complied with, a city which wishes to increase the tax rate and return a portion of the increase to the taxpayers is free to do so. OAG 79-484.

Acts 1979 (Ex. Sess.), ch. 25 cannot be applied retroactively to taxing districts operating on a calendar basis which had prepared their budgets prior to the effective date of that act. OAG 79-486.

If the city governing body proposes to impose the same tax rate for the succeeding year as the preceding year but due to increased assessments more than four percent (4%) revenue is produced in the succeeding year than had been produced in the preceding year, that portion of the tax rate which causes a breach in the four percent (4%) ceiling is subject to recall. OAG 80-558.

If a city applied its 1980 tax rate to its 1981 assessment, which greatly increased as a result of a court decision, and if the resulting increase in tax revenues was greater than four percent (4%) over the previous year, the city must comply with the recall vote or reconsideration provisions of former subsection (4) of this section, since it appears that the general assembly intended to limit revenues from property tax when assessments have increased. OAG 81-425.

A city's maximum tax rate is dependent upon the amount of revenue which would have been raised if the rate of the preceding year was applied to the preceding year's assessment before it was adjusted for the homestead exemption. OAG 82-186.

The language of former subdivision (4)(b) of this section indicates that the assessed valuations used in computing the limitations must be determinable at the time the city ordinance levying the rate is enacted. OAG 82-186.

The limitations on the ad valorem tax rate which a city can levy are determined, in part, by applying the proposed rate levied by the city to the assessments certified by the Department of Revenue as provided in KRS 133.180; subsequent corrections in valuations made by the department as the result of adjustments to certain properties which were in the appeal process at the time the certification was made are not relevant in computing the limitations. OAG 82-186.

In a year of negative net assessment growth, the maximum rate which a city or urban-county government can levy is that rate which, when applied to its current year assessments, will produce the same amount of revenue that would have been produced in the preceding tax year if all the property taxes the city or urban-county government actually levied had been collected. In such an instance, the maximum rate as provided in former subsection (1) (deleted by amendment) of this section would be greater than the rate levied in the preceding year. OAG 82-456.

The Attorney General is not charged with the duty to interpret and enforce the requirements for legal notices codified in KRS Chapter 132, and in particular KRS 132.027, in an open meetings appeal. OAG 04-OMD-230.

132.030. Financial institution deposit tax.

(1) Every person having a deposit in any financial institution, as defined in KRS 136.500, on January 1 of any year shall pay an annual tax to the state equal to one-thousandth of one percent (0.001%) upon the amount of the deposit, and no deduction shall be made for any indebtedness. The deposit tax shall be paid to the department by the financial institution with which the deposit is made, as the agent of the depositor, on or before March 1 following the date of the report provided for in KRS 132.040.

(2) No other tax shall be assessed by the state or any county, city, or other taxing district on the deposits or against the depositor on account of the deposits, except as provided in KRS 136.575.

Analysis

1. Constitutionality.
2. Out-of-State Deposits.
3. Federal Postal Savings Deposits.
4. Bank Agent.
5. Taxing Determination Upheld.

1. Constitutionality.

It is not unconstitutional to tax deposits in out-of-state banks at 50¢ per $100 under KRS 132.020, while deposits in domestic banks are taxed at 10¢ per $100. Madden v. Kentucky, 309 U.S. 83, 60 S. Ct. 406, 84 L. Ed. 590, 1940 U.S. LEXIS 956 (U.S. 1940).

The placing of domestic bank deposits in a separate class, and according them a more favorable rate of taxation than other intangible property, is reasonable and valid. Madden v. Kentucky, 309 U.S. 83, 60 S. Ct. 406, 84 L. Ed. 590, 1940 U.S. LEXIS 956 (U.S. 1940).

2. Out-of-State Deposits.

Bank deposits of a resident of Kentucky in banks outside of Kentucky are subject to the rate imposed by KRS 132.020, and not the rate imposed by this section. Madden's Ex'r v. Commonwealth, 277 Ky. 343, 126 S.W.2d 463, 1939 Ky. LEXIS 655 (Ky. 1939), aff'd, 309 U.S. 83, 60 S. Ct. 406, 84 L. Ed. 590, 1940 U.S. LEXIS 956 (U.S. 1940).

3. Federal Postal Savings Deposits.

4. Bank Agent.

Since a bank deposit is in reality the property of the depositor, a bank cannot be compelled to pay taxes on its deposits except as agent for the depositors. Commonwealth v. Bank of Commerce, 118 Ky. 547, 81 S.W. 679, 26 Ky. L. Rptr. 407, 1904 Ky. LEXIS 71 (Ky. 1904).

5. Taxing Determination Upheld.

KRS 132.030, 132.200, 136.300, 136.320 are not related to public service companies or to franchise; it is clear that the general assembly considered the types of property that should be exempt from the "catch-all" rate, and it did not include franchise of a public service company-although it identified seventeen other categories of property. Dayton Power & Light Co. v. Dep't of Revenue, 405 S.W.3d 527, 2012 Ky. App. LEXIS 232 (Ky. Ct. App. 2012).

132.130. Distilled spirits in bonded warehouses to be reported by proprietor or custodian.

(1) Effective January 1, 1967, every owner, proprietor, or custodian of a bonded warehouse or of premises under the control and supervision of the United States Internal Revenue Service, in which distilled spirits are stored shall between January 1 and February 1 of each year file with the Department of Revenue a report sworn to by him showing the quantity and kind of distilled spirits in the bonded warehouse or premises as of January 1 of that year; the quantity and kind of spirits on which the federal tax has been paid or is due; what distilled spirits have been removed from the bonded warehouse or premises for transfer in bond out of this state during the preceding twelve (12) months; the county, city, and taxing district in which such distilled spirits were certified for taxation; the fair cash value of the distilled spirits estimated at a price it would bring at a fair voluntary sale; and such other facts pertaining to the distilled spirits as the department may require.

(2) On January 1, May 1, and September 1, after the federal tax has been paid or becomes due, or after any of the distilled spirits are removed from the bonded warehouse or premises for transfer in bond out of this state, every owner, proprietor, or custodian of a bonded warehouse or premises in which distilled spirits are stored upon which taxes have accrued on assessments prior to January 1, 1967, shall file with the Department of Revenue and the county clerk, in which county the distilled spirits were at the time of the assessment, a statement, sworn to by him, showing the quantity of the distilled spirits on which the federal tax has been paid or is due; what distilled spirits have been removed from the bonded warehouse or premises or transferred in bond out of this state during the preceding four (4) months; the years in which such distilled spirits were assessed for taxation; and the county, city, or taxing district in which the distilled spirits were stored at the time of the assessment. At the same time, all taxes and interest on such distilled spirits due the state, county, or other taxing district shall be paid to the officers entitled to receive them. The report required by this section shall be made whether or not any distilled spirits are stored in the bonded warehouse or premises at the time the report is due.

Analysis

1. Constitutionality.
2. Application.
3. Right to Tax.
4. Nonresident.
5. Involuntary Report Filing.
6. Unconstitutional Tax.

1. Constitutionality.

KRS 132.130 to 132.180 do not violate the federal Constitution. Thompson v. Kentucky, 209 U.S. 340, 28 S. Ct. 533, 52 L. Ed. 822, 1908 U.S. LEXIS 1708 (U.S. 1908).

KRS 132.130 to 132.180 are constitutional. Jetts Bros. Distilling Co. v. Carrollton, 178 Ky. 561, 199 S.W. 37, 1917 Ky. LEXIS 758 (Ky. 1917), writ of error dismissed, 252 U.S. 1, 40 S. Ct. 255, 64 L. Ed. 421, 1920 U.S. LEXIS 1654 (U.S. 1920).

2. Application.

Law providing for assessment and taxation of distilled spirits applied to any bonded warehouse in which whiskey was stored, whether owned by a distiller or by some other person, and whether or not located on the premises of a distiller. Louisville v. Louisville Public Warehouse Co., 107 Ky. 184, 53 S.W. 291, 21 Ky. L. Rptr. 867, 1899 Ky. LEXIS 156 (Ky. 1899) (decided under prior law).

3. Right to Tax.

The fact that whiskey in bond is under the control and supervision of the federal government, and that often a substantial portion of the whiskey is owned by nonresidents does not deprive Kentucky of the right to levy ad valorem taxes on such whiskey. Thompson v. Kentucky, 209 U.S. 340, 28 S. Ct. 533, 52 L. Ed. 822, 1908 U.S. LEXIS 1708 (U.S. 1908).

4. Nonresident.

Where nonresident owner of warehouse made report under this section, and made no objection to assessment of spirits in his warehouse, he could not maintain that he was beyond jurisdiction of Kentucky and therefore not subject to personal liability for tax on spirits. Greenbaum v. Commonwealth, 147 Ky. 450, 144 S.W. 45, 1912 Ky. LEXIS 245 (Ky. 1912).

5. Involuntary Report Filing.

The fact that there is a criminal penalty for violating this section does not make the filing of a report an involuntary act to the extent that a nonresident filing a report could maintain that he had not thereby subjected his person to the taxing jurisdiction of Kentucky. Greenbaum v. Commonwealth, 147 Ky. 450, 144 S.W. 45, 1912 Ky. LEXIS 245 (Ky. 1912).

6. Unconstitutional Tax.

A law which imposed a tax of 50¢ on a gallon of whiskey withdrawn from bond in this state or transferred in bond to another state, and which was designated a "license" tax on the business of owning and storing whiskey, was in fact a property tax and therefore violated Ky. Const., § 171. Dawson v. Kentucky Distilleries & Warehouse Co., 255 U.S. 288, 41 S. Ct. 272, 65 L. Ed. 638, 1921 U.S. LEXIS 1825 (U.S. 1921) (decided under prior law). See Craig v. E. H. Taylor, Jr. & Sons, 192 Ky. 36, 232 S.W. 395, 1921 Ky. LEXIS 28 (Ky. 1921).

132.140. Assessment of distilled spirits by department.

(1) The Department of Revenue shall fix the value of the distilled spirits for the purpose of taxation, assess the same at its fair cash value, estimated at the price it would bring at a fair voluntary sale, and keep a record of its valuations and assessments. The department shall immediately notify the owner or proprietor of the bonded warehouse or premises of the amount fixed.

(2) If any owner, proprietor, or custodian of a bonded warehouse or premises fails to make the report required by KRS 132.130, the department shall ascertain the necessary facts required to be reported. For that purpose the department shall have access to the records of the owner, proprietor, or custodian; and the assessment shall be made and taxes collected thereon, with interest and penalties, as though regularly reported.

(3) The assessment made under (1) of this section shall be reviewed according to KRS 131.110.

Analysis

1. Discretion.

1. Discretion.

Assessment of all whiskey in warehouse at flat or blanket rate regardless of age did not show arbitrary conduct or abuse of discretion by tax commission, it being common knowledge that warehouses have whiskeys of various ages and brands and that while whiskey increases in value with age some brands are of greater value than others, and fixing of average value for spirits of different ages is most feasible method of making assessment. Louisville v. Martin, 284 Ky. 490, 144 S.W.2d 1034, 1940 Ky. LEXIS 505 (Ky. 1940).

In making assessment tax commission has broad discretion and mere error in judgment as to fair cash value would not authorize court to substitute its judgment for that of commission. Louisville v. Martin, 284 Ky. 490, 144 S.W.2d 1034, 1940 Ky. LEXIS 505 (Ky. 1940).

2. Estoppel.

Where city through its assessor made an assessment of distilled spirits and tax based on it was paid, city was not estopped thereafter from repudiating such assessment and could levy additional taxes by reason of assessment made under this section which assessment was higher and which was the only assessment the city had a legal right to use. Jetts Bros. Distilling Co. v. Carrollton, 178 Ky. 561, 199 S.W. 37, 1917 Ky. LEXIS 758 (Ky. 1917), writ of error dismissed, 252 U.S. 1, 40 S. Ct. 255, 64 L. Ed. 421, 1920 U.S. LEXIS 1654 (U.S. 1920).

132.150. Valuation of distilled spirits certified to county clerks — Local tax rate.

Immediately after the valuation of the distilled spirits has been finally fixed, the department shall certify to the county clerks of the respective counties the amount liable for county, city, or district taxation, and the date when the bonded period will expire on the spirits. The report shall be filed by the county clerk in his office, and certified by him to the proper collecting officer of the county, city, or taxing district for collection. The spirits, in addition to the tax for state purposes, shall be taxed for county, school, and city purposes at the prevailing rates of taxation on tangible personal property in the respective counties, school districts, and cities in which the spirits are stored, but the combined rate of taxation for city and school purposes in cities of the first class shall not exceed one dollar and twenty-five cents ($1.25) on each one hundred dollars ($100) of assessed value of the spirits.

Analysis

1. Basis of Assessment.
2. Tax Rate.
3. Collector.
4. City Taxation.
5. Estoppel.

1. Basis of Assessment.

Cities must tax on basis of assessment made by the tax commission; they cannot make their own assessment. Jetts Bros. Distilling Co. v. Carrollton, 178 Ky. 561, 199 S.W. 37, 1917 Ky. LEXIS 758 (Ky. 1917), writ of error dismissed, 252 U.S. 1, 40 S. Ct. 255, 64 L. Ed. 421, 1920 U.S. LEXIS 1654 (U.S. 1920).

2. Tax Rate.

This section clearly provides that the prevailing tax rate applied to distilled spirits for all local purposes shall not be different from that levied on all tangible personalty. National Distillers Products Corp. v. Board of Education, 256 S.W.2d 481, 1952 Ky. LEXIS 1151 (Ky. 1952).

3. Collector.

The sheriff is the collector of the tax on distilled spirits. Anderson County v. Collins, 142 Ky. 394, 134 S.W. 463, 1911 Ky. LEXIS 203 (Ky. 1911).

Taxes due city of third class on distilled spirits in bond could be collected by action brought by city attorney, city not being restricted to procedure prescribed in subsection (4) of KRS 92.780 (repealed). Kraver v. Henderson, 155 Ky. 633, 160 S.W. 257, 1913 Ky. LEXIS 331 (Ky. 1913).

4. City Taxation.

Distilled spirits in bonded warehouses are subject to city taxation. Jetts Bros. Distilling Co. v. Carrollton, 178 Ky. 561, 199 S.W. 37, 1917 Ky. LEXIS 758 (Ky. 1917), writ of error dismissed, 252 U.S. 1, 40 S. Ct. 255, 64 L. Ed. 421, 1920 U.S. LEXIS 1654 (U.S. 1920).

5. Estoppel.

Where county clerk had neglected for several years to certify valuation of distilled spirits to tax collector of city in which warehouses were located, and city therefore had never attempted to collect taxes on spirits, city had right, upon discovering clerk's omission and obtaining certification for years in question, to maintain action to recover taxes for such years, no estoppel arising from its failure to make previous demand. Kraver v. Henderson, 155 Ky. 633, 160 S.W. 257, 1913 Ky. LEXIS 331 (Ky. 1913).

Where a city, for several years, levied and collected taxes on distilled spirits under an assessment made by the city assessor, instead of the one made by the tax commission, it was not estopped from subsequently bringing action to recover the additional taxes due for such years by reason of the fact that the tax commission assessment was higher than the city assessment as tax commissioner's assessment was the only assessment the city had a legal right to use. Jetts Bros. Distilling Co. v. Carrollton, 178 Ky. 561, 199 S.W. 37, 1917 Ky. LEXIS 758 (Ky. 1917), writ of error dismissed, 252 U.S. 1, 40 S. Ct. 255, 64 L. Ed. 421, 1920 U.S. LEXIS 1654 (U.S. 1920).

132.160. Taxes on distilled spirits and spirits on which federal taxes not paid, when due — Removal of spirits — Interest.

- (1)(a) Taxes on distilled spirits that shall be assessed while in a bonded warehouse or premises as of January 1, 1967, and January 1 of each year thereafter, shall become due September 15 following the assessment date and shall become delinquent on January 1. Delinquent taxes on such distilled spirits shall be subject to the same penalties as provided by law for other tangible personal property, and the collecting officer shall have all the powers and duties to collect such delinquent taxes, penalties, and interest as provided by law for other tangible personal property in such taxing jurisdiction.

(b) Taxes and interest on distilled spirits assessed while in a bonded warehouse or premises for each year prior to January 1, 1967, on which the federal tax has not been paid, shall be due on January 1, May 1, and September 1 next after the federal tax becomes due or is paid, or after the distilled spirits are removed from the bonded warehouse or premises for transfer in bond out of this state. Provided, however, the remaining state taxes and interest on distilled spirits assessed while in a bonded warehouse or premises as of January 1, 1966, and January 1, 1965, shall be due on or before January 15, 1968; the remaining state taxes and interest on distilled spirits assessed while in a bonded warehouse or premises as of January 1, 1964, shall be due on or before January 15, 1969; the remaining state taxes and interest on distilled spirits assessed while in a bonded warehouse or premises as of January 1, 1963, shall become due on or before January 15, 1970; the remaining state taxes and interest on distilled spirits assessed while in a bonded warehouse or premises as of January 1, 1962, and all prior years shall become due on or before January 15, 1971. After July 1, 1970, any owner or proprietor, or custodian of a bonded warehouse or premises may elect to pay at one (1) time all accrued ad valorem taxes and interest. Such taxes and interest paid under this subsection shall be used for capital outlay by all local taxing jurisdictions.

(2) The taxes shall not become due by reason of a mere removal of the distilled spirits from one bonded warehouse or premises to another bonded warehouse or premises within this state, but in that event the owner or proprietor from whose bonded warehouse or premises the distilled spirits are moved shall execute a bond with good and sufficient surety conditioned upon a payment of all taxes that have accrued upon the distilled spirits prior to removal from the county, city, or taxing district from which the distilled spirits are removed. The bond shall be in an amount sufficient to protect the county, city, or taxing district and shall be approved by the county judge/executive for the county, the mayor for the city, the superintendent of any school district involved, and by the person whose duty it is to collect taxes for any other taxing district. Prior to removal of any distilled spirits, the owner or proprietor from whose bonded warehouse or premises they are to be removed shall give written notice of such intention to the county, city, or taxing district, addressed to the officer thereof abovementioned and stating the quantity of distilled spirits to be moved and the name and address of the bonded warehouse or premises to which they are to be taken. After the distilled spirits are moved, the owner or proprietor shall notify the same officers of the county, city, or taxing district of the amount of accrued taxes on the distilled spirits, together with interest on the taxes. After any distilled spirits have once been moved as provided in this section and are moved again, all taxes that have accrued thereon up to the time of the second removal shall immediately become due and payable to any county, city, or taxing district to which any taxes have accrued.

(3) The taxes on each year's assessment shall bear interest at the tax interest rate as defined in KRS 131.010(6) until paid.

Analysis

1. Lien.
2. Interest.
3. Time of Collection.
4. Destruction.

1. Lien.

The state and county have a lien on the spirits for the taxes assessed against them. Blanton v. Kentucky Distilleries & Warehouse Co., 120 F. 318, 1902 U.S. App. LEXIS 5315 (6th Cir. 1902), aff'd, 149 F. 31, 1906 U.S. App. LEXIS 4413 (6th Cir. 1906), aff'd, Kentucky Distilleries & Warehouse Co. v. Blanton, 149 F. 31, 1906 U.S. App. LEXIS 4413 (6th Cir. 1906), cert. denied, 205 U.S. 543, 27 S. Ct. 790, 51 L. Ed. 922, 1907 U.S. LEXIS 1433 (1907), cert. denied, Kentucky Distilleries & Warehouse Co. v. Blanton, 205 U.S. 543, 27 S. Ct. 790, 51 L. Ed. 922, 1907 U.S. LEXIS 1433 (1907) (decided under prior law).

The state has a lien upon the real estate owned by a warehouseman at the time of assessment of taxes against spirits in his warehouse, for the amount of such taxes, but it has no lien upon a parcel of land sold by the warehouseman before the assessment date. Commonwealth v. Walker, 80 S.W. 185, 25 Ky. L. Rptr. 2122 (1904) (decided under prior law).

2. Interest.

The taxes on each year's assessment bear interest not from the date they are due, but from the date the penalty for delinquency attaches to other ad valorem taxes assessed for the same year. The warehouseman may avoid paying interest by paying the taxes before that time, without waiting until the taxes become due. Commonwealth v. Rosenfield Bros. & Co., 118 Ky. 374, 80 S.W. 1178, 25 Ky. L. Rptr. 2229, 1904 Ky. LEXIS 52 (Ky. 1904) (decided under prior law).

The fact that the state taxing authorities had for several years construed the law as not requiring the payment of interest on annual assessments of bonded whiskey, and had permitted warehousemen to withdraw whiskey on payment of the principal of the tax without interest, did not prevent the state from subsequently collecting interest from the warehousemen, notwithstanding that the warehousemen, by reason of the withdrawal of the whiskey, had lost the lien given them by KRS 132.180 and therefore might never be able to recover the interest from the owners of the whiskey. Thompson v. Kentucky, 209 U.S. 340, 28 S. Ct. 533, 52 L. Ed. 822, 1908 U.S. LEXIS 1708 (U.S. 1908) (decided under prior law).

3. Time of Collection.

Tax on distilled spirits may be collected when spirits are removed from bond or federal tax is paid, notwithstanding that purpose for which tax was levied has been accomplished prior to that time, so long as purpose had not been accomplished at time assessments were made. Wathen v. Young, 103 Ky. 36, 44 S.W. 115, 19 Ky. L. Rptr. 1678, 1898 Ky. LEXIS 25 (Ky. 1898) (decided under prior law).

4. Destruction.

Warehouseman was liable for taxes on spirits in his warehouse destroyed by fire, the destruction being treated as a removal, and his liability included the taxes due on whiskey owned by others, for which he had issued warehouse receipts, as well as whiskey owned by him. Commonwealth ex rel. Sheriff of Woodford County v. Greenbaum, 139 Ky. 138, 129 S.W. 555, 1910 Ky. LEXIS 16 (Ky.), modified, 140 Ky. 221, 130 S.W. 982, 1910 Ky. LEXIS 193 (Ky. 1910) (decided under prior law).

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

Since KRS 45.150 (repealed) states that capital outlays may be authorized to alter, reconstruct, or repair any road, the surfacing of county roads with bituminous asphalt with gravel base would constitute "capital outlay." OAG 67-410.

"Capital outlay" may include: interior reconstruction or decorating of a permanent nature (which becomes a structural part of the building) of a courthouse building, or the construction or reconstruction of a permanent nature of roads and bridges. OAG 68-91.

Tax receipts used for road construction and reconstruction purposes do not violate Ky. Const., § 180. OAG 68-233.

132.190. Property subject to taxation — Situs.

(1) All property shall be subject to taxation, unless it is exempted by the Constitution or in the case of personal property unless it is exempted by the Constitution or by statute. Twenty-five (25) domestic fowl to each family shall be exempt from taxation for any purpose.

(2) All intangible personal property of corporations organized under the laws of this state, unless it has acquired a business situs without this state, shall be considered and estimated in fixing the valuation of corporate franchises.

(3) Property shall be assessed for taxation at its fair cash value, estimated at the price it would bring at a fair voluntary sale, except: real property qualifying for an assessment moratorium shall not have its fair cash value assessment changed while under the assessment moratorium unless the assessment moratorium expires or is otherwise canceled or revoked.

(4) Nothing contained in this section shall affect the liability for franchise taxes payable by corporations organized under the laws of this state.

1. In General.

The oil production license tax imposed by KRS 137.120 is not a substitute for the ad valorem tax on oil leases, and could not constitutionally be such a substitute. Raydure v. Board of Sup'rs, 183 Ky. 84, 209 S.W. 19, 1919 Ky. LEXIS 469 (Ky. 1919).

2. Constitutionality.

The provision of this section that the situs of intangible personalty shall be at the residence of the real or beneficial owner and not at the residence of the fiduciary or agent having custody or possession, and the provision that a resident fiduciary or agent shall not be liable for taxes on intangible personalty held by him if the real or beneficial owner is a nonresident, do not violate Ky. Const., §§ 170, 171 or 172, although the effect of such provisions is to exempt some property which the legislature could make subject to taxation. Henderson v. Barrett's Ex'r, 152 Ky. 648, 153 S.W. 992, 1913 Ky. LEXIS 718 (Ky. 1913).

The assessment of one piece of property at its fair cash value, while other property is assessed at only a percentage of its value, violates the constitutional requirement of uniformity. Eminence Distillery Co. v. Henry County Board of Sup'rs, 178 Ky. 811, 200 S.W. 347, 1918 Ky. LEXIS 473 (Ky. 1918).

The provision of this section that intangible personalty is subject to taxation in this state if the owner resides in this state is constitutional, and such property may be taxed in this state even though it is employed in business wholly in another state and is also taxed by such other state. Bingham's Adm'r v. Commonwealth, 199 Ky. 402, 251 S.W. 936, 1923 Ky. LEXIS 907 (Ky. 1923).

Intangible personalty beneficially owned by a resident of this state may constitutionally be taxed in this state, despite the fact that the management of such property and the possession of the paper evidences of the property have been entrusted to a nonresident agent or fiduciary for employment in a business conducted wholly outside of this state, and regardless of whether the management and possession were entrusted to the nonresident agent or trustee by the present beneficial owner or by a previous owner from whom the beneficial title was obtained by the present owner. Bingham's Adm'r v. Commonwealth, 199 Ky. 402, 251 S.W. 936, 1923 Ky. LEXIS 907 (Ky. 1923).

A stockholder in a corporation may constitutionally be required to pay taxes on his stock, even though the property of the corporation, including its franchise, is also taxed. Shinkle's Estate v. Kenton County Board of Sup'rs, 216 Ky. 59, 287 S.W. 209, 1926 Ky. LEXIS 829 (Ky. 1926). See Siler v. Board of Sup'rs, 221 Ky. 100, 298 S.W. 189, 1927 Ky. LEXIS 669 (Ky. 1927).

The state cannot constitutionally levy an ad valorem tax upon the accounts and notes receivable and bank deposits of a Kentucky corporation where the intangibles in question admittedly have a business situs in other states. Standard Oil Co. v. Commonwealth, 311 S.W.2d 372, 1957 Ky. LEXIS 8 (Ky. 1957).

3. Legislative Power.

The legislative taxing power extends to all kinds of intangible property, whether consisting of privileges, franchises, contracts or obligations. Wolfe County v. Beckett, 127 Ky. 252, 105 S.W. 447, 32 Ky. L. Rptr. 167, 1907 Ky. LEXIS 136 (Ky. 1907).

4. Contemporaneous Construction.

Failure of assessing officers to assess a particular class of property does not amount to a contemporaneous construction that such property is not subject to taxation. Commonwealth ex rel. Huntsman v. Kentucky Distilleries & Warehouse Co., 143 Ky. 314, 136 S.W. 1032, 1911 Ky. LEXIS 466 (Ky. 1911). See Baltimore & O. S. W. R. Co. v. Commonwealth, 177 Ky. 566, 198 S.W. 35, 1917 Ky. LEXIS 655 (Ky. 1917).

5. County Tax.

Definite and specific legislation is not necessary in order to permit counties to levy ad valorem tax on personalty, for counties under their general taxing power to assess personalty for taxation could apportion or allocate to themselves a part or share of the value of an item or unit of personalty and thus they could levy such tax on towboats and barges of company where boats and barges had acquired tax situs in Kentucky and in the several counties. Reeves v. Island Creek Fuel & Transp. Co., 313 Ky. 400, 230 S.W.2d 924, 1950 Ky. LEXIS 859 (Ky.), cert. denied, 340 U.S. 853, 71 S. Ct. 82, 95 L. Ed. 625, 1950 U.S. LEXIS 1535 (U.S. 1950).

6. Property.

Only "property" is taxable, but anything constituting property that is not exempted from taxation is taxable. Commonwealth ex rel. Huntsman v. Kentucky Distilleries & Warehouse Co., 143 Ky. 314, 136 S.W. 1032, 1911 Ky. LEXIS 466 (Ky. 1911).

"Property" means everything of value that a person owns that is or may be the subject of sale or exchange or that when offered for sale will bring some price. Commonwealth ex rel. Huntsman v. Kentucky Distilleries & Warehouse Co., 143 Ky. 314, 136 S.W. 1032, 1911 Ky. LEXIS 466 (Ky. 1911).

Amounts due whiskey warehouseman for storage on whiskey against which negotiable warehouse receipts had been issued, which amounts were due when whiskey was withdrawn from warehouse, were "property" subject to taxation. Commonwealth ex rel. Huntsman v. Kentucky Distilleries & Warehouse Co., 143 Ky. 314, 136 S.W. 1032, 1911 Ky. LEXIS 466 (Ky. 1911).

Every character and species of property not exempted from taxation by the constitution is subject to taxation, although it is not specifically mentioned in the schedule prepared for the guidance of the assessor and taxpayer. Raydure v. Board of Sup'rs, 183 Ky. 84, 209 S.W. 19, 1919 Ky. LEXIS 469 (Ky. 1919).

In determining whether a thing is "property" within the meaning of the tax laws, the test is whether the thing has a cash value in some amount, and whether a bidder could be found who would pay a cash price, no matter how small, for it. Raydure v. Board of Sup'rs, 183 Ky. 84, 209 S.W. 19, 1919 Ky. LEXIS 469 (Ky. 1919).

The state may tax only such property as is subject to its sovereignty, and has a taxable situs in the state. Commonwealth by Mays v. Union P. R. Co., 214 Ky. 339, 283 S.W. 119, 1926 Ky. LEXIS 337 (Ky. 1926).

Ordinarily, real property held under a lease is not taxable in the hands of the lessee. Wolfe County v. Beckett, 127 Ky. 252, 105 S.W. 447, 32 Ky. L. Rptr. 167, 1907 Ky. LEXIS 136 (Ky. 1907).

An oil lease giving the exclusive right of development is taxable property in the hands of the lessee, even though no wells have been drilled and no oil discovered in paying quantities. Raydure v. Board of Sup'rs, 183 Ky. 84, 209 S.W. 19, 1919 Ky. LEXIS 469 (Ky. 1919).

Oil and gas leases and the rights conferred thereby are "property" and are subject to taxation at their fair cash value, estimated at the price they would bring at a fair voluntary sale. Estill County v. Superior Oil Corp., 210 Ky. 539, 276 S.W. 527, 1925 Ky. LEXIS 724 (Ky. 1925).

8. —Personal.

All personal property of persons residing in this state is taxable here except tangible personalty located and having a taxable situs outside of this state. Commonwealth v. Bingham's Adm'r, 188 Ky. 616, 223 S.W. 999, 1920 Ky. LEXIS 331 (Ky. 1920).

The idea of permanency, with respect to personal property, seems generally to be that for such property to acquire a taxable situs it must have a more or less permanent location as distinguished from a transient or temporary one; however, permanency in the sense that it must be fixed like real property is not essential to the establishment of the taxable situs, it seems to be sufficient that when, in the ordinary course of business, property is present and being used and employed with a consistent continuity and not spasmodically and temporarily. Reeves v. Island Creek Fuel & Transp. Co., 313 Ky. 400, 230 S.W.2d 924, 1950 Ky. LEXIS 859 (Ky.), cert. denied, 340 U.S. 853, 71 S. Ct. 82, 95 L. Ed. 625, 1950 U.S. LEXIS 1535 (U.S. 1950).

9. —Intangible.

The intangible personal property of a franchise-paying corporation is subject to assessment and taxation only as it constitutes part of the value of the franchise, and not separately. Commonwealth v. Cumberland Tel. & Tel. Co., 124 Ky. 535, 99 S.W. 604, 30 Ky. L. Rptr. 723, 1907 Ky. LEXIS 208 (Ky. 1907).

The Kentucky Constitution does not prohibit the taxing of intangible personal property owned by nonresidents, where such property has a situs in this state. Higgins v. Commonwealth, 126 Ky. 211, 103 S.W. 306, 31 Ky. L. Rptr. 653, 1907 Ky. LEXIS 44 (Ky. 1907).

The location of the paper evidences of the ownership of intangible property is of no importance in determining the situs of such property for purposes of taxation. Commonwealth v. Peebles, 134 Ky. 121, 119 S.W. 774, 1909 Ky. LEXIS 364 (Ky. 1909). See Commonwealth ex rel. Auditor's Agent v. Northwestern Mut. Life Ins. Co., 107 S.W. 233, 32 Ky. L. Rptr. 796 (1908).

Interest of seller in contract for sale of mining property was taxable property, notwithstanding that deed tendered pursuant to contract had not been accepted, no purchase notes had been executed, and contract was involved in litigation, such factors only affecting the value of the contract and not its taxability. Gish v. Shaver, 140 Ky. 647, 131 S.W. 515, 1910 Ky. LEXIS 344 (Ky. 1910).

Storage accounts due for whiskey in bonded warehouses against which warehouse receipts had been issued were taxable in Kentucky, notwithstanding that warehouse owner was a foreign corporation, where warehouses and main business office of corporation were in Kentucky. Commonwealth ex rel. Huntsman v. Kentucky Distilleries & Warehouse Co., 143 Ky. 314, 136 S.W. 1032, 1911 Ky. LEXIS 466 (Ky. 1911).

An account, though not due or collectible on the assessing date, may be the subject of assessment and taxation. Commonwealth ex rel. Huntsman v. Kentucky Distilleries & Warehouse Co., 143 Ky. 314, 136 S.W. 1032, 1911 Ky. LEXIS 466 (Ky. 1911).

Any enforceable, collectible demand that one person has against another, or against property upon which it is a lien and out of which it can be collected, is taxable property. Commonwealth ex rel. Huntsman v. Kentucky Distilleries & Warehouse Co., 143 Ky. 314, 136 S.W. 1032, 1911 Ky. LEXIS 466 (Ky. 1911). See Fayette Realty & Finance Co. v. Commonwealth, 229 Ky. 556, 17 S.W.2d 722, 1929 Ky. LEXIS 810 (Ky. 1929).

Choses in action, although representing debts owed by residents of this state, are not taxable here if the owner is a nonresident, unless they have acquired a business situs here. Commonwealth v. Prudential Life Ins. Co., 149 Ky. 380, 149 S.W. 836, 1912 Ky. LEXIS 633 (Ky. 1912).

Fact that bonds are secured by a mortgage on Kentucky property and their collection must be enforced in the Kentucky courts, if suit for that purpose is necessary, does not make them subject to taxation therein if owned by a nonresident. Commonwealth v. Consolidated Casualty Co., 170 Ky. 103, 185 S.W. 508, 1916 Ky. LEXIS 18 (Ky. 1916).

Intangible personalty has a situs for the purpose of taxation at the legal residence of the owner. Millett's Ex'r v. Commonwealth, 184 Ky. 193, 211 S.W. 562, 1919 Ky. LEXIS 39 (Ky. 1919).

Where a decedent was a resident of Kentucky at the time of her death, her intangible personalty was taxable in Kentucky in the hands of her personal representative, although she died before the assessment date and the personal representative was not appointed until after that date, and the paper evidences of ownership of the property were in a New York bank. Commonwealth v. Bingham's Adm'r, 188 Ky. 616, 223 S.W. 999, 1920 Ky. LEXIS 331 (Ky. 1920).

The fact that substantially all stock of selling corporation was owned by manufacturing corporation organized after the selling corporation does not make selling corporation a mere agent so as to subject intangible receivables transferred by selling corporation to Kentucky ad valorem taxes. Board of Tax Supervisors v. Baldwin Piano Co., 296 Ky. 673, 178 S.W.2d 212, 1944 Ky. LEXIS 613 (Ky. 1944).

If intangibles are only temporarily in this state in the agent's or fiduciary's possession and he does not use them in the owner's business in Kentucky and has no control over them except to forward the intangibles to the owner within a reasonable time or in the ordinary course of business, then such intangibles do not become an integral part of the owner's business and are not localized in Kentucky and are not taxable. Board of Tax Supervisors v. Baldwin Piano Co., 296 Ky. 673, 178 S.W.2d 212, 1944 Ky. LEXIS 613 (Ky. 1944).

Intangible personal property has its legal situs at the domicile of its owner, except where the property is so employed in business in a state other than that of the owner's domicile as to acquire a business situs therein. Commonwealth ex rel. Luckett v. Radio Corp. of America, 299 Ky. 44, 184 S.W.2d 250, 1944 Ky. LEXIS 1029 (Ky. 1944).

While a railroad company did have the power to buy and sell securities to facilitate its corporate purposes as a common carrier, the company could not maintain that it was operating an independent and separate securities business having a business situs in New York to exempt it from ad valorem taxation in Kentucky. Commonwealth ex rel. Luckett v. Louisville & N. R. Co., 479 S.W.2d 15, 1972 Ky. LEXIS 286 (Ky.), cert. denied, 409 U.S. 949, 93 S. Ct. 269, 34 L. Ed. 2d 219, 1972 U.S. LEXIS 957 (U.S. 1972).

Foreign corporation, which conducted mercantile, manufacturing operations on leased premises in this state and did not offer evidence to show that its manufacturing operations in Kentucky were not local to Kentucky and independent of its manufacturing concerns at its domicile, failed to prove that the lease did not have a business situs within this State so as to avoid taxation of its intangible personal property, including a leasehold interest. Kentucky Dep't of Revenue v. Hobart Mfg. Co., 549 S.W.2d 297, 1977 Ky. LEXIS 408 (Ky. 1977).

10. — Debts.

Debts due to a resident of Kentucky are taxable in Kentucky, notwithstanding that the debtor is a nonresident and the debt can be enforced only in the courts of the state in which the debtor resides. Fidelity & Columbia Trust Co. v. Louisville, 245 U.S. 54, 38 S. Ct. 40, 62 L. Ed. 145, 1917 U.S. LEXIS 1787 (U.S. 1917).

A debt secured by a lien is taxable, but the lien itself is not taxable. A lien given merely for the purpose of indemnity against future loss is not taxable. Fayette Realty & Finance Co. v. Commonwealth, 229 Ky. 556, 17 S.W.2d 722, 1929 Ky. LEXIS 810 (Ky. 1929).

11. — Corporate.

Intangible property of a domestic corporation is taxable for local purposes only at the place where the corporation has its principal office in the state, and not at places where it has branch offices. Covington v. Standard Oil Co., 137 Ky. 837, 127 S.W. 480, 1910 Ky. LEXIS 636 (Ky. 1910).

12. — Royalties.

Where lessee of oil rights in land sold his interest in the lease to another, but reserved as part of the consideration the right to one-sixteenth of the oil produced from the lease, the right so reserved was taxable property. Mt. Sterling Oil & Gas Co. v. Ratliff, 127 Ky. 1, 104 S.W. 993, 31 Ky. L. Rptr. 1229, 1907 Ky. LEXIS 109 (Ky. 1907).

Royalties due owner of real estate from oil lease were taxable against him, as against contention that the value of the royalty interest could not be separately assessed from the land itself. Commonwealth by Revenue Agent v. Garrett, 202 Ky. 548, 260 S.W. 379, 1924 Ky. LEXIS 766 (Ky. 1924).

13. — Tangible.

Where tangible personal property has been exported to a foreign country, the state cannot inquire into the motives of the exporter, or levy a tax on the property on the theory that the sole purpose of the exporter was to avoid state taxation and therefore the property never lost its taxable situs in this state. Commonwealth v. Selliger, 126 Ky. 66, 30 Ky. L. Rptr. 451, 98 S.W. 1040, 1907 Ky. LEXIS 11 (Ky. 1907), rev'd, Selliger v. Kentucky, 213 U.S. 200, 29 S. Ct. 449, 53 L. Ed. 761, 1909 U.S. LEXIS 1867 (1909) (on other grounds).

Tangible personal property permanently located outside of this state is not taxable in this state, though the owner resides in this state. Commonwealth v. Selliger, 126 Ky. 66, 30 Ky. L. Rptr. 451, 98 S.W. 1040, 1907 Ky. LEXIS 11 (Ky. 1907), rev'd, Selliger v. Kentucky, 213 U.S. 200, 29 S. Ct. 449, 53 L. Ed. 761, 1909 U.S. LEXIS 1867 (1909) (on other grounds).

Tangible personal property having merely a temporary location at a place other than the domicile of the owner is not taxable at such place. Hill v. Caldwell, 134 Ky. 99, 119 S.W. 749, 1909 Ky. LEXIS 357 (Ky. 1909). See Semple v. Commonwealth, 181 Ky. 675, 205 S.W. 789, 1918 Ky. LEXIS 601 (Ky. 1918); John Ross & Co. v. Board of Sup'rs, 186 Ky. 589, 217 S.W. 677, 1920 Ky. LEXIS 4 (Ky. 1920); Commonwealth by Mays v. Union P. R. Co., 214 Ky. 339, 283 S.W. 119, 1926 Ky. LEXIS 337 (Ky. 1926); Cumberland Pipe Line Co. v. Commonwealth, 258 Ky. 90, 79 S.W.2d 366, 1934 Ky. LEXIS 575 (Ky. 1934).

There is a presumption that all tangible personal property in this state on the assessment date is subject to assessment at the place where it is located, and the owner seeking to avoid assessment has the burden of proving that the property was located at such place for only a temporary purpose. John Ross & Co. v. Board of Sup'rs, 186 Ky. 589, 217 S.W. 677, 1920 Ky. LEXIS 4 (Ky. 1920).

Tangible personal property that has no permanent location, or is transient, is taxable at the domicile of the owner. Cumberland Pipe Line Co. v. Commonwealth, 258 Ky. 90, 79 S.W.2d 366, 1934 Ky. LEXIS 575 (Ky. 1934).

The more modern rule is that the actual situs of visible tangible personal property, and not the domicile of the owner, determines the place of taxation, and that tangible personal property may be taxed in the state where it is physically located. Reeves v. Island Creek Fuel & Transp. Co., 313 Ky. 400, 230 S.W.2d 924, 1950 Ky. LEXIS 859 (Ky. 1950), cert. denied, 340 U.S. 853, 71 S. Ct. 82, 95 L. Ed. 625, 1950 U.S. LEXIS 1535 (1950).

If it is determined that tangible personal property has a taxable situs within the state it is irrelevant that the property is employed in interstate transportation either by water or by land. Reeves v. Island Creek Fuel & Transp. Co., 313 Ky. 400, 230 S.W.2d 924, 1950 Ky. LEXIS 859 (Ky.), cert. denied, 340 U.S. 853, 71 S. Ct. 82, 95 L. Ed. 625, 1950 U.S. LEXIS 1535 (U.S. 1950).

14. — Nonresident.

Tobacco which was purchased by a nonresident with the intention of shipping it to England in fulfillment of contracts made to deliver it to merchants there, but which was stored in warehouses in Kentucky on the assessment date and for several months prior and subsequent thereto awaiting the obtention of shipping facilities, had a taxable situs in Kentucky. John Ross & Co. v. Board of Sup'rs, 186 Ky. 589, 217 S.W. 677, 1920 Ky. LEXIS 4 (Ky. 1920).

Property sent into a state by a nonresident to be used or employed permanently there, must bear its fair share of the burden of taxation, although no one unit of such property is ever more than temporarily located within the taxing state, thus where the specific and individual items of property used and employed in the state are not continuously the same, but are constantly changing according to the exigencies of business, the tax should be fixed by an appraisal and valuation of the average amount of the property thus habitually used and employed. Reeves v. Island Creek Fuel & Transp. Co., 313 Ky. 400, 230 S.W.2d 924, 1950 Ky. LEXIS 859 (Ky.), cert. denied, 340 U.S. 853, 71 S. Ct. 82, 95 L. Ed. 625, 1950 U.S. LEXIS 1535 (U.S. 1950).

Warehouse receipts for whiskey are not taxable property, since they represent only a right of access to the warehoused goods. Selliger v. Kentucky, 213 U.S. 200, 29 S. Ct. 449, 53 L. Ed. 761, 1909 U.S. LEXIS 1867 (U.S. 1909). See Baltimore & O. S. W. R. Co. v. Commonwealth, 177 Ky. 566, 198 S.W. 35, 1917 Ky. LEXIS 655 (Ky. 1917).

Where a refrigerator car company leased most of its cars to railroad companies for operation in other states, but operated some cars in Kentucky, those operated in Kentucky were taxable in Kentucky. Morrrell Refrigerator Car Co. v. Commonwealth, 128 Ky. 447, 108 S.W. 926, 32 Ky. L. Rptr. 1383, 32 Ky. L. Rptr. 1389, 1908 Ky. LEXIS 86 (Ky. 1908).

The shares of federal joint stock land banks are taxable. Land v. Kentucky Joint Stock Land Bank, 279 Ky. 645, 131 S.W.2d 838, 1939 Ky. LEXIS 327 (Ky. 1939).

16. —Exemption.

Trade-marks are not taxable property. Commonwealth v. Kentucky Distilleries & Warehouse Co., 132 Ky. 521, 116 S.W. 766, 1909 Ky. LEXIS 130 (Ky. 1909).

Where a foreign corporation doing business in Kentucky does not receive sufficient income from its Kentucky business to defray expenses, money sent to Kentucky to pay expenses, and placed on deposit in Kentucky banks for that purpose, is not taxable in Kentucky. Hillman Land & Iron Co. v. Commonwealth, 148 Ky. 331, 146 S.W. 776, 1912 Ky. LEXIS 453 (Ky. 1912) (Ky. 1912).

Notes given to mutual insurance company by its policyholders, which merely secured the obligation of the policyholders to pay assessments, were not taxable property in the hands of the company, the liability on such notes being contingent. Kentucky & Louisville Mut. Ins. Co. v. Commonwealth, 153 Ky. 824, 156 S.W. 897, 1913 Ky. LEXIS 934 (Ky. 1913).

The fact that a foreign insurance company had an executive office in this state, and its officers resided in this state, did not make subject to taxation in this state real estate mortgage bonds purchased by the company with funds derived from sources other than business done in this state, such bonds being kept at its home office in West Virginia. Commonwealth v. Consolidated Casualty Co., 170 Ky. 103, 185 S.W. 508, 1916 Ky. LEXIS 18 (Ky. 1916).

An unliquidated claim for damages for breach of contract is not taxable property. Commonwealth by Byars v. Travelers' Ins. Mach. Co., 181 Ky. 596, 205 S.W. 561, 1918 Ky. LEXIS 550 (Ky. 1918).

The agreement of the purchaser of mortgaged property to pay the mortgage and to indemnify the vendor against loss has no taxable value. Fayette Realty & Finance Co. v. Commonwealth, 229 Ky. 556, 17 S.W.2d 722, 1929 Ky. LEXIS 810 (Ky. 1929).

Where a corporation whose sole asset consisted of a piece of real estate mortgaged the real estate to a trustee to secure the amounts due the holders of its preferred stock, and then conveyed the real estate to a person who assumed the mortgage and agreed to pay the purchase price to the holders of the preferred stock in retirement of such stock, the deed reserving a lien to the corporation to secure it against any liability to the holders of its preferred stock which should not be paid by the purchaser of the real estate, the obligation of the purchaser to the corporation, and the lien securing such obligation, had no taxable value. Fayette Realty & Finance Co. v. Commonwealth, 229 Ky. 556, 17 S.W.2d 722, 1929 Ky. LEXIS 810 (Ky. 1929).

The fact that excursion steamers were used in coastwise traffic would not exempt them from an excise tax on their admissions, since the tax is upon the business done and is not upon navigation. Shannon v. Streckfus Steamers, Inc., 279 Ky. 649, 131 S.W.2d 833, 1939 Ky. LEXIS 326 (Ky. 1939).

The fact that excursion steamers were registered in another state would not exempt them from the ordinary rules respecting taxation of property or its use wholly within this state. Shannon v. Streckfus Steamers, Inc., 279 Ky. 649, 131 S.W.2d 833, 1939 Ky. LEXIS 326 (Ky. 1939).

17. —Mineral Leases.

Oil or gas leases are to be listed by the lessee for taxation in the county in which the leased premises are located. Mt. Sterling Oil & Gas Co. v. Ratliff, 127 Ky. 1, 104 S.W. 993, 31 Ky. L. Rptr. 1229, 1907 Ky. LEXIS 109 (Ky. 1907). See Wolfe County v. Beckett, 127 Ky. 252, 105 S.W. 447, 32 Ky. L. Rptr. 167, 1907 Ky. LEXIS 136 (Ky. 1907).

Oil or gas leases, under which all property rights to the oil or gas that may be found in paying quantities on the leased premises are vested in the lessee, are taxable to the lessee. Wolfe County v. Beckett, 127 Ky. 252, 105 S.W. 447, 32 Ky. L. Rptr. 167, 1907 Ky. LEXIS 136 (Ky. 1907).

The interest of the lessor in a coal mining lease is subject to taxation, notwithstanding that the interest of the lessee in the lease, and the money received by the lessor in the way of royalties, are also taxed. Stapp v. Pike County Board of Sup'rs, 194 Ky. 176, 238 S.W. 408, 1922 Ky. LEXIS 132 (Ky. 1922).

The ordinary mining lease with a reserved royalty in the lessor has the effect to create distinct items of property for purposes of taxation in both the lessor and the lessee as to the minerals or mineral rights as distinguished from the ownership of the surface, and the lessor is liable not only for the taxes on the surface of his land but likewise upon the mineral rights reserved or created in him by the lease. Moss v. Board of Sup'rs, 203 Ky. 813, 263 S.W. 368, 1924 Ky. LEXIS 1021 (Ky. 1924).

18. —Mineral and Surface Estates.

The owner of land in fee is liable for taxes on both the mineral and surface estates. Kentucky River Coal Corp. v. Knott County, 245 Ky. 822, 54 S.W.2d 377, 1932 Ky. LEXIS 687 (Ky. 1932).

19. —Bank Deposits.

Bank accounts in a Missouri bank, representing the profits of a business conducted in Missouri, were taxable in Kentucky where the owner of the accounts was a resident of Kentucky. Fidelity & Columbia Trust Co. v. Louisville, 245 U.S. 54, 38 S. Ct. 40, 62 L. Ed. 145, 1917 U.S. LEXIS 1787 (U.S. 1917).

20. —Claim in Litigation.

County bond was taxable property in hands of holder, notwithstanding that its value was questionable because of pending litigation in which county was seeking to avoid payment of bond. Boyd v. Commonwealth, 149 Ky. 656, 149 S.W. 914, 1912 Ky. LEXIS 666 (Ky. 1912).

21. —Railroad Rolling Stock.

Where foreign railroad company operated daily trains in and out of Kentucky, the average number of units of its rolling stock that were in Kentucky at all times were taxable in Kentucky. Baltimore & O. S. W. R. Co. v. Commonwealth, 177 Ky. 566, 198 S.W. 35, 1917 Ky. LEXIS 655 (Ky. 1917).

22. —Nonresident Business.

Where a nonresident established a business in Kentucky, which was managed by agents permanently residing in Kentucky, the bank accounts and business accounts of such business were taxable in Kentucky. Commonwealth v. R. G. Dun & Co., 126 Ky. 108, 102 S.W. 859, 31 Ky. L. Rptr. 561, 1907 Ky. LEXIS 19 (Ky. 1907).

23. —Interstate Commerce.

Property in possession of common carriers in transit in interstate commerce is not taxable, at least as against the carrier. Cumberland Pipe Line Co. v. Commonwealth, 258 Ky. 90, 79 S.W.2d 366, 1934 Ky. LEXIS 575 (Ky. 1934).

The fact that property is in the possession of a common carrier does not exempt it from taxation as against the owner, if the property is not moving in interstate commerce. Cumberland Pipe Line Co. v. Commonwealth, 258 Ky. 90, 79 S.W.2d 366, 1934 Ky. LEXIS 575 (Ky. 1934).

Oil in the possession of a pipeline company, and in actual transit in interstate commerce, is not taxable against the company. Cumberland Pipe Line Co. v. Commonwealth, 258 Ky. 90, 79 S.W.2d 366, 1934 Ky. LEXIS 575 (Ky. 1934).

24. Residence.

Where resident of Kentucky announced his intention to move to Texas and make his home there, and left Kentucky for that purpose a few days before the date as of which property is assessed in Kentucky, but did not reach Texas until several days after such date, he was a legal resident of Kentucky on the assessment date, his Texas residence not becoming effective until he reached that state. Boyd's Ex'r v. Commonwealth, 149 Ky. 764, 149 S.W. 1022, 1912 Ky. LEXIS 716 (Ky. 1912).

The committee of an incompetent has no power to change the legal residence of the incompetent from one state to another, although it may change his local residence. Sumrall's Committee v. Commonwealth, 162 Ky. 658, 172 S.W. 1057, 1915 Ky. LEXIS 129 (Ky. 1915).

Where a mental incompetent who had been a resident of Kentucky prior to being declared incompetent was sent by his committee to an asylum in another state for care and treatment, his residence for the purpose of taxation remained in Kentucky. Sumrall's Committee v. Commonwealth, 162 Ky. 658, 172 S.W. 1057, 1915 Ky. LEXIS 129 (Ky. 1915).

The fact that an individual purchased the controlling interest in a Kentucky corporation doing business in Louisville, maintained a personal checking account in a Louisville bank, and took a year's lease on an apartment in Louisville, did not constitute him a resident of Kentucky for the purpose of taxation, where the purchase of the corporation was for a speculative purpose only, the banking account and apartment were used only for his convenience during trips to Louisville, and he spent the greater portion of his time in Texas, where he had a permanent dwelling and which he always claimed as his home. Semple v. Commonwealth, 181 Ky. 675, 205 S.W. 789, 1918 Ky. LEXIS 601 (Ky. 1918).

The fact that a person who was originally a resident of Tennessee bought a farm in Kentucky, improved and furnished the house on the farm and resided there a substantial portion of his time, personally managed the farm, kept a bank account in a Kentucky bank, and occasionally referred to the farm as his "home," did not fix his legal residence in Kentucky, where he continued to maintain a home for his mother, brothers and sisters in Tennessee, where he kept his personal belongings, participated in church and lodge affairs, purchased a family cemetery lot there, and always claimed to be a resident of Tennessee. Millett's Ex'r v. Commonwealth, 184 Ky. 193, 211 S.W. 562, 1919 Ky. LEXIS 39 (Ky. 1919).

The fact that person who moved from Kentucky to Florida registered as a voter in Florida, listed his property for taxation there, and spent around half of his time there for a number of years, was sufficient to overcome the presumption, arising from the fact that he returned to Kentucky for several months each year, that he did not intend to establish a permanent residence in Florida. Utz v. Wallace's Adm'x, 249 Ky. 296, 60 S.W.2d 614, 1933 Ky. LEXIS 510 (Ky. 1933).

25. —Personal Representative.

In the case of the personal representative of an estate, his residence for the purpose of determining the situs of intangible property of the estate is in the state in which he was appointed as personal representative and to whose courts he is accountable, regardless of his actual residence as an individual. Commonwealth v. Peebles, 134 Ky. 121, 119 S.W. 774, 1909 Ky. LEXIS 364 (Ky. 1909).

26. —Beneficial Owner.

The provision of this section that a fiduciary or agent is not liable for taxes on intangible personalty held by him if the real or beneficial owner "resides" outside of this state refers to legal residence of the real or beneficial owner. Sumrall's Committee v. Commonwealth, 162 Ky. 658, 172 S.W. 1057, 1915 Ky. LEXIS 129 (Ky. 1915).

27. Apportioning Taxes.

Where foreign railroad company operated daily trains in and out of Kentucky, the average number or units of rolling stock was taxable according to its value, and not according to a percentage based on the ratio of mileage in Kentucky to out-of-state mileage. Baltimore & O. S. W. R. Co. v. Commonwealth, 177 Ky. 566, 198 S.W. 35, 1917 Ky. LEXIS 655 (Ky. 1917).

If the statutes imposing the tax provided a method of apportionment that method would be exclusive, but where the statutes did not prescribe any scheme for assessment, in taxing company's towboats and barges court must look to see if the mileage basis was a fair and just method of calculating the aliquot part of company's boats and barges which had acquired a tax situs in Kentucky and several taxing districts. Reeves v. Island Creek Fuel & Transp. Co., 313 Ky. 400, 230 S.W.2d 924, 1950 Ky. LEXIS 859 (Ky.), cert. denied, 340 U.S. 853, 71 S. Ct. 82, 95 L. Ed. 625, 1950 U.S. LEXIS 1535 (U.S. 1950).

Where company conducted its operations throughout the year with relatively few interruptions and its tugs and barges moved along a route of 162 miles 94.6 percent of which was in Kentucky and thus had a taxable situs in Kentucky, to apportion the taxes against the company's boats and barges in proportion to the length of the line operated and location in each state, county and other taxing jurisdictions was logical and fair. Reeves v. Island Creek Fuel & Transp. Co., 313 Ky. 400, 230 S.W.2d 924, 1950 Ky. LEXIS 859 (Ky.), cert. denied, 340 U.S. 853, 71 S. Ct. 82, 95 L. Ed. 625, 1950 U.S. LEXIS 1535 (U.S. 1950).

Cattle temporarily in pasture in a county other than that in which the owner resided were not taxable in such county. Hill v. Caldwell, 134 Ky. 99, 119 S.W. 749, 1909 Ky. LEXIS 357 (Ky. 1909).

Where resident managers and agents of foreign life insurance company collected premiums from policies issued to Kentucky residents, and placed them in Kentucky banks to the account of the company, and the money in such accounts was promptly transferred to the home office of the company by drafts drawn by the home office on the Kentucky banks, the resident managers having no authority to draw on the accounts and their expenses being paid by money forwarded from the home office, such bank accounts did not have a taxable situs in Kentucky. Commonwealth v. Prudential Life Ins. Co., 149 Ky. 380, 149 S.W. 836, 1912 Ky. LEXIS 633 (Ky. 1912).

Ordinarily intangible personal property follows the person of the owner, but its situs may be fixed elsewhere by the legislature. The legislature has the power to fix the situs of intangible property held in trust at the residence of the trustee or at the residence of the beneficial owner. Henderson v. Barrett's Ex'r, 152 Ky. 648, 153 S.W. 992, 1913 Ky. LEXIS 718 (Ky. 1913).

Real estate mortgage bonds secured by real estate located in Kentucky, purchased by a foreign insurance company with funds not accumulated from business done in Kentucky, did not have a taxable situs in Kentucky. Commonwealth v. Consolidated Casualty Co., 170 Ky. 103, 185 S.W. 508, 1916 Ky. LEXIS 18 (Ky. 1916).

The situs of tangible personal property is at the place where it has a permanent physical location, regardless of the residence of the owner. Millett's Ex'r v. Commonwealth, 184 Ky. 193, 211 S.W. 562, 1919 Ky. LEXIS 39 (Ky. 1919). See Commonwealth ex rel. Alexander v. Haggin, 99 S.W. 906, 30 Ky. L. Rptr. 788 (1907).

Intangible property, including bank accounts, held and managed in another state by a trustee residing in that state, for the benefit of a beneficiary residing in Kentucky, had a taxable situs in Kentucky. Bingham's Adm'r v. Commonwealth, 199 Ky. 402, 251 S.W. 936, 1923 Ky. LEXIS 907 (Ky. 1923).

Tobacco in the hands of a cooperative marketing association was subject to city taxation in the city in which the tobacco was warehoused. Burley Tobacco Growers' Co-op. Asso. v. Carrollton, 208 Ky. 270, 270 S.W. 749, 1925 Ky. LEXIS 268 (Ky. 1925).

Chattels transiently present in the transactions of commercial operations do not have a taxable situs within this state. Commonwealth by Mays v. Union P. R. Co., 214 Ky. 339, 283 S.W. 119, 1926 Ky. LEXIS 337 (Ky. 1926).

Oil in the possession of a pipeline company, awaiting shipment, was taxable at the domicile of the owner. Cumberland Pipe Line Co. v. Commonwealth, 258 Ky. 90, 79 S.W.2d 366, 1934 Ky. LEXIS 575 (Ky. 1934).

Interest of Kentucky resident in assets of partnership engaged in operations on New York Stock Exchange was not taxable in Kentucky, where partnership accounts were carried with brokers in New York, securities traded in were carried in name of New York brokers, and trading was almost universally carried on in person by the Kentucky partner at the brokerage offices in New York, he spending more time there than in Kentucky. Commonwealth v. Madden's Ex'r, 265 Ky. 684, 97 S.W.2d 561, 1936 Ky. LEXIS 551 (Ky. 1936).

Life estate in trust created in another state for Kentucky resident who was to receive the income therefrom for life had its situs in Kentucky and said resident was required to list and pay taxes thereon. Commonwealth ex rel. Martin v. Sutcliffe, 283 Ky. 274, 140 S.W.2d 1028, 1940 Ky. LEXIS 310 (Ky. 1940).

Where boats and barges of company in carrying out business of company distributing annually approximately 500,000 tons of coal along a 162-mile route, 94.6 percent of which was within Kentucky, and the tugs and the barges, an indispensable part of the whole as designed by the company in the operation of its business, were as necessarily present in Kentucky as the loading and unloading facilities that had their situs in Ohio and West Virginia respectively, this continuity and consistency of presence in Kentucky attached such permanency as to take it out of the area of mere transiency or a sporadic and temporary presence and the parts of the whole received protection in Kentucky and thus they had acquired tax situs in Kentucky. Reeves v. Island Creek Fuel & Transp. Co., 313 Ky. 400, 230 S.W.2d 924, 1950 Ky. LEXIS 859 (Ky.), cert. denied, 340 U.S. 853, 71 S. Ct. 82, 95 L. Ed. 625, 1950 U.S. LEXIS 1535 (U.S. 1950).

Where a Kentucky resident entered into a trust agreement with a Georgia bank whereby she retained the right to control all purchases and sales which the trustee might make and to amend or revoke the trust agreement at any time, the trust did not become an integral portion of the business activity of Georgia so that it became identified with the economic structure of that state and was not exempt from taxation under the provisions of this statute. Kentucky Dep't of Revenue v. Bomar, 486 S.W.2d 532, 1972 Ky. LEXIS 111 (Ky. 1972).

29. —Determination.

The situs of intangible personal property for purposes of taxation depends altogether on legislative enactment or judicial construction. Higgins v. Commonwealth, 126 Ky. 211, 103 S.W. 306, 31 Ky. L. Rptr. 653, 1907 Ky. LEXIS 44 (Ky. 1907).

The situs of intangible personal property may be fixed by the legislature at a place other than the residence of the owner, but until the legislature chooses to exercise that power such property is taxable only at the residence of the owner. Commonwealth ex rel. Auditor's Agent v. Northwestern Mut. Life Ins. Co., 107 S.W. 233, 32 Ky. L. Rptr. 796 (1908).

The Legislature has the power to fix the taxable situs of intangible personal property, if it does not act arbitrarily in so doing. Exemption from taxation of intangible personal property owned by nonresidents did not violate Ky. Const., § 172. Commonwealth v. Sun Life Assurance Co., 294 Ky. 19, 170 S.W.2d 890, 1943 Ky. LEXIS 376 (Ky. 1943).

30. —Property at Marketing Point.

Tobacco in warehouses of a tobacco processing and marketing corporation was taxable in the city in which the warehouses were situated, unless there for only a temporary purpose, regardless of the residence of the owners of the tobacco, so long as the owners had not listed and paid taxes on the tobacco at the place of their residence. Paris v. Burley Tobacco Soc., 154 Ky. 320, 157 S.W. 705, 1913 Ky. LEXIS 78 (Ky. 1913).

31. —Temporary.

An automobile and some furniture, kept in Louisville by a resident of Texas for his comfort and convenience when temporarily sojourning in Louisville, did not have a taxable situs in Kentucky. Semple v. Commonwealth, 181 Ky. 675, 205 S.W. 789, 1918 Ky. LEXIS 601 (Ky. 1918).

Property in transit, whether it is actually moving or has come to rest temporarily within the limits of a taxing district, does not acquire a taxable situs in such district. Cumberland Pipe Line Co. v. Commonwealth, 258 Ky. 90, 79 S.W.2d 366, 1934 Ky. LEXIS 575 (Ky. 1934).

32. —Settlement of Estate.

When a decedent's estate is in the hands of a personal representative for settlement and distribution, and before the estate has been or should have been settled or distributed, the personal representative should list the estate for taxation and pay taxes thereon in the state in which he qualified as personal representative, regardless of the residence of the beneficiaries of the estate and without reference to the extent of the debts or demands against the estate. Commonwealth v. Camden, 142 Ky. 365, 134 S.W. 914, 1911 Ky. LEXIS 242 (Ky. 1911).

33. —Railroad Rolling Stock.

Railroad freight cars owned by foreign railroad companies which neither owned nor operated any lines in Kentucky, but which cars were operated by other railroads in Kentucky from time to time under the customary per diem arrangement between railroads for the exchange of freight cars, did not have a taxable situs in Kentucky. Commonwealth by Mays v. Union P. R. Co., 214 Ky. 339, 283 S.W. 119, 1926 Ky. LEXIS 337 (Ky. 1926).

34. —Bank Deposits.

Bank deposits owned by nonresidents are not taxable in Kentucky unless the money represented by the deposits has a business situs in Kentucky arising from the use of the money in permanent business operations in Kentucky. Hillman Land & Iron Co. v. Commonwealth, 148 Ky. 331, 146 S.W. 776, 1912 Ky. LEXIS 453 (Ky. 1912) (Ky. 1912).

Money on deposit in a New York bank to the joint credit of a Kentucky resident and her New York agent, which agent had the power to draw on the account and used the money to make investments for the Kentucky resident, had a taxable situs in Kentucky. Bingham's Adm'r v. Commonwealth, 199 Ky. 402, 251 S.W. 936, 1923 Ky. LEXIS 907 (Ky. 1923).

35. —Patent.

A patent right is an intangible, incorporeal right granted by the federal government and is as broad as the government's jurisdiction, but it has no situs apart from the domicile of the owner. Commonwealth ex rel. Lockett v. Radio Corp. of America, 299 Ky. 44, 184 S.W.2d 250, 1944 Ky. LEXIS 1029 (Ky. 1944).

Where Delaware corporation, holding a patent on radio tubes, entered into a contract in New York with another Delaware corporation, which had its principal office and manufacturing plant in Kentucky, under which contract the manufacturing corporation was licensed to manufacture tubes under the patent in consideration of the payment of royalties, neither the debt for royalties due under the contract, nor the patent right, acquired a business situs in Kentucky. Commonwealth ex rel. Lockett v. Radio Corp. of America, 299 Ky. 44, 184 S.W.2d 250, 1944 Ky. LEXIS 1029 (Ky. 1944).

36. —Ocean-going Steamship.

Ocean-going steamships plying between New York and Havana, New York and New Orleans, and New York and Galveston were held not to have a permanent situs at either of such places, notwithstanding that they were enrolled at the port of New York, and they were therefore taxable at the domicile of the owner in Kentucky. Southern Pacific Co. v. Kentucky, 222 U.S. 63, 32 S. Ct. 13, 56 L. Ed. 96, 1911 U.S. LEXIS 1857 (U.S. 1911).

Evidence consisting of federal census reports, reports of state board of equalization, reports of state tax commissioner (now property valuation administrator), and affidavits of individuals from different counties, was sufficient to support finding that property was being intentionally, systematically and notoriously assessed at only a percentage of its value, and to overcome presumption that assessing officers did their duty. Louisville & N. R. Co. v. Greene, 244 U.S. 522, 37 S. Ct. 683, 61 L. Ed. 1291, 1917 U.S. LEXIS 1661 (U.S. 1917), overruled in part, Pennhurst State Sch. & Hosp. v. Halderman, 465 U.S. 89, 104 S. Ct. 900, 79 L. Ed. 2d 67, 1984 U.S. LEXIS 4 (U.S. 1984).

Assessment of the franchise of a public service corporation at its full value may be enjoined if other intangible property is being uniformly assessed by local assessing officers at only a percentage of its value. Louisville & N. R. Co. v. Greene, 244 U.S. 522, 37 S. Ct. 683, 61 L. Ed. 1291, 1917 U.S. LEXIS 1661 (1917), overruled in part, Pennhurst State Sch. & Hosp. v. Halderman, 465 U.S. 89, 104 S. Ct. 900, 79 L. Ed. 2d 67, 1984 U.S. LEXIS 4 (1984). See Greene v. Louisville & I. R. Co., 244 U.S. 499, 37 S. Ct. 673, 61 L. Ed. 1280, 1917 U.S. LEXIS 1660 (U.S. 1917), overruled in part, Pennhurst State Sch. & Hosp. v. Halderman, 465 U.S. 89, 104 S. Ct. 900, 79 L. Ed. 2d 67, 1984 U.S. LEXIS 4 (U.S. 1984).

Collection of state taxes based upon an assessment at full value may be enjoined in a suit in federal court against the state assessing and collecting officers, where other property is being uniformly assessed at only a percentage of its value. Louisville & N. R. Co. v. Greene, 244 U.S. 522, 37 S. Ct. 683, 61 L. Ed. 1291, 1917 U.S. LEXIS 1661 (U.S. 1917), overruled in part, Pennhurst State Sch. & Hosp. v. Halderman, 465 U.S. 89, 104 S. Ct. 900, 79 L. Ed. 2d 67, 1984 U.S. LEXIS 4 (U.S. 1984).

Where the lease provides that a portion of the oil or gas shall be received by the lessor as royalty, the value of such portion is to be deducted in fixing the value of the lease. Wolfe County v. Beckett, 127 Ky. 252, 105 S.W. 447, 32 Ky. L. Rptr. 167, 1907 Ky. LEXIS 136 (Ky. 1907).

Amounts due whiskey warehouseman for storage of whiskey had an ascertainable market value, notwithstanding that amounts were not payable at time of assessment and persons owning whiskey might elect to abandon it. Commonwealth ex rel. Huntsman v. Kentucky Distilleries & Warehouse Co., 143 Ky. 314, 136 S.W. 1032, 1911 Ky. LEXIS 466 (Ky. 1911).

In assessing mining property for taxation the lack of a willing purchaser does not necessarily import that the property has no taxable value at that time for in such cases other factors such as net revenue, dividends, or profit that may be realized upon the operation of a going mine, its prospects of continuing such operation and the prospective length of time thereof, the material that had to be mined, and the physical condition of the property may be looked to for the purpose of fixing a correct market value for valuation. Carr's Fork Coal Co. v. Perry County Board of Supervisors, 263 Ky. 642, 93 S.W.2d 359, 1936 Ky. LEXIS 232 (Ky. 1936). See Letcher County Fiscal Court v. State Tax Com., 211 Ky. 609, 277 S.W. 988, 1925 Ky. LEXIS 933 (Ky. 1925); Board of Sup'rs v. Swift Coal & Timber Co., 238 Ky. 21, 36 S.W.2d 664, 1931 Ky. LEXIS 176 (Ky. 1931); Kentucky River Coal Corp. v. Knott County, 245 Ky. 822, 54 S.W.2d 377, 1932 Ky. LEXIS 687 (Ky. 1932); Atlantic States Coal Corp. v. Letcher County, 246 Ky. 549, 55 S.W.2d 408, 1932 Ky. LEXIS 810 (Ky. 1932); Kenmont Coal Co. v. Perry County Board of Sup'rs, 262 Ky. 764, 91 S.W.2d 47, 1936 Ky. LEXIS 95 (Ky. 1936).

In the case of a going plant, it is not proper to value each separate item of property constituting a part of the plant at the price it would bring if it were sold separately, and then add the separate values together. The plant should be treated as a unit, and the parts composing the unit should be assessed at the value they have as parts of the unit. Carr's Fork Coal Co. v. Perry County Board of Supervisors, 263 Ky. 642, 93 S.W.2d 359, 1936 Ky. LEXIS 232 (Ky. 1936).

Assessed valuation of property was fixed by court at 60 percent of fair cash value, where county and city had adopted that standard for assessing property, since all taxpayers must be treated alike. Prestonsburg Water Co. v. Prestonsburg Board of Sup'rs, 279 Ky. 551, 131 S.W.2d 451, 1939 Ky. LEXIS 305 (Ky. 1939), overruled, Department of Revenue ex rel. Lockett v. Allied Drum Service, Inc., 561 S.W.2d 323, 1978 Ky. LEXIS 318 (Ky. 1978).

37. —Unequal.

Taxpayer could not obtain relief from assessment of his intangible property at its full value without showing that other intangible property was being uniformly and knowingly assessed throughout the state at only a percentage of its value. It was not enough to show that tangible property, or other intangibles in the same county, was being assessed at a percentage of its value. Siler v. Board of Sup'rs, 221 Ky. 100, 298 S.W. 189, 1927 Ky. LEXIS 669 (Ky. 1927).

In order to obtain relief from an assessment of his property at its full value, the taxpayer must show that there has been an intentional assessment of other property in the same class at only a percentage of its value. Siler v. Board of Sup'rs, 221 Ky. 100, 298 S.W. 189, 1927 Ky. LEXIS 669 (Ky. 1927).

38. Fair Cash Value.

In determining the fair cash value of a manufacturing plant, such as a distillery, where it is difficult to determine the sale value because of the infrequency of sales of that kind of property, the limited number of persons who have the financial ability to become purchasers, the small number of such plants in comparison with other species of property, and the dissimilarity in size and equipment of the various plants, the assessors must take into consideration the conditions and circumstances that surround the particular case, such as the extent and location of the property, its accessibility to market, transportation facilities, cost of equipment and construction, and its adaptability for the purpose. Eminence Distillery Co. v. Henry County Board of Sup'rs, 178 Ky. 811, 200 S.W. 347, 1918 Ky. LEXIS 473 (Ky. 1918).

The price that a piece of property would bring at a forced or involuntary sale is not to be considered as a basis for determining the fair cash value of the property, but the willingness of the owner to sell, the presence of a person desiring to buy, and the contemplation of a sale being made, must all be considered. Eminence Distillery Co. v. Henry County Board of Sup'rs, 178 Ky. 811, 200 S.W. 347, 1918 Ky. LEXIS 473 (Ky. 1918).

Property is taxable if it has a cash value. It has value if at a fair, voluntary sale it would bring anything. Estill County v. Superior Oil Corp., 210 Ky. 539, 276 S.W. 527, 1925 Ky. LEXIS 724 (Ky. 1925).

It was error to fix value of oil leases at a percentage of the gross income from the leases for the taxing period; the only permissible basis of valuation is the price the leases would bring at a fair, voluntary sale. Estill County v. Superior Oil Corp., 210 Ky. 539, 276 S.W. 527, 1925 Ky. LEXIS 724 (Ky. 1925).

The value of property for tax purposes is its fair cash value as of the assessment date, and not what it was worth in the past or might be worth in the future. Atlantic States Coal Corp. v. Letcher County, 246 Ky. 549, 55 S.W.2d 408, 1932 Ky. LEXIS 810 (Ky. 1932).

The fact that a willing purchaser is not obtainable at the time of assessment does not import that the property has no taxable value. In such a case, the net revenue that may be realized from the operation of the property, the prospects of continued operation, its physical condition, and the value of the various components of which the property consists, may be considered in fixing the value. Carr's Fork Coal Co. v. Perry County Board of Supervisors, 263 Ky. 642, 93 S.W.2d 359, 1936 Ky. LEXIS 232 (Ky. 1936).

Amount paid for purchase of property and amount expended in improvements are not a proper criterion in fixing fair value, but are elements to be considered. Prestonsburg Water Co. v. Prestonsburg Board of Sup'rs, 279 Ky. 551, 131 S.W.2d 451, 1939 Ky. LEXIS 305 (Ky. 1939), overruled, Department of Revenue ex rel. Lockett v. Allied Drum Service, Inc., 561 S.W.2d 323, 1978 Ky. LEXIS 318 (Ky. 1978).

It is the legislative intent that all property be assessed at its fair cash value, which should be the controlling standard to which all other considerations must yield. Rogers v. Pike County Bd. of Sup'rs., 288 Ky. 742, 157 S.W.2d 346, 1941 Ky. LEXIS 199 (Ky. 1941).

The value, for taxation purposes, of a life estate paying the holder $900 a month should be determined by mortality tables and the fact that such are used to arrive at value rather than speculative opinion evidence as to the cash value such an estate estimated at the price it would bring at a fair voluntary sale does not violate the spirit or intent of this section. Evans v. Boyle County Board of Sup'rs, 296 Ky. 353, 177 S.W.2d 137, 1944 Ky. LEXIS 538 (Ky. 1944).

39. —Reduction to Percentage of Value.

Where the circuit court, on appeal from the county board of supervisors, found that the fair cash value of the property involved was a certain sum, but it was established by proof that all other property in the county was uniformly assessed at only 60 percent of its value, it was the duty of the court to fix the value of the property in question at only 60 percent of its actual value, thus affording the only practical remedy available. Eminence Distillery Co. v. Henry County Board of Sup'rs, 178 Ky. 811, 200 S.W. 347, 1918 Ky. LEXIS 473 (Ky. 1918).

40. —Private Sale.

Where land was sold at private sale shortly before the assessment date, and there was nothing to indicate that the sale was not a fair, voluntary sale, the price paid for the land should have been considered as the fair cash value of the land for tax purposes. Westova Gas Co. v. Knott County Board of Sup'rs, 246 Ky. 334, 55 S.W.2d 21, 1932 Ky. LEXIS 764 (Ky. 1932).

41. Taxation by Another State.

The fact that property is taxed in one state does not necessarily exclude such property from taxation in another state. Fidelity & Columbia Trust Co. v. Louisville, 245 U.S. 54, 38 S. Ct. 40, 62 L. Ed. 145, 1917 U.S. LEXIS 1787 (U.S. 1917).

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

The fact that the equipment of a West Virginia contractor doing a job in Kentucky could be assessed for taxation in both states does not constitute prohibited double taxation. OAG 61-975.

Stock in a bank which is domiciled in Tennessee is an intangible and is taxable under this section irrespective of the fact that the owner may also have to pay a tax on the same stock in Tennessee. OAG 63-216.

Property held in trust for the DAR, the Glasgow Garden Club, the Glasgow Business and Professional Women's Club, and the Glasgow Matinee Music Club, is assessable under this section since the beneficial owners of the property do not qualify for an exemption as institutions of purely public charity under Ky. Const., § 170. OAG 66-122.

A mortgage and deed of trust secured by real estate and other tangible property is not a property interest subject to ad valorem property tax under subsection (2) of KRS 132.020 nor intangible property subject to tax under this section. OAG 74-352.

There is a presumption that all tangible personal property, such as motor vehicles, in the city on the assessment date is subject to assessment for taxes by the city, and the owner who seeks to avoid the assessment has the burden of proving that the property is located in the city for only a temporary purpose and was listed for taxes at some other place. OAG 74-369.

If the property currently used for parking purposes by a church group is in excess of the applicable acre limitation, any excess is not exempt from taxation under the laws of this Commonwealth as long as it is not used also for worship services or as a parsonage. OAG 78-180.

Under this section, all real and personal property within this state is subject to taxation, unless exempted by the Constitution and while household goods of a person used in his home are exempt from taxation, under § 170 of the Kentucky Constitution, the personal property of the taxpayer used in his business or profession is not exempt, which means a lawyer would have to list for taxes the personal tangible property in his law office, which could include law library, bookcases, typewriters, filing cabinets and other items of equipment used in that office. OAG 79-140.

In connection with transfer of notes secured by mortgages on single-family dwellings within this state, where neither the corporation owning and holding the notes nor the corporation proposing to purchase them was a resident of Kentucky, the secured notes would not be subject to state or local ad valorem taxation. OAG 82-264.

Where the property to be assessed has recently been sold and thus the assessment is being made not on the basis of an estimate but on the basis of the actual consideration recently paid, no deduction should be made for broker's commissions, financing costs or other similar items. OAG 83-13.

The tax assessor is not restricted to one specific method for assessing real property so long as the assessment is fair and equitable. OAG 83-13.

132.191. Valid valuation methods — Minimum applicable appraisal standards.

(1) The General Assembly recognizes that Section 172 of the Constitution of Kentucky requires all property, not exempted from taxation by the Constitution, to be assessed at one hundred percent (100%) of the fair cash value, estimated at the price the property would bring at a fair voluntary sale, and that it is the responsibility of the property valuation administrator to value property in accordance with the Constitution.

(2) The General Assembly further recognizes that property valuation may be determined using a variety of valid valuation methods, including but not limited to:

(a) A cost approach, which is a method of appraisal in which the estimated value of the land is combined with the current depreciated reproduction or replacement cost of improvements on the land;

(b) An income approach, which is a method of appraisal based on estimating the present value of future benefits arising from the ownership of the property;

(c) A sales comparison approach, which is a method of appraisal based on a comparison of the property with similar properties sold in the recent past; and

(d) A subdivision development approach, which is a method of appraisal of raw land:

1. When subdivision and development are the highest and best use of the parcel of raw land being appraised; and

2. When all direct and indirect costs and entrepreneurial incentives are deducted from the estimated anticipated gross sales price of the finished lots, and the resultant net sales proceeds are then discounted to present value at a market-derived rate over the development and absorption period.

(3) The valuation of a residential, commercial, or industrial tract development shall meet the minimum applicable appraisal standards established by:

(a) The Kentucky Department of Revenue, as stated in its Guidelines for Assessment of Vacant Lots, dated March 26, 2008; or

(b) The International Association of Assessing Officers.

(4) To be appraised using the subdivision development approach, a subdivision development shall consist of five (5) or more units. The appraisal of the development shall reflect deductions and discounts for:

(a) Holding costs, including interest and maintenance;

(b) Marketing costs, including commissions and advertising; and

(c) Entrepreneurial profit.

NOTES TO UNPUBLISHED DECISIONS

1. Income Generation Method.

Unpublished decision: Property Valuation Administrator did not err in its valuation of commercial real property under Ky. Const. § 172 and Ky. Rev. Stat. Ann. § 132.690 where the payments under the leasehold were indisputably benefits that arose out of the ownership of the property, and thus, it was not error to consider those payments in determining the property's fair cash value under the income generation approach of Ky. Rev. Stat. Ann. § 132.191(2)(b). Wilgreens, LLC v. O'Neill, 2016 Ky. App. Unpub. LEXIS 893 (Ky. Ct. App. Sept. 23, 2016), review denied, ordered not published, 2017 Ky. LEXIS 101 (Ky. Mar. 15, 2017).

132.192. Property tax exemption reciprocity.

All real and personal property owned by another state or a political subdivision of another state that is used exclusively for public purposes shall be exempt from taxation under this chapter if a comparable exemption is provided in that state or political subdivision for property owned by the Commonwealth of Kentucky or its political subdivisions.

History.

Enact. Acts 2005, ch. 173, Pt. XXIII, § 1, effective March 20, 2005.

132.193. Assessment of possessory interests in tax-exempt personal property — Lessee's liability.

(1) Leased personal property exempt from taxation when held by a natural person, association, or corporation in connection with a business conducted for profit, shall be subject to taxation in the same amount and to the same extent as though the lessee were the owner of the property, except personal property used in vending stands operated by blind persons under the auspices of the Division of Kentucky Business Enterprise.

(2) Taxes shall be assessed to lessees of exempt personal property and collected in the same manner as taxes assessed to owners of other personal property, except that taxes due under this section shall not become a lien against the personal property. When due, such taxes shall constitute a debt due from the lessee to the state, county, school district, special district, city, urban-county government, charter county, consolidated local government, or unified local government for which the taxes were assessed and if unpaid shall be recoverable by the state as provided in KRS Chapter 134.

History.

Enact. Acts 1988, ch. 146, § 1, effective July 15, 1988; repealed and reenact., Acts 1990, ch. 476, Pt. V, § 321, effective July 13, 1990; 2006, ch. 211, § 16, effective July 12, 2006; 2009, ch. 10, § 34, effective January 1, 2010; 2019 ch. 146, § 7, effective June 27, 2019.

Compiler's Notes.

This section (Enact. Acts 1988, ch. 146, § 1, effective July 15, 1988) was also repealed by Acts 1990, ch. 415, § 2, effective July 13, 1990.

Legislative Research Commission Notes.

(7/13/90) Pursuant to Section 653(2) of 1990 House Bill 940, Acts Ch. 476, the repeal and reenactment of this section by that Act prevails over its repeal in another Act of the 1990 Regular Session.

132.195. Assessment of possessory interest in tax-exempt real or personal property — Lessee's liability.

(1) When any real or personal property which is exempt from taxation is leased or possession is otherwise transferred to a natural person, association, partnership, or corporation in connection with a business conducted for profit, the leasehold or other interest in the property shall be subject to state and local taxation at the rate applicable to real or personal property levied by each taxing jurisdiction.

(2) Subsection (1) of this section shall not apply to interests in:

(a) Industrial buildings, as defined under KRS 103.200, owned and financed by a tax-exempt governmental unit or tax-exempt statutory authority under the provisions of KRS Chapter 103, the taxation of which is provided for under the provisions of KRS 132.020 and 132.200;

(b) Federal property for which payments are made in lieu of taxes in amounts equivalent to taxes which might otherwise be lawfully assessed;

(c) Property of any state-supported educational institution;

(d) Vending stand locations and facilities operated by blind persons under the auspices of the Division of Kentucky Business Enterprise, regardless of whether the property is owned by the federal, state, or a local government;

(e) Property of any free public library;

(f) Property in Fayette County, Kentucky, administered by the Department of Military Affairs, Bluegrass Station Division;

(g) All privately owned leasehold interests in residential property when the residential property is owned in fee simple by a purely public charity as of July 1, 2020:

1. When the real property includes a residential property unit that is:

a. Leased by the purely public charity for a period of at least one (1) year to an individual person who is fifty-five (55) years of age or older;

b. Maintained as the individual person's permanent residence under a lease agreement that:

i. Prohibits the lessee from subleasing the unit; and

ii. Provides that the lessee's possessory interest in the unit is terminable by the lessor upon the death of the lessee, the physical or mental inability of the lessee to continue to reside in the unit, or the lessee's relocation to a nursing home or similar assisted living facility; and

c. Constructed on or before July 1, 2020, or constructed after July 1, 2020, on land that was privately owned in fee simple by the purely public charity on or before July 1, 2020;

2. If the fee simple ownership is transferred by the purely public charity after July 1, 2020, it shall be transferred to another purely public charity and the requirements established for the residential property unit in subparagraph 1. of this paragraph shall be maintained; and

3. The taxation of which is provided for under KRS 132.020 and 132.200; or

(h) All privately owned leasehold interests in residential property owned in fee simple by a purely public charity, which is exempt from ad valorem taxation under Kentucky Constitution Section 170, when the residential property unit is leased by the purely public charity to an individual person who is:

1. Receiving medical or educational supportive services from the purely public charity; and

2.a. A postsecondary educational participant;

b. A minor;

c. Sick, disabled, or impoverished; or

d. Over the age of sixty-five (65).

(3) Taxes shall be assessed to lessees of exempt real or personal property and collected in the same manner as taxes assessed to owners of other real or personal property, except that taxes due under this section shall not become a lien against the property. When due, such taxes shall constitute a debt due from the lessee to the state, county, school district, special district, or urban-county government for which the taxes were assessed and if unpaid shall be recoverable by the state as provided in KRS Chapter 134.

History.

Enact. Acts 1988, ch. 146, § 2, effective July 15, 1988; 1990, ch. 415, § 1, effective July 13, 1990; 1990, ch. 476, Pt. V, § 322, effective July 13, 1990; 2006, ch. 211, § 17, effective July 12, 2006; 2009, ch. 10, § 35, effective January 1, 2010; 2013, ch. 32, § 159, effective March 19, 2013; 2019 ch. 146, § 8, effective June 27, 2019; 2020 ch. 91, § 60, effective April 15, 2020.

Legislative Research Commission Notes.

(4/15/2020). 2020 Ky. Acts ch. 91, sec. 79 provides that the changes made to this statute in Section 60 of that Act apply to privately owned leasehold interests in residential property assessed on or after January 1, 2021.

(7/13/90) The Act amending this section prevails over the repeal and reenactment in House Bill 940, Acts Ch. 476, pursuant to Section 653(1) of Acts Ch. 476.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

1. Nonprofit Use.

2. —No Exemption.

It was error to adjudge individuals' leasehold interests in airport property to be used for building and maintaining an airplane hangar exempt from taxation because no profit was earned in connection with such property. No exemption is provided for exempt property held by nonprofit natural persons, associations or partnerships. Pike County Bd. of Assessment Appeals & Revenue Cabinet v. Friend, 932 S.W.2d 378, 1996 Ky. App. LEXIS 110 (Ky. Ct. App. 1996).

Real property owned by a charity, but exclusively occupied by several residents, was not entitled to the charitable exemption in the Kentucky Constitution because the residences were not occupied by tax exempt entities; the residents' respective possessory interests was subject to ad valorem taxation. However, the fair market value of each resident's respective possessory interest was improperly assessed; the fair market value was obtained by subtracting the fair market value of the particular unit with the resident's leasehold from the fair market value of the unit without the leasehold. Grand Lodge of Ky. Free & Accepted Masons v. City of Taylor Mill, 2017 Ky. App. LEXIS 28 (Ky. Ct. App. Feb. 10, 2017, sub. op., 2017 Ky. App. Unpub. LEXIS 949 (Ky. Ct. App. Feb. 10, 2017).

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

Subsection (1) of this section attempts to levy an ad valorem tax on the fair cash value of the property against the lessee of the property and, accordingly, this section is unconstitutional and unenforceable. OAG 89-89 (opinion prior to 1990 amendment).

This section sets up an irrebuttable presumption that the fair cash value of any leasehold interest will always equal the fair cash value of the fee, and this is patently unconstitutional. OAG 89-89.

132.200. Property subject to state tax only.

All property subject to taxation for state purposes shall also be subject to taxation in the county, city, school, or other taxing district in which it has a taxable situs, except the class of property described in KRS

132.030 and the following classes of property, which shall be subject to taxation for state purposes only:

(1) Farm implements and farm machinery owned by or leased to a person actually engaged in farming and used in his farm operation;

(2) Livestock, ratite birds, and domestic fowl;

(3) Capital stock of savings and loan associations;

(4) Machinery actually engaged in manufacturing, products in the course of manufacture, and raw material actually on hand at the plant for the purpose of manufacture. The printing, publication, and distribution of a newspaper or operating a job printing plant shall be deemed to be manufacturing;

(5)(a) Commercial radio and television equipment used to receive, capture, produce, edit, enhance, modify, process, store, convey, or transmit audio or video content or electronic signals which are broadcast over the air to an antenna;

(b) Equipment directly used or associated with the equipment identified in paragraph (a) of this subsection, including radio and television towers used to transmit or facilitate the transmission of the signal broadcast, but excluding telephone and cellular communications towers; and

(c) Equipment used to gather or transmit weather information;

(6) Unmanufactured agricultural products. They shall be exempt from taxation for state purposes to the extent of the value, or amount, of any unpaid nonrecourse loans thereon granted by the United States government or any agency thereof, and except that cities and counties may each impose an ad valorem tax of not exceeding one and one-half cents ($0.015) on each one hundred dollars ($100) of the fair cash value of all unmanufactured tobacco and not exceeding four and one-half cents ($0.045) on each one hundred dollars ($100) of the fair cash value of all other unmanufactured agricultural products, subject to taxation within their limits that are not actually on hand at the plants of manufacturing concerns for the purpose of manufacture, nor in the hands of the producer or any agent of the producer to whom the products have been conveyed or assigned for the purpose of sale;

(7) All privately owned leasehold interest in industrial buildings, as defined under KRS 103.200, owned and financed by a tax-exempt governmental unit, or tax-exempt statutory authority under the provisions of KRS Chapter 103, except that the rate shall not apply to the proportion of value of the leasehold interest created through any private financing;

(8) Tangible personal property which has been certified as a pollution control facility as defined in KRS 224.1-300. In the case of tangible personal property certified as a pollution control facility which is incorporated into a landfill facility, the tangible personal property shall be presumed to remain tangible personal property for purposes of this subsection if the tangible personal property is being used for its intended purposes;

(9) Property which has been certified as an alcohol production facility as defined in KRS 247.910;

(10) On and after January 1, 1977, the assessed value of unmined coal shall be included in the formula contained in KRS 132.590(9) in determining the amount of county appropriation to the office of the property valuation administrator;

(11) Tangible personal property located in a foreign trade zone established pursuant to 19 U.S.C. sec. 81, provided that the zone is activated in accordance with the regulations of the United States Customs Service and the Foreign Trade Zones Board;

(12) Motor vehicles qualifying for permanent registration as historic motor vehicles under the provisions of KRS 186.043. However, nothing herein shall be construed to exempt historical motor vehicles from the usage tax imposed by KRS 138.460;

(13) Property which has been certified as a fluidized bed energy production facility as defined in KRS 211.390;

(14) All motor vehicles:

(a) Held for sale in the inventory of a licensed motor vehicle dealer, including motor vehicle auction dealers, which are not currently titled and registered in Kentucky and are held on an assignment pursuant to the provisions of KRS 186A.230;

(b) That are in the possession of a licensed motor vehicle dealer, including licensed motor vehicle auction dealers, for sale, although ownership has not been transferred to the dealer; and

(c) With a salvage title held by an insurance company;

(15) Machinery or equipment owned by a business, industry, or organization in order to collect, source separate, compress, bale, shred, or otherwise handle waste materials if the machinery or equipment is primarily used for recycling purposes as defined in KRS 139.010;

(16) New farm machinery and other equipment held in the retailer's inventory for sale under a floor plan financing arrangement by a retailer, as defined under KRS 365.800;

(17) New boats and new marine equipment held for retail sale under a floor plan financing arrangement by a dealer registered under KRS 235.220;

(18) Aircraft not used in the business of transporting persons or property for compensation or hire if an exemption is approved by the county, city, school, or other taxing district in which the aircraft has its taxable situs;

(19) Federally documented vessels not used in the business of transporting persons or property for compensation or hire or for other commercial purposes, if an exemption is approved by the county, city, school, or other taxing district in which the federally documented vessel has its taxable situs;

(20) Any nonferrous metal that conforms to the quality, shape, and weight specifications set by the New York Mercantile Exchange's special contract rules for metals, and which is located or stored in a commodity warehouse and held on warrant, or for which a written request has been made to a commodity warehouse to place it on warrant, according to the rules and regulations of a trading facility. In this subsection:

(a) "Commodity warehouse" means a warehouse, shipping plant, depository, or other facility that has been designated or approved by a trading facility as a regular delivery point for a commodity on contracts of sale for future delivery; and

(b) "Trading facility" means a facility that is designated by or registered with the federal Commodity Futures Trading Commission under 7 U.S.C. secs. 1 et seq. "Trading facility" includes the Board of Trade of the City of Chicago, the Chicago Mercantile Exchange, and the New York Mercantile Exchange;

(21) Qualifying voluntary environmental remediation property for a period of three (3) years following the Energy and Environment Cabinet's issuance of a No Further Action Letter or its equivalent, pursuant to the correction of the effect of all known releases of hazardous substances, pollutants, contaminants, petroleum, or petroleum products located on the property consistent with a corrective action plan approved by the Energy and Environment Cabinet pursuant to KRS 224.1-400, 224.1-405, or 224.60-135, and provided the cleanup was not financed through a public grant program of the petroleum storage tank environmental assurance fund;

(22) Biotechnology products held in a warehouse for distribution by the manufacturer or by an affiliate of the manufacturer. For the purposes of this section:

(a) "Biotechnology products" means those products that are applicable to the prevention, treatment, or cure of a disease or condition of human beings and that are produced using living organisms, materials derived from living organisms, or cellular, subcellular, or molecular components of living organisms. Biotechnology products does not include pharmaceutical products which are produced from chemical compounds;

(b) "Warehouse" includes any establishment that is designed to house or store biotechnology products, but does not include blood banks, plasma centers, or other similar establishments;

(c) "Affiliate" means an individual, partnership, or corporation that directly or indirectly owns or controls, or is owned or controlled by, or is under common ownership or control with, another individual, partnership, or corporation;

(23) Recreational vehicles held for sale in a retailer's inventory;

(24) A privately owned leasehold interest in residential property described in KRS 132.195(2)(g), if an exemption is approved by the county, city, school, or other taxing district in which the residential property is located; and

(25) Prefabricated homes held for sale in a manufacturer's or retailer's inventory.

History.

4019a-5, 4019a-10, 4019a-16: amend. Acts 1948, ch. 207; 1954, ch. 159, § 1; 1965 (1st Ex. Sess.), ch. 2, § 12; 1968, ch. 152, § 103; 1970, ch. 185, § 1; 1974, ch. 137, § 5, effective June 21, 1974; 1976, ch. 84, § 5, effective March 29, 1976; 1978, ch. 116, § 1, effective June 17, 1978; 1978, ch. 404, § 2, effective March 30, 1978; 1980, ch. 210, § 7, effective July 15, 1980; 1982, ch. 229, § 2, effective July 15, 1982; 1984, ch. 169, § 2, effective July 13, 1984; 1986, ch. 359, § 2, effective July 15, 1986; 1986, ch. 431, § 17, effective July 15, 1986; 1986, ch. 476, § 6, effective July 15, 1986; 1990, ch. 106, § 3, effective July 13, 1990; 1990, ch. 461, § 2, effective July 13, 1990; 1990, ch. 476, Pt. Sess.), ch. 12, § 47, effective February 26, 1991; 1992, ch. 8, § 1, effective July 14, 1992; 1992, ch. 338, § 22, effective July 14, 1992; 1994, ch. 68, § 3, effective July 15, 1994; 1996, ch. 254, § 26, effective July 15, 1996; 1998, ch. 55, § 2, effective July 15, 1998; 1998, ch. 168, § 2, effective July 15, 1998; 1998, ch. 266, § 2, effective July 15, 1998; 1998, ch. 385, § 2, effective July 15, 1998; 1998, ch. 600, § 9, effective April 14, 1998; 2000, ch. 327, § 3, effective July 14, 2000; 2001, ch. 55, § 1, effective June 21, 2001; 2002, ch. 324, § 2, effective July 15, 2002; 2005, ch. 25, § 1, effective June 20, 2005; 2005, ch. 168, § 57, effective January 1, 2006; 2007, ch. 100, § 3, effective June 26, 2007; 2008, ch. 81, § 1, effective July 15, 2008; 2008, ch. 95, § 18, effective August 1, 2008; 2010, ch. 24, § 98, effective July 15, 2010; 2013, ch. 94, § 3, effective June 25, 2013; 2013, ch. 119, § 8, effective January 1, 2014; 2014, ch. 128, § 5, effective July 15, 2014; 2016 ch. 93, § 3, effective July 15, 2016; 2020 ch. 91, § 62, effective April 15, 2020; 2022 ch. 212, § 48, effective July 14, 2022.

Compiler's Notes.

Section 2 of Chapter 55 of the Acts of the 2001 Regular Session read: "This Act shall apply for property assessed on or after January 1, 2001."

Legislative Research Commission Notes.

(7/14/2022). 2022 Ky. Acts ch. 212, sec. 69, provides that the amendments made to this statute shall be apply to property assessed on or after January 1, 2023.

(4/15/2020). 2020 Ky. Acts ch. 91, sec. 79 provides that the changes made to this statute in Section 62 of that Act apply to privately owned leasehold interests in residential property assessed on or after January 1, 2021.

(7/15/2014). 2014 Ky. Acts ch. 128, sec. 8 provides that the amendments to this statute made in 2014 Ky. Acts ch. 128, sec. 5, shall apply to property assessed on or after January 1, 2015.

(1/1/2014). 2013 Ky. Acts ch. 119, sec. 26, provides that the amendments to this statute in 2013 Ky. Acts ch. 119, sec. 8, shall apply to property assessed on or after January 1, 2014.

(1/1/2014). 2013 Ky. Acts ch. 119, sec. 24, provides, "It is the intent of the General Assembly that the changes made in [this statute and KRS 132.020], relating to tangible personal property which has been certified as a pollution control facility, are to clarify existing provisions in the law, as follows:

"(1) That the tax rate of fifteen cents ($0.15) upon each one hundred dollars ($100) of value only applies to tangible personal property which has been certified as a pollution control facility; and

(2) That only tangible personal property certified as a pollution control facility is subject to taxation for state purposes only while being exempt from taxation in the county, city, school, or other taxing district in which it has a taxable situs."

(7/15/2008). 2008 Ky. Acts ch. 81, sec. 2, provides that the amendments to this section in 2008 Ky. Acts ch. 81, sec. 1, apply to assessments made on or after January 1, 2009.

(6/20/2005). 2005 Ky. Acts ch. 25, § 2, provides that the amendments to subsection (23) of this section shall apply for tax assessment dates on or after January 1, 2002.

(3/18/2005). 2000 Ky. Acts ch. 168, § 171, provides that: "Sections 55 (KRS 132.020) and 57 (132.200) of this Act, relating to property tax changes, take effect on January 1, 2006, except the changes made to paragraph (c) of subsection (1) of Section 55, relating to the voluntary environmental remediation credit, paragraph (a) of subsection (2) of Section 55, and paragraph (a) of subsection (4) of Section 55 of this Act, relating to new property and the state property assessment, and subsection (21) of Section 57 of this Act (subsection (22) of this version) which shall take effect on the effective date of this Act and which shall apply to tax years beginning on or after January 1, 2005."

(6/21/2001). Under KRS 446.280, the words "or leased to" have been restored to subsection (1) of this statute after the words "owned by." The phrase was added to subsection (1) by 1986 Ky. Acts ch. 359, sec. 2, but was inadvertently omitted from the drafting database. Because of this, several subsequent acts amending this statute failed to include the phrase, and it mistakenly was not included in some codifications of this statute, although it had not been deleted by legislative action using the requisite brackets and strikethrough.

(7/13/90) The two Acts amending this section prevail over the repeal and reenactment in House Bill 940, Acts Ch. 476, pursuant to Section 653(1) of Acts ch. 476. The amending acts do not appear to conflict and have been compiled together.

1. Constitutionality.

The exemption of unmanufactured agricultural products from local taxation, when in the hands of the producers or his agent for the purpose of sale, is constitutional. Owensboro v. Dark Tobacco Growers' Ass'n, 222 Ky. 164, 300 S.W. 350, 1927 Ky. LEXIS 879 (Ky. 1927).

2. Manufacturing.

Where company gathered tobacco together by buying it from the farmer either directly or through a loose leaf warehouse and then rehandled, assorted and classified it by ordinary hand labor preparatory to its shipment to company's various manufacturing plants situated in other cities, its texture remaining the same and unchanged as when bought and where it was subjected to no treatment or process which could have been said to have changed the character of the tobacco from its original state to a new and different article it was evident that nothing was manufactured at the plant and such plant was not a manufacturing establishment within the meaning of this section and thus such tobacco was not exempt from local taxation. American Tobacco Co. v. Bowling Green, 181 Ky. 416, 205 S.W. 570, 1918 Ky. LEXIS 558 (Ky. 1918). See Henderson v. George Delker Co., 193 Ky. 248, 235 S.W. 732, 1921 Ky. LEXIS 219 (Ky. 1921); Ayer & Lord Tie Co. v. Commonwealth, 208 Ky. 606, 271 S.W. 693, 1925 Ky. LEXIS 344 (Ky. 1925); Hughes & Co. v. Lexington, 211 Ky. 596, 277 S.W. 981, 1925 Ky. LEXIS 930 (Ky. 1925); Commonwealth use of Rockcastle County v. W. J. Sparks Co., 222 Ky. 606, 1 S.W.2d 1050, 1928 Ky. LEXIS 209 (Ky. 1928), limited, Colley v. Eastern Coal Corp., 470 S.W.2d 338, 1971 Ky. LEXIS 275 (Ky. 1971); Lexington v. Lexington Leader Co., 193 Ky. 107, 235 S.W. 31, 1921 Ky. LEXIS 203 (Ky. 1921).

The phrases "actually engaged in manufacturing" and "actually on hand at their plants for the purpose of manufacture" mean manufacturing at the place of taxation and not at some other place. American Tobacco Co. v. Bowling Green, 181 Ky. 416, 205 S.W. 570, 1918 Ky. LEXIS 558 (Ky. 1918). See Henderson v. George Delker Co., 193 Ky. 248, 235 S.W. 732, 1921 Ky. LEXIS 219 (Ky. 1921); Ayer & Lord Tie Co. v. Commonwealth, 208 Ky. 606, 271 S.W. 693, 1925 Ky. LEXIS 344 (Ky. 1925); Hughes & Co. v. Lexington, 211 Ky. 596, 277 S.W. 981, 1925 Ky. LEXIS 930 (Ky. 1925); Commonwealth use of Rockcastle County v. W. J. Sparks Co., 222 Ky. 606, 1 S.W.2d 1050, 1928 Ky. LEXIS 209 (Ky. 1928), limited, Colley v. Eastern Coal Corp., 470 S.W.2d 338, 1971 Ky. LEXIS 275 (Ky. 1971); Lexington v. Lexington Leader Co., 193 Ky. 107, 235 S.W. 31, 1921 Ky. LEXIS 203 (Ky. 1921).

This section contemplates manufacturing at the place of taxation in order to exempt the raw material from local taxation. American Tobacco Co. v. Bowling Green, 181 Ky. 416, 205 S.W. 570, 1918 Ky. LEXIS 558 (Ky. 1918). See Henderson v. George Delker Co., 193 Ky. 248, 235 S.W. 732, 1921 Ky. LEXIS 219 (Ky. 1921); Ayer & Lord Tie Co. v. Commonwealth, 208 Ky. 606, 271 S.W. 693, 1925 Ky. LEXIS 344 (Ky. 1925); Hughes & Co. v. Lexington, 211 Ky. 596, 277 S.W. 981, 1925 Ky. LEXIS 930 (Ky. 1925); Commonwealth use of Rockcastle County v. W. J. Sparks Co., 222 Ky. 606, 1 S.W.2d 1050, 1928 Ky. LEXIS 209 (Ky. 1928), limited, Colley v. Eastern Coal Corp., 470 S.W.2d 338, 1971 Ky. LEXIS 275 (Ky. 1971); Lexington v. Lexington Leader Co., 193 Ky. 107, 235 S.W. 31, 1921 Ky. LEXIS 203 (Ky. 1921).

These processes do not constitute "manufacturing": (1) drying and stemming of tobacco, preparatory to its being manufactured into tobacco products, Gray v. R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Co., 200 Ky. 47, 252 S.W. 134, 1923 Ky. LEXIS 16 (Ky. 1923); (2) sorting, classifying, stemming and curing of tobacco, P. Lorrillard Co. v. Ross, 183 Ky. 217, 209 S.W. 39, 1919 Ky. LEXIS 475 (Ky. 1919).

It is not the means or methods employed or the number or nature of the processes resorted to, but the result accomplished, that determines whether an article is manufactured or not. P. Lorrillard Co. v. Ross, 183 Ky. 217, 209 S.W. 39, 1919 Ky. LEXIS 475 (Ky. 1919). See Lexington v. Lexington Leader Co., 193 Ky. 107, 235 S.W. 31, 1921 Ky. LEXIS 203 (Ky. 1921); Henderson v. George Delker Co., 193 Ky. 248, 235 S.W. 732, 1921 Ky. LEXIS 219 (Ky. 1921).

If raw material is converted at a factory or plant into a finished product, complete and ready for the final use for which it is intended, or so completed that in the ordinary course of business it is ready to be put upon the open market for sale to any person wishing to buy it, it has been "manufactured." Louisville & J. Zinmeister & Sons, 188 Ky. 570, 222 S.W. 958, 1920 Ky. LEXIS 324 (Ky. 1920).

"Actually" engaged in manufacturing means "really," "in fact," or "in truth." Ayer & Lord Tie Co. v. Commonwealth, 208 Ky. 606, 271 S.W. 693, 1925 Ky. LEXIS 344 (Ky. 1925).

"Manufacturing" includes every kind of business whereby a different and useful article of commerce is produced by the application of labor or skill, by hand or machinery, to any kind of material. Hughes & Co. v. Lexington, 211 Ky. 596, 277 S.W. 981, 1925 Ky. LEXIS 930 (Ky. 1925).

Word "manufacture" is not susceptible of accurate, or all-embracing or all-exclusive definition, and meaning may vary according to circumstances of particular case, but one definition is "to work, as raw materials or partly wrought materials, into suitable forms for use." Burke v. Stitzel-Weller Distillery, 284 Ky. 676, 145 S.W.2d 861, 1940 Ky. LEXIS 565 (Ky. 1940).

Where a fertilizer plant took various chemical elements such as nitrogen, phosphate, potash, sulfur, potassium and boron and blended them in the correct proportion according to the needs of a particular customer, and where the mixture, or blend, of these fertilizing components was determined primarily by a scientific soil analysis and by the crop and yield the farmer intended to grow, the business operation fell within the definition of "manufacturing" so as to exempt machinery and materials from local taxation. Shelby County Board of Assessment Appeals v. Gro-Green Chemical Co., 602 S.W.2d 155, 1980 Ky. LEXIS 233 (Ky. 1980).

3. —Machinery.

A railroad spur track, rolling stock, teams and equipment used by a lumber company in hauling logs from its timber land to its sawmill was not machinery used in manufacturing, and was not exempt from local taxation. Dawkins Lumber Co. v. Caudill, 212 Ky. 484, 279 S.W. 617, 1926 Ky. LEXIS 179 (Ky. 1926).

The words "in course of manufacture," in subsection (4) of this section, do not qualify "machinery," and machinery used in manufacturing other products is exempt from local taxation. Kentucky & West Virginia Power Co. v. Holliday, 216 Ky. 78, 287 S.W. 212, 1926 Ky. LEXIS 832 (Ky. 1926).

Machinery used in bottling whiskey is exempt from local taxation, since whiskey is not ready for intended use until bottled. Burke v. Stitzel-Weller Distillery, 284 Ky. 676, 145 S.W.2d 861, 1940 Ky. LEXIS 565 (Ky. 1940).

The manufacturing machinery of a public utility is not subject to local taxation. Reeves v. Louisville Gas & Electric Co., 290 Ky. 25, 160 S.W.2d 391, 1942 Ky. LEXIS 362 (Ky. 1942).

An operation is "manufacturing" if the process takes something practically unsuitable for any common use and changes it so as to adapt it to such common use. Louisville v. Howard, 306 Ky. 687, 208 S.W.2d 522, 1947 Ky. LEXIS 1024 (Ky. 1947).

It was never the legislative intent to extend tax exemption of machinery beyond the machinery itself and the actual bases of such machinery. Louisville v. Howard, 306 Ky. 687, 208 S.W.2d 522, 1947 Ky. LEXIS 1024 (Ky. 1947).

If by the processing of the raw material at the plant, the material is converted into a finished product or is so completed that in the ordinary course of business of the concern it is ready to be put on the open market for sale to any person wishing to buy it, the plant which turns it out is a manufacturing establishment within the meaning of this section. Alcoa Mining Co. v. Dickerson, 242 S.W.2d 744, 1951 Ky. LEXIS 1067 (Ky. 1951).

Television tower which merely acts as a support for antenna and cable which are used for transmission purposes is not property for the process of assembling the electromagnetic waves and thus is not exempt from local taxation under subsection (4) of this section. W. A. V. E., Inc. v. Louisville, 248 S.W.2d 701, 1952 Ky. LEXIS 747 (Ky. 1952).

4. Electronic Broadcasting Equipment.

Cable caster's coaxial cable was not exempt from local ad valorem tax as equipment used to broadcast electronic signals to an antenna because, although transformers used in connection with receiving cable television signals perform a function similar to that performed by an antenna in receiving standard radio or television signals, a transformer is not an antenna within the meaning of this section. Owensboro-On-The-Air, Inc. v. Tinius, 551 S.W.2d 831, 1977 Ky. App. LEXIS 710 (Ky. Ct. App. 1977).

5. Unmanufactured Agricultural Products.

Unmanufactured agricultural products owned by a manufacturer, but not on hand at his manufacturing plant, are subject only to the rate provided by subsection (6) of this section. Gray v. R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Co., 200 Ky. 47, 252 S.W. 134, 1923 Ky. LEXIS 16 (Ky. 1923).

6. Industrial Development.

The promotion of new and expanded industrial development, by providing tax benefits, is a fixed policy of the Commonwealth. Department of Revenue v. Spalding Laundry & Dry Cleaning Co., 436 S.W.2d 522, 1968 Ky. LEXIS 184 (Ky. 1968).

7. Raw Material.

Raw material is exempt from local taxation only if it is on hand at the plant of a manufacturer for the purpose of being manufactured at that plant, and not for the purpose of being prepared for manufacture at some other plant. American Tobacco Co. v. Bowling Green, 181 Ky. 416, 205 S.W. 570, 1918 Ky. LEXIS 558 (Ky. 1918).

Raw material on hand at a factory or plant for the purpose of manufacturing is not exempt from local taxation unless the manufacture of such raw material at the plant where it is on hand is so complete that the product may be sent out from that plant and sold on the market as a finished product. P. Lorillard Co. v. Ross, 183 Ky. 217, 209 S.W. 39, 1919 Ky. LEXIS 475 (Ky. 1919).

Rough lumber used by a manufacturer in crating his products for shipment does not constitute "raw material on hand for the purpose of manufacture," and is not exempt from local taxation. Henderson v. George Delker Co., 193 Ky. 248, 235 S.W. 732, 1921 Ky. LEXIS 219 (Ky. 1921).

"Raw material" is not necessarily crude material in its natural state, but may include a product made from the crude material and which has undergone manufacturing processes and been converted into a distinct product from which an entirely different product may be made by means of additional manufacturing processes. Henderson v. George Delker Co., 193 Ky. 248, 235 S.W. 732, 1921 Ky. LEXIS 219 (Ky. 1921).

The stemming of tobacco and getting it into shape for the purposes of manufacture does not make it a manufactured article. Gray v. R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Co., 200 Ky. 47, 252 S.W. 134, 1923 Ky. LEXIS 16 (Ky. 1923).

Products in course of manufacture are not exempt from local taxation unless they are the property of the person doing the manufacturing. Ayer & Lord Tie Co. v. Commonwealth, 208 Ky. 606, 271 S.W. 693, 1925 Ky. LEXIS 344 (Ky. 1925).

Where two (2) companies engaged in the business of manufacturing railroad ties organized a third corporation to operate a plant at which the ties were creosoted and treated with preservatives, the corporation so organized constituted a separate legal entity, notwithstanding that the other two (2) companies owned all of its stock, and ties being treated by such corporation were subject to local taxation, since they were not the property of the corporation doing such manufacturing. Ayer & Lord Tie Co. v. Commonwealth, 208 Ky. 606, 271 S.W. 693, 1925 Ky. LEXIS 344 (Ky. 1925).

Raw material at the plant of a manufacturer for the purpose of manufacture is exempt from local taxation, regardless of whether such material was produced in this state. Illinois C. R. Co. v. Paducah, 228 Ky. 65, 14 S.W.2d 172, 1929 Ky. LEXIS 474 (Ky. 1929).

Rough lumber at a sawmill, one-third ($\frac{1}{3}$) of which is sold without further processing and two-thirds ($\frac{2}{3}$) further processed by the company, is a finished product and no part of it is exempt from local taxation under this section as "raw material—for the purpose of manufacture." Stearns Coal & Lumber Co. v. Thomas, 295 Ky. 808, 175 S.W.2d 505, 1943 Ky. LEXIS 342 (Ky. 1943).

8. Exemption.

The property exempted from local taxation by this section is exempt from school taxes, although school taxes are ordinarily considered to be state taxes. Kentucky & West Virginia Power Co. v. Holliday, 216 Ky. 78, 287 S.W. 212, 1926 Ky. LEXIS 832 (Ky. 1926).

Contracts of tobacco growers with cooperative marketing association made the association agent of producers for purpose of sale, and not owner of tobacco, with result that tobacco in possession of association was exempt from local taxation under subsection (6) of this section. Owensboro v. Dark Tobacco Growers' Ass'n, 222 Ky. 164, 300 S.W. 350, 1927 Ky. LEXIS 879 (Ky. 1927).

In order for machinery and products in course of manufacture, and raw material on hand for the purpose of manufacture, to be exempt from local taxation, it is not necessary that the manufactured goods be designed for barter and sale; the exemption exists even though the manufactured products are wholly used or consumed by the manufacturer himself. Illinois C. R. Co. v. Paducah, 228 Ky. 65, 14 S.W.2d 172, 1929 Ky. LEXIS 474 (Ky. 1929).

The exemption of machinery, products in course of manufacture, and raw materials on hand for the purpose of manufacture, applies even though the business of manufacturing is only incidental to the real business of the owner. Illinois C. R. Co. v. Paducah, 228 Ky. 65, 14 S.W.2d 172, 1929 Ky. LEXIS 474 (Ky. 1929).

The value of property exempted by this section from county taxation but not exempted by the Constitution could not be included in the computation of all taxable property in the county for the purpose of determining the maximum debt limit of the county under Const., § 158. Monroe County v. County Debt Com., 247 S.W.2d 507, 1952 Ky. LEXIS 708 (Ky. 1952).

Declaratory judgment to the effect that property exempted from county taxation by this section should be included in the computation of all taxable property in county for purpose of determining maximum debt limit of county under Const., § 158 was not res judicata and binding on state local finance officer and county budget commission where such action was but a ruse to deprive finance officer and commission of jurisdiction given them by KRS 66.210 (repealed) and 66.310 in approving of bond issues, where neither the finance officer nor the commission were a party to the action and where the judgment was not appealed. Monroe County v. County Debt Com., 247 S.W.2d 507, 1952 Ky. LEXIS 708 (Ky. 1952).

If machinery is not owned by a corporation actually engaged in manufacturing, it does not fall within the statutory exception. United Shoe Machinery Corp. v. McCracken County, 265 S.W.2d 929, 1953 Ky. LEXIS 1261 (Ky. Ct. App. 1953).

It is not clear whether the exemption for an industrial building that is "owned and financed" by a tax-exempt entity under subsection (8) (now (7)) was intended to apply after the collateral is no longer financed; therefore, the statute must be construed against the taxpayers and they are not permitted to take advantage of the exemption and the reduced state rate pursuant to KRS 132.020. Owens-Illinois Labels, Inc. v. Commonwealth, 27 S.W.3d 798, 2000 Ky. App. LEXIS 48 (Ky. Ct. App. 2000).

9. —Strict Construction.

Provisions granting exemptions from taxation will be strictly construed. American Tobacco Co. v. Bowling Green, 181 Ky. 416, 205 S.W. 570, 1918 Ky. LEXIS 558 (Ky. 1918).

10. —Discriminatory.

The fact that national bank shares are subject to local taxation, while other intangible property is exempt from local taxation, does not create a discrimination in violation of 12 USCS § 548. Georgetown Nat'l Bank v. McFarland, 273 U.S. 568, 47 S. Ct. 467, 71 L. Ed. 779, 1927 U.S. LEXIS 712 (U.S. 1927).

11. Procedure.

Objection that county clerk in computing household goods exemption under KRS 132.560 (repealed) made up exemption out of property exempted from local taxation by KRS 132.200 could be raised only by taxpayer, not by sheriff in annual settlement. Livingston County v. Dunn, 244 Ky. 460, 51 S.W.2d 450, 1932 Ky. LEXIS 453 (Ky. 1932).

12. Injunction Against Collection.

The collection of a local tax on property exempt from local taxation may be enjoined. Gray v. R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Co., 200 Ky. 47, 252 S.W. 134, 1923 Ky. LEXIS 16 (Ky. 1923). See

Mistake of taxpayer in listing tobacco as taxable at regular county tax rate, when in fact it was taxable only at rate allowed by subsection (6) of this section, did not prevent taxpayer from obtaining injunction against imposition of regular rate. Gray v. R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Co., 200 Ky. 47, 252 S.W. 134, 1923 Ky. LEXIS 16 (Ky. 1923).

Where a manufacturer, in ignorance of the law, listed for city taxes raw material on hand at his plant, and paid the taxes for one year and was being threatened with distraint to collect the taxes for the following year, he had the right to maintain an action to recover the taxes paid and to enjoin collection of the taxes not paid, as against contention that his sole remedy was by statutory procedure provided for correcting assessments. Covington v. Lovell & Buffington Tobacco Co., 204 Ky. 40, 263 S.W. 676, 1924 Ky. LEXIS 396 (Ky. 1924).

Where manufacturing machinery exempt from local taxation was not listed or valued separately by the tax commissioner (now property valuation administrator) or board of supervisors, but was grouped with other personal property of the taxpayer under a gross valuation, oral evidence was admissible, in an action to enjoin collection of the local tax on such machinery, to show what portion of the gross valuation applied to the machinery. Kentucky & West Virginia Power Co. v. Holliday, 216 Ky. 78, 287 S.W. 212, 1926 Ky. LEXIS 832 (Ky. 1926).

13. Taxing Determination Upheld.

KRS 132.030, 132.200, 136.300, 136.320 are not related to public service companies or to franchise; it is clear that the general assembly considered the types of property that should be exempt from the "catch-all" rate, and it did not include franchise of a public service company—although it identified seventeen other categories of property. Dayton Power & Light Co. v. Dep't of Revenue, 405 S.W.3d 527, 2012 Ky. App. LEXIS 232 (Ky. Ct. App. 2012).

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

Picture developing equipment does not come within the classification of manufacturing machinery as set out in the statute. OAG 61-134.

Where a leased automobile was garaged in the city and licensed in the county the city could assess it for property taxes although it was owned by a corporation located in another city and county. OAG 61-233.

The power of a public library district to levy a tax pursuant to KRS 173.460 is limited by the provisions of this section which except certain property from local taxation and, pursuant to subsection (7) of this section, a public library district may not levy a tax on stocks and bonds. OAG 62-1005.

Drilling rigs, tools and equipment used to drill gas wells are not manufacturing machinery within the meaning of subsection (4) of this section and are not exempt from local taxation. OAG 62-1143.

A fire protection district cannot levy any tax on unmanufactured tobacco. OAG 64-232.

Where a citizen of the county owned a boat that was licensed in the county but docked on a lake in another county, the boat would not be subject to tax in the city where the owner lived if it were satisfactorily shown that the boat was permanently located outside the city. OAG 65-18.

Where a citizen of the county owned a boat that was licensed in the county but docked on a lake in another county, if the boat had not acquired a permanent situs elsewhere, it was properly taxable in the city of the owner's domicile. OAG 65-18.

Once a beverage has been bottled and capped it is ready for market and the manufacturing process is completed, so that a "case packer," used after soft drink bottles have been capped, is not manufacturing equipment within the meaning of this section and is not exempt from local taxation. OAG 66-604.

Printing machinery used for printing a weekly religious paper and for commercial job printing is exempt from local city, county, school or other taxing district taxes and is subject only to state taxes. OAG 73-329.

Conveyors, sorters, kilns, dryers and boilers are part of the manufacturing process of transforming sorted rock into flux stone to be used in steel manufacturing and therefore are classifiable as manufacturing machinery for purposes of ad valorem property taxes. OAG 76-262.

With the exception of the property described in KRS 92.300(1), a city of the sixth class has no alternative but to assess all property located within its jurisdictional limits which is not specifically exempted from local ad valorem taxation by the Constitution or by statute; a city ordinance attempting to exempt any other property will be void. OAG 82-21.

Grain that is in the possession of the farmer who grew it, or in the possession of an agent of the farmer for the purpose of sale, is subject to ad valorem taxation for state purposes only. However, notwithstanding the fact that such grain is not subject to ad valorem taxation by the city or county, it must be listed with the county property valuation administrator for taxation by the state. OAG 82-496.

Ad valorem taxes and license taxes are the only kinds of taxes that a county may levy; thus, the attempted levy of an oil shale severance tax by a county would be unconstitutional. OAG 84-116.

Machinery owned by an individual or corporation, which individual or corporation is actually engaged in manufacturing, awaiting to be installed and put into use in the manufacturing plant should be classified as manufacturing machinery at the state rate of 15¢ per $100 of assessed valuation and is exempt from local taxation. OAG 90-5.

The words "actually engaged in manufacturing," as used in subsection (4) of this section and KRS 132.020(1) modify "individuals or corporations," not "machinery." OAG 90-5.

The words "in course of manufacture," as used in this section, do not qualify machinery. OAG 90-5.

132.220. Assessment dates — Listing — Owner — Liability — Exemptions, listing, annual review.

(1)(a) All taxable property and all interests in taxable property, unless otherwise specifically provided by law, shall be listed, assessed, and valued as of January 1 of each year.

(b)1. It shall be the duty of the holder of the first freehold estate in any real property taxable in this state to list or have listed the property with the property valuation administrator of the county where it is located between January 1 and March 1 in each year, except as otherwise provided by law.

2.a. It shall be the duty of all persons owning any tangible personal property taxable in this state to list or have listed the property, by the address at which it is located, with the property valuation administrator of the county of taxable situs or with the department between January 1 and May 15 in each year, except as provided by subdivision b. of this subparagraph or otherwise prescribed by law.

b. On January 1 of each year, for each address, if the sum of all of the taxable tangible personal property's fair cash values is one thousand dollars ($1,000) or less, the taxpayer shall not be required to list the property in accordance with subdivision a. of this subparagraph.

c. On January 1 of each year, for each address, if the sum of all of the taxable tangible personal property's fair cash values exceeds one thousand dollars ($1,000) and the property is not listed as required by subdivision a. of this subparagraph, the property shall be deemed omitted property in accordance with KRS 132.290.

d. For any taxable tangible personal property that is not listed due to the one thousand dollar ($1,000) threshold established in subdivision b. of this subparagraph, the owner of the property shall maintain records of the property and its fair cash value calculation for five (5) years after the expiration of the listing period.

3. The holder of legal title, the holder of equitable title, and the claimant or bailee in possession of the property on the assessment date as provided by law shall be liable for the taxes thereon, and the property may be assessed in any of their names. But, as between them, the holder of the equitable title shall pay the taxes thereon, whether or not the property is in his or her possession at the time of payment.

4. All persons in whose name property is properly assessed shall remain bound for the tax, notwithstanding they may have sold or parted with it.

(2) Any taxpayer may list his or her property in person before the property valuation administrator or his deputy, or may file a property tax return by first class mail. Any real property correctly and completely described in the assessment record for the previous year, or purchased during the preceding year and for which a value was stated in the deed according to the provisions of KRS 382.135, may be considered by the owner to be listed for the current year if no changes that could potentially affect the assessed value have been made to the property. However, if requested in writing by the property valuation administrator or by the department, any real property owner shall submit a property tax return to verify existing information or to provide additional information for assessment purposes. Any real property which has been underassessed as a result of the owner intentionally failing to provide information, or intentionally providing erroneous information, shall be subject to revaluation, and the difference in value shall be assessed as omitted property under the provisions of KRS 132.290.

(3) If the owner fails to list the property, the property valuation administrator shall nevertheless assess it. The property valuation administrator may swear witnesses in order to ascertain the person in whose name to make the list. The property valuation administrator, his or her employee, or employees of the department may physically inspect, or inspect using any other method approved by the department, and revalue land and buildings in the absence of the property owner or resident. The exterior dimensions of buildings may be measured and building photographs may be taken; however, with the exception of buildings under construction or not yet occupied, an interior inspection of residential and farm buildings, and of the nonpublic portions of commercial buildings shall not be conducted in the absence or without the permission of the owner or resident.

(4) Real property shall be assessed in the name of the owner, if ascertainable by the property valuation administrator, otherwise in the name of the occupant, if ascertainable, and otherwise to “unknown owner.” The undivided real estate of any deceased person may be assessed to the heirs or devisees of the person without designating them by name.

