

Preparation for Spring 2024 State Assessments February DAC Q&A Session Checklist

Understanding administration guidelines and instructions presented by the Office of Assessment and Accountability (OAA) is one of the best ways to prepare for Spring 2024 assessments.

February DAC training videos, PowerPoints and handouts have been created to assist with the administration of state tests. District Assessment Coordinators (DACs) should watch each training video and review all handouts. Building Assessment Coordinators (BACs) should watch each training video and review the handouts relevant to their responsibilities.

February DAC Training Question and Answer (Q&A) Sessions will be held on the following dates and locations,

- Feb. 5 – Frankfort – Sower Building
- Feb. 15 – Ashland – Kentucky Education Development Corporation
- Feb. 21 – Eddyville – West Kentucky Educational Cooperative

The Q&A sessions will not include full presentations of content already covered in the video recordings. Therefore, before attending the Q&A Sessions virtually or in-person, DACs and BACs should prepare for the Q&A sessions by completing the following steps in the checklist.

Watch all (or pertinent) training videos on the administration of Spring 2024 assessments.

- Alternate Kentucky Summative Assessment (AKSA)
- Accommodations
- SDRR
- Kentucky Summative Assessment (KSA)
- High School
- Test Security
- PearsonAccess^{next}
- TestNav

Facilitate a Professional Learning Community for new and experienced BACs.

- Identify areas of uncertainty after watching the videos.
- Collect questions from test administrators to bring to the Q&A Sessions.

Schedule time to attend the in-person or virtual Q&A Sessions.

NOTE: EILA credit will be offered for the February DAC recorded trainings. Details on EILA credit will be shared in a Monday DAC Email. No EILA credit will be provided for Q&A sessions.
