Agriculture, Food Production, & Natural Resources
K-2	Chicken Man		Michelle Edwards	At Kibbutz Hanan, Israel's Jezreel Valley, Rody is known as "ChickenMan" because he takes such good care of the chickens that they lay extra eggs! This informative, good-humored glimpse of communal life is vigorously illustrated with bold, freely drawn lines and vibrant color.	2009
K-2	Curious George Plants a Seed		H.A. Rey	It's time to teach George about what things grow and what don't. George finally gets it right when he grows a beautiful sunflower from a seed.	2007
K-2	The Ugly Vegetables		Grace Lin	Making a garden is hard work: digging, watering, planting, and waiting. Discover what grows in the garden and how the young girl's mother turns ugly vegetables into something special and delicious. You might even decide to grow some ugly vegetables of your own!	2009
K-2	Where Do Chicks Come From?		Amy E. Sklansky	Describes what happens day-by-day for the three weeks from the time a hen lays an egg until the baby chick hatches.	2005
K-2	The Lorax		Dr. Seuss	Long before saving the Earth became a global concern, Dr. Seuss, speaking through the Lorax, warned against mindless progress and the danger it posed to the planet's natural beauty. Now Seuss's classic cautionary tale is available in an irresistible mini-edition--just perfect for backpack or briefcase.	1993
K-3	Extra Cheese, Please! Mozzarella's Journey from Cow to Pizza		Cris Peterson	Every Friday on their farm, Cris Peterson and her family make pizza with cheese that comes from the cows in their own barn. In this clear and concisely written book, the author outlines the steps of cheese making for younger readers.	2004
K-3	Farm Animals		Wade Cooper	Simple words and sentences combine with amazing photographs of real-life animals to make this an inspiring early reader that children will love to read together, read with help – and read alone!	2009

K-3	Garbage Collectors		Paulette Bourgeois	Sam, who picks up the trash, and Mabel, who drives the truck, are smiling and friendly to the children and adults of the neighborhood. The text focuses on several main concepts and outlines the problem that garbage creates.	1991
K-5	Me...Jane		Patrick McDonnell	This book tells the story of the young Jane Goodall and her special childhood toy chimpanzee named Jubilee. As the young Jane observes the natural world around her with wonder, she dreams of "a life living with and helping all animals," until one day she finds that her dream has come true.	2011
K-4	The Fantastic Undersea Life of Jacques Cousteau		Dan Yaccarino	Yaccarino deftly provides information about important events in Cousteau's life while conveying the excitement and wonder that the ocean explorer experienced. Readers learn about his tinkering that resulted in inventions such as the Aqua-Lung and submersibles that expanded the range of undersea exploration and research.	2009
K-5	The Trouble With Henry: A Tale of Walden Pond		Deborah O'Neal	When Henry David Thoreau leaves Concord, MA, to live in his cabin at Walden Pond, the townsfolk think that he is crazy. They do not share his concerns about the loss of natural resources. When the mayor announces that a toothpick factory will be built, Thoreau encourages the townsfolk to join him for a walk in the woods.	2005