(5)(a) Real property tax roll entries for which tax bills have not been collected at the expiration of the one (1) year tolling period provided for in KRS 134.546, and for which the property valuation administrator cannot physically locate and identify the real property, shall be deleted from the tax roll and the assessment shall be exonerated.

(b) The property valuation administrator shall keep a record of these exonerations, which shall be open under the provisions of KRS 61.870 to 61.884.

(c) If, at any time, one of these entries is determined to represent a valid parcel of property it shall be assessed as omitted property under the provisions of KRS 132.290.

(d) Notwithstanding other provisions of the Kentucky Revised Statutes to the contrary, any loss of ad valorem tax revenue suffered by a taxing district due to the exoneration of these uncollectable tax bills may be recovered through an adjustment in the tax rate for the following year.

(6) All real property exempt from taxation by Section 170 of the Constitution shall be listed with the property valuation administrator in the same manner and at the same time as taxable real property. The property valuation administrator shall maintain an inventory record of the tax-exempt property, but the property shall not be placed on the tax rolls. A copy of this tax-exempt inventory shall be filed annually with the department within thirty (30) days of the close of the listing period. This inventory shall be in the form prescribed by the department. The department shall make an annual report itemizing all exempt properties to the Governor and the Legislative Research Commission within sixty (60) days of the close of the listing period.

(7) Each property valuation administrator, under the direction of the department, shall review annually all real property listed with him or her under subsection (6) of this section and claimed to be exempt from taxation by Section 170 of the Constitution. The property valuation administrator shall place on the tax rolls all property that is not exempt. Any property valuation administrator who fails to comply with this subsection shall be subject to the penalties prescribed in KRS 132.990(2).

Oil or gas leases are to be listed for taxation by the lessee in the county in which the leased premises are located. Wolfe County v. Beckett, 127 Ky. 252, 105 S.W. 447, 32 Ky. L. Rptr. 167, 1907 Ky. LEXIS 136 (Ky. 1907).

Where Kentucky tobacco growers executed marketing agreements with tobacco marketing corporation, which agreements recited that title to the tobacco was vested in the company, the fact that the company was actually intended to be only an agent or trustee of the growers would not prevent the tobacco being taxed in the city in which the warehouses of the company were located, so long as the growers did not list the tobacco themselves. Paris v. Burley Tobacco Soc., 154 Ky. 320, 157 S.W. 705, 1913 Ky. LEXIS 78 (Ky. 1913).

Tobacco in warehouses of a tobacco processing and marketing corporation was taxable in the city in which the warehouses were situated, unless there for only a temporary purpose, regardless of the residence of the owners of the tobacco, so long as the owners had not listed and paid the taxes on the tobacco at the place of their residence. Paris v. Burley Tobacco Soc., 154 Ky. 320, 157 S.W. 705, 1913 Ky. LEXIS 78 (Ky. 1913).

The taxable situs of a partnership’s personal property is at the place where the partnership conducts its business, and not at the place where the partners intend the “home” of the partnership to be. Walter G. Hougland & Sons v. McCracken

County Board of Sup'rs., 306 Ky. 234, 206 S.W.2d 951, 1947 Ky. LEXIS 999 (Ky. 1947).

Boats and barges traveling Ohio River hauling company's goods solely were assessable at the domicile of the taxpayer. Ashland Oil & Refining Co. v. Department of Revenue, 256 S.W.2d 359, 1953 Ky. LEXIS 721 (Ky. 1953).

2. Owner.

The mortgagor of land, not the mortgagee, is the owner of the land, and is primarily liable for the taxes thereon. Caine v. Rich, 110 S.W. 289, 33 Ky. L. Rptr. 261, 1908 Ky. LEXIS 343 (Ky. Ct. App. 1908).

Owner of land which had been sold for taxes for previous years was required to list the land of taxation during the redemption period. Southern Holding & Sec. Corp. v. Commonwealth, 245 Ky. 602, 53 S.W.2d 974, 1932 Ky. LEXIS 638 (Ky. 1932), cert. denied, 289 U.S. 757, 53 S. Ct. 788, 77 L. Ed. 1501, 1933 U.S. LEXIS 408 (U.S. 1933).

One who owns land in fee is liable for taxes on both the mineral and surface estates. Kentucky River Coal Corp. v. Knott County, 245 Ky. 822, 54 S.W.2d 377, 1932 Ky. LEXIS 687 (Ky. 1932).

Assessment of real estate may be made by city against owner of life estate alone. Rains v. Lexington, 284 Ky. 609, 145 S.W.2d 516, 1940 Ky. LEXIS 541 (Ky. 1940).

The duty of owners of real estate is to list it for taxation with the tax commissioner (now property valuation administrator) and if the owner fails to list it the tax commissioner (now property valuation administrator) shall do so. Breathitt County Board of Sup'rs v. Ware Cannel Coal Co., 297 Ky. 117, 179 S.W.2d 225, 1944 Ky. LEXIS 691 (Ky. 1944).

Real property interests are not only to be listed by but also assessed in the name of the owner of the first freehold estate. Fayette County Board of Supervisors v. O'Rear, 275 S.W.2d 577, 1954 Ky. LEXIS 1252 (Ky. 1954).

The practical administration of ad valorem tax laws requires that in ordinary circumstances one person or entity be held responsible for the tax liability on each item of property. Kentucky Power Co. v. Revenue Cabinet, 705 S.W.2d 904, 1985 Ky. LEXIS 293 (Ky. 1985).

Circuit courts erred in concluding that the third-party purchasers of delinquent tax bills were eligible for refunds where it was erroneous to state that the transfer of the taxed property subject to the Commonwealth satisfied the tax liability of all of the various governmental entities, but rather the property owners remained liable for the tax under Ky. Rev. Stat. Ann. § 132.220. Fayette Cty. Clerk v. Kings Right, LLC, 536 S.W.3d 201, 2017 Ky. App. LEXIS 634 (Ky. Ct. App. 2017).

3. —Doubtful Title.

The fact that the holder of paper title to land is in doubt as to what land is covered by his title, how much acreage is involved, and the validity of his title as to other claimants, does not excuse him from listing the land for taxation. Southern Holding & Sec. Corp. v. Commonwealth, 245 Ky. 602, 53 S.W.2d 974, 1932 Ky. LEXIS 638 (Ky. 1932), cert. denied, 289 U.S. 757, 53 S. Ct. 788, 77 L. Ed. 1501, 1933 U.S. LEXIS 408 (U.S. 1933).

4. Leasehold.

Ordinarily, real property held under a lease is not taxable in the hands of the lessee. Wolfe County v. Beckett, 127 Ky. 252, 105 S.W. 447, 32 Ky. L. Rptr. 167, 1907 Ky. LEXIS 136 (Ky. 1907).

Oil or gas leases, under which the lessee is vested with all property rights to the oil or gas that may be found in paying quantities on the leased premises, are taxable to the lessee. Wolfe County v. Beckett, 127 Ky. 252, 105 S.W. 447, 32 Ky. L. Rptr. 167, 1907 Ky. LEXIS 136 (Ky. 1907).

Where the lease provides that a portion of the oil or gas shall be received by the lessor as royalty, the value of such portion is to be deducted in fixing the value of the lease. Wolfe County

v. Beckett, 127 Ky. 252, 105 S.W. 447, 32 Ky. L. Rptr. 167, 1907 Ky. LEXIS 136 (Ky. 1907).

Where land was leased for 99-year term, at a nominal rental, with covenant by lessor to renew for successive 99-year terms perpetually, the leasehold was taxable against the lessee, whether considered as real or personal property, and was not such an interest as was required to be listed by the owner of the fee under this section. Purcell v. Lexington, 186 Ky. 381, 216 S.W. 599, 1919 Ky. LEXIS 226 (Ky. 1919), writ of error dismissed, 253 U.S. 476, 40 S. Ct. 583, 64 L. Ed. 1021, 1920 U.S. LEXIS 1430 (U.S. 1920).

Ordinarily, the value of the interest of the lessee in a lease of real estate is not taxable, the owner of the fee being required to pay taxes on all interests connected with the real estate. Purcell v. Lexington, 186 Ky. 381, 216 S.W. 599, 1919 Ky. LEXIS 226 (Ky. 1919), writ of error dismissed, 253 U.S. 476, 40 S. Ct. 583, 64 L. Ed. 1021, 1920 U.S. LEXIS 1430 (U.S. 1920).

Where the owner is a municipality or for some other reason is not required to pay taxes on the fee, the interest of the lessee is taxable. Purcell v. Lexington, 186 Ky. 381, 216 S.W. 599, 1919 Ky. LEXIS 226 (Ky. 1919), writ of error dismissed, 253 U.S. 476, 40 S. Ct. 583, 64 L. Ed. 1021, 1920 U.S. LEXIS 1430 (U.S. 1920).

The interest of a lessor in a coal mining lease is subject to taxation, notwithstanding that the interest of the lessee in the lease, and the money received by the lessor in the way of royalties, are also taxed. Stapp v. Pike County Board of Sup'rs, 194 Ky. 176, 238 S.W. 408, 1922 Ky. LEXIS 132 (Ky. 1922).

The ordinary mining lease with the reserved royalty in the lessor has the effect to create distinct items of property for purposes of taxation in both the lessor and the lessee as to the minerals or mineral rights as distinguished from the ownership of the surface, and the lessor is liable not only for the taxes on the surface of his land but likewise upon the mineral rights reserved or created in him by the lease. Moss v. Board of Sup'rs, 203 Ky. 813, 263 S.W. 368, 1924 Ky. LEXIS 1021 (Ky. 1924).

The interest of the lessee in a coal mining lease is real property, and taxable as such. Commonwealth v. Elkhorn-Piney Coal Min. Co., 241 Ky. 245, 43 S.W.2d 684, 1931 Ky. LEXIS 51 (Ky. 1931).

Where land is leased for business purpose under a long-term lease, both the lessee and the lessor have taxable interests in the land, and the payment of a tax by one will not relieve the other. Illinois C. R. Co. v. Louisville, 249 Ky. 219, 60 S.W.2d 603, 1933 Ky. LEXIS 508 (Ky. 1933).

It was not error for the property value administrator to fail to consider the lease as having any effect upon the valuation of the freehold estate, where the taxpayer was basically both lessor and lessee. Jefferson County Property Valuation Adm'r v. Ben Schore Co., 736 S.W.2d 29, 1987 Ky. App. LEXIS 553 (Ky. Ct. App. 1987).

5. Life Tenant.

It is the duty of a life tenant of land to list the land for taxation and to pay the taxes assessed against it during his term as life tenant, but his failure to pay such taxes will not deprive the taxing authority of the right to subject the fee to the payment of the taxes, during the term of the life tenant or after his death. Bradley v. Sears, 138 Ky. 230, 127 S.W. 782, 1910 Ky. LEXIS 63 (Ky. 1910).

It is the duty of a life tenant to list and pay the taxes on the land. Anderson v. Daugherty, 169 Ky. 308, 183 S.W. 545, 1916 Ky. LEXIS 681 (Ky. 1916).

Where property is in the possession of a life tenant, it should be assessed in his name. Smith v. Young, 178 Ky. 376, 198 S.W. 1166, 1917 Ky. LEXIS 742 (Ky. 1917).

A life tenant in possession must list realty for taxation and pay taxes including those levied for street improvements. The life tenant's estate is all that can be primarily sold to satisfy taxes and is the only interest acquired by tax sale purchasers who then must list the property and pay the taxes, and purchasers are not entitled to recover from the remainderman the amount of taxes paid by them. Vaughn v. Metcalf, 274 Ky. 379, 118 S.W.2d 727, 1938 Ky. LEXIS 273 (Ky. 1938).

6. Nontaxable.

Oil pipeline company was not liable for taxes on oil stored in tanks awaiting shipment through its lines, shipment being delayed because of congestion in traffic through the lines, inability of patrons to take care of the oil at its destination, and inability of connecting lines to accept oil for ultimate delivery, the possession of the company being that of a common carrier and not a bailee, notwithstanding that the company made a demurrage charge for oil not withdrawn in 60 days. Cumberland Pipe Line Co. v. Commonwealth, 258 Ky. 90, 79 S.W.2d 366, 1934 Ky. LEXIS 575 (Ky. 1934).

A common carrier is not liable for taxes on property in his possession for the purpose of shipment. Cumberland Pipe Line Co. v. Commonwealth, 258 Ky. 90, 79 S.W.2d 366, 1934 Ky. LEXIS 575 (Ky. 1934).

The power to dispose of property is an incident of ownership and not a taxable intangible; the fact that a taxpayer was required to place the property for Federal Energy Regulatory Commission accounting purposes into an account known as "other investments," did not create a taxable intangible. Kentucky Power Co. v. Revenue Cabinet, 705 S.W.2d 904, 1985 Ky. LEXIS 293 (Ky. 1985).

7. Questioning Validity.

The fact that a county tax levy ordinance is unconstitutional does not constitute grounds for enjoining the assessment of property for county taxes; the validity of the levy can be questioned only when the taxes are sought to be collected. Hillman Land & Iron Co. v. Commonwealth, 148 Ky. 331, 146 S.W. 776, 1912 Ky. LEXIS 453 (Ky. 1912) (Ky. 1912).

8. Land in Hands of Receiver.

The fact that land is in control of a receiver appointed by the federal court does not excuse the owner of the land from listing it for taxation. Southern Holding & Sec. Corp. v. Commonwealth, 245 Ky. 602, 53 S.W.2d 974, 1932 Ky. LEXIS 638 (Ky. 1932), cert. denied, 289 U.S. 757, 53 S. Ct. 788, 77 L. Ed. 1501, 1933 U.S. LEXIS 408 (U.S. 1933).

9. Royalties.

Royalties due owner of real estate from oil lease were taxable, as against contention that the value of the royalty interest could not be separately assessed from the land itself. Commonwealth by Revenue Agent v. Garrett, 202 Ky. 548, 260 S.W. 379, 1924 Ky. LEXIS 766 (Ky. 1924).

10. Double Payment.

Where line of railroad owned by one railroad company was operated by another company under an operating agreement, and the taxes on the line were assessed against and paid by the operating company, the line could not be again assessed for the same tax against the owner company, notwithstanding that the assessing authorities had erroneously deducted the value of the line from the franchise value of the operating company. Commonwealth v. Kinniconick & F. S. R. Co., 104 S.W. 290, 31 Ky. L. Rptr. 859 (1907).

11. Annexed Territory.

A city cannot assess and levy taxes against annexed property that was annexed subsequent to assessment date and thus was not a part of the city on that date. St. Matthews v. Trueheart, 274 S.W.2d 52, 1954 Ky. LEXIS 1221 (Ky. 1954).

Since liability for ad valorem taxes is related to assessment date and not to levy date or collection date no inequality resulted in not permitting city to assess, levy and collect taxes on territory that was not annexed to city until after assess-

12. Corporate Liability.

Where distillery corporation actually owned and operated various distilleries and bonded warehouses, the fact that the distilleries and warehouses were operated under separate individual names did not relieve the corporation of liability for taxes due on storage accounts. Commonwealth ex rel. Huntsman v. Kentucky Distilleries & Warehouse Co., 143 Ky. 314, 136 S.W. 1032, 1911 Ky. LEXIS 466 (Ky. 1911).

Cooperative marketing association was liable for taxes on agricultural products in its hands, as against contention that only shares of members of association were taxable. Burley Tobacco Growers' Co-op. Asso. v. Carrollton, 208 Ky. 270, 270 S.W. 749, 1925 Ky. LEXIS 268 (Ky. 1925).

13. Decedent's Estate.

When a decedent's estate is in the hands of a personal representative for settlement and distribution, and before the estate has been or should have been settled or distributed, the personal representative should list the estate for taxation and pay the taxes thereon, and the heirs and devisees are not required to do so. Commonwealth v. Camden, 142 Ky. 365, 134 S.W. 914, 1911 Ky. LEXIS 242 (Ky. 1911).

14. Void Sale.

Where land was assessed in the name of a person who was merely an agent for the life tenant, a sale of the land for taxes was invalid, but the purchaser had a lien on the land for the amount paid by him at the sale. Rogers v. McAlister, 151 Ky. 488, 152 S.W. 571, 1913 Ky. LEXIS 530 (Ky. 1913).

Where land owned by married woman was assessed in the name of her husband for her, sale of land for taxes was invalid as against purchaser of land from the married woman without notice of the tax lien. Wash v. Noel, 160 Ky. 847, 170 S.W. 197, 1914 Ky. LEXIS 550 (Ky. 1914).

Where land was assessed in the name of the remainderman rather than in the name of the life tenant, a sale of the land for taxes could not pass title to the life estate. Anderson v. Daugherty, 169 Ky. 308, 183 S.W. 545, 1916 Ky. LEXIS 681 (Ky. 1916).

Where person holding title bond for real estate listed it for taxation and paid taxes thereon, assessment in name of record owner of fee was void and attempted sale under such assessment was void. Mullins v. Rader, 204 Ky. 431, 264 S.W. 1058, 1924 Ky. LEXIS 478 (Ky. 1924).

Where property not owned by taxpayer was assessed in his name and taxes paid by him, and property owned by him was assessed as belonging to an "unknown owner," the sale for taxes of the property actually owned by him was void. Gasho v. Lowe, 282 Ky. 518, 139 S.W.2d 437, 1940 Ky. LEXIS 221 (Ky. 1940).

15. Date of Valuation.

Where assessments of agricultural land for one year were unconstitutional, the correct remedy was the use of the previous year's assessments for the subject property for the later tax year; the property valuation administrator was not entitled to belatedly assess the subject property for the later year's taxes since subsection (1) of this section clearly states that property shall be evaluated as of January 1. Dolan v. Land, 667 S.W.2d 684, 1984 Ky. LEXIS 211 (Ky. 1984).

16. Stocks, Notes, Bonds and Accounts.

The term "account" refers to those accounts that are similar in nature to stocks, bonds or notes; it refers to accounts created by transactions and documents separate and apart from the acquisition of an underlying asset. Kentucky Power Co. v. Revenue Cabinet, 705 S.W.2d 904, 1985 Ky. LEXIS 293 (Ky. 1985).

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

Under this section, ad valorem taxes on tangible personal property are payable in the county and city in which the property has its "situs" on assessment date. OAG 60-1081.

The fact that the equipment of a West Virginia contractor doing a job in Kentucky could be assessed for taxation in both states does not constitute prohibited double taxation. OAG 61-975.

Under subsection (3) of this section, a mineral right or mineral lease is an interest in property which can be separately taxed if it is reduced to ownership by the holder of the lease, but where there has been no severance, or reduction to ownership, the listing of the land by the owner of the first freehold estate would carry with it the value of the entire estate, including minerals. OAG 63-775.

Where a taxpayer moved in September from a city where taxes were assessed on July 1 and due the next year to a city where taxes were assessed on January 1 of the year in which they were due, he was only liable for the tax assessed on July 1. OAG 64-234.

KRS 134.060 (repealed) concerns the tax liability only as it exists between purchaser and seller and in the event of a sale within two (2) months after the assessment date, the person in whose name the property was assessed remains responsible to the taxing authority for payment of the tax pursuant to subsection (1) of this section. OAG 64-710.

Where a citizen of the county owned a boat that was licensed in the county but docked on a lake in another county, if the boat had not acquired a permanent situs elsewhere, it was properly taxable in the city of the owner's domicile. OAG 65-18.

Where a citizen of the county owned a boat that was licensed in the county but docked on a lake in another county, the boat would not be subject to tax in the city where the owner lived if it was satisfactorily shown that the boat was permanently located outside the city. OAG 65-18.

Only in unusual circumstances, such as a 99-year lease or oil and gas leases, is there justification for treating a leasehold as a separate taxable estate. OAG 76-2.

Even though tangible personal property having merely a temporary location at a place other than the owner's domicile is not taxable at such place, there is a presumption that such property in this state on the assessment date is subject to assessment at the place where located and the burden is upon the owner to present evidence to the assessing authorities that the property is located in the county on a temporary basis and that it has been assessed and taxes paid at the place of domicile. OAG 79-230.

Where road equipment has only a temporary situs in a county other than the county of the owner's domicile, it would appear that the property should be listed in the owner's domiciliary county. OAG 79-230.

Where a taxpayer maintained office in Harlan County but owned no real estate there and lived in Bill County, the books, furnishings and fixtures of his office are taxable for ad valorem tax purposes in Harlan County, if the property is permanently located there, since this section requires that the tax be imposed in the county where the property is located. OAG 81-59.

Where a house is in existence and is assessed and valued in January, the owner must pay the full property tax for that year even though the house is subsequently destroyed by fire during the year, since the statute does not allow an exemption on pro rated taxation for destroyed property. OAG 81-432.

The personal property tax on a vehicle should be based on the date of the bill of sale since the bill of sale provides evidence of ownership under the Uniform Commercial Code. OAG 82-68.

The assessment date is the day, fixed by statute, when property is valued for ad valorem tax purposes; while the taxes which a city intends to collect must be referenced to its fiscal year, in actuality, they must be based on a tax liability that can accrue only from the presence of the property within the city's jurisdictional limits on the assessment date. OAG 82-186.

The levy date is the day when the legislative body of the city enacts an ordinance levying the tax; the General Assembly has not fixed a specific date on which a city must levy its ad valorem tax but it is essential that the assessment be made prior to the ordinance levying the tax. OAG 82-186.

Where a city chose to adopt the county assessment, its assessment date was January 1 preceding the city's fiscal year; the city's levy date, however, must be subsequent to the certification of the county assessments by the department of revenue (now revenue cabinet). OAG 82-186.

A sailboat is taxable in the county of the owner's domicile, unless it can be shown that the boat is permanently located in another county. OAG 82-274.

Where property owned by a hospital, which was a nonprofit corporation, was leased to a clinic, which was a for-profit corporation, then if the building on the property was owned by the clinic, it must be placed on the tax roll and the leasehold interest must also be placed on the tax roll. OAG 84-35.

Whether property qualifies for the homestead exemption is determined as of January 1 each year. If one who is qualified for the homestead exemption owns the property as of that date, the property will receive the benefit of the exemption. If the property is owned as of the assessment date by one not qualified to receive the exemption, it will not receive the exemption for that year, even though it may be acquired during the course of the year by one who is entitled to the exemption. OAG 85-108, modifying OAG 81-429.

The docks of a marina are considered land and not buildings for the purposes of KRS 132.220(3) and are subject to administrative search in the absence of the owner, unless they are sufficiently structurally analogous to buildings. OAG 12-008, 2012 Ky. AG LEXIS 95.

Every person providing rental space for the parking of mobile homes and recreational vehicles shall by February 1 of each year report the name of the owner and type and size of all mobile homes and recreational vehicles not registered in this state under KRS 186.655 on his premises on the prior January 1 to the property valuation administrator of the county in which the property is located. The report shall be made in accordance with forms prescribed by the Department of Revenue and shall be signed and verified by the chief officer or person in charge of the business. The property valuation administrator may make a personal inspection and investigation of the premises on which mobile homes and recreational vehicles are located, for the purpose of identifying and assessing such property. No person in charge of such premises shall refuse to permit the inspection and investigation.

132.486. Assessment system for tangible personal property — Administrative regulations — Appeals — Effect of appeal on payment of taxes.

(1) The Department of Revenue shall develop and administer a centralized ad valorem assessment system for tangible personal property. This system shall be designed to provide on-line computer terminals and accessory equipment in every property valuation administrator's office in the state in order to create and maintain a centralized personal property tax roll database.

(2) Appeals of personal property assessments shall not be made to the county board of assessment appeals. Personal property taxpayers shall be served notice under the provisions of KRS 132.450(4) and shall have the protest and appeal rights granted under the provision of KRS 131.110.

(3) No appeal shall delay the collection or payment of taxes based upon the assessment in controversy. The taxpayer shall pay all state, county, and district taxes due on the valuation which the taxpayer claims as the true value as stated in a protest filed under KRS 131.110. When the valuation is finally determined upon appeal, the taxpayer shall be billed for any additional tax and interest at the tax interest rate as defined in KRS 131.010(6), from the date the tax would have become due if no appeal had been taken. The provisions of KRS 134.015(6) shall apply to the tax bill.

Legislative Research Commission Notes.

(1/1/2006). Under 2005 Ky. Acts ch. 184, § 18, changes in the names of agencies and officers that are made in bills confirming a reorganization of the executive branch are to be codified only to the extent those changes do not conflict with other 2005 amendments. Accordingly, an amendment to this section in Acts ch. 168 prevails over a name change made in Acts ch. 85.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

1. Applicability.

No specific administrative protest procedures are required for a tax refund claim involving a classification issue, which may be brought within two years after payment; thus, by filing for a refund of tangible personal property tax and appealing its denial before seeking judicial review, a taxpayer properly challenged the classification and tax rate applied to manufacturing machinery without going through the expedited assessment protest procedure. Dep't of Revenue, Fin. & Admin. Cabinet v. Cox Interior, Inc., 400 S.W.3d 240, 2013 Ky. LEXIS 288 (Ky. 2013).

132.487. Centralized ad valorem tax system for all motor vehicles — General and compensating tax rates — Access to records — Property valuation administrator to assess motor vehicles.

(1) The department shall develop and administer a centralized ad valorem tax system for all motor vehicles as defined in KRS 186.010. This system shall be designed to allow the collection of state, county, city, urban-county government, school, and special taxing district ad valorem taxes due on each motor vehicle at the time of registration of the motor vehicle by the party charged with issuing the registration. The department shall supervise and instruct the property valuation administrators and other officials with respect to their duties in relation to this system.

(2) Except as otherwise provided by law, the tax rate levied by the state, counties, schools, cities, and special tax districts on motor vehicles shall not exceed the rate that could have been levied on motor vehicles by the district on the January 1, 1983 assessments. All counties, schools, cities, and special taxing districts proposing to levy an ad valorem tax on motor vehicles shall submit to the department on or before October 1 of the year preceding the assessment date, the tax rate to be levied against valuations as of that assessment date. Any district that fails to timely submit the tax rate shall receive the rate in effect for the prior year.

(3) The compensating tax rate and maximum possible tax rate allowable for counties, schools, cities, and special taxing districts on property other than motor vehicles for the 1984 and subsequent tax periods shall be calculated excluding all valuations of and tax revenues from motor vehicles from the base amounts used in arriving at these general rates.

(4) The Transportation Cabinet shall provide access to all records of motor vehicle registrations to the department and the property valuation administrators as necessary to prepare and maintain a complete tax roll of motor vehicles throughout each year.

(5) The property valuation administrator shall, subject to the direction, instruction, and supervision of the department, have responsibility for assessing all motor vehicles other than those assessed under KRS Chapter 136 as part of public service companies. The department may provide standard valuation guidelines for use in valuation of motor vehicles.

(6) The property valuation administrator shall provide to the department by December 1 of each year a recapitulation of motor vehicles to be assessed as of January 1 of the next year.

(7) Procedures for protest, appeal, and correction of erroneous assessments shall be the same for motor vehicles as for other properties subject to ad valorem taxes.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Analysis

1. Constitutionality.
2. Legislative Intent.
3. State Tax Rate.

1. Constitutionality.

Act 264 of 1982, governing motor vehicle taxation was not special legislation for failure to provide for a two percent (2%) discount which is granted to real property and other personal property under former KRS 134.020 since motor vehicles are a classification based upon distinctive and natural reasons, and under this act no motor vehicles are subjected to a discount within the classification; the mere fact that all taxes are not paid in a short period of time, as envisioned in former KRS 134.020, et seq., does not render the legislation unconstitu-

Since subsection (3) of this section, which excludes motor vehicles from the calculation of the compensating and maximum possible tax rates, applies equally to all vehicles which are to be operated on the highways of the state and since there are distinctive and natural reasons inducing and supporting the classification of motor vehicles because of their mobility, rapid depreciation and frequency of transfer and because they stand virtually alone in licensing requirements, the classification of motor vehicles was valid and did not contravene Ky. Const., § 59 prohibiting special legislation. Kling v. Geary, 667 S.W.2d 379, 1984 Ky. LEXIS 216 (Ky. 1984).

Since motor vehicles are a separate, distinct and reasonable classification, the mere fact that the dates of assessment and collecting vary from real property or other personalty does not offend the provisions of Ky. Const., § 59 prohibiting special legislation. Kling v. Geary, 667 S.W.2d 379, 1984 Ky. LEXIS 216 (Ky. 1984).

2. Legislative Intent.

The legislative intent is clear on the face of the statute in that no tax is to be levied on the vehicles until they are registered and, if this resulted in eliminating the taxation of those that are in inventory as of the assessment date, then so be it, because the General Assembly has provided an alternative time of assessment. Paducah v. T.C.B., Inc., 817 S.W.2d 234, 1991 Ky. App. LEXIS 119 (Ky. Ct. App. 1991).

3. State Tax Rate.

KRS 133.185, which relates to the imposition of a tax rate for a taxing district, such as a city, county or school, has no relationship to Ky. Const., § 171 which requires that the General Assembly shall provide an annual tax sufficient to defray the estimated expenses of the Commonwealth; the state tax rate on all personal property, including motor vehicles, is not fixed by the processes outlined in KRS 133.185, or in subsections (2) or (6) of this section which provide for submission of a proposal, recapitulation of motor vehicles by the property valuation administrator, and certification by the Department of Revenue, but rather, the state tax rate is fixed by the General Assembly and is currently embodied in KRS 132.020. There is no conflict between subsections (2) and (6) of this section with the constitutional provision that the taxes shall be sufficient to defray the expenses of the state. Kling v. Geary, 667 S.W.2d 379, 1984 Ky. LEXIS 216 (Ky. 1984).

The language of former subsection (3) of this section, governing a centralized ad valorem tax system for motor vehicles, clearly and unequivocally removes all valuations of and tax revenues from motor vehicles from the base amount used in determining the compensating tax rate and maximum possible tax rate envisioned under the provisions of KRS 68.245, 132.023, 132.027, and 160.470. Kling v. Geary, 667 S.W.2d 379, 1984 Ky. LEXIS 216 (Ky. 1984).

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

The property valuation administrator (PVA) is responsible for assessing motor vehicles subject to a fire district tax, and part of the responsibility for assessing the property includes listing the property on the tax roll. OAG 84-132.

The county clerk, even where a vehicle has been junked, destroyed, or is rendered inoperable on the highways, is still responsible for collecting the ad valorem taxes on the vehicle where the motor vehicle did not become junked, destroyed or rendered inoperable on the highways, until after January 1 of the tax year in question. OAG 84-309.

The state Department of Education is required to certify tax rates on motor vehicles for school districts pursuant to subsection (2) of this section. OAG 86-71.

A city is not required to pay the property valuation administrator for the use of motor vehicle assessments. OAG 88-75.

A city does not have to pay for motor vehicle assessments furnished by the Property Valuation Administrator under KRS 132.487. OAG 92-69.

The docks of a marina are considered land and not buildings for the purposes of KRS 132.220(3) and are subject to administrative search in the absence of the owner, unless they are sufficiently structurally analogous to buildings. OAG 12-008, 2012 Ky. AG LEXIS 95.

132.670. Mapping of property — Biennial review by Department of Revenue.

(1)(a) The Department of Revenue shall prepare detailed maps identifying every parcel of real property within each county of the state. Each county shall furnish to the department adequate facilities in the county courthouse in which to work.

(b) The Department of Revenue shall prescribe methods and specifications for the mapping of property. Pursuant to KRS 42.655, the Department of Revenue shall prescribe methods and specifications which are compatible with use by the Commonwealth Office of Technology's geographic information clearinghouse, shall whenever possible use nonlicensed data, and shall whenever possible consolidate its mapping efforts into multiagency projects to minimize redundancy and lower overall costs.

(c) Personnel authorized to assist in making property identification maps under this section may be given the same authority as a deputy property valuation administrator. Locally employed mapping project personnel shall be compensated in the same manner as deputies or assistants in the property valuation administrator's office.

(2) The Department of Revenue shall conduct a biennial review of the quality of maps and ownership records in each county. If, in the first review conducted under these provisions, the maps and records in any county fail to meet the minimum standards established by the department, the department shall assume responsibility for remapping, revision, and updating under the provisions of subsection (1) of this section. Minimum maintenance standards to be followed by each property valuation administrator shall be established by the department.

NOTES TO DECISIONS1. Constitutionality.

This section is complete and in full force and effect and not unconstitutional on ground that it was designed to take effect on affirmative action of fiscal court. Borders v. Cain, 252 S.W.2d 903, 1952 Ky. LEXIS 1042 (Ky. 1952) (decision prior to 1960 amendment).

(1)(a) Each parcel of taxable real property or interest therein subject to assessment by the property valuation administrator shall be revalued during each year of each term of office by the property valuation administrator at its fair cash value in accordance with standards and procedures prescribed by the department and shall be examined no less than once every four (4) years by the property valuation administrator.

(b) For any real property upon which any improvements have been made since the prior examination, the property valuation administrator or his or her deputy shall perform an on-site, in-person visual examination of the real property and the improvements. The examination shall be conducted in a manner approved by the department and for the purpose of gathering any necessary information related to the characteristics of the real property and the improvements for purposes of assessing their value. Any subsequent examination of the real property for purposes of assessing its value by the property valuation administrator or his or her deputy shall be performed by:

1. On-site, in-person visual examination;
2. Use of digital imaging technology as defined by the International Association of Assessing Officers Standard on Mass Appraisal of Real Property; or
3. Any other examination method approved by the department.

(c) In accordance with standards and procedures prescribed by the department, the property valuation administrator shall submit an assessment schedule to the department and shall maintain a record of the examination and revaluation for each parcel of real property which shall include the inspection dates and any other relevant information.

(2) The right of any individual to appeal the assessment on his property in any year as provided in KRS 133.120 shall in no way be affected by this section.

(3) If the property valuation administrator fails to revalue property as required by this section, the department shall have the authority to order an emergency revaluation in the same manner as provided for emergency assessments by KRS 132.660. Any property valuation administrator willfully violating the provisions of subsection (1) of this section or who refuses to comply with the directions of the department to correct the assessment shall have his compensation suspended by the department and shall be subject to removal from office as provided by KRS 132.370(4) and shall be subject to the provisions of KRS 132.620 and 61.120.

(4) Nothing in this section shall prohibit action by the department under the provisions of KRS 133.150 or 132.660 in any year in which the department determines such action to be necessary.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Analysis

1. Constitutionality.
2. Suspension of Compensation.
3. Assessments Not Binding.
4. Quadrennial Plan.
5. Assessments.
6. —Annual.

1. Constitutionality.

Provisions of this section and KRS 132.450, which authorize assessments of property at "fair cash value," are not unconstitutional; the tax assessor need not be instructed as to specific valuation methods, as long as he provides assessments that are fair and equitable. Dean v. Commonwealth ex rel. Revenue Cabinet, 967 S.W.2d 594, 1998 Ky. App. LEXIS 34 (Ky. Ct. App. 1998).

2. Suspension of Compensation.

Where a majority of the state's property valuation administrators submitted recapitulations of the aggregate value of real property by class in their counties to the Department of Revenue pursuant to KRS 133.040 and upon being informed by the department that the assessments were not in compliance with the full fair market value requirements of Ky. Const., § 172, refused the department's directives, sent pursuant to subsection (1) of KRS 133.040, to raise the aggregate assessed values by minimum increases to make them satisfy the requirement of fair cash value, the department properly ordered the administrators' paychecks withheld pursuant to subsection (3) of this section until they complied; the department has an explicit mandate to order the administrators to correct valuations which are different, and this mandate is not superseded by the department's ability to assess property itself under KRS 133.150, since this is only one of several powers given the department to assure compliance with Ky.

3. Assessments Not Binding.

Property valuation administrators (PVA) who make ad valorem assessments are under the “direction, instruction and supervision” of the Revenue Cabinet; therefore, the PVA does not act independently of the Revenue Cabinet, and the Cabinet is not bound by his or her assessments. Revenue Cabinet Commonwealth v. Estate of Young, 748 S.W.2d 167, 1988 Ky. App. LEXIS 61 (Ky. Ct. App. 1988).

4. Quadrennial Plan.

Property Valuation Administrator’s (PVA) quadrennial plan, which divided the county into four (4) sections and undertook to physically examine the properties in one (1) section each year, complied with all relevant statutory requirements, and did not violate Ky. Const., §§ 2, 171 or 172. Revenue Cabinet v. Leary, 880 S.W.2d 878, 1994 Ky. App. LEXIS 8 (Ky. Ct. App. 1994).

5. Assessments.

Property valuation administrator’s (PVA) assessments of a property were reduced as the PVA had to show a material change in the value of property determined in a contested proceeding to increase the value of the property in succeeding years. Carr v. Cont’l Gen. Tire, Inc., 168 S.W.3d 411, 2004 Ky. App. LEXIS 347 (Ky. Ct. App. 2004).

If the value for taxation purposes of a parcel of real property was determined in a contested proceeding, the local taxing authority has to show a material change in the value of that property in order to justify a higher assessment in the following year. Carr v. Cont’l Gen. Tire, Inc., 2004 Ky. App. LEXIS 340 (Ky. Ct. App. Nov. 24, 2004), modified, 168 S.W.3d 411, 2004 Ky. App. LEXIS 347 (Ky. Ct. App. 2004).

6. —Annual.

Where the assessment of the taxpayer’s property in 1999 was lowered significantly, before the valuation for succeeding years were changed from the 1999 valuation it had to be shown that property or conditions in those succeeding years had materially changed, as Ky. Const., § 172 and KRS 132.690(1) required that property be assessed annually at its fair cash value. Carr v. Cont’l Gen. Tire, Inc., 168 S.W.3d 411, 2004 Ky. App. LEXIS 347 (Ky. Ct. App. 2004).

NOTES TO UNPUBLISHED DECISIONS

1. Assessments.

Unpublished decision: Property Valuation Administrator did not err in its valuation of commercial real property under Ky. Const. § 172 and Ky. Rev. Stat. Ann. § 132.690 where the payments under the leasehold were indisputably benefits that arose out of the ownership of the property, and thus, it was not error to consider those payments in determining the property’s fair cash value under the income generation approach of Ky. Rev. Stat. Ann. § 132.191(2)(b). Wilgreens, LLC v. O’Neill, 2016 Ky. App. Unpub. LEXIS 893 (Ky. Ct. App. Sept. 23, 2016), review denied, ordered not published, 2017 Ky. LEXIS 101 (Ky. Mar. 15, 2017).

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

Assessments must mandatorily conform to the strict requirement of Ky. Const., § 172, that is, the standard of “fair cash value.” OAG 80-500.

In view of the fact that the major events relating to the “assessment” process of 1980, as pertained to the property valuation administrator, that is, the PVA’s making up the assessments for tax rolls for 1980, providing the inspection period, giving notices of increases, and filing the recapitulation of all property assessed on the tax rolls, had already taken place prior to the amendment to this section which required assessment of all, rather than one-half (½) real property in county, the tax roll, as concerned such PVA, was closed for the tax year of 1980. OAG 80-500.

In 1980 amendment of this section, which increased the amount of real property to be evaluated yearly from one-half (½) to all of the property in the county, was not intended by the Legislature to be meshed or integrated with the 1980 tax assessment process, and the property valuation administrator could not, for the 1980 tax year, revalue the other half of the properties. OAG 80-500.

Entry by the Property Valuation Administrator to the interior of a home in order to value the property is authorized; if, however, the property owner is not at home or refuses entry, the PVA must resort to an administrative search warrant. OAG 83-11.

Since the Property Valuation Administrator is authorized to inspect property and is required to assess property, entry onto the property in order to measure it from the exterior is authorized, such entry being required to be reasonable; thus, such authorized entry does not constitute trespass. OAG 83-11.

The Property Valuation Administrator has authority to inspect real property in the county. OAG 83-11.

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

Cities have the right under their police power to levy taxes on vehicles, including housetrailers as defined in this section and the fact that certain mobile homes or trailers were located within the city prior to adoption of an ordinance taxing such vehicles would in no way prohibit or inhibit the application of said ordinance to such mobile homes and trailers. OAG 70-264.

A regulation adopted by a city or county legislative body which includes modular homes in the definition of "house-trailer" is invalid, since a modular home is not a house-trailer under this section. OAG 75-249.

132.730. Mobile homes and recreational vehicles subject to ad valorem taxation — Exception.

All mobile homes and recreational vehicles which are within this state on January 1 each year shall be subject to all ad valorem tax levies applicable to other property subject to full state and local rates, except that any mobile home and recreational vehicle not licensed in this state and not remaining within this state for a period of more than ninety (90) days in any twelve (12) month period shall not have a taxable situs in this state unless an occupant is employed in this state.

132.810. Homestead exemption — Application — Qualification.

(1) To qualify under the homestead exemption provision of the Constitution, each person claiming the exemption shall file an application with the property valuation administrator of the county in which the applicant resides, on forms prescribed by the department. The assessed value of property on which homestead exemption is claimed shall not be increased because of valuation expressed on the application form filed with the property valuation administrator, and whenever it becomes known that the valuation of property subject to the homestead tax exemption has been increased because of valuation expressed on the application form, adjustment shall be made the following year so that the total tax paid by the taxpayer is the same as if the increase had not been made.

(2)(a) Every person filing an application for exemption under the homestead exemption provision must be sixty-five (65) years of age or older during the year for which application is made or must have been classified as totally disabled under a program authorized or administered by an agency of the United States government or by any retirement system either within or without the Commonwealth of Kentucky on January 1 of the year in which application is made.

(b) Every person filing an application for exemption under the homestead exemption provision must own and maintain the property for which the exemption is sought as his personal residence.

(c) Every person filing an application for exemption under the disability provision of the homestead exemption must have received disability payments pursuant to the disability and must maintain the disability classification for the entirety of the particular taxation period.

(d)1. Every person filing for the homestead exemption who is totally disabled and is less than sixty-five (65) years of age must apply for the homestead exemption on an annual basis, except as provided by subparagraph 2. of this paragraph.

2.a. A service-connected totally disabled veteran of the United States Armed Forces; or

b. A totally and permanently disabled individual found disabled under:

i. The applicable rules of the Social Security Administration;

ii. The applicable rules of the Kentucky Retirement Systems; or

iii. Any other provision of the Kentucky Revised Statutes; shall document the disability at the time of application for the homestead exemption and shall not be required to apply for the homestead exemption on an annual basis.

(e)1. Only one (1) exemption per residential unit shall be allowed even though the resident may be sixty-five (65) years of age and also totally disabled, and regardless of the number of residents sixty-five (65) years of age or older occupying the unit.

2. The sixty-five hundred dollars ($6,500) exemption provided in Section 170 of the Constitution of Kentucky shall be construed to mean sixty-five hundred dollars ($6,500) in terms of the purchasing power of the dollar in 1972.

3. Every two (2) years thereafter, if the cost of living index of the United States Department of Labor has changed as much as one percent (1%), the maximum exemption shall be adjusted accordingly.

(f) The real property may be held by legal or equitable title, by the entireties, jointly, in common, as a condominium, or indirectly by the stock ownership or membership representing the owner's or member's proprietary interest in a corporation owning a fee or a leasehold initially in excess of ninety-eight (98) years. The exemption shall apply only to the value of the real property assessable to the owner or, in case of ownership through stock or membership in a corporation, the value of the proportion which his interest in the corporation bears to the assessed value of the property.

(g) A mobile home, recreational vehicle, when classified as real property as provided for in KRS 132.751, or a manufactured house shall qualify as a residential unit for purposes of the homestead exemption provision.

(h) When title to property which is exempted, either in whole or in part, under the homestead exemption is transferred, the owner, administrator, executor, trustee, guardian, conservator, curator, or agent shall report such transfer to the property valuation administrator.

(3) Notwithstanding any statutory provisions to the contrary, the provisions of this section shall apply to the assessment and taxation of property under the homestead exemption provision for state, county, city, or special district purposes.

(4)(a) The homestead exemption for disabled persons shall terminate whenever those persons no longer meet the total disability classification at the end of the taxation period for which the homestead exemption has been granted. In no case shall the exemption be prorated for persons who maintained the total disability classification at the end of the taxation period.

(b) Any totally disabled person granted the homestead exemption under the disability provision shall report any change in disability classification to the property valuation administrator in the county in which the homestead exemption is authorized.

(c) Any person making application and qualifying for the homestead exemption before payment of his property tax bills for the year in question shall be entitled to a full or partial exoneration, as the case may be, of the property tax due to reflect the taxable assessment after allowance for the homestead exemption.

(d) Any person making application and qualifying for the homestead exemption after property tax bills have been paid shall be entitled to a refund of the property taxes applicable to the value of the homestead exemption.

(5) In this section, "taxation period" means the period from January 1 through December 31 of the year in which application is made, unless the person maintaining the classification dies before December 31, in which case "taxation period" means the period from January 1 to the date of death.

V, § 335, effective July 13, 1990; 1992, ch. 338, § 14, effective July 14, 1992; 2000, ch. 149, § 1, effective July 14, 2000; 2005, ch. 85, § 220, effective June 20, 2005; 2008, ch. 4, § 1, effective July 15, 2008; 2011, ch. 22, § 2, effective June 8, 2011.

Compiler's Notes.

Former KRS 132.810 (Enact. Acts 1972, ch. 285, § 4; 1974, ch. 140, § 1; 1974, ch. 314, § 1; 1976, ch. 315, § 2; 1982, ch. 42, § 1, effective July 15, 1982; 1982, ch. 141, § 60, effective July 1, 1982; 1982, ch. 395, § 7, effective July 15, 1982.) was repealed and reenacted by Acts 1990, ch. 476, Pt. V, § 335.

Section 2 of Acts 2000, ch. 149, effective July 14, 2000, read: "This Act shall apply for tax assessments made on or after January 1, 2001."

Legislative Research Commission Notes.

(6/8/2011). 2011 Ky. Acts ch. 22, sec. 2, provides that the changes made to this statute in that Act apply to property assessed on or after January 1, 2012.

1980 Ky. Acts ch. 396, sec. 65 would have amended this section effective July 1, 1982. However, 1980 Ky. Acts ch. 396 was repealed by 1982 Ky. Acts ch. 141, sec. 146, also effective July 1, 1982.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

1. Amount of Exemption.

The dollar-value principle applies to the $6,500 limit of the homestead exemption; thus the 1974 amendments which provided that the $6,500 exemption would be construed in terms of the purchasing power of the dollar in 1972 were valid. Lester v. Ft. Thomas, 531 S.W.2d 490, 1975 Ky. LEXIS 35 (Ky. 1975).

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

The homestead exemption applies for state, county, city or special district purposes. OAG 72-726.

An administratively imposed deadline on applications for the homestead exemption provided for in § 170 of the Kentucky Constitution would not be valid. OAG 72-740.

The incidental renting of rooms in a residence that otherwise qualifies for the homestead exemption does not, under this section and Ky. Const., § 170, violate the single unit restriction. OAG 73-550.

If a homeowner in the city of Mayfield was 65 years of age prior to the September 1972 assessment date, the city of Mayfield should have permitted him to file a homestead exemption application for exemption from 1973 city ad valorem property tax and the city legislative body should authorize a refund to the taxpayer who asserts a proper and qualified application for the exemption. OAG 73-780.

Life tenant of single-unit residential property who is 65 years of age and who maintains the property as a personal residence is an "owner" of the property and may apply for the homestead exemption. OAG 75-110.

The 65-year-old or older owner-occupant of a mobile home, which is a single-unit residence, placed on a rented lot is entitled to the homestead exemption if the mobile home qualifies as a real property by resting on a permanent fixed foundation and having the wheels or mobile parts removed. OAG 75-264.

Since the rates charged by a municipally owned utility must be fair, reasonable, just, uniform and nondiscriminatory, a proposed lower water rate for resident users who qualify for the homestead exemption would be of doubtful legal validity. OAG 75-720.

The current amendment to Ky. Const., § 170 provides for an exemption for jointly owned property with no provisions requiring that property jointly owned must be surveyed and separate deeds be prepared showing the nature of the jointly owned interests and this section provides that such exemption applies to persons 65 years of age or older jointly owning a duplex in which they are residing, so that any person 65 years of age or older is entitled to the $7,700 exemption for the year 1976 upon application to the property valuation administrator for such exemption without the necessity of having a deed prepared showing such person's interest in the property. OAG 76-95.

A person who is otherwise entitled to the homestead exemption granted by Ky. Const., § 170 cannot be denied the exemption merely because he holds equitable title. OAG 80-179.

It is not necessary for a legislative enactment to establish the homestead exemption from ad valorem taxation since Ky. Const., § 170 is self-executing; however, in order to claim the exemption, the owner of the qualified property must present his qualifications to the appropriate taxing authority and comply with the procedures contained in Ky. Const., § 170 and this section. OAG 82-21.

The homestead exemption of this section is just that, an exemption of a portion of an assessment for qualifying taxpayers; as such, it is not part of the assessment of property subject to state tax and may not be used in computing a PVA's salary. OAG 84-35.

132.815. Monthly reports from certified electrical inspectors — Use of information.

(1) Each electrical inspector certified under KRS 227.489 shall submit a monthly report to the Department of Revenue showing the names and addresses of all persons, firms, or corporations for which inspections were conducted for new buildings, new or relocated mobile homes, and other new or relocated structures during the preceding month. Each building, mobile home, or other structure shall be identified by county and property address, or property location in those instances where the address is insufficient to reveal the physical location of the property.

(2) The information provided shall be used for the purpose of making and maintaining accurate assessment records. The Department of Revenue shall provide to each electrical inspector the necessary forms and instructions for filing the report required under subsection (1).

History.

Enact. Acts 1992, ch. 263, § 1, effective July 14, 1992; 2005, ch. 85, § 221, effective June 20, 2005.

132.820. Assessment of unmined coal, oil, and gas reserves held separately from surface real property — Exceptions — Effect of appeal on payment of taxes.

(1) The department shall value and assess unmined coal, oil, and gas reserves, and any other mineral or energy resources which are owned, leased, or otherwise controlled separately from the surface real property at no more than fair market value in place, considering all relevant circumstances. Unmined coal, oil, and gas reserves and other mineral or energy resources shall in all cases be valued and assessed by the Department of Revenue as a distinct interest in real property, separate and apart from the surface real estate unless:

(a) The unmined coal, oil, and gas reserves, and other mineral or energy resources are owned in their entirety by the surface owner;

(b) The surface owner is neither engaged in the severance, extraction, processing, or leasing of mineral or other energy resources nor is he an affiliate of a person who engages in those activities; and

(c) The surface is being used by the surface owner primarily for the purpose of raising for sale agricultural crops, including planted and managed timberland, or livestock or poultry.

For purposes of this section, "affiliate" means a person who directly or indirectly owns or controls, is owned or controlled by, or is under common ownership or control with, another individual, partnership, committee, association, corporation, or any other organization or group of persons.

(2) Each owner or lessee of property assessed under subsection (1) of this section shall annually, between January 1 and April 15, file a return with the department in a form as the department may prescribe. Other individuals or corporations having knowledge of the property defined in subsection (1) of this section gained through contracting, extracting, or similar means may also be required by the department to file a return.

(3) Any property subject to assessment by the department under subsection (1) of this section which has not been listed for taxation, for any year in which it is taxable, by April 15 of that year shall be omitted property.

(4) After the valuation of unmined minerals or other energy sources has been finally fixed by the department, the department shall certify to the county clerk of each county the amount liable for county, city, or district taxation. The report shall be filed by the county clerk in his office, and shall be certified by the county clerk to the proper collecting officer of the county, city, or taxing district for collection.

(5) The notification, protest, and appeal of assessments under subsection (1) of this section shall be made pursuant to the provisions of KRS Chapter 131.

(6) No appeal shall delay the collection or payment of taxes based upon the assessment in controversy. The taxpayer shall pay all state, county, and district taxes due on the valuation which the taxpayer claims as the true value as stated in the protest filed under KRS 131.110. When the valuation is finally determined upon appeal, the taxpayer shall be billed for any additional tax and interest at the tax interest rate as defined in KRS 131.010(6), from the date the tax would have become due if no appeal had been taken. The provisions of KRS 134.015(6) shall apply to the tax bill.

(7) The collection of tax bills generated from the assessments made under subsection (1) of this section shall be made pursuant to the provisions of KRS Chapter 134.

History.

Enact. Acts 1994, ch. 263, § 1, effective July 15, 1994; 1998, ch. 391, § 3, effective July 15, 1998; 2002, ch. 234, § 1, effective July 15, 2002; 2005, ch. 85, § 222, effective June 20, 2005; 2009, ch. 10, § 40, effective January 1, 2010.

Legislative Research Commission Notes.

(7/15/2002). The amendments made to subsection (1) of this statute in 2002 Ky. Acts ch. 234, sec. 1, "shall apply to tax assessments made on or after January 1, 2003." 2002 Ky. Acts ch. 234, sec. 3.

(7/14/2000). 2000 Ky. Acts ch. 446 (Senate Bill 323), sec. 1, purports to amend this statute, and the General Assembly version of that bill was signed by both presiding officers and by the Governor. The Journals of the House of Representatives and Senate will reflect, however, that House Floor Amendment 1 was adopted by the House on March 27, 2000, but was not transmitted to the Senate for its concurrence when the bill was returned to that body. Thus, the bill signed did not pass both chambers of the General Assembly in the same form and did not become law. Ky. Const. secs. 46 and 88; see also Mason's Manual of Legislative Procedure sec. 737, at 508-509 (1989 ed.). Because the General Assembly's own official records establish this constitutional deficiency, the provisions of 2000 Ky. Acts ch. 446 have not been codified into the Kentucky Revised Statutes. See KRS 7.131(2).

132.825. Listing of property required.

(1) It shall be the duty of all persons providing communications services or multichannel video programming services defined under KRS 136.602 owning or having any interest in tangible personal property in this state to list or have listed the property with the department between January 1 and May 15 in each year reporting the full details, a correct description of the property and its value.

(2) The department shall have sole power to value and assess all tangible personal property of multichannel video programming service providers and communications service providers. Such property shall be valued and assessed in accordance with procedures established for locally assessed tangible property. The department shall develop forms for reporting.

(3) Providers of multichannel video programming services or communications services shall not be required to list, and the department shall not assess intangible property as defined in KRS 132.010.

(4) It is the intent of KRS 136.600 to 136.660 to relieve communications service providers and multichannel video programming service providers from the tax liability imposed under KRS 136.120 by:

(a) Requiring real, tangible, and intangible property owned by communications service providers and multichannel video programming service providers to be assessed and taxed in the same manner as real, tangible, and intangible property of all other taxpayers under KRS Chapter 132 excluding KRS 132.030; and

(b) Replacing revenues received from communications service providers and multichannel video programming service providers under KRS 136.120, attributable to the franchise portion of operating property as defined in KRS 136.115, with the levy imposed under KRS 136.616.

To the extent that any tangible or intangible property was considered a part of the franchise portion of operating property under KRS 136.115 and 136.120 for tax periods ending prior to January 1, 2006, for a communications service provider or a multichannel video programming service provider, such property shall be exempt from taxation under KRS Chapter 132 and shall not be listed, valued or assessed under this section for tax periods beginning on or after December 31, 2005.

(5) It is also the intent of KRS 136.600 to 136.660 that for communications service providers and multichannel video programming service providers the following items, to the extent these items are intangible property, shall be exempt from taxation under KRS Chapter 132 and shall not be listed, valued, or assessed by the department or local jurisdictions. The items include but shall not be limited to:

- (a) Franchises;
- (b) Certificates of public convenience and necessity;
- (c) Licenses;
- (d) Authorizations issued by the Federal Communications Commission or any state public service commission;
- (e) Customer lists;
- (f) Assembled labor force;
- (g) Goodwill;
- (h) Managerial skills;
- (i) Business enterprise value;
- (j) Speculative value; and
- (k) Any other type of personal property that is not tangible personal property.

(6) Any person dissatisfied with or aggrieved by the finding or ruling of the department may appeal the finding or ruling in the manners provided in KRS 131.110.

(7) All persons in whose name property is assessed shall remain bound for the tax, notwithstanding that they may have sold or parted with it.

(8) The department shall allocate the assessed value of property described in subsection (1) of this section among the counties, cities, and taxing districts. The assessed value shall be allocated to the county, city, or taxing district where the property is situated.

(9) The department shall certify, unless otherwise specified, to the county clerk of each county in which any of the property assessment listed by the corporation is liable to local taxation, the amount of tangible personal property liable for county, city, or district tax.

(10) No appeal shall delay the collection or payment of taxes based upon the assessment in controversy. The taxpayer shall pay all state, county, and district taxes due on the valuation that the taxpayer claims as the true value as stated in the protest filed under KRS 131.110. When the valuation is finally determined upon appeal, the taxpayer shall be billed for any additional tax and interest at the tax interest rate as defined in KRS 131.010(6), from the date the tax would have become due if no appeal had been taken. The provisions of KRS 134.015(6) shall apply to the tax bill.

(11) The certification of valuation shall be filed by each county clerk in the clerk's office and shall be certified by the county clerk to the proper collecting officer of the county, city, or taxing district for collection. Any district that has the value certified by the department shall pay an annual fee to the department that represents an allocation of the department's operating and overhead expenses incurred in generating the valuations. This fee shall be determined by the department and shall apply to valuations for tax periods beginning on or after January 1, 2005.

History.

(1/1/2006). 2005 Ky. Acts chs. 11, 85, 95, 97, 98, 99, 123, and 181 instruct the Reviser of Statutes to correct statutory references to agencies and officers whose names have been changed in 2005 legislation confirming the reorganization of the executive branch. Such a correction has been made in this section.

PENALTIES

132.990. Penalties.

(1) Any person who willfully fails to supply the property valuation administrator or the Department of Revenue with a complete list of his property and such facts with regard thereto as may be required or who violates any of the provisions of KRS 132.570 shall be fined not more than five hundred dollars ($500).

(2) Any property valuation administrator who willfully fails or neglects to perform any duty legally imposed upon him shall be fined not more than five hundred dollars ($500) for each offense.

(3) Any county clerk who willfully fails or neglects to perform any duty required of him by KRS 132.480 shall be fined not more than fifty dollars ($50) for each offense.

(4) Any person who willfully falsifies application for exemption or who fails to notify the property valuation administrator of any changes in qualifying requirements under the provision of KRS 132.810 shall be fined not more than five hundred dollars ($500).

133.120. Appeal procedure.

(1)(a) Any taxpayer desiring to appeal an assessment on real property made by the property valuation administrator shall first request a conference with the property valuation administrator or his or her designated deputy. The conference shall be held prior to or during the inspection period provided for in KRS 133.045, or during an extension granted under subsection (2)(d) of this section.

(b)1. Any person receiving compensation to represent a property owner at a conference with the property valuation administrator for a real property assessment shall be:

- a. An attorney;
- b. A certified public accountant;
- c. A certified real estate broker;
- d. A Kentucky licensed real estate broker;
- e. An employee of the property owner;
- f. A licensed or certified Kentucky real estate appraiser;

g. An appraiser who possesses a temporary practice permit or reciprocal license or certification in Kentucky to perform appraisals and whose license or certification requires him or her to conform to the Uniform Standards of Professional Appraisal Practice; or

h. Any other individual possessing a professional appraisal designation recognized by the department.

2. A person representing a property owner before the property valuation administrator shall present written authorization from the property owner which sets forth his or her professional capacity and shall disclose to the property valuation administrator any personal or private interests he or she may have in the matter, including any contingency fee arrangements, except that attorneys shall not be required to disclose the terms and conditions of any contingency fee arrangement.

(c) During this conference, the property valuation administrator or his or her deputy shall provide an explanation to the taxpayer of the constitutional and statutory provisions governing property tax administration, including the appeal process, as well as an explanation of the procedures followed in deriving the assessed value for the taxpayer's property.

(d) The property valuation administrator or his or her deputy shall keep a record of each conference which shall include but not be limited to the initial assessed value, the value claimed by the taxpayer, an explanation of any changes offered or agreed to by each party, and a brief account of the outcome of the conference.

(e) At the request of the taxpayer, the conference may be held by telephone.

(2)(a) Any taxpayer still aggrieved by an assessment on real property made by the property valuation administrator after complying with the provisions of subsection (1) of this section may appeal to the board of assessment appeals.

(b) The taxpayer shall appeal his or her assessment by filing in person or sending a letter or other written petition to the county clerk stating the reasons for appeal, identifying the property for which the appeal is filed, and stating the taxpayer's opinion of the fair cash value of the property.

(c) The appeal shall be filed no later than one (1) workday following the conclusion of the inspection period provided for in KRS 133.045 or no later than the last day of an extension granted under paragraph (d) of this subsection.

(d) A property valuation administrator may make a written request to the department to extend the deadline in his or her county of jurisdiction to allow the completion of the conferences requested during the inspection period required by subsection (1)(a) of this section and to extend the filing deadline for appeals to the board of assessment appeals. If approved by the department, the deadline for the completion of the conferences requested during the inspection period and filing appeals shall be extended for a period not to exceed twenty-five (25) days from the date of the original filing deadline.

(e) The county clerk shall notify the department of all assessment appeals and of the date and times of the hearings.

(f) The board of assessment appeals may review and change any assessment made by the property valuation administrator upon recommendation of the county judge/executive, mayor of any city using the county assessment, or the superintendent of any school district in which the property is located, if the recommendation is made to the board in writing specifying the individual properties recommended for review and is made no later than one (1) work day following the conclusion of the inspection period provided for in KRS 133.045, or no later than the last day of an extension granted under paragraph (d) of this subsection, or upon the written recommendation of the department. If the board of assessment appeals determines that the assessment should be increased, it shall give the taxpayer notice in the manner required by subsection (4) of KRS 132.450, specifying a date when the board will hear the taxpayer, if he or she so desires, in protest of an increase.

(g) Any real property owner who has listed his or her property with the property valuation administrator at its fair cash value may ask the county board of assessment appeals to review the assessments of real properties he or she believes to be assessed at less than fair cash value, if he or she specifies in writing the individual properties for which the review is sought and factual information upon which his or her request is based, such as comparable sales or cost data and if the request is made no later than one (1) work day following the conclusion of the inspection period provided for in KRS 133.045, or no later than the last day of an extension granted under paragraph (d) of this subsection.

(h) Nothing in this section shall be construed as granting any property owner the right to request a blanket review of properties or the board the power to conduct such a review.

(3)(a) The board of assessment appeals shall hold a public hearing for each individual taxpayer appeal in protest of the assessment by the property valuation administrator filed in accordance with the provisions of subsection (2) of this section, and after hearing all the evidence, shall fix the assessment of the property at its fair cash value.

(b) The department may be present at the hearing and present any pertinent evidence as it pertains to the appeal.

(c) The taxpayer shall provide factual evidence to support his or her appeal. If the taxpayer fails to provide reasonable information pertaining to the value of the property requested by the property valuation administrator, the department, or any member of the board, his or her appeal shall be denied.

(d) This information shall include but not be limited to the physical characteristics of land and improvements, insurance policies, cost of construction, real estate sales listings and contracts, income and expense statements for commercial property, and loans or mortgages.

(e) The board of assessment appeals shall only hear and consider evidence which has been submitted to it in the presence of both the property valuation administrator or his or her designated deputy and the taxpayer or his or her authorized representative.

(4)(a) Any person receiving compensation to represent a property owner in an appeal before the board shall be:

1. An attorney;
2. A certified public accountant;
3. A certified real estate broker;
4. A Kentucky licensed real estate broker;
5. An employee of the taxpayer;
6. A licensed or certified Kentucky real estate appraiser;
7. An appraiser who possesses a temporary practice permit or reciprocal license or certification in Kentucky to perform appraisals and whose license or certification requires him or her to conform to the Uniform Standards of Professional Appraisal Practice; or
8. Any other individual possessing a professional appraisal designation recognized by the department.

(b) A person representing a property owner before the county board of assessment appeals shall present a written authorization from the property owner which sets forth his or her professional capacity and shall disclose to the county board of assessment appeals any personal or private interests he or she may have in the matter, including any contingency fee arrangements, except that attorneys shall not be required to disclose the terms and conditions of any contingency fee arrangement.

(5) The board shall provide a written opinion justifying its action for each assessment either decreased or increased in the record of its proceedings and orders required in KRS 133.125 on forms or in a format provided or approved by the department.

(6) The board shall report to the property valuation administrator any real property omitted from the tax roll. The property valuation administrator shall assess the property and immediately give notice to the taxpayer in the manner required by KRS 132.450(4), specifying a date when the board of assessment appeals will hear the taxpayer, if he or she so desires, in protest of the action of the property valuation administrator.

(7) The board of assessment appeals shall have power to issue subpoenas, compel the attendance of witnesses, and adopt rules and regulations concerning the conduct of its business. Any member of the board shall have power to administer oaths to any witness in proceedings before the board.

(8) The powers of the board of assessment appeals shall be limited to those specifically granted by this section.

(9) No appeal shall delay the collection or payment of any taxes based upon the assessment in controversy. The taxpayer shall pay all state, county, and district taxes due on the valuation which he or she claims as true value and stated in the petition of appeal filed in accordance with the provisions of subsection (1) of this section. When the valuation is finally determined upon appeal, the taxpayer shall be billed for any additional tax and interest at the tax interest rate as defined in KRS 131.010(6) from the date when the tax would have become due if no appeal had been taken. The provisions of KRS 134.015(6) shall apply to the tax bill.

(10) Any member of the county board of assessment appeals may be required to give evidence in support of the board's findings in any appeal from its actions to the Board of Tax Appeals pursuant to KRS 49.220. Any persons aggrieved by a decision of the board, including the property valuation administrator, taxpayer, and department, may appeal the decision to the Board of Tax Appeals pursuant to KRS 49.220. Any taxpayer failing to appeal to the county board of assessment appeals, or failing to appear before the board, either in person or by designated representative, shall not be eligible to appeal directly to the Board of Tax Appeals.

(11) The county attorney shall represent the interest of the state and county in all hearings before the board of assessment appeals and on all appeals prosecuted from its decision. If the county attorney is unable to represent the state and county, he or she the fiscal court shall arrange for substitute representation.

(12) Taxpayers shall have the right to make audio recordings of the hearing before the county board of assessment appeals. The property valuation administrator may make similar audio recordings only if prior written notice is given to the taxpayer. The taxpayer shall be entitled to a copy of the department's recording as provided in KRS 61.874.

(13) The county board of assessment appeals shall physically inspect a property upon the request of the property owner or property valuation administrator.

Legislative Research Commission Notes.

(7/14/92). Pursuant to KRS 7.136(1), in codifying this section the Reviser of Statutes has corrected an erroneous cross-reference that resulted from the amendment process in the enactment of 1992 Ky. Acts ch. 397, sec. 3. That Act and Acts ch. 449 both amend this statute and not otherwise being in conflict have been compiled together.

(7/13/90). The Act amending this section prevails over the repeal and reenactment in House Bill 940, Acts Ch. 476, pursuant to Section 653(1) of Acts Ch. 476.

1. In General.

On appeal from the board of supervisors, it was up to the Commonwealth to secure prompt disposal of the appeal by the courts if it so desired and the taxpayer had no duty to see that the appeal was promptly heard. Commonwealth v. Southern Pac. Co., 169 Ky. 296, 183 S.W. 925, 1916 Ky. LEXIS 697 (Ky. 1916) (decided under prior law).

Appeal to board of supervisors is only remedy available to taxpayer aggrieved by assessment made by tax commissioner (now property valuation administrator). Kentucky Heating Co. v. Louisville, 174 Ky. 142, 192 S.W. 4, 1917 Ky. LEXIS 165 (Ky. 1917), dismissed, 250 U.S. 653, 40 S. Ct. 53, 63 L. Ed. 1191, 1919 U.S. LEXIS 1804 (1919) (decided under prior law).

When a taxpayer has appealed to the board of supervisors, and the board has taken action on the appeal, any mistake made by the tax commissioner (now property valuation administrator) in making the assessment appealed from is no longer material. Kentucky Heating Co. v. Louisville, 174 Ky. 142, 192 S.W. 4, 1917 Ky. LEXIS 165 (Ky. 1917), writ of error

An attested copy of the notice of increase of assessment served upon the taxpayer by the board of supervisors was not "a certified copy of the action" of the board, and an attempt to take an appeal from the board by filing such paper was ineffectual. Cain v. Magoffin County, 198 Ky. 598, 249 S.W. 766, 1923 Ky. LEXIS 501 (Ky. 1923) (decided under prior law).

A taxpayer who is aggrieved by the assessment made by the tax commissioner (now property valuation administrator) must first appeal to the board of supervisors, and then may appeal from the board to the courts. He cannot appeal directly to the courts from the tax commissioner's (now property valuation administrator's) assessment, or attack such assessment as excessive in a court action. Farmers' Nat'l Bank v. Board of Sup'rs, 225 Ky. 246, 8 S.W.2d 401, 1928 Ky. LEXIS 769 (Ky. 1928) (decided under prior law).

One taxpayer may not appeal to or from the board of supervisors on behalf of other taxpayers similarly situated or owning similar property; he may appeal only for himself. Cossar v. Klein, 227 Ky. 768, 14 S.W.2d 160, 1928 Ky. LEXIS 515 (Ky. 1928) (decided under prior law).

Pending an appeal from the board of supervisors, the county clerk has no right to make out a tax bill on the assessment appealed from. Cossar v. Klein, 227 Ky. 768, 14 S.W.2d 160, 1928 Ky. LEXIS 515 (Ky. 1928) (decided under prior law).

Where taxpayer has been notified by tax commissioner (now property valuation administrator) of increase of assessment made by latter, taxpayer's sole remedy was by appeal from board, although he had appeared before board and was unable to get definite information as to what action it had taken. Ball v. P. V. & K. Coal Co., 235 Ky. 445, 31 S.W.2d 707, 1930 Ky. LEXIS 386 (Ky. 1930) (decided under prior law).

The right of a taxpayer to appeal from the board of supervisors does not depend upon whether the board gave him notice of its action, or whether he appeared before the board, and those matters are immaterial on appeal. Letcher County v. Kentucky River Coal Corp., 250 Ky. 7, 61 S.W.2d 891, 1933 Ky. LEXIS 620 (Ky. 1933) (decided under prior law).

On appeal from the board of supervisors to the Circuit Court the matter is tried de novo; the appellee may relitigate any issue without taking a cross appeal, and the appellant need not specify what particular items of property he claims have not been assessed properly. Carr's Fork Coal Co. v. Perry County Board of Supervisors, 263 Ky. 642, 93 S.W.2d 359, 1936 Ky. LEXIS 232 (Ky. 1936) (decided under prior law).

An appeal to the Circuit Court should be tried by that court without a jury. Thomas Forman Co. v. Owsley County Board of Sup'rs., 267 Ky. 224, 101 S.W.2d 939, 1937 Ky. LEXIS 302 (Ky. 1937) (decided under prior law).

Appeal by county attorney from quarterly court to Circuit Court, in the name of board of supervisors, was proper, where taxpayer had appealed from board to quarterly court naming board as appellees. Prestonsburg Water Co. v. Prestonsburg Board of Sup'rs, 279 Ky. 551, 131 S.W.2d 451, 1939 Ky. LEXIS 305 (Ky. 1939), overruled, Department of Revenue ex rel. Luckett v. Allied Drum Service, Inc., 561 S.W.2d 323, 1978 Ky. LEXIS 318 (Ky. 1978), overruled in part, Department of Revenue ex rel. Luckett v. Allied Drum Service, Inc., 561 S.W.2d 323, 1978 Ky. LEXIS 318 (Ky. 1978), overruled on other grounds, Department of Revenue ex rel. Luckett v. Allied Drum Service, Inc., 561 S.W.2d 323, 1978 Ky. LEXIS 318 (Ky. 1978) (decided under prior law).

The provisions of this section mean that there shall be a de novo hearing in the quarterly and Circuit Courts as independent, graduated fact-finding tribunals, although the practice is denominated on appeal and the procedure is the same as in cases of other appeals from inferior to superior courts. Board of Supervisors v. Pinnell, 292 Ky. 364, 166 S.W.2d 882, 1942 Ky. LEXIS 108 (Ky. 1942) (decided under prior law).

This section provides that a taxpayer may appeal to the board of supervisors from an assessment made by the tax commissioner (now property valuation administrator). Breathitt County Board of Sup'rs v. Ware Cannel Coal Co., 297 Ky. 117, 179 S.W.2d 225, 1944 Ky. LEXIS 691 (Ky. 1944) (decided under prior law).

Failure of defendant county, in declaratory judgment action by taxpayers seeking to enjoin collection of county taxes on certain property claimed to be exempt from local taxation, to file a special demurrer, waived jurisdictional objection that taxpayer's sole remedy was by appeal to board of supervisors. Todd County v. Bond Bros., 300 Ky. 224, 188 S.W.2d 325, 1945 Ky. LEXIS 521 (Ky. 1945).

Where taxpayer, in listing his property for taxation, designated certain of the listed property as raw material on hand for the purpose of manufacture, subject only to state tax, but tax commissioner (now property valuation administrator) changed the classification and assessed the property for local taxes on the theory that it was manufactured, taxpayer was not required to appeal to board of supervisors as provided in this section, but could maintain declaratory judgment action in Circuit Court to enjoin collection of local taxes. Todd County v. Bond Bros., 300 Ky. 224, 188 S.W.2d 325, 1945 Ky. LEXIS 521 (Ky. 1945).

An appeal to the Circuit Court from a decision of the state tax commission (now Kentucky Board of Tax Appeals) is a trial de novo and the commission should be made a party to enable it to defend its evaluation. Cook v. Citizens State Bank, 304 S.W.2d 931, 1957 Ky. LEXIS 292 (Ky. 1957).

2. Jurisdiction.

On appeal from the board of supervisors, the courts had jurisdiction only to determine the assessability of the property and to fix the assessable value; they had no power to enter judgment for the taxes due on the assessment or require the taxpayer to pay any sum into court towards the taxes that may have been found due. Commonwealth v. Southern Pac. Co., 169 Ky. 296, 183 S.W. 925, 1916 Ky. LEXIS 697 (Ky. 1916) (decided under prior law).

Circuit Court had authority to raise assessment on particular item of property, although neither taxpayer nor taxing authorities had made any complaint as to that item. Carr's Fork Coal Co. v. Perry County Board of Supervisors, 263 Ky. 642, 93 S.W.2d 359, 1936 Ky. LEXIS 232 (Ky. 1936) (decided under prior law).

The board of supervisors, in fixing the values of property for taxation and making assessments, is an administrative body, not a "judicial tribunal," though it may also exercise quasi-judicial powers. McCracken Fiscal Court v. McFadden, 275 Ky. 819, 122 S.W.2d 761, 1938 Ky. LEXIS 499 (Ky. 1938) (decided under prior law).

The fiscal court possesses only limited jurisdiction or power and has no right to create an office not provided by statute to pay for services which the statute provides shall be performed by a public officer. Veith v. Dunlap, 308 Ky. 386, 214 S.W.2d 608, 1948 Ky. LEXIS 949 (Ky. 1948) (decided under prior law).

3. Notice.

In an action to enjoin the collection of taxes based on a raise made by the board of supervisors without proper notice, it was incumbent upon the party seeking the injunction to prove the absence of the required notice, but where such party exhibited the notice that he received, and such notice on its face did not comply with the statute, the burden then passed to the opposing party to show that proper notice was served. Ward v. Wentz, 130 Ky. 705, 113 S.W. 892, 1908 Ky. LEXIS 313 (Ky. 1908) (decided under prior law).

Where taxpayer listed in his schedule certain raw material, under a heading in the schedule provided for listing property exempt from local taxation, and the schedule was accepted as correct by the tax commissioner (now property valuation administrator), the board of supervisors could not take such property out of the exempt column and assess it for local taxation without giving notice to the taxpayer. P. Lorrillard Co. v. Ross, 183 Ky. 217, 209 S.W. 39, 1919 Ky. LEXIS 475 (Ky. 1919) (decided under prior law).

An increase of an assessment by the board of supervisors without formal notice to the taxpayer is void, unless the taxpayer has received actual notice of the increase and has appeared before the board in opposition thereto. Ward v. Wentz, 130 Ky. 705, 113 S.W. 892, 1908 Ky. LEXIS 313 (Ky. 1908) (decided under prior law). See McFarland v. Georgetown Nat'l Bank, 208 Ky. 7, 270 S.W. 995, 1925 Ky. LEXIS 201 (Ky. 1925), aff'd, 273 U.S. 568, 47 S. Ct. 467, 71 L. Ed. 779, 1927 U.S. LEXIS 712 (U.S. 1927); Kentucky Nat'l Park Ass'n v. Reed, 250 Ky. 525, 63 S.W.2d 614, 1933 Ky. LEXIS 735 (Ky. 1933); Burnside Supply Co. v. Burnside Graded Common School, 260 Ky. 482, 86 S.W.2d 160, 1935 Ky. LEXIS 502 (Ky. 1935) (decided under prior law).

Where taxpayer has been notified by tax commissioner (now property valuation administrator) of increase of assessment made by latter, board of supervisors is not required to give notice to taxpayer that it has approved such increase. Ball v. P. V. & K. Coal Co., 235 Ky. 445, 31 S.W.2d 707, 1930 Ky. LEXIS 386 (Ky. 1930) (decided under prior law).

Where owner of property was a corporation, return showing service of notice on an individual was insufficient, in the absence of anything to indicate that the individual was a process agent of the corporation. Kentucky Nat'l Park Ass'n v. Reed, 250 Ky. 525, 63 S.W.2d 614, 1933 Ky. LEXIS 735 (Ky. 1933) (decided under prior law).

Service of notice of increase of assessment on person who owned property on assessment date is sufficient, notice need not be served on an intervening purchaser of the property. Kentucky Nat'l Park Ass'n v. Reed, 250 Ky. 525, 63 S.W.2d 614, 1933 Ky. LEXIS 735 (Ky. 1933) (decided under prior law).

Where notice of increase of assessment was served on taxpayer's wife at taxpayer's place of business, and she wrote county clerk asking him to go before the board and protest against the increase, but there was no evidence that the taxpayer knew of the notice or of his wife's letter to the clerk, the increase was void. Burnside Supply Co. v. Burnside Graded Common School, 260 Ky. 482, 86 S.W.2d 160, 1935 Ky. LEXIS 502 (Ky. 1935) (decided under prior law).

Failure of tax commissioner (now property valuation administrator) to give notice to taxpayer of increase of assessment made by commissioner (now administrator) was not prejudicial where board of supervisors gave taxpayer notice that it proposed to raise assessment "in addition to the raise made by the tax commissioner," and the taxpayer appeared before the board and was heard in objection to any increase. Thomas Forman Co. v. Owsley County Board of Sup'rs., 267 Ky. 224, 101 S.W.2d 939, 1937 Ky. LEXIS 302 (Ky. 1937) (decided under prior law).

The notice of proposed increase of assessment must be served in the manner provided for serving a summons, except that where the taxpayer is absent from the county or so conceals himself as to prevent personal service, the notice may then be served in the manner provided in the Civil Code (now Rules of Civil Procedure) for the service of notices. Burke v. Department of Revenue, 293 Ky. 281, 168 S.W.2d 997, 1943 Ky. LEXIS 607 (Ky. 1943).

The purpose of the notice required by this section is to give the taxpayer an opportunity to be heard and when he appears before the board for the purpose of contesting the raise in his assessment, there can be no need for the notice prescribed by this section since the rights of the taxpayer, which the notice was intended to protect, have been preserved. Commonwealth ex rel. Reeves v. Elkhorn & Jellico Coal Co., 313 Ky. 764, 233 S.W.2d 508, 1950 Ky. LEXIS 971 (Ky. 1950).

4. Timeliness.

Taxpayers' challenge to a real property tax assessment was dismissed because the taxpayer failed to comply with the requirement of KRS 133.120 that the taxpayer file the protest during "the current year" as specified by KRS 133.045(1). Instead, the taxpayer did not request a conference or a review of the assessment until the following year. Commonwealth v. Cromwell Louisville Assocs., 2008 Ky. App. LEXIS 250 (Ky. Ct. App. Aug. 8, 2008), aff'd, 323 S.W.3d 1, 2010 Ky. LEXIS 230 (Ky. 2010).

5. Party to Proceedings.

The city, never being a party to the proceedings, or attempting to intervene, could not appeal. Louisville v. Christian Business Women's Club, Inc., 306 S.W.2d 274, 1957 Ky. LEXIS 32 (Ky. 1957).

"Likewise," as formerly used in subsection (1) of this section, means property owners "in addition" to any aggrieved taxpayer mentioned firstly in the statute. Kentucky Bd. of Tax Appeals v. Simpson, 691 S.W.2d 221, 1985 Ky. App. LEXIS 528 (Ky. Ct. App. 1985).

6. Exhaustion of Administrative Remedies.

Where the record did not indicate a prima facie constitutional violation due to reassessments of real property ranging from 1% to 400%, the case involved nothing but factual questions, and property owners were given sufficient time to appeal to the board of assessment appeals by filing a letter or petition protesting the increases in assessments and for the board to adjudicate the claims, the court erred in allowing the property owners to bypass the administrative remedies provided under this section and KRS 131.340 (renumbered as KRS 49.220). Parrent v. Fannin, 616 S.W.2d 501, 1981 Ky. LEXIS 250 (Ky. 1981).

7. Assessment.

Assessment of unlisted property without notice to taxpayer was void. Mt. Sterling Oil & Gas Co. v. Ratliff, 127 Ky. 1, 104 S.W. 993, 31 Ky. L. Rptr. 1229, 1907 Ky. LEXIS 109 (Ky. 1907). See Durbin v. Ohio Valley Tie Co., 151 Ky. 74, 151 S.W. 12, 1912 Ky. LEXIS 738 (Ky. 1912); Boske v. Louis Marx & Bros., 161 Ky. 460, 170 S.W. 1175, 1914 Ky. LEXIS 91 (Ky. 1914).

Where corporation had gone out of business and had been succeeded by another corporation, service of notice on former corporation of assessment of unlisted property of successor corporation was not sufficient to validate the assessment, although the notice was subsequently delivered to the successor corporation after the board of supervisors had adjourned. Durbin v. Ohio Valley Tie Co., 151 Ky. 74, 151 S.W. 12, 1912 Ky. LEXIS 738 (Ky. 1912) (decided under prior law).

Where a bank did not make the report required by law, but the cashier appeared before the board of supervisors and submitted information upon which an assessment of the stock of the bank could be made, the action of the board in assessing the stock on such information was valid. Caldwell County v. First Nat'l Bank, 151 Ky. 720, 152 S.W. 757, 1913 Ky. LEXIS 541 (Ky. 1913) (decided under prior law).

The assessment of one piece of property at its fair cash value, while other property is assessed at only a percentage of its value, violates the constitutional requirement of uniformity. Eminence Distillery Co. v. Henry County Board of Sup'rs., 178 Ky. 811, 200 S.W. 347, 1918 Ky. LEXIS 473 (Ky. 1918) (decided under prior law).

Absolute equality between assessments is not required; a practical equality as near as may be is sufficient. Eminence Distillery Co. v. Henry County Board of Sup'rs., 178 Ky. 811, 200 S.W. 347, 1918 Ky. LEXIS 473 (Ky. 1918) (decided under prior law).

Where board of supervisors refused to assess property listed by taxpayer under protest, such property could be assessed in an action under KRS 132.330, as against contention that sole remedy of taxing authorities was appeal from board. Commonwealth v. Bingham's Adm'r, 188 Ky. 616, 223 S.W. 999, 1920 Ky. LEXIS 331 (Ky. 1920) (decided under prior law).

Court, in action by taxpayer to enjoin collection of taxes on ground that increase of assessment by board of supervisors was void, had no power to make its own assessment, but could only enjoin collection of so much of the tax as was based on the invalid increase. Lowther v. Moore, 191 Ky. 284, 229 S.W. 705, 1921 Ky. LEXIS 291 (Ky. 1921) (decided under prior law).

In order to obtain relief from an assessment of his property at its full value, the taxpayer must show that there has been an intentional assessment of other property in the same class at only a percentage of its value. Siler v. Board of Sup'rs, 221 Ky. 100, 298 S.W. 189, 1927 Ky. LEXIS 669 (Ky. 1927) (decided under prior law).

Taxpayer could not obtain relief from assessment of his intangible property at its full value without showing that other intangible property was being uniformly and knowingly assessed throughout the state at only a percentage of its actual value. It was not enough to show that tangible property, or other intangibles in the same county, was being assessed at a percentage of its value. Siler v. Board of Sup'rs, 221 Ky. 100, 298 S.W. 189, 1927 Ky. LEXIS 669 (Ky. 1927) (decided under prior law).

The value fixed by the court, on appeal from an assessment made by the board of supervisors for a particular year, should be accepted by the board as the value of the same property in a following year, in the absence of evidence of a material change in the property or conditions affecting its value. Kentucky River Coal Corp. v. Knott County, 245 Ky. 822, 54 S.W.2d 377, 1932 Ky. LEXIS 687 (Ky. 1932) (decided under prior law).

8. —Full Cash Value.

A taxpayer whose property has been assessed at its fair cash value has no right under this section to compel the board of supervisors to raise the assessment of other property in the county which has been assessed at only a percentage of its fair cash value. Greene v. Louisville & I. R. Co., 244 U.S. 499, 37 S. Ct. 673, 61 L. Ed. 1280, 1917 U.S. LEXIS 1660 (1917), overruled in part, Pennhurst State Sch. & Hosp. v. Halderman, 465 U.S. 89, 104 S. Ct. 900, 79 L. Ed. 2d 67, 1984 U.S. LEXIS 4 (1984) (decided under prior law).

Evidence consisting of federal census reports, reports of state board of equalization and state tax commission (now Kentucky Board of Tax Appeals), and affidavits of individuals from different counties, was sufficient to support finding that property was being intentionally, systematically and notoriously assessed at only a percentage of its value, and to overcome presumption that assessing officers did their duty. Louisville & N. R. Co. v. Greene, 244 U.S. 522, 37 S. Ct. 683, 61 L. Ed. 1291, 1917 U.S. LEXIS 1661 (1917), overruled in part, Pennhurst State Sch. & Hosp. v. Halderman, 465 U.S. 89, 104 S. Ct. 900, 79 L. Ed. 2d 67, 1984 U.S. LEXIS 4 (1984) (decided under prior law).

Collection of state taxes based upon an assessment at full value may be enjoined in a suit in federal court against the state assessing and collecting officers, where other property is being uniformly assessed at only a percentage of its value. Louisville & N. R. Co. v. Greene, 244 U.S. 522, 37 S. Ct. 683, 61 L. Ed. 1291, 1917 U.S. LEXIS 1661 (1917), overruled in part, Pennhurst State Sch. & Hosp. v. Halderman, 465 U.S. 89, 104 S. Ct. 900, 79 L. Ed. 2d 67, 1984 U.S. LEXIS 4 (1984) (decided under prior law).

In taking evidence as to the value of property, witnesses should have been asked their opinion as to the fair cash value of the property estimated at the price it would bring at a fair voluntary sale, but it was proper to ask other questions for the purpose of showing how the witness arrived at the value given, or to show what knowledge he has of the value. Hillman Land & Iron Co. v. Commonwealth, 148 Ky. 331, 146 S.W. 776, 1912 Ky. LEXIS 453 (Ky. 1912) (Ky. 1912) (decided under prior law).

The value placed upon the property by the taxpayer in his schedule constitutes a strong admission on the issue of value, and the presumption exists that it is a fair value. Kentucky River Coal Corp. v. Knott County, 245 Ky. 822, 54 S.W.2d 377, 1932 Ky. LEXIS 687 (Ky. 1932) (decided under prior law).

9. —Increase.

The fact that the resident agent of a nonresident taxpayer had actual notice of increase of assessment by board did not dispense with requirement of formal notice to taxpayer, at least where agent did not appear before board in opposition to increase. Ward v. Wentz, 130 Ky. 705, 113 S.W. 892, 1908 Ky. LEXIS 313 (Ky. 1908) (decided under prior law).

An increase of an assessment by the board of supervisors without formal notice to the taxpayer was void, unless the taxpayer had received actual notice of the increase and had appeared before the board in opposition thereto. Ward v. Wentz, 130 Ky. 705, 113 S.W. 892, 1908 Ky. LEXIS 313 (Ky. 1908) (decided under prior law).

Action of board of supervisors in increasing assessment in larger amount than proposed in notice served on taxpayer was not invalid, where taxpayer had appeared before board and been heard in opposition to increase. Castle Craig Coal Co. v. Laurel County Board of Sup'rs, 197 Ky. 292, 246 S.W. 833, 1923 Ky. LEXIS 627 (Ky. 1923) (decided under prior law).

The board is not required, before increasing an assessment, to produce evidence to support its action, or produce witnesses whom the taxpayer may cross-examine. The taxpayer may offer evidence before the board to convince them that no increase should be made, and if he fails in this he has an opportunity, by appeal, to require the introduction of evidence by the board to justify its valuation. Hyden v. Breathitt County Board of Sup'rs, 244 Ky. 505, 51 S.W.2d 441, 1932 Ky. LEXIS 448 (Ky. 1932) (decided under prior law).

10. —Reduction.

Under ordinary circumstances the board of supervisors would have no power to reduce the assessment below the value fixed by the taxpayer in his schedule. Kentucky River Coal Corp. v. Knott County, 245 Ky. 822, 54 S.W.2d 377, 1932 Ky. LEXIS 687 (Ky. 1932) (decided under prior law).

A taxpayer who, by mistake, lists land as containing more acreage than it actually contains is not precluded by his list, and may have the acreage reduced to the correct amount on appeal from the board of supervisors. Letcher County v. Kentucky River Coal Corp., 250 Ky. 7, 61 S.W.2d 891, 1933 Ky. LEXIS 620 (Ky. 1933) (decided under prior law).

11. —Undervalued Property.

If the state or any taxing district felt that property had been assessed at too low a value, its remedy was by appeal to or from the board of supervisors, and it could not later attempt to assess the amount of the undervaluation as omitted property. Commonwealth v. J. M. Robinson, Norton & Co., 146 Ky. 218, 142 S.W. 406, 1912 Ky. LEXIS 58 (Ky. 1912) (decided under prior law). See Commonwealth v. American Tobacco Co., 96 S.W. 466, 29 Ky. L. Rptr. 745 (1906); Caldwell County v. First Nat'l Bank, 151 Ky. 720, 152 S.W. 757, 1913 Ky. LEXIS 541 (Ky. 1913) (decided under prior law).

12. —Unlisted Property.

County board of supervisors had power to assess intangible property not listed by the taxpayer or tax commissioner (now property valuation administrator), as against contention that such property could only be assessed as provided in KRS 132.320. Commonwealth v. Bingham's Adm'r, 188 Ky. 616, 223 S.W. 999, 1920 Ky. LEXIS 331 (Ky. 1920) (decided under prior law).

13. Enjoining Collections.

Taxpayer had right to injunction restraining county from attempting to collect a tax on unmanufactured products in excess of the rate allowed by law, as against contention that his sole remedy was through application to the board of supervisors and appeal from the board. Gray v. R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Co., 200 Ky. 47, 252 S.W. 134, 1923 Ky. LEXIS 16 (Ky. 1923) (decided under prior law).

Collection of tax based on assessment of exempt property, either by itself or along with other property subject to taxation, may be enjoined in a suit by the taxpayer, he not being limited to the remedy of appeal to or from the board of supervisors. Kentucky & West Virginia Power Co. v. Holliday, 216 Ky. 78, 287 S.W. 212, 1926 Ky. LEXIS 832 (Ky. 1926) (decided under prior law). See Ryan v. Louisville, 133 Ky. 714, 118 S.W. 992, 1909 Ky. LEXIS 226 (Ky. 1909); Covington v. Lovell & Buffington Tobacco Co., 204 Ky. 40, 263 S.W. 676, 1924 Ky. LEXIS 396 (Ky. 1924).

Where action of board of supervisors in raising assessment was void because no notice of increase was served, a person who purchased the property after the assessment date could, by joining the original owner of the property as a party, maintain an action to enjoin enforcement of the tax to the extent of the increased assessment. Kentucky Nat'l Park Ass'n v. Reed, 250 Ky. 525, 63 S.W.2d 614, 1933 Ky. LEXIS 735 (Ky. 1933) (decided under prior law).

Collection of tax on assessment made or increased by board of supervisors without notice to taxpayer may be enjoined. Burnside Supply Co. v. Burnside Graded Common School, 260 Ky. 482, 86 S.W.2d 160, 1935 Ky. LEXIS 502 (Ky. 1935).

14. Exemptions.

Neither this section nor KRS 132.450 indicate a clear intention of the legislature that the statutory procedure for review of tax assessments shall be the exclusive method for determining whether property is exempt from taxation. Iroquois Post, A. L. v. Louisville, 279 S.W.2d 13, 1955 Ky. LEXIS 502 (Ky. 1955).

15. Interest.

Interest on taxes provided by this statute does not apply where the county had no lawful right to assess the property during certain years. Commonwealth v. Thomas, 298 S.W.2d 302, 1957 Ky. LEXIS 369 (Ky. 1957).

16. Taxpayer's Valuation.

Except when the taxpayer's valuation under this section is low as to impress the chancellor as being an act of bad faith, the taxpayer's valuation and the payment thereon shall be considered full and complete for discount purposes. Meyers v. Parkway Professional Center, Inc., 344 S.W.2d 389, 1961 Ky. LEXIS 224 (Ky. 1961).

The property owner was not required to provide factual evidence to support his appeal at the property valuation administrator conferencing stage of the assessment appeal; since KRS 133.120(3) related to the procedures before the board of assessment appeals (BAA), the provisions concerning the taxpayer's obligation to provide reasonable information pertaining to the value of the property only applied to the proceedings occurring in front of the BAA. Dunaway v. DLX, Inc., 113 S.W.3d 632, 2002 Ky. App. LEXIS 401 (Ky. Ct. App. 2002).

17. Burden of Proof.

A taxpayer who appeals from the board of supervisors has the burden of proving that the assessment made by the board was excessive or improper. Marion County v. Wilson, 105 Ky. 302, 49 S.W. 8, 20 Ky. L. Rptr. 1193, 1899 Ky. LEXIS 206 (Ky. 1899) (decided under prior law).

Taxpayer appealing to board of supervisors from assessment made by tax commissioner (now property valuation administrator) has burden of showing in what particulars the assessment is erroneous or excessive. Kentucky Heating Co. v. Louisville, 174 Ky. 142, 192 S.W. 4, 1917 Ky. LEXIS 165 (Ky.

18. Evidence.

Paper which on its face did not purport to be statement of final action of board of supervisors could not be proved to be such by oral evidence. Cain v. Magoffin County, 198 Ky. 598, 249 S.W. 766, 1923 Ky. LEXIS 501 (Ky. 1923) (decided under prior law).

19. Judgment.

Decision of court on appeal from assessment for one year is not the law of the case on an appeal from the assessment for a following year. Board of Sup'rs v. Swift Coal & Timber Co., 238 Ky. 21, 36 S.W.2d 664, 1931 Ky. LEXIS 176 (Ky. 1931) (decided under prior law).

The action of the board of supervisors is binding on the person who owned the land on the assessment date, and on subsequent purchasers, until set aside in a proper proceeding to which both owners are parties. Kentucky Nat'l Park Ass'n v. Reed, 250 Ky. 525, 63 S.W.2d 614, 1933 Ky. LEXIS 735 (Ky. 1933) (decided under prior law).

20. Penalty.

Where taxpayer appealed from board of supervisors to quarterly court, then to Circuit Court, Court of Appeals, and United States Supreme Court, and appeal was not finally disposed of until after date on which taxes for year in question became delinquent, taxpayer was liable for delinquent tax penalty imposed by law, on tax finally found to be due. Klein v. Jefferson County Board of Tax Comm'rs, 242 Ky. 328, 46 S.W.2d 480, 1932 Ky. LEXIS 270 (Ky. 1932); Klein v. Commonwealth, 271 Ky. 756, 113 S.W.2d 20, 1938 Ky. LEXIS 41 (Ky. 1938) (decided under prior law).

Where appeal of taxpayer from board of supervisors was pending in court at time taxes for year in question became delinquent, and during time sheriff was collecting taxes for such year, and when appeal was finally disposed of and tax bill issued on final assessment sheriff was unable to locate property out of which to collect the taxes, taxpayer was liable to penalty imposed by KRS 135.040 in action against him under that section. Klein v. Commonwealth, 271 Ky. 756, 113 S.W.2d 20, 1938 Ky. LEXIS 41 (Ky. 1938) (decided under prior law).

App. 1978).

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

The board of supervisors is not the proper judicial body to decide questions of exemption from ad valorem taxes. OAG 61-866.

Where the taxpayer only raised the question of exemption before the board of supervisors after a proper assessment by the tax commissioner (now property valuation administrator), no proper protest was made and the tax bill became final. OAG 61-866.

This section does not authorize the county board of supervisors to make blanket increases in the assessment of property in a county. OAG 64-378.

A member of the board of supervisors may seek a review of his own property assessment. OAG 67-217.

Where a group of taxpayers joined together in a petition to protest assessments it was not necessary that each taxpayer file a separate letter. OAG 67-217.

Requests for review of assessments by the Department of Revenue or local officials named in this section may be presented to the board any time while the board of supervisors is in session. OAG 71-220.

Although the Board of Assessment Appeals may review and change any assessment made by the property valuation administrator, the board has no authority to make a blanket review of property for equalization purposes. OAG 77-185.

Where the county attorney has a conflict and cannot represent the Commonwealth before the board, then the fiscal court or the county attorney pursuant to subsection (7) (now (11)) of this section should appoint a substitute attorney to do so. OAG 78-100.

Reduced assessments rendered by the members of the Tax Assessment Appeals Board on their own property were void where no petition for appeal was filed with the county clerk, but this did not mean that the members of the Tax Assessment Appeals Board could not have the assessments of their properties reviewed by the board, if they abided by the requirements of this chapter and if they disqualified themselves from consideration of the assessment of their own property. OAG 78-578.

The appeal procedure of this section, and in which the county attorney represents the state and county, involves only the legal question of what is the proper assessment; the county attorney is collecting no tax. OAG 79-453.

The General Assembly, in providing in subsection (7) (now (11)) of this section that the county attorney must represent the interest of the state and county in the assessment appeals, made no provisions for special compensation of the county attorney for such work. OAG 79-453.

A county fiscal court may proceed to fix the tax rate for the 1981 ad valorem taxes before the end of any inspection period for final recapitulations of both real and tangible personal property. OAG 80-617.

Where county taxpayers neither appealed the assessments of their property made by the property valuation administrator as provided in KRS 131.340 (renumbered as KRS 49.220) and this section nor attacked the constitutional or statutory authority of the public library district to levy the tax, the amount of the tax was final at the time the tax bills were mailed. No other avenues are available to the taxpayer for disputing the factual determination of the amount owed. OAG 82-265.

Neither KRS 132.350 nor subsection (7) (now (11)) of this section requires the county attorney to defend the property valuation administrator in a legal action brought against him. OAG 91-231.

The county attorney may represent the property valuation administrator if the fiscal court determines that the county has a definite interest in defending the action and directs the county attorney to undertake representation; but without such direction from the fiscal court, the county attorney has no duty to represent the property valuation administrator. OAG 91-231.

Conference records containing the information required to be kept by KRS 133.120(1) and other information of a confidential nature that is information about property that constitutes the "affairs of any person" and "affairs of a person's business," as set forth in KRS 131.190(1) and is not of general recordation or routine observation may properly be withheld from disclosure under KRS 131.190(1) and KRS 61.878(1)(l). However, information contained in the records that is either publicly recorded in records recognized as being subject to routine public scrutiny, or that may be relatively readily observed from a public street, should be made available for inspection. OAG 04-ORD-38.

The following information is exempt from public inspection under KRS 131.190(1): information provided at the conference from the taxpayer or authorized representative, property owner's opinion of value, Deputy PVA comments, and property owner comments. Such information relates to one's affairs or affairs of one's business. OAG 04-ORD-38.

The following information is not exempt from public inspection under KRS 131.190(1): conference date/time, neighborhood/class, property address, PVA assessment, parcel ID#, property owner name, owner or representative with whom the conference is held, checklist of information reviewed at conference by Deputy PVA, date by which property owner had to file with the County Clerk, his appeal of the assessment to local board, taxpayer certification that information he submitted was true and accurate, and signature and date lines for the taxpayer or his representative and the Deputy PVA. OAG 04-ORD-38.

133.160. Notice of assessment raised by Department of Revenue — To whom given — Contents.

When it is contemplated by the Department of Revenue that it will be necessary to raise the assessed valuation of property in any county, it shall give notice of the contemplated action to the county judge/executive, the superintendent of any school district affected by such action, the mayor of any city which is affected and which has adopted the assessment, and to the taxpayers of that county through the county judge/executive, who shall post the notice sent him on the courthouse door and certify to the Department of Revenue that this has been done, and it shall fix a time and place for a hearing which may be in Frankfort or any convenient place in or nearer the county seat.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Analysis

1. Notice.
2. Hearing and Review.

1. Notice.

Notice to individual taxpayers was not a constitutional prerequisite to increase of aggregate county assessments. The notice the individual taxpayers receive by virtue of the statutory provisions as to the time of meeting of the state board, and the notice to the county judge (now county judge/executive) as representative of the taxpayers, was sufficient. Ray v. Armstrong, 140 Ky. 800, 131 S.W. 1039, 1910 Ky. LEXIS 382 (Ky. 1910) (decided under prior law).

Where the Department of Revenue failed to notify two (2) mayors of increased assessments affecting eight parcels of farmland within the limits of their cities, the Court of Appeals held the increased assessment for city taxes on these parcels unenforceable because of failure to give notice, but allowed the increased assessment on 743 parcels of farmland in the county to stand. Department of Revenue v. Oldham County, 415 S.W.2d 386, 1967 Ky. LEXIS 318 (Ky. 1967).

Where the new property valuation administrator had attempted to reassess property valuations upward, but had only sent notices to about 40 percent of the affected property owners, and where some owners had actual notice and had appealed their valuations, the proper remedy would be to allow the increase as to those owners who had received a notice or had actual notice and who had appealed, subject to the outcome of those appeals, and to void the increases as to those property owners who had not received notice and who had not appealed their reassessments. Layson v. Brady, 576 S.W.2d 223, 1978 Ky. App. LEXIS 651 (Ky. Ct. App. 1978).

2. Hearing and Review.

This section and KRS 133.150, 133.170 must be construed as necessarily contemplating, to avoid unconstitutional action and to accomplish the overall objective of equalization, that the individual taxpayer be afforded an opportunity for a hearing and appellate review. Fitzpatrick v. Patrick, 410 S.W.2d 143, 1966 Ky. LEXIS 31 (Ky. 1966).

133.170. Certification of equalization — Appeal by fiscal court — Exoneration from increase in value — Application — Procedure — Appeal.

(1) When the Department of Revenue has completed its equalization of the assessment of the property in any county, it shall certify its action to the county judge/executive, with a copy of the certification for the county clerk, to be laid before the fiscal court of the county.

(2) If the fiscal court deems it proper to ask for a review of the aggregate equalization of any class or subclass of property, it shall direct the county attorney to prosecute an appeal of the aggregate increase to the Board of Tax Appeals pursuant to KRS 49.220 within ten (10) days from the date of the certification.

(3) Within ten (10) days from the date that the department's aggregate equalization of any or all classes or subclasses of property becomes final by failure of the fiscal court to prosecute an appeal or by order of the Board of Tax Appeals pursuant to KRS 49.200 to 49.250 or the courts, the fiscal court shall cause to be published, at least one (1) time, in the newspaper having the largest circulation within the county, a public notice of the department's action.

(4) Within ten (10) days from the date of the publication of the notice required in subsection (3) of this section, any individual taxpayer whose property assessment is increased above its fair cash value by the equalization action may file with the county clerk an application for exoneration of his property assessment from the increase. The application shall be filed in duplicate and shall include the name and address of the person in whose name the property is assessed; the assessment of the property before the increase; the description and location of the property including the description shown on the tax roll; the property owner's reason for appeal; and all other pertinent facts having a bearing upon its value. The county clerk shall forward one (1) copy, of each application for exoneration to the Department of Revenue and shall exclude the amount of the equalization increase from the assessment in the preparation of the property tax bill for each property for which an application for exoneration has been filed.

(5) The county judge/executive shall reconvene the board of supervisors immediately following the close of the period for filing applications for exoneration from the increase. The board shall schedule and conduct hearings on all applications in the manner prescribed for hearing appeals by KRS 133.120; however, the board shall not have authority to reduce any assessment to an amount less than that listed for the property at the time of adjournment of the regular board session.

(6) The county clerk shall act as clerk of the reconvened board and shall keep an accurate record of the proceedings in the same manner as provided by KRS 133.125. Within five (5) days of the adjournment of the reconvened board, he or she shall notify each property owner in writing of the final action of the board with relation to the equalization increase and shall forward a copy of the proceedings certified by the chairman of the board and attested by him or her to the Department of Revenue and to the other taxing districts participating in the tax.

(7) Any taxpayer whose application has been denied, in whole or in part, may appeal to the Board of Tax Appeals as provided in KRS 49.220, and appeals thereafter may be taken to the courts as provided in KRS 49.250.

(8) The provisions of KRS 133.120(9) shall apply to the payment of taxes upon any property assessment for which an application for exoneration has been filed.

(9) The provisions of subsections (4), (5), (6), (7), and (8) of this section shall only apply to appeals growing out of equalization action by the Department of Revenue under the provisions of KRS 133.150.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Analysis

1. Constitutionality.
2. Final and Conclusive Assessment.
3. Hearing and Review.
4. Injunction.
5. Reversal.
6. Appeal.

1. Constitutionality.

The provision of this section limiting the right of appeal to the Franklin Circuit Court is not unconstitutional. Johnson v. Fordson Coal Co., 213 Ky. 445, 281 S.W. 472, 1926 Ky. LEXIS 535 (Ky. 1926), writ dismissed, Fordson Coal Co. v. Moore, 275 U.S. 494, 48 S. Ct. 82, 72 L. Ed. 391, 1927 U.S. LEXIS 310 (1927) (decision prior to 1964 amendment).

2. Final and Conclusive Assessment.

If the county does not proceed under this section for court review of the action of the tax commission, the assessment as equalized by the tax commission is final and conclusive. Fayette County v. Wells, 195 Ky. 608, 243 S.W. 4, 1922 Ky. LEXIS 367 (Ky. 1922) (decision prior to 1964 amendment).

3. Hearing and Review.

This section and KRS 133.150, 133.160 must be construed as necessarily contemplating, to avoid unconstitutional action and to accomplish the overall objective of equalization, that the individual taxpayer be afforded an opportunity for a hearing and appellate review. Fitzpatrick v. Patrick, 410 S.W.2d 143, 1966 Ky. LEXIS 31 (Ky. 1966).

4. Injunction.

Where no action was taken by the fiscal court under this section, the taxpayers of the county had no right to maintain a suit to enjoin the county clerk from issuing tax bills based on the increased assessment made by the tax commission. Farm Bureau of Calloway County v. Pool, 205 Ky. 365, 265 S.W. 809, 1924 Ky. LEXIS 109 (Ky. 1924) (decision prior to 1964 amendment).

5. Reversal.

The courts cannot reverse or correct a finding or ruling of the tax commission for an error of judgment or discretion alone. Commonwealth v. Louisville Gas & Electric Co., 278 Ky. 466, 128 S.W.2d 778, 1938 Ky. LEXIS 68 (Ky. 1938) (decision prior to 1964 amendment).

6. Appeal.

Where notice of appeal was filed within 10 days after entry of judgment but appeal was not docketed with Court of Appeals until 16 days after entry of judgment the appeal was not docketed within the time required by this section and the appeal must fail. Allphin v. Daviess County Fiscal Court, 273 S.W.2d 359, 1954 Ky. LEXIS 1158 (Ky. 1954).

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

The county fiscal court may have blanket increases reviewed by the Kentucky board of tax appeals. OAG 68-351.

The Department of Revenue has authority to apply a blanket increase to a class of property in a county where their studies have determined that the aggregate assessed value of such property is below fair cash value. OAG 68-351.

Any individual property owner whose property is increased above fair cash value by a blanket increase may petition the county clerk to have such increase passed upon by the county board of supervisors and may appeal from their decision to the board of tax appeals. OAG 68-351.

The Department of Revenue is the certifying authority with respect to county assessments and such certification shall include any equalization factor required to bring the assessment of the property in the county to fair cash value. OAG 68-352.

133.180. Certification by department to county clerk — Certification of tax books — Effect.

(1) When the department has completed its action on the assessment of property in any county, it shall immediately certify to the county clerk the assessment and the amount of taxes due. The department shall charge the amount of taxes due from the county to the sheriff of the county. When any item of property is in process of appeal and the valuation has not been finally determined, the certification of such property shall be based on the valuation claimed by the taxpayer as the true value. The county clerk shall affix the certification to the tax books and enter it of record in the order book, and it shall be the sheriff's or collector's warrant for the collection of taxes.

(2) Where provision is not otherwise made for the collection of taxes, the assessment or proportion thereof allocable to a local taxing district shall be certified to the county clerk in which the taxing district is located, for collection as provided by law.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Analysis

1. Certification Date Directory.
2. Change of Tax Rate.

3. Relation Back.
4. Error Correction.
5. Effect on Other Laws.

1. Certification Date Directory.

The former provision of this section that the amount of taxes due according to the equalization made by the tax commission shall be certified to the county clerk and charged to the sheriff not later than June 1 is merely directory, and a certification after that date will not be invalid in the absence of prejudice to the taxpayer arising from the delay. Johnson v. Fordson Coal Co., 213 Ky. 445, 281 S.W. 472, 1926 Ky. LEXIS 535 (Ky. 1926), writ of error dismissed, 275 U.S. 494, 48 S. Ct. 82, 72 L. Ed. 391, 1927 U.S. LEXIS 310 (U.S. 1927).

Former requirement of certification of assessment by department by June 20 held directory only and where assessment was certified on July 29, 1966, and no prejudice was shown it was valid. Department of Revenue v. Oldham County, 415 S.W.2d 386, 1967 Ky. LEXIS 318 (Ky. 1967).

2. Change of Tax Rate.

Where act changing local tax rate on certain property did not take effect until July 18, 1924, taxes based on assessments as of June 1, 1923, were governed by old rate, although certification of final equalization of such assessment was not made until November 1, 1924, such certification relating back to June 1, 1924 (see now KRS 133.185). Ross v. First Nat'l Bank, 213 Ky. 453, 281 S.W. 517, 1926 Ky. LEXIS 536 (Ky. 1926).

3. Relation Back.

A certification made by the tax commission under this section after June 1 (now June 20) will relate back to June 1, preserving, however, all existing review remedies. Ross v. First Nat'l Bank, 213 Ky. 453, 281 S.W. 517, 1926 Ky. LEXIS 536 (Ky. 1926).

4. Error Correction.

If, following blanket raise of assessment by state tax commission, an error is made by the county clerk in determining how the raise is to affect the deduction of exempt property, the error may be corrected under law providing for correction of errors in assessment and if not so corrected the sheriff cannot raise the question in connection with his settlement. Commonwealth use of Phillips v. Tate, 247 Ky. 516, 57 S.W.2d 491, 1933 Ky. LEXIS 425 (Ky. 1933).

5. Effect on Other Laws.

The Department of Revenue was not bound to use the figure it had certified under this section as the fair cash value of property under subsection (1) of KRS 157.380 (repealed) for purposes of the minimum foundation program. Board of Education v. Commonwealth, Dep't of Revenue, 515 S.W.2d 231, 1974 Ky. LEXIS 230 (Ky. 1974).

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

Under this section the state tax commission may make an assessment in July which is retroactive to the preceding January. OAG 60-790.

Where a city adopted essentially the same assessment, levy and collection dates provided for county and state taxes under which the collection of city taxes would begin in September or October, a city tax levy in June would have been made at the proper time. OAG 68-57.

The Department of Revenue is the certifying authority with respect to county assessments and such certification shall include any equalization factor required to bring the assessment of the property in the county to fair cash value. OAG 68-352.

Where the Department of Revenue certified the county assessment to the county clerk on August 21, 1980, the tax rates were fixed by such certification. OAG 80-503.

The limitations on the ad valorem tax rate which a city can levy are determined, in part, by applying the proposed rate levied by the city to the assessments certified by the Department of Revenue as provided in this section; subsequent corrections in valuations made by the department as the result of adjustments to certain properties which were in the appeal process at the time the certification was made are not relevant in computing the limitations. OAG 82-186.

133.185. Tax rate not to be fixed until assessment is certified under KRS 133.180 — Exception.

Except as provided in KRS 132.487, no tax rate for any taxing district imposing a levy upon the county assessment shall be determined before the assessment is certified by the Department of Revenue to the county clerk as provided in KRS 133.180.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Analysis

1. Assessment Precedes Levy.
2. State Tax Rate.
3. Applicable Tax Rate.

1. Assessment Precedes Levy.

This section definitely states that the assessment must precede the levy of the tax rate. National Distillers Products Corp. v. Board of Education, 256 S.W.2d 481, 1952 Ky. LEXIS 1151 (Ky. 1952).

2. State Tax Rate.

This section, which relates to the imposition of a tax rate for a taxing district, such as a city, county or school, has no relationship to Ky. Const., § 171 which requires that the General Assembly shall provide an annual tax sufficient to defray the estimated expenses of the Commonwealth; the state tax rate on all personal property, including motor vehicles, is not fixed by the processes outlined in this section, KRS 132.487(2), or 132.487(6) which provide for submission of a proposal, recapitulation of motor vehicles by the property valuation administrator, and certification by the Department of Revenue, but rather, the state tax rate is fixed by the General Assembly and is currently embodied in KRS 132.020. There is no conflict between KRS 132.487(2) and 132.487(6) with the constitutional provision that the taxes shall be sufficient to defray the expenses of the state. Kling v. Geary, 667 S.W.2d 379, 1984 Ky. LEXIS 216 (Ky. 1984).

3. Applicable Tax Rate.

Where statute changing local tax rate on certain property did not take effect until after March 1, old rate applied to taxes that became due and payable on March 1. Ross v. First Nat'l Bank, 213 Ky. 453, 281 S.W. 517, 1926 Ky. LEXIS 536 (Ky. 1926) (decided under prior law).

The tax rate that prevailed at the time the taxes for a particular year became due and payable was the rate to be applied to the taxes for such year, regardless of when the assessment was made or completed. Ross v. First Nat'l Bank, 213 Ky. 453, 281 S.W. 517, 1926 Ky. LEXIS 536 (Ky. 1926) (decided under prior law).

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

Where sixth-class city generally used county property assessments as the basis for its city tax bills that were usually sent out on July 1, but the county property tax assessments were not going to be certified in time for the city to issue bills on July 1, the city had two (2) alternatives available to it: either, delay issuance of the tax bills until the county property tax assessments were certified by the Department of Revenue, or, appoint its own assessor and issue its own property assessments in accordance with former KRS 92.520. OAG 80-182.

Where the Department of Revenue certified the county assessment to the county clerk, pursuant to KRS 133.180, on August 21, 1980, the tax rates were fixed by such certification. OAG 80-503.

Where an area planning commission adopted a special fiscal year beginning on January 1, 1981, and ending on June 30, 1981, it improperly used the estimated valuation for property as of the January 1, 1981 assessment date, since it is absolutely necessary that an assessment be made before the levy can be imposed and since this section requires that the assessment be certified to the county clerk before the tax rate can be imposed; accordingly, the ad valorem tax in question must be based on the assessment made on January 1, 1980. OAG 81-355.

Where a city chose to adopt the county assessment, its assessment date was January 1 preceding the city's fiscal year; the city's levy date, however, must be subsequent to the certification of the county assessments by the Department of Revenue. OAG 82-186.

A public health taxing district cannot establish its health tax rate for a particular year until the county assessments for that year have been certified by the Revenue Cabinet as provided in KRS 133.180. The district must, however, establish its tax rate prior to the levy of the county ad valorem tax by the county fiscal court. OAG 82-382.

133.220. Tax bill forms — Attestation of bills — Duties of sheriff or collector — Treatment of undeliverable notices.

(1) The department annually shall furnish to each county clerk tax bill forms designed for adequate accounting control sufficient to cover the taxable property on the rolls.

(2) After receiving the forms, the county clerk shall prepare for the use of the sheriff or collector a correct tax bill for each taxpayer in the county whose property has been assessed and whose valuation is included in the certification provided in KRS 133.180. If the bills are bound, the cost of binding shall be paid out of the county levy. Each tax bill shall show the rate of tax upon each one hundred dollars ($100) worth of property for state, county, and school purposes; the name of the taxpayer and his or her mailing address; the number of acres of farm land and its value; the number of lots and their value; the amount and value of notes and money; the value of mixed personal property; the total amount of taxes due the state, county, school district, and any other taxing district for which the sheriff collects taxes; and shall include a statement that notifies the taxpayer that costs and fees increase substantially if the taxes become delinquent. Provision shall be made for the sheriff to have a stub, duplicate, or other proper evidence of receipt of payment of each tax bill.

(3) Tax bills prepared in accordance with the certification of the department shall be delivered to the sheriff or collector by the county clerk before September 15 of each year. The clerk shall take a receipt showing the number of tax bills and the total amount of tax due each taxing district as shown upon the tax bills. The receipt shall be signed and acknowledged by the sheriff or collector before the county clerk, filed with the county judge/executive, and recorded in the order book of the county judge/executive in the manner required by law for recording the official bond of the sheriff.

(4) Upon delivery to him or her of the tax bills, the sheriff or collector shall mail a notice to each taxpayer, showing the total amount of taxes due the state, county, school district, and any other taxing district for which the sheriff collects taxes, the date on which the taxes are due, and any discount to which the taxpayer may be entitled upon payment of the taxes prior to a designated date. The sheriff shall not mail tax notices prior to September 15.

(5) All notices returned as undeliverable shall be submitted no later than the following work day to the property valuation administrator. The property valuation administrator shall correct inadequate or erroneous addresses if the information to do so is available and, if property has been transferred, shall determine the new owner and the current mailing address, or the in-care-of address reflected in the deed as required by KRS 382.135. The property valuation administrator shall return the corrected notices to the sheriff or collector on a daily basis as corrections are made, but no later than fifteen (15) days after receipt. Uncorrected notices shall be submitted to the department by the property valuation administrator.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Analysis

1. Tax Bill.

2. —Delayed.
3. —Corrected.
4. Taxes Chargeable to Sheriff.
5. —Best Evidence.
6. Sheriff's Settlement.

1. Tax Bill.

2. —Delayed.

When the taxpayer has appealed from the board of supervisors with regard to the assessment of his property, no tax bill may be made out on such assessment pending the appeal, and the clerk may be enjoined from making out and delivering the tax bill to the sheriff. Cossar v. Klein, 227 Ky. 768, 14 S.W.2d 160, 1928 Ky. LEXIS 515 (Ky. 1928). See Klein v. Jefferson County Board of Tax Comm'rs, 242 Ky. 328, 46 S.W.2d 480, 1932 Ky. LEXIS 270 (Ky. 1932).

3. —Corrected.

Where county clerk, in making out tax bills, inadvertently failed to include the county taxes on the bills of a certain taxpayer, and upon the mistake being called to his attention the following year issued corrected bills, such corrected bills were valid. McFarland v. Georgetown Nat'l Bank, 208 Ky. 7, 270 S.W. 995, 1925 Ky. LEXIS 201 (Ky. 1925), aff'd, 273 U.S. 568, 47 S. Ct. 467, 71 L. Ed. 779, 1927 U.S. LEXIS 712 (U.S. 1927).

4. Taxes Chargeable to Sheriff.

The amount of taxes shown to be due by the final recapitulation of the tax commissioner's (now property valuation administrator's) books, and by the receipt for the tax bills executed by the sheriff under this section, is conclusive as to the sheriff's liability in making settlements, unless such amount has been shown to be erroneous in an action brought for the purpose of correcting the books and receipt. Bush v. Board of Education, 238 Ky. 297, 37 S.W.2d 849, 1931 Ky. LEXIS 230 (Ky. 1931).

The sheriff's receipt for the tax bill is conclusive as to the amount with which the sheriff is chargeable in making settlements, in the absence of a showing of fraud or mistake. Bush v. Board of Education, 238 Ky. 297, 37 S.W.2d 849, 1931 Ky. LEXIS 230 (Ky. 1931).

5. —Best Evidence.

The best evidence of the amount of taxes with which the sheriff is chargeable is the receipt for the tax bills executed by the sheriff under this section. If the receipt was never executed, or has been lost or destroyed, the next best evidence is the book containing the tax bills, the undetached bills being evidence as to uncollected taxes, and the stubs of the detached bills, to the extent they are legible, being evidence as to collected taxes. If the tax books have been lost or destroyed, the next best evidence is the tax rolls of the tax commissioner, as finally revised by the county clerk, from which the tax bills were made out. Any expense necessary to cause a reproduction of the tax bills from the tax rolls may be charged to the sheriff. In the absence of the sheriff's receipt for the tax bills, and the complete books of tax bills and stubs, an audit report based on the intelligible portion of the tax books, together with the revised tax rolls, is competent evidence as to the sheriff's liability. Knox County v. Lewis' Adm'r, 253 Ky. 652, 69 S.W.2d 1000, 1934 Ky. LEXIS 693 (Ky. 1934).

6. Sheriff's Settlement.

In making settlements the sheriff is to be charged with the amount shown to be due by the clerk's books and the sheriff's receipts under KRS 133.180 and this section. Such amount is conclusive as to the sheriff's liability unless he can establish fraud, or unless there was a clerical error which has been corrected under KRS 133.110. Commonwealth use of Phillips

v. Tate, 247 Ky. 516, 57 S.W.2d 491, 1933 Ky. LEXIS 425 (Ky. 1933).

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

A city of the fourth class may by local ordinance adopt an assessment, valuation, assessment date, fiscal year, tax levy date, and due and delinquency dates of the county in which the city is situated, provided the requirements of KRS 132.285 are met. OAG 60-1243.

A city of the fourth class may, by local ordinance, adopt the assessment, valuation, assessment date, fiscal year, tax levy date, and due and delinquency dates of the county in which the city is situated, provided the requirements of KRS 132.285 are met. OAG 60-1243.

Regardless of whether or not a county budget has been made or tax levy set, the tax bills must be turned over to the sheriff by September 15 of each year. OAG 61-766.

There is not a complete tax bill until the fiscal court has made a levy and determined the rate. OAG 61-840.

Under this section it is the mandatory duty of the clerk to prepare tax bills and to facilitate the preparation thereof and he has the implied power to make reasonable expenditures to secure equipment, materials or services, including the payment of a reasonable rental to the county tax commissioner (now property valuation administrator) for the use of machinery or equipment. OAG 62-587.

Where a proper contest to a sheriff's annual settlement of his accounts for county and district taxes is made, the actual tax that is to be collected as evidenced by a proper audit (addition of the individual tax bills) of all the tax bills, is the amount that is finally charged to the sheriff (assuming that each tax bill is correctly prepared). OAG 69-346.

If a petition for dissolution is filed prior to the time the tax bills containing the first library levy are sent out, the tax must still be imposed if the library district has outstanding contractual obligations. OAG 71-210.

Where no notice was given to taxpayers of a five cent special voted building fund tax and it did not appear on the tax bills, the bills were not delinquent until notice was received of the tax due, and as a matter of equity the taxpayers should have a period of 30 days from the date of mailing the corrected notice in which they could pay such bills without the delinquency penalty. OAG 74-117.

Taxes may not be paid until the proper officer has the tax bills prepared for collection. OAG 77-753.

Computer billing services may be procured by a county clerk for preparing tax bills by applying the noncompetitive negotiation provisions of KRS 45A.380(1), if the county clerk makes a written determination that competition is not feasible, and that an emergency exists which will cause public harm as a result of the delay in competitive procedures, and the fiscal court enters an order confirming the county clerk's written determinations. OAG 80-299.

Under the literal language of this section, when read together with KRS 132.017(3), (4) and (5), a county clerk was not required to wait until the library board established a final tax rate in order to get out the tax bills in the regular way envisioned by this section but should make up the tax bills, based upon the already established tax rates relating to the state, county, school and other taxing districts, and place the bills with the sheriff; in connection with the library district tax levy, which had not been established because of the recall provisions of KRS 132.017, a second set of bills must be prepared in the regular manner upon the establishment of the final tax rate by any remaining districts and all costs associated with the second billing must be paid by the taxing district or districts requiring the second billing. OAG 80-503.

The county clerk should include special districts, such as ambulance service districts taxes on tax bills prepared by the county clerk. OAG 81-376.

The requirement under subsection (3) of this section that the county clerk deliver tax bills to the sheriff before September 15 of each year and take a receipt applies to the ambulance service district tax. OAG 81-376.

The sheriff is responsible for mailing the tax bills for an ambulance service district tax since subsection (4) of KRS 108.100 requires that the collection of a district tax be made in conformity with the general tax collection scheme for state and county taxes, and subsection (4) of this section includes "other levies" among the state and county taxes which the sheriff must collect. OAG 81-376.

The sheriff, who is responsible for collecting the ambulance service district tax under subsection (4) of this section as applied to the district tax through subsection (4) of KRS 108.100, is also responsible for the costs of postage, envelopes, and clerical personnel necessary to prepare the envelopes and accept payment of the tax but such expenses may be paid out of the excess fees of the sheriff. OAG 81-376.

The preparation of the tax bills is not part of the Property Valuation Administrator's (PVA) duties; this is the county clerk's province. Similarly, the PVA is not responsible for the correction of clerical errors in the tax bills; this is the county judge/executive's province. In short, the PVA's duty and authority with respect to property taxation end with the preparation of the tax rolls and the powers and duties concerning tax bills are the responsibility of others. OAG 83-200.

Under KRS 109.056(3) a solid waste commission cannot place the past due solid waste charges on the property tax bills of persons who refuse to pay their garbage bills, identifying the charge as a garbage charge, and have the sheriff collect the past due charges when he makes his normal yearly property tax collection since KRS 134.140 provides in part that the sheriff is collector of all state, county and district taxes and this involves only taxes in the strict legal sense, not "charges" for a governmental service and since this section deals with the county clerk's preparation of tax bills and makes no mention of governmental charges. OAG 83-253.

134.119. Sheriff is collector of taxes — Means of payment — Penalties — Sale of personal property — Compensation of sheriff.

(1)(a) The sheriff shall be the collector of all state, county, county school district, and other taxing district property taxes unless the payment is directed by law to be made to some other person. The sheriff may contract to collect taxes on behalf of cities, independent school districts, or any other governmental unit with the authority to levy a property tax, if the enabling legislation authorizing imposition of the tax permits the governmental unit to contract for the performance of tax collection duties.

(b) The provisions of this chapter relating to the collection of property taxes shall apply to other property tax collectors to the extent that the governing body of the city, school district, or taxing district appointing the tax collector has not adopted alternative tax collection processes and procedures.

(2) Payment to the sheriff may be provided by any commercially acceptable means. The sheriff may limit the acceptable methods of payment to those that ensure that payment cannot be reversed or nullified due to insufficient funds.

(3)(a)1. The sheriff shall accept payment from the day on which the tax bills are mailed by the sheriff to the taxpayer as provided in KRS 133.220 and 133.230, through the day on which the sheriff files the uncollected tax claims with the county clerk pursuant to KRS 134.122. During this time period, the sheriff may accept full or partial payment for any outstanding taxes or tax claims.

2.a. Any payments received by the sheriff by mail that:

- i. Are received after the day on which uncollected tax claims are filed with the county clerk pursuant to KRS 134.122; and

ii. Have a postmark that reflects a date on or before the day the uncollected tax claims are filed with the county clerk; shall be accepted and processed, and the amount due shall be the amount due immediately before the transfer of the uncollected tax claims by the sheriff to the county clerk.

b. Payments described in this subparagraph may be processed as agreed by the sheriff and county clerk.

c. Absent an agreement between the sheriff and the county clerk, the payment shall be accepted and processed by the sheriff.

d. If the sheriff accepts and processes the payment, the sheriff shall notify the county clerk, and the county clerk shall update his or her records to reflect payment of the certificate of delinquency.

e. The sheriff and the county clerk shall reconcile all transactions addressed by this subparagraph by preparation of an addendum to the original reconciliation provided by the sheriff to the county clerk at the time of transfer. The addendum shall be prepared thirty (30) days after the original transfer, and shall be filed by the county clerk in the clerk's order book.

(b) All payments received by the sheriff shall be entered immediately by the sheriff on his or her books. Partial payments shall be credited against the total amount due and shall be apportioned by the sheriff among the entities included on the tax bill in the same proportion the amount due to each bears to the amount paid.

(c) The acceptance of any payment before the taxpayer's tax liability has been finally determined shall not imply that the payment was the correct amount due and shall not preclude the assessment and collection of additional taxes due or the refund of any part of the amount paid that is in excess of the amount determined to be due.

(d) The sheriff may accept payment of any tax or tax claim from any other person on behalf of the taxpayer. Any person making a payment on behalf of a taxpayer may, upon the written notarized request of the taxpayer, be treated as a transferee as provided in KRS 134.121.

(e) The sheriff may accept payment of any amount due on a delinquent tax claim from any of the persons described in subparagraphs 1., 2., and 3. of this paragraph without permission of the taxpayer. The person seeking to make the payment shall provide sufficient proof to the sheriff that he or she meets the requirements to pay under this paragraph. The sheriff shall be held harmless if he or she relies upon information provided and accepts payment from a person not qualified to pay under this paragraph. Any person listed in subparagraph 1., 2., or 3. of this paragraph who makes full payment, may, upon written request to the sheriff, be treated as a transferee under KRS 134.121:

1. Any person holding a legal or equitable estate in the real or personal property upon which the delinquent taxes are due, other than a person whose only interest in the property is a lien resulting from ownership of a prior year certificate of delinquency;

2. A tenant or lawful occupant of real property, or a bailee or person in possession of any personal property upon which the delinquent taxes are due; or

3. Any person having a mortgage on real property or a security interest in real or personal property upon which the delinquent taxes are due.

(4) If, upon expiration of the five percent (5%) penalty period established by KRS 134.015(2)(c), the real property tax delinquencies of a sheriff exceed fifteen percent (15%) of the amount charged to the sheriff for collection, the department may require the sheriff to make additional reasonable collection efforts. If the sheriff fails to initiate additional reasonable collection efforts within fifteen (15) business days following notification from the department that such efforts shall be made, the department may assume responsibility for collecting the delinquent taxes. If the department assumes the responsibility for collecting delinquent taxes, the department shall receive the amounts that would otherwise be paid to the sheriff as fees or commissions for the collection of tax bills.

(5) In collecting delinquent taxes, the sheriff:

(a) May distraint and sell personal property owned by a delinquent taxpayer in the amount necessary to satisfy the delinquent tax claim. The sale shall be made under execution for cash. If the personal property of the delinquent taxpayer within the county is not sufficient to satisfy the delinquent tax claim, the sheriff may sell so much of the personal property as is available; and

(b) Shall retain any amounts that come into his or her possession payable to a delinquent taxpayer, other than claims allowed for attendance as a witness, and shall apply such amounts to the amount due on the delinquent tax claim.

(6)(a) As compensation for collecting property taxes the sheriff shall be paid the following amounts, regardless of whether the amounts are collected by the sheriff prior to filing the tax claims with the county clerk, or by the county clerk after the tax claims become certificates of delinquency or personal property certificates of delinquency:

1. From the Commonwealth the sheriff shall be paid four and one-quarter percent (4.25%) of the amount collected on behalf of the Commonwealth;

2. From counties the sheriff shall be paid four and one-quarter percent (4.25%) of the amount collected on behalf of the counties;

3. The sheriff shall be compensated as provided by law or as negotiated if negotiation is permitted by law, for collecting taxes on behalf of any taxing district;

4. The sheriff shall be compensated as provided in KRS 160.500 for collecting school district taxes;

5. The sheriff shall be compensated as provided in KRS 91A.070 for collecting taxes on behalf of any city; and

6. The sheriff shall be compensated as provided in KRS 75A.050 for collecting taxes on behalf of any consolidated emergency services district.

(b) The sheriff shall include the amounts he or she is entitled to under the provisions of paragraph (a) of this subsection as part of the delinquent tax claims filed with the county clerk. The amount so included shall become a part of the certificate of delinquency, and shall be paid by the person paying the certificate of delinquency rather than the taxing jurisdiction for which the taxes were collected.

(7) As additional compensation for the collection of delinquent taxes, the sheriff shall be entitled to an amount equal to ten percent (10%) of the total taxes due plus ten percent (10%) of the ten percent (10%) penalty for all delinquent taxes. This fee shall be added to the total amount due, and shall be paid by the person paying the tax claim if payment is made to the sheriff, or the certificate of delinquency or personal property certificate of delinquency if payment is made after the tax claim has been filed with the county clerk.

(8) If, in the process of collecting property taxes, the sheriff becomes aware of a new address for a taxpayer, the sheriff shall provide, on a form provided by the department, the information relating to the new address to the property valuation administrator, who shall update his or her records to reflect the new address.

Legislative Research Commission Notes.

(4/7/2010). 2010 Ky. Acts ch. 75 provides that, notwithstanding any other provision of the Kentucky Revised Statutes or the effective date provisions of 2009 House Bill 262, the sheriff's fee calculation established by this statute applies to tax collections made by sheriffs in calendar year 2009.

134.191. Monthly reporting and payment of taxes collected by sheriff.

(1) The sheriff shall provide monthly reports by the tenth day of each month to the chief executive of the county, the department, and any other district for which the sheriff collects taxes. The governing body of the county may require the sheriff to report and pay on a more frequent basis if necessary for bonding requirements; however, the sheriff shall not be required to report and pay more frequently than weekly.

(2) The report shall be broken down by governmental entity and shall include the following information for the preceding month or reporting period, if the reporting period is other than monthly:

- (a) The total amount of taxes collected;
- (b) The total amount of any fines, forfeitures, or other moneys collected; and
- (c) The disposition of such revenue or money collected.

(3) At the time of making the report, the sheriff shall pay to the county treasurer or other officer designated by the governing body of a county, to the department, and to any other district for which the sheriff collects taxes, all funds belonging to the county, the state, or the district that were collected during the period covered by the report.

(4) Any sheriff failing to pay over taxes collected as required by law shall be subject to a penalty of one percent (1%) for each thirty (30) day period or fraction thereof that the payment is not made, plus interest at the tax interest rate provided in KRS 131.183 on such amounts. The governing body of a county, the department, or the other district for which the sheriff collects taxes, in its settlement with the sheriff, shall charge him or her with such penalties and interest.

(5) The chief executive of a county, or the commissioner of the department may grant an extension of time, not to exceed fifteen (15) days, for filing the report required by subsection (1) of this section with that entity when good cause exists. The extension shall be in writing and shall be recorded in the office of the county clerk. The extension when granted shall suspend the penalty and interest for the duration of the extension. The penalty and interest shall apply at the expiration of the extension.

1. Application.

This section does not apply to school taxes. Fidelity & Deposit Co. v. Commonwealth, 249 Ky. 170, 60 S.W.2d 345, 1933 Ky. LEXIS 483 (Ky. 1933). See Commonwealth use of McCreary County Board of Education v. Walker, 246 Ky. 679, 55 S.W.2d 914, 1932 Ky. LEXIS 821 (Ky. 1932) (decided under prior law).

2. Payment.

The giving of a check, by the sheriff to the treasurer, does not of itself constitute payment, unless it is expressly accepted as payment and as a discharge of the sheriff's liability. Breckinridge County v. Gannaway, 243 Ky. 49, 47 S.W.2d 934, 1932 Ky. LEXIS 32 (Ky. 1932) (decided under prior law).

The provisions of this section as to monthly payment of collections are mandatory. Fulton County v. Thompson, 265 Ky. 510, 97 S.W.2d 40, 1936 Ky. LEXIS 524 (Ky. 1936) (decided under prior law).

3. —Cash.

It is the duty of the sheriff to collect and pay over taxes in cash, and creditor of county may compel performance of this duty by mandatory injunction. Breathitt County v. Cockrell, 250 Ky. 743, 63 S.W.2d 920, 1933 Ky. LEXIS 764 (Ky. 1933) (decided under prior law). See Fidelity & Casualty Co. v. Breathitt County, 276 Ky. 173, 123 S.W.2d 250, 1938 Ky. LEXIS 538 (Ky. 1938) (decided under prior law).

4. —Setoff.

Sheriff could not set off claims for building voting houses and for coupons on county bonds held by him against his liability for taxes collected. Fidelity & Casualty Co. v. Breathitt County, 276 Ky. 173, 123 S.W.2d 250, 1938 Ky. LEXIS 538 (Ky. 1938) (decided under prior law).

5. Sheriff's Liability.

The general rule that interest on taxes is not collectible from the taxpayer in the absence of express statute does not apply to the liability of the sheriff for interest on taxes collected and not paid over by him at the required time. Commonwealth v. McCreary County Board of Education v. Walker, 246 Ky. 679, 55 S.W.2d 914, 1932 Ky. LEXIS 821 (Ky. 1932) (decided under prior law).

The sheriff is not liable for tax money which has been lost by reason of failure of the bank in which the money was deposited, unless he was negligent in selecting the depository, or unless the failure occurred after the time when the sheriff should have paid over the money. In the case of a depository designated by the fiscal court as an official depository, the sheriff is not liable unless he had knowledge of facts which would lead him to question the soundness of the depository. Jordon v. Baker, 252 Ky. 40, 66 S.W.2d 84, 1933 Ky. LEXIS 1007 (Ky. 1933) (decided under prior law).

Where sheriff retains tax funds in his hands after the date he is required by this section to pay such funds over to the county treasurer, he becomes an insurer of such funds and is liable for them in case of failure of the bank in which they have been deposited by him. Fulton County v. Thompson, 265 Ky. 510, 97 S.W.2d 40, 1936 Ky. LEXIS 524 (Ky. 1936). See Breckinridge County v. Gannaway, 243 Ky. 49, 47 S.W.2d 934, 1932 Ky. LEXIS 32 (Ky. 1932) (decided under prior law).

6. Duty to Comply.

Statement by county judge (now county judge/executive), to sheriff, that sheriff need not pay over taxes at time required by this section, but might wait until time of meeting of fiscal court to make settlement, did not relieve sheriff of duty to comply with this section. Breckinridge County v. Gannaway, 243 Ky. 49, 47 S.W.2d 934, 1932 Ky. LEXIS 32 (Ky. 1932) (decided under prior law).

7. Report.

This section does not require the sheriff to report, at the stated intervals, whether or not he has collected any taxes, but only to report the taxes he has actually collected. Commonwealth v. Kennon, 143 Ky. 214, 136 S.W. 198, 1911 Ky. LEXIS 367 (Ky. 1911) (decided under prior law).

8. Penalty and Interest.

If there is no county treasurer in office at the time the sheriff is required to pay over taxes collected by him, and the fiscal court has not designated some other person to receive the taxes, the sheriff cannot be charged with penalty and interest under subsection (3) of this section. Fidelity & Deposit Co. v. Logan County, 119 Ky. 428, 84 S.W. 341, 27 Ky. L. Rptr. 66, 1905 Ky. LEXIS 15 (Ky. 1905) See Pence's Adm'r v. Nelson County, 107 Ky. 66, 53 S.W. 25, 21 Ky. L. Rptr. 724, 1899 Ky. LEXIS 146 (Ky. 1899); Bates v. Knott County Court, 67 S.W. 1006, 24 Ky. L. Rptr. 73, 1902 Ky. LEXIS 361 (Ky. Ct. App. 1902) (decided under prior law).

When a sheriff has been charged with penalty and interest under subsection (3) of this section, subsequent payments by the sheriff will be first credited to the taxes and interest, then to the penalty. Fidelity & Deposit Co. v. Logan County, 119 Ky. 428, 84 S.W. 341, 27 Ky. L. Rptr. 66, 1905 Ky. LEXIS 15 (Ky. 1905) (decided under prior law).

There is no penalty upon the sheriff for failing to pay over school taxes at the time required by KRS 160.510, but the sheriff is liable for interest at the legal rate on all such taxes not paid over at the time required by that section. Common- wealth v. McCreary County Board of Education v. Walker, 246 Ky. 679, 55 S.W.2d 914, 1932 Ky. LEXIS 821 (Ky. 1932) (decided under prior law).

The sheriff is chargeable with the delinquent penalty imposed by former KRS 134.020 on all taxes collected by him after the date of delinquency, whether or not he has collected the penalty from the taxpayer, and if he fails to pay the taxes over as required by this section he is liable in addition for the penalty and interest imposed by subsection (3) of this section. Knox County v. Lewis' Adm'r, 253 Ky. 652, 69 S.W.2d 1000, 1934 Ky. LEXIS 693 (Ky. 1934) (decided under prior law).

No order of the fiscal court demanding payment of the taxes which the sheriff has collected is necessary or required to entitle the county to the six percent penalty imposed by subsection (3) of this section. Knox County v. Lewis' Adm'r, 253 Ky. 652, 69 S.W.2d 1000, 1934 Ky. LEXIS 693 (Ky. 1934) (decided under prior law).

9. —Computation.

The penalty and interest imposed by subsection (3) of this section are to be computed on the total amount which the sheriff has collected and not paid over, including delinquent penalties collected by the sheriff. Fidelity & Deposit Co. v. Logan County, 119 Ky. 428, 84 S.W. 341, 27 Ky. L. Rptr. 66, 1905 Ky. LEXIS 15 (Ky. 1905) (decided under prior law).

10. County Warrants.

Sheriff who purchased county warrants at a discount was not entitled to credit for the face amount of the warrants, or for interest on the warrants. Breathitt County v. Cockrell, 250 Ky. 743, 63 S.W.2d 920, 1933 Ky. LEXIS 764 (Ky. 1933) (decided under prior law). See Fidelity & Casualty Co. v. Breathitt County, 276 Ky. 173, 123 S.W.2d 250, 1938 Ky. LEXIS 538 (Ky. 1938) (decided under prior law).

11. Insolvent Bank.

A sheriff who has deposited tax collections in a bank that subsequently becomes insolvent may make claim for the funds in his own name in the liquidation proceedings. Denny v. Thompson, 236 Ky. 714, 33 S.W.2d 670, 1930 Ky. LEXIS 819 (Ky. 1930) (decided under prior law).

Sheriff who has deposited tax money in a bank is not entitled to a preference over other creditors in case the bank becomes insolvent. Denny v. Thompson, 236 Ky. 714, 33 S.W.2d 670, 1930 Ky. LEXIS 819 (Ky. 1930) (decided under prior law).

Where sheriff gave county treasurer a check for $18,000, for taxes due the county, drawn on a bank in which the sheriff had that sum on deposit, and the treasurer changed the amount of the check to $10,000 and cashed it for that amount, and gave the sheriff a receipt for that amount, the sheriff could not maintain, after failure of bank causing loss of remaining $8,000, that he was entitled to credit for amount of original check, since he knew of change by treasurer and had opportunity to pay over balance before bank failed. Breathitt County Board of Education v. Cockrell, 238 Ky. 694, 38 S.W.2d 660, 1931 Ky. LEXIS 293 (Ky. 1931) (decided under prior law).

Where sheriff gave check for amount of taxes due from him, after the date when he should have paid over the taxes, and the bank on which the check was drawn failed on the day after the check was given, the sheriff remained liable for the amount of such taxes. Breckinridge County v. Gannaway, 243 Ky. 49, 47 S.W.2d 934, 1932 Ky. LEXIS 32 (Ky. 1932) (decided under prior law).

12. Trust Fund.

The sheriff is a bailee of the taxes collected by him, and such taxes constitute a trust fund in his possession. Maryland Casualty Co. v. Walker, 257 Ky. 397, 78 S.W.2d 34, 1934 Ky. LEXIS 559 (Ky. 1934). See Denny v. Thompson, 236 Ky. 714, 33 S.W.2d 670, 1930 Ky. LEXIS 819 (Ky. 1930) (decided under prior law).

13. Embezzlement.

In prosecution of sheriff for embezzling franchise tax money, proof that sheriff had not reported franchise tax collections in his reports to the county court was admissible as tending to establish intent to embezzle. Commonwealth v. Brand, 166 Ky. 753, 179 S.W. 844, 1915 Ky. LEXIS 772 (Ky. 1915) (decided under prior law).

14. Declaratory Judgment.15. —Levy of Doubtful Legality.

If the sheriff is in doubt as to the legality of the levy under which he has collected taxes, he should not hold the taxes in his hands, but should commence an action for a declaratory judgment and pay the money into court; otherwise he will be liable for the penalty and interest imposed by this section. Commonwealth v. McCreary County Board of Education v. Walker, 246 Ky. 679, 55 S.W.2d 914, 1932 Ky. LEXIS 821 (Ky. 1932) (decided under prior law).

16. Procedure.

Indictment of sheriff for failure to report as required by this section was fatally defective where it did not allege that the sheriff had actually collected any taxes that he failed to report. Commonwealth v. Kennon, 143 Ky. 214, 136 S.W. 198, 1911 Ky. LEXIS 367 (Ky. 1911) (decided under prior law).

134.192. Annual settlement of tax collections by sheriff.

(1) Each sheriff shall annually settle his or her accounts with the department, the county, and any district for which the sheriff collects taxes on or before September 1 of each year. If any sheriff resigns, dies, or otherwise vacates his or her office, the books and records shall be made available to the department, the county, and any other district for which the sheriff collects taxes within thirty (30) days from the date that the office is vacated. The annual settlement of the sheriff shall be audited in accordance with KRS 43.070, 64.810, and 134.193.

(2)(a) The department shall conduct the settlement relating to taxes collected for the state.

(b) The sheriff shall settle his or her accounts with the county, the school district, and any other taxing district for which he or she collects taxes. On request of the governing body of the county or any other district for which the sheriff collects taxes, the department may conduct the local settlement. If no local settlement has been initiated by July 1 of any year, the department may initiate the local settlement on behalf of the county, the school district, and the taxing districts. Upon completion of the local settlement, the department may receive reasonable reimbursement for expenses incurred.

(3) In making his or her settlement with the local governments and the department, the sheriff shall be allowed credit for the uncollected tax claims properly filed with the county clerk's office as required by KRS 134.122.

(4) All tax bills on omitted property that were not turned over to the sheriff in time to be collected shall be carried over as a charge against the sheriff as part of the annual settlement.

(5) The report of the state and local settlement shall be filed in the county clerk's office and approved by the governing body of the county no later than September 1 of each year. The settlement shall show the amount of ad valorem tax collected for the county, the school district, and all taxing districts, and an itemized statement of the money disbursed to or on behalf of the county, the school district, and all taxing districts.

(6) The settlement shall be published pursuant to KRS Chapter 424.

(7) On the final settlement, the sheriff shall pay to the county treasurer all money that remains in his or her hands attributable to amounts charged against the sheriff relating to the collection of property taxes, and shall take receipts as provided in KRS 134.160. The sheriff shall pay any additional amounts charged against him or her as a result of the settlements.

(8)(a) If the sheriff fails to remit amounts charged against him or her to the appropriate taxing district, the department may issue bills for the subsequent year and may assume all collection duties in the name of and on behalf of the cities, counties, school districts, and other taxing districts.

(b) The fees and commissions which the sheriff would have been entitled to receive from the taxing districts shall be paid to the department.

(9) No tax bills or tax books shall be delivered to the sheriff during the second or any subsequent calendar year of the sheriff's regular term until the settlement is submitted and approved by the department and the governing body of a county, and until the sheriff's bond is in place, should a bond be required by the fiscal court.

(10) If the tax records of a county are destroyed by fire, flood, tornado, or other act of nature, or are lost, stolen, or mutilated so as to require a reassessment of the property in the county or a recertification of the tax bills, the sheriff shall have five (5) months from the time he or she receives the recertified tax bills to make settlement pursuant to this section.

(11) In counties containing a population of less than seventy thousand (70,000), the sheriff shall provide to the fiscal court by March 15 of each year a complete statement for the preceding calendar year, which includes:

(a) A complete statement of all funds received by his or her office for official services, showing separately the total income received by his or her office for services rendered, exclusive of his or her commissions for collecting taxes, and the total funds received as commissions for collecting state, county, and school taxes; and

(b) A complete statement of all expenditures of his or her office, including his or her salary, compensation of deputies and assistants, and reasonable expenses.

(12) At the time he or she files the statements required by subsection (11) of this section, the sheriff shall pay to the governing body of the county any fees, commissions, and other income of his or her office, including income from investments, which exceed the sum of his or her maximum salary as permitted by the Constitution and other reasonable expenses, including compensation of deputies and assistants. The settlement for excess fees and commissions and other income shall be subject to correction by audit conducted pursuant to KRS 43.070 or 64.810. The provisions of this subsection shall not be construed to amend KRS 64.820 or 64.830.

(13) If a county's population that equaled or exceeded seventy thousand (70,000) is less than seventy thousand (70,000) after the most recent federal decennial census, then the provisions of KRS 64.368 shall apply.

1. Sheriff's Liability.

The fact that members of fiscal court, after making levy of special tax to pay bond issue, publicly expressed doubt as to legality of levy, and talked of enjoining the sheriff from collecting the tax, was not a defense to a proceeding seeking to compel the sheriff to account for the taxes he had collected under such levy. Lyons v. Breckinridge County Court, 101 Ky. 715, 42 S.W. 748, 19 Ky. L. Rptr. 951, 1897 Ky. LEXIS 240 (Ky. 1897) (decided under prior law).

The sheriff is not chargeable with the amount of uncollected taxes due on tax bills that have never been certified to him for collection. Montgomery County Court v. Chenault, 47 S.W. 457, 20 Ky. L. Rptr. 704 (1898) (decided under prior law).

Sheriff is not chargeable with taxes that have been remitted by the fiscal court, whether or not the remission was proper. Montgomery County Court v. Chenault, 47 S.W. 457, 20 Ky. L. Rptr. 704 (1898) (decided under prior law).

The sheriff is liable for the delinquent penalty imposed by former KRS 134.020 on all taxes that were collected after the date of delinquency and all taxes that he could have, but did not, collect. Fidelity & Deposit Co. v. Logan County, 119 Ky. 428, 84 S.W. 341, 27 Ky. L. Rptr. 66, 1905 Ky. LEXIS 15 (Ky. 1905) See Davis v. Commonwealth, 139 Ky. 334, 107 S.W. 306, 32 Ky. L. Rptr. 811, 1908 Ky. LEXIS 5 (Ky. 1908); Alexander v. Owen County, 136 Ky. 420, 124 S.W. 386, 1910 Ky. LEXIS 500

(Ky. 1910); Clarke v. Commonwealth, 233 Ky. 728, 26 S.W.2d 1041, 1930 Ky. LEXIS 655 (Ky. 1930); Fidelity & Deposit Co. v. Commonwealth, 249 Ky. 170, 60 S.W.2d 345, 1933 Ky. LEXIS 483 (Ky. 1933); Knox County v. Lewis' Adm'r, 253 Ky. 652, 69 S.W.2d 1000, 1934 Ky. LEXIS 693 (Ky. 1934) (decided under prior law).

In proceeding to charge sheriff with amount of taxes collected by him from taxpayers against whom he held no tax bills, auditor's report was competent evidence as to amount for which sheriff was accountable. Alexander v. Owen County, 136 Ky. 420, 124 S.W. 386, 1910 Ky. LEXIS 500 (Ky. 1910) (decided under prior law).

Sheriff was chargeable with taxes collected by him, and not accounted for, from taxpayers whose property was not assessed, as against contention that such taxes were not legally in the hands of the sheriff. Failure of the taxing authorities to cause retrospective assessment of such property as omitted did not affect sheriff's liability. Mason v. Cook, 187 Ky. 260, 218 S.W. 740, 1919 Ky. LEXIS 389 (Ky. 1919) (decided under prior law).

Proof that the sheriff has collected a larger amount than he has accounted for does not establish that he owes such additional amount to the taxing units, in the absence of proof that the amount for which he has accounted is less than the amount of the tax bills for which he executed receipt under KRS 133.220. Bush v. Board of Education, 238 Ky. 297, 37 S.W.2d 849, 1931 Ky. LEXIS 230 (Ky. 1931) (decided under prior law).

Sheriff was chargeable with railroad franchise taxes paid to him by company before certification of assessment as provided by KRS 136.180, as against contention that sheriff had no authority to receive such taxes before certification. Fidelity & Deposit Co. v. Commonwealth, 249 Ky. 170, 60 S.W.2d 345, 1933 Ky. LEXIS 483 (Ky. 1933) (decided under prior law).

The sheriff is a bailee of the taxes collected by him, and such taxes constitute a trust fund in his possession. Maryland Casualty Co. v. Walker, 257 Ky. 397, 78 S.W.2d 34, 1934 Ky. LEXIS 559 (Ky. 1934) See Knox County v. Lewis' Adm'r, 253 Ky. 652, 69 S.W.2d 1000, 1934 Ky. LEXIS 693 (Ky. 1934); Fidelity & Casualty Co. v. Breathitt County, 276 Ky. 173, 123 S.W.2d 250, 1938 Ky. LEXIS 538 (Ky. 1938) (decided under prior law).

Sheriff is not liable for amount collected under an unconstitutional tax. Fidelity & Casualty Co. v. Breathitt County, 276 Ky. 173, 123 S.W.2d 250, 1938 Ky. LEXIS 538 (Ky. 1938) (decided under prior law).

Where omitted tax book for certain year had been lost, sheriff's liability for omitted tax collections could not be fixed by averaging the amounts of omitted tax collections for three previous years. Hogg's Adm'r v. Commonwealth, 301 Ky. 557, 192 S.W.2d 487, 1946 Ky. LEXIS 519 (Ky. 1946) (decided under prior law).

2. —Fiscal Court.

Fiscal court had no authority to make agreement with sheriff to waive sheriff's liability to account for penalties on delinquent taxes in return for sheriff paying claims against county out of his own funds, in advance of tax collections, to avoid interest on such claims. Alexander v. Owen County, 136 Ky. 420, 124 S.W. 386, 1910 Ky. LEXIS 500 (Ky. 1910) (decided under prior law).

After commencement of taxpayer's action to recover from sheriff commissions retained by him in excess of constitutional limit, fiscal court and sheriff had right to make a good faith compromise of sheriff's liability, and such compromise was a bar to further prosecution of the action. Shipp use of Fayette County v. Rodes, 219 Ky. 349, 293 S.W. 543, 1927 Ky. LEXIS 348 (Ky. 1927) (decided under prior law).

Where settlements of sheriff had been approved by county court, but fiscal court was of opinion that settlements were not correct and therefore proposed to bring an action to surcharge the settlements, a compromise settlement between the sheriff and the fiscal court, disposing of the disputed items, was not required to be approved by the county court in order to be valid and binding on the parties. Roberts v. Fiscal Court of McLean County, 244 Ky. 596, 51 S.W.2d 897, 1932 Ky. LEXIS 472 (Ky. 1932) (decided under prior law).

3. —Void Levy.

The sheriff and the surety on his bond are not liable to the county for taxes collected by the sheriff under a void levy. Knox County v. Lewis' Adm'r, 253 Ky. 652, 69 S.W.2d 1000, 1934 Ky. LEXIS 693 (Ky. 1934) (decided under prior law).

4. —Errors in Tax Bills.

If any errors were made by the county clerk in computing the tax bills, they must be corrected by application to the court before the sheriff accepts and receipts for the bills, and if not so corrected they are conclusive as to the sheriff's liability. A correction cannot be made in an action to surcharge the sheriff's settlement. Livingston County v. Dunn, 244 Ky. 460, 51 S.W.2d 450, 1932 Ky. LEXIS 453 (Ky. 1932) (decided under prior law).

5. Settlement.

Where settlements had been approved by county court, but fiscal court sought to surcharge them, compromise of disputed items with the sheriff did not violate Ky. Const., § 52. Roberts v. Fiscal Court of McLean County, 244 Ky. 596, 51 S.W.2d 897, 1932 Ky. LEXIS 472 (Ky. 1932) (decided under prior law).

Entry of order by fiscal court, approving sheriff's settlement, and subsequent filing of settlement with county court, did not obviate necessity of order or judgment of confirmation by county court. Hogg's Adm'r v. Commonwealth, 301 Ky. 557, 192 S.W.2d 487, 1946 Ky. LEXIS 519 (Ky. 1946) (decided under prior law).

Since a Circuit Court has no authority to make a settlement with the sheriff in the first instance, there should be a judgment of the county court before jurisdiction of the Circuit Court is invoked. Hogg's Adm'r v. Commonwealth, 301 Ky. 557, 192 S.W.2d 487, 1946 Ky. LEXIS 519 (Ky. 1946) (decided under prior law).

Where settlement had been properly made, it could not be collaterally attacked by an action at common law based merely and wholly upon alleged express promise by sheriff to pay a certain amount in addition to that found due by the settlement. Hogg's Adm'r v. Commonwealth, 301 Ky. 557, 192 S.W.2d 487, 1946 Ky. LEXIS 519 (Ky. 1946) (decided under prior law).

Where settlement was incomplete because it had never been confirmed by county court, action could not be maintained in Circuit Court, against sheriff, to recover at common law on alleged promise by sheriff to pay certain sum for year for which the incomplete settlement was made. Hogg's Adm'r v. Commonwealth, 301 Ky. 557, 192 S.W.2d 487, 1946 Ky. LEXIS 519 (Ky. 1946) (decided under prior law).

6. —Notice.

Ordinarily the sheriff is not entitled to any notice when a settlement takes its usual course, but where a report of settlement has gone unapproved for several years the sheriff should be given notice before an order of approval is entered, so that he may have an opportunity to file exceptions. Steele v. Commonwealth, 233 Ky. 719, 26 S.W.2d 747, 1929 Ky. LEXIS 465 (Ky. 1929) (decided under prior law).

Where order approving settlement was not entered until several years after the report of settlement was filed, and no notice of the order was given to the sheriff, the settlement was not binding. Steele v. Commonwealth, 233 Ky. 719, 26 S.W.2d 747, 1929 Ky. LEXIS 465 (Ky. 1929) (decided under prior law).

7. —Failure to File.

County was not estopped from suing surety on sheriff's bond for accounting and settlement by fact that sheriff's purported settlements were not filed and recorded in the county court, since sheriff had equal duty to see that settlements were filed. Fidelity & Casualty Co. v. Breathitt County, 276 Ky. 173, 123 S.W.2d 250, 1938 Ky. LEXIS 538 (Ky. 1938) (decided under prior law).

Where sheriff failed to comply with this section, he did not make and file a valid settlement for taxes collected and could be sued for an accounting of his taxes due the county in a direct proceeding. Thomas v. McCreary County, 239 S.W.2d 942, 1951 Ky. LEXIS 913 (Ky. 1951) (decided under prior law).

8. —Failure to Require.

Members of fiscal court are not individually liable in damages for failing to require sheriff to make settlements, or for allowing him excessive commissions in his settlements. Shipp v. Bradley, 210 Ky. 51, 275 S.W. 1, 1925 Ky. LEXIS 627 (Ky. 1925) (decided under prior law).

9. —Refusal.

Where the sheriff refuses to settle, or absconds and fails to settle, an action may be brought against the surety on his bond to determine and recover the amount due from the sheriff, a settlement not being a prerequisite to action on the bond under such circumstances. Fidelity & Deposit Co. v. Logan County, 119 Ky. 428, 84 S.W. 341, 27 Ky. L. Rptr. 66, 1905 Ky. LEXIS 15 (Ky. 1905) (decided under prior law).

If the sheriff is notified of the time and place at which the commissioner proposes to make settlement, and fails or refuses to appear, the commissioner may proceed to make a settlement from the tax bills and such other information as is available, and such settlement will be valid. Gay v. Jackson County Board of Education, 205 Ky. 277, 265 S.W. 772, 1924 Ky. LEXIS 89 (Ky. 1924) (decided under prior law).

If the sheriff fails or refuses to make settlement, a suit may be instituted to compel him to do so, and in the same suit a recovery may be had from the sheriff for the amount found due from him. Steele v. Commonwealth, 233 Ky. 719, 26 S.W.2d 747, 1929 Ky. LEXIS 465 (Ky. 1929) (decided under prior law).

Where fiscal court had failed and refused to make settlement with sheriff, taxpayer of county had right to bring action to determine and recover for the county the amount due from the sheriff, and a settlement made after the institution of such action could not defeat the action. Hoskins v. Helton, 252 Ky. 616, 67 S.W.2d 975, 1934 Ky. LEXIS 829 (Ky. 1934) (decided under prior law).

Where fiscal court had failed and refused to make settlement with sheriff, taxpayer had right to bring action to recover money due and he must allege facts showing that no settlement had been made. Hoskins v. Helton, 252 Ky. 616, 67 S.W.2d 975, 1934 Ky. LEXIS 829 (Ky. 1934) (decided under prior law).

10. —Publication.

The provision of this section for publication of the settlement is mandatory. Shelby County Fiscal Court v. Cosine, 174 Ky. 504, 192 S.W. 626, 1917 Ky. LEXIS 211 (Ky. 1917) (decided under prior law).

11. —Commissioner.

The commissioner appointed to settle with the sheriff has no power to allow the sheriff credit for uncollectible taxes, duplicate lists, or errors in assessments, unless the fiscal court has certified such items as allowable under former KRS 134.360. Reams v. McHargue, 111 Ky. 163, 23 Ky. L. Rptr. 540, 63 S.W. 437, 1901 Ky. LEXIS 184 (Ky. 1901), aff'd, 71 S.W. 526 (1903), aff'd sub nom. James v. Webb, 24 Ky. L. Rptr. 1385, 71 S.W. 526 (1903) (decided under prior law).

The Circuit Court has no authority to appoint a commissioner to settle with the sheriff. Rice v. Bradley, 203 Ky. 775, 263 S.W. 336, 1924 Ky. LEXIS 1007 (Ky. 1924) (decided under prior law).

The fiscal court has no authority to employ or pay the county judge (now county judge/executive) as a commissioner to settle with the sheriff, and any sum paid to the judge for such services may be recovered in an independent action. Breathitt County v. Hagins, 211 Ky. 391, 277 S.W. 469, 1925 Ky. LEXIS 885 (Ky. 1925) (decided under prior law).

If no commissioner is appointed to settle with the sheriff, the sheriff must appear before the fiscal court and there make settlement. Steele v. Commonwealth, 233 Ky. 719, 26 S.W.2d 747, 1929 Ky. LEXIS 465 (Ky. 1929) (decided under prior law).

12. —Ex Parte.

Ex parte settlement made without notice to sheriff was not binding on him. Commonwealth v. Moren, 78 S.W. 432, 25 Ky. L. Rptr. 1635 (1904). (decided under prior law).

Attempted ex parte settlement of sheriff's accounts, made by commissioners appointed by fiscal court in absence of sheriff who had absconded, was not binding upon sheriff and his sureties in an action on his bond, although the settlement was entered and approved by the county court. Fidelity & Deposit Co. v. Logan County, 119 Ky. 428, 84 S.W. 341, 27 Ky. L. Rptr. 66, 1905 Ky. LEXIS 15 (Ky. 1905) (decided under prior law).

13. —Fiscal Court.

Settlement made directly with fiscal court, rather than with commissioner appointed by fiscal court, is valid if properly approved by the county court. Shipp v. Bradley, 210 Ky. 51, 275 S.W. 1, 1925 Ky. LEXIS 627 (Ky. 1925) (decided under prior law).

14. —Amounts Charged Against Sheriff.

In making settlements the sheriff is to be charged with the amount shown to be due by the clerk's books and the sheriff's receipts under KRS 133.180 and 133.220. Such amount is conclusive as to the sheriff's liability unless the sheriff can establish fraud, or unless there was a clerical error which has been corrected under KRS 133.110. Livingston County v. Dunn, 244 Ky. 460, 51 S.W.2d 450, 1932 Ky. LEXIS 453 (Ky. 1932) See Commonwealth use of Phillips v. Tate, 247 Ky. 516, 57 S.W.2d 491, 1933 Ky. LEXIS 425 (Ky. 1933) (decided under prior law).

The amount with which the sheriff is chargeable, in making settlement, is the amount shown by the final recapitulation of the tax books made by the county clerk and the sheriff's receipt for the tax bills given pursuant to KRS 133.220, plus omitted tax bills and franchise assessments separately delivered to the sheriff for collection. The tax bill stub cannot be used to contradict the recapitulation and receipt, or be used at all unless the recapitulation and receipt are not available. Bush v. Board of Education, 238 Ky. 297, 37 S.W.2d 849, 1931 Ky. LEXIS 230 (Ky. 1931) (decided under prior law).

The sheriff's receipt for the tax bills, given under KRS 133.220, is conclusive as to the amount with which the sheriff is chargeable in making settlement, in the absence of a showing of fraud or mistake. Bush v. Board of Education, 238 Ky. 297, 37 S.W.2d 849, 1931 Ky. LEXIS 230 (Ky. 1931) (decided under prior law).

The best evidence of the amount of taxes with which the sheriff is chargeable is the receipt for the tax bills executed by the sheriff under KRS 133.220. If the receipt was never executed, or has been lost or destroyed, the next best evidence is the book containing the tax bills, the undetached bills being evidence as to uncollected taxes, and the stubs of the detached bills, to the extent they are legible, being evidence as to collected taxes. If the tax books have been lost or destroyed, the next best evidence is the tax rolls of the tax commissioner (now property valuation administrator), as finally revised by the county clerk, from which the tax bills were made out. Any expense necessary to cause a reproduction of the tax bills from the tax rolls may be charged to the sheriff. In the absence of the sheriff's receipt for the tax bills, and the complete books of tax bills and stubs, an audit report based on the intelligible portion of the tax books, together with the revised tax rolls, is competent evidence as to the sheriff's liability. Knox County v. Lewis' Adm'r, 253 Ky. 652, 69 S.W.2d 1000, 1934 Ky. LEXIS 693 (Ky. 1934) (decided under prior law).

15. —Amounts Credited to Sheriff.

Sheriff was entitled, in settlement, to credit for office telephone expense, but not for post office box rent, bond premiums, stamps, stationery, books, automobile expense, "advertising" or "incidentals." Commonwealth use of Scott County v. Nunnelley, 211 Ky. 409, 277 S.W. 506, 1925 Ky. LEXIS 890 (Ky. 1925) (decided under prior law).

Where the state, county and taxing districts became the purchasers at a tax sale, the sheriff is entitled to credit in his settlement only for the amount of the tax claim, and not for the selling fee and percentage allowed him by former KRS 134.440, the latter items being collectible only from the taxpayer. Knox County v. Lewis' Adm'r, 253 Ky. 652, 69 S.W.2d 1000, 1934 Ky. LEXIS 693 (Ky. 1934) (decided under prior law).

16. —Overpayment.

Mistake of sheriff in paying over more money than was due could be corrected by order of fiscal court. Taylor v. Scoville, 252 Ky. 809, 68 S.W.2d 423, 1934 Ky. LEXIS 868 (Ky. 1934) (decided under prior law).

17. —Error in Raise of Assessment.

If, following blanket raise of assessment by state tax commission (now board of tax appeals), an error is made by the county clerk in determining how the raise is to affect the deduction of exempt property, the error may be corrected under KRS 133.110, but if not so corrected the sheriff cannot raise the question in connection with his settlement. Commonwealth use of Phillips v. Tate, 247 Ky. 516, 57 S.W.2d 491, 1933 Ky. LEXIS 425 (Ky. 1933) (decided under prior law).

18. —Accounts Other Than Taxes.

Where sheriff has also acted as special commissioner, he should make a separate settlement of his accounts as commissioner, and not confuse those accounts with his accounts as sheriff. Livingston County v. Dunn, 244 Ky. 460, 51 S.W.2d 450, 1932 Ky. LEXIS 453 (Ky. 1932) (decided under prior law).

19. —Approval.

A settlement that has not been approved and recorded by the county court in the manner required by this section is no settlement at all, and it may be collaterally attacked, or in an independent action may be maintained to obtain a settlement. Bates v. Knott County Court, 67 S.W. 1006, 24 Ky. L. Rptr. 73, 1902 Ky. LEXIS 361 (Ky. Ct. App. 1902) See Fidelity & Deposit Co. v. Logan County, 119 Ky. 428, 84 S.W. 341, 27 Ky. L. Rptr. 66, 1905 Ky. LEXIS 15 (Ky. 1905); Commonwealth use of Board of Education v. Mackey, 168 Ky. 58, 181 S.W. 621, 1916 Ky. LEXIS 498 (Ky. 1916); Shipp v. Bradley, 210 Ky. 51, 275 S.W. 1, 1925 Ky. LEXIS 627 (Ky. 1925); Commonwealth use of Scott County v. Nunnelley, 211 Ky. 409, 277 S.W. 506, 1925 Ky. LEXIS 890 (Ky. 1925); Steele v. Commonwealth, 233 Ky. 719, 26 S.W.2d 747, 1929 Ky. LEXIS 465 (Ky. 1929); Bush v. Board of Education, 238 Ky. 297, 37 S.W.2d 849, 1931 Ky. LEXIS 230 (Ky. 1931); Maryland Casualty Co. v. Holt's Adm'r, 285 Ky. 66, 146 S.W.2d 940, 1940 Ky. LEXIS 602 (Ky. 1940) (decided under prior law).

Filing settlement with fiscal court does not take the place of approval by the county court. Fidelity & Deposit Co. v. Logan County, 119 Ky. 428, 84 S.W. 341, 27 Ky. L. Rptr. 66, 1905 Ky. LEXIS 15 (Ky. 1905) (decided under prior law).

20. —None Made.

Where no valid settlement has been made, it is not necessary that an action be first brought to compel the sheriff to make a settlement under the procedure prescribed by this section, before suing the sheriff for the amount due from him, but an independent action may be brought by the county to obtain a settlement and at the same time recover the amount found due. Shipp v. Bradley, 210 Ky. 51, 275 S.W. 1, 1925 Ky. LEXIS 627 (Ky. 1925) See Commonwealth use of Board of Education v. Mackey, 168 Ky. 58, 181 S.W. 621, 1916 Ky. LEXIS 498 (Ky. 1916); Steele v. Commonwealth, 233 Ky. 719, 26 S.W.2d 747, 1929 Ky. LEXIS 465 (Ky. 1929); Fidelity & Casualty Co. v. Breathitt County, 276 Ky. 173, 123 S.W.2d 250, 1938 Ky. LEXIS 538 (Ky. 1938) (decided under prior law).

21. —Exceptions.

No one may file exceptions to the sheriff's settlement, or appeal from the judgment of the county court on the settlement, except the sheriff or county attorney. Little v. Strow, 112 Ky. 527, 66 S.W. 282, 23 Ky. L. Rptr. 1829, 1902 Ky. LEXIS 189 (Ky. 1902) (decided under prior law).

22. —Embezzlement.

In prosecution of sheriff for embezzlement, under KRS 434.020 (repealed), indictment alleging that sheriff had wrongfully converted to his own use a specified sum, representing the amount of taxes collected by him less exonerations and commission, was sufficient without alleging that there had been a settlement with the sheriff finding such amount due, or that there had been any demand or order upon the sheriff to pay over the money. Commonwealth v. Fisher, 113 Ky. 491, 68 S.W. 855, 24 Ky. L. Rptr. 300, 1902 Ky. LEXIS 91 (Ky. 1902) (decided under prior law).

23. —Conclusiveness.

A settlement cannot be opened on general allegation of fraud or mistake; the specific errors or frauds relied upon must be alleged. Lyons v. Breckinridge County Court, 101 Ky. 715, 42 S.W. 748, 19 Ky. L. Rptr. 951, 1897 Ky. LEXIS 240 (Ky. 1897) (decided under prior law).

When a settlement has been made and approved as provided in this section, it is conclusive as to all parties except that it may be attacked upon the ground of fraud or mistake in an action to surcharge the settlement. It cannot be collaterally attacked in a suit on the sheriff's bond. Pulaski County v. Watson, 106 Ky. 500, 50 S.W. 861, 21 Ky. L. Rptr. 61, 1899 Ky. LEXIS 69 (Ky. 1899) (decided under prior law). See Fidelity & Deposit Co. v. Logan County, 119 Ky. 428, 84 S.W. 341, 27 Ky. L. Rptr. 66, 1905 Ky. LEXIS 15 (Ky. 1905); Green County v. Howard, 127 Ky. 379, 105 S.W. 897, 32 Ky. L. Rptr. 243, 1907 Ky. LEXIS 145 (Ky. 1907); American Surety Co. v. Bales, 228 Ky. 543, 15 S.W.2d 481, 1929 Ky. LEXIS 620 (Ky. 1929); Steele v. Commonwealth, 233 Ky. 719, 26 S.W.2d 747, 1929 Ky. LEXIS 465 (Ky. 1929); Knox County v. Lewis' Adm'r, 253 Ky. 652, 69 S.W.2d 1000, 1934 Ky. LEXIS 693 (Ky. 1934) (decided under prior law).

If exceptions are filed to a settlement, the settlement does not become final until the exceptions have been finally disposed of. If a settlement is confirmed without exceptions having been filed it becomes final upon the confirmation. When a settlement has become final by either of such methods, it cannot be attacked except upon the grounds of fraud and mistake, in an action to surcharge the settlement. Green County v. Howard, 127 Ky. 379, 105 S.W. 897, 32 Ky. L. Rptr. 243, 1907 Ky. LEXIS 145 (Ky. 1907) See Steele v. Commonwealth, 233 Ky. 719, 26 S.W.2d 747, 1929 Ky. LEXIS 465 (Ky. 1929) (decided under prior law).

When a settlement becomes final, either by limitation or by judicial pronouncement, it is final as an entirety. But when it is opened for fraud or mistake it stands as if it had never been closed. Alexander v. Owen County, 136 Ky. 420, 124 S.W. 386, 1910 Ky. LEXIS 500 (Ky. 1910) (decided under prior law).

When a settlement has been opened on account of a mutual mistake with respect to one item, it will be open for the correction of all other errors and frauds, although such other errors and frauds might not have been sufficient, standing alone, to justify opening the settlement in the first instance. Alexander v. Owen County, 136 Ky. 420, 124 S.W. 386, 1910 Ky. LEXIS 500 (Ky. 1910) (decided under prior law).

Where sheriff, under mistake of law, was allowed in settlement a higher commission than that fixed by former KRS 134.290, the settlement could be opened. Alexander v. Owen County, 136 Ky. 420, 124 S.W. 386, 1910 Ky. LEXIS 500 (Ky. 1910) (decided under prior law).

A settlement may be opened for correction when it was based upon a mutual mistake of the parties, whether of law or fact. Alexander v. Owen County, 136 Ky. 420, 124 S.W. 386, 1910 Ky. LEXIS 500 (Ky. 1910) (decided under prior law).

The granting of a quietus to the sheriff, following a settlement, will not estop the county from opening the settlement on the ground of fraud or mistake. Mason v. Cook, 187 Ky. 260, 218 S.W. 740, 1919 Ky. LEXIS 389 (Ky. 1919) (decided under prior law).

While a settlement for taxes may bar an independent action, not seeking to surcharge the settlement, to recover from the sheriff commissions allowed to him in the settlement in excess of the constitutional salary limit, it will not bar such an action to recover such excess compensation of the sheriff as was composed of fees for services other than tax collection. Shipp v. Bradley, 210 Ky. 51, 275 S.W. 1, 1925 Ky. LEXIS 627 (Ky. 1925) (decided under prior law).

A settlement properly made may be opened up by an appeal from the county court to the Circuit Court, or by an independent action instituted to correct the settlement. Hogg's Adm'r v. Commonwealth, 301 Ky. 557, 192 S.W.2d 487, 1946 Ky. LEXIS 519 (Ky. 1946) (decided under prior law).

24. —Surcharge.

A taxpayer may bring an action to surcharge the sheriff's settlement. Little v. Strow, 112 Ky. 527, 66 S.W. 282, 23 Ky. L. Rptr. 1829, 1902 Ky. LEXIS 189 (Ky. 1902) (decided under prior law).

An action to surcharge a settlement for fraud or mistake must be brought within five years after the mistake was discovered or could have been discovered by the exercise of ordinary diligence, and in any event within ten years after the date the settlement was confirmed. Green County v. Howard, 127 Ky. 379, 105 S.W. 897, 32 Ky. L. Rptr. 243, 1907 Ky. LEXIS 145 (Ky. 1907) See Alexander v. Owen County, 136 Ky. 420, 124 S.W. 386, 1910 Ky. LEXIS 500 (Ky. 1910); Blackwell v. Fidelity & Deposit Co., 163 Ky. 76, 173 S.W. 321, 1915 Ky. LEXIS 183 (Ky. 1915), overruled, American Surety Co. v. Bales, 228 Ky. 543, 15 S.W.2d 481, 1929 Ky. LEXIS 620 (Ky. 1929); Mason v. Cook, 187 Ky. 260, 218 S.W. 740, 1919 Ky. LEXIS 389 (Ky. 1919); Steele v. Commonwealth, 233 Ky. 719, 26 S.W.2d 747, 1929 Ky. LEXIS 465 (Ky. 1929) (decided under prior law).

A demand upon the sheriff for the amount alleged to be due from him is not a condition precedent to the bringing of an action to surcharge the sheriff's settlement. Davis v. Commonwealth, 139 Ky. 334, 107 S.W. 306, 32 Ky. L. Rptr. 811, 1908 Ky. LEXIS 5 (Ky. 1908) (decided under prior law).

An action to surcharge a settlement may be brought after the settlement has been confirmed and recorded, and need not be brought before that time. Davis v. Commonwealth, 139 Ky. 334, 107 S.W. 306, 32 Ky. L. Rptr. 811, 1908 Ky. LEXIS 5 (Ky. 1908) (decided under prior law).

The failure of the county attorney to file exceptions to the report of settlement will not bar an action by the county to surcharge the settlement. Davis v. Commonwealth, 139 Ky. 334, 107 S.W. 306, 32 Ky. L. Rptr. 811, 1908 Ky. LEXIS 5 (Ky. 1908) (decided under prior law).

A settlement may be surcharged for a mistake of law as well as a mistake of fact. Davis v. Commonwealth, 139 Ky. 334, 107 S.W. 306, 32 Ky. L. Rptr. 811, 1908 Ky. LEXIS 5 (Ky. 1908) (decided under prior law).

In action to surcharge settlement, sheriff was held chargeable with interest at six percent per annum, from the end of each year, on the sum found due for that year. Alexander v. Owen County, 136 Ky. 420, 124 S.W. 386, 1910 Ky. LEXIS 500 (Ky. 1910) (decided under prior law).

Failure to charge sheriff in settlement, with penalties collected by him on delinquent taxes could be corrected in action to surcharge settlement, where failure was result of misinterpretation of law. Alexander v. Owen County, 136 Ky. 420, 124 S.W. 386, 1910 Ky. LEXIS 500 (Ky. 1910) (decided under prior law).

In action to surcharge sheriff's settlement, court had jurisdiction to adjudge sheriff's liability for taxes collected by sheriff from taxpayers against whom he held no tax bills, as against contention that jurisdiction was restricted to correction of settlement. Alexander v. Owen County, 136 Ky. 420, 124 S.W. 386, 1910 Ky. LEXIS 500 (Ky. 1910) (decided under prior law).

In action to surcharge settlement for one year, improper charges or credits made in a settlement for a previous year could not be attacked. Steele v. Commonwealth, 233 Ky. 719, 26 S.W.2d 747, 1929 Ky. LEXIS 465 (Ky. 1929) (decided under prior law).

In action by county board of education to surcharge sheriff's settlement, proof by the board that the sheriff had collected more money than he had accounted for, according to the tax bill stubs, did not pass the burden to the sheriff of proving by the final recapitulation of the tax books and the sheriff's receipt for the tax bills that he had accounted for all with which he was chargeable; the board had the burden of proving by such latter items that the sheriff had not accounted for the full amount with which he was chargeable. Bush v. Board of Education, 238 Ky. 297, 37 S.W.2d 849, 1931 Ky. LEXIS 230 (Ky. 1931) (decided under prior law).

A taxing unit seeking to surcharge the sheriff's settlement has the burden of proving that the sheriff has collected funds belonging to the unit for which he did not account. Bush v. Board of Education, 238 Ky. 297, 37 S.W.2d 849, 1931 Ky. LEXIS 230 (Ky. 1931) (decided under prior law).

In action to surcharge sheriff's settlements for all years of his term, judgment may be entered for any sum found due from the sheriff because of the allowance of an erroneous credit, without regard to which year the allowance was made. Fidelity & Deposit Co. v. Commonwealth, 249 Ky. 170, 60 S.W.2d 345, 1933 Ky. LEXIS 483 (Ky. 1933) (decided under prior law). But see Steele v. Commonwealth, 233 Ky. 719, 26 S.W.2d 747, 1929 Ky. LEXIS 465 (Ky. 1929) (decided under prior law).

A settlement, although properly and validly made and approved, may be surcharged on the ground of fraud or mistake. Maryland Casualty Co. v. Holt's Adm'r, 285 Ky. 66, 146 S.W.2d 940, 1940 Ky. LEXIS 602 (Ky. 1940) (decided under prior law).

Where a settlement has been validly and properly made, it may be surcharged, but where it has not been completed in accordance with the statute, what was done may be attacked collaterally. Hogg's Adm'r v. Commonwealth, 301 Ky. 557, 192 S.W.2d 487, 1946 Ky. LEXIS 519 (Ky. 1946) (decided under prior law).

25. Commissions.

In the case of a mistake of law as to the amount of commission to which the sheriff was entitled, the statute did not begin to run until the mistake was called to the attention of the fiscal court by an auditor employed to examine the county's fiscal records. Alexander v. Owen County, 136 Ky. 420, 124 S.W. 386, 1910 Ky. LEXIS 500 (Ky. 1910) (decided under prior law).

An action to recover from the sheriff excess commissions retained by him, above the constitutional limit of $5,000, which he had not accounted for in his settlement, was in effect an action to surcharge the settlement and was governed by the five-year statute of limitations on such actions. American

Surety Co. v. Bales, 228 Ky. 543, 15 S.W.2d 481, 1929 Ky. LEXIS 620 (Ky. 1929) (decided under prior law).

26. County Warrants.

Where fiscal court gave sheriff credit in purported settlement for county warrants in which he was illegally trafficking and there was an overpayment on the settlement, sheriff's sureties would be allowed credit for the overpayment in later action for accounting and settlement, but such practice is condemned and fiscal court should not have accepted warrants. Fidelity & Casualty Co. v. Breathitt County, 276 Ky. 173, 123 S.W.2d 250, 1938 Ky. LEXIS 538 (Ky. 1938) (decided under prior law).

Sheriff who used tax money to purchase county warrants at a discount, and tendered warrants in settlement of his accounts, was not entitled to collect interest on the warrants and was liable to the county for any profit made by him. Fidelity & Casualty Co. v. Breathitt County, 276 Ky. 173, 123 S.W.2d 250, 1938 Ky. LEXIS 538 (Ky. 1938) (decided under prior law).

27. Penalty and Interest.

The general rule that interest on taxes is not collectible from the taxpayer in the absence of express statute does not apply to the liability of the sheriff for interest on taxes collected and not paid over by him at the required time. Commonwealth use of McCreary County Board of Education v. Walker, 246 Ky. 679, 55 S.W.2d 914, 1932 Ky. LEXIS 821 (Ky. 1932) (decided under prior law).

In action by county against sheriff and sureties to collect sums found due on settlement, county could not recover penalties, since it was presumed that penalties were included in settlement. Fidelity & Casualty Co. v. Breathitt County, 276 Ky. 173, 123 S.W.2d 250, 1938 Ky. LEXIS 538 (Ky. 1938) (decided under prior law).

28. Estoppel.

The fact that fiscal court had accepted payment of sum found due from sheriff on purported settlement which was invalid because not recorded in county court in full satisfaction of sheriff's liability, did not estop county from suing surety on sheriff's bond for an accounting and settlement. Fidelity & Casualty Co. v. Breathitt County, 276 Ky. 173, 123 S.W.2d 250, 1938 Ky. LEXIS 538 (Ky. 1938) (decided under prior law).

29. Statute of Limitations.

Where mistakes relied upon as grounds for surcharging settlement were apparent from records in the office of the county clerk, the statute of limitations on the cause of action to surcharge the settlement commenced to run from the time the settlement was confirmed, and not from the time the mistakes were actually discovered, since by the exercise of ordinary diligence the county clerk's records could have been examined and the mistakes discovered at the time of settlement. Green County v. Howard, 127 Ky. 379, 105 S.W. 897, 32 Ky. L. Rptr. 243, 1907 Ky. LEXIS 145 (Ky. 1907) (decided under prior law).

Until such time as a settlement has been made according to this section, or the statute of limitations has run, a taxing district may maintain an action against the sheriff to ascertain and recover any taxes due to it from the sheriff. Bush v. Board of Education, 238 Ky. 297, 37 S.W.2d 849, 1931 Ky. LEXIS 230 (Ky. 1931) (decided under prior law).

The statute of limitations does not begin to run against the right to surcharge the sheriff's settlement until the date of entry of the order of the county court approving the settlement. Knox County v. Lewis' Adm'r, 253 Ky. 652, 69 S.W.2d 1000, 1934 Ky. LEXIS 693 (Ky. 1934) (decided under prior law). See Green County v. Howard, 127 Ky. 379, 105 S.W. 897, 32 Ky. L. Rptr. 243, 1907 Ky. LEXIS 145 (Ky. 1907) (decided under prior law).

30. Procedure.

In action on sheriff's county levy bond, seeking to recover amount found due from sheriff on settlement, answer merely alleging that defendants had no knowledge or information on which to found a belief as to whether settlement was correct or as to what sums sheriff had collected and was accountable for, did not state a good defense. Lyons v. Breckinridge County Court, 101 Ky. 715, 42 S.W. 748, 19 Ky. L. Rptr. 951, 1897 Ky. LEXIS 240 (Ky. 1897) (decided under prior law).

Where no valid settlement has been made, it is not necessary, in an action to obtain a settlement and to recover the amount found to be due from the sheriff, to allege that a commissioner had been appointed with whom the sheriff could have made settlement. Shipp v. Bradley, 210 Ky. 51, 275 S.W. 1, 1925 Ky. LEXIS 627 (Ky. 1925) (decided under prior law).

Where, in action against sheriff, the only recovery sought was with regard to taxes which the sheriff admitted to have actually collected, plaintiff was not required to produce evidence as to total amount of taxes with which sheriff had originally been charged. Shipp v. Bradley, 210 Ky. 51, 275 S.W. 1, 1925 Ky. LEXIS 627 (Ky. 1925) (decided under prior law).

An accountant was a competent witness, as to facts found by him in audit of books on which sheriff's settlement was made, although firm by which accountant was employed had made contract with county under which firm would receive 50 percent of anything recovered from sheriff. Bush v. Board of Education, 238 Ky. 297, 37 S.W.2d 849, 1931 Ky. LEXIS 230 (Ky. 1931) (decided under prior law).

County board of education, county treasurer and county itself could properly join as parties plaintiff in action to surcharge sheriff's settlement. Knox County v. Lewis' Adm'r, 253 Ky. 652, 69 S.W.2d 1000, 1934 Ky. LEXIS 693 (Ky. 1934) (decided under prior law).

In an action to surcharge the sheriff's settlement, the sheriff may not, in the absence of allegations on his part sufficient to surcharge the settlement, introduce evidence as to credits to which he is entitled other than those allowed him in the settlement or in exonerations by the fiscal court under former KRS 134.360, except that he may show payments made subsequent to the time the settlement was approved. Knox County v. Lewis' Adm'r, 253 Ky. 652, 69 S.W.2d 1000, 1934 Ky. LEXIS 693 (Ky. 1934) (decided under prior law).

In action by county against sheriff and sureties to collect sums found due on settlement, it was not necessary to allege that fiscal court had directed county attorney or some other attorney to bring action. Fidelity & Casualty Co. v. Breathitt County, 276 Ky. 173, 123 S.W.2d 250, 1938 Ky. LEXIS 538 (Ky. 1938) (decided under prior law).

Testimony that sheriff had promised to pay sum shown to be due under a proposed settlement was competent as an admission against interest in action against sheriff to recover such sum. Hogg's Adm'r v. Commonwealth, 301 Ky. 557, 192 S.W.2d 487, 1946 Ky. LEXIS 519 (Ky. 1946) (decided under prior law).

County officials and taxpayers were not disqualified, by reason of interest, to testify as to conversations with deceased sheriff concerning sheriff's settlement. Hogg's Adm'r v. Commonwealth, 301 Ky. 557, 192 S.W.2d 487, 1946 Ky. LEXIS 519 (Ky. 1946) (decided under prior law).

In action against sheriff based on alleged promise to pay sum shown to be due under an incomplete settlement, testimony of person appointed by fiscal court to make the settlement, that sheriff owed certain amount, was incompetent where the original documents and records were not produced. Hogg's Adm'r v. Commonwealth, 301 Ky. 557, 192 S.W.2d 487, 1946 Ky. LEXIS 519 (Ky. 1946) (decided under prior law).

31. Res Judicata.

Judgment against sheriff and surety on his bond for amount due from sheriff on settlement for taxes due on regular tax bills was not a bar to a subsequent action to recover sums due for railroad taxes collected on assessments certified pursuant to KRS 136.180, and which were collected after time of settlement. Combs v. Breathitt County, 46 S.W. 505, 20 Ky. L. Rptr. 529 (1898) (decided under prior law).

Where Circuit Court, on appeal from judgment of county court on settlement, held that sheriff was not liable for penalties on taxes not collected, and no appeal was taken from Circuit Court judgment, such judgment was final and conclusive as to year involved, but was not binding as to liability of sheriff for penalties on taxes for subsequent years. Fidelity & Deposit Co. v. Logan County, 119 Ky. 428, 84 S.W. 341, 27 Ky. L. Rptr. 66, 1905 Ky. LEXIS 15 (Ky. 1905) (decided under prior law).

134.193. Annual sheriff's tax settlement audit — Requirements.

The annual sheriff's tax settlement audit required by KRS 134.192(1) shall be one (1) audit encompassing the period September 1 to August 31 and the taxes collected on real estate, tangible personal property, unmined coal, oil and gas reserve, other mineral or energy resources, public service corporations, and any other ad valorem collections for which:

- (1) The collection schedule has been completed;
- (2) Delinquent tax claims have been filed with the county clerk in accordance with KRS 134.122; and
- (3) Settlements have been prepared in accordance with KRS 134.192.

History.

2021 ch. 37, § 1, effective January 1, 2022.

134.230. Bond to be executed by sheriff — Liability of sheriff and sureties.

(1)(a) The sheriff shall execute a bond annually to the Commonwealth with one (1) or more sufficient sureties in the minimum sum of ten thousand dollars ($10,000), conditioned on the faithful performance of his or her duties and to pay over to the proper person and at the proper time all money collected. The bond shall be executed prior to the sheriff collecting taxes for the year in which the bond is executed. The bond shall be approved by order of the governing body of the county, and shall be filed by the governing body of the county with the county clerk and with the department.

(b) The governing body of the county may require the sheriff to enter into an additional bond, with good surety to be approved by the governing body of the county.

(2)(a) Subject to the provisions of paragraph (b) of this subsection, the sureties on all bonds executed by the sheriff pursuant to this section shall be jointly and severally liable for any default of the sheriff during the calendar year in which the bond was executed, whether the liability accrues before or after the execution of the bond.

(b) Neither the sheriff nor a surety shall be liable for any act or default of the sheriff relating to the sheriff's revenue duties unless notice of the act or default of the sheriff giving rise to a claim upon the bond has been given to the surety by the department, the chief executive of the county, the county attorney, or other person asserting the claim within ninety (90) days after discovery or at the latest within one (1) year after the end of the year within which the bond was executed.

(3)(a) Any sheriff who fails to execute a bond as required by this section shall forfeit his or her office. The vacancy shall be filled as provided in KRS 63.220.

(b) If the chief executive of the county does not appoint a sheriff as provided in KRS 63.220 within thirty (30) days, the department may appoint a tax collector to collect the moneys due the state. An appointed collector shall execute a bond within ten (10) days of being appointed, in the same manner and under the same conditions as provided in this section for a sheriff. A sheriff who forfeits his or her office under this subsection or who resigns his or her office shall not be appointed as collector under this section.

1. Construction.

The provision of subsection (1) of this section requiring sheriff to execute revenue bond "before or as of" June 1, does not mean that the sheriff might postpone execution of bond until he saw fit, but the proper interpretation would be that the bond might be executed before the first day of June but would not become effective until June 1. Clark v. Anderson, 300 Ky. 727, 190 S.W.2d 342, 1945 Ky. LEXIS 643 (Ky. 1945) (decided under prior law).

2. Bonds.

Both the official and the tax levying bonds of a sheriff executed before the enactment of this section covered his whole term and the bonds executed annually thereafter were merely additional security. Cotton v. Walton-Verona Independent Graded School Dist., 295 Ky. 478, 174 S.W.2d 712, 1943 Ky. LEXIS 262 (Ky. 1943) (decided under prior law).

3. —Agreement in Lieu of.

A sheriff or collector cannot satisfy the requirements of this section by agreeing with the department of revenue (now Revenue Cabinet) to make remittances of taxes more often than he is required to do, so that he will never have on hand more than a certain maximum balance, and giving bond in the amount of that balance. Beauchamp v. Matthews, 281 Ky. 351, 135 S.W.2d 863, 1939 Ky. LEXIS 35 (Ky. 1939) (decided under prior law).

4. —Conditions.

A bond provision that the surety would be absolved from liability if the county discovered a dishonest act or omission of the sheriff was ineffective and failed to absolve the surety from liability. National Surety Corp. v. Morgan County, 440 S.W.2d 791, 1969 Ky. LEXIS 349 (Ky. 1969) (decided under prior law).

A statutorily-required fidelity bond may not contain clauses limiting liability in derogation of the statutory requirements for the bond. National Surety Corp. v. Morgan County, 440 S.W.2d 791, 1969 Ky. LEXIS 349 (Ky. 1969) (decided under prior law).

Neither this section nor any other section in chapter 134 authorizes a "self-terminating" or "escape clause" provision in the sheriff's bond. National Surety Corp. v. Morgan County, 440 S.W.2d 791, 1969 Ky. LEXIS 349 (Ky. 1969) (decided under prior law).

5. —Liability for Tax Collections.

Liability for failing to account for tax collections is primarily under the bonds secured under this section, however, should these prove insufficient resort may be had to the general fidelity bonds executed under KRS 70.020. Maryland Casualty Co. v. Magoffin County Bd. of Education, 358 S.W.2d 353, 1961 Ky. LEXIS 450 (Ky. 1961) (decided under prior law).

6. —Failure to File.

When the sheriff failed to file bond by June 1, it was the duty of the county court to declare the office vacant and appoint a new sheriff. Clark v. Anderson, 300 Ky. 727, 190 S.W.2d 342, 1945 Ky. LEXIS 643 (Ky. 1945) (decided under prior law).

Where sheriff failed to file bond required by this section due to absence of county judge (now county judge/executive) who was required to receive it, it was sufficient compliance with this section that he tendered the bond to the county judge (now county judge/executive) upon the first day of the judge's return. Moore v. Fields, 535 S.W.2d 67, 1975 Ky. LEXIS 3 (Ky. 1975) (decided under prior law).

7. —Additional.

The county court may require a collector to give an additional bond in the same manner as the sheriff, but the judge, having approved the collector's original bond, cannot arbitrarily remove him from office on ground of insufficiency of additional bond tendered by him pursuant to notice from judge. Baker v. McIntosh, 272 Ky. 763, 115 S.W.2d 384, 1938 Ky. LEXIS 211 (Ky. 1938) (decided under prior law).

8. —Law Applicable.

A sheriff's bond is a contract between the parties thereto, and must be performed under the law in force at the time of the execution of the bond. Mt. Vernon Independent Graded School Dist. v. Clark, 281 Ky. 230, 135 S.W.2d 892, 1940 Ky. LEXIS 15 (Ky. 1940) (decided under prior law).

9. —Beneficiaries.

Subsection (3) of this section shows an intention that the bond shall be for the benefit of any taxing district, and the bonds cover county levies no less than state revenues. Maryland Casualty Co. v. Magoffin County Bd. of Education, 358 S.W.2d 353, 1961 Ky. LEXIS 450 (Ky. 1961) (decided under prior law).

10. —General Revenue.

Although sheriff's bond runs to the Commonwealth, action on the bond for liability with regard to school taxes may be brought by the board of education in its own name, and need not be brought by the Commonwealth for the use and benefit of the board. Gay v. Jackson County Board of Education, 205 Ky. 277, 265 S.W. 772, 1924 Ky. LEXIS 89 (Ky. 1924) (decided under prior law).

11. —Order Approving.

When order approving sheriff's bond was entered at the time of approval, but was not signed by the judge, it could be signed later, pursuant to KRS 25.160 (repealed), and such signing would validate the order as of the date of original entry. Leslie County v. Eversole, 222 Ky. 793, 2 S.W.2d 644, 1928 Ky. LEXIS 250 (Ky. 1928) (decided under prior law). See United States Fidelity & Guaranty Co. v. Salyer, 131 Ky. 527, 115 S.W. 767, 1909 Ky. LEXIS 53 (Ky. 1909) (decided under prior law).

12. —Execution.

The provision of subsection (1) of this section that the county judge (now county judge/executive) shall "hold court at any time the sheriff may request" to execute bond, makes it incumbent on the sheriff to request the county judge (now county judge/executive) to do this. Clark v. Anderson, 300 Ky. 727, 190 S.W.2d 342, 1945 Ky. LEXIS 643 (Ky. 1945) (decided under prior law).

13. —Premiums.

The sheriff must pay the premiums on his bonds, and cannot recover the same from the state or county, or be allowed credit therefor in his settlement. Land v. Fayette County, 269 Ky. 543, 108 S.W.2d 429, 1937 Ky. LEXIS 637 (Ky. 1937) (decided under prior law). See Commonwealth use of Scott County v. Nunnolley, 211 Ky. 409, 277 S.W. 506, 1925 Ky. LEXIS 890 (Ky. 1925) (decided under prior law). (See KRS 62.140 and 62.150).

14. —Penal Sum.

Neither the amount of the sheriff's individual net assets, nor the lien imposed on the sheriff's property by this section, nor the provision that the sheriff may be required to give additional bond, can be considered for the purpose of permitting a smaller penal sum than that required by this section. Cornett v. Duff, 282 Ky. 332, 138 S.W.2d 478, 1940 Ky. LEXIS 165 (Ky. 1940) (decided under prior law).

If the sheriff's revenue bond does not name a penal sum, but the joint net worth of the sureties is sufficient to comply with this section, the county judge (now county judge/executive) must insert a proper penal sum, with the consent of the sureties, and then approve the bond. Cornett v. Duff, 282 Ky. 332, 138 S.W.2d 478, 1940 Ky. LEXIS 165 (Ky. 1940) (decided under prior law).

15. —Quietus.

The obtaining of a quietus for the taxes of the previous year is not a condition precedent to the execution of the annual bond required by this section, and the sheriff must execute such bond at the time required by this section whether or not he has obtained the quietus. Renshaw v. Cook, 129 Ky. 347, 111 S.W. 377, 33 Ky. L. Rptr. 860, 33 Ky. L. Rptr. 895, 1908 Ky. LEXIS 165 (Ky. Ct. App. 1908) (decided under prior law).

16. Sureties.

County v. Lewis' Adm'r, 253 Ky. 652, 69 S.W.2d 1000, 1934 Ky. LEXIS 693 (Ky. 1934) (decided under prior law).

The sureties on the sheriff's official bond, given pursuant to KRS 70.020, are not liable for revenue collections where the sheriff has executed the statutory revenue bonds. Fidelity & Casualty Co. v. Breathitt County, 276 Ky. 173, 123 S.W.2d 250, 1938 Ky. LEXIS 538 (Ky. 1938), distinguished in Maryland Casualty Co. v. Magoffin County Bd. of Education, 358 S.W.2d 353, 1961 Ky. LEXIS 450 (Ky. 1961) (decided under prior law).

This section does not mean that sureties on the official bond of the sheriff shall be jointly and severally liable for any default of the sheriff with the surety on the revenue bonds. Fidelity & Casualty Co. v. Breathitt County, 276 Ky. 173, 123 S.W.2d 250, 1938 Ky. LEXIS 538 (Ky. 1938) (decided under prior law).

Sureties on sheriff's revenue bond would be subrogated to sheriff's claims against county for building voting houses and for coupons on county bonds held by him, but could not set off these claims against sheriff's liability for taxes collected. Fidelity & Casualty Co. v. Breathitt County, 276 Ky. 173, 123 S.W.2d 250, 1938 Ky. LEXIS 538 (Ky. 1938) (decided under prior law).

Sheriff's surety, subrogated to rights of county after paying shortage in sheriff's accounts, could enforce lien against purchaser of real property from sheriff, regardless of settlement of sheriff or quietus granted by fiscal court. Maryland Casualty Co. v. Holt's Adm'r, 285 Ky. 66, 146 S.W.2d 940, 1940 Ky. LEXIS 602 (Ky. 1940) (decided under prior law).

Liability for failing to account for tax collections is primarily under bonds executed under this section, however, in case the liability stipulated in such bonds proves insufficient to cover the aggregate default of the obligee in tax collections, resort may be had to the general fidelity bonds executed under KRS 70.020 Maryland Casualty Co. v. Magoffin County Bd. of Education, 358 S.W.2d 353, 1961 Ky. LEXIS 450 (Ky. 1961) (decided under prior law).

17. —Signatures.

It is immaterial whether the several sureties sign the bond on the same or different dates, or whether the date stated in the bond is the date on which the bond was actually signed. Gay v. Jackson County Board of Education, 205 Ky. 277, 265 S.W. 772, 1924 Ky. LEXIS 89 (Ky. 1924) (decided under prior law).

18. —Excess Fees and Commissions.

The sureties on the sheriff's bond are liable for excess commissions retained by the sheriff over and above the maximum compensation allowed him by the Constitution. American Surety Co. v. Bales, 228 Ky. 543, 15 S.W.2d 481, 1929 Ky. LEXIS 620 (Ky. 1929) (decided under prior law).

19. —Settlement Surcharged.

Where sheriff, in his settlement, has erroneously been given credit for fees and commissions not legally due him, the sureties on his bond are liable for the amount thereof found to be due in an action to surcharge the settlement, as against contention that such amount represents an ordinary debt due the county which the bond does not cover. Mason v. Cook, 187 Ky. 260, 218 S.W. 740, 1919 Ky. LEXIS 389 (Ky. 1919) (decided under prior law).

20. —Release or Indemnity.

Where sheriff borrowed money from bank in order to make settlement for amount due from him for taxes of 1930, and executed note to bank for that amount, and then paid note out of tax money collected in 1931, surety on sheriff's bond compelled to make good sheriff's default with regard to 1931 taxes was not entitled to recover from the bank the amount paid to it, since the loan by the bank had saved the surety from being held liable for a 1930 default. Maryland Casualty Co. v.

Walker, 257 Ky. 397, 78 S.W.2d 34, 1934 Ky. LEXIS 559 (Ky. 1934) (decided under prior law).

21. —Subrogation.

A surety who pays to the state, county and taxing districts the amount for which the sheriff is liable is subrogated to the lien on the sheriff's real estate. Fidelity & Deposit Co. v. Commonwealth, 249 Ky. 170, 60 S.W.2d 345, 1933 Ky. LEXIS 483 (Ky. 1933).

Surety who paid amount of sheriff's liability was entitled to sums on deposit in bank to credit of sheriff in his official capacity, surety's right to such sums being superior to right of bank to apply deposit to individual debt owed bank by sheriff. Golden v. Blakeman, 223 Ky. 517, 3 S.W.2d 1095, 1928 Ky. LEXIS 371 (Ky. 1928), overruled, Warfield Natural Gas Co. v. Ward, 286 Ky. 73, 149 S.W.2d 705, 1940 Ky. LEXIS 1 (Ky. 1940) (decided under prior law).

22. —Taxes.

Sureties on sheriff's bond are liable for amount of taxes collected by sheriff, and not accounted for, from taxpayers whose property was not assessed, as against contention that state and county are not entitled to such taxes. Failure of the state and county to cause retrospective assessment of such property as omitted does not affect such liability. Mason v. Cook, 187 Ky. 260, 218 S.W. 740, 1919 Ky. LEXIS 389 (Ky. 1919) (decided under prior law) (at the time this case was decided, sheriff had duty to report omitted property; however, the law that gave sheriff this duty has been repealed).

Sureties on sheriff's bond were liable for railroad franchise taxes which had been paid to sheriff before they were due, as against contention that sheriff could not lawfully receive taxes until assessment had been certified as provided by KRS 136.180 Fidelity & Deposit Co. v. Commonwealth, 249 Ky. 170, 60 S.W.2d 345, 1933 Ky. LEXIS 483 (Ky. 1933) (decided under prior law).

23. —Failure of Depository.

The sheriff is not liable on his bond for tax moneys which have been lost by reason of failure of bank in which moneys were deposited, unless he was negligent in selecting the depository, or unless the failure occurred after the time when the sheriff should have paid over the money. In case of deposits in a bank designated by the fiscal court as official depository of county funds, the sheriff is not liable unless he had knowledge of facts which would lead him to question the soundness of the bank. Jordon v. Baker, 252 Ky. 40, 66 S.W.2d 84, 1933 Ky. LEXIS 1007 (Ky. 1933) (decided under prior law).

24. Lien.

The lien given by this section secured the sheriff's liability for taxes collected from taxpayers whose property was not assessed for taxation. Mason v. Cook, 187 Ky. 260, 218 S.W. 740, 1919 Ky. LEXIS 389 (Ky. 1919) (decided under prior law).

There is no lien on real estate acquired by the sheriff after the expiration of his term. Mason v. Cook, 187 Ky. 260, 218 S.W. 740, 1919 Ky. LEXIS 389 (Ky. 1919) (decided under prior law).

The lien provided in this section is not superior to the dower right. Maryland Casualty Co. v. Lewis, 276 Ky. 263, 124 S.W.2d 48, 1939 Ky. LEXIS 509 (Ky. 1939) (decided under prior law).

The lien provided in this section attaches at the time the sheriff begins to act as tax collector, insofar as property owned by him at that time is concerned, and at the time of acquisition of property subsequently acquired by him, and the lien given by KRS 135.100 is effective against the legal or equitable estate of the sheriff from the commencement of the action. Owens v. Maryland Casualty Co., 283 Ky. 162, 283 Ky. 462, 141 S.W.2d 867, 1940 Ky. LEXIS 353 (Ky. 1940) (decided under prior law).

25. —Priorities.

Bank which furnished money to pay off vendor's lien on land purchased by sheriff, and took mortgage from sheriff to secure it for amount advanced, was entitled to the same priority over the lien given by this section as the purchase-money lien had, under the doctrine of subrogation. Commonwealth ex rel. Board of Education v. Federal Land Bank, 226 Ky. 628, 11 S.W.2d 698, 1928 Ky. LEXIS 147 (Ky. 1928) (decided under prior law).

The wife of a deceased former sheriff is estopped from asserting a deed from the sheriff to her which was unrecorded until after his term expired, where the sheriff's surety is asserting a lien on the sheriff's property for his defalcation of tax funds. Maryland Casualty Co. v. Lewis, 276 Ky. 263, 124 S.W.2d 48, 1939 Ky. LEXIS 509 (Ky. 1939) (decided under prior law).

26. —Subrogation.

If, at the time the sheriff took office, certain of his real estate was subject to a contractual lien, and a person who purchased such real estate after the expiration of the sheriff's term paid off the lien, relying upon a quietus given to the sheriff, such person would be entitled to subrogation to such lien as against the lien asserted under this section for sums found due from the sheriff in an action to surcharge his settlements. American Surety Co. v. Bales, 228 Ky. 543, 15 S.W.2d 481, 1929 Ky. LEXIS 620 (Ky. 1929) (decided under prior law).

27. —Settlement and Quietus.

The granting of a quietus to the sheriff, following a settlement, does not operate to free the sheriff's real estate of the lien given by this section, and if the settlement is subsequently opened for fraud or mistake the lien may be enforced, even as against persons who purchased the real estate from the sheriff in reliance on the quietus. Mason v. Cook, 187 Ky. 260, 218 S.W. 740, 1919 Ky. LEXIS 389 (Ky. 1919) (decided under prior law).

Settlements made by sheriff and quietus granted by fiscal court do not discharge lien on his real property, as long as there is any money due from sheriff to county and period of limitation has not expired. Maryland Casualty Co. v. Holt's Adm'x, 285 Ky. 66, 146 S.W.2d 940, 1940 Ky. LEXIS 602 (Ky. 1940) (decided under prior law).

28. —Purchaser's Rights.

Persons who have purchased real estate from the sheriff are not precluded, as to the amount of the lien against such real estate, by the sheriff's settlements, and they may show that the sheriff was not liable for the sum found due by the settlement, or for any sum. American Surety Co. v. Bales, 228 Ky. 543, 15 S.W.2d 481, 1929 Ky. LEXIS 620 (Ky. 1929) (decided under prior law).

29. —Mortgage on Sheriff's Real Estate.

Mortgage on sheriff's real estate executed before he took office, but not recorded until after he took office, was inferior to lien of state, county and taxing districts. Fidelity & Deposit Co. v. Commonwealth, 249 Ky. 170, 60 S.W.2d 345, 1933 Ky. LEXIS 483 (Ky. 1933) (decided under prior law).

30. Sovereign Immunity.

Fire protection district's suit against tax collection officials, including a county court clerk, a sheriff, and a county assessor or property valuation administrator, based on the officials' failure to collect personal property tax pursuant to KRS 75.015, was properly dismissed because sovereign immunity shielded the officials from liability; contrary to the district's claim, the fact that the officials posted performance bonds did not amount to a waiver of sovereign immunity. Such waiver was found only where it was established by express language or by overwhelming implications. St. Matthews Fire Prot.

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

The amount of the state revenue bond required of the sheriff at the beginning of his term could be based on the aggregate amount of taxes remaining unpaid at the first of the year. OAG 61-1086.

The bond required by this section can be paid out of the 75% fund pursuant to KRS 62.155 and 64.345. OAG 74-413.

This section creates no lien against personal property of a sheriff until such time as an action is instituted to subject such property to liability for any defalcation of the sheriff in remitting taxes. OAG 75-647.

Since the sheriff's county revenue bond must cover liability to account for all charges of taxes made against the sheriff and for all money received by him as a revenue collector, the officer fixing the bond should set it for no less than the aggregate amount of state, county, and special district tax receipts for each year the bond is in force. OAG 76-224.

Where the county judge/executive requires the sheriff to make his tax collections report more often than on the monthly basis, KRS 134.300 (now repealed) and this section, clearly require the sheriff to turn over taxes collected, after any previous report, to the appropriate taxing authority or special taxing district but in connection with usual monthly report, the sheriff is required at the time of the report to turn over taxes collected to the appropriate taxing authorities or special taxing districts. OAG 81-378.

The 1982 amendment of this section deleted the statutory lien provision and, consequently, there will be no statutory lien on the real property of sheriffs taking office subsequent to July 15, 1982, the date on which the amendment became effective. OAG 82-369.

The statutory lien provisions of former subsections (4) and (5) of this section, which subsections were deleted by the 1982 amendment to this section, remain in effect for sheriffs currently in office, as the amending act does not expressly state that its provisions are to be retroactive so as to be applicable to sheriffs who have taken office prior to its effective date. OAG 82-371.

Under KRS 70.040, the sheriff is liable for the acts or omissions of his deputies. Thus, the sheriff may require his deputies to execute bonds, in connection with the sheriff's tax collection function, to cover their responsibility for indemnifying the sheriff or the sheriff's office. OAG 82-460.

Concerning the general revenue bond of the sheriff as tax collector, pursuant to this section, there appears to be no statutory authority for the county's paying the premium. KRS 62.156, however, requires the county to pay the premium on the county levy bond treated in KRS 134.250 (now repealed). OAG 83-293.

A county hospital district, through its board, is responsible for paying that portion of the premium on the general revenue bond, pursuant to this section, which is practicably applicable to that portion of the bond coverage reflecting taxes collected by the sheriff for the hospital district. Also, the hospital district board has the duty of indicating to the county judge/executive the approximate amount of hospital district taxes which will be in the possession of the sheriff under the sheriff's reporting scheme for a particular tax year, in order that the general revenue bond may adequately reflect coverage embracing such hospital district taxes collected. OAG 82-609.

134.420. Lien for taxes.

(1) The state and each county, city, or other taxing district shall have a lien on the property assessed for taxes due them respectively for eleven (11) years following the date when the taxes become delinquent.

(2) This lien shall not be defeated by gift, devise, sale, alienation, or any means except by sale to a bona fide purchaser, but no purchase of property made before final settlement for taxes for a particular assessment date has been made by the sheriff shall preclude the lien covering the taxes.

(3) The lien shall include all interest, penalties, fees, commissions, charges, costs, attorney fees, and other expenses as provided by this chapter that have been incurred by reason of delinquency in payment of the tax claim certificate of delinquency, personal property certificate of delinquency, or in the process of collecting any of them, and shall have priority over any other obligation or liability for which the property is liable.

(4) The lien of any city, county, or other taxing district shall be of equal rank with that of the state.

(5) When any proceeding is instituted to enforce the lien provided in this subsection, it shall continue in force until the matter is judicially terminated.

(6) Every city with a population of less than twenty thousand (20,000) based upon the most recent federal decennial census shall file notice of the delinquent tax liens with the county clerk of any county or counties in which the taxpayer's business or residence is located, or in any county in which the taxpayer has an interest in property. The notice shall be recorded in the same manner as notices of lis pendens are filed, and the file shall be designated miscellaneous state and city delinquent and unpaid tax liens.

1. Application.

This section was plainly intended to give a lien for any taxes then or thereafter provided by the statutes. In re Auto Electric Repair & Parts Co., 41 F. Supp. 3, 1941 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 2592 (D. Ky. 1941).

The provisions of this section, relating to liens for taxes generally, do not apply to unemployment compensation contributions. Louisville Title Mortg. Co. v. Commonwealth, 299 Ky. 224, 184 S.W.2d 963, 1944 Ky. LEXIS 1041 (Ky. 1944).

Delinquency certificate purchaser was entitled to an award of attorney fees on its action to redeem two (2) certificates of delinquency that it purchased regarding claims against the Kentucky corporation for delinquent taxes, as statutory authority gave it the right, as a private purchaser of the delinquent taxes, to enforce the lien that state, county, city, or taxing district would have had a right to enforce had the delinquent taxes not been purchased by the private purchase, and the lien included the right to a reasonable amount of attorney fees. Flag Drilling Co. v. Erco, Inc., 156 S.W.3d 762, 2005 Ky. App. LEXIS 20 (Ky. Ct. App. 2005).

Since tax liens were superior to judgment liens, consistent with KRS 134.420(3), the purchaser who made a winning bid at a foreclosure sale could not use its judgment-lien credit to reduce the amount available to priority lienholders who had tax claims waiting to be paid. Rather, the priority lienholders were entitled to have the full amount of the winning bid available to pay their claims and the purchaser was entitled to recover any amount left over after the priority lienholders' claims were extinguished. United States Nat'l Bank Ass'n v. Am. Gen. Home Equity, Inc., 387 S.W.3d 345, 2012 Ky. App. LEXIS 198 (Ky. Ct. App. 2012).

2. Notice.

A person who purchased property subject to a tax lien during the five (5) year (now 11-year) period during which the lien continued was charged with notice of the lien. Carter v. Louisville, 147 Ky. 791, 145 S.W. 739, 1912 Ky. LEXIS 334 (Ky. 1912).

Under this section, any time a person fails to pay any tax, a lien immediately arises and is attached to all property owned or subsequently acquired by the taxpayer, but until notice thereof is filed, a bona fide purchaser, etc. is given priority, once notice is filed, however, the Revenue Cabinet has priority. Liberty Nat'l Bank & Trust Co. v. Vanderkraats, 899 S.W.2d 511, 1995 Ky. App. LEXIS 114 (Ky. Ct. App. 1995).

2.5. Standing.

Mortgagee had first-party standing to contest an agreed judgment between a mortgagor and a purchaser of the mortgagor's delinquent property tax liens because the mortgagee was a lienholder under KRS 426.006 and would suffer direct financial injury as the tax lien was superior under KRS 134.420(3); the amount of the tax lien was increased by the included attorney's fees under KRS 134.452, which the mortgagee contended were unreasonable. Tax Ease Lien Invs. 1 v. Commonwealth Bank & Trust, 384 S.W.3d 141, 2012 Ky. LEXIS 142 (Ky. 2012).

3. Lien.

Where the taxpayer did not own the property in question when the taxes accrued, the commission has no lien against the property for such taxes. Unemployment Compensation Com. v. Louisville Title Ins. Co., 293 Ky. 214, 168 S.W.2d 377, 1943 Ky. LEXIS 566 (Ky. 1943).

Pursuant to the language of former subsection (2) of this section a tax lien cannot arise until a person is liable to pay such tax. Commonwealth Revenue Cabinet v. Hall, 941 S.W.2d 481, 1997 Ky. App. LEXIS 5 (Ky. Ct. App. 1997).

4. —Property to Which Attached.

When there is a tax lien on assessed real property which is subject to sale by the sheriff under the provisions of the applicable statutes, so much of the lien as remains after the sale of personalty as provided in KRS 134.430 (now repealed) shall constitute a first lien against the assessed real estate, but in no event can this be construed to give the taxing authority a lien against real estate for taxes assessed against property other than the particular real estate. Midland-Guardian Co. v. McElroy, 563 S.W.2d 752, 1978 Ky. App. LEXIS 490 (Ky. Ct. App. 1978).

Blanket lien did not exist against property sold by vendor to purchaser, concerning all the unpaid taxes which vendor owed regarding certificates of tax delinquency covering other tracts of real estate vendor owned, and purchaser could not be required to pay and satisfy such liens of vendor, especially as property sold had no assessment for delinquent liens. United Cos. Lending Corp. v. Calvert, 899 S.W.2d 514, 1995 Ky. App. LEXIS 116 (Ky. Ct. App. 1995).

5. —Personalty and Realty.

Where taxpayer who owned personal property and real estate sold the personal property after the assessment date, the lien on such personal property for taxes could not be enforced until after the real estate had been exhausted. Hicks v. Kimbro, 225 Ky. 778, 10 S.W.2d 290, 1928 Ky. LEXIS 879 (Ky. 1928).

6. —Period of.

Where an action to enforce the lien for taxes is brought within the five (5) year (now 11-year) period for which the lien continues, no lis pendens notice need be filed at the commencement of the action, in order to preserve the lien as to third persons, but if the action remains on the docket without being brought to trial until after the five (5) year period has expired, a lis pendens notice must be filed. Carter v. Louisville, 147 Ky. 791, 145 S.W. 739, 1912 Ky. LEXIS 334 (Ky. 1912).

7. —Ad Valorem Taxes.

The lien for ad valorem taxes is on the property assessed. Commonwealth v. J. B. Jellico Coal Co., 227 Ky. 273, 12 S.W.2d 698, 1928 Ky. LEXIS 502 (Ky. 1928).

8. —Taxpayer's Interest.

The tax lien is a lien only against such interest as the taxpayer owns in the property, and not against the property itself. Hall v. Hall, 174 Ky. 356, 192 S.W. 76, 1917 Ky. LEXIS 189 (Ky. 1917).

Where coal mining lease was terminated by lessor on lessee becoming bankrupt, such power of termination being reserved in the lease, all property rights of the lessee ceased to exist, and there was nothing remaining against which the state could enforce a lien for taxes previously assessed against the lessee's interest in the lease. Commonwealth v. J. B. Jellico Coal Co., 227 Ky. 273, 12 S.W.2d 698, 1928 Ky. LEXIS 502 (Ky. 1928).

9. —Timber.

Tax lien extended to proceeds of sale of timber from land subject to lien. Board of Drainage Comm'rs v. Alexander, 235 Ky. 689, 32 S.W.2d 22, 1930 Ky. LEXIS 438 (Ky. 1930).

10. —Assessment in Wrong Name.

Where property is correctly described in the assessment lists, the tax constitutes a lien on the property, even though the assessment is in the name of the wrong person. Louisville v. Louisville Courier-Journal Co., 140 Ky. 664, 131 S.W. 509, 1910 Ky. LEXIS 341 (Ky. 1910).

11. —Attachment.

The lien attaches as of the assessment date, so the assessment date constitutes the lien date. Jefferson Post, A. L. Dep't v. Louisville, 280 S.W.2d 706, 1955 Ky. LEXIS 189 (Ky. 1955).

KRS 134.060 (now repealed) makes an owner of real property liable for the related property taxes and the tax is the personal debt of the person liable for payment, pursuant to KRS 134.050 (now repealed), and the lien imposed by KRS 134.420 secures the payment of taxes, as does KRS 91A.070. Radcliffe v. LPP Mortg., 2003 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 5286 (W.D. Ky. Apr. 1, 2003), aff'd, 2005 U.S. App. LEXIS 5198 (6th Cir. Ky. Mar. 30, 2005).

12. —Perfection.

The Commonwealth's lien for the 1951 tax became perfected on the day taxpayer filed his return showing he owed the state this sum. United States v. Commonwealth, 288 S.W.2d 664, 1956 Ky. LEXIS 277 (Ky. Ct. App. 1956).

7. Ad Valorem Taxes.

Trial court presiding over an action to distribute real estate property sales proceeds after the sale of a parcel of land due to unpaid ad valorem taxes should not have distributed the full amount of the city and county's liens to them and then divided the remaining proceeds pro rata among the other parties. Liens that resulted from unpaid ad valorem taxes were not made inferior by the sale of KRS 134.128 certificates of delinquency from government entities to third-party purchasers such as the bank, especially since KRS 134.420 gave priority to liens resulting from such unpaid taxes irrespective of whether government entities or third parties held those liens. United States Bank Nat'l Ass'n v. Tax Ease Lien Invs. 1, LLC, 356 S.W.3d 770, 2011 Ky. App. LEXIS 227 (Ky. Ct. App. 2011).

13. City Taxes.

Sale of property for state and county taxes did not free such property of lien for city taxes. Allin v. Harrodsburg, 247 Ky. 360, 57 S.W.2d 45, 1933 Ky. LEXIS 406 (Ky. 1933). See Kentucky Lands Inv. Co. v. Fitch, 144 Ky. 273, 137 S.W. 1040, 1911 Ky. LEXIS 574 (Ky. 1911).

The lien imposed for taxes due a city has equal priority with the lien imposed for state taxes. Allin v. Harrodsburg, 247 Ky. 360, 57 S.W.2d 45, 1933 Ky. LEXIS 406 (Ky. 1933).

14. Inheritance Taxes.

With respect to inheritance taxes, this section is considered to apply only to property other than the property transferred. Commonwealth v. Marcum v. Smith, 375 S.W.2d 386, 1964 Ky. LEXIS 411 (Ky. 1964).

15. School Taxes.

A board of education has authority to maintain an action in its own name, against delinquent taxpayers, to recover judgment for delinquent school taxes and to enforce the tax lien, and is not required to await the ordinary process of distraint and sale by the tax collector as the statutes make the tax a debt of the delinquent taxpayer in favor of the particular taxing authority. Board of Education v. Ballard, 299 Ky. 370, 185 S.W.2d 538, 1945 Ky. LEXIS 426 (Ky. 1945).

16. Priorities.

Under Kentucky statutes, the lien of a judgment creditor, based on wage assignments of employees of bankrupt manufacturing corporation, is inferior to lien of city for taxes. Freeman Furniture Factories, Inc. v. Bowlds, 136 F.2d 136, 1943 U.S. App. LEXIS 2982 (6th Cir. Ky. 1943).

State's lien for taxes is inferior to federal lien for unpaid federal taxes. Kentucky, Dep't of Revenue v. United States, 383 F.2d 13, 1967 U.S. App. LEXIS 5000 (6th Cir. Ky. 1967).

In bankruptcy proceeding, landlord's lien for rent was inferior to lien of Kentucky unemployment compensation commission for contributions due from bankrupt, the latter lien being a tax lien within the meaning of the bankruptcy act. In re Auto Electric Repair & Parts Co., 41 F. Supp. 3, 1941 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 2592 (D. Ky. 1941).

Unrecorded chattel mortgage did not take precedence over tax lien. Allin v. Harrodsburg, 247 Ky. 360, 57 S.W.2d 45, 1933 Ky. LEXIS 406 (Ky. 1933).

The lien for taxes is superior to the inchoate right of dower. Maryland Casualty Co. v. Lewis, 276 Ky. 263, 124 S.W.2d 48, 1939 Ky. LEXIS 509 (Ky. 1939). See Stokes v. Commonwealth, 286 Ky. 391, 150 S.W.2d 892, 1941 Ky. LEXIS 257 (Ky. 1941); Chalk v. Chalk, 291 Ky. 702, 165 S.W.2d 534, 1942 Ky. LEXIS 310 (Ky. 1942).

The preference or priority of lien of classes of taxes other than ad valorem taxes is a question of legislative intent. It should be specially clear that such was the intent where the tax is of a special character to raise funds which do not go into the treasury for the general purposes of government. The state has power to confer priority of tax liens over other rights, but no act should be construed to do so unless the language used compels it. If the provision is in general terms, priority will not be given a retroactive effect so as to make the lien superior to liens existing at the time of enactment or to bona fide conveyances or transfers. Louisville Title Mortg. Co. v. Commonwealth, 299 Ky. 224, 184 S.W.2d 963, 1944 Ky. LEXIS 1041 (Ky. 1944).

Any taxes by a city or by a county assessed against particular real estate which was sold pursuant to foreclosure would have a priority over a recorded mortgage. Midland-Guardian Co. v. McElroy, 563 S.W.2d 752, 1978 Ky. App. LEXIS 490 (Ky. Ct. App. 1978).

Inasmuch as lienholders could have neither actual nor constructive notice of personal property taxes accruing two (2), three (3) and four (4) years after the lien, any portion of the tax bills of a city or a county on real or personal property other than the property assessed would be subject to the general principle of "first in time, first in right." Midland-Guardian Co. v. McElroy, 563 S.W.2d 752, 1978 Ky. App. LEXIS 490 (Ky. Ct. App. 1978).

Judgment lien would be given priority over Revenue Cabinet's tax lien, resulting from a jeopardy assessment pursuant to KRS 131.150, notwithstanding the priority ruled enacted in this section where the Revenue Cabinet failed to present any evidence regarding the validity or amount of its lien. Commonwealth, Revenue Cabinet v. Liberty Nat'l Bank, 858 S.W.2d 199, 1993 Ky. App. LEXIS 40 (Ky. Ct. App. 1993).

Under this section, the recording of a tax lien before the mortgage put mortgagee on notice of all prior and future assessments against the taxpayers, resulting in priority to the Revenue Cabinet for tax liens ahead of mortgagee. Liberty

Nat'l Bank & Trust Co. v. Vanderkraats, 899 S.W.2d 511, 1995 Ky. App. LEXIS 114 (Ky. Ct. App. 1995).

Unpublished decision: In foreclosure actions brought by a third-party purchaser of tax liens, the trial court erred in refusing to order pro rata distribution of the sale proceeds to all parties with valid tax liens. The purchaser was entitled to exercise the priority given liens resulting from unpaid ad valorem taxes in KRS 134.420(3). Tax Ease Lien Invs. 1, LLC v. Hinkle, 2012 Ky. App. Unpub. LEXIS 1037 (Ky. Ct. App. Oct. 19, 2012), review denied, ordered not published, 2013 Ky. LEXIS 519 (Ky. Aug. 21, 2013).

17. Purchaser at Tax Sale.

Where land was assessed in the name of a person who was merely an agent for a life tenant, a sale of the land for taxes passed no title, but the purchaser at the sale had a lien on the land for the amount paid by him. Rogers v. McAlister, 151 Ky. 488, 152 S.W. 571, 1913 Ky. LEXIS 530 (Ky. 1913).

Where land owned by married woman was assessed in the name of her husband "for wife," sale of land for taxes was invalid as against purchaser who bought land from married woman without notice of tax lien, but purchaser at tax sale had lien for amount paid by him. Wash v. Noel, 160 Ky. 847, 170 S.W. 197, 1914 Ky. LEXIS 550 (Ky. 1914).

The tax lien is a lien on the property itself, but in case of a sale for taxes the purchaser acquires only such title as was possessed by the person in whose name the tax was assessed, plus a lien for the amount of the purchase money. Smith v. Young, 178 Ky. 376, 198 S.W. 1166, 1917 Ky. LEXIS 742 (Ky. 1917).

18. Life Tenant.

Where land is in the possession of a life tenant, it is the duty of the life tenant to pay the taxes assessed during his term, but the lien for such taxes is against the land itself and not merely against the life estate, and if the life tenant dies without paying the taxes the land passes to the remainderman subject to the lien. Bradley v. Sears, 138 Ky. 230, 127 S.W. 782, 1910 Ky. LEXIS 63 (Ky. 1910).

Where land was assessed in name of life tenant, purchaser at tax sale acquired title only to the life estate, and a lien on the remainder interests, and he was entitled to enforce this lien against the remaindermen even though they did not bring action to recover possession of the land from him until more than five (5) years after the sale. Smith v. Young, 178 Ky. 376, 198 S.W. 1166, 1917 Ky. LEXIS 742 (Ky. 1917).

19. Rentals.

The fact that a mortgagee has the right to pay taxes on mortgaged property out of rentals pledged to secure indebtedness does not operate to extend lien of taxing authority to rentals. Anderson v. Bush, 290 Ky. 51, 160 S.W.2d 395, 1942 Ky. LEXIS 363 (Ky. 1942).

20. Payment to Safeguard Security Interest.

Although some of the proceeds from the foreclosure sale of a mortgaged property were used to extinguish the tax liability on the property thereby reducing the amount that the mortgagee would have obtained from the foreclosure sale, the mortgagee could not recover from the nonassuming grantee of the mortgagor the amount of delinquent taxes paid out of the proceeds of the sale of the mortgaged property, because although the mortgagee was aware of the risk of possible displacement of its security interest by a tax lien on the mortgaged premises, it did not safeguard its interest by actually paying the delinquent taxes on the property. Lincoln Sav. Bank v. Hayes, 671 F.2d 198, 1982 U.S. App. LEXIS 21732 (6th Cir. Ky. 1982).

Analysis

1. Priorities.
2. Lien.

1. Priorities.

Unpublished decision: In foreclosure actions brought by a third-party purchaser of tax liens, the trial court erred in refusing to order pro rata distribution of the sale proceeds to all parties with valid tax liens. The purchaser was entitled to exercise the priority given liens resulting from unpaid ad valorem taxes in KRS 134.420(3). Tax Ease Lien Invs. 1, LLC v. Hinkle, 2012 Ky. App. Unpub. LEXIS 1037 (Ky. Ct. App. Oct. 19, 2012), review denied, ordered not published, 2013 Ky. LEXIS 519 (Ky. Aug. 21, 2013).

2. Lien.

Unpublished decision: Because creditor's statutory lien arose by operation of law when debtor failed to pay real estate taxes under KRS 134.420, and tax debt could be collected against debtor personally, 11 U.S.C.S. § 522(f)(2)(A) required the lien to be included in the impairment-exemption calculation, so debtor could avoid lien in its entirety. LPP Mortg., LTD v. Radcliffe, 2005 U.S. App. LEXIS 5198 (6th Cir. Ky. Mar. 30, 2005).

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

A list of delinquent taxes need only cover five (5) back years. OAG 61-133.

The state of Kentucky has a continuing lien on all moneys due from the state to any veteran for the veterans' bonus. OAG 61-445.

A city of the sixth class that has adopted the county assessment and uses the calendar year as its fiscal year could adopt an ordinance under which city real estate taxes become delinquent on November 1 and a penalty of ten percent (10%) and interest of six percent (6%) are added subsequent to that date. OAG 67-61.

After five (5) years there is a statutory bar to the collection of the city tax due, either by foreclosure on the property or a personal suit against the taxpayer himself. OAG 67-478.

Where there has been a prior recorded lien, such lien would be superior to a subsequent tax lien that might arise and of necessity must be satisfied before the tax bill is satisfied. OAG 67-478.

In light of this section, there is no necessity for filing any kind of lien with the county court clerk to evidence the lien for delinquent taxes. OAG 71-244.

Where a real estate company whose charter had expired owned a number of lots that could not be improved because of zoning laws and had no value except to the owner of an adjacent lot and which lots would not bring enough to cover court costs and delinquent taxes, the statute of limitations, if affirmatively pleaded, would bar the collection of any delinquent taxes more than five (5) years prior to the current certificates of delinquency on file in the county clerk's office but there is no authority in the statutes to waive in whole or in part certificates of delinquency which constitute valid liens against the property. OAG 73-365.

The tax lien under this section includes a lien on automobiles. OAG 74-685.

Under KRS 92.590(2), 92.650 (now repealed) and former subsection (2) of this section delinquent tax bills of third class cities are liens against the person's property located within such city and may be collected by the city as provided for in the statutes for the collection of such bills; however, there is no authority that would permit the city clerk to refuse to accept payment for current taxes unless all delinquent taxes not barred by limitations are paid in full. OAG 76-634.

A car with a personal property tax lien on it may be sold or otherwise alienated, subject to the tax lien as described in this section. OAG 78-134.

The tax lien, to be effective, does not require any notice of or filing of the lien with the county clerk. OAG 78-134.

The filing fee is to be added to the cost to the delinquent taxpayer to be paid by the taxpayer when he obtains a release of the lien. OAG 78-547.

This section uses the mandatory word "shall" for liens filed by third through sixth-class cities, and, therefore, a fourth-class city is required to file such lien. OAG 78-547.

Since delinquent taxes are a debt to the state, under KRS 44.030, a lien for taxes, under this section, which has accrued is superior to a materialman's lien, under KRS 376.230, thereafter filed and perfected. OAG 80-15.

The legislative intent is that a tax lien becomes perfected automatically without notice at the time the liability becomes fixed. OAG 80-15.

Administrative action to enforce a tax lien created by this section on soil and water conservation district taxes is the responsibility of the board of directors of the watershed conservancy district under KRS 262.745. OAG 81-112.

The lien provided for in subsection (1) of this section is not in conflict with KRS 91.481 to 91.527 and that lien is of equal rank for the state, county and city; KRS 91.481 to 91.527 provide a method for the city to enforce its lien, but all other taxing districts must be made parties. OAG 82-191.

So much of the lien granted by subsection (1) of this section as remains after the sale of the delinquent taxpayer's personalty, as provided in KRS 134.430 (now repealed), shall constitute a first lien against the assessed real estate subject to the tax lien. OAG 82-380.

When KRS 134.470 (now repealed) and subsection (1) of this section are read in conjunction with the wording of KRS 134.500(1) (now repealed), it is apparent that the state, county and other taxing districts have a lien against the taxpayer's land as soon as the taxes become delinquent, and when the certificate of delinquency is issued at the sale of the tax bill by the sheriff, it becomes the evidence of the lien against the taxpayer's property. Therefore, the certificate of delinquency should be filed in the county clerk's office in the same manner as all other tax liens against property are filed in county clerk's office, immediately after the sheriff settles with the state pursuant to KRS 134.450(3) (now repealed), and the county clerk must maintain an index of all certificates of delinquency so filed. OAG 82-380.

The lien established under subsection (1) of this section is superior to all other liens including a prior recorded first mortgage; subsection (2) of this section creates a general tax lien which is inferior to a prior recorded mortgage or security interest. OAG 83-477.

A tax lien on an automobile, once perfected by the filing required under KRS 134.148(2) (now repealed) must be paid off by one who seeks to repossess and retransfer an automobile pursuant to a prior recorded security interest; the clerk is prohibited by KRS 186.193 and 186.232 from transferring title until the lien is paid and released. OAG 83-477.

A bona fide purchaser is one who has purchased property for value without any notice of any defects in the title of the seller; if the purchaser of the property has no notice of the city's lien and thus qualifies as a bona fide purchaser, that purchaser may defeat the city's lien against the property. OAG 84-222.

The owner of a certificate of delinquency is legally entitled to enforce his lien against the delinquent property at any time after three years from the date of the issuance of the certificate of delinquency up to eight (8) years from the date of the issuance of the certificate of delinquency. OAG 84-334.

134.421. Apportionment of taxes on real property when one owner does not pay taxes due.

(1) When real property is owned by two (2) or more persons and had been assessed as one (1) tract, and one (1) owner does not pay his or her share of the taxes due, the taxes owed by the owner failing to pay may be paid by any other owner. Any owner who pays the amount due by another owner under this section shall have a lien on the delinquent taxpayer's portion of the real property for the amount paid and may file suit to recover the amount paid.

(2)(a) Whenever one (1) tax claim or certificate of delinquency exists on land which is divided both as to ownership and area into two (2) or more tracts, any person or persons owning any of the tracts may, upon ten (10) days' notice given to the owners of the other tracts, make application to the county attorney and to the property valuation administrator of the county for an apportionment of the assessment.

(b) The property valuation administrator of the county may make an apportionment of the amount of the encumbrance among the owners of each tract according to the value of their respective interests as shown by the proof introduced by them.

(c) Any owner of a tract for which the tax claim or certificate of delinquency was apportioned may have the encumbrance on his or her property released by paying to the sheriff his or her pro rata share of the tax claim or to the county clerk his or her pro rata share of the certificate of delinquency as ascertained by the decision of apportionment.

(d) The determination of the property valuation administrator of the county shall be final unless an appeal therefrom to the Circuit Court is prosecuted within sixty (60) days from the issuance of the decision.

NOTES TO DECISIONS1. Set-off.

Holder of legal title to parcel of land who had paid taxes on the parcel was entitled to recover, from another person who held a title bond covering a portion of the land, the amount of the tax apportionable to such portion, but recovery could not be had by way of setoff in an action on contract brought against the holder of the legal title by the holder of the title bond. Montgomery v. Montgomery, 119 Ky. 761, 78 S.W. 465, 25 Ky. L. Rptr. 1682, 1904 Ky. LEXIS 127 (Ky. 1904) (decided under prior law).

134.452. Third-party purchaser of certificate of delinquency — Fees — Reasonable attorneys' litigation fees — Collection limitations — Notice to proper owner — Legislative findings.

(1) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this chapter, a third-party purchaser of a certificate of delinquency shall be entitled to collect only the following prelitigation fees:

(a) The amount actually paid for the certificate of delinquency;

(b) Interest as provided in KRS 134.125, calculated on the amount actually paid to the county clerk from the date the certificate of delinquency was purchased until paid; and

(c)1. Prelitigation attorneys' fees, which may include amounts incurred for collection efforts and costs related to notification, processing, research, communication, compliance, legal costs, documentation, and similar expenses, from the date the third-party purchaser purchases the certificate of delinquency from the county clerk, to the date on which the notice required by KRS 134.490(2) is mailed by the third-party purchaser.

2. The amount that may be collected by the third-party purchaser as prelitigation attorneys' fees shall be subject to the following limitations:

a.i. If the amount paid for a certificate of delinquency is between five dollars ($5) and three hundred fifty dollars ($350), actual reasonable fees incurred up to one hundred percent (100%) of the amount of the certificate of delinquency, not to exceed three hundred fifty dollars ($350);

ii. If the amount paid for a certificate of delinquency is between three hundred fifty-one dollars ($351) and seven hundred dollars ($700), actual reasonable fees incurred up to eighty percent (80%) of the amount of the certificate of delinquency, not to exceed five hundred sixty dollars ($560); and

iii. If the amount paid for a certificate of delinquency is above seven hundred one dollars ($701), actual reasonable fees incurred up to seventy percent (70%) of the amount of the certificate of delinquency, not to exceed seven hundred dollars ($700); and

b. If a third-party purchaser is the owner of more than one (1) certificate of delinquency against the same taxpayer, actual and reasonable prelitigation attorneys' fees for all certificates of delinquency against the same taxpayer shall not exceed one and one-half (1.5) times the maximum amount permitted in subdivision a. of this subparagraph for the largest tax bill owed by the taxpayer.

3. The amounts allowed by subparagraph 2. of this paragraph shall not accrue to the account of the delinquent taxpayer, nor be charged by the third-party purchaser against the delinquent taxpayer all at one (1) time unless the amount of certificate of delinquency is one hundred seventy-five dollars ($175) or less. The third-party purchaser may accrue to the account of the delinquent taxpayer, and charge the delinquent taxpayer an amount equal to the lesser of prelitigation attorney's fees incurred by the third-party purchaser since the prior notice was sent or one hundred seventy-five dollars ($175), for each notice sent to the delinquent taxpayer, provided that:

a. The total aggregate amount of prelitigation attorneys' fees that may accrue to the account of the delinquent taxpayer and be charged by the third-party purchaser against the delinquent taxpayer shall not exceed the limitations established by subparagraph 2.a. of this paragraph; and

b. Additional fees shall not accrue to the account of the delinquent taxpayer or be charged by the third-party purchaser against the delinquent taxpayer more frequently than every ninety (90) days, regardless of how many notices the third-party purchaser may send.

(2) If the delinquent taxpayer and the third-party purchaser enter into a payment agreement, the third-party purchaser may collect the installment payment processing fee authorized by KRS 134.490(5).

(3)(a) In addition to the fees established by subsections (1), (2), and (4) of this section, a third-party purchaser may collect actual, reasonable attorneys' fees and costs that arise due to the prosecution of collection remedies or the protection of a certificate of delinquency that is involved in litigation. Fees and costs permitted under this subsection include fees and costs incurred from the first day after the notice required by KRS 134.490(2) is sent through the day any litigation is finally concluded.

(b) For purposes of this subsection:

1. Actual attorneys' litigation fees up to two thousand dollars ($2,000) may be reasonable if the fees are based upon documented work performed at a rate commensurate with hourly rates customarily charged by private attorneys in that jurisdiction for similar services. A flat rate, without hours documented for work performed, may be reasonable if the flat fee is determined to be discounted from the usual and customary rates for comparable work; and

2. Any attorneys' litigation fee in excess of two thousand dollars ($2,000) shall be allowed if authorized by the court upon a finding that the third-party purchaser incurred actual attorneys' litigation fees in excess of two thousand dollars ($2,000) and that those attorneys' litigation fees were warranted based upon the complexity of the issues presented in the litigation.

(4) The third-party purchaser may collect administrative fees incurred for preparing, recording, and releasing an assignment of the certificate of delinquency in the county clerk's office, not to exceed one hundred fifteen dollars ($115).

(5) The General Assembly recognizes that third-party purchasers play an important role in the delinquent tax collection system, allowing taxing districts to receive needed funds on a timely basis. The General Assembly has carefully considered the fees and charges authorized by this section, and has determined that the amounts established are reasonable based on the costs of collection and fees and charges incurred in litigation.

(6) A certificate of delinquency owned by a third-party purchaser shall be deemed a general intangible for the purposes of Article 9 of KRS Chapter 355.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Analysis

1. Bankruptcy.
2. Standing.
3. Construction.
4. Postjudgment Interest.
5. Attorneys' Fees.

1. Bankruptcy.

Debtors were denied confirmation of a Chapter 13 plan that did not provide for full payment, including interest per 11 U.S.C.S. § 511 at the rate of 12% as provided by KRS 134.452 and KRS 134.125, and including all attorneys fees sought by the creditor who was seeking to enforce a certificate of delinquency for real estate taxes, because all of the elements of the claim as prosecuted by the creditor were properly included per 11 U.S.C.S. § 502(b)(2) and 11 U.S.C.S. § 506(b) and because the legal fees were precipitated by the untenable positions taken by debtors. In re Crigler, 2011 Bankr. LEXIS 1321 (Bankr. E.D. Ky. Apr. 8, 2011).

2. Standing.

Mortgagee had first-party standing to contest an agreed judgment between a mortgagor and a purchaser of the mortgagor's delinquent property tax liens because the mortgagee was a lienholder under KRS 426.006 and would suffer direct financial injury as the tax lien was superior under KRS 134.420(3); the amount of the tax lien was increased by the included attorney's fees under KRS 134.452, which the mortgagee contended were unreasonable. Tax Ease Lien Invs. 1 v. Commonwealth Bank & Trust, 384 S.W.3d 141, 2012 Ky. LEXIS 142 (Ky. 2012).

3. Construction.

There is no indication that it was the legislature's intent to allow a third-party purchaser to essentially hold property hostage for the sole purpose of increasing the interest and charges on the lien; such is an untenable and unconscionable position, and contrary to the public policy of the Commonwealth. M.D. Wood v. Tax Ease Lien Invs. 1, LLC, 425 S.W.3d 897, 2014 Ky. App. LEXIS 36 (Ky. Ct. App. 2014).

4. Postjudgment Interest.

Trial court erred when it concluded as a matter of law that a third-party tax bill purchaser was not entitled to 12 percent statutory interest where the mandatory language of Ky. Rev. Stat. Ann. § 134.452 compelled the award of interest, accruing from the date the purchaser acquired the certificate of delinquency through the date of the trial court's order, and the statute did not permit the trial court to reduce or deny such an award. Hazel Enters., Llc v. Mitchuson, 524 S.W.3d 495, 2017 Ky. App. LEXIS 304 (Ky. Ct. App. 2017).

5. Attorneys' Fees.

Trial court did not err in refusing to award the purchaser litigation fees and costs where it was difficult, if not impossible, to discern from the purchaser's affidavit and other items in the record precisely what fees included in its initial demand it attributed to work performed as of the date of the demand. Hazel Enters., Llc v. Mitchuson, 524 S.W.3d 495, 2017 Ky. App. LEXIS 304 (Ky. Ct. App. 2017).

Circuit court properly awarded a certificate of delinquency holder interest on the certificate and attorney fees because the judgment and order of sale did not resolve the issue of interest, the costs and attorney fees could not be adjudicated at the time the final judgment and order of sale was entered, even if post-judgment interest were properly denied, the holder was entitled to simple interest on the underlying certificate of delinquency until the date of the order of distribution, and the holder was awarded fees well in excess of the $2,000 statutory limit without any finding that those fees were warranted by the complexity of the case. Ky. Tax Bill Servicing, Inc. v. Fultz, 567 S.W.3d 148, 2018 Ky. App. LEXIS 304 (Ky. Ct. App. 2018).

Property owners' did not prevail in a class suit alleging that a collector of delinquent property tax bills committed fraud by assessing fabricated an unreasonable attorney's fees and costs because the charged title report fees and costs were actual fees and the pre-litigation legal fees were necessary and reasonable. Brown v. Tax Ease Lien Servicing, Inc., 776 Fed. Appx. 291, 2019 FED App. 287N, 2019 U.S. App. LEXIS 16778 (6th Cir. Ky. 2019).

Ky. Rev. Stat. Ann. § 134.452(3) indicates an award of attorney's fees is permitted if the amount is reasonable and warranted; it does not create a presumption of reasonableness of charges for attorney's fees up to $2,000. Mid South Capital Partners, LP v. Adkins, 626 S.W.3d 688, 2020 Ky. App. LEXIS 132 (Ky. Ct. App. 2020).

It appears from the text of Ky. Rev. Stat. Ann. § 134.452(5) that its purpose is to declare that the legislature found its own calculated amounts detailed in this statute to be reasonable ceilings for recovery of attorney fees. Mid South Capital Partners, LP v. Adkins, 626 S.W.3d 688, 2020 Ky. App. LEXIS 132 (Ky. Ct. App. 2020).

Proper method for determining actual and reasonable attorney's fees pursuant to the statute is as follows: a fee should consist of the product of counsel's reasonable hours, multiplied by a reasonable hourly rate, which provides a lodestar figure, which may be adjusted to account for various factors in the litigation. Using the lodestar method, a court may consider the complexity or simplicity of a proceeding to collect or protect the certificate of delinquency, the skill required, and the fee customarily charged in the locality for similar proceedings. Mid South Capital Partners, LP v. Adkins, 626 S.W.3d 688, 2020 Ky. App. LEXIS 132 (Ky. Ct. App. 2020).

It is the trial court's role to follow the statutory language to provide a third-party purchaser of a certificate of delinquency with the means to recover and protect its tax lien, as well as to safeguard the public against possible abuses of the judicial process by not allowing excessive attorney's fees and costs to be imposed upon economically burdened citizens. Mid South Capital Partners, LP v. Adkins, 626 S.W.3d 688, 2020 Ky. App. LEXIS 132 (Ky. Ct. App. 2020).

Applying the lodestar method, the trial court did not abuse its discretion in awarding reduced attorney's fees and costs to appellant; the final judgment and order of sale was entered on appellant's dispositive motions with no answer having been filed by appellee. The trial court was hesitant to award the full amount of the claimed fees and costs when they so greatly exceeded the face value of the certificate of delinquencies at issue. Mid South Capital Partners, LP v. Adkins, 626 S.W.3d 688, 2020 Ky. App. LEXIS 132 (Ky. Ct. App. 2020).

134.490. Actions by owner of certificate of delinquency to collect or foreclose certificate — Notice by third-party purchaser to taxpayer — Installment payment plans.

(1)(a) Within fifty (50) days after the delivery of a certificate of delinquency by the clerk to a third-party purchaser, the third-party purchaser shall send a notice to the delinquent taxpayer informing the delinquent taxpayer that the certificate of delinquency has been purchased by the third-party purchaser.

(b) At least annually thereafter, until the notice required by subsection (2) of this section is sent, the third-party purchaser shall send a notice to the delinquent taxpayer.

(c) The notices included in this subsection shall be sent by certified mail with proof of mailing and include the information required by subsection (3)(d) of this section. A copy of each notice shall be sent to each mortgagee who holds a mortgage on the property that is the subject of the certificate of delinquency.

(2) Anytime after the expiration of the one (1) year tolling period established by KRS 134.546, the third-party purchaser may institute an action to collect the amount due on a certificate of delinquency. At least forty-five (45) days before instituting a legal action, the third-party purchaser shall send a notice to the taxpayer and a copy of the notice to each mortgagee who holds a mortgage on the property by certified mail with proof of mailing. The notice shall:

(a) Inform the taxpayer that enforcement action will be taken;

(b) Include a statement advising the taxpayer that substantial additional administrative costs and fees associated with collection in addition to the amount due on the certificate of delinquency may be imposed and that collection actions may include foreclosure; and

(c) Include the information required by subsection (3) of this section.

The notice shall be in addition to any notice sent under subsection (1) of this section.

(3)(a)1. For certificates of delinquency for all property except property described in paragraph (b) of this subsection, third-party purchasers or their designees shall obtain from the office of the property valuation administrator of the county in which the real property is located the most recent address for the property owner.

2. To obtain information from the office of the property valuation administrator, the third-party purchaser shall, at the option of the property valuation administrator, either:

a. Obtain information from an up-to-date public access list or Web site offered by the property valuation administrator; or

b. Submit a list of addresses, map identification numbers, or parcel numbers for which updated information is requested to the property valuation administrator, who shall update his or her records with regard to the properties for which information is requested and provide the updated information to the third-party purchaser within ten (10) days.

3. For this service, the property valuation administrator may charge a fee not to exceed two dollars ($2) for each address provided or obtained.

4. Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this subsection, the third-party purchaser shall send the notices required by subsections (1) and (2) of this section to the address provided by the property valuation administrator. Unless the provisions of subparagraph 7. of this paragraph apply, the third-party purchaser shall not be required to send a notice to any party other than the owner of record as provided by the property valuation administrator at the time the notice is sent and the mortgagee as required by subsections (1) and (2) of this section.

5. If, due to insufficient staffing, the property valuation administrator is unable to provide the requested information to the third-party purchaser within ten (10) days of submission, the property valuation administrator shall immediately notify the third-party purchaser, and the third-party purchaser may send the notices required by subsections (1) and (2) of this section to the address reflected in the public records of the property valuation administrator.

6. Any notices sent pursuant to information obtained under this paragraph that are returned as undeliverable shall be re-sent by certified mail with proof of mailing addressed to the "Occupant" at the address of the property that is the subject of the certificate of delinquency. These notices shall be sent within twenty (20) days of receipt of the returned notice.

7. If a third-party purchaser becomes aware of a more recent or more accurate address for a delinquent taxpayer that is different from the address reflected in the records of the property valuation administrator, the third-party purchaser shall send notices to the updated address in the manner required by this subsection, and shall notify the property valuation administrator of the updated address.

8. If a third-party purchaser receives an address from the property valuation administrator during an address check after a first notice is sent and returned as undeliverable, and the address is the same as was originally provided, the third-party purchaser shall send the notice addressed to "Occupant" at the address of the property that is the subject of the certificate of delinquency in the manner required by this subsection.

(b)1. For certificates of delinquency relating to unmined coal, oil or gas reserves, or any other mineral or energy resources assessed separately from the surface real property pursuant to KRS 132.820, third-party purchasers or their designees shall obtain from the department the most recent address for the property owner.

2. To obtain information about a particular property, the third-party purchaser shall submit to the department a list of addresses, map identification numbers, parcel numbers, and any other information the department may require. The department shall:

a. Update its records with regard to the properties for which information is requested; and

b. Provide the updated information to the third-party purchaser within ten (10) business days.

3. For this service, the department may charge a fee not to exceed two dollars ($2) for each address provided.

4. The third-party purchaser shall send the notices required by subsections (1) and (2) of this section relating to unmined coal, oil or gas reserves, or any other mineral or energy resources assessed separately from the surface real property pursuant to KRS 132.820 to the address provided by the department. Unless the provisions of subparagraph 5.f. of this paragraph apply, the third-party purchaser shall not be required to send a notice to any party other than the owner of record as provided by the department at the time the notice is sent and the mortgagee as required by subsections (1) and (2) of this section.

5.a. Any notice sent pursuant to subsections (1) and (2) of this section based on information obtained pursuant to this paragraph and returned as undeliverable shall be submitted to the department within ten (10) days of receipt of the returned notice.

b. The department shall attempt to obtain an updated address for the owner of the property subject to the certificate of delinquency from the individual or entity filing the property tax return for the property.

c. The individual or entity filing the property tax return shall provide an address of the property owner upon request of the department.

d. The department shall provide any updated address information to the third-party purchaser.

e. If updated information is provided, the notices shall be re-sent by certified mail with proof of mailing to the updated address of the owner within ten (10) days of the receipt of the updated information from the department.

f. If a third-party purchaser becomes aware of a more recent or more accurate address for a delinquent taxpayer that is different from the address reflected in the records of the department, the third-party purchaser shall send notices to the updated address in the manner required by this subsection, and shall notify the department of the updated address.

(c) The third-party purchaser shall maintain complete and accurate records of all notices sent pursuant to this section.

(d) The notices required by this section shall include the following information:

1. A statement that the certificate of delinquency is a lien of record against the property for which delinquent taxes are owed;

2. A statement that the certificate bears interest at the rate provided in KRS 134.125;

3. A statement that if the certificate is not paid, it will be subject to collection as provided by law, and that collection actions may include foreclosure. The notice required by subsection (2) of this section shall also include a statement of the intent to institute legal action to collect the amount due;

4. A complete listing of the amount due, as of the date of the notice, broken down as follows:

a. The purchase price of the certificate of delinquency;

b. Interest accrued subsequent to the purchase of the certificate of delinquency; and

c. Fees imposed by the third-party purchaser;

5. If the third-party purchaser is required to register with the department as provided in KRS 134.128(3), for certificates of delinquency purchased after June 1, 2012, a statement informing the taxpayer that upon written request and the payment of a processing fee, the third-party purchaser will offer a payment plan; and

6. Information, in a format and with content as determined by the department, detailing the provisions of the law relating to third-party purchaser fees and charges.

(e) In addition, the notice shall provide the following information to the taxpayer:

1. The legal name of the third-party purchaser;

2. The third-party purchaser's physical address;

3. The third-party purchaser's mailing address for payments, if different from the physical address; and

4. The third-party purchaser's telephone number.

If the information required by this paragraph changes, the third-party purchaser shall, within thirty (30) days of the change becoming effective, send a notice to each taxpayer by certified mail with proof of mailing with the corrected information. The third-party purchaser shall also update contact information included in the records of the county clerk within ten (10) days of the change becoming effective. Failure to send the original notice or any correction notices shall result in the suspension of the accrual of all interest and any fees incurred by the third-party purchaser after that date until proper notice is given as required by this subsection.

(4) If a person entitled to pay a certificate of delinquency to a third-party purchaser makes payment on the certificate of delinquency to the county clerk under the conditions described in KRS 134.127(3)(d), the payment shall constitute payment in full, and no other amounts may be collected by the third-party purchaser from the person.

(5)(a) For certificates of delinquency purchased after June 1, 2012, at the written request of a delinquent taxpayer, a third-party purchaser required to register with the department as provided in KRS 134.128(3) shall provide a monthly installment payment plan to a taxpayer.

(b) The taxpayer and third-party purchaser shall sign an agreement detailing the terms of the installment payment plan.

(c) The third-party purchaser may impose a processing fee, not to exceed eight dollars ($8) per month to offset the administrative cost of providing the payment plan. No other fees, charges, interest, or other amounts not expressly authorized by this chapter shall be charged, assessed, or collected by the third-party purchaser.

(d) The existence of an agreement to provide a payment plan shall not impact the right of the third-party purchaser to pursue legal action if the delinquent taxpayer fails to follow the terms of the installment payment agreement.

(e) Upon default of a delinquent taxpayer:

1. The third-party purchaser shall retain all amounts paid, which shall be applied to the outstanding balance due; and

2. The third-party purchaser shall not be required to offer the delinquent taxpayer another opportunity for an installment payment plan.

(f) If a third-party purchaser who was required to offer payment plans pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection, subsequently does not purchase a sufficient number of certificates of delinquency to require registration with the department, the third-party purchaser shall continue to offer payment plans under the conditions established by this subsection for all delinquent taxpayers whose certificates of delinquency were purchased during a period in which the third-party purchaser was required to register with the department.

(g) A third-party purchaser who is not required to register with the department as provided in KRS 134.128(3), or who holds certificates of delinquency purchased prior to June 1, 2012, may voluntarily offer installment payment plans to delinquent taxpayers in accordance with the provisions of this subsection.

(h) The department may establish additional terms and conditions for installment payment plans in an administrative regulation.

(6) Any person to whom a third-party purchaser transfers or assigns a certificate of delinquency shall be considered a third-party purchaser under this chapter.

2. Right to Enforce Lien.
3. Proof of Mailing.

1. Right of Redemption.

The General Assembly has stated in unambiguous language that no right of redemption shall exist unless the property is acquired at the sale by the State, county, and taxing districts and then only so long as the Commissioner of Revenue has not sold the property to another purchaser and given a deed therefor. Barnett v. Commonwealth, 566 S.W.2d 794, 1978 Ky. App. LEXIS 532 (Ky. Ct. App. 1978).

2. Right to Enforce Lien.

Delinquency certificate purchaser was entitled to an award of attorney fees on its action to redeem two (2) certificates of delinquency that it purchased regarding claims against the Kentucky corporation for delinquent taxes, as statutory authority gave it the right, as a private purchaser of the delinquent taxes, to enforce the lien that state, county, city, or taxing district would have had a right to enforce had the delinquent taxes not been purchased by the private purchase, and the lien included the right to a reasonable amount of attorney fees. Flag Drilling Co. v. Erco, Inc., 156 S.W.3d 762, 2005 Ky. App. LEXIS 20 (Ky. Ct. App. 2005).

Third-party purchaser, such as the bank, could file suit pursuant to KRS 134.546(2)(b) to enforce the lien it had for unpaid ad valorem taxes represented by the certificate of delinquency it held. Since the liens that resulted from such unpaid taxes were not rendered inferior by the sale of certificates of delinquency from government entities to the third-party purchasers and, indeed, because the private owner of the lien was given a certificate of delinquency to "stand in the shoes" of the government entity trying to impose the lien, as recognized under KRS 134.490(2)(b), priority was given to liens resulting from such taxes irrespective of whether government entities or third parties held those liens, which also meant that proceeds regarding those liens had to be disbursed equally. United States Bank Nat'l Ass'n v. Tax Ease Lien Invs. 1, LLC, 356 S.W.3d 770, 2011 Ky. App. LEXIS 227 (Ky. Ct. App. 2011).

3. Proof of Mailing.

Court of Appeals erred in affirming a circuit court's summary judgment in favor of a tax lien purchaser in its action to foreclose its lien on the subject property and to collect the amounts the property owner owed because the affidavit from the purchaser's attorney tendered in support of its summary judgment motion—stating that "he caused" the notices "to be sent by first-class mail"—was not sufficient proof of mailing since it did not offer proof of a standard office mailing procedure designed to ensure that the notices were properly addressed and mailed by first-class mail, sworn to by someone with personal knowledge of that procedure, as well as proof of compliance with that specific procedure as to the particular notice at issue. Pleasant Unions, LLC v. Ky. Tax Co., LLC, 615 S.W.3d 39, 2021 Ky. LEXIS 1 (Ky. 2021).

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

This disposal of certificates of delinquency over three (3) years of age and less than eight (8) years of age by a sheriff's sale where the sheriff records the certificate and tax deed and makes full settlement with the county clerk would violate this section. OAG 77-557.

Where there has been a foreclosure sale it is a public sale, any and all persons in the sale being permitted to bid on the property and the property therefore being awarded to the highest bidder, and if a bidder higher than the one who holds the certificate of delinquency comes forward, then after satisfaction of the certificate of delinquency costs and all other penalties and interest the highest bidder at the sale is awarded the property. OAG 78-720.

County attorney's proposed action of collecting tax bills of high dollar value first was a reasonable classification based upon necessity in order that he not deplete his operating budget; after collecting the larger bills, however, if funds remained with which to continue to collect delinquent tax bills, he must do so. OAG 82-380.

If county attorney believes that a second notice sent to the delinquent taxpayer at the expiration of the redemption period may prove effective, he has the authority to prepare such a notice and mail it to the taxpayer. OAG 82-380.

134.547. Collection of delinquent taxes and assessment of omitted property.

(1) The department may act in the name of and in behalf of the state and in the name of and in behalf of any and all counties, school districts, and other taxing districts in the state to institute and prosecute any action or proceeding for the collection of delinquent taxes and the assessment of omitted property. If the department assumes the duties of collecting the delinquent taxes assessed under the authority of KRS Chapter 132, it shall have all the powers, rights, duties, and authority conferred generally upon the department by the Kentucky Revised Statutes, including but not limited to Chapters 131, 132, 133, 134, and 135.

(2) Nothing contained in this chapter shall prevent the department from assessing any property in accordance with the provisions of KRS 136.020, 136.030, 136.050, or 136.120 to 136.180.

(3) The department may require the use of any reports, forms, or databases necessary to administer the law in connection with the collection of delinquent taxes.

3. Attorneys.
4. Ad Valorem Taxes.
5. Omitted Railroad Property.
6. Inheritance Tax.
7. Liquor Tax.
8. Distraint Proceedings.

1. Revenue Commissioner.

Revenue commissioner having determined that certain river barge companies were subject to franchise taxes, had power to settle in good faith unliquidated tax claims against companies for such taxes, so as to require approval of settlement by circuit court. Commonwealth ex rel. Reeves v. American Barge Line Co., 253 S.W.2d 622, 1952 Ky. LEXIS 1118 (Ky. 1952).

2. Penalty.

Subsection (1) of this section which transfers to and vests in the commissioner of revenue all powers and authority heretofore or now exercised by revenue agents, auditor's agents and other authorized agents in relation to bringing actions for recovery of delinquent state taxes, and subsection (2) of KRS 134.400 (renumbered as KRS 134.552) providing that the 20 percent penalty collected on delinquent taxes shall be paid into the state treasury and not to the particular agents instituting the action, modify subsection (1) of KRS 135.060, which authorizes a 20 percent overriding penalty on income taxes, interest and penalties recovered in a suit instituted by a field agent, accountant or attorney employed by the commissioner of revenue, so that the 20 percent penalty must be paid by all taxpayers against whom a judgment is recovered for delinquent taxes, regardless of whether the action is instituted by the commissioner of revenue or by an agent of his. Curd v. Commonwealth, 312 Ky. 457, 227 S.W.2d 1003, 1950 Ky. LEXIS 677 (Ky. 1950).

3. Attorneys.

Attorneys employed under this section are independent contractors, and are not subject to salary limitation imposed by Ky. Const., § 246. Talbott v. Public Service Com., 291 Ky. 109, 163 S.W.2d 33, 1942 Ky. LEXIS 174 (Ky. 1942), overruled, Pardue v. Miller, 306 Ky. 110, 206 S.W.2d 75, 1947 Ky. LEXIS 953 (Ky. 1947).

Staff attorneys of the Department of Revenue are departmental employees and, therefore, they are not independent contractors falling in the category of field agents, accountants and attorneys referred to in this section; it would naturally follow that the field agents, accountants and attorneys referred to in KRS 135.060(2) are the same ones mentioned in this section. Circle "C" Coal Co. v. Commonwealth, 628 S.W.2d 883, 1981 Ky. App. LEXIS 317 (Ky. Ct. App. 1981).

4. Ad Valorem Taxes.

Where sheriff had made levy for purpose of collecting ad valorem tax, and taxpayer had filed suit to enjoin levy, revenue agent had no authority to bring action to collect tax while such proceedings were pending, and where injunction suit was dismissed by court and taxpayer paid tax to sheriff, revenue agent was not entitled to collect 20 percent penalty. Commonwealth v. Louisville Water Co., 132 Ky. 305, 116 S.W. 712, 1909 Ky. LEXIS 116 (Ky. 1909).

With respect to ad valorem taxes, the Department of Revenue has no authority to maintain an action for collection until the ordinary processes provided for collection by the sheriff have been exhausted. Commonwealth v. Louisville Water Co., 132 Ky. 305, 116 S.W. 712, 1909 Ky. LEXIS 116 (Ky. 1909).

5. Omitted Railroad Property.

State tax commission (now Board of Tax Appeals) is not denied power to have omitted railroad property assessed on theory that subsection (1) of this section expressly denies that power by empowering commissioner of revenue to act in behalf of the counties, schools, and other taxing districts while expressly excluding cities, since provision in former subsection (3) that it shall not affect authority of state tax commission (now Board of Tax Appeals) to assess railroad and certain other public service corporations refers to omitted property and collection of delinquent taxes, and embraces in power lodged in Department of Revenue or state tax commission (now Board of Tax Appeals) added or supplemental assessments as well as original assessments. Newport v. Pennsylvania R. Co., 287 Ky. 613, 154 S.W.2d 719, 1941 Ky. LEXIS 600 (Ky. 1941).

6. Inheritance Tax.

Revenue agent had authority to institute proceedings necessary to collect inheritance tax, but not until tax became delinquent under terms of inheritance tax law. Commonwealth v. Bingham's Adm'r, 187 Ky. 749, 220 S.W. 727, 1920 Ky. LEXIS 200 (Ky. 1920).

7. Liquor Tax.

The proper party to bring action for collection of liquor tax was the commissioner of revenue, not the commonwealth's attorney of the county in which criminal prosecution for violation of statute had been instituted. Kentucky ex rel. Martin v. Morris Wholesale Liquor Distributing Co., 29 F. Supp. 310, 1939 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 2306 (D. Ky. 1939).

8. Distrain Proceedings.

Distrain proceedings constitute a wholly independent collection procedure which may be followed without regard to whether an action to enforce a tax lien has been previously brought, where the proceedings are held upon due notice, in circuit court, with provision made for the taxpayer to present any defenses to the collection which he might have, as well as an opportunity to the person distrained. Commonwealth ex rel. Carpenter v. Collins & May, 593 S.W.2d 887, 1980 Ky. App. LEXIS 295 (Ky. Ct. App. 1980).

An original proceeding under Chapter 135, without the prior proceedings under this chapter, would not be unconstitutional as denying due process of law. Commonwealth ex rel. Carpenter v. Collins & May, 593 S.W.2d 887, 1980 Ky. App. LEXIS 295 (Ky. Ct. App. 1980).

134.590. Refund of ad valorem taxes or taxes held unconstitutional.

(1) When the appropriate state government agency determines that a taxpayer has paid ad valorem taxes into the state treasury when no taxes were due or has paid under a statute held unconstitutional, the state government agency which administers the tax shall refund the money, or cause it to be refunded, to the person who paid the tax. The state government agency shall not authorize a refund to a person who has paid the tax due on any tract of land unless the taxpayer has paid the entire tax due the state on the land.

(2) No state government agency shall authorize a refund unless each taxpayer individually applies for a refund within two (2) years from the date the taxpayer paid the tax. Each claim or application for a refund shall be in writing and state the specific grounds upon which it is based. Denials of refund claims or applications may be protested and appealed in accordance with KRS 49.220 and 131.110. No state government agency shall refund ad valorem taxes, except those held unconstitutional, unless the taxpayer has properly followed the administrative remedy procedures established through the protest provisions of KRS 131.110, the appeal provisions of KRS 133.120, the correction provisions of KRS 133.110 and 133.130, or other administrative remedy procedures.

(3) If a taxpayer pays city, urban-county, county, school district, consolidated local government, or special district ad valorem taxes to a city, urban-county, county, school district, consolidated local government, or special district when no taxes were due or the amount paid exceeded the amount finally determined to be due, the taxes shall be refunded to the person who paid the tax.

(4) Refunds of ad valorem taxes shall be authorized by the mayor or chief finance officer of any city, consolidated local government, or urban-county government for the city, consolidated local government, or urban-county government or for any special district for which the city, consolidated local government, or urban-county government is the levying authority, by the county judge/executive of any county for the county or special district for which the fiscal court is the levying authority, or by the chairman or finance officer of any district board of education.

(5) Upon proper authorization, the sheriff or collector shall refund the taxes from current tax collections he or she holds. If there are no such funds, the district's finance officer shall make the refunds. The sheriff or collector shall receive credit on the next collection report to the district for any refunds the sheriff or collector makes.

(6) No refund shall be made unless each taxpayer individually applies within two (2) years from the date payment was made. If the amount of taxes due is in litigation, the taxpayer shall individually apply for refund within two (2) years from the date the amount due is finally determined. Each claim or application for a refund shall be in writing and state the specific grounds upon which it is based. No refund for ad valorem taxes, except those held unconstitutional, shall be made unless the taxpayer has properly followed the administrative remedy procedures established through the protest provisions of KRS 131.110, the appeal provisions of KRS 133.120, the correction provisions of KRS 133.110 and 133.130, or other administrative remedy procedures.

(7) Notwithstanding other statutory provisions, for property subject to a tax rate that is set each year based on the certified assessment, a taxing district may recover any loss of ad valorem tax revenue it suffers due to the issuance of refunds by adjusting the following tax year's tax rate.

1. Application.

This section applies only to taxes. Excessive costs taxed by the master commissioner of Jefferson County, and paid into the treasury, cannot be recovered under this section. Commonwealth use of Bouteiller v. Ray, 275 Ky. 758, 122 S.W.2d 750, 1938 Ky. LEXIS 496 (Ky. 1938).

This section, which authorizes reimbursements for unconstitutional taxes, as opposed to overpayments, does not provide for interest; and the tax interest rate statute, KRS 131.183, applies only to overpayments. Commonwealth Revenue Cabinet v. St. Ledger, 955 S.W.2d 539, 1997 Ky. App. LEXIS 57 (Ky. Ct. App. 1997).

The statute is expressly limited to refunds for ad valorem taxes or unconstitutional taxes and is not applicable to an occupational tax which is voided because the ordinance implementing it was not properly enacted. Maximum Mach. Co. v. City of Shepherdsville, 17 S.W.3d 890, 2000 Ky. LEXIS 29 (Ky. 2000).

Statute governing method used to obtain refunds of excessive or unconstitutional ad valorem tax payments, KRS 134.590 did not confer jurisdiction over municipal ad valorem real property taxes upon the Kentucky Board of Tax Appeals, and, thus, the trial court erred in dismissing the real property owners' class action lawsuit filed in the trial court on the ground that it should have been filed with the Kentucky Board of Tax Appeal. Light v. City of Louisville, 93 S.W.3d 696, 2002 Ky. App. LEXIS 2343 (Ky. Ct. App. 2002).

Where a city's flat rate tax was a specific or per unit tax and not based on value, it was invalid and unconstitutional, and the tax could not have been deemed ad valorem by judicial action and thereby come within KRS 134.590(3); it was error for an intermediate appellate court to apply that statute in holding that a taxpayer did not have standing to establish class certification for refund purposes. City of Bromley v. Smith, 149 S.W.3d 403, 2004 Ky. LEXIS 269 (Ky. 2004).

Boards sued by the taxpayers over the Boards' compliance or lack thereof with a state statute governing increases or decreases in the tax levy neither alleged that the taxpayers lacked an adequate remedy under state law. As a result, the case that the taxpayers filed in state court that was removed to the federal trial court could be remanded back to the state trial court, not only because of the jurisdictional bar of the Tax Injunction Act, but also because the Boards did not show that the taxpayers had failed to exhaust their administrative remedies, as KRS 134.590 required. Coleman v. Campbell County Library Bd. of Trs., 901 F. Supp. 2d 925, 2012 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 140859 (E.D. Ky. 2012).

2. Class Suits.

A taxpayer may maintain a suit for a refund only for his own taxes, and may not sue on behalf of other taxpayers similarly situated. Swiss Oil Corp. v. Shanks, 208 Ky. 64, 270 S.W. 478, 1925 Ky. LEXIS 216 (Ky. 1925), cert. denied, 273 U.S. 407, 47 S. Ct. 393, 71 L. Ed. 709, 1927 U.S. LEXIS 976 (1927), aff'd, Swiss Oil Corp. v. Shanks, 273 U.S. 407, 47 S. Ct. 393, 71 L. Ed. 709, 1927 U.S. LEXIS 976 (1927). See Corbin Brick Co. v. Somerset, 280 Ky. 208, 132 S.W.2d 922, 1939 Ky. LEXIS 91 (Ky. 1939).

Kentucky's General Assembly omitted the phrase "in each case" from KRS 134.590 with the intent to change the law; the effect was to alter the statute to permit taxpayers requesting a refund for an ad valorem tax to bring the claim as a class action. City of Somerset v. Bell, 156 S.W.3d 321, 2005 Ky. App. LEXIS 3 (Ky. Ct. App. 2005).

3. Interest.

The taxpayer is not entitled to interest on the amount of taxes refunded to him. Coleman v. Reamer's Ex'r, 237 Ky. 603, 36 S.W.2d 22, 1931 Ky. LEXIS 657 (Ky. 1931).

It is a general rule that unless authorized by statute, interest is not collectible on taxes due the state, county, or subdivision thereof, nor on a refund thereof. Commonwealth ex rel. Allphin v. St. Matthews Gas & Electric Shop, Inc., 286 S.W.2d 911, 1956 Ky. LEXIS 435 (Ky. 1956).

4. Review or Correction of Assessment.

Collection of taxes under an illegal assessment may be enjoined. Negley v. Henderson Bridge Co., 107 Ky. 414, 54 S.W. 171, 21 Ky. L. Rptr. 1154, 1899 Ky. LEXIS 181 (Ky. 1899).

5. Application for Refund.

The property owners were not entitled to refunds automatically of the property taxes when the assessment was declared unconstitutional; subsection (6) of this section is not self-executing and application for refund must be made individually. Board of Education v. Taulbee, 706 S.W.2d 827, 1986 Ky. LEXIS 245 (Ky. 1986).

Although the city argued that a taxpayer's appeal from an administrative denial of an application for a refund of ad valorem tax payments that were improperly collected had to be taken to the Kentucky Board of Appeal rather than the trial court, the statutes cited in KRS 134.590(6) for that proposition all concerned property valuation administrator assessments and not the dispute that involved the real property owners, which was the dispute over the city's ad valorem tax rate. Light v. City of Louisville, 93 S.W.3d 696, 2002 Ky. App. LEXIS 2343 (Ky. Ct. App. 2002).

Although various provisions of KRS chs. 131 to 143A refer to city tax rates and revenues, those references, without more, do not amount to the addressing of city revenue and taxation matters by an administrative arm of central state government for purposes of Kentucky Board of Tax Appeals jurisdiction; thus, an action by taxpayers seeking a refund of improperly assessed ad valorem taxes did not fall within the Board's jurisdiction. City of Somerset v. Bell, 156 S.W.3d 321, 2005 Ky. App. LEXIS 3 (Ky. Ct. App. 2005).

As taxpayers' action sought refunds of improperly assessed ad valorem taxes rather than property value administrator assessments, the administrative procedures set forth in KRS 134.590(6) were not implicated and the taxpayers exhausted their administrative remedies when they filed their requests for refunds. City of Somerset v. Bell, 156 S.W.3d 321, 2005 Ky. App. LEXIS 3 (Ky. Ct. App. 2005).

Company could receive a refund of its payment of an ad valorem tax assessment, where the company filed its refund claim within the statute of limitations provided by KRS 134.590, protested the denial of its claim in accordance with KRS 131.110, and exhausted the administrative remedies available. Dep't of Revenue, Fin. & Admin. Cabinet v. Cox Interior, Inc., 2010 Ky. App. Unpub. LEXIS 1008 (Ky. Ct. App. Nov. 5, 2010), aff'd, 400 S.W.3d 240, 2013 Ky. LEXIS 288 (Ky. 2013).

"Or other administrative remedy procedures" language at the end of KRS 134.590(2) is an acknowledgement that a protest pursuant to KRS 131.110 is not the only administrative remedy procedure that may be applicable in a refund situation. Indeed, the disjunctive use of the word "or" which joins "other administrative remedy procedures," evidences an intention that all prior references in the sentence are not to be treated as conjunctive, or in steps, but in the disjunctive, and this affords the taxpayer the option to use any one and maybe all of the administrative remedies available. Dep't of Revenue, Fin. & Admin. Cabinet v. Cox Interior, Inc., 2010 Ky. App. Unpub. LEXIS 1008 (Ky. Ct. App. Nov. 5, 2010), aff'd, 400 S.W.3d 240, 2013 Ky. LEXIS 288 (Ky. 2013).

6. —Time Limitation.

If no litigation testing the constitutionality of a tax is filed in two (2) years, the time for administrative application will expire after two (2) years elapse from the date payment was made; thus, subsequent litigation which decides constitutionality will not benefit the taxpayer individually by extending the time for applying for a refund beyond the two (2) year limit included in subsection (6) of this section. Griggs v. Dolan, 759 S.W.2d 593, 1988 Ky. LEXIS 69 (Ky. 1988).

By this statute, the General Assembly has clearly expressed a will that tax payments made under a statute later held to be unconstitutional shall be refunded, provided application for refund is made within two (2) years from the date payment was made and regardless of whether the holding of unconstitutionality is to be applied only prospectively or retroactively. Revenue Cabinet v. Gossum, 887 S.W.2d 329, 1994 Ky. LEXIS 85 (Ky. 1994), limited, Dawson v. Birenbaum, 968 S.W.2d 663, 1998 Ky. LEXIS 56 (Ky. 1998).

The right to file for a refund under this section against the Board of Education expired two (2) years after the taxes were paid because the Board of Education was not a party to the litigation which held that taxes had been assessed by an unconstitutional method and were subject to refund; however, those taxpayers, members of the class whose taxes were collected by an unconstitutional method of assessment, had two (2) years from the finality date to apply for a refund for ad valorem taxes paid to other taxing agencies named in that law suit. Griggs v. Dolan, 759 S.W.2d 593, 1988 Ky. LEXIS 69 (Ky. 1988).

The plain meaning of subsection (2) of this section makes the two (2) year period after the filing for a tax refund, not the filing of a lawsuit, the appropriate period of limitations where suit was filed challenging the constitutionality of taxation statutes. St. Ledger v. Revenue Cabinet, 942 S.W.2d 893, 1997 Ky. LEXIS 17 (Ky. 1997), modified, 1997 Ky. LEXIS 45 (Ky. Apr. 24, 1997), reprinted, 942 S.W.2d 893 (Ky. 1997), limited, Dawson v. Birenbaum, 968 S.W.2d 663, 1998 Ky. LEXIS 56 (Ky. 1998).

Subsection (6) of this section applies only to refund claims against local taxing districts and not to refunds against the State. St. Ledger v. Revenue Cabinet, 942 S.W.2d 893, 1997 Ky. LEXIS 17 (Ky. 1997), modified, 1997 Ky. LEXIS 45 (Ky. Apr. 24, 1997), reprinted, 942 S.W.2d 893 (Ky. 1997), limited, Dawson v. Birenbaum, 968 S.W.2d 663, 1998 Ky. LEXIS 56 (Ky. 1998).

Tax imposed on certain intangible property was an ad valorem property tax, and thus the two-year statute of limitations contained in KRS 134.590 applied to an insurance company's claim for a refund rather than the four-year statute of limitations in KRS 134.580; neither equitable recoupment nor set-off were available to the insurance company. Am. Life & Accident Ins. Co. of Ky. v. Commonwealth, 173 S.W.3d 910, 2004 Ky. App. LEXIS 299 (Ky. Ct. App. 2004).

Taxpayer's failure to comply fully with the timeliness requirements of KRS 133.120 prevented the taxpayer from seeking a tax refund of an overpayment under the provisions of KRS 134.590. Commonwealth v. Cromwell Louisville Assocs., 2008 Ky. App. LEXIS 250 (Ky. Ct. App. Aug. 8, 2008), aff'd, 323 S.W.3d 1, 2010 Ky. LEXIS 230 (Ky. 2010).

No specific administrative protest procedures are required for a tax refund claim involving a classification issue, which may be brought within two years after payment; thus, by filing for a refund of tangible personal property tax and appealing its denial before seeking judicial review, a taxpayer properly challenged the classification and tax rate applied to manufacturing machinery without going through the expedited assessment protest procedure. Dep't of Revenue, Fin. & Admin. Cabinet v. Cox Interior, Inc., 400 S.W.3d 240, 2013 Ky. LEXIS 288 (Ky. 2013).

7. Prospective Effect of Unconstitutionality.

Where KRS 138.221 (now repealed) was declared unconstitutional effective May 31, 1988, the date upon which the New Energy Co. v. Limbach, 486 U.S. 269, 108 S. Ct. 1803, 100 L. Ed. 2d 302, 1988 U.S. LEXIS 2476 (1988) decision was rendered, taxes paid for any periods prior to that date were not paid "under a statute held unconstitutional" for purposes of this section. Revenue Cabinet, Commonwealth v. CSC Oil Co., 851 S.W.2d 497, 1993 Ky. App. LEXIS 55 (Ky. Ct. App. 1993).

8. Unconstitutional Statutes.

Where suit challenged the constitutionality of an exemption statute (former KRS 136.030(1)), a corporate shares tax statute (KRS 132.020), and involved the Revenue Cabinet and such statutes were declared unconstitutional, taxpayers were required to file for a refund for taxes paid under such statutes within two (2) years of payment of such taxes as provided in KRS 134.590(1) and (2), not two (2) years from the date of filing the lawsuit challenging the constitutionality of the statutes as provided in KRS 134.590(6). St. Ledger v. Revenue Cabinet, 942 S.W.2d 893, 1997 Ky. LEXIS 17 (Ky. 1997), modified, 1997 Ky. LEXIS 45 (Ky. Apr. 24, 1997), reprinted, 942 S.W.2d 893 (Ky. 1997), limited, Dawson v. Birenbaum, 968 S.W.2d 663, 1998 Ky. LEXIS 56 (Ky. 1998).

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

A Department of Revenue (now Revenue Cabinet) memorandum dated December 1981, which takes the administrative position that any qualified person who files for the exemption provided in the 1981 amendment to Const., § 170 by the end of 1981 is due an appropriate reduction in 1981 ad valorem taxes, is the "proper authorization" required by subsection (5) of this section to allow the sheriff to refund the taxes due to a qualified disabled person for 1981 ad valorem taxes collected and in his possession. OAG 82-12.

Letter of electric corporation attached to payment of ad valorem taxes protesting payment and asking the sheriff to sign the letter acknowledging receipt of the protest did not constitute a valid or legal protest, since such taxes are assessed by the Revenue Cabinet and thus protests of such assessments must be made to the Revenue Cabinet; therefore, the sheriff should not sign such protest. OAG 83-202.

AD VALOREM TAXES ON MOTOR VEHICLES AND MOTORBOATS

134.800. County clerk to collect ad valorem taxes on motor vehicles registered by him — Acceptable means of payment.

The county clerk shall be collector of all state, county, city, urban-county government, school, and special taxing district ad valorem taxes on motor vehicles registered by him. The clerk may accept payment of taxes due by any commercially acceptable means including credit cards.

History.

Enact. Acts 1982, ch. 264, § 7, effective January 1, 1984; 1986, ch. 431, § 1, effective July 15, 1986; 1998, ch. 209, § 17, effective March 30, 1998.

Compiler's Notes.

Section 21 of Acts 1998, ch. 209, provided that the 1998 amendments to this section "shall apply for assessments made on or after January 1, 1998."

NOTES TO DECISIONS

1. Constitutionality.

The fact that ad valorem taxes on motor vehicles are collected by the county clerk rather than the sheriff does not render the legislation unconstitutional; as long as the taxes are uniform, within a valid classification, it is not a "local or special" act. Kling v. Geary, 667 S.W.2d 379, 1984 Ky. LEXIS 216 (Ky. 1984).

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

The term "special taxing district" as used in this section does not refer to cities, but refers to such districts as library districts, ambulance districts, etc.; therefore, this section does not provide for the collection of municipal ad valorem taxes on motor vehicles. OAG 83-400.

While a fiscal court has the responsibility for aiding a sheriff in the payment of the sheriff's necessary expenses of his office, where the sheriff's revenues are insufficient, and where the county has available money through a properly budgeted item, the fiscal court has no authority to merely in the abstract make up a sheriff's loss of revenue occasioned by a statutory enactment such as this section providing for the collection of ad valorem taxes on motor vehicles by the county clerk. OAG 84-248.

The county clerk, even where a vehicle has been junked, destroyed, or is rendered inoperable on the highways, is still responsible for collecting the ad valorem taxes on the vehicle where the motor vehicle did not become junked, destroyed or rendered inoperable on the highways, until after January 1 of the tax year in question. OAG 84-309.

PENALTIES

134.990. Penalties.

(1) Any sheriff who fails to make his or her annual settlement available as required by KRS 134.192, or who fails to remit any amounts which are due to the taxing districts as required by law, shall be subject to indictment in his or her county of residence, and upon conviction shall be fined not less than five hundred dollars ($500) nor more than five thousand dollars ($5,000).

(2) Any sheriff who violates KRS 134.160(5) shall be fined not less than one hundred dollars ($100) nor more than five hundred dollars ($500) for each offense.

(3) Any sheriff who fails to maintain accurate records of ad valorem taxes collected, or who fails to collect taxes due that were collectable shall be held liable on his or her bond for the amount of the tax, penalties, interest, and costs due, plus a thirty percent (30%) penalty thereon. Action shall be brought in the Circuit Court of the county in which the tax is due, on motion of the county attorney or department on behalf of the state. All actions shall be prosecuted by the county attorney, who shall be entitled to retain the penalty recovered for services rendered if all amounts otherwise due are recovered and paid to the taxing jurisdictions entitled to receive those amounts.

(4) Any outgoing sheriff who fails for ten (10) days to comply with KRS 134.215 shall be fined not less than fifty dollars ($50) nor more than five hundred dollars ($500), and be liable on his or her bond for any default.

(5) In addition to the penalty imposed by KRS 134.191, any sheriff who fails to report as required in KRS 134.191 shall be fined not less than one hundred dollars ($100) nor more than five hundred dollars ($500).

(6) Any person who is required to register with the department pursuant to KRS 134.129 who fails to register shall be fined not less than ten dollars ($10) or more than five hundred dollars ($500) for each certificate of delinquency purchased while the person was not registered but should have been.

(7) Any person who willfully fails to comply with any administrative regulation promulgated under KRS 134.547(3) shall be fined not less than twenty dollars ($20) nor more than one thousand dollars ($1,000).

(8) Any county attorney who contracts with the department to collect certificates of delinquency and personal property certificates of delinquency who fails to send the notices required by KRS 134.504(4) shall be fined not less than ten dollars ($10) nor more than one hundred dollars ($100) for each notice that he or she fails to send.

(9) Any sheriff who fails to keep his or her books in an intelligible manner and according to the form prescribed by the department, or to make the entries required by law, shall be fined not less than fifty dollars ($50) nor more than two hundred dollars ($200) for each offense.

(10) Any third-party purchaser who attempts to circumvent the fairness of the sale process established pursuant to KRS 134.128 by involving multiple entities or individuals in the bidding process at the annual sale:

- (a) Shall be guilty of a Class A misdemeanor;
- (b) May have the registration required by KRS 134.129 revoked; and
- (c) May be prohibited from participating in future sales of priority certificates of delinquency.

The county attorney and the Attorney General shall have concurrent jurisdiction for the investigation and prosecution of offenses under this section.

(11)(a) Any third-party purchaser who knowingly:

- 1. Demands costs or fees in excess of those permitted by KRS 134.452;
- 2. Fails to send notices as required by KRS 134.490, or to include in the notices the information required by KRS 134.490; or
- 3. Fails to provide revised contact information as required by KRS 134.490; shall be subject to a fine of not less than one hundred dollars ($100) nor more than two hundred fifty dollars ($250) for the first offense, and for the second and any subsequent offenses, shall be fined not less than two hundred fifty dollars ($250) nor more than five hundred dollars ($500).

(b) As used in this subsection, “knowingly” has the same meaning as in KRS 501.020.

(12) Any person who fails to do an act required, or does an act forbidden, by any provision of this chapter for which no other penalty is provided shall be fined not less than ten dollars ($10) nor more than five hundred dollars ($500).

(1) Except where otherwise specially provided, all corporations required to make reports to the Department of Revenue shall pay all taxes due the state from them into the State Treasury at the same time as natural persons are required to pay taxes, and when delinquent shall pay the same rate of interest and penalties as natural persons who are delinquent.

(2) All state taxes assessed against any corporation under the provisions of KRS 136.120 to 136.200 shall be due and payable as provided in KRS 131.110. All county, city, school, and other taxes so assessed shall be due and payable thirty (30) days after notice of the amount of the tax is given by the collecting officer. The state, county, city, school, and other taxes found to be due on any protested assessment or portion thereof shall begin to bear legal interest on the sixty-first day after the Board of Tax Appeals acknowledges receipt of a protest of any assessment or enters an order to certify the unprotested portion of any assessment until paid, except that in no event shall interest begin to accrue prior to January 1 following April 30 of the year in which the report is due. Every corporation so assessed that fails to pay its taxes when due shall be deemed delinquent, a penalty of ten percent (10%) on the amount of the tax shall attach, and thereafter the tax shall bear interest at the tax interest rate as defined in KRS 131.010(6).

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Analysis

1. Franchise Taxes.
2. —Misappropriation.
3. Penalty.

1. Franchise Taxes.

The sheriff may not legally collect a franchise tax until the assessment has been certified to him by the county clerk. Commonwealth v. Brand, 166 Ky. 753, 179 S.W. 844, 1915 Ky. LEXIS 772 (Ky. 1915).

2. —Misappropriation.

Sheriff who misappropriated franchise tax paid to him by railroad before certification of assessment to sheriff by county clerk could not be convicted of embezzling public funds. Commonwealth v. Brand, 166 Ky. 753, 179 S.W. 844, 1915 Ky. LEXIS 772 (Ky. 1915).

3. Penalty.

Railroad company which was willing to pay franchise tax due county, but was unwilling to pay tax due school district because it believed latter tax was void, had the right to tender to sheriff amount of county tax and sheriff had duty to accept such tender. Where such tender was made and was refused by sheriff, company was not liable for penalty and interest on amount tendered, upon subsequent payment of county and school taxes. Cincinnati, N. O. & T. P. R. Co. v. Commonwealth, 253 Ky. 24, 68 S.W.2d 774, 1934 Ky. LEXIS 605 (Ky. 1934).

Cited in:

Walker v. Commonwealth, 279 Ky. 198, 130 S.W.2d 27, 1939 Ky. LEXIS 248 (Ky. 1939); Board of Education v. Louisville & N. R. Co., 280 Ky. 650, 134 S.W.2d 219, 1939 Ky. LEXIS 184 (Ky. 1939).

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

Since this section does not prescribe any type of notice, the taxpayer must be notified when the 30-day period begins in which he can pay without penalty, and if notification is made by mail, such period would begin to run from the date of the mailing of the notice of the tax due and a record should be maintained of the date the tax notice is mailed. OAG 74-35.

Where a check from a public service company for payment of public utility tax was apparently lost in the mail and a replacement check was not tendered until more than three months after the due date, a ten percent (10%) penalty plus ten percent (10%) interest would apply to the tax bill and the sheriff would have no authority to accept only the tax due. OAG 76-236.

OAG 76-236 has application to the facts as set out in that opinion. OAG 76-353.

PUBLIC SERVICE CORPORATIONS

136.120. Public service corporation property tax — Exemptions — Classification — Assessment — Certification.

(1)(a) The following public service companies shall pay a tax on their operating property to the state, and to the extent the operating property is subject to local taxation, shall pay a local tax to the county, incorporated city, and taxing district where its operating property is located:

1. Railway companies;
2. Sleeping car companies;
3. Chair car companies;
4. Dining car companies;
5. Gas companies;
6. Water companies;
7. Bridge companies;

8. Street railway companies;
9. Interurban electric railroad companies;
10. Express companies;
11. Electric light companies;
12. Electric power companies, including wind turbine and solar generating companies;
13. Commercial air carriers;
14. Air freight carriers;
15. Pipeline companies;
16. Privately owned regulated sewer companies;
17. Railroad car line companies, which means any company, other than a railroad company, which owns, uses, furnishes, leases, rents, or operates to, from, through, in, or across this state or any part thereof, any kind of railroad car including, but not limited to, flat, tank, refrigerator, passenger, or similar type car; and
18. Every other like company or business performing any public service.

(b) The following companies shall not be subject to the provisions of paragraph (a) of this subsection:

1. Bus line companies;
2. Regular and irregular route common carrier trucking companies;
3. Taxicab companies;
4. Providers of communications service as defined in KRS 136.602;
5. Providers of multichannel video programming services as defined in KRS 136.602; and
6. A qualified air freight forwarder as defined in KRS 141.121.

(2)(a) The property of the taxpayers shall be classified as operating property, nonoperating tangible property, and nonoperating intangible property.

(b) Nonoperating intangible property within the taxing jurisdiction of the Commonwealth shall be taxable for state purposes only at the same rate as the intangible property of other taxpayers not performing public services.

(c) Operating property and nonoperating tangible property shall be subject to state and local taxes at the same rate as the tangible property of other taxpayers not performing public services.

(3)(a) The Department of Revenue shall:

1. Have sole power to value and assess all of the property of every corporation, company, association, partnership, or person performing any public service, including those enumerated above and all others to whom this section may apply, whether or not the operating property, nonoperating tangible property, or nonoperating intangible property has previously been assessed by the department;
2. Allocate the assessment as provided by KRS 136.170; and
3. Certify operating property subject to local taxation and nonoperating tangible property to the counties, cities, and taxing districts as provided in KRS 136.180.

(b) All of the property assessed by the department pursuant to this section shall be assessed as of December 31 each year for the following year's taxes, and the lien on the property shall attach as of the assessment date.

(c) In the case of a taxpayer whose business is predominantly nonpublic service and the public service business in which he is engaged is merely incidental to his principal business, the department shall in the exercise of its judgment and discretion determine, from evidence which it may have or obtain, what portion of the operating property is devoted to the public service business subject to assessment by the department under this section and shall require the remainder of the property not so engaged to be assessed by the local taxing authorities.

Sess.), ch. 2, § 2; 1976, ch. 169, § 1; 1982, ch. 264, § 12, effective January 1, 1984; 1990, ch. 437, § 5, effective July 13, 1990; 1990, ch. 476, Pt. V, § 352, effective July 13, 1990; 1991 (1st Ex. Sess.), ch. 12, § 50, effective February 26, 1991; 2005, ch. 85, § 301, effective June 20, 2005; 2005, ch. 168, § 120, effective December 31, 2005; 2006, ch. 169, § 7, effective January 1, 2008; 2012, ch. 101, § 1, effective April 11, 2012; 2013, ch. 119, § 9, effective January 1, 2014; 2016 ch. 93, § 4, effective July 15, 2016.

Legislative Research Commission Notes.

(1/1/2014). 2013 Ky. Acts ch. 119, sec. 26, provides that the amendments to this statute in 2013 Ky. Acts ch. 119, sec. 9, shall apply to property assessed on or after January 1, 2014.

(7/14/2000). 2000 Ky. Acts ch. 446 (Senate Bill 323), sec. 2, purports to amend this statute, and the General Assembly version of that bill was signed by both presiding officers and by the Governor. The Journals of the House of Representatives and Senate will reflect, however, that House Floor Amendment 1 was adopted by the House on March 27, 2000, but was not transmitted to the Senate for its concurrence when the bill was returned to that body. Thus, the bill signed did not pass both chambers of the General Assembly in the same form and did not become law. Ky. Const. secs. 46 and 88; see also Mason's Manual of Legislative Procedure sec. 737, at 508-509 (1989 ed.). Because the General Assembly's own official records establish this constitutional deficiency, the provisions of 2000 Ky. Acts ch. 446 have not been codified into the Kentucky Revised Statutes. See KRS 7.131(2).

(7/13/90). The Act amending this section prevails over the repeal and reenactment in House Bill 940, Acts Ch. 476, pursuant to Section 653(1) of Acts Ch. 476.

1. Constitutionality.

This section does not provide for an unequal or undervalued assessment of intangible property in violation of Ky. Const., § 174, and the fact that such an assessment was actually made would not be grounds for holding the statute unconstitutional. Commonwealth v. Anderson v. Southern Pac. Co., 150 Ky. 97, 149 S.W. 1105, 1912 Ky. LEXIS 821 (Ky. 1912), overruled, Commonwealth v. Kentucky Heating Co., 176 Ky. 35, 195 S.W. 459, 1917 Ky. LEXIS 40 (Ky. 1917); Commonwealth ex rel. Auditor's Agent v. Louisville Gas Co., 135 Ky. 324, 122 S.W. 164, 1909 Ky. LEXIS 291 (Ky. 1909).

The "franchise" tax imposed by this section is not, with respect to a foreign corporation, an unreasonable burden on interstate commerce, and it is constitutional. Baltimore & O. S. W. R. Co. v. Commonwealth, 177 Ky. 566, 198 S.W. 35, 1917 Ky. LEXIS 655 (Ky. 1917).

The imposition of a franchise tax on a corporation engaged in operating steamboats in interstate commerce does not deprive the corporation of its property without due process of law. Bosworth v. Evansville & Bowlint Green Packet Co., 178 Ky. 716, 199 S.W. 1059, 1918 Ky. LEXIS 450 (Ky. 1918).

The tax imposed by this section is not an unconstitutional burden on interstate commerce, even as regards a corporation whose operations in this state are almost wholly in interstate commerce. Bosworth v. Evansville & Bowlint Green Packet Co., 178 Ky. 716, 199 S.W. 1059, 1918 Ky. LEXIS 450 (Ky. 1918).

Imposition of weight and tag taxes on bus companies, in addition to franchise tax, was not unconstitutional double taxation. Blue Coach Lines, Inc. v. Lewis, 220 Ky. 116, 294 S.W. 1080, 1927 Ky. LEXIS 510 (Ky. 1927).

Tax on water transportation company under this section was tax upon right of navigation of Ohio River as that was the only connection company had with Kentucky and was unconstitutional as violating provisions of the Virginia Compact. Allphin v. Ohio River Co., 306 S.W.2d 94, 1957 Ky. LEXIS 17 (Ky. 1957).

Kentucky franchise tax may not be constitutionally applied to foreign motor carrier doing exclusively interstate business. Commercial Carriers, Inc. v. Kentucky Tax Com., 321 S.W.2d 42, 1959 Ky. LEXIS 256 (Ky. 1959).

This section is neither vague nor does it constitute an unconstitutional delegation of legislative authority to the Executive Branch. Central Ky. Cellular Tel. Co. v. Revenue Cabinet, 897 S.W.2d 601, 1995 Ky. App. LEXIS 41 (Ky. Ct. App. 1995).

This section does not violate Ky. Const., § 51; it is not necessary under that section that the title of a statute agree with the body of the statute, only that the title of the act agree with the body of the act. Cooksey Bros. Disposal Co. v. Boyd County, 973 S.W.2d 64, 1997 Ky. App. LEXIS 132 (Ky. Ct. App. 1997), cert. denied, 525 U.S. 930, 119 S. Ct. 338, 142 L. Ed. 2d 279, 1998 U.S. LEXIS 6495 (U.S. 1998).

Although this section's classification of municipal solid waste disposal facilities that dispose of waste by landfill singles out such facilities for disparate tax treatment and is not a perfect fit to the state's objectives, such classification is reasonably related to the state's goals for solid waste management and is therefore constitutional. Cooksey Bros. Disposal Co. v. Boyd County, 973 S.W.2d 64, 1997 Ky. App. LEXIS 132 (Ky. Ct. App. 1997), cert. denied, 525 U.S. 930, 119 S. Ct. 338, 142 L. Ed. 2d 279, 1998 U.S. LEXIS 6495 (U.S. 1998).

2. Application.

This section does not apply to ordinary commercial corporations. Commonwealth v. Walsh's Trustee, 133 Ky. 103, 117 S.W. 398, 32 Ky. L. Rptr. 460, 1909 Ky. LEXIS 172 (Ky. 1909); Standard Oil Co. v. Commonwealth, 119 Ky. 75, 82 S.W. 1020, 26 Ky. L. Rptr. 985, 1904 Ky. LEXIS 146 (Ky. 1904).

This section applies only where the corporation is incorporated in this state or is doing business in this state. Commonwealth v. Lee Line Co., 159 Ky. 476, 167 S.W. 409, 1914 Ky. LEXIS 812 (Ky. 1914).

3. Construction.

The "franchise" tax imposed by this section is nothing more than a tax upon the intangible property of the corporation engaged in a business in Kentucky. Greene v. Louisville & I. R. Co., 244 U.S. 499, 37 S. Ct. 673, 61 L. Ed. 1280, 1917 U.S. LEXIS 1660 (U.S. 1917), overruled in part, Pennhurst State Sch. & Hosp. v. Halderman, 465 U.S. 89, 104 S. Ct. 900, 79 L. Ed. 2d 67, 1984 U.S. LEXIS 4 (U.S. 1984); Coulter v. Weir, 127 F. 897, 1904 U.S. App. LEXIS 3842 (6th Cir. Ky. 1904); Consolidation Coal Co. v. Martin, 113 F.2d 813, 1940 U.S. App. LEXIS 3465 (6th Cir. Ky. 1940); State Tax Com. v. Petroleum Exploration, 253 Ky. 119, 68 S.W.2d 777, 1933 Ky. LEXIS 977 (Ky. 1933).

The franchise tax is not a license or occupation tax, or a tax on the privilege of being a corporation, or of engaging in the public service business, but is simply an ad valorem tax. Commonwealth v. Chesapeake & O. R. Co., 91 S.W. 672, 28 Ky. L. Rptr. 1110 (1906). See Commonwealth v. Walsh's Trustee, 133 Ky. 103, 117 S.W. 398, 32 Ky. L. Rptr. 460, 1909 Ky. LEXIS 172 (Ky. 1909); Commonwealth ex rel. Auditor's Agent v. Louisville Gas Co., 135 Ky. 324, 122 S.W. 164, 1909 Ky. LEXIS 291 (Ky. 1909); Cumberland Tel. & Tel. Co. v. Calhoun, 151 Ky. 241, 151 S.W. 659, 1912 Ky. LEXIS 790 (Ky. 1912); Louisville & N. R. Co. v. Henderson, 154 Ky. 575, 157 S.W. 1105, 1913 Ky. LEXIS 120 (Ky. 1913); Newport v. South C. & C. S. R. Co., 156 Ky. 403, 161 S.W. 222, 1913 Ky. LEXIS 449 (Ky. 1913); Baltimore & O. S. W. R. Co. v. Commonwealth, 177 Ky. 566, 198 S.W. 35, 1917 Ky. LEXIS 655 (Ky. 1917); Bosworth v. Evansville & Bowlint Green Packet Co., 178 Ky. 716, 199 S.W. 1059, 1918 Ky. LEXIS 450 (Ky. 1918).

The "franchise" tax imposed by this section on a bus company is not a tax for the privilege of using the highways, but an ad valorem tax on the intangible property of the company. Blue Coach Lines, Inc. v. Lewis, 220 Ky. 116, 294 S.W. 1080, 1927 Ky. LEXIS 510 (Ky. 1927).

The "franchise" tax imposed by this section is a tax on intangible property springing from the privilege of public service, power of eminent domain, and other conceivable rights; it does not contemplate or depend upon the securing of a special license or permission from some governmental agency, usually denominated a "franchise." State Tax Com. v. Petroleum Exploration, 253 Ky. 119, 68 S.W.2d 777, 1933 Ky. LEXIS 977 (Ky. 1933).

The "franchise" tax imposed by this section is a tax on the intangible values inhering to business and the added value given to tangible property by use in business, it being an ad valorem tax as distinguished from an excise or privilege tax. State Tax Com. v. Petroleum Exploration, 253 Ky. 119, 68 S.W.2d 777, 1933 Ky. LEXIS 977 (Ky. 1933).

4. Tangible Operating Property.

In assessing the tangible property of a railroad company, all of the property used by the company in its business will be considered, for the purposes of taxation, as owned by the company, regardless of whether the company actually owns the property or merely leases it. Commonwealth v. Ingalls, 121 Ky. 194, 89 S.W. 156, 28 Ky. L. Rptr. 164, 1905 Ky. LEXIS 198 (Ky. Ct. App. 1905).

The tangible property of an operating company is taxable in its name, and not in the name of the holding company. Commonwealth v. Kinniconick & F. S. R. Co., 104 S.W. 290, 31 Ky. L. Rptr. 859 (1907).

Only such rolling stock of a refrigerator car company as is actually operated in Kentucky is taxable as tangible property in Kentucky. Morrell Refrigerator Car Co. v. Commonwealth, 128 Ky. 447, 108 S.W. 926, 32 Ky. L. Rptr. 1383, 32 Ky. L. Rptr. 1389, 1908 Ky. LEXIS 86 (Ky. 1908).

5. Local Taxation.

Local assessing authorities have no power to assess the intangible property of a franchise-paying corporation. Commonwealth ex rel. Hopkins v. Southern Pac. Co., 144 Ky. 803, 139 S.W. 929, 1911 Ky. LEXIS 711 (Ky. 1911).

Where a city, in granting to a bridge company the right to build approaches to the bridge and other appurtenances within the city, reserved the right to tax the bridge "and all appurtenances thereto," such right referred only to the tangible property of the company, so that when the bridge company sold all of its property and franchises to a railroad company the city had no contract right to continue to tax the franchise of the bridge company under this section, the bridge company having no intangible property left on which a franchise assessment could be made. Louisville & N. R. Co. v. Henderson, 154 Ky. 575, 157 S.W. 1105, 1913 Ky. LEXIS 120 (Ky. 1913).

A city may impose a license tax on a corporation, in addition to the franchise tax authorized by this section, only where the business in which the corporation is engaged is one for which the corporation is required to obtain a franchise from the city under Ky. Const., § 164, and the corporation has not obtained such franchise. Hardin County Kentucky Tel. Co. v. Elizabethtown, 227 Ky. 778, 14 S.W.2d 162, 1929 Ky. LEXIS 981 (Ky. 1929).

City had right to impose license tax on telephone company, where ordinance imposing tax expressly provided that license tax was in lieu of franchise tax. Hardin County Kentucky Tel. Co. v. Elizabethtown, 227 Ky. 778, 14 S.W.2d 162, 1929 Ky. LEXIS 981 (Ky. 1929).

Statutes relating to original assessment as unit by state tax commission of tangible and intangible property of public service corporations with apportionment of values and allocation among cities and other taxing units, together with exceptions established by such statutes, must be read in connection with charters of cities of second class, and when so read show that city has no right to sue railroads to have circuit court assess their properties and levy taxes thereon. Newport v. Pennsylvania R. Co., 287 Ky. 613, 154 S.W.2d 719, 1941 Ky. LEXIS 600 (Ky. 1941).

6. Corporations Subject to Tax.

This section establishes three classes of companies or corporations which are subject to the tax: (1) those whose business is expressly named in the section and those engaged in like or similar business; (2) those which have or exercise any special or exclusive privilege or franchise not allowed by law to natural persons; (3) those performing any public service. Consolidation Coal Co. v. Martin, 113 F.2d 813, 1940 U.S. App. LEXIS 3465 (6th Cir. Ky. 1940).

This section clearly makes the classification of enumerated companies as a separate group subject to tax without any limitation or qualification. Martin v. Producers Pipe Line Co., 113 F.2d 817, 1940 U.S. App. LEXIS 3466 (6th Cir. Ky.), cert. denied, 311 U.S. 715, 61 S. Ct. 397, 85 L. Ed. 465, 1940 U.S. LEXIS 12 (U.S. 1940).

A corporation actually engaged in a public service business is liable to franchise tax even though its engagement in such business is ultra vires. James v. Kentucky Refining Co., 132 Ky. 353, 113 S.W. 468, 1908 Ky. LEXIS 126 (Ky. 1908).

Transfer company operating within a city was not liable for franchise tax, notwithstanding its business gave it the character of a common carrier, since it exercised no privilege that was not allowed by law to natural persons. Commonwealth v. Louisville Transfer Co., 181 Ky. 305, 204 S.W. 92, 1918 Ky. LEXIS 517 (Ky. 1918), overruled, Yellow Cab Co. v. Murphy, 243 S.W.2d 42, 1951 Ky. LEXIS 1116 (Ky. 1951).

A corporation that does business in Kentucky through another corporation, which the first corporation controls and directs, may be subject to franchise tax, in addition to the franchise tax paid by the subsidiary corporation. Commonwealth ex rel. Hawkins v. Southern R. Co., 193 Ky. 474, 237 S.W. 11, 1921 Ky. LEXIS 246 (Ky. 1921).

7. —Railroad.

A foreign railroad company that files its articles and thereby becomes a Kentucky corporation is required to pay only one franchise tax, as a foreign corporation, and is not required to pay another tax as a domestic corporation. Commonwealth v. Chesapeake & O. R. Co., 120 Ky. 678, 87 S.W. 1077, 27 Ky. L. Rptr. 1084, 1905 Ky. LEXIS 149 (Ky. 1905).

A domestic corporation controlling through ownership of stock, or by lease, a system of railroads, is subject to franchise tax even though all of the lines of the railroads are outside of this state. Commonwealth v. Anderson v. Southern Pac. Co., 150 Ky. 97, 149 S.W. 1105, 1912 Ky. LEXIS 821 (Ky. 1912), overruled, Commonwealth v. Kentucky Heating Co., 176 Ky. 35, 195 S.W. 459, 1917 Ky. LEXIS 40 (Ky. 1917).

A foreign railroad company operating trains into this state, and owning tangible property in this state, is subject to franchise tax even though it owns no lines of track in this state but merely leases the use of the tracks of other railroads. Baltimore & O. S. W. R. Co. v. Commonwealth, 177 Ky. 566, 198 S.W. 35, 1917 Ky. LEXIS 655 (Ky. 1917).

8. —Pipeline Company.

Pipeline company that operated pipeline through which it transported crude petroleum through five Kentucky counties to the Ohio River where it was loaded on company's barges and carried to refining company which purchased pipeline company's entire output was subject to taxation under this section. Martin v. Producers Pipe Line Co., 113 F.2d 817, 1940 U.S. App. LEXIS 3466 (6th Cir. Ky.), cert. denied, 311 U.S. 715, 61 S. Ct. 397, 85 L. Ed. 465, 1940 U.S. LEXIS 12 (U.S. 1940).

A company conveying gas through a pipeline and selling it to companies who resold it to consumers was performing a public service and had the power of eminent domain, and was therefore liable for franchise tax as a "pipeline company." State Tax Com. v. Petroleum Exploration, 253 Ky. 119, 68 S.W.2d 777, 1933 Ky. LEXIS 977 (Ky. 1933).

A pipeline company is liable for franchise tax if it performs any public service. State Tax Com. v. Petroleum Exploration, 253 Ky. 119, 68 S.W.2d 777, 1933 Ky. LEXIS 977 (Ky. 1933).

9. —Tank Car Company.

Oil refining company which owned its own tank cars, and paid railroad companies to move the cars over their lines, was subject to franchise tax. Stoll Oil Refining Co. v. State Tax

Com., 221 Ky. 29, 296 S.W. 351, 1927 Ky. LEXIS 646 (Ky. 1927).

10. —Telephone Company.

Cellular telephone companies are telephone companies for purposes of this section. Central Ky. Cellular Tel. Co. v. Revenue Cabinet, 897 S.W.2d 601, 1995 Ky. App. LEXIS 41 (Ky. Ct. App. 1995).

11. Corporations Not Subject to Tax.

A title guaranty company is not subject to franchise tax. Hager v. Louisville Title Co., 85 S.W. 182, 27 Ky. L. Rptr. 345 (1905).

A city may not impose a license tax upon a public service corporation that pays a franchise tax, and which has obtained a franchise from the city under Ky. Const., § 164. Cumberland Tel. & Tel. Co. v. Hopkins, 121 Ky. 850, 90 S.W. 594, 28 Ky. L. Rptr. 846, 1906 Ky. LEXIS 268 (Ky. 1906).

Where the state has jurisdiction of neither the person nor the property, it is without power to tax. Commonwealth v. Lee Line Co., 159 Ky. 476, 167 S.W. 409, 1914 Ky. LEXIS 812 (Ky. 1914).

If a foreign corporation owns or uses no real property or tangible personal property in the state in connection with its interstate business, it has no franchise that may be taxed. Bosworth v. Evansville & Bowlint Green Packet Co., 178 Ky. 716, 199 S.W. 1059, 1918 Ky. LEXIS 450 (Ky. 1918).

When a corporation has paid a city franchise tax under this section, and is not engaged in such a business as requires it to obtain a franchise from the city under Ky. Const., § 164, it cannot be subjected to a license tax by the city for the privilege of doing business in the city, or for exercising in the city any agency or instrumentality indispensably necessary to the conduct of its business. American Ry. Express Co. v. Commonwealth, 187 Ky. 241, 218 S.W. 453, 1919 Ky. LEXIS 387 (Ky. 1919).

Motor truck operator who operated trucks between Tennessee and Missouri, and in so doing traveled over about 75 miles of highway in Kentucky, but who did not load or unload freight in Kentucky, or make any stops in Kentucky except to buy gasoline, was not subject to Kentucky franchise tax, since he had no property with a taxable situs in Kentucky. Reeves v. Service Lines, Inc., 291 Ky. 410, 164 S.W.2d 593, 1942 Ky. LEXIS 236 (Ky. 1942).

12. Nonprofit Corporations.

For the purpose of determining whether a rural electric cooperative corporation is actually operating on a nonprofit basis, the Department of Revenue may require it to file schedules and reports showing that it has no franchise value over and above the value of its tangible property. Inter-County Rural Electric Co-operative Corp. v. Reeves, 294 Ky. 458, 171 S.W.2d 978, 1943 Ky. LEXIS 446 (Ky. 1943).

So long as a rural electric cooperative corporation operates on a nonprofit basis it will not have any franchise value subject to taxation over and above the value of its tangible property. Inter-County Rural Electric Co-operative Corp. v. Reeves, 294 Ky. 458, 171 S.W.2d 978, 1943 Ky. LEXIS 446 (Ky. 1943).

13. Holding Company.

Plan pursuant to which utility company divided itself into several corporate units, consisting of operating companies supervised by a holding company, and so managed its affairs that one industrial unit, whose franchise was nontaxable, was only unit to make a profit, was not invalid as fraudulent in the absence of proof of actual fraud or concealment. Commonwealth v. Louisville Gas & Electric Co., 278 Ky. 466, 128 S.W.2d 778, 1938 Ky. LEXIS 68 (Ky. 1938).

14. Entity Liable for Tax.

Where city, prior to adoption of present constitution, sold gas plant to private corporation under contract providing that city would pay all taxes assessed on the plant, such contract obligated city to pay franchise taxes subsequently imposed by general assembly. Bd. of Councilmen v. Capital Gas & Elec. Light Co., 96 S.W. 870, 29 Ky. L. Rptr. 1114, 1906 Ky. LEXIS 283 (Ky. Ct. App. 1906).

The person to whom the license to operate the ferry was granted is the one who is liable for the franchise tax imposed by this section. Gates v. Commonwealth, 127 Ky. 395, 105 S.W. 432, 32 Ky. L. Rptr. 301, 1907 Ky. LEXIS 134 (Ky. 1907).

15. Exemption.

Department's change which raised state tax obligation of public service company (PSC) and made it subject to local taxes was upheld because general assembly did not intend for franchise of PSCs to be exempt from state and local taxes and intended for it to be taxed separately. KRS 136.115(2) directed that taxes were assessed on operating tangible property and franchise; franchise was separate and nothing in the statutes indicated that franchise was included in operating tangible property. Additionally, KRS 132.208 provides a state and local tax exemption for intangible personal property except that which is assessed under KRS ch. 136. Dayton Power & Light Co. v. Dep't of Revenue, 405 S.W.3d 527, 2012 Ky. App. LEXIS 232 (Ky. Ct. App. 2012).

16. —Other Taxes.

The fact that a corporation is required to pay a franchise tax under this section does not relieve it of paying a license or occupation tax. Greene v. National Surety Co., 186 Ky. 353, 217 S.W. 117, 1919 Ky. LEXIS 222 (Ky. 1919).

17. Omitted Property.

Where foreign corporation owned all of stock in a Kentucky corporation that was a consolidation of three former Kentucky corporations in which the foreign corporation had also owned all of the stock, and the foreign corporation for years in question had paid Kentucky taxes on its franchise and upon all of the tangible property of the Kentucky corporations (which was deducted in fixing the value of its franchise), the fact that the franchises of the Kentucky corporations had never been assessed did not constitute grounds for an action against the foreign corporation to assess the value of its holdings in the Kentucky corporations as omitted property. Commonwealth v. Chesapeake & O. R. Co., 91 S.W. 672, 28 Ky. L. Rptr. 1110 (1906).

Property which is alleged not to have been taken into consideration in fixing value of corporation's franchise cannot be assessed in an action to assess omitted property of the corporation. Commonwealth v. Chesapeake & O. R. Co., 91 S.W. 672, 28 Ky. L. Rptr. 1110 (1906).

Where corporation had made report required by law, but Board of Valuation and Assessment had not yet acted on report or made assessment, action to assess property of corporation as omitted property could not be maintained. Commonwealth v. Anderson v. Louisville & N. R. Co., 142 Ky. 663, 135 S.W. 280, 1911 Ky. LEXIS 288 (Ky. 1911).

Where corporation fails to make any report under law and no assessment of its franchise is made by the Department of Revenue, the franchise may be assessed in an action to assess omitted property. Covington v. Cincinnati, C. & R. R. Co., 144 Ky. 646, 139 S.W. 854, 1911 Ky. LEXIS 702 (Ky. 1911).

Where a corporation fails to include in its report certain of its property under the heading in the report providing for the listing of that kind of property, it cannot maintain an action against it to assess such property as omitted, that the property was included under some other heading or was assessed by the Department of Revenue on information obtained aside from the report. Baltimore & O. S. W. R. Co. v. Commonwealth, 177 Ky. 566, 198 S.W. 35, 1917 Ky. LEXIS 655 (Ky. 1917).

Where railroad company did not specifically report the amount or value of its rolling stock, but reported only its trackage, depots, furniture and "other property," and the value reported by the company was accepted by the Department of Revenue in fixing the franchise value, the rolling stock could be assessed as omitted property upon its later being discovered that the tangible property of the company that fell within its classification of "other property" far exceeded the value given in the report. Baltimore & O. S. W. R. Co. v. Commonwealth, 177 Ky. 566, 198 S.W. 35, 1917 Ky. LEXIS 655 (Ky. 1917).

On assessment of omitted property of a franchise-paying corporation, the court should ascertain how much the assessment made by the Department of Revenue should be increased on account of the addition of the value of the omitted property, and certify the increase to the department. Louisville & N. R. Co. v. Commonwealth, 181 Ky. 193, 204 S.W. 94, 1918 Ky. LEXIS 518 (Ky. 1918).

In an action to assess alleged omitted property the state must first show the fact that the property was not reported, and its nature and value, and the corporation then has the burden of showing that notwithstanding the omission, the property was considered by the Department of Revenue in assessing the franchise, from information obtained from sources outside the report. Chesapeake & O. R. Co. v. Commonwealth, 190 Ky. 552, 228 S.W. 15, 1920 Ky. LEXIS 557 (Ky. 1920). See Louisville & N. R. Co. v. Commonwealth, 181 Ky. 193, 204 S.W. 94, 1918 Ky. LEXIS 518 (Ky. 1918).

Failure of corporation to report any item or species of property that it is called upon to report is an omission and not an undervaluation, and the omitted property may be assessed in an action brought for that purpose. Chesapeake & O. R. Co. v. Commonwealth, 190 Ky. 552, 228 S.W. 15, 1920 Ky. LEXIS 557 (Ky. 1920).

18. —Retrospective Assessment.

Second-class city may not retroactively assess property of companies covered by this section, but may call upon the Department of Revenue for relief when an omission has been made. American Refrigerator Transit Co. v. Lexington, 288 Ky. 295, 155 S.W.2d 848, 1941 Ky. LEXIS 75 (Ky. 1941).

19. Failure to Assess.

Mere failure of state assessing authorities to endeavor to assess franchise tax against a particular corporation did not amount to a contemporaneous construction that the law did not apply to such corporation. Baltimore & O. S. W. R. Co. v. Commonwealth, 177 Ky. 566, 198 S.W. 35, 1917 Ky. LEXIS 655 (Ky. 1917).

20. Conclusiveness of Assessment.

Where the Department of Revenue has substantially followed the provisions of the law in fixing the value of a franchise, and no appeal has been taken, its action is final. Commonwealth by Anderson v. Southern Pac. Co., 150 Ky. 97, 149 S.W. 1105, 1912 Ky. LEXIS 821 (Ky. 1912), overruled, Commonwealth v. Kentucky Heating Co., 176 Ky. 35, 195 S.W. 459, 1917 Ky. LEXIS 40 (Ky. 1917).

21. Settlement.

Revenue commissioner having determined that certain river barge companies were subject to franchise taxes, had power to settle in good faith unliquidated tax claims against companies for such taxes, so as to require approval of settlement by circuit court. Commonwealth ex rel. Reeves v. American Barge Line Co., 253 S.W.2d 622, 1952 Ky. LEXIS 1118 (Ky. 1952).

22. Double Taxation.

The fact that a city had levied a franchise tax on a telephone company under this section did not prevent the city from also imposing a license tax on the company, the franchise tax not being a tax for the privilege of doing business. Cumberland Tel. & Tel. Co. v. Calhoun, 151 Ky. 241, 151 S.W. 659, 1912 Ky. LEXIS 790 (Ky. 1912).

Assessment of local franchise tax under this section did not constitute double taxation when considered with the license fee authorized by KRS 68.178; the former is a tax on tangible property, the latter a fee based on gross receipts. Cooksey Bros. Disposal Co. v. Boyd County, 973 S.W.2d 64, 1997 Ky. App. LEXIS 132 (Ky. Ct. App. 1997), cert. denied, 525 U.S. 930, 119 S. Ct. 338, 142 L. Ed. 2d 279, 1998 U.S. LEXIS 6495 (U.S. 1998).

23. Tax Rate.

The assessment of the franchise of a corporation, on its report covering the 12-month period ending on December 31 preceding the assessment, bears the tax rate, for county purposes, levied for the fiscal year that next ensues after said December 31, and not the rate for the fiscal year covering which the report was made. Gray v. Louisville, H. & S. L. R. Co., 201 Ky. 750, 258 S.W. 309, 1924 Ky. LEXIS 636 (Ky. 1924).

The ad valorem tax rate of $1.00 per $100.00 on railroad rolling stock under subdivision (4)(a) (deleted by 1990 amendment) of this section violates § 306 of the Railroad Revitalization and Regulatory Reform Act, 49 USCS § 11503; since no identifiable existing tax rate fulfills the specific standard of the Act, the trial judge did not err in developing an appropriate rate based upon the evidence before him. General American Transp. Corp. v. Kentucky, 791 F.2d 38, 1986 U.S. App. LEXIS 25150 (6th Cir. Ky. 1986) (decision prior to 1990 amendment).

24. Situs.

The fact that the business of a corporation is conducted upon the navigable waters of the United States does not prevent the imposition of a franchise tax. Bosworth v. Evansville & Bowlint Green Packet Co., 178 Ky. 716, 199 S.W. 1059, 1918 Ky. LEXIS 450 (Ky. 1918).

The franchise tax is an ad valorem property tax and to be valid the property taxed must have a situs within the taxing unit. Commercial Carriers, Inc. v. Kentucky Tax Com., 321 S.W.2d 42, 1959 Ky. LEXIS 256 (Ky. 1959).

25. Transient Property.

A fixed number of units of transient property constituting an average number of those continuously used in the state, may be the subject of ad valorem taxation even though none of the units involved are permanently located in Kentucky. Union Barge Line Corp. v. Marcum, 360 S.W.2d 130, 1962 Ky. LEXIS 209 (Ky. 1962).

26. Transportation Facilities.

A company transporting its own goods in tank cars owned by it, or in pipelines it owns and operates, is liable for a franchise tax on such transportation facilities. Texas Co. v. Commonwealth, 303 Ky. 590, 198 S.W.2d 316, 1946 Ky. LEXIS 906 (Ky. 1946).

27. Property on Ohio River.

Neither the Virginia Compact nor the Northwest Ordinance impairs the power of Kentucky to impose taxes on property used on the Ohio River. Union Barge Line Corp. v. Marcum, 360 S.W.2d 130, 1962 Ky. LEXIS 209 (Ky. 1962).

28. State's Jurisdiction.

A state cannot tax beyond its boundary. Bosworth v. Evansville & Bowlint Green Packet Co., 178 Ky. 716, 199 S.W. 1059, 1918 Ky. LEXIS 450 (Ky. 1918).

A franchise tax may not be assessed where no property is possessed within the jurisdiction by the alleged taxpayer, nor any business transacted therein. Reeves v. Service Lines, Inc., 291 Ky. 410, 164 S.W.2d 593, 1942 Ky. LEXIS 236 (Ky. 1942).

29. Estoppel.

Where a corporation has invoked the provisions of this section in an action to assess its property, it cannot later defend against an assessment made under this section on the ground that the section is unconstitutional. Commonwealth v. Anderson v. Southern Pac. Co., 150 Ky. 97, 149 S.W. 1105, 1912 Ky. LEXIS 821 (Ky. 1912), overruled, Commonwealth v. Kentucky Heating Co., 176 Ky. 35, 195 S.W. 459, 1917 Ky. LEXIS 40 (Ky. 1917).

30. Burden of Proof.

There is a presumption that all companies mentioned in this section are liable for franchise tax, and the burden is on a company seeking to escape the tax to show that its business is not of the type mentioned or is not in fact a public service business. State Tax Com. v. Petroleum Exploration, 253 Ky. 119, 68 S.W.2d 777, 1933 Ky. LEXIS 977 (Ky. 1933).

31. Franchise Fee.

A franchise fee based on a percentage of gross service revenues is not a tax, but is instead a charge bargained for in exchange for a specific property right, i.e., rental or compensation for the use of public streets. Berea College Utilities v. Berea, 691 S.W.2d 235, 1985 Ky. App. LEXIS 588 (Ky. Ct. App. 1985).

NOTES TO UNPUBLISHED DECISIONS

1. Application.

Unpublished decision: State revenue cabinet properly determined that the tax the cable television company was required to pay was the tax on its operating tangible property and franchise, and, thus, the trial court erred in affirming the state tax appeal board's decision to the contrary. Revenue Cabinet v. Comcast Cablevision, 147 S.W.3d 743, 2003 Ky. App. LEXIS 330 (Ky. Ct. App. 2003).

Unpublished decision: Operating and nonoperating tangible property, once classified, were subject to both state and local taxes, while nonoperating intangible property was subject to a different state tax rate, and, thus, the state revenue cabinet determined the proper tax assessment for the cable television company by valuing the tangible property and the franchise, while not including the nonoperating intangible property in that calculation because to do so would have given the table television company too high of an assessment for valuation and tax purposes; accordingly, the state tax appeals board erred in affirming the trial court's decision to the contrary. Revenue Cabinet v. Comcast Cablevision, 147 S.W.3d 743, 2003 Ky. App. LEXIS 330 (Ky. Ct. App. 2003).

Unpublished decision: After cable television company created and delivered to the state revenue cabinet the report required by statutory law, the state revenue cabinet had the sole power to value and assess all of the property of the cable television company; moreover, the state revenue cabinet's valuation and assessment enabled it to properly determine the fair cash value of the operating property of the cable television company, which was what the cable television company was taxed on, as a unit, and, thus, the state revenue cabinet properly valued, assessed, and taxed the cable television company. Revenue Cabinet v. Comcast Cablevision, 147 S.W.3d 743, 2003 Ky. App. LEXIS 330 (Ky. Ct. App. 2003).

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

The valuation of the property of rural electric cooperatives must be accomplished at the state level. OAG 61-355.

Although no provision is made by the constitution or statutes for exemption of utility companies from city taxes, the statutes do provide a different method of assessment of property tax in the case of public service corporations as compared to the method used in the case of other taxpayers. OAG 62-40.

A city is without authority to levy an occupational license tax on the operations of Southern Bell Telephone & Telegraph Company within the corporate limits of the city. OAG 62-644.

A library district tax would be applicable to franchise assessments with a taxable situs within the library district. OAG 68-545.

Since the property valuation administrator has no duty to assess public utility property in the county, there is no statutory basis for requiring that the value of such property be included in the base upon which the property valuation administrator's compensation is computed. OAG 71-249.

The Department of Revenue values and assesses property of public utility corporations. OAG 71-249.

The property valuation administrator has no responsibilities or duties in connection with the assessment of the property of public utility corporations and is not even advised of the value placed upon the property by the state. OAG 71-249.

The property valuation administrator may, under the direction and supervision of the Department of Revenue, keep a record of the property of public utility corporations, but this does not constitute an assessment. OAG 71-249.

Where city chose to use the county assessment instead of a city assessment as provided in KRS 132.285, it could provide for a six month special budget and tax period to provide for the transition from a calendar year to a fiscal year basis and could require a public service company to pay a one half year's tax bill for such period notwithstanding the use of the word "annually" in this section. OAG 75-435.

The Ohio-Kentucky Utilities, Inc., a paper corporation set up by Floyd county to run utility facilities acquired by bonds pursuant to KRS 58.010 et seq., was not subject to a utility tax assessment, provided for by this section, by the Town of Wayland. OAG 78-679.

A city may not levy an occupational license tax against public service corporations, when those organizations pay ad valorem and franchise taxes levied pursuant to KRS Chapter 136. OAG 82-93.

Letter of electric corporation attached to payment of ad valorem taxes protesting payment and asking the sheriff to sign the letter acknowledging receipt of the protest did not constitute a valid or legal protest, since such taxes are assessed by the Revenue Cabinet and thus protests of such assessments must be made to the Revenue Cabinet; therefore, the sheriff should not sign such protest. OAG 83-202.

This section levies a property tax and not a franchise tax; consequently, a city ordinance imposing a franchise fee on a power company for the right to distribute electrical energy in the city did not amount to double taxation. OAG 83-233, superseding OAG 68-338, to the extent of conflict.

136.180. Notice and certification of valuation — Effect of appeal on payment of taxes — Payment of fee by any district which has value certified by department.

(1) The Department of Revenue shall, immediately after fixing the assessed value of the operating property and other property of a public service corporation for taxation, notify the corporation of the valuation and the amount of assessment for state and local purposes. When the valuation has been finally determined, the department shall immediately certify, unless otherwise specified, to the county clerk of each county in which any of the operating property or nonoperating tangible property assessment of the corporation is liable to local taxation, the amount of property liable for county, city, or district tax.

(2) No appeal shall delay the collection or payment of taxes based upon the assessment in controversy. The taxpayer shall pay all state, county, and district taxes due on the valuation which the taxpayer claims as the true value as stated in the protest filed under KRS 131.110. When the valuation is finally determined upon appeal, the taxpayer shall be billed for any additional tax and interest at the tax interest rate as defined in KRS 131.010(6), from the date the tax would have become due if no appeal had been taken. The provisions of KRS 134.015(6) shall apply to the tax bill.

(3) The Department of Revenue shall compute annually a multiplier for use in establishing the local tax rate for the operating property of railroads or railway companies that operate solely within the Commonwealth. The applicable local tax rates on the operating property shall be adjusted by the multiplier. The multiplier shall be calculated by dividing the statewide locally taxable business tangible personal property by the total statewide business tangible personal property.

(4) The Department of Revenue shall annually calculate an aggregate local rate for each local taxing district to be used in determining local taxes to be collected for railroad carlines. The rate shall be the statewide tangible tax rate for each type of local taxing district multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the commercial and industrial tangible property assessment subject to full local rates and the denominator of which is the total commercial and industrial tangible personal property assessment. Effective January 1, 1994, state and local taxes on railroad carline property shall become due sixty (60) days from the date of notice and shall be collected directly by the Department of Revenue. The local taxes collected by the Department of Revenue shall be distributed to each local taxing district levying a tax on railroad carlines based on the statewide average rate for each type of local taxing district. However, prior to distribution any fees owed to the Department of Revenue by any local taxing district under the provisions of subsection (5) of this section shall be deducted.

(5) The certification of valuation shall be filed by each county clerk in his office, and shall be certified by the county clerk to the proper collecting officer of the county, city, or taxing district for collection. Any district which has the value certified by the department shall pay an annual fee to the department which represents an allocation of department operating and overhead expenses incurred in generating the valuations. This fee shall be determined by the department and shall apply to valuations for tax periods beginning on or after December 31, 1981.

Legislative Research Commission Notes.

(4/27/2018). This statute was amended by 2018 Ky. Acts chs. 171 and 207, which do not appear to be in conflict and have been codified together.

(8/17/2006). In the final sentence of subsection (4) of this statute, a reference to "subsection (4) of this section" has been changed to read "subsection (6) of this section." Under the authority of KRS 7.136(1)(e) and (h), the Reviser of Statutes has made this change to correct an internal reference that should have been adjusted when subsections were renumbered in 1998 Ky. Acts ch. 391, sec. 5, and 2005 Ky. Acts ch. 106, sec. 1.

(6/20/2005). 2005 Ky. Acts chs. 11, 85, 95, 97, 98, 99, 123, and 181 instruct the Reviser of Statutes to correct statutory references to agencies and officers whose names have been changed in 2005 legislation confirming the reorganization of the executive branch. Such a correction has been made in this section.

(11/1/90). The two Acts amending this section prevail over the repeal and reenactment in House Bill 940, Acts Ch. 476, pursuant to Section 653(1) of Acts Ch. 476. The two amending Acts do not appear to be in conflict and have been compiled together. Under the authority of KRS 7.136(1), the Reviser of Statutes has divided the text of this section into the indicated subdivisions. The original 1990 codification of KRS 136.180 and its accompanying note dated July 13, 1990, are superseded and without effect.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Analysis

1. Collection Before Certification.
2. Misappropriation Before Assessment.
3. Conclusiveness.
4. Clerk's Fee.
5. Injunction.

1. Collection Before Certification.

The sheriff may not legally collect a franchise tax until the assessment has been certified to him by the county clerk. Commonwealth v. Brand, 166 Ky. 753, 179 S.W. 844, 1915 Ky. LEXIS 772 (Ky. 1915) (decided under prior law).

Sheriff who accepted railroad franchise taxes due school district was chargeable with amount there, although the assessment had not, at the time of such acceptance, been certified to the county clerk. Fidelity & Deposit Co. v. Commonwealth, 249 Ky. 170, 60 S.W.2d 345, 1933 Ky. LEXIS 483 (Ky. 1933) (decided under prior law).

2. Misappropriation Before Assessment.

Sheriff who misappropriated franchise tax paid to him by railroad before certification of assessment to sheriff by county clerk could not be convicted of embezzling public funds. Commonwealth v. Brand, 166 Ky. 753, 179 S.W. 844, 1915 Ky. LEXIS 772 (Ky. 1915) (decided under prior law).

3. Conclusiveness.

Where the Department of Revenue has substantially followed the provisions of law regarding procedure for property valuation in fixing the value of a franchise, and no appeal has been taken, the action is final. Commonwealth by Anderson v. Southern Pac. Co., 150 Ky. 97, 149 S.W. 1105, 1912 Ky. LEXIS 821 (Ky. 1912), overruled, Commonwealth v. Kentucky Heating Co., 176 Ky. 35, 195 S.W. 459, 1917 Ky. LEXIS 40 (Ky. 1917), overruled on other grounds, Commonwealth v. Kentucky Heating Co., 176 Ky. 35, 195 S.W. 459, 1917 Ky. LEXIS 40 (Ky. 1917) (decided under prior law).

4. Clerk's Fee.

The county clerk is entitled to no fee for making copies of the franchise assessment certificates for the collecting officers. Goodlett v. Anderson County, 267 Ky. 166, 101 S.W.2d 421, 1936 Ky. LEXIS 761 (Ky. 1936) (decided under prior law).

5. Injunction.

Action could be maintained in federal court to enjoin certification of assessments to county clerks, on allegation that tax was void or that assessment was not legally made. Louisville & N. R. Co. v. Bosworth, 209 F. 380, 1913 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 1117 (D. Ky. 1913) (decided under prior law).

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL

Where a county fiscal court established a cooperative extension district with a district tax on assessed property valuation, the tax was applicable to franchise values certified to the county. OAG 71-295.

VEHICLES OF SYSTEM OPERATING ROUTE PARTLY WITHIN STATE

136.1877. Application of section — Appeal from notice of tentative assessment — Effect of appeal on payment of taxes — Collection of state taxes — Aggregate local rate to be set annually — Distribution.

The provisions of this section shall apply to assessments made prior to January 1, 2007.

(1) The Department of Revenue shall immediately, after fixing the assessed value of the trucks, tractors, trailers, semitrailers, and buses, notify the taxpayer of the valuation determined. Any taxpayer who has been assessed by the department in the manner outlined in KRS 136.1873 shall have sixty (60) days from the date of the department's notice of the tentative assessment to protest as provided by KRS 131.110.

(2) No appeal shall delay the collection or payment of taxes based upon the assessment in controversy. The taxpayer shall pay all state, county, and district taxes due on the valuation which the taxpayer claims as the true value as stated in the protest filed under KRS 131.110. When the valuation is finally determined upon appeal, the taxpayer shall be billed for any additional tax and interest at the tax interest rate as defined in KRS 131.010(6), from the date the tax would have become due if no appeal had been taken. The provisions of KRS 134.015(6) shall apply to the tax bill.

(3) The state and local taxes on the property are due sixty (60) days from the date of notice and shall be collected directly by the Department of Revenue.

(4) The Department of Revenue shall annually calculate an aggregate local rate to be used in determining the local taxes to be collected. The rate shall be the statewide average motor vehicle tax rate for each type of local taxing district multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the commercial and industrial tangible personal property assessment subject to full local rates and the denominator of which is the total commercial and industrial tangible personal property assessment.

(5) The local taxes collected by the Department of Revenue shall be distributed to each local taxing district levying a tax on motor vehicles based on the statewide average rate for each type of local taxing district. However, prior to distribution any fees owed to the Department of Revenue by any local taxing district under the provisions of KRS 136.180(5) shall be deducted.

Legislative Research Commission Notes.

(4/27/2018). This statute was amended by 2018 Ky. Acts chs. 171 and 207, which do not appear to be in conflict and have been codified together.

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

KRS 136.1873, 136.1875, and this section do not subject any property to taxation because the constitution has already subjected all property in the state to taxation with a few limited exceptions. OAG 92-71.

There is nothing in KRS 136.1873, 136.1875, or this section that would exempt “the occasional, transient motorcoach, charter, or tour bus operation” from the assessment procedure set out in KRS 136.1873, nor is there anything unconstitutional in this procedure; it is simply an attempt by the state to insure compliance with the constitutional directive that all property be taxed. OAG 92-71.

136.190. Boundary report of cities of the home rule class and taxing districts.

(1) The superintendent of schools in each district in which any individual, group of individuals or corporation, operates public utility or other franchise taxpaying property assessed under KRS 136.120 shall, on or before the first day of January, 1957, furnish to the county clerk of the county in which the district is situated, to each franchise taxpayer within the district, and to the Department of Revenue, the boundary of his school district. The superintendent of schools in each district in which any franchise-paying corporation, individual, or group of individuals operates shall, on or before the first day of January, 1958, and each year thereafter, furnish to the county clerk, to each franchise taxpayer within the district, and to the Department of Revenue, any changes made in the boundary of his school district during the immediately preceding twelve (12) months.

(2) The engineer of cities of the first class and the city clerk of cities of the home rule class shall notify the county clerk, each franchise taxpayer within the city, and the Department of Revenue of their boundaries in the same manner as required of the superintendent of schools in subsection (1) of this section.

(3) The responsible governing official or the chairman of the governing body of any taxing district other than the county, school district, or city shall notify the county clerk, each franchise taxpayer within the district, and the Department of Revenue of their boundaries in the same manner as required of the superintendent of schools in subsection (1) of this section.

History.

4009, 4339-16; Acts 1956, ch. 170; 1960, ch. 186, Art. II, § 8; repealed and reenact., Acts 1990, ch. 476, Pt. V, § 354, effective July 13, 1990; 2005, ch. 85, § 317, effective June 20, 2005; 2014, ch. 92, § 218, effective January 1, 2015.

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

The superintendent’s report, which is mandatory under this section, is a report of the boundary as required for tax purposes. It does not establish the boundary, neither does it alter the boundary in the event of a possible erroneous survey or in the event of a subsequent failure of either board to object to a survey which is in fact inaccurate. The fact that the erroneous survey was unchallenged over a period of 12 years is of no consequence. OAG 70-393.

136.200. Allocation of railroad bridge assessment.

The assessment of railroad bridges spanning any river that constitutes a boundary of the state shall be allocated to the counties in which they are located, and the local tax derived therefrom shall be applied to each city, county, or taxing district in which the bridges are located.

History.

4102; Acts 1960, ch. 186, Art. II, § 9, effective March 25, 1960; repealed and reenact., Acts 1990, ch. 476, Pt. V, § 355, effective July 13, 1990.

Compiler’s Notes.

Former KRS 139.200 (4102: amend. Acts 1960, ch. 186, Art. II, § 9) was repealed and reenacted by Acts 1990, ch. 476, Pt. V, § 355, effective July 13, 1990.

NOTES TO DECISIONS1. Assessment.

A bridge owned and maintained by a railroad as a part of its railroad system is assessable only by the Department of Revenue, and not by the county tax commissioner (now property valuation administrator). Board of Equalization v. Louisville & N. R. Co., 139 Ky. 386, 109 S.W. 303, 33 Ky. L. Rptr. 78, 1908 Ky. LEXIS 9 (Ky. 1908).

INSURANCE COMPANIES AND OTHER MISCELLANEOUS TAXES136.320. Tax on taxable capital of domestic life insurance companies in lieu of other taxes — State and local rates.

(1) Each life insurance company incorporated under the laws of and doing business in Kentucky shall value as of January 1 and report to the Department of Revenue by April 1 each year, on forms prescribed by the Department of Revenue, the following:

(a) The fair cash value of the company’s intangible personal property, hereinafter referred to as “capital,” consisting of all money in hand, shares of stock, notes, bonds, accounts, and other credits, exclusive of due and deferred premiums, whether secured by mortgage, pledge, or otherwise, or unsecured.

(b) The fair cash value of the company’s intangible personal property exempt from taxation by law.

(c) The aggregate amount of the company’s reserves, reduced by the amount of due and deferred premiums, maintained in accordance with the applicable provisions of KRS 304.6-040 and 304.6-130 to 304.6-180, on all outstanding policies and contracts supplementary thereto.

(d) Other information as may be required by the Department of Revenue to accurately determine the fair cash value of each company’s “taxable capital” and “taxable reserves.”

(2) Based on information supplied by each company and other information that may be available, the Department of Revenue shall value each company’s “taxable capital” and “taxable reserves” as follows:

(a) "Taxable capital" shall be determined by deducting "taxable reserves" from "capital," less exempt intangible personal property.

(b) "Taxable reserves" shall be determined by multiplying the aggregate amount of reserves as computed in subsection (1)(c) of this section by the percentage determined by dividing "capital," less exempt intangible personal property, by "capital," including exempt intangible personal property.

(3)(a) An annual tax for state purposes shall be imposed against the fair cash value of "taxable capital" for calendar years beginning before 2000, at a rate of seventy cents ($.70) on each one hundred dollars ($100).

(b) An annual tax for state purposes shall be imposed against every company making an election pursuant to KRS 136.335 to be taxed under this section, against the fair cash value of taxable capital for calendar years beginning in 2000 as follows:

1. For calendar year 2000, fifty-six cents ($.56) on each one hundred dollars ($100);
2. For calendar year 2001, forty-two cents ($.42) on each one hundred dollars ($100);
3. For calendar year 2002, twenty-eight cents ($.28) on each one hundred dollars ($100);
4. For calendar year 2003, fourteen cents ($.14) on each one hundred dollars ($100); and
5. For calendar year 2004 and each calendar year thereafter, one tenth of one cent ($.001) on each one hundred dollars ($100).

(c) An annual tax for state purposes shall be imposed at a rate of one-tenth of one cent ($.001) on each one hundred dollars ($100) of the fair cash value of "taxable reserves".

(d) Beginning in tax year 2004 an insurer may offset the tax liability imposed under this subsection against the tax liability imposed under subsection (4) of this section.

(4) For calendar year 2000, and each calendar year thereafter, every company subject to the tax imposed by subsection (3) of this section, and making an election pursuant to KRS 136.335 to be taxed under this section, shall pay the following rates of tax upon each one hundred dollars ($100) of premium receipts:

- (a) For calendar year 2000, thirty-eight cents ($.38);
- (b) For calendar year 2001, seventy-two cents ($.72);
- (c) For calendar year 2002, one dollar and two cents ($1.02);
- (d) For calendar year 2003, one dollar and twenty-eight cents ($1.28); and
- (e) For calendar year 2004 and each calendar year thereafter, one dollar and fifty cents ($1.50).

Every company subject to the tax imposed by this subsection shall, by March 1 of each year, return to the Department of Revenue a statement under oath of all premium receipts on business done in this state during the preceding calendar year or since the last return was made. "Premium receipts" includes single premiums, premiums received for original insurance, premiums received for renewal, revival, or reinstatement of the policies, annual and periodical premiums, dividends applied for premiums and additions, and all other premium payments received on policies that have been written in this state, or on the lives of residents of this state, or out of this state on business done in this state, less returned premiums. No deduction shall be made for dividends on life insurance but dividends on accident and health insurance policies may be deducted.

(5) The taxes imposed under subsections (3) and (4) of this section shall be in lieu of all excise, license, occupational, or other taxes imposed by the state, county, city, or other taxing district, except as provided in subsections (6) and (7) of this section.

(6) The county in which the principal office of the company is located may impose a tax of fifteen cents ($.15) on each one hundred dollars ($100) of "taxable capital."

(7) The city in which the principal office of the company is located may impose a tax of fifteen cents ($.15) on each one hundred dollars ($100) of "taxable capital."

(8) The Department of Revenue shall by September 1 each year bill each company for the state taxes. It shall immediately certify to the county clerk of the county in which the principal office of the company is located the value of "taxable capital" subject to local taxation. The county clerk shall prepare and deliver a bill to the sheriff for collection of taxes collectible by the sheriff and shall certify the value to all other collecting officers of districts authorized to levy a tax.

(9) Each company's real and tangible personal property shall be subject to taxation at fair cash value by the state, county, school, and other taxing districts in which the property is located in the same manner and at the same rates as all other property of the same class.

(10) Taxes on property subject to taxation under this section shall be subject to the same discount and penalties as provided in KRS 134.015 and shall be collected in the same manner as taxes on property locally assessed, except that the state tax on the "taxable capital" and "taxable reserves" shall be collected directly by the Department of Revenue.

(11) Any taxpayer subject to taxation under this section may protest in the manner provided in KRS 131.110.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Analysis

1. Statute of Limitations.

2. Assessment.
3. Capital.

1. Statute of Limitations.

Tax imposed on certain intangible property was an ad valorem property tax, and thus the two-year statute of limitations applied to an insurance company's claim for a refund; neither equitable recoupment nor set-off were available to the insurance company. Am. Life & Accident Ins. Co. of Ky. v. Commonwealth, 173 S.W.3d 910, 2004 Ky. App. LEXIS 299 (Ky. Ct. App. 2004).

2. Assessment.

Domestic life insurance company was not entitled to tax refunds because: (1) the value of the taxpayer's investment corporate stock was properly treated in the computation of the taxpayer's tax liability under KRS 136.320; and (2) assets booked as separate accounts were properly subjected to taxation. Monumental Life Ins. Co. v. Dep't of Revenue, 294 S.W.3d 10, 2008 Ky. App. LEXIS 207 (Ky. Ct. App. 2008), cert. denied, 559 U.S. 1037, 130 S. Ct. 2062, 176 L. Ed. 2d 414, 2010 U.S. LEXIS 2866 (U.S. 2010).

3. Capital.

Holdings booked by a domestic life insurance company into separate accounts account fell within the statutory definition of capital in KRS 136.320(1)(a). Moreover, KRS 136.320 provided no exception for retirement and pension assets. Monumental Life Ins. Co. v. Dep't of Revenue, 294 S.W.3d 10, 2008 Ky. App. LEXIS 207 (Ky. Ct. App. 2008), cert. denied, 559 U.S. 1037, 130 S. Ct. 2062, 176 L. Ed. 2d 414, 2010 U.S. LEXIS 2866 (U.S. 2010).

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

A city is prohibited from levying an occupational license tax against a domestic life insurance company for the doing of business in the city. OAG 67-209.

The exemption from local taxation of domestic life insurance companies does not include agents of such companies. OAG 70-376.

A city can legally levy an occupational license tax on insurance companies if the city complies with all the restrictions contained in KRS 92.285 (repealed) and former subsection (5) of this section. OAG 82-188.

The language of the exempting clause contained in former subsection (3) of this section must be construed according to its common meaning, and therefore a city can levy a tax on a domestic life insurance company only as prescribed in former subsection (5) of this section. OAG 82-188.

MULTICHANNEL VIDEO PROGRAMMING AND COMMUNICATIONS SERVICES TAX

136.602. Definitions for KRS 136.600 to 136.660.

As used in KRS 136.600 to 136.660:

(1) "Cable service" means the provision of video, audio, or other programming service to purchasers, and the purchaser interaction, if any, required for the selection or use of the video or other programming service, regardless of whether the programming is transmitted over facilities owned or operated by the provider or by one (1) or more other communications service providers. Included in this definition are basic, extended, and premium service, pay-per-view service, digital or other music services, and other similar services;

(2) "Communications service" means the provision, transmission, conveyance, or routing, for consideration, of voice, data, video, or any other information signals of the purchaser's choosing to a point or between or among points specified by the purchaser, by or through any electronic, radio, light, fiber-optic, or similar medium or method now in existence or later devised.

(a) "Communications service" includes but is not limited to:

1. Local and long-distance telephone services;
2. Telegraph and teletypewriter services;
3. Prepaid calling services, and postpaid calling services;
4. Private communications services involving a direct channel specifically dedicated to a customer's use between specific points;
5. Channel services involving a path of communications between two (2) or more points;
6. Data transport services involving the movement of encoded information between points by means of any electronic, radio, or other medium or method;
7. Caller ID services, ring tones, voice mail and other electronic messaging services;
8. Mobile telecommunications service as defined in 4 U.S.C. sec. 124(7); and
9. Voice over Internet Protocol (VOIP);

(b) "Communications services" does not include information services or multichannel video programming service;

(3) "Department" means the Department of Revenue;

(4) "End user" means the person who utilized the multichannel video programming service. In the case of an entity, "end user" means the individual who used the service on behalf of the entity;

(5) "Engaged in business" means:

(a) Having any employee, representative, agent, salesman, canvasser, or solicitor operating in this state, under the authority of the provider, its subsidiary, or related entity, for the purpose of selling, delivering, taking orders, or performing any activities that help establish or maintain a marketplace for the provider;

- (b) Maintaining, occupying, or using permanently or temporarily, directly or indirectly, or through a subsidiary or any other related entity, agent or representative, by whatever name called, an office, place of distribution, sales or sample room or place, warehouse or storage place, or other place of business;
- (c) Having real or tangible personal property in this state;
- (d) Providing communications service by or through a customer's facilities located in this state;
- (e) Soliciting orders from residents of this state on a continuous, regular, or systematic basis in which the solicitation of the order, placement of the order by the customer or payment of the order utilizes the services of any financial institution, communications system, radio or television station, cable service, direct broadcast satellite or wireless cable service, print media, or other facility or service located in this state; or
- (f) Soliciting orders from residents of this state on a continuous regular, systematic basis if the provider benefits from an agent or representative operating in this state under the authority of the provider to repair or service tangible personal property sold by the retailer;
- (6) "Gross revenues" means all amounts received in money, credits, property, or other money's worth in any form, by a provider for furnishing multichannel video programming service or communications service in this state excluding amounts received from:
- (a) Charges for Internet access as defined in 47 U.S.C. sec. 151; and
 - (b) Any excise tax, sales tax, or similar tax, fee, or assessment levied by the United States or any state or local political subdivision upon the purchase, sale, use, or other consumption of communications services or multichannel video programming services that is permitted or required to be added to the sales price of the communications service or multichannel video programming service. This exclusion does not include any amount that the provider has retained as a reimbursement for collecting and remitting the tax to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction in a timely manner;
- (7) "In this state" means within the exterior limits of the Commonwealth of Kentucky and includes all territory within these limits owned by or ceded to the United States of America;
- (8) "Multichannel video programming service" means live, scheduled, or on-demand programming provided by or generally considered comparable to or in competition with programming provided by a television broadcast station and shall include but not be limited to:
- (a) Cable service;
 - (b) Satellite broadcast and wireless cable service;
 - (c) Internet protocol television provided through wireline facilities without regard to delivery technology; and
 - (d) Video streaming services;
- (9) "Person" means and includes any individual, firm, corporation, joint venture, association, social club, fraternal organization, general partnership, limited partnership, limited liability partnership, limited liability company, nonprofit entity, estate, trust, business trust, receiver, trustee, syndicate, cooperative, assignee, governmental unit or agency, or any other group or combination acting as a unit;
- (10) "Place of primary use" means the street address where the end user's use of the multichannel video programming service primarily occurs;
- (11) "Political subdivision" means a city, county, urban-county government, consolidated local government, or charter county government;
- (12) "Provider" means any person receiving gross revenues for the provision of multichannel video programming service or communications service in this state;
- (13) "Purchaser" means the person paying for multichannel video programming service;
- (14) "Resale" means the purchase of a multichannel video programming service by a provider required to collect the tax levied by KRS 136.604 for sale, or incorporation into a multichannel video programming service for sale, including but not limited to:
- (a) Charges paid by multichannel video programming service providers for transmission of video or other programming by another provider over facilities owned or operated by the other provider; and
 - (b) Charges for use of facilities for providing or receiving multichannel video programming services;
- (15) "Retail purchase" means any purchase of a multichannel video programming service for any purpose other than resale;
- (16) "Ring tones" means digitized sound files that are downloaded onto a device and that may be used to alert the customer with respect to a communication;
- (17) "Sale" means the furnishing of a multichannel video programming service for consideration;
- (18)(a) "Sales price" means the total amount billed by or on behalf of a provider for the sale of multichannel video programming services in this state valued in money, whether paid in money or otherwise, without any deduction on account of the following:
1. Any charge attributable to the connection, movement, change, or termination of a multichannel video programming service; or
 2. Any charge for detail billing;
- (b) "Sales price" does not include any of the following:
1. Charges for installation, reinstallation, or maintenance of wiring or equipment on a customer's premises;
 2. Charges for the sale or rental of tangible personal property;
 3. Charges for billing and collection services provided to another multichannel video programming service provider;
 4. Bad check charges;
 5. Late payment charges;
 6. Any excise tax, sales tax, or similar tax, fee, or assessment levied by the United States or any state or local political subdivision, upon the purchase, sale, use, or consumption of any multichannel video programming service, that is permitted or required to be added to the sales price of the multichannel video programming service; or

7. Internet access as defined in 47 U.S.C. sec. 151;

(19) "Satellite broadcast and wireless cable service" means point-to-point or point-to-multipoint distribution services that include but are not limited to direct broadcast satellite service and multichannel multipoint distribution services, with programming or voice transmitted or broadcast by satellite, microwave, or any other equipment directly to the purchaser. Included in this definition are basic, extended, and premium service, pay-per-view service, digital or other music services, two (2) way service, and other similar services;

(20) "School district" means a school district as defined in KRS 160.010 and 160.020;

(21) "Special district" means a special district as defined in KRS 65.005(2)(a) that currently levies on any provider or its customers the public service corporation property tax under KRS 136.120; and

(22) "Video streaming services" means programming that streams live events, movies, syndicated and television programming, or other audio-visual content over the Internet for viewing on a television or other electronic device with or without regard to a particular viewing schedule.

136.605. Sourcing of communications services — Definitions.

(1) For purposes of KRS 136.600 to 136.660 the retailer shall source communications services as follows:

(a) A sale of mobile telecommunications services, other than air-to-ground radiotelephone service and prepaid wireless calling service, shall be sourced to the customer's or other purchaser's place of primary use;

(b) A sale of postpaid calling service shall be sourced to the origination point of the telecommunications signal as first identified by either the retailer's telecommunications system or information received by the retailer from its service provider, where the system used to transport the signal is not that of the retailer;

(c) A sale of prepaid calling service or a sale of a prepaid wireless calling service shall be sourced as follows:

1. Over the counter. The sale is sourced to the business location of the seller;

2. Delivery to a specified address. The sale is sourced to the specified address when a purchaser or purchaser's donee receives the service at a location specified by the purchaser; or

3. Delivery address unknown. When the retailer does not know the address where the service is received, the sale is sourced to the first address listed in this paragraph that is known to the retailer:

a. The address of the purchaser available from the business records of the retailer;

b. The billing address of the purchaser;

c. The address from which the service was provided; or

d. In the case of a sale of prepaid wireless calling service, the location associated with the mobile telephone number;

(d) A sale of a private communications service shall be sourced as follows:

1. Service for a separate charge related to a customer channel termination point shall be sourced to each level of jurisdiction in which the customer channel termination point is located.

2. Service where all customer termination points are located entirely within one (1) jurisdiction or levels of jurisdiction is sourced in the jurisdiction in which the customer channel termination points are located.

3. Service for segments of a channel between two (2) customer channel termination points located in different jurisdictions and which segments of channel are separately charged shall be sourced fifty percent (50%) in each level of jurisdiction in which the customer channel termination points are located.

4. Service for segments of a channel located in more than one (1) jurisdiction or levels of jurisdiction and which segments are not separately billed shall be sourced in each jurisdiction based on the percentage determined by dividing the number of customer channel termination points in the jurisdiction by the total number of customer channel termination points; and

(e) A sale of other communications services:

1. Sold on a call-by-call basis shall be sourced based on the taxing jurisdiction where the call either originates or terminates and in which the service address is also located; or

2. Sold on a basis other than a call-by-call basis shall be sourced to the customer's or other purchaser's place of primary use.

(2) For purposes of this section:

(a) "Air-to-ground radiotelephone service" has the same meaning as in KRS 139.195;

(b) "Call-by-call basis" means any method of charging for communications services where the price is measured by individual calls;

(c) "Communications channel" has the same meaning as in KRS 139.195;

(d) "Customer" has the same meaning as in KRS 139.195;

(e) "Customer channel termination point" has the same meaning as KRS 139.195;

(f) "Home service provider" has the same meaning as in KRS 139.195;

(g) "Postpaid calling service" means a communications service obtained by making a payment on a call-by-call basis either through the use of a credit card or payment mechanism such as a bank card, travel card, credit card, or debit card, or by charge made to a telephone number not associated with the origination or termination of the communications service. A postpaid calling service includes a communications service, except a prepaid wireless calling service, that would be a prepaid service except that it is not exclusively a communications service;

(h) "Prepaid calling service" means the right to access exclusively communications services, which are paid for in advance and which enable the origination of calls using an access number or authorization code, whether manually or electronically dialed, and that is sold in predetermined units or dollars of which the number declines with use in a known amount;

(i) "Prepaid wireless calling service" means a communications service that:

1. Provides the right to utilize mobile wireless service as well as other nontelecommunications services, including the download of digital products delivered electronically, content, and ancillary services;

2. Must be paid for in advance; and

3. Is sold in predetermined units of dollars of which the number declines with use in a known amount;

(j) "Private communications service" means a communications service that entitles the customer or other purchaser to exclusive or priority use of a communications channel or group of channels between or among termination points, regardless of the manner in which the channel or channels are connected, and includes switching capacity, extension lines, stations, and any other associated services that are provided in connection with the use of a channel or channels; and

(k) "Service address" has the same meaning as in KRS 139.195.

136.608. Exclusions from excise tax.

There are excluded from the tax imposed by KRS 136.604:

(1) Multichannel video programming services the purchase of which is prohibited from taxation under the Constitution or laws of the United States;

(2) Multichannel video programming services purchased by any cabinet, department, bureau, commission, board, or other statutory or constitutional agency of the state, and multichannel video programming services purchased by counties, cities, schools, or special districts as defined in KRS 65.005. This exclusion shall apply only to purchases for use solely in the governmental function. A purchaser not qualifying as a governmental agency or unit shall not be entitled to the exemption even though the purchaser may be the recipient of public funds or grants; and

(3) Multichannel video programming services purchased by resident, nonprofit educational, charitable, and religious institutions which have qualified for exemption from income taxation under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, provided that the service is to be used solely within the educational, charitable, or religious function of the institution.

History.

Enact. Acts 2005, ch. 168, § 92, effective January 1, 2006.

136.648. Gross revenues and excise tax fund and state baseline and local growth fund — Creation and administration of funds.

(1) There is established in the State Treasury a gross revenues and excise tax fund. The fund shall be held and administered by the Finance and Administration Cabinet. The cabinet shall invest money in the fund in the same manner as money in the state general fund.

(2) There is established in the State Treasury a state baseline and local growth fund. The fund shall be held and administered by the Finance and Administration Cabinet. The cabinet shall invest money in the fund in the same manner as money in the state general fund.

(3) All revenue from the tax imposed under KRS 136.604 and 136.616, including all penalties and interest attributable to the nonpayment of the tax or for noncompliance with KRS 132.825 and 136.600 to 136.660 shall be deposited into gross revenues and excise tax fund. Amounts deposited in the gross revenues and excise tax fund shall be allocated among the state, political subdivisions, school districts and special districts as provided in KRS 136.648, 136.650, 136.652, 136.654, and 136.656.

(4) All money in the gross revenues and excise tax fund designated for distribution to political subdivisions under KRS 136.648, 136.650, 136.652, 136.654, and 136.656:

(a) Shall not be withheld or reduced by the General Assembly or any state agency for any reason, except for adjustments provided for within KRS 132.825 and 136.600 to 136.660; and

(b) Shall be used solely and exclusively for the provision of services to the general public, including public protection, health services, education, libraries, transportation services, and economic development. No amount shall be used for purely local purposes affecting only the inhabitants of the particular political subdivision, such as the administration of local government. Neither the General Assembly nor any state agency shall mandate how the funds are to be used.

136.650. Required participation in funds — Computation of amounts — Designated monthly hold harmless amount.

(1)(a) Every political subdivision, school district, and special district shall participate in the gross revenues and excise tax fund and the state baseline and local growth fund.

(b) On or before December 1, 2005, each political subdivision shall certify to the department on a prescribed form the amount of collections it received from the local franchise fees collected from communications service and multichannel video programming service providers and other fees collected to fund public educational and government access programming during the period between July 1, 2004, and June 30, 2005. By certifying its participation under this subsection, each political subdivision:

1. Consents to the hearing process provided in KRS 136.658; and
2. Agrees to relinquish its right to enforce the portion of any contract or agreement that requires the payment of a franchise fee or tax on communications services and multichannel video programming services, regardless of whether the tax or fee is imposed on the provider or its customers.

(c) The amount of collections received by each political subdivision, school district, special district, and sheriff's department between July 1, 2004, and June 30, 2005, from the tax imposed by KRS 136.120 attributable to the franchise portion of the operating property, as noted in KRS 136.115, shall be calculated by the department from assessment data for calendar year 2004.

(2) The monthly portion of the gross revenues and excise tax fund that shall be distributed to political subdivisions, school districts and special districts under KRS 136.652 shall be computed as follows:

(a) Each political subdivision, school district and special district shall be assigned a percentage based on the amount of its collections certified under subsection (1) of this section as a ratio of the total certified amount of collections of all parties participating in the fund. This percentage shall be known as the "local historical percentage." The portion of the sheriff departments' certified collections identified in subsection (1) of this section from the tax imposed under KRS 136.120 attributable to the franchise portion of the operating property, as noted in KRS 136.115, that was imposed by county governments shall be added to each county's reported collections to determine its local historical percentage;

(b) The sheriff departments' collections certified under subsection (1) of this section that are retained by the sheriff departments as their fee for collecting the taxes shall be the sheriff departments' fixed hold-harmless amount;

(c) Three million thirty-four thousand dollars (\$3,034,000), which represents one-twelfth ($\frac{1}{12}$) of the total potential collections, shall be designated as the "monthly hold-harmless amount"; and

(d) Each political subdivision's, school district's, and special district's local historical percentage shall be multiplied by the monthly hold-harmless amount to determine its monthly distribution from the fund.

(3) If during the period between June 30, 2005, and December 31, 2005, any political subdivision had a substantial change in its base revenue by enacting or modifying the rate of a local franchise fee prior to June 30, 2005, the political subdivision may request the department to determine its certified collection amount.

(4) If any political subdivision, school district, special district, or sheriff's department believes that the data used to determine its certified amount of collections are inaccurate, the political subdivision, school district, special district, or sheriff's department may request a redetermination by the oversight committee established by KRS 136.658. A redetermination shall be effective prospectively beginning with the next distribution cycle occurring ninety (90) days after the matter is finally settled.

136.652. Distribution — Administrative costs — Monthly hold harmless amounts.

Money in the gross revenues and excise tax fund shall be distributed monthly as follows:

(1) One percent (1%) shall be deposited in a trust and agency account created in the State Treasury to be used by the department for administration costs associated with the implementation, collection, and distribution of the tax imposed by KRS 136.604 and 136.616.

(2) After the distribution required under subsection (1) of this section, the department shall distribute to each political subdivision, school district and special district the applicable monthly hold-harmless amount as calculated under KRS 136.650. In addition, the department shall distribute one-twelfth ($\frac{1}{12}$) of the sheriff department's fixed hold-harmless amount as defined in KRS 136.650(2)(b). For tax collections received in January and February of 2006, the department shall make the distribution by April 25, 2006. For all other periods, the department shall make distribution by the twenty-fifth day of the next calendar month following the tax receipts.

(3) After the distribution required by subsection (2) of this section, the department shall deposit one million two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($1,250,000) in the state general fund. This amount shall be adjusted on a prospective basis after the collection of the first twelve (12) months of tax receipts from the taxes imposed by KRS 136.604 and 136.616 to equal the average monthly tax receipts attributable to the taxation of satellite broadcast and wireless cable services under KRS 136.604 and 136.616. The amount shall then become the fixed amount distributed to the general fund.

(4) Money remaining in the gross revenues and excise tax fund after the distribution required by subsection (3) of this section shall be transferred to the state baseline and local growth fund established in KRS 136.648.

136.654. Determination of distributions — State baseline and local growth fund.

(1) On or before December 1, 2005, and every January 31 thereafter, each participating political subdivision shall certify to the department its total tax receipts for the prior fiscal year. This amount shall be used to calculate the percentage of each political subdivision's portion of the account labeled under its county's name within the state baseline and local growth fund as described in subsection (3)(b) of this section. "Total tax receipts" shall not include revenue from nontax sources, such as intergovernmental revenues, charges for services, tuition, interfund transfers, interest and investment income, rental income, income from asset sales, beginning balances, or revenue from licenses and permits. "Total tax receipts" shall include the following:

(a) Real estate and tangible personal property taxes, including delinquent tax receipts;

(b) Franchise fees or taxes on utilities, other than multichannel video programming service and communications service utilities;

(c) Occupational and business license fees or taxes, including insurance premium taxes, net profits taxes, gross receipts taxes, payroll taxes, transient room taxes, restaurant taxes, and bank deposit taxes;

(d) Telephone emergency surcharge fees;

(e) Gross revenues tax hold-harmless and growth fund receipts; and

(f) Payments in lieu of taxes.

(2) On or before every January 31, each participating school district and special district shall certify to the department the amount of its prior year tax assessments under KRS Chapter 132 on companies' providing of multichannel video programming service and communications service. This amount shall be used to calculate the percentage of each school district's and special district's portion of the account labeled under its county's name within the state baseline and local growth fund as described in subsection (3)(b) of this section. For tax years with no assessments under KRS Chapter 132, the local historical percentage as defined in KRS 136.650 shall be used.

(3) Each political subdivision's, school district's, and special district's monthly portion of the state baseline and local growth fund shall be computed as follows:

(a) A "local growth portion" shall be determined as an amount of money that when added to the hold-harmless amount identified in KRS 136.650(2)(c) equals fifteen and six-tenths percent (15.6%) of the total amount deposited in the gross revenues and excise tax fund, minus the amount of distributions made under KRS 136.652(1) and (3).

(b) The local growth portion shall be accounted for by county within the state baseline and local growth fund based on the ratio of the gross revenues tax collected on multichannel video programming services and communications services provided in each county to the total statewide collections of the gross revenues tax. The county-by-county allotment of the local growth portion shall be known as the "county growth portion."

(c) The county growth portion shall be further segregated into the political subdivision allotment, the school district allotment, and the special district allotment based upon the ratio of each allotment category's total historical collections as calculated under KRS 136.650(2) to the total overall county historical collections as calculated from the certified collections under KRS 136.650(1).

(d) On or before April 25, 2006, each political subdivision's share of the political subdivision allotment shall be determined by multiplying the political subdivision allotment of the local growth portion as determined in paragraph (b) of this subsection by the percentage calculated in subsection (1) of this section.

(e) On or before April 25, 2006, each school district's share of the school district allotment shall be determined by multiplying the school district allotment as determined in paragraph (c) of this subsection by the percentage calculated in subsection (2) of this section.

(f) On or before April 25, 2006, each special district's share of the special district allotment shall be determined by multiplying the special district allotment as determined in paragraph (c) of this subsection by the percentage calculated in subsection (2) of this section.

(g) The respective allotment share for each participating political subdivision, school district, and special district shall be adjusted every July 1 following the year 2006, to account for any change in its percentages based on annual certifications required in subsections (1) and (2) of this section.

(h) Notwithstanding the annual certifications required in subsection (1) of this section, following the year 2006, political subdivisions may choose to determine their respective shares of the political subdivision allotment pursuant to an interlocal agreement as authorized under KRS 65.240. Activation or termination of an interlocal agreement shall comply with the notification requirements of subsection (1) of this section and shall become effective the following July 1. The terms of a timely interlocal agreement governing the distribution of a political subdivision allotment shall remain in effect until its timely termination by one of the participating political subdivisions.

136.656. Distributions — County growth portion — State baseline portion.

All money deposited in the state baseline and local growth fund created under KRS 136.648 shall be distributed monthly, according to the same schedule for distribution from the gross revenues and excise tax fund, as follows:

(1) The county growth portion shall be distributed in accordance with the formulas established in KRS 136.654.

(2) After the distribution required under subsection (1) of this section, the remaining balance shall be deposited in the general fund. This amount shall be known as the “state baseline portion,” which shall represent, if sufficient funds are available, eighty-four and four-tenths percent (84.4%) of the total amount deposited in the gross revenues and excise tax fund, minus the amount of distributions made under KRS 136.652(1) and (3).

136.658. Local Distribution Fund Oversight Committee — Creation and duties.

(1) The Local Distribution Fund Oversight Committee is hereby created and administratively attached to and staffed by the department. The oversight committee shall consist of nine (9) members appointed by the Governor and shall be representative of local government and state government officials. The Governor shall receive recommendations for four (4) members each from the Kentucky Association of Counties and the Kentucky League of Cities from which the Governor shall select two (2) members each. The Governor shall receive recommendations for two (2) members each from the Kentucky School Board Association, the Kentucky Superintendents Association, and the Kentucky School Administrators Association from which the Governor shall select one (1) member each. One (1) member shall be appointed by the Governor to represent the interests of special districts other than school districts. The remaining member shall be the commissioner of the Department for Local Government, who shall serve as chairperson of the oversight committee. The members shall serve for a term of three (3) years. Five (5) members of the oversight committee shall constitute a quorum. A member may be removed for cause in accordance with procedures established by the oversight committee and shall serve without salary but shall be reimbursed for expenses in the same manner as state employees. Any vacancy occurring on the oversight committee shall be filled by the Governor for the unexpired term.

(2) The duties of the oversight committee shall be:

(a) To monitor the department’s implementation and distribution of funds from the gross revenues and excise tax fund and the state baseline and local growth fund and to report its findings to the commissioner of the department; and

(b) To act as a finder of fact for the commissioner of the department in disputes in and between political subdivisions, school districts, special districts, and sheriff departments, and between political subdivisions, school districts, special districts, and sheriff departments, and the department regarding the implementation and distribution of funds from the gross revenues and excise tax fund and the state baseline and local growth fund.

(3) The department shall provide the oversight committee with an annual report reflecting the amounts distributed to each participating political subdivision, school district, special district, or sheriff department.

(4) Any political subdivision, school district, special district, or sheriff department may file a complaint and request a hearing with the oversight committee on a form prescribed by the committee. The oversight committee shall give notice to any political subdivision, school district, special district, or sheriff department that may be affected by the complaint. Any political subdivision, school district, special district, or sheriff department intending to respond to the complaint shall do so in writing within thirty (30) days of notice of the complaint.

(5) In conducting its business:

(a) The oversight committee shall give due notice of the times and places of its hearings;

(b) The parties shall be entitled to be heard, to present evidence, and to examine and cross-examine witnesses;

(c) The oversight committee shall act by majority vote;

(d) The oversight committee shall adopt and publish rules of procedure and practice regarding its hearings; and

(e) The oversight committee shall make written findings and recommendations to the commissioner of the department.

(6) The commissioner of the department shall review the findings and recommendations of the oversight committee and issue a final ruling within sixty (60) days of receipt of the recommendations.

(7) The parties in the dispute shall have the rights and duties to appeal any final ruling to the Board of Tax Appeals under KRS 49.220.

(8) Nothing contained in this section shall prevent at any time a written compromise of any matter or matters in dispute, if otherwise lawful, by the parties to the hearing process.

PENALTIES

136.990. Penalties.

(1) Any corporation that fails to pay its taxes, penalty, and interest as provided in subsection (2) of KRS 136.050, after becoming delinquent, shall be fined fifty dollars ($50) for each day the same remains unpaid, to be recovered by indictment or civil action, of which the Franklin Circuit Court shall have jurisdiction.

(2) Any public service corporation, or officer thereof, that willfully fails or refuses to make reports as required by KRS 136.130 and 136.140 shall be fined one thousand dollars ($1,000), and fifty dollars ($50) for each day the reports are not made after April 30 of each year.

(3) Any superintendent of schools or county clerk who fails to report as required by KRS 136.190, or who makes a false report, shall be fined not less than fifty dollars ($50) nor more than one hundred dollars ($100) for each offense.

(4) Any company or association that fails or refuses to return the statement or pay the taxes required by KRS 136.330 or 136.340 shall be fined one thousand dollars ($1,000) for each offense.

(5) Any insurance company that fails or refuses for thirty (30) days to return the statement required by KRS 136.330 or 136.340 and to pay the tax required by KRS 136.330 or 136.340, shall forfeit one hundred dollars ($100) for each offense. The commissioner of insurance shall revoke the authority of the company or its agents to do business in this state, and shall publish the revocation pursuant to KRS Chapter 424.

(6) Any person who violates subsection (3) of KRS 136.390 shall be fined not less than one hundred dollars ($100) nor more than five hundred dollars ($500) for each offense.

(7) Where no other penalty is mentioned for failing to do an act required, or for doing an act forbidden by this chapter, the penalty shall be not less than ten dollars ($10) nor more than five hundred dollars ($500).

(8) The Franklin Circuit Court shall have jurisdiction of all prosecutions under subsections (4) to (6) of this section.

(9) Any person who violates any of the provisions of KRS 136.073 shall be subject to the uniform civil penalties imposed pursuant to KRS 131.180.

(10) If the tax imposed by KRS 136.073, whether assessed by the department or the taxpayer, or any installment or portion of the tax, is not paid on or before the date prescribed for its payment, interest shall be collected upon the nonpaid amount at the tax interest rate as defined in KRS 131.010(6) from the date prescribed for its payment until payment is actually made to the department.

(11) Any provider who violates the provisions of KRS 136.616(3) shall be subject to a penalty of twenty-five dollars ($25) per purchaser offense, not to exceed ten thousand dollars ($10,000) per month.

Compiler's Notes.

Section 17 of Acts 1976, ch. 155, provided that the provisions of the 1976 amendment to this section should apply to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1975.

Section 26 of Acts 1992, ch. 403, provides: "The provisions of this Act shall become effective for all tax returns or reports due on or after August 1, 1992 and all taxes assessed by the cabinet on or after December 31, 1992."

Legislative Research Commission Notes.

(6/27/2019). Section 82 of 2019 Ky. Acts ch. 151 states that the amendments to this statute made in Section 18 of that Act apply to transactions occurring on or after July 1, 2019.

(4/27/2018). KRS 136.070 was repealed in 2018 Ky. Acts chs. 171 and 207, but a conforming amendment was not made to this statute to address the reference it contains to KRS 136.070. The Reviser of Statutes has determined that making such a conforming change during the 2018 codification exceeds the permissible correction of manifest clerical or typographical errors under KRS 7.136(1)(h). Therefore, the reference to KRS 136.070 remains unchanged and would have to be changed pursuant to future legislative action.

(3/6/2006). 2006 Ky. Acts ch. 6, sec. 26, provides that this section applies retroactively to January 1, 2006.

(7/13/90) The Act amending this section prevails over the repeal and reenactment in House Bill 940, Acts Ch. 476, pursuant to Section 653(1) of Acts Ch. 476.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Analysis

1. Constitutionality.
2. Venue.
3. Failure to Make Report.
4. Collection of Fine.

1. Constitutionality.

Direct-collection clause of KRS 136.616 referred to non-expressive conduct in connection with collection of a state tax, not speech, and was beyond the protection of the First Amendment. So long as the direct-collection prong could stay on the books, so could the penalty provision, KRS 136.990(11), to which it applied. BellSouth Telecomms., Inc. v. Farris, 542

F.3d 499, 2008 FED App. 0343P, 2008 U.S. App. LEXIS 19170 (6th Cir. Ky. 2008).

2. Venue.

Penal action to recover fine for failing to report as required by KRS 136.130 must be brought in Franklin County. Commonwealth v. Morrell Refrigerator Co., 129 Ky. 738, 112 S.W. 860, 1908 Ky. LEXIS 216 (Ky. 1908).

3. Failure to Make Report.

Corporation which failed to make required report by KRS 136.130 because it did not receive from Department of Revenue (now Revenue Cabinet) blank form which department (now cabinet) had customarily mailed to corporations in previous years was liable to conviction for "wilfully" failing to report. Nashville, C. & S. L. R. Co. v. Commonwealth, 160 Ky. 50, 169 S.W. 511, 1914 Ky. LEXIS 394 (Ky. 1914).

Where representative of Department of Revenue (now Revenue Cabinet) required corporation to include in its report certain information that could not be obtained before date on which report was required to be made, corporation could not be convicted of wilfully failing to report under subsection (3) of this section. United Fuel Gas Co. v. Commonwealth, 171 Ky. 525, 188 S.W. 660, 1916 Ky. LEXIS 400 (Ky. 1916).

Where officer of corporation whose duty it was to file report honestly believed that subordinate officer had filed report, which had been made ready for filing, and report was filed as soon as omission was discovered, corporation could not be convicted of wilful failure to report. Danville Light, Power & Traction Co. v. Commonwealth, 191 Ky. 270, 230 S.W. 38, 1921 Ky. LEXIS 302 (Ky. 1921).

Mere failure to file the report required by KRS 136.130 does not necessarily constitute "wilful" failure within the meaning of subsection (3) of this section. Danville Light, Power & Traction Co. v. Commonwealth, 191 Ky. 270, 230 S.W. 38, 1921 Ky. LEXIS 302 (Ky. 1921).

4. Collection of Fine.

Fine imposed by subsection (3) of this section may be recovered by penal action. Commonwealth v. Morrell Refrigerator Co., 129 Ky. 738, 112 S.W. 860, 1908 Ky. LEXIS 216 (Ky. 1908).

The fine imposed by subsection (3) of this section could not be collected in a civil suit by a revenue agent, it being collectible only after criminal conviction. Louisville Water Co. v. Commonwealth, 132 Ky. 311, 116 S.W. 711, 1909 Ky. LEXIS 115 (Ky. 1909).

CHAPTER 138 EXCISE TAXES

Motor Vehicle Usage.

Section

138.470. Exemptions from tax.

MOTOR VEHICLE USAGE

138.470. Exemptions from tax.

There is expressly exempted from the tax imposed by KRS 138.460:

(1)(a) Motor vehicles titled or registered to the United States, or to the Commonwealth of Kentucky or any of its political subdivisions; and

(b) The gross rental or lease charges for the rental or lease of a motor vehicle paid by the United States, or the Commonwealth of Kentucky or any of its political subdivisions;

(2) Motor vehicles titled or registered to institutions of purely public charity and institutions of education not used or employed for gain by any person or corporation;

(3) Motor vehicles which have been previously titled in Kentucky on or after July 1, 2005, or previously registered and titled in any state or by the federal government when being sold or transferred to licensed motor vehicle dealers for resale. The motor vehicles shall not be leased, rented, or loaned to any person and shall be held for resale only;

(4) Motor vehicles sold by or transferred from dealers registered and licensed in compliance with the provisions of KRS 186.070 and KRS 190.010 to 190.080 to members of the Armed Forces on duty in this Commonwealth under orders from the United States government;

(5) Commercial motor vehicles, excluding passenger vehicles having a seating capacity for nine (9) persons or less, owned by nonresident owners and used primarily in interstate commerce and based in a state other than Kentucky which are required to be registered in Kentucky by reason of operational requirements or fleet proration agreements and are registered pursuant to KRS 186.145;

(6) Motor vehicles titled in Kentucky on or after July 1, 2005, or previously registered in Kentucky, transferred between husband and wife, parent and child, stepparent and stepchild, or grandparent and grandchild;

(7) Motor vehicles transferred when a business changes its name and no other transaction has taken place or an individual changes his or her name;

(8) Motor vehicles transferred to a corporation from a proprietorship or limited liability company, to a limited liability company from a corporation or proprietorship, or from a corporation or limited liability company to a proprietorship, within six (6) months from the time that the business is incorporated, organized, or dissolved, if the transferor and the transferee are the same business entity except for a change in legal form;

(9) Motor vehicles transferred by will, court order, or under the statutes covering descent and distribution of property, if the vehicles were titled in Kentucky on or after July 1, 2005, or previously registered in Kentucky;

(10) Motor vehicles transferred between a subsidiary corporation and its parent corporation if there is no consideration, or nominal consideration, or in sole consideration of the cancellation or surrender of stock;

(11) Motor vehicles transferred between a limited liability company and any of its members, if there is no consideration, or nominal consideration, or in sole consideration of the cancellation or surrender of stock;

(12) The interest of a partner in a motor vehicle when other interests are transferred to him;

(13) Motor vehicles repossessed by a secured party who has a security interest in effect at the time of repossession and a repossession affidavit as required by KRS 186.045(6). The reposessor shall hold the vehicle for resale only and not for personal use, unless he has previously paid the motor vehicle usage tax on the vehicle;

(14) Motor vehicles transferred to an insurance company to settle a claim. These vehicles shall be junked or held for resale only;

(15) Motor carriers operating under a charter bus certificate issued by the Transportation Cabinet under KRS Chapter 281;

(16)(a)1. Motor vehicles registered under KRS 186.050 that have a declared gross vehicle weight with any towed unit of forty-four thousand and one (44,001) pounds or greater; and

2. Farm trucks registered under KRS 186.050(4) that have a declared gross vehicle weight with any towed unit of forty-four thousand and one (44,001) pounds or greater;

(b) To be eligible for the exemption established in paragraph (a) of this subsection, motor vehicles shall be registered at the appropriate range for the declared gross weight of the vehicle established in KRS 186.050(3)(b) and shall be prohibited from registering at a higher weight range. If a motor vehicle is initially registered in one (1) declared gross weight range and subsequently is registered at a declared gross weight range lower than forty-four thousand and one (44,001) pounds, the person registering the vehicle shall be required to pay the county clerk the usage tax due on the vehicle unless the person can provide written proof to the clerk that the tax has been previously paid;

(17) Motor vehicles transferred to a trustee to be held in trust, or from a trustee to a beneficiary of the trust, if a direct transfer from the grantor of the trust to all individual beneficiaries of the trust would have qualified for an exemption from the tax pursuant to subsection (6) or (9) of this section;

(18) Motor vehicles transferred to a trustee to be held in trust, if the grantor of the trust is a natural person and is treated as the owner of any portion of the trust for federal income tax purposes under the provisions of 26 U.S.C. secs. 671 to 679;

(19) Motor vehicles transferred from a trustee of a trust to another person if:

(a) The grantor of the trust is a natural person and is treated as the owner of any portion of the trust for federal income tax purposes under the provisions of 26 U.S.C. secs. 671 to 679; and

(b) A direct transfer from the grantor of the trust to the person would have qualified for an exemption from the tax pursuant to subsection (6) or (9) of this section; and

(20) Motor vehicles under a manufacturer's statement of origin in possession of a licensed new motor vehicle dealer that are titled and transferred to a licensed used motor vehicle dealer and held for sale.

Compiler's Notes.

Section 2 of Acts 1998, ch. 290, provided that the 1998 amendments to this section "shall apply for motor vehicles transferred after July 31, 1998."

Legislative Research Commission Notes.

(3/6/2006). 2006 Ky. Acts ch. 6, sec. 29, provides that this section applies retroactively to July 1, 2005.

(6/24/2003). 2000 Ky. Acts ch. 408, sec. 178, renumbered the former subsection (4) of KRS 186.045 as subsection (3), but that Act failed to include a conforming amendment to change the reference to that subsection in subsection (13) of this statute. Under KRS 7.136(1)(e), that change has now been made.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Analysis

1. Municipalities.
2. Religious Institutions.
3. Commercial Motor Vehicles.

1. Municipalities.

Fourth-class city held exempt from the payment of use taxes on automobiles purchased by the city for municipal use. Thomas v. Elizabethtown, 403 S.W.2d 269, 1965 Ky. LEXIS 8 (Ky. 1965) (decided under prior law).

2. Religious Institutions.

This section exempted religious institutions from the tax imposed by subsection (2) of KRS 138.460. Gray v. Methodist Episcopal Church, etc., 272 Ky. 646, 114 S.W.2d 1141, 1938 Ky. LEXIS 180 (Ky. 1938) (decided under prior law).

3. Commercial Motor Vehicles.

This section did not exempt common carriers of passengers by motor bus from usage tax. Furste v. Dixie Traction Co., 286 Ky. 336, 150 S.W.2d 913, 1941 Ky. LEXIS 265 (Ky. 1941) (decided under prior law).

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

Subsection (1) of this section does not exempt a motor vehicle sold to a pastor in his capacity as a private individual for his personal use. OAG 60-181.

The LKLP Council, a private nonprofit corporation whose general objective is the social, individual, and economic growth of Leslie, Knott, Letcher and Perry Counties, is not a governmental agency as defined in this section and is not entitled to an official license tag. OAG 67-257.

The motor vehicle usage tax was due on the transfer of a car from father to son upon the son's reaching the age of 21. OAG 68-326.

Since the Council of State Governments is a public institution it is exempted by this section from the motor vehicle usage tax. OAG 69-49.

A county humane society was an institution of public charity and as such was entitled to exemption from the motor vehicle usage tax on its animal ambulance. OAG 69-535.

An automobile owned by a church to transport children to a music education program was not exempt from the motor vehicle usage tax. OAG 71-233.

A county water district is a political subdivision of the commonwealth of Kentucky and is entitled to an exemption from the motor vehicle usage tax when its vehicles are presented for registration with the county clerk. OAG 71-376.

When the Kentucky Inspection Bureau was consolidated with Insurance Services Offices and that agency acquired all of the assets and liabilities of the Kentucky Inspection Bureau, the transfer of vehicles registered in the name of Kentucky Inspection Bureau to Insurance Services Offices could not be exempted from the motor vehicle usage tax under either subsection (7) or (8) of this section. OAG 72-71.

A fire truck owned by a nonstock, nonprofit corporation whose purpose is to offer fire protection to citizens and their property in Owen County would be considered engaged primarily in charitable activities and exempted from paying the usage tax provided in subsection (2) of this section. OAG 73-145.

Since the federal Soldiers and Sailors Civil Relief Act exempts servicemen from motor vehicle usage tax without any qualification, the 1974 amendment to subsection (4) of this section which sought to limit such exemption only to motor vehicles acquired from dealers licensed or registered in Kentucky was unconstitutional. OAG 74-319.

The Grant County REACT organization is not entitled to exemption from the motor vehicle usage tax and is not entitled to official Kentucky motor vehicle license tags. OAG 77-36.

A motor vehicle leased to a fourth class city by an automobile dealer is subject to the motor vehicle usage tax imposed by KRS 138.460 so long as title remains in the automobile dealer. OAG 77-752.

The Department of Revenue's requirement, pursuant to subsection (8) of this section, that a transfer of a motor vehicle from a proprietorship to a corporation must take place on the same day the corporation is formed or a reasonable number of days thereafter is not in conflict with the statute. OAG 78-680.

SALES AND USE TAXES

Exemptions.

Section

139.496. Exemption of certain sales.

Section

139.497. Exemption for sales by schools, school-sponsored clubs and organizations or affiliated groups, certain nonprofit educational youth programs, and federally chartered education-related corporation at annual national convention held in state.

EXEMPTIONS

139.496. Exemption of certain sales.

(1) The taxes imposed in this chapter do not apply to the first one thousand dollars ($1,000) of sales made in any calendar year by individuals not engaged in the business of selling. This exemption is limited to garage or yard sales of household items by an individual or family which are in no way associated with or related to the operation of a business.

(2) The exemption does not apply to activities in which all or substantially all the household goods of a person are offered for sale.

History.

Legislative Research Commission Notes.

(6/27/2019). Section 82 of 2019 Ky. Acts ch. 151 states that the amendments to this statute made in Section 30 of that Act apply to transactions occurring on or after July 1, 2019.

(7/13/90) The amendment to this section contained in Section 624 of Acts ch. 476 prevails over its repeal and reenactment in Section 360 of that Act, pursuant to Section 353(1) of the Act.

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

If a church sponsors activities in connection with a fund drive but is not conducting a regular selling activity in competition with private businesses, the first $500 of such sales are exempt from sales tax. OAG 78-36.

Exempt institutions regularly engaged in a selling activity are required to hold a sales and use tax permit, file returns and pay the tax due on gross receipts. OAG 78-37.

Treatises

Lexis KY Tax P.I. 4,491 Sales to Non-Profit Organizations are exempt from sales tax on purchases with limitations.

139.497. Exemption for sales by schools, school-sponsored clubs and organizations or affiliated groups, certain nonprofit educational youth programs, and federally chartered education-related corporation at annual national convention held in state.

Notwithstanding any other provisions of this chapter, the taxes imposed herein do not apply to:

(1) Sales by elementary or secondary schools or nonprofit elementary or secondary school-sponsored clubs and organizations or any nonprofit, elementary, or secondary school-affiliated groups such as parent-teacher organizations and booster clubs, whose membership may be composed of individuals other than students, provided the net proceeds from the sales are used solely for the benefit of the elementary or secondary school or its students. Nontaxable sales shall include sales resulting from agreements or contracts entered into with resident or nonresident organizations to participate in fund-raising campaigns for a percentage of the gross receipts where students act as agents or salesmen for the organizations by selling or taking orders for the sale of tangible personal property, and no one shall be required to pay sales or use taxes on such sales;

(2) Sales made by nonprofit educational youth programs affiliated with a land grant university cooperative extension service, if the net proceeds from the sales are used solely for the benefit of the affiliated programs; or

(3)(a) Sales of tangible personal property made by a federally chartered corporation at the corporation's annual national convention held in the Commonwealth.

(b) As used in this subsection, "federally chartered corporation" means a corporation federally chartered under Title 36 of the United States Code and whose stated purpose is to serve students and former students of vocational agriculture in middle and secondary schools to develop character, train for useful citizenship, and foster patriotism.

(c) The exemption provided in this subsection applies to sales made on and after October 1, 2014, but before December 31, 2021.

EDUCATION OPPORTUNITY ACCOUNT PROGRAM

141.500. Education Opportunity Account Program.

There is hereby established the Education Opportunity Account Program, also known as the EOA program. The purpose of the EOA program is to give more flexibility and choices in education to Kentucky residents and to address disparities in educational options available to students.

History.

2021 ch. 167, § 5, effective June 29, 2021.

141.502. Definitions for KRS 141.500 to 141.528.

As used in KRS 141.500 to 141.528:

- (1) "Account-granting organization" or "AGO" means a nonprofit organization that complies with the requirements of KRS 141.500 to 141.528 and:
 (a) Receives contributions, allocates funds, and administers EOAs; or
 (b) Is an intermediary organization;
 (2) "Contribution" means a donation in the form of cash or marketable securities that is eligible for the tax credit permitted by KRS 141.522;
 (3) "Curriculum" means a complete course of study for a particular content area or grade level;
 (4) "Education opportunity account" or "EOA" means the account to which funds are allocated by an AGO to the parent of an EOA student in order to pay for expenses to educate the EOA student pursuant to the requirements of KRS 141.500 to 141.528;

(5) "Education service provider" means a person or organization that receives payments from an EOA to provide educational materials and services to EOA students;

(6) "Eligible student" means a resident of Kentucky who:

(a) Is a member of a household with an annual household income at the time of initially applying for an EOA from an AGO under this section of not more than one hundred seventy-five percent (75%) of the amount of household income necessary to establish eligibility for reduced-price meals based on size of household as determined annually by the United States Department of Agriculture applicable to the Commonwealth, pursuant to 42 U.S.C. secs. 1751 to 1789;

(b) Has previously received an EOA from an AGO under this section; or

(c) Is a member of the household of an eligible student that currently has an EOA from an AGO under this section;

(7) "Eligible taxpayer" means an individual or business, including but not limited to a corporation, S corporation, partnership, limited liability company, or sole proprietorship subject to tax imposed under KRS 141.020, 141.040, or 141.0401;

(8) "EOA student" means an eligible student who is participating in the EOA program;

(9) "Income" has the same meaning as in the United States Department of Agriculture, Food and Nutrition Service, Child Nutrition Programs, Income Eligibility Guidelines, Federal Register Vol. 83, No. 89, published May 8, 2018, and as updated annually as authorized by 42 U.S.C. sec. 1758(b)(1)(A);

(10) "Intermediary organization" means a non-profit organization that complies with the requirements of KRS 141.500 to 141.528 and receives contributions to fund AGOs; and

(11) "Parent" means a biological or adoptive parent, legal guardian, custodian, or other person with legal authority to act on behalf of an EOA student.

History.

2021 ch. 167, § 6, effective June 29, 2021.

141.504. Uniform process for education opportunity account allocation — Qualifying expenses — Provision for eligible student in county with population of 90,000 or more — Duration of education opportunity account — Prioritization of funding — Restrictions.

(1) Each AGO shall create a uniform process for determining the amount allocated to each eligible student's EOA with the following limitations:

(a) For eligible students that intend to use the funds in the EOA to pay tuition at a nonpublic school or tuition as described in KRS 158.120(2), the EOA funds shall not exceed the lesser of:

1. Their parents' demonstrated financial need as determined by an independent financial analysis performed by an organization that is:

a. Experienced in evaluating a student's need for financial aid; and

b. Included on the department's list of approved organizations as required by KRS 141.514(2)(a); or

2. The actual amount of tuition and required fees charged by the school to students who do not receive assistance under this program;

(b) For all other eligible students, the EOA funds shall not exceed the lesser of:

1. The expected cost of educational services to be provided during the succeeding school year; or

2. The Commonwealth's guaranteed SEEK base amount for the immediately preceding school year reduced by the percentage equal to one-fourth (1/4) of the percentage by which the applicant's household income exceeds the applicable federal reduced lunch household income threshold; and

(c) For students in the foster care system, the AGO shall assume that the student's parents have no income or ability to pay for educational services for the purposes of prioritizing the students and determining the amount of assistance provided under this program.

(2)(a) The funds in an EOA shall not be used for athletics or any associated fees and shall only be used to pay for the tuition and fee expenses permitted by paragraph (b) of this subsection and the following qualifying expenses if covered by the AGO and incurred for the purpose of educating an EOA student:

1. Tuition or fees to attend a prekindergarten to grade twelve (12) public school;

2. Tuition or fees for online learning programs;

3. Tutoring services provided by an individual or a tutoring facility;

4. Services contracted for and provided by a public school, including but not limited to individual classes and extracurricular activities and programs;

5. Textbooks, curriculum, or other instructional materials, including but not limited to any supplemental materials or associated online instruction required by either a curriculum or an education service provider;

6. Computer hardware or other technological devices that are primarily used to help meet an EOA student's educational needs;

7. Educational software and applications;

8. School uniforms;

9. Fees for nationally standardized assessments, advanced placement examinations, examinations related to college or university admission, and tuition or fees for preparatory courses for these;

10. Tuition or fees for summer education programs and specialized after-school education programs, excluding after-school childcare;

11. Tuition, fees, instructional materials, and examination fees at a career or technical school;

12. Educational services and therapies, including but not limited to occupational, behavioral, physical, speech-language, and audiology therapies provided by a licensed professional;

13. Tuition and fees at an institution of higher education for dual credit courses; and

14. Fees for transportation paid to a fee-for-service transportation provider for the student to travel to and from an education service provider.

(b) In addition to the variety of education-related expenses for public and nonpublic schools in the Commonwealth as provided by paragraph (a) of this subsection, EOA students that are residents of counties with a population of ninety thousand (90,000) or more, as determined by the 2010 decennial report of the United States Census Bureau, shall be permitted to use funds received through the EOA program for tuition and fees to attend nonpublic schools, because students in these counties have access to substantial existing nonpublic school infrastructure and there is capacity in these counties to either grow existing tuition assistance programs or form new nonprofits from existing networks that can provide tuition assistance to students over the course of the pilot program. Pursuant to KRS 141.524, the General Assembly shall assess whether the purposes of the EOA program are being fulfilled.

(3) EOA funds shall not be refunded, rebated, or shared with a parent or EOA student in any manner. Any refund or rebate for materials or services purchased with EOA funds shall be credited directly to the student's EOA.

(4) Parents may make payments for the costs of educational materials and services not covered by the funds in their student's EOA, but personal deposits into an EOA shall not be permitted.

(5) Funds allocated to an EOA shall not constitute taxable income to the parent or the EOA student.

(6)(a) An EOA shall remain in force, unless the EOA is closed because of a substantial misuse of funds, and any unused funds shall roll over from quarter to quarter and from year to year until:

1. The parent withdraws the EOA student from the EOA program;
2. The EOA student receives a high school diploma or equivalency certificate; or
3. The end of the school year in which the student reaches twenty-one (21) years of age; whichever occurs first.

(b) When an EOA is closed, any unused funds shall revert to the AGO that granted the EOA and be allocated by that AGO to fund other EOAs. If the AGO that granted the EOA is no longer operating, the funds shall be transferred to another AGO operating in good standing with the Commonwealth.

(7) An AGO shall first prioritize funding EOAs for students, their siblings, and foster children living in the same household who received an EOA in the previous academic year and then to first-time applicants in accordance with subsection (8) of this section.

(8) For first-time applicants, an AGO shall prioritize awarding EOAs to the applicants as follows:

(a) A majority of funds available for first-time applicants shall be reserved for students whose household income does not exceed that necessary to establish eligibility for reduced-price meals based on size of household as determined annually by the United States Department of Agriculture applicable to the Commonwealth, pursuant to 42 U.S.C. secs. 1751 to 1789. Within in this group of applicants, the funds shall be further prioritized to fund EOAs in the order of the applicants with the most demonstrated financial need; and

(b) The remaining unfunded first-time applicants shall be selected for funding based on a random lottery until all remaining funds are allocated to EOAs.

(9) An AGO may define and limit the services that the EOA funds may cover.

(10) An AGO shall not accept a contribution from an eligible taxpayer if the eligible taxpayer designates that the contribution shall be used to award an EOA to a particular student.

(11) Dependents of the AGO's board of directors, its staff, and its donors are ineligible to receive an EOA.

History.

2021 ch. 167, § 7, effective June 29, 2021.

141.506. Application to establish an education opportunity account for eligible students — Renewal — Process to cease funding student account.

(1) To establish an EOA for an eligible student, the parent shall submit an application to an AGO.

(2) The AGO shall approve an application for an EOA if:

- (a) An AGO verifies that the student on whose behalf the parent is applying is an eligible student;
- (b) Funds are available for the EOA; and
- (c) The parent signs an agreement with the AGO:
 1. To use the funds in the EOA only for the covered qualifying expenses;
 2. Not to establish any other EOA for the eligible student with any other AGO;
 3. To comply with the rules and requirements of the EOA program; and
 4. Not to use EOA funds to cover the cost of educational materials or services if they are currently receiving the same types of materials or services through the school district in which the student is enrolled.

(3) The AGO shall annually renew a student's EOA if funds are available unless the student's family income has increased above two hundred fifty percent (250%) of the amount of household income necessary to establish eligibility for reduced-price meals based on size of household as determined annually by the United States Department of Agriculture applicable to the Commonwealth, pursuant to 42 U.S.C. secs. 1751 to 1789.

(4) In the event that an eligible student becomes ineligible for reasons other than fraud or misuse of funds, the AGO may cease funding for the student's EOA provided that:

(a) The AGO immediately suspends payment of additional funds into the student's EOA. For EOAs that have been open for at least one (1) full school year, the EOA shall remain open and active for the parent to make qualifying expenditures to educate the student from funds remaining in the EOA. When no funds remain in the student's EOA, the AGO may close the EOA;

(b) If a parent reapplies to the AGO and signs a new written agreement, payments into the student's existing EOA may resume if the EOA is still open and active. A new EOA may be established if the student's EOA was closed; and

(c) An AGO shall adopt policies to provide the least disruptive process possible for EOA students desiring to leave the EOA program.

2021 ch. 167, § 8, effective June 29, 2021.

141.508. Application for tax credit — Preliminary approval subject to annual tax credit cap — Taxpayer notification — Taxpayer contribution — Account-granting organization certification of contribution.

(1) Prior to making a contribution to an AGO, the taxpayer or an AGO acting on behalf of the taxpayer shall apply to the department for preapproval of the tax credit permitted by KRS 141.522 in a manner prescribed by the department. Each application shall be submitted separately and shall provide the total amount of proposed contributions and the year or years in which the contributions will be made, whether the proposed contributions will be in the form of cash or marketable securities, and the name of the AGO to which the contributions will be made.

(2) Subject to the annual tax credit cap established by KRS 141.522, the department shall preliminarily approve the amount of tax credit within ten (10) business days of receipt of the application and shall notify the taxpayer and the AGO. The notification shall include the amount of the tax credit preliminarily approved, the name of the AGO to which contributions may be made, and any other information the department deems necessary.

(3) If a taxpayer applies or the AGO applies on behalf of the taxpayer for preapproval when no amount of tax credit remains for allocation, but a portion of the total amount of tax credit available is pending verification, the department shall notify the taxpayer and the AGO that the application is being held in abeyance and will be funded on a first-come, first-served basis or will be denied if all preapproved contributions are timely made.

(4)(a) The taxpayer shall make the preapproved contribution to the AGO no later than the earlier of:

1. Fifteen (15) business days following the date of the department's preapproval notice, excluding weekends and holidays; or
2. June 30 of the fiscal year of the preapproval.

(b) If the preapproved contribution is in the form of marketable securities, the AGO shall monetize the securities within five (5) business days of receipt, excluding weekends and holidays, and notify the department within ten (10) business days of the monetization of the securities. If the monetized value of the marketable securities is less than the amount of the proposed contribution reflected on the application, the taxpayer shall supplement the contribution with additional cash to equal the amount of contribution reflected on the application. The taxpayer shall not receive preapproval for a tax credit in excess of the amount of proposed contribution reflected on the application form.

(5)(a) The AGO shall certify to the department the name of the taxpayer, amount of the contribution made, and the date on which the contribution was made within ten (10) days of when the contribution has been made.

(b) Upon receipt of certification that the contribution has been made or the expiration of the ten (10) day period without certification, whichever occurs first, the department shall modify the amount of credit pending certification, the amount of credit allocated to taxpayers, and the remaining credit available for allocation, as applicable.

141.510. Certification and renewal of certification of an account-granting organization — Application — Required information — Department certification.

(1) An organization that seeks to become an AGO shall apply for initial certification or renewal of certification from the department.

(2) An application for initial certification as an AGO shall include:

- (a) A copy of the AGO's incorporation documents;
- (b) A copy of the AGO's Internal Revenue Service determination letter as a Section 501(c)(3) not-for-profit organization;
- (c) A description of the methodology the AGO will use to evaluate whether a student is eligible to establish an EOA;
- (d) A description of the application process the AGO will use for parents and eligible students;
- (e) A description of the methodology the AGO will use to establish, fund, and manage EOAs;
- (f) A description of the process the AGO will use to approve education service providers;
- (g) A description of how the AGO will inform parents of approved education service providers; and
- (h) A description of the AGO's procedures for crediting refunds from an education service provider back to a student's EOA.

(3) An application for renewal of certification as an AGO shall include:

- (a) The AGO's completed Internal Revenue Service Form 990, submitted no later than November 30 of the year before the academic year that the AGO intends to fund EOAs;
- (b) A copy of any audit that may be required by the department; and
- (c) 1. An annual report that includes:
 - a. The number of applications the AGO received during the previous academic year, by county and by grade level;
 - b. The name and address of all students that received EOA funds from the AGO during the previous academic year;
 - c. When the AGO is an intermediary organization, the name and address of all AGOs that received funds from the intermediary organization during the last fiscal year;

d. The total number of EOAs the AGO maintains;

e. The amount of funds the AGO:

i. Received to fund EOAs during the last fiscal year;

ii. Distributed into EOAs during the last fiscal year;

iii. Has remaining after the distribution into EOAs and any obligations to fund EOAs in the future;

iv. Spent on administrative expenses and an accounting thereof during the last fiscal year; and

v. Spent on fees to private financial management firms or other organizations to maintain records and process transactions of the EOAs;

f. When the AGO is an intermediary organization, the amount of funds the intermediary organization:

i. Received to distribute to AGOs during the last fiscal year;

ii. Distributed to each AGO during the last fiscal year;

iii. Has remaining after the distribution into AGOs and any obligations to distribute to AGOs in the future;

iv. Spent on administrative expenses and an accounting thereof during the last fiscal year; and

v. Spent on fees to private financial management firms or other organizations to maintain records and process transactions;

g. A list of the AGO's approved education service providers; and

h. A description of how the AGO has complied with the operational requirements and responsibilities of KRS 141.500 to 141.528.

2. The annual report shall also:

a. Comply with uniform financial accounting standards;

b. Be attested to by an independent certified public accountant in accordance with procedures promulgated by the department; and

c. Be free of material misstatements or exceptions.

(4) The department shall only certify an AGO or renew an AGO's certification if the organization meets the requirements established by KRS 141.500 to 141.528. The department shall issue initial certifications within sixty (60) days of receiving the application and renew certifications within thirty (30) days of receiving the application.

(5) Upon application for renewal, an AGO shall demonstrate that:

(a) It is an intermediary organization that collects contributions exclusively for the use by AGOs; or

(b) It includes two (2) or more education service providers in its EOA program and has awarded at least fifty (50) EOAs aggregating a minimum of two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000) in the previous year and is expected to award at least fifty (50) EOAs aggregating a minimum of two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000) in the succeeding year.

History.

141.512. Minimal allocation of contributions required to education opportunity accounts by account-granting organization — Standard application process for establishment of student eligibility for an account — Transfer of funds from one account-granting organization to another — Donations.

(1) An AGO shall ensure that at least ninety percent (90%) of the total annual contributions received are allocated to EOAs no later than the last day of the AGO's immediately succeeding calendar year or fiscal year, as applicable, unless the current year's total annual contributions received by the AGO exceed an amount equal to the average of the total annual contributions received in the immediately preceding three (3) years by more than fifteen percent (15%), in which case the excess amount may be carried forward and expended for EOAs in three (3) equal installments over the immediately succeeding three (3) years.

(2) An AGO shall maintain separate accounts for EOA funds and operating funds.

(3) Any interest that accrues from contributions that are eligible for the tax credit permitted by KRS 141.522 shall be allocated by the AGO to fund EOAs.

(4) An AGO shall create a standard application process for parents to establish their student's eligibility for an EOA. An AGO shall ensure that the application is readily available to interested families and may be submitted through various sources, including the Internet.

(5) An AGO shall provide parents with a written explanation of the allowable uses of EOA funds, the responsibilities of parents, and the duties of the AGO and the role of any private financial management firms or other organizations that the AGO may contract with to process EOA transactions or maintain records for other aspects of the EOA program.

(6)(a) An AGO may transfer funds to another AGO if additional funds are required to meet EOA demands at the receiving AGO or if the transferring AGO determines it cannot continue to operate due to any reason.

(b) If funds are transferred for the purpose of meeting EOA demands, no more than a combined aggregate of ten percent (10%) of the AGOs' total annual contributions received may be retained by the AGOs for administrative expenses.

(c) All transferred funds shall be allocated by the receiving AGO to its account for EOAs.

(d) All transferred amounts received by an AGO shall be separately disclosed in the receiving AGO's annual report for certification renewal pursuant to KRS 141.510.

(e) An AGO that receives a transfer of funds from an AGO that has determined it will not continue to operate shall agree to fund the EOAs established by the transferring AGO to the extent funds are available. The receiving AGO shall also prioritize the funding of transferred EOAs before funding new EOA applicants.

(7) An AGO may accept donations that are not eligible for the tax credit permitted by KRS 141.522, gifts, and grants to cover administrative costs, to inform the public about the EOA program, to fund additional EOAs or to offer assistance outside of the EOA program. Donations that are not eligible for the tax credit permitted by KRS 141.522 shall not be subject to KRS 141.500 to 141.528.

History.

2021 ch. 167, § 11, effective June 29, 2021.

141.514. Administration of education opportunity account tax credit and cap — Required annual publications on department Web site.

(1) To administer the tax credit and the total annual tax credit cap established in KRS 141.522, the department shall:

(a) Create the tax credit application form, the forms to be used by the department to notify the taxpayer and the AGO of preapproval or denial of the credit, and the educational materials to be distributed by the AGO;

(b) Create a Web site listing the amount of the total credit pending verification, the amount of the total credit allocated to date, and the remaining credit available to taxpayers making contributions to AGOs;

(c) Notify the taxpayer and the AGO of the amount of credit allocated to the taxpayer upon certification that the contribution has been made by the issuance of a tax credit allocation letter, which the taxpayer shall submit with the taxpayer's return when claiming the credit; and

(d) Collect necessary data to provide the report required by subsection (3) of this section.

(2) On or before January 1 of each year, the department shall publish on its Web site:

(a) A list of organizations that have been approved by the department to perform independent financial analyses of parents' demonstrated financial needs; and

(b) A list of AGOs.

1. If an AGO fails to meet the requirements of this section, the department shall not include the organization on the list of AGOs the following calendar year.

2. Only contributions to AGOs on the list maintained by the department for each calendar year shall be recognized for tax credits awarded under KRS 141.522.

(3) The department shall produce and publish on its Web site an annual report that aggregates the data obtained from the annual reports submitted by AGOs for the renewal of their certification pursuant to KRS 141.510. The department's report shall not include any identifying information of EOA students or AGOs that would violate the confidentiality requirements in KRS 131.190(1).

History.

2021 ch. 167, § 12, effective June 29, 2021.

141.516. Audit of account-granting organization by department — Notice of violation — Revocation of certificate.

(1) The department may conduct an audit of an AGO or contract for the auditing of an AGO.

(2)(a) In the event that the department determines that there has been a violation of KRS 141.500 to 141.528 by an AGO, the department shall send written notice to the AGO.

(b) The AGO that receives written notice of a violation will have sixty (60) days from receipt of notice to correct the violation identified by the department.

(c) If the AGO fails or refuses to comply after sixty (60) days, the department may revoke the AGO's certification to participate in the EOA program.

(3) An AGO whose certificate has been revoked under this section:

(a) May appeal the revocation of its certification to the Kentucky Claims Commission pursuant to KRS 49.220;

(b) Shall continue administering EOAs that were donated prior to the date of notice stated on the revocation;

(c) Shall not accept any further contributions for the purpose of funding EOAs on or after the date of notice stated on the revocation; and

(d) Shall refund any contributions that were received for the purpose of funding EOAs on or after the date of notice stated on the revocation.

2021 ch. 167, § 13, effective June 29, 2021.

141.518. Account-granting organization system of payment to education service providers — Payments to an education opportunity account — Approval of education service providers.

(1)(a) Each AGO shall implement a commercially viable, cost-effective, and parent-friendly system for payment of services from EOAs to education service providers.

(b) The AGO shall not adopt a system that relies exclusively on requiring parents to be reimbursed for out-of-pocket expenses, but shall provide maximum flexibility to parents by facilitating direct payments to education service providers or requests for preapproval of and reimbursements for qualifying expenses.

(c) An AGO may contract with private financial management firms or other organizations to develop the payment system.

(2) An AGO may contract with private financial management firms or other organizations to maintain records and process transactions of the EOAs.

(3) If funding is available, an AGO shall continue making payments into an EOA until:

(a) The parent does not renew the EOA;

(b) The AGO determines that the EOA student's family income has increased above two hundred fifty percent (250%) of the amount of household income necessary to establish eligibility for reduced-price meals based on size of household as determined annually by the United States Department of Agriculture applicable to the Commonwealth, pursuant to 42 U.S.C. secs. 1751 to 1789;

(c) The AGO determines that there was substantial misuse of the funds in the EOA; or

(d) The EOA student receives a high school diploma or equivalency certificate.

(4) Each AGO shall establish a process for approving education service providers.

(5) An AGO may approve education service providers on their own initiative, at the request of parents, or upon request from prospective education service providers.

History.

2021 ch. 167, § 14, effective June 29, 2021.

141.520. Effect of Education Opportunity Account Program on education service provider — Authority of government entities.

(1) Nothing in KRS 141.500 to 141.528 shall be deemed to limit the independence or autonomy of an education service provider or to make the actions of an education service provider the actions of the state government.

(2) Nothing in KRS 141.500 to 141.528 shall be construed to expand the regulatory authority of the state, its officers, or any county school district to impose any additional regulation of education service providers beyond those necessary to enforce the requirements of the EOA Program.

(3) An education service provider that accepts payment from an EOA pursuant to KRS 141.500 to 141.528 is not an agent of the state or federal government.

(4) An education service provider shall not be required to alter its creed, practices, admissions policy, or curriculum in order to accept payments from an EOA.

History.

2021 ch. 167, § 15, effective June 29, 2021.

141.522. Education Opportunity Account Program tax credit — Cap on credit — Prioritization.

(1)(a) Effective for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2021, but before January 1, 2026, a nonrefundable, nontransferable tax credit shall be permitted against the tax imposed by KRS 141.020 or 141.040 and 141.0401, with the ordering of credit as provided in KRS 141.0205, as applicable, for contributions made during a taxable year to one (1) or more AGOs in accordance with the EOA program. To qualify for this credit, a taxpayer filing as an individual shall elect to claim a federal and Kentucky contribution deduction associated with the contributions made to an AGO that does not exceed an amount equal to the total contribution for the taxable year less the amount of credit allowed by this section for the taxable year.

(b) If the taxpayer is a pass-through entity, the taxpayer shall apply the credit against the limited liability entity tax imposed by KRS 141.0401, and shall also pass the credit through to its members, partners, or shareholders in the same proportion as the distributive share of income or loss is passed through.

(2) The aggregate value of the total annual tax credit cap awarded shall not exceed twenty-five million dollars ($25,000,000).

(3) The credit amount awarded per taxpayer per taxable year shall be no more than the lesser of:

(a) Ninety-five percent (95%) of the total contributions made to an AGO, except as provided in subsection (4) of this section; or

(b) One million dollars ($1,000,000).

(4)(a) The taxpayer may elect to pledge a contribution for multiple taxable years, not to exceed a total of four (4) taxable years.

(b) If the multi-year pledge is made by the taxpayer and the amount of the contributions for each of the multiple taxable years is equal to or more than the amount of contributions made to the AGO in the taxable year within which the pledge is made, the amount of allowable credit shall be increased by two (2) percentage points to ninety-seven percent (97%) in the taxable year within which the pledge is made and for each pledged year.

(c) If the taxpayer does not remit the pledged amount of contributions during any taxable year for which a multi-year pledge is made, the taxpayer shall repay the portion of the credit resulting from the increase allowed by this subsection.

(5) Any tax credit awarded under this section that is not used by the taxpayer in the current taxable year may be carried forward for up to five (5) succeeding taxable years until the tax credit has been utilized.

(6) Tax credits under this section shall be awarded on a first-come, first-served basis each fiscal year within the limitations set forth in this section. The date and time stamp from each application for preapproval shall establish the order in which the application was received. For contributions pledged for multiple tax years, the contribution shall be considered the first in line for the years subsequent to the initial year of the pledge.

141.524. Report by department on Education Opportunity Account Program.

The department shall provide the following information to the Interim Joint Committee on Appropriations and Revenue no later than November 1, 2022, and no later than November 1 of each year thereafter as long as the tax credit permitted by KRS 141.522 is taken:

(1) All information contained in each annual report filed by an AGO as required by KRS 141.510 and the administrative regulations promulgated thereunder, with each eligible student's identifying information removed and replaced with an assigned unique identification number;

(2) The number and total amount of EOAs awarded by AGOs to EOA students reported by household income range intervals of five thousand dollars ($5,000);

(3) The number and total amount of EOAs awarded by AGOs to EOA students:

(a) Who are currently in the Commonwealth's foster care program;

(b) Who have previously received an EOA under this section; and

(c) Who are members of a household in which a student has previously received an EOA under this section; and

(4) Any other information that may be necessary to assist the members of the General Assembly in determining that the purposes of this tax credit are being fulfilled.

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

A city housing agency may not operate a section 8 existing housing program (42 USCS § 1437f) within the boundaries of another city. OAG 80-55.

A local public housing agency may operate a section 8 existing housing program (42 USCS § 1437f) outside of its territorial jurisdiction but within the county in which it is located under the provisions of KRS 79.110 to 79.180, as long as the fiscal court of the county and a city or cities within the county and a city housing authority join together in such an agreement. OAG 80-55.

An opinion expressed by a local government advisor of the Department of Local Government is advisory only and has no force of law since this section gives the Department of Local Government administrative powers only. OAG 80-89.

Although local governments are responsible for the enforcement of the state building code within the boundaries of their jurisdictions, the Department of Local Government may participate in the local enforcement program to the extent of providing funds for the research and planning of a program whereby various local governments will jointly conduct and operate an enforcement program. (Decision prior to 1982 enactment of KRS 147A.021). OAG 82-312.

N. Ky. Area Dev. Dist. v. Wilson, 612 S.W.3d 916, 2020 Ky. LEXIS 460 (Ky. 2020).

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

The area development district dealt with in this section through KRS 147A.120 is an independent and autonomous public corporation exercising a function of state government and is not under the day-to-day control of the central state government nor operating on funds drawn from the state treasury and therefore does not fall within the waiver of sovereign immunity granted in KRS chapter 44. 147A.060. Board of directors for each district — Appointment — Terms — State officers and members of General Assembly may serve only in advisory capacity.

There shall be in each area development district a board of directors. The composition of the board and the terms and appointments of its members in each district shall be specified by administrative regulation promulgated by the Department for Local Government in accordance with KRS Chapter 13A. The designee of a mayor or county judge/executive shall be a member of the designator's respective legislative body or their staff. Other persons who are not elected officials or members of their staffs may be designated as representatives with the consent of that body. The Department for Local Government, in specifying the composition of the board, shall conform to applicable federal requirements. A person who is a state officer, a deputy state officer, or a member of the General Assembly may serve only in a nonmember advisory capacity to the board of directors of an area development district. An area development district board of directors shall notify legislators of the provisions of this section and of their right to participate in the activities of the area development district. If a legislator chooses to participate in accordance with this section, the area development district shall send meeting notices to that legislator at the same time board members are notified of the meetings.

II, § 9(4); 1978, ch. 155, § 69, effective June 17, 1978; 1984, ch. 187, § 1, effective July 13, 1984; 1998, ch. 69, § 58, effective July 15, 1998; 2000, ch. 450, § 1, effective July 14, 2000; 2007, ch. 47, § 73, effective June 26, 2007; 2010, ch. 117, § 12, effective July 15, 2010.

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

No conflict of interest arises where a member of the board or one of the advisory committees of an area development district votes for a project which directly benefits the group he represents, although a conflict would arise if he had some special additional personal interest, in which case he would be disqualified from voting on that particular project. OAG 75-260.

Administrative Regulation 200 KAR 10:010, issued by the Finance and Administration Cabinet pursuant to this section providing that no member of an area development district board would be eligible to serve more than two full terms consecutively in the same office, was effective against a member of the board who was serving in his third consecutive term and he was automatically disqualified. OAG 76-585.

An area development district is not an agency of state government for purposes of compliance with local planning and zoning requirements, nor does an area development district have authority to operate an offender re-entry program. OAG 13-004.

147A.070. Appointment of executive director — Election of executive committee, duties — Advertisement of open positions — Employees' compensation.

(1) Subject to the requirements of subsection (3) of this section, the board of directors in each district may appoint an executive director and deputy executive director and fix the salary for each position. The executive director shall perform, in the name of the board, such functions and duties and may exercise such authority of the board as the board may delegate to the executive director. The deputy executive director, if one is hired, shall perform such functions and duties as designated by the executive director.

(2) The board of directors in each district may elect from its membership an executive committee and delegate to the committee any of the following duties:

(a) To employ such staff members as may be required for the operations of the district;

(b) To manage the financial assets and obligations of the district;

(c) To guide the activities of the district between meetings of the board; and

(d) To perform such other duties as the board might delegate to it.

(3) On or after June 29, 2017, an open position for the executive director or deputy executive director with an area development district shall be advertised by the board of directors in a manner designed to provide adequate notice of the opening and sufficient time for interested applicants to apply. Advertisement of an open position shall, at a minimum, be published on the Web site of the district and published in accordance with KRS Chapter 424 at a minimum for a period of twenty-one (21) days.

(4) Bonuses, awards, one (1) time salary adjustments, special salary enhancements, or severance pay for any employee, unless severance pay is provided pursuant to a contract approved by the board, that do not constitute a permanent change in the employee's compensation shall not be made or awarded to any employee of a district.

NOTES TO DECISIONS1. Arbitration.

Trial court properly denied an employer's motion to compel arbitration because the arbitration agreement executed by the employer, a political subdivision, and an employee as a condition of her employment was unenforceable; the employer had no authority to enter into the arbitration agreement. N. Ky. Area Dev. Dist. v. Snyder, 2017 Ky. App. LEXIS 174 (Ky. Ct. App. May 12, 2017), aff'd on other grounds, 570 S.W.3d 531, 2018 Ky. LEXIS 363 (Ky. 2018).

Authority of the Northern Kentucky Area Development District to enter into an arbitration agreement with an employee, if it existed at all, had to be derived from the enabling legislation because, as a political subdivision of the State, it had only those powers conferred on it by the legislature. N. Ky. Area Dev. Dist. v. Snyder, 2017 Ky. App. LEXIS 174 (Ky. Ct. App. May 12, 2017), aff'd on other grounds, 570 S.W.3d 531, 2018 Ky. LEXIS 363 (Ky. 2018).

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

Affirming OAG 73-318, Kentucky area development districts are political subdivisions of the state as borne out by the definition of public agency in KRS 65.230 and at the same time they constitute units of local government and thus qualify under the federal Intergovernmental Personnel Act of 1970 for the receipt of funds under federal programs. OAG 73-529.

Under this chapter and the bylaws of the area development district, the regular meetings of the district board of directors cannot be set by the executive committee of the board since under subsection (2)(d) of this section and the bylaws there was no express delegation to the executive committee by the board of the power to set regular meetings. OAG 76-482.

An employee of an area development district would not be prohibited from becoming a candidate for and holding a county or city office and at the same time continuing his employment with the district. OAG 76-662.

147A.080. Powers of board of directors.

Each board of directors shall have the power and authority to:

- (1) Adopt and have a common seal and alter the same at pleasure;
- (2) Sue and be sued;
- (3) Adopt bylaws and make rules and regulations for the conduct of its business;
- (4) Make and enter into all contracts or agreements necessary or incidental to the performance of its duties;
- (5) Provide upon request basic administrative, research, and planning services for any planning and development body located within the district;
- (6) Accept, receive, and administer loans, grants, or other funds or gifts from public and private agencies including the Commonwealth and the federal government for the purpose of carrying out the functions of the district;
- (7) Expend such funds as may be considered by it to be advisable or necessary in the performance of its duties;
- (8) Acquire, hold as may be necessary and convenient, encumber, or dispose of real and personal property, except that no board shall have the power of eminent domain;
- (9) Charge fees, rents, and otherwise charge for services provided by the board, except that no board shall have any power to levy taxes;
- (10) Enter into interlocal agreements or interstate compacts to the extent authorized by laws of the Commonwealth. An area development district organization shall be deemed a "public agency" as defined by the Interlocal Cooperation Act in KRS Chapter 65;
- (11) Promote, organize, and advise special districts or other authorities in accordance with laws of the Commonwealth and act as the regional clearinghouse for such programs and projects as prescribed by federal regulation;
- (12) Perform such other and further acts as may be necessary to carry out the duties and responsibilities created by KRS 147A.050 to 147A.120.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Analysis

1. Legislative Body.
2. Arbitration.

1. Legislative Body.

Northern Kentucky Area Development District (ADD) was not a legislative body for the purpose of the state health plan administration or for any other purpose; therefore, ADD was not appropriate legislative body to support hospital's application to establish an ambulance service. Northern Ky. Emergency Medical Servs. v. Christ Hosp. Corp., 875 S.W.2d 896, 1993 Ky. App. LEXIS 142 (Ky. Ct. App. 1993).

2. Arbitration.

Trial court properly denied an employer's motion to compel arbitration because the arbitration agreement executed by the employer, a political subdivision, and an employee as a condition of her employment was unenforceable; the employer had no authority to enter into the arbitration agreement. N. Ky. Area Dev. Dist. v. Snyder, 2017 Ky. App. LEXIS 174 (Ky. Ct. App. May 12, 2017), aff'd on other grounds, 570 S.W.3d 531, 2018 Ky. LEXIS 363 (Ky. 2018).

Authority of the Northern Kentucky Area Development District to enter into an arbitration agreement with an employee, if it existed at all, had to be derived from the enabling legislation because, as a political subdivision of the State, it had only those powers conferred on it by the legislature. N. Ky. Area Dev. Dist. v. Snyder, 2017 Ky. App. LEXIS 174 (Ky. Ct. App. May 12, 2017), aff'd on other grounds, 570 S.W.3d 531, 2018 Ky. LEXIS 363 (Ky. 2018).

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

No conflict of interest arises where a member of the board or one of the advisory committees of an area development district votes for a project which directly benefits the group he represents, although a conflict would arise if he had some special additional personal interest, in which case he would be disqualified from voting on that particular project. OAG 75-260.

Although this section gives the board of directors power to sue and be sued, there is no waiver of sovereign immunity. OAG 75-458.

Under this chapter and the bylaws of the area development district, the regular meetings of the district board of directors cannot be set by the executive committee of the board since under subsection (2)(d) of KRS 147A.070 and the bylaws there was no express delegation to the executive committee by the board of the power to set regular meetings. OAG 76-482.

Under the powers entrusted to the Kentucky River Area Development District, the district may borrow money, contribute it to the county for the construction of a district office building, accept a deed to the property from the county and subsequently encumber the property which it receives. OAG 77-396.

In contrast to counties, cities, and urban-county governments, the Blue Grass Area Development District does not have the authority to enact ordinances; thus, if the counties which make up the Blue Grass district desire to enact anti-litter container ordinances, the fiscal courts of each county must enact the ordinances on their own and, at the most, the board of directors of the development district might act in an advisory capacity. OAG 80-502.

There are no powers under this section and KRS 147A.090 to empower an area development district to administer, manage, implement, or directly operate programs developed, since these sections only empower the area development district to engage in the work of program development through administrative, research and planning effort. OAG 81-185.

This section and KRS 147A.090 authorize area development districts to engage in the work of program development through administrative, research and planning effort. They are not, however, authorized to administer, manage, implement or directly operate such programs once developed. OAG 82-312.

The General Assembly envisions that area development districts have the power and authority to provide “management assistance” to local governments since a contrary conclusion would be inconsistent with KRS 147A.021(3)(m) (now (3)(k)). OAG 83-460.

Sections 27 and 28 of the Kentucky Constitution would preclude a member of the General Assembly from serving at the same time as a member of the Board of Directors of an Area Development District. OAG 93-70.

147A.090. Duties of board of directors.

Each district board of directors shall have the power, duty, and authority to:

(1) Establish such functional advisory committees as may be necessary and advisable. These functional advisory committees shall be organized to meet such guidelines as may be required for federal or state assistance;

(2) Conduct the necessary research and studies and coordinate and cooperate with all appropriate groups and agencies in order to develop, and adopt and revise, when necessary, a district development plan or series of plans, including, but not limited to, the following districtwide plan elements: goals and objectives; water and sewer; land-use; and open space and recreation. Such plans shall serve as a general guide for public and private actions and decisions to assure the development of public and private property in the most appropriate relationships;

(3) Prepare annually a report of its activities to the cities and counties within the district, the legislature, and the Governor. The board shall make copies of the report available to members of the public within the district;

(4) Comply with the provisions of KRS 65A.010 to 65A.090; and

(5) Cooperate with the Kentucky Mountain Regional Recreation Authority established in KRS 148.0222 for the purpose of establishing, maintaining, and promoting recreational trails to increase economic development, tourism, and outdoor recreation for Kentucky’s residents and visitors, not only in eastern Kentucky but throughout the Commonwealth.

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

No conflict of interest arises where a member of the board or one of the advisory committees of an area development district votes for a project which directly benefits the group he represents, although a conflict would arise if he had some special additional personal interest, in which case he would be disqualified from voting for that particular project. OAG 75-260.

Where two men were appointed to two year terms on an advisory council to an area development district on September 14, 1976, and October 21, 1976, and no bylaw provision of the council allows such appointees to serve until their successors are appointed, vacancies automatically were created September 14, 1978 and October 21, 1978, respectively; but any actions performed by the two in the interim have been under color of title to the office and are valid. OAG 79-364.

There are no powers under KRS 147A.080 and this section to empower an area development district to administer, manage, implement, or directly operate programs developed, since these sections only empower the area development district to engage in the work of program development through administrative, research and planning effort. OAG 81-185.

KRS 147A.080 and this section authorize area development districts to engage in the work of program development through administrative, research and planning effort. They are not, however, authorized to administer, manage, implement or directly operate such programs once developed. OAG 82-312.

The General Assembly envisions that area development districts have the power and authority to provide “management assistance” to local governments since a contrary conclusion would be inconsistent with KRS 147A.021(3)(m) (now (3)(k)). OAG 83-460.

147A.100. Allocation of funds — Allocation formula — Alternative allocation.

(1) The Department for Local Government shall allocate area development district funds appropriated to the Joint Funding Administration Program to the area development districts in accordance with the following formula:

(a) Seventy percent (70%) of the total appropriation shall be allocated equally among all area development districts;

(b) Twenty percent (20%) of the total appropriation shall be allocated based upon each area development district’s proportionate share of total state population as identified by the most recent federal decennial census; and

(c) Ten percent (10%) of the total appropriation shall be allocated based upon each area development district’s proportionate share of total incorporated cities and counties as identified by the records of the Kentucky Secretary of State’s land office at the time of the allocation.

(2) The Department for Local Government shall, upon the unanimous written direction of all area development districts, reduce the allocation based upon proportionate share of total incorporated cities and counties set forth in subsection (1)(c) of this section and instead allocate those funds to provide additional non-federal dollars to area development districts for the purpose of maximizing federal awards.

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

Where some employees of an area development district do not join a group medical plan, the premium money that would have otherwise been payable by the district on behalf of those employees could not be applied to the premium on life insurance. OAG 77-533.

147A.110. District projects and property exempt from taxation.

As a public body, no area development district board shall be required to pay taxes or assessments upon any project or upon any property acquired or used by it or upon the income or proceeds therefrom.

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

The Gateway Area Development District was created as a public body and, as such, would be a political subdivision of the state. OAG 73-318.

147A.115. Annual reports of receipt and expenditure of state and federal fundings.

(1) By December 31 of each year beginning in 2017, the Cabinet for Health and Family Services and the Education and Labor Cabinet shall, following any year in which the cabinet awarded federal or state funds to an area development district, prepare and submit a detailed report to the Legislative Research Commission and area development district board members. The report shall include the total amount of state and federal funds distributed to each area development district, broken down by funding source and program from the preceding fiscal year.

(2) By December 31 of each year beginning in 2017, each area development district shall, following any year in which the area development district receives state or federal funds, prepare and submit a detailed report to the Legislative Research Commission and area development board members. The report shall include the following financial information from the preceding fiscal year:

(a) For each allocation, distribution, award, or grant of state or federal funds, the total amount, the percentage of the total amount, and a description of the specific types of expenditures made for or allocated to:

1. Administrative costs;
2. Direct expenditures; and
3. Indirect expenditures;

(b) Allocation, distribution, award, or grant funds not expended, and an explanation of why the funds were not expended;

(c) The total amount of reserves carried forward by the area development district, identification of the source of those funds, and an explanation of why the funds are being carried forward; and

(d) For each program:

1. A list of direct services provided by the district;
2. A list of service providers contracted by the district and the services provided by those providers;
3. The number of eligible persons for the program, number of persons served by the program, and, if applicable, number of people on waiting lists for the program; and

4. The performance measures required by the contract used to evaluate the area development district's actions.

(3) The Legislative Research Commission shall distribute the report to the appropriate interim joint committees and to the budget review subcommittee that has jurisdiction over the Cabinet for Health Family Services or the Education and Labor Cabinet.

147A.116. Required compliance with laws governing open meetings and records, procurement, a code of ethics, conflicts of interest, whistleblower protections, and compensation.

(1) By January 1, 2018, each area development district and any board, committee, or other organization created by an area development district shall:

(a) Comply with the provisions of KRS 61.870 to 61.884;

(b) Comply with the provisions of KRS 61.800 to 61.850;

(c) Comply with state and federal procurement statutes and administrative regulations, as applicable;

(d) Comply with and be subject to the provisions of KRS 65A.070 by either adopting a code of ethics or abiding by the applicable code of ethics pursuant to KRS 65A.070;

(e) Adopt policies to address conflicts of interest for employees and board members of the area development districts, which shall include a prohibition on employees and board members having any interest, either direct or indirect, in any contract entered into by the area development district or any agency created by the area development district;

(f) Be subject to the provisions of KRS 61.101 to 61.103;

(g) Subject to the provisions of KRS 14A.070(4), adopt, implement, and maintain a detailed and equitable compensation policy for its employees; and

(h) Establish and maintain an independent process to receive, analyze, investigate and resolve concerns relating to the area development district, including alleged violations of the code of ethics or any of the provisions of this section. The process shall include a monthly reporting requirement to the board members of the area development district of any reported concerns or alleged violations. If the process finds a reasonable likelihood that a violation exists, then that alleged violation shall be reported to the Department for Local Government, the Auditor of Public Accounts, and the Attorney General; and

(2) By July 1, 2020, each area development district and any board, committee, or other organization created by an area development district shall provide public access to financial information in compliance with the provisions of KRS 65.312(4).

History.

2017 ch. 33, § 3, effective June 29, 2017.

147A.117. Contract for audit by certified public accountant or firm instead of the Auditor of Public Accounts — Conditions for.

(1) No area development district shall enter into any contract with a certified public accountant or firm to perform an audit unless the Auditor of Public Accounts has declined in writing to perform the audit or has failed to respond within thirty (30) days of receipt of a written request. The area development district shall furnish the Auditor of Public Accounts with a comprehensive statement of the scope and nature of the proposed audit. The actual expense of an audit performed by the Auditor of Public Accounts shall be billed to the audited area development district.

(2) Any contract with a certified public accountant or firm entered into as a result of the Auditor of Public Accounts either declining to perform the audit or failing to respond within thirty (30) days of receipt of a written request for an audit shall specify the following:

(a) That the certified public accountant shall forward a copy of the audit report and management letters to the Auditor of Public Accounts for review;

(b) That the Auditor of Public Accounts shall have the right to review the certified public accountant or firm's work papers before and after the release of the audit; and

(c) That after review of the certified public accountant or firm's work papers, should discrepancies be found, the Auditor of Public Accounts shall notify the audited entity of the discrepancies. If the certified public accountant or firm does not correct these discrepancies prior to the release of the audit, the Auditor of Public Accounts may conduct its own audit to verify the findings of the certified public accountant's report.

(3) If an audit verifying the findings of the certified public accountant or firm's report is conducted by the Auditor of Public Accounts, the actual expense of the audit shall be billed to the area development district.

147A.120. Limitation on districts' functions, powers and duties.

Nothing in KRS 147A.050 to 147A.120 shall be deemed to limit or authorize the limitation in any manner of the functions, powers, or duties of any department or agency of the Commonwealth or of any political subdivision. Nor shall anything in KRS 147A.050 to 147A.120 authorize the Finance and Administration Cabinet or an area development district to perform or discharge any powers, duties, or functions now reposed, or which may hereinafter be reposed, by law in the Kentucky Department of Education, local school districts, or other educational institutions.

CHAPTER 149

FORESTRY

Section

149.130. Federal forest reserve appropriations for county roads and schools.

149.130. Federal forest reserve appropriations for county roads and schools.

(1) All moneys paid to the state under an Act of Congress of May 23, 1908 (35 Stat. 260) as amended, and arising from any national forest reserve created in the state by the federal government, shall be paid over to the Finance and Administration Cabinet and be turned into the State Treasury. The Finance and Administration Cabinet shall keep a separate account of all funds so received.

(2) The treasurer of each county in which there is situated any part of a forest reserve owned by the United States shall ascertain and report to the Finance and Administration Cabinet the name and area of that part of each reserve located in his county. The Finance and Administration Cabinet shall apportion the amount received by reason of each reserve among the counties in which the reserve is located, according to the area of the reserve in each county. If a fund is received from a reserve which lies in only one (1) county, it shall all be apportioned to that county. The Finance and Administration Cabinet shall draw a warrant on the State Treasury in favor of the treasurer of each county for the amount apportioned to that county.

(3) The county treasurer shall place one-half (½) of the funds to the credit of the public roads of his county and the other half (½) shall be distributed among the school districts in the county according to the area of the reserve in each school district.

Compiler’s Notes.

(6/25/2013). This statute was created with identical text in 2013 Ky. Acts chs. 18 and 90, which were companion bills. These Acts have been codified together.

151B.133. Duties of Office of the Kentucky Center for Statistics.

The duties of the Office of the Kentucky Center for Statistics shall be to:

- (1) Oversee and maintain the warehouse of data in the Kentucky Longitudinal Data System;
- (2) Develop de-identification standards and processes using modern statistical methods;
- (3) Conduct research and evaluation regarding federal, state, and local education and training programs at all levels;
- (4) Audit and ensure compliance of education and training programs with applicable federal and state requirements as authorized by federal and state law;
- (5) Work with public agencies and other entities to define statewide education, workforce development, and employment metrics and ensure the integrity and quality of data being collected;
- (6) Link data from multiple sources for consideration in developing broad public policy initiatives;
- (7) Develop requirements and definitions for data to be provided by any public agency, private institution of higher education, private school, or parochial school, as directed by the Board of the Kentucky Center for Statistics;
- (8) Develop a reasonable fee schedule for services provided;
- (9) Establish data quality standards;
- (10) Promulgate administrative regulations necessary for the proper administration of the Kentucky Longitudinal Data System;

(11) Ensure compliance with the federal Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act, 20 U.S.C. sec 1232g, and all other relevant federal and state privacy laws;

(12) Respond to approved research data requests in accordance with the data access and use policy established by the board;

(13) Develop and disseminate, in cooperation with the Council on Postsecondary Education and the Department of Education, information on the employment and earnings of the public postsecondary institution graduates in Kentucky. This information shall be updated at least every three (3) years and shall be:

(a) Posted on the Web site of the Office of the Kentucky Center for Statistics;

(b) Posted on the Web site of the Council on Postsecondary Education;

(c) Posted on the Web site of each public postsecondary institution, with the Web site address published in each institution's catalogue; and

(d) Made available to every high school guidance and career counselor, who shall be notified of its availability for the purpose of informing all high school students preparing for postsecondary education; and

(14) Enter into contracts or other agreements with appropriate entities, including but not limited to federal, state, and local agencies, to the extent necessary to carry out its duties and responsibilities only if such contracts or agreements incorporate adequate protections with respect to the confidentiality of any information to be shared.

VOCATIONAL REHABILITATION

151B.180. Declaration of intent for KRS 151B.180 to 151B.210.

In enacting KRS 151B.180 to 151B.210, it is the intention of the General Assembly of Kentucky to provide for and improve the vocational rehabilitation of citizens of the Commonwealth of Kentucky with physical and mental disabilities in order that they may increase their social and economic well-being and the productive capacity of the Commonwealth and nation.

History.

Repealed, reenact. and amend. Acts 1990, ch. 470, § 35, effective July 1, 1990; 1994, ch. 405, § 20, effective July 15, 1994.

Compiler's Notes.

This section (Enact. Acts 1956, ch. 172, § 1; 1984, ch. 316, § 1, effective July 13, 1984) was formerly compiled as KRS 163.110 and was repealed, reenacted and amended as this section by Acts 1990, ch. 470, § 35, effective July 1, 1990.

Legislative Research Commission Note.

(7/13/90). This section has been treated by two 1990 Acts; its repeal and reenactment with amendment in Acts ch. 470 renumbered the section into KRS ch. 151B.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Analysis

1. Jurisdiction of Court.
2. Contract Binding.

3. Award of Damages.
4. Rehabilitative Products.

1. Jurisdiction of Court.

Foreign corporation which contracted with Department of Education to modify van of quadriplegic and which in action by quadriplegic for breach of express and implied warranties of said contract received service of summons and complaint by registered letter from Secretary of State was subject to jurisdiction of court since it transacted business and contracted to supply goods and services within the state. Commonwealth Dep't of Education v. Gravitt, 673 S.W.2d 428, 1984 Ky. App. LEXIS 476 (Ky. Ct. App. 1984).

2. Contract Binding.

Since signature of agent of Department of Education was necessary on contract to authorize the process which would pay company for services in modifying van of quadriplegic, and such agent intended that the five (5) conditions contained in the contract should be enforceable against quadriplegic should the need arise, therefore intending the document as a whole to be binding, agent had authority and intent to enter into contract with quadriplegic. Commonwealth Dep't of Education v. Gravitt, 673 S.W.2d 428, 1984 Ky. App. LEXIS 476 (Ky. Ct. App. 1984).

Document in which Department of Education promised to modify van of quadriplegic in exchange for his acceptance of five (5) conditions some of which would transfer title to the department should the quadriplegic fail to abide by department's directions constituted a lawfully authorized contract between department and quadriplegic, and since nothing in KRS 163.110 to 163.180 (now 151B.180 et seq.) prohibited such contract, quadriplegic had valid cause of action against department under KRS 45A.245 for major defects which occurred as a result of the modification. Commonwealth Dep't of Education v. Gravitt, 673 S.W.2d 428, 1984 Ky. App. LEXIS 476 (Ky. Ct. App. 1984).

3. Award of Damages.

In an action by quadriplegic against Department of Education and foreign corporation for breach of warranties of contract between department and corporation for modification of quadriplegic's van, award of damages for use of rental vehicle during van's immobility and for assistance in transportation and remodeling costs were proper but award for depreciation on personal property of quadriplegic and for payments on van were unrelated to the action and were improper. Commonwealth Dep't of Education v. Gravitt, 673 S.W.2d 428, 1984 Ky. App. LEXIS 476 (Ky. Ct. App. 1984).

In action by quadriplegic against Department of Education and foreign corporation for breach of express and implied warranties contained in contract for modification of quadriplegic's van, award of $10,200 damages was supported by the evidence where measure of damages was the difference in value of the van to the quadriplegic after it was modified as compared to its value before modification ($10,200), where quadriplegic introduced testimony that van had no value after modification and there was no direct testimony of department as to the value of the van after modification. Commonwealth Dep't of Education v. Gravitt, 673 S.W.2d 428, 1984 Ky. App. LEXIS 476 (Ky. Ct. App. 1984).

4. Rehabilitative Products.

The Department of Education is not a guarantor of products supplied as a rehabilitation service. Commonwealth Dep't of Education v. Gravitt, 673 S.W.2d 428, 1984 Ky. App. LEXIS 476 (Ky. Ct. App. 1984).

151B.185. Office of Vocational Rehabilitation — Divisions.

(1) The Office of Vocational Rehabilitation is hereby created within the Education and Labor Cabinet, Department of Workforce Development. The office shall consist of an executive director and those administrative bodies and employees provided or appointed pursuant to law. The office shall be composed of the Division of Kentucky Business Enterprise, the Division of Blind Services, the Division of Field Services, and the Division of the Carl D. Perkins Vocational Training Center. Each division shall be headed by a director appointed by the secretary of the Education and Labor Cabinet under the provisions of KRS 12.050, and shall be composed of organizational entities as deemed appropriate by the secretary of the Education and Labor Cabinet.

(2) The Office of Vocational Rehabilitation shall have such powers and duties as contained in KRS 151B.180 to 151B.210 and KRS 163.450 to 163.480 and such other functions as may be established by administrative regulation.

(3) The office shall be the sole state agency for the purpose of developing and approving state plans required by state or federal laws and regulations as prerequisites to receiving federal funds for vocational rehabilitation.

(4) The chief executive officer of the office shall be the executive director of the Office of Vocational Rehabilitation. The executive director shall be appointed by the secretary of the Education and Labor Cabinet under the provisions of KRS 12.050. The executive director shall have experience in vocational rehabilitation and supervision and shall have general supervision and direction over all functions of the office and its employees, and shall be responsible for carrying out the programs and policies of the office.

(5) Except as otherwise provided, the office shall be the state agency responsible for all rehabilitation services and for other services as deemed necessary. The office shall be the agency authorized to expend all state and federal funds designated for rehabilitation services. The Office of the Secretary of the Education and Labor Cabinet is authorized as the state agency to receive all state and federal funds and gifts and bequests for the benefit of rehabilitation services.

(6) Employees under the jurisdiction of the Office of Vocational Rehabilitation who are members of a state retirement system as of June 30, 1990, shall remain in their respective retirement systems.

151B.195. Authority of the executive director of the Office of Vocational Rehabilitation.

(1) The executive director of the Office of Vocational Rehabilitation shall prescribe administrative regulations governing the services, personnel, and administration of the State Vocational Rehabilitation Agency; may enter into reciprocal agreements with other states to provide for the vocational rehabilitation of residents of the states concerned; may establish and supervise the operation of small businesses established pursuant to KRS 151B.180 to 151B.210 to be conducted by eligible individuals with severe disabilities; and may establish state funded special programs for vocational rehabilitation in the state vocational rehabilitation agency.

(2) Except as provided in KRS 151B.190, the executive director may prescribe administrative regulations to establish fees for services provided to individuals or entities, public or private.

(3) The executive director is authorized to provide liability insurance or an indemnity bond against the negligence of drivers of motor vehicles owned or operated by the office for the transportation of applicants or clients of the office. If the transportation is let out under contract, the contract shall require the contractor to carry an indemnity bond or liability insurance against negligence to such amounts as the executive director designates. In either case, the indemnity bond or insurance policy shall be issued by a surety or insurance company authorized to transact business in this state, and shall bind the company to pay any final judgment not to exceed the limits of the policy rendered against the insured for loss or damage to property of any applicant or client or other person, or death or injury of any applicant or client or other person.

(4) The provisions of any other statute notwithstanding, the executive director is authorized to use receipt of funds from the Social Security reimbursement program for a direct service delivery staff incentive program. Incentives may be awarded if case service costs are reimbursed for job placement of Social Security or Supplemental Security Income recipients at the Substantial Gainful Activity (SGA) level for nine (9) months pursuant to 42 U.S.C. sec. 422 and under those conditions and criteria as are established by the federal reimbursement program.

ADULT EDUCATION LEARNING SYSTEM

151B.401. Legislative findings.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky finds and declares that:

(1) The economic future of the Commonwealth and the prosperity of its citizens depend on the ability of Kentucky businesses to compete effectively in the world economy;

(2) A well-educated and highly trained workforce provides businesses in the Commonwealth with the competitive edge critical for their success; and

(3) Too many adult Kentuckians are not full participants in the labor pool because they lack a high school diploma, its equivalent, or the workplace knowledge necessary to assure self-sufficiency for themselves and their families.

History.

Enact. Acts 1994, ch. 487, § 1, effective July 15, 1994; repealed and reenact., Acts 2006, ch. 211, § 167, effective July 12, 2006; repealed and reenacted by 2019 ch. 146, § 38, effective June 27, 2019.

151B.402. Legislative findings relating to need for High School Equivalency Diplomas — Incentives — Administrative regulations — Learning contracts — Tuition discounts — Tax credit for employers.

(1) The General Assembly recognizes the critical condition of the educational level of Kentucky's adult population and seeks to stimulate the attendance at, and successful completion of, programs that provide a High School Equivalency Diploma. Incentives shall be provided to full-time employees who complete a High School Equivalency Diploma program within one (1) year and their employers.

(2) The Office of Adult Education within the Department of Workforce Development in the Education and Labor Cabinet shall promulgate administrative regulations to establish the operational procedures for this section. The administrative regulations shall include but not be limited to the criteria for:

(a) A learning contract that includes the process to develop a learning contract between the student and the adult education instructor with the employer's agreement to participate and support the student;

(b) Attendance reports that validate that the student is enrolled and studying for the High School Equivalency Diploma during the release time from work; and

(c) Final reports that qualify the student for the tuition discounts under subsection (3)(a) of this section and that qualify the employer for tax credits under subsection (4) of the section.

(3)(a) An individual who has been out of secondary school for at least three (3) years, develops and successfully completes a learning contract that requires a minimum of five (5) hours per week to study for the High School Equivalency Diploma program, and successfully earns a High School Equivalency Diploma shall earn a tuition discount of two hundred fifty dollars ($250) per semester for a maximum of four (4) semesters at one (1) of Kentucky's public postsecondary institutions.

(b) The program shall work with the postsecondary institutions to establish notification procedures for students who qualify for the tuition discount.

(4) An employer who assists an individual to complete his or her learning contract under the provisions of this section shall receive a state tax credit against the income tax imposed by KRS 141.020 or 141.040, and the limited liability entity tax imposed by KRS 141.0401, with credit ordering as provided in KRS 141.0205 for a portion of the released time given to the employee to study for the tests. The application for the tax credit shall be supported with attendance documentation provided by the Office of Adult Education and calculated by multiplying fifty percent (50%) of the hours released for study by the student's hourly salary, and not to exceed a credit of one thousand two hundred fifty dollars ($1250).

Acts 2013, ch. 59, § 33, effective June 25, 2013; repealed, reenact. and amend., Acts 2019, ch. 146, § 39, effective June 27, 2019; 2022 ch. 236, § 34, effective July 1, 2022.

Legislative Research Commission Notes.

(6/28/2006). 2006 (1st Extra. Sess.) Ky. Acts ch. 2, sec. 73, provides that "unless a provision of this Act specifically applies to an earlier tax year, the provisions of this Act shall apply to taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2007."

151B.403. Adult education programs aligned with federal college and career readiness standards — High School Equivalency Diploma — Programs and examinations — Previously issued equivalency or external diploma to be considered High School Equivalency Diploma — Validity of diplomas after changes in test selection.

(1) The Office of Adult Education within the Department of Workforce Development in the Education and Labor Cabinet shall promulgate administrative regulations to establish programs aligned with the College and Career Readiness Standards for Adult Education, or any other similar standards adopted by the federal Office of Career, Technical, and Adult Education, which upon successful completion, shall result in the issuance of a High School Equivalency Diploma.

(2) At least one (1) program authorized under subsection (1) of this section shall include a test aligned with the College and Career Readiness Standards for Adult Education, or any other standards adopted by the federal Office of Career, Technical, and Adult Education, to serve as a qualifying test, which upon passing, shall entitle students to receive a High School Equivalency Diploma.

(3) For purposes of any public employment, a High School Equivalency Diploma shall be considered equal to a high school diploma issued under the provisions of KRS 158.140.

(4) A High School Equivalency Diploma shall be issued without charge upon successfully completing a High School Equivalency Diploma program. A fee may be assessed by the Office of Adult Education for the issuance of a duplicate High School Equivalency Diploma and for issuance of a duplicate score report. All fees collected for duplicate diplomas and score reports shall be used to support the adult education program.

(5) The Office of Adult Education is authorized to contract annually with an institution of higher education or other appropriate agency or entity for scoring High School Equivalency Diploma program examinations.

(6) On June 29, 2017, any high school equivalency diploma or external diploma previously recognized or issued by the Commonwealth shall be considered retroactively as a High School Equivalency Diploma.

(7) Upon issuance, a High School Equivalency Diploma shall not be invalidated by any subsequent changes in test selection under this section.

151B.406. Office of Adult Education — Educational strategy and responsibilities — Organization — Sole agency for developing and approving state plans.

(1) The Office of Adult Education is created within the Department of Workforce Development in the Education and Labor Cabinet to carry out the statewide adult education mission. The office shall implement a twenty (20) year state strategy to reduce the number of adults who are at the lowest levels of literacy and most in need of adult education and literacy services. The office shall have responsibility for all functions related to adult education and literacy. The office shall:

(a) Promote coordination of programs and responsibilities linked to the issue of adult education with other agencies and institutions;

(b) Facilitate the development of strategies to increase the knowledge and skills of adults in all counties by promoting the efficient and effective coordination of all available education and training resources;

(c) Lead a statewide public information and marketing campaign to convey the critical nature of Kentucky’s adult literacy challenge and to reach adults and employers with practical information about available education and training opportunities;

(d) Establish standards for adult literacy and monitor progress in achieving the state’s adult literacy goals, including existing standards that may have been developed to meet requirements of federal law in conjunction with the Collaborative Center for Literacy Development: Early Childhood through Adulthood; and

(e) Administer the adult education and literacy initiative fund created under KRS 151B.409.

(2) The Office of Adult Education shall be organized in a manner as directed by the secretary of the Education and Labor Cabinet. The office shall be headed by an executive director appointed by the secretary of the Education and Labor Cabinet.

(3) The Office of Adult Education shall be the agency solely designated for the purpose of developing and approving state plans required by state or federal laws or regulations.

151B.407. Foundation for Adult Education.

(1) There is hereby established a nonprofit foundation to be known as the “Foundation for Adult Education.” The purpose of the foundation shall be to supplement public funding for adult training in order to expand existing basic skills training programs.

(2) Funding for the foundation shall be obtained through contributions by the private sector. The foundation shall be empowered to solicit and accept funds from the private sector to be used for grants to local education agencies to fund adult basic education programs especially designed for business and industry. Contributors may specify that contributed funds be used to improve the educational level of their employees as it relates to the High School Equivalency Diploma program.

(3) The foundation shall be governed by a board of trustees to be appointed by the secretary of the Education and Labor Cabinet with responsibility for adult education programs based on recommendations from business, industry, labor, education, and interested citizens. Staff for the board of trustees shall be provided by the cabinet.

(4) The foundation shall be attached to the office of the secretary of the Education and Labor Cabinet for administrative purposes.

Legislative Research Commission Notes.

(7/13/90). The Act amending this section prevails over the repeal and reenactment in House Bill 940, Acts Ch. 476, pursuant to Section 653(1) of Acts Ch. 476.

151B.408. Adult education and literacy system — Services — Duties and responsibilities of the Office of Adult Education.

(1)(a) The Office of Adult Education shall promulgate necessary administrative regulations and administer a statewide adult education and literacy system throughout the state. The adult education and literacy system shall include diverse educational services provided by credentialed professionals, based on the learners’ current needs and a commitment to lifelong learning.

(b) Services shall be provided at multiple sites appropriate for adult learning, including vocational and technical colleges, community colleges, comprehensive universities, adult education centers, public schools, libraries, family resource centers, adult correctional facilities, other institutions, and through the Kentucky Commonwealth Virtual University. Services shall be targeted to communities with the greatest need based on the number of adults at literacy levels I and II as defined by the 1997 Kentucky Adult Literacy Survey and other indicators of need.

(c) Access and referral services shall be initiated at multiple points including businesses, educational institutions, labor organizations, employment offices, and government offices.

(d) Multiple funding sources, program support, and partnerships to administer the adult education and literacy system may include student scholarship and grants; fees for services rendered; and other general, agency, local, state, federal, and private funds.

(2) Services included as part of the adult education and literacy system shall include but not be limited to functionally-contexted workplace essential skills training based on employers’ needs, leading to a competency-based certificate indicating proficiency in critical thinking, computing, reading, writing, communicating, problem solving, team-building, and use of technology at various worksites regarding basic skills.

(3) In administering an adult education and literacy system, the Office of Adult Education shall:

(a) Assist providers with the development of quality job-specific and workplace essential skills instruction for workers in business and industry, literacy and adult basic education, adult secondary education, including High School Equivalency Diploma program preparation, English as a second language, and family literacy programs, in cooperation with local business, labor, economic development, educational, employment, and service support entities;

(b) Provide assessments of each student’s skill and competency level allowing assessments to be shared with other educational and employment entities when necessary for providing additional educational programs, taking into consideration student confidentiality;

(c) Assist adult educators to meet professional standards;

(d) Create an awareness program in cooperation with the Administrative Office of the Courts to ensure that District and Circuit Court Judges are aware of the provisions of KRS 533.200 and the methods to access adult education and literacy programs for persons sentenced under the statute;

(e) Develop administrative regulations including those for business and industry service participation and mechanisms for service funding through all appropriate federal, state, local, and private resources;

(f) Require and monitor compliance with the program's administrative regulations and policies; and

(g) Develop and implement performance measures and benchmarks.

Sess.), ch. 1, § 54, effective May 30, 1997; 2000, ch. 526, § 10, effective July 14, 2000; 2006, ch. 211, § 55, effective July 12, 2006; 2008, ch. 113, § 2, effective July 15, 2008; repealed and reenact., Acts 2013, ch. 59, § 35, effective June 25, 2013; 2017 ch. 63, § 21, effective June 29, 2017; repealed, reenact. and amend., Acts 2019, ch. 146, § 47, effective June 27, 2019.

151B.409. Adult education and literacy initiative fund.

(1) There is created in the Education and Labor Cabinet a special fund to be known as the adult education and literacy initiative fund, which shall consist of moneys appropriated by the General Assembly, gifts, grants, other sources of funding, public and private, and interest accrued by the fund. This fund shall not lapse at the end of a fiscal year but shall be carried forward to be used only for the purposes specified in this section. Moneys accumulated in this fund on June 27, 2019, shall remain in the fund and be transferred to the Education and Labor Cabinet to be used for purposes stated in this section.

(2) The purpose of the adult education and literacy initiative fund shall be to support strategies for adult education, to provide statewide initiatives for excellence, and to provide funds for research and development activities.

(3) The cabinet shall establish the guidelines for the use, distribution, and administration of the fund, financial incentives, technical assistance, and other support for strategic planning; and guidelines for fiscal agents to assess county and area needs and to develop strategies to meet those needs.

(4) The fund shall include the following strategies:

(a) Statewide initiatives. Funds shall be used to encourage collaboration with other organizations, stimulate development of models of adult education programs that may be replicated elsewhere in the state, provide incentives for adults, employers, and providers to encourage adults to establish and accomplish learning contracts, provide incentives to encourage participation in adult education, assist providers of county and area programs in areas of highest need, and for other initiatives of regional or statewide significance as determined by the cabinet. The Collaborative Center for Literacy Development: Early Childhood through Adulthood created under KRS 164.0207 shall evaluate the reading and literacy components of model programs funded under this paragraph.

(b) Research and demonstration. The funds shall be used to develop:

1. Standards for the preparation, professional development, and support for adult educators with the advice of the Office of Adult Education and as compatible with funds provided under Title II of the Federal Workforce Investment Act;

2. A statewide competency-based certification for transferable skills in the workplace; and

3. A statewide public information and marketing campaign.

Legislative Research Commission Notes.

(7/7/97). Although designated to be created as a new section of KRS Chapter 164 by 1997 (1st Extra. Sess.) Ky. Acts ch. 1, sec. 150, this statute has been codified into KRS Chapter 151B under KRS 7.136(1)(a) and (h) because its subject matter clearly belongs within that chapter.

KENTUCKY ASSISTIVE TECHNOLOGY LOAN CORPORATION

151B.450. Definitions for KRS 151B.450 to 151B.475.

As used in KRS 151B.450 to 151B.475, unless the context requires otherwise:

(1) "Assistive technology" means any item, piece of equipment, or device that enables an individual with a disability to improve his or her independence and quality of life;

(2) "Board" means the board of directors of the Kentucky Assistive Technology Loan Corporation;

(3) "Cabinet" means the Education and Labor Cabinet;

(4) "Corporation" means the Kentucky Assistive Technology Loan Corporation created under KRS 151B.455;

(5) "Fund" means the Kentucky assistive technology loan fund created under KRS 151B.470;

(6) "Qualified borrower" means an individual with a disability that affects a major life activity such as mobility, sensory and cognitive communications, or self-care, a parent or legal guardian of an individual with a disability, or a nonprofit organization that provides assistive technology to individuals with disabilities who meet the criteria for participating in the Kentucky assistive technology loan fund; and

(7) "Qualified lender" means a financial lending institution or other qualified organization contracted with by the corporation to provide loans for the purchase of assistive technology.

History.

Enact. Acts 1996, ch. 222, § 1, effective July 15, 1996; 2006, ch. 211, § 56, effective July 12, 2006; 2009, ch. 11, § 27, effective June 25, 2009; 2022 ch. 236, § 39, effective July 1, 2022.

151B.455. Kentucky Assistive Technology Loan Corporation — Board of directors — Qualifications — Appointment — Terms — Vacancy — Removal.

(1) The Kentucky Assistive Technology Loan Corporation is created and established as an independent de jure municipal corporation and political subdivision of the Commonwealth of Kentucky to perform essential governmental and public functions for the purpose of improving the quality of life for disabled persons who are residents of the Commonwealth of Kentucky by providing the ability to obtain low-interest loans to qualified borrowers for the acquisition of assistive technology.

(2) The corporation shall be governed by a board of directors consisting of seven (7) members as follows:

(a) The secretary of the Education and Labor Cabinet or the secretary's designated representative;

(b) One (1) attorney with lending expertise;

(c) One (1) representative of a financial lending institution; and

(d) Four (4) public members with a knowledge of assistive technology representing a range of disabilities.

(3) All board members shall be residents of the Commonwealth of Kentucky and all, with the exception of the secretary or the secretary's designee, shall be appointed by the Governor. Each public member shall be an individual with a disability, a parent of an individual with a disability, or a legal representative of an individual with a disability. In making appointments the Governor shall seek recommendations from disability-related associations and organizations representing the categories of disabilities for which appointments are being made.

(4) For initial appointments to the board, two (2) public members shall be appointed for terms of four (4) years each, two (2) public members for terms of three (3) years each, the attorney member for a term of two (2) years, and the member representing a financial lending institution for a term of one (1) year. All succeeding terms shall be for a period of four (4) years each, and each appointee shall serve for the appointed term and until a successor has been appointed and has duly qualified. No person shall serve more than two (2) successive full terms.

(5) If a vacancy on the board occurs, the Governor shall appoint a replacement who shall hold office during the remainder of the term vacated.

(6) The Governor may remove any board member in case of incompetency, neglect of duties, gross immorality, or malfeasance in office, and may upon removal declare the position vacant and appoint a person to fill the vacancy as provided in other cases of vacancy. If a board member is so removed, he or she may appeal. Upon appeal an administrative hearing shall be conducted in accordance with KRS Chapter 13B.

History.

Enact. Acts 1996, ch. 222, § 2, effective July 15, 1996; 2006, ch. 211, § 57, effective July 12, 2006; 2009, ch. 11, § 28, effective June 25, 2009; 2022 ch. 236, § 40, effective July 1, 2022.

151B.460. Organization of board — Quorum — Meetings — Compensation — Disclosure of interest — Staff and administrative assistance — Records.

(1) At the first board meeting following initial appointment of all board members, the board shall elect a chair from its membership, and a chair shall be elected annually thereafter.

(2) A majority of the board of directors of the corporation shall constitute a quorum for the purpose of conducting its business and exercising its powers and for all other purposes, notwithstanding the existence of any vacancies on the board of directors.

(3) The board of directors shall meet at least once a quarter, and may meet at other times upon call of the chair or at the request of a majority of board members, and with a minimum of seven (7) days' notice.

(4) Board members shall receive no compensation for their services but may be entitled to payment of any reasonable and necessary expense actually incurred in discharging their duties under KRS 151B.450 to 151B.475, subject to the availability of funding.

(5) If any board member has a direct or indirect interest in any qualified lender or any organization serving as a qualified borrower, the interest shall be disclosed and set forth in the minutes of the board, and the board member having the interest shall not participate in any action involving the organization in which he or she has the interest.

(6) The Education and Labor Cabinet shall provide technical, clerical, and administrative assistance to the board, together with necessary office space and personnel, and shall provide any other services and support necessary for the board to perform its functions. The cabinet shall keep a record of the proceedings of the board and shall be custodian of all books, documents, and papers which constitute the official records of the corporation. The board may enter into a contract with the cabinet as may be proper and appropriate for the provision of these services.

History.

Enact. Acts 1996, ch. 222, § 3, effective July 15, 1996; 2006, ch. 211, § 58, effective July 12, 2006; 2009, ch. 11, § 29, effective June 25, 2009; 2022 ch. 236, § 41, effective July 1, 2022.

151B.470. Assistive technology loan fund established — Use — Administration.

(1) There is established in the State Treasury a permanent and perpetual fund to be known as the assistive technology loan fund, consisting of moneys that may be appropriated by the General Assembly, gifts, bequests, endowments, or grants from the United States government, its agencies and instrumentalities, and any other available sources of funds, public and private. Any fund balance at the close of a fiscal year shall not lapse but shall be carried forward to the next fiscal year, and moneys in the fund shall be continuously appropriated only for the purposes specified in this section. Interest and income earned from the investment of funds shall remain in the fund and be credited to it.

(2) The fund shall be used to provide loans to qualified borrowers within the Commonwealth for the purpose of acquiring assistive technology designed to help individuals with disabilities become more independent. Loans shall be made to qualified borrowers through qualified lenders with the fund being used as appropriate to negotiate reduced interest rates, to buy down interest rates, and to provide loan guarantees.

(3) The fund shall be under the administrative control of the board.

(4) If the corporation is dissolved, any unencumbered moneys appropriated by the General Assembly remaining in the fund shall revert to the general fund, and any other unencumbered moneys shall be transferred to the Education and Labor Cabinet to be expended for programs and services for Kentuckians with disabilities.

(e) Performance and outcome assessments;

(f) Monitoring the management of school districts, including administration and finance, implementation of state laws and regulations, and student performance; and

(g) Implementing state laws and the policies promulgated thereunder by the Kentucky Board of Education and the Education Professional Standards Board.

(2) The commissioner of education may delegate to his assistants any authority to act for him in the supervision, inspection, and administration of the schools to the extent he has supervisory and administrative control.

(3) All employees of the Department of Education shall be reimbursed for necessary traveling expenses incurred in the performance of their official duties, and no part of the reimbursement shall be included in or accounted as a part of their salaries.

(4) The State Department of Education, in the operation and management of its schools and the programs at these schools, shall meet all required federal and state standards relating to facilities and personnel qualifications; however, no license or license fee shall be required for any school or program operated by the State Department of Education.

(5) The Department of Education shall be the sole state agency for the purpose of developing and approving state plans required by state or federal laws and regulations as prerequisites to receiving federal funds for elementary and secondary education.

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

To the extent that KRS 156.016, which gives the power of reorganization of the Department of Education to the Commissioner of Education, is considered to conflict with KRS 12.028, which indicates that only the Governor or another elected state executive officer may file executive orders for reorganization, clearly, this section and KRS 156.016 supersede KRS 12.028 in that this section and KRS 156.016 were enacted into law more recently than KRS 12.028 and more specifically address the reorganization of the Department of Education. 156.016. Abolition of employment positions — Reorganization.

(1) Effective at the close of business on June 30, 1991, all employment positions in the Department of Education shall be abolished and the employment of all employees in the positions shall be terminated. Employees whose employment has been terminated under the provisions of this section shall have the same reemployment rights granted career employees by KRS Chapter 18A, except these employees shall not have priority status on the register for reemployment in the Department of Education. This shall not be construed as prohibiting the Department of Education from rehiring an employee whose employment has been terminated.

(2) After a comprehensive study of the Department of Education and the goals and duties of the commissioner of education and the department as established under the Kentucky Education Reform Act of 1990, 1990 Ky. Acts Ch. 476, the commissioner shall reorganize the department, effective July 1, 1991. The reorganization of the department shall incorporate a strong orientation toward providing technical assistance to school districts. After the comprehensive study, which shall include consultations with current department employees, the commissioner shall establish all positions in the department and set the qualifications for the positions, effective no earlier than July 1, 1991. The commissioner may rehire any department employees whose employment is terminated at the close of business on June 30, 1991, under this section.

(3) This section is in response to a specific court decision demanding specific actions of the General Assembly. The actions authorized by this section are designed for a single time use only in response to the education situation. The actions authorized by this section shall not extend to any other situation or circumstance.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

1. Appeal of Termination.

Because their jobs were abolished under this section, a part of the Kentucky Education Reform Act, employees of the Kentucky Department of Education, dismissed from their jobs, rehired, and subsequently terminated, were not "reinstated" or "reemployed" and were therefore under "initial probation" and not "promotional probation" when they were discharged and did not have the right to an appeal before the Personnel Board. Hart v. Personnel Bd., 905 S.W.2d 507, 1995 Ky. App. LEXIS 154 (Ky. Ct. App. 1995).

2. — Time.

Employees of Kentucky Department of Education, dismissed from their jobs and rehired pursuant to the Kentucky Education Reform Act and subsequently terminated during their "initial probation" period, did timely appeal their terminations to the Personnel Board for the 30-day limit to file an appeal ran from the time of their discharge on not upon their placement on "initial probation." Hart v. Personnel Bd., 905 S.W.2d 507, 1995 Ky. App. LEXIS 154 (Ky. Ct. App. 1995).

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

Although the Commissioner of Education is an appointed chief executive officer of the Department of Education, as commissioner he has the executive authority, unilaterally, to reorganize the department, one time, under the mandate of subsection (3) of this section. OAG 91-66.

A statutorily, not a constitutionally, created property right exists for state merit employees who hold status in their positions. That right entails protection from dismissal, demotion, suspension or penalization except for cause, but does not entail protection from legislative abolishment of their positions and termination. OAG 91-66.

It is not unconstitutional for the Legislature to require reorganization of the Department of Education, in the course of developing an efficient system of common schools in compliance with Const., § 183. OAG 91-66.

Merit employees of the Department of Education may not appeal legislative terminations by Commissioner of Education under this section since in this section the General Assembly abolished all employment positions in the Department of Education and terminated the employment of all employees in those positions, effective at the close of business on June 30, 1991; the personnel board has no jurisdiction over these actions of the General Assembly; the Personnel Board is authorized neither to recreate the positions abolished by the General Assembly nor to reinstate employees whose employment has been terminated by the General Assembly. OAG 91-66.

To the extent that this section, which gives the power of reorganization of the Department of Education to the Commissioner of Education, is considered to conflict with KRS 12.028, which indicates that only the Governor or another elected state executive officer may file executive orders for reorganization, clearly, KRS 156.010 and this section supersede KRS 12.028 in that KRS 156.010 and this section were enacted into law more recently than KRS 12.028 and more specifically address the reorganization of the Department of Education. OAG 91-66.

While state merit employees hold a property right in their employment with the state to the extent that they may not be dismissed, demoted, suspended or otherwise penalized except for cause, there is no statutorily created property right that prevents legislative terminations from a particular agency because there is no statutory provision that provides that legislative terminations cannot take place absent cause. OAG 91-66.

While this section does not provide for seniority for purposes of termination or rehiring in the Department of Education, seniority applies in all other agencies under the provisions of KRS 18A.135(2) in that all employees of the Department of Education are to be treated as career employees when placed on reemployment lists. OAG 91-66.

Whether or not an individual who is rehired in the Department of Education will be rehired as a merit or nonmerit employee will depend upon whether the Commissioner of Education hires that individual for a merit or a nonmerit position. OAG 91-87.

Employees of the Department of Education who are terminated have no priority status for reemployment in the Department of Education; nevertheless, those employees have the rights of career employees which gives them priority on reemployment registers in other agencies. OAG 91-87.

In view of the fact that any employee rehired by the Department of Education would be a new employee, that employee, so long as he is hired into a classified position, would be required to serve a probationary period following the completion of which the individual would have status in the position that he occupies. OAG 91-87.

156.018. Role of department with respect to program created by KRS 158.798.

The Department of Education in Kentucky shall promote, support, and assist in the program created in KRS 158.798 by:

- (1) Identifying middle and high school students who have a high interest, aptitude, or achievement in math, science, and technology related courses, events, and activities;

- (2) Cooperating with the Kentucky Science and Technology Council, Inc., in providing opportunities for middle school students to be recognized and encouraged in pursuit of math and science course work, related activities outside of the classroom, and careers in related fields;

- (3) Participating with others in the administration of summer institutes, business and industry internships, career opportunities, and other related experiences directed toward middle and high school students; and

- (4) Encouraging representatives from business and industry to participate in the mentorship, internship, scholarship, and career awareness components of the program.

156.022. Division of surplus property. [Repealed.]

Compiler's Notes.

This section (Enact. Acts 1960, ch. 68, Art. III, §§ 1 to 3; 1966, ch. 255, § 147; 1978, ch. 155, § 82, effective June 17, 1978; 1984, ch. 252, § 1, effective April 6, 1984) was repealed by Acts 1990, ch. 386, § 3, and by Acts 1990, ch. 476, Part VI, § 616, both effective July 13, 1990.

156.024. Department's budget requests to be submitted to state board.

Prior to submission of the formal budgetary requests of the Department of Education, established in KRS 156.010, to the Governor and executive branch, complete copies of the budget areas in the board's jurisdiction shall be forwarded to the Kentucky Board of Education to enable it to fully investigate and review said requests and make recommendations to the Governor.

Legislative Research Commission Note.

(7/13/90). This section was amended by two 1990 Acts which are in conflict. Pursuant to KRS 446.250, the Act which was last enacted by the General Assembly prevails.

156.026. Credits allowed transferred district employee.

- (1) For purposes of this section, full-time service in a local school for not less than one hundred forty (140) days during the school year entitles an employee who transfers to the Department of Education to a full year of experience credit on the Personnel Cabinet pay schedule and a full year for the purpose of accumulation of annual leave and sick leave in the Department of Education.

(2) An employee of a local school district who transfers to become an employee of the Department of Education after June 30, 1983, shall be allowed to transfer accrued sick leave up to the maximum allowed for transfers for teachers between school districts as provided by KRS 161.155(4). The employee shall be allowed credit for each year of experience in the local school system for the purposes of determining salary in accordance with the current Personnel Cabinet pay schedule, and the rate of accumulation of annual and sick leave in the Department of Education.

(3) For purposes of determining eligibility for additional leave or other benefits based on longevity of service, an employee transferring from a school district to the Department of Education after June 30, 1983, shall be given credit for each year of service in the school district, as determined under subsection (1) of this section.

Legislative Research Commission Note.

(7/13/90). The Act amending this section prevails over the repeal and reenactment in House Bill 940, Acts Ch. 476, pursuant to Section 653(1) of Acts Ch. 476.

156.027. Preferential procurement status for publishers who supply materials in alternative formats for students with disabilities — Electronic versions of text that are compatible with Braille translation and speech synthesis software — Digital files.

(1) The following definitions shall apply to this section:

(a) "Alternative format" means any medium or format for the presentation of instructional materials that is needed by a student with an individualized education program or Section 504 Plan for a reading accommodation other than standard print, including but not limited to Braille, large print, audio recordings, digital text, and digital talking books;

(b) "Braille," "individualized education program," and "blind students" have the same meaning as defined under KRS 158.281;

(c) "Comparable version" denotes that all elements of the print version are present in the electronic version, including graphics with ALT tags though not necessarily in the same order or format;

(d) "Legacy materials" means images and graphics requiring release and permission from another source other than the publisher; and

(e) "Section 504 Plan" means a written statement developed for a student with a disability that includes the provision of regular or special education and related aids and services designed to meet individual educational needs in accordance with the federal regulations issued under 34 C.F.R. sec. 104.33.

(2) The purpose of this section shall be to ensure, to the extent feasible, that all students with disabilities in the public schools kindergarten through grade twelve (12) who require reading accommodations in accordance with an individualized education program or Section 504 Plan, including but not limited to students who are blind, visually impaired, or who have a specific learning disability as defined in KRS 157.200 or other disability affecting reading, shall have access to textbooks and instructional materials as defined by administrative regulations of the Kentucky Board of Education in alternative formats that are appropriate to their disability and educational needs.

(3) Notwithstanding any other statute to the contrary, the Department of Education shall give preferential procurement status to textbook and instructional materials from publishers who make their materials available in alternative formats for use by students with disabilities, or who can verify that an accessible format textbook or instructional material is currently available from or is in the process of being created by the American Printing House for the Blind, Recording for the Blind and Dyslexic, or another authorized entity, as defined under 17 U.S.C. sec. 121 and who commonly provide alternative format materials for use by students in Kentucky schools. The Department of Education may assign additional procurement preferences designed to ensure that students with disabilities have access to appropriate alternative formats to meet their needs.

(4) Effective July 1, 2003, the Department of Education shall require to the extent feasible any publisher of a textbook or program adopted for use in the public schools in kindergarten through grade twelve (12) to furnish computer files or electronic versions of the printed textbooks and instructional materials in formats comparable to the printed version that are compatible with commonly used Braille translation and speech synthesis software and include corrections and revisions as may be necessary to assure clarity in presentation and use. Navigation within and between files should be reasonably efficient so that the disabled learner is able to fully utilize the material in a manner that yields the same result as the print version affords a nondisabled learner. File format shall be limited to those formats that allow for a comparable version that is readable with text and screen readers such as HTML, XML, or other formats that meet the criteria stated in this subsection. For extreme cases where ALT tags are not feasible, a tag may read, "This item is too complicated to render with current technology." Legacy materials shall be exempt from the criteria for this preference. These files shall be provided to the Department of Education and shall be provided at the same time and in composition and form comparable with the printed version and include corrections and revisions as may be necessary to ensure clarity in presentation and use. The Department of Education may define further requirements regarding additional characteristics of digital files submitted in compliance with this section as needed to provide appropriate alternative formats to meet the needs of students with disabilities.

(5) The Department of Education shall require publishers to make digital files, together with two (2) copies of the print version, available at no charge upon request to the American Printing House for the Blind for production of accessible Braille and other materials and to Recording for the Blind and Dyslexic or another authorized entity, as defined under 17 U.S.C. sec. 121, for production of accessible audio media, digital text, and digital talking books, which produce accessible format materials based on selection and scheduling needs.

(6) Nothing in this section shall in any way lessen the obligation of the public schools to provide for the instruction of blind students in the use of Braille in accordance with KRS 158.282 nor lessen the provision of Braille textbooks for blind students under KRS 156.476.

KENTUCKY BOARD OF EDUCATION

156.029. Kentucky Board of Education — Membership — Functions.

(1) There is hereby established a Kentucky Board of Education, which shall consist of eleven (11) voting members appointed by the Governor and confirmed by the Senate of the General Assembly, with the president of the Council on Postsecondary Education and the secretary of the Education and Labor Cabinet serving as ex officio nonvoting members, and an active public elementary or secondary school teacher and a public high school student appointed by the board as described in subsection (3) of this section serving as nonvoting members. Seven (7) voting members shall represent each of the Supreme Court districts as established by KRS 21A.010, and four (4) voting members shall represent the state at large. Each of the voting members shall serve for a four (4) year term, except the initial appointments shall be as follows: the seven (7) members representing Supreme Court districts shall serve a term which shall expire on April 14, 1994; and the four (4) at-large members shall serve a term which shall expire on April 14, 1992. Subsequent appointments shall be submitted to the Senate for confirmation in accordance with KRS 11.160.

(2) Appointments of the voting members shall be made without reference to occupation. No voting member at the time of his or her appointment or during the term of his or her service shall be engaged as a professional educator. Beginning with voting members appointed on or after June 29, 2021, appointments to the group of members representing Supreme Court districts and to the group of at-large members, respectively, shall reflect equal representation of the two (2) sexes, inasmuch as possible; reflect no less than proportional representation of the two (2) leading political parties of the Commonwealth based on the state's voter registration and the political affiliation of each appointee as of December 31 of the year preceding the date of his or her appointment; and reflect the minority racial composition of the Commonwealth based on the total minority racial population using the most recent census or estimate data from the United States Census Bureau. If the determination of proportional minority representation does not result in a whole number of minority members, it shall be rounded up to the next whole number. A particular political affiliation shall not be a prerequisite to appointment to the board generally; however, if any person is appointed to the board that does not represent either of the two (2) leading political parties of the Commonwealth, the proportional representation by political affiliation requirement shall be determined and satisfied based on the total number of members on the board less any members not affiliated with either of the two (2) leading political parties. Pursuant to KRS 63.080, a member shall not be removed except for cause or, beginning with voting members appointed on or after June 29, 2021, in accordance with KRS 63.080(3). Notwithstanding KRS 12.028, the board shall not be subject to reorganization by the Governor.

(3) The nonvoting teacher and student members shall be selected by the board from the state's six (6) congressional districts on a rotating basis from different districts. The public high school student shall be classified as a junior at the time of appointment. The teacher and student members shall serve for a one (1) year term, except the initial appointments shall serve a term which shall expire on April 14, 2022. The board shall promulgate an administrative regulation establishing the process for selecting the nonvoting teacher and student members.

(4) A vacancy in the voting membership of the board shall be filled by the Governor for the unexpired term with the consent of the Senate. In the event that the General Assembly is not in session at the time of the appointment, the consent of the Senate shall be obtained during the time the General Assembly next convenes.

(5) At the first regular meeting of the board in each fiscal year, a chairperson shall be elected from its voting membership.

(6) The members shall be reimbursed for actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of their duties.

(7) The commissioner of education shall serve as the executive secretary to the board.

(8) The primary function of the board shall be to develop and adopt policies and administrative regulations, with the advice of the Local Superintendents Advisory Council, by which the Department of Education shall be governed in planning, coordinating, administering, supervising, operating, and evaluating the educational programs, services, and activities within the Department of Education which are within the jurisdiction of the board.

156.030. State Board for Elementary and Secondary Education — Members — Compensation — Function. [Repealed.]

Compiler's Notes.

This section (4377-2, 4377-4, 4384-5, 4527-63; amend. Acts 1962, ch. 244, Art. III, § 1; 1968, ch. 152, § 116; 1968, ch. 172, § 1; 1978, ch. 155, § 85, effective June 17, 1978; 1978, ch. 384, § 567, effective June 17, 1978) was repealed by Acts 1982, ch. 381, § 12, effective July 15, 1982.

156.031. Existing State Board for Elementary and Secondary Education to remain active until successor board appointed.

(1) Effective until the Governor appoints and the Senate and the House of Representatives of the General Assembly confirm the State Board for Elementary and Secondary Education as established in KRS 156.029, there is within the Department of Education a State Board for Elementary and Secondary Education which shall consist of thirteen (13) members. Seven (7) members shall be appointed, one (1) from each Supreme Court district, as established by KRS 21A.010, and six (6) members from the state at large, by the Governor to serve for terms of four (4) years.

(2) The terms of the appointees shall expire on June 30 in the appropriate year, and the terms of each new member appointed thereafter shall begin on July 1.

(3) Vacancies in the membership of the board shall be filled by the Governor for unexpired terms. Appointments shall be made without reference to occupation, political affiliation, or similar consideration. No member at the time of his appointment or during the term of his service shall be engaged as a professional educator.

(4) At the first regular meeting of the board in each fiscal year, a chairperson shall be elected from its voting membership.

(5) The Superintendent of Public Instruction or his designee shall be the executive officer of the board.

(6) The primary function of the board shall be to develop and adopt policies and administrative regulations by which the Department of Education shall be governed in planning, coordinating, administering, supervising, operating, and evaluating the educational programs, services, and activities within the Department of Education which are within the jurisdiction of the board. Existing administrative regulations relating to statutes that are repealed and reenacted in the Kentucky Education Reform Act of 1990, 1990 Ky. Acts ch. 476, and that have not been objected to in the administrative review process as provided for in KRS Chapter 13A shall remain in effect until amended or repealed. Regulations promulgated under newly created or amended statutes in the Kentucky Education Reform Act of 1990, 1990 Ky. Acts ch. 476, shall be promulgated, reviewed, or amended, if necessary, and resubmitted to the Legislative Research Commission, prior to December 30, 1990, except for regulations that are to be promulgated at another date in accordance with other provisions of the Kentucky Education Reform Act of 1990, 1990 Ky. Acts ch. 476.

History.

Enact. Acts 1982, ch. 381, § 2, effective July 15, 1982; 1988, ch. 361, § 3, effective July 15, 1988; 1990, ch. 476, Pt. II, § 34, effective July 13, 1990.

Legislative Research Commission Notes.

(7/15/96). Under 1996 Ky. Acts ch. 362, sec. 6, references to the "State Board for Elementary and Secondary Education" in this statute have been left unchanged although the name of that board has been changed by that Act to the "Kentucky Board of Education."

As enacted, subsection (1) of this section states that the State Board of Education consists of fourteen members. However, it provides for the appointment of only thirteen members. The Reviser of Statutes, pursuant to KRS 7.136, has made a technical correction in subsection (1) by inserting thirteen in lieu of fourteen.

Pursuant to Executive Order 80-624, the terms of those members appointed on July 30, 1980 shall expire on June 30, as follows: three in 1981; three in 1982; four in 1983; and three in 1984.

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

This section and KRS 164.010 (now repealed) contain clearly irreconcilable, repugnant provisions, since this section directs the state Board of Education to elect one of its own members to serve as an ex officio member of the council on higher education and KRS 164.010 (now repealed), as amended, has not only deleted the reference to the state Board member on the council but also provides that the council is to be composed of the state superintendent of public instruction and 17 lay members appointed by the Governor, thus leaving no seat on the council to be occupied by a state Board of Education member. As Acts 1982, ch. 379, amending KRS 164.010 (now repealed), became operative on April 9, 1982, and Acts 1982, ch. 381, creating this section, did not become effective until July 15, 1982, the language in KRS 164.010

(now repealed) prevails, so that no member of the state Board of Education will be entitled to sit on the council of higher education. OAG 82-357.

Under this section the executive director of the council on higher education continues as an ex officio, nonvoting member of the state Board as the section clearly provides that the state Board is to consist of 14 members and, without the executive director of the council, there would only be 13 members. The General Assembly intended that the fourteenth member was to be identified by referring to Executive Order 80-624. OAG 82-357.

156.032. State board for vocational-technical, adult education and vocational rehabilitation services — Membership — Function. [Repealed.]

Compiler's Notes.

This section (Enact. Acts 1988, ch. 361, § 4, effective July 15, 1988) was repealed by Acts 1990, ch. 470, § 72, effective July 1, 1990.

Legislative Research Commission Note.

(7/13/90) This section was amended by one Act [Acts 1990, ch. 476, § 48] and repealed by another Act of the 1990 General Assembly. Pursuant to KRS 446.260, the Act [Acts 1990, ch. 470, § 72] repealing the section prevails.

156.033. Duties and powers of State Board for Adult, Vocational Education and Vocational Rehabilitation. [Repealed.]

Compiler's Notes.

This section (Enact. Acts 1990, ch. 476, Pt. II, § 49, effective July 13, 1990) was repealed by Acts 1992, ch. 417, § 12, effective July 14, 1992.

156.035. Legal status of board — Administration of fund.

(1) The Kentucky Board of Education is recognized to be a public body corporate and politic, and an agency and instrumentality of the Commonwealth in the performance of essential governmental functions.

(2) For the benefit of programs under its control and supervision, the board is authorized to implement the provisions of any Act of Congress appropriating and apportioning funds to the state, to receive funds appropriated by the Kentucky General Assembly, to provide for the proper apportionment and disbursement of such funds in accordance with state or federal laws, and to accept and provide for the administration of any gifts, donations, or devises.

(3)(a) The board is authorized to expend funds necessary for errors and omissions insurance premiums for insurance to cover the defense of, and any damages and costs awarded in, any civil action brought against individual board members on account of an act made in the scope and course of their performance of legal duties as board members.

(b) The authorization of the expenditure of public funds for insurance is deemed critical to continuing to attract qualified individuals to become members of state boards, and is deemed to authorize the expenditure of public funds for a public purpose.

(c) Nothing in this subsection shall be construed as a waiver of the sovereign immunity of the Commonwealth with respect to claims against the Kentucky Board of Education, the Department of Education, or any of their respective officers, agents, or employees.

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

When this section, KRS 156.070 and 156.114 (repealed) are viewed cumulatively, there is strong support for the power of the State Board of Education to withhold state funds from any school district failing to file reports required by statute or regulation of the state board. OAG 79-464.

156.050. Rules — Secretary. [Repealed.]

Compiler’s Notes.

This section (4377-7) was repealed by Acts 1978, ch. 155, § 165, effective June 17, 1978.

156.060. Quorum — Meetings — Location of office — Compensation.

For meetings of the Kentucky Board of Education, a majority of the voting members shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. The board shall meet not less than every three (3) months and at other times it may be called as provided in this section. Special meetings of the board may be called by the chairperson, and upon written request of two (2) members, the chairperson shall call a special meeting of the board to be held not later than twenty (20) days following receipt of the written request. The chairperson shall give notice through the secretary by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, to each member of the board at least ten (10) days prior to the time of any meeting unless all members of the board waive notice in writing. The offices of the board shall be at the seat of government in the Department of Education and shall be provided by the state. Members of the board may receive a per diem of one hundred dollars ($100) for each regular or special meeting attended and actual expenses for attending meetings, and may be reimbursed for other actual and necessary expenditures incurred in the performance of their duties authorized by the board. The per diem and expenses shall be paid out of the appropriation for the board.

History.

4377-8; amend Acts 1942, ch. 201, §§ 1, 2; 1962, ch. 244, Art. III, § 2; 1974, ch. 315, § 15; 1978, ch. 155, § 88, effective June 17, 1978; 1980, ch. 114, § 20, effective July 15, 1980; 1982, ch. 381, § 3, effective July 15, 1982; 1988, ch. 361, § 7, effective July 15, 1988; 1990, ch. 470, § 49, effective July 1, 1990; 1990, ch. 476, Pt. IV, § 128, effective July 13, 1990; 1996, ch. 362, § 6, effective July 15, 1996.

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

The literal language of this section provides a per diem and actual expenses for members of the State Board for Elementary and Secondary Education for attending regular or special meetings of the State Board for Elementary and Secondary Education and in other situations where matters relating to duties as a board member are performed, the board member is entitled to “actual and necessary expenditures” but not a per diem. OAG 79-466.

156.070. General powers and duties of state board — Administrative regulations — Designation of teams — Eligibility to play.

(1) The Kentucky Board of Education shall have the management and control of the common schools and all programs operated in these schools, including interscholastic athletics, the Kentucky School for the Deaf, the Kentucky School for the Blind, and community education programs and services.

(2) The Kentucky Board of Education may designate an organization or agency to manage interscholastic athletics in the common schools, provided that the rules, regulations, and bylaws of any organization or agency so designated shall be approved by the board, and provided further that any administrative hearing conducted by the designated managing organization or agency shall be conducted in accordance with KRS Chapter 13B.

(a) The state board or its designated agency shall assure through promulgation of administrative regulations that if a secondary school sponsors or intends to sponsor an athletic activity or sport that is similar to a sport for which National Collegiate Athletic Association members offer an athletic scholarship, the school shall sponsor the athletic activity or sport for which a scholarship is offered. The administrative regulations shall specify which athletic activities are similar to sports for which National Collegiate Athletic Association members offer scholarships.

(b) Beginning with the 2003-2004 school year, the state board shall require any agency or organization designated by the state board to manage interscholastic athletics to adopt bylaws that establish as members of the agency's or organization's board of control one (1) representative of nonpublic member schools who is elected by the nonpublic school members of the agency or organization from regions one (1) through eight (8) and one (1) representative of nonpublic member schools who is elected by the nonpublic member schools of the agency or organization from regions nine (9) through sixteen (16). The nonpublic school representatives on the board of control shall not be from classification A1 or D1 schools. Following initial election of these nonpublic school representatives to the agency's or organization's board of control, terms of the nonpublic school representatives shall be staggered so that only one (1) nonpublic school member is elected in each even-numbered year.

(c) The state board or any agency designated by the state board to manage interscholastic athletics shall not promulgate rules, administrative regulations, or bylaws that prohibit pupils in grades seven (7) to eight (8) from participating in any high school sports except for high school varsity soccer and football, or from participating on more than one (1) school-sponsored team at the same time in the same sport. The Kentucky Board of Education, or an agency designated by the board to manage interscholastic athletics, may promulgate administrative regulations restricting, limiting, or prohibiting participation in high school varsity soccer and football for students who have not successfully completed the eighth grade.

(d)1. The state board or any agency designated by the state board to manage interscholastic athletics shall allow a member school's team or students to play against students of a non-member at-home private school, or a team of students from non-member at-home private schools, if the non-member at-home private schools and students comply with this subsection.

2. A non-member at-home private school's team and students shall comply with the rules for student-athletes, including rules concerning:

- a. Age;
- b. School semesters;

- c. Scholarships;
- d. Physical exams;
- e. Foreign student eligibility; and
- f. Amateurs.

3. A coach of a non-member at-home private school's team shall comply with the rules concerning certification of member school coaches as required by the state board or any agency designated by the state board to manage interscholastic athletics.

4. This subsection shall not allow a non-member at-home private school's team to participate in a sanctioned:

- a. Conference;
- b. Conference tournament;
- c. District tournament;
- d. Regional tournament; or
- e. State tournament or event.

5. This subsection does not allow eligibility for a recognition, award, or championship sponsored by the state board or any agency designated by the state board to manage interscholastic athletics.

6. A non-member at-home private school's team or students may participate in interscholastic athletics permitted, offered, or sponsored by the state board or any agency designated by the state board to manage interscholastic athletics.

(e) Every local board of education shall require an annual medical examination performed and signed by a physician, physician assistant, advanced practice registered nurse, or chiropractor, if performed within the professional's scope of practice, for each student seeking eligibility to participate in any school athletic activity or sport. The Kentucky Board of Education or any organization or agency designated by the state board to manage interscholastic athletics shall not promulgate administrative regulations or adopt any policies or bylaws that are contrary to the provisions of this paragraph.

(f) Any student who turns nineteen (19) years of age prior to August 1 shall not be eligible for high school athletics in Kentucky. Any student who turns nineteen (19) years of age on or after August 1 shall remain eligible for that school year only. An exception to the provisions of this paragraph shall be made, and the student shall be eligible for high school athletics in Kentucky if the student:

1. Qualified for exceptional children services and had an individual education program developed by an admissions and release committee (ARC) while the student was enrolled in the primary school program;
2. Was retained in the primary school program because of an ARC committee recommendation; and
3. Has not completed four (4) consecutive years or eight (8) consecutive semesters of eligibility following initial promotion from grade eight (8) to grade nine (9).

(g) The state board or any agency designated by the state board to manage interscholastic athletics shall promulgate administrative regulations or bylaws that provide that:

1. A member school shall designate all athletic teams, activities, and sports for students in grades six (6) through twelve (12) as one (1) of the following categories:

- a. "Boys";
- b. "Coed"; or
- c. "Girls";

2. The sex of a student for the purpose of determining eligibility to participate in an athletic activity or sport shall be determined by:

a. A student's biological sex as indicated on the student's original, unedited birth certificate issued at the time of birth; or

b. An affidavit signed and sworn to by the physician, physician assistant, advanced practice registered nurse, or chiropractor that conducted the annual medical examination required by paragraph (e) of this subsection under penalty of perjury establishing the student's biological sex at the time of birth;

3.a. An athletic activity or sport designated as "girls" for students in grades six (6) through twelve (12) shall not be open to members of the male sex.

b. Nothing in this section shall be construed to restrict the eligibility of any student to participate in an athletic activity or sport designated as "boys" or "coed"; and

4. Neither the state board, nor any agency designated by the state board to manage interscholastic athletics, nor any school district, nor any member school shall entertain a complaint, open an investigation, or take any other adverse action against a school for maintaining separate interscholastic or intramural athletic teams, activities, or sports for students of the female sex.

(h)1. The state board or any agency designated by the state board to manage interscholastic athletics shall promulgate administrative regulations that permit a school district to employ or assign non-teaching or noncertified personnel or personnel without postsecondary education credit hours to serve in a coaching position. The administrative regulations shall give preference to the hiring or assignment of certified personnel in coaching positions.

2. A person employed in a coaching position shall be a high school graduate and at least twenty-one (21) years of age and shall submit to a criminal background check in accordance with KRS 160.380.

3. The administrative regulations shall specify post-hire requirements for persons employed in coaching positions.

4. The regulations shall permit a predetermined number of hours of professional development training approved by the state board or its designated agency to be used in lieu of postsecondary education credit hour requirements.

5. A local school board may specify post-hire requirements for personnel employed in coaching positions in addition to those specified in subparagraph 3. of this paragraph.

(i) Any student who transfers enrollment from a district of residence to a nonresident district under KRS 157.350(4)(b) shall be ineligible to participate in interscholastic athletics for one (1) calendar year from the date of the transfer.

(j) No member school shall grant a student-athlete the right to use the member school's intellectual property, such as trademarks, school uniforms, and copyrights, in the student's earning of compensation through name, image, and likeness activities. No student-athlete shall use such intellectual property in earning compensation through name, image, and likeness activities. The state board or any agency designated by the state board to manage interscholastic athletics shall promulgate administrative regulations to govern and enforce this paragraph.

(3)(a) The Kentucky Board of Education is hereby authorized to lease from the State Property and Buildings Commission, or others, whether public or private, any lands, buildings, structures, installations, and facilities suitable for use in establishing and furthering television and related facilities as an aid or supplement to classroom instruction, throughout the Commonwealth, and for incidental use in any other proper public functions. The lease may be for any initial term commencing with the date of the lease and ending with the next ensuing June 30, which is the close of the then-current fiscal biennium of the Commonwealth, with exclusive options in favor of the board to renew the same for successive ensuing bienniums, July 1 in each even year to June 30 in the next ensuing even year; and the rentals may be fixed at the sums in each biennium, if renewed, sufficient to enable the State Property and Buildings Commission to pay therefrom the maturing principal of and interest on, and provide reserves for, any revenue bonds which the State Property and Buildings Commission may determine to be necessary and sufficient, in agreement with the board, to provide the cost of acquiring the television and related facilities, with appurtenances, and costs as may be incident to the issuance of the bonds.

(b) Each option of the Kentucky Board of Education to renew the lease for a succeeding biennial term may be exercised at any time after the adjournment of the session of the General Assembly at which appropriations shall have been made for the operation of the state government for such succeeding biennial term, by notifying the State Property and Buildings Commission in writing, signed by the chief state school officer, and delivered to the secretary of the Finance and Administration Cabinet as a member of the commission. The option shall be deemed automatically exercised, and the lease automatically renewed for the succeeding biennium, effective on the first day thereof, unless a written notice of the board's election not to renew shall have been delivered in the office of the secretary of the Finance and Administration Cabinet before the close of business on the last working day in April immediately preceding the beginning of the succeeding biennium.

(c) The Kentucky Board of Education shall not itself operate leased television facilities, or undertake the preparation of the educational presentations or films to be transmitted thereby, but may enter into one (1) or more contracts to provide therefor, with any public agency and instrumentality of the Commonwealth having, or able to provide, a staff with proper technical qualifications, upon which agency and instrumentality the board, through the chief state school officer and the Department of Education, is represented in such manner as to coordinate matters of curriculum with the curricula prescribed for the public schools of the Commonwealth. Any contract for the operation of the leased television or related facilities may permit limited and special uses of the television or related facilities for other programs in the public interest, subject to the reasonable terms and conditions as the board and the operating agency and instrumentality may agree upon; but any contract shall affirmatively forbid the use of the television or related facilities, at any time or in any manner, in the dissemination of political propaganda or in furtherance of the interest of any political party or candidate for public office, or for commercial advertising. No lease between the board and the State Property and Buildings Commission shall bind the board to pay rentals for more than one (1) fiscal biennium at a time, subject to the aforesaid renewal options. The board may receive and may apply to rental payments under any lease and to the cost of providing for the operation of the television or related facilities not only appropriations which may be made to it from state funds, from time to time, but also contributions, gifts, matching funds, devises, and bequests from any source, whether federal or state, and whether public or private, so long as the same are not conditioned upon any improper use of the television or related facilities in a manner inconsistent with the provisions of this subsection.

(4) The state board may, on the recommendation and with the advice of the chief state school officer, prescribe, print, publish, and distribute at public expense such administrative regulations, courses of study, curriculums, bulletins, programs, outlines, reports, and placards as each deems necessary for the efficient management, control, and operation of the schools and programs under its jurisdiction. All administrative regulations published or distributed by the board shall be enclosed in a booklet or binder on which the words "informational copy" shall be clearly stamped or printed.

(5) Upon the recommendation of the chief state school officer or his or her designee, the state board shall establish policy or act on all matters relating to programs, services, publications, capital construction and facility renovation, equipment, litigation, contracts, budgets, and all other matters which are the administrative responsibility of the Department of Education.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Analysis

1. Board Subject to Title IX.
2. Athletics.

1. Board Subject to Title IX.

The Kentucky State Board for Elementary and Secondary Education, as a "recipient" of federal financial assistance, and the Kentucky High School Athletic Association, as an "agent" indirectly receiving federal funds, would both be subject to Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, as amended by the Civil Rights Restoration Act of 1987, 20 USCS §§ 1681-1688. Horner v. Kentucky High Sch. Athletic Ass'n, 43 F.3d 265, 1994 FED App. 0417P, 1994 U.S. App. LEXIS 36130 (6th Cir. Ky. 1994).

2. Athletics.

In creating the Kentucky Board of Education, the General Assembly recognized that its functions included the management of interscholastic athletics, and it authorized the Kentucky Board of Education to designate an agent for the purpose of performing that function, the Kentucky High School Athletic Association; interscholastic athletics have been recognized as an integral part of secondary education, and thus, have been considered a governmental function. Yanero v. Davis, 65 S.W.3d 510, 2001 Ky. LEXIS 203 (Ky. 2001).

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

The Kentucky High School Athletic Association may purchase property from an entity in which the Governor is a general partner, without violating KRS 45A.340. OAG 90-27.

If the board determines that it is not in the best interest of the general health and welfare of pupils of a particular weight and height to participate in high-contact sports, the board may, without violating this section, limit participation in such sports activities by students who fail to meet the weight and height requirements. OAG 90-87.

Nothing in this section prohibits the state board, the Kentucky High School Athletic Association, or local school boards from making rules that limit a student's participation in sports activities based on student's health, safety and academic standing. OAG 90-87.

This section, KRS 156.160, and the accompanying regulation, 704 KAR 7:055 set the standards to be followed by employees of the common schools with regard to the imposition of corporal punishment. OAG 92-20.

Effective July 14, 1992, under subsection (2) of this section the State Board for Elementary and Secondary Education and the Kentucky High School Athletic Association may, by rule, administrative regulation, or bylaw, restrict or prohibit 7th and 8th grade students from participating in high school varsity wrestling, soccer, and football. Regulation of participation of 7th or 8th grade students in high school varsity wrestling, soccer, and football is not mandatory, but within the discretion of the state board and the athletic association. OAG 92-98.

Although the Kentucky High School Athletic Association was originally created as a private, voluntary, unincorporated association, it assumed a public character as a policy making board of an institution of education when, pursuant to KRS 156.070(2) and 702 KAR 7:065 Section 1, it was designated by the Kentucky Board of Education as the agency responsible for managing interscholastic athletics in the schools. Accordingly, the KHSAA is a public agency for purposes of the Open Records Act. OAG 04-ORD-244.

156.071. Delegation of taking evidence and writing recommendation of disposition to hearing officer or panel — Compensatory time for staff conducting school facility public hearings.

The Kentucky Board of Education may, any statute to the contrary notwithstanding, delegate the taking of evidence, and the rendition of a written recommendation of disposition to the full board, to a panel of the board, to a single member of the board acting as a hearing officer, or to a hearing officer appointed by the board relative to any hearing, appeal, or decision, judicial or quasi-judicial in nature, which the board is empowered or directed, by this or any other chapter, to conduct, hear, or make; provided, the full board, as provided by statute, makes the final decision or determination, based upon the evidence submitted. For the purpose of serving as a hearing officer for the board, the board and the Department of Education shall not enter into a personal service contract; employ additional staff; or provide additional compensation to existing staff, except for compensatory time for staff who conduct school facility public hearings outside of their regular working hours.

156.072. Waiver of reporting requirement.

(1) At the request of a local board of education or a school council, a local school district superintendent shall submit a request to the Kentucky Board of Education for a waiver from a reporting requirement established by a Kentucky Revised Statute that requires the paperwork to be submitted to the Kentucky Board of Education or the Department of Education.

(2) Upon a finding of good cause for the waiver, the Kentucky Board of Education may grant the waiver.

(3) The Kentucky Board of Education shall not waive statutory paperwork or reporting requirements necessary under federal law or relating to health, safety, or civil rights.

History.

Enact. Acts 2000, ch. 277, § 1, effective July 14, 2000.

156.074. Purchase contract for supplies, equipment — Specifications — Terms.

The Kentucky Board of Education, upon requisition to the Finance and Administration Cabinet, may secure price contract agreements for the purchase of supplies and equipment by district boards of education. The board by regulation shall specify the particular types of supplies and equipment for which contracts shall be secured and may revise such lists from time to time. The board, in consultation with the Finance and Administration Cabinet, shall fix standards of quality and quantity and shall develop standard specifications for supplies and equipment. The Finance and Administration Cabinet shall enter into price contract agreements under the law relating to state purchasing. Such contracts shall establish sources of supply, maximum prices to be paid, and shall set forth the length of time for which such contracts shall be valid, not to exceed one (1) year.

History.

Enact. Acts 1962, ch. 244, Art. II, § 6; 1966, ch. 255, § 148; 1974, ch. 74, Art. II, § 9(1); 1978, ch. 155, § 82, effective July 17, 1978; repealed and reenact., Acts 1990, ch. 476, Pt. V, § 365, effective July 13, 1990; 1996, ch. 362, § 6, effective July 15, 1996.

156.076. Price contracts information to be furnished district boards — Purchase conditions.

The chief state school officer shall furnish full information on established price contracts to each district board of education. Any board of education may purchase supplies and equipment from the vendor to whom the contract has been awarded, under the terms of the contract. Any board of education may advertise for its own bids on supplies and equipment which meet the specifications of the contracts awarded by the Office of Material and Procurement Services in the Office of the Controller. Any board of education, after advertising for bids, may award contracts if the chief state school officer certifies that the bid offers supplies and equipment which meet the standards and specifications fixed by the Kentucky Board of Education and that the bid price is lower than that established by the price contract agreement. If supplies and equipment that meet the specifications of the contracts awarded by the Office of Material and Procurement Services or a federal, local, or cooperative agency are available for purchase elsewhere, a board of education may purchase those supplies and equipment without advertising for bids. However, prior to making the purchases, the board of education shall obtain certification from:

(1) The Department of Education for technology components defined in the master plan for education technology for which standards have been established by the Kentucky Board of Education. The department shall certify that the items to be purchased meet or exceed, at a lower cost, the specifications of the components of the original equipment of manufacturers currently holding Kentucky education technology system price contracts; and

(2) The district's finance officer for supplies and equipment other than that described in subsection (1) of this section. He shall certify that the items to be purchased meet the standards and specifications fixed by state price contract, federal (GSA) price contract, the local school district's bid, or the bid of another school district whose bid specifications allow other districts to utilize their bids, and that the sales price is lower than that established by the price contract agreement or available through the bidding process and the price does not exceed two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500).

(1) The Kentucky Department of Education shall establish, direct, and maintain a statewide program of professional development to improve instruction in the public schools.

(2) Each local school district superintendent shall appoint a certified school employee to fulfill the role and responsibilities of a professional development coordinator who shall disseminate professional development information to schools and personnel. Upon request by a school council or any employees of the district, the coordinator shall provide technical assistance to the council or the personnel that may include assisting with needs assessments, analyzing school data, planning and evaluation assistance, organizing districtwide programs requested by school councils or groups of teachers, or other coordination activities.

(a) The manner of appointment, qualifications, and other duties of the professional development coordinator shall be established by Kentucky Board of Education through promulgation of administrative regulations.

(b) The local district professional development coordinator shall participate in the Kentucky Department of Education annual training program for local school district professional development coordinators. The training program may include, but not be limited to, the demonstration of various approaches to needs assessment and planning; strategies for implementing long-term, school-based professional development; strategies for strengthening teachers' roles in the planning, development, and evaluation of professional development; and demonstrations of model professional development programs. The training shall include information about teacher learning opportunities relating to the core content standards. The Kentucky Department of Education shall regularly collect and distribute this information.

(3) The Kentucky Department of Education shall provide or facilitate optional, professional development programs for certified personnel throughout the Commonwealth that are based on the statewide needs of teachers, administrators, and other education personnel. Programs may include classified staff and parents when appropriate. Programs offered or facilitated by the department shall be at locations and times convenient to local school personnel and shall be made accessible through the use of technology when appropriate. They shall include programs that: address the goals for Kentucky schools as stated in KRS 158.6451, including reducing the achievement gaps as determined by an equity analysis of the disaggregated student performance data from the state assessment program developed under KRS 158.6453; engage educators in effective learning processes and foster collegiality and collaboration; and provide support for staff to incorporate newly acquired skills into their work through practicing the skills, gathering information about the results, and reflecting on their efforts. Professional development programs shall be made available to teachers based on their needs which shall include but not be limited to the following areas:

- (a) Strategies to reduce the achievement gaps among various groups of students and to provide continuous progress;
 - (b) Curriculum content and methods of instruction for each content area, including differentiated instruction;
 - (c) School-based decision making;
 - (d) Assessment literacy;
 - (e) Integration of performance-based student assessment into daily classroom instruction;
 - (f) Nongraded primary programs;
 - (g) Research-based instructional practices;
 - (h) Instructional uses of technology;
 - (i) Curriculum design to serve the needs of students with diverse learning styles and skills and of students of diverse cultures;
 - (j) Instruction in reading, including phonics, phonemic awareness, comprehension, fluency, and vocabulary;
 - (k) Educational leadership; and
 - (l) Strategies to incorporate character education throughout the curriculum.
- (4) The department shall assist school personnel in assessing the impact of professional development on their instructional practices and student learning.
- (5) The department shall assist districts and school councils with the development of long-term school and district improvement plans that include multiple strategies for professional development based on the assessment of needs at the school level.

(a) Professional development strategies may include but are not limited to participation in subject matter academies, teacher networks, training institutes, workshops, seminars, and study groups; collegial planning; action research; mentoring programs; appropriate university courses; and other forms of professional development.

(b) In planning the use of the four (4) days for professional development under KRS 158.070, school councils and districts shall give priority to programs that increase teachers' understanding of curriculum content and methods of instruction appropriate for each content area based on individual school plans.

The district may use up to one (1) day to provide district-wide training and training that is mandated by state or federal law. Only those employees identified in the mandate or affected by the mandate shall be required to attend the training.

(c) State funds allocated for professional development shall be used to support professional development initiatives that are consistent with local school improvement and professional development plans and teachers' individual growth plans. The funds may be used throughout the year for all staff, including classified and certified staff and parents on school councils or committees. A portion of the funds allocated to each school council under KRS 160.345 may be used to prepare or enhance the teachers' knowledge and teaching practices related to the content and subject matter that are required for their specific classroom assignments.

(6)(a) By August 1, 2010, the Kentucky Cabinet for Health and Family Services shall post on its Web page suicide prevention awareness information, to include recognizing the warning signs of a suicide crisis. The Web page shall include information related to suicide prevention training opportunities offered by the cabinet or an agency recognized by the cabinet as a training provider.

(b) By September 15 of each year, every public school shall provide suicide prevention awareness information in person, by live streaming, or via a video recording to all students in grades six (6) through twelve (12). The information may be obtained from the Cabinet for Health and Family Services or from a commercially developed suicide prevention training program.

(c)1. Beginning with the 2018-2019 school year, and every year thereafter, a minimum of one (1) hour of high-quality suicide prevention training, including the recognition of signs and symptoms of possible mental illness, shall be required for all school district employees with job duties requiring direct contact with students in grades six (6) through twelve (12). The training shall be provided either in person, by live streaming, or via a video recording and may be included in the four (4) days of professional development under KRS 158.070.

2. When a staff member subject to the training under subparagraph 1. of this paragraph is initially hired during a school year in which the training is not required, the local district shall provide suicide prevention materials to the staff member for review.

(d) The requirements of paragraphs (b) and (c) of this subsection shall apply to public charter schools as a health and safety requirement under KRS 160.1592(1).

(7)(a) By November 1, 2019, and November 1 of each year thereafter, a minimum of one (1) hour of training on how to respond to an active shooter situation shall be required for all school district employees with job duties requiring direct contact with students. The training shall be provided either in person, by live streaming, or via a video recording prepared by the Kentucky Department of Criminal Justice Training in collaboration with the Kentucky

Law Enforcement Council, the Kentucky Department of Education, and the Center for School Safety and may be included in the four (4) days of professional development under KRS 158.070.

(b) When a staff member subject to the training requirements of this subsection is initially hired after the training has been provided for the school year, the local district shall provide materials on how to respond to an active shooter situation.

(c) The requirements of this subsection shall also apply to public charter schools as a health and safety requirement under KRS 160.1592(1).

(8)(a) The Kentucky Department of Education shall develop and maintain a list of approved comprehensive evidence-informed trainings on child abuse and neglect prevention, recognition, and reporting that encompass child physical, sexual, and emotional abuse and neglect.

(b) The trainings shall be Web-based or in-person and cover, at a minimum, the following topics:

1. Recognizing child physical, sexual, and emotional abuse and neglect;
2. Reporting suspected child abuse and neglect in Kentucky as required by KRS 620.030 and the appropriate documentation;
3. Responding to the child; and
4. Understanding the response of child protective services.

(c) The trainings shall include a questionnaire or other basic assessment tool upon completion to document basic knowledge of training components.

(d) Each local board of education shall adopt one (1) or more trainings from the list approved by the Department of Education to be implemented by schools.

(e) All current school administrators, certified personnel, office staff, instructional assistants, and coaches and extracurricular sponsors who are employed by the school district shall complete the implemented training or trainings by January 31, 2017, and then every two (2) years after.

(f) All school administrators, certified personnel, office staff, instructional assistants, and coaches and extracurricular sponsors who are employed by the school district hired after January 31, 2017, shall complete the implemented training or trainings within ninety (90) days of being hired and then every two (2) years after.

(g) Every public school shall prominently display the statewide child abuse hotline number administered by the Cabinet for Health and Family Services, and the National Human Trafficking Reporting Hotline number administered by the United States Department for Health and Human Services.

(9) The Department of Education shall establish an electronic consumer bulletin board that posts information regarding professional development providers and programs as a service to school district central office personnel, school councils, teachers, and administrators. Participation on the electronic consumer bulletin board shall be voluntary for professional development providers or vendors, but shall include all programs sponsored by the department. Participants shall provide the following information: program title; name of provider or vendor; qualifications of the presenters or instructors; objectives of the program; program length; services provided, including follow-up support; costs for participation and costs of materials; names of previous users of the program, addresses, and telephone numbers; and arrangements required. Posting information on the bulletin board by the department shall not be viewed as an endorsement of the quality of any specific provider or program.

(10) The Department of Education shall provide training to address the characteristics and instructional needs of students at risk of school failure and most likely to drop out of school. The training shall be developed to meet the specific needs of all certified and classified personnel depending on their relationship with these students. The training for instructional personnel shall be designed to provide and enhance skills of personnel to:

(a) Identify at-risk students early in elementary schools as well as at-risk and potential dropouts in the middle and high schools;

(b) Plan specific instructional strategies to teach at-risk students;

(c) Improve the academic achievement of students at risk of school failure by providing individualized and extra instructional support to increase expectations for targeted students;

(d) Involve parents as partners in ways to help their children and to improve their children's academic progress; and

(e) Significantly reduce the dropout rate of all students.

(11) The department shall establish teacher academies to the extent funding is available in cooperation with postsecondary education institutions for elementary, middle school, and high school faculty in core disciplines, utilizing facilities and faculty from universities and colleges, local school districts, and other appropriate agencies throughout the state. Priority for participation shall be given to those teachers who are teaching core discipline courses for which they do not have a major or minor or the equivalent. Participation of teachers shall be voluntary.

(12) The department shall annually provide to the oversight council established in KRS 15A.063, the information received from local schools pursuant to KRS 158.449.

(7/14/2000). This section was amended by 2000 Ky. Acts chs. 162, 452, and 527. Where these Acts are not in conflict, they have been codified together. As to subsection (7) of this section, a conflict exists, in part, between Acts chs. 452 and 527. Under KRS 446.250, Acts ch. 527, which was last enacted by the General Assembly, prevails in this conflict.

156.097. Teacher institutes — Regulation.

(1) The Kentucky Board of Education shall develop regulations to establish a program of educational institutes for teachers. The purpose of such institutes shall be the general improvement of instruction within the Commonwealth.

(2) Teacher institutes shall be held during the summer months at various college campuses selected by the Kentucky Board of Education. Each institute shall be of one (1) week duration.

(3) The Kentucky Board of Education shall develop specific criteria relating to the selection of eligible teachers for institute participation, with an emphasis on selecting teachers with a demonstrated record of effective teaching.

(4) Any teacher selected and agreeing to participate in a particular teacher institute session shall be reimbursed for expenses incurred in attendance, and shall be awarded a stipend in an amount to be determined by the Kentucky Board of Education.

(5) The program shall encourage business and industry within the Commonwealth to become institute sponsors for teachers within the respective communities of such business and industry.

156.101. Purpose of section — Definition of “instructional leader” — Instructional leader improvement program.

(1) The purpose of this section is to encourage and require the maintenance and development of effective instructional leadership in the public schools of the Commonwealth and to recognize that principals, with the assistance of assistant principals, supervisors of instruction, guidance counselors, and directors of special education, have the primary responsibility for instructional leadership in the schools to which they are assigned.

(2) For the purpose of this section, “instructional leader” shall be defined as an employee of the public schools of the Commonwealth employed as a principal, assistant principal, supervisor of instruction, guidance counselor, director of special education, or other administrative position deemed by the Education Professional Standards Board to require an administrative certificate.

(3) In order to carry out the purpose of this section, the Kentucky Board of Education shall establish a statewide program to improve and maintain the quality and effectiveness of instructional leadership in the public schools of the Commonwealth.

(4) The instructional leader improvement program shall contain the following provisions:

(a) Each instructional leader employed by the public schools of the Commonwealth shall participate in a continuing intensive training program designed especially for instructional leaders;

(b)1. Effective until June 30, 2006, every two (2) years each instructional leader shall complete an intensive training program approved by the Kentucky Board of Education to include no fewer than forty-two (42) participant hours of instruction;

2. Effective July 1, 2006, each instructional leader shall annually complete an intensive training program approved by the Kentucky Board of Education to include no fewer than twenty-one (21) participant hours of instruction;

(c) The Kentucky Board of Education shall prescribe specific criteria for the training program, which shall include a provision to allow an instructional leader to annually receive three (3) participant hours credit for duties performed as part of a beginning teacher committee pursuant to KRS 161.030(6). A maximum of six (6) participant hours credit shall be awarded annually for serving on multiple beginning teacher committees. The Kentucky Department of Education may contract for specific training with qualified agencies or institutions or approve programs offered by training providers, including local district training programs, except that the department shall ensure the requirements of paragraph (d) of this subsection are met; and

(d) Annually, each local district superintendent shall report to the Kentucky Department of Education any instructional leader who fails to complete the training requirements of paragraph (b) of this subsection and shall place the leader on probation for one (1) year. The Department of Education shall verify completion of the required training. If the required training for the prior year and the current year is not completed during the probationary period, the Department of Education shall forward the information to the Education Professional Standards Board, which shall revoke the instructional leader's certificate.

(5) The Kentucky Department of Education shall ensure that training options in human resource management and conflict resolution techniques are available to education leaders throughout the state.

(6) This section shall be known as the "Effective Instructional Leadership Act."

NOTES TO DECISIONS

1. Evaluation Appeals Panel.

2. — Procedure.

A nontenured teacher whose contract is recommended by the principal not to be renewed is entitled, pursuant to subsection 10 of this section, to challenge the findings of fact in his evaluation before the appeals panel who shall hold a hearing on both the substance and the procedure of the evaluation of which the teacher is entitled to receive proper notice with sufficient time to gather evidence to support his position, and also has the right to present expert testimony and engage counsel to assist him in the presentation of his case. Thompson v. Board of Educ., 838 S.W.2d 390, 1992 Ky. LEXIS 130 (Ky. 1992).

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

Notwithstanding the apparent legislative intent of KRS 161.020 to make the revocation of any instructional leader's certificate contingent upon laws then in force, this section clearly controls revocation of an instructional leader's certificate; therefore, a certificate of an instructional leader may be revoked for failure to obtain the hours of intensive training required by this section. All instructional leaders, including those who received a certificate prior to the effective date of this section, are required to comply with this section. OAG 88-37.

The legislative purpose of the instructional leadership program, set forth in subsection (1) of this section, was to develop a program which would result in improvement in the quality of performance of principals, assistant principals, supervisors of instruction, guidance counselors, or directors of special education. Practically, this prescribed program of improvement could not be effective if it did not supersede the general certificate renewal statute, subsection (3) of KRS 161.020. OAG 88-37.

The requirement of subsection (3) of KRS 161.020, that certificates be considered pursuant to the application of the laws which were in effect at the time of the granting of the certificate, is not in harmony with the instructional leadership program. Therefore, subsection (3) of KRS 161.020 is controlling except when an instructional leader fails to comply with the instructional leader improvement program. At such time, the state board may exercise its power of revocation granted by subsection (4) of this section. OAG 88-37.

The retrospective application of a law is not to be given unless the intent is clearly expressed or necessarily implied; it is necessarily implied that this section must be applied to those persons who received their certificates prior to 1984 to benefit the schools and is, therefore, retroactive. OAG 88-37.

156.106. Critical shortage areas — Appointment of retired teachers and administrators — Administrative regulations.

(1) For purposes of this section and KRS 161.605, "critical shortage area" means a lack of certified teachers in particular subject areas, in grade levels, or in geographic locations at the elementary and secondary level, as determined annually by the commissioner of education. The commissioner may use any source considered reliable including, but not limited to, data provided by the Education Professional Standards Board and local education agencies to identify the critical shortage areas.

(2) The Kentucky Board of Education shall promulgate administrative regulations to establish procedures to be used to appoint retired teachers and administrators to positions in critical shortage areas under this section and KRS 161.605. The administrative regulations shall assure that:

(a) A retired teacher or administrator shall not be hired until the superintendent assures that he or she has made every reasonable effort to recruit an active teacher or administrator for the position on an annual basis; and

(b) A retired teacher or administrator shall be paid, at a minimum, a salary at Rank II with ten (10) years of experience based on a single salary schedule adopted by the district.

The commissioner of education shall report members reemployed under this section to the Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System.

(3) The Kentucky Board of Education shall promulgate administrative regulations to establish procedures to be used to appoint retired teachers and administrators to positions in critical shortage areas under this section and KRS 161.605. The administrative regulations shall assure that a retired teacher or administrator shall not be hired until the superintendent assures the commissioner of education that the superintendent has made every reasonable effort to recruit an active teacher or administrator for the position on an annual basis. The commissioner of education shall report members reemployed under this section to the Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System.

(4) If a local school district needs a person to fill a critical shortage position after reaching its quota established under KRS 161.605, the commissioner of education with the approval of the executive director of the Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System may allow the district to exceed its quota if the statewide quota has not been met.

(7/14/2000). Subsections (1) and (4) of this statute were enacted identically in 2000 Ky. Acts ch. 477, sec. 1, subsecs. (1) and (3), and ch. 498, sec. 3, subsecs. (1) and (3). Subsections (2) and (3) were enacted by the same two Acts but with nonidentical, but very similar, text, subsection (2) coming from Acts ch. 477, sec. 1, subsec. (2), and subsection (3) coming from Acts ch. 498, sec. 3, subsec. (2). Because the two Acts differ in the texts of their second subsections in newly created statutes, both versions have been codified. Cf. KRS 446.250. Acts ch. 477 (House Bill 519) was signed by the President of the Senate on April 11, 2000, at 10:28 a.m.; Acts ch. 498 (House Bill 739) was signed by the President of the Senate on April 11, 2000, at 1:15 p.m. The tables for the 2000 Kentucky Acts show Acts ch. 498 as being codified at KRS 156.497, but, because of the near identity of the sections, it was subsequently decided to merge them into a single KRS section for codification.

156.108. Districts of innovation — Definitions — Approval by Kentucky Board of Education — Administrative regulations to prescribe conditions and procedures to be used by local boards.

(1) For purposes of this section and KRS 160.107:

(a) "District of innovation" means a district that has developed a plan of innovation in compliance with this section and has been approved by the Kentucky Board of Education to be exempted from certain administrative regulations and statutory provisions to improve the educational performance of students within the district;

(b) "Innovation" means a new or creative alternative to existing instructional and administrative practices intended to improve student learning and student performance of all students; and

(c) "School of innovation" means a school that voluntarily participates in a district of innovation plan to improve instruction, including waivers and exemptions from local board of education policies, selected provisions of Kentucky Administrative Regulations promulgated by the Kentucky Board of Education, and selected sections of the Kentucky Revised Statutes, as permitted under this section and KRS 160.107.

(2) The Kentucky Board of Education is hereby authorized to approve districts of innovation for the purposes of improving students' educational performance. Districts of innovation shall be provided flexibility from selected Kentucky Administrative Regulations, Kentucky Revised Statutes, and local board of education policies for school administrators, teachers, and staff to meet the diverse needs of students. The initial approval of a district of innovation shall be for a five (5) year period. Each renewal of a district of innovation shall not exceed five (5) years and shall comply with administrative regulations promulgated by the board pursuant to subsection (4) of this section.

(3) The Kentucky Board of Education shall promulgate administrative regulations to prescribe the conditions and procedures to be used by a local board of education to be approved as a district of innovation.

(4) Administrative regulations promulgated by the board under subsection (3) of this section shall specify:

(a) The regulatory areas which may be exempted or modified if approved by the state board, except as provided in KRS 160.107(2) and in addition to those areas identified in KRS 160.107(3);

(b) The application, plan review, approval, and amendment process for a district;

(c) Timelines for initial approval as a district of innovation, the renewal process, and on-going evaluative procedures required of the district;

(d) Acceptable documentation of a critical mass of parental, community, educator, and business support and capacity to effect a change;

(e) The approvals required of the plan by certain employees of a school;

(f) Evidence of teacher collaboration and shared leadership within the district and the schools to be designated as schools of innovation;

(g) The process of revocation of the designation of district of innovation or school of innovation;

(h) Reporting and oversight responsibilities of the district and the Kentucky Department of Education;

(i) The financial detail relating to budgets of schools and evidence of sound fiscal management practices;

(j) Acceptable areas of emphasis for innovation;

(k) Acceptable documentation of job-embedded professional development within the proposed innovation design; and

(l) Other components deemed necessary to implement this section and KRS 160.107.

(1) The Department of Education shall establish a Superintendents Training Program and Assessment Center. The department shall provide for assessor training and shall ensure that an assessment center includes but is not limited to training and participation in the following components:

(a) Core concepts of leadership and quality practices;

(b) Effective implementation of school-based decision making;

(c) Kentucky school law;

(d) Kentucky school finance and budgeting;

(e) School curriculum and assessment;

(f) Instructional leadership;

(g) School improvement;

(h) Community and board relations;

(i) Effective communication; and

(j) An executive coaching and mentoring program with an emphasis on demonstrated professional growth.

The department may provide assessment centers regionally.

(2) Notwithstanding any other statute to the contrary, an employing local board of education shall not be responsible for any training costs associated with a superintendent's participation in the training and assessment center process.

(3) At the conclusion of the training, each participant shall deliver to the employing board of education and the Kentucky Department of Education a comprehensive collection of work products and assessments that demonstrate proficiency in each area of training.

(4) In addition to any applicable certification and experience requirements, any person hired for the first time as superintendent in Kentucky shall successfully complete the assessment center process within two (2) years of taking office as superintendent.

(5) The Kentucky Board of Education shall adopt administrative regulations to govern the training content, number of hours, assessments, and work products for successful completion of the training and assessment center process. The board shall also establish the continuing professional development requirements for school superintendents to include, at a minimum, three (3) hours of annual training in school finance and three (3) hours of annual training in ethics.

(6) The Department of Education may contract with qualified agencies, organizations, or institutions or may approve programs offered by training providers to carry out the provisions of this section.

REMOVAL OR SUSPENSION OF SCHOOL OFFICERS

156.132. Removal or suspension of public school officers — Procedure, grounds, condi- tions.

As used in this section, except subsection (1), "public school officer" means a person who previously served as a superintendent of schools during which time charges were brought against him under this section.

(1) The chief state school officer shall recommend, by written charges to the proper school authorities having immediate jurisdiction, the removal of any superintendent of schools, principal, teacher, member of a school council, or other public school officer as to whom he has reason to believe is guilty of immorality, misconduct in office, incompetency, willful neglect of duty, or nonfeasance. In the case of a member of a school council, the written charges shall be provided to the local board of education.

(2) The chief state school officer shall recommend by written charges the suspension by the Kentucky Board of Education of any superintendent of schools or other public school officer whom he has reason to believe is guilty of immorality, misconduct in office, incompetency, willful neglect of duty, or nonfeasance. If the charges brought under this subsection represent an immediate threat to the public health, safety, or welfare, the Kentucky Board of Education shall summarily suspend the person against whom the charges are made. The action by the Kentucky Board of Education may be taken upon a recommendation of the chief state school officer, or the action may be taken by a majority vote of the Kentucky Board of Education without recommendation from the chief state school officer.

(3) The Kentucky Board of Education may suspend a district superintendent of schools or other public school officer under subsection (2) of this section or remove him pursuant to subsection (5) of this section only if, after thirty (30) days of receipt of the written charges specified in subsection (1) of this section, the proper school authorities having immediate jurisdiction, either the superintendent or the district board of education, have refused to act, have acted in bad faith, arbitrarily, or capriciously, or if a recommendation to the district board would have been futile.

(4) Any officer suspended by the Kentucky Board of Education under subsection (2) of this section shall be furnished with an emergency order specifying in detail the reasons for suspension and notifying the officer of his right to appeal the action and have an emergency hearing pursuant to KRS 13B.125.

(5) As an alternative to first seeking suspension, the chief state school officer may recommend by written charges the removal by the Kentucky Board of Education of any superintendent of schools or other public school officer whom he has reason to believe is guilty of immorality, misconduct in office, incompetency, willful neglect of duty, or nonfeasance. The officer against whom the written charges are issued by the chief state school officer shall be furnished with the written charges and notice of procedural rights conferred under KRS Chapter 13B. Within twenty (20) days after receipt of the charges, the officer may notify the Kentucky Board of Education of his intention to appear and answer the charges. Upon appeal, an administrative hearing shall be conducted in accordance with KRS Chapter 13B. If the officer fails to notify the board of his intention to appear and answer the charges, the Kentucky Board of Education may remove the officer by a majority vote, and the dismissal shall be final.

(6) The hearing shall be public or private at the discretion of the accused former or current superintendent and shall be public when testimony is taken for board members.

(7) The Kentucky Board of Education may meet in closed session to consider the evidence and may by a majority vote remove the officer. If the board votes to remove the officer, the board shall prepare final order specifying which charge or charges it found to be the basis for removal. If within ninety (90) days from the date of suspension if applicable, the state board has not removed the officer, or has dismissed the charges, the suspended officer shall be reinstated and shall be paid his full salary for the period of suspension.

(8) The officer shall have a right to appeal on the record to the Circuit Court located in the county of the school district in accordance with KRS Chapter 13B. If the decision of the court is against removal, the officer shall be paid his full salary from the date of suspension. The payment shall be made from funds appropriated to the State Department of Education.

(9) If a superintendent of schools is removed from office or resigns while charges are pending pursuant to this section after July 15, 1994, any continuing contract pursuant to KRS 161.720 to 161.810 shall be terminated. If the removal is reversed upon appeal, the continuing contract shall be restored and he shall be paid his full salary for the period of suspension.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Analysis

1. Grounds.
2. Authority to Remove.
3. — Recommendation of Superintendent of Public Instruction.
4. Time Restrictions.
5. — Failure to Comply.

1. Grounds.

Evidence that lame duck members of school board, by agreement with other members and one newly-elected member, employed close relatives of newly-elected member, shortly before expiration of their terms, was insufficient to justify removal of newly-elected member as usurper. Richardson v. Commonwealth, 275 Ky. 486, 122 S.W.2d 156, 1938 Ky. LEXIS 472 (Ky. 1938) (decided under prior law).

Arbitrary action of school board members in rejecting nominations of teachers by superintendent would be grounds for removal, and would perhaps subject them to liability for loss to school fund by payments to teachers wrongfully employed. Cottongim v. Stewart, 277 Ky. 706, 127 S.W.2d 149, 1939 Ky. LEXIS 716 (Ky. 1939) (decided under prior law).

It does not follow from the fact that a board as a body had acted arbitrarily and in excess of its power, that any particular member or members of the board had individually been guilty of immorality, misconduct of office, incompetency or wilful neglect of duty. Hogan v. Kentucky State Board of Education, 329 S.W.2d 563, 1958 Ky. LEXIS 6 (Ky. 1958) (decided under prior law).

Bad faith, misconduct or neglect of duty to justify removal of county board members by state board is not shown where county board takes no affirmative action contrary to state board surveys but only submits counter proposals. Kentucky State Board of Education v. Isenberg, 421 S.W.2d 81, 1967 Ky. LEXIS 52 (Ky. 1967).

Unquestionably the state board has the right to suspend and remove county board members for misconduct in office or for wilful neglect of duty and “misconduct in office” means to conduct amiss; bad behavior. Kentucky State Board of Education v. Isenberg, 421 S.W.2d 81, 1967 Ky. LEXIS 52 (Ky. 1967).

Where members of county board disagree with and refuse to follow state board recommendations for consolidation and construction of school buildings the members of the county board cannot be suspended from office for neglect of duty or misconduct. Kentucky State Board of Education v. Isenberg, 421 S.W.2d 81, 1967 Ky. LEXIS 52 (Ky. 1967).

2. Authority to Remove.

The State Board of Elementary and Secondary Education, under the Kentucky Education Reform Act, has the authority to remove members from a county board of education for misconduct in office; there is no language in either this section or KRS 160.180 which suggests, let alone mandates, that the Attorney General has the exclusive power to remove district board members for violations of KRS 160.180. State Bd. for Elementary & Secondary Educ. v. Ball, 847 S.W.2d 743, 1993 Ky. LEXIS 46 (Ky. 1993).

3. — Recommendation of Superintendent of Public Instruction.

Mandamus would not lie to compel state board to conduct hearing of charges filed against county superintendent and members of county board of education where superintendent had not recommended removal. Combs v. State Board of Education, 249 Ky. 320, 60 S.W.2d 957, 1933 Ky. LEXIS 529 (Ky. 1933) (decided under prior law).

Where board and county superintendent entered into a compromise agreement to settle differences between two factions the facts revealed a situation such as justified Superintendent of Public Instruction in making investigation to determine whether to recommend removal of board members or county superintendent. Board of Education v. Rose, 285 Ky. 217, 147 S.W.2d 83, 1940 Ky. LEXIS 604 (Ky. 1940) (decided under prior law).

A recommendation by the Superintendent of Public Instruction was a prerequisite to many kinds of action by the State Board of Education. Hogan v. Kentucky State Board of Education, 329 S.W.2d 563, 1958 Ky. LEXIS 6 (Ky. 1958) (decided under prior law).

The Superintendent of Public Instruction had a fair discretion as to whether to make a recommendation for removal of the county board of education and that discretion could not have been controlled by mandamus. Hogan v. Kentucky State Board of Education, 329 S.W.2d 563, 1958 Ky. LEXIS 6 (Ky. 1958) (decided under prior law).

Affidavit and supporting data submitted to the lower court by the superintendent showed a fair exercise of discretion in refusing to recommend action on the charges against individual board members and the opposing affidavit on behalf of the petitioners did not overcome this showing in mandamus proceedings (decided under prior law). Hogan v. Kentucky State Board of Education, 329 S.W.2d 563, 1958 Ky. LEXIS 6 (Ky. 1958).

4. Time Restrictions.

5. — Failure to Comply.

Although the Kentucky State Board for Elementary and Secondary Education, which found county board of education member guilty of attempting to influence the hiring or appointment of district employees, failed to comply with the time restrictions contained in this section, because the board member was not suspended and continued to serve until his removal after the hearing, member failed to articulate any prejudice suffered and decision was affirmed. Craig v. Kentucky State Bd. for Elementary & Secondary Educ., 902 S.W.2d 264, 1995 Ky. App. LEXIS 124 (Ky. Ct. App. 1995).

Daugherty v. Hunt, 694 S.W.2d 719, 1985 Ky. App. LEXIS 587 (Ky. Ct. App. 1985).

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

The State Board of Education has enacted regulations for bidding on the purchase of school equipment and any bidding not conforming to these regulations can be reported to the Superintendent of Public Instruction who is empowered to make written charges against any superintendent or board member who is guilty of misconduct or unlawful acts. OAG 73-740.

Although KRS 156.132 through 156.146 (KRS 156.134, 156.140, 156.144 and 156.146, now repealed) gives the State Board of Education the right to suspend and remove county board members for misconduct in office or for wilful neglect of duty, the right to recall a school board member does not exist in this state. OAG 75-118.

Before the state board may send back to a local board of education the written charges, a majority of the state board must be of the opinion that a local superintendent is guilty of “immorality, misconduct in office, incompetency or wilful neglect of duty,” after which the district board may commence consideration to remove its superintendent under KRS 160.350; refuse to act; or act in bad faith, arbitrarily or capriciously; but if the local board does anything other than take action to remove the local superintendent, after 30 days from receipt of the charges by the local board, the state board would regain “jurisdiction” and could then go forward to suspend the local superintendent. OAG 79-394.

If the information presented to the state board or state Superintendent is such as to serve an adequate basis to formulate an opinion of guilt without investigation, there is no reason why one would need be held. OAG 79-394.

In the case of the state board, “their opinion [that a school officer] is guilty,” within subsection (1) of this section must be formulated by at least four of the seven voting members of the board. OAG 79-394.

Subsection (2) of this section is limited to consideration of a local board member or a local superintendent, but is not in any way applicable to a teacher or a principal as is the situation in subsection (1) of this section. OAG 79-394.

The provisions of this section make very clear that the actions of the state board are not dependent upon those of the state Superintendent. OAG 79-394.

The purpose of the summary hearing, provided for in subsection (2) of this section, is for the state board to consider the evidence and take a vote to see if a majority of the state board share the opinion that the local superintendent is guilty of “gross immorality, misconduct in office, incompetency or wilful neglect of duty.” OAG 79-394.

“The proper school authorities,” within subsection (1) of this section, is the local district board of education. OAG 79-394.

The regulations called for by subsection (2) of this section would be for the benefit of the state board members, not the local superintendent. OAG 79-394.

There exists no state board regulations relating to the summary hearing process called for in subsection (2) of this section. OAG 79-394.

When subsection (1) of this section refers to reporting a public school officer “who in [the superintendent’s] opinion is guilty,” a conclusive opinion of guilt is not required, but only a satisfaction in the superintendent’s mind that the charges may be substantiated by evidence justifying and warranting consideration of removal and action by the local board of education. OAG 79-394.

Where the State Board of Education receives information alleging wrongdoing by a local school officer, it could ask the state Superintendent to investigate, and, if he declined, the state board could investigate on its own. OAG 79-394.

KRS 158.115 was the authorizing statute for a contract requiring a fiscal court to reimburse a school district on a straight per capita basis for nonpublic school students who rode public school buses and, absent full reimbursement by the fiscal court to the school board, the expenditure of public school moneys for transporting nonpublic school children would create a constitutional violation under Const., § 180 as well as other provisions. Therefore, failure by the school board to enforce the contract with the fiscal court would be tantamount to wilful neglect of duty and could lead to removal from office. OAG 82-405.

In both KRS 160.345 hearings and KRS 156.132 hearings, the role of the Commissioner of Education in the hearings is authorized not by those statutes, but by the grant of authority vested in the commissioner as the executive and administrative officer of the Board of Education by KRS 156.148(3). OAG 02-4.

156.136. Vacancies caused by suspension — Appointment — Term — Payment.

The Kentucky Board of Education, upon suspension of any officer under KRS 156.132, shall name a person to fill the vacancy caused by such suspension. Persons appointed by the Kentucky Board of Education to fill vacancies under KRS 156.132 and this section shall hold office only during the time an officer is suspended, not to exceed ninety (90) days from the date of suspension. At the expiration of such period, vacancies shall be filled in the manner provided by law for the office. Persons appointed by the Kentucky Board of Education to fill vacancies caused by suspension shall be paid from funds of the district board of education. Any person employed to fill the position of a superintendent who has been removed by the Kentucky Board of Education under KRS 156.132 shall be employed by the district board of education for periods not to exceed one (1) year if the superintendent has appealed to the courts and if the courts have not taken final action.

156.138. Duty of Attorney General.

The Attorney General, upon the written recommendation of either the Governor, the Auditor of Public Accounts, the chief state school officer, or the Kentucky Board of Education, shall institute the necessary actions to recover school funds, from any source, which he believes have been erroneously or improperly allowed or paid to any person.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

1. Antitrust Matters.

KRS 156.142 is not a limiting statute on the general powers of the Attorney General, and when he is empowered by statute to commence all action in all cases or hearings in all courts, in or out of the state, as set out in KRS 15.020, he is within his authority to commence a civil antitrust action in federal court. Commonwealth ex rel. Cowan v. Southern Belle Dairy Co., 801 S.W.2d 60, 1990 Ky. LEXIS 143 (Ky. 1990).

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

Under KRS 160.160, a board of education has the authority to bring an action in its own name for the recovery of funds improperly paid and the fact that the Attorney General also has this authority does not delimit the authority of the board of education but provides another means of bringing such an action when a local board for some reason has violated this provision and nothing in this section indicates that an action by the Attorney General shall be the exclusive recourse. COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION

156.147. Education Management Selection Commission — Selection of first commissioner of education.

(1) There is hereby created an Education Management Selection Commission. The commission shall consist of six (6) members to be appointed as follows: Three (3) by the Governor, one (1) by the President Pro Tempore of the Senate, one (1) by the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and one (1) jointly by the President Pro Tempore and the Speaker. The commission is temporary in nature and shall terminate after the State Board for Elementary and Secondary Education has signed a contract of employment with the first commissioner of education. The members shall serve without compensation, but shall be reimbursed for their reasonable and necessary actual expenses.

(2) The commission shall conduct a national search to identify the best qualified individual for the State Board for Elementary and Secondary Education to appoint as the first commissioner of education to carry out the duties of the chief state school officer. The individual shall be agreed upon by a unanimous vote of all of the members of the commission.

(3) The commission shall meet as soon as practicable after it is constituted. The members shall elect a chairperson, who shall be responsible for convening future meetings. The Governor's office and the Legislative Research Commission shall provide staff support to the commission.

156.148. Commissioner of education — Selection — Duties.

(1) Effective January 1, 1991, the commissioner of education shall be the chief state school officer. He shall possess the professional qualifications determined by the Kentucky Board of Education as appropriate for the office.

(2) The commissioner shall be appointed by the Kentucky Board of Education, serve at the pleasure of the board, and receive compensation as set by the board, the provisions of KRS 64.640 notwithstanding.

(3) The commissioner of education shall be the executive and administrative officer of the Kentucky Board of Education in its administration of all educational matters and functions placed under its management and control. He shall carry out all duties assigned to him by law; shall execute under the direction of the state board the educational policies, orders, directives, and administrative functions of the board; and shall direct the work of all persons employed in the Department of Education.

(4) The commissioner of education shall be reimbursed for all actual and necessary traveling expenses incurred by him in the performance of his duties.

The term “school bus,” as used in this section, shall mean any motor vehicle which meets the standards and specifications for school buses as provided by law or by the standards or specifications of the Kentucky Department of Education authorized by law and used solely in transporting school children and school employees to and from school under the supervision and control and at the direction of school authorities, and shall further include school bus accessory equipment and supplies and replacement equipment considered to be reasonably adaptable for purchase from price contract agreements.

(2) Except in cases of emergencies or for the transportation of students with disabilities, only school buses as defined in subsection (1) of this section shall be used for transporting students to and from school along regular bus routes. Districts may use district-owned vehicles that were designed and built by the manufacturer for passenger transportation when transporting nine (9) or fewer passengers, including the driver, for approved school activities. Vehicles used under this subsection shall be clearly marked as transporting students and shall be safety inspected no less than once every thirty (30) days.

(3) As part of its regular procedure for establishing and updating school bus standards and specifications, the Kentucky Department of Education shall consider allowing school buses to operate using clean transportation fuels, as defined in KRS 186.750. If the department determines that school buses may operate using clean transportation fuels while maintaining the same or a higher degree of safety as fuels currently allowed, it shall update its standards and specifications to allow for such use.

156.160. Promulgation of administrative regulations by Kentucky Board of Education — Voluntary compliance — Penalty.

(1) With the advice of the Local Superintendents Advisory Council, the Kentucky Board of Education shall promulgate administrative regulations establishing standards which school districts shall meet in student, program, service, and operational performance. These regulations shall comply with the expected outcomes for students and schools set forth in KRS 158.6451. Administrative regulations shall be promulgated for the following:

(a) Courses of study for the different grades and kinds of common schools identifying the common curriculum content directly tied to the goals, outcomes, and assessment strategies developed under KRS 158.645, 158.6451, and 158.6453 and distributed to local school districts and schools. The administrative regulations shall provide that:

1. If a school offers American sign language, the course shall be accepted as meeting the foreign language requirements in common schools notwithstanding other provisions of law;

2. If a school offers the Reserve Officers Training Corps program, the course shall be accepted as meeting the physical education requirement for high school graduation notwithstanding other provisions of law; and

3. Every public middle and high school's curriculum shall include instruction on the Holocaust and other cases of genocide, as defined by the United Nations Convention on the Prevention and Punishment of the Crime of Genocide, that a court of competent jurisdiction, whether a court in the United States or the International Court of Justice, has determined to have been committed by applying rigorous standards of due process;

(b) Courses of study or educational experiences available to students in all middle and high schools to fulfill the prerequisites for courses in advanced science and mathematics as defined in KRS 158.845;

(c) The acquisition and use of educational equipment for the schools as recommended by the Council for Education Technology;

(d) The minimum requirements for high school graduation in light of the expected outcomes for students and schools set forth in KRS 158.6451. The minimum requirements shall not include achieving any postsecondary readiness indicator as described in KRS 158.6455 or any minimum score on a statewide assessment administered under KRS 158.6453. Student scores from any assessment administered under KRS 158.6453 that are determined by the department's technical advisory committee to be valid and reliable at the individual level shall be included on the student transcript. The department's technical advisory committee shall submit its determination to the commissioner of education and the Legislative Research Commission;

(e) The requirements for an alternative high school diploma for students with disabilities whose individualized education program indicates that, in accordance with 20 U.S.C. sec. 1414(d)(1)(A):

1. The student cannot participate in the regular statewide assessment; and

2. An appropriate alternate assessment has been selected for the student based upon a modified curriculum and an individualized course of study;

(f) Taking and keeping a school census, and the forms, blanks, and software to be used in taking and keeping the census and in compiling the required reports. The board shall create a statewide student identification numbering system based on students' Social Security numbers. The system shall provide a student identification number similar to, but distinct from, the Social Security number, for each student who does not have a Social Security number or whose parents or guardians choose not to disclose the Social Security number for the student;

(g) Sanitary and protective construction of public school buildings, toilets, physical equipment of school grounds, school buildings, and classrooms. With respect to physical standards of sanitary and protective construction for school buildings, the Kentucky Board of Education shall adopt the Uniform State Building Code;

(h) Medical inspection, physical and health education and recreation, and other regulations necessary or advisable for the protection of the physical welfare and safety of the public school children. The administrative regulations shall set requirements for student health standards to be met by all students in grades four (4), eight (8), and twelve (12) pursuant to the outcomes described in KRS 158.6451. The administrative regulations shall permit a student who received a physical examination no more than six (6) months prior to his or her initial admission to Head Start to substitute that physical examination for the physical examination required by the Kentucky Board of Education of all students upon initial admission to the public schools, if the physical examination given in the Head Start program meets all the requirements of the physical examinations prescribed by the Kentucky Board of Education;

(i) A vision examination by an optometrist or ophthalmologist that shall be required by the Kentucky Board of Education. The administrative regulations shall require evidence that a vision examination that meets the criteria prescribed by the Kentucky Board of Education has been performed. This evidence shall be submitted to the school no later than January 1 of the first year that a three (3), four (4), five (5), or six (6) year-old child is enrolled in a public school, public preschool, or Head Start program;

(j)1. Beginning with the 2010-2011 school year, a dental screening or examination by a dentist, dental hygienist, physician, registered nurse, advanced practice registered nurse, or physician assistant that shall be required by the Kentucky Board of Education. The administrative regulations shall require evidence that a dental screening or examination that meets the criteria prescribed by the Kentucky Board of Education has been performed. This evidence shall be submitted to the school no later than January 1 of the first year that a five (5) or six (6) year-old child is enrolled in a public school.

2. A child shall be referred to a licensed dentist if a dental screening or examination performed by anyone other than a licensed dentist identifies the possibility of dental disease;

(k) The transportation of children to and from school;

(l) The fixing of holidays on which schools may be closed and special days to be observed, and the pay of teachers during absence because of sickness or quarantine or when the schools are closed because of quarantine;

(m) The preparation of budgets and salary schedules for the several school districts under the management and control of the Kentucky Board of Education;

(n) A uniform series of forms and blanks, educational and financial, including forms of contracts, for use in the several school districts;

(o) The disposal of real and personal property owned by local boards of education; and

(p) The development and implementation of procedures, for all students who are homeless children and youths as defined in 42 U.S.C. sec. 11434a(2), to do the following:

1. Awarding and accepting of credit, including partial credit, for all coursework satisfactorily completed by a student while enrolled at another school;

2. Allowing a student who was previously enrolled in a course required for graduation the opportunity, to the extent practicable, to complete the course, at no cost to the student, before the beginning of the next school year;

3. Awarding a diploma, at the student's request, by a district from which the student transferred, if the student transfers schools at any time after the completion of the student's second year of high school and the student is ineligible to graduate from the district to which the student transfers, but meets the graduation requirements of the district from which the student transferred; and

4. Exempting the student from all coursework and other requirements imposed by the local board of education that are in addition to the minimum requirements for high school graduation established by the Kentucky Board of Education pursuant to paragraph (d) of this subsection in the district to which the student transfers, if the student transfers schools at any time after the completion of the student's second year of high school and the student is ineligible to graduate both from the district to which the student transfers and the district from which the student transferred.

(2)(a) At the request of a local board of education or a school council, a local school district superintendent shall request that the Kentucky Board of Education waive any administrative regulation promulgated by that board. Beginning in the 1996-97 school year, a request for waiver of any administrative regulation shall be submitted to the Kentucky Board of Education in writing with appropriate justification for the waiver. The Kentucky Board of Education may approve the request when the school district or school has demonstrated circumstances that may include but are not limited to the following:

1. An alternative approach will achieve the same result required by the administrative regulation;

2. Implementation of the administrative regulation will cause a hardship on the school district or school or jeopardize the continuation or development of programs; or

3. There is a finding of good cause for the waiver.

(b) The following shall not be subject to waiver:

1. Administrative regulations relating to health and safety;

2. Administrative regulations relating to civil rights;

3. Administrative regulations required by federal law; and

4. Administrative regulations promulgated in accordance with KRS 158.6451, 158.6453, 158.6455, and this section, relating to measurement of performance outcomes and determination of successful districts or schools, except upon issues relating to the grade configuration of schools.

(c) Any waiver granted under this subsection shall be subject to revocation upon a determination by the Kentucky Board of Education that the school district or school holding the waiver has subsequently failed to meet the intent of the waiver.

(3) Any private, parochial, or church school may voluntarily comply with curriculum, certification, and textbook standards established by the Kentucky Board of Education and be certified upon application to the board by such schools.

(4) Any public school that violates the provisions of KRS 158.854 shall be subject to a penalty to be assessed by the commissioner of education as follows:

(a) The first violation shall result in a fine of no less than one (1) week's revenue from the sale of the competitive food;

(b) Subsequent violations shall result in a fine of no less than one (1) month's revenue from the sale of the competitive food;

(c) "Habitual violations," which means five (5) or more violations within a six (6) month period, shall result in a six (6) month ban on competitive food sales for the violating school; and

(d) Revenue collected as a result of the fines in this subsection shall be transferred to the food service fund of the local school district.

Analysis

1. Rule Requiring Minimum Number of Pupils.
2. Teacher's Contract.
3. Budget.
4. Rights of Conscience.
5. Teacher Certification.
6. Standardized Achievement Testing.
7. Additional Graduation Requirements.
8. Regulation of School Bus Operation.

1. Rule Requiring Minimum Number of Pupils.

A rule of the State Superintendent of Public Instruction, approved by the State Board of Education, to the effect that a minimum of 60 students is required for maintenance of a high school, is a valid administrative regulation carrying out the legislature's intent in its enactment of the school code, and is not an invalid exercise of a legislative function. Dicken v. Kentucky State Board of Education, 304 Ky. 343, 199 S.W.2d 977, 1947 Ky. LEXIS 579 (Ky. 1947).

Where high school has never had an attendance of 60 or more pupils as required by a rule of the State Superintendent of Public Education approved by the State Board of Education and passed in accordance with statutory authority until after order of discontinuance was made and where sudden increase in attendance was for purpose of obtaining a rescission of the order discontinuing the school, a mandatory injunction requiring revocation of the order discontinuing the high school cannot be granted. Pulliam v. Williams, 304 Ky. 351, 200 S.W.2d 731, 1947 Ky. LEXIS 628 (Ky. 1947).

2. Teacher's Contract.

Teacher's employment contract must be in writing; an oral contract is unenforceable. Leslie County Board of Education v. Melton, 277 Ky. 772, 127 S.W.2d 846, 1939 Ky. LEXIS 734 (Ky. 1939).

3. Budget.

In order to determine tax levy for school purposes for the ensuing school year the Board of Education should include in its sources statement in the budget a reasonable anticipated amount of collections of taxes delinquent in previous years, based on past years' experience but the board may deduct the amount of anticipated delinquencies in the collection of taxes under current levy. Middlesboro v. Board of Education, 302 Ky. 683, 195 S.W.2d 288, 1946 Ky. LEXIS 724 (Ky. 1946).

4. Rights of Conscience.

While the state has an interest in the education of its citizens which could be furthered through compulsory education, the rights of conscience of those who desire education of their children in private and parochial schools should be protected from regulations violative of such rights. Kentucky State Board for Elementary & Secondary Education v. Rudasill, 589 S.W.2d 877, 1979 Ky. LEXIS 295 (Ky. 1979), cert. denied, 446 U.S. 938, 100 S. Ct. 2158, 64 L. Ed. 2d 792, 1980 U.S. LEXIS 1592 (U.S. 1980).

5. Teacher Certification.

It cannot be said as an absolute that a teacher in a nonpublic school who is not certified under KRS 161.030(2) will be unable to instruct children to become intelligent citizens; certainly, the receipt of "a bachelor's degree from a standard college or university" is an indicator of the level of achievement, but it is not a sine qua non the absence of which establishes that private and parochial school teachers are unable to teach their students to intelligently exercise the elective franchise. Kentucky State Board for Elementary & Secondary Education v. Rudasill, 589 S.W.2d 877, 1979 Ky. LEXIS 295 (Ky. 1979), cert. denied, 446 U.S. 938, 100 S. Ct. 2158, 64 L. Ed. 2d 792, 1980 U.S. LEXIS 1592 (U.S. 1980).

6. Standardized Achievement Testing.

If the Legislature wishes to monitor the work of private and parochial schools in accomplishing the constitutional purpose of compulsory education, it may do so by an appropriate standardized achievement testing program, and if the results show that one or more private or parochial schools have failed to reasonably accomplish the constitutional purpose, the Commonwealth may then withdraw approval and seek to close them for they no longer fulfill the purpose of "schools." Kentucky State Board for Elementary & Secondary Education v. Rudasill, 589 S.W.2d 877, 1979 Ky. LEXIS 295 (Ky. 1979), cert. denied, 446 U.S. 938, 100 S. Ct. 2158, 64 L. Ed. 2d 792, 1980 U.S. LEXIS 1592 (U.S. 1980).

7. Additional Graduation Requirements.

Regulations promulgated under the authority of this section authorize local school boards to establish additional graduation requirements above the minimum requirements established by the Kentucky Board of Education; such requirements may include a requirement that students take the Kentucky Instructional Results Information System (KIRIS) examination, established by the Board under KRS 158.645 et seq. Triplett v. Livingston County Bd. of Educ., 967 S.W.2d 25, 1997 Ky. App. LEXIS 74 (Ky. Ct. App. 1997), cert. denied, 525 U.S. 1104, 119 S. Ct. 870, 142 L. Ed. 2d 771, 1999 U.S. LEXIS 599 (U.S. 1999).

8. Regulation of School Bus Operation.

Where language of this section and KRS 189.540 was clear and unambiguous and authorized the Department of Transportation to regulate the operation of school buses, which necessarily included those persons operating the buses, there was no room for construction of the statutes and they must be accepted as they were written. Cornette v. Commonwealth, 899 S.W.2d 502, 1995 Ky. App. LEXIS 108 (Ky. Ct. App. 1995).

Statutory grant of authority under KRS 156.160 and KRS 189.540 to Department of Transportation to adopt regulations to govern the design and operation of school buses was not unconstitutional special legislation because it applied only to public and not to private or parochial school bus drivers; the statutes apply equally to a class and further a legitimate state interest in safe transportation of public school children. Cornette v. Commonwealth, 899 S.W.2d 502, 1995 Ky. App. LEXIS 108 (Ky. Ct. App. 1995).

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

The provision of this section requiring the Superintendent of Public Instruction to prepare rules and regulations to accredit commercial schools is mandatory. OAG 60-886.

The term "commercial schools" as used in this section, includes only business schools principally engaged in the instruction of typing, shorthand, bookkeeping and related subjects. OAG 60-886.

Under regulations enacted pursuant to subsection (9) (now subdivision (1)(k)) of this section, a county board of education may designate election day as a holiday and dismiss schools on that day. OAG 60-995.

A county board of education is not bound to allow private teachers to teach music in the public school building. OAG 73-653.

The requirement of the State Department of Education that a child participate in a health and physical education course does not impose a significant constitutional burden upon the freedom to exercise religious beliefs and, therefore, the state's interest in establishing a sound curriculum format for graduation must prevail over patchwork exceptions to course requirements. OAG 76-225; OAG 78-312.

Once approval to sell school property as surplus is given by the Superintendent of Public Instruction, there is no legal requirement that a board of education must dispose of the property by public auction or advertisement of sealed bids and the board may establish a price for the land and sell to any purchaser willing and able to meet that price if the figure represents at least the appraised fair market value of the property. OAG 76-291.

Although the State Board of Education is required to receive recommendation and advice from the Superintendent of Public Instruction as a condition precedent to the adoption of regulations, the board may exercise reasonable discretion in modifying the recommendation or advice. OAG 77-82.

A county school board may enter into a quitclaim deed relative to its future interest in a certain parcel of real property. OAG 77-541.

A local school board may, but is not required to, pay from school funds costs of contracting with local physicians for the performing of physical examinations required by school law or regulation. OAG 78-365.

The health, general welfare and safety of the school children in a school district constitutes a sufficient educational purpose to authorize the expenditure of school tax dollars to pay doctors for physical examinations for students and school employees. OAG 78-365.

Teachers and administrators and other school officials are responsible for the public education and are charged with the responsibility of implementing the rules and regulations of the Commonwealth for the control and management of the common schools and local board rules and regulations for schools in a school district. OAG 79-168.

A school system plan providing for three types of diplomas depending on whether a student chooses the regular, 18-credit program; the enrichment, 21-credit program; or the comprehensive, 22-credit program is in full compliance with the "minimum requirements for graduation" established by the state board pursuant to subsection (2) of this section. OAG 79-253.

Subsection (2) of this section is not a diploma statute. OAG 79-253.

A local board of education, pursuant to its broad authority under KRS 160.290, may require additional credit requirements over those minimally established by regulation of the State Board of Education, pursuant to subsection (2) of this section. OAG 80-118.

A medical examination required by a regulation promulgated pursuant to subsection (5) (now subsection (1)(g)) of this section in order to determine a high school student's eligibility for interscholastic athletics, cannot be performed by a chiropractor, since another regulation requires a medical physician's examination and a chiropractor is not a "physician" under the terms of subdivision (10) (now subdivision (12)) of KRS 311.550. OAG 81-335.

Kentucky Revised Statutes 156.070, this section, and the accompanying regulation, 704 KAR 7:055 set the standards to be followed by employees of the common schools with regard to the imposition of corporal punishment. OAG 92-20.

The existence of principles of justification in KRS 503.110 under which use of physical force will not be considered a crime does not change the fact that the State Board for Elementary and Secondary Education retains authority and supervision for management and control of common schools; that authority includes prescribing regulations for management of the schools. OAG 92-20.

The Kentucky Board of Education has preempted the issue of granting high school credit for 8th grade algebra courses and thus removed the decision from the local district. OAG 93-31.

If a school district or school which exceeds its threshold applies for a waiver from certain regulations, then under this section the Kentucky Board of Education has discretion to grant or deny the waiver request; however, the Board must first determine if the regulation is subject to waiver or if the regulation may not be waived under any circumstance since it relates to health and safety, civil rights, required by federal law, etc., next the the Board must decide if a school or school district which exceeds its threshold should be granted a waiver from a particular regulation. OAG 95-25.

Exceeding its threshold is the only statutory requirement that a school or school district must meet in order to petition the State Board for a waiver under subsection (2) of this section. OAG 95-25.

156.162. Elective course on religious scripture — Purpose — Restrictions — Inclusion of course standards in program of studies.

(1) Pursuant to KRS 156.160, the Kentucky Board of Education shall promulgate administrative regulations to establish the courses of study for the different grades. The administrative regulation that sets forth the required and elective courses for the schools shall include:

(a) An elective social studies course on the Hebrew Scriptures, Old Testament of the Bible;

(b) An elective social studies course on the New Testament of the Bible; or

(c) An elective social studies course on the Hebrew Scriptures and the New Testament of the Bible.

(2) The purpose of a course under this section is to:

(a) Teach students knowledge of biblical content, characters, poetry, and narratives that are prerequisites to understanding contemporary society and culture, including literature, art, music, mores, oratory, and public policy; and

(b) Familiarize students with, as applicable:

1. The contents of the Hebrew Scriptures or New Testament;

2. The history of the Hebrew Scriptures or New Testament;

3. The literary style and structure of the Hebrew Scriptures or New Testament; and

4. The influence of the Hebrew Scriptures or New Testament on law, history, government, literature, art, music, customs, morals, values, and culture.

(3) A student shall not be required to use a specific translation as the sole text of the Hebrew Scriptures or New Testament and may use as the basic textbook a different translation of the Hebrew Scriptures or New Testament from that chosen by the school council.

(4) The Kentucky Department of Education shall include the course standards in the program of studies for Kentucky schools, including the teacher qualifications and required professional development.

(5) A course offered under this section shall follow applicable law and all federal and state guidelines in maintaining religious neutrality and accommodating the diverse religious views, traditions, and perspectives of students in the school. A course under this section shall not endorse, favor, or promote, or disfavor or show hostility toward, any particular religion or nonreligious faith or religious perspective. The Kentucky Board of Education, in complying with this section, shall not violate any provision of the United States Constitution or federal law, the Kentucky Constitution or any state law, or any administrative regulations of the United States Department of Education or the Kentucky Department of Education.

This section (4384-22) was repealed by Acts 1990, ch. 476, Pt. VI, § 616, effective July 13, 1990. For present law see KRS 159.250.

156.180. Superintendent may attend educational conferences. [Repealed.]

Compiler's Notes.

This section (4384-10; amend. Acts 1976, ch. 327, § 3) was repealed by Acts 1990, ch. 476, Pt. VI, § 616, effective July 13, 1990.

156.190. Call and conduct of school conferences.

The chief state school officer may call and conduct conferences of boards of education, superintendents, supervisors, principals, teachers, attendance officers, and other regular public school employees, on matters relating to the condition, need, and improvement of the schools. Personal traveling expenses incurred by those attending conferences called by the chief state school officer shall be a legitimate public expense and may be paid by boards of education.

History.

4384-16; amend. Acts 1990, ch. 476, Pt. IV, § 135, effective July 13, 1990.

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

When attending a meeting or conference called by the Superintendent of Public Instruction pursuant to the provisions of this section, a member of a local board of education may be reimbursed pursuant to KRS 160.280 for expenses incurred outside his district. OAG 61-1052.

It is within the legal prerogative of the local board to fairly establish the nature of professional activities for which it will be willing to incur expenses. OAG 83-228.

While there is a legal basis for the expenditure of school moneys for professional activities, a school board is not mandated to approve the incurring of these expenses and costs for reimbursement from school funds. OAG 83-228.

Within reason, school boards are permitted to bear the direct and indirect expenses incurred by teachers and administrators who attend, after prior approval by the board, professional activities and functions; however, school boards are not wholly unfettered in exercising their discretion in approving attendance at sundry professional activities since Const., §§ 180 and 184 require that school funds may be used only for school purposes, the test being whether the expenditure is for an educational purpose rather than whether an activity might be beneficial to education. OAG 83-228.

156.200. Examination and supervision of reports and accounts of boards of education and educational institutions.

The chief state school officer shall receive and examine all reports required by law or by the Kentucky Board of Education and, in person or through his assistants, shall examine and advise on the expenditures, business methods and accounts of all boards of education and all institutions placed under the management and control of the Department of Education as established in KRS 156.010. He shall see that all financial and educational accounts are accurately and neatly kept and that all reports are made according to the forms adopted by the Kentucky Board of Education.

History.

4384-14, 4384-30; amend. Acts 1978, ch. 155, § 91, effective June 17, 1978; 1990, ch. 476, Pt. IV, § 136, effective July 13, 1990; 1996, ch. 362, § 6, effective July 15, 1996.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Analysis

1. Audits.
2. Presentment of Accounts on Appeal.

1. Audits.

This section does not require audits by the Superintendent of Public Instruction although the power to audit all of the records of the board necessarily rests in him and in his supervisory capacity he may require reports, advise on expenditures and provide a standard of record keeping and reporting which the several boards must follow. Lewis v. Morgan, 252 S.W.2d 691, 1952 Ky. LEXIS 1019 (Ky. 1952).

2. Presentment of Accounts on Appeal.

In order for Court of Appeals to ascertain whether floating indebtedness is of type which may be funded by issuance of bonds by Board of Education, a school budget prepared by the board and financial and educational accounts of Superintendent of Public Instruction showing complete account of financial expenditures during the previous fiscal year by board must be presented to the Court of Appeals. Ebert v. Board of Education, 277 Ky. 633, 126 S.W.2d 1111, 1939 Ky. LEXIS 706 (Ky. 1939).

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

Regulations for bidding promulgated under the authority of this section and KRS 156.070 by county Board of Education has the force of law. OAG 73-247.

156.210. Powers of chief state school officer.

(1) The chief state school officer shall have access to the papers, books and records of all teachers, trustees, superintendents, or other public school officials.

(2) He may administer oaths and may examine witnesses under oath in any part of the state in any matter pertaining to the public schools, and may cause the testimony to be reduced to writing. He may issue process to compel attendance of witnesses before him and compel witnesses to testify in any investigation he is authorized to make.

(3) When he or his assistants find any mismanagement, misconduct, violation of law, or wrongful or improper use of any district or state school fund, or neglect in the performance of duty on the part of any official, he shall report the same, and any other violation of the school laws discovered by him, to the Kentucky Board of Education, which shall, through the chief state school officer or one (1) of his assistants, call in the county attorney or the Commonwealth's attorney in the county or district where the violation occurs, and the attorney so called in shall assist in the indictment, prosecution, and conviction of the accused. If prosecution is not warrantable, the Kentucky Board of Education may rectify and regulate all such matters.

History.

4384-12, 4384-15; amend. Acts 1978, ch. 155, § 82, effective June 17, 1978; 1990, ch. 476, Pt. IV, § 137, effective July 13, 1990; 1996, ch. 362, § 6, effective July 15, 1996.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

1. Construction.

This section and KRS 156.070 and 160.190 must be construed together and mean that the state board should have control over the common schools, with the power of removal of such board members who might be found guilty of specified charges. Gearhart v. Kentucky State Board of Education, 355 S.W.2d 667, 1962 Ky. LEXIS 76 (Ky. 1962).

Legislative Research Commission Notes.

(7/13/90). This section was amended by two 1990 Acts. Where those Acts are not in conflict, they have been compiled together. Where a conflict exists, the Act which was last enacted by the General Assembly prevails pursuant to KRS 446.250.

(4/4/2018). The amendments made to this statute in 2018 Ky. Acts ch. 105, sec. 2 are effective April 4, 2018. SB 101 (Ch. 105) was delivered to the Governor on March 22, 2018. The 10-day, not counting Sundays, veto period began on the next day, March 23, and ended at midnight on April 3, 2018. The Governor returned that bill to the Secretary of State on April 2 without signing it. Therefore, since the Governor could have retrieved it and signed it or vetoed it prior to the end of April 3, the bill would not take effect until the first moment of April 4, 2018 following the expiration of the 10-day veto period.

156.250. Biennial report on education.

The chief state school officer shall biennially prepare the report of the Department of Education as established in KRS 156.010 to be submitted to the Governor and the General Assembly. The report shall set out the number attending the public schools, the amount of state funds apportioned and the source from which derived, the amount raised by county school and independent school district taxes or from other sources of revenue for school purposes, the amount expended for salaries of teachers, for the erection of school buildings, and for incidental and other expenses in the operation of the public schools under his supervision, together with any other facts, statistics, and information as may be deemed of interest, including recommendations for the improvement of the schools.

SCHOOL DISTRICT AUDITS

156.255. Definitions for KRS 156.255 to 156.295.

As used in KRS 156.255 to 156.295:

(1) "Accountant" means a certified public accountant or a public accountant registered with the State Board of Accountancy.

(2) "Board" means the board of education of a school district.

(3) "Committee" means the State Committee for School District Audits.

(4) "State board" means the Kentucky Board of Education.

History.

Enact. Acts 1962, ch. 244, Art. II, § 1; 1978, ch. 155, § 82, effective June 17, 1978; Acts 1990, ch. 476, Pt. IV, § 142, effective July 13, 1990; 1994, ch. 296, § 2, effective July 15, 1994; 1996, ch. 362, § 6, effective July 15, 1996.

Legislative Research Commission Note.

(9/2/94). By letter of September 2, 1994, the Secretary of the Finance and Administration Cabinet, acting under KRS 48.500, advised the Reviser of Statutes of his determination "that no funds appropriated by the Executive Branch Appropriations Act for the 1995-96 biennium can be identified as having been appropriated for the purpose of implementing Sections 1 to 7 of House Bill No. 616, Chapter [296], Acts of the 1994 Regular Session of the General Assembly." Accordingly, the amendment to this statute contained in 1994 Ky. Acts ch. 296 is void under sec. 3(8) of that Act and has not been codified into the statute.

156.260. State Textbook Commission; organization. [Repealed.]

Compiler's Notes.

This section (4421a-36) was repealed by Acts 1952, ch. 184, § 17.

156.265. State Committee for School District Audits.

(1) There shall be a State Committee for School District Audits comprised of the Governor, or a person designated by him, the Attorney General, the Auditor of Public Accounts, a person designated by the Legislative Research Commission to represent the Office of Education Accountability, and the commissioner of education. The Auditor of Public Accounts shall be the chair of the committee.

(2) The committee shall have the accounts of each board audited not less than once every fiscal year. The committee also may, at any time, cause to be made a comprehensive and complete audit of any board. Upon the written request of the state board, the commissioner of education, the Attorney General, the Auditor of Public Accounts, the Governor, or the Office of Education Accountability, the committee may cause the accounts of a board to be audited. Each audit shall cover such period of time, and shall include such auditing procedures and standards, as the committee may designate.

(3) Audits authorized under this section are in addition to any audits contemplated under KRS 11.090 or 156.200 or KRS Chapter 43.

(4) The actual expense of any audit authorized under this section shall be borne equally by the district board of education and by the committee from funds allocated to it.

(5) The committee shall meet at least quarterly. Additional or special meetings may be called by the chair.

History.

Enact. Acts 1962, ch. 244, Art. II, § 2; 1974, ch. 257, § 4; 1976, ch. 210, § 4; 1978, ch. 155, § 41, effective June 17, 1978; 1990, ch. 476, Pt. IV, § 143, effective July 13, 1990; 1994, ch. 296, § 3, effective July 15, 1994; 2000, ch. 491, § 2, effective July 14, 2000.

Legislative Research Commission Note.

(9/2/94). By letter of September 2, 1994, the Secretary of the Finance and Administration Cabinet, acting under KRS 48.500, advised the Reviser of Statutes of his determination "that no funds appropriated by the Executive Branch Appropriations Act for the 1995-96 biennium can be identified as having been appropriated for the purpose of implementing Sections 1 to 7 of House Bill No. 616, Chapter [296], Acts of the 1994 Regular Session of the General Assembly." Accordingly, the amendment to this statute contained in 1994 Ky. Acts ch. 296 is void under sec. 3(8) of that Act and has not been codified into the statute.

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

Since the State Committee for School District Audits possesses its supervisory authority under this section to audit school boards, and since a school board under the express holding in Bell County Bd. of Educ. v. Lee, 239 Ky. 317, 39 S.W.2d 492, 1931 Ky. LEXIS 775 (1931), has authority to audit the sheriffs' school tax accounts, the state committee also has that authority. OAG 72-76.

This section gives the Committee for School District Audits the authority to include in its procedures an audit of the sheriffs' records concerning the disposition of collected school taxes. OAG 72-76.

It is entirely within the discretion of the committee whether a requested audit shall be made and who shall make it. OAG 73-451.

The Auditor of Public Accounts has no authority to undertake an audit of any school district unless directed to do so by the State Committee for School District Audits. OAG 73-451.

The State Committee for School District Audits could authorize an audit made by the Auditor of Public Accounts in lieu of an audit by an accountant in private practice. OAG 73-451.

This section and KRS 7.330 should be interpreted to allow both the state committee and the commission to authorize local school district audits consistent with their statutory authority and that such interpretation is both logical, reasonable and consistent with the apparent intent of the Legislature as evidenced by the words of the statute. OAG 89-29.

This section does not appear to be couched in terms of exclusivity; that is, it does not prohibit the statutory authority of another agency to conduct school district audits. OAG 89-29.

This section (4421a-37) was repealed by Acts 1952, ch. 184, § 17.

156.275. Accountant — Selection — Reports.

(1) The committee shall select, to make the audit authorized under KRS 156.265, accountants who are qualified under KRS Chapter 325 and the administrative regulations promulgated by the Kentucky State Board of Accountancy.

(2) Immediately upon completion of each audit, the accountant shall prepare a report of his findings and recommendations in such form and in such detail as the committee may prescribe. The report shall be to the committee and in such number of copies as specified by the committee. The committee shall furnish one (1) copy to the Kentucky Board of Education, one (1) copy to the district board of education to which the report pertains, one (1) copy to the chief state school officer and one (1) copy to the Auditor of Public Accounts. The district board of education shall keep a copy of the report on file in the office of the superintendent of schools of the district and the report shall be open to inspection by any interested person, subject to reasonable rules as to time and place of inspection.

Accordingly, the amendment to this statute contained in 1994 Ky. Acts ch. 296 is void under sec. 3(8) of that Act and has not been codified into this statute.

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

Subsection (1) of this section prohibits the State Committee for School District Audits from selecting a certified public accountant (CPA) firm to perform a school board audit if the CPA has a spouse or dependent employed by the school district. Additionally, KRS 156.480 prohibits a CPA with a spouse employed by the school district from entering into a contract with the school system. OAG 93-16.

156.280. Conditions of bond of person offering textbooks. [Repealed.]

Compiler's Notes.

This section (4421a-37) was repealed by Acts 1952, ch. 184, § 17.

156.285. Access to records — Witnesses — Subpoena.

(1) The accountant shall have access to and may examine all books, accounts, reports, vouchers, correspondence files, records, money, and property of any board. Every officer or employee of any such board having such records or property in his possession or under his control shall permit access to and examination of them upon the request of the accountant.

(2) The committee may require information on oath from any person touching any matters relative to any account that the accountant is required to audit. The committee may administer the oath, or have it done by any officer authorized to administer an oath.

(3) The committee may issue process and compel the attendance of witnesses before it, and administer oaths and compel witnesses to testify in any of the investigations the accountant is authorized to make.

156.400. School subjects' adoption groups — Textbook contracts and purchases.

(1) The chief state school officer shall arrange the elementary, middle, and high school subjects included in the state courses of study as prescribed by the Kentucky Board of Education into six (6) adoption groups.

(2) Contracts for each of the six (6) adoption groups shall be for a period of six (6) years and shall be executed on a staggered basis, with one (1) group being up for adoption each year. The six (6) adoption groups shall be arranged by similarity of content to the extent possible, while being arranged as nearly equal in number and purchase cost as possible. Subjects with rapidly changing or highly technical content may be considered more frequently than once during a six (6) year cycle.

(3) The chief state school officer may delay the purchase of books due to insufficient funds, but any purchases of books shall be in accordance with this chapter.

156.405. State Textbook Commission — Textbook reviewers.

(1) The purpose of the State Textbook Commission is to provide a recommended list of current and high quality textbooks and instructional materials to local school districts that complement the educational program in Kentucky schools; to provide a consumer guide to schools to aid with the selection of materials; and to provide for public participation in the evaluation process.

(2) The State Textbook Commission shall consist of the chief state school officer and ten (10) appointive members. The ten (10) members shall be appointed by the Kentucky Board of Education upon the recommendation of the chief state school officer for terms of four (4) years with two (2) appointments each year, except that every fourth year there shall be four (4) appointments. No member shall be eligible to serve more than two (2) full terms consecutively. All vacancies that occur on the State Textbook Commission shall be filled in like manner for the remainder of the unexpired terms. The Department of Education and the State Textbook Commission shall receive assistance in the textbook evaluation process from professionals and lay citizens who will be referred to in this chapter as the "textbook reviewers."

(3) The State Textbook Commission shall:

(a) Select and direct the activities of the textbook reviewers who develop selection criteria and review textbooks and programs;

(b) Develop selection criteria and evaluation forms with the help of the textbook reviewers and Kentucky Department of Education staff to be used in the state level review process;

(c) Approve the evaluative criteria and forms used by the commission and textbook reviewers;

(d) Review the textbook reviewers' evaluations, and textbooks or programs as it deems necessary, in order to select from them a recommended list of high quality materials;

(e) Provide notice of and the opportunity for public inspection of textbooks and programs offered for adoption and use in the public schools;

(f) Conduct a public hearing for the purpose of receiving public comment concerning textbooks and programs under consideration;

(g) Select, recommend, and publish a list of high quality textbooks and programs; and

(h) Publish a consumer guide and distribute it to Kentucky public schools.

(4) The textbook reviewers shall be comprised of twelve (12) individuals for the area or areas being considered for adoption. The textbook reviewers shall be approved by the State Textbook Commission based on the recommendation of the chief state school officer.

(5) The textbook reviewers shall:

(a) Develop and submit to the commission subject specific evaluative criteria to be used in reviewing textbooks and programs;

(b) Review textbooks and programs to determine those of high quality, using evaluative criteria and forms approved by the commission;

(c) Submit to the commission reviews and evaluative forms regarding reviewed textbooks and programs;

(d) Attend meetings and training sessions as requested by the commission and the Department of Education; and

(e) Ensure that textbooks are free from factual error.

(6)(a)1. Eight (8) of the appointive members of the State Textbook Commission shall have had not less than five (5) years teaching or supervising experience in the public schools of Kentucky and shall have had at the time of their appointment at least four (4) years of college training in a recognized institution of higher education.

2. Five (5) members of the commission shall be classroom teachers actively employed in the public schools of Kentucky as teachers in subject field or fields for which the commission will select books.

3. Two (2) members shall be principals, supervisors, or superintendents of public schools or public school systems.

4. One (1) member shall be a member of the faculty of a public institution of higher education engaged in teacher preparation.

5. Two (2) members shall be lay citizens, one (1) of whom shall have a child enrolled in a public school at the time of appointment.

(b) In recommending the members of the State Textbook Commission the chief state school officer shall give due regard to representation from rural and urban areas and from the elementary, middle, and high school levels when the educational levels are included in the subject field or fields for which adoptions are to be made.

(7) Textbook reviewers shall have the following qualifications: Six (6) of the textbook reviewers shall be instructional supervisors and classroom teachers in various and appropriate grade levels primary through grade twelve (12), with experience and training in the subject areas to be reviewed. One (1) reviewer shall have expertise and training in learning theory as applied to the classroom situation. One (1) reviewer shall be a current or former university faculty member with expertise in the content area of the textbooks to be reviewed. One (1) reviewer shall have experience and training in readability and formatting of textbooks. Three (3) reviewers shall be parents, two (2) of whom shall have a child currently enrolled in public schools in Kentucky.

(8) Members of the State Textbook Commission shall receive fifty ($50) dollars per day and reimbursement for their actual expenses while attending commission meetings. Textbook reviewers shall receive remuneration based on the amount of textbooks and programs to be reviewed and criteria to be developed as determined by the chief state school officer. Textbook reviewers shall be paid one hundred dollars ($100) per day, not to exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000) annually. Textbook reviewers shall also receive reimbursement for actual expenses while attending reviewer or commission meetings.

(9) The meetings of the State Textbook Commission shall be open to the public and shall be held at least once every quarter and notice of such meeting shall be given in accordance with KRS 424.110 to 424.210.

(10) Not later than May 1 each year the chief state school officer shall call the State Textbook Commission into session. The members of the State Textbook Commission shall elect one (1) of its voting members as chairman and shall adopt administrative regulations for the procedure of the commission. The chief state school officer shall be the secretary of the commission.

History.

Enact. Acts 1952, ch. 184, § 2; 1974, ch. 71, § 2, effective March 13, 1974; 1976, ch. 74, § 6, effective March 29, 1976; 1978, ch. 155, § 82, effective June 17, 1978; 1982, ch. 154, § 2, effective July 15, 1982; 1988, ch. 138, § 2, effective July 15, 1988; 1990, ch. 476, Pt. 156.407. Selection of textbook reviewers — Review and evaluation process.

(1) The chief state school officer shall, not later than February 1 of each year in which an adoption is to be made, solicit applications for filling twelve (12) positions for textbook reviewers.

(2) Solicitation shall be statewide for all appointments and include specifications which ensure candidates have professional expertise in the subject areas to be reviewed if appropriate for the appointment.

(3) The State Textbook Commission, at its first yearly meeting, shall select textbook reviewers based on a list of qualified applicants prepared by the chief state school officer and giving consideration to the recommendations as specified in KRS 156.405.

(4) The Department of Education's curriculum and instruction specialists shall serve as staff to the commission and reviewers. The staff shall:

(a) Orient and train the commission and reviewers regarding departmental policy and review procedures;

(b) Make available existing standards and criteria for textbook evaluation; and

(c) Provide supplies and sample textbooks for the review process.

(5) The textbook reviewers shall develop subject specific criteria for textbook review and evaluation in the following textbook areas:

(a) Subject content, including its relationship to the academic expectations;

(b) Audience;

(c) Format;

(d) Readability;

(e) Accuracy; and

(f) Ancillary materials.

(6) On or before July 15, the State Textbook Commission shall develop general criteria, review and approve subject specific criteria, and provide the standard criteria and evaluation forms to be used by the commission and textbook reviewers.

(7) Based upon approval of the standard criteria and evaluation forms, the textbook reviewers shall review textbooks and programs. The committee shall submit evaluation forms for each textbook or program reviewed in each of the five (5) areas, set forth in subsection (5) of this section, with comments related to strengths and weaknesses in each area.

(8) The State Textbook Commission shall review the work of the textbook reviewers and based on this review and any of its own reviews of textbooks or programs, establish a state multiple list of recommended textbooks and programs. The list of recommended textbooks and programs shall be free of factual error. Copies of all evaluation forms submitted by the textbook reviewers shall be made available to commission members and maintained on file within the Department of Education for the cycle length of the books. For those materials placed on the state multiple list of recommended textbooks and programs, the Department of Education shall publish a consumer guide that includes summary results of the evaluations and any factual error identified in the textbooks, and shall distribute it to all public schools in the state.

History.

Enact. Acts 1988, ch. 138, § 5, effective July 15, 1988; 1990, ch. 476, Pt. IV, § 147, effective July 13, 1990; 1992, ch. 266, § 9, effective July 14, 1992; 2000, ch. 419, § 3, effective July 14, 2000.

156.410. Evaluation of textbooks and programs.

(1) The chief state school officer shall prepare minimum manufacturing standards, delineate content specifications, in accordance with the curriculum requirements of the program of studies for Kentucky schools: grades K-12, and formulate other criteria for use in the evaluation of textbooks and programs in Kentucky. Criteria shall require that all materials be suitable for use with a diverse population and be free of social, ethnic, racial, religious, age, gender, and geographic bias.

(2) It shall be the duty of the chief state school officer to prepare all necessary forms for use in the evaluation of textbooks and programs, such as advertising for textbook bids; forms for bids, bonds, and contracts; and other forms.

(3) The Kentucky Board of Education, upon the recommendation of the chief state school officer, shall have authority to prescribe:

(a) Administrative regulations pertaining to all textbook samples for use on the state and local levels; and

(b) Shall have authority to promulgate administrative regulations relating to the agents and representatives of textbooks and programs, as to the methods and procedures for use in adoptions on the state and local levels.

(4) The chief state school officer, on or before May 1 prior to any adoption year, shall properly advertise the subjects for which textbook adoptions will be made and notify the different publishers of the textbooks. The publishers, on or before July 15, of any adoption year, shall file with the chief state school officer textbook samples, filing fees, textbook bids and bonds, and other specified information relative to the books that they desire to offer for adoption.

(5) The chief state school officer shall:

(a) Review the bid information submitted by the publishers;

(b) Verify that the bid complies with the specifications; and

(c) Prepare a list of textbooks and programs, for consideration by the State Textbook Commission indicating those in compliance with the standards and specifications and those not in compliance, detailing areas of noncompliance.

History.

Enact. Acts 1952, ch. 184, § 3; 1974, ch. 71, § 3, effective March 13, 1974; 1978, ch. 155, § 82, effective June 17, 1978; 1988, ch. 138, § 3, effective July 15, 1988; 1990, ch. 476, Pt. IV, § 148, effective July 13, 1990; 1996, ch. 362, § 6, effective July 15, 1996; 2000, ch. 419, § 4, effective July 14, 2000.

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

In determining the meaning of the words “shall file” as used in subsection (4), the word “shall” when used in statutes is mandatory and “mailing” cannot be considered “filing” so that in order for material to be considered filed, it must be received in the office of the Superintendent of Public Instruction not later than midnight, August 20. 156.415. Conditions to be complied with before textbooks and programs adopted or purchased.

Before textbooks and programs offered for adoption and use in public schools of Kentucky may be lawfully recommended and listed by the State Textbook Commission or purchased by any board of education, the person, firm, or corporation offering the materials for adoption and use shall file with the chief state school officer:

(1) Copies of all textbooks and programs that the person, firm, or corporation desires to offer for adoption and use, with a sworn statement of the list price and the lowest wholesale price at which each of the titles is sold in any adopting unit;

(2) A statement that all the titles offered for sale, adoption, and use, do comply with the standards and specifications for textbooks designated by the chief state school officer as regards paper, binding, printing, illustrations, subject matter, and other items included in the standards and specifications;

(3) Copies of any revision or special editions of the textbooks and programs filed, with a statement describing in detail each point of difference from the regular edition filed, and the list price and the lowest wholesale price at which the revision or special edition is sold anywhere in the United States;

(4) A fee of five dollars ($5) for each book filed except when a series of books is filed, in which case the fee shall be five dollars ($5) for the first book and one dollar ($1) for each additional book in the series.

The fee provided by this subsection shall be paid at each and every adoption period;

(5) A bond running to the Commonwealth of Kentucky, executed by a surety company authorized to do business in this state, in a sum not less than two thousand dollars ($2,000) nor more than ten thousand dollars ($10,000), to be determined by the chief state school officer; and

(6) An affidavit certifying any textbook the publisher or manufacturer offers in the state to be free of factual error at the time the publisher or manufacturer executes a contract.

History.

Enact. Acts 1952, ch. 184, § 4; 1974, ch. 71, § 4, effective March 13, 1974; 1990, ch. 476, Pt. IV, § 149, effective July 13, 1990; 2000, ch. 419, § 5, effective July 14, 2000.

156.420. Bond conditions for person, firm, or corporation offering textbooks.

The bond required by the person, firm, or corporation offering the books for adoption shall be so conditioned that:

(1) The person, firm, or corporation will furnish any of the books listed in the statement filed for the period of adoption from the date of the bond to any school district in Kentucky, or to any dealer appointed by the district, at the lowest wholesale price contained in the statement, f.o.b. the publisher's nearest shipping point;

(2) The person, firm, or corporation shall not bid and enter into a contract for an adoption period with the Commonwealth of Kentucky for books at a higher wholesale price than is being bid for the same adoption period elsewhere in the United States.

(3) The person, firm, or corporation will automatically reduce such prices in Kentucky whenever reductions are made anywhere in the United States, so that no book shall at any time be sold in Kentucky at a higher wholesale price than is received for that book elsewhere in the United States;

(4) If the person, firm, or corporation prepared an abridged or special edition of any book that has been listed and sells it elsewhere at a lower wholesale price than the wholesale price set out in the filed statement, the person will file a copy of the special edition with the price of the special edition in a supplemental statement with the chief state school officer;

(5) All books sold in Kentucky will be identical with the specimen books filed with the chief state school officer as regards size, paper, binding, print, illustrations, subject matter, and other particulars which may affect the value of the books;

(6) The person, firm, or corporation shall not enter into any agreement, understanding, or combination to control the price of textbooks or to restrict competition in their sale in Kentucky.

History.

Enact. Acts 1952, ch. 184, § 5; 1974, ch. 71, § 5, effective March 13, 1974; 1990, ch. 476, Pt. IV, § 150, effective July 13, 1990.

156.425. Form of statement and bond — Supplemental statement and bond.

The form of the sworn statement and bond required shall be prescribed by the chief state school officer. The bond shall be in force for the adoption period. The person, firm, or corporation may at any time while the bond is in force file a supplemental statement covering additional books or special editions of books previously filed. The supplemental statement shall expire at the date of expiration of the original statement and bond. Prior to the expiration of any statement and bond the person may file a new statement and bond for a further period of adoption, and if he fails to file a new statement and bond his right to offer textbooks for adoption and use in the public schools of Kentucky shall expire on the date of expiration of the former bond.

History.

Enact. Acts 1952, ch. 184, § 6; 1974, ch. 71, § 6, effective March 13, 1974; 1990, ch. 476, Pt. IV, § 151, effective July 13, 1990.

156.430. Violation of bond — Suit on bond.

The superintendent of schools of each school district shall notify the chief state school officer of any violation of any of the conditions in any bond which has been filed. If the chief state school officer finds that a violation has occurred, he shall instruct the Attorney General to bring suit on the bond. Any sum recovered in such suit shall be paid into the State Treasury.

History.

Enact. Acts 1952, ch. 184, § 7; 1990, ch. 476, Pt. IV, § 152, effective July 13, 1990.

156.433. Instructional materials eligible for purchase with state textbook funds — Review procedure — List of approved materials.

(1) The Kentucky Board of Education, upon recommendation of the chief state school officer, shall promulgate an administrative regulation identifying instructional materials eligible for purchase with state textbook funds. The regulation shall identify instructional materials which are subject to review before being recommended for use, establish a procedure for the review, and a process for adding an instructional material to the recommended list. The Department of Education may pay instructional materials reviewers an amount not to exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000) annually per reviewer for their services using funds from the appropriation for state textbooks.

(2) The Department of Education shall establish a list of recommended instructional materials for the use of school personnel.

156.435. Adoption of lists — Rejections — Execution of contracts — Publication of lists.

(1) The State Textbook Commission shall, not later than September 20 of any year in which an adoption is to be made, select, recommend, and publish a list of books or programs in each subject and grade, taking into account the needs of the various types of students.

(2) The State Textbook Commission shall have the authority to reject any book which:

(a) Contains subversive material or information that is offered for listing or adoption. If the commission finds on the multiple list any book which contains subversive material or information, provided the publisher of the book has been given written notice by the secretary of the commission not less than thirty (30) days prior to the meeting, the textbook commission shall have authority to remove the book from the state multiple list;

(b) Is in noncompliance with standards and specifications set forth in KRS 156.410; or

(c) Is not of high quality in terms of the content provided, the audience addressed, the format used, the readability of material or the ancillary materials provided the teacher and students.

(3) The State Textbook Commission shall have the authority to solicit additions for the state list when the list does not contain books or materials for subjects added to the state courses of study.

(4) The chief state school officer shall make and execute contracts for the recommended textbooks and programs with the publishers on or before May 1 following the establishment of the state multiple list of recommended titles selected by the commission. Except as described in KRS 156.400, all contracts shall run for six (6) years.

(5) The chief state school officer shall prepare a multiple list of recommended textbooks or programs and publish the list along with a consumer guide and distribute the documents to the superintendents of each county and independent school district in Kentucky on or before November 15 of each adoption year.

156.438. Administrative regulations for reviewing and resolving claims of factual errors in adopted textbooks.

(1) The Kentucky Board of Education shall promulgate administrative regulations to establish procedures for reviewing and resolving claims of factual errors found in textbooks after adoption by the State Textbook Commission.

(2) The administrative regulations shall include:

(a) A process for an individual who believes that a factual error or errors have been found to file notice of his or her findings;

(b) A methodology for validating the accuracy of a claim of factual error;

(c) The development of conditions to include in publishers' contracts specifying protocols for correcting errors which take into account the following:

1. The extensiveness of the errors found;

2. The remaining time left until the next textbook adoption cycle at the time the claim is determined to be valid;

3. Conditions that would necessitate replacement of a book in its entirety; and

4. Conditions that could be addressed through the insertion of corrections in textbooks without replacement;

(d) Notice to school districts of errors, if found, and the resolution determined to be available; and

(e) Notice to the claimant relative to the validation review and the resolution determined to be available if the claim of error was validated.

156.439. District allocation for textbook and instructional materials — Use — School plans — Carryover.

(1) The Kentucky Board of Education shall promulgate by administrative regulations the method for calculating and distributing a district's textbook and instructional materials allocation. The district's allocation shall be used by schools to purchase:

(a) Textbooks and programs from the state recommended list;

(b) Textbooks and programs not on the state's recommended list, if notification is submitted to the Department of Education that the material meets the selection criteria of the State Textbook Commission in KRS 156.405(3)(b), the subject specific criteria of the textbook reviewers pursuant to KRS 156.407(5), and compliance with the required publisher specifications;

(c) Instructional materials, with an approved plan pursuant to subsection (2) of this section; or

(d) Any combination of the above.

(2) The district shall identify all purchases made with the textbook and instructional materials allocation and shall keep on file a plan developed by each school, in accordance with administrative regulations promulgated by the Kentucky Board of Education, for providing the necessary textbooks and instructional materials for all grades, and subject areas, including the replacement of books and materials during the six (6) year adoption period. A school may carry forward to the next school year any part of its textbook and instructional materials allocation which has been distributed to the district. If a local board does not approve a school council's plan, the council may appeal to the commissioner and an administrative hearing shall be conducted in accordance with KRS Chapter 13B.

Commonwealth ex rel. Armstrong v. Collins, 709 S.W.2d 437, 1986 Ky. LEXIS 262 (Ky. 1986).

156.445. Only recommended textbook or program to be used as basal title — Exceptions — When changes to be effective — Approval of materials for private and parochial schools.

(1) No textbook or program shall be used in any public school in Kentucky as a basal title unless it has been recommended and listed on the state multiple list by the State Textbook Commission or unless a school and district has met the notification requirements under subsection (2) of this section. Any changes of textbooks made by the State Textbook Commission shall not become effective until grades and classes of the respective county and independent school districts have completed work for which the adopted book then in use was originally intended. Nothing in this section shall apply to the supplementary books that are needed from time to time.

(2) A school council, or if none exists, the principal, may notify, through the superintendent, the State Textbook Commission that it plans to adopt a basal textbook or program that is not on the recommended list by submitting evidence that the title it has chosen meets the selection criteria of the State Textbook Commission in KRS 156.405(3)(b) and the subject specific criteria of the textbook reviewers pursuant to KRS 156.407(5) and complies with the required publisher specifications.

(3) In approving text materials for private and parochial schools for the purpose of KRS 156.160(3) the text materials shall be approved if they are comprehensive and appropriate to the grade level in question notwithstanding the fact that they may contain elements of religious philosophy.

156.476. Textbooks for children with impaired vision — Requirement that publisher of adopted textbook furnish American Printing House for the Blind with text in electronic format.

(1) The Kentucky Board of Education, upon the recommendation of the chief state school officer, shall select suitable textbooks and programs in an appropriate format, which include braille textbooks, and other materials available in clear type of eighteen (18) to twenty-four (24) points in the different subject areas for children with impaired vision who are attending the public schools of the Commonwealth of Kentucky in grades kindergarten through twelve (12). These books and materials shall not be subject to the official bids, filing fees, sampling, and the stipulated list prices, lowest wholesale prices, and the standards and specifications required for the books and materials approved and listed by the State Textbook Commission for regular use by the pupils attending the public schools of the State of Kentucky. The Kentucky Board of Education, upon the recommendation of the chief state school officer, may promulgate an administrative regulation determining the pupils eligible for the books and materials, the number of books and types of materials to be purchased, and the general administration of the program. The chief state school officer, subject to the approval of the Kentucky Board of Education, may purchase these books and materials and distribute them without cost to the pupils with impaired vision attending the public schools of the state. All books and programs purchased under this section for the pupils with impaired vision are the property of the state.

(2) The Department of Education shall require any publisher of a textbook or program adopted for use in the public schools of the Commonwealth to furnish the American Printing House for the Blind with computer diskettes or tapes of those print materials either in the American Standard Code for Information Interchange, (ASCII), or in any other format, either electronic or print, which can be readily translated into braille or large print.

MISCELLANEOUS156.480. Employees of department or school districts with decision-making authority prohibited from supplying goods or services for which school funds are expended — Penalties.

(1) No commissioner, associate commissioner, deputy commissioner, director, manager, purchasing agent, or other employee of the Department of Education with decision-making authority over the financial position of a school, school district, or school system shall have any pecuniary interest in the school, school district, or school system, either directly or indirectly, in an amount exceeding twenty-five dollars ($25) per year, either at the time of or after his appointment to office, in supplying any goods, services, property, merchandise, or services, except personal services that are in addition to those required by contract for employment, of any nature whatsoever for which school funds are expended. If any person specified in this subsection receives, directly or indirectly, any gift, reward, or promise of reward for his influence in recommending or procuring the use of any goods, services, property, or merchandise of any kind whatsoever for which school funds are expended, he shall upon conviction be fined not less than fifty dollars ($50) nor more than five hundred dollars ($500), and his office or appointment shall without further action be vacant.

(2) No employee of any county or independent school district with decision-making authority over the financial position of the school district shall have any pecuniary interest, either directly or indirectly, in an amount exceeding twenty-five dollars ($25) per year, either at the time of or after his appointment to office, in supplying any goods, services, property, merchandise, or services, except personal services that are in addition to those required by contract for employment, of any nature whatsoever for which school funds are expended. If any person specified in this subsection receives, directly or indirectly, any gift, reward, or promise of reward for his influence in recommending or procuring the use of any goods, services, property, or merchandise of any kind whatsoever for which school funds are expended, he shall upon conviction be fined not less than fifty dollars ($50) nor more than five hundred dollars ($500), and his office or appointment shall without further action be vacant.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Analysis

1. Determination of Forfeiture.
2. Vacancy and Penalty.

1. Determination of Forfeiture.

If misconduct of school superintendent is proven it automatically works a forfeiture of the incumbent's right to the office and the provision is self-executing but the fact of the existence of the grounds of forfeiture must be determined by a judicial tribunal and not by county board of education. Arnett v. De Weese, 304 S.W.2d 784, 1957 Ky. LEXIS 281 (Ky. 1957).

An individual who had been nominated by county board of education as superintendent of schools upon board's declaration that incumbent had forfeited his office by entering into a contract to rent certain property to the board, employing his wife as finance officer of the board, contracting with the board to serve as secretary, being a partner in a firm operating a school bus line under contract with the board and receiving travel expenses from the board could bring declaratory judgment action for determination of whether forfeiture had taken place and whether he was entitled to the office. Arnett v. De Weese, 304 S.W.2d 784, 1957 Ky. LEXIS 281 (Ky. 1957).

2. Vacancy and Penalty.

This section is a positive and imperative declaration that if any school official or employee shall commit any of the acts enumerated in this section, his office "shall without further action be vacant, and he shall, upon conviction, be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and fined not less than fifty dollars nor more than five hundred dollars." Arnett v. De Weese, 304 S.W.2d 784, 1957 Ky. LEXIS 281 (Ky. 1957).

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

Although generally a school board member may not be removed for acts committed in a prior term of office, he may be removed for such acts in a case involving gross fraud in the management of his office, or in a case of a continuing duty to act imposed upon him by virtue of the public trust implicit in his office. OAG 61-145.

The treasurer of a local board of education, who received a salary of $10.00 per month and who had a pecuniary interest in an agency that sold insurance to the board of education, would be disqualified as treasurer if the pecuniary interest in the sale, direct or indirect, was in excess of $25.00. OAG 61-211.

Absent a showing that a superintendent did not attend to the regular duties of the office, there is no statutory authority or other legal basis for the view that any or all of a superintendent's salary could be recovered. OAG 69-515.

Any consideration as to the potential prosecution based upon actual evidence which would indicate a violation of KRS 156.480 should in the normal course of events be made by the county attorney or the Commonwealth's attorney in the district where the violation occurred, following receipt of formal notification and presentation of competent evidence. OAG 69-515.

A superintendent is a teacher within the application of the statute and may receive extra pay from the board for extra personal services in addition to his regular full-time duties as superintendent. OAG 69-515.

Where a school superintendent does rent property or supply general services to the school district by which he is employed, and where the amount involved exceeds $25.00, this section is violated. OAG 69-515.

Where the board of education rented office space in a building in which the superintendent had a financial interest and the lease was one in which the superintendent realized a direct or indirect financial interest, a violation occurred. OAG 69-515.

A teacher who is also an insurance agent may not properly submit a bid on school property insurance to the district which employs him as a schoolteacher. OAG 70-527.

The purpose of this section is to prevent a supplier from receiving an undue advantage over other suppliers to a school system either by being employed by the school system directly or by having a close connection with one so employed. OAG 71-474.

Where a husband sold instructional aids and his wife was employed as a teacher, he would be prohibited from selling supplies to the system by which she was employed. OAG 71-474.

Under KRS 161.770, a leave of absence from the school system can only be granted for illness, maternity or other disability, and educational or professional purposes and as operating a garbage service is not one of these statutory reasons, the school board should not have granted a leave of absence but should have required the teacher to resign or continue working and, if the teacher is on a bona fide leave of absence, he would be violating this section by selling the services of his garbage service to the school system. OAG 73-651.

Since the school board does not have the authority to oust an officer or employee on the grounds of conflict of interest, it may accept a low competitive bid from a retail sporting goods supplier although the wholesaler or the retailer is an employee of the school board even though the board knows that the wholesaler will be in violation of this statute. OAG 73-671.

Regardless of whether the treasurer receives an honorarium or salary, he is an employee of the school board, and as such, he is subject to this section and thus would be prohibited from selling insurance to the board. OAG 75-461.

A county school board is not legally precluded from accepting the low bid of and contracting with an employee of the school district; however, if the school district employee enters into a contract with the school board to furnish five freezers for five schools in the county since such bid does not come within the statutory exception of personal services which are in addition to those required by contract for employment, he has violated the provisions of this section but whether he has forfeited his office by such violation is a matter for the courts to determine. OAG 77-228.

A violation under this section is to be prosecuted within one (1) year after it is committed. OAG 79-155.

The wrong committed by a violation of this section is an "offense" which is a "violation" since only a fine and not incarceration may be imposed. OAG 79-155.

The Model Procurement Code would not prohibit an assistant school principal from submitting a competitive bid to the school board for services as a professional auctioneer. OAG 80-605.

Where the wife of an assistant superintendent of county schools owned one half (½) of a flower shop which occasionally entered into contracts with various schools in the system, such contracts would violate this section. OAG 81-311 (OAG 78-315 withdrawn).

KRS 156.275(1) prohibits the State Committee for School District Audits from selecting a certified public accountant (CPA) firm to perform a school board audit if the CPA has a spouse or dependent employed by the school district. Additionally, this section prohibits a CPA with a spouse employed by the school district from entering into a contract with the school system. OAG 93-16.

An "employee with decision-making authority over the financial position of the school district" includes, first of all, certain school officials with broad authority over the financial position of the school district including the superintendent, the assistant superintendents, principals and school council members. Other school employees with power to make financial and budgetary decisions with regard to the allocation of funds and the purchase of goods, services, property, or merchandise, also have "decision-making authority." The authority to recommend expenditure items also represents such authority. OAG 94-61.

In order to conclude whether an employee is covered under subsection (2) of this section it may be necessary to review the employee's job description and determine the extent of influence extended over purchases by the school system. OAG 94-61.

(b) After-school child care for children ages four (4) through twelve (12), with the child care being full-time during the summer and on other days when school is not in session;

(c) Families in training, which shall consist of an integrated approach to home visits, group meetings, and monitoring child development for new and expectant parents;

(d) Family literacy services as described in KRS 158.360 or a similar program designed to provide opportunities for parents and children to learn together and promote lifelong learning; and

(e) Health services or referrals to health services, or both.

(3) Youth services centers shall be located in or near each school in the Commonwealth, except elementary schools, in which twenty percent (20%) or more of the student body are eligible for free or reduced-price school meals. Youth services centers shall promote identification and coordination of existing resources and shall include but not be limited to the following core components for each site:

(a) Referrals to health and social services;

(b) Career exploration and development;

(c) Summer and part-time job development for high school students;

(d) Substance abuse education and counseling; and

(e) Family crisis and mental health counseling.

(4) A grant program is hereby established to provide financial assistance to eligible school districts to establish or maintain family resource or youth services centers. The Cabinet for Health and Family Services shall award grants pursuant to KRS 156.4977. Funding provided to the Cabinet for Health and Family Services for the grant program and agency administrative costs shall include an increase that is equal to or greater than the general fund growth factor provided in agency budget instructions.

(5) A family resource or youth services center that receives funding for one (1) year or more shall not be considered ineligible for funding based solely on the percent of the student body eligible for free or reduced-price school meals unless the percent of the student body eligible for free or reduced-price school meals is below twenty percent (20%) for five (5) consecutive years.

(6) A school district shall not operate a family resource center or a youth services center that provides abortion counseling or makes referrals to a health care facility for the purpose of seeking an abortion.

(7) A school district may accept monetary donations for the operation and maintenance of family resource and youth services centers. Any donations given to the school district for the operation and maintenance of family resource and youth services centers shall be used only for the operation and maintenance of family resource and youth services centers, and for no other purpose.

156.4977. Grants to local school districts for family resource and youth services centers — Supplemental grant program to provide health services.

(1) Grants shall be awarded to eligible local school districts to implement family resource and youth services centers as defined in KRS 156.496.

(2) Grant proposal instructions shall be developed by the Cabinet for Health and Family Services. The instructions shall be contained in a grant application package and distributed to each local public school district in which there are qualifying schools.

(3) A proposal review team comprised of at least three (3) members shall review proposals and score each application in accordance with training provided and scoring procedures established by the Cabinet for Health and Family Services. Proposal reviewers shall be selected by the secretary of the Cabinet for Health and Family Services. The reviewers shall submit the scored proposals to the secretary of the Cabinet for Health and Family Services. Written notification of the secretary's final decision on proposals shall be provided by the secretary to each applicant school district.

(4) The application from each qualifying school or school consortium shall contain the following:

- (a) A statement of need;
 - (b) Proposed goals and outcomes;
 - (c) A description of the actual services and activities to be provided at the center and how they shall be provided;
 - (d) A description of how the children and families with the most urgent needs will be served first;
 - (e) Written agreements with other service providers;
 - (f) A description of the development, composition, and role of the local advisory council;
 - (g) The strategies to disseminate information;
 - (h) A training plan;
 - (i) A description of procedures to be followed to obtain parental permission for services and for sharing confidential information with other service providers. Procedures shall be developed pursuant to federal law and the Kentucky Revised Statutes including, but not limited to, KRS 210.410, 214.185, 222.441, 645.030, and Chapters 620 and 635 and shall require that no family resource center or youth services center offer contraceptives to minor students prior to receiving the express consent of the student's parent or legal guardian;
 - (j) A plan to minimize stigma;
 - (k) A work plan for each of the core components and optional components;
 - (l) Job descriptions for staff;
 - (m) A description of the center location and school accessibility;
 - (n) A description of the hours of operation of the center;
 - (o) A financial strategy and budget;
 - (p) A program evaluation plan; and
 - (q) Letters of endorsement and commitment to the center from community agencies and organizations.
- (5) Grant proposal instruction and scoring procedures shall be made available to all qualifying schools.

(6) As funding becomes available, a supplemental grant program may fund the employment of a physician licensed under KRS Chapter 311 or nurse licensed under KRS Chapter 314 to provide health services as defined in KRS 156.4975 in a family resource or youth services center.

(a) The supplemental grant program shall be managed by the Cabinet for Health and Family Services, and schools that have a family resource or youth services center may apply for grant funds under the guidelines and criteria established by promulgation of administrative regulations pursuant to KRS Chapter 13A.

(b) The supplemental grant program may receive state appropriations, federal funds, gifts, or other contributions for the purposes specified under this subsection.

(c) A supplemental grant shall not exceed fifty percent (50%) of a grant awarded under subsection (1) of this section, and a supplemental grant shall not reduce the amount of a grant awarded to a local school district under subsection (1) of this section.

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

School council committees are advisory bodies created by Kentucky Education Reform Act, therefore, school council committees must be formed consistent with this section, which requires reasonable minority representation on the committees. OAG 94-8.

156.501. Student health services — Responsibilities of Department of Education and Department for Public Health — Filling of position — Funding.

(1) The Department of Education shall provide leadership and assistance to local school districts relating to student health services. The department, working in cooperation with the Department for Public Health, shall provide, contract for services, or identify resources to improve student health services, including but not limited to the following:

(a) Standardized protocols and guidelines for health procedures to be performed by health professionals and school personnel. The protocols and guidelines shall include but not be limited to the following:

1. The delegation of nursing functions consistent with administrative regulations promulgated by the Kentucky Board of Nursing;

2. Training of designated nonmedical school personnel; and

3. Appropriate documentation and recordkeeping including, but not limited to, notification to school administrators and parents or guardians of the provision of health services by a school employee, including certification of medical necessity for health services signed by a health care professional, and informed consent for the provision of health services by a parent or guardian.

A copy of the protocols and guidelines shall be made available to each school in the Commonwealth and shall be maintained by each school in the school's library;

(b) Consultation, technical assistance, and development of quality improvement measures for the state and local boards of education, individual public schools, and local health departments;

(c) Facilitation of statewide and local data collection and reporting of school health services; and

(d) Information and resources that relate to the provision of school health services.

(2) The Department of Education shall establish a position to assist in carrying out the responsibilities required under subsection (1) of this section. The position may be established with existing personnel resources, or by contract, with an individual who:

(a) Holds, at a minimum, a bachelor's degree in nursing with a master's degree in nursing or a related field from an accredited postsecondary institution; and

(b) Is a registered nurse licensed under the provisions of KRS Chapter 314.

(3) The Department of Education shall provide fifty percent (50%) of the costs for the position required by subsection (2) of this section and the Department for Public Health shall provide the remaining fifty percent (50%) for the position. The Department of Education may enter into a contractual arrangement, such as a Memorandum of Agreement, with the Department for Public Health to share the costs.

156.502. Health services in school setting — Designated provider — Liability protection.

(1) As used in this section:

(a) "Health services" means the provision of direct health care, including the administration of medication; the operation, maintenance, or health care through the use of medical equipment; or the administration of clinical procedures. "Health services" does not include first aid or emergency procedures; and

(b) "School employee" means an employee of the public schools of this Commonwealth.

(2) Health services shall be provided, within the health care professional's current scope of practice, in a school setting by:

(a) A physician who is licensed under the provisions of KRS Chapter 311;

(b) An advanced practice registered nurse, registered nurse, or licensed practical nurse who is licensed under the provisions of KRS Chapter 314;

(c) A nonlicensed health technician that has the administration of health services in his or her contract or job description as a job responsibility and who is delegated responsibility to perform the health service by a physician, advanced practice registered nurse, or registered nurse and has been trained and approved in writing by the delegating physician or delegating nurse for delegable health services; or

(d) A school employee who is delegated responsibility to perform the health service by a physician, advanced practice registered nurse, or registered nurse; and

1. Has been trained by the delegating physician or delegating nurse for the specific health service, if that health service is one that could be delegated by the physician or nurse within his or her scope of practice; and

2. Has been approved in writing by the delegating physician or delegating nurse. The approval shall state that the school employee consents to perform the health service when the employee does not have the administration of health services in his or her contract or job description as a job responsibility, possesses sufficient training and skills, and has demonstrated competency to safely and effectively perform the health service. The school employee shall acknowledge receipt of training by signing the approval form. A copy of the approval form shall be maintained in the student's record and the personnel file of the school employee. A delegation to a school employee under this paragraph shall be valid only for the current school year.

(3) If no school employee has been trained and delegated responsibility to perform a health service, the school district shall make any necessary arrangement for the provision of the health service to the student in order to prevent a loss of a health service from affecting the student's attendance or program participation. The school district shall continue with this arrangement until appropriate school personnel are delegated the responsibility for health care in subsection (2) of this section.

(4) A school employee who has been properly delegated responsibility for performing a medical procedure under this section shall act as an agent of the school and be granted liability protection under the Federal Paul P. Coverdell Teacher Liability Protection Act of 2001, Pub. L. No. 107-110, unless the claimant establishes by clear and convincing evidence that harm was proximately caused by an act or omission of the school employee that constitutes negligence, willful or criminal misconduct, or a conscious, flagrant indifference to the rights and safety of the individual harmed.

(5) Nothing in this section shall be construed to deny a student his or her right to attend public school and to receive public school services, or to deny, prohibit, or limit the administration of emergency first aid or emergency procedures.

Teachers' Professional Growth Fund, 704 KAR 3:490.

156.553. Teachers' professional growth fund — Purposes — Courses — Duties of Department of Education — Professional development programs — Administrative regulations — Advancement by local boards of funds to teachers for professional development education — Reimbursement — Priority for use of funds from 2010 to 2016.

- (1) The teachers' professional growth fund is hereby created to provide teachers with high quality professional development in content knowledge in mathematics, reading, science, language arts, social studies, arts and humanities, practical living, vocational studies, and foreign languages; classroom-based screening, diagnostic, assessment, and intervention strategies; and teaching methodologies, including professional development that may lead to additional certification endorsements or renewal of certification. Based on available funds, student achievement data, and teacher data, the Kentucky Board of Education shall annually determine the priority for content emphasis based on the greatest needs.

(2)(a) The fund may provide moneys to teachers for:

1. Tuition reimbursement for successful completion of college or university level courses, including on-line courses and seminars, approved for this purpose by the Education Professional Standards Board;

2. Stipends for participation in and successful completion of:

a. College or university courses, including on-line courses and seminars, approved for this purpose by the Education Professional Standards Board;

b. Teacher institutes developed for core content instructors by the Department of Education in compliance with KRS 156.095; and

c. Other professional development programs approved by the Kentucky Department of Education, including professional development for teachers participating in grants awarded by the Middle School Mathematics and Science Scholars Program established under KRS 158.848;

3. Reimbursement for the purchase of materials required for professional development programs; and

4. Reimbursement for other approved professional development activities throughout the school year, including reimbursement for:

a. Travel to and from professional development workshops; and

b. Travel to and from other schools for the observation of, and consultation with, peer mentors; or

(b) The fund may be used to provide grants to local school districts to support staff participation in specific, statewide initiatives for the professional development of teachers and administrators in specific content areas as established by the Kentucky Department of Education and the Kentucky Board of Education under the provisions of subsections (4), (5), and (6) of this section and referenced in KRS 158.842.

(c) The fund may be used to provide grants to colleges and universities to plan and develop statewide professional development institutes and other professional development services.

(d) The fund may be used to provide grants to local school districts, to colleges and universities, or other entities to assist the Kentucky Department of Education in evaluating costs and the effectiveness of activities and initiatives established under this section.

(3) The Education Professional Standards Board shall determine the college and university courses, including on-line courses and seminars, for which teachers may receive reimbursement from the fund.

(4) The Department of Education shall:

(a) Administer the fund. In order to process reimbursements to teachers promptly, the reimbursements shall not be subject to KRS 45A.690 to 45A.725;

(b) Determine the professional development programs for which teachers may receive reimbursement, or districts or colleges and universities may receive grants, from the fund;

(c) Determine the level of stipend or reimbursement, subject to the availability of appropriated funds, for particular courses and programs, under subsection (2) of this section; and

(d) Provide an accounting of fund expenditures and results of the use of the funds for each biennium to the Interim Joint Committee on Education by November 1 of each odd-numbered year.

(5) The professional development programs approved by the Department of Education for which teachers may receive support from the fund shall:

(a) Focus on improving the content knowledge of teachers;

(b) Provide training in the use of research-based and developmentally appropriate classroom-based screening, diagnostic, assessment, and intervention strategies;

(c) Provide instruction on teaching methods to effectively impart content knowledge to all students;

(d) Include intensive training institutes and workshops during the summer;

(e) Provide programs for the ongoing support of teacher participants throughout the year, which may include:

1. A peer coaching or mentoring, and assessment program; and

2. Planned activities, including:

a. Follow-up workshops; and

b. Support networks of teachers of the core disciplines using technologies, including but not limited to telephone, video, and on-line computer networks;

(f) Provide teacher participants with professional development credit toward renewal of certification under the provisions of KRS 161.095, relating to continuing education for teachers; and

(g) Provide teacher participants with the opportunity to obtain certificate endorsements or extensions in critical shortage areas, with priority given to mathematics and science through 2016, and in core content areas to their existing certifications through the TC-HQ process, established by the Education Professional Standards Board to meet the requirements of the No Child Left Behind Act of 2001, 20 U.S.C. sec. 6301 et seq.

(6) The Kentucky Board of Education shall specify through promulgation of administrative regulations:

(a) The application and approval process for receipt of funds;

(b) The requirements and process for the disbursement of funds; and

(c) The number of each kind of approved course for which applicants may receive funds.

(7) Notwithstanding any other provisions to the contrary, a local school board may advance the funds necessary for its teachers to participate in a college course or professional development seminar or activity approved by the Kentucky Department of Education and the Education Professional Standards Board under provisions of this section and receive reimbursement from the department at the conclusion of the activity or course by the teacher. If funds are advanced for the benefit of a teacher under this subsection, but the teacher does not fulfill his or her obligation, the teacher shall reimburse the school district for the funds expended by the district on the teacher's behalf.

(8) Notwithstanding the provisions of KRS 45.229, unexpended funds in the teachers' professional growth fund in the 2000-2001 fiscal year or in any subsequent fiscal year shall not lapse but shall carry forward to the next fiscal year and shall be used for the purposes established in subsections (1) and (2) of this section.

(9) Notwithstanding any provisions of this section to the contrary, beginning June 1, 2006, through the 2009-2010 school year, priority for the use of funds from the teachers' professional growth fund shall be used to train and support teams of teachers from all school levels to be trained as reading coaches and mentors or as mathematics coaches and mentors in statewide institutes referenced in KRS 158.840 and 158.842, and for selected teachers to be highly trained in providing diagnostic assessment and intervention services for students in the primary program struggling with mathematics.

(a) The design of the statewide mathematics institutes to train mathematics coaches and mentors shall be developed by the Committee for Mathematics Achievement established in KRS 158.842. The committee shall provide recommendations to the Kentucky Department of Education and the Kentucky Board of Education in the preparation of administrative regulations that may be promulgated by the board to implement the provisions of this subsection relating to mathematics.

(b) The design of the professional development program to provide highly trained mathematics intervention teachers in the primary program shall be developed by the Center for Mathematics in collaboration with public and private institutions of postsecondary education.

(c) The development of the statewide program to train reading coaches and mentors shall be coordinated by the Kentucky Department of Education with recommendations from the Collaborative Center for Literacy Development, established in KRS 164.0207, and the reading steering committee established in KRS 158.794. The design of the program shall reflect a consensus of the agencies involved in the development of the program. The training program for reading coaches and mentors shall complement other statewide reading initiatives, funded with state and federal funds, and shall give priority to teachers in grades four (4) through twelve (12). The program shall be implemented no later than June 1, 2006. The board shall promulgate administrative regulations required to implement the provisions of this subsection relating to reading.

(10) Notwithstanding any provision of this section to the contrary, beginning June 1, 2010, through the 2015-2016 school year, priority for the use of funds from the teachers' professional growth fund shall be for the purpose of increasing the number of certified teachers with extensions or endorsements in mathematics and science as described in subsection (5)(g) of this section.

156.555. Center for Middle School Academic Achievement — Duties — Location at college or university.

(1) The Center for Middle School Academic Achievement is created to improve the content knowledge and instructional practice of middle school teachers through the coordination of professional development programs for middle school teachers, the provision of technical assistance to schools and teachers, and the collection and dissemination of information and research regarding effective models of teaching the core disciplines to middle school students.

(2) The center shall:

(a) Foster collaboration between the center, the Department of Education, the Education Professional Standards Board, postsecondary institutions of education, postsecondary departments or colleges of arts and sciences, and other entities to develop content-based teacher preparation programs and ongoing professional development programs for middle school teachers, aligned with the Department of Education's core content for assessment;

(b) Assist school districts in assessing and addressing their needs and deficiencies in middle school curriculum and instruction;

(c) Assist grant recipients of the Middle School Mathematics and Science Scholars Program established under KRS 158.848 with professional development for participating teachers;

(d) Assist middle school teachers in establishing and maintaining networks of communication to share information regarding middle school instructional practice, curriculum development, and other areas of common interest, building upon existing networks;

(e) Develop and maintain a clearinghouse for information about:

1. Educational models addressing content knowledge and skills of middle school students, based on reliable, replicable research;

2. Core content achievement levels of Kentucky students in relation to students in other states and other countries; and

3. The relationship between student achievement levels and curriculum content, curriculum structure and alignment with content, teacher training, and teaching methods;

(f) Develop and implement a research structure, in collaboration with the Department of Education, to evaluate the effectiveness of different middle school instructional models; and

(g) Submit an annual report to the Governor and the Legislative Research Commission by September 1 of each year. The report shall include information outlining the center's activities, information provided by the Kentucky Department of Education regarding the use of money from the Teachers' Professional Growth Fund, and other information regarding efforts to improve the quality of middle school instruction in Kentucky.

(3) With the advice of the commissioner of education and the Education Professional Standards Board, the Council on Postsecondary Education shall develop a process to solicit, review, and approve a proposal for locating the Center for Middle School Academic Achievement at a public or private college or university. The council shall choose a college or university that has demonstrated the coordination of course delivery between the faculties of the college of education and arts and sciences departments within the college or university. The council shall approve the location for the center no later than November 15, 2000.

156.557. Definitions — Statewide framework for teaching — District personnel evaluation system — Summative evaluations — Appeals — Prohibition against disclosure of confidential information — Limits on reporting of evaluation results.

(1) As used in this section:

(a) "Formative evaluation" means a continuous cycle of collecting evaluation information and providing feedback with suggestions regarding the certified employee's professional growth and performance; and

(b) "Summative evaluation" means the summary of, and conclusions from, the evaluation data, including formative evaluation data that:

1. Occur at the end of an evaluation cycle; and

2. Include a conference between the evaluator and the evaluated certified employee and a written evaluation report.

(2) The Kentucky Department of Education, in consultation with the Kentucky teacher and principal steering committees and other groups deemed appropriate by the commissioner of education, shall develop a statewide framework for teaching that shall promote the continuous professional growth and development of skills needed to be a highly effective teacher or a highly effective administrator in a school or district.

(3) Each district shall develop and implement a personnel evaluation system aligned with the statewide framework for teaching established in subsection (2) of this section that shall

(a) Use multiple measures of effectiveness

(b) Include both formative and summative evaluation components;

(c) Measure professional effectiveness;

(d) Support professional growth;

(e) Have at least four (4) performance levels;

(f) Be used to inform personnel decisions;

(g) Be considerate of the time requirements of evaluators at the local level and shall not require that all certified school personnel have a formal summative evaluation each year; and

(h) Rate teachers or administrators by multiple measures instead of a single measure.

(4) The performance criteria by which teachers and administrators shall be evaluated shall include but not be limited to:

(a) Performance of professional responsibilities related to his or her assignment, including attendance and punctuality and evaluating results;

(b) Demonstration of effective planning of curricula, classroom instruction, and classroom management, based on research-based instructional practices, or school management skills based on validated managerial practices;

(c) Demonstration of knowledge and understanding of subject matter content or administrative functions and effective leadership techniques;

(d) Promotion and incorporation of instructional strategies or management techniques that are fair and respect diversity and individual differences;

(e) Demonstration of effective interpersonal, communication, and collaboration skills among peers, students, parents, and others;

(f) Performance of duties consistent with the goals for Kentucky students and mission of the school, the local community, laws, and administrative regulations;

(g) Demonstration of the effective use of resources, including technology;

(h) Demonstration of professional growth;

(i) Adherence to the professional code of ethics; and

(j) Attainment of the teacher standards or the administrator standards as established by the Education Professional Standards Board that are not referenced in paragraphs (a) to (i) of this subsection.

(5) The following provisions shall apply to each school district's personnel evaluation system:

(a) Certified school personnel, below the level of superintendent, shall be evaluated

(b) The evaluation system shall include formative evaluation and summative evaluation components; and

(c) The Kentucky Board of Education shall adopt administrative regulations incorporating written guidelines for a local school district to follow in implementing the personnel evaluation system and shall require the following:

1. All evaluations of certified school personnel below the level of the district superintendent shall be in writing on evaluation forms and under evaluation procedures developed by a committee composed of an equal number of teachers and administrators;

2. The immediate supervisor of the certified school personnel member shall be designated as the primary evaluator. At the request of a teacher, observations by other teachers trained in the teacher's content area or curriculum content specialists may be incorporated into the formative process for evaluating teachers;

3. All monitoring or observation of performance of a certified school personnel member shall be conducted openly and with full knowledge of the personnel member;

4. Evaluators shall be trained, tested, and approved in accordance with administrative regulations adopted by the Kentucky Board of Education in the proper techniques for effectively evaluating certified school personnel. Evaluators shall receive support and resources necessary to ensure consistent and reliable ratings;

5. The personnel evaluation system shall include a plan whereby the person evaluated is given assistance for professional growth as a teacher or administrator. The system shall also specify the processes to be used when corrective actions are necessary in relation to the performance of one's assignment;

6. The system shall require annual summative evaluations for each teacher or other professional who has not attained continuing service status under KRS 161.740 or continuing status under KRS 156.800(7). The system shall require summative evaluations at least once every three (3) years for a teacher or other professional who has attained continuing service status under KRS 161.740 or continuing status under KRS 156.800(7), principals, assistant principals, and other certified administrators; and

7. The training requirement for evaluators contained in subparagraph 4. of this paragraph shall not apply to district board of education members. (6)(a) Each superintendent shall be evaluated according to a policy and procedures developed by the local board of education and approved by the department.

(b) The summative evaluation of the superintendent shall be in writing, discussed and adopted in an open meeting of the board and reflected in the minutes, and made available to the public upon request.

(c) Any preliminary discussions relating to the evaluation of the superintendent by the board or between the board and the superintendent prior to the summative evaluation shall be conducted in closed session.

(7) The Kentucky Board of Education shall establish an appeals procedure for certified school personnel who believe that the local school district failed to properly implement the evaluation system. The appeals procedure shall not involve requests from individual certified school personnel members for review of the judgmental conclusions of their personnel evaluations.

(8) The local board of education shall establish an evaluation appeals panel for certified school personnel that shall consist of two (2) members elected by the certified employees of the local district and one (1) member appointed by the board of education who is a certified employee of the local board of education. Certified school personnel who think they were not fairly evaluated may submit an appeal to the panel for a timely review of their evaluation.

(9) The Kentucky Department of Education may annually provide for on-site visits by trained personnel to review and ensure appropriate implementation of the evaluation system by the local school district. The department shall provide technical assistance to local districts to eliminate deficiencies and to improve the effectiveness of the evaluation system.

(10) The disclosure, pursuant to KRS Chapter 61, of any data or information, including student growth data, that local school districts or the Department of Education collect on individual classroom teachers under this section is prohibited.

(11) The results of evaluations conducted under this section shall not be included in the accountability system described in KRS 158.6455 and no reporting requirements related to these results shall be imposed upon the local school districts by the Department of Education.

NOTES TO UNPUBLISHED DECISIONS

Analysis

1. In General.
2. Judicial Review.

1. In General.

Unpublished Decision: Certified school teacher who received formal teaching evaluations was not entitled to formal evaluations for extra service coaching assignments before a school district could remove him from his basketball coaching position. Bd. of Educ. of Erlanger-Elsmere Sch. Dist. v. Code, 57 S.W.3d 820, 2001 Ky. LEXIS 137 (Ky. 2001).

Unpublished Decision: General Assembly's delegation of authority in Ky. Rev. Stat. Ann. § 156.557 did not violate the nondelegation doctrine as State Evaluation Appeals Panel (SEAP) was not an administrative agency, and the evaluation process and the SEAP review did not result in an adjudication of a teacher's legal rights. Travis v. State Evaluation Appeals Panel, 2018 Ky. App. LEXIS 244 (Ky. Ct. App. Sept. 28, 2018), sub. op., 2019 Ky. App. Unpub. LEXIS 331 (Ky. Ct. App. May 10, 2019).

2. Judicial Review.

Unpublished Decision: State Evaluation Appeals Panel (SEAP) was not an administrative agency subject to judicial review where the focus of its review was determining whether the school district failed to properly implement the evaluation system, it could not adjudicate a teacher's legal rights, duties, privileges, or immunities, and the fact that Ky. Rev. Stat. Ann. § 156.557 contained no provision authorizing judicial review indicated that the General Assembly had not contemplated that SEAP decisions were subject to judicial review. Travis v. State Evaluation Appeals Panel, 2018 Ky. App. LEXIS 244 (Ky. Ct. App. Sept. 28, 2018), sub. op., 2019 Ky. App. Unpub. LEXIS 331 (Ky. Ct. App. May 10, 2019).

156.560. Pilot program for performance-based professional development — Parameters determined by local board — Study and report by Department of Education.

(1)(a) Beginning in the 2018-2019 school year, and continuing until the end of the 2020-2021 school year, a school district may establish a pilot program for teachers to develop and implement a performance-based professional development project, which is designed to produce measurable outcomes of positive impact on student performance.

(b) The pilot program shall require two (2) or more teachers to design an instructional practice or strategy project to address an identified school or district academic or nonacademic classroom problem.

(c) Successful completion of a project under this section shall satisfy up to three (3) days of the requirement to complete four (4) days of professional development under KRS 158.070(3)(a).

(d) A local board of education may award a teacher a stipend for successful completion of a project.

(2) The local board of education shall determine the parameters for the performance-based professional development pilot program, including but not limited to:

- (a) A project application process;
- (b) Review and approval of project proposals;
- (c) Submission of completed project analysis and results;
- (d) Evaluation of completed projects;
- (e) The awarding of professional development credit, including the amount of the credit and when it will be credited; and
- (f) The awarding of a stipend, if applicable.

(3)(a) The Kentucky Department of Education shall study the completed pilot projects for their impact on schools and districts to determine the attributes of quality performance-based professional development and the best practices for measuring its effectiveness.

(b) By August 1, 2022, the department shall report its findings and any recommendations for revising professional development policy to the Interim Joint Committee on Education.

156.670. Development of master plan for education technology.

(1) The Council for Education Technology shall develop the master plan for education technology and submit the plan to the Kentucky Board of Education and the Legislative Research Commission for approval. Implementation of each stage of the master plan shall begin immediately upon approval of the board and the Legislative Research Commission. The plan shall outline the Commonwealth's five (5) year activities related to purchasing, developing, and using technology to:

- (a) Improve learning and teaching and the ability to meet individual students' needs to increase student achievement;
- (b) Improve curriculum delivery to help meet the needs for educational equity across the state;
- (c) Improve delivery of professional development;

(d) Improve the efficiency and productivity of administrators; and

(e) Encourage development by the private sector and acquisition by districts of technologies and applications appropriate for education.

(2) The five (5) year plan shall cover all aspects of education technology, including but not limited to, its use in educational instruction and administration, video and computer systems, software and hardware, multiple delivery systems for satellite, microwave, cable, instructional television fixed service, fiber optic, and computer connections products, the preparation of school buildings for technological readiness, and the development of staff necessary to implement the plan.

(3) The five (5) year plan shall include specific recommendations to the Kentucky Board of Education for the adoption of administrative regulations to establish and implement a uniform and integrated system of standards and guidelines for financial accounting and reporting which shall be used by all school districts.

(4) The integrated technology-based communications system shall provide comprehensive, current, accurate, and accessible information relating to management, finance, operations, instruction, and pupil programs which are under the jurisdiction of the Department of Education.

(5) To facilitate communication among teachers, parents, students, and prospective employers of students, and to provide access to many vital technological services, the five (5) year plan shall include the installation of a telephone in each classroom.

(6) In designing and implementing the five (5) year plan, the council shall consider seeking the active participation of private organizations whose knowledge and assistance will be useful.

(7) The council shall update as necessary the plan developed under subsection (2) of this section and report to the Legislative Research Commission at the completion of each implementation phase of the master plan.

(8) The council shall submit its recommendations to the Kentucky Board of Education, which shall accept the recommendations, or return them to the council along with suggestions for changes to make the recommendations consistent with the policies of the Kentucky Board of Education.

156.675. Prevention of transmission of sexually explicit materials to schools — Administrative regulations — Local school district policy on student Internet access.

(1) The Kentucky Board of Education shall promulgate administrative regulations to prevent sexually explicit material from being transmitted via any video or computer system, software or hardware product, or Internet service managed or provided to local schools or school districts.

(2) Each local school district and school shall utilize the latest available filtering technology to ensure that sexually explicit material is not made available to students.

(3) The Kentucky Department of Education shall make available to school districts and schools upon request and without cost, state-of-the-art software products that enable local districts and schools to prevent access to sexually explicit material. The department shall also notify all school districts and schools of the availability of the software. Any product provided or obtained by a district or school shall meet the requirements of subsection (2) of this section.

(4) Each local school district shall establish a policy regarding student Internet access that shall include, but not be limited to, parental consent for student Internet use, teacher supervision of student computer use, and auditing procedures to determine whether education technology is being used for the purpose of accessing sexually explicit or other objectionable material.

COMPACT FOR EDUCATION

156.710. Interstate Compact for Education.

The compact for education is hereby entered into law with all jurisdictions legally joining therein, in the form substantially as follows:

ARTICLE I.

PURPOSE AND POLICY

A. It is the purpose of this compact to:

1. Establish and maintain close cooperation and understanding among executive, legislative, professional educational and lay leadership on a nationwide basis at the state and local levels.

2. Provide a forum for the discussion, development, crystallization and recommendation of public policy alternatives in the field of education.

3. Provide a clearing house of information on matters relating to educational problems and how they are being met in different places throughout the nation, so that the executive and legislative branches of state government and of local communities may have ready access to the experience and record of the entire country, and so that both lay and professional groups in the field of education may have additional avenues for the sharing of experience and the interchange of ideas in the formation of public policy in education.

4. Facilitate the improvement of state and local educational systems so that all of them will be able to meet adequate and desirable goals in a society which requires continuous qualitative and quantitative advance in educational opportunities, methods and facilities.

B. It is the policy of this compact to encourage and promote local and state initiative in the development, maintenance, improvement and administration of educational systems and institutions in a manner which will accord with the needs and advantages of diversity among localities and states.

C. The party states recognize that each of them has an interest in the quality and quantity of education furnished in each of the other states, as well as in the excellence of its own educational systems and institutions, because of the highly mobile character of individuals within the nation, and because the products and services contributing to the health, welfare and economic advancement of each state are supplied in significant part by persons educated in other states.

ARTICLE II. STATE DEFINED

As used in this compact, "state" means a state, territory or possession of the United States, the District of Columbia, or the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico.

ARTICLE III. THE COMMISSION

A. The Education Commission of the States, hereinafter called "the commission," is hereby established. The commission shall consist of seven members representing each party state. One of such members shall be the Governor; two shall be members of the state legislature selected by its respective houses and serving in such manner as the legislature may determine; and four shall be appointed by and serve at the pleasure of the Governor, unless the laws of the state otherwise provide. If the laws of a state prevent legislators from serving on the commission, six members shall be appointed and serve at the pleasure of the Governor, unless the laws of the state otherwise provide. In addition to any other principles or requirements which a state may establish for the appointment and service of its members of the commission, the guiding principle for the composition of the membership on the commission from each party state shall be that the members representing such state shall, by virtue of their training, experience, knowledge or affiliations be in a position collectively to reflect broadly the interests of the state government, higher education, the state education system, local education, lay and professional, public and non-public educational leadership. Of those appointees, one shall be the head of a state agency or institution, designated by the Governor, having responsibility for one or more programs of public education. In addition to the members of the commission representing the party states, there may be not to exceed ten (10) non-voting commissioners selected by the steering committee for terms of one (1) year. Such commissioners shall represent leading national organizations of professional educators or persons concerned with educational administration.

B. The members of the commission shall be entitled to one vote each on the commission. No action of the commission shall be binding unless taken at a meeting at which a majority of the total number of votes on the commission are cast in favor thereof. Action of the commission shall be only at a meeting at which a majority of the commissioners are present. The commission shall meet at least once a year. In its bylaws, and subject to such directions and limitations as may be contained therein, the commission may delegate the exercise of any of its powers to the steering committee or the executive director, except for the power to approve budgets or requests for appropriations, the power to make policy recommendations pursuant to Article IV and adoption of the annual report pursuant to Article III J.

C. The commission shall have a seal.

D. The commission shall elect annually, from among its members, a chairman, who shall be a governor, a vice chairman and a treasurer. The commission shall provide for the appointment of an executive director. Such executive director shall serve at the pleasure of the commission, and together with the treasurer and such other personnel as the commission may deem appropriate shall be bonded in such amount as the commission shall determine. The executive director shall be secretary.

E. Irrespective of the civil service, personnel or other merit system laws of any of the party states, the executive director subject to the approval of the steering committee shall appoint, remove or discharge such personnel as may be necessary for the performance of the functions of the commission, and shall fix the duties and compensation of such personnel. The commission in its bylaws shall provide for the personnel policies and programs of the commission.

F. The commission may borrow, accept or contract for the services of personnel from any party jurisdiction, the United States, or any subdivision or agency of the aforementioned governments, or from any agency of two or more of the party jurisdictions or their subdivisions.

G. The commission may accept for any of its purposes and functions under this compact any and all donations, and grants of money, equipment, supplies, materials and services, conditional or otherwise, from any state, the United States, or any other governmental agency, or from any person, firm, association, foundation, or corporation, and may receive, utilize and dispose of the same. Any donation or grant accepted by the commission pursuant to this paragraph or services borrowed pursuant to paragraph F of this article shall be reported in the annual report of the commission. Such report shall include the nature, amount and conditions, if any, of the donation, grant, or services borrowed, and the identity of the donor or lender.

H. The commission may establish and maintain such facilities as may be necessary for the transacting of its business. The commission may acquire, hold, and convey real and personal property and any interest therein.

I. The commission shall adopt bylaws for the conduct of its business and shall have the power to amend and rescind these bylaws. The commission shall publish its bylaws in convenient form and shall file a copy thereof and a copy of any amendment thereto, with the appropriate agency or officer in each of the party states.

J. The commission annually shall make to the Governor and legislature of each party state a report covering the activities of the commission for the preceding year. The commission may make such additional reports as it may deem desirable.

ARTICLE IV. POWERS

In addition to authority conferred on the commission by other provisions of the compact, the commission shall have authority to:

1. Collect, correlate, analyze and interpret information and data concerning educational needs and resources.

2. Encourage and foster research in all aspects of education, but with special reference to the desirable scope of instruction, organization, administration, and instructional methods and standards employed or suitable for employment in public educational systems.

3. Develop proposals for adequate financing of education as a whole and at each of its many levels.

4. Conduct or participate in research of the types referred to in this article in any instance where the commission finds that such research is necessary for the advancement of the purposes and policies of this compact, utilizing fully the resources of national associations, regional compact organizations for higher education, and other agencies and institutions, both public and private.

5. Formulate suggested policies and plans for the improvement of public education as a whole, or for any segment thereof, and make recommendations with respect thereto, available to the appropriate governmental units, agencies and public officials.

6. Do such other things as may be necessary or incidental to the administration of any of its authority or functions pursuant to this compact.

ARTICLE V.

COOPERATION WITH FEDERAL GOVERNMENT

A. If the laws of the United States specifically so provide, or if administrative provision is made therefor within the federal government, the United States may be represented on the commission by not to exceed ten (10) representatives. Any such representative or representatives of the United States shall be appointed and serve in such manner as may be provided by or pursuant to federal law, and may be drawn from any one or more branches of the federal government, but no such representative shall have a vote on the commission.

B. The commission may provide information and make recommendations to any executive or legislative agency or officer of the federal government concerning the common educational policies of the states, and may advise with any such agencies or officers concerning any matter of mutual interest.

ARTICLE VI. COMMITTEES

A. To assist in the expeditious conduct of its business when the full commission is not meeting, the commission shall elect a steering committee of thirty-two (32) members which, subject to the provisions of this compact and consistent with the policies of the commission, shall be constituted and function as provided in the bylaws of the commission. One-fourth ($\frac{1}{4}$) of the voting membership of the steering committee shall consist of Governors, one-fourth ($\frac{1}{4}$) shall consist of legislators, and the remainder shall consist of other members of the commission. A federal representative on the commission may serve with the steering committee, but without vote. The voting members of the steering committee shall serve for terms of two (2) years, except that members elected to the first steering committee of the commission shall be elected as follows: sixteen (16) for one (1) year and sixteen (16) for two (2) years. The chairman, vice chairman, and treasurer of the commission shall be members of the steering committee and, anything in this paragraph to the contrary notwithstanding, shall serve during their continuance in these offices. Vacancies in the steering committee shall not affect its authority to act, but the commission at its next regular ensuing meeting following the occurrence of any vacancy shall fill it for the unexpired term. No person shall serve more than two (2) terms as a member of the steering committee; provided that service for a partial term of one (1) year or less shall not be counted toward the two (2) term limitation.

B. The commission may establish advisory and technical committees composed of state, local, and federal officials, and private persons to advise it with respect to any one or more of its functions. Any advisory or technical committee may, on request of the states concerned, be established to consider any matter of special concern to two (2) or more of the party states.

C. The commission may establish such additional committees as its bylaws may provide.

ARTICLE VII. FINANCE

A. The commission shall advise the Governor or designated officer or officers of each party state of its budget and estimated expenditures for such period as may be required by the laws of that party state. Each of the commission's budgets of estimated expenditures shall contain specific recommendations of the amount or amounts to be appropriated by each of the party states.

B. The total amount of appropriation requests under any budget shall be apportioned among the party states. In making such apportionment, the commission shall devise and employ a formula which takes equitable account of the populations and per capita income levels of the party states.

C. The commission shall not pledge the credit of any party states. The commission may meet any of its obligations in whole or in part with funds available to it pursuant to Article III G of this compact, provided that the commission takes specific action setting aside such funds prior to incurring an obligation to be met in whole or in part in such manner. Except where the commission makes use of funds available to it pursuant to Article III G thereof, the commission shall not incur any obligation prior to the allotment of funds by the party states adequate to meet the same.

D. The commission shall keep accurate accounts of all receipts and disbursements. The receipts and disbursements of the commission shall be subject to the audit and accounting procedures established by its bylaws. However, all receipts and disbursements of funds handled by the commission shall be audited yearly by a qualified public accountant, and the report of the audit shall be included in and become part of the annual reports of the commission.

E. The accounts of the commission shall be open at any reasonable time for inspection by duly constituted officers of the party states and by any persons authorized by the commission.

F. Nothing contained herein shall be construed to prevent commission compliance with laws relating to audit or inspection of accounts by or on behalf of any government contributing to the support of the commission.

ARTICLE VIII.

ELIGIBLE PARTIES — ENTRY INTO AND WITHDRAWAL

A. This compact shall have as eligible parties all states, territories, and possessions of the United States, the District of Columbia, and the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico. In respect of any such jurisdiction not having a Governor, the term "Governor," as used in this compact, shall mean the closest equivalent official of such jurisdiction.

B. Any state or other eligible jurisdiction may enter into this compact and it shall become binding thereon when it has adopted the same: Provided that in order to enter into initial effect, adoption by at least ten (10) eligible party jurisdictions shall be required.

C. Adoption of the compact may be either by enactment thereof or by adherence thereto by the Governor; provided that in the absence of enactment, adherence by the Governor shall be sufficient to make his state a party only until December 31, 1967. During any period when a state is participating in this compact through gubernatorial action, the Governor shall appoint those persons who, in addition to himself, shall serve as the members of the commission from his state, and shall provide to the commission an equitable share of the financial support of the commission from any source available to him.

D. Except for a withdrawal effective on December 31, 1967 in accordance with paragraph C of this article, any party state may withdraw from this compact by enacting a statute repealing the same, but no such withdrawal shall take effect until one (1) year after the Governor of the withdrawing state has given notice in writing of the withdrawal to the Governors of all other party states. No withdrawal shall affect any liability already incurred by or chargeable to a party state prior to the time of such withdrawal.

ARTICLE IX.

CONSTRUCTION AND SEVERABILITY

This compact shall be liberally construed so as to effectuate the purposes thereof. The provisions of this compact shall be severable and if any phrase, clause, sentence or provision of this compact is declared to be contrary to the constitution of any state or of the United States, or the application thereof to any government, agency, person or circumstances is held invalid, the validity of the remainder of this compact and the applicability thereof to any government, agency, person or circumstance shall not be affected thereby. If this compact shall be held contrary to the constitution of any state participating therein, the compact shall remain in full force and effect as to the state affected as to all severable matters.

INTERSTATE COMPACT ON EDUCATIONAL OPPORTUNITY FOR MILITARY CHILDREN

156.730. Interstate Compact on Educational Opportunity for Military Children.

ARTICLE I.

Purpose

It is the purpose of this compact to remove barriers to educational success imposed on children of military families because of frequent moves and deployment of their parents by:

A. Facilitating the timely enrollment of children of military families and ensuring that they are not placed at a disadvantage due to difficulty in the transfer of education records from the previous school district(s) or variations in entrance/age requirements;

B. Facilitating the student placement process through which children of military families are not disadvantaged by variations in attendance requirements, scheduling, sequencing, grading, course content, or assessment;

C. Facilitating the qualification and eligibility for enrollment, educational programs, and participation in extracurricular academic, athletic, and social activities;

D. Facilitating the on-time graduation of children of military families;

E. Providing for promulgation and enforcement of administrative rules implementing the provisions of this compact;

F. Providing for the uniform collection and sharing of information between and among member states, schools, and military families under this compact;

G. Promoting coordination between this compact and other compacts affecting military children; and

H. Promoting flexibility and cooperation between the educational system, parents, and students in order to achieve educational success for students.

ARTICLE II.

Definitions

As used in this compact, unless the context clearly requires a different construction:

A. "Active duty" means full-time duty status in the active uniformed service of the United States, including members of the National Guard and Reserve on active duty orders pursuant to 10 U.S.C. secs. 1209 and 1211;

B. "Children of military families" means a school-aged child or children enrolled in kindergarten through twelfth (12th) grade, in the household of an active duty member;

C. "Compact commissioner" means the voting representative of each compacting state appointed pursuant to Article VIII of this compact;

D. "Deployment" means the period of one (1) month prior to a service member's departure from his or her home station on military orders through six (6) months after return to the home station;

E. "Educational records" means those official records, files, and data directly related to a student and maintained by the school or local education agency, including but not limited to records encompassing all the material kept in the student's cumulative folder such as general identifying data, records of attendance and of academic work completed, records of achievement and results of evaluative tests, health data, disciplinary status, test protocols, and individualized education programs;

F. "Extracurricular activities" means a voluntary activity sponsored by the school or local education agency or an organization sanctioned by the local education agency. Extracurricular activities include but are not limited to preparation for and involvement in public performances, contests, athletics competitions, demonstrations, displays, and club activities;

G. "Interstate Commission on Educational Opportunity for Military Children" means the commission created under Article IX of this compact, which is generally referred to as "Interstate Commission";

H. "Local education agency" means a public authority legally constituted by the state as an administrative agency to provide control of and direction for kindergarten through twelfth (12th) grade public educational institutions;

I. "Member state" means a state that has enacted this compact;

J. "Military installation" means a base, camp, post, station, yard, center, homeport facility for any ship, or other activity under the jurisdiction of the Department of Defense, including any leased facility, which is located within any of the several States, the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, the U.S. Virgin Islands, Guam, American Samoa, the Northern Marianas Islands and any other U.S. Territory. Such term does not include any facility used primarily for civil works, rivers, and harbor projects, or flood control projects;

K. "Non-member state" means a state that has not enacted this compact;

L. "Receiving state" means the state to which a child of a military family is sent, brought, or caused to be sent or brought;

M. "Rule" means a written statement by the Interstate Commission promulgated pursuant to Article XII of this compact that is of general applicability, implements, interprets, or prescribes a policy of the compact, or an organizational, procedural, or practice requirement of the Interstate Commission, and has the force and effect of statutory law in a member state, and includes the amendment, repeal, or suspension of an existing rule;

N. "Sending state" means the state from which a child of a military family is sent, brought, or caused to be sent or brought;

O. "State" means a state of the United States, the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, the U.S. Virgin Islands, Guam, American Samoa, the Northern Marianas Islands, and any other U.S. Territory;

P. "Student" means the child of a military family for whom the local education agency receives public funding and who is formally enrolled in kindergarten through twelfth (12th) grade;

Q. "Transition" means the formal and physical process of transferring from school to school or the period of time in which a student moves from one school in the sending state to another school in the receiving state;

R. "Uniformed service(s)" means the Army, Navy, Air Force, Marine Corps, and Coast Guard, as well as the Commissioned Corps of the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration, and Public Health Services; and

S. "Veteran" means a person who served in the uniformed services and who was discharged or released therefrom under conditions other than dishonorable.

ARTICLE III.

Applicability

A. Except as otherwise provided in this section, this compact shall apply to the children of:

1. Active duty members of the uniformed services as defined in this compact, including members of the National Guard and Reserve on active duty orders pursuant to 10 U.S.C. secs. 1209 and 1211;

2. Members or veterans of the uniformed services who are severely injured and medically discharged or retired for a period of one (1) year after medical discharge or retirement; and

3. Members of the uniformed services who die on active duty or as a result of injuries sustained on active duty for a period of one (1) year after death.

B. The provisions of this interstate compact shall only apply to local education agencies as defined in this compact.

C. The provisions of this compact shall not apply to the children of:

1. Inactive members of the National Guard and Military Reserves;

2. Members of the uniformed services now retired, except as provided for in this section;

3. Veterans of the uniformed services, except as provided for in this section; and

4. Other U.S. Department of Defense personnel and other federal agency civilian and contract employees not defined as active duty members of the uniformed services.

ARTICLE IV.

Educational Records and Enrollment

A. Unofficial or "hand-carried" educational records: In the event that official educational records cannot be released to the parents for the purpose of transfer, the custodian of the records in the sending state shall prepare and furnish to the parent a complete set of unofficial educational records containing uniform information as determined by the Interstate Commission. Upon receipt of the unofficial educational records by a school in the receiving state, the school shall enroll and appropriately place the student based on the information provided in the unofficial records pending validation by the official records, as quickly as possible.

B. Official educational records/transcripts: Simultaneous with the enrollment and conditional placement of the student, the school in the receiving state shall request the student's official record from the school in the sending state. Upon receipt of this request, the school in the sending state will process and furnish the official educational records to the school in the receiving state within ten (10) days or within such time as is reasonably determined under the rules promulgated by the Interstate Commission.

C. Immunizations: Compacting states shall give thirty (30) days from the date of enrollment, or within such time as is reasonably determined under the rules promulgated by the Interstate Commission, for students to obtain any immunization(s) required by the receiving state. For a series of immunizations, initial vaccinations must be obtained within thirty (30) days or within such time as is reasonably determined under the rules promulgated by the Interstate Commission.

D. Kindergarten and first grade entrance age: Students shall be allowed to continue their enrollment at the grade level in the receiving state commensurate with their grade level (including kindergarten) from a local education agency in the sending state at the time of transition, regardless of age. A student that has satisfactorily completed the prerequisite grade level in the local education agency in the sending state shall be eligible for enrollment in the next highest grade level in the receiving state, regardless of age. A student transferring after the start of the school year in the receiving state shall enter the school in the receiving state on their validated level from an accredited school in the sending state.

ARTICLE V.

Placement and Attendance

A. Course placement: When the student transfers before or during the school year, the receiving state shall initially honor placement of the student in educational courses based on the student's enrollment in the sending state school and/or educational assessments conducted at the school in the sending state if the courses are offered. Course placement includes but is not limited to Honors, International Baccalaureate, Advance Placement, vocational, technical, and career pathways courses. Continuing the student's academic program from the previous school and promoting placement in academically and career challenging courses should be paramount when considering placement. This does not preclude the school in the receiving state from performing subsequent evaluations to ensure appropriate placement and continued enrollment of the student in the course(s).

B. Educational program placement: The receiving state shall initially honor placement of the student in educational programs based on current educational assessments conducted at the school in the sending state or participation/placement in like programs in the sending state. Such programs include but are not limited to:

1. Gifted and talented programs; and
2. English as a second language (ESL).

This does not preclude the school in the receiving state from performing subsequent evaluations to ensure appropriate placement of the student.

C. Special education services:

1. In compliance with the federal requirements of the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA), 20 U.S.C.A. sec. 1400 et seq, the receiving state shall initially provide comparable services to a student with disabilities based on his or her current Individualized Education Program (IEP); and

2. In compliance with the requirements of Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act, 29 U.S.C.A. sec. 794, and with Title II of the Americans with Disabilities Act, 42 U.S.C.A. secs. 12131-12165, the receiving state shall make reasonable accommodations and modifications to address the needs of incoming students with disabilities, subject to an existing 504 or Title II Plan, to provide the student with equal access to education. This does not preclude the school in the receiving state from performing subsequent evaluations to ensure appropriate placement of the student.

D. Placement flexibility: Local education agency administrative officials shall have flexibility in waiving course or program prerequisites, or other preconditions for placement in courses or programs offered under the jurisdiction of the local education agency.

E. Absence as related to deployment activities: A student whose parent or legal guardian is an active member of the uniformed services, as defined by this compact, and has been called to active duty for, is on leave from, or immediately returned from deployment to a combat zone or combat support posting, shall be granted additional excused absences at the discretion of the local education agency superintendent to visit with his or her parent or legal guardian relative to such leave or deployment of the parent or guardian.

ARTICLE VI.

Eligibility

A. Eligibility for enrollment:

1. Special power of attorney, relative to the guardianship of a child of a military family and executed under applicable law shall be sufficient for the purposes of enrollment and all other actions requiring parental participation and consent;

2. A local education agency shall be prohibited from charging local tuition to a transitioning military child placed in the care of a non-custodial parent or other person standing in loco parentis who lives in the jurisdiction other than that of the custodial parent; and

3. A transitioning military child, placed in the care of a non-custodial parent or other person standing in loco parentis who lives in a jurisdiction other than that of the custodial parent, may continue to attend the school in which he or she was enrolled while residing with the custodial parent.

B. Eligibility for extracurricular participation: State and local education agencies shall facilitate the opportunity for transitioning military children's inclusion in extracurricular activities, regardless of application deadlines, to the extent they are otherwise qualified.

ARTICLE VII.

Graduation

In order to facilitate the on-time graduation of children of military families, state and local education agencies shall incorporate the following procedures:

A. Waiver requirements: Local education agency administrative officials shall waive specific courses required for graduation if similar course work has been satisfactorily completed in another local education agency or shall provide reasonable justification for denial. Should a waiver not be granted to a student who would qualify to graduate from the sending school, the local education agency shall provide alternative means of acquiring required coursework so that graduation may occur on time.

B. Exit exams - States shall accept:

1. Exit or end-of-course exams required for graduation from the sending state;

2. National norm-referenced achievement tests; or

3. Alternative testing, in lieu of testing requirements for graduation in the receiving state.

In the event the above alternatives cannot be accommodated by the receiving state for a student transferring in his or her senior year, then the provisions of Article VII, C shall apply.

C. Transfers during senior year: Should a military student transferring at the beginning or during his or her senior year be ineligible to graduate from the receiving local education agency after all alternatives have been considered, the sending and receiving local education agencies shall ensure the receipt of diploma from the sending local education agency if the student meets the graduation requirements of the sending local education agency. In the event that one of the states in question is not a member of this compact, the member state shall use best efforts to facilitate the on-time graduation of the student in accordance with sections A and B of this Article.

ARTICLE VIII.

State Coordination

A. Each member state shall, through the creation of a State Council or use of an existing body or board, provide for the coordination among its agencies of government, local education agencies, and military installations concerning the state's participation in, and compliance with, this compact and Interstate Commission activities. While each member state may determine the membership of its own State Council, its membership must include at least:

1. The state superintendent of education;

2. A superintendent of a school district with a high concentration of military children;

3. A representative from a military installation;

4. One legislative member each from the General Assembly's Senate and House of Representatives, to be chosen respectively by the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives. The respective leaders will then forward the names of their chosen members to the Governor. The members shall serve at the pleasure of the President and Speaker;

5. One representative from the executive branch of government; and

6. Other offices and stakeholder groups the State Council deems appropriate.

A member state that does not have a school district deemed to contain a high concentration of military children may appoint a superintendent from another school district to represent local education agencies on the State Council.

B. The State Council of each member state shall appoint or designate a military family education liaison to assist military families and the state in facilitating the implementation of this compact.

C. The compact commissioner responsible for the administration and management of the state's participation in the compact shall be appointed by the Governor or as otherwise determined by each member state.

D. The compact commissioner and the military family education liaison designated herein shall be ex-officio members of the State Council, unless either is already a voting member of the State Council.

ARTICLE IX.

Interstate Commission on Educational Opportunity for Military Children

The member states hereby create the "Interstate Commission on Educational Opportunity for Military Children." The activities of the Interstate Commission are the formation of public policy and are a discretionary state function. The Interstate Commission shall:

A. Be a body corporate and joint agency of the member states and shall have all the responsibilities, powers, and duties set forth herein, and such additional powers as may be conferred upon it by a subsequent concurrent action of the respective legislatures of the member states in accordance with the terms of this compact.

B. Consist of one Interstate Commission voting representative from each member state who shall be that state's compact commissioner.

1. Each member state represented at a meeting of the Interstate Commission is entitled to a vote.

2. A majority of the total member states shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, unless a larger quorum is required by the bylaws of the Interstate Commission.

3. A representative shall not delegate a vote to another member state. In the event the compact commissioner is unable to attend a meeting of the Interstate Commission, the Governor or State Council may delegate voting authority to another person from their state for a specified meeting.

4. The bylaws may provide for meetings of the Interstate Commission to be conducted by telecommunication or electronic communication.

C. Consist of ex-officio, non-voting representatives who are members of interested organizations. Such ex-officio members, as defined in the bylaws, may include but not be limited to members of the representative organizations of military family advocates, local education agency officials, parent and teacher groups, the U.S. Department of Defense, the Education Commission of the States, the Interstate Agreement on the Qualification of Educational Personnel, and other interstate compacts affecting the education of children of military members.

D. Meet at least once each calendar year. The chairperson may call additional meetings and, upon the request of a simple majority of the member states, shall call additional meetings.

E. Establish an executive committee, whose members shall include the officers of the Interstate Commission and such other members of the Interstate Commission as determined by the bylaws. Members of the executive committee shall serve a one (1) year term. Members of the executive committee shall be entitled to one (1) vote each. The executive committee shall have the power to act on behalf of the Interstate Commission, with the exception of rulemaking, during periods when the Interstate Commission is not in session. The executive committee shall oversee the day-to-day activities of the administration of the compact including enforcement and compliance with the provisions of the compact, its bylaws and rules, and other such duties as deemed necessary. The U.S. Department of Defense shall serve as an ex-officio, nonvoting member of the executive committee.

F. Establish bylaws and rules that provide for conditions and procedures under which the Interstate Commission shall make its information and official records available to the public for inspection or copying. The Interstate Commission may exempt from disclosure information or official records to the extent they would adversely affect personal privacy rights or proprietary interests.

G. Give public notice of all meetings and all meetings shall be open to the public, except as set forth in the rules or as otherwise provided in the compact. The Interstate Commission and its committees may close a meeting, or portion thereof, where it determines by two-thirds vote that an open meeting would be likely to:

1. Relate solely to the Interstate Commission's internal personnel practices and procedures;

2. Disclose matters specifically exempted from disclosure by federal and state statute;

3. Disclose trade secrets or commercial or financial information which is privileged or confidential;

4. Involve accusing a person of a crime, or formally censuring a person;

5. Disclose information of a personal nature where disclosure would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy;

6. Disclose investigative records compiled for law enforcement purposes; or

7. Specifically relate to the Interstate Commission's participation in a civil action or other legal proceeding.

H. Certify, for a meeting or portion of a meeting closed pursuant to this provision, by the Interstate Commission's legal counsel or designee, that the meeting may be closed and in so doing reference each relevant exemptible provision. The Interstate Commission shall keep minutes which shall fully and clearly describe all matters discussed in a meeting and shall provide a full and accurate summary of actions taken, and the reasons therefore, including a description of the views expressed and the record of a roll call vote. All documents considered in connection with an action shall be identified in such minutes. All minutes and documents of a closed meeting shall remain under seal, subject to release by a majority vote or the Interstate Commission.

I. Collect standardized data concerning the educational transition of the children of military families under this compact as directed through its rules which shall specify the data to be collected, the means of collection, and data exchange and reporting requirements. Such methods of data collection, exchange, and reporting shall, in so far as is reasonably possible, conform to current technology and coordinate its information functions with the appropriate custodian of records as identified in the bylaws and rules.

J. Create a process that permits military officials, education officials, and parents to inform the Interstate Commission if and when there are alleged violations of the compact or its rules or when issues subject to the jurisdiction of the compact or its rules are not addressed by the state or local education agency. This subsection shall not be construed to create a private right of action against the Interstate Commission or any member state.

ARTICLE X.

Powers and Duties of the Interstate Commission

The Interstate Commission shall have the following powers:

A. To provide for dispute resolution among member states;

B. To promulgate rules and take all necessary actions to effect the goals, purposes, and obligations as enumerated in this compact. The rules shall have the force and effect of statutory law and shall be binding in the compact states to the extent and in the manner provided in this compact;

C. To issue, upon request of a member state, advisory opinions concerning the meaning or interpretation of the interstate compact, its bylaws, rules, and actions;

D. To enforce compliance with the compact provisions, the rules promulgated by the Interstate Commission, and the bylaws, using all necessary and proper means, including but not limited to the use of judicial process;

E. To establish and maintain offices which shall be located within one or more of the member states;

F. To purchase and maintain insurance and bonds;

G. To borrow, accept, hire, or contract for services of personnel;

H. To establish and appoint committees including but not limited to an executive committee as required by Article IX, Section E, which shall have the power to act on behalf of the Interstate Commission in carrying out its powers and duties hereunder;

I. To elect or appoint such officers, attorneys, employees, agents, or consultants and to fix their compensation, define their duties and determine their qualifications to establish the Interstate Commission's personnel policies and programs relating to conflicts of interest, rates of compensation, and qualifications of personnel;

J. To accept any and all donations and grants of money, equipment, supplies, materials, and services, and to receive, utilize, and dispose of them;

K. To lease, purchase, accept contributions or donations of, or otherwise to own, hold, improve, or use any property, whether real, personal, or mixed;

L. To sell, convey, mortgage, pledge, lease, exchange, abandon, or otherwise dispose of any property, whether real, personal, or mixed;

M. To establish a budget and make expenditures;

N. To adopt a seal and bylaws governing the management and operation of the Interstate Commission;

O. To report annually to the legislatures, governors, judiciary, and state councils of the member states concerning the activities of the Interstate Commission during the preceding year. Such reports shall also include any recommendations that may have been adopted by the Interstate Commission;

P. To coordinate education, training and public awareness regarding the compact, its implementation, and operation for officials and parents involved in such activity;

Q. To establish uniform standards for the reporting, collecting, and exchanging of data;

R. To maintain corporate books and records in accordance with the bylaws;

S. To perform such functions as may be necessary or appropriate to achieve the purposes of this compact; and

T. To provide for the uniform collection and sharing of information between and among member states, schools, and military families under this compact.

ARTICLE XI.

Organization and Operation of the Interstate Commission

A. The Interstate Commission shall, by a majority of the members present and voting, within twelve (12) months after the first Interstate Commission meeting, adopt bylaws to govern its conduct as may be necessary or appropriate to carry out the purposes of the compact, including but not limited to:

1. Establishing the fiscal year of the Interstate Commission;

2. Establishing an executive committee and such other committees as may be necessary;

3. Providing for the establishment of committees and for governing any general or specific delegation of authority or function of the Interstate Commission;

4. Providing reasonable procedures for calling and conducting meetings of the Interstate Commission and ensuring reasonable notice of each such meeting;

5. Establishing the titles and responsibilities of the offices and staff of the Interstate Commission;

6. Providing a mechanism for concluding the operations of the Interstate Commission and the return of surplus funds that may exist upon the termination of the compact after the payment and reserving of all of its debts and obligations; and

7. Providing "start up" rules for initial administration of the compact.

B. The Interstate Commission shall, by a majority of the members, elect annually from among its members a chairperson, a vice-chairperson, and a treasurer, each of whom shall have such authority and duties as may be specified in the bylaws. The chairperson, or in the chairperson's absence or disability, the vice-chairperson, shall preside at all meetings of the Interstate Commission. The officers so elected shall serve without compensation or remuneration from the Interstate Commission; provided that, subject to the availability of budgeted funds, the officers shall be reimbursed for ordinary and necessary costs and expenses incurred by them in the performance of their responsibilities as officers of the Interstate Commission.

C. Executive Committee, Officers, and Personnel:

1. The executive committee shall have authority and duties as may be set forth in the bylaws, including but not limited to:

a. Managing the affairs of the Interstate Commission in a manner consistent with the bylaws and purposes of the Interstate Commission;

b. Overseeing an organizational structure within, and appropriate procedures for, the Interstate Commission to provide for the creation of rules, operating procedures, and administrative and technical support functions; and

c. Planning, implementing, and coordinating communications and activities with other state, federal, and local government organizations in order to advance the goals of the Interstate Commission.

2. The executive committee may, subject to the approval of the Interstate Commission, appoint or retain an executive director for such period, upon such terms and conditions, and for such compensation, as the Interstate Commission may deem appropriate. The executive director shall serve as secretary to the Interstate Commission, but shall not be a member of the Interstate Commission. The executive director shall hire and supervise such other persons as may be authorized by the Interstate Commission.

D. The Interstate Commission's executive director and its employees shall be immune from suit and liability, either personally or in their official capacity, for a claim for damage to or loss of property or personal injury or other civil liability caused or arising out of or relating to an actual or alleged act, error, or omission that occurred, or that such person had a reasonable basis for believing occurred, within the scope of Interstate Commission employment, duties, or responsibilities; provided, that such person shall not be protected from suit or liability for damage, loss, injury, or liability caused by the intentional or willful and wanton misconduct of such person.

1. The liability of the Interstate Commission's executive director and employees or Interstate Commission representatives, acting within the scope of such person's employment or duties for acts, errors, or omissions occurring within such person's state may not exceed the limits of liability set forth under the constitution and laws of that state for state officials, employees, and agents. The Interstate Commission is considered to be an instrumentality of the states for the purposes of any such action. Nothing in this subsection shall be construed to protect such person from suit or liability for damage, loss, injury, or liability caused by intentional or willful and wanton misconduct of such person.

2. The Interstate Commission shall defend the executive director and its employees and, subject to the approval of the Attorney General or other appropriate legal counsel of the member state represented by an Interstate Commission representative, shall defend such Interstate Commission representative in any civil action seeking to impose liability arising out of an actual or alleged act, error, or omission that occurred within the scope of Interstate Commission employment, duties, or responsibilities, or that the defendant had a reasonable basis for believing occurred within the scope of the Interstate Commission employment, duties, or responsibilities, provided that the actual or alleged act, error, or omission did not result from intentional or willful and wanton misconduct on the part of such persons.

3. To the extent not covered by the state involved, member state, or the Interstate Commission, the representatives or employees of the Interstate Commission shall be held harmless in the amount of a settlement or judgment, including attorney's fees and costs, obtained against such persons arising out of an actual or alleged act, error, or omission that occurred within the scope of Interstate Commission employment, duties, or responsibilities, or that such persons had a reasonable basis for believing occurred within the scope of Interstate Commission employment, duties, or responsibilities, provided that the actual or alleged act, error, or omission did not result from intentional or willful and wanton misconduct on the part of such persons.

ARTICLE XII.

Rulemaking Functions of the Interstate Commission

A. Rulemaking Authority: The Interstate Commission shall promulgate reasonable rules in order to effectively and efficiently achieve the purposes of this compact. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event the Interstate Commission exercises its rulemaking authority in a manner that is beyond the scope of the purposes of this Act, or the powers granted hereunder, then such an action by the Interstate Commission shall be invalid and have no force or effect.

B. Rulemaking Procedure: Rules shall be made pursuant to a rulemaking process that substantially conforms to the "Model State Administrative Procedure Act," of 1981, Uniform Laws Annotated, Vol. 15, p.1 (2000) as amended, as may be appropriate to the operations of the Interstate Commission.

C. Not later than thirty (30) days after a rule is promulgated, any person may file a petition for judicial review of the rule; provided, that the filing of such a petition shall not stay or otherwise prevent the rule from becoming effective unless the court finds that the petitioner has a substantial likelihood of success. The court shall give deference to the actions of the Interstate Commission consistent with applicable law and shall not find the rule to be unlawful if the rule represents a reasonable exercise of the Interstate Commission's authority.

D. If a majority of the legislatures of the compacting states rejects a Rule by enactment of a statute or resolution in the same manner used to adopt the compact, then such rule shall have no further force and effect in any compacting state.

ARTICLE XIII.

Oversight, Enforcement, and Dispute Resolution

A. Oversight:

1. The executive, legislative, and judicial branches of state government in each member state shall enforce this compact and shall take all actions necessary and appropriate to effectuate the compact's purposes and intent. The provisions of this compact and the rules promulgated hereunder shall have standing as statutory law.

2. All courts shall take judicial notice of the compact and the rules in any judicial or administrative proceeding in a member state pertaining to the subject matter of this compact which may effect the powers, responsibilities, or actions of the Interstate Commission.

3. The Interstate Commission shall be entitled to receive all service of process in any such proceeding, and shall have standing to intervene in the proceeding for all purposes. Failure to provide service of process to the Interstate Commission shall render a judgment or order void as to the Interstate Commission, this compact, or promulgated rules.

B. Default, Technical Assistance, Suspension, and Termination - If the Interstate Commission determines that a member state has defaulted in the performance of its obligations or responsibilities under this compact, the bylaws, or promulgated rules, the Interstate Commission shall:

1. Provide written notice to the defaulting state and other member states of the nature of default, the means of curing the default, and any action taken by the Interstate Commission. The Interstate Commission shall specify the conditions by which the defaulting state must cure its default; and

2. Provide remedial training and specific technical assistance regarding the default.

3. If the defaulting state fails to cure the default, the defaulting state shall be terminated from the compact upon an affirmative vote of a majority of the member states and all rights, privileges, and benefits conferred by this compact shall be terminated from the effective date of termination. A cure of the default does not relieve the offending state of obligations or liabilities incurred during the period of default.

4. Suspension or termination of membership in the compact shall be imposed only after all other means of securing compliance have been exhausted. Notice of intent to suspend or terminate shall be given by the Interstate Commission to the Governor, the majority and minority leaders of the defaulting state's legislature, and each of the member states.

5. The state which has been suspended or terminated is responsible for all assessments, obligations, and liabilities incurred through the effective date of suspension or termination, including obligations the performance of which extends beyond the effective date of suspension or termination.

6. The Interstate Commission shall not bear any costs relating to any state that has been found to be in default or which has been suspended or terminated from the compact unless otherwise mutually agreed upon in writing between the Interstate Commission and the defaulting state.

7. The defaulting state may appeal the action of the Interstate Commission by petitioning the U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia or the federal district where the Interstate Commission has its principal offices. The prevailing party shall be awarded all costs of such litigation, including reasonable attorney's fees.

C. Dispute Resolution:

1. The Interstate Commission shall attempt, upon the request of a member state, to resolve disputes which are subject to the compact and which may arise among member states and between member and non-member states.

2. The Interstate Commission shall promulgate a rule providing for both mediation and binding dispute resolution for disputes as appropriate.

D. Enforcement:

1. The Interstate Commission, in the reasonable exercise of its discretion, shall enforce the provisions and rules of this compact.

2. The Interstate Commission may by majority vote of the members initiate legal action in the United States District Court for the District of Columbia or, at the discretion of the Interstate Commission, in the federal district where the Interstate Commission has its principal offices, to enforce compliance with the provisions of the compact, its promulgated rules, and bylaws against a member state in default. The relief sought may include both injunctive relief and damages. In the event judicial enforcement is necessary the prevailing party shall be awarded all costs of such litigation, including reasonable attorney's fees.

3. The remedies herein shall not be the exclusive remedies of the Interstate Commission. The Interstate Commission may avail itself of any other remedies available under state law or the regulation of a profession.

ARTICLE XIV.

Financing of the Interstate Commission

A. The Interstate Commission shall pay, or provide for the payment of, the reasonable expenses of its establishment, organization, and ongoing activities.

B. The Interstate Commission may levy on and collect an annual assessment from each member state to cover the cost of the operations and activities of the Interstate Commission and its staff, which must be in a total amount sufficient to cover the Interstate Commission's annual budget as approved each year. The aggregate annual assessment amount shall be allocated based upon a formula to be determined by the Interstate Commission, which shall promulgate a rule binding upon all member states.

C. The Interstate Commission shall not incur obligations of any kind prior to securing the funds adequate to meet the same; nor shall the Interstate Commission pledge the credit of any of the member states except by and with the authority of the member state.

D. The Interstate Commission shall keep accurate accounts of all receipts and disbursements. The receipts and disbursements of the Interstate Commission shall be subject to the audit and accounting procedures established under its bylaws. However, all receipts and disbursements of funds handled by the Interstate Commission shall be audited yearly by a certified or licensed public accountant and the report of the audit shall be included in and become part of the annual report of the Interstate Commission.

ARTICLE XV.

Member States, Effective Date, and Amendment

A. Any state is eligible to become a member state.

B. The compact shall become effective and binding upon legislative enactment of the compact into law by no less than ten (10) of the states. The effective date shall be no earlier than December 1, 2007. Thereafter it shall become effective and binding as to any other member state upon enactment of the compact into law by that state. The governors of non-member states or their designees shall be invited to participate in the activities of the Interstate Commission on a non-voting basis prior to adoption of the compact by all states.

C. The Interstate Commission may propose amendments to the compact for enactment by the member states. No amendment shall become effective and binding upon the Interstate Commission and the member states unless and until it is enacted into law by unanimous consent of the member states.

ARTICLE XVI.

Withdrawal and Dissolution

A. Withdrawal:

1. Once effective, the compact shall continue in force and remain binding upon each and every member state, provided that a member state may withdraw from the compact by specifically repealing the statute which enacted the compact into law.

2. Withdrawal from this compact shall be by the enactment of a statute repealing the same, but shall not take effect until one (1) year after the effective date of such statute and until written notice of the withdrawal has been given by the withdrawing state to the Governor of each other member state jurisdiction.

3. The withdrawing state shall immediately notify the chairperson of the Interstate Commission in writing upon the introduction of legislation repealing this compact in the withdrawing state. The Interstate Commission shall notify the other member states of the withdrawing state's intent to withdraw within sixty (60) days of its receipt thereof.

4. The withdrawing state is responsible for all assessments, obligations, and liabilities incurred through the effective date of withdrawal, including obligations the performance of which extends beyond the effective date of withdrawal.

5. Reinstatement following withdrawal of a member state shall occur upon the withdrawing state reenacting the compact or upon such later date as determined by the Interstate Commission.

B. Dissolution of Compact:

1. This compact shall dissolve effective upon the date of the withdrawal or default of the member state which reduces the membership in the compact to one (1) member state.

2. Upon the dissolution of this compact, the compact becomes null and void and shall be of no further force or effect, and the business and affairs of the Interstate Commission shall be concluded and surplus funds shall be distributed in accordance with the bylaws.

ARTICLE XVII.

Severability and Construction

A. The provisions of this compact shall be severable, and if any phrase, clause, sentence, or provision is deemed unenforceable, the remaining provisions of the compact shall be enforceable.

B. The provisions of this compact shall be liberally construed to effectuate its purposes.

C. Nothing in this compact shall be construed to prohibit the applicability of other interstate compacts to which the states are members.

ARTICLE XVIII.

Binding Effect of Compact and Other Laws

A. Other Laws:

1. Nothing herein prevents the enforcement of any other law of a member state that is not inconsistent with this compact.

2. All member states' laws conflicting with this compact are superseded to the extent of the conflict.

B. Binding Effect of the Compact:

1. All lawful actions of the Interstate Commission, including all rules and bylaws promulgated by the Interstate Commission, are binding upon the member states.

2. All agreements between the Interstate Commission and the member states are binding in accordance with their terms.

3. In the event any provision of this compact exceeds the constitutional limits imposed on the legislature of any member state, such provision shall be ineffective to the extent of the conflict with the constitutional provision in question in that member state.

CAREER AND TECHNICAL EDUCATION

156.800. Definitions for KRS 156.800 to 156.860.

As used in KRS 156.800 to 156.860, unless the context indicates otherwise:

(1) "Appointing authority" means the commissioner of education or any person authorized by the commissioner to act on behalf of the Office of Career and Technical Education with respect to employee appointments, position establishments, payroll documents, reemployment lists, waiver requests, or other position actions. The designation shall be in writing and signed by both the commissioner and the designee;

(2) "Base salary" means the compensation to which an employee is entitled under the salary schedule adopted pursuant to the provisions of KRS 156.808(3)(h);

(3) "Board" means the Kentucky Technical Education Personnel Board established in KRS 156.840;

(4) "Certified employees" means those employees who fill school or educational assignments requiring the issuance of a certificate. These employees in the Office of Career and Technical Education are subject to personnel administration under KRS 156.800 to 156.860;

(5) "Class" means a group of positions sufficiently similar as to the duties performed, scope of discretion and responsibility, minimum requirements of training, and other characteristics that the same title and the same schedule of compensation have been or may be applied to each position in the group;

(6) "Classified" means status as merit system employees under the provisions of KRS Chapter 18A;

(7) "Continuing status" means the acquisition of tenure with all rights and privileges granted by the provisions of KRS 156.800 to 156.860 which must be preceded by four (4) years of successful employment;

(8) "Demotion" means a change in an employee's position to another class having less discretion or responsibility;

(9) "Emergency appointment" means employment for a maximum period of sixty (60) days without regard to the certification process for any position in the Office of Career and Technical Education requiring certification or its equivalent;

(10) "Employee" means a person regularly employed in a position in the Office of Career and Technical Education for which compensation is on a full-time or part-time basis;

(11) "Equivalent employees" means those employees with educational backgrounds similar to certified personnel in the administration and conduct of educationally related services. These employees in the Office of Career and Technical Education shall be subject to personnel administration under KRS 156.800 to 156.860;

(12) "Hearing officer" means a member of the board, a person hired for this purpose by personal service contract, or an assistant attorney general;

(13) "Index" means the percentage add-on in a salary structure which compensates for the scope of discretion and responsibility of the position;

(14) "Initial probation" means the one (1) year period following initial appointment of certified and equivalent employees under KRS 156.826 which requires special observation and evaluation of a person's work and which must be passed successfully before eligibility for renewal of limited status;

(15) "Limited status" means employment that is renewable on an annual basis;

(16) "Penalization" means actions including demotion, dismissal, suspension, involuntary transfer, reduction in rank or pay, or the abridgement or denial of rights granted to state employees or other disciplinary actions;

(17) "Position" means employment involving duties requiring the services of one (1) person;

(18) "Promotion" means changing an employee from a position in one (1) class to a position in another class carrying a greater scope of discretion and responsibility;

(19) "Promotional probation" means the twelve (12) month period of service following the promotion of an employee with continuing status which must be successfully completed in order for the employee to remain in the position;

(20) "Reemployment" means the rehiring of an employee with continuing status who has been laid-off;

(21) "Reemployment list" means the separate list of names of persons who have been separated from certified or equivalent positions in the Office of Career and Technical Education by reason of lay-off. Reemployment lists shall be used as provided by the provisions of KRS 156.830;

(22) "Reinstatement" means the restoration of a certified or equivalent employee who has resigned in good standing or who has been ordered reinstated by the board or a court to a position in the former class or to a position of like status and pay;

(23) "Seasonal employees" means employees employed in a seasonal position. Seasonal position means a position that is temporary, and which coincides with a particular season or seasons of the year;

(24) “Temporary employee” means an employee appointed to a temporary position. Temporary position means a position that is created for a definite period of time;

(25) “Transfer” means a movement of any certified or equivalent employee from one (1) position to another having the same salary range and the same level of responsibility; and

(26) “Unclassified employee” means any temporary or seasonal employee and any employee in a policymaking position who shall be exempt from the state service under KRS Chapter 18A and who is employed in the Office of Career and Technical Education under KRS 156.800 to 156.860.

156.802. Office of Career and Technical Education — Kentucky Board of Education.

(1) The Office of Career and Technical Education is hereby created within the Department of Education. The office shall consist of those administrative bodies and employees provided by or appointed by the commissioner of education pursuant to KRS 156.010.

(2) The commissioner of education may appoint an assistant, pursuant to KRS 156.010, and delegate authority to the assistant regarding the Office of Career and Technical Education.

(3) The Department of Education shall have the responsibility for all administrative functions of the state in relation to the management, control, and operation of state-operated secondary area vocational education and technology centers. When appropriate, the Department of Education shall provide education training programs through contracts with private business and industries. These programs may be on a shared cost basis or on a total cost recovery basis.

(4) The commissioner of education shall have the authority to enter into agreements or contracts with other government or education agencies, including local school districts, in order to carry out services under the office’s jurisdiction.

(5)(a) Secondary area vocational education and technology centers shall be operated in compliance with program standards established by the Kentucky Board of Education. Principals, counselors, and teaching staff shall meet the qualifications and certification standards for all secondary vocational personnel as established by the Education Professional Standards Board.

(b) The Kentucky Board of Education shall be the eligible agency solely designated for the purpose of developing and approving state plans required by state or federal laws and regulations as prerequisites to receiving federal funds for vocational-technical or technology education. The Kentucky Board of Education shall involve representatives from all eligible recipient categories in the development of the required plans.

(c) In accordance with 20 U.S.C. sec. 2302(12), the Kentucky Board of Education is hereby designated to be the “eligible agency” that is the sole state agency responsible for the administration of vocational and technical education and the supervision of the administration of vocational and technical education.

(6)(a) Except for the duties that the Kentucky Board of Education must retain pursuant to 20 U.S.C. sec. 2341, the Kentucky Board of Education shall be authorized to delegate all of the other duties and responsibilities of the eligible agency to the Office of Career and Technical Education within the Department of Education, including but not limited to the administration, operation, and supervision of the Perkins program and the authority to receive, hold, and disburse funds awarded under the state plan.

(b) The Kentucky Board of Education shall delegate to the Kentucky Workforce Investment Board the state leadership activities referred to in 20 U.S.C. sec. 2344 to be conducted in accordance with the required and permissible uses of funds specified in the Carl D. Perkins Career and Technical Education Act of 2006 and subsequent amendments thereto. The maximum amount of funds allowed by 20 U.S.C. sec. 2322(a)(2) shall be reserved and made available for state leadership activities.

(7) The commissioner of education shall be permitted to enter into memorandums of agreement with individuals on a year-to-year basis to fill positions in hard-to-find teaching specialties. The agreements and compensation for hard-to-find teaching specialties shall be approved by the commissioner of education and shall not be subject to the provisions of KRS Chapter 45A. All agreements shall be filed with the secretary of the Finance and Administration Cabinet.

(8) The commissioner of education shall, from time to time, prepare or cause to be prepared any bulletins, programs, outlines of courses, placards, and courses of study deemed useful in the promotion of the interests of technical and vocational education.

156.806. Career and Technical Education Advisory Committee — Purpose — Members.

(1) The commissioner of education shall establish and appoint members to a Career and Technical Education Advisory Committee to advise the Department of Education on the development of a robust and effective career and technical education program.

(2) The committee shall include representatives of business, industry, and the Kentucky Community and Technical College System; the commissioner of the Department of Workforce Development; and any other individuals deemed appropriate by the commissioner of education.

History.

Enact. Acts 2013, ch. 59, § 2, effective June 25, 2013; 2022 ch. 236, § 64, effective July 1, 2022.

156.808. Personnel of Office of Career and Technical Education — Administrative regulations — Appeals to Kentucky Technical Education Personnel Board.

(1) The Kentucky Board of Education shall promulgate, by administrative regulations, personnel policies and procedures for all full-time and part-time unclassified employees, certified and equivalent staff, including administrative, teaching, and supervisory staff in the Office of Career and Technical Education central office and state-operated vocational facilities. All other staff shall remain under the authority of the Kentucky Personnel Cabinet and KRS Chapter 18A. Employees who transfer to or from the KRS Chapter 18A personnel system shall transfer accrued annual, compensatory, and sick leave.

(2) As provided in KRS 156.800 to 156.860, the Kentucky Board of Education shall promulgate administrative regulations for the administration of a personnel system in the Office of Career and Technical Education which are consistent with the provisions of KRS 156.800 to 156.860 and with federal standards for state government agencies receiving federal grants.

(3) The Kentucky Board of Education shall promulgate administrative regulations for full-time and part-time certified and equivalent staff governing:

- (a) Establishment and abolishment of positions, including a prohibition against eliminating funding for or abolishment of a teaching position at a state-operated secondary area vocational education and technology center during a school year in which students are enrolled in the program;
- (b) Applications;
- (c) Classification and compensation plans;
- (d) Incentive programs;
- (e) Selection of employees;
- (f) Types of appointments;
- (g) Attendance, including hours of work, compensatory time, and annual, court, military, sick, voting, and special leaves of absence;
- (h) Preparation, maintenance, and revision of a position classification plan and an equitable salary schedule for certified and equivalent staff based on qualifications, experience, and responsibilities;
- (i) Extent and duration of the state-operated area vocational education and technology centers' school term, use of school days, and extended employment;
- (j) Employee evaluations;
- (k) Programs to improve the work effectiveness of employees including staff development;

- (l) Demotion;
- (m) Dismissal;
- (n) Lay-offs;
- (o) Suspensions and other disciplinary measures;
- (p) Probationary periods, limited employment status, and continuing employment status;
- (q) Promotion;
- (r) Transfer;
- (s) Appeals; and
- (t) Employee grievances and complaints.

(4)(a) Administrative regulations promulgated by the Kentucky Board of Education shall comply with the provisions of KRS 156.800 to 156.860 and KRS Chapter 13A and shall have the force and effect of law.

(b) Administrative regulations promulgated by the Kentucky Board of Education shall not expand or restrict rights granted to, or duties imposed upon, employees and administrative bodies by the provisions of KRS 156.800 to 156.860.

(c) No administrative body other than the Kentucky Board of Education shall promulgate administrative regulations governing the subject matters specified in this section.

(d) Policies and procedures for the implementation of administrative regulations shall be developed by the Department of Education.

(5) The commissioner of education shall be the appointing authority with respect to all personnel actions for the Office of Career and Technical Education. The commissioner may authorize a designee to act on behalf of the agency with respect to employee appointments, position establishments, payroll documents, reemployment lists, waiver requests, or other position actions. Any personnel designation shall be in writing. Authority to employ personnel may be delegated to the vocational school management by the commissioner. Any recommendation for employment from the local level shall be based on guidelines promulgated by the commissioner of education and shall be contingent upon confirmation by the commissioner of education.

(6) The Kentucky Board of Education shall promulgate other administrative regulations to govern proceedings which relate to certified and equivalent employees and which shall provide for:

- (a) The procedures to be utilized by the Kentucky Technical Education Personnel Board in the conduct of hearings, consistent with KRS Chapter 13B;
- (b) Discharge, as provided by this section;
- (c) Imposition, as a disciplinary measure, of a suspension from service without pay for up to thirty (30) working days and, in accordance with the provisions of KRS 156.820, for the manner of notification of the employee of the discipline and right of appeal;
- (d) Promotions which shall give appropriate consideration to the applicant's qualifications, record of performance, and conduct;

(e) Supplementary information for the salary schedule for certified and equivalent staff including teachers, counselors, administrators, managers, and educational consultants in state-operated vocational technical facilities, field offices, and central office in the Office of Career and Technical Education that shall provide uniformity, recognition of education, teaching, and supervisory experience and use as a base the average salary paid to beginning classroom teachers by all public schools in the state for personnel with comparable qualifications and experience. Indexes may be incorporated in the compensation plan for administrative responsibilities. The salary schedule shall be computed annually, and shall be submitted to and approved by the Governor;

(f) Reemployment of laid-off employees in accordance with the provisions of KRS 156.800 to 156.860;

(g) Establishment of a plan for resolving employee grievances and complaints. The plan shall not restrict rights granted employees by the provisions of KRS 156.800 to 156.860; and

(h) Any other administrative regulations not inconsistent with this chapter and KRS Chapter 13A proper and necessary for its enforcement.

(7) The Department of Education shall make investigations, either on petition of a citizen, taxpayer, interested party, or as deemed necessary by the commissioner, concerning the enforcement and effect of KRS 156.808, 156.810, 156.812, 156.814, 156.816, 156.818, 156.820, 156.822, 156.824, 156.826, 156.828, 156.830, 156.832, 156.834, 156.836, and 156.838, shall require observance of the provisions and the administrative regulations promulgated pursuant to the provisions of KRS 156.800 to 156.860 and KRS Chapter 13A, and shall make investigation as requested by the General Assembly or the Governor and to report thereon.

(8) The Kentucky Board of Education shall promulgate administrative regulations, pursuant to KRS Chapter 13A, for an appeal system for aggrieved certified or equivalent employees.

(9) The Kentucky Technical Education Personnel Board shall hear appeals from applicants for positions or from certified, equivalent, and unclassified employees who have been dismissed, demoted, suspended, or otherwise penalized for cause. Effective August 15, 2000, appeals from assistants and secretaries in the Office of Career and Technical Education attached to policymaking positions shall be governed by KRS 18A.095. The State Personnel Board, established in KRS 18A.045, shall hear appeals that are pending as of August 15, 2000, from assistants and secretaries attached to policymaking positions in the Office of Career and Technical Education.

(10) The Kentucky Technical Education Personnel Board may, any statute to the contrary notwithstanding, delegate the conduct of the hearing and the rendition of a recommended order to the full board, to a panel of the board, or to a hearing officer, relative to any hearing appeal, or decision, judicial or quasi-judicial in nature, which the board is empowered or directed, by KRS 156.800 to 156.860 or any other chapter, to conduct, hear, or make; provided, however, that the full board as provided by statute, makes the final order, based upon the evidence submitted.

(11) The Kentucky Board of Education shall promulgate administrative regulations, pursuant to KRS Chapter 13A, governing the unclassified service including the preparation and maintenance of a salary schedule and other administrative regulations authorized by KRS 156.800 to 156.860.

(12) The annual percentage salary increment for all certified and equivalent employees subject to the personnel system established under KRS 156.800 to 156.860 shall be at least equal to that funded and provided for other elementary and secondary teachers.

(13) The positions of employees who are transferred, effective July 1, 1998, from the former Cabinet for Workforce Development to the Kentucky Community and Technical College System shall be abolished and the employees' names removed from the roster of state employees. Employees who are transferred, effective July 1, 1998, to the Kentucky Community and Technical College System under KRS Chapter 164 shall have the same benefits and rights as they had under KRS Chapter 18A and have under KRS 164.5805; however, they shall have no guaranteed reemployment rights in KRS 156.800 to 156.860 or KRS Chapter 18A personnel systems. An employee who seeks reemployment in a state position under KRS 156.800 to 156.860 or KRS Chapter 18A shall have years of service in the Kentucky Community and Technical College System counted toward years of experience for calculating benefits and compensation.

156.814. Personnel files.

(1) The records of the Office of Career and Technical Education shall be public records and shall be open to public inspection, as provided in KRS 61.870 to 61.884.

(2)(a) A personnel file shall be maintained by the Department of Education for each employee. The files maintained by the Department of Education shall be the official personnel file for the employees.

(b) Each file shall include but not be limited to the employee's name, address, title of positions held, classifications, rates of compensation, and all changes in status, including evaluations, promotions, demotions, lay-offs, transfers, disciplinary actions, commendations, and awards. Each file shall contain the complete record and supporting documentation for each personnel action.

(c) When an employee is reprimanded for misconduct, other infraction, or failure to perform duties in a proper or adequate manner, the supervising employee taking the action shall document the action in detail, and shall provide the employee with a copy of the documentation. The supervising employee shall inform the employee of his or her right to prepare a written response to the action taken after the employee has reviewed the written documentation prepared by the supervising employee. The employee's response shall be attached to the documentation prepared by the supervising employee. The supervising employee shall place a copy of the documentation and response in the employee's personnel file and shall transmit a copy to be placed in the central office personnel file of the employee. The supervising employee shall notify the employee that copies of the documentation and the response provided for in this subsection have been placed in the employee's personnel files.

(3) Upon written request, an employee shall have the right to examine his or her personnel file. An employee may comment in writing on any item in the file. The comments shall be made a part of the file and shall be attached to the specific record or document to which they pertain.

(4) No public agency, as defined by KRS 61.870, and no officer or employee shall deny, abridge, or impede the exercise of the rights granted in any manner by this section and by KRS 61.878.

156.816. Grounds for refusal to consider or to disqualify an applicant for, or to remove a person from, a certified or equivalent position.

Except as provided by the provisions of KRS 156.800 to 156.860, the appointing authority or designee for the Office of Career and Technical Education may refuse to consider an applicant for a certified or equivalent position or, after consideration, may disqualify the applicant or may remove an employee already appointed if:

(1) It is found that the person did not maintain certification or that certification has been revoked for the position;

(2) The person is unable to perform the duties of the position;

(3) The person made a false statement of material fact in the application;

(4) The application was not submitted correctly or within the prescribed time limits;

(5) The person has been convicted of a felony within the preceding five (5) years and has not had civil rights restored or has not been pardoned by the Governor;

(6) The person has been convicted of a job related misdemeanor, except that convictions for violations of traffic regulations shall not constitute grounds for disqualification;

(7) The person has previously been dismissed from a position in his department for cause or has resigned while charges for dismissal for cause of which the person had knowledge were pending; or

(8) The person has otherwise violated the provisions of KRS 156.800 to 156.860.

156.820. Employees with continuing status — Appeals.

(1) All certified and equivalent employees who previously held merit status under KRS Chapter 18A shall become continuing status employees in the Office of Career and Technical Education.

(2) Prior to dismissal, an employee with continuing status shall be notified in writing of the intent to dismiss. The notice shall also state:

- (a) The specific reasons for dismissal including:
 1. The statutory or regulatory violation;
 2. The specific action or activity on which the intent to dismiss is based;
 3. The date, time, and place of the action or activity; and
 4. The name of the parties involved; and

(b) That the employee has the right to appear personally, or with counsel if counsel has been retained, to reply to the appointing authority or a designee.

(3) The Office of Career and Technical Education shall prescribe and distribute a form to be completed and forwarded by an employee who wishes to appear before the appointing authority or a designee. The form shall be attached to every notice of intent to dismiss, and shall contain written instructions explaining:

(a) The right granted an employee under the provisions of this section relating to pretermination hearings; and

(b) The time limits and procedures to be followed by all parties in pretermination hearings.

(4) No later than five (5) working days after receipt of the notice of intent to dismiss, excluding the day of receipt of notice, the employee may request to appear, personally or with counsel if counsel is retained, to reply to the appointing authority or a designee.

(5) The appearance shall be held six (6) working days after receipt of an employee's request to appear before the appointing authority or a designee, excluding the day the employee's request is received, unless the employee and the appointing authority or a designee agree to a later date.

(6) No later than five (5) working days after the employee appears before the appointing authority or a designee, excluding the day of the appearance, the appointing authority or a designee shall:

- (a) Determine whether to dismiss the employee or to alter, modify, or rescind the intent to dismiss; and
- (b) Notify the employee in writing of the decision.

(7) If the appointing authority or a designee determines that the employee shall be dismissed, the employee shall be notified in writing of:

- (a) The effective date of dismissal or other penalization;
- (b) The specific reason for the action, including:
 1. The statutory or regulatory violation;
 2. The specific action or activity on which the dismissal is based;
 3. The date, time, and place of the action or activities; and
 4. The names of the parties involved; and

(c) That the employee may appeal the dismissal to the Kentucky Technical Education Personnel Board within thirty (30) days after receipt of this notification, excluding the day the notice is received.

(8) A certified or equivalent employee with continuing status who is demoted or suspended shall be notified in writing of:

- (a) The demotion or suspension;
- (b) The effective date of the demotion or suspension;
- (c) The specific reason for the action including:
 1. The statutory or regulatory violation;
 2. The specific action or activity on which the demotion or suspension is based;
 3. The date, time, and place of the action or activity; and
 4. The name of the parties involved; and

(d) That the employee has the right to appeal to the Kentucky Technical Education Personnel Board within thirty (30) days, excluding the day of receipt of notification.

(9) Any employee or applicant for employment may appeal to the board on the grounds that the right to inspect or copy records, including preliminary and other supporting documentation, relating to the employee has been denied, abridged, or impeded. The board shall conduct a hearing to determine if the records related to the employee or applicant, and if the right to inspect or copy was denied, abridged, or impeded. If the board determines that the records related to the employee and that the right to inspect or copy the records has been denied, abridged, or impeded, the board shall order that the records be made available for inspection and copying.

(10) Any certified, equivalent, or unclassified employee may appeal an action alleged to be based on discrimination due to race, color, religion, national origin, sex, disability, or age to the board. Nothing in this section shall be construed to preclude any employee from filing with the Kentucky Commission on Human Rights a complaint alleging discrimination on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, disability, or age in accordance with KRS Chapter 344.

(11)(a) Appeals to the Kentucky Technical Education Personnel Board shall be in writing on an appeal form prescribed by the Office of Career and Technical Education. Appeal forms shall be available at the employee's place of work. The Office of Career and Technical Education shall be responsible for the distribution of the forms.

(b) The appeal form shall be attached to any notice, or copy of the notice, of dismissal, demotion, suspension, involuntary transfer, or other penalization, or notice of any other action an employee may appeal under the provisions of this section.

(c) Upon receipt of the appeal by the board, the appointing authority or a designee shall be notified, and the board shall schedule a hearing that shall be conducted in accordance with KRS Chapter 13B.

(12)(a) Except as provided in this section, an appeal shall be decided by the board only after a hearing. The board shall not deny, reject, or sustain an appeal, or make any other determination relating to an appeal, except after a hearing is conducted pursuant to the provisions of this section and KRS Chapter 13B.

(b) The board may deny a hearing to an employee who has failed to file an appeal over which the board has jurisdiction or within the time prescribed by this section and to an unclassified employee who has failed to state the cause for dismissal. The board shall notify the employee of its denial in writing and shall inform the employee of his or her right to appeal the denial under the provisions of KRS 156.822.

(c) Any investigation by the board of any matter related to an appeal filed by an employee shall be conducted only upon notice to the employee, the employee's counsel, and the appointing authority. All parties to the appeal shall have access to information produced by the investigations and the information shall be presented at the hearing. Any party to the hearing shall be permitted an adequate opportunity to rebut or comment upon the information.

(13) Each appeal shall be decided individually, unless otherwise agreed by the parties and the board. The board shall not:

- (a) Employ class action procedures; or
- (b) Conduct test representative cases.

(14) Board members shall abstain from public comment about a pending or impending proceeding before the board. This shall not prohibit board members from making public statements in the course of their official duties or from explaining for public information the procedures of the board.

(15)(a) If the board finds that the action complained of was taken by the appointing authority or designee in violation of laws prohibiting favor for, or discrimination against, or bias with respect to political or religious opinions or affiliations or ethnic origin, or in violation of laws prohibiting discrimination because of the individual's sex, age, or disability, the appointing authority or designee shall immediately reinstate the employee to his or her former position or a position of like status and pay, without loss of pay for the period of penalization, or otherwise make the employee whole;

(b) If the board finds that the action complained of was taken without just cause, the board shall order the immediate reinstatement of the employee to his or her former position or a position of like status and pay, without loss of pay for the period of penalization, or otherwise make the employee whole;

(c) If the board finds that the action taken by the appointing authority was excessive or erroneous in view of all the surrounding circumstances, the board shall alter, modify, or rescind the disciplinary action; and

(d) In all other cases, the board shall rescind the action taken or grant other relief to which the employee is entitled.

(16) If a final order of the board is appealed, a court shall award reasonable attorney's fees to an employee who prevails by a final adjudication on the merits as provided by KRS 453.260. The award shall not include attorney's fees attributable to the hearing before the board.

156.822. Appeal from final order of board.

(1) Any final order of the board either upholding or invalidating the dismissal, demotion, suspension, or other penalization of a certified, equivalent, or unclassified employee may be appealed either by the employee or by the appointing authority.

(2) The party aggrieved may appeal the final order by filing a petition with the clerk of the Franklin Circuit Court in accordance with KRS Chapter 13B.

(3) If the appeal is from an order upholding the dismissal, demotion, suspension, or other penalization, the burden of appearing and defending the action of the board shall be upon the appointing authority. If the appeal is from an order refusing to uphold the dismissal, demotion, suspension, or other penalization, the burden of appearing and defending the action of the board shall be upon the employee.

156.824. Payment of reinstated employee.

(1)(a) When a certified, equivalent, or unclassified employee has been finally ordered reinstated without loss of pay, pursuant to the provisions of KRS 156.822, the board shall forward a certified copy of the order to the Department of Education. The department shall process proper payment to the employee for the period of suspension, the payment to be made out of the agency's appropriations. If no funds or insufficient funds are available in the agency's appropriations, then payment shall be made out of the judgments section of the general fund of the biennial state budget.

(b) Gross moneys which are earned by the employee from other sources during the period of suspension shall set off against the gross sum due the employee, to the extent that the moneys were earned in a number of hours comparable to the length of time the employee would have worked in the previous job where dismissal occurred. The commissioner of education shall by regulation provide an administrative procedure for determining reasonable earnings to be set off.

(c) All other deductions shall be deducted as required by law or by other state regulation.

(2)(a) Both the employee's and employer's contributions to the Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System or the Kentucky Employees Retirement System shall be based upon the gross amount due the employee, before set-off or deduction, except for set-off caused by earnings on which employee and employer contributions to the Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System or the Kentucky Employees Retirement System have been paid.

(b) Member and employer contributions paid into the system in which the employee participated after dismissal shall be transferred to the system in which the employee participated prior to illegal dismissal. In the event of a difference in member or employer contribution rates between the retirement system under which the member was covered prior to dismissal and the retirement system of participation before reinstatement by the board, the member and employer shall pay or receive a refund in order to adjust their respective contribution to the appropriate rate for the system under which the employee would have participated if dismissal had not occurred.

156.826. Employment status.

(1) All certified and equivalent employees shall serve a one (1) year probationary period for renewal of limited status. An employee may be separated from the position or reduced in class during this initial probationary period and shall not have a right to appeal except as provided in KRS 156.820. If the employee is separated from the position, notice in writing shall be received at least ten (10) working days prior to separation. A copy of the notification shall be forwarded to the commissioner. Unless the commissioner notifies the employee of separation prior to the end of the initial probationary period, the employee shall be eligible for renewable limited status. Limited status employees are subject to reemployment on an annual basis. Limited status employees may be dismissed without cause before the annual anniversary date.

(2) After completion of the initial probationary period, the individual shall be considered on limited status until successful completion of the fourth year, at which time the employee may be placed on continuing status.

(3) An employee who has been assigned continuing status may not be demoted, disciplined, or dismissed without cause except as provided by provisions in KRS 156.800 to 156.860.

(4) An employee with continuing status who has been promoted shall serve a probationary period of one (1) year in the new position. During the period of promotional probation, the employee shall retain the rights and privileges granted by the provisions of KRS 156.800 to 156.860 to continuing status employees.

(5) During the promotional probationary period, the employee with continuing status may be reverted at the discretion of the appointing authority to a position in the class formerly held.

(6) A continuing status employee who has been laid-off may return to a position with continuing status if an appropriate position is available.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

1. Limited Status.

Employee could not make a prima facie showing of sex discrimination because she did not establish that she was similarly situated to a co-worker, whom the employee alleged received more favorable treatment than her, and the reasons stated for her non-renewal were sufficiently non-discriminatory; the employee could be non-renewed without reasons, and the co-worker could not be terminated without cause because he was a continuing status employee. 156.828. Employee evaluations.

(1) The commissioner of education shall adopt written evaluation procedures for all certified and equivalent employees of the Office of Career and Technical Education. The procedures shall be based upon recommendations received from a committee composed of equal numbers of teachers, counselors, and administrators of the Office of Career and Technical Education.

(2) Evaluations shall be in writing. An evaluator shall follow all statutory and regulatory provisions for evaluation and shall present and explain all documentation affecting an employee's evaluation, as well as discuss every aspect of performance with the employee at each evaluation. The evaluator shall solicit the employee's opinions and suggestions and shall advise the employee of the measures needed to improve performance.

(3) Each full-time employee who has completed initial probation, and each part-time employee who works over one hundred (100) hours each month and who has completed initial probation shall be evaluated.

(4)(a) The first-line supervisor of an employee shall be the evaluator, providing the period of supervision has been for a period of at least ninety (90) calendar days.

(b) If the evaluator has supervised an employee for at least ninety (90) calendar days and ceases to be the employee's first-line supervisor after such period of time, the evaluation of the employee shall be at least five (5) working days prior to the day when the responsibility for supervision ceases.

(c) If the first-line supervisor ceases to be the supervisor of an employee due to the suspension, demotion, or dismissal of the first-line supervisor, paragraph (b) of this subsection shall not apply.

(d) If the first-line supervisor ceases to be an employee's supervisor because the employee transfers, the first-line supervisor shall evaluate the employee prior to transfer, if the period of supervision of the employee is not less than ninety (90) calendar days prior to notification of transfer.

(5) Teachers and administrators in the state-operated secondary area vocational education and technology centers shall be evaluated in the following categories and appropriate criteria for each category shall be described in the written evaluation procedure:

- (a) School or classroom management, as appropriate;
- (b) Job knowledge and skills;
- (c) Instructional management;
- (d) Employee conduct; and
- (e) Professional responsibility.

(6) All other certified and equivalent staff in the field and in the central office shall be evaluated in the following categories with appropriate criteria described in written evaluation procedures:

- (a) Job knowledge and skills;
- (b) Quality of work;
- (c) Employee conduct; and
- (d) Professional responsibility.

(7) There shall be established by the commissioner of education an evaluation appeals procedure for certified or equivalent personnel in the Office of Career and Technical Education.

(8)(a) Within five (5) working days of an evaluation, an employee may request reconsideration of the evaluation by the evaluator.

(b) Within five (5) working days of the reconsideration, an employee may:

1. Submit a written response to any evaluation which shall be attached to the evaluation; and
2. Submit a written request for reconsideration of any evaluation to the second-line supervisor.

(c) No later than fifteen (15) working days after receipt of the request, the second-line supervisor shall inform the employee and the evaluator in writing of the decision after the second-line supervisor has:

1. Obtained written statements from both the employee and the evaluator; or
2. Met with the employee and the evaluator; and
3. Reviewed the evaluation process according to statutory or regulatory requirements as well as the ratings.

(9) Within thirty (30) days after the employee has received the written decision of the second-line supervisor, the employee may appeal an evaluation to the next level. For the state-operated secondary area vocational education and technology centers, this appeal shall go to the ombudsman for mediation. If not resolved at this level, the employee may file an appeal with the appointing authority or designee who shall make a final ruling. For other employees in the Office of Career and Technical Education, this appeal shall go to the appropriate office head and then to the appointing authority or designee.

(10) If an employee receives an overall unsatisfactory evaluation rating on two (2) successive evaluations, the employee shall be:

- (a) Demoted to a position commensurate with abilities; or
- (b) Terminated.

156.830. Coercion of employees prohibited — Lay-off priorities.

(1) It shall be unlawful to coerce certified and equivalent employees who may be or who are subject to lay-off to resign or retire in lieu of lay-off. Dismissals shall comply with applicable statutes and lay-offs shall not be utilized as a method of dismissal.

(2) In the same office, county, and job classification, temporary, emergency, limited status, and probationary employees shall be laid-off before permanent full-time or permanent part-time employees with continuing status. The Office of Career and Technical Education shall not transfer positions, including vacant positions, in order to circumvent the provisions of this section.

(3) If two (2) or more employees subject to lay-off in a lay-off plan submitted to the commissioner of education have the same qualifications and similar performance evaluations, the employee with the lesser seniority shall be laid-off first.

(4) An employee who is laid-off shall be placed on a reemployment list for the class of position from which laid-off and for any class for which such employee is qualified.

(5) For a period of three (3) years, laid-off employees shall be considered before any applicant from outside the Office of Career and Technical Education, except another laid-off employee with more seniority who is already on the list.

(6) For a period of three (3) years, a laid-off employee shall not be removed from the list unless:

(a) The laid-off employee notifies the office in writing that he or she no longer wishes to be considered for a position on the list;

(b) Two (2) written offers of appointment are declined, the offers to be for a position of the same classification and salary, and located in the same county or contiguous counties, as the position from which laid-off;

(c) Two (2) written offers to schedule an interview are made and the laid-off employee fails to respond to a certified letter requesting the laid-off employee to schedule an interview within ten (10) working days;

(d) The laid-off employee fails to report for an interview after notification in writing at least ten (10) calendar days prior to the date of the interview;

(e) The laid-off employee cannot be located by postal authorities at the last address provided; or

(f) The laid-off employee has willfully violated the provisions of KRS 156.800 to 156.860.

(7) When a laid-off employee has accepted a bona fide offer of appointment to any position, effective on a specified date, the employee's name may be removed from the list for all classes for which the maximum salary is the same as or less than that of the class of appointment.

(8) When a laid-off employee is removed from the reemployment list, the employee shall be notified in writing and shall be notified of the right to appeal to the board under provisions of KRS 156.820.

(1) A lay-off of an employee with continuing status in the Office of Career and Technical Education due to the abolition of a position, lack of funds, or economic or employment trends resulting in a lack of work or a material change in duties or organization shall comply with the provisions of this section.

(2) Prior to the notification of lay-off and prior to the lay-off of an employee, the Department of Education shall prepare a lay-off plan. The plan shall contain the name of the employee and the reasons, in detail, for the lay-off. Upon approval of the plan by the appointing authority or designee, the employee shall be notified of the pending lay-off, and of:

(a) The reason for the lay-off;

(b) The procedures established by the provisions of KRS 156.830 and this section for the lay-off of employees; and

(c) The rights granted employees subject to lay-off and to laid-off employees.

(3)(a) An employee subject to lay-off shall be considered for a vacant position within the office of the same pay grade, level of duties, and responsibilities for which the employee is qualified.

(b) If a vacancy does not exist, the employee shall be considered for any vacant position within his office for which qualifications are held.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Analysis

1. Notice.
2. Show Cause.

1. Notice.

Where continuing status employee received a notice detailing the reason for his layoff and informing him of his rights as a continuing status employee, the notice was sufficient. Koo v. Commonwealth Dep't for Adult & Technical Educ., 919 S.W.2d 531, 1995 Ky. App. LEXIS 223 (Ky. Ct. App. 1995).

2. Show Cause.

It was not necessary that Department of Adult and Technical Education show cause to continuing status employee laid off following the abolishment of his position as auxiliary services specialist. Koo v. Commonwealth Dep't for Adult & Technical Educ., 919 S.W.2d 531, 1995 Ky. App. LEXIS 223 (Ky. Ct. App. 1995).

District Court properly dismissed a former public employee's federal and state due process claims because, although the employee had a right to insist that her former employer follow the procedures set forth in KRS 151B.085, the statute contained no "cause" requirement where a continuing employee was laid off because her position was abolished. Thus, the employee had no protectible property interest in her continued employment. Gragg v. Somerset Tech. College, 373 F.3d 763, 2004 FED App. 0190P, 2004 U.S. App. LEXIS 12229 (6th Cir. Ky. 2004).

156.840. Kentucky Technical Education Personnel Board.

(1) The Kentucky Technical Education Personnel Board is hereby established to conduct personnel appeals from certified and equivalent employees in the Office of Career and Technical Education under KRS 156.800 to 156.860. Appeals shall be conducted in accordance with the provisions established in KRS Chapter 13B. The board shall be attached to the Department of Education for administrative purposes.

(2) The Kentucky Technical Education Personnel Board shall be composed of five (5) voting members, three (3) of whom shall be selected from employees within the Department of Education, except no member shall be an employee within the Office of Career and Technical Education. The remaining two (2) members shall be teachers employed by the Office of Career and Technical Education's Area Technology Centers. The election of the teacher representatives may be conducted by written ballot, Internet balloting, intranet balloting, or electronic mail. The teacher candidates may be present when the balloting is tallied. All votes cast shall be tallied by an independent entity.

(a) The Governor shall appoint the two (2) members elected by the teachers employed by the Office of Career and Technical Education's Area Technology Centers and the three (3) members selected from employees within the Department of Education. All members shall be appointed by the Governor to four (4) year terms, and each term shall end on June 30 of the fourth year.

(b) Terms of new members or reappointed members shall begin on July 1 of the year beginning their term. If a vacancy occurs during a term, the Governor shall appoint a replacement to serve the remainder of the unexpired term within thirty (30) days of the vacancy. The Governor shall select a replacement from the group where the vacancy occurred. The manner of selection for the replacement shall be the same as the manner of the original selection.

(c) The members shall possess an understanding of the personnel system established in KRS 156.800 to 156.860.

(d) A chair shall be elected annually by members of the board.

(3) The board shall meet as necessary to comply with time frames for conducting personnel appeals under KRS Chapter 13B and KRS 156.800 to 156.860, and at other times as deemed necessary by the chair of the board. For meetings of the board, a majority of the voting members shall be present to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

(4) The Office of Career and Technical Education shall provide administrative, budgetary and support staff services for the board.

(5) Pursuant to KRS 156.010, employees of the Department of Education who serve as members of the board shall not receive additional salary for serving as members on the board. However, upon approval of the commissioner of education, board members shall be entitled to reimbursement of actual and necessary expenses incurred while performing their duties as an active member of the board.

(6) During personnel appeals conducted by the board, both parties shall be given the opportunity to have a representative present at each step of the process.

(1)(a) A local board of education may submit a request to the commissioner of education to assume authority for the management and control of a state-operated secondary vocational education and technology center. Upon agreement between the commissioner of education and the local board of education for the transfer of a state-operated secondary vocational education and technology center, all personnel, equipment, and supplies shall be transferred to the local board of education and shall be utilized for the operation of the locally operated vocational center.

(b) Beginning March 18, 2021, if a state-operated secondary vocational education and technology center serves more than one (1) school district, any agreement under paragraph (a) of this subsection shall require the local board to continue to serve the additional school district or districts through a memorandum of understanding. The executed memorandum of understanding shall be submitted to the commissioner of education at the same time as the request to assume authority for management and control of the state-operated secondary vocational education and technology center.

(2) A certified employee who is affected by a transfer to the local board of education under subsection (1) of this section shall be granted a one (1) year limited contract by the local board of education, except as provided in subsection (5) of this section, and shall be employed on the local district salary schedule. A classified employee shall be guaranteed employment equal to his or her present status for at least one (1) complete school term, except as provided in subsection (5) of this section. A transferred employee shall be provided the benefits of comparable employees in the district and shall be subject to all rules and policies of the local board of education, including but not limited to disciplinary and personnel actions that are the same as those that may be exercised by the district for any other employee in the district during a contract period.

(3) A transferred employee who has accrued annual leave and compensatory time shall be paid a lump sum for the accrued time at the effective date of the transfer by the Department of Education. The employee shall be granted credit for accrued sick leave up to the maximum allowed for transfers of teachers between school districts. Sick leave credit shall be awarded to a classified employee based on the local board policy. Any excess sick leave that a classified or certified employee has earned that the district will not accept in the transfer may be requested to be held in escrow by the appropriate state personnel system under KRS Chapter 18A or KRS 156.800 to 156.860, and the sick leave balance shall be restored to the employee if the employee returns to a state government position.

(4) An employee who is to be transferred to a local board of education under provisions of this section but who chooses not to accept a one (1) year limited contract with the board shall be separated from the state system and the employee's position shall be abolished. The employee may apply for any state position for which the employee is qualified but shall not be granted priority over other applicants for a position because the employee's position was abolished due to a transfer of the vocational education and technology center. An employee who refuses a contract with the local board shall be provided a lump-sum payment for accrued annual leave and compensatory time, and the employee's sick leave balance shall be placed in escrow by the appropriate state personnel system under KRS Chapter 18A or KRS 156.800 to 156.860. The sick leave balance shall be restored to the employee if the employee returns to a state government position.

(5) A certified employee who has earned continuing status in the state certified personnel system under KRS 156.800 to 156.860 shall be granted a continuing service contract as defined in KRS 161.720 upon transfer to a local board of education under subsection (1) of this section. A principal who has earned continuing status prior to transfer shall be granted a continuing service contract, but the provisions relating to demotion of the principal under KRS 161.765 shall apply. A classified employee who has four (4) years of continuous active service in the state certified personnel system under KRS 156.800 to 156.860 at the time of transfer shall be offered an employment contract at the time of transfer that shall be considered a continuing service contract as defined in KRS 161.720 for a minimum of five (5) complete school terms.

(6) An employee of the Office of Career and Technical Education who is transferred to the local school district and who occupies a position covered by the Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System shall remain in the Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System.

(7) After the effective date of the transfer, the local board of education shall receive funding for the support of the local board of education center operations pursuant to KRS 157.069. In addition, the local board of education shall receive one hundred percent (100%) of the Support Education Excellence in Kentucky program funds from the Department of Education that are generated from students enrolled in the center.

156.846. Local board's power to relinquish management and control of vocational education center — Issues related to transfer of employees.

(1) Notwithstanding KRS 156.808, 156.812, 156.814, 156.816, 156.820, and 156.826, upon approval of the Kentucky Board of Education, a local board of education that has operated an area vocational education and technical center for at least five (5) years may relinquish authority for the management and control of the area vocational education and technical center to the Kentucky Department of Education. The local board of education shall transfer all personnel, equipment, and supplies to the Office of Career and Technical Education within the Kentucky Department of Education.

(2) A certified employee who is affected by a transfer to the Office of Career and Technical Education under subsection (1) of this section shall be granted the same status by the Office of Career and Technical Education as he or she had at the close of employment with the local board of education and shall be employed on the state salary schedule. A classified employee shall be guaranteed employment equal to his or her status in the local school district for at least one (1) complete school term. A transferred employee shall be provided the benefits of comparable employees in the Office of Career and Technical Education and shall be subject to all rules and policies of the Office of Career and Technical Education, including but not limited to disciplinary and personnel actions that are the same as those that may be exercised by the office for any other employee in the Commonwealth during a contract period.

(3) The employee shall be granted credit for accrued sick leave by the Office of Career and Technical Education up to the maximum allowed for transfers of teachers between school districts. The Office of Career and Technical Education shall award sick leave credit to a classified employee based on the sick leave accumulated in the local district. Any excess sick leave that a classified or certified employee earned that had been held in escrow by the appropriate state personnel system under KRS Chapter 18A or KRS 156.800 to 156.860 when the transfer was made to the local board of education shall be restored to the employee.

(4) An employee who is to be transferred to the Office of Career and Technical Education under provisions of this section but who chooses not to accept a contract with the Commonwealth shall be separated from the state system and the employee's position shall be abolished. The employee may apply for any state position for which the employee is qualified but shall not be granted priority over other applicants for a position because the employee's position was abolished due to a transfer of the area vocational education and technical center. An employee who refuses a contract with the Office of Career and Technical Education shall have the employee's sick leave balance placed in escrow by the state personnel system under KRS Chapter 18A or KRS 156.800 to 156.860. The sick leave balance shall be restored to the employee if the employee returns to a state government position.

(5) A certified employee, other than a principal, who has earned continuing status in the local school district under KRS 161.740(1), shall be granted continuing status under the provisions of KRS 156.820. A principal may be granted continuing status as a teacher, but the provisions relating to demotion of the principal under KRS 156.820 shall apply.

(6) An employee of a local board of education who is transferred to the Office of the Career and Technical Education and who occupies a position covered by the Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System shall remain in the Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System.

(7) General fund moneys previously appropriated to a local board of education for support of the area vocational education and technical center shall be appropriated to the Department of Education.

156.848. Agreements for training workers.

(1) The executive director of the Office of Adult Education within the Department of Workforce Development in the Education and Labor Cabinet and the commissioner of education may enter into agreements to train workers for new manufacturing jobs in new or expanding industries characterized by one (1) or more of the following criteria: a high average skill, a high average wage, rapid national growth, or jobs feasible and desirable for location in rural regions. Such agreements shall not be subject to the requirements of KRS 45A.045 and KRS 45A.690 to 45A.725 when awarded on the basis of a detailed training plan approved by the appropriate agency head. Reimbursement to the industry shall be made upon submission of documents validating actual training expenditure not to exceed the amount approved by the training plan.

(2) The executive director and the commissioner of education may approve authorization for his or her agency to enter into agreements with industries whereby the industry may be reimbursed directly for the following services:

- (a) The cost of instructors' salaries when the instructor is an employee of the industry to be served;
- (b) Cost of only those supplies, materials, and equipment used exclusively in the training program; and
- (c) Cost of leasing a training facility should a vocational education school or the industrial plant not be available.

GENERAL PROVISIONS

157.010. Elements of the school fund.

The school fund shall consist of the fund dedicated by the Constitution and laws of this Commonwealth for the purpose of sustaining a system of common schools therein. The annual resources of the fund shall consist of:

(1) The interest on the bond of the Commonwealth for one million three hundred twenty-seven thousand dollars ($1,327,000) at the rate of six percent (6%) per annum payable on the first day of January and July of each year.

(2) The interest on the proceeds of fifty-two thousand dollars ($52,000) formerly invested in Liberty Loan Bonds under authority of Chapter 6 of the Acts of 1920, now invested by the Kentucky Board of Education.

(3) The dividends from whatever remains of the original investment of seventy-three thousand five hundred dollars ($73,500) in the capital stock of the Bank of Kentucky.

(4) The interest on the bond of the Commonwealth for three hundred eighty-one thousand nine hundred eighty-six dollars and eight cents ($381,986.08) due the several counties and remaining a perpetual obligation against the Commonwealth for the benefit of the respective counties, at the rate of six percent (6%) per annum payable annually on the first day of July to the counties entitled to it and in the proportion to which they are entitled, to be used exclusively in aid of common schools.

(5) The interest at six percent (6%) per annum, payable on the first day of January and July each year, on six hundred six thousand six hundred forty-one dollars and three cents ($606,641.03) received from the United States under an act approved March 2, 1891, for which the Commonwealth has executed bond pursuant to Chapter 6 of the Acts of 1892.

(6) Such sums as are appropriated by the General Assembly in aid of the common schools.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Analysis

1. Common Fund.
2. School Funds.
3. — Use.
4. — Payment.

1. Common Fund.

Common school fund is distinct from district school funds in that common school fund is distributed by the state to the various school districts on a per capita basis. Commonwealth ex rel. Commonwealth ex rel. Meredith v. Reeves, 289 Ky. 73, 157 S.W.2d 751, 1941 Ky. LEXIS 21 (Ky. 1941).

This section defines “state school funds” and is not an exclusive reference for definition of “school funds.” Commonwealth ex rel. Commonwealth ex rel. Breckinridge v. Collins, 379 S.W.2d 436, 1964 Ky. LEXIS 237 (Ky. 1964).

2. School Funds.

3. — Use.

School fund must be used exclusively in aid of common schools, and an act appropriating a part of the school fund to purchase “Collins’ History of Kentucky” is unconstitutional. Collins v. Henderson, 74 Ky. 74, 1874 Ky. LEXIS 14 (Ky. 1874) (decided under prior law).

School fund is to be used solely for educational purposes. Crabbe v. Board of Trustees, 132 Ky. 478, 116 S.W. 706, 1909 Ky. LEXIS 113 (Ky. 1909) (decided under prior law).

Funds appropriated by the Legislature out of general funds in aid of common schools become a part of the common school fund, and are subject to Ky. Const., § 186 (distribution and use of school funds). Board of Education v. Talbott, 261 Ky. 66, 86 S.W.2d 1059, 1935 Ky. LEXIS 592 (Ky. 1935).

4. — Payment.

Common school fund can be paid only to school districts and not to another department of state government or to a private institution. Hodgkin v. Board for Louisville & Jefferson County Children's Home, 242 S.W.2d 1008, 1951 Ky. LEXIS 1101 (Ky. 1951).

In order for there to be a common school there must be a common school district. Hodgkin v. Board for Louisville & Jefferson County Children's Home, 242 S.W.2d 1008, 1951 Ky. LEXIS 1101 (Ky. 1951).

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

Inasmuch as common school funds may only be paid to common school districts, a county school board may not expend public common school funds to transport students attending a nonpublic model school. OAG 76-261.

The present school laws, in light of the Kentucky Constitution, do not authorize or permit any state funded extended employment days to be used for vacation or holidays. OAG 82-356.

A local school district may contract to allow funds held for the local district by the Kentucky Department of Education to be transferred as directed, assuming all statutory and constitutional requirements relative to the use of those funds, if any, have been met. OAG 87-22.

157.067. Kentucky successful schools trust fund.

(1) To carry out the purpose of rewarding successful schools as provided in KRS Chapter 158, the Kentucky successful schools trust fund is hereby established in the Finance and Administration Cabinet. Funds appropriated by the General Assembly in each biennial budget for payments of rewards to successful schools shall be credited to the fund and invested until needed for payments to successful schools. All interest earned on moneys in the funds shall be retained in the fund for reinvestment.

(2) Upon certification of eligibility by the Kentucky Board of Education, the Finance and Administration Cabinet shall issue a warrant and the State Treasurer shall issue a check to the eligible school. All moneys credited to the fund, including interest, shall be used only for payments to eligible schools and shall not lapse, but shall be carried forward in the next biennial budget.

157.069. Distribution of general funds for locally operated secondary area technology centers and vocational departments — Management and control of state-operated secondary vocational education and technology center by local board in certain fiscal years.

(1) As used in this section:

(a) “Secondary area technology center” or “secondary area center” means a school facility dedicated to the primary purpose of offering five (5) or more technical preparation programs that lead to skill development focused on specific occupational areas. An area center may be called a “magnet technology center” or “career center” or may be assigned another working title by the parent agency. An area center may be either state or locally operated; and

(b) “Vocational department” means a portion of a school facility that has five (5) or more technical preparation programs that lead to skill development focused on specific occupational areas.

(2)(a) Except as described in subsection (5) of this section, the Kentucky Department of Education shall distribute all general funds designated for locally operated secondary area centers and vocational departments which received state supplemental funds in fiscal year 2020-2021 by a weighted formula specified in an administrative regulation promulgated by the Kentucky Board of Education. The formula shall take into account the differences in cost of operating specific programs. The commissioner of education shall determine programs to be assigned to categories based on the descriptions found in paragraphs (b) to (d) of this subsection. Programs in Categories III and II shall be eligible for funding.

(b) Category III—High-cost technical programs: Programs in which students develop highly technical skills in specific occupational areas and that require high-cost equipment, materials, and facilities. This category may include selected industrial technology Level III programs as defined by the Department of Education and programs in other occupational areas as deemed appropriate.

(c) Category II—Technical skill programs: Programs in which students develop technical skills focused in occupational areas and that require technical equipment but high-cost equipment, facilities, or materials are not necessary to operate the programs. This category may include selected industrial technology Level III programs as defined by the Department of Education and programs in other occupational areas as deemed appropriate.

(d) Category I—Orientation and career exploration programs: Programs that provide orientation and exploration of broad-based industries by giving students knowledge and experience regarding careers within these industries and develop some exploratory or hands-on skills used in the industry.

(e) Notwithstanding subsection (1)(a) and (b) of this section, the Department of Education shall approve the combining of eligible secondary vocational programs into a single vocational department for purposes of funding for a school district that has been receiving state supplemental funds and has distributed its vocational programs, previously located in area centers, among magnet career academies.

(3) For calculation purposes and after categorizing the programs as described in subsection (2) of this section, a weight shall be applied as a percentage of the base guarantee per pupil in average daily attendance as defined by KRS 157.320 under the Support Education Excellence in Kentucky Program, which shall be applied to full-time equivalent students in Categories II and III. Category I programs shall receive no weight. The full-time equivalent students shall be calculated on the basis of the total program enrollment multiplied by the length of the class period divided by six (6).

(4)(a) If a school district has a locally operated secondary area center that has been receiving state supplemental funds, and the district moves the center as part of a collaborative project agreement between two (2) or more school districts, then the Kentucky Department of Education may, subject to approval by the commissioner of education, distribute the general funds designated for the district’s locally operated secondary area center to the district for the purpose of supporting the collaborative project for the district's full-time equivalent students in Category II and III programs.

(b) If the commissioner of education approves the distribution of funds under paragraph (a) of this subsection:

1. For the first year of the collaborative project agreement, the department shall distribute an amount equal to the final allotted amount of general funds from the prior fiscal year designated for the district's locally operated secondary area center; and

2. For any successive year of the collaborative project agreement, the department shall calculate the amount of general funds to distribute pursuant to subsections (2) and (3) of this section. The amount distributed shall not exceed the amount distributed under subparagraph 1. of this paragraph.

(5) If a local board of education assumes authority for the management and control of a state-operated secondary vocational education and technology center for the 2020-2021, 2021-2022, or 2022-2023 academic year and notifies the Kentucky Department of Education of the planned transfer on or before December 31, 2021:

(a) For the first year under the management and control of the local board of education, the locally operated center shall receive funding in an amount equal to one hundred percent (100%) of the annual state general fund appropriation allocated to the center for on-site direct costs for the most recent fiscal year under state management and control, including any amount allocated directly to the local district for use of district-owned facilities;

(b) For each fiscal year thereafter, the center shall receive seventy-five percent (75%) of the amount allocated to it under paragraph (a) of this subsection;

(c) The remaining twenty-five percent (25%) of funds previously allocated to a center as described in paragraph (b) of this subsection shall annually be allocated, in accordance with the formula described in subsection (2) of this section, to locally operated secondary area centers and vocational departments that did not receive state supplemental funds under subsection (2) of this section and were not otherwise appropriated funds by the General Assembly for the current fiscal year;

(d) If no locally operated secondary area centers and vocational departments are eligible for funding under paragraph (c) of this subsection, the remaining twenty-five percent (25%) of funds shall be allocated, in accordance with the formula described in subsection (2) of this section, to all locally operated secondary area centers and vocational departments that received funds for the current fiscal year; and

(e) Locally operated centers described in paragraph (a) or (b) of this subsection shall not receive additional funds under paragraph (d) of this subsection.

157.072. Career and technical education accessibility fund.

(1) For purposes of this section:

(a) "Career academy" means a small learning community within a larger high school that:

1. Consists of a heterogeneous group of students taking classes together for at least two (2) years and who are taught by a team of teachers from different disciplines;

2. Provides a college-preparatory academic curriculum based on a career theme that helps students see relationships and connections between academic subjects and their applications in specific career pathways and in broad career areas such as health science, business, pre-engineering, agribusiness, and advanced manufacturing; and

3. Provides opportunities through partnerships with employers, colleges, and the community for students to engage in internships and work-based learning with adult mentors to motivate students to achieve;

(b) "Career guidance coach" means a person who is assigned one hundred percent (100%) of his or her time to:

1. The development of students', teachers', and parents' understanding of broad career themes and opportunities through career pathways;

2. Academic advising and career counseling;

3. Assisting students in the development of individual learning plans; and

4. Providing assistance to other teachers;

(c) "Career pathway" means a coherent, articulated sequence of rigorous academic and career-related courses, commencing in ninth grade and leading to an associate degree, an industry-recognized certificate or license, or a baccalaureate or higher degree. A career pathway is developed, implemented, and maintained in partnership among secondary and postsecondary education institutions, businesses, and employers. Career pathways are available to all students, including adult learners, and are designed to lead to rewarding careers; and

(d) "Career pathway program of study" means a coherent, articulated sequence of rigorous academic and career and technical education courses, including dual credit opportunities, that prepares secondary students for postsecondary study leading to postsecondary degrees, industry certifications, or licensure.

(2) There is hereby created a trust and agency account to be known as the career and technical education accessibility fund, to be administered by the Kentucky Department of Education. The fund shall consist of proceeds from grants, federal funds, contributions, appropriations, or other moneys made available for the purposes of the fund. The fund shall provide grants to be used for:

(a) The development of career pathways and programs of study in high-demand occupational fields for students in middle schools and high schools; and

(b) The establishment of career academies in secondary schools. Each career academy shall employ general education faculty who teach the academic core content and career and technical education faculty who focus the majority of the content around a broad career area and, when possible, employ career guidance coaches to advise students. Career academies shall provide students an opportunity to earn a high school diploma and simultaneously earn postsecondary education credit. They shall also provide opportunities to earn industry certification in high-demand fields, including biotechnology, environmental sustainability, agriculture, health, engineering, information technology, and other emerging career areas.

(3) The grants may be used within a high school facility, career and technical education center, or in an area technology center.

(4) The programs may, based on written policies of the education institution in consultation with and approval of the Kentucky Community and Technical College System, serve adult learners who may have interrupted their secondary education and wish to reenter a program or adults who wish to pursue initial study in a career and technical education field.

(5) Funds shall be distributed through a grant program to eligible school districts and the Kentucky Tech System on a matching basis as funds are available.

(6) Financial gifts and in-kind contributions from any business or industry, a community college, or other entity may be accepted to meet the matching requirements based on criteria established by the Kentucky Board of Education.

(7) Pursuant to KRS Chapter 13A, the Kentucky Board of Education shall promulgate administrative regulations that specify the:

(a) Eligibility requirements for participation in the grant program. Low graduation rates, as determined in accordance with the methodology established by the National Center for Education Statistics, shall be high priority for participation in the grant program;

(b) Matching requirements;

(c) Application and review process;

(d) Accountability and data requirements for grant recipients;

(e) Procedures for the reallocation of any unused fund balance;

(f) Grant continuation requirements; and

(g) Other components essential to the implementation of this section.

(8) Notwithstanding KRS 45.229, any unused balance in the career and technical education accessibility fund shall not lapse but shall be carried forward into the next fiscal year and used only for the purposes described in subsection (2) of this section. Any interest earnings of the fund shall become a part of the fund and shall not lapse. Moneys in the fund are hereby appropriated for the purposes set forth in this section.

(9) Schools receiving grants shall have an active local advisory council comprised of industry leaders and employers and postsecondary education faculty to provide input on long-range goals for career and technical education.

(10) Nothing in this section shall prohibit a school that has begun the implementation of a career pathway or a career academy prior to April 19, 2012, from qualifying for funds under this section.

157.075. Differentiated compensation plans — Professional compensation fund — Department of Education recommendations on teacher compensation.

(1) For purposes of this section, "compensation" means the combination of base salary, salary supplements, and other benefits provided a teacher.

(2)(a) A school district may develop differentiated compensation programs that provide additional compensation above the single salary schedule described in KRS 157.420 and defined in KRS 157.320. Differentiated compensation plans shall have one (1) or more of the following purposes:

1. To recruit and retain teachers in critical shortage areas;

2. To help reduce the number of emergency certified teachers employed in the district;

3. To provide incentives to recruit and retain highly skilled teachers to serve in difficult assignments and hard-to-fill positions;

4. To provide career advancement opportunities for classroom teachers who voluntarily wish to participate; or

5. To reward teachers for increasing their skills, knowledge, and instructional leadership within the district or school.

(b) The Kentucky Board of Education shall promulgate administrative regulations defining the factors that may be included in a differentiated compensation plan and procedures that shall be used in the development and approval of differentiated compensation plans.

(3)(a) There is hereby established a professional compensation fund in the State Treasury. Beginning in the 2002-2004 biennium and thereafter, the fund shall be used to provide grants to school districts to pilot differentiated compensation programs for teachers. During the 2002-2004 biennium, the fund shall provide grants to at least five (5) school districts for a two (2) year period. The number of grants may increase or decrease based on the funds available and as deemed feasible by the Kentucky Department of Education.

(b) The district grants shall be used for one (1) or more of the purposes described in subsection (2)(a) of this section.

(c) The professional compensation fund may receive state appropriations, gifts, and grants from public and private sources, and federal funds. Any unallotted or unencumbered balances in the fund shall be invested as provided in KRS 42.500(9). Income earned from the investments shall be credited to the fund. Any fund balance at the close of a fiscal year shall not lapse but shall be carried forward to the next fiscal year and continuously appropriated for the purposes specified in this section.

(d) The fund shall be administered by the Kentucky Department of Education and shall be distributed on the basis of criteria promulgated in an administrative regulation by the Kentucky Board of Education. The administrative regulation shall specify the maximum size of grants, the application and selection process, the obligations of the local board of education, the evaluation and data requirements, and other details as deemed necessary by the board.

(4) Upon request, the Kentucky Department of Education shall provide assistance to any district that wishes to develop a differentiated compensation program.

(5) During the 2002-2004 biennium, the Kentucky Department of Education shall gather information and summarize the characteristics and impact of the various differentiated compensation programs. By October 1, 2004, the department shall provide recommendations to the Interim Joint Committee on Education as to the feasibility of establishing a statewide teacher advancement program or other ideas for modifying teacher compensation.

157.077. Support for summer learning programs — Segregation and use of funds.

(1) As used in this section “summer learning program” and “summer learning camp” mean the program and camps established by KRS 158.865 to 158.867.

(2) To the extent funds are appropriated by the General Assembly to support summer learning programs, those funds shall be distributed to each local district operating a summer learning program each year based on the average daily membership of the district’s summer learning camps for that year. In addition, any funds appropriated to support transportation of students to summer learning camps, shall be distributed based on the previous year per pupil calculation as determined under KRS 157.370.

(3)(a) Each school district operating a summer learning program shall establish and maintain a separate fund for each school where a summer learning camp is being held. The fund:

1. Shall include any state appropriations specifically designated for the summer learning camp at the school, excluding Title I funds; and

2. May include moneys from grants, donations from individuals and businesses, and proceeds from fundraising efforts to support the summer learning camp at the school.

(b) Funds in the accounts shall be used for personnel, field trips, and to purchase supplies, materials, and equipment for the summer learning camp.

(c) Any amounts remaining in an individual school fund at the end of the year shall be carried forward into the next year. If a school discontinues operation of its summer learning camp, the funds shall be transferred to another school in the district where a summer learning camp will be held. If there are no summer learning camps in the district, the funds may be used by the district to close the achievement gap for low-income students.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Analysis

1. Constitutionality.
2. Free Textbooks.
3. — Payment.

1. Constitutionality.

Law providing for purchase and distribution of free textbooks by the state does not violate Ky. Const., § 49. State Board of Education v. Kenney, 230 Ky. 287, 18 S.W.2d 1114, 1929 Ky. LEXIS 71 (Ky. 1929).

2. Free Textbooks.

3. — Payment.

Free textbooks are to be paid for out of the general fund of the state. State Board of Education v. Kenney, 230 Ky. 287, 18 S.W.2d 1114, 1929 Ky. LEXIS 71 (Ky. 1929).

The purchase of free textbooks is not an “ordinary expense” of the government. State Board of Education v. Kenney, 230 Ky. 287, 18 S.W.2d 1114, 1929 Ky. LEXIS 71 (Ky. 1929).

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

The Kentucky Department of Education cannot furnish textbooks free for grades 1 through 8 to students attending private schools. OAG 72-73.

157.110. Determination of grades and subjects to be provided with textbooks — Rental of textbooks — Free textbooks for certain students.

(1) In the purchase and distribution of textbooks for grades nine (9) through twelve (12), if sufficient funds are not available to furnish textbooks for all four (4)

grades, the chief state school officer, subject to the approval of the Kentucky Board of Education, shall determine for what grades and subjects textbooks shall be provided.

(2) Local school districts, which do not provide a free textbook program for all students in grades nine (9) through twelve (12), shall establish, pursuant to Kentucky Board of Education administrative regulations, a process whereby pupils in grades nine (9) through twelve (12) may rent textbooks for a reasonable fee. Rental fees collected by the district shall be used for the maintenance of textbooks, the purchase of new textbooks, and the provision of free textbooks to pupils in grades nine (9) through twelve (12) who are unable to rent or purchase textbooks.

(3) No pupil shall be denied the use of textbooks due to an inability to rent or purchase them. Local school districts shall establish, pursuant to Kentucky Board of Education administrative regulations, a process by which to provide free textbooks to pupils unable to rent or purchase them, including a process by which those students shall be informed of the availability of, and guidelines and procedures for, obtaining free textbooks.

(4) The Kentucky Board of Education shall adopt administrative regulations to insure the availability of free textbooks to those pupils in grades nine (9) through twelve (12) who are unable to rent or purchase textbooks and shall use the guidelines of the free and reduced price lunch programs to determine inability to rent or purchase textbooks. The regulations shall also provide for exceptional circumstances, under which pupils who do not meet free and reduced price lunch guidelines may be provided free textbooks.

(1) The General Assembly declares that parents play a critical role in the education of their students. Parents have a major responsibility to assist in the education of their students and deserve respect and meaningful involvement in the decision-making process related to the students' education.

(2) Each exceptional student as defined in KRS 157.200 shall have an individual education plan that shall serve as the centerpiece of the student's educational career and the communication vehicle between the parents and school personnel. The plan shall enable the parents and school personnel to decide the student's educational needs, the services needed to achieve those needs, and the anticipated results. The plan shall be used as a document to monitor the student's progress. School personnel shall provide the parents with reports of the progress toward the student's annual goals at least as often as report cards go to nondisabled students.

157.197. Kentucky Special Education Mentor Program — Criteria.

(1) The Kentucky Board of Education shall promulgate administrative regulations to establish the criteria for the Kentucky Special Education Mentor Program that shall be implemented by July 1, 1999. The designation of "Kentucky Special Education Mentor" shall be given to the state's most outstanding and highly skilled persons who are certified to teach or administer special education and who are willing to accept assignments in districts whose special education programs are found to be noncompliant with state or federal requirements. The assignments shall require the mentor to:

(a) Work in a district or school on a full-time or part-time basis for a designated period of time to assist the staff with creating and implementing its special education improvement plan as required in KRS 157.224. The mentor shall have the authority to review and amend decisions previously made by the district or school staff. If a highly skilled educator under KRS 158.782 is assigned to the same site as the mentor, they shall share responsibilities under policy of the Department of Education;

(b) Help to increase the effectiveness of the staff, parents, the civic and business community, and government and private agencies in improving the school's performance with exceptional students and other students at risk of school failure;

(c) Evaluate and make recommendations on the retention, dismissal, or transfer of certified staff in a noncompliant district or school;

(d) Recommend up to ten (10) additional work days annually to be paid for by the Department of Education for personnel in affected schools who work with exceptional students for planning, working with parents and guardians, curriculum development, or other activities that will help the district or school meet the goals of its improvement plan; and

(e) Complete an intensive training program, provided by the Department of Education and approved by the Kentucky Board of Education, prior to being assigned to assist a district's or school's staff with creating and implementing its district or school improvement plan. The training program shall include but not be limited to instruction in the methods of personnel evaluation, district or school organization, curriculum, and assessment. The training shall be made available to local district personnel on a cost recovery basis.

(2) The Kentucky Special Education Mentor Program criteria shall include:

(a) A selection process that shall allow for self nomination, provide for a broad spectrum of instructional positions, and generate statewide representation. Nominations of qualified special educators who have retired since July 1, 1994, shall be considered. Special education professionals and representatives of various advocacy and constituent groups shall be included in the development of the selection process and the review of applicants;

(b) Each recipient shall receive a monetary award of two hundred fifty dollars ($250) when selected and shall also be paid in accordance with his or her current salary for other program requirements requiring additional days of employment under subsection (1) of this section. The Department of Education shall be responsible for all expenses incurred as a result of the Kentucky Special Education Mentor Program, except those expenses associated with the funding of the position of the person who replaces the Kentucky Special Education Mentor when that person is assigned to a noncompliant school or district;

(c) The Kentucky Special Education Mentor assigned to a noncompliant district or school shall receive a salary supplement of thirty-five percent (35%) of their base annual salary for each year of service in that capacity. Retired mentors shall be paid for their rank and experience on the district's salary schedule plus the salary supplement. The state board shall determine if reimbursement for vehicle mileage shall be allowed. If the assigned school achieves the threshold level in the next biennial review, the mentor shall receive his or her portion of the reward due to the entire staff calculated on his or her base salary regardless of decisions made by the school staff under KRS 158.6455;

(d) The Kentucky Special Education Mentor shall be granted professional leave under KRS 161.770 for up to two (2) years if determined by the state board to be necessary. Kentucky Special Education Mentors shall not lose any employee benefits as a result of their special assignments to a school or district; and

(e) A Kentucky Special Education Mentor shall not be assigned to a school or to a district assignment in the district in which the educator is employed.

157.198. Dyslexia trust fund.

(1) There is created a dyslexia trust fund administered by the Kentucky Department of Education.

(2) The dyslexia trust fund may receive appropriations, federal funds, contributions, gifts, and donations.

(3) The purpose of the dyslexia trust fund shall be to finance grants to local school districts for support of students identified with the characteristics of dyslexia.

(4) Notwithstanding KRS 45.229, moneys remaining in the fund at the close of a fiscal year shall not lapse but shall carry forward into the succeeding fiscal year. Interest earned on any moneys in the fund shall accrue to the fund. Amounts from the fund shall be disbursed and expended in accordance with this section.

(5) The Department of Education shall submit on an annual basis a report detailing all expenditures under this section to the Kentucky Board of Education and the General Assembly.

157.200. Definitions for KRS 157.200 to 157.290.

(1) "Exceptional children and youth" means persons under twenty-one (21) years of age who differ in one (1) or more respects from same-age peers in physical, mental, learning, emotional, or social characteristics and abilities to such a degree that they need special educational programs or services for them to benefit from the regular or usual facilities or educational programs of the public schools in the districts in which they reside. The Department of Education, through administrative regulations promulgated by the Kentucky Board of Education, shall interpret the statutory definitions of exceptionality. An exceptionality is any trait so defined in this section or by administrative regulations promulgated by the Kentucky Board of Education. Requirements of average daily attendance for exceptional classes shall be regulated by statute, or in the absence of direction by administrative regulations promulgated by the Kentucky Board of Education. Categories of exceptionalities included within, but not limited by, this definition are as follows:

(a) "Orthopedic impairment" means a severe physical impairment of bone or muscle which adversely affects educational performance to the extent that specially designed instruction is required for the pupil to benefit from education. The term includes physical impairments caused by congenital anomaly, disease, and from other causes;

(b) "Other health impaired" means limited strength, vitality, or alertness, including a heightened alertness to environmental stimuli, due to a chronic or acute health problem which adversely affects educational performance to the extent that specially designed instruction is required for the pupil to benefit from education. Chronic health problems may include, but are not be limited to, a heart condition, tuberculosis, sickle cell anemia, hemophilia, epilepsy, rheumatic fever, nephritis, asthma, lead poisoning, leukemia, diabetes, attention deficit disorder, attention deficit hyperactive disorder, or acquired immune deficiency syndrome;

(c) "Speech or language impairment" means a communication disorder such as stuttering, impaired articulation, impaired language, impaired voice, delayed acquisition of language, or absence of language that adversely affects educational performance to the extent that specially designed instruction is required for the pupil to benefit from education;

(d) "Hearing impairment" means a physiological hearing loss:

1. Ranging from mild to profound, which is either permanent or fluctuating, and of such a degree that the pupil is impaired in the processing of linguistic information via the auditory channel either with or without amplification; or

2. That adversely affects educational performance so that specially designed instruction is required for the child or youth to benefit from education.

The term shall include both deaf and hard of hearing children;

(e) "Mental disability" means a deficit or delay in intellectual and adaptive behavior functioning, which adversely affects educational performance to the extent that specially designed instruction is required for the pupil to benefit from education, and which is typically manifested during the developmental period;

(f) "Specific learning disability" means a disorder in one (1) or more of the psychological processes primarily involved in understanding or using spoken or written language, which selectively and significantly interferes with the acquisition, integration, or application of listening, speaking, reading, writing, reasoning, or mathematical abilities. "Specific learning disability" may include conditions such as dyslexia, dyscalculia, dysgraphia, developmental aphasia, or perceptual motor disabilities. The disorder is lifelong, intrinsic to the individual, and adversely affects educational performance to the extent that specially designed instruction is required in order for the pupil to benefit from education. Determination of the existence of a specific learning disability shall include documentation that a child does not make sufficient progress in meeting age or grade-level content standards when provided with appropriate instruction and learning experiences delivered by qualified personnel, including the child's response to scientific, research-based interventions and additional information derived from an individual evaluation. The term does not include a learning problem which is primarily the result of:

1. A hearing impairment;
2. Visual, physical, mental, or emotional-behavioral disabilities;
3. Environmental, cultural, or economic differences; or
4. Limited English proficiency;

(g) "Emotional-behavioral disability" means a condition characterized by behavioral excess or deficit which significantly interferes with a pupil's interpersonal relationships or learning process to the extent that it adversely affects educational performance so that specially designed instruction is required in order for the pupil to benefit from education;

(h) "Multiple disability" means a combination of two (2) or more disabilities resulting in significant learning, developmental, or behavioral and emotional problems, which adversely affects educational performance and, therefore, requires specially designed instruction in order for the pupil to benefit from education. A pupil is not considered to have a multiple disability if the adverse effect on educational performance is solely the result of deaf-blindness or the result of speech or language disability and one (1) other disabling condition;

(i) "Deaf-blind" means auditory and visual impairments, the combination of which creates such severe communication and other developmental and learning needs that the pupil cannot be appropriately educated in special education programs designed solely for pupils with hearing impairments, visual impairments, or severe disabilities, unless supplementary assistance is provided to address educational needs resulting from the two (2) disabilities;

(j) "Visually disabled" means a visual impairment, which, even with correction, adversely affects educational performance to the extent that specially designed instruction is required for the pupil to benefit from education. The term includes both partially seeing and blind pupils;

(k) "Developmental delay" means a significant discrepancy between a child's current level of performance in basic skills such as cognition, language or communication, self-help, social-emotional, or fine or gross motor, and the expected level of performance for that age. The term shall be used only with children ages three (3) through eight (8);

(l) "Traumatic brain injury" means an acquired impairment to the neurological system resulting from an insult to the brain which adversely affects educational performance and causes temporary or permanent and partial or complete loss of:

1. Cognitive functioning;
2. Physical ability; or
3. Communication or social-behavioral interaction.

The term does not include a brain injury that is congenital or degenerative, or a brain injury induced by birth trauma;

(m) "Autism" means a developmental disability significantly affecting verbal and nonverbal communication and social interaction, generally evident before age three (3), that adversely affects educational performance. Characteristics of autism include:

1. Engagement in repetitive activity and stereotyped movement;
2. Resistance to environmental change or change in daily routine; and
3. Unusual responses to sensory experience.

The term does not include children with characteristics of an emotional-behavioral disability; and

(n) "Gifted and talented student" means a pupil identified as possessing demonstrated or potential ability to perform at an exceptionally high level in general intellectual aptitude, specific academic aptitude, creative or divergent thinking, psychosocial or leadership skills, or in the visual or performing arts.

(2) "Special education" means specially designed instruction to meet the unique needs of an exceptional child or youth.

(3) "Special educational facilities" means physical facilities designed or adapted to meet the needs of exceptional children and youth, and approved according to regulations promulgated by the Kentucky Board of Education.

(4) "Related services" means transportation and the developmental, corrective, and other supportive services required to assist an exceptional child or youth to benefit from special education, and may include, but are not limited to, speech-language pathology and audiology services; psychological services; physical and occupational therapy; recreation, including therapeutic recreation; early identification and assessment of disabilities; counseling services, including rehabilitation counseling; orientation and mobility services; medical services for diagnostic or evaluation purposes; school health services; social work services in schools; and parent counseling and training.

(5) "Transition services" means a coordinated set of activities for a pupil designed within an outcome-oriented process, that promotes movement from school to postschool activities. The term includes:

- (a) Postsecondary education;
- (b) Vocational training; and
- (c) Integrated employment, including supported employment, continuing and adult education, adult services, independent living, or community participation.

The coordinated set of activities shall be based on the individual pupil's needs, taking into account the pupil's preferences and interests, and shall include instruction, community experience, the development of employment, and other postschool adult living objectives, and, if appropriate, acquisition of daily living skills and functional vocational evaluation.

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

Foundation program funds authorized by the Legislature for the education of handicapped children may be paid for children who are under six (6) years of age. OAG 72-294.

The 1972 amendment to this section raises no question as to the constitutionality of this statute. OAG 72-343.

A board of education may contract with a private institution for services for a child who is classified as an exceptional or handicapped child pursuant to KRS 157.240 (now repealed). OAG 72-561.

A board of education may enter a contract with a parochial school to educate children handicapped with dyslexia. OAG 72-733.

Where the first district finds a child to be unable to attend school based on KRS 159.030, there is nothing to require the second school district to require the evaluation described under KRS 159.030(3) (now 159.030(2)) prior to enrollment; nevertheless, the child may qualify for evaluation for special education services under KRS 157.200 through 157.290. OAG 91-171.

To be eligible for Medicaid reimbursement for speech pathology services under federal regulations, a provider must either be or work under the direction of a speech pathologist. A speech pathologist under federal regulations must have American Speech and Hearing Association certification or its equivalent or have a master's degree in speech-language pathology and be in the process of acquiring the necessary work experience for such certification. The application of this standard to persons certified by the Education Professional Standards Board must be determined on a case-by-case basis. OAG 2008-04.

157.220. Functions of Department of Education in special education programs.

(1) The Department of Education is hereby designated as the agency for cooperation with the state and federal government agencies, the nonpublic school programs and local schools of Kentucky in carrying out the provisions of KRS 157.200 to 157.280. The Kentucky Board of Education shall make necessary rules and regulations in keeping with the provisions of KRS 157.200 to 157.280 for their proper administration, including but not limited to establishment of classes, eligibility and admission of pupils, the curriculum, class size limitations, housing, special equipment, and instructional supplies.

(2) The Department of Education is authorized to receive contributions and donations that may be made to carry out the provisions and requirements of KRS 157.200 to 157.280.

(3) Local supervision of special educational facilities for exceptional children shall be approved by the Department of Education according to rules and regulations approved by the Kentucky Board of Education.

This section (Enact. Acts 1970, ch. 47, § 1) was repealed by Acts 1974, ch. 74, Art. VI, § 108.

157.224. Statewide plan for exceptional education programs — Annual applications and reports — Improvement plan — Special education trust fund — Administrative hearings.

(1) The Commonwealth of Kentucky is committed to providing a comprehensive educational program for its exceptional children and youth. The Department of Education coordinates, directs, and monitors that program. State direction and implementation of a statewide special education program is manifested in the biennial appropriation of funds to assure a quality educational opportunity for exceptional children and youth in existing, locally operated, classrooms.

(2) All county and independent boards of education shall operate special education programs pursuant to an annual application which has been approved by the Kentucky Department of Education pursuant to standards set out in administrative regulations promulgated by the Kentucky Board of Education. If any county or independent board of education fails to operate and implement special education programs in accordance with the standards, the application of the county or independent board of education for funding pursuant to KRS 157.360 may be considered insufficient and the add-on funds generated under that statute may be withheld by the Kentucky Board of Education until the program is in compliance with all substantive requirements designed to ensure that students with disabilities receive an appropriate education under the Federal Individuals with Disabilities Education Act, as amended. The add-on funds shall not be withheld until the district has had the benefit of intense assistance from the Department of Education, a Kentucky Special Education Mentor under the provisions of KRS 157.197 or other assistance approved by the department for at least two (2) years. The superintendent of each local school district shall certify its enrollment of exceptional children and youth to the Department of Education. The department shall audit student enrollment and monitor local district compliance in accordance with Kentucky Board of Education administrative regulations.

(3) The Kentucky Board of Education administrative regulations shall set forth the data local school districts shall submit in their annual applications and reports. The data shall be reported in the same format as data submitted to the Department of Education for all other students and shall include, but not be limited to:

- (a) The number of students who are suspended, expelled, and quit school annually;
- (b) The success of students placed in various classroom settings including, but not limited to, regular classrooms, resource rooms, self-contained classrooms, and vocational programs as measured by the state assessment program; and
- (c) Information about students' successful transition to adult life.

(4) Local school districts and schools found to be noncompliant with state board administrative regulations shall develop an improvement plan that shall be submitted to the Department of Education for approval. Local school districts shall use specialized resources in the development of the plan which may include universities, regional resource centers, professional organizations, and constituent advocacy groups.

(5) There is hereby created a special education trust fund to receive the funds withheld under subsection (2) of this section and interest accrued from the funds invested. The funds and interest shall not lapse, but shall be returned to the district when it is in compliance with all substantive requirements designed to ensure that students with disabilities receive an appropriate education under the Federal Individuals with Disabilities Education Act, as amended.

(6) All administrative hearings conducted under authority of this section shall be conducted in accordance with KRS Chapter 13B. The provisions of KRS Chapter 13B notwithstanding, the decision of the hearing officer in hearings under this section shall be the final order and shall be rendered pursuant to 34 C.F.R. 300.511. A parent, public agency, or eligible student may only request the administrative hearing within three (3) years of the date the parent, public agency, or eligible student knew about the alleged action that forms the basis for the complaint, unless a longer period is reasonable because the violation is continuing. This three (3) year limit shall not limit the introduction of evidence older than three (3) years if the evidence is relevant to the complaint and shall not apply to the parent or the eligible student if the parent or eligible student was prevented from requesting the hearing due to:

- (a) Failure of the local educational agency to provide prior written or procedural safeguards notices;
- (b) False representations that the local educational agency was attempting to resolve the problem forming the basis of the complaint; or
- (c) The local educational agency's withholding of information relevant to the hearing issues from the parent.

Acts 1970, ch. 47, § 4; 1976, ch. 345, § 4; 1978, ch. 155, § 82, effective June 17, 1978; 1980, ch. 286, § 4, effective July 15, 1980; 1984, ch. 128, § 4, effective July 13, 1984; 1990, ch. 476, Pt. Compiler's Notes.

The Federal Individuals with Disabilities Education Act referenced in subdivision (5) is compiled as 20 USCS §§ 1400 et seq.

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

Where the parents of an exceptional school age child were opposed to the child's attendance in a county T.M.R. unit, the dispute over the child's placement was a proper subject for a due process hearing authorized by State Board of Education regulations. OAG 76-507.

Although, for the year 1987-1988, the General Assembly funded 4360 classroom units for special education students, which was approximately 683 units less than the number requested or anticipated by the local school district, this level of funding by the General Assembly did not violate this section or KRS 157.310. OAG 88-17.

157.230. Special educational programs of school districts.

School boards of any school district subject to the provisions of KRS 157.200 to 157.280, shall establish and maintain special educational programs for exceptional children who are residents of their school district, or contract for programs as may be authorized by KRS 157.280.

Enact. Acts 1948, ch. 4, § 4; 1956, ch. 162, § 2; 1962, ch. 169, § 3; 1978, ch. 155, § 82, effective June 17, 1978; 1980, ch. 286, § 5, effective July 15, 1980; 1982, ch. 119, § 1, effective July 15, 1982; repealed and reenact., Acts 1990, ch. 476, Pt. V, § 378, effective July 13, 1990.

Compiler's Notes.

This section (Enact. V, § 378, effective July 13, 1990.

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

If a factual determination were to be made that a proposed United Cerebral Palsy school would furnish an approved program for the instruction of exceptional children and that such a program was needed by the local school board, the board could execute a lease of property for such a school for the nominal sum of $1.00 per year. OAG 70-805.

Exceptional children who are residents of a private nonsectarian institution may be instructed in the institution, either in a leased or donated room, by a public school teacher. OAG 74-681.

Pursuant to KRS 157.270, a local board of education is required to provide home training for exceptional children, but an institutional home, standing in loco parentis for exceptional children, cannot under this section legally require a school district to establish and maintain special education classes for its inmates. OAG 74-681.

A school district is not required to pay any part of a private placement of a handicapped child so long as the public school district is and remains committed to providing a free appropriate education for that handicapped child within the public schools; thus, if the parents of a handicapped child unilaterally place their child in an out-of-state residential school without first pursuing their statutory and regulatory remedies in their local school district, the school district would not be required to pick up any of the cost of the private education selected by the parents. OAG 83-184.

History.

Enact. Acts 1948, ch. 4, § 8, 1962, ch. 169, § 7; 1974, ch. 293, § 1; 1984, ch. 111, § 178, effective July 13, 1984; repealed and reenact., Acts 1990, ch. 476, Pt. V, § 380, effective July 13, 1990; renumbered to § 158.033 by 2020 ch. 104, § 1, effective July 15, 2020.

157.280. Special education program furnished by district other than that of child's residence, or privately — Sharing costs — Transportation — Transportation to and from state schools for the deaf and blind.

(1) If the number of children of school age in one (1) classification of exceptionality in a district is not sufficient to justify a special education program for that exceptionality in that district, or if a school district does not provide a special education program for that exceptionality, the board shall provide a program by contract with another county or independent district or private organization that maintains a special education program approved by the Kentucky Board of Education for that exceptionality. When a district or private organization undertakes, under operation of a tuition contract or of law, to provide in its classes for these pupils residing in another district, the district of residence of these pupils shall share the total cost of the special education program in proportion to the number of pupils or in accordance with contract agreement between the two (2) districts or district and private organization.

(2) If a local school district's admissions and release committee determines that a child requires placement in a special education program operated by another county or independent district or private organization, the resident local school district shall assume responsibility for the payment of the costs incurred in educating the child. The school board of the school district in which any child resides shall pay for his transportation to and from the program in the other school district or to the private organization. However, if the school board of the other district or the private organization providing the program also provides transportation, the cost of transportation shall be included in the total cost.

(3) If a local school district's admission and release committee determines that the local school district has an appropriate educational program for a child and a parent chooses to place the child in a program or facility in another county or independent district or private organization, the parent shall assume responsibility for payment of the costs incurred in educating the child.

(4) If a child of school age is admitted for resident instruction at the Kentucky School for the Deaf or the Kentucky School for the Blind, under regulation of the Kentucky Board of Education and under provisions of KRS 167.015 to 167.170, the district in which the child resides shall provide transportation to and from the school on a regularly scheduled basis, at weekly intervals while the child is enrolled, either by individual district or in cooperation with other school districts on a regional basis, as approved by the Kentucky Board of Education upon recommendation of the chief state school officer. Students who live more than two hundred (200) miles from either school shall not be required to go home more than twice each month. The Kentucky Board of Education shall promulgate administrative regulations to set forth the transportation schedule and the weekend activities for students who remain at school.

(5) If a child of school age is admitted as a day school pupil for instruction at the Kentucky School for the Deaf or the Kentucky School for the Blind, under regulation of the Kentucky Board of Education and under provisions of KRS 167.015 to 167.150, the district in which the child resides may provide transportation to and from the school on a daily basis, either by individual district or in cooperation with other school districts on a regional basis, as approved by the Kentucky Board of Education upon recommendation of the chief state school officer. School districts providing this transportation shall be reimbursed from the transportation fund of the foundation program at the same rate per trip as that which is calculated under subsection (4) of this section.

History.

Enact. Acts 1948, ch. 4, § 9; 1962, ch. 169, § 8; 1974, ch. 79, § 1; 1976, ch. 271, § 1; 1978, ch. 155, § 82, effective June 17, 1978; 1980, ch. 286, § 7, effective July 15, 1980; 1982, ch. 119, § 2, effective July 15, 1982; 1982, ch. 358, § 1, effective July 15, 1982; 1986, ch. 225, § 1, effective July 15, 1986; 1990, ch. 108, § 1, effective July 13, 1990; 1990, ch. 476, Pt. IV, § 184, effective July 13, 1990; 1992, ch. 257, § 1, effective July 14, 1992; 1994, ch. 376, § 4, effective July 15, 1994; 1996, ch. 362, § 6, effective July 15, 1996.

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

While general tax dollars provided by the state may be used to pay a portion of the costs incurred in operating special education classes for exceptional children, a local board of education is precluded from spending school funds for such purpose even though such an operation is a most laudable and commendable one. OAG 72-86.

The $300 per year limitation on transportation costs is applicable only in a case where one (1) school district contracts with another school district to provide instruction for an exceptional child. OAG 72-693.

Since nothing in the statutes requires that the parents of a deaf child must consent to the child attending the Kentucky School for the Deaf or lose the benefits provided by other statutes, a local school district is required to pay the educational tuition of one (1) of its students who attends special classes in another system although the child in question is a deaf child whose parents will not consent to his attendance at the Kentucky School for the Deaf. OAG 74-531.

Where a board of education contracts for special education services with a private school it would not be entitled to ADA or bonus unit foundation program funds for the pupils involved. OAG 74-742.

A public school district may receive ADA or bonus unit foundation funds for special education program pupils who for a part of the day receive contracted services at a regional state university. OAG 74-742.

A public school may not pay the tuition of a deaf student who attends a Catholic school at the parents' election after rejection of the public school's arrangement for the child to be admitted to the Kentucky School for the Deaf. OAG 74-660; 74-914.

It was not the legislative intent of this section that districts without sufficient educational facilities pay the expense of exceptional children at boarding schools or schools not accessible by daily commuting, and thus the school district is not authorized under this section to send a child who needs special education to a school in another state more than 100 miles away. OAG 74-914.

This section contains no minimum or maximum amounts which may be spent and therefore authorizes the spending of whatever is necessary for education and transportation. OAG 74-914.

A licensed day care center is a private organization within the meaning of this section but whether it qualifies as a contractor to provide special education programs must be decided by the State Board of Education under its regulations and guidelines. OAG 75-56.

It was not the legislative intent of this section to require local school districts to pay the transportation costs of exceptional children at boarding or other schools not accessible by daily commuting, and, therefore, this section does not authorize the reimbursement, from funds provided by the state from the minimum foundation program, of local school funds expended for school bus transportation of deaf students from a school for the deaf to their homes for weekend visits with their parents. OAG 75-609.

A local school system must continue to provide an appropriate educational program for an exceptional child even beyond the age of compulsory attendance, and if a school does not have such program for a child past the compulsory attendance age in any one classification of exceptionality, the school must contract with another county or independent school district or private organization that maintains a special education program approved by the State Department of Education for that exceptionality. OAG 77-116.

A local public school may not interpret this section as authorization to provide special education programs for only compulsory school age children, for special education children are entitled to a twelve-grade school service or until a child reaches 21 years of age. OAG 77-116.

The language of this section requires a local school district only to provide transportation to and from either the Kentucky School for the Blind or the Kentucky School for the Deaf on a regularly scheduled basis, at intervals of no less than one each month; however, a school may, in the reasonable discretion of the local board of education, pay daily commuting costs out of local school money when a child is attending either school as a day student and the distance is reasonable between the home school district and the appropriate state residential school. OAG 77-137.

A school district is not required to pay any part of a private placement of a handicapped child so long as the public school district is and remains committed to providing a free appropriate education for that handicapped child within the public schools; thus, if the parents of a handicapped child unilaterally place their child in an out-of-state residential school without first pursuing their statutory and regulatory remedies in their local school district, the school district would not be required to pick up any of the cost of the private education selected by the parents. OAG 83-184.

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

There is nothing in this section which raises a question as to its constitutionality. OAG 72-343.

Under this section the tuition rate must be set by bargaining and negotiation between the school district and the agency. OAG 72-343.

FUND TO SUPPORT EDUCATION EXCELLENCE IN KENTUCKY

157.310. Declaration of legislative intent.

It is the intention of the General Assembly to assure substantially equal public school educational opportunities for those in attendance in the public schools of the Commonwealth, but not to limit nor to prevent any school district from providing educational services and facilities beyond those assured by the state supported program. The program shall provide for an efficient system of public schools throughout the Commonwealth, as prescribed by Section 183 of the Constitution of Kentucky, and for the manner of distribution of the public school fund among the districts and its use for public school purposes, as prescribed by Section 186 of the Constitution.

History.

Enact. Acts 1976, ch. 93, § 19, effective July 1, 1976; 1990, ch. 476, Pt. III, § 93, effective July 13, 1990.

Legislative Research Commission Notes.

Former KRS 157.310 (Enact. Acts 1954, ch. 214, § 1) was repealed by Acts 1974, ch. 363, § 18, effective June 30, 1976.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

1. Construction.

The minimum foundations law (KRS 157.310 to 157.440) does not affect the policy of KRS 161.760 that a teacher in continuing service status, once promoted in salary, cannot be demoted in salary without such cause as would justify termination of his contract, and elimination of duties or responsibilities cannot be used as a device for demotion in salary. Board of Education v. Lawrence, 375 S.W.2d 830, 1963 Ky. LEXIS 193 (Ky. 1963) (decision prior to 1964 amendment of KRS 161.760).

The procedure for preparation and approval of the school budget and the levying of school taxes is complicated by the fact the statutes relating to the foundation program (KRS 157.310 to 157.370) are not adequately correlated with the school district financing program dealt with in KRS 160.460 and 160.470. Holmes v. Walden, 394 S.W.2d 458, 1965 Ky. LEXIS 182 (Ky. 1965).

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

A student teacher may not legally take charge of a classroom in the absence of the regular teacher, for if such was done the local school district would forfeit its right to receive average daily attendance allotments, for in computing this apportionment there shall be included only the attendance of pupils engaged in educational activities under the immediate control and supervision of a school employee who possesses a valid certificate. OAG 63-269.

Local school boards have a legal right to spend foundation program funds or revenue raised by local taxation for adults over 21 years of age. OAG 65-410.

It is proper to afford ADA credit to a public school district for the public school portion of dual enrollment situations involving public and nonpublic schools. OAG 68-150.

A public school district may receive ADA or bonus unit foundation funds for special education program pupils who for a part of the day receive contracted services at a regional state university. OAG 74-742.

Where a board of education contracts for special education services with a private school it would not be entitled to ADA or bonus unit foundation funds for the pupils involved. OAG 74-742.

The State Board of Education is not authorized by statute to withhold funds from a local school board because the schools in its district are not of a certain rating. OAG 75-552.

School bus transportation may be provided from local school funds for trips of deaf students from a school for the deaf to their homes for weekend visits with their families, but there is no provision in the minimum foundation law permitting reimbursement from the minimum foundation program. OAG 75-609.

The present school laws, in light of the Kentucky Constitution, do not authorize or permit any state funded extended employment days to be used for vacation or holidays. OAG 82-356.

Although, for the year 1987-1988, the General Assembly funded 4360 classroom units for special education students, which was approximately 683 units less than the number requested or anticipated by the local school district, this level of funding by the General Assembly did not violate KRS 157.224 or this section. OAG 88-17.

157.3175. Preschool education program — Grant allocation — Eligibility for free preschool education — Program components — Certification of fully utilized program.

(1) Each local school district shall ensure that a developmentally appropriate half-day preschool education program is provided for each child who is at risk of educational failure and who is four (4) years of age:

- (a) By October 1, for any year prior to 2017; or
- (b) By August 1, for 2017 or any year thereafter.

All other four (4) year old children shall be served to the extent placements are available. The Kentucky Board of Education, upon the recommendation of the chief state school officer, shall adopt administrative regulations establishing the guidelines for the program. Administrative regulations shall establish eligibility criteria, program guidelines, and standards for personnel.

(2) "Developmentally appropriate preschool program" means a program which focuses on the physical, intellectual, social, and emotional development of young children. The preschool program shall help children with their interpersonal and socialization skills.

(3) Funds appropriated by the General Assembly for the preschool education programs shall be granted to local school districts according to a grant allotment system approved by the Kentucky Board of Education. Children who are at risk shall be identified based on the Federal School Lunch Program eligibility criteria for free lunch. Appropriations shall be separate from all other funds appropriated to the Department of Education and shall be administered in accordance with applicable federal and state statutes and administrative regulations. Eligible local school districts shall receive funds based on the average number of preschool children being served on December 1 and March 1 of the prior academic year who are appropriately identified as:

(a) Three (3) and four (4) years of age with disabilities; and

(b) Four (4) years of age identified as at risk of educational failure.

Local school districts may develop cooperative arrangements with other school districts or organizations in accordance with KRS 157.280.

(4) A child shall be eligible for a free and appropriate preschool education and related services if:

(a)1. The child has been identified as a child with a disability in accordance with the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act, 20 U.S.C. secs. 1400 et seq.; or

2. The child has been identified in accordance with the definitions and procedures for exceptional children and youth in accordance with KRS 157.200(1)(a) to (m); and

(b) The child is three (3) or four (4) years of age:

- 1. By October 1, for any year before 2017; or
- 2. By August 1, for 2017 or any year thereafter.

(5) The chief state school officer shall receive and review proposals from local school districts for grants to operate or oversee the operation of developmentally appropriate preschool education programs. Districts may submit proposals for implementing new services, enhancing existing preschool education services, or contracting for services. In designing a local early childhood education program, each district shall work with existing preschool programs to avoid duplication of programs and services, to avoid supplanting federal funds, and to maximize Head Start funds in order to serve as many four (4) year old children as possible.

(6) Each program proposal shall include, at a minimum:

(a) A description of the process conducted by the district to ensure that the parents or guardians of all eligible participants have been made aware of the program and of their right to participate;

(b) A description of the planned educational programming and related services;

(c) The estimated number of children participating in the program;

(d) Strategies for involving children with disabilities;

(e) Estimated ratio of staff to children with the maximum being one (1) adult for each ten (10) children;

(f) The estimated percentage of children participating in the program who are at risk of educational failure;

(g) Information on the training and qualifications of program staff and documentation that the staff meet required standards;

(h) A budget and per-child expenditure estimate;

(i) A plan to facilitate active parental involvement in the preschool program, including provisions for complementary parent education when appropriate;

(j) Facilities and equipment which are appropriate for young children;

(k) The days of the week and hours of a day during which the program shall operate;

(l) A plan for coordinating the program with existing medical and social services, including a child development and health screening component;

(m) Assurances that participants shall receive breakfast or lunch;

(n) Program sites which meet state and local licensure requirements;

(o) A plan for coordinating program philosophy and activities with the local district's primary school program;

(p) An evaluation component; and

(q) Certification from the local Head Start director that the Head Start program is fully utilized pursuant to subsection (4) of this section.

(7) If the superintendent and local Head Start director are unable to reach an agreement on whether a Head Start program is fully utilized, the superintendent or local Head Start director shall notify the chief state school officer. The local Head Start director shall provide the chief state school officer all information relevant to the utilization of the Head Start program. Within thirty (30) days of notification from the superintendent or local Head Start director, the chief state school officer shall make a determination of whether a Head Start program is fully utilized and may execute the certification required by subsection (6)(q) of this section on behalf of the local Head Start director.

(8) Programs shall reflect an equitable geographic distribution representative of all areas of the Commonwealth.

157.318. Network of regional training centers for preschool and early childhood education established.

(1) There is hereby established a network of regional training centers for preschool and early childhood education as specified in the 1987 state preschool grant application for Public Law 99-457. The purpose of the regional training centers shall be to provide peer to peer training, consultation, technical assistance, and materials to personnel from local school districts and other agencies operating programs for disabled and at-risk preschool children.

(2) The regional training centers shall receive federal funds from Public Law 99-457, Education of the Handicapped Act, Part B, and may receive state appropriations, gifts, and grants. No additional centers shall be established unless the existing centers receive at least the same level of funding as in the 1988 fiscal year.

(3) The Kentucky Board of Education shall promulgate such regulations as may be needed in the administration of the regional training centers. In administering this section, the chief state school officer shall consult with the regional training centers and the districts and agencies served by this program.

157.320. Definitions for KRS 157.310 to 157.440.

As used in KRS 157.310 to 157.440, unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) "Average daily attendance" means the aggregate days attended by pupils in a public school, adjusted for weather-related low attendance days if applicable, divided by the actual number of days the school is in session, after the five (5) days with the lowest attendance have been deducted.

(a) Aggregate days shall include, in addition to the aggregate number of days attended by a pupil who was suspended during a school year, the number of days the pupil was suspended, not to exceed ten (10) days in total for the school year; and

(b) Aggregate days shall include, in addition to the aggregate number of days attended by a pupil who was expelled for behavioral problems, the number of days the pupil was expelled up to a total of one hundred seventy-five (175) days. This total may extend into the next school year and shall be counted in the average daily attendance for the next year;

(2) "Base funding level" means a guaranteed amount of revenue per pupil to be provided for each school district, to be used for regular operating and capital expenditures;

(3) "Board" means the board of education of any county or independent school district;

(4) "District" means any school district as defined by law;

(5) "Elementary school" means a school consisting of the primary school program through grade eight (8) as defined in KRS 158.030, or any appropriate combination of grades within this range, as determined by the plan of organization for schools authorized by the district board;

(6) "Support Education Excellence in Kentucky" means the level of educational services and facilities which is to be provided in each district from the public school fund;

(7) "Kindergarten full-time equivalent pupil in average daily attendance" means each kindergarten pupil counted no more than one-half ($\frac{1}{2}$) day in the aggregate days attended by kindergarten pupils in a public school divided by the actual number of days school is in session after the five (5) days with the lowest attendance have been deducted. Kindergarten is the entry level of the primary program and shall be provided no less than the equivalent of one-half ($\frac{1}{2}$) day, five (5) days a week for a full school year for each kindergarten pupil;

(8) "Public school fund" means the fund created by KRS 157.330 for use in financing education in public elementary and secondary schools;

(9) "Administrative regulations of the Kentucky Board of Education" means those regulations which the Kentucky Board of Education may adopt upon the recommendation and with the advice of the commissioner of education. The commissioner of education shall recommend administrative regulations necessary for carrying out the purposes of KRS 157.310 to 157.440;

(10) "Experience" means employment as a teacher, other than as a substitute or nursery school teacher, for a minimum of one hundred forty (140) days during a school year in a public or nonpublic elementary or secondary school or college or university that is approved by the public accrediting authority in the state in which the teaching duties were performed. A teacher who is employed by a board for at least one hundred forty (140) days of a school year and who performs teaching duties for the equivalent of at least seventy (70) full school days during that school year, regardless of the schedule on which those duties were performed, shall be credited with one (1) year of experience. A teacher who is employed by a board for at least one hundred forty (140) days during each of two (2) school years and who performs teaching duties for the equivalent of at least seventy (70) full school days during those years shall be credited with one (1) year of experience. No more than one (1) year of experience shall be credited for the performance of teaching duties during a single school year;

(11) "Secondary school" means a school consisting of grades seven (7) through twelve (12), or any appropriate combination of grades within this range as determined by the plan of organization for schools authorized by the district board. When grades seven (7) through nine (9) or ten (10) are organized separately as a junior high school, or grades ten (10) through twelve (12) are organized separately as a senior high school and are conducted in separate school plant facilities, each shall be considered a separate secondary school for the purposes of KRS 157.310 to 157.440;

(12) "Single salary schedule" means a schedule adopted by a local board from which all teachers are paid for one hundred eighty-five (185) days and is based on training, experience, and such other factors as the Kentucky Board of Education may approve and which does not discriminate between salaries paid elementary and secondary teachers. If the budget bill contains a minimum statewide salary schedule, no teacher shall be paid less than the amount specified in the biennial budget salary schedule for the individual teacher's educational qualifications and experience;

(13) "Teacher" means any regular or special teacher, principal, supervisor, superintendent, assistant superintendent, librarian, director of pupil personnel, or other member of the teaching or professional staff engaged in the service of the public elementary and secondary school for whom certification is required as a condition of employment;

(14) "Percentage of attendance" means the aggregate days attended by pupils in a public school for the school year divided by the aggregate days' membership of pupils in a public school for the school year;

(15) "Middle school" means a school consisting of grades five (5) through eight (8) or any appropriate combination of grades as determined by the plan of organization for schools authorized by the district board;

(16) "National board certification salary supplement" means an annual supplement added for the life of the certificate to the base salary of a teacher who attains national board certification; and

(17) "Weather-related low attendance day" means a school day on which the district's attendance falls below the average daily attendance for the prior year due to inclement weather. The district shall submit a request to substitute the prior year's average daily attendance for its attendance on up to ten (10) designated days, along with documentation that the low attendance was due to inclement weather, for approval by the commissioner of education in accordance with Kentucky Board of Education administrative regulations.

NOTES TO DECISIONS1. Salary Schedule.

Where teachers in one (1) school district earned credits toward salary increases on different basis from teachers in second district, salary plan established pursuant to KRS 157.310 to 157.440 after merging of two (2) districts, which granted teachers from each district the credits under former salary plans, was reasonable and was not discriminatory. Amb v. Board of Educ., 570 S.W.2d 638, 1978 Ky. App. LEXIS 575 (Ky. Ct. App. 1978).

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

Teaching experience with a Head Start program does not qualify as "teaching experience" for the purposes of determining a teacher's salary unless the teacher was under contract with an accredited public or nonpublic school at the time of participation in the program. OAG 76-152.

A county school board could prepare a salary schedule so as to increase the salaries of teachers assigned to schools within the jurisdiction of a city which has levied an occupational tax. OAG 77-427.

Even though the contracts entered into between local boards and their teachers fail to reference the minimum 185 day school term, these contracts would not be construed to cover any period less than the 185 school days established by statute since all full-time teachers in the public common schools have, by operation of law, a contract that entitles them to be paid for 185 school days, four (4) of which are to be utilized as in-service and professional development and planning activities; accordingly, the teachers employed by the local school boards for the 1981-82 school year had a vested right to employment and salary for at least 185 school days and the possible reduction in state funds for teachers' salaries for two (2) mandated in-service days in no way could be used to divorce the local school districts from their preexisting obligation of contracts for a minimum school term of 185 days. OAG 82-106.

A reduction in state appropriations to the Minimum Foundation Fund for teachers' salaries, legal or illegal, could not be said to have reduced the number of days required for a minimum school term in the Commonwealth's public common schools; the law still requires 185 days and that four (4) of these days be devoted to in-service training for public common school teachers and the elimination of state money for two (2) in-service days did not take the requirement for the two (2) days away. OAG 82-106.

While KRS 157.330(2) requires that foundation program funds are to be drawn out or appropriated only "as provided by statute," it is entirely proper for the State Board of Education to adopt a regulation intending to implement the statutory law. OAG 84-314.

Language in budget memorandum recommending and directing that 705 KAR 2:030 Section 8 be amended to change the local district transfer provision from 20% to the established value of the capital outlay component of a foundation unit with difference in the transfer to be used to fund the operational costs of the New Rowan County State Vocational-Technical School and the expanded facilities in Ashland and Elizabethtown is precatory in nature and in light of Const., §§ 184 and 186 cannot be carried out, for the funds involved are foundation program funds and not just general funds appropriated for education, and using the difference in the transfer amount of funds to support the operational cost of the New Rowan County State Vocational-Technical School and expanded facilities in Ashland and Elizabethtown would be using foundation program funds for nonfoundation purposes. OAG 84-314.

Salary schedules may properly be prepared so as to increase the salaries of particular county teachers, teaching within the city, in an amount equal to the occupational tax imposed upon those teachers. OAG 86-33.

The provision that kindergarten shall be provided at a minimum for one-half (½) day, five (5) days a week, for a full school year, for each kindergarten pupil, went into effect on July 13, 1990. OAG 90-73.

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

The present school laws, in light of the Kentucky Constitution, do not authorize or permit any state funded extended employment days to be used for vacation or holidays. OAG 82-356.

While subsection (2) of this section requires that foundation program funds are to be drawn out or appropriated only "as provided by statute," it is entirely proper for the State Board of Education to adopt a regulation intending to implement the statutory law. OAG 84-314.

157.350. Eligibility of districts for participation in fund to support education excellence in Kentucky.

Each district which meets the following requirements shall be eligible to share in the distribution of funds from the fund to support education excellence in Kentucky:

(1) Employs and compensates all teachers for not less than one hundred eighty-five (185) days. The Kentucky Board of Education, upon recommendation of the commissioner of education, shall prescribe procedures by which this requirement may be reduced during any year for any district which employs teachers for less than one hundred and eighty-five (185) days, in which case the eligibility of a district for participation in the public school fund shall be in proportion to the length of time teachers actually are employed;

(2) Operates all schools for a minimum school term as provided in KRS 158.070 and administrative regulations of the Kentucky Board of Education. If the school term is less than one hundred eighty-five (185) days, including not less than one hundred seventy (170) student attendance days as defined in KRS 158.070 or one thousand sixty-two (1,062) hours of instructional time, for any reason not approved by the Kentucky Board of Education on recommendation of the commissioner, the eligibility of a district for participation in the public school fund shall be in proportion to the length of term the schools actually operate;

(3) Compensates all teachers on the basis of a single salary schedule and in conformity with the provisions of KRS 157.310 to 157.440;

(4) Includes no nonresident pupils in its average daily attendance, except:

(a)1. Until July 1, 2022, pupils listed under a written agreement, which may be for multiple years, with the district of the pupils' legal residence.

2. If an agreement cannot be reached, either board may appeal to the commissioner for settlement of the dispute.

3. The commissioner shall have thirty (30) days to resolve the dispute. Either board may appeal the commissioner's decision to the Kentucky Board of Education.

4. The commissioner and the Kentucky Board of Education shall consider the factors affecting the districts, including but not limited to academic performance and the impact on programs, school facilities, transportation, and staffing of the districts.

5. The Kentucky Board of Education shall have sixty (60) days to approve or amend the decision of the commissioner;

(b) Beginning July 1, 2022, those nonresident pupils admitted pursuant to district nonresident pupil policies adopted under KRS 158.120; and

(c) A nonresident pupil who attends a district in which a parent of the pupil is employed. All tuition fees required of a nonresident pupil may be waived for a pupil who meets the requirements of this paragraph.

This subsection does not apply to those pupils enrolled in an approved class conducted in a hospital and pupils who have been expelled for behavioral reasons who shall be counted in average daily attendance under KRS 157.320;

(5) Any secondary school which maintains a basketball team for boys for other than intramural purposes, shall maintain the same program for girls;

(6) Any school district which fails to comply with subsection (5) of this section shall be prohibited from participating in varsity competition in any sport for one (1) year. Determination of failure to comply shall be made by the Department of Education after a hearing requested by any person within the school district. The hearing shall be conducted in accordance with KRS Chapter 13B. A district under this subsection shall, at the hearing, have an opportunity to show inability to comply.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Analysis

1. Tenure.
2. Additional Compensation.
3. Local Tax Levy.

1. Tenure.

The minimum foundation law requiring a school district to pay all teachers on the basis of a single salary schedule does not affect the tenure law which provides that a teacher with a continuing service status, once promoted in salary, cannot be demoted in salary without such cause as would justify termination of her contract, and elimination of duties or responsibilities cannot be used as a device for demotion in salary. Board of Education v. Lawrence, 375 S.W.2d 830, 1963 Ky. LEXIS 193 (Ky. 1963) (decision prior to amendment of KRS 161.760).

2. Additional Compensation.

Continuation of extra pay after extra duties have been eliminated was not for extra duties but for extra qualifications and is not an unconstitutional diversion of school funds, and a teacher who received compensation in addition to her base pay for her various responsibilities as principal of an elementary school was entitled to receive additional compensation when removed as principal and assigned to ordinary teaching position. Board of Education v. Lawrence, 375 S.W.2d 830, 1963 Ky. LEXIS 193 (Ky. 1963) (decision prior to amendment of KRS 161.760).

3. Local Tax Levy.

Any school district otherwise qualified under this section has the right to qualify by requiring a sufficient tax levy. Holmes v. Walden, 394 S.W.2d 458, 1965 Ky. LEXIS 182 (Ky. 1965) (decided under prior law).

Preuss v. Board of Education, 667 S.W.2d 391, 1984 Ky. App. LEXIS 448 (Ky. Ct. App. 1984).

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

The Fort Knox schools are not public common schools and, therefore, a county school system cannot enter into a written agreement with the Fort Knox system concerning special education children so as to receive minimum foundation program funds for its children's instruction. OAG 76-670.

It is truly in the discretion of the local board of education to establish a reasonable tuition fee for nonresident students; however, the better practice would be for a local board to attempt to establish a tuition fee sufficient to defray any reasonably calculated per capita costs not funded through the state foundation program funds for educating a nonresident child. OAG 78-265.

Even though the contracts entered into between local boards and their teachers fail to reference the minimum 185 day school term, these contracts could not be construed to cover any period less than the 185 school days established by statute since all full-time teachers in the public common schools have, by operation of law, a contract that entitles them to be paid for 185 school days, four (4) of which are to be utilized as in-service and professional development and planning activities; accordingly, the teachers employed by the local school boards for the 1981-82 school year had a vested right to employment and salary for at least 185 school days and the possible reduction in state funds for teachers' salaries for two (2) mandated in-service days in no way could be used to divorce the local school districts from their preexisting obligation of contracts for a minimum school term of 185 days. OAG 82-106.

A reduction in state appropriations to the Minimum Foundation Fund for teachers' salaries, legal or illegal, could not be said to have reduced the number of days required for a minimum school term in the commonwealth's public common schools, the law still requires 185 days and that four of these days be devoted to in-service training for public common school teachers and the elimination of state money for two (2) in-service days did not take the requirement for the two (2) days away. OAG 82-106.

Should local boards of education fail to enter into a written agreement to allow nonresident pupils to attend school in a certain district, then the local board of education that educates the nonresident pupil is not eligible to receive attendance credit and funding for those pupils. OAG 91-75.

So long as two (2) districts enter into a written agreement that a particular district will allow nonresident pupils to attend, then that district which is educating the nonresident pupils may receive the pupils' share of funds from the Fund to Support Education Excellence in Kentucky. By administrative regulation, the local boards of education that execute written agreements for average daily attendance of nonresident pupils are required to submit a copy of any agreement to the State Department of Education by November 15 of each year. OAG 91-75.

Supplemental agreements in which a district requires that the district taking the greater number of nonresident children must give back to the home district a certain percentage of state funds attributable to the excess nonresident students are impermissible and may be unconstitutional. OAG 91-75.

There appears to be no legal authority for sending money to a district where a child is not being educated, and such a practice may lead to inequitable funding levels in violation of Const., § 183, which requires that the General Assembly provide for an efficient system of schools, and has resulted in a complete revision of the system of school finance, which has set forth careful procedures to ensure that local districts receive the necessary funding per average daily attendance to carry out the mandated education. OAG 91-75.

There is no statutory authorization for any district which enters into an agreement concerning the education of nonresident pupils to require that the districts taking the greater number of nonresident children agree to give back to the home district a percentage of the state funds attributable to the excess nonresident students. OAG 91-75.

Approval of innovative alternative school calendars, 702 KAR 7:130.

Pupil attendance, 702 KAR 7:125.

157.360. Base funding level — Adjustment — Enforcement of maximum class sizes — Allotment of program funds — Recalculation of allocated funds — Lengthening of school days.

(1)(a) In determining the cost of the program to support education excellence in Kentucky, the statewide guaranteed base funding level, as defined in KRS 157.320, shall be computed by dividing the amount appropriated for this purpose by the prior year's statewide average daily attendance.

(b) When determining the biennial appropriations for the program, the average daily attendance for each fiscal year shall include an estimate of the number of students graduating early under the provisions of KRS 158.142.

(2) Each district shall receive an amount equal to the base funding level for each pupil in average daily attendance in the district in the previous year, except a district shall receive an amount equal to one-half (1/2) of the state portion of the average statewide per pupil guaranteed base funding level for each student who graduated early under the provisions of KRS 158.142. Each district's base funding level shall be adjusted by the following factors:

(a) The number of at-risk students in the district. At-risk students shall be identified as those approved for the free lunch program under state and federal guidelines. The number of at-risk students shall be multiplied by a factor to be established by the General Assembly. Funds generated under this paragraph may be used to pay for:

1. Alternative programs for students who are at risk of dropping out of school before achieving a diploma; and

2. A hazardous duty pay supplement as determined by the local board of education to the teachers who work in alternative programs with students who are violent or assaultive;

(b) The number and types of exceptional children in the district as defined by KRS 157.200. Specific weights for each category of exceptionality shall be used in the calculation of the add-on factor for exceptional children; and

(c) Transportation costs. The per-pupil cost of transportation shall be calculated as provided by KRS 157.370. Districts which contract to furnish transportation to students attending nonpublic schools may adopt any payment formula which ensures that no public school funds are used for the transportation of nonpublic students.

(3) Beginning with the 2015-2016 school year and each year thereafter, the General Assembly shall annually allocate funds equal to one-half (1/2) of the state portion of the average statewide per pupil guaranteed base funding level for each student who graduated early under the provisions of KRS 158.142 the previous school year to the Kentucky Higher Education Assistance Authority for deposit in the early graduation scholarship trust fund.

(4) The program to support education excellence in Kentucky shall be fully implemented by the 1994-95 school year.

(5)(a) Except for those schools which have implemented school-based decision making, the commissioner of education shall enforce maximum class sizes for every academic course requirement in all grades except in vocal and instrumental music, and physical education classes. Except as provided in subsection (6) of this section, the maximum number of pupils enrolled in a class shall be as follows:

1. Twenty-four (24) in primary grades (kindergarten through third grade);
2. Twenty-eight (28) in grade four (4);
3. Twenty-nine (29) in grades five (5) and six (6);
4. Thirty-one (31) in grades seven (7) to twelve (12).

(b) Except for those schools which have implemented school-based decision making, class size loads for middle and secondary school classroom teachers shall not exceed the equivalent of one hundred fifty (150) pupil hours per day.

(c) The commissioner of education, upon approval of the Kentucky Board of Education, shall adopt administrative regulations for enforcing this provision. These administrative regulations shall include procedures for a superintendent to request an exemption from the Kentucky Board of Education when unusual circumstances warrant an increased class size for an individual class. A request for an exemption shall include specific reasons for the increased class size with a plan for reducing the class size prior to the beginning of the next school year. A district shall not receive in any one (1) year exemptions for more classes than enroll twenty percent (20%) of the pupils in the primary grades and grades four (4) through eight (8).

(d) In all schools the commissioner of education shall enforce the special education maximum class sizes set by administrative regulations adopted by the Kentucky Board of Education. A superintendent may request an exemption pursuant to paragraph (c) of this subsection. A local school council may request a waiver pursuant to KRS 156.160(2). An exemption or waiver shall not be granted if the increased class size will impede any exceptional child from achieving his or her individual education program in the least restrictive environment.

(6) In grades four (4) through six (6) with combined grades, the maximum class size shall be the average daily attendance upon which funding is appropriated for the lowest assigned grade in the class. There shall be no exceptions to the maximum class size for combined classes. In combined classes other than the primary grades, no ungraded students shall be placed in a combined class with graded students. In addition, there shall be no more than two (2) consecutive grade levels combined in any one (1) class in grades four (4) through six (6). However, this shall not apply to schools which have implemented school-based decision making.

(7) If a local school district, through its admission and release committee, determines that an appropriate program in the least restrictive environment for a particular child with a disability includes either part-time or full-time enrollment with a private school or agency within the state or a public or private agency in another state, the school district shall count as average daily attendance in a public school the time that the child is in attendance at the school or agency, contingent upon approval by the commissioner of education.

(8) Pupils attending a center for child learning and study established under an agreement pursuant to KRS 65.210 to 65.300 shall, for the purpose of calculating average daily attendance, be considered as in attendance in the school district in which the child legally resides and which is party to the agreement. For purposes of subsection (1) of this section, teachers who are actually employees of the joint or cooperative action shall be considered as employees of each school district which is a party to the agreement.

(9) Program funding shall be increased when the average daily attendance in any district for the first two (2) months of the current school year is greater than the average daily attendance of the district for the first two (2) months of the previous school year. The program funds allotted the district shall be increased by the percent of increase. The average daily attendance in kindergarten is the kindergarten full-time equivalent pupils in average daily attendance.

(10) If the average daily attendance for the current school year in any district decreases by ten percent (10%) or more than the average daily attendance for the previous school year, the average daily attendance for purposes of calculating program funding for the next school year shall be increased by an amount equal to two-thirds (2/3) of the decrease in average daily attendance. If the average daily attendance remains the same or decreases in the succeeding school year, the average daily attendance for purposes of calculating program funding for the following school year shall be increased by an amount equal to one-third (1/3) of the decrease for the first year of the decline.

(11) If the percentage of attendance of any school district shall have been reduced more than two percent (2%) during the previous school year, the program funding allotted the district for the current school year shall be increased by the difference in the percentage of attendance for the two (2) years immediately prior to the current school year less two percent (2%).

(12)(a) Instructional salaries for vocational agriculture classes shall be for twelve (12) months per year. Vocational agriculture teachers shall be responsible for the following program of instruction during the time period beyond the regular school term established by the local board of education: supervision and instruction of students in agriculture experience programs; group and individual instruction of farmers and agribusinessmen; supervision of student members of agricultural organizations who are involved in leadership training or other activity required by state or federal law; or any program of vocational agriculture established by the Department of Education. During extended employment, no vocational agriculture teacher shall receive salary on a day that the teacher is scheduled to attend an institution of higher education class which could be credited toward meeting any certification requirement.

(b) Each teacher of agriculture employed shall submit an annual plan for summer program to the local school superintendent for approval. The summer plan shall include a list of tasks to be performed, purposes for each task, and time to be spent on each task. Approval by the local school superintendent shall be in compliance with the guidelines developed by the Department of Education. The supervision and accountability of teachers of vocational agriculture's summer programs shall be the responsibility of the local school superintendent. The local school superintendent shall submit to the commissioner of education a completed report of summer tasks for each vocational agriculture teacher. Twenty percent (20%) of the approved vocational agriculture programs shall be audited annually by the State Department of Education to determine that the summer plan has been properly executed.

(13)(a) In allotting program funds for home and hospital instruction, statewide guaranteed base funding, excluding the capital outlay, shall be allotted for each child in average daily attendance in the prior school year who has been properly identified according to Kentucky Board of Education administrative regulations. Attendance shall be calculated pursuant to KRS 157.270 and shall be reported monthly on forms provided by the Department of Education; and

(b) Pursuant to administrative regulations of the Kentucky Board of Education, local school districts shall be reimbursed for home and hospital instruction for pupils unable to attend regular school sessions because of short-term health impairments. A reimbursement formula shall be established by administrative regulations to include such factors as a reasonable per hour, per child allotment for teacher instructional time, with a maximum number of funded hours per week, a reasonable allotment for teaching supplies and equipment, and a reasonable allotment for travel expenses to and from instructional assignments, but the formula shall not include an allotment for capital outlay. Attendance shall be calculated pursuant to KRS 157.270 and shall be reported annually on forms provided by the Department of Education.

(14) Except for those schools which have implemented school-based decision making and the school council has voted to waive this subsection, kindergarten aides shall be provided for each twenty-four (24) full-time equivalent kindergarten students enrolled.

(15) Effective July 1, 2001, there shall be no deduction applied against the base funding level for any pupil in average daily attendance who spends a portion of his or her school day in a program at a state-operated career and technical education or vocational facility.

(16) During a fiscal year, a school district may request that the Department of Education recalculate its funds allocated under this section if the current year average daily attendance for the twenty (20) day school month as defined in KRS 158.060(1) that contains the most days within the calendar month of January exceeds the prior year adjusted average daily attendance plus growth by at least one percent (1%). Any adjustments in the allotments approved under this subsection shall be proportional to the remaining days in the school year and subject to available funds under the program to support education excellence in Kentucky.

(17) To calculate the state portion of the program to support education excellence in Kentucky for a school district, the Department of Education shall subtract the local effort required under KRS 157.390(5) from the calculated base funding under the program to support education excellence in Kentucky, as required by this section. The value of the real estate used in this calculation shall be the lesser of the current year assessment or the prior year assessment increased by four percent (4%) plus the value of current year new property. The calculation under this subsection shall be subject to available funds.

(18) Notwithstanding any other statute or budget of the Commonwealth language to the contrary, time missed due to shortening days for emergencies may be made up by lengthening school days in the school calendar without any loss of funds under the program to support education excellence in Kentucky.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

1. Average Daily Attendance.

School board could order school closed when the student population of the school fell below minimum required for state aid. Earle v. Harrison County Board of Education, 404 S.W.2d 455, 1966 Ky. LEXIS 299 (Ky. 1966).

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

Students who have been excused from school to attend religious instruction, in accordance with the provisions of KRS 158.210 to 158.260, may be considered in attendance at the public schools for purposes of the Minimum Foundation Program. OAG 66-116.

It is proper to afford ADA credit to a public school district for the public school portion of dual enrollment situations involving public and nonpublic schools. OAG 68-150.

The interlocal cooperative board may receive foundation program units in supervision based on a consolidation of the coverage generated by the individual participating school districts. OAG 74-351.

A public school district may receive ADA or bonus unit foundation funds for special education program pupils who for a part of the day receive contracted services at a regional state university. OAG 74-742.

Where a board of education contracts for special education services with a private school it would not be entitled to ADA or bonus unit foundation program funds for the pupils involved. OAG 74-742.

The Superintendent of Public Education has adopted 704 KAR 3:175 which defines the criteria which a person filling the position of school psychologist must meet if the position is to be funded by money from the foundation program which criteria do not include the requirement that the “school psychiatrist” be licensed by the Board of Psychological Examiners; rather this regulation does not permit any person who is not licensed by the board to hold himself out as a psychologist or to practice psychology in violation of KRS 319.005 and 319.010, but merely establishes the criteria which an otherwise qualified psychologist must meet if his position is to be funded with money from the foundation program, and any person holding himself out as a “school psychologist” or engaging in the practice of psychology without a license issued by the board violates KRS Chapter 319 and is subject to the penalties contained in KRS 319.990. OAG 79-108.

The Superintendent of Public Education has authority to define the personnel to whom or for whom classroom units are adopted. OAG 79-108.

Where an entire classroom unit (under subsection (9) of this section) is involved, the director of pupil personnel must devote his or her entire time to the duties of that office and would not be able to also serve as the director of transportation; however where a proportionate fraction of a unit is involved, the requirement of KRS 159.140(1) would be met by the director of pupil personnel by spending an amount of time in the same proportion to the normal school day that the fraction bears to the unit will constitute devoting the entire time to the duties of the office. OAG 80-389.

If the General Assembly desires to change the average daily attendance (ADA) formula used for allotment of classroom units for Foundation Program Fund purposes from the previous school year figure as required by this section, it would have to amend this section and not attempt to reach that result with language in an appropriations bill; even if such language did appear in the biennial budget bill, the language would have to be disregarded as not being a constitutional part of the appropriations act, since the budget bill to the extent that it relates to a subject other than the budget must be deemed in violation of § 51 of the Constitution. OAG 83-383. (Refers to 1982 Budget.)

The General Assembly may not constitutionally revise, restrict or modify the provisions of existing substantive statutory law or create new substantive law by language contained in the appropriations act; thus, even if the biennial budget bill had not inadvertently omitted the desired change in the average daily attendance (ADA) formula, the Department of Education could not have legally implemented it. OAG 83-383. (Refers to 1982 Budget.)

Language in budget memorandum recommending and directing that 705 KAR 2:030 Section 8 be amended to change the local district transfer provision from 20% to the established value of the capital outlay component of a foundation unit, with difference in the transfer to be used to fund the operational costs of the New Rowan County State Vocational-Technical School and the expanded facilities in Ashland and Elizabethtown, is precatory in nature and in light of Const., §§ 184 and 186 cannot be carried out, for the funds involved are foundation program funds and not just general funds appropriated for education, and using the difference in the transfer amount of funds to support the operational cost of the New Rowan County State Vocational-Technical School and expanded facilities in Ashland and Elizabethtown would be using foundation program funds for nonfoundation purposes. OAG 84-314. (Refers to 1984 Budget.)

Where the General Assembly failed to include a delayed effective date for the provisions regarding the teachers’ duty-free lunch period and class-size limitations in grades 1-8 contained in the education package enacted in the 1985 extraordinary session, the effective date of these provisions was October 18, 1985. However, given the restrictions of KRS 160.530 and 160.550(1), as well as the impracticalities of implementation on October 18, it was doubtful that any local school district could be expected to implement these programs on October 18. Therefore, except where otherwise expressly indicated in a particular provision, the education improvement programs which the local school districts have a duty to implement would have to be implemented by the local school districts beginning with the 1986-87 school year. OAG 85-132.

The language, "districts which contract to furnish transportation for students attending nonpublic schools to adopt any payment formula so long as no public school funds are used," permits school districts to use formulas other than the per capita formula. OAG 90-81.

Fourth grade students are not allowed to be in ungraded classrooms with students from the primary school (K-3) as joint classes with ungraded students are prohibited. OAG 92-42.

- Keating, You Get What You Pay For: Financing Public Schools in Kentucky, Vol. 57, No. 1, Winter 1993, Ky. Bench & Bar 6.

157.370. Allotment of transportation units.

(1) In determining the cost of transportation for each district, the chief state school officer shall determine the average cost per pupil per day of transporting pupils in districts having a similar density of transported pupils per square mile of area served by not less than nine (9) different density groups.

(2) The annual cost of transportation shall include all current costs for each district plus annual depreciation of pupil transportation vehicles calculated in accordance with the administrative regulations of the Kentucky Board of Education for such districts that operate district-owned vehicles.

(3) The aggregate and average daily attendance of transported pupils shall include all public school pupils transported at public expense who live one (1) mile or more from school. Children with disabilities may be included who live less than this distance from school. The aggregate and average daily attendance referred to in this subsection shall be the aggregate and average daily attendance of transported pupils the prior year adjusted for current year increases in accordance with Kentucky Board of Education administrative regulations.

(4) The square miles of area served by transportation shall be determined by subtracting from the total area in square miles of the district the area not served by transportation in accordance with administrative regulations of the Kentucky Board of Education. However, if one (1) district authorizes another district to provide transportation services for a part of its area, this area shall be deducted from the area served by the authorizing district and added to the area served by the district actually providing the transportation.

(5) The density of transported pupils per square mile of area served for each district shall be determined by dividing the average daily attendance of transported pupils by the number of square miles of area served by transportation.

(6) The chief state school officer shall determine the average cost per pupil per day of transporting pupils in districts having a similar density by constructing a smoothed graph of cost for the density groups required by subsection (1). This graph shall be used to construct a scale showing the average costs of transportation for districts having a similar density of transported pupils. Costs shall be determined separately for county school districts and independent school districts. No independent school district will receive an average cost per pupil per day in excess of the minimum received by any county district or districts. These costs shall be the costs per pupil per day of transported pupils included in the public school fund and these costs shall be recalculated each biennium.

(7) The scale of transportation costs included in the fund to support education excellence in Kentucky for county and independent districts is determined in accordance with the provisions of KRS 157.310 to 157.440 for the biennium beginning July 1, 1990.

(8) The cost of transporting a district's pupils from the parent school to a state vocational-technical school or to a vocational educational center shall be calculated separately from the calculation required by subsections (1) through (7) of this section. The amount calculated shall be paid separately to each district from program funds budgeted for vocational pupil transportation, as a reimbursement based on the district's cost for providing this service. The amount of reimbursement shall be calculated in accordance with Kentucky Board of Education administrative regulations. In the event that the appropriation for vocational pupil transportation in the biennial budget is insufficient to meet the total calculated cost of this service for all districts, the amount paid to each district shall be ratably reduced. For the purpose of this subsection, the parent school shall be interpreted to mean that school in which the pupil is officially enrolled in a district's public common school system.

(9) The Kentucky Board of Education shall determine the type of pupil with a disability that qualifies for special type transportation to and from school. Those qualified pupils for which the district provides special type transportation shall have their aggregate days' attendance multiplied by five (5.0) and added to that part of the district's aggregate days' attendance that is multiplied by the district's adjusted cost per pupil per day in determining the district's pupil transportation program cost for allotment purposes.

A former section (Enact. Acts 1954, ch. 214, § 8; 1956, ch. 106, § 3; 1958, ch. 13; 1960, ch. 145, § 5; 1962, ch. 222; 1965 (1st Ex. Sess.), ch. 2, § 15; 1968, ch. 209; 1976, ch. 260, § 4; 1976, ch. 342, § 1) was repealed by Acts 1974, ch. 363, § 18, effective June 30, 1976.

157.390. Determination of teachers' salaries and other required public school funding components — Additional compensation expenses.

(1) For purposes of the state teacher salary schedule, teachers shall be placed on the schedule based on certification rank as established by the Education Professional Standards Board under KRS 161.1211 and by their years of experience as follows:

1. Zero (0) to three (3) years;
2. Four (4) to nine (9) years;
3. Ten (10) to fourteen (14) years;
4. Fifteen (15) to nineteen (19) years; and
5. Twenty (20) or more years.

(2) The rank and experience of the teacher shall be determined on September 15 of each year.

(3) The amount to be included in the base funding level for capital outlay shall be determined by multiplying the average daily attendance by the amounts set forth in the biennial budget.

(4) The amount to be included in the public school fund of each district for transportation shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of KRS 157.370.

(5) The total amount of money distributable to each district from the public school fund shall include the base funding per pupil in average daily attendance, an amount for at-risk students, an amount for the types and numbers of students with disabilities, an amount for students served in home and hospital settings, and the allotments in subsections (3) and (4) of this section, less the amount of local tax revenues generated for school purposes, up to a maximum equivalent local rate of thirty cents ($0.30) as defined by KRS 157.615(6).

(6) A classroom teacher or administrator may be provided additional compensation, funds for instructional and program materials, and other related costs for serving as a classroom mentor, teaching partner, or professional development leader in core discipline areas including reading, and other subject areas as appropriate to other education professionals in a state approved program or state approved activities. The Kentucky Department of Education shall administer the funds appropriated for these purposes. The Kentucky Board of Education shall promulgate administrative regulations to define the guidelines for programs and activities that qualify for funds including the application and approval process, the individual participant requirements, the amount of compensation, the timelines, and reporting requirements. The board shall solicit recommendations from the Education Professional Standards Board and staff of the Kentucky Department of Education in developing its administrative regulations.

(7) A school district may provide monetary compensation in addition to that provided through the single salary schedule, as defined in KRS 157.320, to all classroom teachers employed in a school that is identified by the Kentucky Department of Education as being in targeted or comprehensive support and improvement status as described in KRS 160.346.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Analysis

1. Certificate of Professional Standing.
2. Tenure.
3. Salary.

1. Certificate of Professional Standing.

A certificate of professional standing may be abolished or limited by the Legislature. Gullett v. Sparks, 444 S.W.2d 901, 1969 Ky. LEXIS 234 (Ky. 1969).

2. Tenure.

Teacher tenure is statutory and not contractual, and the Legislature may abridge or destroy it. Gullett v. Sparks, 444 S.W.2d 901, 1969 Ky. LEXIS 234 (Ky. 1969).

3. Salary.

The General Assembly has the power to provide that teachers with less qualification than a four-year degree shall receive only a minimum salary and the fact that the motive of such a provision might be to make teaching so economically unattractive as to discourage the less-qualified teachers from continuing in service does not make the provision unfair. Gullett v. Sparks, 444 S.W.2d 901, 1969 Ky. LEXIS 234 (Ky. 1969).

Where teachers in one (1) school district earned credits toward salary increases on different basis from teachers in second district, salary plan established pursuant to KRS 157.310 to 157.440 after merging of two (2) districts, which granted teachers from each district the credits under former salary plans, was reasonable and was not discriminatory. Amb's v. Board of Educ., 570 S.W.2d 638, 1978 Ky. App. LEXIS 575 (Ky. Ct. App. 1978).

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

Under this section the second experience level is attained with the completion of four years of experience, so that a teacher who has completed three years of teaching and is in his fourth year is only entitled to the salary permitted for "0-3" years of experience. OAG 68-102.

Under subsection (2) of this section and SBE 21.070(3) teachers' salary schedules are required to have only three separate increments for experience, namely 0 to 3 years, 4-9 years, and 10 years and over. There is no requirement that the salary schedules contain ten separate annual increments for experience. OAG 68-395.

Under this section experience credit can only be given for actual teaching experience and a teacher who was wrongfully excluded from teaching could not receive experience credit for the period of wrongful exclusion. OAG 68-564.

In order to rank a teacher, it is incumbent upon the State Board of Education, with its power to make regulations, to specify what criteria may be considered as equivalent to a college degree for those teachers who have completed the required number of college hours but who do not have a bachelor's degree. OAG 75-495.

No authority exists for anyone during the present biennium to increase the value of the "other current expenses" category of a classroom unit above the established levels appropriated by the 1976 General Assembly. OAG 77-358.

Where a school teacher was ill and missed most of one month and part of the next, during which time the schools were closed 17 days due to severe weather and permission was granted by the department of education to cut short the school year by five (5) days, as calamity days, the teacher was entitled to be paid for the calamity days; however, since she would have been unable to teach on these days, she must take these days as sick leave days under KRS 161.155. OAG 78-311.

The present school laws, in light of the Kentucky Constitution, do not authorize or permit any state funded extended employment days to be used for vacation or holidays. OAG 82-356.

There is nothing in the school laws to preclude a school district from establishing a cafeteria insurance plan for its teachers, pursuant to the conditions and criteria set out in Section 125 of the Internal Revenue Code. However the money available to the teacher to be applied, if desired, to a cafeteria plan is still a part of that teacher's salary even though nontaxable; the teacher can elect to take a part of the money provided for by the school district in this regard as cash and, of course, this amount would be taxable. Moreover, the school districts must include the amount of money established for such a plan in all computations required for single salary schedule determinations, including the procedure required for determining the amount of money to be received by a school district for teachers' salaries from the Minimum Foundation Fund. OAG 83-151.

157.395. Salary supplement for national board certified teachers.

(1) Notwithstanding any other statute to the contrary, a public school teacher, or a secondary teacher employed in a Kentucky Tech school or career and technical education program operated by the Department of Education, who has attained certification from the National Board for Professional Teaching Standards as of July 14, 2000, through July 1, 2020, shall receive an annual national board certification salary supplement of two thousand dollars ($2,000) for the life of the certificate. A teacher who attains certification from the National Board for Professional Teaching Standards after July 1, 2020, shall receive an annual national board certification salary supplement for the life of the certificate in accordance with the amount appropriated for this purpose by the General Assembly. If an annual supplement amount appropriated by the General Assembly is less than two thousand dollars ($2,000), the local board may provide an additional supplement up to the amount required for the total annual supplement to equal two thousand dollars ($2,000). The supplement shall be added to:

- (a) The teacher's base salary on the local board's single salary schedule and shall be considered in the calculation for contributions to the Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System; or
 - (b) The state-employed teacher's base salary and shall be considered in the calculation for contributions to the Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System.
- If a nationally certified teacher becomes no longer employed as a classroom teacher or a teacher mentor in the field of his or her national certification, the supplement shall cease.

(2) A local board of education or the Department of Education shall request reimbursement for these purposes from the fund to support education excellence described in KRS 157.330.

157.397. Salary supplement for speech-language pathologists or audiologists — Supplement to be considered in calculation for retirement.

Notwithstanding any other statute to the contrary:

(1)(a) If funds are appropriated by the General Assembly for this purpose, a local board of education shall provide an annual salary supplement to all speech-language pathologists or audiologists:

1. Who are employed by the local board of education to provide or coordinate speech-language pathology or audiology services for students; and
2. Who hold:
 - a.i. A certificate of clinical competence issued by the American Speech-Language Hearing Association; or
 - ii. Board certification from the American Board of Audiology; and
 - b.i. A valid Kentucky credential approved and issued by the Education Professional Standards Board under KRS Chapter 161; or
 - ii. A license approved and issued by the Kentucky Board of Speech-Language Pathology and Audiology under KRS Chapter 334A.

(b) The salary supplement shall be in the same amount as the salary supplement provided to a public school teacher who has attained certification from the National Board for Professional Teaching Standards as provided in KRS 157.395. If the amount appropriated by the General Assembly is less than the amount necessary to meet the requirements of this paragraph, the salary supplement received by each qualified speech-language pathologist or audiologist shall be reduced proportionately by the Department of Education so that all eligible individuals receive the same amount as a supplement.

(c) The supplement shall remain available to a speech-language pathologist or audiologist so long as funds are appropriated for this purpose by the General Assembly, and the speech-language pathologist or audiologist continues to meet the requirements established by this subsection. The supplement shall cease if the speech-language pathologist or audiologist is employed in another capacity by the local board where the provision of speech-language pathology or audiology services is incidental to his or her other duties.

(d) The Department of Education shall:

1. Determine how many speech-language pathologists and audiologists qualify for the supplement each year;
 2. Determine the amount of the supplement available each year for each qualified speech-language pathologist and audiologist based on appropriated funds available;
 3. Notify each local board of education of the supplement amount available to each qualifying speech-language pathologist and audiologist employed by the local board of education; and
 4. Develop a process for payment to local boards of education of supplement amounts due;
- (2) If funds are not appropriated by the General Assembly to support the salary supplement established by subsection (1) of this section, a local board of education may provide an annual salary supplement under the conditions established by subsection (1) of this section using the resources available to the local board of education; and
- (3) The supplement authorized by this section shall be considered in the calculation for contribution to the Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System.

Enact. Acts 2010, ch. 109, § 1, effective July 15, 2010.

157.400. Procedure for determining amount distributable to each district from foundation program fund. [Repealed.]

Compiler's Notes.

This section (Acts 1976, ch. 93, § 29; 1976, ch. 93, § 15) was repealed by Acts 1978, ch. 133, § 9, effective June 17, 1978.

157.410. Payments of funds to districts.

For each school year the Finance and Administration Cabinet, on the certification of the chief state school officer, shall draw warrants on the State Treasurer for the amount of the public school fund due each district. Checks shall be issued by the State Treasurer and transmitted to the Department of Education or electronically transferred for distribution to the proper officials of the school districts when the districts have fully complied with the school laws and administrative regulations of the Kentucky Board of Education. The chief state school officer shall:

- (1) Determine, on or before May 1 of each year, the estimated allotment of school funds to which each district is entitled for the upcoming fiscal year under KRS 157.310 to 157.440. On July 1, August 1, and September 1 of each fiscal year, one-twelfth ($\frac{1}{12}$) of the estimated allotment shall be paid to each school district;
- (2) Revise the estimated allotment on or before October 1 of each year. On October 1, November 1, December 1, January 1, February 1, and March 1 of each fiscal year, one-twelfth ($\frac{1}{12}$) of the revised estimated allotment shall be paid to each school district; and
- (3) Determine, on or before March 1 of each year, the exact final amount of the common school funds to which each district is entitled for the fiscal year. The remainder of the amount due to each district for the fiscal year shall be distributed in equal installments on April 1, May 1, and June 1 of each fiscal year.

157.420. Restrictions governing expenditure of funds from public school fund — Use of historic settlement school facilities — Use of capital outlay funds after mid-year adjustment — Evaluation of school buildings.

Public school funds made available to the credit of each district during any year shall be received, held, and expended by the district board, subject to the provisions of law and administrative regulations of the Kentucky Board of Education. The following restrictions shall govern the expenditure of funds from the public school fund:

(1) The salary paid any rank of teachers shall be at least equivalent to the amount set forth in the biennial budget schedule for each rank and experience for a term of one hundred eighty-five (185) days for full-time service during the regular school year.

(2) Beginning with the 2004-2006 biennium, the Kentucky Board of Education shall not approve any working budget or salary schedule for local boards of education for any school year unless the one hundred eighty-five (185) day salary schedule for certified staff has been adjusted over the previous year's salary schedule by a percentage increase at least equal to the cost-of-living adjustment that is provided state government workers under the biennial budget. The base funding level in the program for support education excellence in Kentucky as defined in KRS 157.320 shall be increased by the statewide dollar value of the annual required cost-of-living percentage adjustment that shall be estimated on the sum of the previous year's statewide teachers' salaries.

(3) A district that compensates its teachers or employees for unused sick leave at the time of retirement, pursuant to KRS 161.155, may create an escrow account to maintain the amount of funds necessary to pay teachers or employees who qualify for receipt of the benefit. The fund is limited to not more than fifty percent (50%) of the maximum liability for the current year to be determined according to the number of staff employed by the district on September 15. Interest generated by the account shall be calculated as part of the total amount. The funds shall not be used for any purpose other than compensation for unused sick leave at the time of retirement and shall not be considered as part of the general fund balance in determining available local revenue for purposes of KRS 157.620.

(4)(a) The per pupil capital outlay allotment for each district from the public school fund and from local sources shall be kept in a separate account and may be used by the district only for capital outlay projects approved by the commissioner of education in accordance with requirements of law, and based on a survey made in accordance with administrative regulations of the Kentucky Board of Education. These funds shall be used for the following capital outlay purposes:

1. For direct payment of construction costs;
2. For debt service on voted and funding bonds;
3. For payment or lease-rental agreements under which the board eventually will acquire ownership of a school plant;
4. For the retirement of any deficit resulting from overexpenditure for capital construction, if such deficit resulted from an emergency declared by the Kentucky Board of Education under KRS 160.550; and
5. As a reserve fund for the above-named purposes, to be carried forward in ensuing budgets.

(b) A district may submit a request to the commissioner of education to use funds from the per pupil capital outlay allotment to purchase land for a new school or to modify an existing school if the project is included on the district facility plan for completion within eight (8) years. The land shall not be included in the calculation of the school district's unmet need. The commissioner may grant or deny the district's request at his or her discretion.

(c) A district which has experienced an increase in adjusted average daily attendance, as defined by administrative regulation, of twenty percent (20%) or more over a five (5) year period may submit a request to the commissioner of education to use capital outlay funds for the operation of a new school for the first two (2) years following its opening. The commissioner may grant or deny the district's request at his or her discretion.

(d) A local school district may submit a request to the commissioner of education to use capital outlay funds for maintenance expenditures or for the purchase of property insurance without forfeiting the district's participation in the School Facilities Construction Commission program. Maintenance requests may include other priorities that are not considered major renovations, such as repair, renovation, or system upgrades that are necessary to maintain the integrity of an existing school facility.

(5) The district may contribute capital outlay funds for energy conservation measures under guaranteed energy savings contracts pursuant to KRS 45A.345, 45A.352, and 45A.353. Use of these funds, provided in KRS 45A.353, 56.774, and 58.600, shall be based on the following:

(a) The energy conservation measures shall include facility alteration;

(b) The energy conservation measures shall be identified in the district's approved facility plan;

(c) The current facility systems are consuming excess maintenance and operating costs;

(d) The savings generated by the energy conservation measures are guaranteed;

(e) The capital outlay funds contributed to the energy conservation measures shall be defined as capital cost avoidance as provided in KRS 45A.345(2) and shall be subject to the restrictions on usage as specified in KRS 45A.352(9); and

(f) The equipment that is replaced shall have exceeded its useful life as determined by a life-cycle cost analysis.

(6) If any district has a special levy for capital outlay or debt service that is equal to the capital outlay allotment or a proportionate fraction thereof, and spends the proceeds of that levy for the above-named purposes, the commissioner of education under administrative regulations of the Kentucky Board of Education, may authorize the district to use all or a proportionate fraction of its capital outlay allotment for current expenses. However, a district which uses capital outlay funds for current expenses shall not be eligible to participate in the School Facilities Construction Commission funds, except when the current expenditures are approved by the commissioner of education under subsection (4)(b) or (c) of this section.

(7) If a survey shows that a school district has no capital outlay needs as shown in subsection (4)(a)1., 2., 3., and 4. of this section, upon approval of the commissioner of education, these funds may be used for school plant maintenance, repair, insurance on buildings, replacement of equipment, purchase of school buses, and the purchase of modern technological equipment, including telecommunications hardware, televisions, computers, and other technological hardware to be utilized for educational purposes only.

(8) In surveying the schools, the Department of Education shall designate each school facility as a permanent, functional, or transitional center.

(a) "Permanent center" means a center which meets the program standards approved by the Kentucky Board of Education, is located so that students are not subjected to an excessive amount of time being transported to the site, and has established an attendance area which will maintain enrollment at capacity but will also avoid overcrowding.

(b) "Functional center" means a center which does not meet all the criteria established for a permanent facility, but is adequate to meet accreditation program standards to insure no substantial academic or building deficiency. The facility plan shall include additions and renovations necessary to meet current accreditation standards for which federal, state, and local funds may be used.

(c) "Transitional center" means a center which the local board of education has determined shall no longer be designated permanent or functional. The center shall be destined to be closed and shall not be eligible for new construction, additions, or major renovation. However, the board of education shall maintain any operating transitional center to provide a safe and healthy environment for students.

(9) Beginning in fiscal year 2011-2012, the Kentucky Department of Education shall standardize the process for evaluating the overall quality and condition of all school buildings across the state. The evaluation process shall:

(a) Result in consistent categorization of buildings for local planning purposes and for the distribution of state general fund moneys designated for capital construction;

(b) Be based on measurable, objective criteria;

(c) Include numerical scoring with weights to recognize building components and characteristics that address:

1. Life safety issues;
2. Compliance with state and federal codes;
3. Compliance with requirements under the Americans with Disabilities Act;
4. Community spaces;
5. Instructional areas;
6. Mechanical, electrical, plumbing, and other technology systems;
7. Site and exterior building conditions;
8. Age of the buildings;
9. Feasibility of building additions or major renovations;
10. The districts' facility capacities;
11. Current use of temporary facilities; and
12. Projected enrollment growth; and

(d) Use of a third-party evaluator that utilizes an already established software-based system to perform the first, base-line evaluation.

(10) The Kentucky Board of Education shall promulgate an administrative regulation upon recommendation of the Kentucky Department of Education and the School Facilities Construction Commission to implement subsection (9) of this section.

(11) If a local school board authorized elementary, middle, or secondary education classes in a facility of a historical settlement school on January 1, 1994, the board shall continue to use the facilities provided by the settlement school if the facilities meet health and safety standards for education facilities as required by administrative regulations. The local school board and the governing body of the settlement school shall enter into a cooperative agreement that delineates the role, responsibilities, and financial obligations for each party.

(12) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsections (4) and (6) of this section, a local district that has requested a mid-year adjustment in the support education excellence in Kentucky funding under KRS 157.360(16) may request permission from the commissioner of education to use capital outlay funds for the purchase of school buses or to use the capital outlay funds for increased operational expenses for the first three (3) years following the increased growth in the district without forfeiture of the district's participation in the School Facilities Construction Commission Program. The commissioner may grant or deny the district's request.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

1. School Closing.

Although school board did not specifically refer to school as a possible "functional center", it clearly considered all ramifications, under this section, of keeping school open; thus, decision to close school was not arbitrary. *Coppage v. 157.430. Percentage reduction in allotments in case of insufficient appropriation by General Assembly.

If, when the apportionments are being determined under the provisions of KRS 157.310 to 157.440, funds appropriated by the General Assembly to the public school fund are insufficient to provide the amount of money required under KRS 157.390, the chief state school officer, unless otherwise provided by the General Assembly in a budget bill, shall make a percentage reduction in the allotments to reduce the total of these allotments to funds available.

Legislative Research Commission Notes.

By reason of the amendment of KRS 157.390 by Acts 1985 (Ex. Sess.), ch. 10, § 6, a technical correction has been made in the reference to that section by the Reviser of Statutes, pursuant to KRS 7.136.

Former KRS 157.430 (Enact. Acts 1954, ch. 214, sec. 13; 1956, ch. 106, secs. 7, 8; 1960, ch. 145, sec. 9; 1964, ch. 171, sec. 1) was repealed by Acts 1974, ch. 363, sec. 18, effective June 30, 1976.

157.440. Levy of an equivalent tax rate — Participation in Facilities Support Program — District may exceed levy authorized by KRS 160.470.

(1)(a) Notwithstanding any statutory provisions to the contrary, effective for school years beginning after July 1, 1990, the board of education of each school district may levy an equivalent tax rate as defined in subsection (9)(a) of KRS 160.470 which will produce up to fifteen percent (15%) of those revenues guaranteed by the program to support education excellence in Kentucky. The levy for the 1990-91 school year shall be made no later than October 1, 1989, and no later than October 1, 1990, for the 1991-92 school year, and by October 1 of each odd-numbered year thereafter. Effective with the 1990-91 school year, revenue generated by this levy shall be equalized at one hundred fifty percent (150%) of the statewide average per pupil assessment.

(b) To participate in the Facilities Support Program of Kentucky, the board of education of each school district shall commit at least an equivalent tax rate of five cents ($0.05) to debt service, new facilities, or major renovations of existing school facilities, or the purchase of land if approved by the commissioner of education as provided in KRS 157.420(4)(b). The five cents ($0.05) shall be in addition to the thirty cents ($0.30) required by KRS 160.470(9) and any levy pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection. The levy shall be made no later than October 1 of each odd-numbered year. Eligibility for equalization funds for the biennium shall be based on the district funds committed to debt service on that date. The five cents ($0.05) shall be equalized at one hundred fifty percent (150%) of the statewide average per pupil assessment. The equalization funds shall be committed to debt service to the greatest extent possible, but any excess equalization funds not needed for debt service shall be deposited to a restricted building fund account. The funds may be escrowed for future debt service or used to address categorical priorities listed in the approved facilities plan pursuant to KRS 157.420.

(c) The board of education of each school district may contribute the levy equivalent tax rate of five cents ($0.05) and equalization funds for energy conservation measures under guaranteed energy savings contracts pursuant to KRS 45A.345, 45A.352, and 45A.353. Use of these funds, as provided under KRS 45A.353, 56.774, and 58.600 shall be based on the following guidelines:

1. Energy conservation measures shall include facility alteration;
2. Energy conservation measures shall be identified in the district's approved facility plan pursuant to KRS 157.420;
3. The current facility systems are consuming excess maintenance and operating costs;
4. The savings generated by the energy conservation measures are guaranteed;
5. The levy equivalent tax rate of five cents ($0.05) and equalization funds contributed to the energy conservation measures shall be defined as capital cost avoidance as provided in KRS 45A.345(2) and shall be subject to the restrictions on usage as specified in KRS 45A.352(9); and
6. The equipment that is replaced has exceeded its useful life as determined by a life cycle cost analysis.

(d) The rate levied by a district board of education under the provisions of this subsection shall not be subject to the public hearing provisions of KRS 160.470(7) or to the recall provisions of KRS 160.470(8).

(e) A school district which is at or above the equivalent tax rates permitted under the provisions of the Kentucky Education Reform Act of 1990, 1990 Ky. Acts ch. 476, shall not be required to levy an equivalent tax rate which is lower than the rate levied during the 1989-90 school year.

(2)(a) A district may exceed the maximum provided by subsection (1) of KRS 160.470 provided that, upon request of the board of education of the district, the county board of elections shall submit to the qualified voters of the district, in the manner of submitting and voting as prescribed in paragraph (b) of this subsection, the question whether a rate which would produce revenues in excess of the maximum provided by subsection (1) of KRS 160.470 shall be levied. The rate that may be levied under this section may produce revenue up to no more than thirty percent (30%) of the revenue guaranteed by the program to support education excellence in Kentucky plus the revenue produced by the tax authorized by this section. Revenue produced by this levy shall not be equalized with state funds. If a majority of those voting on the question favor the increased rate, the tax levying authority shall, when the next tax rate for the district is fixed, levy a rate not to exceed the rate authorized by the voters.

(b) The election shall be held not less than fifteen (15) or more than thirty (30) days from the time the request of the board is filed with the county clerk, and reasonable notice of the election shall be given. The election shall be conducted and carried out in the school district in all respects as required by the general election laws and shall be held by the same officers as required by the general election laws. The expense of the election shall be borne by the school district.

(3) For the 1966 tax year and for all subsequent years for levies which were approved prior to December 8, 1965, no district board of education shall levy a tax at a rate under the provisions of this section which exceeds the compensating tax rate as defined in KRS 132.010, except as provided in subsection (4) of this section and except that a rate which has been approved by the voters under this section but which was not levied by the district board of education in 1965 may be levied after it has been reduced to the compensating tax rate as defined in KRS 132.010, and except that in any school district where the rate levied in 1965 was less than the maximum rate which had been approved by the voters, the compensating tax rate shall be computed and may be levied as though the maximum approved rate had been levied in 1965 and the amount of revenue which would have been produced from such maximum levy had been derived therefrom.

(4) Notwithstanding the limitations contained in subsection (3) of this section, no tax rate shall be set lower than that necessary to provide such funds as are required to meet principal and interest payments on outstanding bonded indebtedness and payments of rentals in connection with any outstanding school revenue bonds issued under the provisions of KRS Chapter 162.

(5) The chief state school officer shall certify the compensating tax rate to the levying authorities.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Analysis

1. Submission to Voters.
2. — Unrelated Objective.
3. Specification of Maximum Rate.
4. Listing of Existing Taxes.
5. Referendum Not Required.
6. Increase in Building Fund Levy.
7. Voter Recall Election.
8. School Funding.

1. Submission to Voters.

The Legislature in this section has taken cognizance of the two (2) entirely separate and distinct tax rate limitations of KRS 157.380 (now repealed) and 160.475 and provided that the maximum levy under either statute may be exceeded only by a vote of the people. Holmes v. Walden, 394 S.W.2d 458, 1965 Ky. LEXIS 182 (Ky. 1965).

2. — Unrelated Objective.

Combining unrelated objectives in a single question is not necessarily improper or invalid and proposition presenting an essentially unified scheme, all parts of which were reasonably related afforded voter a free and fair choice in determining the merits of the proposal and two (2) separate questions as to whether taxpayer was for or against a combined tax authorization for public school purposes were proper as to form and substance. Hulbert v. Board of Education, 382 S.W.2d 389, 1964 Ky. LEXIS 342 (Ky. 1964).

3. Specification of Maximum Rate.

With respect to the matter of fixing a specific rate this section makes it clear that only a maximum rate need be specified in the proposition submitted to the voters. Hopson v. Board of Education, 280 S.W.2d 489, 1955 Ky. LEXIS 154 (Ky. 1955).

4. Listing of Existing Taxes.

No law requires the listing on the ballot of existing taxes in the proposal for a new tax. Hulbert v. Board of Education, 382 S.W.2d 389, 1964 Ky. LEXIS 342 (Ky. 1964).

5. Referendum Not Required.

Although county voted tax rate was higher, referendum in former city school district was not necessary condition precedent to imposition of uniform tax rate throughout city-county merged school district since the situation of the residents of the former city school district is analogous to that of property owners who automatically become liable for a voted indebtedness of a city upon annexation of their property. Board of Education v. Harville, 416 S.W.2d 730, 1967 Ky. LEXIS 280 (Ky. 1967).

6. Increase in Building Fund Levy.

Where voted building fund levy of school district had always been insufficient to meet rental payments required for the payment of revenue bonds so that part thereof had been paid from the general fund levy, the addition of subsection (7) to KRS 160.477 (now repealed) in a 1965 “rollback” act did not authorize an increase in building fund levy over the compensating rate as defined in KRS 132.010 to pay all of such rentals since subsection (3) of this section and 160.477(7) simply restate and reaffirm the proposition that bond and rental payments must come out of the building fund levy, or out of the extra voted general fund levy or out of the basic general fund levy. Fayette County Board of Education v. White, 410 S.W.2d 612, 1966 Ky. LEXIS 37 (Ky. 1966).

7. Voter Recall Election.

County board of education’s levy of a utility gross receipts licenses tax, designed to produce additional revenue up to 15% of the base funding level, was subject to statutory recall election provisions. Board of Educ. v. Brooks, 824 S.W.2d 431, 1992 Ky. App. LEXIS 22 (Ky. Ct. App. 1992).

The 1990 change in KRS 160.470(10) and (11) (now 160.470(7) and (8)) prevents voter recall of a property tax levy if the tax revenue is intended to provide mandatory minimum base funding or permissive Tier One funding, but under the previous funding scheme, the “notwithstanding” language of KRS 160.470 had no abrogative effect on voter recall of permissive utility taxes and the General Assembly preserved this right in the funding scheme. Board of Educ. v. Brooks, 824 S.W.2d 431, 1992 Ky. App. LEXIS 22 (Ky. Ct. App. 1992).

8. School Funding.

The present school funding statutes permit local boards of education to raise funds through property taxes and permissive taxes such as the utilities tax; base funding and Tier One funding can be produced by a property tax not subject to voter recall and this nonrecallable option enables boards of education to fund schools without relying on permissive taxes; the General Assembly has supplied a mechanism to satisfy base funding, as well as Tier One funding according to the mandate of Section 183 of the Kentucky Constitution; and that is all that Rose v. Council for Better Educ., Inc., 790 S.W.2d 186, 1989 Ky. LEXIS 55 (Ky. 1989) requires. Board of Educ. v. Brooks, 824 S.W.2d 431, 1992 Ky. App. LEXIS 22 (Ky. Ct. App. 1992).

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

A fiscal court may legally levy a tax at a figure above the $1.50 maximum set by KRS 160.475 where the figure is the amount necessary to provide the required local tax effort for participation in the Minimum Foundation Program by the local school district. OAG 65-600.

Former subsections (2) and (4) of KRS 160.470 relate to the basic general fund levy while former subsection (6) of KRS 160.477 (now repealed) and subsection (2) of this section limit special voted levies to the compensating tax rate. Accordingly, these statutes do not authorize an independent school district to apply a 10 percent increase to the special voted tax in effect in the district. OAG 67-300.

The maximum property tax levies for a merged school district for 1968-1969 are calculated as follows: (a) To the revenue that would be produced by applying the old city districts basic general fund levy for 1967-1968 to the assessment for that year add the revenue that would be produced by applying the old county (as it existed before the merger) district’s basic general fund levy for 1967-1968 to the assessment for that year. The sum of these figures is the total amount of ad valorem tax revenue in the computation of the maximum permissible ad valorem tax revenue under subsection (3) of KRS 160.470. The proper basic fund levy can be calculated from the combined revenue and combined assessment figures (with net growth treated separately as indicated by former subdivision (3)(b) of KRS 160.470); (b) The special voted general fund rate (KRS 157.440) should be calculated at the proper compensating tax rate under the formula established in subdivision (6) of KRS 132.010 based on the 1965 revenue from this source and the 1966 assessment; (c) The special voted building fund rate (KRS 160.477 (now repealed)) should be calculated at the proper “compensating tax rate,” again using the formula appearing in subdivision (6) of KRS 132.010; (d) The overall tax rate can then be determined by adding the rates in (a), (b), and (c) above. OAG 68-343.

A county board of education cannot, under the authority of subsection (3) of this section, levy a tax sufficient to meet the principal and interest payments on an outstanding bond issue authorized by the voters under this section and incurred to finance the construction of a high school, if the bond and rental requirements can be met by the use of total school district tax revenue. OAG 70-302.

Inasmuch as the state is only liable for its share of the expense of a special school tax election if the election is paid for by the county, the state would not be authorized to pay any portion of the election cost where the expense is paid by a citizens’ educational advisory committee. OAG 76-214.

Even though the 1990 amendment to KRS 160.470 by Ch. 476, § 105 set a new maximum equivalent tax rate, since in subdivision (1)(c) of this section the 1990 amendment by Ch. 476, § 107 to that section provided that any school district, which is at or above the equivalent tax rate permitted, shall not be required to levy an equivalent tax rate which is lower than the rate levied during the 1989-90 school year, Jefferson County may keep its equivalent tax rate at 75.9 cents for the 1990-91 school year. OAG 90-45.

When levying a utilities gross receipts license tax for the purpose of complying with the minimum equivalent tax rate requirement set forth in KRS 160.470(12)(a) (now 160.470(9)(a)) or for the purpose of participating in the “Tier 1” program set forth in this section, a school board must follow the notice and hearing requirements of KRS 160.593 and KRS 160.603, but the recall provisions of KRS 160.597 do not apply. OAG 90-88.

EFFICIENT SCHOOL DESIGN

157.450. Intent of KRS 157.450 and 157.455.

It is the intent of KRS 157.450 and 157.455 to:

(1) Support the construction of new school buildings and the renovation of existing school buildings in a manner that will create a healthy environment for students and teachers while saving energy, resources, and operational expenses; and

(2) Encourage the use of a life-cycle cost, holistic approach to building design that considers school design, construction, operation, and maintenance in the initial decision-making process.

History.

Enact. Acts 2010, ch. 134, § 1, effective July 15, 2010.

157.455. Definitions — Legislative findings — Efficient school design — Development of guidelines — Assistance to school districts.

(1) As used in this section:

(a) “Life-cycle cost analysis” means to calculate and compare different building designs to identify which is the best investment over the long term. Life-cycle costs include design and construction costs, operating costs, maintenance costs, and repair and replacement costs, adjusted for the time value of money;

(b) “Net zero building” means a building in which the amount of energy provided by on-site renewable energy sources is equal to the amount of energy used by the building; and

(c) “Efficient school design” means a school building design:

1. That meets, at a minimum, the requirements of the United States Green Building Council’s Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design (LEED) for schools at the “Certified” level or certification under a comparable system with equivalent requirements or other building performance certification systems, such as the United States Department of Energy’s Energy Star program;

2. That ensures energy savings from a building design that equates to or exceeds ten percent (10%) over the American Society of Heating, Refrigerating, and Air Conditioning Engineers energy standard 90.1-2007; and

3. For which whole building life-cycle cost analysis illustrates that the design is cost-effective.

(2) The General Assembly hereby finds that schools that are constructed or renovated using efficient school design are proven effective vehicles for accomplishing some or all of the following beneficial public purposes:

(a) Lower operating costs and increased asset value;

(b) Reduced waste sent to landfills;

(c) Conservation of energy and water;

(d) Reduced storm drainage runoff;

(e) Healthier, safer environments for occupants;

(f) Reduced emissions of greenhouse gases; and

(g) Improved student attendance and performance

by:

1. Using the building as a teaching tool;

2. Using the local environment as a context for curriculum integration;

3. Providing rigorous, highly relevant, and applied learning; and

4. Improving productivity by making buildings healthier for occupants, especially through the increased use of natural light.

(3) The Kentucky Department of Education and all school districts undertaking the construction of new school buildings or the major renovation of existing school buildings are strongly encouraged to:

(a) Meet or exceed efficient school design standards in planning and designing all new buildings and major renovation projects;

(b) Use life-cycle cost analysis to evaluate different design proposals; and

(c) Consider the possibility that each new school building or major renovation of a building could be a net zero building, either during the construction or renovation, or at a later date as resources become available.

(4) The Department of Education shall develop and adopt guidelines for efficient school design, net zero buildings, and life-cycle cost analysis, including the identification of appropriate computer-based simulation programs for use in undertaking life-cycle cost analysis.

(5) The Department of Education and the Office of Energy Policy shall assist school districts in:

(a) Developing methods for measuring ongoing operating savings resulting from the use of efficient school design;

(b) Identifying sources for training for school staff and students to ensure that efficient school design features and components are fully utilized; and

(c) Identifying ways that efficient school design and its energy-saving components can be integrated into the school curriculum.

SCHOOL FACILITIES CONSTRUCTION COMMISSION

157.611. School Facilities Construction Commission — Legislative intent.

(1) By establishing the School Facilities Construction Commission, the General Assembly expresses its commitment to help local districts meet the school construction needs and the education technology needs of the state in a manner which will insure an equitable distribution of funds based on unmet facilities need and the total implementation of the Kentucky Education Technology System.

(2) The commission is empowered to act on behalf of school districts to issue bonds in the name of the commission and to enter into lease agreements with local boards of education to finance construction of new facilities, major renovation of existing school facilities. The commission is also empowered to enter into agreements which may provide for a percentage discount, on a biennially renewable basis, of annual lease agreements due the commission for those districts which participate. The commission is also empowered to enter into lease agreements with the Department of Education to build state-owned facilities operated by the Department of Education or to purchase or lease education technology equipment and related software identified in the technology master plan for those facilities or the Department of Education.

(3) The commission shall assist local school boards meet their education technology needs by distributing state funds appropriated for this purpose and by assisting school boards to design efficient finance plans for the bonding, purchase or lease of education technology equipment and related software identified in the technology master plan.

(4) The commission shall administer two (2) separate programs: the school construction funding program and the education technology funding program. Funds appropriated for each program shall be maintained, administered, and audited separately.

(5) Nothing in KRS 157.611 to 157.640 shall prohibit a school district from issuing bonds in accordance with KRS Chapter 162.

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

The Kentucky School Facilities Construction Commission Act, KRS 157.611 to 157.640, does not give the Commission unilateral power to choose whether that Act or KRS 162.120 to 162.300 will be used to finance school building construction. OAG 86-50.

The Kentucky School Facilities Construction Commission can enter into participation agreements with local school districts providing for the payment of debt service on bonds issued by local issuing agencies without the necessity of taking title and leasing school projects to local districts. OAG 86-50.

Construction projects for which the School Facilities Construction Commission may provide assistance are those listed on the school facilities plans of eligible school districts approved as of June 30 of the year preceding the session of the General Assembly at which funding for the projects is provided through the appropriation of funds for the payment of debt service on the Commission's bonds. As a result, offers of assistance made by the Commission under the applicable statutes are, by statutory necessity, specific as to projects, and the Commission does not have the authority to allow a school district to expend funds available to the district under the original offer of assistance for a project which was not on the approved facility plan as of June 30 of the year preceding the biennium in which funding is approved, but which has since been added to a duly approved facility plan. OAG 87-46.

As used in KRS 157.611 to 157.640, unless the context requires otherwise:

(1) "Available local revenue" means the sum of the school building fund account balance; the bonding potential of the capital outlay and building funds; and the capital outlay fund account balance on June 30 of odd-numbered years. These accounts shall be as defined in the manual for Kentucky school financial accounting systems;

(2) "Board of education" means the governing body of a county school district or an independent school district;

(3) "Bonds" or "bonds of the commission" means bonds issued by the commission, or issued by a city, county, or other agency or instrumentality of the Board of Education, in accordance with KRS Chapter 162, payable as to principal and interest from rentals received from a board of education or from the department pursuant to a lease or from contributions from the commission, and constitute municipal bonds exempt from taxation under the Constitution of the Commonwealth;

(4) "Department" means the State Department of Education;

(5) "District technology plan" means the plan developed by the local district and the Department of Education and approved by the Kentucky Board of Education upon the recommendation of the Council for Education Technology;

(6) "Equivalent tax rate" means the rate which results when the income from all taxes levied by the district for school purposes is divided by the total assessed value of property plus the assessment for motor vehicles certified by the Department of Revenue as provided by KRS 160.470;

(7) "Kentucky Education Technology System" means the statewide system set forth in the technology master plan issued by the Kentucky Board of Education with the recommendation of the Council for Education Technology and approved by the Legislative Research Commission;

(8) "Lease" or "lease instrument" means a written instrument for the leasing of one (1) or more school projects executed by the commission as lessor and a board of education as lessee, or executed by the commission as lessor and the department as lessee, as the case may be;

(9) "Lease/purchase agreement" means a lease between the school district or the department and a vendor that includes an option to purchase the technology equipment or software at the end of the lease period;

(10) "Percentage discount" means the degree to which the commission will participate in meeting the bond and interest redemption schedule required to amortize bonds issued by the commission on behalf of a local school district;

(11) "Project" means a defined item of need to construct new facilities or to provide major renovation of existing facilities which is identified on the priority schedule of the approved school facilities plan;

(12) "School facilities plan" means the plan developed pursuant to the survey specified by KRS 157.420 and by administrative regulations of the Kentucky Board of Education;

(13) "Technology master plan" means the long-range plan for the implementation of the Kentucky Education Technology System as developed by the Council for Education Technology and approved by the Kentucky Board of Education and the Legislative Research Commission;

(14) "Unmet facilities need" means the total cost of new construction and major renovation needs as shown by the approved school facilities plan less any available local revenue;

(15) “Unmet technology need” means the total cost of technology need as shown by the approved technology plan of the local district; and

(16) “Eligible district” means any local school district having an unmet facilities need, as defined in this section, in excess of one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) or a district qualifying for education technology funding.

157.617. Creation — Powers — Members — Duties.

(1) An independent corporate agency and instrumentality of the Commonwealth is hereby created and established with all the general corporate powers incidental thereto. The corporation shall be known as “The School Facilities Construction Commission” and shall be endowed with perpetual succession and with the power to contract and to be contracted with, to sue and be sued, to have and to use a corporate seal, to adopt bylaws and regulations, subject to the provisions of KRS Chapter 13A, for the orderly conduct of its affairs.

(2) The commission shall consist of the secretary of the Finance and Administration Cabinet and eight (8) members appointed by the Governor. The members shall possess a knowledge of long-term debt financing or school facility planning and construction. Appointment shall become effective on January 1 and end on December 31, except the initial appointments shall become effective when made by the Governor. Members shall serve staggered six (6) year terms, except when making the initial appointments three (3) members shall be appointed for six (6) year terms, three (3) members shall be appointed for four (4) year terms, and two (2) members shall be appointed for two (2) year terms. The Governor shall appoint a chairman and vice chairman for the first year; thereafter a chairman and vice chairman shall be elected annually by the membership. The commission may elect other officers it considers necessary and shall employ a director and staff necessary to manage the program.

(3) If any of the officers of the commission whose signatures or facsimiles thereof appear on any bonds of the commission, or on any other instruments or documents pertaining to the functions of the commission, shall cease to be such officers before delivery of the bonds, or before the effective date or occasion of such instruments or documents, the signatures, and facsimiles thereof, shall nevertheless be valid for all purposes the same as if the officers had remained in office until such delivery or effective date or occasion.

(4) Officers, employees, and agents of the commission having custody of money shall at all times be bonded to the maximum amount reasonably anticipated to be held at any one (1) time; and each bond shall have good corporate surety, provided by a surety company authorized to do business in the Commonwealth, to be approved in each instance by the commission. Premiums for such surety shall be paid from the budgeted funds of the commission.

(5) The commission shall at all times keep and maintain books of record and account reflecting accurately all its financial transactions. The commission shall be audited annually and shall submit a written report of its activities to the Governor. A copy of each report shall be filed with the Legislative Research Commission.

(6) Moneys received by the commission as rentals under any lease, and from the sale of bonds are declared not to be funds of the Commonwealth, but shall be corporate funds of the commission to be held, administered, invested, and disbursed as trust funds under the terms, provisions, pledges, covenants, and agreements set forth in its leases and bond resolutions and bonds.

(7) The commission and all of its transactions, activities, and proceedings in the authorization and issuance of its bonds, execution of leases, acceptance of conveyances of property, transaction of conveyances of property, and otherwise, shall be exempt from all provisions relating to custodianship by the Secretary of State of title documents, leases, abstracts of title, maps, and other records as provided in KRS 56.020 and 56.320. Conveyances of property to or by the commission shall not be deemed to be conveyances to or by the Commonwealth, and title to any property acquired by the commission shall be held by the commission in its own name.

(8) The Finance and Administration Cabinet shall provide technical assistance to the commission in the issuance of bonds.

157.618. Emergency and targeted investment fund — Purposes — Reimbursement requirement — Administrative regulations — Annual report.

(1) The emergency and targeted investment fund is hereby created as a restricted fund in the State Treasury, to be administered by the School Facilities Construction Commission.

(2)(a) Notwithstanding KRS 45.229 or any other provision of the Kentucky Revised Statutes, any appropriations to the School Facilities Construction Commission that have not been expended at the end of a fiscal year shall not lapse but shall be transferred to the emergency and targeted investment fund. The fund may also receive other appropriations from the General Assembly and reimbursements from local school districts.

(b) Notwithstanding KRS 45.229, amounts remaining in the emergency and targeted investment fund at the end of a fiscal year shall not lapse but shall be carried forward to the next fiscal year, to be used for the purposes set forth in this section.

(3) Notwithstanding KRS 157.620 and 157.622, the commission may use moneys in the fund to:

(a) Offer grants for the purposes of financing the construction and equipping of new facilities, or the major renovation of current facilities, if a local school district's facilities are:

1. Destroyed or severely damaged by an emergency. For the purposes of this paragraph, "emergency" means a condition that arises from an accident, catastrophe, or other unforeseen occurrence such as a fire, storm, flood, or other event that involves unusual danger to the lives or property of area residents; or

2. Destroyed or severely damaged through a criminal or negligent act; or

(b) Award a cash grant to a school district to assist in bringing the school up to code if:

1. A school building is to be closed by a state or federal official or agency, including the state fire marshal or the Department for Environmental Protection; and

2. The Kentucky Department of Education has declared the situation to be an emergency.

(4) If a school district receives assistance from the commission under this section and subsequently, as a result of litigation or insurance, receives funds for the original facility, the school district shall reimburse the fund an amount equal to the amount received pursuant to this section. If the litigation or insurance receipts are less than the amount received under this section, the district shall reimburse the fund an amount equal to the amount received as a result of litigation or insurance, less the district's costs and legal fees in securing the judgment or payment.

(5) The commission, in cooperation with the department, shall promulgate administrative regulations under KRS Chapter 13A establishing the process to apply for and receive funds from the emergency and targeted investment fund.

(6) By October 1 of each year, the commission shall provide a report on the fund's activities to the Legislative Research Commission.

157.620. School district participation requirements.

(1) To participate in the school construction funding program, the district must have unmet needs as defined by KRS 157.615 and must meet the following eligibility criteria:

(a) Commit at least an equivalent tax rate of five cents ($0.05) to debt service, new facilities, or major renovations of existing school facilities as defined by KRS 157.440. A district that levies the five cents ($0.05) and has not accepted an official offer of assistance from the School Facilities Construction Commission, made pursuant to KRS 157.611, may use receipts from the levy for other purposes as determined by the district board of education.

(b) On July 1 of odd-numbered years, the district board of education shall restrict all available local revenue, as defined by KRS 157.615, for school building construction, to be utilized in accordance with the priorities determined by the most current school facilities plan approved by the Kentucky Board of Education.

(2) Interest earned on restricted funds required by this section shall become a part of the restricted funds.

(3) Funds restricted by the requirements of this section may be used by the district for projects or a portion thereof as listed in priority order on the approved school facilities plan prior to receiving state funds. Any local school district which is not an eligible district may be permitted, upon written application to the Department of Education, to transfer funds restricted by KRS 157.611 to 157.640 for other school purposes.

(4) Not later than October 15 of the year immediately preceding an even-numbered year regular session of the General Assembly, the Kentucky Board of Education shall submit a statement to the School Facilities Construction Commission certifying the following in each district:

(a) The amount of school facility construction needs in each district;

(b) The amount of available local revenue in each district; and

(c) That the district has or has not met the eligibility criteria established by subsection (1) of this section.

(5) Construction needs shall be those needs specified in the school facilities plan approved by the Kentucky Board of Education as of June 30 of the year preceding an even-numbered year regular session of the General Assembly.

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

Construction projects for which the School Facilities Construction Commission may provide assistance are those listed on the school facilities plans of eligible school districts approved as of June 30 of the year preceding the session of the General Assembly at which funding for the projects is provided through the appropriation of funds for the payment of debt service on the Commission's bonds. As a result, offers of assistance made by the Commission under the applicable statutes are, by statutory necessity, specific as to projects, and the Commission does not have the authority to allow a school district to expend funds available to the district under the original offer of assistance for a project which was not on the approved facility plan as of June 30 of the year preceding the biennium in which funding is approved, but which has since been added to a duly approved facility plan. OAG 87-46.

The plain language of this section permits the county prospectively to commit 5¢ of the 36.2¢ equivalent tax rate now in effect for debt service, new facilities or major renovations of existing school facilities in order to qualify to participate in the school construction funding program, regardless of the fact that in the past the district may not have had a voted building tax. OAG 90-80.

This section permits any district which has a current levy exceeding both the required 30¢ and the 5¢ tax, not to levy an additional tax. OAG 90-80.

157.621. Additional tax levies for debt service, new facilities, and major renovations in school districts with student population growth — Criteria — Equalization funding.

(1) In addition to the levy required by KRS 157.440(1)(b) to participate in the Facilities Support Program of Kentucky, local school districts that have made the levy required by KRS 157.440(1)(b) are authorized to levy the following additional equivalent rates to support debt service, new facilities, or major renovations of existing school facilities, which levies shall not be subject to recall under any provision of the Kentucky Revised Statutes, or to voter approval under the provisions of KRS 157.440(2):

(a)1. Prior to April 24, 2008, local school districts that have experienced student population growth during a five (5) year period may levy an additional five cents ($0.05) equivalent rate for debt service and new facilities. The tax rate levied by the district under this provision shall not be equalized by state funding, except as provided in paragraph (b) of this subsection. Any levy imposed under this paragraph prior to April 24, 2008, by a local school district shall continue until removed by the local school district.

2. A local school district shall meet the following criteria in order to levy the tax provided in subparagraph 1. of this paragraph:

a. Growth of at least one hundred fifty (150) students in average daily attendance and three percent (3%) overall growth for the five (5) preceding years;

b. Bonded debt to the maximum capability of at least eighty percent (80%) of capital outlay from the Support Education Excellence in Kentucky funding program, all revenue from the local facility tax, and all receipts from state equalization on the local facility tax;

c. Current student enrollment in excess of available classroom space; and

d. A local school facility plan that has been approved by the Kentucky Board of Education and certified to the School Facilities Construction Commission;

(b)1. In addition to the levy authorized by paragraph (a) of this subsection, a local school district may levy an additional five cents ($0.05) equivalent rate under the same terms and conditions established by paragraph (a) of this subsection beginning in fiscal year 2003-2004 if the levy was made prior to April 24, 2008, and if the local school district:

- a. Levied the five cents ($0.05) equivalent rate authorized by paragraph (a) of this subsection; and
 - b. Still meets the requirements established by paragraph (a)2. of this subsection.
2. Any school district that imposes both the levy authorized by paragraph (a) of this subsection and the additional levy authorized by subparagraph 1. of this paragraph shall receive equalization funding from the state for the levy imposed by paragraph (a) of this subsection beginning in fiscal year 2003-2004. Equalization shall be provided at one hundred fifty percent (150%) of the statewide average per pupil assessment, subject to the provision of funding by the General Assembly. Equalization funds shall be used as provided in KRS 157.440(1)(b).
3. Any levy imposed under this paragraph prior to April 24, 2008, by a local school district shall continue until removed by the local school district; and
- (c)1. A local school district that meets the following conditions may levy an additional five cents ($0.05) equivalent rate on and after April 24, 2008:
- a. The local school district is located in a county that will have more students as a direct result of the new mission established for Fort Knox by the Base Realignment and Closure (BRAC) 2005 issued by the United States Department of Defense pursuant to the Defense Base Closure and Realignment Act of 1990, Pub. L. No. 100-526, Part A of Title XXIX of 104 Stat. 1808, 10 U.S.C. sec. 2687 note; and
 - b. The commissioner of education has determined, based upon the presentation of credible data, that the projected increased number of students is sufficient to require new facilities or the major renovation of existing facilities to accommodate the new students, and has approved the imposition of the additional levy.
2. Any local school district that imposes both the levy authorized by paragraph (a) of this subsection and the additional levy authorized by subparagraph 1. of this paragraph, and that has not received equalization funding under subsection (2) or (3) of this section, shall receive equalization funding from the state for the levy imposed by paragraph (a) of this subsection beginning in the fiscal year following the fiscal year in which the levy authorized by subparagraph 1. of this paragraph is imposed. Equalization shall be provided at one hundred fifty percent (150%) of the statewide average per pupil assessment, subject to the provision of funding by the General Assembly. Equalization funds shall be used as provided in KRS 157.440(1)(b).
3. Any levy imposed under this paragraph by a local school district shall continue until removed by the local school district.

(2)(a) Any local school district that, prior to April 27, 2016, levied an equivalent rate that:

1. Was subject to recall at the time it was levied; and
2. Included a rate of at least five cents ($0.05) equivalent rate for the purpose of debt service for school construction or major renovation of existing school facilities; shall be eligible for retroactive equalization from the state for that levy at one hundred fifty percent (150%) of the statewide average per pupil assessment beginning in fiscal year 2003-2004, subject to the fiscal condition of the Commonwealth and the provision of funding by the General Assembly. Equalization funds shall be used as provided in KRS 157.440(1)(b).

(b) It is the intent of the General Assembly that for levies described in this subsection that are imposed on or after April 27, 2016, equalization funds, if provided by the General Assembly, shall terminate upon the earlier of June 30, 2038, or the date the bonds for the local school district supported by this equalization funding are retired. Equalization shall be subject to the fiscal condition of the Commonwealth and the provision of funding by the General Assembly.

(3) Any local school district that:

(a) Levied an equivalent tax rate as of April 24, 2008, that included at least ten cents ($0.10) that was devoted to building purposes, or that had debt service corresponding to a ten cents ($0.10) equivalent rate;

(b) Did not receive equalized growth funding pursuant to subsection (1)(b)2. of this section; and

(c) Has been approved by the commissioner of education;

shall be eligible for equalization from the state for that levy at one hundred fifty percent (150%) of the statewide average per pupil assessment beginning in fiscal year 2005-2006, subject to the provision of funding by the General Assembly. Equalization funds shall be used as provided in KRS 157.440(1)(b). Equalization funds shall be available to a local school district pursuant to this subsection until the earlier of June 30, 2038, or the date the bonds for the local school district supported by this equalization funding are retired.

(4)(a) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, any local school district receiving equalization funding prior to April 27, 2016, related to an equivalent rate levy described in subsection (1), (2), (3), or (5) of this section shall continue to receive the equalization funding related to the applicable equivalent rate levy, subject to the limitations established by subsections (1), (2), (3), and (5) of this section, and subject to the fiscal condition of the Commonwealth and the provision of funding by the General Assembly, until amended by subsequent action of the General Assembly. A local school district described in this paragraph shall not be eligible to receive equalization for any additional equivalent rate levies made by it on or after April 27, 2016.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, any local school district that has imposed an equivalent rate levy described in subsection (1)(a) or

(b) or (2) of this section prior to April 27, 2016, that qualifies for equalization but that has not yet received equalization funding shall be eligible for equalization funding as provided in subsection (1)(a) or (b) or (2) of this section, subject to the provision of funding by the General Assembly.

(c) On and after April 24, 2008, a local school district not included in paragraph (a) or (b) of this subsection shall be prohibited from imposing an equivalent rate levy under the provisions of subsection (1)(a) or (b) of this section, and shall not be eligible for equalization funding under the provisions of this section.

(d) On and after April 24, 2008, a local school district meeting the requirements of subsection (1)(c) of this section may impose the levy authorized by subsection (1)(c) of this section, and shall qualify for equalization as provided in subsection (1)(c) of this section, subject to the provision of funding by the General Assembly.

(5)(a) Any local school district that:

1. Had school facilities classified as Category 5 on May 18, 2010, by the Kentucky Department of Education; and

2. Levied an additional five cents ($0.05) equivalent tax rate prior to April 27, 2016, for debt service, new construction, and major renovation beyond the five cents ($0.05) equivalent tax rate required by KRS 157.440(1)(b), except as provided in paragraph (b) of this subsection; shall be eligible for equalization from the state for that levy at one hundred fifty percent (150%) of the statewide average per pupil assessment beginning in the fiscal year following the fiscal year in which the levy was imposed. This levy shall be subject to the recall provisions of KRS 132.017.

(b) School districts that levied a five cents ($0.05) equivalent tax rate for debt service, new construction, and major renovation, beyond the rate required by KRS 157.440(1)(b) prior to May 18, 2010, shall not be required to levy an additional tax to receive the equalization funds provided in paragraph (a) of this subsection.

(c) If the school district utilizes the equalization funds to support a bond issue for construction purposes, equalization funds shall be provided until the earlier of twenty (20) years or date the bonds are retired.

(d) In the event that a school district receives funding pursuant to this subsection to support construction of a new school facility and subsequently, as a result of litigation, receives funding for the same facility for which state funds were provided, that school district shall reimburse the Commonwealth an amount equal to the amount provided under paragraph (a) of this subsection. Any funds received in this manner shall be deposited in the budget reserve trust fund account established in KRS 48.705.

Legislative Research Commission Notes.

(4/27/2018). This statute was amended by 2018 Ky. Acts chs. 171 and 207, which do not appear to be in conflict and have been codified together.

(3/24/2009). 2009 Ky. Acts ch. 86, sec. 17, provides that “The intent of the General Assembly in repealing and reenacting KRS 136.392, 138.195, 141.160, 160.6156, 160.6157, 160.6158, 131.183, 141.044, 141.235, 134.580, 393.060, and 157.621 in Sections 1 to 12 of this Act is to affirm the amendments made to these sections in 2008 Ky. Acts ch. 132. The provisions in Sections 1 to 12 of this Act shall apply retroactively to April 24, 2008.”

(3/24/2009). 2009 Ky. Acts ch. 86, sec. 18, provides “To the extent that any provision included in this Act is considered new language, the provisions of KRS 446.145 requiring such new language to be underlined are notwithstanding.”

(4/24/2008). This section was amended by 2008 Ky. Acts chs. 80 and 132, in nearly identical form. After passage of House Bill 734 (which became 2008 Ky. Acts ch. 80), House Bill 704 (which became 2008 Ky. Acts ch. 132) was enacted containing amendments to this section that are identical to those in House bill 734, with the addition of a few phrases. While there is no conflict in the text of these Acts and they have been codified together, the phrase “the effective date of this Act” has been codified as “April 24, 2008,” in accordance with KRS 446.250, which provides that the last Act passed by the General Assembly prevails.

157.622. Assistance to school districts — Priority order of needs — Exception — Reallocation of funds — Disposition of bond savings and refinancing savings.

The School Facilities Construction Commission shall be governed by the following procedures in providing assistance to school districts for construction purposes:

(1) Upon receipt of the certified statements from the Kentucky Board of Education as required by KRS 157.620, the commission shall compute the unmet needs of all eligible districts as defined by KRS 157.615;

(2) Assistance to each eligible district shall be determined by computing the ratio of the available state funding to total unmet need statewide. Based on the computed ratio, an equivalent percentage of each eligible district's unmet need will be funded;

(3) Each eligible district which has otherwise complied with the provisions of KRS 157.615 and 157.620 shall be offered sufficient funding to finance construction of the portion of its unmet need computed by applying the ratio determined in subsection (2) of this section to the total unmet need of the district. The funds shall be applied to the projects listed on the most current facility plan approved by the Kentucky Board of Education, and the funds shall be applied to projects in the priority order listed on the plan. Exceptions to the priority order of projects may be approved by the School Facilities Construction Commission when it is documented by the local board of education and approved by the Kentucky Board of Education upon the recommendation of the chief state school officer that the school district's priority order of needs has changed. The exceptions shall not alter the amount of the offer of assistance;

(4) The commission shall promulgate administrative regulations whereby an eligible district which fails in any budget period to receive an allocation of state funds that is sufficient to fund the district's priority project or portions thereof may accumulate credit, subject to the availability of funds, for its unused state allocation for a period not to exceed eight (8) years. Accumulation and retention of credit is contingent upon the transfer of available local revenue to the restricted construction account by June 30 of each year;

(5) Except as provided in subsection (6) of this section, all unused state allocations accumulated according to the provisions of subsection (3) of this section shall be reallocated by the commission. The reallocation shall follow the process and intent as set forth in this section with eligible districts being those districts which contribute unused state allocations to the reallocation account. Any district which has an unused state allocation after funding its first priority project in a biennium is not eligible for consideration for additional funds from the reallocation account. Any funding received and utilized from the reallocation account by a district shall equally reduce the credit as set forth in this section; and

(6) Refinancing savings that have occurred since July 1, 1997, and subsequent savings to the commission generated over the life of a bond by the local district's refinancing of the bond shall be dedicated to the district's account by the commission. Any funds accumulated in this account shall be used toward the district's next priority, but shall not be deducted from the district's share of commission funds under subsection (3) of this section.

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

The Kentucky School Facilities Construction Commission can enter into participation agreements with local school districts providing for the payment of debt service on bonds issued by local issuing agencies without the necessity of taking title and leasing school projects to local districts. OAG 86-50.

Construction projects for which the School Facilities Construction Commission may provide assistance are those listed on the school facilities plans of eligible school districts approved as of June 30 of the year preceding the session of the General Assembly at which funding for the projects is provided through the appropriation of funds for the payment of debt service on the Commission's bonds. As a result, offers of assistance made by the Commission under the applicable statutes are, by statutory necessity, specific as to projects, and the Commission does not have the authority to allow a school district to expend funds available to the district under the original offer of assistance for a project which was not on the approved facility plan as of June 30 of the year preceding the biennium in which funding is approved, but which has since been added to a duly approved facility plan. OAG 87-46.

157.623. Funding urgent and critical construction needs — Proceeds of litigation or insurance to be used for reimbursement.

(1) Notwithstanding KRS 157.620 and any provision included in an enacted executive branch budget, urgent and critical construction needs shall be determined by the Department of Education. The department shall provide a funding allocation to a school district for a school that has been closed to the public because it is structurally unsound as determined by a certified engineer, or is otherwise uninhabitable as determined by the commissioner of education, and has a bond that has not been retired. The commissioner of education shall determine if a school qualifying under this subsection shall receive an allocation and shall determine which of the following options is in the best interest of the Commonwealth:

(a) To allot funding to the school district to retire the unpaid debt on the structurally unsound or uninhabitable building; or

(b) To provide the semi-annual debt service payments on the current issue.

(2) If funds are not available for the purpose set out in subsection (1) of this section, the costs shall be deemed a necessary government expense and shall be paid from the general fund surplus account under KRS 48.700 or the budget reserve trust fund under KRS 48.705.

(3) If a school district receives an allotment under subsection (1) of this section and subsequently, as the result of litigation or insurance, receives funds for the original facility, the school district shall reimburse the Commonwealth an amount equal to that received pursuant to subsection (1) of this section. If the litigation or insurance receipts are less than the amount received pursuant to subsection (1) of this section, the district shall reimburse the Commonwealth an amount equal to that received as a result of litigation or insurance less the district's costs and legal fees in securing the judgment or payment. Any funds received in this manner shall be deposited in the budget reserve trust fund account established in KRS 48.705.

157.625. Issuance of bonds.

(1) Bonds of the commission shall be issued in the name of the commission, shall be designated "school building revenue bonds" or, if appropriate, "school building revenue refunding bonds," and shall additionally be identified by the name of the board of education executing the lease. If the commission shall issue more than one (1) series of bonds for the same lessee from time to time, each series, including the first or subsequent to the first, shall additionally be identified distinctly by alphabetical or chronological designation, by date of the bonds, or otherwise as the commission may determine.

(2) For the purpose of determining any limit prescribed by any law for investment of any public funds, or funds of banks, trust companies, insurance companies, building and loan associations, credit unions, pension and retirement funds, and fiduciaries, in obligations of a single obligor, bonds issued by the commission pursuant to KRS 157.615 to 157.640 shall not be deemed to be bonds or obligations of the same obligor except to the aggregate of all series of bonds involving leases of a single board of education.

(3) Bonds issued by the commission under the provisions of KRS 157.615 to 157.640 are hereby made securities in which all public officers and public bodies of the Commonwealth and its political subdivisions, all insurance companies, trust companies, banking associations, investment companies, executors, trustees, and other fiduciaries, and all other persons whatsoever who are now or may hereafter be authorized to invest in bonds or other obligations of a similar nature may properly and legally invest funds, including capital in their control or belonging to them. The bonds are hereby made securities which may properly and legally be deposited with and received by any state or municipal officer or any agency or political subdivision of the Commonwealth for any purpose for which the deposit of bonds or other obligations of the Commonwealth is now or may hereafter be authorized by law.

(4) Nothing contained herein shall be construed to prohibit a board of education from electing to issue bonds on the local level through a city, county, or other agency and instrumentality of the board of education, and in such event the commission may enter into a participation agreement with the board of education implementing the commission's participation in the financing plan represented by the bonds. In the event of the issuance of bonds on the local level, the board of education may pledge and assign the commission's participation to the issuer to secure the bonds, and may contract with the issuer to permit the collection by the commission or the issuer of rentals due from the board of education under the lease in the event of a failure by the board of education to make the payments in a timely manner.

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

The Kentucky School Facilities Construction Commission Act, KRS 157.611 to 157.640, does not give the Commission unilateral power to choose whether that Act or KRS 162.120 to 162.300 will be used to finance school building construction. OAG 86-50.

The Kentucky School Facilities Construction Commission can use a composite bond issue to provide funding for multiple school districts in one bond issue, but each district should be identified separately in the issue. OAG 86-50.

157.627. Requirements for issuance — Accounting procedure.

In connection with each bond issue of the commission as defined in KRS 157.615(3), it shall be the duty of the commission:

(1) To require the district board of education to insure the project to its full insurable value, or to the amount of the bonds outstanding from time to time, whichever is the less, against the hazards covered by the standard fire insurance policy with standard endorsement of "extended coverage," and to require that a copy of each policy be delivered to the commission for inspection and for its records;

(2) To require periodic accounting from all depositories of funds, the same to be submitted on forms prepared and supplied by the commission;

(3) To furnish to the certified public accountant auditing the district, summary identification and description of each issue, and to request that the financial records of the board of education relating thereto be audited as a part of the annual audit of the board of education, and that a separate statement or report thereof be filed with the commission;

(4) To send to each board of education at least thirty (30) days before the due date of any rental payment a notice of the amount of rental to become due and the date thereof, and to require acknowledgment thereof; and

(5) To receive from the board of education, satisfactory evidence that sufficient funds have been transmitted to the commission or its agent, or will be so transmitted, in the event of the board's failure to pay debt service and administrative costs when due, as provided in the lease, to notify and request that the department withhold from the board of education a sufficient portion of any undisbursed funds then held or set aside or allocated to it, and to request that the department transfer the required amount thereof to the commission for the account of the board of education.

157.628. Reimbursement for bonds previously issued.

(1) A school district which has issued revenue bonds according to the provisions of KRS Chapter 162 shall be eligible to participate in a reimbursement schedule if all of the following conditions are met:

(a) The district met all criteria for first round financing except that the district had no unmet needs on its facility survey in effect at that time;

(b) An amended facility survey, approved prior to June 30, 1986, is on file with the Department of Education; and

(c) Revenue bonds were issued after January 1, 1986, and prior to January 1, 1987.

(2) Annual reimbursement shall be provided for bond debt service equal to the amount to which the district would have been entitled if the facility survey had been updated prior to first round funding.

157.630. Sale of bonds — Publication area.

Bonds of the commission shall be sold in such form and in such manner as the commission deems appropriate in accordance with prevailing market conditions. If the bonds are sold on the basis of sealed bids or proposals, the "publication area," as that term is used in KRS Chapter 424, shall not be deemed to be the area within which the office of the commission is situated, but shall be deemed to be the "publication area" of the board of education executing the lease. If the bonds are sold on the basis of sealed bids or proposals, the sale shall be publicly advertised by means of a notice conforming to the provisions of KRS 424.140, and the same shall be published at least one (1) time, at least seven (7) days in advance of the date set forth for opening bids, in a daily newspaper having bona fide general circulation throughout the Commonwealth. If such publication is made, it shall be sufficient for publication in the "publication area" to be made only one (1) time, at least seven (7) days in advance of the date set forth for the opening of bids. If a copy of the sale notice be delivered or transmitted in good faith to the qualified newspaper of the "publication area" in time for publication in an issue thereof published seven (7) days or more in advance of the date set forth for the opening of bids, and with direction for publication therein, any failure of such newspaper to make publication as directed shall not invalidate the sale of the bonds by the commission on the designated date, nor require postponement or cancellation thereof.

157.632. Department to require audit.

It shall be the duty of the department, upon written request of the commission:

(1) To cause the certified public accountant auditing the district to audit the financial records relating to any identified and described bond issue of the commission, as an incident to the certified public accountant's next ensuing annual audit of such board of education, and each subsequent annual audit; and to provide a statement or report to the commission.

(2) Upon receiving a notification and request from the commission to ascertain whether the lease of the board of education has been renewed and is in force in accordance with its terms, and if the same is ascertained to be in force; to withhold from the board of education a sufficient portion of any undisbursed funds then held or set aside or allocated by the department for the board of education, and to comply with the terms of the notification and request of the commission for the account of said board of education.

157.650. Construction of certain sections relating to educational technology — Power of School Facilities Construction Commission.

(1) By establishing the education technology funding program in the School Facilities Construction Commission, the General Assembly expresses its commitment to promote a partnership with the state and the local public school districts to meet the educational technology needs of Kentucky's students in a manner which will insure an equitable distribution of funds. Nothing in KRS 157.611, 157.615, 157.650 to 157.665, or 160.160 shall be construed as limiting a local school district's legal options to acquire education technology equipment and related software with state dollars if the equipment and software is approved under the master technology plan.

(2) The School Facilities Construction Commission is empowered to assist requesting local boards of education to issue bonds or to enter into lease agreements, or both, to finance the purchase or lease of technological equipment and related software or major renovation of existing school facilities to allow the use of educational technology.

157.655. Education technology program.

(1) To participate in the education technology funding program, a local public school district shall have an unmet technology need described in its local district technology plan and approved by the Kentucky Board of Education pursuant to its technology master plan, and shall match equally the amount of funds offered by the School Facilities Construction Commission for this purpose each biennium, except as provided in subsection (2) of this section. Technology approved for the Kentucky Education Technology System and included in the local district technology plan, which was acquired prior to April 3, 1992, and for which the district has an outstanding financial obligation, shall qualify for commission funding. This provision shall not apply to any purchases or contracts made between April 3, 1992, and the first offers of assistance recommended by the Council for Education Technology to the State Board for Elementary and Secondary Education.

(2) For fiscal year 1992-93, funding shall be allotted to districts without an approved plan upon the recommendation of the Council for Education Technology to the State Board for Elementary and Secondary Education.

(3) If a local board of education determines that for any reason the district's approved technology plan is grossly inconsistent with the administrative regulations governing the development of the plan, the local board may certify, by official action, the reason for the inconsistency and may request that the Department of Education reevaluate the technology plan of the district. After review of the data, the chief state school officer may require a reevaluation and the approval of a new technology plan certified prior to an official offer from the School Facilities Construction Commission. If the chief state school officer elects to recommend the new technology plan to the Kentucky Board of Education, the board shall notify the School Facilities Construction Commission of any change required in the offer of assistance for the district.

157.660. Procedures for providing assistance for education technology.

The School Facilities Construction Commission shall be governed by the following procedures in making an offer of assistance to local public school districts for providing education technology:

(1) The base level of assistance to each eligible district shall be determined by dividing the total amount available for education technology by the total of the prior year's statewide average daily attendance of the eligible districts times the district's prior year's average daily attendance.

(2) The funds shall be applied to the projects listed in the district's technology plan, and the funds shall be applied to projects in the priority order listed on the plan except as provided in KRS 157.655(2). The first priority for the expenditure of each new offer of assistance shall be to meet the previous obligations of bonds, leases, or other financial agreements made for education technology by the district.

(3) The commission shall establish administrative regulations by which a district that receives an offer of assistance but does not have the local match shall be able to accumulate a credit for the state offer of assistance for a period not to exceed three (3) years.

(4) All unused state funds allocated according to the provisions of subsection (1) of this section shall be reallocated by the commission. The reallocation shall follow the process and intent as set forth in this section with eligible districts being those districts which have the available local matching funds and have not completely implemented the Kentucky Education Technology System.

157.665. Kentucky education technology trust fund.

(1) To carry out the purpose of providing educational technology for the public system of education pursuant to KRS Chapter 156, the Kentucky education technology trust fund is hereby established in the Finance and Administration Cabinet. Funds appropriated by the General Assembly in each biennial budget for the purchase or lease of education technology for the public system of education shall be credited to the fund and invested until needed. All interest earned on money in the fund shall be retained in the fund for reinvestment.

(2) All funds appropriated for these purposes by the 1990 and 1992 Regular Sessions of the General Assembly and thereafter, and any interest generated by these funds, shall be transferred to the account on April 3, 1992. All money credited to the fund, including interest, shall be used only for education technology purposes as defined by the Kentucky Board of Education's technology master plan and shall not lapse, but shall be carried forward in the next biennial budget. The purposes expressed in this section shall be deemed to be the purposes for which any budgetary appropriation for educational technology shall have been made.

(3) Funds shall be transferred to the local school districts upon certification of the School Facilities Construction Commission that the district has met the criteria for assistance. All other expenditures shall require the approval of the Kentucky Board of Education.

ENVIRONMENTAL EDUCATION157.900. Statement of legislative purpose.

The General Assembly hereby declares that maintaining a clean and healthy environment is a state priority and is the individual and collective responsibility of all citizens of Kentucky. It is therefore in the public interest that a comprehensive environmental education initiative be undertaken to promote an informed and knowledgeable citizenry with the skills and attributes necessary to effectively and constructively solve existing environmental problems, prevent new ones, and maintain a balanced and economically healthy environment for future generations.

History.

Enact. Acts 1990, ch. 408, § 1, effective July 13, 1990.

157.905. Definitions.

As used in KRS 157.900 to 157.915:

(1) "Environmental education" means an education process dealing with the interrelationships among the natural world and its man-made surroundings; is experience-based; interdisciplinary in its approach; and is a continuous life-long process that provides the citizenry with the basic knowledge and skills necessary to individually and collectively encourage positive actions for achieving and maintaining a sustainable balance between man and the environment.

(2) "Environmental literacy" means having adequate knowledge and understanding of environmental information, concepts and processes.

History.

Enact. Acts 1990, ch. 408, § 2, effective July 13, 1990.

157.910. Kentucky Environmental Education Council.

(1) There is hereby established the Kentucky Environmental Education Council, referred to hereafter as the council, to provide leadership and planning for environmental education for the population of Kentucky through the cooperative efforts of educators, government agencies, businesses, and public interests. The council shall be an independent agency and be attached to the Education and Labor Cabinet for administrative purposes.

(2) The nine (9) member council shall be appointed to four (4) year terms by the Governor and be composed of a balance of education, government, industry, and environmental interests. Members appointed by the Governor shall have the authority to carry out the provisions of KRS 157.900 to 157.915.

(3) The council shall hire an executive director, environmental education specialists, and clerical staff to carry out the functions and duties of the council.

(4) The council members shall receive no compensation, but shall be reimbursed for actual expenses incurred in accordance with state procedures and policies.

(5) The council membership shall elect a chairperson to serve a one (1) year term.

History.

Enact. Acts 1990, ch. 408, § 3, effective July 13, 1990; 1994, ch. 209, § 13, effective July 15, 1994; 1998, ch. 67, § 2, effective July 15, 1998; 2006, ch. 211, § 85, effective July 12, 2006; 2009, ch. 11, § 46, effective June 25, 2009; 2022 ch. 236, § 66, effective July 1, 2022.

157.915. Functions of council.

The functions of the council shall be to:

(1) Create and update annually a five (5) year management and operational plan to make as effective as possible the coordination, delivery, and marketing of all state environmental education programs;

(2) Establish an interagency subcommittee to advise the council on environmental education matters;

(3) Establish and help coordinate the activities of regional environmental education centers and advisory committees at all state universities and at the central office of the Kentucky Community and Technical College System to serve as networks for the dissemination of environmental education programs, materials, and information across the state;

(4) Establish a competitive system for awarding grants for the establishment and maintenance of regional environmental education centers;

(5) Seek and receive private support to fund state and regional environmental education initiatives;

(6) Assist in the integration and evaluation of environmental education in existing school curricula;

(7) Monitor and report periodically on environmental literacy in Kentucky and continually assess trends and needs in environmental education on a local, state, national, and global basis; and

(8) Make recommendations and seek changes through regulations, legislation, and other means to promote environmental literacy in Kentucky.

GEOGRAPHY EDUCATION

157.920. Geography education — Legislative findings and goal.

(1) The General Assembly hereby finds that:

(a) The decline in geographic literacy has been widely recognized;

(b) Geographic knowledge is essential to social, political, and environmental leadership potential and civic involvement; and

(c) Support should be given to local efforts to restore geography education to the school curriculum, train teachers, prepare teaching materials, and raise public awareness of the importance of geography education.

(2) The General Assembly establishes, on behalf of the citizens of the Commonwealth, a goal that the next generation of students in Kentucky will graduate with the geographic skills and knowledge that will guarantee their readiness to meet the economic, environmental, and civic challenges of the future.
